He thought about it calmly. The only scene where he could find this person was when Tianhua was negotiating a contract with Yang Yue. He took a look and found that Cheng Hao had been standing outside.

Why did Yang Ning come to ask him such a third-rate star?

“People know, but I don’t know him well. I only know that he is a third-tier star. I have no interest in people at the bottom of the entertainment industry.”

An Tianxiang lifted his crimson lips, his plain white face was emotionless, Yang Ning stared into his eyes and slowly loosened his clenched fists.

His words were like a booster, which instantly made her feel a lot more relaxed.

Although she doesn’t think the current answer can represent the future, at least she can feel more at ease now.

An Tianxiang saw the changes in Yang Ning’s expression. His eyes were dark and unclear, and some emotions were surging.

“Why do you suddenly ask such a question?”

Putting his doubts in his heart, An Tianxiang was not such a person. He looked at Yang Ning, who was very worried, and asked bluntly. His calm face was illuminated by a pale yellow light.

She was already ready to be questioned, and Yang Ning’s expression didn’t seem to be anything special. She picked up the bowl on the table and went to add a bowl of rice to An Tianxiang and herself.

In the silent atmosphere, Yang Ning’s back was slightly thin, An Tianxiang stared at her figure, his dark eyes waiting for an answer.

“You may not believe it. Cheng Hao came to me before. I don’t know what happened to him. Seeing how tattered he was, he asked me to lend him money.”

Yang Ning sat back on the dining chair with two bowls of rice, her expression worried, as if she was thinking about how to continue to say the following words.

“I didn’t want to borrow it at first, but he said that he was very familiar with you, and he said that he had a close relationship with Yang Yue. I couldn’t tell the difference for a while. In the end, I had to give him a thousand and send him to Yang Yue.”

The encounter with Cheng Hao was repeated again and again, but there was no panic in Yang Ning’s eyes. She held the vegetables calmly, without the slightest fluctuation in her eyes.

An Tianxiang on the side frowned, always feeling that there was something wrong with what he said, but he couldn’t pick out the fault for a while.

He picked up his chopsticks and ordered dishes, put away his doubts, and said casually: “Really, don’t pay attention to this kind of person in the future, there are no beggars among the people I know, as for Yang Yue, do you think she is Sister, who is close to her, you don’t have to take care of anything.”

An Tianxiang sees the relationship between Yang Ning and Yang Yue very thoroughly. The disagreement between the two is a kind of resentment that has accumulated over the years, and there is absolutely no possibility of it going away.

Hearing his comment, Yang Ning couldn’t help raising the corners of her lips, she said with a smile: “You have seen me very thoroughly, don’t worry, that Cheng Hao won’t find me in the future, I will send him to Yang Yue I’m here, what are you doing with me?”

Under the light, Yang Ning’s eyes flashed a chill, An Tianxiang thought he was blind, but when he looked more closely, he saw only those calm and smiling eyes.

Is everything really like what Yang Ning said? An Tianxiang couldn’t help feeling that Yang Ning was hiding a huge secret in his heart. .

After dozens of minutes, the two gathered their thoughts and finished their meal quietly.

Yang Ning and An Tianxiang sat on the sofa and chatted for a while. It didn’t take long before An Tianxiang couldn’t bear the exhaustion after the continuous flight, and went to bed after taking a shower.

Although Yang Ning was very reluctant to sleep with him and went to bed so early, he couldn’t resist An Tianxiang’s repeated tactics.

The next day, Yang Ning woke up exhausted, and when he was washing his hair, Xiaodong’s phone called. She answered vaguely and hurriedly hung up the phone.

“What’s the matter, in such a hurry?”

At some point, An Tianxiang suddenly appeared from behind Yang Ning, and a pair of long arms naturally wrapped around her waist.
