

Deep affection honey come back to me

Chapter: 521

Sorry I Let Go Of Your Hand

Noticing Noah's clear smile, John asked coldly, "What are you laughing at?"

His tone was indeed unkind, but he didn't mean to be angry.

Noah thought, 'The more we got along with each other, the more I felt that Mr. Shi is quite different from the rumors, just like Vicente.'

It is different.

Vicente is two personalities of the people. John always keeps one personally, he is indifferent to the people around him, but his heart is different from that of strangers.

He has always been nice to the people around him.'

"Mr. Shi, it's not a smile. It's a surprise. I didn't expect you to be a warm-hearted person." Noah was indeed touched by Noah's words. 'I have a younger brother in the Ye family.

We are all homeless, but we all have families.

No wonder Mr. Shi is so good at reading people's mind in the business world. A word could poke a person's heart.'

John's eyes flickered. "Not for you."

"I know, for the sake of Henry." Although Noah said so, he didn't think so.

'Mr. Shi is really interesting. He said that he regreted.'

After the screen was turned on, it was the press conference held by Vicente. Dressed meticulously, he sat in front of the microphone, with a consistent smile on his face.

"The children have been found safely. Before I find the person behind the scene, they temporarily live in the Scher Mountain. It has nothing to do with the servant Cali. It happened that she took the two children to avoid danger and sent them to me safely..."

Vicente talked a lot on the screen and didn't mention anything about Demi and the spy. But in the end, he said, "Because of this matter, I realize that there are many evil people around me."

Nina knew that he was warning the man with real ulterior motives. 'He had planned to take the child away, so he would pay attention to relevant news in real time.'

Sitting in front of the screen, Jett looked very nervous. 'Tasha was sent to prison by Anne. I don't know if she would make a false move and tell them everything in detail. Demi is suddenly out of touch, and I don't know if she was exposed....'

People Are Afraid Of Fame

After the formal press conference, it became the world of gossip news. Many media reporters came up for an interview. Vicente politely expressed his gratitude to every media friend, but did not answer any question directly.

The media reporters couldn't find out anything useful, so they had to target his fans outside.

Vicente's fans in the C Island were comparable to popular stars, especially after marrying Nina, the two CP fans could dominate the entertainment circle of C Island.

Two outsiders had more fans than any insider.

Fans gathered not far from the press conference. When they saw the person coming out, they held up their brands, took photos and videos with their mobile phones. Some wanted to sign, and some wanted to shake hands.

Vicente was very kind and took good care of everything he could.

A few media journalists mingled in the fans group and asked him curiously, "Count Nangong, I saw you not long ago. You seemed to be attending a social engagement with a female companion or an assistant. Is Princess Nina if she knows it?"

"It seems that the relationship between Count Na confused. "Why do you say that?"

"Today, a fan said that if we two divorced, she would no longer believe in love. I don't know if it's true or not. Actually, I don't care about it, but it's her words that makes me think that it will be very troublesome for us to divorce after we two get divorced." Vicente said with sadness.

Nina didn't want to stand, so she sat beside the bathtub and looked at her. "If the public relations is good, it shouldn't be a big problem."

"People are afraid of fame, and pigs are afraid of being fat. We have too many CP fans. Even if we two get divorced peacefully, the media reporters will definitely dig deep into it and won't let us end up with a peaceful divorce. It's not that I have an affair, but that you have an affair. These are the usual tricks of the unscrupulous media.

The eyes of the public are not bright, but from the crowd. It is easy to be misled. It seemed that water could carry a boat but also destroy it. Since I lived as Vicente, I have been keeping my chastity and acting like a gentleman, so... "

Vicente gave Nina a deep look and didn't go on.

You Are Not Ruthless Enough

Nina took over her words and continued, "So the media will believe that I have cheated on you or that I have betrayed you, so we will divorce. Are you worried that I will be cursed by them?"

"Almost." Vicente lowered her eyes and said in a much lower voice, "I'm more afraid that I'm selfish and won't stand out to speak for you. I would rather put on a mask and even sacrifice something important to guard the position of the count. I want to guard my parents, my brother and my family.

Nina, this is my responsibility and mission." She raised her head again. "You are my good friend and very important to me, but... I'm afraid I'll betray you for my position and reputation one day. I'll be here for the rest of my life."

Nina knew that what Vicente said was true. 'Vicente's good reputation is not bragged, but accumulated by her bit by bit. If the two of us didn't divorce smoothly, then they would only target at me.

Moreover, John is right next to me, like a time bomb. The two children really looks like me now. It wouldn't be long before they grow up and their appearance looked like John would appear.

Van and Don are more like two time bombs.'

apsed.'

With tears in her eyes, Nina picked up a relatively sweet lollipop, peeled it and stuffed it into Vicente's mouth. "You can eat it if I tell you."

The taste of the lollipop was particularly sweet, especially when it was Vicente who ate lollipop for two times.

'Last time, twenty years ago, I was still the younger Vicki. I once saw other children on the street having candies and crying. But my mother said that I had candies and dental cavities, so she didn't buy them no matter how hard I cried.

Then my brother bought it for me secretly.

This is also my deepest impression of my brother.'

With a lollipop in her mouth, Vicente was in a daze for a long time before she curled up her tongue. The sweetness spread to her heart, like a hook to hook up the little girl twenty years ago.

Vicente was shocked. She took out the lollipop from her mouth and put it on the table. A hint of panic flashed through her eyes. She immediately said firmly, "I'm Vicente. It's well-known that Vicente doesn't eat desserts."

When the lollipop made a slight sound on the table, Nina knew that she had failed.

'Vicente really contributed herself.'

Bite Every Part Once

Vicente stood up and changed back to her male voice, as if she was deliberately trying to make herself realize who she was now.

"I'm going to change my clothes. You go with me and help me choose. And continue the topic just now. Which place is John worse than me?"

When he asked the last question, his eyebrows danced again.

Nina was at a loss whether to cry or to laugh. "John are not as popular as you, and his reputation is not as good as yours."

The two walked into the cloakroom next door.

Nina's cloakroom was originally separated from Vicente's. Later, Vicente had someone break through the wall in the middle, because there was no cloakroom for Nina's clothes, shoes and jewelry.

However, those jewelries were just like decorations. Vicente hadn't seen Nina move them a few times, and most frequently, she changed a set of clothes every day, which hadn't been repeated yet.

On the contrary, in Vicente's cloakroom, there was no other color except for the neat suits and the neutral casual clothes.

Except for the watch.

The two cloakrooms were connected, at least two hundred square meters. They were divided into several areas in detail, and only 1/3 of the things belonged to Vicente.

"Go on." E

far away.

"Demon queen, tyrant, you two just stay inside and reflect on yourselves!"

"John. You really pissed Vicente off." Nina patted the phone on John's chest and sighed, "It's all my fault. I won't tie anyone else in the future."

"Ignore him." However, John was not affected at all. He just raised his hand, pinched her chin, bent over and kissed her. "Just remember what you just said."

Nina was at a loss whether to cry or to laugh. "Do you need me to give you a reward? Mr. Jealousy."

"No, thanks." John raised his chin proudly.

"What if we two are locked inside?" Nina signed, "We can only wait for him to calm down and open the door for us. The others on the two floor can't come up."

Then John looked around and said slowly, "It's spacious and bright. The table, chair, sofa, mirror, nice. There's carpet over there. It won't be cold on the ground."

"What?" Nina asked in confusion.

Then John said seriously, "Bite you."

Nina's heart jolted. She turned her head mechanically to look at the well-dressed man next to her.
"Bite... Bite?"

"Yes." Then John reached out and held her in his arms. He bit her ear and said, "Bite every place I just said."

Nina's face flushed all of a sudden.

Demi Attempted Suicide But Failed

play\_arrow

The two of them rolled on the carpet for about ten minutes. When they were about to get to the point, their phone rang.

When it rang for the first time, nobody cared.

The person who made the call was like being chased by a ghost, calling again and again, leaving no chance for the phone to rest for half a second.

John couldn't bear it but reach for his phone. When he saw the caller ID was Vicente, he regretted that he hadn't strangled Vicente to death just now.

'First Demi, then Vicente, they were all bad guys. Every time I was about to take off my pants, they would come out and cause trouble.

Is it so difficult to kiss a person?' !

Although he was dissatisfied, there must be something urgent to do on the phone.

At first, John held her in his arms. After the two sat on the sofa, he answered the phone and spoke.

Vicente's anxious voice came through the phone, "Nina, Demi tried to commit suicide. Go to the basement to check the situation. I can't get rid of here."

"Suicide?" Nina sat up straight in John's arms and said in a soft voice, as if she hadn't eaten anything.

Vicente sensed something wrong with her sound a things about Jett. If she dies, it will be difficult for me to defeat Jett."

"She won't commit suicide." Nina said firmly.

"Why?" Vicente said, "Since she won't commit suicide, why did she hit the wall? If my subordinates were a little late, she might have bumped her heads out. She was determined to die, so I asked them to pay attention to the situation all the time. I didn't give her any other chance to commit suicide, so she could only starve to death."

Then John asked in a low voice, "Then why didn't your subordinates come in a little late?"

"They were right at the door. They would rush in when they heard the noise." Vicente's mind was still in a daze for a while. "Is there anything wrong with it?"

Nina smiled at John and said, "Look, how smart my child's father is."

Vicente said with a gloomy face, "we are talking about business. Why are you so sure that she won't commit suicide?"

At first, John didn't want to waste his time to explain, but after hearing Nina praise him, he felt happy.

"She didn't commit suicide. She was leading us there on purpose." Then John raised his chin and glanced at Vicente in disgust.

There Is Something Wrong With Nina

Vicente looked at John's disdainful eyes and was still a little angry, but he soon reacted.

"Yes! Why didn't I think of it?" Vicente was suddenly enlightened. "If she wanted to commit suicide, just did it secretly. Make some noise so that my subordinates could hear it, so that I could save her, and even played a play with her."

"Smart." Nina praised Vicente generously and continued, "The wound on her head seems not light, and it's not serious enough to kill her. She woke up not long after she fainted."

She has already planned to lure us there. As for the reason why she did that, she probably wanted to find out whether we had found her related with Jett."

Nina guessed, "Now that she knows the answer, she won't commit suicide either. The next step should be to find a way to escape or wait for Jett to send someone to save her."

"Jett is a heartless man. Will he come to save her?" Vicente was suspicious of this.

Nina said firmly, "He would. It's just that we saw his attitude towards other women and Ruby, and there are some things that we can't see, such as Demi.

ck to the point. "You haven't changed your lifestyle at all. Nina's lifestyle is always up to you. Why did you let her sleep at half past ten?"

"It's normal to sleep at half past ten." It was hard to tell whether John was happy or angry.

Vicente was not stupid. 'How could I believe the perfunctory words of John?' So Vicente boldly guessed, "Is there something wrong with Nina's body?"

"No." With his eyes flickering, John clenched his fists slightly.

Vicente frowned, "There is really something wrong with Nina."

"I said NO" John's low voice was restraining himself. His eyes were staring at Vicente as if he was a fierce beast.

The more John denied, the more certain Vicente was. Vicente asked in a hurry, "Haven't the experts come up with an answer yet? How do you know there is something wrong with her body? Don't scare yourself and us here. I think she is fine. She has remembered everything in the past. Normally, she..."

"Her immunity is declining. It's constantly declining, every day." John lowered his eyes, his long and thin eyelashes blocking his wet eyes.

How To Get Rid Of Cali's Idea

play\_arrow

Two people stood at the door, one tall and one short. Two shadows fell on the corridor. The night outside the window was deep, and the wind was cool.

Leaning against the wall, Vicente took a deep breath and asked John, "What happened?"

"Maybe it's a side effect." John reached out for the cigarette and lighter and remembered to put them in the room below.

He had quit smoking, because when Nina smelled the smoke, she would get choked. But after half a year's separation from Nina, he had become an old smoker again.

He had been restraining himself since he came to the C Island. He didn't smoke as long as he was with Nina, but now he couldn't control himself.

If he didn't hold Nina in his arms, he should have a cigarette in his mouth. Otherwise, he would feel uneasy and panic.

"Looking for a cigarette?" Vicente saw what John was doing.

John turned to look at Vicente and asked, "Do you have?"

Vicente shrugged, "No."

"No? Why are you asking?" Without touching the cigarette, John was inexplicably a little annoyed, and his tone was naturally not much better.

Vicente wa

li's idea.

'If it was in the past, I would announce my sovereignty in public and let others give up their thoughts.

But now the situation is bad from time to time. What should I do?

Besides, it's not illegal to like someone!

Nina was a little crazy. She thought for a while and said, "Well, Cali. Sean told us that he had someone in love."

"I see." Cali's bright eyes dimmed.

Nina felt a little guilty, so she gritted her teeth and nodded. "Yes, Mr. Sean's lover also loves him very much."

After a moment's silence, Cali turned to look at Nina with a pair of clear eyes. "Why isn't Mr. Sean's lover by his side? I've been observing Sean secretly for a long time. I haven't seen Mr. Sean contact anyone else, and I haven't seen him get close to any woman. He seems to only be close to you, Princess Nina. But these are all his jobs."

Nina blinked her eyes for two times. 'I want to say that I am John's lover. We love each other very much.

But I couldn't say these words, let alone expose it to the public.'

Nina kept silent for a moment, and Cali's dim eyes lit up again.

How To Please An Unkind Mother in law

Noah didn't listen to John's advice and comforted him, "Don't worry about me. I've brought the doctor here."

"I'm not worried about you." As soon as John finished speaking, his eyes softened when he saw Noah's attending doctor.

Noah smiled, "You pay."

Without saying anything, John walked straight to the doctor and asked, "How's his injury?"

"The wound is healing. Take medicine and apply medicine on time. Pay more attention to it in normal times. Remove the stitches later."

"Okay. Can he exercise?" John faintly said.

"Err..." The doctor's old face was a little red. He looked back and forth between the two people with a strange and understanding look. "Strenuous exercise will tear up the wound. He can't do that."

Noah pricked up his ears and felt something strange. While he was still thinking, he heard the voice of John.

"Come with me."

"Where are we going?" Noah suddenly became alert.

John didn't say a word and just signaled Noah to follow.

Noah braced himself to follow John. Noah glanced at Nina, and Nina quickly asked, "Where are you going?"

"I don't know. Ask him." Noah raised his chin and looked at the man in front of him.

Vicente and Nina were playing with the children in front of them, which made the two children laugh frequently. It was almost nine o'clock, but they were still awake.

Van and Don used to play in their dreams at this time.

"What are you thinking about?" Leon walked beside John and walked forward side by side.

While John was still thinking, he said without hesitation, "How to please an unkind mother-in-law?"

As soon as John finished speaking, he realized that he had spoken out his innermost thoughts. He turned his head and looked at the man who was holding back his laughter. He felt that his face was almost turned into pieces.

John craned his neck, trying to cover it up. "I'm just thinking about it casually."

Leon didn't debunk John's lie. 'I just felt that a thirty year old man almost lost his mind because of the woman he loved. So cute.'

"It's not that my mother is unkind. It depends on people." Leon deliberately reminded him, "She loves her husband more than her children. Just like you, if others want to fix you, they only need to fix my sister, and they can fix everything."

John glanced at him and realized something.

John had a plan in his mind, so he stopped thinking about it. 'I don't want to give Noah a chance to tease the children as hard as a robber.

If he couldn't win the woman, he would steal the children!'

Noah sensed the unfriendly gaze. As soon as he raised his head, a man squeezed in and pushed him back silently.

John picked up the children and said, "Let me hug you."

The corners of Noah's mouth twitched slightly "Mr. Shi is so childish."

"80% of the reason is that he was afraid you would look away and wanted to steal the children." Leon giggled.

Noah raised his eyebrows and said, "Nini, I remember you asked me to accept Van and Don as godsons. Does it count?"

"Of course." Nina was playing with her children, so she answered without looking back.

At this moment, John gritted his teeth, slightly closed his eyes and opened them like a blade of wind.

'This robber really wanted to steal the children!'

John squeezed one word from his teeth, "No."

After getting along with John for a long time, Noah seemed to know him well and wasn't afraid of his majesty. He provoked back y pretend that I knew nothing.'

"I'm not afraid." The look in John's eyes became firm. 'I would definitely find a way to save her, at all costs.

If I couldn't make her recover at all costs, the worst plan is to die of illness.

If she die, I would go with her. Anyway, I couldn't leave her alone.

No, we wouldn't go to the worst easily.'

John calmed down and said, "Don't think too much. Things won't be so bad."

"Exactly." Nina raised her chin and said, "I don't feel uncomfortable now. I feel refreshed every day. It's just that I'm easy to get tired and my strength is not enough. In the future, I might be at a disadvantage when I beat people. It's nothing. I have you."

The dark cloud had disappeared. John looked at the bottle of water in Nina's hand and asked, "You're not strong enough. Can you open the bottle?"

"Are you kidding me? How can I not open the bottle?" Nina immediately unscrewed the lid, drank half a bottle of water and snorted at him.

At this moment, John was completely amused by her. 'I wish I could press her into my arms and kiss her as much as possible.'

Chapter: 530

Show Off Love

Today was weekend. Vicente happened to be free, and Leon had nothing to do now. The five of them gathered together to discuss about Demi.

Leon sent all the servants away.

John unscrupulously held Nina in his arms and sat down. The remaining four people envied the love of the two.

Vicente wanted to ask Leon to call the servants back as soon as possible. 'I don't want these two people to be too ostentatious, in case that they couldn't wait to have sex.'

But when he saw the happy expression on Nina's face, he swallowed back the words in his throat.

The four sat on the sofa side by side.

John didn't sit in the dazzling center, but on the edge.

Vicente sat on the left side of the two, with his right side next to Noah and Leon.

Noah opened the watch that Nina gave him, threw the photo he took when he searched Demi's house last night to the opposite wall and told them what happened last night.

"Last night, when I entered Demi's house with Mr. Shi, I found a young girl living with Demi. She is the person in the photo. She is Daisy, twenty-two years old, graduated from the Visual Arts College. She is a professional photographer at present, because I can't get more information in hid your marriage with John. I felt it was ridiculous before."

"Ha-ah, is it interesting? I will tell our children in the future." With a smug smile, Nina moved closer to John.

"I also want to change my seat." Leon put his hand on his forehead to block his sight and sighed, "Nini, I remember that you used to be quiet. Now you are lively and I am very happy to see that, but how can you not show off? I think you want the whole world to know how much you love John and how much you want to tell the whole world that John is your husband."

Vicente nodded in agreement.

Noah smiled without saying anything.

At this moment, John reached out his hand and took out a red marriage certificate. The marriage certificate shone in front of them. "My wife."

"You have a marriage certificate with you at any time, right?" Nina almost burst into laughter. She pointed at John and said, "My husband."

The three of them were speechless.

Vicente raised his hand to touch his forehead like Leon, feeling distressed. A second later, Noah also touched his forehead.

'Even I couldn't stand it.'

The three of them lowered their heads, as if they were mourning the Nina in the past. It was really gone.
