

Crazy 1111

Chapter 1111: Exit

It's crazy.

It's crazy.

While under heavy fire from the enemy, Zhao Yu shouted and quickly dragged Cui Lizhu and Xiao Hang away. Fortunately, there was a fork in the back corner of the secret passage. In order to avoid being shot, Zhao Yu and Li Jing dragged Cui Lizhu and Xiao Hang to the fork.

Li Jing thought that Zhao Yu would be shot under such heavy fire. However, something unexpected happened. Zhao Yu was not injured at all. It turned out that he had used an Invisible Bullet Proof Suit in advance to make sure that he wouldn't be hurt. However, when the bullets hit him, he still felt a lot of pain.

No way? Zhao Yu thought.

Zhao Yu was surprised. He recalled when he had used the Invisible Bullet Proof Suit before. No matter how powerful the guns were, he never felt any pain, even when he got hit in the face.

What kind of weapon is this?

Originally, after dragging Cui Lizhu and Xiao Hang to the fork, Zhao Yu had wanted to go out and fight against the enemies because he had the Invisible Bullet Proof Suit with him. However, the pain made him change his mind.

Li Jing slapped her numb thigh, then covered her shoulder, as it had been shot. "This is a rubber bullet. It's not a real bullet," she said to Zhao Yu.

"What?" Zhao Yu frowned and was even more confused. He didn't understand how a rubber bullet could penetrate his Invisible Bullet Proof Suit when a real gun couldn't hurt him. Did the Invisible Bullet Proof Suit only work with real bullets?

What kind of sh*t device is this?

"This is a top-level rubber bullet," Li Jing said. "The riot police use them for special tasks. You will lose the ability to fight back after being hit by this kind of rubber bullet. We mustn't be hit by them."

Zhao Yu frowned. So, they don't want to kill us? What do they want? he thought.

Zhao Yu looked at Cui Lizhu, who was still unconscious. He suddenly realized that the enemies didn't want to use real guns not because it risked killing him or Li Jing, but because they didn't want to hurt Cui Lizhu Cui Lizhu. Why Cui Lizhu? For what reason? What's secret did she have?

"Zhao Yu." As the footsteps got closer, Li Jing quickly asked, "How do you feel now? We can't stay here any longer. We must evacuate quickly."

“I know we need to get out of here.” Zhao Yu spread his hands out and shook his head hopelessly. “But how? Where can we go?”

“We have no other way,” Li Jing said as she pointed to the far side of the secret passage, meaning that they could go there. But no one knew what was there. Was it a safe place or just a dead-end?

“Oh... Oh...”

After Li Jing’s finished speaking, Xiao Hang, lying on the ground, suddenly made an unexpected sound, as if he was waking up.

“Xiao Hang? Xiao Hang?” Li Jing shook him gently. She heaved a sigh of relief. If it had not been for Xiao Hang protecting her with his body, she would have been hit by the anesthesia-laced needles.

However, although Xiao Hang seemed to regain consciousness, he shook his head and was unable to open his eyes.

Antidote.

Zhao Yu suddenly realized that at such a critical time, he needed to help Xiao Hang and Cui Lizhu regain consciousness as soon as possible. So, he immediately selected an antidote from his miracle system and applied it to Xiao Hang.

After he used the antidote, the system sent an unexpected alarm to Zhao Yu saying that the target had been poisoned too heavily. The antidote needed to be upgraded.

Zhao Yu cursed the system with all of his heart. As he was about to use points to strengthen the antidote’s function, a terrible rustling sound came. The enemy had thrown something else at them.

“Ah?” Li Jing paled with shock and cried out. “Get down. Quick...” she said.

Zhao Yu could not clearly see what the enemy had thrown this time. Anxiously, he rushed to operate his system. As a result of his haste, he selected an Invisible Biochemical Suit and an Invisible Shield.

However, the thing that fell was the same type of ball filled with anesthesia-laced needles that had been used before.

The needles shot in all directions. If Li Jing or anyone else ended up getting shot again, they would surely lose the battle.

In his eagerness, Zhao Yu moved in front of the other three to protect them with his body. He put the Invisible Shield in front of his face. All of the anesthesia-laced needles shot through the shield and hit Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu’s Invisible Biochemical Suit was a super device. After the anesthesia-laced needles hit him, although he felt slight pain, the anesthetic didn’t get into his body.

Zhao Yu shook the needles off of his body. Because of his protection, Li Jing and others did not get hit by any of the needles.

When he turned around and saw that Li Jing, who was on the floor, wanted to stand up, he quickly whispered to her, “Don’t move. Let them do it one more time.”

After saying that, Zhao Yu lied down on Xiao Hang's body, then immediately took Xiao Hang's gun in his hand.

Zhao Yu's intentions were obvious. He wanted to wait for the other side to get close, then catch them by surprise.

Li Jing understood what he meant, then quickly laid down again, and quietly changed her gun's clip.

However, something strange happened. Zhao Yu and Li Jing waited for a while. The other side stopped shooting but they did not move forward.

Just when Zhao Yu was wondering what would happen, the crackling sound of flame suddenly burst out. Then, a bar of shining light suddenly crossed the dark secret passage and lit up the area beside Zhao Yu and Li Jing.

Ouch.

D*mn!

Zhao Yu and Li Jing were beginning to fear the worst. The enemies were very clever. This time, they were not taken in. They used the light bar to see what was in the passageway before they came in.

Zhao Yu acted quickly. When he saw that the other side was going to launch an attack, he immediately jumped up into the corner and fired at them.

Xiao Hang's gun had a silencer. After shooting at the enemies, Zhao Yu immediately turned around, grabbed Cui Lizhu and Xiao Hang with each of his arms, and stepped deeper into the secret passage.

At that time, Li Jing's right leg seemed to have regained some strength. She also reached out to help Zhao Yu, and they soon pulled Cui Lizhu and Xiao Hang deeper into the passageway.

"Door. There's a door." Li Jing saw a cement door and signaled to Zhao Yu in haste.

Just as Li Jing pointed in the direction of the door, the enemy had rushed over from the other side of the passage. Li Jing shot at them at once. Zhao Yu, with all his strength, pulled both of the unconscious people into the door as quickly as he could.

The enemy's rubber bullets flew at them. Li Jing quickly withdrew behind the door.

At the same time, outside the cave.

The heavy rain was still pouring down. Lightning was flashing and thunder was rumbling in the sky.

In front of the blue pickup truck, there were several people in black raincoats holding miniature submachine guns.

"Captain, something unexpected happened..." a guy said to a short man in the middle in English. "The target is confirmed but..."

"Rubbish. What I ask from you is the least you can do for me and you failed," a man scolded him in Chinese. He then asked another person in English, "Song, Secret Service's backup will be here soon. How long can we stay?"

“Captain. The heavy rain has helped us.” The man they called Song looked at a tablet and said, “Their planes can’t take off, and their communication is blocked, so we have at least half an hour. If we’re lucky, it might be longer than that.”

“Good.” The captain smiled coldly. “Guys, we must catch her. I don’t care about the others, but she must be alive. Within half an hour, we must finish this task.”

“Yes.” After receiving the order, the others picked up their guns and climbed up the cliff.

Chapter 1112: Traditional Way

“The door was broken.” Zhao Yu pulled the cement door hard, noticing that the hinge of the cement door had been damaged and could not move at all.

The door couldn’t be closed and would not hold back the enemy’s attack.

“That is to say...” Li Jing, covering her shoulder that had been hit by a rubber bullet, said doubtfully, “they have been here before. This is a trap. But... Why? And...”

Li Jing didn’t lose consciousness because of the needles. She also realized that the enemy’s real target was probably Cui Lizhu. She looked down at Cui Lizhu laying on the ground.

Cui Lizhu had been hit by the most anesthesia-laced needles and was still in a deep coma.

The enemy moved quickly and was shooting rubber bullets at Zhao Yu and Li Jing again.

Zhao Yu shot back a few times but it didn’t help them much, so he turned to Li Jing and said, “Captain Li, we can’t stay here. We have to go inside.”

Li Jing shook her head bitterly. “We are done. We can’t escape.”

As she spoke, Li Jing anxiously pulled on Xiao Hang’s body. She wanted to drag him deeper into the passage. Because she had lost her night-vision goggles, she could not see clearly. After she tried to drag him a few times, she turned on her cellphone’s flashlight.

Zhao Yu’s night vision device was invisible. He looked around and saw clearly what was inside the deep chamber. Behind the cement door was a long and narrow passage. The passage sloped downward to a low and deep area.

There were some old wooden boxes stacked beside the door.

What’s in the box? Zhao Yu thought.

There were also helmets and ragged clothes scattered across the ground. Judging from the design of the clothes, Zhao Yu guessed that they were military uniforms from the past, and they looked very similar to the Japanese military uniforms shown on TV.

Is this really the Japanese’ secret fortress? he wondered.

The next moment, Zhao Yu saw something else that excited him. He saw that in the middle of the distant passage, there was a worn-out mining cart.

He looked at the ground again and saw that there were two sets of tracks on the ground, side by side. They were clearly for the mining cart.

If this mining cart still works... he thought.

While Zhao Yu was looking around the passage, Xiao Hang made a sound. He seemed to be gradually waking up. Zhao Yu used another antidote on Xiao Hang. This time, the system told Zhao Yu that the antidote no longer needed any enhancement. Zhao Yu used it successfully on Xiao Hang.

After using it, Xiao Hang coughed a few times then suddenly opened his eyes.

"You are awake. Thank god." Li Jing was very happy and immediately went to help Xiao Hang.

Xiao Hang frowned. He suddenly remembered what had happened to him earlier. "We were ambushed," he shouted.

"Don't say anything," Zhao Yu urged as he looked at the approaching enemies. "Xiao Hang, Li Jing, hurry up, come and help me."

Zhao Yu helped Xiao Hang over to the mining cart. Li Jing didn't understand what Zhao Yu was doing. She moved quickly to keep up with him. After she saw the mining cart in the light of her phone, she understood what Zhao Yu meant.

Then, together they pushed the heavy mining cart onto the tracks. Although the cart was missing a wheel, it still moved.

After they did that, Zhao Yu ran back to get Cui Lizhu and put her in the cart.

Later, Zhao Yu pushed the mining cart down the slope.

By that time, the enemy had rushed in through the cement door. All of them were wearing night vision devices. As soon as they entered, they saw Zhao Yu and shot at him.

Seeing that the mining cart had started moving, Li Jing immediately got in and shot back.

Then Xiao Hang got in the cart and took out his gun to shoot back at the enemy.

Zhao Yu remembered that he had taken Xiao Hang's gun. How had he gotten another one?

Just then, a rubber bullet hit Zhao Yu's back.

Ouch, he thought.

Zhao Yu was in great pain. It was hard for him to keep his footing. Suddenly, he fell into the mining cart head-first. The bottom half of his body was in the air and a rubber bullet hit his thigh.

Zhao Yu cried out in pain. The bullet almost hit his most important body part. Although the Invisible Biochemical Suit hadn't lost its effect, his thigh still hurt a lot.

Zhao Yu shrank back into the cart. Unexpectedly, when his head reached the bottom of the cart, he found a rectangular metal object.

Ah.

Zhao Yu's eyes stared wide. His adrenaline was pumping because the shape of the item he felt was similar to that of a gold bar.

He reached for it without thinking. It was very cold and heavy. It felt very much like a gold bar in his hand.

WOW, Zhao Yu thought.

Zhao Yu was stunned. If I can find a gold bar in the broken mining cart, can I find the treasure in this place? he wondered.

Just then, as the mining cart rolled downward along the slope, its speed gradually accelerated. Feeling the vibrations coming from the cart body, Zhao Yu suddenly felt as though he was filming Raiders of the Lost Ark.

When the enemy saw that Zhao Yu and his team were trying to escape using the mining cart, their attacks intensified. Li Jing and Xiao Hang couldn't defend themselves against the attack, so they squatted down in the cart to protect themselves.

The mining cart was not big. It was quite crowded with four of them in the cart. Each of them was pressed firmly against the others.

Xiao Hang realized that the enemy was using rubber bullets. "They are not using real guns. What's going on?" he asked Li Jing. "What happened to you guys before?"

"They're rubber bullets..." Li Jing answered absently. She was looking for something. "Do any of you see the brake?"

At that moment, Zhao Yu finally had a chance to lift up the item in his hand as he shouted, "Look at the gold. Gold..."

As Zhao Yu attempted to show the item in his hand to the others, the mining cart suddenly shook violently. He lost his balance and the item fell into the mining cart and hit Xiao Hang's foot.

"Ah," Xiao Hang screamed miserably. "Zhao Yu, what are you doing? You are killing me."

"I'm sorry, gold, that's gold..." Zhao Yu said.

Zhao Yu squatted down to look for it, but as the mining cart shook furiously, he suddenly realized that the cart was moving too fast.

A cold wind blew and the cart body shook constantly.

He looked around in haste and saw that the enemy was now far away from them. However, the mining cart was getting faster and faster and was gradually getting out of control.

They were on a slope. Because of gravity, the cart was constantly accelerating. Moreover, because there were many different things scattered on the sunken tracks, the cart bumped and shook constantly. If the cart came off the tracks, the result would be miserable.

He had to find the brake immediately.

“Did you find it, the brake?” Xiao Hang was also aware of the problem. Now, the speed of the mining cart had reached more than 80 kilometers per hour, and it was still getting faster.

“No,” Li Jing said. She had been looking for the brake for a while.

Zhao Yu turned around and looked directly ahead of the mining cart. At such a high speed, he felt like he was riding a roller coaster.

D*mn!

All of a sudden, Zhao Yu was horrified as he realized that there was another mining cart parked ahead. If they continued at such a high speed, they would definitely hit the stopped cart.

Alas.

Zhao frowned and sighed. “it seems that we will have to resort to the traditional method of stopping the cart.”

“Ah?” Li Jing did not understand him. “What traditional method?” she asked.

“Your feet.” Zhao Yu began to step outside of the cart and was going to use his foot as the brake.

“What? Are you crazy?” Xiao Hang quickly grabbed Zhao Yu. “Don’t be a fool. Do you think you are Indiana Jones? Everything in those movies is fake.”

“Come back. There has to at least be a brake pad,” Li Jing shouted.

Zhao Yu laughed to himself. How could they believe he would be so stupid? In fact, he had already prepared an Invisible Accelerator. An Invisible Accelerator could both accelerate and decelerate a vehicle.

Just as Zhao Yu was going to stop the cart with his Invisible Accelerator, he heard a rumble coming from behind him. The enemy was chasing them in another mining cart.

They shot rubber bullets at Zhao Yu again, which caught him by surprise.

Ah.

This time, Zhao Yu really didn’t know what to do. If he didn’t stop the cart, they would crash into the mining cart ahead of them. If he stopped the cart, the enemy would catch them.

What should I do? he wondered.

Chapter 1113: Hide and Seek

Xiao Hang fired back at the enemy while he shook his head at Zhao Yu. “Where did they get the mining cart?” he asked. “This really is like an action movie.”

The enemy’s mining cart was as fast as Zhao Yu’s. Two men were standing on the cart and shooting at Zhao Yu with submachine guns they held in their hands. Li Jing and Xiao Hang had to huddle together in the bottom of the cart.

However, Zhao Yu, currently standing on the outside of the mining cart, was preparing to stop the cart with his feet. He was completely exposed to the enemy, and he got shot badly. Fortunately, his shield had not disappeared, so it protected his face.

The acute pain made Zhao Yu furious, and he came up with a malicious plan to deal with the enemy. He applied the Invisible Accelerator to the enemy's cart so it instantly began moving faster.

"Sit down, all of you sit down," Zhao Yu yelled at Li Jing and Xiao Hang. He then jumped back into the mining cart. He pressed them under his own body to protect them.

Next, he quickly searched for the right device in his head and finally found an Invisible Spring Launcher just as his mining cart was about to hit the stalled cart in front of them.

All of a sudden, his mining cart soared up into the air, leaping over the cart in front of them. As Zhao Yu's cart took off, the enemy's cart rushed ahead at a high rate of speed.

Unfortunately, the enemy saw the obstacle in front of their cart only when it was too late for them to react.

The next moment, as they screamed, the two mining carts collided at a high rate of speed, making a loud and tragic sound. The two men standing on the cart flew out. One fell on his head and shattered it, the other tumbled down the slope and passed out.

Ah!

The enemy had been devastated. Zhao Yu also screamed. Although he couldn't see the rails below them, he knew that his cart had gone off the track, and he had no idea where it would land.

Fortunately, Zhao Yu had prepared another device. After he used the Invisible Spring Launcher, he used an Invisible Parachute on the mining cart. Although the mining cart was heavy and the parachute could not function to its fullest, it could at least ensure that they would land safely.

As Zhao Yu expected, when the mining cart landed, it did not overturn and continued to slide down the slope. However, because it was off of the tracks and one wheel was missing, the mining cart made an s-shaped turn on the slope.

Luckily, the slope came to an end soon after the cart landed. The ground leveled off, so the cart gradually slowed down then stopped.

Seeing the cart stop, Zhao Yu gasped in relief and stood up. His body had been pressed against Li Jing's for a while and he had messed up her hair.

Oh, yeah, he thought.

Making sure that the others were safe, Zhao Yu clenched his fist excitedly as he shouted, "This was amazing. Ouch..."

Suddenly, Zhao Yu felt great pain where he had been hit by rubber bullets, which made him grin awkwardly.

“No way? What happened to us just now? Why were we flying?” Xiao Hang asked as he got out of the cart. He couldn’t see anything, so he quickly put on the night-vision goggles that were hanging around his neck.

“Just now...” Li Jing was still suffering from shock. “Zhao Yu, did we crash just now? Where is the enemy?” she asked.

Zhao Yu sneered and said, “They crashed into another mining cart on the track.”

“Ah?” Xiao Hang was confused. “How? If there had been another mining cart, we would have crashed first. What happened?”

“Xiao Hang, that’s not important. Let’s get in touch with the rescue team first. Is your phone still working?” Li Jing asked him.

“Mine...” Xiao Hang touched his ear and found that his earphone was missing. He took out his cell phone. “No signal,” he said.

“Zhao Yu? How about you?” Li Jing turned to ask Zhao Yu but noticed that Zhao Yu was back into the cart.

At first, she thought that Zhao Yu was pulling Cui Lizhu out of the cart. But Zhao Yu took a rectangular metal piece out of the mining cart.

“Look, I found it. Is this gold?” Zhao Yu took the metal out and handed it to the other two.

“Is there something wrong with your eyes?” Xiao Hang asked, shaking his head. “Isn’t this iron? Gold? Gold shines.”

Huh?

Zhao Yu then realized that he was still wearing the Invisible Night Vision Device, so he could not see the true color of the metal.

“Let me have a look.” Li Jing turned on her cellphone’s flashlight. She only took a moment to look before recognizing it. “This is iron ingot, what you got after smelting iron ore. It was used by the Japanese to make weapons and equipment in the war.”

“Ah? It’s not gold...” Zhao Yu frowned and thought for a moment, trying to figure out a possible reason for the iron to be in the mining cart.

However, time was of the essence. He did not have much time to think about it now. It was very clear that the first thing he needed to do was use a Signal Enhancer to get in touch with the outside. He needed to get the rescue team there as soon as possible.

So, he quickly took his cellphone out and applied a Signal Enhancer to it. However, something awkward happened.

After using the device, the phone didn’t respond at all. A few seconds later, Zhao Yu received a message from his miracle system.

The system told Zhao Yu that he was now in a closed space and that the Signal Enhancer couldn't work due to the blocked electronic signals and the bad weather. If he wanted to continue to use it, he needed to consume 5000 points to strengthen the device.

Zhao Yu cursed the system in his head. Boss, stop playing with me! 5000 points! This is a robbery! he thought.

Zhao Yu took a look at the system interface. He shook all over from anger. Because he had used 2000 points to upgrade a detector earlier, he now only had 4999 points left.

No! You are making fun of me. You are doing this on purpose! Zhao Yu thought angrily.

Zhao Yu waved his arms. If the system had been a real entity, he would have torn it to pieces.

"Zhao Yu, are you ok?" Li Jing asked when she saw Zhao Yu moving weirdly.

"Oh. My cell phone shows that there is no reception," Zhao Yu said gloomily. "I think they must have done something to block the signal."

Xiao Hang frowned. "Who are those people? What do they want? Why did they bring us here? Where are we?" he asked.

"No matter what they want to do to us, we must make sure that we are safe. Even if we can't get in touch with the rescue team, the Secret Service will find out where we are eventually," Li Jing said. "But it may take some time because of the heavy rain."

Xiao Hang nodded then said, "I see. all we have to do now is to play hide and seek with them. As long as they can't find us before the rescue team arrives, we will be safe."

"Well, what are you waiting for?" Zhao Yu waved his hand. "Those people will be coming here soon. Hurry up."

Zhao Yu went into the mining cart again, lifting Cui Lizhu in his arms. She hadn't come around yet.

It's time! Zhao Yu thought that he should use an antidote on Cui Lizhu to wake her up. He had a lot of antidotes in his device bar anyway.

"Wait a minute. What is that?" Xiao Hang asked just as Zhao Yu was about to use the device.

Zhao Yu turned around and suddenly saw that there was a huge tank sitting directly behind him.

Chapter 1114: I Have Seen Her Body Before

"A tank?" Zhao Yu turned around and was shocked. "Where did this thing come from?"

"Considering its design, I think it's probably a classic 97, a Japanese signature tank used in the second world war. But..." Li Jing looked at the tank with her phone's light and said, "This is an improved structure. Look at the barrel of its gun. On the international battlefield, Japanese tanks have always been a weak point. It is said that they had secretly developed a new tank in 1945. Maybe this is it."

“Captain Li. Turn off your cell phone,” Xiao Hang urged. “I hear something. They might have caught up with us again.”

Li Jing immediately turned off her cell phone and together with Zhao Yu, she lifted the still unconscious Cui Lizhu.

While carrying Cui Lizhu, Zhao Yu used an antidote on her. Unexpectedly, Cui Lizhu had been stuck with too many anesthesia-laced needles. If Zhao Yu wanted to wake her up, he had to spend a lot of points to enhance the antidote.

Zhao Yu didn't have that many points at the moment. He gave up on the idea and lifted Cui Lizhu onto his shoulder, then he, Li Jing, and Xiao Hang moved ahead.

“What is all this?” Zhao Yu wondered.

They had only taken a few steps, but they suddenly found that their surroundings had changed. They were not in a narrow passage anymore but seemed to enter an open space, much like a large warehouse.

Next to them, in addition to the tank, there were multiple boxes. Some of them were piled up several meters high, like a hill, while others were only piled as high as a person.

All of the boxes were made of wood, and had a thick layer of dust on them.

Seeing the boxes, Zhao Yu couldn't help but think about the treasure. Of course, he wanted to know what was in the boxes.

However, he was unable to check inside the boxes with Cui Lizhu on his back. He had to ask Xiao Hang for help.

In fact, Xiao Hang was even more curious about what the boxes contained than Zhao Yu. After walking for about ten meters, he saw a damaged box and immediately walked over to check it out.

He found that the box did not contain gold, but instead it held artillery shells.

Zhao Yu was startled. The huge shells looked terrible.

Are they loaded with ammunition? A stockpile this large would be able to blow down the entire cave, Zhao Yu thought.

“This is really an underground fortress.” Xiao Hang was shocked, murmuring, “If it was built by the Japanese, then...”

What Xiao Hang wanted to say was obvious. Since the fortress had not been discovered for many years, the treasure was very likely to have been hidden here.

Are we going to find the gold and the treasure? Zhao Yu wondered.

“But I don't understand,” Li Jing said. “Since no one knows about this place, why did they bring us here? What their reason for leading us here?”

“We are trapped here,” Xiao Hang said anxiously. “Ah Yong and Yang Kai are outside...”

“They aren’t targeting the Secret Service,” Li Jing said. “Maybe the two of them were just subdued. I have worked for the Secret Service for years, but I have never encountered a situation like today. These people... How dare they lay such a trap for us?”

Xiao Hang frowned. “So, you think the Tian brothers lured us into this trap? They deliberately made a purchase with the bank card to bring us here? Do you think that they have been here before? They knew that we have anti-tracking devices, so they led us here?”

“And the rain...” Li Jing thought for a moment then said, “The weather is not conducive to our rescue team. They probably also checked the weather.”

“But? For what?” Xiao Hang asked, puzzled. “This doesn’t make sense. If they wanted to keep this cave a secret, they shouldn’t have led us here. Even if they kill us, the Secret Service will be able to find this place in the future. Unless...” Xiao Hang looked worried as he said, “unless they have already transported the treasure.”

Li Jing pointed to Cui Lizhu on Zhao Yu’s back and said, “I just saw those people try to take Cui Lizhu away after you were knocked out. I believed that their target was Cui Lizhu. As for the treasure, I haven’t found anything yet.”

“Ah? So...” Xiao Hang touched his head and asked, “How could it be her? Again? Why is she so important to them? Leader Zhao, do you believe us now? The daughter of the thief king must have some secrets that she hasn’t told you.”

Zhao Yu was not happy with what Xiao Hang was suggesting. “Shut up! I am 100% sure that Cui Lizhu has told me everything that she knows. We even hypnotized her,” he said.

Xiao Hang looked at Cui Lizhu and asked, “Do you think the king of thieves left anything on her? Maybe a tattoo or a birthmark or anything like that?”

“Impossible. I’ve seen her body... Um...” Zhao Yu felt awkward and shut up quickly.

“Wow...” Xiao Hang and Li Jing stopped, their expressions becoming disdainful.

“I’m a detective, OK? I’ve had my people check her. No tattoos, no clues left by her father...” Zhao Yu looked depressed. “How can you think I would do something like that?”

“We didn’t say anything,” Li Jing retorted with a wry smile. “It’s you who are thinking about dirty things. Zhao Yu, there’s something I must tell you. Next time when I’m fighting with the enemy, can you stop shouting things like ‘whoa, whoa’? You are exposing yourself to the enemy. That’s dangerous.”

“Ah?” Zhao Yu didn’t expect Li Jing to blame him for that. “You know what?” he said. “There’s something I must tell you. You are a cruel creature. The enemy used anesthetics and rubber bullets, it’s obvious that they don’t want to kill us. But you shot at whoever was in front of you. You are provoking them into doing something really crazy.”

“Are you stupid?” Li Jing asked angrily. “Although they used rubber bullets and anesthesia-laced needles, it doesn’t mean that they don’t want to kill us. And in that kind of emergency, if I hadn’t killed them, we would have been in danger.”

“I’m ok with you killing the first guy, but the second guy had fallen to the ground and lost the ability to fight back,” Zhao Yu retorted. “You didn’t even turn your head back and look at him, you killed him with the gun positioned under your armpit. Are you showing off your shooting skills? We should catch them alive. We don’t even know what they looked like, and now we don’t know whether they were the Tian brothers or not.”

“No, they were not the Tian brothers. You could easily answer that by listening carefully to their accent. They are not even Chinese.” Li Jing narrowed her eyes and said, “You haven’t dealt with terrorists. Do you think in that situation he would confess everything to you honestly? Detective, you must understand the situation. We are not investigating a case now. This is a horrible attack. It may even cause an international war.”

Zhao Yu looked sullen. “If it hadn’t been for me, you would have been dead now. You know that?” he asked.

“Without you, we would not have been in danger,” Li Jing said coldly. “We still don’t know if the rescue team has located us yet, and we don’t know whether we are going to get out of here alive. Do you want to argue with me now? Well, if you want to get out of here alive, just shut your mouth and go fight back the enemy by yourself.”

Zhao Yu patted his chest. “You think that I am useless without you? Wait and see...”

Before Zhao Yu could finish there came a buzzing sound, which scared them. Zhao Yu immediately became quiet.

The buzz lasted for more than ten seconds, then their surroundings suddenly became bright. The lights were turned on.

Ah.

When Zhao Yu, Li Jing, and Xiao Hang finally saw their surroundings, they were stunned.

Chapter 1115: Siege

“God.” Xiao Hang looked around and exclaimed, “It’s so big. Why? How could no one have found it in all this time? Why did it take those experts such a long time and yet they still failed?”

After the lights were turned up, Zhao Yu and others saw that they were in a huge air-raid shelter. The highest point of the air-raid shelter was up to tens of meters, and the shelter was at least 100 meters wide. Zhao Yu looked forward and couldn’t see where the passage ended.

There were all kinds of military materials, equipment, and weapons in the shelter. Beside the tank, there were dozens of anti-aircraft guns on the ground on their right side.

Because the lights lit up so suddenly, Zhao Yu, Li Jing, and Xiao Hang had no time to check how many weapons were in this air-raid shelter. They knew that it was the enemy who had turned the lights on.

“Now, they are increasing the difficulty of playing hide and seek. I think we’d better hide first,” Xiao Hang said in a low voice.

Zhao Yu shook his head and said, "Since they could find the switch it means that they are very familiar with this place. It won't be easy for us to hide."

"It was probably a naturally-formed cave at first." Li Jing looked at the uneven top of the air-raid shelter and said, "This is different from other war fortresses I know. It is more like a secret strategic reserve base."

Zhao Yu waved his hand. "If it's a strategic reserve base, it's probably where the treasure was buried. My right eyelid has been twitching severely. Captain Li, I'm afraid this could be worse than we thought."

"Big detective, I know that, and you don't need to remind me of how bad our situation is," Li Jing said coldly to Zhao Yu. "Our enemy is approaching. Can you say something encouraging? We must strengthen our unity in the face of powerful enemies."

"Aren't you very good at fighting? Why are you scared this time?" Xiao Hang asked. He also had a cold tone to his voice.

"Don't you understand?" Zhao Yu yelled. "The enemy may not just be targeting Cui Lizhu. They brought us here. I can't imagine what they are going to do with us."

Xiao Hang frowned. Obviously, he didn't understand what Zhao Yu was saying.

"I'm afraid now..." Zhao Yu said anxiously. He paused. "Their purpose is not to find the treasure, but... Um..."

Zhao Yu didn't finish, as the detector in his head suddenly sent a red alarm to him. He immediately said to Li Jing, "Captain Li, eight o'clock direction, I'll count on you to take care of that."

Huh?

Li Jing was confused but she quickly took out her gun and aimed it in the eight o'clock direction. However, there was nothing there.

"Well..." Zhao Yu covered his face. "I'm sorry, it's my eight o'clock."

"Yours?" Li Jing turned around and found that, at Zhao Yu's eight o'clock, there were many wooden boxes. She moved a bit, then finally understood what Zhao Yu was saying.

Above the wooden boxes, there was a drone.

After seeing the drone, Li Jing couldn't help but shake her head. Her eyes were filled with despair. She found that the drone was facing them. It meant that the enemy had already found them.

"Cui Lizhu. Cui Lizhu!" Zhao Yu shouted Cui Lizhu's name repeatedly and noticed that she had moved her fingers a bit. Then he used another antidote on her. The system didn't ask him to enhance it this time. It immediately counteracted the anesthetic that remained in Cui Lizhu's system.

"Oh..." Cui Lizhu made a slight sound. Although she had opened her eyes, she appeared weak.

"Alas..." Zhao Yu let out a long breath. It seemed that he had to carry Cui Lizhu on his back again because she obviously couldn't walk yet.

Xiao Hang and Li Jing exchanged looks. Then, after Li Jing nodded, they shot at the drone and destroyed it. Li Jing shot at the entrance of the shelter, forcing the enemy to retreat.

It turned out that the enemy had been waiting there for a while. They wanted to besiege Zhao Yu, Li Jing, and Xiao Hang. However, Zhao Yu discovered their plan and fought back in advance.

“Come on,” Xiao Hang shouted at Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu got out from behind the wooden boxes and ran deep into the air-raid shelter with Cui Lizhu on his back.

Unexpectedly, a fully armed man emerged from the right side. The man was wearing a camouflage bulletproof vest and a police helmet. Zhao Yu couldn't see his face clearly.

As soon as the man stepped out, he aimed his miniature submachine gun at Zhao Yu and shot. Zhao Yu was caught by surprise. At that time, he realized that Cui Lizhu was right in front of him and the bullet was about to hit her.

He immediately turned around, then several rubber bullets hit him in the back.

Ouch.

Zhao Yu jumped up in the air and screamed.

The man saw that his bullets hit Zhao Yu and quickly rushed over. He intended to shoot at him again, but just then Xiao Hang came to help Zhao Yu and fired at the man. His bullets all hit on the man's bulletproof vest.

Even though he was wearing a bulletproof vest, the man still felt great pain like Zhao Yu had. He let out a miserable scream and suddenly turned around and hid behind boxes.

“Run,” Xiao Hang shouted at Zhao Yu, urging him to leave immediately.

However, Zhao Yu did not run. Instead, he put Cui Lizhu on the ground, then went over to the man who had just shot him.

Zhao Yu knew that Xiao Hang was protecting him, but he heard a stampede of footsteps coming from the other side. He knew that they were surrounded by the enemy and he couldn't escape.

They were trapped. there was no way that he could find a place to hide or escape. The only possible way to survive was if he could force his way through the besiegers.

It was a critical, life or death moment. The only thing Zhao Yu was able to think about at the moment was that he needed to upgrade his devices.

He did not hesitate and used an Energy Booster to fortify his strength.

He immediately felt an adrenaline rush. He did not run directly to the man who was hiding behind the boxes. Instead, he threw himself on the wooden boxes.

The heavy wooden boxes collapsed on the man behind them. As the wooden boxes broke, Zhao Yu saw that there were rifles in them.

Zhao Yu was not a fan of guns, but these rifles looked familiar to him. He remembered that he had seen them in TV dramas related to the Anti-Japanese War.

The man was wriggling under the broken boxes but couldn't get out.

Zhao Yu was excited. Remembering how the enemy had shot him with the rubber bullets, he was furious. He stepped back, then dashed along the passage and jumped on the pile of broken boxes again.

Zhao Yu did this with all of his strength and broke all of the boxes. The man under the boxes howled miserably, then passed out.

The enemy rushed over from all sides. A man dressed in the same bulletproof vest jumped off a Jeep, then pointed at Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu roared and picked up a rifle from the ground. He didn't pull the bolt before aiming at a man who was rushing toward him. "Go to h*ll," he shouted.

Seeing Zhao Yu picking up the old rifle, the man was confused. He knew that the rifles in the boxes were not loaded. Although Zhao Yu could not see his expression clearly, he knew that the man was laughing at him.

However, the man didn't know that Zhao Yu had done this on purpose. When he picked the rifle up, he quietly took his gun out with his right hand. When the man stopped there laughing at Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu shot him without hesitation.

By the time the man realized what was happening and tried to fight back, Zhao Yu had finished him. Zhao Yu shot at his chest, arms, and legs respectively. The man fell to the ground, unable to move any longer.

Zhao Yu aimed at his head and shot again. After that, Zhao Yu ran out of bullets.

"Ah! Ah!"

Suddenly, Zhao Yu heard Cui Lizhu cry loudly. He looked back and saw that two men were carrying her away.

Zhao Yu yelled, then rushed toward her. At that time, a flash bomb exploded under his feet.

Bang.

Zhao Yu couldn't see anything.

Chapter 1116: Blind War

The flash bomb exploded while Zhao Yu's attention was focused on Cui Lizhu. Suddenly the warehouse was filled with intense light, and Zhao Yu could not see anything.

His eyes were stinging from the strong light and were filled with tears.

"Ah... Ah... Help... Help..." Zhao Yu heard Cui Lizhu cry, but he couldn't see anything so he was unable to go help her.

It was Zhao Yu's first time being hit by a flash bomb. Unable to see anything, he felt dizzy and was unable to remain steady on his feet. He wobbled forward and fell onto the rifles scattered over the ground.

Just then, bullets came out of seemingly nowhere and hit him. Zhao Yu, in great pain, quickly used an invisible antidote on himself.

However, the miracle system told him that the antidote could not help his temporary blindness.

Why? What should I do? D*mn, he thought to himself.

"Ah..." Cui Lizhu cried out again and shortly after came the sound of fighting. It seemed that Xiao Hang and Li Jing had gone to help her.

All of a sudden, Zhao Yu heard footsteps quickly approaching. He was still in great pain. The footsteps gradually stopped nearby. Someone was approaching him.

Is it an enemy or a friend? Zhao Yu wondered.

Two rubber bullets hit Zhao Yu again. Zhao Yu realized that it must be an enemy. He wanted to take advantage of Zhao Yu being hit by the flash bomb to subdue him.

Oh!

More rubber bullets hit Zhao Yu, causing him to suffer. Because he couldn't see anything, he couldn't dodge the bullets and he was unable to resist.

What should I do?

What should I do?

System, is there a device that...?

Suddenly, Zhao Yu felt a strong wind coming toward him. The next moment, he felt a sharp pain in his armpit. He had been kicked by someone. The man used so much strength that Zhao Yu rolled across the ground. After smashing a number of rifles into the ground, he hit a pile of wooden boxes with his back.

The pile of wooden boxes collapsed and trapped Zhao Yu under them.

Although Zhao Yu couldn't see anything, he instinctively covered his head to protect himself. Fortunately, his Hand Shield was still there, and he had double energy because of the Energy Booster. Although heavy wooden boxes pressed him into the ground, he was not hurt much.

I can't see now. Invisible Recovery Agent? Zhao Yu wondered. He was searching for the right device to use from his miracle system.

No, its instructions are clear. It can only make me recover physical strength and energy. So...

Zhao Yu checked his other devices in the system and finally found something useful. What he had found was the Duplicate Camera.

The Duplicate Camera was able to make Zhao Yu see what was captured by a target camera, including what the target camera had recorded in the past as well as real-time recordings.

Although there was no camera in the warehouse, Zhao Yu could use his cellphone's camera.

Zhao Yu took out his cellphone. He realized there was another problem with his phone. Since he was unable to see, how was he supposed to turn the camera on?

On! Yes, I got it, he thought to himself.

Zhao Yu used a Hacker's Command to control his phone and opened the camera.

When he connected the Duplicate Camera to his mobile phone, a screen appeared in his brain, and he was able to see again using the phone's camera.

The man who had kicked Zhao Yu was squatted down, checking his companion's injury. When he found out his cohort was dead, he was furious. He removed a pistol from the back of his waist and walked towards Zhao Yu.

This time it was not a gun that shot rubber bullets. The man had decided to kill Zhao Yu.

But he was unaware that Zhao Yu preferred real bullets over rubber bullets.

Zhao Yu checked his Invisible Bulletproof Vest and made sure that it was still working, then he climbed out from under the wooden boxes and rushed toward the man.

The man never guessed that Zhao Yu would be able to get out from under the pile of heavy boxes. Surprised, he immediately fired at Zhao Yu.

The man was shocked by what happened next. After he shot Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu ran toward him like a bull but missed him. Zhao Yu passed by the man and ran into another pile of boxes beside him.

Zhao Yu's brute force upset the heavy wooden boxes that had been piled high on the other side. They collapsed and fell to the ground.

A huge wooden box broke in the air, then iron ingots poured out from it. The iron ingots fell from above and hit the man directly on the head.

"Ah!"

The man let out a miserable cry. The iron ingots struck him and he lost the grip he had on his gun due to the pain. Fortunately, he was wearing a helmet. Otherwise, he would only have had half of his head left.

Many boxes fell and iron ingot was scattered over the ground. Zhao Yu now realized that he had missed his target. His phone was in his hands. What the phone's camera saw was different from what his eyes would have seen. That was why he missed and dashed into the pile of boxes.

However, Zhao Yu wouldn't get hurt easily while using his powerful devices. He was unharmed despite the violent impact. He patted the dust off his head and came out from under the boxes.

This time, he told himself that he wouldn't miss his target. Zhao Yu put his cellphone in front of his face and rushed the enemy again.

However, before Zhao Yu could reach the man, he saw three other men coming toward him. They also had the submachine guns and when they saw Zhao Yu, they fired at him without hesitation.

All of a sudden, the terrible sound of the submachine guns firing filled the warehouse, and countless rubber bullets were flying at Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu was hit and cried out in pain.

White smoke came from where he had been hit by the rubber bullet.

The enemy didn't stop and Zhao Yu kept screaming and howling. What the enemy didn't expect was for Zhao Yu to still be standing there. This was not what they were anticipating. Because they were using submachine guns, they expected Zhao Yu to immediately collapse and become unable to resist them.

Zhao Yu did not fall but instead howled like a werewolf, as if the pain caused by the bullets ignited his repressed brutality.

Shocked, the enemy did not dare to stop firing and continued launching a fierce attack. They aimed at Zhao Yu's head in an attempt to finish him quickly.

Zhao Yu used the Hand Shield to cover his face. The Hand Shield was invisible, so it didn't block his camera.

Countless rubber bullets hit Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu cried with pain, but he was not going to fall. On the contrary, he faced the barrage of bullets and moved forward.

He seemed as if he were a crazy monster in the eyes of his enemies. Some of them ran out of bullets and quickly changed their clips.

"Ha ha ha..." When the enemy's assault lulled Zhao Yu looked up to the sky and roared. Then came his classic mad laugh. "How about this? Next, it's my turn."

Zhao Yu put his cellphone in front of his eyes, then frantically rushed toward the enemy.

Chapter 1117: Crazy Battle (I)

Zhao Yu was not a fool. In addition to his Invisible Bulletproof Vest and Biochemical Suit, he also put on an Invisible Fire-proof Suit, which made it impossible for him to be harmed.

Although each of these devices had its own specific purpose and their protection against rubber bullets was not perfect, combined they at least reduced the damage he suffered. This way he would not lose the ability to launch a counterattack immediately after being shot.

Besides, his Energy Booster was still helping him. It was what allowed him to pull off an amazing stunt. Despite being under attack by multiple people shooting rubber bullets at him, Zhao Yu didn't fall. He was fighting back like the legendary devil muscle man.

All the enemies were shocked and scared. They were already overwhelmed by Zhao Yu's momentum and they then ran out of bullets. They needed to change their clips again.

Zhao Yu took advantage of this opportunity and rushed over to stand in front of the enemy.

A man who was changing his clip noticed Zhao Yu coming at him. Frightened, he threw his submachine gun at Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu held his cellphone in one hand and used the other hand to protect himself. This hindered his mobility, but he didn't care and kept pushing forward. He fiercely kicked the man in front of him to the ground.

Zhao Yu was famous for his furious attacks in a fight. At that moment, with the help of the Energy Booster, he kicked the man far away. The man rolled across the ground, hitting an anti-aircraft cannon heavily with his back.

Due to the violent impact, the man spat blood and lost his grip on his submachine gun.

"The gun!" At that moment, Zhao Yu suddenly heard a cry from the ground nearby. Although his English was bad, he understood the meaning of the word 'gun'.

He looked down with his cellphone camera and saw that it was the man who had been hit by the falling iron ingot. He was pointing at a gun on the ground and gesturing to the others, asking for someone to get the gun and shoot Zhao Yu as that gun contained real bullets instead of the rubber ones.

It seemed that although the enemy was armed with powerful weapons, they did not all carry a real gun on them. When others heard what the man said, they immediately rushed to look for the gun to pick it up.

Zhao Yu darted for the gun as well. He wanted to grab it before any of his enemies could reach it. However, what he was able to see through the phone camera was limited.

Zhao Yu could only see the gun in the distance, he could not see what was under his feet. Suddenly he stepped on some of the scattered iron ingots, stumbled, and fell.

When the man lying on the ground saw the opportunity, he immediately jumped at Zhao Yu and grabbed his ankle. His next move was extremely professional. He pulled on Zhao Yu's ankle with both of his arms together and dragged Zhao Yu across the ground.

Then, he picked up a heavy iron ingot and came straight at Zhao Yu, smashing it against Zhao Yu's head.

Through the phone's camera, Zhao Yu was shocked to see the iron ingot coming toward him. He immediately twisted his head sideways to dodge the attack. The iron ingot hit the ground, cracking the cement ground.

Zhao Yu quickly shook the man's arm off of his ankle and strangled the man around the neck.

The man was strong and must have been trained to kill. As Zhao Yu had his hands around the man's neck, the guy slammed his forehead into Zhao Yu's face. Zhao Yu's phone was knocked out of his hands, and he suddenly felt dazed.

Ah...

Zhao Yu couldn't see anything again. He was furious. He reached in the darkness for the man's neck with both his hands and used his full strength to strangle him.

The man was not alone in the fight. He had the others to help him. Several other men jumped onto Zhao Yu, punching and kicking at him madly.

At that moment, Zhao Yu couldn't see anything. He was unable to elude their punches and kicks. The only thing he thought to do was to strangle the first man.

So, he grabbed the man's neck and rolled around on the ground with him. Because they were rolling around, the man took half of the kicks.

Then, the enemy fired more rubber bullets at Zhao Yu. He felt them hit and his back ached.

The man that Zhao Yu was strangling was unable to break away from him. He was scared and struggled hard. First, he struck Zhao Yu's cheeks and temples with his elbow, but that didn't help. Then, he stretched his hands out and seized Zhao Yu by his neck as well.

However, he was obviously exhausted because of the previous fight they had. After a while, his strength gradually weakened.

The other enemies nearby were all frightened. They shot and punched at Zhao Yu madly. One of them even managed to pick up the gun with the real bullets and aimed it at Zhao Yu's head.

However, Zhao Yu was completely out of control now. He rolled around on the ground with the man. Zhao Yu suddenly stood up, grabbed the man's neck, and held him up high.

Suddenly, he heard the man's neck bones cracking. The man's head cocked to one side. He was dead.

The other attackers saw that Zhao Yu had strangled a man to death in front of them.

They were shocked. They had never seen such a fierce person before. To them, Zhao Yu did not seem like a human being.

Although scared, they couldn't disobey their orders. They raised their submachine guns again and fired at Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu roared at them, then he took the dead man's body in his hands as a weapon, and threw it at the others.

The men were frightened and fled in a disorderly manner.

Zhao Yu took the opportunity and rolled across the ground to his phone. He wanted to pick it back up. Unexpectedly, what he was seeing from the camera was not the correct direction. He reached out and picked up a heavy iron ingot instead.

After more time had passed, Zhao Yu blinked hard and found that he was able to see a bit.

Zhao Yu heard a gunshot from behind him. The man who had grabbed the real gun fired at Zhao Yu. Although the bullet hit the back of Zhao Yu's head, he didn't feel anything at all because of his Invisible Bulletproof Vest.

But the gunshot acted like a red cloth being shown to a bull for Zhao Yu. He turned around and threw the iron ingot at the man. The iron ingot struck the man's chest. Although the man was wearing a bulletproof vest, the sheer amount of force made him fall on his back to the ground.

Eh? Amazing. Zhao Yu suddenly realized that with the help of the Energy booster, his strength was at its maximum.

Why not use the heavy ingot as a weapon? Thinking about it, he bent down to pick up more iron ingot. Unexpectedly, the enemy seemed to know what he was thinking. The attackers jumped over and threw Zhao Yu to the ground.

Zhao Yu was still recovering his vision. After being thrown to the ground, he fumbled around but didn't find a single iron ingot. He needed to fight back with his fists.

The man who was coming toward Zhao Yu was clever. When he saw Zhao Yu throwing his fist at him, he grabbed Zhao Yu's arm with both of his arms, then pulled back with all of his strength. Zhao Yu heard two clear pops come from his right arm. The man had broken his arm.

Ah...

Zhao Yu turned over with a howl and punched the man with his other arm. The man sneered and clamped Zhao Yu's left arm with both of his arms and then pulled Zhao Yu's left arm as he had done to the right.

Ah... Zhao Yu's howl and another two pops could be heard.

The man thought that the fight was over and that he had won. However, what he never expected was that when he broke Zhao Yu's left arm, Zhao Yu would throw a punch at his face with the right arm.

The man was shocked and immediately raised his hands to stop Zhao Yu's right fist. When he grabbed hold of Zhao Yu's right arm and thought that he was safe, Zhao Yu's left fist also came down at him and hit him on his face. His goggles and his helmet were brought down.

Ah? The man exclaimed, and his eyes showed great panic. He couldn't figure out how Zhao Yu had hit him when both of his arms were broken.

At that moment, Zhao Yu's eyesight had recovered to around 80% and he finally saw the man's face.

When he saw him, he was a little surprised.

Unexpectedly, the man was black.

Chapter 1118: Crazy Battle (II)

Zhao Yu had thought that the enemy might have been foreigners, such as Japanese agents or Russian KGB, but he hadn't thought that they would be black.

The man in front of him was a typical black person with thick lips and a wide nose. Zhao Yu didn't understand why black people had come to China and got involved in the treasure hunt.

Shameful people! No matter if you are white or black, since you met me today, you don't get a second chance, Zhao Yu thought.

Zhao Yu threw a punch at him again, making the man's mouth bleed.

However, he was not the only person fighting with Zhao Yu. Just after Zhao Yu hit the man, another man moved toward Zhao Yu. The man attempted to kick Zhao Yu in the calf then fire at him with his submachine gun.

Zhao Yu leaned to his left and dodged the attack. Then, he stuck his foot out to trip the enemy.

As that man fell, another one came over. The new man took out a small Japanese rifle and tried to hit Zhao Yu in the head. Zhao Yu dodged, then fought with him.

This man was extremely fierce. His every move was aimed to take advantage of Zhao Yu's weakness, trying to quickly subdue Zhao Yu.

However, although Zhao Yu hadn't been trained for killing, he was extremely strong now. He ignored this man's attacks repeatedly.

The two of them hit each other with their fists, but only the enemy felt pain. Zhao Yu took the opportunity to strike him heavily against the wooden boxes.

The next moment, another two men rushed toward Zhao Yu. One of them shot Zhao Yu with his submachine gun. Zhao Yu seized the submachine gun, wanting to snatch the gun from the man's hands. The other person attacked Zhao Yu from behind, kicking Zhao Yu in the calf. Because Zhao Yu had been hit there before, the pain made him fall down on one knee.

At that time, the black man, who just had fallen down, swung his arms at Zhao Yu and hit Zhao Yu on the back of the neck with his elbow.

Zhao Yu could tell from this that this man must have been professionally trained. That type of strike could knock a person down immediately. At that moment, the black man used his full strength in an attempt to kill Zhao Yu.

The man's movements were extremely precise. Zhao Yu couldn't dodge his fists at all. At a critical moment, Zhao Yu leaned to the side a bit. The black man missed Zhao Yu's neck and hit his shoulder instead. Zhao Yu felt great pain coming from his shoulder. His back was numb and burning. His head was shaking violently, and his vision became blurred.

However, he did not pass out. He told himself that it was going to be hard, but he must grit his teeth and get on with it.

The black man was startled and tried to attack Zhao Yu a second time.

Just then, Zhao Yu roared and suddenly jumped up. He grasped one of the attackers' submachine guns, then used his shoulder to hit the man hard.

Then, Zhao Yu turned quickly toward the black man who was about to attack him. He pulled the trigger and shot rubber bullets at the black man's face. One bullet hit him in the eye.

The black man immediately howled miserably. He knelt on the ground, covered his eyes, and shouted. He died in pain.

Zhao Yu didn't stop. He quickly turned his gun toward another enemy and fired two shots. This enemy responded quickly. He successfully dodged the bullets, then picked up a submachine gun from the ground and shot at Zhao Yu.

Rubber bullets couldn't hit Zhao Yu at all. He didn't shoot back at the man. Instead, he turned his wrist and used the gun as a club, hitting the man on the chin as if he was playing golf.

The man screamed. His helmet came off and he fell to the ground. There was iron ingot scattered all over the ground and falling on those iron ingots caused him severe pain.

The man's face was covered with blood. While the man was howling, Zhao Yu saw that although he also had dark skin, he was not solely black. He had a Southeast Asian face.

What the f*ck! Are you an international coalition? An international treasure hunt army? Zhao Yu wondered.

At that time, the attacker who had just been robbed of his gun rushed back over and began fighting with Zhao Yu again. He was not weak. He kicked Zhao Yu hard during the confrontation.

However, Zhao Yu had no time to deal with him at the moment. Zhao Yu ignored him, turned around, and punched the man on the ground in the head.

The man had been covering his eyes and howling constantly. After Zhao Yu's blow, he fell on his back and stopped moving.

Another man shouted when he saw this and rushed to fight with Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu suddenly thought of the martial arts tricks Miao Ying had taught him before.

When the man ran to Zhao Yu's front, he used a judo trick and threw him to the ground.

The man spat blood on the ground, then suddenly he grabbed a piece of iron ingot and threw it at Zhao Yu's face.

Zhao Yu saw it coming. He grabbed the iron ingot before it could reach his face.

Taking advantage of the distraction, the man stood up quickly from the ground, then jumped at Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu dashed forward and grabbed the man with both arms.

Before the man realized what was happening, Zhao Yu kept running forward with him in his arms. Then Zhao Yu hurled the man forward with all of his strength. The man rolled in the air several times like a top and fell heavily on the anti-aircraft cannon in the distance.

The man hit the cannon with his back and broke his spine. After falling to the ground, his head struck several iron ingots. One of the ingots hit the middle of his forehead between his eyebrows. Even though he was wearing a helmet, the iron ingot penetrated the helmet and blood spurted from the wound.

The Southeast Asian man had recovered a little by that time. He got up and picked up the real gun that had been left on the ground.

“Hum.” Zhao Yu snorted coldly. He waited for the man to point the gun at him. Angrily, he then said, “I’m going to show you what I am really good at.”

With that, Zhao Yu took a long breath and recalled the tricks Miao Ying had taught him.

Bang.

The man fired.

The Southeast Asian look man thought that this shot had solved the problem, so he stood there without moving.

However, the bullet seemed to disappear immediately after the man fired. Zhao Yu rushed to him and hit him in the chest like a thunderbolt.

Ah...

The man was immediately launched over a distance of several meters and slammed into the high stack of wooden boxes in the distance.

The wooden boxes smashed down and swallowed the man in an instant.

After finishing with him, Zhao Yu suddenly felt unbearable pain. His skin was burning and his bones seemed to have broken apart.

He knelt down on one knee and took a break, but suddenly thought of Cui Lizhu. “No! Where’s Cui Lizhu? She needs me.”

Chapter 1119: Crazy Battle (III)

While Zhao Yu was fighting the enemy in close quarters, Li Jing and Xiao Hang were also engaged in a fierce fight. They were surrounded by the enemy and had no way to escape. All they could do was to fight back and keep the enemy from getting close to them.

They nearly ran out of bullets as the enemy was wearing bulletproof vests. Although they were good shooters, they were not able to fatally injure any of the attackers.

Zhao Yu’s fight was different. Zhao Yu was using the enemy’s submachine gun, which shot rubber bullets. The enemy immediately lost the ability to fight back when they were hit by the rubber bullets. After a while, many people had fallen.

At that time, Li Jing and Xiao Hang heard Cui Lizhu’s cry for help. Both of them knew that Cui Lizhu was very important to the case. Hearing the call for help, Xiao Hang immediately went to rescue her.

Cui Lizhu had been caught by two men, neither of whom were very tall. One of them covered Cui Lizhu’s mouth. Cui Lizhu kicked him, trying to get away from him.

The other man came to help. He held Cui Lizhu down with his body weight and forced her to surrender.

Xiao Hang ran behind the man then hit him in the back. When the other man saw what had happened, he quickly raised his submachine gun and fired at Xiao Hang.

Xiao Hang dodged the bullets, then took the opportunity to shoot back. Cui Lizhu immediately escaped and ran through the narrow gap between two piles of wooden boxes.

One of the attackers realized that Cui Lizhu had fled. He chased after her. Xiao Hang took this opportunity and shot at the men. He stopped them, hitting one of them in the arm.

However, Xiao Hang had run out of bullets. He had also been hit in his thigh by a rubber bullet. He had to limp forward.

A man who had not been hurt in the gunfire jumped up and chased after Cui Lizhu. Xiao Hang rushed forward and slammed into him.

Xiao Hang had succeeded in countless fights. As Xiao Hang ran into the man, he clamped onto the man's arms and knocked them hard into a wooden box. The man immediately lost his grip on his gun.

Just then, Xiao Hang noticed that another man was about to shoot at him. Xiao Hang struggled to the other side and used the man he had grabbed as a shield to protect himself.

Then, Xiao Hang pushed the man toward the shooter, and the two men collided. He took advantage of their impact and kicked the other man's submachine gun away.

Xiao Hang bent down to grab the enemy's gun, but the two men noticed his attempt. One of them kicked the submachine gun away, then the three of them began fighting again.

All three of them were skilled in combat. They fought fiercely. Xiao Hang was an agile fighter. The two enemies were also fierce. For a while, it was hard to tell who would come out on top.

Fortunately, that didn't last long, as Zhao Yu had come to join them.

Zhao Yu had bloodshot red eyes and was giving off an evil aura from all over his body. He was like the rebirth of a devil.

One of the enemies and Xiao Hang were throwing fists at each other. All of a sudden, the enemy felt a huge pressure coming from behind him. Before he was able to figure out what was going on, Zhao Yu had grabbed him by the neck.

"Come here, you b*stard," Zhao Yu yelled as he dragged the man away as if he were lifting a chick.

The man screamed in horror and waved his arms around, but he could not break free.

Zhao Yu dragged the man to one side, took off his helmet, then aimed his head at the wooden box next to him.

After his head had been slammed into the box once, the man fainted immediately.

After another blow, the man the whites of the man's eyes could be seen and he foamed at the mouth.

"Go to h*ll!" Zhao Yu roared at the man who passed out. He released his right hand, which had been holding the man's head, and the man's head plunged into the stack of wooden boxes, smashing them.

Zhao Yu was surprised to find that there were more artillery shells in the boxes.

After the man's head had broken the wooden boxes open, the artillery shells fell from the boxes to the ground, rolling everywhere.

As the shells fell, the detector in Zhao Yu's brain sent out a red alarm. The detector's whole display turned red and kept flashing.

Zhao Yu was scared. His body shrank with fear. He knew from the detector that these were real bombs. If they exploded, even a hundred Emergency Evacuation Balls wouldn't be able to save his life.

As the shells rolled in every direction, Xiao Hang and the man he had been fighting paled with fear. They stood still like Zhao Yu, not daring to move.

The three of them stood there like scarecrows.

The shells rolled chaotically in every direction and finally stopped after a long time.

The three of them finally exhaled with relief. Everyone's foreheads were covered in sweat. They felt like they had returned from the gates of h*ll and they were on the brink of collapsing.

The next moment, the three men looked at each other, and the enemy became ferocious as he was about to start fighting again.

"Hey. Stop! D*mn you!" Xiao Hang shouted as he grabbed the man's fist. However, the man only knew that his orders were to finish Zhao Yu and Xiao Hang. He immediately took a dagger from his pants pocket and lunged toward Xiao Hang's shoulder.

Zhao Yu ran over and hit the man directly in his abdomen.

The man fell to the ground and hit a pile of wooden boxes. immediately, he spat out blood.

The wooden box on the top of the pile fell down and broke apart on the ground.

To Zhao Yu's surprise, this box also contained artillery shells.

The shells suddenly rolled over. Zhao Yu was so scared that he jumped up and hugged Xiao Hang tightly.

Although Xiao Hang felt quite embarrassed with Zhao Yu holding him, at that moment, he was also scared and shivering. Regardless of his embarrassment, he didn't move and let Zhao Yu hold him.

A shell rolled to Zhao Yu and Xiao Hang's feet like it was provoking them. Xiao Hang stepped back. Zhao Yu wanted to retreat but found that his hasty movement caused him to step on the shell.

Ah!

Xiao Hang and Zhao Yu paled and shrunk into themselves from fear.

Fortunately, the shell stopped there and gave no sign that it was going to explode.

Xiao Hang was completely frightened. He pushed Zhao Yu away and complained to him. "You know there are shells everywhere. Be careful," he said.

"You thought I wanted to do this?" Zhao Yu shook his head and suddenly thought of something. He grabbed Xiao Hang's collar and asked, "Cui Lizhu? Where's Cui Lizhu?"

Xiao Hang frowned and pointed to the narrow gap. "She ran through there. I don't know where she is now."

"D*mn you." Zhao Yu looked around anxiously. "I can't find her. Do they seem to have withdrawn? If Cui Lizhu is caught by them, she will be in danger."

Zhao Yu wanted to look for Cui Lizhu. Unexpectedly, the pile of wooden boxes on the other side suddenly fell. Shells rolled down from the boxes again.

"Ah?" Zhao Yu and Xiao Hang were shocked. They craned their necks and saw that it was Li Jing, the leader of the Secret Service team, who had knocked over the boxes.

Li Jing was covered in blood and had been knocked down by a large man.

After Li Jing and the man fell to the ground together, the man immediately threw a punch at Li Jing. However, Li Jing pulled off a professional wrestling move and jumped from the man's armpit to his back.

Li Jing then strangled the man. She waved the weapon in her hand, and blood immediately spurting from the man's neck.

Chapter 1120: The Great Conspiracy

"Jing!" Seeing Li Jing covered with blood, Xiao Hang rushed forward to check on her, not caring about the shells on the ground. "How are you, Captain Li?" he asked.

After killing the big man, Li Jing fell to one side and pointed painfully at her thigh.

"Ah?" Xiao Hang saw that Li Jing had a long cut along her thigh. She was bleeding badly and shivering because of the pain. Seeing this, Xiao Hang quickly untied his belt and tightened it around Li Jing's thigh to stop her bleeding.

He then skillfully tore his clothes into strips and used the strips to bandage her wound.

"I'm Ok. just leave me alone." Li Jing looked pale. "Xiao Hang, go to find Cui Lizhu. You must make sure that she is safe. Cui Lizhu must not be taken by them. You understand/ This... I can handle it," she said.

Li Jing forcibly grabbed the cloth strips as she spoke. Because she had tugged so hard, she immediately coughed violently and spat up some blood.

"You are getting worse." Xiao Hang was so anxious about Li Jing's injury that he grabbed the cloth strips back from her and helped her finish bandaging her wound.

Seeing this, Zhao Yu used an Invisible Hemostat to help Li Jing stop bleeding. He then patted Xiao Hang on the shoulder and said, "Don't worry, she'll be fine. You stay here and take care of Captain Li. I have to go find Cui Lizhu. Be careful. There might still be someone hiding somewhere. You'd better get a gun first."

After that, Zhao Yu picked up a submachine gun that had been laying on the ground.

"The cave is so large, how are you going to find her?" Li Jing asked anxiously.

"I can track her position. She's got a localizer on her." Zhao Yu glanced at the monitor screen in his brain and easily found his lost phone.

"No way." Li Jing shook her head. "There is a protective screen in this area. I'm afraid her localizer won't work."

"I have to give it a shot no matter what." Zhao Yu took his things, pointed to the shells on the ground, and said, "I think you should leave this area. These shells are filled with explosives. It's dangerous. Take care of yourself, I'm leaving here now."

"Zhao Yu..." Li Jing suddenly reached out and stopped him. She handed a dagger to Zhao Yu and said with a complicated expression, "I promised Miao Ying's father I would protect you. You... Be careful."

"Um... I got it. Don't worry." When Zhao Yu picked up the dagger, he seemed to realize something. It seemed as though his previous guess was right. Li Jing and Miao Kun definitely had a more complicated relationship than he had realized earlier.

Zhao Yu went through the gap where Cui Lizhu disappeared.

"Cui Lizhu... Cui Lizhu..." Zhao Yu murmured to himself, then clicked the navigation application on his phone. As he expected, the application failed to obtain Cui Lizhu's location.

Zhao Yu then used a Signal Enhancer on his phone. This time, the application immediately showed where Cui Lizhu was.

The application showed him that Cui Lizhu was constantly moving. She was not too far from Zhao Yu's current location. It was about only fifty meters.

Considering Cui Lizhu's speed, Zhao Yu assumed that she was not in a safe place. She was constantly moving forward. It was obvious that she was not hiding from the enemy.

That was to say, she might have been caught by the enemy.

Zhao Yu wondered how many people there might be.

No matter how many people there were, Zhao Yu wouldn't give up finding her. He went moved through a lot of military items and began to chase Cui Lizhu in the direction it showed her moving. At the same time, he used the detector in his brain to monitor his surroundings so as not to fall into the enemy's trap again.

As he was focused on the detector while passing through the area, he suddenly spotted danger on the detector's screen.

The detector showed that there was a bomb somewhere nearby.

Zhao Yu was very nervous.

I am right. I knew it would never be just this, Zhao Yu thought.

In fact, Zhao Yu had had an ominous feeling before he came to this area. He thought that there had to have been a reason why the enemy brought them to this secret base. Now, as the detector found the bomb, his ominous feeling was confirmed.

Zhao Yu knew that part of this cave must have been the Japanese military reserve warehouse. There must have been something there other than the shells. Now, he finally found a bomb.

Suddenly, Zhao Yu felt that he had to make a careful plan before he went to rescue Cui Lizhu. Otherwise, even if he found Cui Lizhu, he would probably be caught by the enemy. Then it would be too late for him to regret it.

Keeping that in mind, he immediately moved in the direction of the bomb. After a while, he came to a high wall. Looking up, he found that he was at the edge of the air-raid shelter.

He saw many boxes beside him, but they were slightly different than what he had seen in the cave earlier. The wooden boxes piled up in this place would have been moved there by someone. There were military uniforms, cotton clothes, and cotton boots in the boxes. Some of them were opened and the clothes were scattered around on the ground.

Soon, Zhao Yu found the target, confirmed by the detector. When he took a closer look, he could not help but gasp in horror.

He saw that there was a big hole in the wall that seemed to have been dug out by someone. There was a yellow bag the size of a computer case in the hole.

The detector told him that in the yellow bag was a bomb. It was packed with several pounds of high C4 explosives. And, the bomb was a time bomb.

Although the countdown display was hidden in the wall, Zhao Yu's detector clearly showed that the bomb would explode in 16 minutes.

D*mn! After Zhao Yu finished cursing the enemy, there were only 15 minutes left.

Zhao Yu was scared. He only knew that no matter what the enemy's purpose was, he would not let the bomb explode. Otherwise, the explosives were likely to detonate the shells scattered throughout the warehouse. If that happened, the whole air-raid shelter would collapse.

Boss, it's the most crucial moment for me. I'm counting on you now, he thought to himself.

Zhao Yu immediately used an Invisible Bomb Disposal Device. If this device couldn't dispose of the bomb, he would have to upgrade it. However, he didn't have many points left.

Luckily, the system was kind to Zhao Yu this time. As soon as he used the device, the red alarm on the detector's display disappeared immediately.

F*cking great, he thought.

Zhao Yu exhaled heavily. Then, he ran in the direction of Cui Lizhu.

To his surprise, after running for 30 meters, another bomb alarm appeared on the detector's display.

Zhao Yu quickly stopped to check it and found that this bomb was also a timed bomb, and was about to explode in 14 minutes.

God! What are you doing to me?

Zhao Yu looked around the enemy's huge base.

He only made it 30 meters and there was another bomb. How many bombs do they have here?

If they all explode, it will blow up the mountain and kill all of us.

They are crazy! What exactly do they want to do? he wondered.
