

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 161

Chapter 161

When the butler called Qin Mufeng, Qin Mufeng was at the bar and was being dragged by Saul to drink and chat and gossip.

When Selena suddenly fainted, the two rushed to the hospital immediately.

Imperial First People's Hospital, top floor ward.

As soon as Qin Mufeng and Saul arrived, they saw Selena lying on the hospital bed with a pale complexion, a hanging needle on the back of her hand, and Daniel, who was sitting on the chair beside the hospital bed, had a serious face and a cloudy expression.

Saul and Qin Mufeng looked at each other, obviously both were startled by Daniel's expression.

At this time, a little nurse came over with medicine, Saul hurriedly grabbed her and asked quietly, "How is the patient? What's the problem? Is it serious?"

"The patient has a fever, 39 degrees 6." The little nurse replied.

"Oh, fever... what? Fever?" Saul's face was full of confusion, "Are you sure you have a fever? It's just a fever?"

"Yeah, I've already had a full-body examination, and there are no other questions, so don't worry. The gentleman in the ward has already asked many times." The little nurse replied, her face showing no sign of impatience, because...whether it's the two inside or the two at the door, they are so handsome! She is willing to answer if asked a hundred times!

Saul weakly supported the door frame, and touched his still beating heart, "Brother, are you trying to scare me to death? She just has a fever, why do you have to put on a terminally ill expression? "

Qin Mufeng next to him was also full of helplessness, "And they called me too. Although I am also a doctor, I am a psychiatrist!"

Daniel raised his eyes slightly, and glanced at Qin Mufeng coldly, "Now that Selena has replaced you, maybe I should save some money."

The implication is to resign him.

The fee he paid Qin Mufeng every year was not low.

"Cough, don't! I have many uses besides this! I know a very famous nutritionist in this hospital, so I'll go and call him to help Selena take care of her body!"

Qin Mufeng was indeed a little guilty. Since Selena came, he had too much leisure time. Both Rick and Daniel seldom needed him anymore. They even stopped the weekly psychological treatment.

After Qin Mufeng left, Saul saw that Daniel was looking at his phone with his head down, and couldn't help asking, "Brother, what are you looking at?"

When did his brother become an internet addict?

As a result, he was shocked as soon as he approached.

His brother actually copied the previous surveillance video to his phone.

"I'm going! Brother, why are you free to watch this? Selena's expression is so scary, I got goosebumps when I watched it! I don't know if she came from a show, or for real..." Saul shuddered as he spoke.

But now, his brother is actually playing it in a loop, and with a magical expression of "Oh my wife is so cute"...

Really, there is no help...

"However, the two of you really understand each other. You even think of the same way! They're all so simple and rude! Tsk tsk, you really are a family!" Saul sighed.

Daniel touched the girl's cheek on the hospital bed, the expression on his brow was very proud and proud.

In order not to be blinded, Saul turned his head away in horror, "You must have deciphered the identity of the other party, right? Are you going to publish it online to clear Selena's charges? I'll go and operate it now?"

Chapter 162

A cold light flashed in Daniel's eyes, "There's no rush."

Saul rubbed his chin, "That's right, anyway, we have a hole card, let her make a fuss, it will be more fun then!"

"Prepare a contract for Selena," Daniel explained.

Saul's eyes lit up when he heard the words, "Contract? Brother, are you finally ready to bring sister-in-law into the prosperous world?"

"Give me a copy of all the brokers' information in Shengshi." These words were an indirect answer to Saul's question.

"I know, I know! You have to help Selena choose a manager yourself, right? Seriously, if you treat me a thousandth of the way that Selena treats me, I'll be satisfied!" Saul complained sourly. .

Hearing this, Daniel glanced at him, then suddenly reached out his hand.

Saul thought he was going to beat someone up, so he subconsciously backed away, "What did I say wrong again!"

In the end, Daniel just reached out and patted the back of his neck.

An extremely intimate gesture to his brother.

Saul was so overwhelmed that he was about to go to heaven, his ears turned red, "Brother, you... what are you doing?"

Daniel frowned and looked at him, but his tone was gentle, "Don't just think about playing all day long, work hard and find someone you like to live with."

Saul's expression was blank, and then his body trembled violently, "Emma! You scared me to death! Brother, you are so gentle to me all of a sudden, it's scarier than beating me up!"

"I'll help you pay attention to your lifelong event later," Daniel said.

"Oh! Don't! Brother, you should continue to let me go! Please let me go! I won't spit on you again! Just keep being so cold!" Saul almost peed in fright.

What if his brother picks him a woman who is as scary as him?

If he picks one like Selena's, he will definitely not be able to bear it!

He is not that heavy taste! He likes to be gentle!

At this time, Saul suddenly had a quick wit, "Brother, this kind of thing is not something a man should worry about! You should let my sister-in-law introduce you to me after you've settled your sister-in-law. My sister-in-law must have good eyesight!"

Daniel thought for a while, "Yes."

Saul patted his chest, finally heaved a sigh of relief, he almost escaped death.

He used to change girlfriends very quickly, but now he has been vacant for more than half a year.

I don't know what's going on, and I feel more and more boring. At present, he really doesn't want to have a girlfriend at all.

Especially after seeing his brother and Selena, he felt that his so-called love was lifeless.

Well, he admitted, he was jealous.

Jealous of his brother, although he waited for thirty-two years, he finally waited for his true love. And he doesn't know if he can wait until...

The more Saul thought about it, the sadder he became, and he decided he didn't want to continue being abused, "Brother, if I don't have anything else to do, I'll leave first! I'll fix what you want and send it to you as soon as possible! Bye..."

Selena slept until the evening of the next day.

When I opened my eyes again, my body was light and my mind was in a daze, as if I had been in another world.

This is what Daniel saw when he opened the door and came in. Under the afterglow of the setting sun outside the window, the girl was wearing a loose hospital bed gown, with an expression of just waking up, sitting on the pure white hospital bed in a daze, with a dazed expression. Woody, it looks particularly distressing, and one can't help but want to hug her...

Chapter 163

"Wake up." Afraid of disturbing her, Daniel walked over with light steps, and gently rubbed her slightly messy hair with his big palm.

"Daniel..." Selena looked at the visitor dully.

"Well, how does your body feel?"

Selena looked confused, "Is this a hospital? What's wrong with me?"

"You fainted last night. You had a high fever of 39 degrees." Daniel couldn't help but darken as soon as he recalled the scene where she suddenly fainted last night.

Selena scratched her head, "I have a fever? I said why is my body limp and I have no strength at all!"

"You're hungry, you've been sleeping for almost a day and a night." Daniel said as he helped her open the dining table, and then gave her a pillow to lean against her back, "I guess you're about to wake up, I just bought it for you dinner."

"Thank you..." Selena looked at the busy man in front of her, pursed her lips, and couldn't help reaching out to touch his chin.

Daniel was taken aback by the warm touch of his fingertips. He looked at the girl with extremely gentle eyes, "Huh? What's wrong?"

Selena frowned and looked at his haggard face and the blue stubble on his chin, "Did you take care of me all night? The stubble is coming out!"

"Fortunately, I slept for a while." In fact, he didn't close his eyes for a minute, let alone wash up, and he didn't let go until he woke up.

"Let's eat, because you don't like to eat greasy food right now, so I only have porridge. I'll buy you something delicious when you recover from your illness." Daniel took out the porridge bowl and spoon and handed them to her, "Have strength Eat? Do you need my help?"

Selena remained silent and did not move.

Daniel raised his head to look at her suspiciously, "What's wrong? Is your body feeling uncomfortable? I'll call the doctor..."

Selena hurriedly pulled him back, "Hey, I'm fine, I just didn't wake up and lost my mind..."

Only then did Daniel let go, "What you need most now is to have a good rest and stop thinking wildly."

"Yeah." Selena nodded and buried her head in eating porridge, but the expression on her face was extremely absent, as if her mind was wandering away.

Daniel's kindness to her made her almost panic.

It's not that she didn't notice it. In fact, his attitude towards her has always been like this from the beginning, but she has been deliberately ignoring it, and even gradually got used to it.

Was everything this man in front of me did just out of pure repayment?

Even if you treat her as a friend, can friends do this?

Because there are too many messy things to deal with in my mind, this kind of thought just flashed by in the end...

After eating, Selena finally regained some energy.

She quickly brushed away all the messy thoughts in her mind, and started to deal with business, "Daniel, is my phone here?"

Daniel showed displeasure, "Just now I said I should take a good rest."

Selena clasped her hands together, "I've had enough rest after sleeping for so long, and I've eaten and drank enough just now, if you don't let me do something right now, I'll get moldy!"

Daniel saw that her complexion had indeed improved a lot, but he couldn't hold back the begging look in her eyes, so he finally handed her the phone.

Immediately afterward, he went to get the thermometer again, "Take your temperature."

"Ah..." Selena obediently opened her mouth to hold the thermometer in her mouth, then immediately opened the webpage and began to browse the entertainment section.

The crew of "The World" staged scheming, and the femme fatale would do anything for the superior

Susie was injured, was it an accident or a deliberate murder?

Empire Entertainment stated that it firmly resists unfair competition and protects the rights and interests of artists' lives and safety

Susie's studio has sent a lawyer's letter, Selena disappeared and has not responded yet

Chapter 164

Then, Selena opened Weibo, and saw that the screen was full of abuse, which was several times more ruthless than Jia Qingqing's time. After all, compared to Jia Qingqing, Susie's popularity was much higher, and her fans were more powerful.

That b!tch Selena has been avoiding showing up, she must be guilty! Could it be that she ran away because she saw that things were exposed? After all, she has already qualified for attempted murder this time! If you go to court, you will definitely go to jail!

Being hacked once is because of her jealousy, but if this happens again and again, it must be because of her character problem! What's more, this time it was stolen and won!

Susie's reputation in the entertainment industry is notoriously good, and she has repeatedly supported her as a little junior sister. She never expected that she would do such a thing as a pig and a dog in revenge! It is because of people like her that the atmosphere in the entertainment industry will become more and more corrupt!

Don't you think all of this was Selena's conspiracy from the very beginning? She first killed Jia Qingqing to secure the second female position, and then prepared to hurt Susie to get the first female position!

Thinking carefully! too frightening! Sure enough, there is nothing good about a beautiful woman!

From the corner of his eye, Daniel caught sight of the vicious comments on her phone, and frowned, "Don't look at it."

Selena sat cross-legged, shouting about the thermometer and mumbled, "It's okay, it's fun to see!"

"Measure well, don't talk."

"Oh." Obviously you invited me to talk...

After finally measuring it, Daniel glanced at the thermometer, "Thirty-seven degrees one."

Selena immediately said proudly, "I just said I'm fine! Actually, I'm in good health! So can I be discharged from the hospital now?"

"Stay here for a few more days and observe."

"Huh? I still have to live! But I miss Xiaobai!" Selena decisively pulled Rick out.

"He's already on his way." Daniel's tone had no room for change.

"Uh, okay..." Selena finally had nothing to say.

Daniel cleared the dining table, then sat on the chair beside the bed, "What are you going to do next?"

Selena immediately remembered one thing, "I wanted to tell you just now, can you send a copy of those evidences to my phone? I'm going to forward it to someone first!"

Daniel glanced at her, "Zhang Qiang?"

Selena had long been used to Daniel's IQ at the instant kill level, but she still couldn't help admiring her, "As expected of Mr. Boss! You're so smart! I'm going to make Zhang Qiang blackmail him and use these evidences to blackmail Susie!"

As soon as Selena finished speaking excitedly, she coughed dryly and looked at Daniel with some anxiety, "What I did...wasn't it too vicious?"

Daniel didn't answer, but analyzed, "The point is, it won't do you any good, and it's too cheap for Zhang Qiang."

Selena scratched her hair, "It's true to say so, but my main purpose is to punish Susie, and I didn't think much about the rest."

After thinking for a while, Daniel said, "Instead of taking advantage of Zhang Qiang, why don't you go by yourself?"

Selena's eyes rolled out of shock when she heard the words, "This...is this okay?"

"Why not?" Daniel asked back, and then analyzed, "According to Susie's ability to bear, you can almost ask her for 8 million. This is the best time for you to terminate the contract with Empire, and the money can be used Pay liquidated damages."

After listening to Daniel's words, Selena was deeply speechless.

At most, she is instigating others, but the Great Demon King is lucky, not only does not despise her behavior but also directly teaches her to be even worse...

Chapter 165

However, this trick is really perfect!

It's just that, if you do things like blackmail yourself, it's really hard to get through...

Selena bit her lip, recalling everything that happened that night, and then sneered in her heart, heh, what's wrong with them, they've already reached this point!

Selena quickly made up her mind, "Okay, send it to me, and I'll contact Susie right away!"

"Don't bother, I'll help you. No one can find out your IP address like this," Daniel said.

At this moment, Selena looked at Daniel's expression almost as if he was looking at a god, and she said with starry eyes, "God Lu, I found that your skills are so heaven-defying! Do you accept apprentices?"

The girl's adoring eyes put Daniel in a good mood. He glanced at her lightly, "No."

Selena was immediately disappointed: "Oh..." Sure enough, he won't accept it! Lu boss has a lot of things to do every day, how could he accept apprentices...

Daniel looked at her deeply, "There is actually a faster way to get this skill."

"What what?" Selena asked immediately.

Daniel: "Marry me." Marry him, everything about him is hers, what else does she need to learn?

"Cough cough cough..." Selena almost choked on her own saliva.

In this way, I really can't say that what he said is wrong...

It's just...was she being teased again?

Daniel admired the girl's embarrassed look for a while, and then asked, "Have you thought about which company you will go to after the contract is terminated?"

Selena rubbed her chin, "Is this... still under consideration..."

Daniel said casually, "After you cleanse your name this time, your popularity will almost rival that of first- and second-tier artists, and it will be easy to find someone else."

Selena sighed, "Actually, it's quite troublesome. Small companies face little competition but have poor prospects. Large companies have no background and it's hard to get in. My current exposure seems to be high, but it's all based on gossip. There isn't even a single completed work yet, and the positioning is embarrassing enough... Well, Teacher Lu, do you have any suggestions?"

For important decisions, Selena had subconsciously asked Daniel for his opinion.

Daniel poured her a glass of water, and then replied, "From my point of view as a businessman, you are a stock with great explosive potential. I am very optimistic about the value you can create in the future. Therefore, I naturally hope that you You can enter the prosperous age."

Selena's eyes widened when she heard the words, and it took her a long time to come to her senses, "Uh, it's Mr. Boss, are you poaching me yourself?"

Daniel chuckled, "That's right, I really want to poach you. Come?"

Dmn! This tone is too foul!

Selena swallowed, calmed down, and said seriously, "Actually, to be honest, if I can leave Empire smoothly this time, the company I most want to join is Shengshi. Shengshi has already passed Chao Empire has become the best entertainment company in the industry, and its prospects are undoubtedly the best..."

Daniel nodded with satisfaction, and then stretched out his hand towards her, "Then, happy cooperation."

"Ah?" Selena stretched out her hand subconsciously, "Co... Happy cooperation..."

Wha...what's the situation, this is a happy cooperation?

That's how she reached a cooperation agreement with Shengshi.

How can the Great Demon King be so efficient at poaching people...
