Chapter 1261: I want to be alone

“What ... What is going on?”

Everyone was shocked when they saw the news on their phones. No one expected that the Huayun mountain massacre case would have such a major turning point at this time!

Someone actually turned himself in?

This ...

Zhao Yu couldn't help but feel a wave of regret, because, ever since the Kun Qian hexagram had ended, the system had been frozen for 72 hours. Logically speaking, he should be able to open a new hexagram.

However, because the case of the hanging coffins had just been solved, Zhao Yu felt that there was no need to open them, so he had not opened them yet. However, he did not expect the Huayun mountain massacre case to appear so suddenly.

As the news had been broadcasted for a long time, when Zhao Yu and the others watched it again, it had already ended.

“It's okay, it's okay ...” Zeng ke quickly pressed a button on the tablet and said, “this software can replay it. Watch it again!”

Bang ...

Before Zeng ke could finish, the office door was knocked open by a figure in a hurry. Miao Ying rushed in and shouted at Zhao Yu,

“Zhao Yu, did you see that?”

“I see it ... What's going on ... Why is it so sudden?” Zhao Yu said helplessly, “it's already on TV, but we didn't receive any news! The local police are really something!”

“It's useless to say all this now!” Miao Ying asked, “did you hear about you in the news?”

“Ah? Why ... Why am I also here?” Zhao Yu was confused.

“The suspect who turned himself in said that it was because of you that they finally chose to turn themselves in!” Miao Ying said, “didn't you see? The hanging coffins case was the catalyst, and although you didn't do anything, you still made a great contribution to solving the case!”

“What ... What did you say?” Zhao Yu scratched his head, feeling that Miao Ying's words were a little profound and difficult to understand.

“It's really ... It's really because of our detective Zhao, the unsolved case master! “Hehe ...” Ran Tao was excited. He waved his fist and said proudly, “boss, do you still remember what I said before?”

“What did I say? Does it mean that after you become famous, maybe one day the real murderer of the Huayun mountain massacre case will come forward to surrender, and you don't even need to catch him?”

“F * ck ... This is the rhythm of a clairvoyant!”

Zhao Yu was still in a mess, but he felt a little light.

“I got it ...” Zeng ke raised the tablet high and said, “let’s watch it again ...”

In the next second, the screen suddenly replayed the news from earlier.

“Ah ... Hero, please accompany me in my dreams ...”

Just as Zhao Yu was about to take a good look at the news, his phone suddenly rang. It was a call from his Contact Officer, Chen Zhuo.

Zhao Yu looked at the computer screen, then at his phone. Finally, he walked to the side and answered the call.

“Team leader Zhao, congratulations!” “You’re so amazing that we can’t even describe it with words. Division Chief Jiao even said that Zhao Yu broke the two of them!” Chen Zhuo congratulated him as soon as the call connected.

“Mm ... This ... This ...” Although Zhao Yu was still in a daze, he responded instinctively, “same to you!”

“You should have seen the news, right? The murderer of the Huayun mountain massacre case actually turned himself in after seeing the news about you solving the hanging coffins case!” Chen Zhuo said excitedly, “do you know? The official report in Fulai province didn’t even mention that you’re going to solve the Huayun mountain case!”

“Mm ... Mm ...” Zhao Yu mumbled for a long time, then finally compromised and asked, “what do you mean?”

“Don’t you understand what I mean, master detective?” Chen Zhuo laughed loudly. “What I mean is that you, great detective Zhao, have already become famous and shocked China!

“You’re really the most awesome detective I’ve ever seen! Think about it, who could be so awesome that the criminal would take the initiative to confess when he heard that you were here to investigate?”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu nodded. “I see, hehe ... Hehe ...”

Zhao Yu’s laughter was obviously a little dry.

“Alright, let’s get down to business!” Chen Zhuo saw that Zhao Yu didn’t have much of a reaction, so he said, “Division Chief Jiao knows that you have been studying the Huayun mountain case for a long time, so when she received the report, she immediately applied for an inspection order for you!

“Now, you and your team members can make a trip to Huayun mountain to monitor the trial work of the case. Hmm...See if there are any omissions or doubts!”

“Okay, okay!” Zhao Yu snapped his fingers. “Well done! Even if there was no supervision order, I must go and take a look!”

“Alright!” “About the hanging coffins case,” Chen Zhuo said. “Leave someone to hand over the case to the Fulai Provincial Office.” As for the follow-up matters, let them handle them!

“Also, although it’s an inspection, it also needs a complete report!” Chen Zhuo then said, “after all, the Huayun mountain massacre case is a major National case. Our Criminal Division is the main department in charge of it. Naturally, we have to close the case well!”

“Understood!” Zhao Yu nodded and hung up the phone.

For some reason, after he hung up the phone, his previous excitement was swept away. He suddenly had a complicated feeling. This feeling was not only suspicious of the case, but also a faint sense of loss.

Yes ...

This timing ... Was indeed a bit coincidental. Although the murderer had come forward to turn himself in, could there be ... Another secret?

In addition, although the Huayun mountain massacre case had not been solved yet, he had put in a lot of effort and done his homework.

He thought that they would have to go through a difficult investigation, like the headless female corpses case or the devil case, before they could be solved!

However, he did not expect that it would come so suddenly that he was not prepared at all.

“Boss, boss ...” Cui Lizhu saw Zhao Yu put down the phone, so she ran over to celebrate. “That’s true!” You’re really a great detective whose name will shake the universe and will never be heard of again!”

“Yeah, yeah!” Ran Tao echoed excitedly, “the Huayun mountain massacre case is extremely tragic. Even if the murderer turns himself in, I’m afraid he will not be able to escape the death penalty!”

“But even so, they still came forward to surrender themselves. This is simply heaven-defying! The murderer admitted that it was because of you, because you’ve solved so many cold cases in a row, that they decided to turn themselves in because they thought they had nowhere to run ...”

“There are three murderers in total,” Miao Ying said to Zhao Yu. “The local police have compared their fingerprints and confirmed that their fingerprints were the same as the fingerprints left at the scene that year ...”

“Also, they took out the necklace that they took from the victim that year. I think this time, it should be the same. Mm ... Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu ... Are you okay?”

As she spoke, Miao Ying suddenly saw Zhao Yu’s strange expression and asked with concern.

“I think it’s because happiness came too suddenly that boss is a little slow to react. “Hahaha ...” Ran Tao said.

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu raised his head and said to everyone seriously, “Meow Meow ... Everyone! Do me a favor and help me entertain the guests at tonight’s dinner! I’m not going!”

“Oh? Why?” Everyone was puzzled.

“There’s no reason. I just want some peace and quiet!” Zhao Yu said solemnly, “listen to my orders. You guys go ahead ...”

“What? Jingjing?” Cui Lizhu laughed and said, “who is Jingjing? Why would he miss her? Aren’t you afraid that my sister Miao will get jealous?”

However, after Cui Lizhu finished speaking, she found that no one responded, and the scene was obviously a little awkward.

“Mm ... I understand! I know what to do!” In the end, Miao Ying was the most understanding. She patted Zhao Yu’s shoulder and said, “leave the dinner to us! You’re too tired, my dear. Have a good rest ...”

Chapter 1262: Torrential rain (1)

In a room of a luxury hotel in Fu Lai city.

Zhao Yu poured himself a glass of red wine, and as he sipped, he flipped through the information in the yellow notebook.

Even though he had already memorized the information, he still read it very seriously.

What Zhao Yu was looking at was naturally related to the Huayun mountain massacre case.

On a rainy night nine years ago, a disaster befell a mansion in the Huayun Mountain Villa area.

Ji Kai, the senior engineering designer of Huayun mountain Science and Technology Park, had his family of four murdered in their own home. In addition to Ji Kai and his young wife, there was also their son and daughter. The son was eight years old and the daughter was only five years old!

As soon as the murder case came out, it immediately caused a sensation throughout the country and attracted a high level of attention from the people. The murderer’s cruelty was outrageous, and the nature of the case was very bad. The police immediately put in all their manpower to investigate.

Originally, the neighborhood was equipped with strict surveillance equipment, and the murderer’s fingerprints and footprints were left at the crime scene. Logically speaking, the case should not be difficult to solve.

But unfortunately, the heavy rain on the night of the crime changed everything.

The heavy rain was one that had not been seen in Huayun mountain for decades.

The storm not only caused a power outage in the community, but also disabled all the monitoring equipment. It also destroyed a large amount of outdoor evidence, making it impossible for the police to determine the escape route of the murderer.

It was also because of that storm that the police could not find a single witness, which increased the difficulty of the investigation.

The police had no choice but to resort to human wave tactics. They deployed their forces to search every house in the nearby villages and towns, looking for suspicious targets and comparing their fingerprints.

But in the end, it was all in vain.

Such a vicious case naturally attracted the attention of the central Criminal Division. For nine years, it had been listed as one of the five major unsolved cases, and the investigation had never stopped.

However, the strange thing was that the murderer had disappeared without a trace and never surfaced again.

According to the traces at the scene, the police determined that there were at least three criminals at the scene. Judging from the footprints, the height of the three people was between 1.7 to 1.8 meters.

In addition, the police also judged from the messy traces at the scene that the murderers were very panicked when they committed the crime, so it should be the first time they committed a crime and they did not plan carefully.

Secondly, the police also found obvious signs of prying open the windows on the second floor of the villa, and there were footprints and water stains inside the window area. They suspected that the robbers had broken into the villa through the window.

In addition, there were traces of rummaging in many rooms of the villa, so it was suspected that the robbers were here to steal.

In addition, according to the investigation, it was close to the end of the year. Ji Kai's family had originally wanted to visit his parents in Xiakou that night. The family of four had already driven out of the villa, but because the rain was too heavy, they were worried about danger and decided to return to the villa at the last minute.

Therefore, from the very beginning, all the criminal investigation experts, including Captain Jin, had agreed that the Huayun mountain massacre was likely to have been caused by an accident.

Perhaps the robbers had sneaked into the villa just to steal some property, but they had not expected Ji Kai's family to suddenly return and bump into them.

As a result, the two sides had a dispute. The robbers were worried that Ji Kai would recognize them, so they killed him and his family cruelly!

Hua Hua ...

Hua Hua ...

He didn't know if it was a coincidence or if it was just for the occasion.

Just as Zhao Yu was looking through the information, it suddenly started to rain outside the window!

Although the rain wasn't heavy, it reminded Zhao Yu of the heavy rain that had occurred on the night of the Huayun mountain tragedy.

Everything seemed to be predestined.

If it wasn't for the storm, perhaps the robbers wouldn't have tried to steal. Without that storm, Ji Kai's family would not have returned halfway and would not have suffered a calamity. At least the police could lock onto the murderer without the storm. And maybe, there weren't that many 'maybe's in the world ...

Zhao Yu held his wine glass, stood up, and walked to the floor-to-ceiling window. Through the window, he could see that the long Street outside the hotel was already covered in rain!

Under the streetlights, where the light could shine, clear lines of rain could be seen. They were like a string of sharp arrows, falling on the road and causing water to splash ...

Gulp ...

Zhao Yu took a sip of his wine and recalled all the memories he had about the Huayun mountain massacre case.

When he had first obtained the yellow notebook and decided to solve the five major pending cases, Zhao Yu had been very concerned about this family massacre case.

If it weren't for the fact that the other cold cases were old, he would definitely investigate this case first.

Later on, after he had solved other unsolved cases, Zhao Yu was even more determined to solve the case. He even had a lingering obsession, so he wanted to solve the case as soon as possible, catch those brutal murderers, and bring them to justice!

And it was after those experiences that Zhao Yu's view of the Huayun mountain case had changed. He started to wonder if there were any other possibilities regarding the truth of the case.

Could there be another reason for the murderer to ruthlessly exterminate Ji Kai's family? What if ... The murderer deliberately disguised it as an attempted theft and an accidental murder?

Although Ji Kai's personal resume looked very simple, was there any hidden secret behind his gorgeous identity? And that secret was the real cause of the tragedy?

Hua Hua ...

At this time, the rain outside the window was getting heavier and heavier. Even through the window, Zhao Yu could feel the cold and wet air blowing against his face.

Al!

Zhao Yu sighed, then turned on his phone again and read the latest information that the Huayun Mountain Police had sent to him.

Unexpectedly, after the three murderers turned themselves in, Zhao Yu's previous conjectures were completely overturned!

According to the statements of the three murderers, there was no problem with the police's judgment. Their original purpose was to steal!

15 kilometers away from the Huayun Mountain Villa area, there was a remote mountain village called Cemetery village.

MA Liqun, Gong peiwang, and MA juncai were all villagers of the village.

At that time, even though they were both young men in their early 20s, they had already married and had their own wives and children.

The village wasn't rich to begin with, and there was a disaster that year. Forced by their livelihood, the three of them decided to go out and work to make up for their family expenses.

The three of them went to Xiakou and worked at a construction site for more than half a year. They could have earned a considerable amount of salary.

However, he never expected that the construction company would suddenly go bankrupt, and the foreman would run away for money.

Not only did the three of them not earn anything, but they had also spent all their savings! In the end, they had to borrow the tickets from other workers to go home.

Originally, they did not plan to go home. However, seeing that the new year was approaching and that they were thinking about their wife and children at home, they had no choice but to bite the bullet and board the return train.

On the train, when they saw the other workers' happy and jubilant expressions, the three of them felt more depressed and aggrieved ...

For half a year, they had been scrimping and living frugally. Almost every meal they had was porridge and steamed buns. But in the end, this was the result they had gotten in exchange. Naturally, they felt very uncomfortable.

In the end, it was the older MA Liqun who first suggested to "earn some money" before going home. And this idea immediately received the approval of the other two ...

Chapter 1263: Torrential rain (2)

As for how to "get the money", although the three of them did not say it, they had a tacit understanding that their target was Huayun mountain!

That was because Huayun mountain was building a new technology Park at that time. It attracted many rich people and businessmen to invest in it. They felt that Huayun mountain was the best place to make money!

However, when they made their decision, they had already passed the train station and did not get off at Huayun mountain station. Instead, he got off at the next stop.

In fact, they were already very close to their village when they got off at that stop. If the three of them had chosen to go home at that time, perhaps they would not have lost control of their sins.

However, there were some things that could not be said. The three of them did not mention going home. They still walked in the direction of Huayun mountain.

According to MA juncai's confession, he only had one thought in his mind at the time, which was to get some money no matter what. Even if he could buy a decent toy for the child, he would feel a sense of balance ...

Hence, they walked back to Huayun mountain!

The three of them grew up in the local mountains. They did not have money to take a bus, so they had to take a shortcut in the mountains to come to Huayun mountain. This was also the reason why the police had been unable to find the suspect's background.

When the three of them arrived at Huayun mountain, it was already drizzling. At that time, they didn't have a plan or a goal, so they were very confused.

It wasn't until they had crossed the mountain and found a small cave to take shelter from the rain that they finally had an idea.

The cave they were hiding in was right next to the Huayun Mountain Villa estate, and they could clearly see the movements of the several villas.

After dark, they also noticed that the lights of the villa closest to them had been turned off, and a small car drove out of the villa.

Seeing this, the three of them couldn't help but feel a burst of joy, thinking that this was the best time for a break-in.

Therefore, after observing for a while, the three of them decided to take action and carefully walked down the mountain.

However, at that time, the rain became heavier and heavier, gradually turning from heavy rain to a storm.

When they went down the mountain again and were about to climb over the fence, they found that the entire neighborhood had been cut off and it was dark all around!

At that time, the three of them didn't think about anything else. After climbing over the fence and entering the community, they climbed directly up the villa, pried open a window on the second floor, and sneaked into the house.

Although the infiltration was very successful, the three of them had no experience in stealing. After entering the house, they began to search randomly, leaving a large number of footprints and fingerprints ...

At that time, they did find some items, but they didn't know if they were worth anything. Among them, the starving Gong peiwang even ate the food in the kitchen.

Just like that, the three of them rummaged through the boxes and cabinets, but apart from a few dollars of change, they found almost nothing of value.

However, the more they couldn't find it, the more they didn't give up and continued to search ...

And at that time, an accident finally happened!

The three of them could never have imagined that the male host's family would actually return!

MA Liqun said that he had heard the sound of a car, but he did not expect it to be the husband's family.

Later, it was only when Ji Kai opened the door with his key and the family entered the house to talk that the three of them realized that something was wrong!

At that time, if they had escaped quickly, perhaps the subsequent events would not have happened ...

Unfortunately, the three of them had no experience. When they saw that they were blocked in the house, they immediately panicked ...

According to Gong peiwang, when they found someone in the house, Ji Kai's family was shocked, especially Ji Kai's wife, who immediately shouted!

In the end, when she shouted, MA juncai, who was in the kitchen, immediately rushed over and pushed the female owner down!

Seeing that the situation was critical, they all rushed forward and started fighting with Ji Kai's family. In the chaos, Gong peiwang realized that the brothers MA juncai and MA Liqun were all holding knives!

At that time, the power was off in the house, and it was pitch black. At first, the male owner's family was still screaming, but not long after, their roars became hoarse, and then, only powerless moans were left ...

They knew very well that there were children among the people they had pounced on, but ... In that chaotic situation, they had completely lost their rationality and humanity, and still ruthlessly swung their butcher's knives ...

According to Gong peiwang, if ... They had turned around and ran away, the man's family wouldn't have been able to catch up to them! If their mistress had not screamed, they might not have rushed up to her. If the male owner had quickly opened the door and left when he saw that something was wrong in the house, perhaps such a miserable thing would not have happened ...

However, there weren't that many 'ifs' in the world, and yet, the tragedy of a family being exterminated still happened!

After the incident, when the three of them found out that they had killed someone, they were all paralyzed with fear. They couldn't care about anything else and quickly returned to the second floor and escaped from the window they had come from!

They even left the murder weapon at the scene ...

At that time, it was raining cats and dogs outside. The three of them did not know where to go and could only plunge into the mountains! MA juncai said that he even wanted to find a cliff and jump off. He didn't want to live anymore ...

After that, the three of them ran far away in one breath. They didn't dare to return home or go to the place where they worked. They were like walking corpses for a few days. Their clothes were torn, their shoes were torn, and they were almost like beggars ...

Just like that, they walked for a long time and finally settled down in Weizhou city, which was located at the junction of Guangzhou and Fulai.

After several days of running, the three of them gradually calmed down and began to discuss their future plans.

Ma Jun wanted to turn himself in, but when he thought of his wife and child, he couldn't bear to.

In the end, the three of them decided to call home and lie that they had received a good job and couldn't go home for the new year. They had to calm their family down first.

After that, he would find a job in Weizhou.

They knew very well that even if they turned themselves in, they would not be able to escape death. They might as well wait for the police to arrest them!

At that time, the three of them had no doubt that the police would find them in a few days and handcuff them!

However, after they settled down in Weizhou and found a job, this kind of thing didn't happen.

Not long after, the news of the Huayun mountain massacre was broadcasted and became the topic of discussion on the streets. Only then did the three of them know that the person they had killed was an elite scientist with unlimited potential! Only then did he know that the victim's family was not spared. The son was eight years old, and the daughter was only five years old ...

When they were explaining the case, the three of them unanimously expressed that when they heard the news, they felt very upset and very regretful ...

In this case, they had only stolen 20 yuan and a necklace from the female owner, but they had cruelly killed a family of four. They were really ashamed and deeply guilty ...

Therefore, in the next nine years, although the three of them gradually stabilized their jobs and their living conditions improved, they were still under great pressure and mental torture. They had never felt relaxed or happy for a day ...

Chapter 1264: release and loss

In the past nine years, the three people who had committed the shocking crime had been living in Weizhou.

MA Liqun had opened a mobile phone shop in Weizhou. Although business wasn't very good, he had no problem making a living.

Gong peiwang worked in an electric cable Factory, and his wife worked in a pharmaceutical factory.

Ma Jun was the only one who was doing well among the three. He had set up a domestic service company and was doing well. His annual income was about 100000 Yuan.

The three of them brought their families to Weizhou. Not only did their children go to school in Weizhou, but MA juncai and Gong peiwang also had a second child ...

On the surface, the three of them were living the lives of ordinary people. Although they were not very rich, they lived a decent life.

However, under their normal appearance, the three of them were living in extreme pain and suffering from mental pressure.

That stormy night on Huayun mountain had become an Eternal Nightmare. It had taken root in the hearts of the three of them and could not be removed.

Although they were alive every day, the three of them felt like they had become empty shells of The Walking Dead. They lived their days in fear and guilt, never knowing what happiness was.

The smiles on the three people's faces seemed to be cursed. In the past nine years, their family had never seen them smile sincerely, nor had they ever seen their brows relax in relief ...

Under such a strong mental pressure, the three of them looked old despite their young age. MA Liquan had long lost his hair. Gong peiwang had hair, but it was all white. MA juncai was so thin and weak that he looked like a candle in the wind ...

According to the three of them, one of the things they usually did was to buy sleeping pills. Without sleeping pills, they would not be able to sleep at all!

The three of them often drank together to drown their sorrows, but at the table, no one spoke. It was truly "drowning" in their sorrows ...

In addition, they had committed such a heinous crime, and they knew that the police would not let their guard down for even a day. So, they were constantly worried that the police would suddenly rush in and handcuff them!

For so many years, they paid the most attention to legal programs. Whenever they saw old cases being solved by the police or news of criminals who had been on the run for many years being caught by the police, they would feel very upset.

They always had the illusion that the people in handcuffs on TV were themselves ...

In such a state of panic, as the headless female corpses case, the dismembered body case, the devil case, and the rural cooperatives homicide case were solved one after another, the psychological state of the three people became more and more serious!

Especially after they learned that three of the unsolved cases had been solved by Zhao Yu, the master of solving unsolved cases, in a short period of time. This made things worse for the three of them. They couldn't eat or drink every day, and they were restless, no longer in the mood to do anything else.

During this period, MA juncai and Gong peiwang were admitted to the hospital one after another, and their minds were on the verge of breaking down and losing control ...

Under such heavy pressure, the three of them already had the thought of turning themselves in. Now, Hua Yunshan was the only one left of the five major unsolved cases. They felt that the probability of them being lucky enough to escape was almost zero. There was no escape!

At this time, the hanging coffin case suddenly appeared. When the three people learned that the detective working on the hanging coffin case was the famous unsolved case master, Zhao Yu, they were extremely nervous.

As a result, in less than a week, the hanging coffins case was declared to be solved, which undoubtedly crushed the last straw of hope for the three of them.

They had already determined that, after Zhao Yu solved the hanging coffin case, he would never let go of the Huayun mountain massacre case!

And this case, as long as Zhao Yu handled it, they would have nowhere to run.

The three of them had read the details of the headless female corpses case and the devil case, so they knew that there was a huge difference between them and criminals like Li Fei and Han Kuan.

Even such a person couldn't defeat the Super detective Zhao Yu, let alone the three of them.

Therefore, after a strong mental struggle, the three of them unanimously decided:

Instead of waiting to be caught, why not come out and surrender?

Of course, the three of them had also clearly stated that detective Zhao's fame was only an incentive for them to turn themselves in!

They had chosen to turn themselves in mostly because of the guilt they had felt for so many years. They no longer wanted to live in fear, anxiety, and emptiness!

Therefore, turning himself in was also a form of release ...

Swoosh ...

Just as Zhao Yu was looking through the information, there was a sudden clap of thunder outside the window, and the rain suddenly became heavier.

Zhao Yu took a sip of red wine and muttered in his heart, "will there be a storm tonight as well?"

She wondered if this storm was a special Memorial for Ji Kai's family.

Zhao Yu could be considered a veteran detective. After looking at the murderer's account of the entire case, he could basically judge that the case was true!

This case was different from the major unsolved cases he had solved before. Although the nature of the case was bad, it was not as complicated as the other cases.

There shouldn't be any framing, deception, or other human factors involved.

Hence, with the three of them turning themselves in, the Huayun mountain massacre case could be declared closed!

From today on, the yellow notebook in his hand would officially become a historical relic. The five checkboxes on the front page represented that the five major unsolved cases had all been closed ...

Hua Hua Hua ...

Looking at the heavy rain outside the window, Zhao Yu couldn't help but feel a little disappointed.

In fact, he had already expected this sense of disappointment. However, he did not expect it to come so quickly and affect his state of mind so greatly!

Al!

Recalling the past, ever since he became a police officer, a large part of Zhao Yu's mental journey had been inseparable from this yellow notebook.

It was through the investigation of the five major pending cases that he had become more mature and improved. If it wasn't for the yellow notebook, Zhao Yu really didn't know what he would be like now.

Be it persistence or hard work, he had been like the miracle System in his brain for a long time. He had developed a reliance on this notebook.

Now, when he realized that he could retire with his laptop, he couldn't help but feel a little reluctant to part with it. Of course, it was not the book itself that was difficult to give up, but the feelings that arose from the investigation of the five major pending cases!

Swoosh ...

There was another thunderclap, and raindrops pattered on the floor-to-ceiling window as if the whole world had been immersed in the rain ...

This rain ... Is really not light!

Zhao Yu mumbled to himself, then suddenly remembered that there was one more thing he had not done. Since the side Adventure system's freezing period had ended, shouldn't he get a hexagram?

He wondered if there would be any more high-level miracle adventure happening when the Huayun mountain case was nearing its end.

As he thought about the system's weird way of doing things, Zhao Yu couldn't help but look forward to it. He wondered if he could get any weird hexagram today.

He immediately opened the system and got a new hexagram.

In the end, the words "Zhen Li" appeared on the interface, which disappointed Zhao Yu. Boss system, you really have a personality. When I was hoping that you would play your cards unexceptionally, you actually played by the rules!

AI!

Just as Zhao Yu was feeling disappointed, the door suddenly opened, and Miao Ying, who was drenched, quickly entered the room.

"Wow ... The rain is so heavy," Miao Ying said as she quickly took off her coat. "I thought it would only be two steps and I wouldn't need an umbrella, but I'm still wet. What bad luck ..."

Looking at the wet long-legged beauty standing in front of him, Zhao Yu's eyes suddenly flashed with an insatiable slyness.

Hehehe, he thought naughtily, since the laptop made me feel down and the system didn't give me any help, then tonight ... I can only find joy on my own!

Thinking this, Zhao Yu immediately followed her and pounced on miss Miao. He said in a serious tone, "Meow Meow, don't get cold. Let me warm you up ... Hehehe ..."

Chapter 1265: Am I sick?

At around 11 a.m. The next day, on the highway from Fulai city to Huayun mountain, a Volkswagen Tiguan without police signs was speeding at high speed.

Last night's storm came quickly and left quickly. There were no traces of rain on the road.

At this moment, the scorching sun hung high in the sky and the sun was shining brightly. The temperature had also returned to above 35 degrees, giving off a scorching feeling ...

"Wow, what were you up to last night?" Miao Ying, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, was applying sunblock on herself as she complained to Zhao Yu, "I haven't seen you go crazy for a long time! Did you know that when you checked out in the morning, you had to pay the hotel more than 2000 Yuan! Even the towel was torn in half, and the people downstairs complained about us!"

"Hehehe ..." Zhao Yu was wearing a pair of reflective sunglasses. He grinned evilly, revealing his white teeth. "I'm just here to serve you well, miss Miao!" How was it? Is it comfortable?"

"Go to hell!" Miao Ying glared at him and scolded, "if you weren't in a bad mood yesterday, I wouldn't have bothered to talk to you! Can't you act like a normal person?"

"Hehehe ..." Zhao Yu didn't speak, but his lecherous smile was really annoying.

"Sigh, I think it's better to have a bigger case!" Miao Ying sighed helplessly. "You're more normal when you're solving cases! Tell me honestly, last night, did you feel particularly disappointed because the five major unsolved cases have been solved? is that why you felt uncomfortable?"

"Ah?" Zhao Yu was surprised. "You could tell? how did you guess?"

"Nonsense!" Miao Ying sighed again. "The hanging coffin case has been solved, and the murderer of the family murder case has also come forward and surrendered because of you. According to your style in the past, wouldn't you be gloating to the heavens?" But last night, you kept wanting to be alone. You wanted to be alone. That's obviously not normal!

"Besides," Miao Ying put down the sunblock and said, "I'm the same."

"Mm ..." Zhao Yu didn't expect Miao Ying to say what he was thinking. He immediately said, embarrassed, "miss Miao knows me best!"

"We knew each other from the mianling case," Miao Ying said. "Ever since we got Captain Jin's notebook, you and I ... It was like we were all under a spell! When the five major pending cases are mentioned, his eyes will open as wide as light bulbs!"

"Yes, yes!" Zhao Yu quickly said, "I don't understand it either. Now that I have a net worth of nearly a hundred million, and I have a beautiful woman like you and such an amazing father-in-law, I don't want to buy a house, a car, or show off my wealth. Instead, I'm obsessed with solving cases every day and work hard. I really don't know what's wrong with me."

"Well, it's even better now. Seeing that all five major unsolved cases have been solved, I'm not happy! Zhao Yu said gloomily, "I ... Am I f * cking crazy?" Don't tell me ... I'll only be excited when I see someone committing a crime?"

"I ... I don't know ..." Miao Ying didn't know how to answer Zhao Yu's question, so she tried to comfort him. "At least, you're wrong. Just like the Huayun mountain case, none of us wanted such a tragic thing to happen!"

"My dear!" Miao Ying gently put her hand on Zhao Yu's shoulder and said seriously, "there's nothing wrong with being stubborn. If I didn't see you working so hard to solve the case, I wouldn't have chosen you!"

"We do need to reflect on your question just now."

"I feel that we should take a good rest after the Huayun mountain incident. How did the saying go again? when you look into the abyss, the abyss is looking at you!"

"You've been through so many major cases, so in order to figure out the murderer's psychology, you'll inevitably be affected by the murderer. So, we need to relieve our emotions often!"

"Mm ... Indeed!" Zhao Yu agreed, "it's easy to recognize your enemy, but it's hard to recognize yourself! Just like the Yongjin Island murder case, I was worried that if I lost my mind and committed a major murder case, I might have lost control more than Captain Dou. "

"Understood!" Miao Ying nodded. "If not for that, you wouldn't have fought with my dad!"

"I understand. If a person can clearly realize that he has been possessed by the devil, then he is not called possessed by the devil!" Zhao Yu kissed Miao Ying's hand and said, "honey, I understand! When we come back from Huayun mountain, we won't take any cases. Let's go and relax first!"

"En!" Miao Ying nodded. "I wanted to have a good chat with you, so I asked the others to stay in Fu Lai! It's been a long time since we've come out together!"

"Alright!" Zhao Yu nodded hard and said seriously, "later, I'll find a place with no one around. Let's have some car sex ... Ouch ..."

Before Zhao Yu could finish his sentence, Miao Ying hit him on the head with one of her fingers, causing him to cry out in pain.

Huayun mountain was located in the Northwest of Fulai province. There were Endless Mountains there, and some places had not yet built a highway.

Therefore, when Zhao Yu drove to the nearby area, he had to drive off the highway and follow the mountain path, continuing to head towards Huayun mountain.

However, Zhao Yu was born on Mount Qin, so he was very familiar with driving on the mountain roads. He did not slow down at all.

In fact, there was a train that passed through Huayun mountain. However, the train was too slow. Secondly, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying wanted to relax by driving.

Therefore, they borrowed the car from the fu Lai Provincial Office and drove here.

At around 1:30 in the afternoon, they had already reached Huayun mountain. However, they were still some distance away from Huayun Mountain City.

The two of them felt hungry, so they stopped the car near the train station of a small county and randomly found a restaurant to eat.

“Yes, I understand, I understand!” While they were eating, Miao Ying was talking to Zeng ke and the others on her mobile phone. “So, let’s just hand over the evidence. As for the other things, let the local police and the Procuratorate handle them!”

“Our words and actions represent the central Criminal Division, and the Yun Hai Group has a significant influence in the local area. So, we should not comment too much on the hanging coffin case, so as not to affect their trial ...”

Miao Ying explained for a long time, and the food was getting cold, before she finally put down the phone.

“Sigh, we’re family!” Miao Ying picked up her chopsticks and sighed. “Lin chaofeng has already hired a lawyer to hand in a plea to the police, hoping to reduce Lin chengye’s charges!”

“Really, the younger brother is bent on killing the older sister, but the older sister still wants to protect the younger brother ...”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu thought for a moment, then said, “you’re right. We should just focus on solving the case. We shouldn’t get too involved in the case’s right and wrong!”

“Yes, no matter what, Lin chengye is still relatively lucky. If cui Yiwen was killed by Bai Lang, then no matter how Lin chaofeng pleaded, it would be useless!” Miao Ying said, “but, the Huayun mountain case is a completely opposite case!

“A family of four, an eight-year-old child and a five-year-old child. How could the murderer have the heart to kill them? It’s even more impossible for it to be accidental!” Miao Ying sighed indignantly. “I think that even if they turn themselves in, it won’t lighten their punishment!”

Chapter 1266: Hurry up and compensate

“Yup!” At the mention of the Huayun mountain murder case, Zhao Yu suddenly lost his appetite. “As the saying goes, one’s wife and children are not to be blamed! Besides, she has no enmity with you! This kind of behavior is really despicable!”

“Right!” Miao Ying agreed, “the knives are in their hands. From a subjective point of view, they broke into the house to steal, which is illegal in itself, and killing with a knife is even more unforgivable! Even if you turn yourself in, it’s not enough to anger the people if you don’t get the death penalty!”

As they spoke, Miao Ying put down her chopsticks. She had lost her appetite.

“This time, we have the same opinion! “Hehe ...” Zhao Yu picked up a mouthful of food, but he felt that it didn’t taste very good.

“You know what? Ji Kai had returned from studying abroad. It was very rare for him to give up the generous treatment abroad and resolutely return to the country! “And ...” Miao Ying said, “he was very accomplished in microelectronics and was selected as one of the top ten outstanding young scientists in China. At that time, he was studying a high-tech technology in Huayun mountain technology Park.

“If it wasn’t for the sudden disaster, our country’s breakthrough in this field would have been brought forward by at least a few years. The losses caused by the family extermination case are simply immeasurable!

“Also, Ji Kai’s wife was a pathology doctor, so her unfortunate death is also a pity. And ... And their child?” Miao Ying said excitedly, “if they are still alive, they must be famous talents! Those murderers were really too detestable!

“Even if they found their conscience and came out to surrender, they can’t be forgiven for their crimes!”

“Alright, I’m done!” “Don’t act on impulse. Let’s wait until we get to Huayun mountain and see the details!” Zhao Yu said, seeing that Miao Ying was a little agitated.

“I’m not eating anymore, let’s go!” Miao Ying was getting angrier and angrier as she spoke. She immediately put down her chopsticks and left her seat.

Zhao Yu didn’t really like the taste of the local food, so he left the restaurant with Miao Ying and returned to the car.

“Alright, miss Miao, please calm down!” Zhao Yu advised, “no matter what, we’re all professional investigators. We can’t just decide the nature of the case before it’s even tried, right?”

“Hmph!”

Of course, Miao Ying knew that it was wrong of her to be angry, but when she thought of the two children who had been killed, she could not calm down.

Just as Zhao Yu was about to start the car, Miao Ying suddenly waved her hand and said, “Stop! There’s no more water in the car, I’ll go buy some mineral water!”

“Oh ... Then I’ll have to get an ice-cold one! “It’s too hot today ...” Zhao Yu urged.

Just as Miao Ying got out of the car to buy some water, Zhao Yu started the car and quickly turned on the air conditioner to relieve the summer heat.

Oh, right ...

Suddenly, he remembered something, so he quickly took out his mobile phone and called Zeng ke.

“Hey, Zeng ke, don’t forget what I asked you to do,” Zhao Yu said. “I always keep my word. I can’t go back on my word.”

“Since I promised that master Zhang that I would help him write a report, I can’t go back on my word!

“Besides, you’ve seen it for yourself. If it wasn’t for his group of quacks, Bai Lang and Lin chengye wouldn’t have been so easy to deal with, right?”

“Hahaha ... Don’t worry, team leader, I’ve already finished writing it!” Zeng ke laughed and asked, “do you remember what Lin chengye said? In my opinion, the ghost Department is really something. No matter what kind of criminal you are, after seeing a ghost, you won’t have to worry about not being honest, haha ...”

“Alright! “Hurry up,” Zhao Yu said.”After you’re done with the handover, come over early to meet me and team leader Miao!”

“Alright, alright!” After Zeng ke agreed, he didn’t put down the phone, but whispered to Zhao Yu,”by the way, team leader, there’s something ... Um ... I have to thank you!” Peipei and I ... Um ...”

“Oh?” Zhao Yu enjoyed gossiping and asked,”why...That night, did you already turn raw rice into rice? Are you in the car yet? Did you feel good?”

“Um ... Well ...” Although they were on the other side of the phone, Zhao Yu could see Zeng ke’s blushing face.”Team leader ... Don’t laugh at me. I don’t have your courage!”

“That night, I went to Peipei’s room, but we just had a chat. We didn’t do anything. We just had a heart-to-heart talk ...”

“I’ll go!” Zhao Yu was depressed.”It’s such a good opportunity, but you ... You just want to chat ... I’m really impressed!”

“Well ... Peipei told me that our relationship is mainly because of her parents! She said that she would find an opportunity to discuss it with her parents!”

“Discuss my ass!” Zhao Yu roared,”I’ll lend you ten million Yuan in cash first. You can go over and throw it at her parents ‘faces, then we can get engaged immediately!”

Zeng ke was speechless.

“Don’t worry. After we get married, you can tell them that the money is mine. I’ll see if they can still be cured.” Zhao Yu said mischievously,”to deal with such snobbish people, you have to use underhanded methods! Wahahaha ...”

Zeng ke was about to collapse ...

“I’m joking, I’m just joking!” After laughing, Zhao Yu returned to normal.”Don’t worry, I’ve asked Gao to put in a good word for you! If old Gao can’t handle it, it won’t be too late to use the method I mentioned ... Hmm ... Eh? Sigh ...”

As they were talking, Zhao Yu suddenly heard a commotion outside the car. He quickly looked out and saw Miao Ying in front of a shop, arguing with someone!

“F * ck!” Zhao Yu suddenly straightened up and said to Zeng ke,”alright, Zeng ke, I have something to do. Let’s talk later. I’m hanging up!”

After hanging up the phone, he quickly opened the car door and got out.

“How is that possible?” At the entrance of the store, Miao Ying was holding a bag of mineral water in one hand and explaining to the store owner,”I don’t know if I touched your things or not.”

“Big sister, you can’t just say you didn’t find it.” The shop owner was a fat middle-aged man. He pointed to a gift box on the ground and said,”this box of eggs costs more than 200 yuan! There was no one around just now, so it couldn’t have fallen down for no reason, right?”

“Yup!” A chubby middle-aged woman next to her pointed at Miao Ying and said, “aren’t you carrying a bag? Your bag must have bumped into it ...”

“What’s going on? what’s going on?” Zhao Yu strode in front of her. Although he knew that Miao Ying would not be bullied, he still stood in front of her.

“I came out after buying mineral water,” Miao Ying said, pointing to the gift box on the ground. “The box of eggs fell on the ground for no reason, and they said I knocked it off!”

“Big sister, I was sitting outside, right? You’re the only one in the room, right?” The fat boss clapped his hands and explained, “this egg is not light. It can’t have been blown off by the wind, right?”

“Surveillance!” Miao Ying pointed at the surveillance camera at the store entrance and said, “I thought you didn’t believe me? Alright, let’s take a look at the surveillance footage and it’ll be clear!”

“Hey, can’t you see?” The fat boss said, “my camera is facing the outside. I can’t see what’s inside!”

“Huhu ...” Seeing that the fat boss was getting more and more excited, Zhao Yu quickly stopped him and laughed, “boss, it’s just a box of eggs! How much is it worth?”

“What do you mean worthless? there are eggs inside. How are you going to sell them to others after you throw them?” The shop owner said, “the purchase price of this box is 200 yuan. It’s the authentic Huayun mountain firewood eggs!”

“200, right?” Zhao Yu laughed and sat at the counter, then reached out his hand to the boss and said, “alright, 200 it is. I’ll take it. Here ... Pay up!”

“What?” The fat boss was stunned. “You ... What do you mean?”

“I say, hurry up and pay me 200 yuan, and we’ll forget about this!” Zhao Yu laughed and said, “otherwise, hehe ... It would be worth more than this!”

Chapter 1267: Let it go if you want to

“You ... Are you crazy?” The fat boss finally revealed his evil face and said fiercely, “you broke my things and want me to pay, kid! Do you know what this place is?”

Seeing the fat boss’s fierce face, Miao Ying put her hand into her pocket and wanted to show her police badge.

However, Zhao Yu was quick to react and stopped Miao Ying, signaling her not to move.

“You ...” Miao Ying frowned and whispered, “Zhao Yu, stop playing around. We still have important things to do!”

“Boss,” Zhao Yu was not the kind of person who would give up easily. He immediately pointed at the egg on the ground and said, “my wife said she didn’t touch your egg, so she really didn’t touch your egg!” And your eggs were broken. I’m afraid there’s only one reason. You did something to the box of eggs, right?

“Come on ...” Zhao Yu strode forward, took out his phone, and said, “I’ll take some pictures for you guys and expose them. Let’s see if it’s remote control or manual control ...”

“Eh?” The fat boss saw that Zhao Yu was going to turn over the place where he had put the eggs and panicked. He quickly stopped him. “You ... What do you mean? Do you dare to say that I’m a scammer? You must be tired of living!”

Seeing the fat boss reach out to stop him, Zhao Yu sneered. He was still worried that he had nowhere to vent his anger! She immediately took the opportunity to swing her arm at his face, wanting to give him a good beating!

However, Miao Ying was standing next to Zhao Yu. She knew Zhao Yu’s temperament and had noticed Zhao Yu’s actions. At that moment, as soon as she saw that Zhao Yu was about to make a move, she immediately rushed forward and grabbed Zhao Yu’s wrist.

“Zhao Yu!” Miao Ying said anxiously, “don’t ... Don’t mess around, okay? Think about your identity and all the things you’ve been through. Do you think we have the right to get physical over such a small matter?”

“Mm ...”

Only then did the fat boss notice Zhao Yu’s action. When he looked at Zhao Yu again, he was suddenly stunned by Zhao Yu’s fierce aura!

The fat woman who was helping him with his mouth in the distance also took two steps back in fear.

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu felt relieved, but after hearing Miao Ying’s dissuasion, he suppressed it.

Miao Ying was right. At this time, as the leader of the Special Investigation Group, there was no need for him to lower himself to the level of these black-hearted vendors.

Even if he were to beat the crap out of him today, it would only lower his status and not be worth it.

“Okay, okay ...” The fat boss was also intimidated by Zhao Yu’s imposing manner. He immediately pointed to the door and said, “I’m unlucky today, just count it as my bad luck, okay? You guys can go, go quickly!”

“Hmph!” Zhao Yu glared at him contemptuously, then pulled Miao Ying out of the store.

Miao Ying saw that she didn’t lose anything and didn’t want to cause any trouble, so she followed Zhao Yu out of the store and was about to get into the car. When they were some distance away from the store, she quickly whispered to Zhao Yu,

“We don’t need to do anything to deal with this kind of person! Did you forget who I had dinner with yesterday? Later, as long as he called the provincial Office to hold him accountable, he would definitely be severely punished.

“What’s the point of beating him up other than dirtying your hands?”

Zhao Yu agreed. He was now the captain of the Special Investigation Group in the criminal Division, so it would be easy for him to punish these vendors.

It really was ...

Thinking about this, Zhao Yu felt even more relieved. He used the remote control to open the car door and was about to get in.

However, just as the two of them were about to get into the car, they heard a woman's scream from afar.

"Ah ..."

The two of them looked up and saw that the sound was coming from another store in the distance.

"You! Why are you still hitting me? Is ... Is there still any law ... Wuwuwu ..."

A woman in white clothes staggered out of the store and half-knelt on the ground!

The girl was carrying a satchel with a suitcase next to her. It was obvious that she was going to the station or just coming out of the station.

Looking at the girl's age, she should still be a student.

"Why do you think I hit you?" At this moment, a burly, shirtless man walked out of the store and yelled at her arrogantly, "you broke my things and you don't want to pay me back. Who should I hit if not you?"

Upon hearing this, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying stopped in their tracks.

"I told you I didn't touch it. Why don't you believe me? "Wuwuwu ..." The girl cried. "Why do you want me to pay?" I ... I'm going to call the police! Wuwu ..."

"Report it, report it!" The man continued to curse, "look, who will the police believe when they come? I have so many witnesses here!"

"Wuwu ... Wuwu ... I ... I just came back from school. I don't have any money ... Wuwu ..."

"You don't have money?" The shirtless man smiled sinisterly. "Then leave your phone behind! Later, you can ask your family's adults to exchange for money! Give me ..."

As he spoke, he reached out to snatch the phone from the girl's hand ...

This Commercial Street was very close to the station, and there were many pedestrians coming and going. However, when the pedestrians saw this scene, most of them indifferently avoided it ...

What was even more infuriating was that the owners of the shops nearby seemed to have gotten used to it. They all leaned lazily against the door of their shops and watched with great interest, but no one came forward to persuade them ...

Zhao Yu and Miao Ying couldn't stand it anymore. They looked at each other, then Zhao Yu rushed over and grabbed the shirtless man's wrist!

"What?"

The man was shocked and tried to push him away, but Zhao Yu grabbed his other hand.

'Hmm ... Ah ...

The man's face turned red as he tried to break free, but Zhao Yu's hand was like an iron clamp, and he couldn't break free.

As the two of them were in a stalemate, Miao Ying quickly rushed into the shop and saw that the scene in the shop was exactly the same as what she had just encountered!

However, this time, it was a set of porcelain that had fallen to the ground and shattered!

"Ah ..." Miao Ying was furious. She reached out and picked up the other gifts on top of the porcelain to look at them carefully. In the end, she quickly found something fishy in the other gift box.

It turned out that there was a retractable mechanism installed on the gift box!

This mechanism could be remotely controlled. When someone passed by, the shop owner only needed to press a button, and the retractable mechanism would push the gift boxes to the ground, creating the illusion that it was a man-made collision to make money!

"Hey! "You ..." The shop owner, who was being held back by Zhao Yu, saw this and quickly shouted at Miao Ying, "what are you doing? Don't touch my things, don't move!"

At that moment, Miao Ying's anger had been completely ignited! After she rushed out of the shop, she went straight to the shop next to it. Despite the shop owner's obstruction, she also found the exact same mechanism on the stacked shelves!

"F * ck!" Zhao Yu cursed, "are your hearts made of cinders? You're blackmailing people as if you're doing business, huh?"

As he spoke, Zhao Yu increased the strength in his hand, causing the shirtless man to grimace in pain.

"Let go! Let go!" At this time, the owners and employees of the shops nearby all rushed out and shouted at Zhao Yu.

It was obvious that these people were in cahoots with each other, all in cahoots!

Seeing this, Miao Ying immediately took out her phone, ready to call the police.

"Hey!" The shop owner immediately picked up a wooden stick and yelled at her, "put down the phone. If you don't put it down, I won't be polite!"

"Good! "Well ... Originally, Miao Ying wanted to call the police first, and then show her police badge. However, when she saw how arrogant these people were, she changed her mind. She put down the phone and said, "I'll listen to you. I'll put it down!"

"But ..." As she spoke, Miao Ying's eyes revealed a trace of killing intent, which she had not seen for a long time. She warned them fiercely, "you guys ... Don't regret it!!!"

Chapter 1268: Is there any use in beating them?

Seeing the killing intent in Miao Ying's eyes, which he had not seen for a long time, Zhao Yu felt a little amused. He quickly pretended to persuade her, "Meow Meow! You have to calm down, don't let your emotions get the better of you. This is what you said. What's the point of beating up these lowlifes?"

“Beating him up is indeed not going to help!” Miao Ying glared at the guy with the wooden stick and said, “but, at least I’ll feel better after the fight!”

“Wahaha ...” In the face of so many murderous shop owners, Zhao Yu laughed wildly.

“Bah! Let’s see how capable you are!” At this time, the guy with the wooden stick looked at Miao Ying and shouted, “how dare you make trouble here? I think you’re tired of living ...”

In the end, before he could finish his sentence, he saw a long leg flash in front of his eyes. Then, he immediately felt a wonderful feeling of flying, and he was flying backward!

A second later, his back fell heavily on the refrigerator, shattering the lid. He fell to the ground and rolled a few times before vomiting blood ...

“Ah?” When the others saw Miao Ying suddenly attack, they immediately swarmed up and rushed towards Miao Ying with sticks.

Miao Ying hadn’t exercised in a long time. Seeing so many people surrounding her, not only was she not afraid, but her eyes revealed a rare excitement!

In fact, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were both carrying guns! However, why would they need to pull out their guns to deal with these ruffians?

Miao Ying was also angered by these local ruffians. She was a little angry and did not show any mercy after the fight.

She grabbed someone’s arm and used him as a shield. During the process, she kicked one person away with her back leg and knocked another person away with her shield.

After that, she placed the shield in a comfortable position, then raised her arm and chopped off his arm!

The sound of bones breaking was terrifying!

“Ah!”

The man let out a blood-curdling screech and fell to the ground, clutching his arm.

Hu ...

A wooden stick swept towards her, but Miao Ying did not even look at it. She dodged it easily, then used her tornado Thunderbolt kick to hit the attacker’s chest!

It was as if the attacker had been hit by a Cannonball. He flew backward and crashed into a group of bicycles on the side of the road, knocking down all the bicycles ...

“Ah!?”

Miao Ying’s fierce and sharp moves scared the people who were attacking him.

However, miss Miao was still in a fit of anger, and her eyes were already red from killing.

She let out a violent cry and suddenly rushed into the crowd. She displayed all her martial arts skills and immediately beat the group of people until they cried out in pain.

The most miserable one was the fat boss. Not only was he kicked in the face by Miao Ying, but such a fat man still crashed into the counter like a ball. Not only did he break the glass, but he also knocked many gifts out of the shop ...

Aiya ...

At this time, Zhao Yu's heart was beating like a drum. Not good! He suddenly realized that Miao Ying might have lost control. How could she be so heavy-handed when dealing with this motley crew?

If he continued to hit with this strength, it would not be fun if he killed someone!

No!

Zhao Yu knew that he couldn't just stand there and watch the show anymore, so he immediately raised his right hand and split open the arm of the shirtless boss in front of him. Then, he swung his pot-sized fist and hit the other party's face!

"Ah!"

啊啊啊啊.....

The shirtless boss immediately let out a pig-like howl, then covered his face and fell to the ground, rolling in pain.

"Ah!"

At this time, behind Zhao Yu, a guy holding a wooden stick came at him.

Zhao Yu didn't Dodge, but faced the stick and threw a punch at the man's chin!

The man was sent flying in the opposite direction. Zhao Yu reached out to grab the man's stick, then knocked down another man who wanted to attack him. He then turned around and kicked the man who was falling to the ground.

Thump ...

The person landed heavily right in front of the female student who had been beaten up! The female student screamed in fear, only to find that the person had long been unconscious.

Zhao Yu didn't dare to waste any time, so he quickly ran towards the people who were attacking Miao Ying.

Zhao Yu was an expert at using a stick, so he knew how to hit people with a stick without killing them, but instead, make them suffer.

Therefore, after he rushed over, he would hit everyone's knees. With every hit, someone would kneel on the ground and wail, as if they were kowtowing ...

Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were known as the evil couple. They could easily deal with those vicious and agile criminals, let alone these local ruffians.

For a moment, it was as if dark clouds were rolling outside the shop. Lightning flashed and Thunder rumbled. In less than five to six minutes, more than a dozen local ruffians had been beaten to the ground by the two of them, and they could no longer get up!

Aiya ...

Oh, oh ...

啊.....啊呜.....啊呜.....

He saw people wailing in pain around him. Some of them had their faces bloomed, some of them had their arms bent, and some of them had their knees bent into a pit.

This scene was simply shocking and tragic ...

Waa ...

The pedestrians on the road all hid far away. No one had ever seen such a tragic situation, and all of them were in shock.

Ah ...

At this time, the female student who had been extorted was also dumbfounded. She thought that she was daydreaming.

“Mm ...” At this time, Zhao Yu took the fat boss from behind the counter and pointed at his head with a wooden stick. “Boss, do you have a phone?” Can you please get more people to come over? We’ve only just warmed up, it’s really not satisfying!”

“Ah ... Ah?” The fat boss clutched his stomach in pain, his face full of fear, and his whole body trembled as if he had seen a demon.

“Hmph! You black-hearted merchants, using such despicable means to extort customers, do you still have a conscience?” Miao Ying stood up and shouted at them with righteous indignation, “not only did you fail to extort, but you also threatened and hit me! This is really too much!”

Then, Miao Ying grabbed Zhao Yu’s wooden stick, turned around, and rushed into the fat boss’s shop. She smashed the glass of the shop and many other products!

Hualalalala ...

The glass shattered and the gift boxes flew everywhere, scaring everyone into cowering with their hands behind their heads ...

Buzz ... Buzz ...

Then, with the sound of police sirens, two police cars finally arrived. Several police officers rushed out and shouted at Zhao Yu with batons, “Don’t move, don’t move!”

Da La La ...

Miao Ying threw away the stick and walked out of the store. She ignored the police and took out her phone to make a call.

“Eh?” The police officers were surprised, and immediately pointed their batons at Miao Ying. I told you not to move! Did you hear that?”

“Police officer ... Sob ...” At this time, the female student who had been beaten up finally stood up and said, “they ... They ... They are both good people!”

“No, no!” The shirtless boss suddenly got up, pointed at Zhao Yu, and shouted, “police officer, help! Help!” They ... They hit people and smashed the shop. They were lawless! Hurry, hurry and capture them! Eh? Hey, hey, hey ...”

Before the shirtless boss could finish shouting, Zhao Yu had already rushed over, grabbed his fingers, and broke all four of his fingers!

“Ah ...”

The man was rolling on the ground in pain, which surprised the police. They rushed over and raised their batons to hit Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu snorted, took out his gun, and raised it in front of everyone.

“Ah?” These were the local police on duty. When they saw that Zhao Yu had a gun on him, they were all shocked.

“Hmph!” “Hmph!” Zhao Yu snorted, then took out his police badge and explained, “don’t be afraid, we’re on the same side!”

After seeing Zhao Yu’s police ID, the police finally relaxed a little.

“Oh ...” One of the police officers had sharp eyes and hurriedly said to the others, “this person ... Why does this person look so familiar?”

“Nonsense!” “I’m Zhao Yu!” Zhao Yu shouted, struck a pose, and said, “I’m the famous, handsome, brave, and invincible detective Zhao Yu, nicknamed the unsolved case master!” Can you not find him familiar?”

The police officers were speechless ...

Chapter 1269: Huayun mountain

“Yes, yes, yes, you’re right!” In the county Police station, the police chief of the county was leading a group of officers to admit their mistakes to Zhao Yu and Miao Ying. “Don’t worry, we will definitely investigate this matter thoroughly and will not let such a thing happen again!”

“Sigh, I’m sorry to have frightened the two special investigators. It’s my negligence, my negligence!”

The Bureau chief gave them a look, and someone immediately brought tea for Zhao Yu and Miao Ying.

“Although this matter looks small, the impact is really too bad!” Miao Ying said angrily, “this is a serious taint on the overall image of your County. This is a harmonious society ruled by law. How can such a thing be allowed to happen?”

“Can’t you guys put yourself in my shoes? If the ones being extorted were your parents, your friends, and family, would you feel good?”

“Right, right! You’re right to teach him a lesson!” The Bureau chief’s face was red as he apologized profusely. “Please calm down, special investigators!” We really didn’t know about this. Don’t worry, I’ll definitely ...”

“Hey! Chief!” At this time, Zhao Yu suddenly interrupted him and asked coldly, “you should know who I am, right?”

“I know, I know! How could I not know?” The Bureau chief nodded with a smile. “The famous detective Zhao Yu, how could we not know him? Hmm ... Thunderous, thunderous!”

“It’s said that the great detective Zhao is both intelligent and brave. I really admire him after seeing him today! As for those black-hearted merchants, you taught them a good lesson and beat them up well!”

“Alright, don’t just say nice things!” Zhao Yu took a sip of his tea and said slowly, “since you know who I am, why are you still acting like a coward?”

“What?” No one had expected Zhao Yu to say such vulgarities, and they were all shocked.

“Well, I’ve already checked ...” Zhao Yu put his phone in front of the Bureau chief. “I won’t talk about last year, but from this year until now, your police station has received no less than two hundred reports from the public regarding the suspected extortion of the train station store!”

“I really want to ask you right now, bureau chief! If you guys had dealt with it seriously, would today’s incident still have happened?”

“Um ... This ... This ...” Hearing this, the director’s face turned into the color of a wilted eggplant. He trembled and said, “the two, the two leaders of the special Investigation Bureau, please investigate this matter!” Regarding the complaint ... I ... I really don’t know!”

With that, the director’s old face sank, and he shouted at the other station Chiefs behind him, “You guys ... You guys are too outrageous! More than 200 complaints, you guys actually ... Actually dared to conceal the truth! Why? Why have I never heard of it before? You ... You ...”

The director was so angry that he was trembling, and his hair was almost standing on end.

“This ...” All the elders lowered their heads in shame, not daring to say a word.

“Leader, leader! I ... I failed my duty!” The director said bitterly, “I’m responsible for this! Don’t worry, I’ll definitely investigate it thoroughly, from inside to outside, and I won’t tolerate it! If there really is a parasite, I will not let it off easily!”

“Don’t worry, I will give you an explanation in the shortest time possible!!”

Then, the Bureau chief stood at attention and saluted Zhao Yu and Miao Ying.

“Alright, you don’t have to give us any explanation,” Zhao Yu said, waving his hand. “If there’s anything, you’d better report it to your City Bureau and Provincial Office!” We still have our mission ...”

“Bureau chief,” Miao Ying said, “we don’t care how you deal with this matter, but I will report this to the criminal Division!

“Today, I was the one who made the first move. I will also write it down in the report truthfully! If you want to hold me responsible and ask me to compensate for their medical expenses, I will definitely not object.

“However, I hope that you can think about the interests of the public and reflect on your actions! The first responsibility of US police officers is to maintain social stability and ensure the interests and property of the people. If we can’t even do this, then we’re not worthy of the police uniforms we’re wearing!”

“Yes! Yes, yes, yes!” The director quickly nodded. “You’re right. Thank you, leaders. I’ll definitely follow your instructions and never let such a thing happen again!”

“Alright, that’s enough!” Miao Ying stood up and said, “we have explained everything to you. If you have any questions, you can call us or ask the female student who was beaten up!

“Alright,” Miao Ying said, taking her things. “We still have official business to attend to, so we won’t be recording your statements!” Let’s go ...”

“Um ... You ...” The director said in a hurry, “I ... I wanted to entertain you two and apologize to you!” You see ...”

“What are you apologizing for ... Hehe ...” Zhao Yu put his arm around the Bureau chief’s shoulder and laughed. “We didn’t get beaten up today, so you can go and pray!”

Then, Zhao Yu pushed the Bureau chief out the door, and disappeared with Miao Ying.

The Bureau chief was drenched in cold sweat ...

.....

As the Volkswagen Tiguan started again, Zhao Yu drove the car back onto the road to Huayun mountain.

“I think ... Such a leader should be removed from his post and investigated!” In the car, Miao Ying was still not satisfied. “There are so many complaints, but he didn’t care. It’s obvious that there’s a problem!”

“That might not be the case!” Zhao Yu comforted her, “the Bureau chief might not know about this! “I think the main reason is that he was too lazy to care and didn’t do anything!

“I understand this situation. Sometimes, the police can’t do anything! It takes a lot of energy to treat them once, and you’ve offended many people! But not long after, they went back to their old jobs, and over time, they were too lazy to care.

“It’s such a small city. Even if I don’t know it, I’m familiar with it. Many times, I can’t wipe my face and it’s hard to manage!”

“Just because it’s not easy to manage, you don’t care? That’s not a reason at all!” Miao Ying said seriously,”to put it bluntly, they are the ones who are irresponsible!”

“But ... It’s undeniable that this has something to do with the quality of the person!” Zhao Yu continued,”these black-hearted vendors only care about money, but they ignore morality and law. Isn’t this a tragedy?”

“So, if you want to completely cure these problems, sometimes you have to change it from a more macro perspective! For example ... Our education is the most direct and effective way!” Zhao Yu said seriously,”as long as the children receive a good education, can distinguish right from wrong, and have the right values!

“Only then would such a thing be completely put to an end!”

“Waa!” Miao Ying took a sip of water and looked at Zhao Yu in disbelief.”Lil ‘cui is right. You’ve really made people look at you in a new light recently! Not only is he full of principles, but he also sees the problem so clearly. ”

“Hmph!” Zhao Yu said proudly,”well, I’m the master detective. However, it’s all thanks to miss Miao’s good influence, Wahaha ...”

“Mm ...” Miao Ying was speechless and didn’t know what to say.

“MeowMeow, I know that you’re not in a good mood today because of Huayun mountain!” Zhao Yu advised,”you just said that you were deeply affected by the case, but aren’t you the same?”

“There ...” He continued to walk forward.”We’re reaching Huayun mountain soon. You’d better adjust your mentality!” After we’re done with this case, we can relax ...”

Chapter 1270: *the repentant murderer

Huayun mountain was a mountain, but it was also a city. The city was located in the middle of a mountain range. Although it was an earth-level city, it was not very big and its economy was just average.

At four in the afternoon, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying arrived at the Huayun Mountain Police station.

As they had been notified in advance, and Zhao Yu was famous, the two of them were warmly welcomed by the local police station. Not only were the provincial and municipal leaders personally welcoming them, but many police officers were also fighting to take photos with Zhao Yu as a memento, just like a big star.

Of course, Zhao Yu was here on official business. After a brief chat with the local leaders, he and Miao Ying went straight to the interrogation room upstairs to meet the three criminals.

As the prisoner had not arrived yet, the two of them waited in the monitoring room next door for a moment.

“Leaders,” a Captain of the local police station said, “the three criminals have confessed all their crimes. After our technical team’s investigation, we have confirmed that the Huayun mountain massacre case was committed by these three people!”

“The three people’s statements were very consistent.

“They said that it was MA Liqun and MA juncai who killed the people that day, and Gong peiwang did not have any weapons at the time. He just used his hand to hold Ji Kai down and not let Ji Kai move!

“You should know better than us,” the captain of the criminal Police said politely. “The murder weapons were indeed two fruit knives, both from Ji Kai’s kitchen.

“Based on the fingerprints left on the fruit knife, we confirmed that Gong peiwang did not touch the two weapons. According to the autopsy report, it was confirmed that Gong peiwang didn’t kill anyone. Therefore, Gong peiwang’s nature is different from the other two, and he should be an accomplice!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu nodded silently, deep in thought.

“I don’t think so. Although he didn’t kill the person himself, he was involved in the whole process and controlled the victim! This kind of behavior should be equivalent to murder!” Miao Ying retorted, “and, without any instructions, how can you say that he’s an accomplice?”

“Hmm...This!” The captain of the criminal Police didn’t know how to answer.

“Alright,” Zhao Yu said, trying to smooth things over. “Let’s leave this to the Procuratorate to judge!” We just need to find out the truth!”

Then, Zhao Yu quickly whispered into Miao Ying’s ear,”

“En!” Miao Ying also realized that she had overreacted, so she nodded in agreement.

“Mm ... They’re here, they’re here!” The captain of the criminal Police pointed at the one-way glass and reminded him.

The two of them looked up and saw that the three suspects had been brought into the interrogation room by the police.

The three of them did not have time to change into their prison uniform. They were still wearing the clothes they had worn when they surrendered. Although the three of them were of different heights, their appearances and mannerisms were surprisingly consistent.

In fact, the three of them were only in their early thirties, but they all looked old and withered.

Some of them had white hair, some had no hair, and one of them was so thin that he looked like he was just skin and bones.

The three of them were also quite dispirited. After sitting in the interrogation chair, they all lowered their heads and didn’t say a word, staring at the floor in a daze.

At this time, under the lead of the captain of the criminal Police, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying walked into the interrogation room one after another and sat in the seat opposite the criminal.

“What?” Ma Jun, who was sitting on the right side, raised his head first and looked at Zhao Yu. “You ... Isn’t ... Isn’t this detective Zhao?”

When he said this, the other two both raised their heads.

Zhao Yu stared at the three people, trying to observe their reactions to prove his judgment.

“Right!” The captain of the criminal Police said, “this is police officer Zhao, the special investigator in charge of the Huayun mountain massacre case. Today, officer Zhao has some questions for you, and you have to answer truthfully!”

“Mm! Yes!” MA juncai nodded and said, “detective Zhao, we knew this day would come! Regardless of whether we turn ourselves in or not, we will still fall into your hands sooner or later!”

“Don’t worry, the three of us have thought it through. Rather than living in pain, it’s better to be free as soon as possible!”

“Yes, yes ...”

“Yes, yes ...”

MA Liqun and Gong peiwang echoed numbly. Even though their eyes were a little dull, they were obviously gratified.

Following that, Zhao Yu asked them a lot of questions, and all three of them answered truthfully. MA Liqun and Gong peiwang were not good at expressing themselves, so most of the questions were answered by MA juncai.

“Detective Zhao, we have nothing else to say!” “It’s pitch black. Not being able to see is not a reason. Being nervous and scared is not a reason either. We wanted to steal and kill. We are guilty. We will not find any excuses. We are willing to accept the punishment we deserve and will never regret it!”

“Wu ...” MA juncai’s voice suddenly choked up. He covered his face and said, “we didn’t even let the two children go. We are animals. We have no humanity. Wu Wu ...”

“I beg you, please release us as soon as possible! “Wuwuwu ...” He trembled as he begged, “that year ... If it wasn’t because our child was too young and we couldn’t bear to part with him, maybe ... We would have turned ourselves in long ago!”

“Now, the children have all grown up. We ... Have no more worries! We’re already prepared, Wuwu ...”

When MA juncai started crying, MA Liqun and Gong peiwang also started to cry.

“You guys ...” Miao Ying sighed and shook her head. “So you guys also have children!” Sigh ...”

The interrogation lasted for nearly two hours. After the interrogation, Zhao Yu was sure that there would be no more objections to the case!

The truth was clear. These three people were undoubtedly the murderers of the Huayun mountain massacre case.

Before this, Zhao Yu had thought of countless possibilities, but he had never thought that the truth of the case would be so simple. There were no schemes or plots, no grudges or disputes, just a sudden massacre!

Al!

Zhao Yu's heart was filled with mixed feelings. Among them, there was pity for the deceased's family, and also pity for the murderer.

Originally, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying had the same feelings towards the three murderers. But after listening to MA juncai's confession, they couldn't help but feel a little strange.

It was reasonable to say that this was a crime case that should not have happened, but it had caused such a bad result. It was really hard to predict what fate would do!

Perhaps Ma Jun was right. Since things had come to this, it was useless to find any excuses!

It was best not to make any mistakes in one's life, because a single mistake could be devastating, leaving you with no more chances ...
