

Chapter: 4012

I saw that in the thick dark night, I don't know when, but an oil lamp rose.

In the dark night, the lights flickered.

Vaguely visible, a figure, sitting in it.

“Who?!”

The expressions of King Foluo and the three changed greatly, their whole body was full of power, and the whole person instantly entered a state of combat readiness.

However, Ye Fan just frowned.

Then his brows eased and he walked straight forward.

Finally, before the table, sit down.

Ye Fan didn't speak, just picked up a glass of wine from the front of the table and drank it.

After drinking it, he slapped him and slapped it directly on the other's cow's face.

“Nima!”

“Ye Fan, you dogecoin, I send you off, but you hit me?”

“Old cow, I'll fight for you!”

Ye Fan's slap directly stunned the scalper.

It never thought that this Ye Fan would be such a dog.

Well done, suddenly a slap slapped its face.

He had never been beaten like this before.

“It's easy if I hit you!”

“See you off, I think you want me to die, right?”

Ye Fan was also extremely shocked just now.

He thought it was the Trumen people who knew he was coming and set up an ambush to wait here.

After a long time, it turned out that this dead cow was making a mystery here.

Ye Fan was so nervous just now!

But the scalper didn't care about that. It was a bully. Ye Fan hit him, and it didn't stop until he came back.

In the end, after a few rounds of fighting between one person and one bull, Ye Fan let it kick him, and the scalper gave up.

“What are you doing here?”

“I don't believe you came to avenge me with good intentions?” Ye Fan asked it.

The scalper hummed: “It's good to know. Still helping you? As far as our relationship is concerned, if it wasn't for Wan'er's face, I would have kicked you to death long ago.”

At the beginning, the ox was dragged into the Thunder Well by Ye Fan, and he was almost killed.

Later, Ye Fan was happy by himself, and he didn't care whether it lived or died.

This hatred of scalpers will be remembered for a lifetime.

“What else are we talking about? Get the hell out of here.” Ye Fan was not angry.

“Oh, what the fuck. I kindly came to remind you, but you still scold me?” The scalper was very angry.

“You, I really don't want to deal with you.”

“I advise you, don't go to die, go back to your country and see.”

“If you don't go back, your old nest will have to be served.” Huang Niu said.

Ye Fan was startled: “You mean, something happened to Yan Xia?”

“No, the old hot coaxed over there.” The scalper smiled gloatingly.

Ye Fan frowned immediately.

It seems that it should be Trumen, who started against Yan Xia.

“Brother Niu, please help me go to Jiangdong to guard this matter. After I solve this matter, I will return immediately.” Ye Fan said solemnly.

On the Jiangdong side, although Ye Fan left Tiancong Yunjian Array, it was difficult for him to break through even if he was a titled powerhouse.

However, Ye Fan was also afraid of something unexpected.

To be on the safe side, it would be better for the scalper to go back and help him shelter Jiangdong.

At that time, the scalper rolled his eyes and said, “Fuck, you really can't handle it.”

“When you use me, call it Brother Niu.”

“When you don't need me, call me a dead cow.”

“You're so kind of you!”

“Okay, Brother Niu, don't say anything else. After this matter is over, I'll find you a girl.” Ye Fan began to offer favors to the scalper.

At that time, the bull's eyes lit up: “Is this true? I want big breasts, fair skin, beautiful...”

“Arrangement!” Ye Fan waved boldly and immediately agreed.

“Okay, if you tease me, I will never let you go!” The scalper didn't believe Ye Fan.

“Don't worry, let's go.” Ye Fan patted the scalper's butt, making it hurry up on the road.

“Okay, then hurry up, I can help you shelter a little at most, whether you can hold it depends on the situation. Also, the Chumen Mountain is very strange, you don't want to die here. Who will give you when you die? I'm looking for a girl?” Huang Niu reminded.
