Chapter 31

After Guo Qisheng finished speaking, he looked optimistic.

Sure enough, after all the reporters looked in the direction Guo Qisheng was pointing at, their first reaction was to be dumbfounded.

Today Selena was wearing a small red hollow lace dress. The waist was designed just right, fully showing her charming waistline, and the neckline revealed her beautiful collarbone. This color is more difficult to control than red, and it is made of lace. Although the design is extremely beautiful, it is a vulgar or ridiculous word for ordinary people if they don't wear it well.

But this dress seemed to be made for Selena, it made her look bright and charming, dazzlingly beautiful.

When the stylist chose this skirt for her, Selena herself felt that she couldn't control it, but after the upper body, she was convinced.

As expected of Shengshi Media's golden touch, her vision is too poisonous, and she has only met her once, and she knows herself better than herself.

As for walking on the red carpet, although this is the first time Selena has formally attended such an occasion, she is an actress after all, and she has figured out characters of various personalities and industries, naturally including big stars, and has acted in dramas several times. It's not difficult for her to walk a red carpet.

Every step, every smile, every movement is just right, and can accurately find the position of the camera, giving the most beautiful expression.

The reporters were in a daze for longer than Director Guo, and it took a long time before they came back to their senses.

This...is this Selena, the actor who played Meng Change?

A little newcomer without any masterpieces?

This... looks too beautiful!

There are no words to describe it, it is beautiful!

They were all asking Director Guo who was more beautiful, Jia Qingqing or Selena, no wonder Director Guo's expression was wrong at the time, it was ridiculous for them to ask this question.

In front of Selena's stunner, Jia Qingqing, who was always known for her beauty, was completely lost in the crowd.

Not only his appearance, but also the aura of this newcomer is quite strong, he doesn't look like a newcomer at all, his gestures are elegant and generous, and he even exudes an innate nobility.

Selena walked to the center of the red carpet, posed a few random poses for the media to take pictures, then turned around, picked up the pen from the tray, and signed on the sign-in wall.

After turning around, there was another burst of exclamation and the sound of the shutter being pressed.

This skirt is designed with an open back. When the stylist chose this skirt, the open back was also a very important reason.

Because Selena's butterfly bone is so beautiful, it can be said that it is the sexiest and most attractive part of her whole body, if it is not exposed, it would be a waste of money.

In the past, most actresses on the red carpet like to show their breasts to gain attention, but Selena has found a different way, which is more than one level of high-end.

After murdering countless rolls of film, it's finally time for the interview.

Today's reporters and friends are very miserable.

Because the questions they had prepared were all "Do you think you can handle Meng Changge, the evil girl who has caused trouble for the country?" "Which one do you think is more beautiful than Jia Qingqing?" Is there any reason for that?"...

Now all these questions are useless...

Anyone who is not blind knows that there is no audition insider, this face is too convincing.

She is the most suitable Meng Changge.

So the reporters started asking questions on the spot.

"Miss Ning, may I ask, are the clothes on your body handmade by designer Karl Lagerfeld?"

Selena was dumbfounded.

What the hell is this dress Karl Lagerfeld's haute couture?

Millions of dresses just let her wear them casually?

Would the Great Demon King Lu be so cheating!

However, the more terrifying thing was yet to come. Immediately afterward, the reporter listed the origins of all the objects on her body one by one, and then asked, "Miss Ning, is your stylist Arthur?"

Can you see this?

You have piercing eyes!
