

Chapter: 3350

“That old fox of him is quite thoughtful.”

Xiaodong was rude to his evaluation, Yang Ning turned his head and covered his mouth and smiled, but didn't answer, he took her and planned to go home.

However, before the two of them got to the stairs downstairs, they saw a man and a woman pulling and pulling at the corridor, as if they were arguing.

Yang Ning didn't intend to meddle in her own business. She glanced at her casually and decided to leave quickly. After all, this is someone else's housework.

Just as she was about to leave, Yu Guang glanced slightly and accidentally saw the woman's face, Yang Ning looked carefully, only to realize that the shrew-like woman in front of her was Chen Meimei.

What is she doing here with this man?

Yang Ning was a little puzzled and didn't quite understand what was happening in front of her. She pulled Xiaodong and hid in a secret place to eavesdrop on the conversation.

“Why are you lying to me! You clearly said that as long as I accompany you to sleep for one night, you can help me get the role in “The Legend of the Concubine”!”

Chen Meimei pulled a man tightly, crying hoarsely, the dim light of the corridor hit her face, and the blue-gray light and shadow made her look like a ghost in hell.

The man tried his best to get out of his hand, but the other party didn't want to let go, instead he pulled tighter and tighter, and his face became more and more distorted.

“Don't look at how bad your own reputation is now. Is it useful for me to tell the director, I'm not the director!” There were already several red bloodstains from Chen Meimei's long fingernails on the back of the man's hand. Yang Ning watched them go upstairs more and more, as if planning to go upstairs to talk.

However, just when Yang Ning was pulling Xiaodong to continue watching, the man frantically got rid of Chen Meimei's shackles on the way upstairs.

And Chen Meimei had lost her strength because of crying and pulling for a long time, and she was pushed down the stairs by the man if she didn't pay attention.

Yang Ning was shocked. Even if she hated Chen Meimei, she didn't plan to let her die. Her hatred was not the same as Yang Yue's.

Seeing that Chen Meimei was about to fall, Yang Ning hurriedly pulled Xiao Dongshang to help and stopped her body from falling while she was falling.

Chen Meimei, who was spinning around, felt that she had finally stopped. Her skirt and face were covered in dirt, her body was blue and purple, and she was extremely embarrassed.

“you.....”

She raised her eyes and glanced at the person who came, and found that it was Yang Ning, and her weak face suddenly became extremely ferocious again.

Chen Meimei was leaning against the wall, staring at Yang Ning fiercely, she stretched out her hand and wanted to push her down, but fortunately, she was well prepared, so she wouldn't get caught.

Looking at the woman with weak limbs and wanting to do bad things in front of her, Yang Ning was also a little speechless, she stood opposite her and taunted softly: “I said you, why do you seem to be ignorant, I thought you had experienced so much I will always be more honest, but I didn't expect it to grow at all.”

Hearing this, Chen Meimei gritted her teeth fiercely, her hair was disheveled, and the delicate makeup on her face had long been covered by dust.

“Yang Ning, what qualifications do you have to teach me! If something like that happened to me, do you think you are better than me now?”

Chen Meimei seems to be very confident in herself, and feels that she is still the princess standing in the sky, but she doesn't know that now she is a running dog that everyone shouts and beats.

She raised her eyebrows mockingly and said in a high voice, “I don't know whether to praise or ridicule you for your confidence, but if this is the motivation for you to live, I'd be more than happy for you to be like this. I think, after all, living in pain is much more refreshing to me than you throw your hands to die.”

“You!” Chen Meimei's face flushed with anger, she clenched her fists, and the pain all over her body hit her brain.

She really hates fate, letting Yang Ning, a wild woman in the countryside, get shy in front of her, but she is reduced to a situation where even a supporting role can't get it!
