Chapter 1211: Who's going to help me pass the Tribulation?

If one wanted to know why Zhao Yu was so nervous that he was sweating and did not even participate in the argument between Cui Lizhu and Zeng Ke, they would have to start from when he was in Master Yao's small room.

At that time, the two of them had already explained the case clearly, and Zhao Yu was so happy that he rewarded Master Yao with ten yachts for his live stream!

The live broadcast had already started, so Zhao Yu was supposed to take his leave.

But, Master Yao suddenly stopped the live broadcast and told Zhao Yu, "This brother, since you're so forthright, as a gift in return, I'll help you read your fortune!"

"Mm ..."

Zhao Yu pondered for a moment. Since he didn't care about one or two minutes, he nodded in agreement.

"Then ... Then let's do a 'dismantle word!' Master Yao said, 'I'm the best at this!'"

"Hmm ... Deconstruct words?" Zhao Yu had only heard of this kind of fortune-telling method before, but he had never seen it in person. Hearing Master Yao say this, he was interested.

However, he had thought that since it was called breaking down characters, he should at least pick up a brush, ink, paper, and an inkstone to write a few characters.

However, Master Yao did not invite him into the study. Instead, he opened an app on his phone and said,

"Come on ... Say two words and I'll test it for you!"

Zhao Yu lowered his head and saw the words "Master Yao's fortune-telling" on the software.

F*ck ... He cursed in his heart. Isn't this a little too casual?

However, seeing that Master Yao was in high spirits, he thought for a moment and really thought of two words. He said on the spot, "Kun Qian! Yes, just these two words!"

"Kun Qian?" Grandmaster scratched his head, "It's not heaven and earth, right? Your two words are so unrefined!"

Even though he said that, he still entered the two words and pressed the button marked with the words "begin testing."

In the end, a line of text immediately popped up on the screen. It was:

"Her eyes are clear, and her four faces are beautiful. I think we've reached the end of the line when I suddenly heard the sound of horse hooves!"

"This ..." Zhao Yu's eyebrows were high and low. "Master, this seems to be a Tang poem, right?" he asked. "What do you mean by that?"

"Alas, don't talk nonsense. This is a hexagram in the Book of Changes, and it has its own rules!" The master stroked his beard and said seriously, "here, then look at this hexagram. This hexagram is a very good hexagram for pregnant women, indicating that a child will be born!"

"Um ... Master!" Zhao Yu quickly cupped his fists and said, "see you again. I'm off to investigate the case!"

"Wait ... Wait ..." Master Yao hurriedly waved his hand and explained, "I'm just trying to adjust the atmosphere, hehe!" Next, it's my ancestral secret art!"

"En, aren't you the disciple of White Crane heavens? Your surname isn't even Bai, what do you mean by "passed down"?" Zhao Yu frowned.

"Alright, it's my secret recipe. Is that okay?" Master Yao said in a self-deprecating manner. He then pointed at the two words on the phone and said, "look, the earth is earth, and the heaven is gold. Originally, gold and earth are precious, but you have reversed it and turned it into Earth Gold!"

"You're not going to say that I'm a nouveau riche, right?" Zhao Yu was stunned.

"¥#@..." Master Yao pinched his fingers and recited a few incantations. Suddenly, his eyes widened and he said, "You should take fewer cars these days! Oh, no, not only do you have to take fewer cars, you also have to take fewer ships, planes, and other means of transportation!"

"Ah? Why the hell?" Zhao Yu was confused.

"East, West, South, North, Center. Metal, wood, water, fire, earth. Kun rules the southwest while Qian rules the Northwest. If the two go against each other, you'll be at odds with the Golden criminal!" Master Yao pointed at the phone again and said, "look at your four lines of hexagram. Each of them indicates a person's journey, so it must be related to transportation! Listen to me, don't travel too much and take fewer cars!"

"How can I not go out? I'm investigating a case!" Zhao Yu shook his head and wanted to leave again.

"No, no..." Master Yao frowned and said, "sigh!" I'll tell you the truth, I could tell the moment you came in! You have deep tear stains and a well-developed nose. You have the appearance of a beast, so you should be a person with a bad temper and a fierce character!

"Also, your eyes are deep and your lips are blue. This is an obvious sign that you're the main culprit!" Master Yao said, "there might be a catastrophe in the near future! So, you'd better be careful, officer!"

"I ... I probably didn't sleep well!" Zhao Yu rubbed his eyes.

"As for me, I'm just following the divination book. I hope it's not accurate! "But ..." Master Yao said, "how can fortune-telling be accurate?"

"Eh?" Zhao Yu pouted. "You're clearly trying to trick both sides. Isn't that too annoying?" "Alright," Zhao Yu said, cupping his fists. "Since you've said so, please give me some guidance and help me get out of this mess!"

"I can't break it!" Grandmaster's answer was very straightforward.

"What the ..." Zhao Yu clenched his fists in anger. He couldn't help but hit the Cripple!

"I think we've reached the end of the line. I suddenly heard the sound of horse hooves!" Master Yao pointed at the phone and read, "little brother, this hexagram says that you have the help of a benefactor! Therefore, the person who can help you cross the Tribulation is not me ..."

Sigh ...

Back in the present, after hearing Cui Lizhu's concern, Zhao Yu sighed heavily, but his eyes were still fixed on the cars on the road, afraid that something would happen.

Things like fortune-telling were really harmful! He pondered in his heart. Ever since Master Yao said that he was in trouble, he had been feeling uneasy and had a feeling that something bad was going to happen ...

Of course, Zhao Yu knew in his heart that, in addition to the divination, the Kun Qian hexagram was the ultimate culprit. Hence, Zhao Yu was almost certain that something dangerous was bound to happen!

Then ... Who was his benefactor?

Who would help him cross the Tribulation?

"Hey, boss, are you okay?" "Did you come up with a new idea again?" Cui Lizhu asked, puzzled. "Why don't you share it with us?"

"Mm ... Mm ..." Zhao Yu mumbled, not knowing what to say.

At that moment, Cui Lizhu's phone suddenly rang. Someone had sent her a message on WeChat.

"Ya!" Cui Lizhu's eyes widened when she saw the message. She quickly said to Zhao Yu, "look, look! This is a message from the rich kid yesterday. He really helped me check it out!" This guy must have been conquered by my charm!

"Did you see that? he said that the rumors they heard before were wrong!"

"Did you hear wrong? What did you hear wrong?" Zeng Ke asked.

"Didn't someone say that Yun Hai Group had hired a very good Feng Shui Master?" Cui Lizhu said excitedly, "the rich second generation has already helped me find out that this very good Fengshui master was hired by the Deputy Director, Lin Chengye, and not the chairman, Lin Chaofeng!"

"Ah?" Zeng Ke was surprised. "No way? This means ..."

"In that case, of course I'm right!" Cui Lizhu proudly pointed at her phone and said, "look, the rich second generation even helped me find out that this master's surname is Yue, and he came from Guangzhou!"

"Oh?" This time, Zhao Yu finally interrupted and said, "Bai Lang is also from Guangzhou! Zeng Ke, hurry up and check ..."

Before Zhao Yu could finish his sentence, a large yellow truck suddenly drove out from the left intersection!

At that moment, they had just arrived at an intersection. For some reason, the big truck was driving very fast at such a crowded intersection, and it was closely following Zhao Yu's front.

"Motherf * cker!"

Zhao Yu cursed and quickly stepped on the brakes, stopping the car.

Just as Zhao Yu stopped, he suddenly heard a loud noise. The yellow truck had hit a medium-sized car that was going straight from the intersection!

Boom ... Boom ...

The medium-sized car was immediately knocked over and rolled on the ground ...

Chapter 1212: Not a car accident

Everything had happened so suddenly, and the yellow truck had appeared out of nowhere. Fortunately, Zhao Yu had been on high alert the whole time, and did not drive as recklessly as he usually did.

Otherwise, even if he was not hit by a big truck, he would at least scratch the front bumper!

Whoosh ... Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

Zhao Yu stopped the car and panted heavily, his heart beating fast! He thought to himself, this master Yao is too accurate. He could even calculate this?

However, Zhao Yu didn't have time to react. The big truck had just crashed into another medium-sized car, causing the car to roll all the way onto the sidewalk, then hit the wall with the huge Billboard!

Creak ...

Due to the sudden accident, an Electric Tricycle that was driving behind was forced to stop.

But at such a high speed, the tricycle couldn't stop at all, so the driver had to force a turn. As a result, one side of the tricycle tilted up high, and then the whole tricycle turned over at the intersection.

What was even more unfortunate was that the tricycle was used to transport seafood, so the container was full of seafood. After the tricycle overturned, the whole cart of seafood fell on the road ...

Zhao Yu wanted to drive past the intersection first, but the tricycle blocked his way.

"Waa! "Lobster ... Lobster!" Cui Lizhu shouted excitedly."And ... And abalone, right? that's ..."

Buzz ... Buzz ...

Just as Cui Lizhu was shouting, something unexpected happened. The big truck that had just knocked over the medium-sized car started the car again and reversed!

"Hey, hey, hey ..." The driver of the tricycle had just gotten up from the ground when he suddenly saw the huge truck rushing over. He was so scared that he quickly ran to the side.

The next second, the truck easily knocked over the tricycle. The huge wheels instantly crushed the lobsters and other seafood into pieces.

Then, the truck accelerated again and crashed into the medium-sized car!

The car ...

Then, Zhao Yu finally realized that the medium-sized car that had been knocked over was a police car!

Zhao Yu had seen that kind of medium-sized police car many times, so he could tell at a glance that it was a prisoner transport vehicle!

Eh?

Zhao Yu suddenly straightened his neck, and his first reaction was that the truck must have done it on purpose!

The big truck hit the prison van, it was obvious that they wanted to ... Escape from prison!

What the ...

In the blink of an eye, the large truck rumbled past and once again crashed into the prison van that was already facing down!

The prison carriage immediately let out a deformed squeak, and a large part of the place where the prisoners were being escorted had been dented!

Creak ...

At this moment, the truck's wheels were spinning and sparks were flying. The engine was roaring crazily, and the sound was like thunder. The other vehicles nearby were so scared that they quickly fled ...

"This ..."

Finally, Cui Lizhu was no longer excited. She looked at the big truck and was stunned!

* Squeak ... *

Soon, the truck realized that it was unable to completely destroy the prison van, so it quickly retreated again. As it retreated, a Jeep was unable to Dodge in time and was run over by the truck ...

Bang ...

After a loud noise, the Jeep spun and flew out. First, it broke the barrier in the middle of the road, then it hit a car that was moving at high speed on the other side of the intersection, forming a chain collision!

Bang ...

Bang ...

Bang ...

In the blink of an eye, a few cars crashed into each other. Some of them flipped over, while some of them were smoking from the impact. The scene was suddenly chaotic!

At this time, the traffic police at the intersection rushed to the truck that was involved in the accident. The two cars of Criminal Police officers behind Zhao Yu also felt that something was wrong, and they got out of the car to check.

Squeak ...

However, the truck did not seem to have any intention of stopping. After it had retreated a certain distance, it continued to RAM into the prison van ...

Waka!

Zhao Yu finally understood. The truck was so angry that it wasn't trying to Rob the prison van-but was trying to silence them!

The truck driver clearly wanted the people in the prison van dead!

How could this be?

Seeing this, Zhao Yu quickly pushed open the door and rushed over. He quickly clicked on the device bar in his mind, ready to use the invisible accelerator to control the speed of the truck!

However, he had too many devices at the moment, and he couldn't find the invisible accelerator at first glance.

But at this moment, the truck was already charging towards the prison van. If the collision was successful, the people in the van would definitely die!

A parachute ...

At that critical moment, Zhao Yu saw the parachute in the device bar. He didn't think twice and quickly used it on the back of the truck!

The parachute immediately slowed the truck down, and when it crashed into the prison van, it didn't completely sink in, only a small part of it.

At that moment, from Zhao Yu's angle, he couldn't see the situation in the prison van at all, but Zhao Yu could feel that the people in the prison van were definitely not in a good situation.

Wuwuwu ...

The truck tried to push forward again, but the quality of the prison van was not bad. It could not be dented!

Helplessly, the truck driver could only reverse again and go back far away, preparing for another more violent collision!

At that moment, Zhao Yu finally saw that there were more than one or two people trapped in the prison van. In addition to the prisoners, there were also a few police officers in charge of guarding the prisoners!

At the same time, the local Criminal Police detectives that were with Zhao Yu had already pulled out their pistols and surrounded the big truck when they saw that the truck was trying to kill someone, and the target was the prisoner escort vehicle that was in the same system as them.

If the truck hit them again, they would shoot without mercy!

No!

However, as a detective, Zhao Yu instinctively realized that this matter couldn't be that simple! Since the other party's target was the police's prisoner transport vehicle, there must be a big problem.

If the truck driver was shot dead, they might miss the truth.

Thinking of this, Zhao Yu no longer hesitated and stepped forward at the critical moment. He jumped directly to the door of the big truck's passenger seat.

The door had been locked by the truck driver, but Zhao Yu had the master key with him. The moment he used it, he immediately opened the door and rushed in!

"Ah?"

There was only one driver in the truck. It was a burly middle-aged man. He was focused on hitting the prison van, but he never expected someone to rush into the van so quickly.

In his shock, he quickly stepped on the accelerator and slammed into the prison van again!

Zhao Yu went up and gave him a punch, but because he was flat, the force of the punch was not enough to stop his acceleration!

At that moment, as the truck was about to hit the prison van, even if Zhao Yu could subdue the man, it would be too late to brake!

Helplessly, Zhao Yu grabbed the steering wheel and pulled it to the right. The truck changed direction and brushed past the prison van, then hit the huge Billboard!

Ah ...

Ah ...

The truck driver and Zhao Yu shouted at the same time. The truck crashed through the Billboard, then broke through the wall behind the Billboard and rushed in!

Unexpectedly, behind the wall was the backyard of a high-end hotel. After the truck rushed in, it first smashed many parasols and lounge chairs, then plunged into the swimming pool ...

Chapter 1214: Who bought these tickets?

When Zhao Yu and the others arrived at the dock, they took a police speedboat and drove towards Lin chengye's yacht. Zhao Yu was still in shock.

When he recalled the moment when the truck suddenly appeared, he was so scared that his soul almost left his body! Fortunately, he had been careful when he was driving. Otherwise, he might have been hit by a big truck.

This master Yao ... Was really accurate!

If this person was really an expert, then in the future, could he help him understand the hexagram poem of the miracle System?

Zhao Yu vaguely remembered that, when he had entered the words "Kun Qian," master Yao had said something like "kun is earth, and heaven is metal."

In the past, Zhao Yu had only thought about the functions of each hexagram, but had ignored some other meanings. If the master's calculations were accurate, then could the system's Eight Trigrams also be explained by the five elements?

If he could accurately grasp the meaning of the hexagram in the future, would it be more helpful in solving the case?

But ...

Zhao Yu thought about it and started to suspect that the big truck incident was just a coincidence.

Because, according to normal logic, if he didn't get the master's warning and continued to drive at that fierce speed, he would have left the intersection long ago and wouldn't have encountered the big truck.

So, he really didn't know whether it was a person or a person who was being divined.

"According to the information I have ..." At this time, Zeng ke was holding his notebook and said, "Lin chengye is not easy to deal with, especially in Fu Lai. He has a lot of people under him, and he should be doing a lot of illegal activities behind his back!"

The wind was strong on the sea, and the speedboat was flying. Zeng ke had to speak very loudly so that everyone could hear him.

“But, from some of his chat and shopping records,” Zeng ke said, “his interest in Feng Shui and fortune-telling is no less than his sister Lin chaofeng ‘s!”

“In recent years, he bought a lot of mascots related to Fengshui, such as jade pendants, Buddha beads, Buddha statues, and so on. Many of them were expensive!

“In addition, every time he makes a major decision, he would also invite a Feng Shui Master to take his pulse ...”

“Then, what about that Yue-something guy?” Zhao Yu asked loudly, “how long has this person been following Lin chengye?”

“I can find out that the furthest node they used the communication device to contact was from a year ago!” Zeng ke replied professionally, “also, in Lin chengye’s eyes, Yue Yongnian was not only profound in his Taoist skills, but also very impressive. He had many disciples following him at any time!”

“Lin chengye should have a lot of faith in him. According to the chat records, every time he contacted Yue Yongnian, he would use the words “humble” and “extremely pious”!”

“Look, what do you think?” Cui Lizhu said proudly, “Yue Yongnian didn’t even dare to use his real name, and he had so many followers. Needless to say, this must be the group of scammers that boss has been looking for!”

“Hmph! This group of people had set a trap for Lin chengye, making him think that the seven stars hanging coffins could kill people. They even tricked him into using the victory loathing technique to help him get rid of his sister!

“As long as Lin chaofeng wants it, the entire Yun Hai Group is Lin chengye ‘s!” Cui Lizhu shook her head. “So, Lin chengye was obsessed and excited. He spent a huge sum of money to realize the seven stars hanging coffins ‘victory-hating technique!

“Um ... I’m thinking that these scammers might really be like what we thought before. Maybe their original intention was just to deceive people, not to kill!” Cui Lizhu guessed, “they probably planned for so long at the crematorium just to sell the body to Lin chengye for a price.

“When they’ve earned enough money, they wouldn’t care about Lin chaofeng’s life anymore. They’d have long slipped away!” As she spoke, she counted with her fingers. “Five million for a body. Five, seven, thirty-five. Thirty-five million? Is there a more attractive deal than this?”

“That ... That doesn’t seem right!” “The seven bodies were all dead a long time ago. According to your speculation, they should have gone far away, right?” Zeng ke asked.

“Then ... There’s only one reason!” Cui Lizhu nodded and said, “when Lin chengye saw that his sister was still alive and kicking, he suddenly became suspicious, so he controlled these bastards early on.

“What if ... The rest of the money hasn’t been settled? They want to negotiate on the ship?” “But, who would have thought that an electric pole would suddenly destroy their dreams?” cui Lizhu said.

“No, that’s not right!” Zeng ke shook his head. “I think you’re still thinking too casually!” The real situation is definitely more complicated than we imagined!

“Although there is evidence, I personally think that Lin chengye would not be stupid enough to believe in the victory loathing technique!”

“Boss, can you say something?” When cui Lizhu heard this, she quickly pulled Zhao Yu aside and complained, “every time it comes to this, we don’t have the right to interrupt at all!

“But what’s wrong with you today? Why don’t you even bother to say a word?”

“What’s there to say?” Zhao Yu looked at the sea in the distance and said meaningfully, “later, when we get on the yacht, the answer will naturally be revealed! Even if I guess a hundred more now, it’s just a guess!”

“Tsk ...” Cui Lizhu muttered. “In the past, you used to guess 10000 kinds of things with great interest!”

“Mm ... Zeng ke!” Suddenly, Zhao Yu remembered something and asked Zeng ke, “can you tell how long Lin chengye’s and Yue Yongnian’s cell phone signals have been on the yacht?”

“That’s not possible ...” Zeng ke answered awkwardly. “We need the cooperation of the local technical department!” I can give them a call, but I need some time!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu said thoughtfully. “Forget it!”

“Don ‘t!” Cui Lizhu suddenly understood what Zhao Yu meant and asked in a hurry, “boss, don’t scare me! Why does it sound so scary?”

“You ... You’re not trying to say ... They ... They all died on the ship, are you?”

“Ah?” Zeng ke was so scared that he almost threw his laptop into the water!

In fact, cui Lizhu had guessed Zhao Yu’s thoughts.

Zhao Yu felt that the big truck just now couldn’t suppress the power of the Kun Qian hexagram. It was very likely that the scarier things were yet to come!

Thinking of this, Zhao Yu felt even more uneasy and quickly looked at the location display on his mobile phone.

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu realized that, according to the location, Lin chengye’s yacht should already be in his line of sight!

Thus, he quickly looked into the distance. Sure enough, he saw a huge yacht floating on the vast sea.

But ...

Eh?

When Zhao Yu saw the yacht, he couldn’t help but frown.

That was because he realized that there was a large group of people gathered around the yacht. Some of them were dressed in familiar clothes.

This ... This seems ...

In order to see more clearly, he quickly turned on an invisible telescope and looked in that direction.

Holy shit!

At first glance, Zhao Yu was shocked.

What was going on?

On the yacht in the distance, there were a few uniformed police officers gathered. They were all fully armed and had guns in their hands.

He took a closer look and saw that the police had already taken out their handcuffs. They were actually arresting people on the yacht!

F * ck!

Zhao Yu was shocked and thought to himself, I haven't even gotten into the car yet! Who had bought these tickets in advance?

Chapter 1215: I want to call the police!

"Aiya! "So many police officers ..." When Cui Lizhu saw the police appear on the yacht, she was suddenly scared out of her wits and said worriedly, "it's over, it's over! It seems that boss was right again, someone really died!" Otherwise, there wouldn't be so many police officers here!"

"Hmm ... That can't be right?" Zhao Yu turned around and looked at the other speedboat that came with him. There were three police detectives on the speedboat, all of whom were Criminal Police detectives from the Fu Lai provincial Department.

If someone had reported a case here, they should at least know, right?

Could it be that ... The police on the yacht were all from the various branches or the Marine Police? Because it happened so suddenly, there was no news from both sides?

At this time, Zhao Yu wanted to ask the accompanying police detectives to call the headquarters and ask. However, the speedboat was very fast, and they would arrive soon.

Therefore, he decided to wait until he was right in front of her and ask her clearly ...

However, to Zhao Yu's surprise, the police on the yacht didn't stay for long. They quickly handcuffed the four or five people and pushed them onto three speedboats. Then, they couldn't wait to start the engine and drive off in another direction!

"Eh?" Cui Lizhu shouted, "why ... Why did he leave? Could it be ... Not a murder case? What's he doing?"

With the help of the invisible telescope, Zhao Yu could clearly see the situation on the yacht. There were many people gathered on the yacht, watching the speedboats leave.

One of them was a middle-aged man standing on the deck, surrounded by a crowd. It was Lin Chengye!

Oh?

Lin chengye ... Wasn't he still here?

Zhao Yu had seen Lin chengye's photo, so he thought that he would not be mistaken, but ... This made him even more confused about the background of the police officers.

"Team leader, Yue Yongnian's cell phone signal has changed!" Zeng ke quickly reported, "if I'm not wrong, the police must have taken Yue Yongnian away!"

Oh?

Zhao Yu looked into the distance and saw that the speedboats were driving very fast, and were already some distance away from the yacht.

Zhao Yu quickly turned to look at the criminal Police detectives on his side. At this time, there was no need for him to give an order. There were already people anxiously calling the headquarters to ask about the situation!

From the looks of it, they didn't know which Department that wave of police officers just now belonged to.

Soon, Zhao Yu and the others "speedboats arrived in front of the yacht. Suddenly, they saw two more speedboats. Lin chengye and the others on the yacht were obviously very surprised, as they all stood still on the deck and watched.

At this time, Zhao Yu and the others saw that on the yacht, in addition to Lin chengye and some of his bodyguards, there were also several slim beauties in sexy swimsuits!

Some of the beautiful women were drinking champagne, while others were applying sunblock on their bodies. Compared to the nervous Lin chengye and the others, the beautiful women were more relaxed.

When the speedboat drove under the yacht, no one on the yacht said a word. They all looked at Zhao Yu and the others in silence, looking a little confused.

"Police!" As the leader, Zhao Yu took the lead and showed his police badge. He asked Lin chengye, "you are Lin chengye from Yun Hai Group, right?"

"Ah? What the hell is this?" After Lin chengye heard this, he suddenly frowned. He pointed to the speedboat that had just left and said to Zhao Yu, "didn't I just say that? Why did you change your mind so quickly?"

"What?" Zhao Yu and the others were dumbfounded.

"Hey, what are you staring at?" Lin chengye, who was wearing a gaudy beach suit, gestured at Zhao Yu and said, "your colleagues told me to go to your police station to record my statement! Didn't you guys discuss it?"

"Yup!" One of Lin chengye's bodyguards said, "are you guys going to record your statement on our yacht?"

“Wait ... Wait ...” Zhao Yu quickly waved his hand and asked, “are you guys okay? I’m not here to record my statement, I’m here to question Lin chengye! Let me ask you, what were those police officers doing?”

“What the ...” Everyone on the yacht was stunned.

“Hey! Do you think I’m easy to bully and are playing with me?” Lin chengye shouted angrily, “cut the crap, show me your police badge. I want to verify it. Are you all imposters?”

“F * ck!” Zhao Yu patted the pistol on his waist, “how can this be fake? We are from the Special Investigation Group of the central Criminal Division!”

“Ah?”

In the end, when they heard this, Lin chengye and the others were shocked at first, then ... Then they all laughed. They laughed so hard that they were convulsing. It was a totally different scene!

“Officer, you’re so funny!” Lin chengye clutched his stomach and said, “the group of police officers who took my guest away just now were also from the Special Investigation Group of the central Criminal Division! You guys really are from the same unit, why don’t you have any chemistry?”

“What?” This time, Zhao Yu and the others were even more shocked. Zhao Yu quickly looked into the distance, but saw that the speedboats were already so far away that they could barely be seen.

“That’s impossible!” Zeng ke grabbed his hair and asked, “isn’t sister Miao in Xiakou? That shouldn’t be one of our people, right?”

“This can’t be ... The story of Li Gui and Li Kui, right?” Cui Lizhu was confused.

“Leader, leader ...” At this time, the police detective who came with Zhao Yu said, “I just asked, and no police force has been here in Fu Lai. The group of people just now were either your people or imposters!”

“Eh? What?” However, after Lin chengye heard this, the smile on his face suddenly froze. He trembled and said, “fake ... Fake ... Right ... Why didn’t I think that they were the fake!”

“Aiya!” As he spoke, Lin chengye gave himself a tight slap and shouted at his men, “quick ... Quick, chase after him!” Liar! Liar! A nest of liars! We’ve been tricked!”

“Oh ...” One of his men immediately scuttled onto the deck and ran towards the cockpit.

“Lin chengye, quickly tell me!” Zhao Yu shouted, “what the hell is going on?”

“I’ve been tricked!” Lin chengye gritted his teeth and stomped his feet. He was extremely vexed. “I ... I was actually fooled by them like an idiot! “If ...” He pointed at Zhao Yu, “if you’re the real police, then I’ll call the police now. I’m begging you, quickly arrest those bastards who lied to me. They did everything!”

“Ah ... I’m so angry ...”

Boom ... Boom ...

At this time, the yacht's motor had already been started, and the water under the boat rippled violently. It was about to sail away!

"Boss ..." Cui Lizhu quickly waved her hand. "Let's hurry up and chase after them!" It'll be too late if we wait any longer!"

While Cui Lizhu was talking, the police detectives had already started the speedboat and were ready to set off.

Zhao Yu looked at the yacht, then back at the speedboat. At the critical moment, he jumped onto the ladder on the side of the yacht!

"Hey, hey, hey?" Cui Lizhu didn't have time to react. It was too late for her to catch him.

"Chase! Hurry up and chase!" Zhao Yu waved at Cui Lizhu and the others. "No matter what, we have to catch Yue Yongnian and his gang!"

"Yue Yongnian?" Lin Chengye was shocked. "You guys know Yue Yongnian too!" Right! This is the guy who lied to me. The group of police officers just now were all hired by Yue Yongnian to put on an act! Hiring someone to expose his secret and even taking him away was too F * cking immoral ...

"Set sail, set sail!" Lin Chengye shouted, "I want to catch this liar with my own hands and beat him until he can't take care of himself!"

As he screamed, the yacht had already accelerated and chased after the speedboat in front.

"Hurry up!" Zhao Yu also gestured to his men, "call the coastguards to surround and intercept them. We can't miss a single one!"

Chapter 1216: There's still a mole

Zhao Yu naturally had his own reasons for jumping onto the yacht.

Although it looked like Yue Yongnian had used a trick to escape, the current situation was not clear, and Zhao Yu was worried that there was a trap!

What if the mastermind wasn't Yue Yongnian, or was he still hiding on the yacht?

So, he decided to follow Lin Chengye's yacht to pursue Yue Yongnian. This way, he could pursue the suspect and also ensure that Lin Chengye would not play any tricks!

Ah ...

As the yacht suddenly accelerated, all the beautiful women on the deck shivered and exclaimed ...

Zhao Yu quickly climbed onto the deck and asked Lin Chengye, "Hurry up and tell me, what happened just now? What's going on between you and Yue Yongnian?"

"Ah? "This ..." Lin Chengye said in a hurry. "If you're really a police officer, you should know everything, right? Don't tell me you're also a hired actor. I don't trust anyone now!"

"F * ck your mother!" Zhao Yu suddenly pulled out his pistol. "Tell me, did you do the female corpses case in the seven Star hanging coffins?"

When they saw Zhao Yu pull out his gun, everyone on the yacht backed away in fear.

"It's the seven Star hanging coffins again!" Lin chengye sighed, "if I'm unlucky, then I'm unlucky to be in the seven Star hanging coffin!" I'm warning you, this is my ship, my private property. If you dare to shoot, I'll Sue you!"

"Yeah ..." His bodyguard said. "The fake police officers also had guns. So, their guns are all fake? Then, what about yours? it can't be real, right?"

"D * MN, do you want to try?" Zhao Yu suddenly pointed the gun at the man.

"Don 't, don' t!" Lin chengye quickly waved his hand and said, "Okay, okay, okay, I'll tell you, I'll tell you! This time, I've been F * cking tricked!"

"That's blue and white porcelain. It's so big ..." He gestured with his hands. "It shattered with a bang! Why did I think that it was my little granddaughter who did it! But I didn't expect that it was all a trap set up by those treacherous people ... I'm so angry!"

"Ah? Blue and white porcelain?" Zhao Yu was a little confused and asked in a hurry, "hey, can you tell me the whole story? How am I supposed to understand what you're saying?"

"Tell me, is the female corpse in the seven Star hanging coffins related to you?" Then, Zhao Yu deliberately aimed the gun at him.

"Yes, yes yes ..." Lin chengye hurriedly nodded. "I was wrong, I am indeed responsible for this! I was possessed and believed in the lies of those vile people. I deserve to die, I was wrong!"

"But ... But ..." He cupped his fists and said, "I'm also a victim. All of this was planned by that damn Yue Yongnian! You've been lying to me for more than a year and scammed me of so much money!"

"Hurry up and catch him, catch him and the truth will be revealed!"

Oh?

Zhao Yu's heart skipped a beat. It seemed that he had finally found the right person! The seven Star hanging coffins case was the work of Lin chengye and Yue Yongnian.

"Bai Lang!" Zhao Yu quickly asked, "what about Bai Lang? Was this person with Yue Yongnian just now?"

"Eh? Bai Lang?" Lin chengye shook his head. "I've never heard of him. Who is he?" "Have you ..." He quickly asked his men, "have you heard of this person?"

The crowd shook their heads.

"He should be Yue Yongnian's accomplice." Zhao Yu put down his gun and was about to take out his phone to open Bai Lang's photo.

But who knew that at this moment, the yacht suddenly rumbled and accelerated a few more times ...

"Yeah!" Lin chengye quickly ran to the railing and shouted, "drive as fast as you can! Catch up to those bastards!"

Zhao Yu also ran over to take a look, only to find that there was something wrong with the yacht's route. Yue Yongnian and the others "speedboat was driving to the left, but the yacht was driving to the right.

"Hey, it's off, off!"

Lin chengye also noticed the problem and quickly climbed up the steps to the cockpit to warn the captain.

However, something unexpected happened. Lin chengye pulled the cabin door a few times, but it did not open.

"F * ck, what's the situation?" Lin chengye suddenly realized that something was wrong. He quickly leaned his face against the glass and looked into the cockpit.

"It can't be!" After a short while, he looked up and shouted, "why is there no one here? Where's the captain?"

"What?" Zhao Yu heard that something was wrong and quickly ran to the cockpit to take a look. He then saw that there was no one in the cockpit.

Upon seeing this, Lin chengye's men immediately scattered in search of the captain.

However, he couldn't even find a shadow after searching for a long time!

Wuwuwu ...

At that moment, the yacht was still accelerating and was already a little unstable. The hull was swaying left and right as if it would fall apart at any time!

"That's too damaging!" Lin chengye suddenly realized something and said to Zhao Yu, "this bunch of B * stards actually bribed my Captain! This ... Is he trying to kill me? Why are you still standing there?" He shouted at his subordinates, "hurry up and smash it open!"

His subordinates hurriedly scattered in all directions to find axes and other breaking tools.

"Eh? "Hey, hey, hey ... Just as one of the bodyguards was about to get down to the bow, he was suddenly frightened by a terrifying scene in front of him! He hurriedly shouted, "boss, boss! Quickly look, quickly look ..."

Everyone looked up and was immediately scared pale. They saw a pleasure boat sailing from right to left in front of them. It was a pleasure boat specially used to entertain tourists. The three-story sightseeing deck was full of people!

Ah?

Zhao Yu was tongue-tied and dumbfounded!

If they were to bump into him, the consequences would be unimaginable!

Damn it! Zhao Yu clenched his fists and finally realized that the real calamity was waiting for him!

Accelerator ... Accelerator!

This was Zhao Yu's first reaction. The accelerator could also reduce the speed of the yacht. If he could slow down the yacht, he wouldn't have hit it!

At that time, Zhao Yu was already prepared. No matter how many points he had to spend, he had to stop the yacht.

However, reality slapped him in the face again. The accelerator was found, but after it was released on the yacht, there was no reaction.

The system notified Zhao Yu that the vehicle was in danger, so it was ineffective.

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu was depressed. He didn't expect that the system wouldn't even give him a chance to strengthen himself!

Kachaa!

As someone waved the fire axe, the glass of the cockpit door was shattered. The person reached in and finally opened the door from the inside.

"Shut! Pass, pass, pass!" Lin chengye rushed in like a mad man, waving his hands and feet in front of the many buttons in the cockpit, but he didn't know which one to press.

At that moment, the situation was quite critical. Zhao Yu shouted and reached out to grab the steering wheel,"What do you mean? Let's turn around the corner first ... Waah ..."

He pulled the steering wheel hard, but it didn't move an inch!

In the blink of an eye, as the yacht accelerated, the huge cruise ship was already in front of them and they were about to hit it!

Ah ...

Lin chengye's men suddenly let out a cry of despair ...

Chapter 1217: why isn't it over?

Zhao Yu had not expected the captain to not only lock the cockpit door, but also tamper with the steering wheel!

No matter how hard Zhao Yu tried, the steering wheel still did not move.

Just then, seeing that the yacht was about to hit the pleasure boat, many bodyguards who reacted quickly jumped into the water ...

When Lin chengye saw that a collision was inevitable, he quickly ran out of the cockpit and wanted to jump into the water!

However, in a moment of desperation, he tripped over something and fell to the ground.

In such a critical situation, Zhao Yu, of course, couldn't escape. The cruise ship opposite was full of people. If he were to run into it directly, many people would die.

Hacker command ...

A power jamming device ...

Zhao Yu wanted to use the hacker's command or the power jamming device to shut down the yacht. However, the yacht was already at its maximum horsepower. It was too late to stop!

Accelerator ... Invisible accelerator ...

Zhao Yu didn't dare to think too much. He used the accelerator as fast as he could on the cruise ship opposite him, hoping to speed up the ship and help them avoid this disaster!

However, the system immediately prompted that Zhao Yu needed to use 10000 points to strengthen the device in order to control such a large boat!

F * ck your grandmother's leg!

Ah ...

Zhao Yu cursed, then exerted force in his arms to turn the steering wheel again, but the steering wheel was firmly locked and could not move at all.

At this moment, there was only a distance of twenty meters between the two sides. The collision seemed to be inevitable!

At this critical moment, a device flashed through Zhao Yu's mind, allowing him to see the invisible parachute again!

Zhao Yu was desperate, so he didn't have time to think. He released all five parachutes on the left stern of the yacht!

As the device was invisible, not to mention other people, even Zhao Yu couldn't see the parachute.

However, after the device was released, Zhao Yu could clearly feel that the yacht, which was moving forward at high speed, suddenly came to a sudden stop!

Immediately after, the bow on the right side suddenly tilted up high, like a wild horse raising its hooves, and changed its angle to the right!

* Whoosh ... *

The propeller was installed at the end of the yacht. When the bow was raised high and the stern was in deep water, the yacht suddenly made a roar that could topple mountains and overturn the sea.

After the roar, the yacht suddenly returned to its previous speed and once again crashed into the pleasure boat!

At this moment, the people on the cruise ship had already seen the out-of-control cruise ship coming towards them. They were all so frightened that they screamed and dodged. It even triggered a stampede, and some people were almost pushed off the ship.

However, due to the strong pull of the parachute, the yacht had changed its angle and was now crashing into the tail of the boat.

When the ship's pilot saw the danger, he also accelerated.

This way, when the two ships crossed each other, the stern of the pleasure boat just happened to cross the bow of the yacht.

With the sound of metal rubbing against each other, the yacht that Zhao Yu was on brushed past the back of the yacht. On the side of the yacht, there was a long scratch on the back!

After all, the yacht was much smaller than a pleasure boat. Coupled with the high-speed driving, after the friction, the yacht inevitably had violent bumps and almost jumped out of the water.

Ah ...

Zhao Yu saw that the bow of the ship seemed to be flying, so he quickly held onto the steering wheel with both hands, so that he wouldn't be thrown off.

Boom ... Boom ... Boom ...

The yacht shook a few times on the water. Zhao Yu held onto the steering wheel tightly, and his body was about to fly.

It was only after a dozen jolts that he finally regained his balance and gradually stabilized.

'F * ck ...'

Zhao Yu held onto the steering wheel and panted, his face pale.

It was too dangerous!

He clutched his chest and his back as he said that. Just now, he almost had to use an emergency evacuation ball again! It was a small matter that he would not be killed, but the people on the boat would suffer!

"Ouch ... Ouch ..."

Zhao Yu was still in shock, when he suddenly heard Lin chengye's painful cry.

It turned out that Lin chengye was not as lucky as Zhao Yu. He had been thrown up and down, and his face was already swollen.

"Aiyo ... Aiyo ..." He staggered and pressed against the door frame. Finally, he got up from the ground and muttered in disbelief, "didn't ... Didn't hit it?" I thought I was dead for sure! Oh ..."

Lin chengye came in front of Zhao Yu with difficulty and turned his head to look out of the cabin. He only took one look and his eyes suddenly widened. He was dumbfounded.

"What's wrong?"

Zhao Yu turned around, but when he looked at what was happening, he was even more shocked than Lin chengye.

In the next second, the two of them could only react in one way, and that was to hold onto the steering wheel tightly!

It turned out that their yacht had just dodged the pleasure boat when a vast beach suddenly appeared in front of them!

He didn't expect that the yacht had already returned to shore.

The beach was already very close, and even if Zhao Yu had a device with him, it was too late!

At this moment, Zhao Yu couldn't even curse. He could only say a simple "F * ck!"

"Ah ..."

The two of them shouted and held onto the steering wheel tightly. 0.1 seconds later, the huge yacht rushed onto the beach at a super high speed!

Fortunately, there was no one on the beach. When the yacht rushed up, they immediately changed to sand-skating ...

Shua shua shua ...

The bottom of the boat rubbed against the sand, making a loud sound, and the speed suddenly slowed down.

However, the speed of the yacht was too fast. After it went ashore, it continued to rush forward at a certain speed. The yacht first knocked over several parasols on the beach, then continued to move forward. It actually rushed past the beach and completely went ashore!

The next moment, something even weirder happened. The yacht charged all the way and actually rushed onto the coastal road, passing through the middle of the road!

There were cars driving on the road. The drivers had never seen such a strange thing before, so they were all attracted by the yacht that crossed the road.

In the end, with a few loud bangs, there was a chain of rear-ends on the road ...

When the yacht sailed across the road, it had already slowed down. However, the other side of the road was a downhill. Under the acceleration of gravity, the yacht actually accelerated a second time and rowed down the slope!

"Ah ..." Lin chengye, who was in the cockpit, screamed in fear. His voice was hoarse, but he still did not see the cruise ship stop. He asked curiously, "eh? Why is it not over yet?"

Zhao Yu also felt that this was quite fresh. The two of them quickly craned their necks to look out of the window. As a result, the two of them exclaimed again!

Ah ...

Unexpectedly, a villa appeared at the bottom of the slope, and the yacht was crashing straight into the villa!

Boom ... Boom ...

The yacht was so powerful that it broke through the courtyard wall and crashed into the side of the villa

...

Boom ... Boom ...

Hualalalala ...

After the collision, the yacht made a huge hole in the villa before it finally tilted inward and stopped completely ...

Chapter 1218: deceived

Hong long long ...

The huge yacht was tilted to the side of the villa. The scene was quite strange, and it didn't even look out of place.

"Aiya ... Aiya ..."

Lin chengye got up from the ground. Although he was in so much pain, he still ran out of the cockpit and went to the side of the ship to check the situation.

"This ..." When he saw that the yacht had hit a hole in the villa, he couldn't help but be worried. "Is there anyone in the villa?" Please don't bump into anyone!"

"It's okay ... It's okay ..." Zhao Yu was in a daze. He staggered to the side of the boat and comforted her, "the door of the villa is locked, and there are a lot of fallen leaves on the ground in the yard. There should be no one!"

Just as Zhao Yu finished speaking, a large part of the villa's roof suddenly collapsed. Among the broken tiles, a white bathtub suddenly slid out of the villa's bathroom and fell into the small swimming pool on the yacht's deck!

Waa ...

In the end, Zhao Yu and Lin chengye were shocked to see that there was an uncle in the bathtub!

The uncle's head was still covered in shampoo and foam!

"Ah ... Ah ..." The uncle screamed with his eyes closed, "earthquake, earthquake, run ..."

Hualalalala ...

As soon as he shouted, a few people rushed out of the swimming pool. They were the long-legged beauties from before. It turned out that they had not been able to jump off the boat in time and had all fallen into the swimming pool under the violent bumps.

"Ah ... Ah ..." The bathing uncle cried out for a long time. Suddenly, he opened his eyes and saw so many beautiful women. He was dumbfounded.

"This ... This ..." The middle-aged man exclaimed, "could it be that I'm already dead? Isn't this like entering heaven?"

Wuwuwu ...

However, the beautiful women couldn't care less about the uncle. They all sprawled by the swimming pool and spat out water ...

"1,2,3 ..." Lin chengye counted with his fingers until he reached 5, then he was relieved and said to Zhao Yu,"they were all hired by the modeling company. Fortunately, they are fine, fortunately they are fine ..."

Hu ...

Zhao Yu panted and looked around. He could still see the sea in front of the villa, so he quickly took out his mobile phone and called Zeng ke.

Zeng ke quickly picked up the phone and told Zhao Yu that they were still in pursuit of the suspects. The fu Lai police had already dispatched helicopters and a large number of coastguards, so Yue Yongnian and the others would not be able to escape even if they had wings. It was only a matter of time before they were caught.

Hearing this news, Zhao Yu was finally at ease. As long as Yue Yongnian couldn't run away, the case could basically be closed!

At that time, Lin chengye saw that there were no casualties among the beautiful women, so he did not care anymore. He returned to Zhao Yu's side, exhausted, then took out a cigarette and lit it.

"Phew ..." He took a deep breath, then closed his eyes and said,"it was custom-made by a venulon manufacturing factory Italy, 17 million Yuan, and it's gone ..."

"Mm ..." Zhao Yu pointed to the cabin and said,"you can also pick up some parts to sell, right?"

"Hehe ..." Lin chengye laughed and handed the box of cigarettes to Zhao Yu."Would you like one too, officer?"

Zhao Yu shook his head and refused.

"How is it?" Lin chengye put away the cigarette and asked,"that grandson Yue Yongnian won't be able to run away, right? That guy...Is too good at scheming!"

Originally, Zhao Yu wanted to go down to the yacht first, but now that he suddenly heard Lin chengye's meaningful words, he felt that it was a good opportunity to find out the truth.

So, he asked directly,""Chairman Lin, now can you tell us what exactly is going on with the seven Star hanging coffins?"

"Phew ..." Lin chengye blew out a big ring of smoke. He first looked back at the uncle sitting in the bathtub, as well as the many beautiful women, then said to Zhao Yu,"well, anyway, I'll have to explain it sooner or later!"

"Look ..." He pointed to the sea in the distance."The sun is about to set. This scenery is really beautiful!"

"This time ..." Zhao Yu saw that he seemed to be changing the topic, so he quickly reminded him,"let's start from the beginning!" Don't be like before, saying it so ambiguously!"

"I understand, I understand! I just feel that I'm too much of an idiot. They've been lying to me for so long, but I've actually believed them without a doubt! "Sigh ..." Lin chengye took another puff of his cigarette and finally said,"everything started a year ago, or maybe even earlier!

"At that time, it wasn't the hottest time yet. I went to Yue Zhou to discuss the contract, and then I met master Yue Yongnian in the Jinglin temple!

"At that time, master Yue was wandering with his friends. Some of our people knew each other, so we talked and talked, and we ended up talking!

"After that, someone suggested that master Yue read my fortune." Lin chengye said sadly,"actually, I used to hate these Fengshui warlocks, especially my sister's way of doing things. She had to predict everything! It was all superstition!

"But, there were a few friends with more distinguished status who were present that day. I was too embarrassed to reject them, so I asked master Yue to help me take a look!

"Master Yue read my fortune and then asked for my eight characters. In the end, he told me that it would be difficult for me to close the deal. He also advised me to be careful of fire, saying that I had the appearance of a fire.

"Of course, these words are rather unlucky. I didn't believe it at first and didn't take it seriously!" Lin chengye recalled,"coincidentally, my business deal didn't go through." The contract was about to be signed, but the police suddenly intervened and messed up the matter!

"Also, the fire came true! I was eating in a restaurant and accidentally hit an alcohol lamp, which lit up my shoes. Fortunately, I took off my shoes quickly and didn't burn them!

"I was scared out of my wits at that time, and only then did I remember master Yue's warning ... Hmph Hmph ..." Lin chengye threw the half-smoked cigarette on the ground and crushed it with his shoe. He said angrily,"at that time, I was in awe of him, but now it seems that it was all a trap set up Against Me!

"The encounter in the Jinglin Zen temple wasn't a coincidence. They were all his underlings. Damn it ..."

At this point, Lin chengye gritted his teeth as if he wanted to eat someone.

After a long time, he continued,""I fell for his trap so easily, and then I sent people to inquire about his information.

"But ... It seems like they prepared all the information in advance.

"They said that he's a hidden expert, an outstanding fortune teller, and so on ... When I searched on the internet, it was all over the screen. They were all talking about how powerful he was, how accurate his fortune telling was, and so on ...

"So, I went to visit him, and he gave me a few suggestions on Feng Shui decoration. In the end, my business deal was closed very quickly!

"I wanted to reward him with a large sum of money, but he didn't accept my money and said something like" we are fated "and so on, which made me look at him in a new light and admire him!

“Later, he helped me with a few more things, some of which were to avoid disaster, some of which were career choices, and some of which were about the ways of the world. In the end, he got me right in everything. Soon, I was completely fooled!”

“Okay ... I understand!” Zhao Yu nodded, then quickly cut to the chase. “Then, let’s focus on the hanging coffins, shall we?”

Chapter 1219: The secret of the blue and white porcelain

“Speaking of the seven stars hanging coffins, you have to talk about my unreasonable sister first!” Lin chengye looked resentful. “That’s right, I really wanted her dead. She asked for it. She’s really ... Really too much!”

“There is no affection between us. She has completely regarded me as an enemy that she loathes!”

“As everyone knows, without me, Yun Hai Group would not have been able to develop to where it is today! I’ve worked hard and made great contributions. Everyone knows how much I’ve paid.

“But my sister, Lin chaofeng, kept tripping me up and restricting my rights for no reason!” Lin chengye said hatefully, “she even joined forces with the Board of Directors to suppress me and took away my position as the vice-chairman!”

“I know, she just doesn’t want me to threaten her highest authority as the chairman. She doesn’t like anyone to be more capable than her, not even her own brother!

“Can you imagine?” Lin chengye gritted his teeth and said, “in a year, she rejected more than 70 of my Board of Directors’ proposals. That’s one thing, but what’s more, she deliberately dated a little boyfriend!

“She threatened me with this little boyfriend. If I didn’t listen to her, she would marry him and let him join the Board of Directors. At that time, she would heartlessly take away half of my family and company’s assets!

“But in reality, she has no feelings for that little man at all. She would rather sacrifice her own happiness to go against me. Tell me, How can I swallow this?”

“So ... You wanted to use the seven Star hanging coffin to kill Lin chaofeng?” Zhao Yu asked.

“Of course, of course ...” Lin chengye was so angry that he was at a loss for what to do. He took out another cigarette and lit it up. He said in a slightly sickly tone, “everyone knows that my sister and I are at odds!” Yue Yongnian must have understood my resentment long ago, so he schemed to use me. Perhaps ... His initial purpose of getting close to me was to get the seven stars hanging coffin!”

“Then ... How did he trick you?” Zhao Yu was curious.

“This time, I can finally talk about my blue and white porcelain!” Lin chengye trembled as he took a few puffs of his cigarette and said, “it was one day more than ten months ago. My granddaughter was playing in my study room. Then, I heard a bang and saw my granddaughter run away.

“When I went in to take a look, my blue and white porcelain had already been broken!”

His granddaughter ...

Zhao Yu looked at Lin Chengye and remembered that he was ten years younger than Lin Chaofeng. He was already fifty-six years old! However, this vice-chairman Lin was dressed so young that he looked like he was only in his forties.

It seemed like ... This guy paid a lot of attention to his health ...

"I'm fine! I dote on my granddaughter the most. What's the big deal if the blue and white porcelain is broken?" Lin Chengye said smugly, "as long as my granddaughter is fine, I didn't pursue this matter anymore. I also didn't ask her in detail how she broke it."

"But, something strange happened," Lin Chengye frowned and said. "When I was cleaning up the broken blue and white porcelain, I suddenly found that there was a hollow interlayer, and there was something like sheepskin or leather in the interlayer ..."

What the ...

Zhao Yu had never thought that things would be so strange. He immediately held his breath and listened carefully.

"That thing looks like a very ancient thing. I opened it and saw ... Um ..." Lin Chengye pulled at his pockets, as if he was looking for his mobile phone. But, he couldn't find it after a long time. He had to continue to tell Zhao Yu, "there was a picture of the Big Dipper on it, as well as a picture of a coffin and a cliff. At the bottom, there were some words written in ancient seal script, as well as many symbols that I couldn't understand ..."

"Um ... I dropped my phone," he said. "There's a picture on my phone, and it's still in my house!"

"I finally understand now that the pictures are all fake! But at that time ... At that time, the feeling was very strange, yes ... Very strange, or ... The kind of excitement. Officer, you should understand, right?"

"En!" Zhao Yu nodded. Of course, he understood that feeling. Thinking back to the time when he found the Golden Buddha treasure, he had a similar feeling.

"At that time, Yue Yongnian had almost become my personal Fengshui master," Lin Chengye continued. "So, when I obtained this mysterious ancient scroll, I immediately looked for him and asked him to help me appraise it!"

"When Yue Yongnian saw it, he was equally shocked. He kept asking me how I got it, so I told him the truth! And then ...

"After he carefully compared it with the ancient book, he finally told me that the information written on the sheepskin scroll turned out to be related to the secret technique of the seven stars hanging coffins in Wuqing mountain!"

"Of course, he said it in a very mysterious way. There are many things I can't learn ..." Lin Chengye said. "Things like the Big Dipper scale, evil secret formation, and so on."

"All in all, this ancient scroll is enough to prove that the seven Star hanging coffins in Wuqing mountain are an evil formation left behind from the ancient times. If these hanging coffins are used well, we can realize the legendary victory loathing technique. Even if we are thousands of miles away, we can still kill people!”

Oh ...

Zhao Yu finally understood that Yue Yongnian had used such a method to confuse Lin chengye.

“I was also F * cking possessed,” Lin chengye said, annoyed.”I completely believed it without any doubt.”

“Yue Yongnian said that the seven Star hanging coffins are the highest-level magical equipment in Gu Yue. If the king wanted to kill an enemy, he would kill his own slave and place the corpse and the enemy’s birth characters in the coffin. Then, he would cover the coffin with a spell and the enemy would die suddenly within 49 days.

“Hehe ...” Lin chengye smiled helplessly.”I still don’t understand why I believed in such an evil thing.”

“Perhaps, I’m too resentful of wanting to kill my sister!” Lin chengye said,”after I took the item back, I didn’t think much before I made the decision to use the victory loathing technique on my sister and kill her!

“I was thinking that since the victory loathing technique isn’t against the law, if I could get rid of my sister without anyone knowing, I would be able to achieve my Grand goals and no longer be threatened by her!

“Of course, I don’t know how to chant incantations. I can’t do it alone, so I can only seek master Yue’s help!

“So, I found him and told him my idea. I also promised him a generous reward ...” At this point, Lin chengye gritted his teeth and continued,”at first, that grandson pretended to be serious and rejected me. He said that doing harm to others would damage his career and would shorten his life.

“Now that I think about it, he might be so happy to see that I’ve taken the bait! ‘How despicable ...’

“I’m also F * cking cheap. He rejected me three times, but the more he rejected me, the more I was obsessed with it, and the more I believed that it was true that I took the thing!” Lin chengye said,”in the end, when I promised him that I would pay him 100 million as a reward if the matter was successful, he finally showed his interest ...”

Chapter 1220: everything is ready except for the corpse

At this moment, the sun was about to set. The afterglow of the evening poured on the huge yacht, forming a golden ink painting, which was beautiful.

Below the boat, many people had gathered to watch the fun. Except for a few people who took out their mobile phones to call the police, the others were all using their mobile phones to take pictures or send small videos ...

“Hehehe ... Hehehe ...” The man in the swimming pool on the deck had already jumped into the pool and was playing with the beautiful women. He even shouted in a self-indulgent manner,”don’t wake me up, don’t disturb me, let me have fun ... Hehehehe ...”

Unexpectedly, the beautiful women invited by Lin chengye were also quite interesting. The boat was already in this state, but they did not seem to be in a hurry at all. They actually coaxed the uncle and played with him. They splashed water and laughed ...

Looking at this harmonious scene, Lin chengye smiled and continued,”

“After he finally agreed to help me with this matter, Yue Yongnian began to plan for me.” Lin chengye said,”he took the parchment and searched through the ancient books. He studied it for more than half a month before he gave me a clear answer!

“He’s really patient, but now it seems like he’s just putting on a show to lure me in.

“When he gave me a reply, he said that the most difficult part of the seven stars hanging coffins was to find the bodies.” Lin chengye continued,”because my sister is a woman, she has to use the bodies of underage girls to cultivate her evil spirit to succeed!”

“He doesn’t care about the cause of death. As long as it’s someone who died a violent death or suffered from an illness, he doesn’t care.

“In other words, we need the bodies of seven underage women to cast the victory loathing technique on my sister.

“But you might not know this, but Fu Lai advocates cremation, especially for minors who have died young. No matter how poor the family is, they won’t sell the body of the child! Therefore, money could not buy it at all.

“Master Yue also told me that it’s best not to freeze the corpse. That would reduce the effect of cultivating fiend. So, I can’t go to a place that’s especially far away to get a corpse!

“There’s no corpse, so there’s no point in saying anything!” Lin chengye said helplessly,”but Yue Yongnian had already planned everything for me. He saw that I was really anxious, so he quietly told me that he had a way to get the corpse!

“When I heard that he had a way, I immediately perked up and asked.

“He said that he knows some people who specialize in netherworld marriage. Perhaps they have a way to get the corpse. However, because the corpses needed to be of young girls, it required some luck. Moreover, it had to be done one by one to catch up.

“Of course, he didn’t forget to remind me that because reselling corpses is illegal, the price of corpses will be higher! The younger the corpse, the higher the price!

“At that time, I was already possessed by the devil, so I told him straightforwardly that I didn’t lack money and that buying a few corpses was nothing.

“Yue Yongnian nodded in satisfaction, and then told me about the second problem, which is how to put the bodies into the hanging coffins after they are obtained!”

Oh ...

Hearing this, Zhao Yu seemed to have understood something and listened even more seriously.

“The cliff of the seven stars hanging coffins is inclined inward. There is no way to climb it, and the height is so high, so it is very difficult,” Lin chengye said. “The most important thing is that we can’t see the light of day, so we can’t do it openly in the day. We can only choose to do it at night.

“Therefore, we can only use the most secure and safest method!

“Regarding this, master Yue has already thought of it for me!” Lin chengye said, “the method is to use boats and ladders to solve it!

“He asked me to prepare a cargo ship that often sailed through the white sand River, then buy a special version of the ladder truck to increase the height of the ladder to 40 meters. In this way, we can easily go to the hanging coffins!”

“Then ...” Zhao Yu interrupted and asked, “there are no nails on the hanging coffins, so people who don’t know the inside story can’t open them at all. About this ...”

“This is not my problem. Yue Yongnian said that the correct method to open the hanging coffins is written on the ancient sheepskin scroll,” Lin chengye said. “But I think he must have known about it in advance through some channels, right?”

“In the whole plan, there was only one thing that exceeded his expectations, and that was the shallow water of the white sand River, and the heavy ladder truck. If it got on the ship, it would cause the cargo ship to be severely hit by water, and it would be stranded after a few Shoals!

“But, I grew up on a ship, so this problem is not difficult for me,” Lin chengye said proudly. “I installed a diving device on the cargo ship, so the cargo ship can increase its buoyancy and improve!

“Just like that, all the problems were solved. I’ve brought my sister’s birth characters from home, and Yue Yongnian has also prepared rainbow-colored clothes for those female corpses. Everything is ready, all that’s left is a corpse!

“If you want to say ...” At this time, Lin chengye’s eyes suddenly dimmed and he lowered his head, “if I didn’t have any hesitation at that time, of course it would be fake! Lin chaofeng is my sister, not an outsider. If she dies, I’ll ... I’ll ...”

Lin chengye didn’t know what to say, so he took two puffs of his cigarette and said after a long time, “However, no matter how much I struggled in my heart, I still didn’t turn back ...

“Officer, to be honest, even now, although I failed, I don’t feel regretful ... When I think of what my sister did to me, I won’t have any more hesitation!”

“So, we’re just going to start like this?” Zhao Yu asked again.

“Yeah, it’s starting just like that!” Lin chengye recalled, “not long after that, Yue Yongnian called me and told me that the first corpse had arrived. He asked me to transfer three million Yuan over.”

“3 million is indeed expensive, but it’s nothing to me!” Lin chengye snuffed out his second cigarette and said, “I called him immediately.” On the day he transferred the money, he informed me to take action in advance and asked me to drive the cargo ship that I had prepared to the seven stars hanging coffins.

“It was the first time. It was very nervous and strange. After all, it was a hanging coffin!” Lin chengye said, “my hometown is in Songzhou, so I know the seven Star hanging coffins very well. When I was young, I heard my grandparents talk a lot about the strange things about the hanging coffins!

“However, no matter what my mood is, the plan is going very smoothly. For safety’s sake, I didn’t bring anyone with me. I only helped them sail the ship!

“Setting up the scaling ladder, opening the coffins, and placing the corpses ... It was all Yue Yongnian’s men who were busy ...”

“That can’t be right, where are the Marine Police?” Zhao Yu asked, “in order to cover up your tracks, you didn’t let any passing ships know, and even pretended to be Marine Police to intercept them. Wasn’t that your doing?”

“Oh, right, right, right ... I would have forgotten if you didn’t mention it!” Lin chengye hurriedly nodded. “That was also done by Yue Yongnian’s men. They blocked the two sides of the seven stars hanging coffin to prevent any ships from coming over.”

“However, the first body was released smoothly. No other cargo ships passed by.” Lin chengye said, “the opening of the coffin was also quite smooth. There was nothing in the hanging coffin.”

“After Yue Yongnian and the rest put the bodies away, they made me kneel and pray while he performed the ritual at the side. After the ritual was completed, he asked me to stuff my sister’s birth characters into the corpse’s clothes and then cover the coffin. That was it!”
