

Chapter 11

7 year time jump!!

Xay - 18 years

Mal - 16 years

Ace - 15 years

Liley - 13 years

Chase's POV

It was freezing outside. I was sitting in the living room wrapped up in my beautiful mate while she was wrapped up in so many blankets she could barely move.

It was only a few days before Christmas, so much to my dislike, we were watching sappy Christmas movies.

The things you would do for your mate.

It would be more correct if I said she was watching Christmas movies, while I can't keep my eyes off her. I am glad I met my mate early, even after all these years my love for her just keeps growing. No amount of time with her would be enough.

Momma says I'm not allowed to love my mate more than I love her until I am at least eighteen. I don't really understand that.

My face was buried in her neck, taking in her lovely scent, giving her so many lazy kisses. I know she loves it, although one second she is pulling me closer, and the next she is pushing me away telling me that I'm distracting her from the movie.

Must be some good movie.

The door burst open revealing a very angry looking Mason. He looked around before spotting us. If this was a cartoon, there would be smoke coming out of his ears.

"Where is he?" he growled. I was about to ask him who he was talking about, when Liley pointed upstairs.

He gave another growl before he turned around and stomped upstairs.

I looked at my baby sister for an explanation.

"Xay marked Hazel and Mason just found out, he is not happy that Xay marked his daughter before she turned eighteen."

I looked down at Lexi, she would look so beautiful with my mark on her neck, my scent mixed with hers, the whole world would know that she is...

My thoughts were cut short when Lexi suddenly said "don't even think about it" I look into her beautiful eyes.

"I haven't accidentally thought out loud for a many many years, you don't know what I was thinking about." I say defiantly.

"I've known you my whole life you don't have to accidentally think out loud for me to know what you were thinking Mr. You are not going to mark me yet, I haven't even shifted into my wolf for the first time."

Okay fine, so she does know what I was thinking.

"Yes, I know we've talked about this. Wait until you can shift into your wolf" I say disappointed.

At least she turns 16 early next year so I only have to wait not so patiently for three more months. I can't wait.

Wolves usually wait to mark each other until one or both is at least seventeen and both can shift into their wolf form.

"No Ace, we agreed you won't mark me the same day as I meet my wolf, you will wait longer!" she says in a scolding way, knowing where my head was again.

I want her to have my mark as soon as possible.

Mason came back downstairs dragging Hazel with him and a furious Xavier being them.

"You can't just take her away, she is my mate!" he yells. Making Mason stop in his tracks.

"She is my daughter! Do you think she is ready to be Luna?"

Xay became Alpha right after his sixteenth birthday. Dad said he was doing a great job and could handle it on his own.

I think it was because they kept getting into power arguments because Xay wanted to do things his way, and he was already doing most of the work making dad feel useless as the Alpha, but mostly because Xay is a overprotective, powerful Alpha because of his gift and dad felt in his way.

"The only reason I don't live in my Alpha house I built, is because you said she wasn't allowed in there. She has been training to be Luna for years, and she would be the best Luna this pack has seen. She is perfect just because we are fully mated now doesn't mean she or anything else would change. I love her just the way she is. And really Mason it is a month earlier than you expected, get over it."

I have to say, Xay is the Alpha and he was never afraid to say things like they are and talk to people like he wants, but I did not expect him to tell his mate's father to get over it.

I had to bite my lip to keep from laughing, I could see Liley's body shaking as she tries not to laugh and Hazel and Mason looks shocked.

"You could have waited a month" Mason whispered helpless. Xay shakes his head walking over to them. He placed a gentle kiss on Hazel's forehead and puts his hand on Mason's shoulder.

"My mate is going to move in with me in the beautiful Alpha house I built for her now. That does not mean anything is going to change. It is barely a mile from your house, you will still see her everyday. And who knows maybe one day soon we will have a pup running around calling you grandpa."

Mason growls at the last part but nods his head "you better take care of her or I will kick your butt, Alpha or not."

A pup running around. I wonder what Lexi and my pup will look like. She would look so pretty with her swollen tummy that holds our pup.

I wonder who they would look like, I hope they have her...

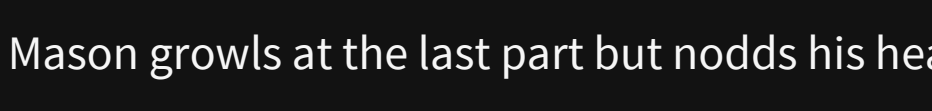

"Stop it" she whisper yells with wide eyes, while I give her an innocent smile.

"I hope they have your... I hope they look exactly like you" I whisper back. They would be perfect.

Liley walks up to them "okay when will you be gone, I am moving to your room, it is bigger" she looks at Hazel and then down at her tummy "liar, there is no pup there." she says before going upstairs, probably to start packing.

Xay's eyes shines with mischief before he looks at Hazel and whispers "guess we will have to keep practicing" before he pushes her outdoor, probably to go to her house to start packing her things.

I look down at my beautiful mate in my arms, she looks into my eyes giving me hungry kiss on the lips before turning to the movie "stop distracting me."

I know it was a big time jump and a lot has changed. I hope you enjoy!
