

Falling for the Contract Bride Chapter 36

Chapter 36 The First Woman He Officially Acknowledged

Mu Zhi laid on bed. She felt as if she was in a dream. She wanted to open her eyes and see who this man was, but he looked so surreal.

It was like a delusion.

He said as he walked in, "You really are a slipshod. You left your wallet where you were drinking."

Mu Zhi quickly picked up the wallet in a daze, and a tinge of anxiety soared in her heart.

"Did you open my wallet and look inside it?"

She and Lu Jinye had always respected each other's privacy. Lu Jinye had never looked at her things, nor did she go through his.

Therefore, Mu Zhi had always kept a photo of her and Mu Xiaomu in her wallet. Every time when Lu Jinye was away, she would take a look at Mu Xiaomu.

"Is there anything shameful that you can't show me?"

The person asked.

"You should leave."

Mu Zhi shook her head and quickly said, "Please leave now, I'm going to sleep."

"Your alcohol tolerance is quite good. How did you get so drunk today?"

When Mu Zhi heard those words, she got up to peer at the man before her.

She couldn't help but blink to get a clear look at his face. She then looked at him in confusion.

She muttered, "Junnian?"

The person did not respond for a long time.

Mu Zhi was confused with her body's reaction... In fact, for so many years since that incident happened, she had never had a dream like it.

She would only have that dream when it rained. In her dreams, she would kneel on the ground for a long time and her whole body was wet. She was on her knees, begging Xu Changshu to tell her where Lu Junnian had gone.

Why... Did the scene completely unfold before her eyes once more?

After meeting Xu Changshu, she guzzled down a lot of booze. Then she was sent to a hotel. As she had felt very thirsty at that time, she opened the door and went out to buy a bottle of water from the vending machine. When she returned after, she did not close the door but simply laid on the bed after she had her water. Then, a man came in.

The man had peeled off her clothes, and gently entered her body.

She subconsciously thought it was Lu Junnian, so she responded to him and even asked if he would cherish her after having her.

However, the man didn't say a word to her.

She couldn't see the man's face clearly, but she was currently punch-drunk. She felt as if she had experienced it before.

Mu Zhi realized that his hand was wandering on her body. He asked, "Do you love Lu Junnian very much?"

Mu Zhi suddenly calmed down, sat up and looked at him, "Honey? Why is it you? Why did you come to my room?"

But the man didn't answer Mu Zhi at all, but gently kissed the center of her forehead, and slowly progressed downwards.

He took off her clothes...

And consumed her...

This time, Mu Zhi didn't know how to describe her feelings. She felt extraordinarily shy and cautious, just like her first time many years ago.

After that, she fell asleep.

However, she was not totally knocked out. She was awakened by the ringing of her phone. She quickly picked up the phone, only to hear the other party say, "Mu Zhi, come to the hospital quickly. There's a new development to your mother's condition."

After hearing these words, Mu Zhi, who was still in a daze struggled to put her clothes on her body, and then staggered out.

She was not fully conscious, yet she clearly remembered that she had looked back at the person who was sleeping on the bed. However, she couldn't tell whether it was Lu Junnian or Lu Jinye.

It felt like she was having a dream while being drowsy. She clearly dreamed that she was awake, but she couldn't see anything.

Mu Zhi made it out with the support of the wall and when she found Lu Jinye's car, she quickly started the car and drove down the mountain.

She wanted to see the road ahead clearly, but the mountains seemed to be foggy, and she couldn't see clearly in a daze. She couldn't see even after she turned the headlights on.

At this time, her phone rang again. When Mu Zhi answered the call, the person on the other end of the phone urged, "Where are you?"

"I don't know either. Why can't I see the road when I'm driving?"

Mu Zhi hurriedly answered.

"Stop the car!"

After hearing what Mu Zhi said, the other party ordered.

Mu Zhi obeyed as instructed, and added the person as her contact. Then she sent him a real-time location sharing.

After Mu Zhi shared her location, she drove forward again. She didn't know what had happened to her mother. She was anxious and in a hurry to see her mother, but then she heard a bang all of a sudden.

Immediately afterwards, Mu Zhi lost consciousness.

When Lu Junnian drove towards the shared location and saw Mu Zhi's car. His hands trembled in fright. Mu Zhi's car was driven directly onto the guardrail of the mountains. It was rocking on top of the guardrail, and had almost fallen into the abyss!

Lu Junnian opened the car door, and when he saw Mu Zhi, he was trembling with anger!

This woman glowed in an unconventional red, and when he did a simple check-up on her, he found out that it was obviously caused by some kind of hallucinogenic drug!

Who gave Mu Zhi this drug?!

Who else?!

Lu Jinye!

When he recalled the last time they met, Lu Jinye had attacked Mu Zhi's pink castle in the car as demonstration to him. Lu Junnian hated him for that!

What did this man treat Mu Zhi as?

Was she just a tool for him to vent on?!

Why would Mu Zhi take this drug?!

But there was no time to persist about this matter right now. Lu Junnian quickly lifted Mu Zhi out from her car and carried her into his car. Then he sped to the hospital.

He was a neurologist, so he was no expert in this matter. While driving, he made more than a dozen emergency calls to his friends. When Lu Junnian appeared in the internal medicine clinic with Mu Zhi in his arms, the doctor looked at Lu Junnian and yawned.

"Hurry up, save the patient!"

Lu Junnian demanded.

The doctor just glanced at Mu Zhi gently and said. "It's obvious that the effect of the drug has already disappeared on this patient. I reckon that you have used the holistic method to detoxify it, haven't you?"

He looked at Lu Junnian, amused.

Lu Junnian rolled his eyes, "Bai Shao, cut your crap."

"The drug will dissipate naturally at dawn. There is no need for any prescription. The patient just needs to get a good night's sleep. She is sleeping right now. Why would she even be outdoors? She should be in bed now."

The doctor, known as Bai Shao, analyzed Mu Zhi's condition.

After hearing Bai Shao's words, Lu Junnian frowned deeper.

He queried suspiciously, "Really?"

The man nodded confidently, "It's true."

After saying this, Bai Shao yawned again and plopped onto the chair, closing his eyes to get some rest.

Lu Junnian frowned even more as he observed Mu Zhi sleeping soundly in the seat next to him...

So, is Mu Zhi just sleeping right now?

Lu Junnian glanced at Bai Shao next to him once more. He looked confident and calm. Naturally, Lu Junnian did not doubt Bai Shao's diagnosis.

More From The Web

Bai Shao and Lu Junnian met when they were studying in the United States. Bai Shao was gifted in the medical field, but he never aspired to it. Soon after he completed his studies, he came back and opted to work in a very leisurely department. He was happy and content with his simple life.

Now that Bai Shao had reaffirmed her condition, Lu Junnian did not doubt it anymore. Seeing Mu Zhi still asleep, he picked her up, found an empty ward, and tucked her in bed.

By just the thought of Lu Jinye giving Mu Zhi that drug, and that her driving out late at night leading to a near-miss accident, Lu Junnian was fumingly incandescent.

In the end, he couldn't restrain himself and broke into Bai Shao's clinic again.

Bai Shao had taken off his work clothes and was about to leave the hospital to make up for his sleep. Unfortunately, he was caught up by Lu Junnian. Bai Shao looked at Lu Junnian dubiously, and couldn't help but let out another yawn and tried to escape.

“Don’t tell me you need something else from me. I’m sleepy and I want to go home and sleep.”

Lu Junnian smiled and grabbed Bai Shao’s hand as soon as he finished saying this sentence, “You are right, I have something for you.”

“What’s the matter? I won’t help.”

Bai Shao refused Lu Junnian without even listening.

But this did not stop Lu Junnian’s plan. He ignored Bai Shao’s refusal and pulled Bai Shao towards Mu Zhi’s ward. He opened the door and let Bai Shao in, “The sofa next to her is very suited for sleeping. Since you are so good looking, it shouldn’t be difficult for you to flirt with a nurse for a quilt.”

After saying this, Lu Junnian left without even explaining.

“Hey…”

Bai Shao reached out to stop Lu Junnian, although he knew that he could not.

After he had Mu Zhi settled down, Lu Junnian advanced out of the hospital door. He drove off right after he got into the car!

He sped as fast as lightning on the road. It was quite a distance to where Mu Zhi had her accident. It took Lu Junnian almost an hour to get to the accident scene, and then he carefully observed the surrounding.

There must be a place to stay here, and Lu Jinye should be nearby!

Xiao Qingqing found Lu Jinye’s room according to the room number Shen Mobo gave, but when she opened the door, it was empty inside.

Xiao Qingqing frowned in disapproval. Is Lu Jinye not back yet or what?

She waited for a while, but the more she waited, the more she realized that the possibility of Lu Jinye coming back was low, whereas the possibility that something had gone wrong was very high.

Annoyed, she called Shen Mobo hastily, “Please make a quick check for me and find out where Lu Jinye is, he is not in the room he reserved at all.”

Xiao Qingqing’s tone was anxious, and it clearly contained sullenness.

Shen Mobo quickly tried to calm her down on the other end of the phone, "Calm down and don't fret. It's still early, and the medicine will work until eight in the morning, so don't worry."

Following which, he quickly called the butler.

After he heard what the butler said, Shen Mobo chided him indignantly!

"What are you talking about?! I only told you not to leave any traces. You just had to turn off the surveillance cameras on Mu Zhi's floor. Why did you turn off the entire villa's?"

"Stupid! Idiot!"

The butler trembled at the end of the phone from his fury, "Young Master Shen... What should I do then?"

"What do you think?"

Shen Mobo rubbed his temples irritably and asked.

"Search every room?"

The butler swallowed, and added, "This is the only way now... Because... If the guests had went to the wrong room, they could be asleep anywhere!"

"Do I need you to remind me of this? Hurry up and start searching!"

Shen Mobo had gone berserk that instant.

But he didn't dare to tell Xiao Qingqing what went wrong in the hotel after he hung up. He could only call her back to reassure her, "Qingqing, wait a minute, I have asked the butler see to it."

Xiao Qingqing was very anxious at the other end, but there was nothing to could do at this point.

She could only grip the phone nervously, and said to Shen Mobo, "Mobo, where are you, can I go to you? I'm afraid..."

Shen Mobo instantly hummed at Xiao Qingqing. But almost at the same time he continued, "Wait for me, I will go to you."

Xiao Qingqing had been sitting in the room. She did not turn on the lights. She had her hands tightly held together to help overcome her tenseness.

When Mobo Shen arrived, only then she took a sigh in relief.

“Why didn’t you turn the lights on?”

Shen Mobo looked at Xiao Qingqing inside the room. The curtains had good light-proofing, plus Xiao Qingqing was hiding in the dark, revealing only her silhouette.

“Don’t turn on the lights.”

Xiao Qingqing reminded. Shen Mobo did not ask why. He just walked gently towards Xiao Qingqing, and then pulled a chair and sat opposite her.

“How long will the drug... Last?”

Xiao Qingqing was very clever. Judging from Shen Mobo’s reaction, she had guessed that something was amiss.

Therefore, she asked this question so that she’d know how long she still had...

Little did she realize that out of her nervousness, she had already asked this question.

“By calculating the efficacy of the drug and also by taking Lu Jinye’s habits into account, it can only last until eight in the morning.”

Shen Mobo answered her again, but he had realized Xiao Qingqing’s nervousness through the little details he observed of her.

He wanted to step forward and comfort him.

However, Xiao Qingqing instantly refused him.

Xiao Qingqing withdrew her hand and took another deep breath.

She was sitting in the dark, so Shen Mobo could only accompany her in the dark the rest of the time.

Time passed by minute by minute... It felt like forever.

Sunlight gradually seeped into the room.

Xiao Qingqing’s dejection grew with time.

Suddenly, Shen Mobo’s phone rang. The butler’s excited voice was heard, “Lu Jinye is in Room 09 of Building C.”

Xiao Qingqing stood up almost immediately and rushed out of the door.

Shen Mobo quickly followed, but Xiao Qingqing had already got into the elevator.

Shen Mobo only realized that Xiao Qingqing had a translucent dress on the moment the elevator door closed. The light in the elevator revealed her underwear that she had planned with intentions.

It was full of provocative temptation.

Falling for the Contract Bride Chapter 38

Chapter 38 What Happened Last Night

Shen Mobo looked at Xiao Qingqing's back for a long time before he turned around, went back to his room and locked himself up.

He was not interested in what would happen next... Where Xiao Qingqing went or whether it went well or not.

When Xiao Qingqing arrived at Lu Jinye's room, it was already daylight. Under the beckoning of the butler, she quickly got into Lu Jinye's room. She closed the door, laid beside Lu Jinye and quickly took off her clothes.

At this moment, a loud noise was heard from outside. It was the butler stopping Lu Junnian from barging into the room.

"You can't go in, you can't go in!"

The butler tried to block Lu Junnian while admonishing him aloud.

Nevertheless, Lu Junnian glared at the butler coldly. His murderous aura was so terrifying that the butler shrank and dared not stop him.

Therefore, he could only stall him for a bit before he managed to get in.

"Hurry up, open Lu Jinye's room! Tell me where Lu Jinye is!"

"Sorry... You can't... I won't tell you, please leave."

The butler repeated himself. Looking flustered, he quickly made a face at the waiter behind him, beckoning him to notify Shen Mobo immediately.

Lu Jinye was awakened by the noise outside. He frowned slightly, as he felt his head throbbing. It felt similar to a hangover's headache, so painful that it made him rub his temples.

He had barely drunk the night before. Why did he feel this way?

Lu Jinye frowned as he got out of the bed. He stood up straightaway and was prepared to head towards the door.

Xiao Qingqing wanted to stop him, but she retreated as soon as she stretched her hand out. She turned over and pretended to sleep soundly.

Lu Jinye walked towards the door and habitually put on a coat. When he opened the door and saw Lu Junnian, his face froze, looking terrifying as ever.

“Looking for me?”

Lu Jinye looked at Lu Junnian coldly.

Lu Junnian just snorted coldly, “For the sake of your reputation, it would be best if we discuss this inside your room.”

“You can talk here.”

Lu Junnian wanted to walk into the room, but was stopped by Lu Jinye instantaneously.

He didn't intend to let Lu Junnian in.

“Even if you are shameless, Mu Zhi still has a reputation to keep!”

Lu Junnian squinted at Lu Jinye coldly and chided. He ignored Lu Jinye and broke into his room.

The room was dim and exuded an exquisite atmosphere. If Lu Junnian hadn't known that Mu Zhi had ingested the drug, he wouldn't have such dirty thoughts... But he knew.

He was even more disgusted at that thought. He did not hesitate to step forward and pull the curtains open. The whole room instantly became brighter.

However, because of this action, the face on the bed that was still pretending to be asleep could suddenly be clearly perceived.

Xiao Qingqing pretended have just wakened up. She opened her eyes slightly, and even choked out a drowsy morning voice, “Jinye, it's so early... It's too bright, please draw the curtains, alright?!”

Alas! She finally only realized that Lu Junnian was there too!

She was so frightened that she quickly wrapped herself up with the quilt.

When Lu Junnian saw Xiao Qingqing in bed, he did not even stop to think. He flung a punch into Lu Jinye's face.

Even though he was unprepared, his punch still contained quite an amount of strength.

"You monster!"

Lu Junnian bellowed as Lu Jinye pushed him away with all his strength. He frowned at Xiao Qingqing who appeared to be on his bed.

What happened the night before was like a dream... But... In the dream, he couldn't tell whether the woman on the bed was Mu Zhi or the only woman he had ever had?

How did she turn into Xiao Qingqing?

"Qingqing, why are you here?"

Although everything was different from what Xiao Qingqing had expected and practiced during her rehearsal, Xiao Qingqing still glanced at Lu Jinye coyly, and said embarrassedly, "Jinye, you called me last night. Did you forget? "

Lu Jinye frowned again. His temples were sore. The memories he had of last night were all fragmented, so he couldn't tell exactly what happened.

That incident... Was probably real.

Just... Did he really call Xiao Qingqing over? Did he really... Do something that was against his values?!

Lu Junnian watched the reaction of the two people at the scene. He couldn't help but snort coldly and raised his mouth with disdain.

What is this?

Refusing to admit after taking advantage of her.

He didn't even intend to discuss it any further! Originally, he just wanted to fight for the unjust treatment Mu Zhi got, but now it seemed... There was no need to fight!

This man was not worthy.

He turned around and walked out, banging the door behind him.

He sped all the way back to meet Mu Zhi.

When Mu Zhi woke up and saw the whiteness that surrounded her, she felt a little stunned. Then, she recalled what happened the night before. She could faintly remember what she did, only that she had forgotten who she was with!

She looked around, and suddenly spotted a man whom she didn't know drooping on a chair. Judging from his clothes, he was a doctor in this hospital.

Mu Zhi was so taken aback that she sat up quickly.

Although it was just a tiny movement, it still alarmed Bai Shao. He opened his beautiful eyes and glanced at Mu Zhi, "You're awake?"

Mu Zhi nodded, a little embarrassed, "What happened? Why am I here?"

She clearly remembered that she was in the Banyan Mount Chateau!

"Lu Junnian sent you here."

Bai Shao wasn't one who'd reveal his patients' private matters to strangers, so he just answered simply.

But this answer made Mu Zhi even more confused.

"Lu Junnian? When did he send me here?"

"Last night."

"Why?"

Mu Zhi was still puzzled. What she actually wanted to ask was when did Lu Junnian find her and why did he send her to the hospital.

However, before she could finish her question, a man barged into the room. The man pushed the door open and ordered Bai Shao coldly, "I'm back, you can go out first."

Lu Junnian acted like an angry lion.

Bai Shao glanced at Lu Junnian. He had a tacit understanding and quickly retired.

As soon as Bai Shao left, Lu Junnian locked the door.

Mu Zhi knew Lu Junnian very well. The expression on Lu Junnian's face at that time was terrifying.

And he seemed emotionally unstable as well.

Lu Junnian rarely lost control of his emotions.

Before Mu Zhi could speak, Lu Junnian ordered, "Leave him!"

The mere words were enough to add onto Mu Zhi's overwhelmed state.

Mu Zhi couldn't help but blink at Lu Junnian, "What do you mean?"

"Do you know what happened to you last night?"

Lu Junnian stepped forward and pointed into Mu Zhi's face!

Falling for the Contract Bride Chapter 39

Chapter 39 He Held Mu Xiaomu

Lu Junnian's words left her even more confused. She looked at him. Her eyes blinking as her mind desperately tried to remember what had happened last night.

But no matter how hard she tried, she could not remember anything. It was all a blur.

It was like waking up from a dream. At the moment of waking the memory of the dream was clear, but when she tried to recall it, she realized she could not remember anything at all.

Mu Zhi drew her brows together in frustration.

Watching her, Lu Junnian's handsome face was stern. He observed her intently for a long time but did not say a word.

Finally he sighed and said, "Leave Lu Jinye."

Mu Zhi thought that he had something important to tell her. However, when that was all, she wanted to laugh but resisted it.

"Whether I leave him or not is none of your business. But what happened that you need to save me last night?"

Mu Zhi was determined to find out what had happened.

"Your mother's surgical trial is one week from now. But presently, your mother's condition has somewhat deteriorated."

At a mention of work, his demeanor became normal again.

Hearing the news, a flash of sadness crossed her face but she immediately controlled herself. She turned to Lu Junnian and said, "If there is nothing else, can I leave now? I would like to see my mother."

Lu Junnian nodded and stepped aside from the door. When Mu Zhi opened the door and was about to run out, she saw Bai Shao standing right outside. She gave a nod and left quickly.

When Mu Zhi was out of sight, Bai Shao let out a sigh, looked at Lu Junnian in the eye and said, "You bastard."

With that he smiled in good humor and left.

Mu Zhi went to see her mother at the ward. As her previous visit, her mother was still unconscious, but this time her life vitals had weakened. Mu Zhi observed her mother for a long time and her heart became more and more troubled.

When it felt too much for her, she left. She wanted to leave the hospital immediately but when she walked to the entrance, there was a man in a well-pressed suit waiting for her.

Mu Zhi looked at him uncertainly and soon realized that he is Zhang Quan, Lu Jinye's driver.

"What's the matter?"

Mu Zhi promptly put away her dismay and asked as she stood before Zhang Quan.

Zhang Quan greeted Mu Zhi with a nod and said, "Madam, this morning Mr. Lu found his car missing and sent me to look for it. We found the car crashed at the guardrail halfway down the mountain and the security guard at Banya Mount Chateau confirmed that you had driven the car away last night."

Mu Zhi frowned. She had no recollection at any of the things he said.

Zhang Quan continued, "Mr. Lu was worried about you and had people trace your whereabouts. When you were found to be in this hospital, he immediately sent me here to check on you."

So... The driver was here to make sure that she was safe.

Mu Zhi couldn't help but smile, "You can go back and inform Jinye that I am fine, I am not hurt."

At her words, Zhang Quan was visibly relieved and he said, "If it is not too much trouble, can you give the chairman a call? I believe this is better as he is very worried about you."

"Sure."

Mu Zhi agreed but right after she did, a voice came from behind her, "Worried?"

It was Lu Junnian.

"If he is worried, why don't he come here himself?"

"He can't even get off Miss Xiao's bed, and he's worried about other people? This is laughable."

Mu Zhi could only glare at Lu Junnian. She did not know how to reply to his sarcastic remarks.

Then she turned to Zhang Quan, "You should go back first. I will call Jinye later."

Zhang Quan looked at Lu Junnian thoughtfully for a while, then without a word, he left.

When Zhang Quan had left, Mu Zhi too wanted to leave the hospital immediately.

But behind her Lu Junnian was not done talking to her. He looked at her with utmost seriousness and said, "Divorce him."

"Even if I am divorced, I will still not be with you," Mu Zhi replied.

With that, she walked away quickly in her high heels.

When she had walked out and got into a cab, she gave Lu Jinye a call but he did not answer.

She assumed that he was busy so she did not call again.

That night, Lu Jinye still had not returned to his home. He did not even send a text to inform her that he was not coming back.

In the past, he would always text her if he was not coming home. And since there wasn't any text message from him, she thought that he would be back and waited until she had fallen asleep. When she woke up, she realized that he still had not returned.

At this moment, Mu Zhi's phone vibrated with a reminder, 'Today is Mu Xiaomu's school performance.'

Mu Zhi quickly set aside her concerns about Lu Jinye and went to get ready.

Mu Zhi put on an elegant and natural makeup. She looked friendly with the makeup. It would endear her to children.

After putting on her makeup, Mu Zhi called Mu Xiaomu's nanny. The nanny informed her that she had brought Mu Xiaomu to the Children's Activity Centre, so Mu Zhi quickly hailed a cab to go there.

When Mu Zhi reached the Children's Activity Centre, she saw Mu Xiaomu at some distance from her. As she was about to go to her, Mu Xiaomu disappeared into a washroom.

As there were some distance apart, and since Mu Xiaomu knew how to use the washroom by herself, Mu Zhi was not worried.

However she did not know that Mu Xiaomu wanted very much to perform her dance well. So, as she walked, she was thinking about the movements for her dance, reminding herself what not forget, as well as practicing her smile. She did not realize that she was walking towards the male washroom.

Lu Jinye was glaring at Lu Yunxi as he walked towards the male washroom. Annoyance was evident in his voice as he said, "Next time, don't bother getting me to attend events like this. I do not like children."

Lu Yunxi kept on grinning with complete disregard to Lu Jinye's annoyance, "Shouldn't you at least show your support? I have finally gotten myself a respectable work, organizing this citywide children talent competition. You should at least attend!"

"And previously, none of my events could attract any children, but when I let my staff put your photograph in our promotional materials, listing you as a judge for the event, the mothers went wild and registered their children straightaway!"

"Since I have printed that you will be judging, and have distributed them, if you don't appear then it would mean that I was lying isn't it, brother?"

"Next time, don't include me in them."

Lu Jinye turned around and saw a little girl in a white dress, mumbling and walking distractedly toward the male washroom.

In mere seconds, he dashed over and held Mu Xiaomu up just as she was about to step in.

Falling for the Contract Bride Chapter 40

Chapter 40 Mister, Watch Me Dance

Mu Xiaomu was happily practicing her dance moves while moving towards the washroom. All of a sudden, she was in the air.

She turned around quickly and saw an extremely handsome face.

Mu Xiaomu was bewildered for an instant. She blinked her cute, round eyes and smiled at Lu Jinye.

On the other hand, Lu Yunxi was astonished by the sight that laid before his eyes. Lu Jinye was holding a child in his arms for a good minute and it seemed that he had no intention to put her down.

For a second, Lu Yunxi thought he was mistaken...

Besides, for some reason, they both looked so harmonious together.

When the two of them were still staring at each other, Lu Yunxi walked up to the little girl and asked, "Hey there. What's your name?"

"Mu Xiaomu."

Not wanting to leave Lu Jinye's arms, Mu Xiaomu replied amiably.

"Mu Xiaomu? Last name is Mu..."

Lu Yunxi could not help but examined Mu Xiaomu, "Could this child be you and sister-in-law's love child? Don't you think she looks like Mu Zhi?"

Lu Jinye frowned and glared at Lu Yunxi. He then put Mu Xiaomu down.

Lu Jinye carefully examined Mu Xiaomu. Because of the little swan dance, this little girl's hair was tied into a small bun. Her light complexion complimented by a pair of star-like big eyes, she looked adorable wearing the little swan skirt.

"Where is your mom?"

This beautiful child, albeit able to go to the lavatory by herself, the mother should not let her child wander around on her own. How terrible would it be for such a small child to run into the men's room?

"Mama... Mama will come later."

Mu Xiaomu answered earnestly, blinking her eyes once again at Lu Jinye.

Suddenly, she placed her arms on her belly, "Pee... I need to pee... Mister, can you wait for me? I need to pee first. I..."

It seemed that Mu Xiaomu wanted a longer chat with Lu Jinye, but she needed to go.

Usually, Lu Jinye would turn down such request without blinking his eyes. He had no patience for kids, that was why he did not want to have kids with Mu Zhi.

His family background was complicated. Growing up, he never had a happy childhood. He believed that people like him would not be able to provide a happy childhood for his child.

"Okay, go ahead. We will wait for you!"

Seeing that there was no reply from Lu Jinye, Lu Yunxi wondered what he was thinking.

The little girl grabbed Lu Jinye's trousers and waited eagerly for a reply. Lu Yunxi quickly replied on behalf of Lu Jinye.

"Okay!"

Mu Xiaomu withdrew her little hand after receiving an affirmation. She ran towards the washroom quickly and this time, she did not enter the wrong one.

On the other hand, Mu Zhi stood by the door, glancing at the time.

The hall was bigger than expected, and because there were other events on top of the children's days activities, the hall was crowded with people.

As a result, Mu Zhi spent fifteen minutes in order to reach the washroom, which could have been completed in five minutes.

All this while, she kept paying attention to whether Mu Xiaomu had come out from the washroom, but she had not...

Mu Zhi was a little anxious. Has something bad happened?

Mu Zhi rushed towards the washroom without hesitation. As soon as she entered the door, she heard a call, "Hey, Zhi, what are you doing here!"

The voice sounded familiar. Mu Zhi turned and saw Lu Yunxi looking back at her with a grin, "Such a coincidence!"

Mu Zhi's heart dropped in an instant. She took a glimpse at Lu Jinye, then bit her lip and said, "Yes, such a coincidence. I passed by and was going to the bookstore opposite here to buy two books, but I needed to use the toilet so I came here quickly."

Lu Jinye seems to be in deep thoughts, I wonder what is he thinking.

And beside him, the eyes of Lu Yunxi look... Daunting.

“Umm... Please excuse me. I have to go to the loo first.”

Mu Zhi then hurriedly walked into the washroom.

Coincidentally, as soon as she entered the door, Mu Xiaomu walked out of the toilet stall. She wanted to call out ‘mama’ when she saw Mu Zhi.

Mu Zhi blinked at Mu Xiaomu instantaneously, giving her a hush gesture.

Fortunately, she managed to do so without Lu Jinye and Lu Yunxi noticing.

This was an arrangement between Mu Zhi and Mu Xiaomu. If she blinked her eyes and then made hush gesture, it indicated the beginning of the game.

Mu Zhi was afraid that Mu Xiaomu’s identity would be revealed, and she would be miserable if she could not cover it in time. Lu Jinye was too smart after all.

That was why she made up this game.

The name of this game was the Little Actor.

Once the game started, Mu Xiaomu was not allowed to call Mu Zhi mother, she had to pretend that she was not her daughter.

This game was childish.

But Mu Xiaomu was the happiest as long as she could play with Mu Zhi.

Mu Xiaomu smiled instantly, nodded her head and stopped talking. She walked straight out of the washroom.

She scanned around the area when she had come out. When she saw Lu Jinye, she instantly struck with joy and hugged his thigh tightly.

“Mister, I will play as the little swan later. Do you want to watch?”

Lu Jinye frowned as he starred at this little girl.

“This mister doesn’t like to watch children dancing.”

Lu Yunxi deliberately teased Mu Xiaomu. He was right after all, Lu Jinye did express his dislike for being a judge.

Upon hearing that, Mu Xiaomu glanced at Lu Yunxi for a moment, then tears could be seen in her watery eyes.

But it seemed that she did not want to be seen crying, so she tried to hide her tears.

She looked even more lovely when she did that.

Lu Jinye knelt down, looked at Mu Xiaomu and said, "I will watch if you don't cry."

He was already dragged there, hence he might as well watch the little swan.

In an instant, Mu Xiaomu burst into laughter. She walked towards Lu Jinye and placed a kiss on his cheeks.

Lu Jinye was surprised by the sudden kiss.

Lu Yunxi could not help but laugh, looking at the harmonious scene.

In the washroom... Mu Zhi was as anxious as a hen with one chick.

What should I do? How do I rescue Mu Xiaomu from Lu Jinye?!
