

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 456

To want or not to, that is the question...

In front of Aunt Selena, he should tell the truth...

Seeing that Little bun was about to give Daniel an answer that would break Daniel's heart even more, Selena hurriedly said before the tragedy happened, "Hey, Rick, it's so hard for Dad to go to work every day to earn money and support the family. Go give Dad a hug, okay?"

The little bun nodded, ran up to Daniel, tilted his head up, and stretched out a pair of short hands, motioning for a hug.

Daniel looked at the hug that was about to come, not knowing whether to laugh or cry, leaned over to pick up his son, rubbed his little head, "Good boy."

The son persisted in his arms for three seconds with dignity.

In the fourth second, he decisively turned his head towards Selena and stretched out his arms, asking Aunt Selena to hug her.

Daniel could only return the little guy to Selena.

Hey, it's too big to stay...

After leaving the Lu family's old house, Selena was going back to the apartment, but she received a call from Ling Zhizhi on the way, so she went to the company instead.

Shengshi Entertainment.

When they reached the downstairs of the building, Selena raised her head inadvertently, and saw Su Yimo's figure appearing on the huge LED screen above her head.

What is playing is Su Yimo's latest ad for Chanel.

In the advertisement, Su Yimo changed into a total of twelve sets of Chanel's most classic clothing styles in the past century, which was very stylish.

Under the led screen, several female artistes from Su Yimo's faction were surrounding Su Yimo, looking up at the commercial while discussing excitedly, "Yimo, your commercial is too high-end and classy! "

"It's no wonder that Chanel wants to find Yimo to be the spokesperson for the China region, not only because of Yimo's high popularity, but looking at the entire entertainment industry, how many female artists can embody Chanel's noble and elegant temperament?"

At this time, someone happened to see Selena passing by, and said loudly on purpose, "It's not like some people, who are going to fly into the sky after a low and rubbish game endorsement, we actually bumped into her last time." Go to a place like Baoyuxuan to buy jade!"

"You mean Selena?"

"It's not her, who else!"

"Pfft, she actually went to Baoyuxuan for that little endorsement fee!"

"Isn't that right? It's probably because Sister Yimo likes jade, so I wanted to buy it myself to play tricks, but in the end I only bought a piece of rags worth more than a hundred thousand yuan! The whole thing is a mere imitation! It's so ridiculous!"

Su Yimo was surrounded by all the stars, and when she heard those people talking about Selena, she said in a slightly impatient tone, "From now on, don't mention that name in front of me."

When the female artists nearby heard this, they all stopped hurriedly, and responded cautiously, "I see, Sister Yimo, how can that lowly girl deserve to have your name appear here with Sister Yimo!"

"Don't mention it, don't mention it, so as not to let her rub sister Yimo's heat every time! How shameless!"

Ling Zhizhi's office.

Selena knocked on the door and walked in, "Sister Zhizhi, what can I do for you?"

"Sit down and talk." Ling Zhizhi motioned her to sit down, and then asked, "Do you know the brand Noble?"

Selena thought for a while, "The brand that specializes in perfume?"

Ling Zhizhi: "That's right."

Selena didn't know why Lin Zhizhi asked this question. After thinking for a while, she said what she knew, "As far as I know, it's a brand with a lot of personality, compared to Chanel, Tiffany, and Arani, which are more well-known luxury brands." The brand is relatively niche, and not many people seem to know it..."

Chapter 457

Ling Zhizhi nodded, "Yes, this brand is very small, and many people are unfamiliar with it. In fact, Noble is a well-known salon perfume brand over two centuries old, and has always been the favorite of royal dignitaries and popular stars. So far, there have been more than 240 privately customized and publicly available fragrance types. It can be said that each one is a legend.

Noble has never been sold publicly in the domestic region before, so the popularity in the country is not high. However, some time ago, I got news that Noble is planning to open up the Huaguo market, and is currently auditioning spokespersons across the country, including Xiangcheng, Taizhou, and Australia. "

Selena blinked, "Sister Zhizhi wants to sign up for me?"

"I've already signed up. I sent the other party a clip of you in "The World". It was just a random test, but I just received a notification from the other party that you passed the primary election!" Ling Zhizhi said.

Hearing Lin Zhizhi's answer, Selena's eyes immediately brightened, "What? I'm in the primary election? But, in order to open up the domestic market, luxury brands like this shouldn't be the popular girls like Su Yimo. star?"

"That's true, so I'm also surprised that you were selected. Su Yimo didn't participate in the audition, because she has already accepted Chanel. Apart from clothing and cosmetics, Chanel also makes perfume, so it is impossible to accept noble.

However, without Su Yimo, and the elites of various entertainment companies across the country, almost all of them are first-line and super-a-line actresses, your competitive pressure will be very heavy. So, even though the opportunity is rare, you don't have to be nervous, this time is a surprise, it's best if you can get it, and it's okay if you don't get it. "Lin Zhizhi comforted her.

Even though she got into the primary election, she didn't hold out too much hope, she just wanted Selena to learn more.

For such a high-end brand, for a young rookie like Selena, even if she just entered the primary election, it was already a qualification.

"Yeah, I know, Sister Zhizhi, I'll keep a normal mind, and I'll just go get experience!" Selena said modestly.

In fact, I have a lot of ambitions in my heart. Even in the most unfavorable environment, everything is possible until the last second!

"By the way, Miss Zhizhi, what is the theme of this perfume endorsement?" Selena asked.

"There are only two words, noble. The preparation time is three days. Three days later, the final audition will be held in Guoluo City." Ling Zhizhi replied.

Selena murmured, "Three days... is enough, I will think about how to express this theme in the next few days!"

As for the country, she is even more familiar with it, and there is no pressure at all.

"The theme this time is nobility, and I will definitely use a full outfit. If there is any need, I will try my best to help you apply to the company." Ling Zhizhi said.

"Okay, I will tell you when the time comes, thank you sister Zhizhi, I will go back and prepare..."

three days later.

China, Los Angeles Airport, Selena took off her sunglasses, looking at the unfamiliar yet familiar environment, her gaze shifted, and the corners of her mouth slightly raised.

A year later, she came back here again.

A year ago, she was still wandering around without a fixed place, and a year later, her dream has begun to set sail...

This time, although Lin Zhizhi didn't have too much hope, she personally accompanied her there.

After all, all the big names in the country would be there, and she was worried that Selena wouldn't be able to handle it.

"Selena, you really don't need anything?" Ling Zhizhi asked a little worriedly.

Selena nodded firmly, "I don't need anything, the things I need are very simple, and I have already prepared them myself!"

Chapter 458

next morning.

In the Nobel company building, take the elevator to the top floor, pass through a glass showcase of various classic perfumes, and arrive at the location of today's audition.

Selena followed behind Lin Zhizhi, as soon as she entered, her eyes were almost blinded.

There are a lot of superstars inside, each of whom is a well-known celebrity, and there are only a few newcomers who are more face-to-face. Moreover, in order to match the theme of "nobility" today, all of them are dressed very dazzlingly.

Most of the people knew each other, and they were politely chatting and connecting with each other at the moment, while the newcomers seized the opportunity to curry favor with a few big names, and it was very lively inside.

The moment Selena appeared at the door, everyone was stunned, and the entire waiting room could hear the sound of needles falling.

Of course, it couldn't be because a newcomer like Selena was too famous to surprise everyone, but because, compared to those popular actresses with their rich clothes and jewels, Selena's clothes were too abrupt.

It is not an exaggeration to say that it is crazy.

Selena faced the sky, wearing a dirty earth-colored dress, slightly old brown leather shoes, without any accessories on her body, and she didn't even do any styling. Her slightly messy hair was casually scattered behind her .

After a while, everyone had a strange look, because most of the people in the room were big names, and they spoke without any scruples, and without lowering their voices, they started discussing directly in front of Selena:

"Who is this! Dressed like a beggar... Did you go to the wrong place?"

"Probably not! Didn't you see that she was brought here by Ling Zhizhi!"

Although these people didn't know Selena, the gold medal manager Lin Zhizhi who brought out Leng Manyun was still unknown in the circle.

After seeing Ling Zhizhi, those people all showed expressions of disbelief, "Ah! I remembered! This woman in rags must be the new little artist that Ling Zhizhi brought?"

"Even if Leng Manyun left, with Ling Zhizhi's qualifications, she wouldn't be able to bring someone like this?"

"Is Shengshi Entertainment so poor? Doesn't even have a decent stylist?"

"How can Shengshi Entertainment be poor? After all, it's just not paying attention!"

“Leng Manyun retired because of a man, Lin Zhizhi couldn’t shirk her responsibility, she didn’t even care about her artists! I heard that she was kept in the dark, as a manager, until Leng Manyun posted on Weibo Only when it is announced!”

“Looks like Lin Zhizhi’s ability is nothing more than that, and Zhao Meixin is the number one gold medal manager in Shengshi!”

At this time, a first-line actress from Empire Entertainment walked up to Lin Zhizhi, with a concerned expression on her face, but her eyes were obviously full of sarcasm, “Sister Lin, bring an artist over to audition?”

Ling Zhizhi nodded slightly, “I signed up for her casually, but I didn’t expect to enter the primary election, so I brought her here to accumulate experience.”

These words are both modest and decent, and they don’t put themselves too low.

Breaking out of the siege among the popular actresses in the country is already a manifestation of strength in itself.

Empire Actress had a regretful expression on her face, and while looking at Selena behind her, she shook her head and smacked her tongue, “Sister Lin, I didn’t mean you, even if you came to run with me, you can’t give up on yourself! Or... With Leng Manyun gone, are you in such a state of desperation? Since this is the case, why don’t you stay in the prosperous world as an agent, and come to be my assistant? Although the salary is not high, it is better than you with a worthless young man. Newcomers are welcome!”

Chapter 459

Empire and Shengshi have always been rivals. The actress who spoke was called Li Leling. Leng Manyun robbed her of the title of actress several times. It was rare to see Lin Zhizhi down and out, so naturally she would not miss such a good opportunity to ridicule her.

Seeing the two sides pinching each other, the people next to them all had an attitude of watching the show.

Someone made fun of it deliberately, "Speaking of which, I happen to be short of an assistant too! I wonder if Sister Lin is interested?"

Li Leling had a happy expression, "Hehe, I didn't expect Sister Lin to be so popular. Even if the little rookie at hand can't get up, don't worry about having no way out!"

Selena watched Lin Zhizhi being besieged by a group of big names in the circle, a gloomy light flashed in her eyes, she remembered Ling Zhizhi's explanation, no matter what happened, try not to speak as much as possible, and found a quiet corner Sit down, close your eyes slightly, free from external interference, and concentrate on brewing emotions.

Not long after, auditions began.

The order Selena drew was pretty good, there were thirty people in total, and she got the middle number.

Li Leling drew number fourteen, looked at Selena's number plate with fifteen written on it, shook his head and sighed, "Tsk, such a good number, what a pity..."

Soon, the first interviewer went in.

The strength of the first interviewer was terrifying enough. Although his family background and education were not high, and he was not from a major, he relied on his own strength to fight all the way to the position of Queen of the Golden Palm.

Seeing Fang Xiaowen go in first, many audition actresses showed nervous expressions, but Li Leling was full of disdain, "He is just a rural person with elementary school education, how can such a person understand the definition of noble?"

Although Li Leling doesn't have any particularly dazzling titles, but she is not low in popularity, her biggest advantage is that her family background is very rich, her father is a high-ranking official, and her mother is a famous clothing industry tycoon. proficient.

Among all the actresses present, there may be some who are more popular than her, but almost none of them have a higher family background than her.

Today Li Leling's outfit alone is probably more expensive than Nobel's endorsement fee, no wonder she is so confident.

In less than a minute, Fang Xiaowen came out.

Her manager immediately went up to her to ask about her situation. Fang Xiaowen shook her head with a gloomy expression. The manager was a little disappointed, but he was still comforting her by the side.

Li Leling folded his arms around his chest, with a predictable expression, "Hey, I knew that a country bumpkin is still noble..."

Apart from Li Leling, there are other actresses from good families who obviously look down on Shang Xiaowen, and their expressions are a little mocking at the moment.

Seeing the eyes of everyone ridiculing and laughing at her overreaching, Fang Xiaowen rushed out unbearably. Although she had already achieved the position of actress, she still couldn't get rid of the influence of her family background and education...

In the corner, Selena opened her eyes and looked at Fang Xiaowen's leaving back, a trace of regret appeared in her eyes.

It's a pity for Fang Xiaowen. With her acting skills and popularity, this endorsement was originally easy...

The second actress who went in for an interview had a rich coal boss father, who threw a lot of money in the entertainment industry to get her out, but she still came out in less than a minute.

The parents of the third actress are also from the entertainment industry, and she worked hard enough. A typical capable person, she persisted for three minutes, but still failed in the end...

Chapter 460

Watching the audition actresses go in and out one by one, some of them are super-first-line, and the pressure on the next ones will inevitably increase.

In particular, when the audition hall was constantly blaming the director of the nobel commercial, Cook.

Cook's Chinese is very good. If he swears, everyone outside can hear him clearly...

"Did they really understand what I said? I doubt they have a problem with their IQ! What I want is nobility! It's elegance! Not a soulless puppet dancing on a music box!"

"Fang Xiaowen? No, no, she can't! Her performance is very good, but her eyes betrayed her humble soul!"

"Xu Jiaojiao? Are you kidding me? She's like a walking jewelry rack! Very vulgar!"

"Meng Shiyi? She may be an excellent actress, but she is definitely not the moon-like goddess in my mind!"

"The last one? You said number 13! Oh God! She's trying to deceive me maliciously! She doesn't know anything about guqin!"

...

Listening to Cook's extremely harsh and blatantly critical, the faces of the proud actresses outside were not very good.

"Does this ghost know anything? He just approved everyone!"

"I think he is simply prejudiced against the Chinese!"

"It's too ugly to speak! I said it's just a performance. It's not enough to act for a while. How can I really know it! According to his logic, isn't an actor proficient in all three hundred and sixty lines!"

"Oh, only those who have no strength will find excuses from others."

Soon it was No. 14's turn, Li Leling left this sentence, and walked into the audition hall with confident steps.

When Li Leling pushed the door and entered, Cook, who was originally full of anger, froze for a moment.

I saw Li Leling wearing a retro and luxurious Chinese-style cheongsam, a string of valuable pearl necklaces around her neck, her hair tied up in a bun, and a transparent jasper hairpin inserted. A good display of the characteristics of Huaguo.

After seeing Li Leling, Cook's eyes lit up immediately, and his attitude softened a lot, "Oh, my dear baby, come here, come here! Let me take a good look!"

Li Leling let Cook scrutinize her without any timidity. She was educated by aristocrats since she was a child, and her every word, deed, and smile naturally revealed a noble temperament, and she didn't need to act at all.

After Cook looked at her, he was very satisfied, "Miss Li, now you can start your performance!"

The audition hall is very large, and there are many kinds of props in it, including guzheng, piano, writing brush, chess, needlework, fan, handkerchief...

Li Leling glanced casually, and touched a Guqin with her plain hand, "This one!"

Compared with Guzheng, Guqin is more difficult. It has a range of four octaves and two tones. It has seven loose tones, ninety-one overtones, and one hundred and forty-seven notes. There are many playing techniques.

If you want to pretend to deceive Cook casually, it is impossible. Cook has lived in China for 20 years and loves Chinese culture deeply. It was a fluke, but he was humiliated mercilessly by Cook...

Seeing that Li Leling also chose the guqin, Cook's eyes were a little scrutinized, but when she started playing, Cook's eyes gradually changed...
