

Chapter: 3231

Yang Ning didn't ask him why he wanted to know herself. She lowered her eyes, her emotions were changing, and she didn't know what the man in front of her was doing.

But what if she knew it, An Tianxiang had clearly marked the road sign on her way, and she had no choice at all.

After a while, Yang Ning walked down from An Tianxiang's Mercedes-Benz alone. She looked a little uneasy. When she returned to the rental house, she held the ticket tightly in her hand.

Opening the door of the rental house, Xiaodong immediately jumped up to Yang Ning and hugged her tightly.

The unsuspecting Yang Ning was suddenly hugged by the bear, and the strong suffocation from the squeezing of her chest almost made her unable to breathe.

This time, Yang Ning immediately woke up from the trance and began to struggle with both hands.

“Xiaodong, are you going to suffocate me!”

Hearing this, Xiaodong let go of Yang Ning, she beat her shoulders frantically, the tears in her eyes couldn't stop flowing: “I'm going to suffocate you, if you don't answer the phone all night, you won't be able to find it if you go to Fu Anna. You, do you know that I am worried about you!”

Seeing Xiaodong's complacent appearance, Yang Ning was suddenly stunned. She recalled what happened yesterday, her face was a little bad, but fortunately, she quickly hid it.

“Don't cry, I'm fine, I didn't answer your call because I lost it. Yesterday we were in high spirits and went to sing elsewhere.” Yang Ning wiped the tears from Xiaodong's face and looked at her red eyes, his eyes could not help but become gentle.

In this life, there is another person who cares for her so much, which warms her heart that is gradually cold due to revenge.

She vowed to become popular, to be worthy of herself, and to be worthy of her fans and those who love her.

“Yang Ning... Remember to notify me next time.” Xiaodong was pulled by Yang Ning and sat on the sofa, looking distressed.

Yang Ning comforted her a few more words, and then glanced at the coffee table casually, only to see that it was covered with scripts.

Originally, Xiaodong did not go with him yesterday, but went to discuss the next script with the producers and directors.

Although she became popular by virtue of her role in “Peerless Beauty”, her popularity will gradually decline with the end of the plot. Yang Ning needs to constantly show her works to brush her face and acting skills, so that she can get more people recognize.

“Do you think these scripts are okay?”

Yang Ning picked up some scripts and looked at the names, but none of them were names that she had an impression of. It seems that none of these scripts have the potential to become popular in the future.

“It's not what I think. I'm just going to talk to you about the remuneration, and I've brought the script back with me. It depends on whether you want a high-priced script or a low-priced script.”

Hearing this, Yang Ning raised her brows. With her current acting skills and popularity, no matter how high she can be, how high can she be? These investors and directors are all monkey spirits, and they all know her current reputation. All are false.

“When you say this, I want to hear it. What is their highest asking price for one episode?”

Seeing Yang Ning's curious expression, Xiaodong suddenly became serious, she opened her notebook and handed it to Yang Ning: “Take a closer look, the highest one is not a TV series, but a variety show. It's called “Run, Star!”, they are still very interested in you, and the price is also 1 million per issue.”

One million is already a huge sum in the eyes of ordinary people, but in Yang Ning's eyes, these are too little for an actor.

Fortunately, she does not have a brokerage company now, so there is no such thing as a commission.

“Okay, then let's take this variety show.”

When the words fell, Xiaodong was stunned for a moment. She put a script in front of her, a little puzzled: “Why don't you take a TV series? No one watches a variety show.”
