bloodlines unlike what you think they are not hereditary, you might or might not be born with a bloodline, it all depends on luck

Bloodlines can either be a curse or a blessing that's because not all bloodlines are good or helpful, some might even cause harm

Also there is only a small chance that a person might even activate their bloodline, always being born with it does not mean that one might awaken it some people live all their life without knowing they poses a bloodline.

"System is my bloodline strong"

[If you require the knowledge buy it from the system]

'hump, what a stingy system you are', while mentally cursing my system i choose the shop option, what surprised me was that, the shop had a subdivision

while i was examining my options the door to the library opens and my maid Mia enters its only after i heard her speak that i understood that its already evening, standing up i said

” Sure lets go, also say to my sister that we can have lunch together today”

“yes, young master”

Few minute later i was situated in the dining hall with my sister across me seeing her i was quite unsure on how to begin, then when i saw what was severed for luch, it was lamb based and then a idea hit me

“Mia”

“yes, young master”

“take my seat towards my sister i will cut and feed her lamb for her today”

My dominant voice and suggestion supriised the maids gathered in the hall but they recovered fast and carried out my order.

now i was seated near my very supriised sister who was looking at like i was some kind of alien.

chuckling i patted her head

“dont worry little Edla, your big brother here will feed you today”

hearing my words she shyly nodded her head but suddenly a scene happend which supriised me

seeing the light pop up above her head, i went into daze for a moment, recovering quickly i read her info again

And as i continued to feed her, the more points i started to rack in, she was like an ATM that gave money and i was the recipient who needed it dearly while feeding her, i began to doubt her display of affection, sure its fun to be with your big brother and all but it doesn't explain such display

Then it suddenly hit me, she was feeling lonely, having a mother diving into her job, a big sister fully busy with her schedule, she didn't have anybody to play with having come to the realization a evil smirk came and went upon my face

'Looks like conquering her will be easier than i thought'

looking into the green eyes of my sister, i tenderly took a napkin and cleaned her face

+50 affection

After lunch i took my little sister around to play we played many games, while i told her about the stories and funny jokes from earth, by the end i had racked a great amount of points

It was only when the maid had reminded us that we choose to seprate and head to bed but before leaving i gave my little sister a hug and a kiss on the forehead after which she ran away shy from my affection
