Reese's POV

"You...you slapped me?" I looked at him with wide eyes. He really did raise his hand for that bitch? This is the first time Avan ever hit me. In the past no matter how much I made that bitch suffer or make him angry, he would always ignore it. But today he he slapped me?

"Or what do you expect?" Avan roared. There was not any guilt or pain in his eyes yet, it was rather filled with anger and disgust.

"I thought you were a smart woman and could understand the situation without needing me to tell you. But now I realised how wrong I was about you. I have never seen such a dumb headed person before. We wouldn't be in such a situation if you hadn't planned the baby thing"

"You are still blaming me for that?" I shouted at him. Now I am so angry that I want to shout till I lose all my ability to shout. "How could you do that? Avan, don't forget that the child I am carrying is also yours. So no matter what we both are responsible for this. Besides, don't act like you are innocent or something because we both know you are not. When that bitch was here you always used me to deal with her, you used my body, my heart and also my mind. I have done everything I could. You didn't have any problems at that time, but now that I got pregnant you are pushing all the blame towards me?"

"You were never pregnant all these years yet you chose the right time to get pregnant. Isn't it planned? You want the Luna seat for yourself isn't it? Even if you have to do anything for that?" Avan mocked.

My anger raised as I glared at him. Usually I am always calm while dealing with him. But today because of the pregnancy hormones and the fear I couldn't help but fell angry and desperate.

"What do you mean by that? I told you this baby is the result of our own conduct. You can't just blame me for that"

"Oh yes" Avan laughed "of course it's the result of our own conduct because you planned it to make it happen and you know what congratulations you have won the game" his eyes mocking me along with his tone. I can't help but feel a sting in my heart.

My eyes blurred with unshaded tears as I looked at him. Is this the same sweet guy I fell in love with? Though whatever I did was bad, I know it. It would affect our lives but the way he is speaking, it feels like the child I am carrying is just a mistake of my own and he has nothing to do with.

“How could you say that Avan?” I roared, ignoring the pain in my belly that started to form. “How could you say that? You are blaming me because I seduced you and got pregnant? But what about you? Have you ever considered your own deeds before throwing the blame on my face?” I couldn’t control my anger. It felt like my heart and chest were burning with unstoppable fire.

I pointed my finger as I glared at him hard “you think you are the Alpha so no one will raise words on your deeds? You are blaming me for seducing you but did you forget who was the first one to confess having deep feelings towards me? It’s you.... You were not satisfied with Savannah because she couldn’t transform herself. So you chose me, used my body to satisfy your lust and needs then again used me to suppress her. When your plan of keeping her as substitute failed you started to blame me for that, didn’t you? How could you say that I tricked you when you are the first one who approached me with your own plan. Do you think I don’t know your intentions? Guess what I knew it in the first place but never said anything because I was so much into you that I chose to ignore all these and wanted to stay beside you. You were ignoring me all the time which increased my insecurities and I had to take such action only to keep you with me. Now you are throwing all the blames on me while keeping yourself clean? Wow, what a great idea you have to hide your own misdeeds” I clapped before his face.

“How dare you talk to me like that?” He roared but now I am too careless about it. I am not scared anymore. Not him nor his anger.

I laughed “why? You can put blames on others’ heads yet when others light your own deeds you can’t tolerate it?” I looked at him mockingly.

“Shut up, you piece of shit. I thought you are smart but no you are greatest fool in this whole world”

“Of course I am a fool” I nodded smilingly “I was a great fool that’s why I kept thinking about you all the time even after finding my own mate and rejecting him for you bastard” I shouted at him.

His eyes widened with shock “what? What did you say?”

“Why? You can’t believe what you heard? Isn’t it funny? I was such a fool to leave my own fated mate and chose you instead. If I choose him, at least I could live a better life than suffering here with you” I said as my voice started to fade. The pain in my abdomen started to increase. I rubbed my belly trying to ease the pain. Is it because I was so angry and even shouted at my top lung?

Avan stood there dumbfounded. He looked at me with wide eyes. I was so devoted to him that I failed to see through the situation and was not able to decide things clearly. Even if I want to go back to John, I know it wouldn’t work at all. I am carrying another man’s baby and he already rejected me. Maybe he could find a better woman for him. And here I have no choice left.

“Ahm...” I groaned as my belly started to burn.

“What happened?” Avan rushed towards me and held me in his arms.

“What’s happening? Call the doctor” he roared.

“Ahh....” I screamed as the pain hit me again and then I felt something hot pulling in my lower part. My eyes widened as I looked down. My breath stuck in my throat as I saw the red colour stained my cloth.

“No.....”

Savannah’s POV

I groaned as I tried to move my body. My body was in pain and there was a burning sensation in my neck. Slowly opening my eyes I looked around. The familiar decoration blurred my eyes for a moment. I am in my room. I looked around and found no one. Shaking my head I pushed myself up in a sitting position. I touched my neck and felt like there’s something like a bruise.

What was that? I frowned, questioning myself.

“You are up Mistress” Luina’s warm voice reached my ear. The door opened and Luina walked in holding a glass. There was a yellow liquid in it.

“I am glad you are awake. I was little worried when you are sleeping for such a long time”

Long time? What is she talking about now?

“What are you saying? How long have I slept?” I rubbed a certain area of my neck.

“You have been sleeping for 1 day, Mistress,” Luina answered.

My eyes almost popped out of the socket. What? One day? Then suddenly a scene flashed in my mind. Earlier I was arguing with Hardwick and our argument got heated before I tried to leave the room. But unfortunately he didn’t let me. Even he threw me on the bed and bit me so hard that I felt unconscious and I didn’t remember anything. That man. How could he bite till I am almost dead? I wanted to curse him so badly now.

I held back my series of curses that were about to spill out of my mouth. Even if I am so angry right now, I can’t disrespect him in front of Luina. Afterall he is the Alpha and has much respect in the pack.

So I forced out a tight smile “where is the Alpha?” Although I tried hard to sound warm, the coldness couldn’t be hidden inside the tone.

“Master said he will return soon. There was someone who came from far to meet him so he went out for the meeting” Luina replied.

Someone who came from far? I frowned at the thought. Who could it be? Even though I am living in the Dark Forest, I am still not aware of many things. Like Delaney, Daisy and the connection between them. I want to know about it. I want to know why Daisy was so hostile towards me when it was the first time we encountered each other. Why she accused me of middling between Delaney and Hardwick? And why Hardwick refuses to talk about it? What made him so angry last time that led our simple talking to such a heated argument?

“Mistress please drink this” Luina’s forwarded the yellow liquid glass towards me.

I looked at the glass then looked at her “what’s this?”

“This is Medicinal juice. Master left strict order to give you this once you are awake”

“Why is that? I don’t remember I am sick or something?” I frowned.

“That I don’t know. I only know that I need to give you this as per order” Luina looked troubled.

“Did he say anything else about this?” I pointed towards the glass.

“Master said it will help you rest well and relieve your pain”

I looked at the glass for a few minutes. Did he need this because of the pain he left on me? He was so angry last time. But now after waking up he ordered her to give me this medicinal juice to help me relax my body? I wanted to focus my point on the anger part but looking at the glass I could not help but feel flattered already. What’s happening? I can’t even stay angry at him?

“Mistress, please drink this. If Master finds you didn’t then he will scold me” Luina almost pleaded.

I sighed. Even though I can throw my tantrums but He will never leave Luina if she can’t fulfill his orders. Feeling helpless I grabbed the glass and drank down the liquid without stopping at all. Once the glass was empty I wiped my mouth with the back of my hand. The sweet-sour test melted in my tongue giving a weird taste. But to my surprise, after drinking I felt refreshed and lively. Looks like the drink actually works.

“Would you like to take a bath?”

I nodded “yes please, it would be good”

“I will make the water ready” then she walked inside the bathroom.

Why did Hardwick suddenly get so aggressive and bite me so hard? I don't know what happened after that. It was quite painful and my body felt numb at that time. I couldn't understand the point. Just then Luina's voice ran from the bathroom. I sighed and got up from bed before walking towards the bathroom. Right, it would be better to relax my tense body instead of thinking about so many things together.

=====

"Hi mom" I smiled as I picked up the phone.

"How are you doing darling?"

"I am good. What about you and dad?"

"We are fine except for Dev causing trouble" mom laughed.

"Oh, what did he do now?" I asked as I walked towards the balcony.

"Don't ask me. You better call him and ask personally. Your dad punished him with loaded work"

"He is ..." I shook my head. I miss him now.

"What happened sweetheart?" Mom asked from the other line.

"I miss him mom, you, dad, Tanea and all the memories I shared in the pack" I replied.

"Don't be sad darling. When one memory lingers in our mind, we create another one in the current situation. All you have to do is relax yourself and calm your mind. You can't think properly if you have disturbed mind"

"Thanks mom, I really needed your advice"

"Anything wrong sweetheart?"

I sighed "there's something I wanted to know but the current situation is not right"

"Then give it time" mom replied.

"Mom, I am too curious. And everytime it involves me"

"Then you need to trust yourself" mom said "if things are not going by your choice then try giving it some time. Maybe what you wanted to know is more serious than you can imagine. Don't only think from your point only, when you are paired you need to think with two minds and emotions. Trust is what you need. Time will give you the answers you want"

I sighed again. What mom said was true. I really can't force Hardwick to tell me the truth about Delaney if he is not ready to talk. He is my mate and we all have our own past. I really can't judge me through his past. Since he is reluctant to tell me, all I could do is wait. Wait till the right time, wait till he decides to reveal the truth himself without me forcing. Trust is a key to a relationship and I have to keep it between me and my mate.

"Thanks mom, I was too curious to think rationally"

Mom chuckled "it happens darling. But I hope you now understood what you need to do"

Hearing her a smile appeared on my lips. Mom knows me so well. If it was not for her, I would have done something that made me regret later. I shook my head at the thought.

"Savannah?" Mom's voice reached my ear.

"Yes, mom. I know what I should do"

Avan's POV

"What happened?" Dad walked in with a heavy expression. His face was serious and void of any emotions. The room filled with cries making it more noisy than needed.

"Alpha, look at my poor daughter. She is pale and unconscious" Salina cried as she looked at dad. Her face was covered with tears making her look so pitiful that anyone's heart could bleed. But I know her well. Salina could react faster than the signals of nerves that were sent in mind.

My gaze fell on the woman lying on bed with her eyes closed. I don't know why but my chest is tightening every time I look at her. The scene of our argument flashed in my mind again. I don't know why she was there. I thought if she could just rest in her room then everything would be peaceful but who could have imagined that this woman will suddenly show up in my study with a soup.

"Alpha you have to give justice to Reese" Salina's voice rang in my ear again. She wiped her tears as she spoke again "my poor baby is pregnant. She was carrying the heir of Bright Shine, now seeing her like this if anything wrong happens then how will she live her life? She has put all her efforts to serve this pack, even carrying the heir. Alpha you have to give justice to my daughter"

Dad threw a hard glare at Salina before turning his attention towards me "what's all these Avan? You can't even handle a simple matter like this? Then how will you handle the other problems of the pack? I was not expecting you to become like this. You are just making me disappointed over and over again"

“Dad, it was an accident” I said trying to clear the misunderstanding he was bearing in his mind. “Reese should be resting in her room and she was not allowed to step outside of her room. But today she suddenly showed up in my study with soup. I was worried that her condition was not good so it would tire her and asked her to leave and rest. But she refused and started to argue with me, bringing up past events and pointing out unreasonable things. I tried to stop but she became so violent that she started to shout loudly and suddenly it caused her pain and bleeding. I had to call for the pack doctor to check her”

“Who allowed her to go out of the room?” Dad roared as he looked at Salina.

Salina gasped as her eyes became wide. There was a sudden guilt flashed in her eyes because she covered it with her tears. I knew it was all their plan. They couldn't wait to dig inside the situation even after all this drama. These two women are really a greedy bitch who couldn't wait to do anything to achieve their goal.

“Alpha, Reese is pregnant and she was feeling suffocating inside the room. The doctor also told her to take a fresh breath so that she could relax her mind and body. It was suggested to be good for the baby too. But I never thought she would make soup and bring it to study. My child is always worried about Alpha Avan so she could help herself”

Dad didn't say anything but looked at Farid “I have told you to keep a good eye on these two. You couldn't even do such a simple task? Farid where is all your mind floating that you didn't realised them fleeing?”

Farid who was standing at the side lowered his head “please forgive me Alpha. Because of the family bonding I couldn't find myself to act too much strict and let this incident happened”

“What will your apology do now?” Dad glared at him. “When you are serving the pack you need to devote yourself and take the responsibility of your position and put it above all. But you are still stuck in your mate bond that you could not even keep a small task well. Since this is how you decided to serve the pack then fine, the pack does not need such a security head like you.” Dad gritted his teeth “you are free from the position and now you can do whatever you want”

Farid looked shocked while Salina stopped crying and looked at dad with wide eyes. Looks like they never expected something like this would happen. They don't know why Farid was kept as security head all these years. It was dad's plan because they are helpful to the pack. But looking at the situation now it looks like they are not important at all. They are creating troubles one after another, whether it's the daughter or mother or the father itself.

“Alpha.....” Farid managed to call. He stumbled back as he looked at dad.

“Alpha, please don’t do that...” Salina cried out “it was not his fault. Reese sneaked out suddenly and Farid didn’t know about it all” she tried to explain.

“Whether he knows it or not, it’s not my problem. What I know is he couldn’t perform his task and needed to receive the punishment” dad replied.

“Alpha, my husband has been serving you and this pack all these years without any hesitation. You have been praising him all the time for his contribution. It is only this time he made a mistake. Please don’t punish him this severely. Please consider his serving all these years beside you” Salina sobbed as she said. While Farid just stood there like a statue.

“Now you are going to teach me how to rule the pack?” Dad laughed out “Farid you really know how to choose a woman for you. Now your wife is going to teach me the pack rules and regulations”

Salina trembled as she heard dad. She wiped her tears and about to say when Farid grabbed her arm and pulled her aside “shut up. Are you not satisfied enough with dragging me down this hard?”

Salina looked at Farid with shock “honey, I wanted to-”

“I don’t need you to decide for me. Whatever you and that daughter of yours have done is already enough for me to suffer. I don’t need you to speak for me” Farid clenched his fist as he hissed at his wife.

This time Salina choose to stay silent. She lowered her head and didn’t speak at all. Just then the pack doctor walked from the other room. He has taken the blood sample from Reese to test after checking her body.

“Adam what happened?” Dad asked.

“Alpha, Reese’s health is poor. And because she shouted with anger it caused her blood pressure to rise and affected the fetus. I am really sorry to say that the child is dead”

My heart beat stopped instantly. The baby is gone? My eyes fell on the still flat belly of Reese. My blood and flesh that were growing inside her womb is dead? I felt a sudden urge to kill. I told her to take care of herself but no, she had to create trouble and kill the child. My fist clenched and my jaw fixed. The anger boiling inside my chest is about to erupt.

“What did you say?” Salina gasped “the baby is gone?” She fell on the floor and clutched her head as she shouted “no...no.....this couldn’t happen. How can the baby die just like that? This couldn’t happen.....no....”

“How’s her body?” Dad asked, ignoring the cries of the woman on the floor.

Adam shook his head “I am sorry Alpha. Today’s incident has created a lot of trouble and has affected the body too much. I fear she couldn’t bear any children in the future”

Couldn’t bear any child in the future? I glared at the unconscious woman so hard that if glares worked then she would have died long ago. She not only affected the child but now also harmed her own body. So what if she holds the Luna position? Can Luna rule the pack if she couldn’t give an heir for the pack?

“My poor baby girl” Salina shook her head vigorously as she cried out.

“Get her conscious back and send her back to the room” I said before storming out of the room.

This is all because of this unruly woman. If it was not for her. Nothing would happen like this. Since the baby is gone. We don’t have anything to do now. The last hope that connected us together is now gone.

Savannah’s POV

I looked at the mirror and traced the bite mark on my neck. It was longer and bruiser than hickies. It was Red and the wound is quite deeper than normal. Though I knew he would do it one day, what was most unexpected was that he did it so soon before I could prepare myself. I shook my head at the thought. I have heard about marking from Tanea and she also said after the marking mates can hear our thoughts and can understand us more better. I sighed looking at the bruise mark on my neck. I don’t know if this will fade with time but the bruise he made is quite deep and it still pains sometimes.

“What are you doing?” I jumped in shock when the voice fell in my ear. I turned around and glared at the person standing in front of me.

“Why do you always do that?” I hissed angrily.

“What did I do?” He asked, looking like an innocent child.

“You don’t know” I rolled my eyes and turned around to look in the mirror again.

He hugged me from behind and looked at me through the mirror. “What happened? you look so angry?”

“Should I not?” I said through gritted teeth. How dare he ask me like nothing happened? Yesterday he tortured me and now the next morning he is playing innocent games with me?

"You are moody today" Hardwick ignored my glare and looked at my neck where he left his masterpiece. Suddenly his eyes flashed and a grin appeared on his face.

"This looks good"

My temper flared immediately. I struggled free from his hold and turned around pushing him away from me "what do you mean it looks good? You bit me so hard now tell me what should I do with this mark?"

"What are you thinking of doing?" He frowned. "And I didn't bit you instead I marked you which should have been done long ago"

"You were aggressive," I told him calmly. Flooding my arms around my chest I looked into his eyes "you marked me because you wanted to avoid my questions"

He walked towards the bed and sit down before looking at me "it has nothing to do with your questions"

I raised my eyebrows "oh, since that's the case then why don't you enlighten me the answers"

"You want answers?" He raised his hand and gestured me "come here"

I looked at him and threw a glare before slowly striding towards him. Once I was near him, he suddenly pulled me to him and made me sit on his lap.

"What are you doing?" I yelled.

"Shh....." He stopped me, placing his index finger on my lips. "you talk too much. Aren't you afraid that your jaw will hurt?"

I rolled my eyes but circled my arms around his neck for support "who are you kidding? You still haven't answered my question"

"Which question?" He pretended. But I know he is deliberately trying to avoid it again.

"If you are so reluctant then just tell me. You don't have to pretend like this" I hissed angrily and tried to get up from his lap "talking to you is nothing but a waste of time. I would better read some books"

"Where do you think you are going?" He tightened his hold, refusing to let me go.

"Let me go" I told him angrily.

He smirked "never, once you are chosen there's no point of arguing anymore. You have to live with me till death apart us"

“And also that.....” He traced the line longer than needed “whether you want it or not, it depends on you. But you are mine and this is the universal truth”

My jaw almost dropped hearing him. Is he threatening me? How dare he?

“Are you threatening me?” I asked through gritted teeth.

“It also depends on you darling, if you take it in that then it is” he shrugged.

His reply made me so angry that I felt like beating him so hard until he beg for mercy. I can imagine the scene in my mind. I bit my inner cheeks trying not to smile at the thought. The scene itself was quite funny, him falling on his knees and begging for mercy and me glaring him with arrogance.

“What are you laughing at?” Hardwick’s voice rang in my ear. I was so engrossed in my own thoughts that I didn’t realize he was looking at me deeply.

“Nothing” I pursed my lips “my questions are still left unanswered”

“What questions?”

I sighed “Hardwick I know you are doing it deliberately. But how long did you plan to keep the truth from me? If not today then maybe tomorrow but there will always be a day when you have to tell me the truth. So why not today?” I tried to persuade him.

Hardwick looked at me then said “there’s nothing. You are thinking too much”

I sighed again “fine, since you are trying to cover it then I won’t force you. Tell me when you are ready but I must tell you something, tell me the truth before others do ”

Looking at his still emotionless face I decided to give it up. I won’t force him to tell me and give him time to rethink his decision. But I really want him to tell me the truth. I got up from his lap and walked towards the door. I glanced at him once more before walking out of the room and closing the door behind me.

Reese’s POV

Pain

Pain

And Pain..

I opened my eyes but my vision is blurry. I blinked several times to shake off the blurriness. What happened to me? I furrowed my eyebrows as I looked around. Where am I?

“Reese”

I turned my head and found mom sitting beside me. Her face was stained with tears but she gave me a small smile.

“Mom, where am I?” I asked her. Last time I remembered that I was in the study room then how come I ended up here in different room?

“You are in the infermercy” mom replied as she wiped the tears.

“Infermercy?” I frowned “why am I in an infermercy?”

Mom held my hand and tried to smile “don’t think about it too much. Right now you need to take care of yourself”

“Mom, just tell me what happened?” I suddenly felt a tug in my heart.

“Nothing happened. Why are you asking like that?”

I shook my head “no, something has happened. Mom, you can’t hide it from me. Please tell me what happened”

“Reese....” Mom bit her lips. “You have to stay strong and listen to me okay”

“Reese you argued with Avan and your anger affects your body”

“What do you mean by that?” I asked her.

Mom started to sob ” my dear you.... Your anger has affected your body and harmed the baby inside you”

My breath stopped for a moment again. Harmed my baby? No....how can something like that happen? The baby was the only for me to achieve Avan’s heart and soul and if something happened to it then there’s nothing left for me. No....nothing can happen to my baby. I can’t let anything happen to my baby.

I looked at mom and threw a hard glare “what the hell are you talking about mom? How could you say something like that about my baby?” I snapped at her.

“Reese, I am telling the truth,” mom sobbed.

“Shut up” I shouted at her but suddenly I felt slight pain in my abdomen. Closing my eyes I clutched the area then took a deep breath.

“Reese are you okay?” Mom’s voice reached my ear and my temper flared again. She reached out to hold my hand but I pushed it away roughly.

“Don’t fucking touch me. You are cursing my baby and blaming me for that? How could you even say that? You are my mother but you really have a heart of stone to curse your own grandchild” I hissed angrily.

“No....” Mom shook her head “it’s not like that-”

“It’s definitely like that. You are cursing my baby. You know that this child is the only hope left in my life. Then how could you say like that mom? How could you do that to me?”

“Reese” mom gasped. Her face was filled with tears and she hiccuped “I know it will hurt you but what I am saying is true”

“NO.....YOU ARE LYING TO ME” I shouted again. “I never thought you could do that to me mom. Why are you lying to me like this?”

Mom’s lips trembled as she about to speak again the door of the infermercy room opened and pack doctor Adam walked in holding a paper. A light of hope washed my heart as I looked at the man walking towards me.

“Doctor Adam I am glad you are here” mom said as she turned around. Adam nodded his head and glanced at me.

“How are you feeling right now?” He asked.

“I am fine” I tried to smile “there’s little discomfort in my abdomen but it is bearable”

He nodded and ran his eyes through the paper he was holding “all your test reports are here. Everything seems fine. Other than some minor effect you are totally fine”

I nodded “thank you”

“Since everything is normal, you can take your leave. After such a huge accident you need total rest and good care”

“What do you mean by accident Dr. Adam?” I frowned.

Adam looked at mom who shook her head. Adam sighed and looked at me again “you don’t know?” He frowned.

I shook my head. What is he talking about? How did he know something had happened? There’s something they want to say or may be trying to hide from me.

“What happened?” I looked at them one after another. What are they trying to say?

“Miss Reese, you should prepare yourself for the truth. I know it may hurt you at first but there’s sometimes when we need to face hard situations and move on for the future” Adam started to say.

“What are you trying to say?” I asked but my voice was filled with fear. Suddenly I felt my chest tightening and a sudden urge of suffocating sensation started to build inside me.

Adam gave a long sigh before opening his mouth again “Miss Reese, I know you are quite happy about your pregnancy but some things are not in our hand. And according to the situation we have to move on”

“I don’t need your lecture. Just tell me the truth instead of creating puzzles” I hissed at him. Now all my patience is running out. Adam looked helpless with my sudden rage. But he didn’t get angry but calmly replied.

“Miss Reese, I am sorry, I thought I could help you to survive but I couldn’t . I tried my best but failed. I am sorry to say, I couldn’t keep the unborn baby safe”

A moment of silence covered the whole room. My mind exploded with the news and my heartbeat stopped. My baby is gone? No.... How could something like this happen? My last hope and the strongest connection between me and Avan is gone? How can I believe it.? My baby can’t leave me alone. No I can’t let it happen.

No..... My heart shakes and my body trembles. I couldn’t open my mouth to utter something. All my pain and hurtful screams were subdued in my throat. My baby...

How can he leave me like this? My eyes brimmed with tears and my own breath felt suffocating.

“Reese, oh my child” I heard mom’s scream and the next moment I felt her holding me tightly in her arms “you have to stay strong my dear. We can’t change some things. I know how hurtful it is for you” she cried out.

My blood boiled at her words. Instead of feeling comfort I feel disgust at her words. All of these are happening because of her. It’s all her plan for me and she said everything will be good if I follow her words. But what happened? I lost my child, I lost Avan’s affection and I even rejected my own mate. I’m greedy. Everything shattered in my life and now I couldn't hold back anything nor I can make anything right. Whatever I had has gone, fading from my clutch.

"No...." I pushed her away with my strength.

Mom stumbled back as her eyes widened "Reese?"

"It's all your fault. If you were not there nothing would have happened" I screamed at her. My body trembled with anger as I pointed my finger at her "it's all because of you. You are reason behind the death of my baby, you are reason behind my sufferings"

Mom gasped as she looked so shocked "Reese what are you saying? I am your mother. Why will I ever want your bad?"

I laughed loudly. The pain rumbling in my heart. She is my mother? Yes, that's why I am at this position today.

"You know what? I regret, I regret the day I decided to follow your lead. It was my biggest mistake to drown myself in the sea of greed and today, no one can save me from here" my eyes watered as I closed my eyes tightly. My whole life is ruined. All my dreams have shattered.

"Reese"

"Get out"

"What-"

"I said get the hell out of here" I screamed at her again "I don't want to see your face in my life again. Never" I scream as loud as I can. She tried to say something but it only boiled my anger so I forcefully pushed her out of the infermercy.

"Miss Reese. You should not hurt yourself with your anger. Your body condition is not good" I heard Adam say from behind.

"Thanks for the concern Dr. but I want to stay alone. Please" I said and walked towards the bed and laid there.

"Have a good rest" I heard the door open then closed again.

I closed my eyes as I let the tears fall. Today I lost everything.

Savannah's POV

"This is a new one, would you like to taste mistress?" Jenny grinned, placing the hot tea cup on the table. I glanced at the beautiful colour of the liquid where some dry petals are floating.

"New one?" I raised my eyebrows.

"Yes" she nodded "I just got the new packet last night. The deliver of the new items got delayed for some reasons but I am glad it got delivered at the end"

I grabbed the cup and took a sip. The amazing taste of the tea melted in my mouth but the freshness lingered longer than usual.

"Umm....you are right, this is really good. Completely perfect"

"I told you" Jenny looked happy "I knew you will like it"

I smiled looking at her happy face. I am glad I could befriend such an amazing girl. Jenny the daughter of the chef. She used to help her father in the kitchen and always engaged herself in work. Where other members engage themselves in fighting and training themselves, she was in the kitchen taking care of the meal and sometimes helping her father in cooking too.

"You are still staying in the kitchen today?" I asked as I took another sip of the tea.

"Um....that's my work mistress. The chef needs me in the kitchen. Everyday there's new delivery for the goods and I really need to check on them"

"I told you, you can just call me by my name"

She smiled "I can't. Master dislikes when someone breaks the rules and specially when others don't give you respect"

I sighed. That man is always controlling everything. I sometimes wonder how he manages to do all these things.

"Wow, what great surprise" I turned my head to see Ryan standing with a smirk.

"Hello Luna, I didn't expect that you would be in the kitchen" he said as he walked closer.

I raised my eyebrows "oh, so being a mistress means I couldn't come here"

He laughed "of course not. The whole house is yours Luna. Alpha has already declared it widely" he grinned.

"I will go and see if there is any help needed in the kitchen mistress" Jenny left hurriedly.

I frowned at her behaviour. She was all calm a few seconds ago. Then how come she became so restless instantly. Shaking my head I turned my head towards Ryan and about to ask but paused when I saw him gazing at the back of retreating Jenny who almost ran inside the kitchen. I raised my eyebrows.

“Do you need anything Ryan? ” I asked, popping my chin on my palm.

Ryan turned to look at me. A smirk playing on his lips.

“I mean from the kitchen?” I added.

He shook his head “no, I was just here for water” he replied and grabbed one of the water bottles which was placed in the wooden shelf on the wall.

“Do you know where is Hardwick?” I asked him. It has been two days since we last talked. After that I was not blessed enough to see him. Or maybe he is angry after the talk that he wants to avoid me?

“Why? Are you missing him?” Ryan smirked again. A devilish glint flashing in his eyes. He is teasing me isn't it?

I tilted my head and gave him a smile “no, I want to kiss him right now so can you tell me where he is?”

Ryan who was drinking water choked suddenly and he coughed holding his chest. I ignored him and focused myself on enjoying the tea Jenny made for me.

Cough

Cough

“Um....I....ahem....Alpha was quite busy so he stayed in his study dealing with some matters. I guess he will be free today”

I nodded “you should drink carefully Ryan” I smiled at him.

Ryan wiped his mouth using the back of his hand “will remember that Luna”

I got up and smiled before striding out of the dining room. I know today's action might have choked to the point of pain. Because I can see his face was a little pale after coughing but teasing me at the wrong moment is not something appropriate. But what troubling me was just what kind of problem Hardwick was facing that he couldn't meet me for two days? Is it any kind of danger looming over the pack?

I sighed and walked towards the room. I want to see him but I really don't want to disturb him with his work. When I opened the room door I saw a flower bouquet resting on the glass table with a white note. I frowned and walked towards it. Grabbing the note I opened the paper.

THE TIME WE SPENT ARE THE MEMORIES OF OUR PASSIONATE AFFECTION.
DO YOU STILL REMEMBER IT?

I frowned as I read the line. Is it from Hardwick? But looking at the line, I really don't think he will write something like this. If this is not from him then who sent it?

And for whom?

Hardwick's POV

Files scattered on the table as I looked at it. These are the reports coming back from the border side informing each and every move happening there. These days there are chances for rogues to enter so the security becomes tripled to give more protection. The works were loading and fuck because of this I couldn't even leave the study and meet my mate.

"Fuck" I groaned loudly as I ran my fingers in my hair.

"Fuck" another curse echoed after mind followed by the sound of door opening. Ryan walked in with a gloomy expression.

"What happened to you now?" I asked boringly.

"I shouldn't have tried that," he said again before throwing himself on the chair.

"Try what?" I asked as I gathered the paper on my table.

"Tease"

I looked up frowning. Ryan was still sulking as his face was gloomy. I pushed the paper to the side and focused my attention on him.

"What did you do today?"

"I went to the dining area to grab some water but I met Luna there. She was drinking tea. She asked me about you, and I found it quite funny so I thought to tease her a little bit I never thought...." He paused.

"Thought what?" I raised my eyebrow.

"That I will be choked to death in return"

I burst out laughing. It was funny to think of Ryan being defeated by my mate. Wow, this is really interesting.

“She chokes you?” I asked again.

“Don’t laugh at me. I was almost scared. Your mate is a really dangerous woman. What she will say or do is unpredictable. Looking at her doesn’t look like she is able to choke but when she opens her mouth it’s..... Fuck it’s better to stay away from her in the future. I don’t want to be choked again” he cursed down.

“Well that’s your own karma” I grinned at her misery. Ryan is best known for teasing and till now no one dared to teach him a lesson. For me, I was too careless to deal with him but I never expected that my darling would do the work. I put my arms on the table and leaned forward.

“What did she actually do?” I wanted to know more.

“You still want to know about it?” Ryan raised his eyebrows.

“Why not? I find it more interesting” I smirked.

“She asked me where you are so I teased her if she was missing you”

“Just that?” I frowned, finding it unfinished.

“No, she said she wanted to kiss you desperately that’s why she was looking for you” Ryan gritted his teeth.

I was stunned for a moment. She said what? Since when did my mate become this bold? I mean I can understand if it was with me but to say such a thing to Ryan, I can finally understand why Ryan was sulking. For a bold person like him to hear such words from a woman without any hesitation it’s kind of..... unexpected. Because this time it’s not only him but also me, who is surprised.

“What a..... Heh, I never expected that Luna would say such a thing so boldly. Fuck it was unexpected and so smooth without any hint of hesitation” Ryan suddenly slapped the table and got up from the chair “fuck it man, you really know how to find such mate, so interesting and bold”

My face turned gloomy “think anything funny about her and I will have your eyeballs to play with”

He rolled his eyes. “I said interesting but I am unable to handle such a bold woman, that’s not my type” he waved his hand in the air.

“It’s good then” I nodded and got up.

“Your work is done?” He frowned.

“No, but it’s not like only you can see her”

He rolled his eyes “Who’s stopping you man?”

“You better not barge in with an excuse or I will snap your head from your body then hang it at border side”

“Fuck, you can’t threaten me like that” he glared.

“Try me” I smirked.

He looked at me for sometime “nah, I don’t have free time for that”

“You are lucky enough” I walked past him.

“Wait, you haven’t talked to her? I mean since you already marked her, you two can mind- link you know”

“I blocked the connection for work. If I talk to her then I would get distracted” I replied as I walked towards the door.

“Oh, just remembered. There’s three files, finish it before I come back”

“Hell, you can throw the works like that” he yelled but I closed the door ignoring him. I chuckled thinking about his sulking face. Shaking my head, I walked towards the direction of my room. Finally after two days I can meet my girl. It was hard for me to stay away from her and after the morning incident with Ryan I have become more desperate to see her.

Fuck, she must be looking so beautiful when she was saying she wanted to kiss me to Ryan. I felt my body becoming hard. Hell, just thinking about her makes my body come alive.

~ I want to eat her alive ~ Onyx said in my mind.

~ feelings are mutual buddy ~ I replied back.

~ her beautiful face is flashing. I can’t wait to eat her and taste those sweet lips of hers
~

I chuckled ~ desperate huh? ~

~ hell I am ~

A grin flashed on my lips when I saw the door of our room. Most of the time she stays there or in the library. But this time I guess, she must be in there. With excitement I walked faster. Once I reached there, I felt my hands itching suddenly. She is inside. I grabbed the door knob and pushed the door open. The first thing I saw was my mate sitting on the couch holding a white paper. Grinning, I walked towards her. Before she could understand anything I grabbed her small figure and hoist it up and pulled her for a rough and passionate kiss.

When the sweet taste of her lips flowed my heart melted and suddenly the racing heart cooled down. I nipped her bottom lips making her moan. I thrust my tongue in her mouth to capture all the sweetness. I can taste the tea she drank because the slight flavour was still lingering in her mouth. God, I was craving for this. I can never get enough of her sweet lips no matter what.

Savannah moaned when I kissed her more roughly. After two days of not meeting her my body became hard and now that she is in my arms, I am reluctant to let her go so easily.

“Mmmmm.....” Savannah placed her hand on my shoulder.

“Hardwi- ” I didn’t not let it continue but kissed her again, shutting all the words that she was about to say. My tongue massaged the walls of her mouth then I captured her tongue between my teeth and gave a tug making her moan. She fisted her hand as she moaned.

After the satisfied kiss I finally let her go. She was panting, trying to catch her breath. Looks like I almost forgot to let her breath. But what can I do? I missed her so badly and if it was not for the important work I wouldn’t have missed her for two days.

“Are you okay?” I asked patting her small back.

She glared at me, “Do I look okay?”

I chuckled “I am sorry but I couldn’t help it”

“So you thought to kiss me to death?” She mocked.

I pulled her to my chest “I missed you” I hugged her tightly.

“Don’t hug me like this. Are you planning to suffocate me today no matter what?” She mumbled as her face was pressed on my chest.

I laughed and loosened my grip a little “what happened, you were so engrossed in thoughts that you didn’t know about my arrival?”

Normally Savannah is sharp. Her hearing Power is impressive but today she didn't feel my presence until I pulled her for a kiss. Looks like she was thinking hard about something that she lost her focus on.

"I was thinking about something," she replied slowly.

"And what is that? It made you lose your sense?" I frowned.

She sighed "before that tell me first where were you for the past two days?"

"Some work had me engaged. " I smiled apologetically.

"You should have informed me at least so that I would not be wondering about your whereabouts" she shook her head.

"I am sorry. It came so suddenly and I was engrossed and lost the timing"

She looked at me then sighed "fine"

I grinned "you really did slapped hard Ryan, he was still sulking when I left the study"

She chuckled "he asked for it" then she frowned "Is there anything between Jenny and Ryan?"

"Jenny? Nope, I don't think so" I shrugged "why are you asking that?"

"Nothing, just thought of something"

"Okay tell me now, what were you thinking so hard earlier?"

"Oh, that" she turned and looked for some time. I frowned at her actions.

She picked up a white paper which was on the floor before turning to face me. " When I walked in the room I saw a bouquet and this later on the table. I asked the maids but they didn't know about it. It's strange that who put this stuff without anyone Knowing? That too in your room" she handed me the paper. I frowned and opened it.

"THE TIME WE SPENT ARE THE MEMORIES OF OUR PASSIONATE AFFECTION. DO YOU STILL REMEMBER IT? "

Reading the lines I couldn't help but clench my fist. What the fuck!

"I first thought it was from you. But the way these lines are written I can guess that it's not from you" Savannah said slowly.

"Then how did you know it's not mine?" I asked her.

“Because these lines feel too wishful. There’s also no indication to know who and for whom it was sent but one thing I know clearly that it’s not from you, It’s too excessive for your taste”

I smiled at her. But the white paper crumbled in my hands as I fisted it. Fuck I never thought this will happen again. Looks like the thing I wanted to hide in the dark trying to crawl back. But hell will freeze before I let it happen.

“Hardwick I don’t know why but I feel weird when I think about it. Do you know who sent it?” She asked, looking at me questioningly.

“It’s weird actually. But don’t worry I will look after this matter” I nodded.

Savannah looked at me for a few seconds before nodding her head. I pulled her towards me and she gasped when her chest collided with me. I smirked when I felt her soft spot pressing against my hard one.

“What?” I asked.

“What do you think you are doing?” She glared.

“I missed you” I leaned and about to capture her lips again she turned her head and my lips landed on her cheek.

“Miss? Humph” she struggled to move away from me but I didn’t let her get away instead I tightened my arms around her.

“If you missed me then you wouldn’t have disappeared for two days without telling me”

I smiled “I told you I am sorry”

“Your sorry is not acceptable mister”

I chuckled “since that’s the case then tell me what should I do to make you forgive me?”

She raised her eyebrows.

“Is dinner date okay?” I asked, tilting my head. Her purple eyes are looking at me making me unable to control myself.

I captured her lips for a heated kiss. She tried to push me away but I kissed her more deeply, sucking her sweet lips and licking and nipping it. She moaned and circled her arms around my neck pulling me more to herself.

“I missed you so fucking much” I mumbled between kisses. “So fucking much sweetheart”

“Lier” she mumbled, making chuckle.

“So fucking sweet” I suck hard and forced my tongue in her mouth wanting to taste all of her, wanting to conquer her boundary. She tried to battle with her tongue but my force was passionate and deep to let her win. I pulled her by her waist and now we are pressed to each other without any gap between our bodies.

“Mmm.... Hardwick-”

“You taste so fucking sweet” I cut her in the middle and kissed her again.

=====

“What happened to you again?” Ryan asked, frowning. I walked towards the chair and sat down.

“You went to meet her right? How come you are back so fast?”

“We need to check on the East Side,” I replied.

“East Side?” Ryan frowned again “why?”

I threw the crumbled paper which was almost torn towards him. He caught it perfectly before opening it.

“What the fuck!” Ryan jumped with wide eyes. He looked at me again “this... Where did you get it?”

“It was sent to my mate with a bouquet”

“Luna knows?”

I shook my head “not yet but I guess she is suspecting about it. There’s already so many things, I can’t let the past affect my present” I rubbed my temple.

“Don’t worry I will check on this matter. But I never thought that it would be....”

“No matter what I don’t have time to wait”

“I think you should tell Luna about it. I mean if something happens then she could understand it”

I looked at him “How? I don’t want her to despise me”

Ryan pursed his lips.

“I am taking her on a dinner date tomorrow. I don’t want anything to disturb us”

“I will check on this matter again” he nodded.

My eyes turned dark thinking about it. Fucking hell, I will kill anyone who tries to separate my mate from me. I have been trying to secure our position so that she will always stay with me. But if she knows about my past will she stay willingly?

Sigh.

Savannah’s POV

“You look beautiful Mistress,” Luina complimented as she put the hair clip in my hair. The clip has white gem on it, kindly matching the colour of my dress. I was quite surprised to see how this dress perfectly fitted me without any problem.

“Master really knows how to choose the dress. See Mistress, the colour and design has a good match and combining with you makes it more gorgeous to be told”

I smiled. There was a surprise glint in her eyes. I am even wondering how Hardwick found this dress? From the size to the fit it has no lacking rather it was clutching to my body like a second skin. After taking a bath I found Luina walking in holding a dress. Since the dinner date was fixed I thought Luina would pull out a dress to wear but I didn’t expect that It will be a gift from my mate.

I checked myself in the mirror again. Quite satisfied with my dressing up. It’s not like we are going on a date for the first time but still my heart raced and I felt nervous all over.

~ Are you ready for my love? ~ I heard Hardwick’s voice in my mind. He is mind linking.

~ yes ~ I replied nervously. It says that once your mate marks you, the bond between us will be stronger and we can talk through telepathy. At first I didn’t believe it but when it actually happened I was surprised but even more I was excited.

~ Come down, I am waiting for you ~ he said again.

I sighed and rechecked myself again. Once I was satisfied I nodded at Luina who was patiently waiting for me.

“I will walk you out Mistress” she smiled and led me towards the door.

Walking down the stairs I saw him waiting at the end of the stairs. He was casually dress himself but still managed to look so handsome. Sometimes I really does think that Hardwick looks so good even better than girls. Whenever he goes, he never fails to attract lots of attention, especially women.

He looked up and smiled at me. Once I reached the end of the stairs he forwarded his hand. I smiled and took his hand shyly. Tugging my wrist he pulled me towards him and smirked.

“You look beautiful love” he whispered in my ear.

“Thank you” I blushed “you look handsome too”

He chuckled “I really need to match my mate isn’t it? Or my pack members will say that their Alpha is inferior to his mate”

I rolled my eyes at him “since when did you start to care about what others think?”

He laughed “did you forgot darling I still need to maintain my prestige”

I shook my head but did not try to argue with him. Talking to him is like banging my head on the wall aimlessly. What’s the point when he will give you a hundred reasons to shut you up before you could come up with any excuses.

“What? Not arguing?” He smirked clearly, enjoying my frustrations.

“No, it’s more like saving my energy” I gave him a tight smile.

“Let’s go, we can’t be late” he held my hand and pulled me with him.

“Wait where are we going actually?” I asked as we settled inside the car.

“I am taking you to the city. I think it will be better to dine around humans”

My eyes widened. Since I was born I have always stayed in the boundary. First in the Bright Shine Pack then Snow Moon Pack. The opportunity of mixing with the ordinary people was rare, simply because my parents thought werewolves and human has thin line in between. Just as they couldn’t come and mix among us, we are also same. But today Hardwick is taking me to the city to dine normally like those ordinary human couples do on their dates. Thinking about it a grin started to play on my lips.

“You look happy?” Hardwick said side glancing at me.

“This is the first time I am going to meet those people. I always wondered how much of a difference there will be in our lives. But never got the chance”

“So I guess my decision was correct?”

“Of course, thank you so much” without thinking I jumped on him kissing his cheek.

“Fuck” he cursed as he held me by one arm and other one was stabilizing the car.
“Damn woman, are you trying to fly us out of this car even before we could reach?”

I hold back my happiness and smiled at him “sorry, I just got too excited”

“You surely know how to seduce at such a time darling. I swear if I weren’t driving right now I would have fucked you throwing at the back seat”

I gasped at his words “how can you be this shameless? How can you say such a thing so openly?”

“Oh I can’t?” He smiled “you are my mate, and besides these things are not something to be shy about darling. Soon we will be practicing it practically from every posi-” before he could continue I covered his mouth with my hand.

“You pervert, focus on driving instead of roaming your mind on dirty things” I glared at him.

He smirked “you like my dirty talk sweetheart. Isn’t it?”

“What ?” I frowned.

He leaned a little just enough for his lips brushing the shell of my ear “tell me are not you already wet love? The way you are clenching your thigh, it’s a clear sign, how much you want me to play with that naughty cunt of yours”

My eyes widened in shock as my face became hotter. I can feel my face become red from embarrassment. Is it that obvious? He even noticed that small action?

“I can see and feel everything you do darling. And I also know how wet you are right now”

“Stop it please” I shut my eyes tightly when I felt him nipping my earlobe. The car suddenly stopped making me look at him.

He only smirked “since you are so desperate for me, how can I let you suffer like that. As your mate, it’s my responsibility to take care of your needs”

“Hardwick-” I gasped when he pulled me up and placed me on his lap.

“Shhh.....” He placed his index finger on my lips. “You look so fucking beautiful when you are blushing, I could hardly control myself”

“Butwe are in the middle of the road” I tried to remind him.

He chuckled “afraid darling? Don’t worry. This road is clear, and there’s no one to hear your moan. Besides, my car has special glass and no one can see us from outside. Your body is only mine to see, other has no right to look at you”

“Oh” I moaned when he squeezed my breast then kneaded it slowly.

“Hardwick” I arched my back pushing myself more to him.

“You feel so soft baby” he whispered as he kissed my neck. He licked his mark making me shiver. I put my hand on his shoulder for support but couldn’t help but moan his name.

“So fucking wet” he hoist up the dress to my waist and rubbed my sensitive spot over the panty.

“Told you, you like my dirty talk don’t you darling?” He chuckled and pressed his finger on my aching core. His acting made me even more wet.

“Please ...”

“Please what ?” He whispered as nipped my ear.

“I....I” I couldn’t form any words as I felt my pussy was tightening.

“Fuck, do you want me so much baby? You sweet little cunt to trying clench around my finger”

“Hardwick” I moaned loudly and threw my head back arching.

“So wet” he pushed the thin cloth aside and inserted his finger in my hot spot.

“Oh god” I moaned loudly. My forehead started to release beads of sweat.

“You are so ready for me sweetheart. Look how much your sweet cunt is aching to feel me inside” his dirty talk made my pussy clench around his fingers. He pulled out and I winced in dissatisfaction.

He chuckled “disappointed darling?”

Before I could retort he pushed his fingers hard.

“Ahh....” I bit my lips as the sensation of fullness filled me.

“Hardwick ” I moaned as he continued to pleasure me with his fingers. His thumb reached out and rubbed my already sensitive clit while he continued fuck me with his fingers.

My body couldn't hold back the pleasure as my walls started to clench around his fingers.

"Yes, clench you sweet little pussy around my finger baby, let me feel how much you need me to make you cum hard" he whispered as he started to pump harder.

"Ahhh..... Hardwick..." I screamed as I cum hard. I felt my juices coated his fingers. Hardwick didn't stop yet pinched my clit making cum again.

"So good " he said huskily as he removed his hand. I panted, closing my eyes. It was like a rough yet wonderful journey. The whole ride was so sensitive that it made me shiver with delight.

"Hmm.....you taste fucking good baby"

I opened my eyes only to see him licking his fingers while his gaze was fixed on mine. My cheeks turned red as I turned my head to the other side not wanting to witness the dirty action he was playing in front of me.

He chuckled again before pulling out a handkerchief and started to clean me.

"I hope my mate is satisfied with her needs" he whispered as he placed me on my seat again. I couldn't say anything as I was totally embarrassed. I heard Hardwick's laugh before he started to drive the car again.

=====

"It's beautiful" I looked around the hall. The decorations and the setting was fine and the light was not bright but completely perfect for the candle light dinner.

"I am glad you like it" he said smiling down at me.

"Hello Sir, mam" a young looking waiter attended us. "Do you have the reservation please?"

"Under Leon" Hardwick nodded.

"Yes, this way sir" he replied politely before leading us towards the corner table.

"Please have a seat. I will bring the order menu soon. Do you want something to drink?" The waiter asked.

"No, the menu will be fine," Hardwick replied.

“How did you find this place?” I asked, smiling.

“What do you think? I have much more connection to deal with everything” he replied arrogantly.

I rolled my eyes “are you always this arrogant?”

“It’s my nature” he leaned back on his seat.

Seeing his proud look I couldn’t help but roll my eyes again. Soon the waiter was back with the menu , then we ordered our meal. The meal was good and the taste was wonderful. The people around us looked happy as they chatted with their partners happily.

“The dinner was good,” I said as we walked towards our car.

“Did you enjoy it?”

I nodded “thank you for the date. I will never forget it”

He smirked and leaned a little “I will make sure you never have the chance to forget about it”

My cheeks burnt as a familiar blush started to crawl again. Hardwick moved and chuckled when he saw my face.

“I will-” he said but stopped and started to look for something.

I frowned “what happened?”

“Looks like I left the car keys on the table. Wait here I will get it back”

I nodded “okay, come fast”

“Don’t worry, just a minute” saying this he walked inside the building again.

I waited for him and leaned my back on the car. It was quite late so there’s no one around the parking area.

“Hey, beauty, what are you doing here alone?”

My head snapped back towards the source of the voice. There were two men smiling.

“Aren’t you the one who was dining inside? Where is your partner? Did he leave you?”
One of them asked.

“If you don’t mind we can give you a lift to your home” they looked at me with evil glint.

Bastards! If I was an ordinary girl then I would have been scared shit. Because there’s no one and Hardwick was still inside the building. So it was a great chance for being molested by some unidentified bastards. But am I afraid? Nah.

“Get lost if you desire to go home in one piece” I hissed, giving them the hint of warning.

They chuckled “how can we leave you alone like this? For a beautiful woman like you, our heart will ache if you were left behind. So it’s better if you come with us. Or maybe we can do something better that can make you feel good even more” lust was shining in their eyes.

~ bastards what the fucking hell they think of themselves? ~ Red roared inside ~ I will fucking test their limbs ~

“What happened? We are gentle here, it’s better for you to come with us willingly” one of them stepped forward and clutched my arms tightly.

My blood started to boil while Red was raging inside trying to take over and snap their heads from their body.

“Don’t touch me” I frowned angrily and grabbed his hand which was used to grab my arm before twisting it.

He cried out in pain “you slut what did you do with my hand?”

“Something that will teach you how to control your hand ” I hissed and punched his chest making him fly away.

The other man who looked shocked looked at me with wide eyes. I smiled at him. Being a werewolf means you possess more power and has more strength.

“Where were you? It’s better for me to come with you-”

“Just stay away from me you witch” he almost stumbled as he started to run away.

I watched his retreating back and dusted my hand. Ordinary girls are not safe late at night. Because of these bastards who just couldn’t keep their fucking dick to themselves.

“What happened?” I turned around and saw Hardwick coming towards me.

I smiled "nothing, it's just there's many unwanted flies here"

"Flies?" He frowned, looking confused.

I laughed "how long do you plan to make me stand here mister?"

"Lets go" he opened the lock then opened the door for me. I smiled as I sat inside. He walked towards the driver's seat and started the engine.

"I enjoyed tonight, thanks for the dinner date" I leaned on his shoulder clutching his arm.

"I am glad you did" I felt him kiss my temple. His one hand was driving while the other hand was resting on my thigh, sometimes rubbing and teasing my skin. I sighed in content.

Everything was perfect, the date and my mate.
