

Chapter 2751

'Reddy is really hot-tempered. Even though she is so beautiful, she has a bad temperament, just like a rose with thorns. I just gave her some reminders, and she wants to kill me already? Such arrogance!'

Darryl shook his head as he thought about that.

Zoey ignored Darryl when she realized that he was not speaking anymore. She turned around and walked near the room, and started to prepare the medicine.

Zoey was the Jade Sect's Sect Master. She possessed exceptional medical abilities. Her use of medicine and boiling abilities were extremely well-organized. The aroma of the medication quickly filled the room.

Zoey's treatment method was a little tricky. She would have to first boil the medicine before applying it to Sheryn's eyes. After the medicine had been absorbed into the eyes' nerves, she would massage Sheryn's eyes to activate the nervous system and restore her vision.

Sheryn's blank stare began to brighten and shine a few minutes after the medicine was applied to her eyes.

"I—" Sheryn was really emotional. "I think I see lights—"

At the same time, even though Sheryn could not see, for the time being, she was delighted to be able to see a little light.

Smiles appeared on the faces of the female disciples. All of them looked at Zoey with deep admiration.

"Excellent!"

"Master is so great; Sheryn will get to see soon!"

All of the female disciples looked incredibly proud as they debated. Who would not be delighted to have a master with such exceptional medical abilities?

"She is a gift from God!" Uncle Wick was overcome with emotion. "Female Warrior, thank you! Thank you for healing my granddaughter!" He could not stop thanking Zoey.

Zoey smiled gently. "You're welcome, Uncle Wick. Sheryn is my disciple. We are a family now!"

Reddy walked forward and looked at Sheryn with a smile. She said, "Sheryn, how do you feel? Don't rush it; shut your eyes and rest for a while!"

Sheryn nodded. She shut her eyes and rested for a while before she was about to open them again.

However, at that moment, Sheryn's body started to tremble. She held her eyes, and her face contorted in pain.

"My eyes are so painful!"

The area around Sheryn's eyes was red; it looked intimidating.

"Sheryn! Sheryn!" Uncle Wick panicked. He hugged Sheryn tightly, but Sheryn did not stop shaking as if she could not hear him. Then, Sheryn fainted.

That...

Zoey, Reddy, and the rest were all stunned!

"What...what is going on?"

"Wasn't she fine earlier? She could already feel the brightness of the lights. Why is that—"

Reddy and the disciples discussed softly. They looked at Zoey subconsciously.

Zoey bit her lips; her face was emotionless. However, she was also in a panic. 'That's impossible. I did all the steps according to the medical books. I did not make any mistakes.

Theoretically, Sheryn should be able to see by now. Why did she get worse?'

"Female Warrior!"

Uncle Wick was really worried. He asked Zoey, "What is going on? Is Sheryn in danger?"

'Don't worry, Uncle Wick, let me think!' Zoey consoled him gently, then started to mumble to herself, "Did I mess up on the portion of the ingredients for the herbs?"

Zoey ordered Reddy, "Bring another bag of herbal medicine here to apply to Sheryn's eyes one more time."

"Yes, Master!" Reddy nodded immediately!

However, Darryl walked forward and said, "Stop putting more medicine on her! Sheryn's condition is her eyes reacting to the medicine—"

Darryl was frustrated when he said that.

'Zoey is supposed to be a sect master. How can she act so recklessly and impulsively? One must know that text in medical books is only dead facts. Humans are living things. Can't she make some adjustments? '

Wow!

Zoey's face blushed red. She felt really embarrassed.

Chapter 2752

Reddy shouted, "Why are you still here? Get lost."

She was already frustrated, and when one person continued to speak nonsense, she was furious.

Darryl looked hopeless, and he said slowly, "Sheryn's eyes were born defective; she requires internal energy to activate the nerves in her eyes. The use of medicine is completely useless."

After he spoke, Reddy and the other female disciples started to scold him.

"Is this person crazy or what? Do you think my master would need you to teach her?"

"That's right! You're nobody in the community but pretending to be a doctor."

"I would kill him if Master did not stop me!"

Reddy was beyond angry; she shouted at Darryl coldly, "If you create chaos again, then don't blame me for my actions!"

Zoey did not speak; she looked quietly at Sheryn's eyes and went into deep thoughts.

Sigh!

At that moment, Darryl did not want to waste time talking, so he shrugged and said, "Forget it, just let it go since you don't believe me."

Darryl put his fist together and bowed to Uncle Wick. Then he turned around and left the garden house!

'Zhang Jue set me up on so many false accusations; I must go find out the situation immediately. Besides, I still do not know where Diana is.'

Once he reached outside, Darryl headed toward the noisy city directly.

More and more adventurous people had gone toward the Wild Deserted Secret Region for the past few years. It caused the black-market trading to be extremely active. Apart from the largest trading center, the Yellow Sky Trading, there were many other trading centers in various cities across the Nine Mainland!

As long as he could locate those trading centers, he would be able to find news that he wanted.

Soon, Darryl found a secluded trading center, and he managed to find some news after he entered.

The news made Darryl furious.

Darryl found out that the imposter who pretended to be him had captured Chang Er and created havoc at the North Moana royal palace. Then, Zhang Jue started a scene rescuing the beauty, and finally, Chang Er made him the North Moana Lord.

It was not only that, but Chang Er also wanted to organize a Supreme Conference, with invitations already sent to the various sects across the Nine Mainland.

Sh*t!

As he stepped out of the trading center, Darryl's face looked extremely dark. His anger boiled and rose rapidly.

'That Zhang Jue not only wants to destroy my reputation, but he also wants to use the Supreme Conference as a way to conquer the Nine Mainland. He is despicable!'

Meanwhile...

Following Darryl's departure and on Zoey's orders, a new batch of medication was successfully boiled!

"Female Warrior, my granddaughter's eyes, can you cure her?" Uncle Wick stood at the side; he was extremely worried.

"It should be fine!" Zoey said softly. Then, she ordered Reddy, "Hurry, apply the medicine on Sheryn!"

"Yes..." Sheryn nodded. She took the medicine and applied it carefully to Sheryn's eyes. Then, they observed the situation quietly!

They noticed that Sheryn, who had fainted earlier, began to tremble again after they applied the medicine. Her condition had deteriorated. Not only that, but her eyes had become red and swollen, and her entire body began to sweat profusely!

"Master, why is that happening?"

Reddy panicked.

Sigh!

At that moment, Zoey's body trembled too. 'When the person left, he said Sheryn's condition must not be treated with medicines. Otherwise, her condition will become worse. From the look at it, he is right!

'But that man's background is unknown; who knows if he was just talking nonsense?'

"Master!" At that precise moment, a female disciple approached and asked, "That person earlier; do you think he might have the way to cure Sheryn?"

Reddy's beautiful brows were furrowed as she said, "What are you saying? It is obvious that the man is a fraud. If Master doesn't have a way to help at the moment, what can he do?"

When she heard that, the disciple immediately shut her mouth and stepped aside.

"Reddy!"

Zoey bit her lips. Her gorgeous face displayed a complicated emotion as she said, "You! Go bring that man back!"

Chapter 2753

When she said that, Zoey felt extremely conflicted. She did not wish for that to happen, but she had no choice. She could not delay any further, given Sheryn's condition then.

What?

Reddy's body trembled, and she was stunned. She thought she had misheard her.

"Master, you want me to bring that person back?" Reddy asked.

"Hurry!" Zoey spoke calmly, but her face was blank. Her voice was not loud but was firm.

"Yes, Master!" Reddy was reluctant, but she still replied to her. She quickly walked out of the garden to look for Darryl!

Reddy still did not understand why her master wanted to invite the person back! 'It is obvious that the guy is just a fraud in the community. What skill will he have?'

At that moment, outside the trading center.

Darryl was looking at the busy main streets as he felt frustrated.

'Zhang Jue is framing me, and I have no idea where Diana is. What should I do now?'

"Hey!"

Just as Darryl was about to give up, a cold voice from behind him said, "You, come with me!"

Darryl furrowed his brows and turned around to look at that person.

He saw a slim figure approaching him from not too far away. That person was sweating profusely. It was Reddy!

"Are you talking to me?" Darryl smiled as he spoke.

Reddy walked forward and looked impatiently at Darryl. "Of course I am talking to you. My master asked for you to return with me. Come with me quickly!"

Reddy wiped the beads of sweat on her forehead; she was really frustrated. 'I have searched for him for half a day, and he is now pretending to be dumb!'

Darryl chuckled inwardly.

He felt unhappy when he heard Reddy's arrogant tone, but he smiled and said, "That is funny. You chased me away earlier, and now you want me to go back!"

As he spoke, Darryl looked at Reddy. "Well, I have no business with you people. Why should I go with you?"

"You—"

Reddy bit her lips; she was furious.

'As the Jade Sect's Senior Sister, I had to look for him; he should feel honored. This person is still trying to act arrogantly with me.'

Reddy felt uncomfortable when she saw Darryl; she was blushing.

Then, she stomped her feet. "Are you coming with me or not?"

Reddy wished to teach Darryl a lesson, but she controlled herself when she remembered her master's order.

Darryl smiled again as he toyed with Reddy. "I can go with you if you call me good brother." Darryl did not want to joke with her, but when he remembered Reddy's attitude earlier, he wanted to make fun of her.

What!

Reddy's facial expression changed when she heard that. She was so angry that her body trembled. "You are asking for death!"

'This person is really evil. He is trying to take advantage of me when he knows I am asking for him to come back.'

"It's fine if you don't want to do that." Darryl shook his head as he looked not concerned. "We have no business with each other if you don't call me good brother. I don't have an obligation to go with you. I still have many things to attend to, so see you around!"

Then, Darryl turned around; he was about to leave.

That...

Reddy was stunned. She was worried as she stomped her feet. 'What should I tell Master when I return later if he doesn't come with me?'

As she thought about that, Reddy took a few steps ahead and blocked Darryl's path. "I'm sorry. My attitude was not good earlier, and I apologize to you. Master will scold me if you do not return with me. I beg you—"

"That kind of attitude is not bad, but what do you call me?" Darryl smiled.

Reddy's body trembled; she bit her lips in shame. Finally, she said softly, "Good Brother!"

Reddy was clenching her teeth when she said those words. 'That b*stard! After he meets with Master later, I must find a chance to teach him a lesson!'

Chapter 2754

After she greeted him, Darryl nodded. He felt satisfied as he smiled and said, "Fine, I will go with you since you are so sincere."

Darryl knew that if Reddy were looking for him, that meant Sheryn's condition had worsened. Even though he barely knew them, it was still a life in danger.

"Master, we are back!"

Reddy shouted once they arrived at the garden house; the few female disciples at the entrance quickly made way for them.

Zoey walked forward and looked closely at Darryl. "You have a way to cure Sheryn's eyes completely?"

Yes!

Darryl nodded and walked forward. He took a look at Sheryn's condition. At that moment, Sheryn was still unconscious; her eyes were red and swollen. She looked a little scary.

'Sigh, she did not listen to my advice and had used medicine on her!'

As he grumbled inwardly, Darryl said to Zoey, "You can assist me later, do whatever I ask you to do. Remember, not a single mistake, or Sheryn will not be able to see for the rest of her life!"

What?

When Reddy and the other female disciples heard that, their expressions changed!

'What did that person just say? He wants Master to assist him? Master is the Jade Sect's Sect Master. Her position is supreme at Mistloren. He is only a nobody with nothing, who gave him the right to do that!'

"Hey!"

Finally, Reddy pointed at Darryl and shouted, "Don't cross the line! My master asked if you have a way to cure Sheryn's eyes. Why should she assist you?"

'This person is really despicable. He asked me to call him good brother, and now he wants to order Master around. That is not confidence; that is arrogance!'

Darryl smiled but did not speak; his face looked calm.

Zoey was a little angry. However, she was the Jade Sect's Sect Master, so she calmed down very quickly. She looked at Darryl and said, "I can assist you, but I need to know in advance how you plan to cure Sheryn's eyes."

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath as he pointed at Sheryn's eyes. "It's simple. You will activate your internal energy to extract the medicine absorbed into the eyes and seal her four acupoints—Baihui, Shenting, Yangbai, Quchi. Leave the rest to me!"

What?

Everyone was shocked when they heard that.

Darryl's words were like the biggest fantasy in the world. The Baihui acupoint was one's life acupoint on one's head; it would be life-threatening if sealed.

"Don't you know anything?"

Reddy shouted, "Once the Baihui acupoint is sealed, will Sheryn still be able to live? I think you are just bluffing; you don't know anything at all!"

you don't know why...
Zoey's beautiful brows furrowed tightly as she looked at Darryl and said, "This is the first time I hear about such a treatment method. It seems like it is a mistake to bring you back here!"

Though Zoey looked calm when she said that, her eyes showed great disappointment. Just like Reddy, she also felt that Darryl was speaking nonsense.

The Baihui acupoint was a life acupoint; Sheryn would most probably die if it were sealed.

Darryl laughed. "It is a little risky, but it is also the only way."

As he spoke, Darryl turned around and looked at Uncle Wick. "Uncle Wick, you must believe me. Let me try. What do you think?"

That...

Uncle Wick hesitated and asked nervously, "Will it really work? You may begin if you are confident."

Uncle Wick did not understand what they were saying, but based on Zoey's and the others' reactions, he knew Darryl's method was fraught with danger.

However, he had no choice; as long as there was a glimmer of hope that Sheryn's eyes could be cured, he would never give up.

Zoey was still hesitating.

"Have you decided?" Darryl looked at Zoey and smiled when he asked, "If you still don't believe in me, we can take a bet! If my way is successful, you must agree to one of my requests. If I fail, you can do whatever you want with me. What do you think?"

do you think!

Wow!

Reddy and the rest went into an uproar.

'That person is really arrogant; how dare he invite Master to a bet?!'

Chapter 2755

"What makes you qualify to have a bet with our master?"

"Ignore him, Master. He is a fraud."

Darryl ignored Reddy and the rest. He smiled and looked at Zoey. "What do you think, Sect Master Jenn? Do you dare to bet with me?"

"Fine!" Zoey sighed lightly. She looked at Darryl and nodded as she said, "I will take that bet with you."

Zoey was not worried about Darryl tricking her. If there were to be any problem, Zoey had complete confidence that she would be able to kill him on the spot.

At that moment, Zoey still did not know that the person in front of her eyes was involved in all the conflicts lately, Sect Master of the Elysium Gate Sect, Darryl Darby.

Darryl did not waste any time. He walked forward and carried Sheryn, and laid her flat on the ground.

Then, Darryl instructed Zoey to activate her internal energy. She lifted her hands and sealed some of Sheryn's acupoints.

Once the acupoints were sealed, Darryl took a few silver needles and poked at a few spots around Sheryn's red and swollen eyes. The next second, a few drops of fresh blood mixed with the medicines oozed from the corner of her eyes.

Even though every action of Darryl's looked casual, each step he took was accurate without any error.

Wow!

Reddy and the rest were all stunned when they saw that. Every one of them dared not make a sound.

Zoey looked at Darryl quietly. Her eyes shone with unusual brightness.

'What unique acupuncture skills!'

Then, Darryl placed both hands on Sheryn's eyes and began activating his internal energy to calm her nerves.

Wow!

Sheryn's eyes' redness and swelling began to fade gradually, and she slowly regained consciousness with a pair of bright clear eyes.

"Grandfather, I can see, I can see!"

Sheryn was so happy that she could not help but shout loudly. She fell into Uncle Wick's arms emotionally. "This is how the world looks; it's beautiful!"

Wow!

Everyone was in shock.

Sheryn's eyes had been cured without the use of any medication, which was incredible. No one would believe it if they did not see it with their own eyes!

"Little Brother, you are a God-sent doctor!" Uncle Wick carried Sheryn and could not hide the emotion in his heart as he complimented Darryl.

Darryl smiled briefly and looked calm.

Wow!

At that moment, Zoey regained her thoughts and looked at Darryl as she said, "Who are you? Where did you learn your medical skills?"

"Didn't I say that earlier? I am only a nobody, not even worth a mention."

Darryl smiled and explained slowly, "However, I was lucky. A year ago, I bumped into Senior Divine Farmer by accident. I was lucky to learn some medical skills under his guidance."

Darryl was right; it was the Divine Farmer that passed him those medical skills and techniques.

The Divine Farmer?

When she heard that, Zoey's body trembled; she was amazed.

'The Divine Farmer, he is known by everyone as the Medicine Ancestor. This man learned his medical skills from him; no wonder I have never seen it before.'

"Sect Master Jenn!"

Darryl smiled and looked at Zoey as he said, "I have cured Sheryn's eyes. May I know if our bet earlier still stands?"

Zoey bit her lips as she heard that. She felt embarrassed, but she still nodded and said, "Yes! What condition do you have? Please tell me."

Although she was a woman, Zoey would always honor her words. She would do what she promised.

A smile appeared on Darryl's face when he saw Zoey agreed so decisively. He did not talk about his request but asked instead, "Sect Master Jenn, did the Jade Sect also receive the invitation to the Supreme Conference?"

Chapter 2756

Yes!

Zoey nodded.

Darryl smiled and continued to speak, "That's great. My request is simple, let me join your Jade Sect; I want to go to the Supreme Conference!"

Darryl was furious when he obtained news from the trading center earlier, and he was troubled too.

Zhang Jue had framed him about disrespecting Chang Er; all those matters had spread across the Nine Mainland. Under such circumstances, he could not use his real identity to move about in the community.

Besides, Zhang Jue had used Chang Er's identity to organize the Supreme Conference. He must have an ultimate intention.

Darryl thought if he joined the Supreme Conference under the identity of the Jade Sect, he could hide his whereabouts. He could also investigate Zhang Jue's intentions.

Darryl thought if he joined the Supreme Conference under the identity of the Jade Sect, he could hide his whereabouts. He could also investigate Zhang Jue's intentions.

That...

Zoey's beautiful brows furrowed as she went into deep thoughts. She had never imagined that the person in front of her would raise such a request.

Reddy and the others looked at each other.

The next second, Reddy giggled as she looked at Darryl. "Even though your medical skills are great, but you need to know Jade Sect is the top sect at Mistloren; no one can join us so easily."

Reddy's face was arrogant when she said that. Despite the fact that the person in front of her eyes had cured Sheryn's eyes, he had also forced her to call him good brother..Reddy was still enraged about it.

At the same time, the other female disciples nodded too.

'Although this man's medical skills are great, he is too arrogant. Master will never agree to that.'

"In that case—"

Zoey kept her silence for a few seconds. Then, she said to Darryl, "Yes, I can agree to that. You are a Jade Sect member now! Given your age, you are not suitable to be my disciple. Why don't you call me Senior Sister instead?"

.Zoey had not wanted to give Darryl a high position, but when she considered that he had learned medical skills from the Divine Farmer, that was something extraordinary. Although Zoey was arrogant, if she were to take Darryl as her disciple, would that not make her the same level as the Divine Farmer?

'What?'

'Master agreed? She'd let him address her as Senior Sister?'

Reddy and the other disciples trembled when they heard that.

Reddy could not hide the conflict in her heart; she said, "Master, how can you... The Jade Sect doesn't have that precedence."

'If that guy becomes Master's junior brother, wouldn't he be my senior uncle to me? How is that possible?'

"Shut up!"

When she heard that, Zoey's beautiful face froze. She glanced coldly at Reddy. "I have decided. You don't have to speak anymore. Shouting and yelling—what nonsense is this? Come here and greet your senior uncle!"

Her tone sounded calm but was firm.

Reddy's body trembled. Although she was reluctant, she bowed to Darryl. "

Greetings, Senior Uncle!"

"Greetings, Senior Uncle."

'If that guy becomes Master's junior brother, wouldn't he be my senior uncle to me? How is that possible?'

"Shut up!"

When she heard that, Zoey's beautiful face froze. She glanced coldly at Reddy. "I have decided. You don't have to speak anymore. Shouting and yelling—what nonsense is this? Come here and greet your senior uncle!"

Her tone sounded calm but was firm.

Reddy's body trembled. Although she was reluctant, she bowed to Darryl. "

Greetings, Senior Uncle!"

"Greetings, Senior Uncle."

At the same time, the other female disciples bowed to Darryl, too. They showed their respect.

Sigh!

Darryl's heart felt great; he smiled and lifted his hand. "Alright, you are welcome!"

Darryl stared at Zoey.

'Although Zoey is arrogant, I must say that she is quite elegant. She did not make me her disciple but instead greeted me as her junior brother.'

'Perhaps it's because of the Divine Farmer.'

"Alright!"

Zoey smiled lightly and said to Uncle Wick, "Sheryn's eyes have just recovered; she needs more rest. We still have some matters to attend to. When we return the next time, we will bring her back to our sect for the admission ceremony."

The Supreme Conference was in two days later; there was no time to delay.

Then, Zoey led Darry, Reddy, and the rest toward the direction of the North Moana Continent.

Sigh!

Darryl's eyes shone with determination.

'Zhang Jue, you might have destroyed my reputation, but you will never imagine that I will appear in the Supreme Conference with the Jade Sect.'

Chapter 2757

Meanwhile, at the Raksasa Tribe station!

It was late at night, the station should be in silence, but at that moment, bonfires were lit everywhere. Many men and women, young and old, were singing and dancing. That place was festive and merry.

It was not only that; many Raksasa soldiers joined the celebration too!

That was an important festival to the Raksasa Tribe—the Beasts Festival. It was a significant festival to the tribe. A few thousand years ago, the Raksasa Tribe was exiled to the Wild Deserted Secret Region. They faced the terrible environment and the disturbance of wild beasts; the Raksasa Tribe had suffered terribly.

Later, the Raksasa Tribe was constantly attacked by the wild beasts. The tribesmen worked together and defeated those wild beasts. From that time onward, the Raksasa Tribe stabilized themselves in the Wild Deserted Secret Region. The Beasts Festival was to honor that.

The Beasts Festival was held once every five years, and the entire tribe would celebrate festively.

Even though the Raksasa Tribe had left the Wild Deserted Secret Region, they did not forget the effort of their ancestors. Besides, that was the first time the Beasts Festival was held on the Nine Mainland after they left the Wild Deserted Secret Region. All the tribesmen and soldiers were extremely excited and emotional.

Natalie was sitting on the throne chair in the main hall with smiles on her face as she raised her glass with her followers.

"Your Majesty!"

At that moment, one of the Twelve Gods stood up slowly and said with hesitation, "Do we need to tighten our guards for Jack's followers?"

Sigh!

Natalie sighed in relief; she shook her head and said, "It's the Beast Festival today. That is not necessary. There is nowhere for them to go even if they wanted to escape."

A few days earlier, Jack and his followers were thrown into the valley. Natalie had found the rest of his followers, and she had imprisoned them.

Natalie would decide what to do with them after the Beasts Festival had ended.

When he heard that, the member of Twelve God was still worried, but he did not know what to say, so he could only return to his seat again.

At that moment, in the northwest prison at the station.

Jack's followers sat there with disappointment; they were extremely cold. It was a massive contrast with the merry atmosphere outside.

Bang!

At that moment, someone kicked the door open, and a figure walked into the prison.

It was Jack!

"Jack?"

"Mayor Jack!"

Everyone was surprised and delighted to see Jack. He was the former Rock City Mayor, and everyone had gotten used to addressing him as the mayor. They could not change their habits.

Jack looked around and smiled as he said, "Sorry for the trouble, everyone. I will take all of you out of here today. We will leave this place and form a new tribe."

Jack, Woody, and the rest had sworn their loyalty to the King of the Dead. After that, they were to return to retrieve the rest of the followers from the Raksasa Tribe.

Wow!

Everyone was shocked when they heard that.

'Form a new tribe? Is that possible?'

Jack did not hesitate when he realized everyone's doubt. He walked forward and opened the prison door as he said, "You must believe me. We will form the new Asura Tribe, and we will be stronger than the Raksasa Tribe.

"A... .."

"Argh!"

Roars of pain echoed everywhere as bodies fell onto the ground. The entire Raksasa Tribe station was covered with fresh red blood.

Chapter 2758

Meanwhile...

Darryl went with Zoey, Reddy, and the rest; after a half a day journey on the road, they finally arrived at the North Moana border.

They had reached a quiet valley; Zoey ordered everyone to take a short rest.

"Wow!"

Then, Reddy noticed something and shouted emotionally, "Master, look—"

"And when our tribe grows strong, we will conquer the entire nine continents!

"All you need to do now is to follow me, leave this prison, and ambush the Raksasa Tribe when they are unprepared."

"Kill!"

Jack led them as they charged out of prison; they roared as they stormed toward the Raksasa Tribe, who were still celebrating.

That...

Everything had happened too suddenly; the Raksasa Tribe did not get a chance to react. They were in complete chaos and fell apart once Jack's followers attacked them.

At an instant, the Beasts Festival celebration had turned into a bloody battlefield.

Darry and Zoey turned their heads and looked, and they were stunned.

They noticed that not far away, deep into the valley, were pink-colored flowers and grass. At first glance, each flower appeared to be made of crystals because they shone so brightly.

Crystal Fairy Grass?

Darryl's heart trembled, and he felt emotional for unknown reasons.

The Infinite Elixir Manual documented elixir production methods and a wide range of unusual flora and fauna. The Crystal Fairy Grass was one of the most elusive ones. Everyone in the community had only heard about it for the past hundred thousand years and had never seen it. That was due to the harsh growing conditions for Crystal Fairy Grass.

Darryl was the same too. It had been more than a dozen years since he received the Infinite Elixir Manual to date, but he had never seen the Crystal Fairy Grass. He never imagined he would be able to see so many of them at the North Moana border.

Sh*t!

'There is so much Crystal Fairy Grass; if I gather all of them, I will be able to produce a lot of rare spirit pills.'

Darryl gathered his thoughts and felt amazed in his heart discreetly.

Zoey, who was beside him, trembled too. She could not hide her emotion. "Be careful, everyone; gather them slowly. Do not damage the spiritual grass." Even though she did not have a high elixir production skill, she had a lot of experience. She knew that it was an invaluable spiritual grass.

invaluable spiritual grass.

"Yes, Master!"

Reddy and the rest nodded and went on to gather the Crystal Fairy Grass.

Whoosh!

Just then, they heard footsteps followed by a few dozen sect disciples surrounding the Crystal Fairy Grass; they looked emotional.

Those sect disciples wore uniformed clothing, and they seemed fierce. An arrogant-looking man in a long purple robe led them.

He was the Longevity Sect's Sect Master, Constantine Gibbis.

The Longevity Sect was a sect in the North Moana continent. It was a powerful sect.

Sigh!

she was interrupted by Zoey.

Zoey looked at Constantine and said softly, "You are the Longevity Sect's Sect Master Gibbis, right? Finders' keepers. Besides, even though we're in the North Moana, that is not the Longevity Sect Mountain. You are twisting the facts, and you are not playing by the rules!"

"Rules?"

Constantine laughed as he observed Zoey. "It's a man-made rule. If you feel that I'm bullying you, Sect Master Jenn, why don't we have a battle? The Crystal Fairy Grass shall belong to the winner. What do you think?"

Constantine's eyes looked hideous when he said that.

"Fine!"

Zoey did not hesitate; she accepted the Darryl, Zoey, and others discreetly furrowed their brows when they saw that.

'Those group of people wanted the Crystal Fairy Grass too?'

"Hey, what are you all doing?"

Finally, Reddy regained her thoughts; she shouted at Constantine. "We found those spiritual grass first."

Constantine laughed.

He smiled arrogantly. "Don't speak nonsense. You are from the Jade Sect, right? You should know that this is the North Moana border; those Crystal Fairy Grass do not belong to you!"

The Crystal Fairy Grass was a precious herb; one must get it when one saw it.

When Reddy heard that, she blushed in rage and was about to speak again when she was interrupted by Zoey.

I'm bullying you, Sect Master Jenn, why don't we have a battle? The Crystal Fairy Grass shall belong to the winner. What do you think?"

Constantine's eyes looked hideous when he said that.

"Fine!"

Zoey did not hesitate; she accepted the invitation to battle immediately. "You and I are both Sect Masters, so let's have a battle. That would be most fair."

Then, Reddy said, "Master, we don't need to battle with him. We found the Crystal Fairy Grass first."

'The Longevity Sect is such a bully.'
