

CORRUPT CREATIONS

Chapter 203 - First Day In Another Country

Seth, Rina and Meihui left their carriage and saw the different scenery. The city entrance was in front of them and they could already see the flux of people inside.

There were many people entering and leaving the city showing how lively it was. There seemed to be no one charging gold, what was a common thing to see in some places, but here, they didn't need it.

This country hadn't waged war in centuries and because of that, the economy has always been good, making this place not only peaceful, but rich.

After entering the city, they encountered a beautiful square, where there were many people observing a huge water fountain that stood in the middle.

Rina found it really beautiful, urging Seth to see it together with her. He was carrying Meiyi on his arms, but the way she was sleeping was so peacefully cute, that everyone thought she was just enjoying her boyfriend's embrace.

Meiyi was very light, coupled with Seth's strength, he could carry her the entire day without feeling tired. He smiled at Rina and accompanied her to get closer and see the entire square together.

Meihui followed them silently, enjoying the view as well. Right now, she started to think this trip might not have been a bad thing.

Even Lexi was enchanted by the scene she was able to see, since she was a traveling lover. Her "nose" was already able to smell the fresh spiritual energy.

The fountain was really beautiful and well made. There were many carvings of sea animals and plants, telling the visitors a bit of the history of this nation.

After enjoying that place for some time, it was already noon. Seth decided to find a suitable place to stay a day or two, since he needed to acquire some information before heading towards the Glazed Lake Sect.

So, after asking for directions, he was able to find a very quiet and beautiful inn for rich people. The prices for staying there were not low, but money was the smallest of Seth's problems. He had a fortune from the Demonic Shadow Royal Clan and the entire Luberus Family with him. The amount of money he had could buy the entire inn for himself easily.

Even though the people working there looked at him suspiciously, not believing a person like him could afford the stay, they weren't impolite. They knew a few youngsters were those infamous "Young Masters".

Seth smoothly conducted the conversation, renting the two best rooms in that inn for a week. The worker didn't think he would have all that money initially, but when Seth showed him the money, the way they treated him went to neutrality to how someone treated a patron.

Seth settled Meiyi in a spacious room with Meihui, while renting the other room for him and Rina. Since those rooms were very close, there wouldn't be a problem if he needed to quickly get there.

After putting everything on their due places, Seth started lecturing Rina in their battle training. But since they were inside a room in the inn, they were not really battling. Seth was using his wind element to help her on identifying that element properties.

He told her how he learnt how to use it and how he was able to feel it for the first time. Impressively, when it was almost evening, Rina was able to create her first wind currents.

Swish...

A very weak breeze blew Seth's hair, showing that Rina was able to make her first step into the wind element mastery road.

"Very good. You're a very fast learner Rina. Soon you'll be able to execute those techniques I gave you."

"Really?"

"Yeah."

"That's good! I've been putting a lot of effort into learning this. It would be really good if I received a gift from you, for learning this fast, don't you think?"

"Ehhh... A gift? Hm... What do you want me to give you?" Seth started to slowly approach her, while his eyes were already glued on her lips.

"I want you to... kiss me."

Seth smiled and said: "Just like I thought. However, there was no need for you to ask me for that, because I would have done it either way."

Before having her first night with Seth, Rina would never request him something related to that topic, but now, she was losing a bit of her shyness when she was alone with him. That was a very good advancement on getting rid of all her unnecessary shyness.

Seth took her into his embrace, putting a hand on her back. At the same time, he zeroed the distance between them, deeply kissing her lips.

Rina was still getting experienced on how to better kiss, but since she was a fast learner not only in the combat field but in this particular field too, she opened her mouth, allowing Seth's tongue to freely enter.

They had the entire room for themselves and were excited by the light mood this place was providing them, what led to a fast development of the situation.

Some minutes later, they were already lying down on the bed, wildly enjoying their time together.

Seth sucked her neck skin while at the same time that his hands moved quickly to take her clothes off.

Less than thirty seconds later, they were already naked while entangling together.

His mouth went down from her neck, kissing its way towards her nipples. Seth started to swirl his tongue there, making Rina experience a new thrilling sensation.

All that foreplay made her get ready for the next course of actions. Her eyes were shining with expectation while she looked at Seth, running her hands all over his hair while he kept sucking.

Moments later, he was fully naked, already positioning his hardened rod in order to explore a bit of heaven.

He thrust forward, feeling a warm and slippery sensation and making Rina gasp with pleasure.. He looked at her face, observing her angelic features and started to move faster, admiring the woman he loved.
