Chapter 576

Selena rubbed her chin, glanced in Daniel's direction from the corner of her eye, thought about it seriously, and then replied, "He...he is mighty, domineering, talented, gentle, romantic, witty, brave, mature, steady, and arrogant Unprecedented and unprecedented thunderbolts, rare in a millennium, strategizing brilliantly, closing the moon, shameful flowers, sinking fish and falling geese, overwhelming the country, overwhelming the city, astonishing heaven and man, stepping on colorful auspicious clouds!!!"

Saul: "..."

Daniel: "..."

It took a while for Saul to come back to his senses, and the corners of his mouth twitched non-stop, "Are you sure you're talking about a human being? You even came out with colorful auspicious clouds on your feet... Do you want to be so exaggerated?"

Daniel couldn't describe his feelings at this moment. Selena's description was a bit exaggerated, but she knew how perfect that man was in her heart.

"Hmph, if you knew who he was, you wouldn't think I was exaggerating!" Selena muttered.

Saul: "Then who is he?"

Selena narrowed her eyes slightly, and stuffed a small butter bun into Saul's mouth, "You want to talk to me? Save yourself!"

Saul swallowed the steamed buns in one gulp, "You're so stingy... Then since you already have someone you like, why don't you still go on a blind date?"

If you can't find out about this matter, you must figure out the urgent matter in front of you!

Selena sighed, "I still have to go there, I have to explain it clearly to others, otherwise wouldn't it embarrass my grandpa to just let people go?"

Daniel's expression softened a little when he heard the words. In fact, he expected this answer, but the possessive desire in his bone marrow was above his reason. Who can accept such a thing as his wife going on a blind date!

the next day.

During the day, Selena took Rick to the studio for a stroll. In the evening, because she had an appointment with Mr. Xi's grandson, she went to Lu's Group to send Rick there.

Although this was not the first time she went to the company, every time she went there, there were still a lot of sights, each of them eager to take off her mask to see whose expression it was.

Upstairs, just after getting out of the elevator, a little girl suddenly summoned up the courage to rush up to her, "Miss Su, I really like your movie, can you sign it for me?"

Selena frowned slightly, Miss Su?

who?

Could it be...

Selena quickly realized, did she think of her as Su Yimo?

Seeing the little girl's anxious and expectant expression, Selena really couldn't bear to refuse.

In fact, she knew that this little girl didn't really want her autograph. This was to test her identity on purpose. If she signed it, she would assume that she was Su Yimo by default. If she didn't, then it would be obvious. no.

Just standing there thinking about what to do, Daniel walked straight toward her.

When the little girl saw Daniel approaching, she flickered faster than a rabbit. Selena didn't see how the person disappeared at all. Anyway, the person disappeared in the blink of an eye.

I can't blame the little girl for running fast, because the boss is in a bad mood today. During the meeting in the morning, several department heads were scared to tears. She is a little secretary, so as not to be caught and operated on, naturally she has to hurry up. How far away!

Seeing Rick being hugged by Selena, Daniel's expression darkened, "You still want to hug him when you're such an adult?"

Rick's small head was buried on Selena's shoulder, with a look of grievance, Aunt Xiaoxi, papa yelled at me.

Chapter 577

Selena immediately patted Rick's head, arguing with reason, "How old is he, isn't he just five years old! What Rick needs now is not to grow up, but what he needs is to return to four, three, two years old little by little. ...Learn how to be a child!"

Daniel sighed softly, and softened his tone, "I'm afraid your hands will get sore."

After he finished speaking, he paused, and his tone was slightly low, "Are you going over now?"

Selena glanced at the time on her phone, "Well, the appointment time is almost here."

The situation in Daniel's eyes changed several times before he finally calmed down, "Go, be careful."

"Got it..." Selena put down the little bun, and gave him a super big one as usual.

Outside the president's office.

A supervisor was holding a stack of documents in his arms, and while shaking his legs, he was taking out quick-acting heart-relief pills, making preparations before going in.

Behind him, Saul put his arm on the man's shoulder, shook his head and sighed, "Don't take it out, the quick-acting heart-relief pill won't save you, and with my brother's state today, you will die if you enter now!"

The supervisor turned his head to look at the person coming, as if in mourning, "Second Young Master...help me..."

"Dmn it, I dared to be lazy while my brother was in a good mood for a few days, now it's unlucky!" Saul said mercilessly, not thinking that he himself is a veteran of lazy, but this time he was lucky not to be caught Just braids.

"Second Young Master... I have an older child and a younger one... My wife is about to have a second child..." The supervisor almost knelt down for him.

"Dmn! You're provoking me, a single dog!" Saul frowned.

"How dare I! I definitely didn't mean that..." The supervisor had a bitter expression on his face. Why is it that even the second young master has taken gunpowder today?

Saul snorted a few times, seeing how unlucky he was, he said kindly, "Don't go in there today to kill yourself, my brother doesn't care about your nonsense right now, go back and make up your plans go!"

"Yes, yes, go right away, Second Young Master Xie reminded you!" The manager left gratefully.

Saul pushed the door open and entered the office.

I saw an extra tatami mat placed by the window in the office, apparently for the convenience of Rick looking at his Aunt Selena.

The corners of Saul's mouth twitched slightly. Now that he can see him every day, why does he still look like he is looking forward to your return?

Looking at my brother again, he is sitting at the desk in a serious manner, holding a pen in his right hand, and pinching a few documents in his left hand. Heavy day gone!

Saul coughed softly, "Brother, are you sure you still want to keep pretending to be virtuous? You'll be gone if you pretend to be a wife again! I think you are too, just use a trick to keep that kid from the Xi family from going!"

Daniel glanced at him, "Do you think Selena wouldn't expect that I did it?" And doing so would not cure the symptoms at all.

"Otherwise...how about I help you find a woman to pretend to be that kid's ex-girlfriend or something? Then Selena can leave naturally?" Saul continued to help him with ideas.

“No.” The possibility of being exposed on the spot is very high, as cautious as Daniel, it is naturally impossible to use any tricks with flaws.

“This doesn’t work, that doesn’t work, so what should I do? Brother, I’m not alarmist. Although Selena said that she was just explaining clearly, what if the other party happens to be the type that Selena likes? Everything is possible. !” Saul said earnestly.

Chapter 578

Daniel put down the pen in his hand, tapped the table with his fingers, and his eyes fell on his son on the tatami mat opposite...

Saul followed Daniel’s gaze, “Uh, brother, what do you want to do?”

Daniel got up, walked towards his son, and said, “Rick, I’ll take you out for dinner.”

Saul: “Uh...brother...you don’t mean to...”

I go! He was not satisfied with so many ideas that he had thought of just now, but in the end his own idea was to go into battle with the nuclear weapon Little Treasure himself?

Very good, this is a big devil!

It’s just that a certain nuclear weapon doesn’t seem to cooperate very well...

Hearing Papa’s words, Rick was completely indifferent, and buried himself in writing a word on the clipboard – full.

Aunt Selena left after feeding him long ago, and she cooked the dishes herself.

Daniel pinched the center of his brows, and said another way: "I'll take you to see Aunt Selena."

Within three seconds, Rick let go of the little hand holding his chin to look out the window, lay down on the tatami, put on his little shoes, ran to Papa, and opened his little hands...

Daniel: "..."

Saul: "..."

Nuclear weapons are too easy to control!

Seeing that the father and son packed up and were ready to go, Saul decisively followed, wagging his tail, "I want to eat too!"

about eating...

Half an hour later, a certain stylish Japanese restaurant.

Japanese-style restaurants are usually placed with low tables for meals. Guests enter after taking off their shoes, and then sit on the floor. The hazy light gives people a soothing and relaxing feeling.

Here Selena ordered a glass of low-alcohol sake before the people she was waiting for arrived, and drank for herself while waiting for them.

She didn't realize at all that diagonally behind her, the big and small demon kings plus Saul had all been killed.

After entering the box, Rick recognized Aunt Selena just from her back, and was about to run over immediately.

Daniel grabbed his son and stopped him, "No."

Rick's face was tense, and "Why not? You agreed to bring me to see Aunt Selena!"

Daniel lowered his eyes and glanced at his son, "I brought you to see Aunt Selena, so I can only watch."

Rick: "!!!" I was cheated!

After being brought to the position behind Aunt Selena, Rick's face was sullen. However, because Aunt Selena was opposite, she could see it as soon as she looked up, and her mood improved a lot in an instant.

After sitting down, Saul looked at Selena who was sitting alone across the street, "Tsk tsk tsk, didn't Selena say that we had an appointment at seven o'clock? It's already ten past seven! The first date is unexpectedly Points will be deducted for being late! Although I have never met that Xi Shiqing, I guess he is not a strong competitor! There should be no chance for our little treasure to make a move!"

After waiting for another ten minutes, Selena almost drank a pot of wine, and the person hadn't arrived yet.

Saul, who was behind him, suddenly lost his spirits, "Could it be that he didn't come right away? It's a good thing we've been nervous for so long!"

As soon as the words were finished, the door curtain in front was lifted by a long white finger, and then a man in a plain suit walked in.

The man has short ink-like hair, tall and tall, and his appearance is not that stunning type, but his temperament is gentle and elegant, which can easily make people feel good and trust him. The sense of dust makes people calm down at a glance, and they are in a peaceful and peaceful Buddha realm...

"Dmn it, it's the best..." The moment Saul saw that man, he suddenly had an ominous premonition...

Chapter 579

"Buddha bless, this person should not be..."

Just as Saul was about to say that he hoped that this person would not be "Xi Shiqing", he heard Daniel say three words lightly: "Xi Shiqing."

Saul was dumbfounded, "Dmn it! No way! Is he really Xi Shiqing? Is he Xi Shiqing?"

He was shocked, and then saw the man take off his shoes, politely told the waiter that he had an appointment, and then followed the waiter and walked straight towards... Selena's direction...

"Hello, Miss Ning?"

Selena had already finished the first pot, and was drinking the second pot of this restaurant's special cherry blossom wine, when she heard someone talking to her, and the voice was very comfortable, so she raised her head subconsciously.

After seeing the man in front of her, Selena's expression was obviously dazed for a moment, and then she realized that she stood up and said, "Yes, I'm Selena. Mr. Xi?"

The man nodded, "Hello, Xi Shiqing, I'm sorry to keep you waiting."

"It's okay, sit down, I didn't wait long." Selena sat down again without paying attention.

Xi Shiqing took off his suit jacket and put it on a hanger beside him, and then sat down on the floor.

Xi Shiqing's sitting posture is very standard. On the other hand, Selena, girls should generally sit on their knees in a well-behaved manner, but she doesn't.

She sits magnificently, quite boldly, with one leg bent, and the hand on the same side. He casually put it on his knees, looking even more manly than a man.

But even so, she sat like this, but she didn't feel rude at all. She was wearing wide-leg pants and her favorite embroidered motorcycle jacket. The restraint of Japanese restaurants...

Selena heard from her grandfather that the Xi family is the scholarly family of the jade family, so the descendants of the Xi family should prefer women who are educated, reasonable, gentle and pleasant, so in order to avoid unnecessary trouble, she did the opposite and deliberately wore Today is such a suit.

However, her plan didn't seem to work very well. After Xi Shiqing saw her, not only did she not have disgust or contempt, but an imperceptible admiration flashed in her eyes.

Behind him, Saul was screaming anxiously, "It's over, it's over, it's over! These two people must have met each other, right? Did you notice the look in Selena's eyes when she got up and saw Xi Shiqing just now? She was obviously stunned." After a while, this is obviously amazing!

And Xi Shiqing admired the way she looked at Selena! Nima, shouldn't he like the Xiaojiabiyu type? We are so dressed up today! "

Daniel took a sip of his tea, and his expression was still calm. If you don't look at the tight corners of his mouth, and the strength of his fingers that are gradually turning white when holding the teacup...

Saul was still scratching his head and analyzing, "This Xi Shiqing is a bit tricky. Although he is indeed not as handsome as my young master, his aura... is really special! Even from the perspective of a man like me, he is very attractive. Power! People can't help but want to know and make friends! What's more frightening is... a relatively unruly personality like Selena has a great possibility of liking and liking Xi Shiqing, who is completely opposite to her personality people!”

There was a “click”... the teacup in Daniel’s hand shattered...

Saul swallowed, “No, no, no... Brother, I’m just guessing! It’s definitely impossible! Didn’t Selena say that she already has someone she likes? She won’t like Xi Shiqing!”

As soon as the words fell, my brother’s face became obviously uglier...

Chapter 580

Saul shut his mouth and didn’t dare to speak anymore.

Under such circumstances, it is really dangerous to say anything...

On the other side, Selena and Xi Shiqing had already started talking. Although there was a distance, the restaurant was still relatively quiet. If you listened carefully, you could hear what they were talking about.

Because of his lateness, Xi Shiqing thought that out of basic courtesy, he should explain the reason to the other party, so he said, “I’m really sorry, because I saw an old man fall down on the road, so I took him to the hospital, so it took me a while.” time.”

Selena made a “poof”, and couldn’t help laughing at the words, “Well... If other men tell me this, I will definitely think that he has a problem with IQ, and he is so dishonest even in making excuses, but Mr. Xi, I believe what you say. .You do look like the type of person who would help a granny across the street and bring a lost kid home!”

Xi Shiqing couldn’t help but laugh when she heard the words, “Miss Ning, you mean that I look like a good person?”

Selena nodded for a while, "It's more than that! Not only is he a good person, but he's also at the level of Jin Chanzi, Tang Seng, you know?"

Xi Shiqing was dumbfounded by her funny description, his eyes darkened slightly, "Miss Ning, you are very interesting."

Selena's heart skipped a beat when she heard the words. It was the first time she saw such a special person after a game, and she couldn't hold back for a while, so she casually teased a few words.

So he coughed lightly, and quickly got down to business, "It's Mr. Xi, so I'll cut to the chase. In fact, I personally don't want to go on a blind date, but grandpa has already arranged for me to make an appointment with you, so I had to come here to explain the situation to you. I hope to get your understanding."

Xi Shiqing didn't seem to have any anger or dissatisfaction on his face when he heard the words, but something seemed to fall deep in his eyes...

Behind him, when Saul heard Selena's words, he pricked up his ears and finally regained some vitality, "Selena is doing well, just KO him!"

After hearing Selena's words, Xi Shiqing immediately expressed her understanding, "I understand. Although I feel a little regretful, I respect your wishes."

Selena raised her brows a little when she heard the words, a little regretful? Is this interesting to her?

Can't! There shouldn't be anything in her body that fits this man's aesthetics today? It should be just a polite word, right? Well, it is possible for this type of man!

"So, you don't have to be stressed, let's treat today's episode as a meal between ordinary friends, okay?" Xi Shiqing said.

Selena was a little stunned at this moment, although this man's appearance was not stunning, but his voice was so sweet, he was simply Su!

The other party said so, and cooperated so well, it didn't bother her at all, so Selena naturally couldn't refuse, "Of course!"

Behind him, Saul was biting a piece of salmon bitterly, "Oh, Dmn it! You've been mistaken! I thought he was a holy monk who wasn't close to women, but he's also a sexist! If it's not interesting in this situation, you should just pay the bill and leave." People should not continue to get involved unnecessarily, he actually wanted to have dinner together and even said that he was a friend, this is clearly an attempt!"

Saul was still complaining, and Daniel's expression was not very good. Rick, who was admiring Aunt Selena's back, finally realized that something was wrong...

Uh, why is Aunt Selena having dinner with another uncle she doesn't know...

Rick pursed his lips, thought for a while, and then wrote two words on the clipboard: Dating?
