But when these words fell in the ears of Bai Yi and the others, they immediately caused shocking waves in their hearts.

“Lin... Lin Zuo?”

Bai Yi’s body was trembling.

That was one of the most noble giants of the Huaxia Military Department, especially this Lin Zuo, which was rumored to be mysterious and unpredictable and never appeared in front of the world, which made him add a bit of mystery and legend out of thin air.

It’s not just Bai Yi.

Chang Yuan, who was next to him, flushed with excitement:

“Oh my God, I didn’t expect that a big man like Lin Zuo would come to Jiangnan!”

“I heard that Long Shuai and Hu Shuai were two Gods of War, back then. It was cultivated by Lin Zuo! Now that the two war gods have all come to worship, it seems that the rumors are likely to be true! ”

“As long as Lin Zuo leaves, the airport will be unblocked and everyone can go out at that time!”

At this moment, an air hostess began to shout to everyone.

And heard this.

The many passengers on the plane naturally did not have the slightest opinion, one after another stepped off the plane impatiently and ran towards the front airport lobby.

They can’t wait to see what the mysterious forest seat looks like.

When they had just arrived in the hall, they immediately saw that a cordon had been pulled up in the hall.

A mighty soldier with a real gun and live ammunition, standing upright.

A pair of eyes swept every inch of the surrounding corners.

It seems that as long as there is any threat to Lin Zuo’s existence, it will be killed on the spot.

It’s more than that!

Everyone saw that at the moment at the entrance of the hall, Rolls Royce and green military vehicles had been parked.
