

Falling for the Contract Bride Chapter 271-275

Chapter 271 I Dreamt That Lu Jinye Came To My Rescue

The situation was dire. Lu Jinye could only bring Mu Zhi to a hotel and had her settled down there.

However, just as Lu Jinye was going through the formalities of checking in, a figure swished quickly past Lu Jinye.

She slashed Lu Jinye with a hand knife.

Lu Jinye was holding Mu Zhi at that time, so he could not dodge and was hurt.

When he came to his senses, he kicked the woman.

The woman wore a mask. She was in a black dress, and from her agile skills, it was evident that she was a proficient fighter!

Lu Jinye immediately gathered himself and became more vigilant.

Immediately after the woman found her balance, she quickly rushed towards Lu Jinye. She stretched out her hand in a fist and flung a punch towards Lu Jinye's neck. As she touched his neck, she gave him a neck crank right away!

Lu Jinye reacted exceptionally sensitively. He swerved around lightly to avoid her attack and stretched his leg in defense.

The woman immediately adjusted her stance once more for another attack.

For several rounds, the woman failed to serve him a single hit. Lu Jinye avoided every single attack.

At this time, the woman's eyes turned cold. She was initially confident that she could snatch Mu Zhi away quickly. After finding that it was utterly impossible to do so, the woman held an extra dagger in her hand as she launched another attack.

She started to stab in Lu Jinye's direction!

Lu Jinye kept Mu Zhi in his arms despite the increasingly vicious attacks from the woman. She switched tactics for every attack, and all of them seemed like she intended to take their lives.

She simply flung her knife around at first and aimed at Lu Jinye. But at each critical moment, she always changed directions and tried to strike Mu Zhi.

Lu Jinye was trained mostly for self-defense. Although he had some decent offense skills, this woman was trained to fight in shady ways. If Lu Jinye hadn't had Mu Zhi in his arms, he could still fight her.

He had been holding Mu Zhi in his arms for a long time, and he had to fend off the attacks. It was quite exhausting for him.

To some extent, it also affected his infiltration.

Lu Jinye was worried that if this went on, and this woman did not get a tiny bit of what she wanted, she might have no choice but to find ominous ways to hurt them more.

At this moment, suddenly... Mo Fei hurried over with a smile on his face. He told Lu Jinye, "Okay, everything is done. I heard you are here ..."

"Oh my lord!" Mo Fei did not get to finish his words. When he saw Lu Jinye's situation, his eyes widened in surprise.

"Lu Jinye, what on earth have you done to provoke such a vicious enemy!"

Mo Fei put his hand on his chin and watched Lu Jinye and Secretary Rao fight. He even began to analyze their tricks seriously.

"You are half a move ahead of this little girl right now. Come on, you can do it. It would be so admirable if you could win holding Mu Zhi."

Mo Fei grinned as he analyzed, "But if this goes on for two more hours, I believe that your physical strength will decline, by then this little girl will beat you."

After that, Mo Fei started applauding Secretary Rao.

"Little girl, come on, come on! You must win Lu Jinye and avenge me for being suppressed by him when we were in school!"

Mo Fei and Lu Jinye were frenemies in school.

There was more brotherly love than hate between them as both of them had a big heart, and they were not jealous of each other.

It was rare to see Lu Jinye in such a dangerous situation.

Mo Fei knew Lu Jinye. If he couldn't solve something, he would have thought of a solution in advance.

So Lu Jinye should be able to cope with the current situation.

Just as Mo Fei wanted to adjust his posture and enjoy the show, he suddenly felt a little more weight in his arms.

Mo Fei was a little dazed at that instant. He stared blankly at Lu Jinye. How did Lu Jinye manage to deal with the female assassin while placing Mu Zhi in his arms?

“Bring her away first!”

Lu Jinye commanded Mo Fei loudly.

He sounded as if he was roaring from the exploding energy he was emitting and the critical situation.

It scared Mo Fei so much that he did not dare to watch the show anymore. Without delay, he picked Mu Zhi up and hurried out.

A place like a hotel was not safe, so he could only take Mu Zhi back to his home.

After he got into the car, he immediately started the engine and dialed a number. He anxiously ordered the other end of the phone, “Li Ta, send bodyguards to search for my location at this instant to rescue me!”

As soon as she heard Mo Fei’s anxious voice on the other end of the phone, Li Ta panicked instantly, “What’s happened?”

“I cannot explain right now! Come here, hurry!”

Mo Fei couldn’t even bother to explain to Li Ta and roared at her.

Just as he finished his words and drove towards an avenue, the woman had already run out and started racing at top speed towards him with a carjacked motorcycle!

Right after the turn, a few more cars on the road suddenly started a crazy chase after Mo Fei.

“Shit!” Mo Fei anxiously looked at this increasingly complicated situation. He couldn’t help cursing, “Motherfucker, do they intend to kill me?”

Why did Lu Jinye always happen to encounter such a crisis?

He looked back at Mu Zhi, who was still in a coma. Her face was in a state of extreme fatigue at this time, but she still looked beautiful and attractive.

Who cares! He will fight till the end!

Since Lu Jinye was his blood brother!

When Mo Fei made sure that it was a dead-end ahead, he stepped onto the accelerator and rushed out towards a car in front of him. As he pretended to rush out, he immediately turned around and created a new path for himself!

From afar, Lu Jinye waited at the side of the road. He was heads-on with Mo Fei’s direction. Mo Fei did not slow down when he passed by Lu Jinye. However, Lu Jinye managed to jump onto Mo Fei’s car agilely and get through the glass window.

“Sit tight and leave it to me!”

Mo Fei glanced at Lu Jinye and smiled in relief.

Lu Jinye looked at Mu Zhi and hugged her distressingly. His eyes were filled with anger.

“Once I find out who it is, I will make him pay the price in blood!”

Lu Jinye clenched his fists tightly.

At this moment, Mu Zhi’s eyelashes suddenly fluttered.

Lu Jinye quickly began calling out Mu Zhi’s name, “Mu Zhi... Mu Zhi!”

Mu Zhi slowly opened her eyes and looked at Lu Jinye weakly.

“I must be dreaming. Why did I dream that Lu Jinye had come to my rescue?”

She muttered to herself.

Chapter 272 Done For

Lu Jinye held Mu Zhi’s hand tightly when he heard her words, then said to her carefully, “You are not dreaming. It’s me. I’m here.”

But when he finished his words, Mu Zhi’s eyes closed back tightly again, and she did not respond. Lu Jinye felt her forehead. She had a fever.

And her body was shaking terribly.

There were many scratches over her body, and her face was as pale as a sheet. Her health had deteriorated to quite an extent.

Her body was tense, and she looked much thinner than before.

Lu Jinye clenched his fists angrily.

Looking at the urgent situation outside, he ordered Mo Fei, “You take Mu Zhi to the hospital, and I’ll distract those people away.”

With that, Lu Jinye crawled out of the window.

When a car caught up with them, he jumped onto its roof and then swiftly got into it through the window.

Seeing that Lu Jinye had succeeded, Mo Fei turned left and drove the car quickly into another direction.

However, when he appeared at the car’s rear, a car suddenly appeared and began to follow them closely, desperately chasing them and rammed into their back.

They wanted to kill them!

A convoy could be seen coming from all directions behind this car that rammed into them. They all seemed to be coming in Mo Fei's direction to stop him!

This was an extremely urgent situation!

Mo Fei had never witnessed such a pressing plight!

Mo Fei scanned the surroundings in search of other escape routes, but there were none!

He was snagged in all directions! There was no retreat for him.

If the car behind hadn't had a professional assassin in it, it would be less pressing.

Nevertheless... The one chasing after him was someone who would do anything to have them killed at once!

Secretary Rao was in the jeep that was tailing Mo Fei's car.

At this time, she was not only avidly staring at Mo Fei's car. She was also actively watching the cars that were rushing in from all directions.

Now... It might be too late!

She recognized those cars. They must be people sent by Mr. Xie Xiu.

In other words, her plan was exposed!

She had no more choice but to kill now!

She could only have the chance to live if Mu Zhi died.

It doesn't matter if she could not live anyway. If Mu Zhi could be eliminated, then Mr. Xie Xiu will have no more confusion, then her death will be worth it!

Secretary Rao's eyes tightened as she stared at Mo Fei's car carefully. They had almost reached the mouth of the river of the enormous bridge they were on.

She suddenly increased her speed and rammed straight into Mo Fei's car.

Mo Fei was thinking of a solution when a violent impact suddenly made his whole body tremble. When he looked behind him, he saw the car trying to ram into them for the second time.

He was so scared that he quickly turned around.

But it was too late!

The car drove towards them in a suicidal manner quickly, ramming and colliding into them with full acceleration!

Another violent impact had Mo Fei's car slammed into the chain rope at the side of the bridge. One of the wheels was already hanging in the air. "Mu Zhi! Wake up!"

Mo Fei realized that it was too late to deal with the car anymore as he looked at this complicated situation!

The only glimmer of hope he had was to jump off the car with Mu Zhi quickly.

The car was no longer under his control. He quickly unfastened his seat belt and crawled into Mu Zhi's direction.

He shouted at Mu Zhi again, "Mu Zhi, wake up!"

"Mu Zhi, wake up! Hurry!"

"Mu Zhi! Mu Zhi!"

Mo Fei kept shaking Mu Zhi, but there was not a single response.

At the same time, the car behind launched another attack.

This time, the force was several times larger. The chain rope at the side of the bridge was torn off.

The car began to tilt downwards. The situation had begun to be precarious.

Mo Fei was so frightened that he couldn't care more.

Secretary Rao looked at the state of the car in front of her. She only needed to give it one last blow, and her mission would be completed successfully.

However, she smelled a strange smell, like a gasoline leak, together with the sound of sparks.

But at this time, she didn't care too much.

She eagerly launched the last attack.

There was a bloodthirsty smile on her face, "Alright, it will be over soon!"

All this is for the great cause of Mr. Xie Xiu, and it was finally done.

Mu Zhi should go to hell!

However, at the time of the last collision, Secretary Rao's car began to glow brightly.

When the two cars collided, Mo Fei's car fell into the water, Secretary Rao's car exploded, leading to the explosion of Mo Fei's car.

Secretary Rao reacted very quickly. She immediately jumped out of the car... and hurried out a long way.

The collision and explosion of the two vehicles shook the buildings around the area, and everyone who witnessed the scene was shocked.

Both cars were blown up to pieces in that instant and fell into the water.

There were only bits and pieces left from the explosion.

Secretary Rao could only feel that her head was buzzing.

In the distance, a beautiful woman who sat in a leading red car through the chase had witnessed all this in a daze with fright.

She reacted almost instantly. She quickly made a phone call.

"Mr. Xie Xiu, Senior Rao, she..."

"Don't call her your senior!"

"Rao Man had killed Miss Mu Zhi, and the two cars had exploded. They must have been done for."

"Send someone into the water for a search. I want to see her in person if she's alive, and her corpse if she is dead!"

Xie Xiu said coldly, "And bring Rao Man back to me."

"Yes!"

Upon receiving orders, the woman hurriedly got out of the car. She quickly divided the people present at the scene into two groups and promptly arranged their tasks.

Then she went after Rao Man herself.

This woman was actually less skillful than Rao Man, but she didn't expect Rao Man to get into the car herself after glancing at her with disdain when she walked to her side.

So, she also got into the car and drove quickly towards the place where Mr. Xie Xiu was!

Rao Man didn't utter a single word along the way. She did not even take the initiative to explain.

Chapter 273 Didn't You Love Me For Just a Little Bit

When she reached the place where Xie Xiu was, she was forced onto her knees in front of Xie Xiu. She looked at Xie Xiu stubbornly and exclaimed, "Mr. Xie, I have accomplished my task."

"Accomplish what task?" Xie Xiu was in a black suit that set him off even more. He glared at Rao Man with sharp eyes as cold as daggers. He gave Rao Man a slap on the face.

However, this slap directly knocked Rao Man to the ground, and the corners of her mouth were instantly stained with blood.

But Rao Man only wiped the blood on the corners of her mouth away gently. She got up and knelt back down again.

She had only one knee on the ground. The other knee was not down at all. She acted as if she had returned from an order. She did not show any means to admit her mistake.

Xie Xiu looked at Rao Man sternly and kicked the hind leg which wasn't on the floor. She fell onto her knees with a plop on the floor.

It was a stance of confession.

"Why do you do this?"

Xie Xiu began his interrogation at this time.

His eyes were cold enough to send chills into people's bodies.

If Rao Man had seen such a gaze in the past, she would have been trembling with fright. But she had no response that day. She just gritted her teeth at Xie Xiu and then strenuously maintained the one-knee-down stance. She professed to Xie Xiu, "Mr. Xie, I have completed my task!"

"Why did you do this?"

Xie Xiu roared at Rao Man.

"I'm asking you! Why did you do this?"

He glared at Rao Man as he went berserk, reaching out to grab Rao Man by her collar.

Rao Man merely watched Xie Xiu quietly. The corners of her lips curled up slightly. She gazed at Xie Xiu and said, "Because she deterred your judgment. She is unworthy of your love!"

"But there is no need for you to make the decision!"

Xie Xiu had never punished Rao Man before.

This girl had always been Xie Xiu's favorite since she came.

But this time, Xie Xiu slowly walked to a door and opened it. He said to Rao Man, "Go in and pick a punishment you'd like."

Rao Man stood up in silence and glanced at Xie Xiu with eyes dark as death.

The corners of her lips rose into a delighted smile.

Then she gradually walked towards the penalty room's door. She turned around, looked at Xie Xiu and said, "Mr. Xie Xiu, I don't think I was wrong."

Mr. Xie Xiu did not reply to Rao Man. Seeing that she was ignored, Rao Man kept the smile on her face as she walked into the penalty room and gaped at the various punishments.

Most of the instruments of punishment here were made by Mr. Xie Xiu himself.

Every instrument was deadly, but they were specially made for the victims to experience sufferings before death.

All of them were designed for torture. The torture would normally last for half an hour, and then when both the body and spirit were tormented severely, the pain of death would be immense. There was a time when Rao Man had come to help Mr. Xie Xiu with these things and help those who had made mistakes choose their punishments.

She did not expect the day would come when she would have to choose her punishment.

She turned around and glanced at Xie Xiu. Standing in front of a snow-white skirt, she looked at the dress solemnly, then glanced back at Xie Xiu again, "Mr. Xie, Mr. Xie Xiu."

She called Xie Xiu twice and then said, "Mr. Xie Xiu, do you really want to punish me? I grew up with you, don't you understand what I want for you? I want Mu Zhi dead. Other than wanting to punish me, don't you have any feelings for me at all?"

Xie Xiu didn't even raise his eyes to look at Rao Man.

A trace of disappointment flashed in Rao Man's eyes, and she continued, "Actually, I saw this today coming too, but I still held onto a slither of hope that I'd be a lucky dime."

When she saw that Xie Xiu was still aloof, she took down the skirt.

It looked like a dress, but it was made of a very special material. Every inch was extremely sharp. It was nothing like cloth, but a very thin piece of iron that could cut through human flesh.

And this fishtail dress was equivalent to the ancient Ling Chi.

After putting it on, every inch of the material would wrap onto the body, and then you'd have to start walking.

While moving constantly, the fishtail would come into contact with the body and produce a cutting effect.

It would remove the human's flesh piece by piece until one died from excessive bleeding.

However, this was the most beautiful punishment of all. The person would look beautiful at the time of death too, because of its attractive appearance.

Many female assassins who fell in love with other men would choose to die with this punishment.

While wearing the dress, Rao Man said to Xie Xiu again, "I thought that Mr. Xie Xiu would make an exception for me by luck."

"After all, I came here when I was a minor. This was my home."

After Rao Man put on the skirt, she didn't even need anyone to drag her to walk. She started to walk slowly, step by step.

She continued keeping the smile on her face.

With every step she took, she continued to talk to Xie Xiu, "I started serving you, Mr. Xie Xiu, when I was eighteen years old. During the day, I was your adept assistant. At night, I warmed your sheets. Don't you love me for just a little bit?"

Xie Xiu just looked at Rao Man distantly and did not reply.

Every step Rao Man took at this time pained her like knife-cuts. With the sharp pain on her body, she could barely hold the smile on her face anymore, but... shortly after, she put back her smile.

Her eyes were always on Xie Xiu's body.

She continued talking to Xie Xiu as she walked, "Don't you know? I have never regarded you as my mentor, I have always liked you romantically."

"Why can Mu Zhi obtain your love so easily, but I can't?"

"Am I not pretty?"

Rao Man started to grow a little anxious when she said this. Blood had begun to drip under her feet then.

She looked at Xie Xiu quietly. She no longer followed the original trajectory, but slowly approached Xie Xiu. She reached out and touched Xie Xiu's face, and asked him gently, "Mr. Xie, hadn't you ever had any feelings for me before?"

"Do you still remember the night when I first had sex with you, you looked at my face and told me that I looked like a woman you once loved?"

“You said, you’d keep me by your side for the rest of my life.”

Rao Man was a little sad when she said these words.

Tears streamed down her face uncontrollably.

But Xie Xiu still did not respond.

Rao Man glanced at Xie Xiu sadly, “Sure enough, you don’t love me, and you hadn’t had a single thought for me at all.”

“But I don’t regret killing Mu Zhi. It doesn’t matter to me that you don’t love me. I love you and as long as everything I do benefits you, then it is good enough for me.”

“It doesn’t matter, it doesn’t matter.”

Rao Man had prepared a lot of words, many of which were memories of her and Xie Xiu in the past.

But now... she didn’t want to say anything anymore.

Chapter 274 A Little Reluctant

Rao Man stopped speaking at last. Each step she took was strenuous, extremely difficult, and bitter for her. Her eyes were fixed on Mr. Xie Xiu.

But Xie Xiu just sat indifferently on a chair and stared at Rao Man. Rao Man’s mind kept playing back the memories she had with Mr. Xie Xiu in the past.

She used to be an orphan in a slum who made a living by stealing. She had met Xie Xiu when she was almost killed after stealing money from the casino. He had passed by the place by coincidence.

Rao Man had grabbed Xie Xiu’s hand and begged him at that time, “Save me, sir.”

Xie Xiu did not lend her a helping hand. He watched as those people caught up with her. They grabbed Rao Man, took off her clothes, and humiliated her.

Rao Man resisted with all her might and called out for help desperately. Then, Xie Xiu threw a gun at her.

Rao Man was a child back then. She didn’t even know how to use the gun. Rao Man held the loaded gun in her hands.

Xie Xiu told her, “I will take you away if you kill them.”

Gunshots were heard. Rao Man lost consciousness without successfully killing the two men.

When Rao Man woke up once more, she was already on the bed in a hotel. A warm blanket covered her, and there was hot coffee for her once she opened her eyes.

It was the first time she tasted hot coffee and fresh sandwiches, instead of having food dug out from the trash can that was mixed with stinking odors of other foods.

When she saw Xie Xiu, he was in a black coat. He stood tall by the door, looking like a God.

From that day onwards, Rao Man started to follow Xie Xiu everywhere he went.

Rao Man had told Xie Xiu on the first day he saved her, "You saved my life. I shall pay you back with my body."

Xie Xiu had replied to her, "You can pay me with your body, but I will not accept you if you wanted to pay with your love."

Just as promised, later, after Rao Man became an adult, he embraced her body at nights, but never accepted her love.

But it didn't matter to her...

Everything Rao Man did revolve around Xie Xiu, which included killing people for him and hiding all the love and passion she had for Xie Xiu that was about to overflow.

She had even personally helped Xie Xiu deal with the many women who came to him.

Xie Xiu had always clearly distinguished his body's desire from the love of the heart.

At first, Rao Man cared.

Later she got immune to it.

Because... Those women, like her, could only contribute their bodies. Mr. Xie Xiu had never accepted their love.

He didn't care where they were going.

The moment they got off the bed, everyone no longer mattered.

Rao Man was a little grateful. She thought that she was different from those women. After all, she was always by Xie Xiu's side. She was the woman who had spent the longest time in his bed.

She was also his most trusted person.

She thought that she could stay by his side forever.

But... Rao Man was wrong.

She did not expect Mu Zhi would appear in Xie Xiu's life one day.

This woman's existence was different from all the other women in Xie Xiu's life.

She did not need to accompany him in bed to make him keep her in his heart.

She had committed so many mistakes, weak and couldn't even help Mr. Xie Xiu with anything at all. But she still had his help in solving all the problems she encountered from time to time, and even saving her from death's grasp several times.

Until this time, her life and death still threatened Mr. Xie Xiu's plan.

Rao Man hated Mu Zhi, and was jealous of her.

She had always suppressed this feeling, until this time that she could not contain it anymore.

When Rao Man thought of this, her face became calmer.

She did not regret her outburst. On the contrary, she felt that this was her last dedication to Mr. Xie Xiu.

Xie Xiu looked at Rao Man as she quieted down.

Because Rao Man had been walking in circles, the beautiful skirt had cut her until she was bleeding profusely. The blood was so much that she no longer felt painful.

It hurt too much that it numbed her and made her forget the pain.

She started to feel light-headed, and her footsteps began to stagger.

But Rao Man persisted.

Xie Xiu was able to judge by Rao Man's steps that she was no longer fine at this time, but he did not take any action.

Until Rao Man dragged a few more steps and lost balance, then she fell directly to the floor. Only then, Xie Xiu slowly walked towards Rao Man's side. He stretched out his hand and gently touched Rao Man's cheek, saying, "You are my most brilliant subordinate, but now you have ruined my plans. I shall spare you for the sake of our old days. Now, you can walk out of this door. "

"Scam at once!"

Saying that Xie Xiu stood up again and walked to the side, with no intention to look at Rao Man again.

But Rao Man didn't walk towards the door, nor did she stand up. She just laid on the floor and gazed at Xie Xiu.

"Sir, can you tell me why you are so reluctant to part with Mu Zhi?"

Xie Xiu looked at Rao Man nonchalantly, and did not answer her. Instead, he said, "If you are going to waste your energy here, your physical condition will no longer be able to bring you out of this place."

Rao Man still didn't stand up, and she just smiled, "Sir, I just want to know in what way am I lesser to Mu Zhi."

Xie Xiu glanced at Rao Man, "She is Mu Zhi, and you are you. There is nothing comparable between the both of you."

Xie Xiu said coldly.

"Then do you not have a little bit of love for me, or perhaps feel slightly heart-broken for me?"

"A little bit."

Xie Xiu said these words carefully like gold.

And Rao Man actually smiled when she heard this 'little bit' Xie Xiu had for her.

She clearly knew that Xie Xiu didn't answer to her first question because he never had a little love for her.

A little bit reluctant...

Perhaps it was the reluctance of losing a competent assistant.

Rao Man still smiled at this time and struggled to stand up.

She walked towards Xie Xiu slowly, and opened her arms to give Xie Xiu one last hug.

She was losing her physical strength very quickly. This penalty had been carefully calculated. If Rao Man went to Xie Xiu, she would definitely not be unable to get out of this door.

But she still chose to approach Xie Xiu slowly.

Just as she approached Xie Xiu and hugged him, Xie Xiu's eyes turned cold all of a sudden.

He hesitated for a long time before reaching out and hugging Rao Man.

Tears of relief fell from her eyes.

Just as they hugged, someone came in hurriedly to report.

"Mr. Xie Xiu, Mu...Miss Mu Zhi has been found. She is now in a deep coma!"

Xie Xiu pushed Rao Man away all of a sudden.

Chapter 275 Not To Awaken Her Memory

Rao Man sat on the floor from being pushed away. She looked at Xie Xiu in disbelief.

However, Xie Xiu had left in a flash. He disappeared from her sight almost instantaneously.

He did not even close the door behind him as he was in a hurry to leave.

Xie Xiu rushed out and asked everyone, "Where is she?"

The people hurriedly replied, "She is still on a cruise. Her current physical condition does not allow her to be brought anywhere."

After hearing these words, Xie Xiu didn't go berserk. Instead, he got into the car quickly and sped towards the place they said.

When Xie Xiu arrived at the cruise, he got onto it as soon as possible.

Seeing Xie Xiu's arrival, the doctor who was already looking into Mu Zhi's condition was now looking at her more seriously and observing in more detail her injuries.

Xie Xiu frowned and observed.

"Is there any chance of survival?"

Xie Xiu's voice was full of coldness. Everyone who heard him couldn't help but shiver.

Everyone present merely glanced at Xie Xiu weakly.

Some of the doctors even stopped moving their hands.

Xie Xiu glanced at them and demanded furiously, "Answer me!"

"Sir, Miss Mu Zhi was discovered a bit too late, she...she'd probably not be able to make it."

"Save her! Do everything you can to save her. If she can't go through this, you all shall be thrown into the sea to feed the fish!"

It was the first time Xie Xiu had spoken such a long sentence and lost such a huge temper.

After saying that, he sat on a chair not far away and watched the people's actions.

Xie Xiu looked at them silently. Because of Xie Xiu's arrival, all the doctors began to examine Mu Zhi's body silently while constantly discussing possible treatment options for her.

As time passed by, and the day turned to darkness, it became terrifying.

There were hardly any waves in the calm sea, but turbulent waves were brewing for any moment!

...

At this time, Lu Jinye was also awake all night.

When he led all the enemies away and returned to the place he had agreed with Mo Fei, he suddenly realized that Mo Fei was nowhere to be seen. Lu Jinye had always had good fighting skills. He had no problem fighting against ten men, but to fight against a hundred was a physical contest.

In the end, he had won.

He sat at the agreed place and waited for Mo Fei to arrive. He quietly leaned against the wall beside him. He could feel his physical energy wasted away quickly, but he kept forcing himself to stay awake.

Just then, a woman walked over here with a group of cars. When she saw Lu Jinye from a distance, she hurried over and asked, "Did you see Mo Fei?"

This woman was Mo Fei's girlfriend.

Lu Jinye raised his head and glanced at Mo Fei's girlfriend quietly. He opened his mouth but could not manage to utter a single syllable. Before he could say anything, he fainted.

It was already the next day when Lu Jinye woke up again. He got up immediately to look for Mo Fei and Mu Zhi only to see a sad expression on the woman's face.

"Li Ta."

Lu Jinye greeted the woman.

When the woman raised her head to look at Lu Jinye, he realized that the woman's face was already streaked with tears.

"What happened?"

Lu Jinye couldn't help but frown as he scrutinized Li Ta's face.

Li Ta didn't say a word, but glanced at a place not far away. A piece of clothing and a talisman were placed on a chair in the distance.

Lu Jinye remembered that it was the clothes Mo Fei wore that day.

He had also seen the amulet before at work. It was the amulet Mo Fei wore daily.

This amulet was gifted to him by his late mother, and it was especially important to him. It was generally impossible for Mo Fei to leave this amulet behind unless something of greater significance had taken course.

After seeing these hints from Li Ta, Lu Jinye blurted, "Impossible."

He didn't even take a closer look at the items. He quickly picked up his clothes and ran towards the door.

Li Ta hurried to catch up with Lu Jinye, and shouted at Lu Jinye from behind, "It's no use, you don't have to go anymore. Learn to accept this fact. I am slowly trying to accept it."

"Look at this."

With that said, Li Ta handed another ring to Lu Jinye.

When he saw the ring, Lu Jinye suddenly pushed away from the crowd and ran out quickly.

He couldn't believe it! That was Mu Zhi's ring, but he couldn't believe that Mu Zhi was dead!

Lu Jinye had sent people to search for Mu Zhi at her accident scene for a whole day and night. However, they did not manage to salvage Mu Zhi's body. Apart from finding some items belonging to Mu Zhi and Mo Fei, they found nothing.

Later, Lu Jinye still couldn't believe it, so he asked people to search again for three days and three nights, ten days and ten nights, and later... half a month and a month.

It wasn't until a whole month had gone by and he didn't find any clue that Li Ta scolded Lu Jinye to his senses.

It was known that the water of this lake rushes to the sea, and the waters were perilous and deep, it would be impossible to find them. Mu Zhi and Mo Fei were obviously lost in the sea, so it was best if he didn't believe too much in miracles.

He should continue with his life, while keeping them in a dark corner of his heart!

But Lu Jinye still disagreed and continued to look for them.

He even had an office set up nearby, so it'd be more convenient for him to work.

...

Mr. Xie Xiu quickly returned to his residence after ensuring that Mu Zhi's life was no longer in danger.

As soon as he entered the door, he saw only a pool of blood in the place where Rao Man was punished, and she was nowhere to be seen.

He didn't have any extra energy to waste on tracing where Rao Man went. He hurriedly packed up some of his things and then went to guard by Mu Zhi's side.

The next day, Mu Zhi woke up.

She scanned the surroundings in a daze when she woke up.

Her eyes were clear and shiny, and she looked as innocent as a girl.

She stared at Xie Xiu with wide eyes, hesitated for a while and asked Xie Xiu timidly, "Who are you?"

She looked at the surrounding environment and asked once more, "Where am I? Where is this place?"

At first Xie Xiu walked to Mu Zhi's side, he scanned at Mu Zhi gently, and said lightly, "My name is Xie Xiu."

"Who is Xie Xiu?"

Xie Xiu frowned as he observed Mu Zhi, as he confirmed his surmise that Mu Zhi had amnesia.

After several consultations with the experts, it was concluded that there was a shady part in Mu Zhi's brain, which she had probably subconsciously chosen not to remember, that caused her amnesia.

Even after deciding on a treatment plan, they would need to closely monitor her condition over the course of a period.

Without second thoughts, Xie Xiu chose not to awaken her memory.
