

The Contract Lover

Chapter 146

Noila Mo took a deep breath, stood up slowly, and gracefully stretched out his right hand towards Allen Chu, smiling slightly and distantly: "Chu, long time no see."

President Chu.

She called him President Chu. Allen Chu's pupils shrank, and his heart suddenly hurt.

For five years, there was no news from her. He didn't know where she was or what she was doing.

She hated him to the bone, he knew it.

He also tried to put it down, obeyed his grandpa, and made a formal and stable girlfriend.

As winter went to spring, the hibiscus flowers bloomed, he thought he had gradually forgotten, and he had accepted the fact that there was no more Noila Mo in his life.

However, the moment Pei Jun heard her name on the phone, the heart still shuddered like an electric shock.

Now, she was standing in front of him, her smile was so familiar, even the faint fragrance of her body was still the same as five years ago.

However, she called him President Chu.

Allen Chu reached out mechanically and held Noila Mo's hand. Her fingertips are slightly cool, and the delicate touch is still the same as before.

While he was shocked, Noila Mo had already taken his hand out of his palm politely and calmly.

With empty palms, Allen Chu instinctively went to look for Noila Mo's eyes.

Noila Mo didn't look at him, but smiled and said to Pei Jun: "Since President Chu has come to look for you, then I will leave first. Let's talk slowly!"

Gu Jinxin knew that Noila Mo didn't want to have too much contact with Allen Chu, and hurriedly took Noila Mo's arm and winked at Pei Jun: "Then Noila and I will leave first, you greet Mr. Chu well!"

The two took their bags and were about to leave the table. Allen Chu took a long leg and steadily blocked Noila Mo's path: "Noila Mo, I have something to say to you."

Noila Mo felt helpless.

Her attitude just now made it clear that she didn't want to have any intersection with him. But when he said so in person, if she insisted on leaving, she would seem to be a little angry.

"What are you talking about?" Noila Mo lowered his eyes, avoiding Allen Chu's sight.

"Jin Xin, didn't you just say that you wanted to go to the bathroom? I just wanted to go, let's go, let's go together!" Pei Jun is really an insightful person. As soon as he heard that Allen Chu had something to say to Noila Mo, immediately Pull Gu Jinxin away.

Gu Jinxin was dragged to the bathroom by Pei Junlian, and couldn't help but groaned: "What are you doing Pei Jun! Leaving Noila alone with Allen Chu, who knows what he will do again!"

Pei Jun smiled evilly: "When the old lovers meet, what shall we mix in the middle? They are not children anymore. What should you do and why should you worry about it?"

Gu Jinxin wanted to say something, but Pei Jun's lips were already blocked.

"Evil or disgusting? k*ssing in the bathroom!" Gu Jinxin resisted breathlessly, but only in exchange for Pei Jun's stronger offensive...

Under the wisteria trellis, the atmosphere solidified like ice.

"Mr. Chu..." Noila Mo said lightly, breaking the silence.

Allen Chu said something to her, but kept silent, the atmosphere was so depressed that she just wanted to escape quickly.

"Five years ago, I owed you an apology, but I never had a chance to say it. I just met today. I hope you can accept my apology."

Allen Chu's voice was very low and spoke very slowly, but Noila Mo still heard every word clearly.

The faint throbbing in her heart was well concealed by her. Noila Mo raised her eyes and smiled brightly: "Mr. Chu, it's all in the past. There is no need to mention it again. Should people not move forward?"

Allen Chu's eyes darkened slightly. It seems that she has indeed forgotten the past completely... "I have left beforehand, please tell Jinxin and Pei Jun for me to be alone." Noila Mo's tone was very brisk, but her fingertips trembled slightly.

Picking up the bag on the chair and trying to keep her pace calm and steady, Noila Mo walked out of the private restaurant quickly.

The twilight gradually deepened, and Allen Chu stood alone under the wisteria trellis, the wind lifted the purple petals one after another, falling down his shoulders.

Gu Jinxin and Pei Jun stood under the flower wall outside the bathroom, looking at Allen Chu with a little sympathy.

"Allen Chu, do you want to be so lonely! It makes me feel a little sympathetic to him." Gu Jinxin frowned, feeling very uncomfortable.

Pei Jun took a look at Gu Jinxin: "Have you not noticed that Allen has become more calm after Noila Mo went abroad?"

Gu Jinxin thought hard and nodded hard: "Yes! It's like a different person. He used to be a domineering and cold-blooded arrogant, but now he is finally a bit human."

Pei Jun squeezed her nose: "What are you talking about! Allen is my brother, so I won't be allowed to talk bad about him in the future."

Gu Jinxin glared at him: "Noila is still my best friend! How miserable he did Noila back then, I should say he should have 10,000 bad things!"

Pei Jun turned to Allen Chu in the shadow of the tree. "Look, who is worse now?"

Gu Jinxin looked at Allen Chu, and smiled happily: "It deserves it! Noila is so indifferent to him, it's so pleasing!"

Pei Jun shook his head: "You women, you really hold a grudge!"

Gu Jinxin suddenly remembered: "Hey, how did Allen Chu find here? Did you reveal our whereabouts?"

Pei Jun is very innocent: "When he was eating just now, he happened to call, and he heard your name Noila Mo. It is estimated that you have found this side through some positioning system."

Gu Jinxin was a little surprised: "So caring? Allen Chu won't be still playing Noila's idea, right?"

Pei Jun finally couldn't listen anymore: "Allen is handsome and good from a family. How many women are waiting in line for him to be favored! Noilahan is not a god, is he so obsessed? I guess he feels a little guilty in his heart."

Gu Jinxin nodded: "It's best to be like this. Noila can't accept him again. I have prepared a lot of high-quality reliable men. When Noila settles down, I will introduce her to her immediately!"

Pei Jun immediately became vigilant: "How do you know so many high-quality reliable men? Gu Jinxin, I warn you, don't wipe your guns!"

Gu Jinxin smiled like a little fox: "Hey, then you have to accompany me and watch me tighter!"

Noila Mo spent a few days tidying up the small apartment, everything was on track, and he started looking for work.

She can't wait to start a new life.

Noila Mo has a degree in public communication abroad and another year of job opportunities. After submitting a few resumes, she soon received an interview notice from Jiaying, a well-known public relations company.

On this day, Noila Mo deliberately wore a relatively ol skirt, accompanied by a classic Chanel 2.55 bag, the person in the mirror, a fair face with melon seeds, a pair of big gleaming eyes, and her chestnut hair naturally curled slightly, sweet There is no lack of knowledge.

Noila Mo clenched his fists in the mirror to cheer for herself: "Noila Mo, come on!"

Jiaying's office building is located in the CBD core area, not far from where Noila Mo lives. I took a few subway stops according to the route map in the interview notice, and when I got out of the subway station, Noila Mo was surprised to find that the office building in Jiaying was right next to Chu's building!

Noila Mo looked at the glass curtain wall of Jiaying and the white building of the Chu family, suddenly feeling very stressed.

If the interview is successful, will she often meet Allen Chu in the future?

Noila Mo shook his head, feeling that he was thinking too much. In a place where office buildings gather like CBD, it is really not easy to meet someone by accident.

Filled out the visitor's form in the lobby, the staff put a yellow "interview visitor" label on her sleeve, and let her in.

At the front desk was a smiling little girl, and when she saw Noila Mo gestured politely: "Will you go to Room 2107 and wait for the interviewer? I will bring you tea later."

The door of 2107 is wide open. Inside, there is a small round table with green plants and bookshelves next to it. The arrangement is very warm, not like an interview room, but like a home study.

Noila Mo immediately had a good impression of Jiaying. This company should be more humane and full of humanistic care, right?

After waiting for a while, the interviewer hasn't come yet. Instead, the front desk came in with a small tray with a glass of lemonade. Noila Mo thanked the front desk and walked to the window casually with the lemonade, wanting to see the scenery outside.

Noila Mo's gaze swept out of the window, her eyes froze a bit.

Opposite the window is Chu's building. In the CBD, which is an inch of land and gold, the distance between the tall buildings is also very close, and the figures of people working in the grid on the opposite side can be clearly seen.

Allen Chu, where is he on? What is he doing now? Don't you stare at the window in a daze?

Noila Mo couldn't help looking towards the 18th floor. Before, when the Chu family did not move to the CBD, Allen Chu's office was on the 18th floor...

The next second, Noila Mo was taken aback by her actions.

What is she doing! Start looking for Allen Chu's figure?

Noila Mo knocked her head annoyed.

"Hello! Is it Miss Noilamo?" The open door was knocked twice, and a male voice asked gently.

Noila Mo turned her head back quickly.

A young man in a light pink shirt and black suit was walking into the room, holding a resume-like thing in his hand.

The moment he saw Noila Mo, he seemed to be stunned.

Is the interviewer. Noila Mo quickly picked up his mood, walked over and shook hands with him with a smile: "Hello, this is Noila Mo."

"I'm Lin Yifeng, the director of the public relations department. Please sit down!" Lin Yifeng pulled a chair and sat down first, and the interview officially began.

Noila Mo applied for this position mainly for image design and public promotion for large companies, including some network promotion and communication.

Noila Mo had done related jobs when he was abroad, and the interview was very clear. Lin Yifeng was very satisfied. At the end of the interview, he said directly: "Ms. Mo's professional background and professional resume match this position very well. I personally hope you can join my team. I will inform HR to arrange the next two rounds of interviews for you. I wish you a smooth pass!"

When Lin Yifeng said this, he basically confirmed that Noila Mo was on the spot.

The interview with the immediate supervisor is the most important link. As long as this round is passed, the rest is just a formality.

Noila Mo smiled brilliantly at Lin Yifeng: "Thank you, Director Lin! I will do well in the remaining two rounds of interviews!"

Lin Yifeng smiled and nodded, suddenly the topic changed: "Noila Mo, do you remember me?"

Chapter 147

Uh? Noila Mo was surprised. She really didn't remember the name Lin Yifeng.

Searching for dry intestines, I can't remember that I once knew a person named Lin Yifeng.

Lin Yifeng saw Noila Mo's confused and embarrassed appearance, and felt a faint feeling of loss in his heart, but still smiled gently: "Noila, are you from T News Agency? I am from S News Agency. One year we will be together. , You fell asleep halfway through..."

Ah, Noila Mo finally remembered. At that time, she was still working three jobs and was dragged by Lele to join the party, but because she was too tired, she couldn't help but fall asleep, causing everyone to laugh.

Noila Mo blushed: "I'm sorry, I really didn't think of it just now."

Lin Yifeng looked at her beautiful and sweet face with a daze.

At the beginning, it was Noila Mo's jealous sleeping face that moved him. He also thought about chasing Noila Mo, but she was always so busy that he had no chance to start.

Later, I heard that she was taken care of, and later, she completely disappeared from school...

Lin Yifeng didn't expect that he would have such good luck. Five years later, Noila Mo came to him by himself and was about to become his subordinate.

Noila Mo was a little uncomfortable being seen by Lin Yifeng, so she asked him with a smile, "Director Lin, if there is nothing wrong, can I leave?"

Lin Yifeng nodded: "Today is Jiaying's open house day. You can go around and visit, and first understand Jiaying's corporate culture and company structure."

so good? Noila Mo was very happy: "Okay, thank you for telling me."

Jiaying's open house was a whole day, and Noila Mo wanted to learn more about the company, so she stayed till the end.

Noila Mo felt depressed when she walked out of the gate of Jiaying.

It was raining outside.

The sun was still shining when she came out in the morning, and she didn't bring an umbrella at all.

Forget it, there is a bus stop not far away. Take shelter from the rain under the stop sign. If you are lucky, you can squeeze on the bus and go back quickly.

She was already hungry.

Noila Mo held the bag above his head and ran towards the bus stop, but fortunately it was not raining much.

She was the only one on the deserted platform, but the rain was getting worse and worse.

Suddenly, a black RV drove from the opposite side, and the lights dazzled her.

"It's really unqualified. Private cars occupy the bus lane." Noila Mo murmured and didn't care.

The car suddenly stopped in front of her, the door opened, and a man poked his head out of the window: "Noila Mo, get in the car!"

It is Allen Chu.

Noila Mo was surprised and embarrassed.

She must be very embarrassed now, her hair was messed up by the wind, her skirt was soaked in the rain, and she clung to her indecently.

"No, I'll just wait for the bus." Noila Mo quickly refused.

Allen Chu didn't speak, and his dark eyes stared at her sharply: "Get in the car! I won't eat you again!"

That overbearing and strong is here again.

Noila Mo frowned helplessly, and stubbornly came up again: "I said no! Mr. Chu, please do it yourself."

Simply turned his face and ignored him.

I thought that after five years of precipitation, his temperament had become much calmer. As a result, the nature in the bones still cannot be changed.

Allen Chu stared at her, the expression in his eyes changed several times, and the corners of his mouth tightened.

In the stalemate, Lin Yifeng ran over holding an umbrella: "Noila Mo! It really is you! Why did you leave so late?"

Noila Mo's arm still had a yellow label for interview visitors. She forgot to take it. Lin Yifeng naturally stretched out her hand to help her tear off the label.

Sitting in the car, Allen Chu watched Lin Yifeng's movements, his fingers holding the steering wheel gradually increased his strength, his knuckles turned white, and blue veins burst out little by little.

Lin Yifeng didn't even notice Allen Chu in the car on the side of the road, and handed the umbrella to Noila Mo very considerately: "The car is coming, get in the car! Go home and change your wet clothes. Don't get sick."

Being stared at by Allen Chu to interact with another man, Noila Mo felt awkward and wanted to return the umbrella to Lin Yifeng: "No, the bus goes directly to the gate of my community, which is very convenient."

When the car came, Lin Yifeng couldn't help but pushed her up: "You're welcome, go back quickly!"

Noila Mo got on the bus, and Lin Yifeng was still standing on the platform and waving to her.

Allen Chu suddenly reversed slowly and stepped up the accelerator again. The motorhome roared past Lin Yifeng. The wheels rolled up muddy water and splashed Lin Yifeng all over!

Allen Chu was clearly on purpose!

Noila Mo saw clearly, and was so angry that he wanted to laugh. Allen Chu really hasn't changed at all! Domineering, naive, as always!

The black RV slowly drove into the Chu family mansion. After a while, Allen Chu appeared at the door with a soaking body.

Mother Zhang opened the door and was startled: "Young Master, why are you all wet? Go and change your clothes. I'll make a bowl of ginger soup for you."

"No." Allen Chu's face was as sinking as water, with loneliness written on his brows, and he walked straight in.

Mother Zhang hurriedly smiled and said: "Master, Miss Xiang is here, she made soup for you and brought it here, waiting for you inside!"

Allen Chu frowned. There was a pause.

Zhang Ma sighed in her heart. What's wrong with Miss Xiang, her appearance, her family, her temper, are all chosen from a million, but the young master is always indifferent to her.

"Allen! You are back! Oh, why are you all wet? Don't you have an umbrella in your car?" Xiang Hanwei greeted him with a smile, but when she saw Allen Chu's soaked clothes, she wrinkled suddenly eyebrow.

Allen Chu glanced at her, but his eyes were somewhat hollow, and his voice was listless: "Forgot to use it."

He forgot to use the umbrella in the car when it was raining? Xiang Hanwei found it incredible.

How far do you have to go to forget it?

Quickly helped Allen Chu take off his jacket and pushed him upstairs: "Hurry up and take a hot bath. I brought bamboo fungus soup and drink it while it's hot."

After entering the bedroom, he opened the closet again to help Allen Chu spread his bathrobe.

Allen Chu stood by and looked at her, trying to suppress the impatience in his heart: "I take a bath, won't you go out?"

Xiang Hanwei listened and smiled: "It's not that I haven't seen it..."

Allen Chu raised his eyebrows and began to undress.

The shirt was thrown on the floor, revealing a strong wheat chest. He started to pull on the belt buckle again, thinking that Xiang Hanwei would avoid it quickly, but instead she approached with a smile: "How about I help you?"

White and tender fingertips touched the belt buckle, and with a light press, the belt opened in response. Xiang Hanwei's little hand slowly dropped, Ruoyoruowu wiped Allen Chu's lower body and helped him take off his trousers.

A familiar scent burst into the nose. Allen Chu violently grabbed Xiang Hanwei's hand: "What perfume do you use?"

Xiang Hanwei smiled coquettishly: "I found a bottle of perfume on the secret compartment of the bedroom just now. It seems to be some years old. When I saw the bottle looks good, I took it out and sprayed it a bit. I didn't expect it smelled good."

Allen Chu's eyes suddenly became cold and bloodthirsty: "Mama Zhang hasn't told you that you are not allowed to touch that bottle of perfume?"

Seeing Allen Chu like this, Xiang Hanwei was a little scared, so she coquettishly stuck to Allen Chu's body: "Allen, why is it so hot? Isn't it just a bottle of expired perfume? People are just curious, so they sprayed it a little bit. ."

Xiang Hanwei's soft body rubbed against Allen Chu's naked chest, and the familiar scent pours into his nose little by little, causing Allen Chu's heartbeat to speed up.

It has been five years, and he hasn't smelled it in five years.

Noila Mo loves to use that bottle of perfume. After she left, when he thought that she felt the pain in his heart, he gently sprayed a little on the pillow.

Smelling the faint fragrance, as if she was still lying beside him. Only in this way can he sleep peacefully.

Seeing Allen Chu's expression eased, Xiang Hanwei thought that her coquettish offensive had worked, and rubbed his chest even more vigorously: "Allen, don't be angry with me, they didn't mean it..."

Allen Chu closed his eyes. Let the familiar fragrance wrap him.

Xiang Hanwei's little hand slowly stroked Allen Chu's chest, slowly making a circle on it. The plump breasts deliberately rubbed gently on his arms.

"Noila!" Allen Chu whispered, suddenly possessed and bit towards Han Wei's neck.

Slight tingling, but more irritation.

A squeamish groan was made to Hanwei's throat, and she pushed her body closer.

Although she is Allen Chu's true girlfriend, the number of times she has sex can be counted in one slap. She really couldn't figure it out, Allen Chu was in its prime, shouldn't it be in great demand? Why don't you enjoy her such a beautiful beauty?

Every time Huanai is almost always when he is drunk.

Say he doesn't like himself? Xiang Hanwei also feels different. Every time when Huanai, he called her name "Xiaohan" so affectionately, it didn't seem like he didn't love her.

To Xiang Hanwei, Allen Chu is a mystery. This greatly stimulated her desire to conquer.

Allen Chu's hand rubbed Xiang Hanwei's body severely. She tore open her skirt fiercely, and her big hand was hot like a soldering iron, leaving a bruise scar on her delicate skin.

Closing his eyes tightly, Allen Chu regarded the woman under him as another woman and loved him fiercely.

Chapter 148

Despite Lin Yifeng's umbrella, Noila Mo was still exposed to some rain. She got headaches and sore throats when she woke up in the morning, but she also received a second round of interview notice from Jiaying.

Noila Mo rushed to Jiaying and saw a convenient pharmacy next to the office building. He walked in and planned to buy some cold medicine. It would be too embarrassing if he had a runny nose after an interview.

Choosing cold medicine on the shelf, I heard the voice of two young girls next to them chatting while shopping.

The tall girl's tone was a bit mean: "The girlfriend of President Chu is really troublesome. I am afraid that I will be too idle, so I called me specifically so that I don't forget to buy medicine for President Chu."

The slightly shorter female voice was surprised: "Are you buying medicine for President Chu? What's wrong with President Chu?"

The tall girl shrugged: "Mr. Chu seems to have a cold, and he keeps coughing during meetings in the morning! Maybe it was raining yesterday!"

The short girl joked: "Zong Chu coughed in the meeting room, and it is estimated that a large number of women will feel distressed."

The tall girl was very disdainful: "Don't say it! Really! I can't figure out that Chu always has a girlfriend, so why are so many people idiotic about him? It seems like we don't have a man in the Chu family!"

Mr. Chu, Mr. Chu.

Obviously, they were talking about Allen Chu.

It turns out that Allen Chu has a girlfriend.

Noila Mo suppressed the uncomfortable feeling in her heart, frowning a little troubledly, why couldn't she escape Allen Chu's shadow wherever she went?

I hurriedly picked up the medicine and was about to go to the cashier to checkout. The tall girl suddenly pointed out the window and hit the shoulder of the shorter girl: "Hey, look! It really means that Cao Cao Cao Cao is here, and Mr. Chu's girlfriend is here! "

Noila Mo looked out the window with the short girl.

Next to the flower garden by the road outside the window, stood a young girl with big wavy curly hair, a gorgeous and elegant white lace onepiece, and a Hermès silk scarf around her neck, making that white face very bright.

Is a rare beauty.

“Wow! It’s no wonder that I can stand out from so many women and become President Chu’s true girlfriend. She is really beautiful!”

The short girl was amazed.

Noila Mo lowered her eyes and walked away quickly with the medicine.

After checking out, walking out of the drugstore, the white lace skirt was still standing by the roadside.

She was talking on the phone, her jade fingers were slender, and the bright red Dankou was shining brightly in the sun.

“Allen, I’m waiting for you downstairs in your company. It’s heating up today, and they are still wearing silk scarves. They are almost dead. Come down!”

The voice was gentle and not too sweet.

Noila Mo resisted the urge to look at her again and quickened his pace.

I heard her smile again, her voice low: “You are ashamed to ask people. You planted so many strawberries on their necks last night. How can you hide them without a silk scarf?”

Last night, neck, strawberry...

Noila Mo’s heart suddenly became blocked, and the pace became faster.

"Hey, miss! Your things have fallen!" The woman suddenly grabbed the phone in her hand and pointed at Noila Mo's back and shouted to her.

"Uh..." Noila Mo looked down. She didn't notice when the medicine in the bag fell to the ground.

"Thank you!" Noila Mo raised her eyes to look at the woman in the lace skirt, feeling a little complicated.

The woman smiled at her, made a polite gesture, and continued to say: "It's okay, a girl who passed by just dropped something. I reminded her. Allen, are you getting a better cold? I feel distressed. died....."

When Noila Mo walked into Jiaying's building and put the medicine bag in his own bag, he discovered that the medicine box had been squeezed and collapsed.

The interview went smoothly, with two sides and three sides going on at the same time. The offer notice was given almost on the spot.

After the interview, Noila Mo thought for a while and decided to thank Lin Yifeng.

Generally, the interview process of large companies is relatively slow. It usually takes one week to wait from one interview to the next.

Lin Yifeng must be credited for being so fast this time.

In Lin Yifeng's office, after listening to Noila Mo's thanks, Lin Yifeng smiled: "Noila, I really urged hr to arrange the interview as soon as possible. But I also have my selfishness, so you don't need to thank me."

"Self-hearted?" Noila Mo couldn't understand.

Lin Yifeng smiled very elegantly: "This time we took a lot of effort to grab the business of the Chu family. You should have heard of the Chu family? The leading enterprise in City C has strong financial resources."

Noila Mo nodded and waited for Lin Yifeng to continue.

"The president of the Chu family has a notoriously high vision, so high to the point of abnormality. The general planning scheme can't be seen by him. I saw in your resume that the publicity of the World Autistic Child Relief Fund was planned by you. Yes, I have seen that promotion. It is very new and creative. So I want to recruit you as soon as possible to join the Chu family's corporate publicity project team so that the Chu family's business can be completed beautifully."

Lin Yifeng finished speaking in one breath, waiting for Noila Mo's response.

Allen Chu again...

This was Noila Mo's first reaction. But she still smiled very politely and professionally: "It is a real honor to join Jiaying as soon as possible, and to be able to participate in such an important project as soon as I enter the job. I will do my best to do this project!"

Lin Yifeng nodded with satisfaction, and added: "Noila, you must be mentally prepared for the difficulty of this project. The boss of the Chu family attaches great importance to this plan. Then your plan needs to be reviewed by him, and there will always be work. contact."

Will there be contact at work? Does this mean that she has to see Allen Chu often?

Noila Mo wanted to ask, but he quietly swallowed the question back.

The interview took almost a whole afternoon, and when Noila Mo walked out of Jiaying's building, he was already hungry.

"Hey, Jinxin, are you there yet?"

Noila Mo took out his mobile phone and dialed Gu Jinxin's number. She and Jin Xin made an appointment to have dinner together.

"I'll be there soon. There is a Vietnamese restaurant next to Jiaying, so go ahead and wait for me!" Gu Jinxin's voice sounded particularly pleasant.

Noila Mo hung up the phone, walked into the restaurant next to the office building, and found a place by the window, watching the streetscape while waiting for Gu Jinxin.

Gu Jinxin arrived very quickly, and as soon as Noila Mo looked at the towering white building of the Chu family, Gu Jinxin walked in with a smile on his face.

Opened the menu and ordered a few special dishes, Gu Jinxin looked at Noila Mo with a smile: "Noila, I have good news to tell you!"

"What's the good news?" Noila Mo looked at Gu Jinxin's radiant face and asked tentatively, "Are you going to get married?"

Gu Jinxin and Pei Jun have also been in love for five years, and they should have been married long ago.

"It's really smart! You guessed it as soon as you guessed it!" Gu Jinxin winked at Noila Mo affectionately: "But...you only guessed one, I have some good news!"

Noila Mo rolled her eyes: "Are you pregnant?"

"Oh!" Gu Jinxin leaned back in his chair, feeling discouraged: "It's boring to chat with smart people! There is no surprise at all! You can guess everything!"

"Ah! I really guessed it!" Noila Mo was so happy that he took Gu Jinxin's hand: "Jinxin! Congratulations! What a double happiness! Great! I want to be a godmother!"

The corners of Gu Jinxin's eyebrows and eyes are smiling: "The wedding is scheduled for next month. I will send you a wedding invitation in two days. By the way, you have to promise me to be my bridesmaid!"

Noila Mo nodded without hesitation: "This is natural! When you get married, I am not a bridesmaid who is a bridesmaid!"

Then he said curiously: "Jinxin, how long have you been pregnant?"

Gu Jinxin touched her flat belly a little shyly: "I just found out today."

Noila Mo looked at her friend's smile, and her heart was warm.

After eating, the two were talking about the details of the wedding, and a female voice suddenly sounded next to him: "Jinxin! You are eating here too, what a coincidence!"

Gu Jinxin and Noila Mo both turned their heads.

The world is really too small.

This was Noila Mo's first reaction when she saw the white lace dress.

Gu Jinxin glanced at Noila Mo with some flickering eyes, stood up and smiled and greeted the white lace dress: "Hanwei, are you here too?"

After that, he introduced the two people: "Noila, this is Pei Jun's girlfriend Xiang Hanwei. Hanwei, this is my good friend Noila Mo."

Noila Mo couldn't help but want to laugh. Also Pei Jun's friend's girlfriend! Gu Jinxin was afraid that Xiang Hanwei would know what she knew Allen Chu!

But she is very sweet to say so. There is no need to branch out.

Xiang Hanwei recognized Noila Mo, smiled and stretched out her hand: "So it's you!"

Noila Mo shook hands with her politely: "I really thank you just now."

Gu Jinxin was surprised: "You two know each other?"

Xiang Hanwei smiled and told the story again, and then boasted to Gu Jinxin: "Your friend has a good temperament! It looks so comfortable."

Gu Jinxin's face was a little strange, but she still smiled decently: "Noila just returned to China, and everyone can keep in touch in the future."

After a few greetings, Gu Jinxin's phone rang.

She answered the phone and said a few words, then turned to apologize and smiled towards Han Wei: "Pei Jun is here to pick me up, I have to go first, Noila and Shun Lu, I will pick her up by the way!"

Xiang Hanwei smiled softly: "It's okay, Allen should get off work soon. I'll wait for him to have dinner here."

After getting in the car, Noila Mo smiled and congratulated Pei Jun. Pei Jun also joked: "Noila, I heard that Jinxin said that she has prepared a large wave of high-quality single men to introduce to you. I guess your wedding drink is coming soon, right?"

Wedding wine... it sounds so remote.

Noila Mo's mood suddenly fell a little bit.

Pei Jun didn't notice Noila Mo's downturn, and smiled to himself: "You can't keep up with Jinxin and I! But Allen gets married at the end of the year, you can drive him."

Gu Jinxin hurriedly stepped on Pei Jun's foot: "What are you talking about! Why does Noila have to catch someone else to get married?"

Pei Jun refused to accept the excuse: "What's the matter? Just kidding!"

Noila Mo smiled and said: "Jin Xin, why are you so fierce! Don't even make jokes!"

She laughed hard, but for some reason, the muscles on her face seemed a little stiff, and she laughed very hard.

The car drove downstairs to Noila Mo's house, Pei Jun sent Noila Mo upstairs, and as soon as he got back in the car, Gu Jinxin twisted his ears and reprimanded: "Do you have any eyesight to see! Why are you in Noila? Before Allen Chu!"

Pei Jun was inexplicable: "It's all my life! What does it matter?"

Gu Jinxin glared at him: "Today I met Xiang Hanwei with Noila. Although Noila didn't say anything, I can see that she is still a bit embarrassed. From now on, don't talk nonsense!"

Your wife has spoken, Pei Jun dared not follow, and quickly swore that he would take care of his mouth in the future.

The car drove to the community where Gu Jinxin's home was located. Seeing the moonlight was very good, Gu Jinxin clamored to get off the car and walk for a while: "Let's go and sit in the ginkgo grove on the east side for a while! The weather is so good today, it's a shame to go home early.!"

Pei Jun parked the car outside the community, took Gu Jinxin's hand and walked slowly all the way towards the ginkgo forest.

The moonlight shone faintly in the forest, Pei Jun took Gu Jinxin and sat on the wooden chair under the shadow of the tree, blowing a slight breeze, the two quietly nestled together, very comfortable.

Chapter 149

It has been half a month since I joined Jiaying. The director of Noila Mo's planning department has done smoothly. The Chu project plan in charge has passed the first round of approval. Lin Yifeng appreciates her efficiency and creativity very much.

Noila Mo was also relieved. Although Jiaying and Chu's building were next to each other, she had never met Allen Chu in the past two weeks.

The only thing that disturbed her was that Lin Yifeng seemed to show a good feeling for her beyond ordinary colleagues. Every time she works overtime, he will inevitably work overtime, and then send her home by the way.

She thought it was really just a way, until she heard someone from the Administration Department accidentally mentioned that Lin Yifeng's family lived in the south of the city.

Noila Mo herself lives in the north of the city!

Lin Yifeng's so-called passing along is just an excuse.

Noila Mo tries to keep a distance from him. She loves Jiaying's corporate culture and cherishes this job. She doesn't want to touch her office romance.

The days went on peacefully. To this day, Lin Yifeng's secretary directly dialed the inside line to Noila Mo: "Sister Noila, Mr. Lin asked you to come over and bring the plan of the Chu project."

Probably I have to urge the progress again. Noila Mo didn't think much, hugged the laptop and walked to Lin Yifeng's office.

"Noila, you come to the Chu family with me." Lin Yifeng said just like that.

Noila Mo's heart tightened, and instinctively asked Lin Yifeng: "Mr. Lin, what are you going to do with the Chu family?"

The first round of approval has passed, and the second round of planning has not yet been made. There is no question of approval. What will you do with Chu?

Lin Yifeng frowned: "The President of Chu's family came back from a business trip. He was not satisfied after seeing the plan. The secretary told us to come and meet the president personally."

Noila Mo was very surprised, did the president personally come up with such detailed questions?

Lin Yifeng seemed to see Noila Mo's doubts, and sighed: "This President Chu really does not play cards according to common sense. It is said that he does not need to do this in person. For some reason, he repeatedly emphasized that we must be here. The person in charge of the project went to meet with him. Forget it, don't think about it, just pack up and go."

Noila Mo is the direct person in charge of this project.

Allen Chu must have seen her name on the plan.

What exactly does Allen Chu want to do! Five years have passed, and he has a new girlfriend himself, is he still reluctant to let her go?

Noila Mo felt a little anger in her heart.

When the Chu family arrived, the front desk took Noila Mo and Lin Yifeng directly to the president's office on the 18th floor, and graciously served them tea: "Mr. Chu is in a meeting, it will be over soon, please wait a moment."

Noila Mo put his notebook on the coffee table and looked around Allen Chu's office.

Black gold-patterned carpets, pearly white walls, and walnut-colored retro-style bookcases occupy three walls. In the middle is a luxurious and bright crystal chandelier. On the desk, there are various cute and eye-catching green plants, and there is even a A doll-shaped alien prickly pear.

Luxurious and exquisite, the attention to detail is revealed everywhere.

Noila Mo couldn't help but think of the style of Allen Chu's office five years ago: everything is top-notch, but simple and almost empty.

Allen Chu's office will have the current style, and Xiang Hanwei must have contributed to it, right?

Noila Mo was thinking wildly, and Lin Yifeng next to him had already stood up: "Chu, hello!"

Allen Chu was wearing a white shirt with his sleeves rolled up to his elbow at random. With the king's natural laziness and extravagance, he stretched out his arm and shook Lin Yifeng.

Although it was Lin Yifeng's greeting, his eyes always glanced over Noila Mo intentionally or unintentionally.

Noila Mo lowered his head, observing the duties of a small clerk, quietly listening to Lin Yifeng and Allen Chu discussing the plan.

She only briefly said something in the middle where she needed to explain. I want to make myself a transparent person.

Listening, she began to respect Allen Chu. She thought that Allen Chu was deliberately picky, but after listening to him talk about his thoughts, Noila Mo realized that he really had a lot of ideas and his thoughts were very open.

After his changes, the plan is indeed more novel and brighter.

Noila Mo couldn't help but looked up at him, only to see him looking at her. The light in the eyes flashed, making her heart beat.

After discussing the plan, Lin Yifeng packed up the materials and smiled at Allen Chu: "President Chu, we will revise it again according to your wishes when we go back, and send the revised version to you for review."

This is to say goodbye. Noila Mo felt relieved.

"Director Lin, let's go first. I have a few questions to ask Miss Mo alone." Allen Chu's tone was light, but his eyes were fiery.

Lin Yifeng was a little strange, but didn't have time to think, nodded and said to Noila Mo: "Noila, then I will go first. You can go back to the company when you are finished."

"Uh...Mr. Lin, I..." Noila Mo never expected that Allen Chu would directly ask her to stay alone. She was so panicked that she couldn't find any excuses.

Lin Yifeng thought she was nervous, so he patted her shoulder comfortingly: "Noila, don't be nervous. If you have any thoughts, just communicate with Chief Chu directly. Chief Chu appreciates your plan very much."

Allen Chu stared at Lin Yifeng's hand on Noila Mo's shoulder, his eyes dark as the sea.

Lin Yifeng left, and the room was quiet.

"Mr. Chu, you just said that you have a question to discuss with me?" Noila Mo walked to the other end of the sofa, a little farther away from Allen Chu.

Allen Chu hugged his arms and looked at her condescendingly: "What are you hiding? I'm afraid you won't be able to eat it?"

Noila Mo was annoyed. She came to work, not to be tricked by him!

"Mr. Chu, since you have no problem, then I will leave first."

After speaking, he walked to the door, held the door handle, and was about to unscrew it.

Allen Chu's hand suddenly stretched out from behind her and locked the door.

"What are you going to do!" Noila Mo panicked.

This is Allen Chu's office. With Allen Chu's domineering and arrogant temperament, she can't imagine what she would do to her.

Her petite body was sandwiched between Allen Chu and the door. Allen Chu's powerful aura made her almost breathless.

"No wonder I saw you at the bus stop that day. It turns out you were working in Jiaying." Allen Chu spoke leisurely, admiring Noila Mo's panic.

"Allen Chu! What do you want to do! Go away! Let me go out!"

Noila Mo tried to push Allen Chu's arm away, staring at him bitterly.

"If you want me to go away, don't show up in front of me! You escaped so far, and now you are back and you are still working in Jiaying! You also took the Chu project, what do you want?" Allen Chu blurted out! There was mania in his voice.

Noila Mo didn't want to pay attention to his rogue logic, but pushed his arm desperately: "Go away! Don't stop me!"

Allen Chu's arm tightened and pressed her against the door forcefully!

The faint scent of cologne on his body pours into her nose, still the familiar smell five years ago.

A deep fear came from the bottom of my heart.

After five years of living abroad, she thought she had become strong and independent. As a result, she would still be at a loss when encountering Allen Chu's dominance and strength...

"Let go! I will call someone if I don't let go!" Noila Mo suppressed the fear in his heart, trying to make his voice appear calm and calm.

"Then you shout!" Allen Chu stared at her face for a while, he was in a good mood, and the corners of his mouth even cocked.

Noila Mo got angry. Only then did I remember that Allen Chu always liked special soundproofing of the office.

"Allen Chu! How on earth are you willing to let me go? You are a powerful and powerful CEO. I am just an ordinary employee. You have a beautiful and charming girlfriend, more prettier than me and gentler than me. , Everything is better than me! Why do you want to embarrass me?"

The more Noila Mo said, the more aggrieved, the thin water vapor in his eyes, making a pair of clear eyes become misty.

Allen Chu's heart suddenly softened.

He loosened his arm slightly: "Noila Mo, am I that scary? Every time you see me, you desperately want to avoid it! Last time you ate too! This time again!"

Noila Mo sniffed, embarrassed. She almost shed tears in front of Allen Chu!

"I really want to avoid you! Because I don't want to have any intersection with you! I have forgotten the past! I hope you can forget it soon!"

Noila Mo said every word.

Suddenly Allen Chu's lower jaw was pinched fiercely, and the corners of his curled lips were tightly drawn into an angry arc, and his eyes were filled with anger: "You forgot? You don't remember the past.?"

His voice was extremely low, staring at her eyes tightly, his nose pressed against hers.

"I..." Noila Mo only had time to say a word, and Allen Chu bit her lips fiercely, sucking wildly!

His k*ss was punishing, and his tongue rushed into her mouth arbitrarily, tumbling violently.

Noila Mo's tongue was sore by him that she was so angry and hated that she beat Allen Chu on the chest desperately. I wanted to scold him fiercely, but his mouth was blocked, and he could only make a whining sound.

Allen Chu was only disappointed and angry at first, and wanted to punish Noila Mo, but after k*ssing, the sweet breath in Noila Mo's mouth made him feel a little uncontrollable, and he couldn't help but want to taste again.

He twisted Noila Mo's hands with his arms, raised them to the top of his head, and supported the back of her head with the other hand, gently slowing down his strength, and tasting a little bit.

Noila Mo took advantage of him to relax and bit his tongue fiercely!

The smell of fishy sweetness spread in the mouths of the two of them. Allen Chu didn't move or talk, just looking at Noila Mo's eyes and seeing the bottom of her eyes all the time.

In her pupils, his slightly squinted eyes were reflected, with seven points of annoyance and three points of intoxication.

Seeing that he didn't let go of him, Noila Mo's teeth increased!

The smell of fishy sweetness is even more serious. Not only did Allen Chu not let go of her, but instead he held her waist tightly with his big hands, and the tip of his tongue leaned into the depths of her mouth without flinching!

crazy! This man is crazy!

Noila Mo looked at Allen Chu in horror, she didn't believe that he didn't hurt! But he would rather endure the piercing pain to violate her!

Why is there such a neurosis!

Chapter 150

Noila Mo loosened his teeth in frustration, but Allen Chu seemed to be greatly encouraged, and the tip of his tongue was fanning the flames in her mouth, frantically plundering her sweetness!

Noila Mo closed her eyes tightly, tears of humiliation flowed into her mouth along the bridge of her nose.

Allen Chu tasted the salty taste, opened his eyes, and met Noila Mo's tearful eyes.

"Why are you crying? I was the one who was bitten!" Allen Chu gave up the assault, raised his hand, awkwardly trying to wipe her tears away.

"You are shameless!" Noila Mo didn't even think about it, raised his hand and slapped his face severely, and slapped the door hard.

"The door is locked and requires a remote control to open." Allen Chu was not angry when he was knocked down. He walked to the bookcase and used the silver trophy in the bookcase as a mirror to check the injury on his face.

Noila Mo was full of resentment, and when she saw Allen Chu's ridiculous action, she almost couldn't help but laugh.

"Are you planning to keep me imprisoned in your office?" Noila Mo's tone was cold.

Noila Mo was petite. Although she tried her best, Allen Chu's face was only reddened. Allen Chu checked it and found that he could still go out to see people.

"You promise me a condition, and I will let you go." Allen Chu said lightly.

Noila Mo was completely speechless!

It's no wonder people say that a talented person is unreasonable when he meets a soldier! To such an arrogant and shameless person, all laws, human rights and dignity are nonsense!

"Okay. You say." For now, it can only be delayed.

When she came from the company just now, she left in a hurry and didn't bring her mobile phone. Otherwise, she really wants to call 110 to the police!

A strange light flashed in Allen Chu's eyes: "Noila Mo, you promise me, this Saturday, date me for a day, just like a real lover."

What a shit request!

Noila Mo felt incredible: "Mr. Chu, you seem to have forgotten that you already have a girlfriend! If you want to date, just find Xiang Hanwei!"

She doesn't want to be a third party. When Xiao San is to be scolded by someone pointing at the backbone!

Allen Chu leisurely played with a remote control on the desk: "This is the remote control for opening the door, but you see..."

He walked to the window, opened the window, and threw the remote control far away!

"Allen Chu, you are crazy!!" Noila Mo's eyes widened: "Aren't you afraid of pedestrians downstairs!"

"It's okay, it won't be killed. You can still get me a large amount of compensation." Allen Chu sat on the wide leather chair of the desk, turned the chair, and slid in front of Noila Mo.

Noila Mo stared at him: "Okay. I promise you."

So refreshing? Allen Chu was a little uncomfortable.

"Now, can you let me go, right?" Noila Mo said softly, and can't be hard on people like Allen Chu.

Allen Chu made a triumphant smile at the corner of his mouth, and dialed the inside line on the table: "There is something wrong with the door of my office. Call someone from the engineering department to open the door."

With great effort, the door was finally opened.

People in the engineering department looked at Allen Chu, Noila Mo, and felt the ambiguous and strange atmosphere in the office. They all lowered their eyes with interest.

Noila Mo almost ran away!

After returning to Jiaying, she spent a long time at the work station. When she finally calmed down and was about to start working, she discovered that the plan was forgotten in Allen Chu's office!

Project case! Forget it! Allen Chu! office!

This means that she must go to the Chu family again!

Noila Mo really wanted to die.
