

CORRUPT CREATIONS

Chapter 209 - She Likes Both Ways

Jiang Yi cautiously stared at Seth. She realized he wasn't weak, but even though she tried to discover his strength again, she wasn't able to. There seemed to be something blocking her Qi from scanning on him.

Her Qi was not able to discover anything out from Seth, what meant that he was a mortal. But she felt that he was not so simple. The way he was calmly standing there made her feel insecure. It was like he was unbothered by anything.

She suddenly started to make a series of different moves with her whip, adding some of her Qi on it, making those strikes traceless. She was about to use a technique for immobilization, something thousand times better to keep someone paralyzed than trying to use two weak Young Masters like her first plan.

Her whip seemed to gain life, moving left and right in the air, trying to circle Seth and restrict him. But before it was even able to circle him once, Seth used his bare hands to grab it, shocking Jiang Yi.

She thought her techniques made her whip traceless, but before real power, those techniques were nothing. This was nothing more than an interesting play for him, but since she decided to target him now, it was time for its end.

He pulled her whip making not only the weapon, but Jiang Yi come flying towards him as well. H didn't use any Mana on that pull, only raw physical strength, showing how strong it was.

Jiang Yi never thought that Seth would grab her whip so easily and that with a single pull, he would thoroughly defeat her like that.

While her body was still in mid-flight, Seth appeared beside her, grabbing both her arms and using his Mana to restrict her completely. He put her arms behind her back and pushed her body against the wall, making her enter a submissive position.

He did it, trying to show her that he was the one on top of the food chain here, letting her sadistic personality suffer with submission, what she would probably never accept.

"Heh! To think a rich lady like you, would actually like to do things like that... What a surprise."

"Release me!"

"Do you want me to release you? You were just trying to rip my clothes off and make me into a pet just now. Why would I release you?"

While saying that, Seth ripped some parts of her dress with his other hand, parts that wouldn't expose anything unnecessary.

"Uhm!"

Jiang Yi suddenly let a muffled sound out, making Seth give her a strange look.

'Could it be that she like it...?' Seth was not able to comprehend this abnormality called Jiang Yi.

"Release me now! Else when my father comes, you'll regret for your life!" She said that, but her voice was not one of preoccupation, but entertainment.

"Very well, I can release you with one condition... Tell me when and where you will meet with the people from the Glazed Lake Sect."

"Glazed Lake again? Who are you? Why do you want to know so much about the Glazed Lake?"

"That's not of your concern. Just tell me what you know."

"I won't tell you anything."

"Sigh... Since it came to this..."

Seth eyes started to shine in a blue color. He was about to search for the info he wanted, when suddenly, the door of her room was forcefully opened.

Pah!

Duke Jiang entered the room together with butler Zhao, witnessing the messy situation inside. He wasn't able to believe something like this was happening right inside his house and under his nose.

Some minutes ago, they were eating their food in the main hall, when they heard a not-so-loud sound coming from the place where Jiang Yi's bedroom was located.

Thud!

It was the sound of Young Master Chen's back hitting the wall.

Duke Jiang knew that his daughter had asked them to do their servant's work, but he still found that noise too strange. He used some forged excuses and requested butler Zhao to accompany him upstairs.

Since he was a caring father, his senses were screaming to him that something was not alright with her.

When he opened the door of his daughter room, the first thing he was able to see, were those two Young Masters lying down on top of each other while almost naked. That sight was something he wished he never had seen.

He got confused and didn't know what could have possibly happened, for them to get to that state. However, his state of confusion didn't last long, since some meters away from them, there was a strange man assaulting his precious daughter.

He was holding her against the wall and there seemed to be many holes on her dress, exposing part of her white skin. When he looked up, trying to see who that person was, his eyes caught a strange expression of satisfaction on his daughter's face, but he wasn't able to understand it.

Like a huge bear, he ran towards Seth to prevent the worst situation from happening.

"Stop! Get away from my daughter!" Duke Jiang ran madly, ready to strike him.

"Tch!"

Seth's body suddenly vanished, just like he was a ghost that could come and go whenever he wanted. He got upset he wasn't able to get the last piece of information he needed, but since he didn't want to kill anyone, he chose to leave.

He had already acquired the general information he wanted and a clue on what to do next, so he decided to leave. The entire situation was treated as nothing more than a ridiculous joke by him.

"My daughter, are you okay? Are you alright? Are you hurt anywhere? Did he do anything to you?"

"Father, I'm good."

"Good! I'll never forget that man's face! I'll have my people hunt him down wherever he goes."

Butler Zhao stood quiet, not saying anything.. He knew that that man, was invited by him as requested by Jiang Yi, meaning that she had invited the beast to her own house.
