

Complete Martial Arts Attributes

Chapter 15: Did I Do Something Wrong?

Whether it was his past life or this one, Wang Shengguo always made things hard for his son.

In his past life, Wang Teng was Lin Chuhan's table buddy for one year. The prettiest young lady in school was right in front of him, yet he couldn't touch her. It felt highly frustrating.

3

After they graduated from senior high, Lin Chuhan went to the Capital Xia and studied at the First Capital University.

After that, he heard that she went overseas to further her studies and came back three years later. At that time, she displayed exceptional business talent and built a huge franchise all over the country within a few years. Her company was looking to go international. She became a powerful boss in the business world in that era and became an amazing person.

He recalled her life and looked back at his...

He felt like a salted fish lying in front of a whale, a salted fish that laid in front of her for an entire year.

Wang Teng lowered his gaze and looked at Lin Chuhan's lean legs. He had the urge to go forward and hug them tightly.

2

These beautiful legs felt as though they were encased in gold.

Honestly speaking, this young lady's figure was perfect.

Lin Chuhan was reciting her textbook when she suddenly felt an intense gaze landing on her legs. She frowned uncontrollably.

"Hmph!"

A snort woke Wang Teng up from his daze.

Wang Teng looked at Lin Chuhan's cold face and touched his nose. He laughed softly and retracted his gaze.

"Why is he still laughing? This fellow is so irritating," Lin Chuhan muttered softly to herself.

Wang Teng shook his head. He had experienced two lifetimes, but he was still so easily distracted. That was embarrassing.

3

He took out his phone and planned to look up information regarding the university entrance exam.

What Wang Shengguo said in the morning had made him see the university entrance exam in a new light.

Wang Teng always thought that after he became a martial warrior, his status would be different. He wouldn't need to participate in the university entrance exam.

He didn't know that there were so many things he had to do and understand even after he became a martial warrior.

Fortunately, Wang Shengguo had reminded him in time. If not, he might have missed the university entrance exam this year.

He searched casually, and a whole bunch of information on the university entrance exam jumped out.

It had to be said this world and the world in his past life had some minor differences. If you didn't look at it carefully, you wouldn't be able to find them.

For instance, this planet wasn't named Earth. It was called the Earth Star instead.

2

For instance, their country was called Huaxia (an ancient name for China), and the capital was called Capital University. The First Capital University was a university situated in the Capital.

8

Donghai was similar to Shanghai. Donghai University and Capital Xia University were both top universities in the country.

The time of the university entrance exam had changed too, from June to the 5th of July. That was because this was the day martial arts started gaining popularity in public.

Today, the martial arts examination was the most crucial part of the university entrance exam. So, the test was held on this special day with a special meaning.

Wang Teng did more research on the registration for the martial arts course.

The martial arts examination was very different from the routine examination.

Martial arts wasn't just about testing your language, mathematics, English, and Science. It included the human anatomy, the history of martial arts, spirit herbs studies, mineralogy, and other various bits and pieces.

The Ministry of Education had compiled all these bits of knowledge into a book called 'Five Years of Martial Arts Exam, Three Years of Mock Papers'.

Anyone that wanted to take the martial arts course would get one copy of this book.

Wang Teng looked at the name with a weird expression. He wondered if he should get his hands on one too. After thinking for a moment, he decided to give up.

1

It was impossible for him to learn everything. He had to rely on picking up attributes.

2

There were five advanced stage martial disciples in Donghai No. 1 High School. They would definitely take the martial arts examination, and they would have most likely studied the 'Five Years of Martial Arts Exam, Three Years of Mock Papers'.

He could find time to visit them and pick up some attributes. This way, Wang Teng could collate more points for the proficiency of the "Five Years of Martial Arts Exam, Three Years of Mock Papers'.

If that wasn't enough, there were other students from other schools taking the martial arts course. He could look for them and collect some bubbles.

Wang Teng came up with a good plan.

"This fellow came so early, but he's actually playing with his phone."

When Lin Chuhan saw Wang Teng fiddling with his phone the entire morning, she frowned again. She said in a low voice, "Wang Teng, come out with me for a moment."

After dropping her words, she stood up directly and walked out of the classroom.

Wang Teng was still pondering over the martial arts examination, so he was at a loss when he heard Lin Chuhan.

But as he looked at the other party's back as she walked out of the classroom, he got up and followed her.

Forget it, since you're pretty, I will give you some response!

Wang Teng kept his phone and placed his hands in his pocket. He casually walked out of the class and saw Lin Chuhan waiting for him around a corner.

"What's the matter, Class Monitor Lin?" Wang Teng looked at the beautiful face in front of him and asked.

"Wang Teng, there's less than a month until the university entrance exam. Why are you still playing every day? Are you not planning to take the university entrance exam?" Lin Chuhan asked with a cold expression.

"Even you know that there's only less than a month until the examination. What's the point of working hard now?" Wang Teng said in a joking manner.

2

Wang Teng's nonchalant tone made Lin Chuhan unhappy.

Her brows furrowed. In the end, she controlled her temper and said, "I have some notes. Although there's less than a month, if you work hard, you might be able to score some points in the entrance exam. Your family background is good. It shouldn't be difficult for you to get into a good university."

"Class Monitor Lin, why are you so concerned about me?" Wang Teng suddenly asked.

"Don't think too highly of yourself," Lin Chuhan replied without any expressions.

What do you mean by I care about you? How can there be someone so shameless?

"Why are you worried about my university entrance exam then?" Wang Teng continued asking.

"The headteacher let you sit beside me because he wants me to help you with your studies. It's alright if you didn't listen to me in the past. However, the university entrance exam is coming, so I'm reminding you sincerely one last time," Lin Chuhan explained.

"Any explanation is a cover-up," Wang Teng teased her.

2

"I..." Lin Chuhan was stunned by his shamelessness. She didn't know what to say for a moment. She continued in frustration, "I'm persuading you because we are table buddies. You can choose whether you want to listen to me or not. If you can't enter university, it has nothing to do with me."

She turned around and wanted to go back to the classroom. However, she didn't see the broom that had fallen on the ground because of her brisk pace. She tripped over the broom and staggered.

Oh shit, there's nothing for me to hold onto.

Lin Chuhan had a huge shock. But the next second, she felt someone hugging her body.

Wang Teng had noticed the strange feeling in his hand too. He froze for a moment.

"Hurry up and let go!"

Lin Chuhan wanted to cry.

"Do you really want me to let go?" said Wang Teng.

"Let go!" Lin Chuhan said firmly.

"Okay..." Then, Wang Teng released his grip...

He let go of his hand...

"Ahh!" Lin Chuhan fell with her face landing flat on the ground.

"Class monitor, you were the one who asked me to let go," Wang Teng said honestly.

2

Lin Chuhan raised one hand from the ground and pointed at Wang Teng. Her finger kept trembling.

"Erm... are you alright?" Wang Teng bent down beside her and asked carefully.

Lin Chuhan raised her head. Her hair was in a mess, and her exquisite nose, as well as her forehead, was entirely red.

She looked so hopeless!

“Wang Teng, you bastard!”

She got up from the ground and ran away without turning back.

She felt so embarrassed!

Wang Teng looked at Lin Chuhan’s back view as she ran further and further away. His expression was a little awkward. Did he do something wrong?

16

“What is this Young Master Wang doing?”

“Who knows? Maybe he’s taking a stroll.”

1

“Taking a stroll?”

“Why do you care about what he’s doing? He’s a rich second generation. His thinking is not on the same level as us.”

“His train of thoughts is really peculiar!”

The meddlesome students couldn’t help but lower their voices and discuss among themselves. All the while, they had strange expressions on their faces.

1

When Wang Teng turned around and looked at them, their voices disappeared. They all sat there seriously and pretended to be studying hard.

Wang Teng pouted as he sat down on his seat.

Lin Chuhan wasn’t in her seat. No one knew where she went.

She only walked into the classroom when the school bell signaling the start of the morning lesson rang. She had a cold expression and didn’t glance at Wang Teng at all.

She sat on her seat as though there was just a ball of air beside her.

Wang Teng smiled bitterly. He didn’t dare to provoke her again.

Lin Chuhan's personality was distant and cold. When she wore a chilly expression, she gave off an aura that seemed to forbid anyone to get close to her.

"This young lady is really cold."

During the morning lesson, Wang Teng flipped through his textbook aimlessly. He was bored to death.

All the students were intensely revising the entire morning. Wang Teng had a fruitful morning too. He listened to the class and picked some attributes while at it.

1

His knowledge of his subjects increased exponentially. If he was to take a test now, he could get around 60 points.

This was extremely frightening!

Mind you, his past results only had one digit, and that was if he was lucky and chose the correct answer for the multiple-choice questions.

3

Lin Chuhan didn't want to interact with Wang Teng. However, since they were table buddies, she could see what Wang Teng was doing.

She couldn't help but feel surprised.

"Did this fellow's character change suddenly? Why is he reading the textbook? Have my words borne fruit?"

1

"Or could it be that this bastard likes me?"

3

Lin Chuhan had never been in a relationship, but she had chatted about guys with her female friends before. Also, she secretly read some romance novels.

2

In a novel, when a young man loved another young lady, he would take her words to heart and make changes for her. That was what all novels said. The guys always wanted to present a better self to the other party...

2

When she thought about what happened just now, she felt something strange in her heart.

But, this fellow was still so irritating!

He actually let go of her. Would he have died if he had held onto her? He was really a dumb young man.

4

As she thought about this, Lin Chuhan suddenly woke up in shock. She shook her head like a pellet drum, and her ears uncontrollably turned red.

What kind of nonsense am I thinking about?

There was a tremendous fight going on in Lin Chuhan's brain. All kinds of young girl's thoughts were jumbled up in her mind. Her whole face was so red that it felt as though she was in a steamer.

Lin Chuhan's will might be stronger than her peers, but she was a young girl after all. She would naturally have this kind of thoughts about love.

After some time, Lin Chuhan sighed quietly.

It's all that fellow's fault. He's disturbing my peacefulness.

Wang Teng noticed Lin Chuhan shaking her head frantically and then sighing for no reason. He felt confused.

What is she doing?

He couldn't help but open his mouth. "Class Monitor Lin, the lesson has ended. Go and take your lunch break. Why don't I treat you? This is my apology for what happened this morning."

Lin Chuhan was flabbergasted. The next instant, she turned vigilant.

Tricks! These are all tricks! This fellow has other intentions towards me!

Wang Teng was dumbfounded.

Why are you giving such a vigilant look?

Other people might think that I'm a human trafficker abducting people.

3

Lin Chuhan glared at Wang Teng and said coldly, "I'm not going."

She got up and took her bag after she finished speaking. Then, she ran out of the classroom as though something would happen if she stayed a moment longer with him.

"Strange!" Wang Teng shook his head helplessly.

Was he so scary?

1

He actually managed to make a young lady evade him as though he was a poisonous scorpion.

"Brother Wang Teng, let's go and eat!" Xu Jie's voice came from outside the classroom at this moment.

Wang Teng got up and walked out.

Xu Jie was a year three student too. But, he was in class 12. He wasn't in the same class as Wang Teng.

As for Bai Wei and Yu Hao, they were studying in year two in Donghai No. 1 High School. They were one year younger than the two of them.

Usually, they wouldn't go home for lunch. Instead, they would finish their meals in the school cafeteria, or sometimes, they would go to a restaurant outside the school to eat.

When Wang Teng and Xu Jie arrived at the cafeteria, it was already crowded. The noise could almost turn the roof upside down.

At this moment, Xu Jie's WeChat notification rang.

He took out his phone and looked at it. Then, he said, "Let's go to the second floor. Bai Wei and the rest are waiting for us there."

The second floor was more spacious than the first.

When they reached the second floor, the air-conditioner was cold and icy, and there were not many people there. It wasn't crowded at all.

The level of consumption on the second floor was much higher than on the first floor. Regular students wouldn't go there for their meals.

The moment they came up, they scanned the cafeteria and saw Bai Wei and Yu Hao sitting on the seats to the right.

The dishes were already prepared, still steaming hot. It was evident that they just came out of the stove not long ago.

This was a unique feature of the second floor. Not only were the dishes exquisite and delicious, but they were also cooked on the spot.

On the first floor, all the dishes were cooked beforehand and put into trays. The cafeteria aunties just had to scoop the dishes the students chose.

The spoons they used to scoop the dishes were shared. After taking out one dish, they would use it to scoop another dish. Hence, all the different flavors were mixed, and it was a suffering to one's taste buds.

4

Have you tried the taste of mixing stir-fried tomato with egg, twice-cooked pork, fish-flavored eggplant, and...?

4

Once you did, you would never want to try it again.

1

If you were a little late, you could only eat leftover dishes and rice. The dishes would be cold, and they were all vegetable stems and leftover gravy.

The four of them chatted happily and ate at the same time.

Halfway through their meal, Yu Hao suddenly pointed in a certain direction and asked, "Isn't that Yuan Zhenghua?"

Xu Jie and Bai Wei immediately looked in the direction of his finger.

"Hey, it's really that brat!" Xu Jie scoffed.

"The pig-head beside him... is that Li Rongcheng?" Bai Wei's eyes suddenly dropped wide open as she asked in confusion.

"What pig-head?"

Xu Jie and Yu Hao were stunned at the same time. Then, they looked carefully.

“Oh my god, haha, that’s really Young Master Li Rongcheng. How did he become like this?” The two of them were astounded. Then, they burst out laughing.

“Could it be...”

The moment Bai Wei started speaking, Xu Jie and Yu Hao abruptly thought of something. They looked at Wang Teng with a strange expression.

When Wang Teng saw Li Rongcheng’s appearance, he remembered that he seemed to have pushed some blame on this young man that night at the Wild Rose Pub. He coughed awkwardly and said, “Don’t talk nonsense if you don’t have evidence.”
