

CORRUPT CREATIONS

Chapter 207 - Mystery Of The Glazed Lake

While they were walking through the huge villa, Seth finally decided to ask something. He was there for information and not to really party or participate on things like that.

"Miss, may I ask you what's your name?"

"Jiang Yi."

"Miss Jiang Yi, I heard you've just entered the Glazed Lake. Can you tell me some details about that?"

Jiang Yi briefly stopped and asked: "Why are you interested on the Glazed Lake? Are you perhaps going to intrude that Sect the same way you tried to intrude here?"

"Something like that." Seth nonchalantly said.

Jiang Yi wasn't able to believe him, treating his words as a joke. In her eyes he was a person with zero cultivation and his statement could only be a joke.

"I've recently taken the exam to enter the Glazed Lake. The requirements are very high, Qi Gathering late-stage Realm for people younger than twenty and Profound Qi Realm for disciples younger than thirty... But I doubt a mortal like you, would even know what the cultivation Realms are called."

Jiang Yi had used her Qi to check Seth's cultivation multiple times. His youthful appearance and age were very similar to hers. So, she not being able to feel his cultivation, was taken by her as him not having cultivation.

She would've been right if Seth wasn't a freak. A monster beyond monsters. At their age, ninety nine percent of all the practitioners were still struggling with the bottleneck between the Qi Perception Realm and Qi Gathering Realm.

Inside the remaining one percent, were those already with a solid cultivation at the Qi Gathering Realm, and those few people that were stronger than that.

Caizhi, Lilian, Jiayi, Xiurong, Ruolan and many other talented cultivators were on that category of people stronger than the Qi Gathering Realm.

Seth though, he was a case apart. He couldn't be measured by normal means, since it would be impossible to find a person with so many inheritances other than him.

"Interesting. So where did you take that test? Where is the Glazed Lake Sect actually located?"

"Hm? Their location? Don't you know about it?"

"Know about what?"

"Heh! Their location has never been revealed to anyone and no one was ever able to find it."

"Then where did you take that test? How will you enter the Sect grounds?"
Seth got bewildered by that.

"The test was conducted in a forest area not so far from her. But in order to enter the Glazed Lake, that not even I know about it. They just instructed me to meet some of their disciples at a certain place and time. Guess I will be fortunate enough to witness that mystery with my own eyes."

Seth didn't like the fact that he wasn't able to get a solid information of where the Glazed Lake was. All she said was a very vague way to go there, nothing more.

After that, they resumed walking, going to where Jiang Yi was bringing him.

.

.

.

Young Master Chen and Young Master Huang had finished their servant work, but they still had to wait inside Jiang Yi's bedroom until she arrived to set them free. Actually, at this current time, the thing they wanted to do the least, was to return to the party.

Both of them realized their hearts wouldn't be able to support all the mocking stares that would be directed at them. Unknowingly for both of them, they had turned into good buddies after suffering the same destiny.

Right now, they were talking, thinking of a way out of their predicament.

"What do you think? Should we leave through the windows?"

"The windows? Are you crazy? If we break something we're fucked."

"Man, I'm not going to descend the stair just to become a laughingstock again."

"Dammit! I'll make that Jiang Yi pay for this." Young Master Chen said in a fit of rage.

Young Master Huang looked towards Young Master Chen after he said that. He was gazing at him like he was gazing at a fool.

"What is with that look?"

"Come on... I doubt you'll do anything with Jiang Yi because of this. Actually, there is nothing we can do."

"Sigh... True."

While they were discussing how to leave this situation or what she would ask them to do next if they stood, they heard the sounds of steps outside as Jiang Yi approached the room. Their hearts clenched at the thought they couldn't escape anymore.

Jiang Yi opened the door of her room, and signaled for Seth to enter.

After he stepped inside that room, he despaired with those two Young Masters that he had seen in the morning.

At that time, they were cursing wildly at each other, but now, they were standing side by side just like two really good old friends.

'How did they change like that?'

"Good that all of you are here, just like I had planned." Jiang Yi entered the room and closed the door behind.

Click!

Suddenly, everyone heard the sound of a formation activating, sealing all of them inside that room.

The men present looked towards Jiang Yi, trying to understand what was the deal.

Rip!

But suddenly, they saw the girl ripping the left side of her dress, creating an opening from the beginning of her hips all the way down towards her left foot.

She was wearing a very elegant blue dress in order to participate in the party, but it was certainly not something that pleased her tastes.

The eyes of those two Young Masters bulged as their imagination started to run wild.

Through the opening on her dress, her beautiful slim and long leg was set free, but what made Seth get surprised, was that she was wearing a very sexy black piece of clothing, most known as a garter belt.

Attached to it, there was a special weapon, radiating the strength of a low-tier spirit.

That weapon was a whip. A black whip used for her entertainment.

As her left hand was moving to grab the whip, the lecherous smile of the faces of Young Master Chen and Young Master Huang started to fade away.