

Crazy 1021

Chapter 1021: Two Minor Mistakes

In fact, Zhao Yu was sure that Cheng Lingfei would tell the truth.

Cheng Lingfei had no idea that Zhao Yu had things with him that he could use to save his life. She naturally thought that she was in an invincible position. Since she could end Zhao Yu and Miao Ying's lives at any time, she wouldn't mind telling them the truth before she killed them.

Another thing that Zhao Yu had realized was that Cheng Lingfei was a perfectionist when it came to Jiang Ke's robbery, prison break, and the subsequent fire. Even if she was doing something illegal, she would make sure that it was perfectly arranged. She was a paranoid person who was so eager to show off her cleverness. This was how she fell into Zhao Yu's trap.

This was exactly what Zhao Yu wanted. Criminals were often more willing to talk about their crimes when they felt superior than when they were arrested. She thought that Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were desperate, so she told them everything.

In fact, Zhao Yu was about to ask the third question straight away but after giving it a second thought, he chose to do it step by step. Instead, he asked her, "Next, please tell me about the whole thing from Jiang Ke's escape to the cattle fire!"

Hearing Zhao Yu's third question, Miao Ying seemed dissatisfied and sighed.

However, Zhao Yu was very firm in what he asked. He believed that the most important question must be asked at the end, so that Cheng Lingfei could answer them in a more carefree way.

Cheng Lingfei laughed again when she heard the question. She said, "Officer Zhao, it seems very impolite to ask questions with the tone of interrogating prisoners! What else do you know about the prison break?"

"Sorry, I'm used to finding out the truth!" Zhao Yu apologized. He shook his head and said, "I had a clear idea before, but the explosion in the seafood supermarket completely confused me!"

"Good! In that case, I won't bother sharing this with you!" Cheng Lingfei glanced at her watch, then said calmly, "I'm the sole architect of the entire escape plan. I'm also the one who called you. You heard Yu Fusheng's voice but that was me using a voice transformer. In this way, even if my plan failed, I would be able to use Yu Fusheng as my scapegoat. Anyway, those who helped me implement the plan are his people!"

Cheng Lingfei added, "The video of that little girl was recorded in advance, so that she wouldn't possibly leave the classroom in the video and you couldn't do anything to destroy my plan. Because it was recorded in advance, Yu Fusheng couldn't do it, so I had to call you myself. This prison break could have been one of my most satisfactory achievements if I hadn't made the two stupid mistakes. It was that which partly led to my failure today!"

Zhao Yu knew that one mistake was that the bomb's failure to explode. He didn't know what the second mistake was. He wanted to ask her more, but he was afraid that she would take this as the next question, so he didn't say anything and just waited quietly.

As he had expected, Cheng Lingfei continued to talk. "You should have known this. In the van refitted into a Skynet maintenance car, there was a remote control bomb that I left for you."

Hearing the word "bomb", Miao Ying was shocked. In order to pretend he knew nothing, Zhao Yu hastily put on a shocked expression too.

"Don't tell me you didn't know!" Cheng Lingfei said. "The car finally exploded in the seafood supermarket. You must have found it a long time ago!"

In fact, Zhao Yu had told Miao Ying about the van and asked her to trace it. Miao Ying also knew that the explosion in seafood supermarket was caused by this car. However, Miao Ying had only thought that the car bomb was to kill Jiang Ke and had not expected that the bomb had been prepared for Zhao Yu. How could she not be shocked?

Cheng Lingfei continued, "According to my original plan, when Jiang Ke descended from the van, it would have exploded on the bridge and killed you. Then, the bridge would have been blocked, which would have made it easier for Jiang Ke to escape. However, for some reason, the bomb didn't go off. Although I finally forced you to jump off the bridge, things didn't go according to plan!"

"At that time, the cattle truck driven by Tu Lekai was waiting in the unmonitored area north of the river. As long as Jiang Ke had caught the train, he would have left safely..."

The cattle truck and the sheep truck. Jiang Ke has really learned his tricks from this dark princess. Zhao Yu thought.

Cheng Lingfei added, "Since the car didn't explode, I couldn't have left it on the bridge. The police would have found many clues in the car. So I had no choice but to ask Jiang Ke to drive it away first!"

"The van needed to be destroyed, but it was too obvious. Jiang Ke and I had been adjusting our plan, but we couldn't find a perfect solution. Finally, Jiang Ke told me that he had someone who could take care of him in Yao Ming. He would send someone to deal with the car properly and he would avoid the police search! I had to agree with him since I had no better way. So, Jiang Ke planned to go back to his base in Jinbian first before he came to meet me."

"Unexpectedly, I then made my second mistake. Someone betrayed Yu Fusheng and told Cao Sifen about Jiang Ke's escape!"

Now Zhao Yu understood that there was a traitor. He remained silent because he didn't want to waste his questions and Cao Sifen was not on his list of people to ask about.

However, Cheng Lingfei obviously wanted to talk more about this guy. She said, "Cao Sifen didn't work for me, and he had lost to Jiang Ke before. He and Jiang Ke hated each other. He wanted to kill Jiang Ke in person, so he had offered to reward anyone who could help him destroy Jiang Ke before Jiang Ke was imprisoned."

“One of Yu Fusheng’s people betrayed him and revealed Jiang Ke’s escape to Cao Sifen in order to get this reward. Fortunately, Cao Sifen only wanted to take Jiang Ke alive and didn’t tell anyone else about Jiang Ke’s whereabouts. Otherwise, my whole plan would have been f*cked!”

Zhao Yu now understood that Cao Sifen didn’t work for Cheng Lingfei. No wonder his people broke into the seafood supermarket with weapons and looked so vicious.

Cheng Lingfei shook her head and said, “Cao Sifen’s people received the information that Jiang Ke was in the supermarket so they hijacked the van. However, they found that the man in the van was not Jiang Ke. So, they seized the driver then broke into the seafood supermarket! I don’t know what happened in the supermarket. Maybe it was the fire that exploded the bomb. Anyway, the bomb was detonated there!”

She was right about that!! Zhao Yu thought.

“The explosion completely put things out of control,” Cheng Lingfei added, “and I lost all contact with Jiang Ke. After that, everything became very strange. Jiang Ke didn’t reply to my texts. I thought he must have been killed by the bomb or captured by the police.”

“Although I knew how to find out about his situation, in that very special time, I wanted to be cautious and had others look for him for me. Unexpectedly, a source from Jinbian said that Jiang Ke had arranged a meeting with the investors in a nightclub. I immediately realized that Jiang Ke had either come over to the police side or was being deceived by the police.”

“How could he be foolish enough to meet the investors at such a time?” Cheng Lingfei shook her head then said. “Then, when Yu Fusheng’s two men got me the nightclub footage, and I found out that Jiang Ke had escaped from the police’s encirclement, it confirmed my suspicions.”

At this time, even Miao Ying could not help but ask, “So, that’s why you set it on fire?”

Chapter 1022: Never Offend Me!

Suddenly, Zhao Yu had a bad feeling. If Cheng Lingfei continued to talk about these matters, his change of face might be discovered.

After hearing Miao Ying’s question, Cheng Lingfei said, “Yes, there was no other choice! Yu Fusheng was useless to me. If I had not thought that he had performed meritorious deeds in the past, and that I could use him as my scapegoat someday, I would have got rid of him much earlier!”

Cheng Lingfei’s eyes sparkled with ferocity. “Jiang Ke had caused too much trouble for me. How could I spare him? In fact, at the last moment, Yu Fusheng was slightly aware of what was going on. He planned to escape. However, I had bought his men over. He could go nowhere!”

Cheng Lingfei gave Zhao Yu a playful smile. “So, do you want to know what happened to the cattle farm before the fire?”

Zhao Yu immediately understood her intention. His expression suggested that he would rather die than surrender, and he said indifferently, “Tell me or don’t tell me! Anyway, this is my third question!”

Cheng Lingfei nodded in surprise. She said, "You really don't play by my rules! OK, I will give you this answer as a special gift!"

Zhao Yu was worried, and his forehead was sweating. He felt quite awkward as, on the one hand, he wanted to know more about the fire, but on the other hand, he didn't want his change of face to be noticed.

However, Cheng Lingfei seemed so eager to continue. She said, "We caught the traitor who disclosed the information, and this information also allowed us to catch Cao Sifen!" She looked at Zhao Yu. "Do you want to know who the traitor is?" she asked.

Without hesitation, Zhao Yu replied, "Yao Wenming, the bomber!"

Cheng Lingfei's eyes were wide open. She looked very surprised. She asked, "Didn't you say that you only found Cao Sifen's body? How did you know that?"

Zhao Yu blinked and said, "So, my guess is right?"

With admiration, Cheng Lingfei said, "Big detective, tell me about more about your guesses!"

Zhao Yu smiled awkwardly and said, "It's just a blind guess. Cao Sifen found the van with the bomb in it. Yao Wenming was a bomber and he and Cao Sifen were both from Hailongjiang. So, I'm just guessing!"

Cheng Lingfei exclaimed, "Oh, you are really different! No wonder you have solved such difficult cases! Well, you guessed right. The traitor is Yao Wenming! He had been with Yu Fusheng for a long time, so his brain got rusty. He dared to betray us!"

"Cao Sifen was also disgusting," Cheng Lingfei said. "He disturbed my plan. Of course, Yu Fusheng was hopeless. Since his son died, he was mad! In the fire, Yao Wenming and Cao Sifen were shot, and Yu Fusheng was strangled!"

Zhao Yu thought that this woman was really cruel! In addition to the other three people, Yu Shunfeng and Tu Lekai had also died. She had killed five people at once! However, he didn't know if Cheng Lingfei was hiding something. She didn't say who had shot them and who had strangled Yu Fusheng.

In his current situation, Zhao Yu was certainly not going to ask her that. However, he had a chance to cover up his secret and so asked Cheng Lingfei in a loud voice, "So, after killing these three people, you set the place on fire to burn Yu Shunfeng and Tu Lekai's bodies? Did you want to burn all the evidence? Do you think you can use that to cleanse yourself from sin?"

Zhao Yu cunningly changed the subject with another question. In this way, Jiang Ke's part in this whole thing was skipped over.

As he had expected, Cheng Lingfei said with a sneer, "Detective Zhao, it seems that I'm done with your third question!"

Zhao Yu turned to look at Miao Ying. Although Miao Ying didn't know what Zhao Yu was planning, she gave Zhao Yu a nod, which was a sign of support.

"All right!" Zhao Yu changed the subject once again. "Ok then, my fourth question. Wu Fangfang is your good friend. Why did you..."

Zhao Yu had not finished before Cheng Lingfei suddenly roared excitedly, "She asked for it!" This startled Zhao Yu and Miao Ying.

"Things won't end well for anyone who offends me!" Cheng Lingfei gritted her teeth. "Even those bosses have to show me respect. Wu Fangfang was so arrogant that I couldn't endure her for another second. She deserved that!" Cheng Lingfei's white dress seemed to shake because of her anger.

Zhao Yu pretended to comfort her by saying, "You need to calm down, and speak slowly!"

Cheng Lingfei breathed heavily and excitedly. After a long time, she said, "She fought with me over everything since we were little. It did not matter it was a fur doll or Shihai! In order to prevent me from getting close to Shihai, she bad-mouthed me to him."

Cheng Lingfei said, "She thought I didn't know. I just didn't want to talk about it. I cherished our friendship! In fact, if I wanted to be with Shihai, she would not have been a match for me at all! I always forced myself to show restraint to her! But what did I get for that?"

Cheng Lingfei was excited again. "When I was abandoned by my family, I hoped that I could have a friend to care for me, but she didn't show up until I decided to get revenge. What she brought me was not care, but ridicule, and the news that she and Shihai had become a couple! She hurt me deeply, so..."

Cheng Lingfei trembled and said, "So I asked Jiang Ke to get Wu Fangfang drunk and take photos of her naked. I just wanted to use them to make Shihai break up with Wu Fangfang! But when I saw his charming smile, I couldn't do it! I didn't want to hurt him... Besides, at that time, Jiang Ke had a criminal record, Wu Fangfang was a cop, and I was at the critical moment of my revenge, so I thought about it again, and finally hid the photos."

"However, a year later, when I had succeeded in getting revenge and recaptured my father's property, Wu Fangfang came to me. She criticized me for being cruel and threatened me with her police authority, saying that if I didn't return the property, she would fight me to the end!"

"I was so angry that I took out the photos, and in turn told her that she had to stay away from me. Otherwise, I would make the photos public!" Cheng Lingfei took a long breath and said, "After that, we had completely broken up with each other and had no contact with each other since!"

After she finished, she became so quiet and restored her calm.

However, the silence lasted less than ten seconds, and her angry voice rang out once again. "At that time, I warned Wu Fangfang not to mess with me anymore! I really warned her, but... but she didn't listen at all. At the school reunion a year ago, she poured wine on me in front of so many people, and even cursed me, saying that I'm a b*stard!"

Cheng Lingfei's looked terrifying. She said, "Since I was little, there was nothing that I hated to hear more. Wu Fangfang knew that, and she did it on purpose! She had severely offended me, so I had no need to be merciful to her anymore..."

Chapter 1023: The Fifth Question

Cheng Lingfei composed herself, and her eyes once again grew cold. "Detective Zhao," she said, "you must be thinking that there can't be just one reason for me to kill Wu Fangfang! I surely didn't kill her just because she was annoying!"

In fact, Zhao Yu had really wanted to ask that, but he didn't want to make such a bold move.

Cheng Lingfei answered her own question. "Yes, before Wu Fangfang poured the wine on me, you caught Jiang Ke. Jiang Ke's arrest worried me a great deal! Although I was sure that he wouldn't give me up, in order to stabilize my people, I had to help him."

"You should know how hard it was. We had no people in the prison. I thought for a long time, then I found you. Your presence was my greatest anxiety. I'm not boasting. Jiang Ke's robbery in Yaoming was flawless. I firmly believed that even if the police had finally figured out our robbery plans, they couldn't catch Jiang Ke."

"However, such a perfect robbery became Jiang Ke's Waterloo," Cheng Lingfei continued. "I never understood how Jiang Ke was arrested just because you found out about the robbed cigarettes. Because of the time difference, it was impossible to catch him!"

Cheng Lingfei stared at Zhao Yu seriously. She said, "So, for a long time, I thought that there must be an undercover agent amongst Jiang Ke's people. But later, my investigation showed that that was not the case! If the police had known Jiang Ke's plan, Jiang Ke would have been caught when he started, and the chase wouldn't have happened later!"

"So I shifted my focus to you, huh!" she snorted coldly. "Around that time, you solved the Devil Case and became a hero! This increased my curiosity, so I began to find out everything I could about you! But after my research, I found that you were really a very peculiar talent. If I wanted to help Jiang Ke escape, you would have been my biggest obstacle!"

"That's why I came up with such a perfect escape plan. If I succeed, I can use you to save Jiang Ke and also take this opportunity to destroy you. I will be killing two birds with one stone!"

Zhao Yu sighed. Division Chief Jiao was right. He should pull back somewhat.

Cheng Lingfei then said, "Of course, you have a sharp mind. I needed to carry out my plan slowly, and I needed to divert your attention first! If I wanted to divert a detective's attention, of course, there needed to be a case! And this case needed to be of your rank!"

Cheng Lingfei showed a proud smile. She said, "So when Wu Fangfang insulted me with the wine, she also brought me inspiration! Her death would get your attention. If she died, you'd definitely come to investigate the case, and fall into my trap!"

Hearing this, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying looked at each other helplessly.

Cheng Lingfei continued, "Since Shi Hai died, Wu Fangfang has gone mad. Since she dared to pour wine on me and curse me, it meant that she didn't care much about the photos that I had used to threaten her! She was a senior police officer in the criminal department. If she didn't care about her reputation, she posed a big threat to me! Therefore, she had to die, either for personal reasons or for my overall interests."

“So a complete and exciting escape plan came to me, and then it was all about how I implemented it.”

Maybe because Cheng Lingfei had restrained herself for a very long time, she appeared so animated while she was speaking. “I knew that the fifth day of the first lunar month was Shi Hai’s birthday, and Wu Fangfang was bound to go to the cemetery, so I asked the killer to wait for her there, and he killed her!”

Cheng Lingfei continued, “At the same time, I also arranged for someone to go to Wu Fangfang’s house and rummage through her things. Hers and Jiang Ke’s photos were left in her drawer. When the police saw the mess, they would have thought that someone was looking for something in her house, but I just wanted to put the photos back.”

“At the beginning, everything went well,” Cheng Lingfei said with excitement in her eyes, “You showed up and acted as I expected. When you saw the photos, you went to Yaoming to talk Jiang Ke! We had been waiting in Yaoming for a long time. Then you came, and you know what happened then.”

“But you are really smart! You had the police protect your family in advance, which caught us by surprise! But...” Cheng Lingfei sneered and said, “I’m still better than you. I found another target.”

Cheng Lingfei asked Zhao Yu, “You might ask if it was midnight when you interrogated Jiang Ke, would the girl’s video become useless? Don’t worry. I have a video of the Qinshan hospital!”

Zhao Yu and Miao Ying looked at each other in confusion.

Cheng Lingfei said coldly, “Head nurse Yao Jia is working the night shift at the nurse station, and there is a bomb there. If you don’t do what I ask you, Yao will be blown up on the spot!”

Zhao Yu was shocked. He remembered the photos of his friends sent by the mysterious person. It seemed that she had done a lot of work to study him.

Cheng Lingfei was no longer the dark princess in Zhao Yu’s eyes, but a real devil.

Cheng Lingfei looked gloomy. She said, “Since I wanted to defeat you, of course, I needed to make sure that my plan is safe! Although I won at the beginning, I still admire you very much. You are a brave man who is willing to die for others. However, I didn’t know that you jumped because you knew that you wouldn’t die. That is a bit disappointing.”

Looking at the proud devil before him, Zhao Yu thought of more than 70 ways to satirize and stimulate her, but he chose to endure her for a while longer due to the situation he was in.

“Well, the fourth question is over,” Cheng Lingfei said, playing with her pistol. “There’s only one question left, Detective Zhao. You need to think about it carefully!”

Zhao Yu pretended that he couldn’t wait and said, “I only want to talk about the unsolved case. That’s what I’m famous for.”

“What?” Cheng Lingfei was confused.

Miao Ying also raised her eyebrows.

Zhao Yu said seriously, "I am known as the master of unsolved cases. You know, you haven't told me the main reason why you tried to kill me as you helped Jiang Ke escape from prison. Miss Cheng, it's time to talk about the Ziliu Town Rural Cooperatives Homicide Case and Yang Zebiao."

Listening to Zhao Yu, Cheng Lingfei suddenly showed a gloomy expression.

"Yang Zebiao is an important wanted criminal in the Ziliu case. Since his DNA was found underneath Wu Fangfang's fingernails, you can't deny knowledge of Yang Zebiao."

Miao Ying took a breath and said, "Just now... I saw Yang Zebiao just now. He and the child..."

"Huh? There is a child?" Zhao Yu was stunned.

"Yes, the kid who plays the piano," Miao Ying told Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu stared at Cheng Lingfei in shock and said, "This is getting more interesting! Miss Cheng, I know you are very busy. Hurry up. As long as you answer my last question, I will be able to close my eyes, OK?"

Chapter 1024: Awkward Attack

Since Cheng Lingfei began to answer his questions, Zhao Yu had discovered something about her.

Although she answered his previous questions, she always missed every key point, especially when it came to the specific details of the murders. She had not said who had killed Cao Sifen and Yao Wenming, who strangled Yu Fusheng, and who killed Wu Fangfang. She only said that she sent a killer, but she didn't say that the killer was He Yubing!

Either Cheng Lingfei had deliberately avoided these details or she feared talking about them. Although she answered the questions, she was obviously hiding something!

Therefore, Zhao Yu wanted to know what she would say about the Ziliu case. From all of the evidence Zhao Yu now had, Cheng Lingfei had a lot to do with the case. She had the motive, the means, and the opportunity. It was possible that she was not only the mastermind behind the murders but also the real killer!

However, on the other hand, Zhao Yu was still full of doubts. Her age remained a problem. At that time, after all, Cheng Lingfei was 22 years old. She was born into a privileged family. She wouldn't kill five people for no reason.

Zhao Yu was also very curious about Yang Zebiao's role in this case. Was he forced to commit the crime or was he the real mastermind behind it? Was it a conspiracy? Or was he stealing money to help Cheng Lingfei get revenge?

Zhao Yu's deep doubts made him look forward to Cheng Lingfei's answer.

However, when he finished asking the last question, Cheng Lingfei was not as calm as she had been when answering the previous questions. Her eyes avoided his. She seemed to be thinking about something, and she wore a worried expression.

“Well...” Zhao Yu wanted to push her.

Unfortunately, her people came back. The guy named A Yun seemed to be the leader. He reported immediately to Cheng Lingfei. “It’s done. We have sent the files. Brother-in-law and Jiang have left.”

Zhao Yu was confused when he heard the words “brother-in-law”. How could she have a brother-in-law? Who was this brother-in-law?

Miao Ying was even more surprised than Zhao Yu because she had seen Yang Zebiao barefoot in Cheng Lingfei’s living room in his pajamas. Was Yang Zebiao the “brother-in-law”? And who was the kid?

Zhao Yu was thinking about the last few words. He didn’t understand why A Yun had said that the brother-in-law and Jiang had left. Did they leave by cars or were they done with their tasks?

And was there anyone behind Cheng Lingfei?

“Good!” Cheng Lingfei nodded to A Yun then turned to Zhao Yu and said, “Detective Zhao, I’m sorry, about this last question...” She slowly raised the pistol and aimed at the spot between Zhao Yu’s eyebrows. “You’d better go to hell and ask them yourself! I believe you’ll find out!”

Zhao Yu couldn’t help but scream at her at last. “You should keep your word to a dead man, at least.”

Cheng Lingfei said coldly, “Zhao Yu, think about it! If I cared that much, I would have used that little girl to threaten you! And I wouldn’t have what I have today.”

Miao Ying was also angry and wanted to swear.

However, Zhao Yu interrupted her. “Oh, I see! Miss Cheng doesn’t give a sh*t about how she achieves anything. Since this is the case, you can shoot me now! Hurry up!”

People have rebellious psychology, especially someone like Cheng Lingfei. Hearing Zhao Yu urging her in such a calm way, she hesitated again!

“Just... One last thing, I have to remind you about something!” Zhao Yu added.

This time, even Cheng Lingfei’s hitmen were curious. Because Liu Guangxing was here, Cheng Lingfei asked, “What do you mean?”

Zhao Yu looked up and laughed for a long time before he said jokingly, “Miss Cheng, have you ever seen an entertaining action film?”

Cheng Lingfei frowned.

Zhao Yu said confidently, “Let me tell you! Later, I will break away from these ropes, grab the pistol out of your hand then beat all your men and take you to the police! And I will interrogate you in person!”

No one else said anything, and Miao Ying was not encouraged by Zhao Yu’s surprising statement at all.

Cheng Lingfei and others were stunned. None of them said a word but suddenly burst into despising laughter! One of them couldn’t help but whisper, “Is he serious?”

Zhao Yu also laughed. In secret, he sued an Energy Booster. Immediately, he felt his power explode. Then, an awkward scene happened!

Zhao Yu thought he could easily break the rope on his body, then he could launch an attack without the other side realizing what he was doing! Anyway, he had already put Invisible Bullet Proof Suits on him and Miao Ying, so he was not afraid of Cheng Lingfei's pistol.

However, unexpectedly, he didn't succeed in doing what he had imagined. His face turned red because he had used all of his strength, but the rope did not break.

And the most embarrassing thing was that he let out a loud fart. For a moment, the people in the room were frozen!

Zhao Yu's lips quivered. It was so embarrassing that Cheng Lingfei couldn't shoot him! Cheng Lingfei, many of her hitmen, and even Miao Ying, all stared at Zhao Yu's red face. It was a quite strange scene.

Zhao Yu had to try it again. As a result, a second fart came out.

Cheng Lingfei was really angry. She immediately raised her pistol and aimed it at Zhao Yu's temple. This time, without any hesitation, she pulled the trigger.

Miao Ying screamed with fear!

Just as Cheng Lingfei pulled the trigger, Zhao Yu raised the boutique chair with his hips' support. This chair was made of unknown material and weighed about 100 Jin.

Although Zhao could not break free from the ropes, he easily raised the chair. He jerked his body and swept the chair straight at Cheng Lingfei.

Bang!

As the chair hit Cheng Lingfei's right arm, Cheng Lingfei shot! She was a good markswoman. At such close range, she couldn't miss the target. However, because of Zhao Yu's quick action, she was not sure if Zhao Yu had been shot.

Seeing the pistol flying out, Zhao Yu supported the chair like a turtle's back shell and threw the heavy chair at the crowd.

Seeing Zhao Yu burst with the effort of doing so, Miao Ying also wanted to do the same thing. However, the heavy chair weighed 100 Jin. Despite her best efforts, the chair didn't even move!

Miao Ying swore in anger, but in the next second, she was amazed to see that Zhao Yu was carrying the big chair as easily as a weapon to launch an attack

Chapter 1025: Fight in the Study

All of a sudden, the room turned into a mess.

Zhao Yu had wanted to use the combination of stink bomb and respirator again. However, Miao Ying would be hurt by the stink bomb. Although Zhao Yu could give her a respirator, this kind of respirator was different from the normal device. Once Zhao Yu used one, it would definitely arouse her doubts about it as she wouldn't get used to his device!

Therefore, Zhao Yu decided to have a physical fight with them. He rushed into the crowd and hit them with the boutique chair on his back. Although he was restricted, the power of the chair couldn't be underestimated. Several people were immediately knocked over by Zhao Yu.

"Oh..." Cheng Lingfei covered her right arm with pain. She had been hit by the chair and was badly hurt. However, the biggest shock did not come from the pain from her arm but from Zhao Yu's counterattack. She had tied Zhao Yu and Miao to the two chairs because the chairs were so heavy that they wouldn't be able to break free from the ropes.

However, Zhao Yu had raised the huge chair easily. It was inconceivable! No one was a match for him in strength. Although Zhao Yu had failed to break out of the ropes and was still under her control, Cheng Lingfei made the decision to escape from the scene immediately because of her innate sense of danger. So, taking advantage of the chaos, she slipped quietly over to a dark door in the corner of the study.

Cheng Lingfei escaped quietly, but the fighting in the study had become more intense.

Cheng Lingfei selected her hitmen carefully. After the initial surprise, they calmed down and started to fight back.

Of course, they knew that at such a moment, the pistol was the most important weapon! As long as they got the pistol, Zhao Yu's chair wouldn't be a threat to them anymore!

After Cheng Lingfei's pistol had been knocked away, it hit the wall near the door and bounced to the floor under the tea table.

One of the hitmen was smart. He bypassed Zhao Yu and jumped onto the tea table to reach for the pistol.

The tea table was next to Miao Ying, but she couldn't do anything at all except for shouting loudly. "Zhao Yu! Pistol! The tea table!"

Originally, Zhao Yu hadn't been worried about the pistol because of the bulletproof suit, but when he heard Miao Ying's warning, he rushed to the tea table and used the chair to hit the man hard. The hitman flew in the air and landed heavily on the floor.

The other hitmen shouted together and came at Zhao Yu immediately. Two people rushed to Zhao Yu and grabbed hold of the chair, trying to control him.

Zhao Yu shook his body hard, trying to get rid of them. At the same time, A Yun rushed to stand in front of Zhao Yu and threw a hard kick at Zhao Yu's chest!

A Yun was strong, but the chair was too heavy. After he kicked Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu did not move at all, but A Yun staggered back.

Zhao Yu used his great strength and finally got rid of the two people who had grabbed the back of the chair. One of them hit the door frame and the other one smashed into the bookcase.

Seeing what had happened made the other hitmen scared. They wouldn't believe that so many of them had failed to beat a man tied to a chair.

"Ah Come on..." Zhao Yu hit the tea table and tried to reach for the pistol on the ground.

However, because Zhao Yu was tied up, he couldn't pick the pistol up even though it was right under his feet.

Cheng Lingfei, who had retreated to the corner of the study shouted, "A bunch of fools! That woman! Kill her first!"

"F*ck you!" Zhao Yu immediately shouted angrily.

The hitmen immediately divided themselves into two groups. One group went straight to Miao Ying and the others stayed where they were and waited for the opportunity to grab the pistol!

A Yun took a jade pen holder from the desk and went straight for Miao Ying's head.

Zhao Yu was shocked. He kicked the pistol away with his left foot. Because he was using an Energy Booster, the pistol flew out of the room and slid across the smooth ground through the door. There was a railing outside the door. The pistol hit the railing and broke into pieces with a loud bang.

Several of the hitmen near to the door fell onto the ground in fear.

Taking advantage of this, Zhao Yu rushed over to Miao Ying with the chair. He bent over and hit A Yun with the back of the chair. A Yun, who had been about to attack Miao Ying, immediately stepped back when he saw that Zhao Yu was coming at him. He jumped and threw the pen holder at Zhao Yu.

The jade pen holder broke into pieces, and Zhao Yu's forehead began to bleed immediately.

At this time, a man shouted "knife" and they found paper cutters and scissors in the desk drawer. They grabbed the weapons and rushed over to Zhao Yu and Miao Ying.

Zhao Yu held back the sharp pain in his forehead. I can't go on like this. How am I gonna beat them while I am tied to the chair? He was nervous. Yes, the master key. No, the system says that there is no target. How about the Invisible Propeller? No, it can't find a useful vehicle. The Invisible Aircraft is even more useless.

Suddenly, Zhao Yu thought of a suitable device. Right, how can I forget it? The Invisible Bone Shrinker! Yes, since I can't break the ropes, I'll just make myself small!

Thinking of this, Zhao Yu immediately used the device. After his bone made a soft pop sound, he shrank.

At the same moment, two men holding scissors rushed to the front. One of them headed toward Zhao Yu, while the other came toward Miao Ying.

At this critical moment, Zhao Yu suddenly broke away from the ropes, grabbed one of them by the arm, and stabbed the man's scissors in the other's hand! The pain made the man withdraw.

Zhao Yu screamed like Michael Jackson in one of his songs. Half of his body came out of the ropes.

All the hitmen were shocked, and so was Miao Ying.

A Yun shouted, "Don't let him out! Stab him!"

Half of Zhao Yu's body came out, but he didn't untie himself straight away. He had noticed that these ropes were tied with knots. Therefore, he immediately lay on Miao Ying and untied the knots on the back of the chair. Miao Ying was free.

Just then, a man with a paper cutter came over to Zhao Yu, planning to stab him in the neck.

Miao Ying shouted "careful" and kicked Zhao Yu back into his chair, allowing him to dodge the enemy's attack.

In the next second, Miao Ying jumped up from the chair. She aimed a kick and hit the man in the forehead. He didn't make a sound before he fell on the ground.

"Hey, why did you kick me!" Zhao Yu smacked his lips and complained, then laughed loudly with sparkling eyes. "Nevermind! I liked it."

A Yun grabbed a fruit knife and threw it straight at Zhao Yu like a bullet.

A Yun was always good at distance shooting. His move was fast and perfect!

However, as he grabbed the fruit knife, Zhao Yu had noticed him. So after he threw the knife, Zhao Yu leaned down and the knife hit on the back of the chair.

In the next second, Zhao Yu came completely out of the ropes! However, just as Zhao Yu was planning to have a big fight, Miao Ying suddenly shouted at him. "Zhao Yu, Cheng Lingfei is no longer here!" She pointed to a dark door in the corner. "I'll cover you. Go get her. You can't let her get away!"

Chapter 1026: Meaning of Left

Next to the screen in the corner of the study, there was a dark door with a password lock.

Cheng Lingfei had lost her pistol. Seeing that Zhao Yu and Miao Ying had broken free of the ropes, she opened the secret door without any hesitation and went in. Seeing Cheng Lingfei leave, A Yun and others had two people block the door.

These people were good at fighting. Although Zhao Yu looked fierce to them, they believed that even if Zhao Yu and Miao were free, the two prisoners would not be able to defeat them

A Yun had particularly high self-esteem. Although he was young, he had previously received extremely rigorous professional training. Even a professional agent wouldn't be a match for him. He was sure that even if Zhao Yu and Miao Ying came at him together, they wouldn't stand a chance against him!

Therefore, after seeing Zhao Yu dodging his knife, he was the first to rush up to him and aim a kick straight at Zhao Yu.

Of course, Miao Ying wouldn't let him hurt Zhao Yu. She performed an awesome air kick in order to stop him.

A Yun was not flustered. Before his leg fell, he caught Miao Ying with a blow to her neck. Miao Ying wanted to attack him straight back. When her fist connected with A Yun, she bounced half a step back.

An excellent fighter would know their opponent's strength by a single blow. A Yun sneered and prepared to attack Miao Ying again.

However, just as he opened his arms, he suddenly saw something huge coming toward him! It was the chair that Zhao Yu had been tied to. Zhao Yu swung the chair which had more than hundreds of Jin and smashed it at A Yun!

Shocked, A Yun dodged to one side. Although the chair didn't hit him, he lost his balance. Before he could react, he was kicked hard by Miao Ying and fell to the floor. He hit his back on a huge desk and fell to the ground.

The chair hit the foot of the desk, and the desk tilted before falling straight on top of A Yun. He let out a cry of pain.

Seeing A Yun under the desk, the other hitmen divided into two groups. One group came at Zhao Yu and Miao Ying and the other helped A Yun to get up.

A paper cutter flew at Zhao Yu. He dodged to one side and knocked the man down with his shoulder.

Miao Ying grabbed hold of the wrist of a man carrying scissors, did a judo jump throw, and threw the man directly down onto the desk. A Yun had been about to climb out from under the desk. Just then, the man that Miao Ying had thrown landed on top of A Yun and hit his waist.

A Yun let out another miserable scream. In the next instant, he passed out,

Miao Ying cried, "Zhao Yu, hurry up! Find her! I can take care of this."

Zhao Yu's Energy Booster was still working. After knocking down several people, he rushed to the dark door. Two men stood in front of it in an attempt to stop him.

Zhao Yu didn't want to waste time on them. He took their kicks and blows, then he grabbed their hair and pulled their heads toward each other. Both of them passed out!

The dark door was locked. This wouldn't be a problem for Zhao Yu at all. A master key was enough.

Through the door was a small secret room. There were no windows and the light was as bright as daytime. Inside, there was something flashing!

Zhao Yu glanced back and saw that there were not many hitmen left in the study, so Miao Ying would be able to deal with them easily.

In case the door closed, Zhao Yu grabbed the two unconscious men and dragged them in front of the door. This would also allow Miao Ying to follow him when she was done with the others.

After Zhao Yu went in, he was shocked to find that there were numerous TVs fixed to the walls of the room. Each TV was playing. After a closer look, Zhao Yu realized that these were not TVs but monitoring screens.

They were not monitoring Cheng Lingfei's house, but many other places, such as company offices, houses, and even men's and women's restrooms. It was obvious that these were recorded by secret cameras.

Zhao Yu now understood how Cheng Lingfei ran such a successful business. She stopped at nothing to get what she wanted. These screens were her secret weapon to defeat the competition.

Zhao Yu looked around and saw no sign of Cheng Lingfei. He only saw a ladder hanging from the ceiling in the corner of the room. Obviously, Cheng Lingfei must have left from there. Without giving it too much thought, Zhao Yu climbed up the ladder.

By now, Miao Ying had beaten all of the hitmen. She rushed into the secret room and was also shocked by the screens on the wall.

Seeing that Zhao Yu was climbing up the ladder, Miao Ying wanted to go up with him. Suddenly, she saw a cell phone on a sofa! She decided that it was better to contact the police first to get some support and so picked up the cell phone.

However, the cell phone began to ring as soon as she pressed the number one on the keypad. She could hear the sound of a woman and a man having sex. It turned out that this was a bug! Miao Ying threw the phone down in disgust at Cheng Lingfei's dirty dealings.

After climbing up the ladder, Zhao Yu came to a small attic. There was a window opening in the attic, and Zhao Yu guessed that Cheng Lingfei must have gone out of the window!

Outside the attic was a rooftop garden. Although it was cold now, there were still many colorful flowers in the garden.

Zhao Yu went out through the window. He couldn't see Cheng Lingfei but heard a huge roar! The roar came from above and was accompanied by a strong airflow that swept the rooftop garden.

Zhao Yu looked up and saw a helicopter in the sky!

He now understood what A Yun had meant when he said that the brother-in-law and Jiang had left!

Chapter 1027: High Speed Chase

Cheng Lingfei's helicopter was much bigger than the one which Zhao Yu had taken last time.

The airflow caused by the propellers blew away most of the stuff on the rooftop, and the sound was tremendous. When Zhao Yu climbed up the ladder to the top of the building, he could hear nothing but the roar of the propeller.

Cheng Lingfei was climbing into the helicopter, and Liu Guangxing, the hacker was helping her.

The front of the helicopter was facing Zhao Yu, and he could clearly see clearly that the pilot was a woman. Even though she was wearing sunglasses, Zhao Yu recognized that the female pilot was He Yubing, the killer.

Cheng Lingfei had been careful to come up with a strong back-up plan. No wonder she was so confident just now! Even if the police surrounded the house, she could fly away.

After Cheng Lingfei got in the helicopter, Liu Guangxing took the copilot's seat to prepare for take-off. The propellers began to accelerate, and the helicopter was about to take off.

If it took off, Zhao Yu would have to use an Invisible Aircraft to catch up with it.

Zhao Yu ran in the direction of the helicopter in a hurry. Just then, the people in the helicopter noticed him for the first time. He Yubing, the female pilot, gently tilted her head, as if his sudden appearance had greatly surprised her.

Liu Guangxing had gotten into the helicopter and was speaking to He Yubing. His anxious look suggested that he was urging her to start the helicopter as soon as possible.

However, He Yubing smiled slightly and then lowered the side window.

Zhao Yu felt something bad was about to happen when he saw He Yubing begin to lower the window. As he ran, he looked around and picked up a broken umbrella. He was right. He Yubing quickly took out a pistol and shot at Zhao Yu.

Bang!

Bang!

Zhao Yu immediately opened the broken umbrella to protect himself and then rushed forward. His Invisible Bullet Proof Suit would still last for 30 seconds, so he was not afraid of bullets! However, he needed to pretend that he was.

At first, He Yubing thought that Zhao Yu was some kind of idiot when she saw him using an umbrella to dodge the bullets. However, despite facing several shots, Zhao Yu didn't get hurt at all! Her bullets all hit the umbrella. Zhao Yu ran faster and was about to reach the helicopter.

Liu Guangxing turned pale with shock at the sight of Zhao Yu coming and shouted loudly, "I told you to start quickly, but you would not listen!"

He Yubing was stubborn. She fired two more shots at Zhao Yu. An instant later, she realized that all of the bullets had missed Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu picked up a short shovel from the rooftop and rushed over to her.

This time, He Yubing was scared. She pushed the button and started the helicopter.

Zhao Yu didn't know what to do with the shovel. In a hurry, he didn't even think about it and threw the shovel at the propeller. He instinctively thought that he could destroy the propeller with the shovel. However, immediately, Zhao Yu regretted doing it. This was going to kill him.

After the shovel hit the propeller, sparks exploded. The shovel was cut into pieces and flew in all directions

Zhao Yu was scared and hid under the helicopter. He saw a piece cut into the cement ground. If Zhao Yu was hit by one piece, he would die immediately.

How could he be so stupid?

Zhao Yu blamed himself for making such a bold move. But it had all happened in a blink of an eye. It seemed that he couldn't come up with a better solution in such a situation.

The helicopter was not affected. It took off from the rooftop and prepared to leave.

Just as the helicopter turned to the side, Zhao Yu was surprised to see that, in addition to Cheng Lingfei, there was an adult man and a little boy in the back!

Zhao Yu immediately realized that the man was Yang Zebiao. He was the criminal wanted for the Ziliu Case. Yang Zebiao waved at Zhao Yu as if he was laughing at him!

Zhao Yu looked up at the helicopter. He definitely wouldn't allow it to leave. He took a deep breath then quickly ran to the helicopter again.

Miao Ying had also come onto the roof. When she saw Zhao Yu chasing after the helicopter, she was really scared. However, it looked like Zhao Yu was about to catch up with the helicopter. She did not dare call out to him in case that distracted him and put him in danger.

The helicopter was about to leave the roof.

At such a critical moment, Zhao Yu jumped up on the steps on the edge of the roof and went straight to the helicopter.

Miao Ying was so nervous that she closed her eyes.

When she opened her eyes again, she could see Zhao Yu's hands holding tightly onto the landing gear at the bottom of the helicopter. He flew off with it.

Miao Ying stamped her foot in anger and shouted, "Zhao Yu, you idiot!"

Then, she climbed down the roof and looked for support as fast as she could.

When Zhao Yu grabbed the landing gear, the helicopter was pulled down slightly and this attracted the attention of the people inside. Zhao Yu could even hear Liu Guangxing's scream.

The landing gear was in the opposite direction of the cab. He Yubing wanted to shoot Zhao Yu again, but Zhao Yu hid behind the window. She had to focus on flying first.

Zhao Yu first extended the duration of Invisible Bullet Proof Suit and Energy Booster with his adventure points, then he slowly climbed up the landing gear.

He Yubing flew the helicopter up to a height of more than 50 meters. She was an experienced pilot. When she saw Zhao Yu climbing up, she immediately allowed the helicopter to spin in the air and shake violently.

Zhao Yu felt dizzy and faint as if the sky and the earth were spinning around. His left hand almost lost its grip, but fortunately, his right hand managed to take a firm hold.

Just when Zhao Yu was really struggling, there was a sudden clicking sound under the propeller. Then, Zhao Yu saw several parts of the mechanism under the propeller begin to fall.

Zhao Yu was stunned as he had no idea why they would suddenly fall apart. Then, he remembered that when he hit the propeller with the shovel, his Energy Booster was still working. Maybe the helicopter was damaged.

As he thought about this, the helicopter suddenly shook violently, then fell down.

Chapter 1028: Flying Man

Seeing the helicopter fall, Zhao Yu didn't know what to do. On the one hand, he couldn't let Cheng Lingfei escape; on the other hand, he didn't want the helicopter to crash. If Cheng Lingfei died, he might never know the truth of the case.

However, Zhao Yu's marvelous devices couldn't help him in such a situation. He could only watch the helicopter plummet to the ground.

Unexpectedly, when the helicopter was just ten meters above the ground, the front of it suddenly lowered, and it accelerated. Because of the strong impact force, it eventually stopped falling and kept flying close to the ground.

Zhao Yu felt dizzy because the helicopter was constantly shaking. It was flying so close to the ground that Zhao Yu was dragged through the high trees at the roadside, and he was scratched by the branches. If he hadn't been holding the landing gear tightly, he would surely have fallen.

The helicopter swooped through the trees then began to fly at a low altitude close to the road. The propeller set off a gust of strong air, which blew some cyclists to the ground. A man's hat was blown into the air and hit Zhao Yu.

The speed of the helicopter was fast, and Zhao Yu was suffering in the cold wind. However, he could not do anything but hold tightly onto the landing gear tightly and fly with the helicopter all the way.

He thought of using a Power Jamming Device to cut off the power to the helicopter, forcing it to land. However, the system told him that the device couldn't be used on a working vehicle, even if the device had been upgraded.

Zhao Yu remembered what it did say in the instructions for the use of the Power Jamming Device. This was a kind of protection measure of the system that could prevent bad people from using the device to cause an air crash if they wanted to use it on a large airliner.

Zhao Yu then thought about the Invisible Spring Launcher. If he used some points to upgrade this device, it might be able to disable the helicopter by making it bounce in the air.

However, Zhao Yu felt the helicopter get faster and did not dare to use it. Because using it on a vehicle of such a speed was too dangerous, and it would kill the people in the helicopter.

While Zhao Yu was thinking hard, the helicopter flew several kilometers. Fortunately, there were no high-rise buildings in Gaolanqi. Except for a few high flagpoles, he did not encounter too many obstacles.

In order to maintain their altitude, He Yubing made the helicopter accelerate to close to the maximum speed. After they came to the end of the road, they entered a park lake area and began to fly close to the lake.

The powerful propeller flapped the surface of the water, soaking Zhao Yu.

After a long time, Zhao Yu found that the helicopter remained a low altitude.

He thought that the shovel must have damaged the equipment connected to the engine. Now it couldn't support a high altitude so the helicopter could only use the forward thrust to maintain operating.

However, the speed of the helicopter was really fast. In a short time, it crossed the lake area and came to a prairie. It had left Gaolanqi. Even if Miao Ying found support, she couldn't catch up with the helicopter.

I have to find a way! Thinking of this, Zhao Yu quickly opened the device bar and looked for the right device. Soon, he found something called Invisible Suction Cup which could fix him to a wall. He used it immediately and climbed up slowly.

At this moment, the people in the helicopter were arguing. Liu Guangxing kept complaining about He Yubing. "What did I say? I told you to start quickly. You just don't listen! I feel like I'm taking the railway!"

"Shut up!" He Yubing roared at Liu Guangxing as she tried to make the helicopter stable.

In the back, Yang Zebiao clapped his hands and said, "It gives me so joy anyway. Jiang, look how fast we're going."

Jiang was pale with fear and rubbed his hands constantly.

Cheng Lingfei gently hugged the child and said, "Don't be afraid. We are safe. We'll get to grandma's soon."

Although the child nodded, his body could not stop shaking.

Suddenly, Yang Zebiao clapped and shouted happily, then pointed out of the window and said, "Look, look! There's a man outside..."

Liu Guangxing looked outside and almost bit his tongue. He saw Zhao Yu climb up from the window! He was even giving him the finger!

Seeing Zhao Yu, Cheng Lingfei was shocked. She had no idea how Zhao Yu had followed her here. To her, Zhao Yu was not a human being.

Zhao Yu tried to open the cab door first, then knocked on the window when he couldn't open it.

"Hello!" Yang Zebiao lifted his hand and greeted Zhao Yu. He laughed happily.

Zhao Yu was agitated and pounded on the glass. This kind of glass was extremely hard, so he couldn't break it. Zhao Yu had to give up. He used the master key to open the cab door and pulled it hard. But unexpectedly, there was a latch inside the door, so he could not open it from the outside.

Zhao Yu felt frozen in the cold wind. He began to pull violently at the door, making the door rattle. Just as he was about to open it, Cheng Lingfei suddenly opened the latch.

What the hell! Zhao Yu had been pulling hard at the door and lost his balance when it was suddenly opened. Fortunately, he was quick to grab the side of the door side. However, he was affected by the strong airflow and was on the verge of falling.

Zhao Yu wanted to use an Invisible Aircraft, but he knew that the device couldn't reach the speed of a helicopter. If he used it, he would not be able to catch up with Cheng Lingfei.

What should I do? As Zhao Yu hesitated, Cheng Lingfei took the pistol from He Yubing and aimed at Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu realized that his Invisible Bullet Proof Suit had stopped working after he had been in the air for so long. The worst thing was that he had run out of this device!

Cheng Lingfei didn't say a word this time. As soon as she aimed at Zhao Yu, she immediately pulled the trigger!

Chapter 1029: International Roller Skating Festival

Bang!

However, Cheng Lingfei and the others in the helicopter were shocked to find that the bullets did not hit Zhao Yu. Instead, he had simply disappeared!

They didn't believe that Zhao Yu could use magic. So, they thought Zhao Yu must have fallen, and they hadn't seen it because it had happened so quickly.

The helicopter was around ten meters above the ground, and it was moving at high speed. In this case, they believed that Zhao Yu wouldn't be able to survive.

But in fact, Zhao Yu had seen a jeep traveling under the helicopter. So, he aimed at the jeep and jumped down. In order not to be hit by the car, he used an Invisible Aircraft.

Right now, he didn't care about his precious devices. As he had run out of Invisible Tracking Devices and listening devices, once Cheng Lingfei escaped, he might never catch her again. So, even if he jumped from the helicopter, he couldn't stop chasing her.

With the help of the Invisible Aircraft, Zhao Yu landed on the back of the Jeep.

The Jeep driver just saw the helicopter flying at low altitude. He didn't expect that a man was coming at him. Immediately, he stepped on the brake to stop the Jeep. The Jeep screeched to a halt at the side of the road.

Zhao Yu covered his chest. He felt like he couldn't breathe. Even though he had used an aircraft, he was seriously hurt and had suffered some internal injuries. In particular, being dragged along by the helicopter in the cold wind had made him feel very dizzy and sick.

However, seeing the helicopter getting far away, Zhao Yu suppressed his pain, jumped down from the back of the jeep, and staggered to open the car door.

As he did so, the driver's door opened, and a man stepped out. "Where did you come from?" he shouted at Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu coughed fiercely. He felt a great pain in his stomach. He didn't even look at the driver and tried to push him away by grabbing his collar. However, the man didn't move at all.

Zhao Yu's Energy Booster was still working. Although he didn't make much effort, he should be able to push him away easily.

Feeling very curious, Zhao Yu looked up. He saw the man in front of him was wearing the traditional local costume and was two meters tall and built like a wrestler.

Zhao Yu felt very unlucky.

"What are you doing?" The driver frowned and reached for Zhao Yu's collar. If he wanted to, he could lift Zhao Yu like lifting a chick.

Zhao Yu was really dizzy. He vomited the contents of his entire stomach onto the man, who pushed him away immediately.

Zhao Yu felt a lot more comfortable after throwing up. He quickly put his hands together, rushed over to the big man, and said, "Sorry, I have to."

After that, he pushed the man down the ditch beside the road then got into the car and drove away.

Zhao Yu was on a prairie. He could still see the helicopter even though he was delayed a little. He immediately started the jeep and sped off in the direction of the helicopter.

No one else was around, so Zhao Yu accelerated to the maximum speed. It was as if the car was about to fly.

As Zhao Yu put his foot down, he suddenly thought of something important. Why had he forgotten to ask the driver if he could borrow a cell phone just now?

Although he was chasing criminals, he was still worried about Miao Ying. He thought he needed to call her first.

With this in mind, he held the steering wheel with one hand and quickly searched inside the car with the other, looking for a mobile phone or other communication devices in the car.

He didn't find anything of use. Instead, he found a huge poster advertising "The Fifth International Prairie Roller-Skating Festival of Gaolangi." On the poster, there was a huge picture of a wrestler.

Zhao Yu recognized that the wrestler was the driver whom he had just met. It turned out that he was really a wrestler and a very famous one in the local area at that. Zhao Yu couldn't understand why they needed a wrestler at the roller skating festival. Was it for the opening performance?

Of course, he didn't think about this much. When he found that there was no mobile phone in the car, he grabbed the steering wheel and drove as quickly as he could in the direction of the helicopter.

Fortunately, the helicopter couldn't fly at high altitude. Otherwise, Zhao Yu would have lost sight of it.

Zhao Yu knew that on such a prairie, Cheng Lingfei must have noticed that a car was chasing them. So, they must be thinking about ways to get rid of Zhao Yu. At the moment, they had already tried several times. They deliberately flew across several ravines, so that Zhao Yu had to make a detour.

Luckily, the powerful Invisible Propeller that Zhao Yu was using enabled him to maintain his current high speed to catch up with the helicopter.

Zhao Yu knew that if he continued like this, the helicopter would get rid of him eventually. However, if there was still a glimmer of hope, Zhao Yu would not give up easily.

The Invisible Accelerator was in its most powerful mode. The jeep was going so fast it felt as if it was going to take off.

Zhao Yu had used three accelerators. Fortunately, he had accumulated a lot of these devices before. Otherwise, he would be hopeless in such a situation

Finally, Zhao Yu heard the roar of the helicopter's propeller again. This meant that he would soon be able to catch up with the helicopter.

Looking at the high-speed helicopter, Zhao Yu tried to think of a way to stop it.

The Invisible Spring Launcher wouldn't be a good choice as it wouldn't allow him to reach the helicopter but might kill him if he insisted on trying. This was because the helicopter was around ten meters above him, which was still low for a normal flying height.

And even if Zhao Yu got into the helicopter, he didn't have an Invisible Bullet Proof Suit anymore, and Cheng Lingfei had a gun.

Just as Zhao Yu was thinking of other possible ways, he saw that the helicopter had changed direction and was headed for a settlement on the prairie.

Zhao Yu saw that there were many huge yurts and a lot of people gathered there. There were also many high slopes where people were roller skating!

Zhao Yu glanced at the poster and realized that the international roller skating festival was there.

Cheng Lingfei was deliberately heading for a crowded place because it would cause difficulties for driving.

However, Zhao Yu didn't slow down at all.

Chapter 1030: Need for Speed

There was a high hill to the right of the venue where the roller skating festival would take place. There was a railway surrounded by a barbed-wire fence on the left-hand side. The helicopter was above the venue. If Zhao Yu wanted to keep up with the helicopter, he must go straight through the crowded venue and several buildings.

It was obvious that Cheng Lingfei had come up with the idea. If Zhao Yu took a detour, it would waste much of his time. If he wanted to go straight through the crowd, he would have to slow down. As soon as he slowed down, he would lose the helicopter.

I'm absolutely not going to slow down. Zhao Yu drove the jeep straight toward the crowd and honked his horn wildly. He deliberately knocked over several tents to draw attention.

In fact, even before Zhao Yu arrived, the helicopter had already caused a great deal of trouble in the area. It was flying so low that the airflow it generated knocked a large number of people to the ground.

When the crowd heard the car's horn sound, some of the brighter people quickly scattered to avoid it, while those who had been blown over by the helicopter could not respond at all.

There were too many people and cars gathered here, especially at the main entrance. If Zhao Yu wanted to make it through there, he would definitely hurt some people

"What should I do? It seems to be the only way," Zhao Yu thought.

He knew he couldn't slow down. As it seemed as though he was about to drive straight into the crowd, he used an Invisible Spring Launcher. The huge jeep immediately jumped up in the air, flew above the people's heads, and hit the fence beside the door.

The fence was made of wood. When the car hit it, the fence immediately broke apart. The car went straight into a huge yurt. There was a performance before the opening ceremony of the festival. This yurt was the female dancers' dressing room. After the yurt broke, the crowd forgot about the helicopter and the car but all looked at the dressing room in the yurt. The screams of the female dancers came from the yurt.

Of course, Zhao Yu, the destroyer, couldn't hear the screams. After the car broke through the yurt, he went straight through the skating slopes and continued to chase the helicopter.

As Zhao Yu came to the center of the festival venue, the helicopter turned in the sky above the festival venue and moved over to the prairie railway on the left.

The barbed wire fence on both sides of the railway and the fences around the event venue had completely blocked Zhao Yu's car. Once the helicopter left, Zhao Yu could only make a detour and travel to the bridge which was a considerable distance away. In this case, he couldn't catch up with the helicopter.

Suddenly, Zhao Yu found an opportunity. Near the roller skating slopes, there was a long skating track, which was an anti-parabola shape. Zhao Yu didn't hesitate and pressed the accelerator to the maximum. He drove at speed toward the skating track.

When He Yubing saw this, she seemed to have realized something. She quickly lowered the front of the helicopter and sped up, trying to leave the area as soon as possible.

The engine was roaring, and the jeep rushed to the track like a cannon, soaring into the sky.

Zhao Yu had never done such something so outrageous. He shouted like crazy. He believed that those people in the helicopter must be shouting in even greater misery than he was.

Time seemed to freeze as the jeep soared through the air. It was about to hit the helicopter. The helicopter was flying at low altitude, and the jeep flew through the air before colliding with the helicopter's tail.

The helicopter shook violently, and the landing gear collided with Zhao Yu's car.

Then, Zhao Yu's car and the helicopter fell to the ground.

Zhao Yu's car landed first as it didn't have a propeller. Zhao Yu thought that if the car crashed into the ground, his safety ball would pop out.

However, after landing, the Jeep first bumped violently, then continued to run forward for ten meters. After a spin, it finally came to a steady stop, but the engine was still running. It was possible that the jeep had crashed at a safe angle, or maybe the car hadn't broken apart because it was made of such strong materials.

Zhao Yu couldn't believe that he had done it.

However, he didn't have time for a celebration. The helicopter passed above the car: it was was going to crash in front of the jeep.

The huge propeller suddenly slowed down and made a screeching sound. The helicopter was also slowing down. It seemed that the pilot was trying to control it. However, because of the rapid fall, the helicopter was very close to the ground. It reached the railway and eventually hit the railway protection net.

The protection net was torn but the aircraft could no longer be controlled stably. After a few meters, it finally fell to the ground.

However, because the helicopter was flying at very low altitude, and the pilot decelerated before the crash and controlled the propeller, it did not fall straight and smash into the ground but glided forward like Zhao Yu's Jeep.

The helicopter body glided against the ground and dazzling sparks flew out. Its landing gears were damaged and so was its body.

The helicopter kept gliding for more than ten meters then finally came to a stop on the railway track.

Although it didn't fall to pieces, it had undergone a severe impact and was much more seriously damaged than the jeep. All the windows were broken, as was the tail.

Thanks to the pilot's control of the crash angle at the last moment, the propeller of the helicopter had now stopped. Otherwise, there would be great danger.

Just as Zhao Yu was about to get out of the Jeep to apprehend Cheng Lingfei, he heard a whistle. One of the unluckiest things that could have happened was about to occur! Zhao Yu saw a train in the distance, and it was heading straight for the helicopter!
