

The Overnight Chosen Wife: Darling, Kiss Me Deeper - Chapter 15

Chapter 15 - Qiao Luna

The next morning, Ji Xiehan woke up feeling grumpy from his lack of sleep and had a pair of glaring dark circles under his charming eyes.

He took a cup of coffee and went to his office. He had made an announcement that he was looking for a new assistant. Applications had been sent and he needed to check them out.

The interviews would be done by him.

Feng Ji International.

Like any other day, the female employees had infatuated expressions as soon as he set foot out of the elevator. Some of them even blushed and broke into screeches like crazed fangirls.

Although they couldn't get near him, their admiration for him had never died down.

He was so handsome that even if they could not speak to him, it was worth waiting all day to catch a quick glimpse.

"Oh my god! It's Ji Xiehan!"

"He surely is so tall and handsome!"

"How can such a man be single? Xiehan, I'm single and untouched. Marry me please!"

"I don't care about marriage. Just sleep with me!"

Ji Xiehan didn't care about those filthy-minded female employees. Couldn't they see how tired he was? He hadn't slept a wink.

He took long strides to his office.

Although the position of Ji Xiehan's assistant wasn't all that huge, there were many people who wanted to get it.

The infatuated females in the company just couldn't get their eyes off him. If they became his assistant, they would be closer to him.

It would be worth it even if he didn't glance at them once.

For some other people who aimed for greatness, it was just being prepared for any change of circumstance.

Who was to say that Ji Xiehan would work as Feng Ji International's negotiation expert forever? Things might change along the way. He might even decide to take over the company and become its CEO one day. After all he was the Ji family's only son, and the current CEO could retire any day. For this group of people, being the CEO's assistant was what they wanted.

Only a few of them were seriously here to be his assistant and would work hard if they got this position.

Ji Xiehan strided past them and saw a common look in the women's eyes - infatuation.

One had to note that majority of the applicants were women. It was as though they had been told that one of the major requirements was to be a woman.

For a second, it felt unbearable and he made a mental note to employ a man.

If not, his little beauty might misunderstand him in future.

Speaking of his little beauty, he would find an opportunity to speak to her right after finding a suitable assistant.

Just as Ji Xiehan was starting to wonder why his father had accepted the applications of so many women, a woman came in.

Although she looked very young, she was dressed officially and looked poised like a professional. Her long black hair was in a neat high ponytail. According to everyone else, she was very beautiful.

But at this moment, she was not here for people to fawn over her beauty. She was here to use her excellent school grades to become an intern and Ji Xiehan was indeed stunned. He forgot all about the mental note he had made a few seconds ago.

"Qiao Luna, is it? You have been hired. Your work starts right away."

"Understood. Thank you Master Ji."

"On your way out, tell the others that the interview is over."

When the people waiting outside were informed of this, their disappointment couldn't be described in words.

"What? But we have not interviewed yet. How can it be over?"

"Only one person has been interviewed. Was this a random choice? Could I have made it if I was the first?"

"You're kidding. The girl who went in just now is nothing impressive. She's only a little good looking."

"Then why is the interview over?"

Qiao Luna didn't mind their nasty words. She was here to be an intern assistant, not a beauty queen. "That's because I have been hired as Master Ji's assistant. I'm sorry for the huge disappointed. You can try out other positions." She said. She had done enough homework about Feng Ji International and knew that the company was currently hiring for other positions too.

This was one of the main reasons why Ji Xiehan had hired her in the end. She understood Feng Ji International like it was her home. In fact, she could explain this company's previous business deals in detail.

It was not that she particularly found information about Feng Ji International, she was well informed about many companies. Feng Ji International just happened to be one of them.

That was right, Ji Xiehan had hired her. Who would reject someone with such excellent qualifications simply because she was a woman? He wouldn't, especially since she looked nothing like those flirtatious women with nothing in their brains except weird fantasies about having sexual relationships with their bosses.

Qiao Luna followed his instructions and went to the HR department to sign the employment contract and get her employee card printed.

When she was done, she went back to Ji Xiehan's office. "Master Ji, I'm ready to work."

Ji Xiehan gave her a huge book. "Everything you need to know is here, including what is considered urgent and what is trivial.

I'm going out.. If there is anything urgent, give me a call.
