Chapter 2447

After contemplating for a while, Alan set his jaw tightly and told them that Zoey was the mastermind behind the accident.

Cameron placed her hand on her chin and said, "Oh, that actress who's being hunted right now?"

Alan told them that he had to live in hiding since he owed a large debt. In order to repay the debt, he could only help his friend to take care of a casino in town. His friend's cousin used to be an actress, and she could only work in the casino after she pissed off the Goldmanns.

That woman was young, pretty, and had a good figure. She knew how to please a man, so most of the men came to the casino because of her. No matter how much they won or lost, they just wanted to sleep with her.

Cameron asked, "You're talking about Zoey?"

Alan shook his head. "No. Zoey went to look for her for help. That woman is called Tiffany." The name rang a bell, and Waylon fell silent for a moment. After a short while, he recalled that Tiffany was the woman who had set up Nollace.
