

Crazy 1281

Chapter 1281: International Edition of Senior Sister tuo Qiang

After a bumpy day, the plane that Zhao Yu and Miao kun took finally arrived at Suva, the capital of Fiji, at about Seven o' clock in the morning.

However, the Green family's island of wonder was still a long way from Suva.

"Mm ..." After getting off the plane, Zhao Yu suddenly remembered a lot of questions and asked Miao kun, "by the way, did the other party say that they would send someone to pick us up?" This person was unfamiliar with the place, he couldn't possibly go there himself, right?

"Also, father-in-law, I didn't bring much money with me when I went abroad this time. I haven't changed my SIM card ... Eh?"

Miao kun didn't answer Zhao Yu's question, but walked straight out of the airport along with the crowd. He seemed to be looking for something.

Zhao Yu then saw from his eyes that there should be someone waiting for him at the station.

Suva's airport wasn't big, so the two of them quickly left the airport and came to the exit.

There were a lot of people here to pick them up, but most of them were travel agencies with colorful flags.

"Here ..." At this time, Miao kun finally saw something in the crowd. He immediately grabbed Zhao Yu's arm and walked over quickly.

Zhao Yu looked up and saw a black man with curly hair, holding a black sign. The interesting thing was that their names were not on the sign. There were no words, only an icon of a pipe!

Miao kun stepped forward and took out two exquisite cards from his arms. The pattern on the cards was exactly the same as the black man's.

"Eddie!..." "Yuan Yuan #..." The black man looked at Miao kun's card and immediately nodded with a smile. He even spoke a lot of foreign language.

"Mm ..." Miao kun immediately turned around and translated to Zhao Yu, "he just greeted us in Indian!" Aydi, aydi ..."

Then, Miao kun imitated the other party's greeting.

"Wow, as expected of a Peking University Graduate. You even know how to speak Indian!" Zhao Yu's face was full of admiration. "Father-in-law is even better at languages than Li Jing, who knows six languages!"

"Haha ... Don't say that. Language is a basic skill for the Secret Service. Basic skills ... Haha ..." Miao kun said humbly, but he was proud of himself.

"By the way," Zhao Yu pointed to the pattern on the card and asked, "why does this pipe look so familiar?" It seems to be ... It seems to be ..."

“Well, Sherlock Holmes ...” Miao kun proudly showed off the card. “Didn’t I tell you? Grimm is a Holmes fanatic. Last time, he made a card like this to summon us.

“Zhao, from now on, we have to be alert! I know this old man, green. He especially likes to set up little things in places where people are not paying attention, setting up some clues that are difficult to find and so on.

“When we arrive at the island, he will put some gold coins on the table. Whoever could tell us a clue that he has set up would get a gold coin!”

“Oh, really? That awesome?” Zhao Yu was surprised. “Then, what kind of clue could it be?”

“Well ... The last time, it was related to Holmes, but this time ... I don’t know!” He said. Miao kun pondered for a moment. “This time, he only invited his old friends. I don’t think he’ll use the same trick again, right?”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu looked at the black man who was holding the sign, and was on high alert. He also thought that since he was a China detective, the gold coins were not important, but at least he could not embarrass the Chinese detective ...

“Oh my God!”

Just as Zhao Yu was thinking about this, the two of them suddenly heard a woman’s cry from behind them.

He turned around and saw a huge shadow coming at him. Zhao Yu was so scared that he took two steps back.

After he stood still, he could see that the black shadow was actually a tall and burly blonde woman!

The woman ran straight at Miao kun with her arms open ...

“Oh my God, %$#$...” The woman exclaimed in English when she saw Miao kun. Ignoring the fact that Miao kun was still in shock, she went up to hug him and kissed him as if no one was around ...

Zhao Yu looked at it with great interest. Although he was not good at English, he could still understand that Madeline meant “dear.”

This was ... Really interesting. A golden-haired woman called her father-in-law “dear”, and ... A normal greeting gift from a foreign country would at most be a kiss on the cheek, but this strong woman clearly kissed her father-in-law’s lips!

The golden-haired woman was 1.85 meters tall and was dressed in plaid casual clothes. As she was wearing a large pair of sunglasses, it was hard to tell her age.

Zhao Yu was also an expert in internal affairs. He could tell at a glance that when the woman was hugging Miao kun, her muscles were tight and well-defined, giving off a strong feeling. He guessed that she was either a martial arts practitioner or a fitness expert.

“Oh, Juliet, Juliet, Oh ...” Miao kun’s figure was already more outstanding than the average person, but he was still smaller than the woman in her arms. He used a lot of strength to push her lips away.

“Oh oh oh ... I can't breathe!” Miao kun struggled for a long time before he finally managed to break free. He then spoke a long string of English words to the blonde woman with excitement on his face.

The woman was also very excited. She also spoke a lot of English like a tongue twister. Looking at their expressions, it seemed as if they had finally reunited after a long time, and a little separation made the newlyweds feel better ...

‘Hmm ... This won't do ...’

Looking at them conversing in English, Zhao Yu felt uneasy. He couldn't understand a single thing, and he felt like a fool.

Moreover, as an outstanding son-in-law, he had to keep an eye on his father-in-law. He couldn't let his father-in-law have an affair and destroy the family's unity.

There was!

Zhao Yu suddenly remembered that he had a good item in his system device!

An all-purpose language translator!

A language translator, as its name suggested, could help Zhao Yu translate other people's languages in time, so that he could understand what the other person was saying.

This translator was not something that could be bought on the market. The manual said that no matter what language the other party used, the translator would be able to translate in time without the need to adjust the language.

However, the main function of the translator was to let the user understand foreign languages, but it was slightly more troublesome to communicate.

If Zhao Yu also wanted to speak in a foreign language and let the other person understand, the device would give him a voice prompt, so Zhao Yu had to repeat the voice prompt.

Well ... This was already very powerful!

Zhao Yu chose one that could last for eight hours from the many translators and immediately used it.

“Wow, I haven't seen you in a long time ...” Zhao Yu could understand what the blonde woman was saying. “Do you remember that time in Paris?” I waited for you for another night, but you never showed up again. You're so naughty!”

“Hehe, hehe ...” Miao kun scratched his head, his face dark. He was obviously not used to the woman's open and uninhibited attitude.

Then, he saw that Zhao Yu was looking at him. He quickly pointed at Zhao Yu and introduced him to the woman, “By the way, I forgot to introduce you. This is my companion, Zhao Yu, the most famous detective in our country!”

“Oh, hello, hello!” The golden-haired woman greeted Zhao Yu in Chinese.

“Mm ...” Miao kun thought for a moment France then introduced her to Zhao Yu. “This is ... Mm ... We all call her senior French touqiang! He was the head of the Paris Police Department, and she was fully responsible for the explosion in the Paris subway!

“Oh ... Look at my brain ...” Miao kun was lost for words for a long time. He then remembered that he had not introduced the most important part, so he quickly said, “Juliet!” The Juliet of Romeo and Juliet!”

“Oh ... Nice to meet you!”

Zhao Yu quickly cupped his fists, but the blonde girl hugged Zhao Yu warmly and kissed him hard on the face.

Waa!

Zhao Yu muttered in his heart, “smells so good, so strong ...”

Chapter 1282: The importance of a translator

“Oh ... I’m really excited. There’s a new addition this year!” Juliet took off her large sunglasses and said to Zhao Yu, “green, you really have a lot of connections. Welcome, China’s best detective!” Hehehe ...”

Because of the translation device, although Juliet was speaking English, Zhao Yu could still understand her. As soon as he heard the other party’s praise, he hurriedly nodded and thanked him.

“You flatter me, you flatter me ...”

Miao kun suddenly laughed when he heard Zhao Yu’s reply in Chinese. He then said to Juliet in French, “My dear, my friend is lacking in language and only knows a little bit of English! So, if we have anything to say, let’s use French!”

F * ck ...

Zhao Yu’s heart skipped a beat. He did not expect Miao kun to be such a bad person. Was he afraid that he would know something?

Hmph!

Dream on ... Zhao Yu made up his mind, but he didn’t show it on his face, pretending to be ignorant.

“Eddie ... Eddie ... %¥#...” At this time, the black man who was in charge of picking up the passengers said the same words.

Oh ...

Because of the translation device, Zhao Yu understood immediately that the black man was reminding Miao kun that there were more people behind them! Wait a little longer, wait a little longer ...

It was not a F * cking greeting at all.

“F * ck ...” Suddenly, Zhao Yu’s good impression of his father-in-law plummeted. He just wanted to give him the middle finger.

“Eddie, Eddie ...” Miao kun thought that the black man was greeting him, so he quickly retorted. The black man looked embarrassed.

At this time, after seeing the pipe symbol, Juliet took out her card and showed it to the man.

“Juliet,” Miao kun said in fluent French, “I’m really sorry that I didn’t get to have dinner with you in Paris last time because of an urgent mission.”

“I understand, I understand!” Juliet said with a smile, “at least before that, we’ve had a great time all night!”

Gulp ...

Hearing this, Zhao Yu couldn’t help but gulp. He didn’t expect Miao kun to be such a Playboy. Hmph! This sanctimonious guy even said that he was calm and composed on the plane. It was pure F * cking nonsense!

But ... Zhao Yu looked at the woman up and down. Although the woman was about forty years old and had a strong figure, she had taken good care of herself.

She was dressed up very beautifully. Given her height of 1.85 meters, her figure was considered passable.

Oh my ... My father-in-law’s taste is quite unique ...

“Oh ...” Miao kun saw that Zhao Yu was in a daze, so he quickly explained to him in Chinese, “Zhao Yu, Miss Juliet is my good friend. She said that if there was a chance, she would invite us to her house as guests. She’s a very good cook!”

“Oh ... Oh oh ... Thank you ... Thank you ...” Although Zhao Yu was speechless, he still expressed his gratitude.

“How is it, my dear? it’s not easy for us to meet. After the salon is over, aren’t you going to spend some time with me?” Juliet continued in French, “I know a very romantic place in Fiji. There’s a very delicious deep-sea fish there, and it can strengthen one’s body!”

Zhao Yu swallowed again.

“Alright!” Miao kun agreed readily. “But, I’ll have to check my schedule! I hope I won’t stay too long in the green house, hehe!

“Um ... Ahem ...” Miao kun coughed a few times, then turned to Zhao Yu and said in Chinese, “Miss Juliet said that she would like to invite you, a China detective, to visit the Paris Police Department and Exchange cultural knowledge ...”

“F * ck your grandmother!” Zhao Yu cursed in his heart, an exchange of Chinese and Western culture? I think it’s more like physical communication!

“By the way,” Miao kun continued, “I just told Juliet that you know China martial arts and are a kung fu master.” Juliet is also an expert in Taekwondo and Judo. If there’s a chance on Miracle Island, you can practice with her ...”

“Cough! Koniki, Nice to see you!”

As Miao kun was speaking, he heard a powerful voice next to him. Everyone turned their heads and saw a little old man standing there!

Although he looked like an Asian, from his expression and temperament, as well as the way he said “konikiri,” Zhao Yu concluded that he must be Japanese!

“Oh ... It’s Your Excellency, Gu zhaichiro. Nice to meet you!” Miao kun was really a social person. He actually knew this Japanese man. He immediately stepped forward to shake hands with him and said, “it’s been ten years since we last met!” You’re still the same, recently ... Um ...”

Miao kun then realized that he was speaking Chinese, so he quickly changed his tone and spoke Japanese. “How’s your body recently?”

“Hehehe ... I’m fine, I’m fine!” The Japanese man nodded with a smile and turned his eyes to Juliet, the blonde girl, to say hello.

However, that Senior Sister tuo Qiang did not give in. She turned her back on him, pretending not to know him.

“Oh ... Oh ...” The Japanese man embarrassedly replied.

“Zhao Yu,” Miao kun introduced him to Zhao Yu with a smile, “this is the famous Japan detective novel author, Mr. Tani zhaichiro!” His books are extremely perverted. People who read his novels have to prepare a spittoon for vomiting ...”

Oh ... She’s actually a novel writer ...

“Isn’t ... Isn’t this ...” Unexpectedly, Gu zhaichiro could speak Chinese. After seeing Zhao Yu, he suddenly said excitedly, “isn’t this the famous police officer in China, Zhao ... Zhao ...”

“Zhao Yu!” “You have good eyes,” Miao kun said. “You even recognize this?”

“I ...” Tani zhaichiro said in Japanese, “I often pay attention to the interesting cases that happen around the world, so I know a little about them!”

“I thought that Grimm would only invite his old friends this time! “I didn’t expect to see a new person here ...” Then, he said to Zhao Yu in his rusty Chinese, “it’s a pleasure to meet you!” If there’s time, I hope we can have a good chat. I’m in the middle of a large-scale deduction story!”

“It’s not ‘morning mother’, it’s brewing!” Miao kun was indeed a language expert. He immediately corrected the Japan writer in Japanese.

At this moment, the black man who was holding the sign suddenly came forward and asked to check Tani zhaichiro’s card.

After seeing Tani zhaichiro successfully take out the card, he nodded in satisfaction and spoke to the crowd in Indian.

Zhao Yu understood what he meant. The people he was going to pick up were already here, so he could get into the car with him now!

Although Miao kun and the others did not understand what he was saying, they could roughly understand what he meant when they saw his hand gestures. They followed him out of the airport ...

Chapter 1283: falling for another trap

In a seven-seater car that was heading to the beach, Miao kun was explaining the origin of Miracle Island to Zhao Yu. "Its English name is Mirko, but in fact, it means miracle!

"A few hundred years ago Fiji wasn't a United whole. Many locals occupied the island as a country, and there was such a small country on the island!

"Later on, the Dutch arrived first and broke the peace and silence here. As such, the most primitive buildings on the island were built by the Dutch.

"At the end of the last century, when the Opium War broke out in our country, the United Kingdom took control of Fiji from the Dutch and Fiji was officially reduced to a British colony.

"From then on, Green's ancestors began to live in Fiji and settled down on the island. That Island is not small. It's warm in winter and cool in summer, and it's like spring all year round. If that guy is interested in selling it, I think I might consider it ..."

"Then ... How far is this Island?"

"It's about 200 kilometers away from Suva!" Miao kun replied.

"It's not close!" Zhao Yu pondered, "since it's an Island, we'll definitely have to take a boat later, right?"

"That's right!" Miao kun nodded. "The last time I was here, I spent a long time on the boat! That bastard Grimm, he actually disguised himself as a sailor and wanted to play a prank on us. Fortunately, we were seen through by a powerful person!"

"Awesome person? Who is it?" Zhao Yu asked.

"Hehe ..." Miao kun laughed but did not say anything.

"It can't be ... You, right?!" Zhao Yu heard a crow's cry. "You're really thick-skinned! You're almost as good as me ..."

"In short, Grimm is always unpredictable!" Miao kun recalled, "and in many aspects, he was a lone wolf. He was very different.

"For example, the electricity on Miracle Island is very strange. It actually uses tidal generators.

"Back then, the technology for tidal generators was not perfect. They were generally used for particularly large projects, and they were quite expensive, far more expensive than solar and wind power.

"But green said that the installation of wind and solar energy would make the whole island lose its ancient flavor and become nondescript. So, he would rather spend a huge sum of money to install the tidal generator!

“I think there’s something wrong with this guy. He has the money to install the tidal generator, and he even has more than enough money to connect a cable from another island!”

“Oh ... You have character, I like it!” After Zhao Yu finished complaining, he looked around and asked, “uhm ... Are there only four of us at this banquet? Isn’t that a little too little?”

“It should be more than that, right?” Miao kun guessed, “the banquet will actually start tonight. I think there should be some who arrived earlier, or some who arrived later?”

As the two were talking, the car suddenly stopped.

He looked outside and saw that the car was not heading towards the dock. Instead, it had come to a wide square.

The driver was the black man who was in charge of picking them up. After parking the car, he quickly got out to open the door for everyone and mumbled a lot in Indian.

Zhao Yu understood that they wanted them to wait for the plane here, and he had to go back to pick them up.

However, Miao kun and the others did not understand.

Seeing that the man was about to leave, Juliet waved her arms and complained, “What the hell is this? Didn’t you find someone who can speak English to receive you?”

“It’s okay, it’s okay ...” Zhao Yu said to Miao kun. “Father-in-law, don’t you know Indian? What did he say?”

“Um ... He said ... He said ...” Miao kun’s eyes darted around as he stammered, “he probably meant to ask us to wait here while he went to buy breakfast for us!”

“Breakfast? Didn’t we already eat on the plane?” Zhao Yu kept a straight face, but he wanted to laugh in his heart.

Just as they were talking, a loud buzzing sound came from above them. A helicopter appeared and landed steadily on the square.

“Oh ... So the word ‘AGU’ isn’t breakfast, but a plane! “Hehehe ...” Miao kun shrugged his shoulders and said self-deprecatingly, “I say, green is always unpredictable, right? We actually managed to send him flying ...”

Seeing the arrival of the plane, the black receptionist first gestured to the crowd and then drove the car away.

Zhao Yu and the others packed their luggage and quickly came to the helicopter.

At the same time, a foreign man in a black suit got off the plane. He had a bow tie on and looked like a restaurant waiter.

“Everyone, please take out your invitation cards. We need to confirm them!” The man said in a London accent.

Seeing this, the four of them had no choice but to take out the card with Holmes 'pipe.

"Thank you for your cooperation ..." The English gentleman said politely. He then took out something that looked like a POS machine and began to verify their identities one by one.

Soon, Miao kun, Juliet, and Gu zhaochiro's invitations all passed the verification process. However, there was an accident when Zhao Yu's invitation was the only one.

"What?" The English gentleman was surprised."You ... Are not Lee Bencheng, right?"

"What's this?" Zhao Yu looked at Miao kun in shock.

"Of course not, Lee Bencheng has already entered our country's prison. He can't come!" Miao kun said firmly in English,"his invitation card fell into my hands. So, I changed someone to replace li Bencheng!

"Here ..." He pointed at Zhao Yu and said,"this is Zhao Yu, one of the best detectives in our country. You can look him up online. He is totally qualified to replace old Li!"

"Hmm...This ..." The English gentleman hesitated.

"Well ..." Miao kun said impatiently."Give me Green's phone number, I'll talk to him!" If he thinks that Zhao Yu is not qualified, then I will not participate!"

"Wait a minute, wait a minute ..." The English gentleman panicked. He quickly turned around and contacted his boss.

"Hey!" Zhao Yu pulled Miao kun aside and asked,"what's going on? What the hell is li ready-made? Didn't you say that they asked you to bring one more person? What's going on?"

"Eh?" Zhao Yu glared at Miao kun, who was also getting anxious."You brat! You can understand English, but you're trying to fool me and your father-in-law, right?"

"I asked you first!" Zhao Yu clenched his fist."You still say you're not scamming me? What li ready-made?"

"Who's scamming you!" Miao kun said angrily,"Lee Bencheng is a Korea spy. He was caught at customs, and the invitation letter fell into my hands! The first thing I wanted to do was to bring you here to broaden your horizons! You still want to trick you ..."

"Mm ... You ..." Zhao Yu was speechless, then complained,"why didn't you say so earlier?"

"Aiyo ..." Miao kun shouted in exasperation."No one checked the invitation card the last time we came!"

"Hello, Female Miao! My eyes aren't playing tricks on me, are they? is it really you?"

Just as Zhao Yu and Miao kun were arguing, there was a thunderous shout behind them.

Everyone turned around and saw a burly man walking over quickly. He was a typical Eastern European man with thick arms and Wolf-like eyes!

Miao kun's face changed when he saw the eastern European man. He trembled instinctively and muttered,""Oh no, this guy ... Isn't dead yet!?"

Chapter 1284: don't mess with father-in-law

What the ...

Seeing this, Zhao Yu was overwhelmed, as if he had suddenly traveled to another world.

The burly man was dressed in khaki-colored casual clothes with a ponytail on his head. Almost all the exposed parts of his body were covered with various tattoos.

The man rushed toward Miao kun angrily. From his Wolf-like eyes, it was clear that he had a grudge with his father-in-law!

"No way ..." Zhao Yu heard Juliet mumbling in French next to him. "Isn't this Jecca?" Why is he here ..."

"Hmm ..." The Japan novelist also recognized the brawny man and had a premonition that a fight was about to break out. He took a step back and leaned to the side of the plane.

"Female Miao!" The burly man quickly walked up to Miao kun and grabbed his neck, roaring, "you're really bold! I thought you wouldn't dare to come!"

The burly man was also speaking in English, and he had a heavy accent, so he couldn't tell which country he was from.

"Hey...Don't be so rude the moment you see me!" Just then, Juliet stepped forward to persuade them. "You all know the rules. This is Green's party. You can talk about your grudges later!"

At that moment, Miao kun's feet had left the ground, and his face was as red as a monkey's butt.

Originally, when Zhao Yu saw that someone dared to lay a hand on his father-in-law, he would definitely go up and risk his life. However, he was still angry at Miao kun for lying to him.

Thus, he crossed his arms and began to watch the show with great interest.

Zhao Yu didn't expect his father-in-law to be such a man. Even though he was being held by his neck, he didn't move and said, "Oh ... I was wondering who it was! So ... So it's little bei!"

"Xxxxx (foreign swear word), I think you're really tired of living!" The burly man roared, his aura exceptionally powerful, "I will now ... Will ..."

"Jecca, don't mess around!" Juliet pointed at the burly man and shouted, "this is not your territory! If you kill Miao, you're finished too!"

"Um ... Um ..." The burly man gritted his teeth in anger, but he also knew that this was not a good place to take revenge. In the end, he let go of Miao kun and pushed him back.

Miao kun staggered, but he still stood firmly.

"Cough, cough, cough ..." Miao kun coughed for a while as he was choked by someone. "Little bei, I didn't mean it!" He said. I really thought you were dead in Eastern Europe! The bomb went off. I really don't know how you survived. "

“Oh ...” The burly man named Jecca said coldly, “you still remember that thing? Then, you must remember why I was bombed, right? Hmph! If I hadn’t been tricked by you, would I have been in such a miserable state?”

“Hehe ...” Miao kun laughed unnaturally.

“I didn’t die from the explosion because I came back to settle the score with you!” “If you’re afraid, run away with your tail between your legs. Let me laugh at you!” Said jieka as he clenched his fist.

“Hmph!” Miao kun tidied his clothes and replied indifferently, “if I can mess with you once, I can do it twice! At that time, it’s hard to say who’s going to settle the score with who!”

At this time, the pilot who had just gotten off the plane suddenly turned around and said to Miao kun and Zhao Yu, “I just asked the boss. Your invitation card is valid. Welcome, welcome ...”

“Hmm...That’s more like it!” Miao kun gestured to Zhao Yu and said in Chinese, “I said, no problem, right? Let’s go, get on the car, oh no, get on the plane!”

Then, he put an arm around Juliet’s shoulder and walked toward the plane.

At this moment, a smart Japanese man was already waiting below the plane. When he saw that it was time to board, he was the first to enter.

Originally, the brawny man, Jecca, was closer to the plane and should have gotten on it first.

However, since he had not verified his invitation card, he was stopped by the manager in the suit.

While he was verifying Zhao Yu’s identity, Miao kun sent Juliet to the plane in a gentlemanly manner, then dodged Zhao Yu so that he could get on the plane before him.

However, just as Zhao Yu boarded the plane, Miao kun suddenly complained to Zhao Yu in Chinese, “Brat, you didn’t miss the show just now. I was about to be strangled to death, why are you still standing there?”

“Nonsense!” Zhao Yu retorted, “I should at least see what was going on, right? I thought it was an old friend greeting me! I can’t understand a foreign language ...”

“You still say you don’t understand? Are you addicted to acting tough?” Unexpectedly, Miao kun suddenly got angry at Zhao Yu. “What kind of son-in-law are you? I brought you here to make a fool of myself, huh?”

“Hey, are you okay?” Zhao Yu was confused and quickly retorted, “who’s laughing at you? Why don’t you say that you tricked me into coming? What do you mean by “ready-made li”? and you’re Korean? you used a Korean card to invite me to the British party. Why didn’t you explain it to me?”

“Hey? Are you rebelling? What are you being so arrogant for? Who are you talking to? you’re so rude!” Then, Miao kun slapped Zhao Yu a few times and said, “if you’re going to be like this, then you might as well not go with me. Get out!”

“I ... Why should I go down?” Zhao Yu was dumbfounded. “I didn’t bring any money, and I can’t make a phone call. You’re asking me to go down and live on air?”

“Get down! If I tell you to go down, then go down!” Miao kun reached out to grab Zhao Yu, who resisted. The two of them fought on the plane.

At this time, Jecca, who was below the plane, had already verified the invitation. The administrator nodded in satisfaction and returned to the co-pilot seat.

In this way, as long as he waited for Jecca to board the plane, the plane could take off.

However, no one expected Zhao Yu and Miao kun to have an argument. As they had been speaking Chinese, no one knew what had happened.

Juliet wanted to say something, but she couldn't.

Very quickly, Jecca put away the invitation and also came to board the plane.

Just as he took a step forward, Miao kun deliberately pulled Zhao Yu's arm and fell backward, hitting him.

Miao kun was also a bad boy. As soon as he bumped into Jake, he immediately kicked him down with his left leg!

Not to mention Jecca, everyone on the plane didn't expect this and suddenly exclaimed.

Ah ...

Jecca fell heavily to the ground and even rolled ...

This ...

Zhao Yu was completely stunned.

The next second, he watched in a daze as Miao kun closed the cabin door with a bang. Then, he whistled nonchalantly and said to the pilot,

“That's enough, Mr. Jecca obviously doesn't want to attend this banquet. We can take off now!!!”

Chapter 1285: weirdos

F * ck, there's actually such a function?

Suddenly, Zhao Yu was confused. He never thought that his father-in-law would be so domineering and evil.

“Um ... Mr. Miao,” the administrator was frightened and quickly said, “this is not good, right? Jecca is also the boss's distinguished guest, how can we ...”

However, Miao kun ignored the administrator's advice and pointed at Zhao Yu, saying in English, “Look at what you've done, why did you push me?”

“I ...” Zhao Yu was speechless, as if he had been burned to ashes.

For a long time, he had thought that he was shameless enough, but today, when he was compared to his father-in-law, he suddenly paled in comparison.

“Hey, why aren’t you driving? Uh no, it’s still not taking off?” Miao kun urged.

“Mr. Miao, you really can’t do this ...” The administrator was already going crazy.

At this time, the huge Jake had already gotten up from the ground. He was already angry, so he was even more furious. He shouted loudly and slammed the plane.

“Hey,” Miao kun said to the manager with a calm expression, “you saw it yourself. If we let the guy outside in now, this place might become a murder scene. Then, your boss’s party will be canceled!”

“This ...” The administrator’s expression changed again.

“So, take off quickly!” Miao kun said coldly, “our plane is not spacious. Let him take the next one!”

Miao kun then turned to Zhao Yu and joked, “Kid, don’t make a fuss this time. It won’t be good if you push me off the plane again, hehe ...”

Seeing this, both tanizhichiro and Juliet became silent. Juliet shook her head and said in French, “You’re still so naughty, Miao ...”

“Al!” The administrator sighed. Helplessly, he could only signal to the pilot to take off ...

As soon as he saw the propeller start to spin, the brawny man, Jecca, quickly retreated out of the circle. When he retreated to a safe area, he once again bared his fangs and brandished his claws in anger, cursing and swearing.

However, no matter how loud his voice was, it could not cover the loud roar of the propeller.

The helicopter quickly took off, leaving Jecca in the dust ...

“Mm ...”

Zhao Yu looked at his father-in-law in surprise. It was the first time he felt Miao kun’s power, which was greater than he had imagined.

“Um ... Father-in-law,” Zhao Yu pretended not to understand English, then asked carefully in Chinese, “who the hell was that guy just now? Did you make him a cuckold? Why are you acting like you’re going to kill me the moment you see me ...”

“Ah? What?” “What did you say? I can’t hear you clearly ...” Miao kun asked, opening his mouth.

“...” Zhao Yu frowned. Although the plane was loud, Miao kun was obviously playing dumb.

Al!

Zhao Yu sighed and thought to himself, “what kind of strange people and strange things are these?”

The trip to Fiji felt like a dream. He had thought that he would only be following Miao kun to a small island to attend a party held by some rich man.

Although it’s a detective theme, at least it won’t be out of character, right?

However, the encounter just now made him more and more uncertain.

The France totsubasa, the Japan detective writer, the tattooed man, and his flamboyant father-in-law were all subverting Zhao Yu's view of knowledge. It gave him a bad feeling.

Zhao Yu couldn't help but look at his system interface.

Long before he set off, he had already opened a hexagram in order to predict good or bad luck. However, the hexagram was very normal. It was an ordinary Li Zhen hexagram.

'Li' represented friends, 'Zhen' represented status. These two hexagrams were very normal for his detective salon trip.

It was because of this that Zhao Yu was so confident.

Although the hexagram was stable, he suddenly felt that everything had changed when he recalled Miao kun's abnormal behavior just now.

However, although Zhao Yu had a premonition that something was going to happen, when he thought about these strange people, he felt a faint sense of excitement.

So, in order to be safe, he quietly opened the system device and chose to use an invisible detector.

In the roar of the propeller, the helicopter accelerated and flew above the vast sea in a short time.

The ocean here was extremely beautiful, green with a tinge of blue, like a gem.

Occasionally, Zhao Yu could see a few dolphins running across the sea, chasing each other.

On the plane, due to the loud noise, no one spoke. They were all enjoying the beautiful scenery of the sea, as if Miao kun's kick had never happened.

Just like that, the plane flew at a high speed for a long time before finally reaching a small island.

This can't be right?

Zhao Yu was the first to realize the problem. The island that the plane was about to land on was deserted and pitifully small. There wasn't even a house on it, so how could a banquet be held?

Zhao Yu was puzzled, and so were the others.

"I'm sorry, everyone," the administrator hurriedly explained, "our boss was afraid that the airport would damage the image of Miracle Island, so he built the airport here.

"We'll arrange for a speedboat to send you to the island later. Please understand ..."

Hearing this explanation, everyone looked at each other. Only Miao kun cursed in Chinese, "F * ck, take off your pants and fart. This old man, Grimm, is really building a house by the sea and has gone home with his waves."

When the helicopter landed smoothly and everyone got off, Zhao Yu finally found an opportunity to ask Miao kun about Jecka.

This time, Miao kun could not play dumb, so he replied in Chinese, "Jecca works for an underground organization in Eastern Europe. He's in charge of collecting debts and investigating some underground cases that can't be exposed."

Zhao Yu's eyes lit up. He didn't expect to see a fellow colleague here.

Before he had transmigrated, Zhao Yu had been doing this kind of work, but his level was much lower than others.

"Speaking of which, this guy is indeed a Big Shot," Miao kun said seriously. "You know, the case of the underworld gang is the most difficult to solve, but this guy has his own way. He is very famous in the industry, and his connections are also very good. He is deeply appreciated by the big shots."

"No way ..." Zhao Yu was speechless. "Aren't you afraid that he'll come after you for playing with him like this?"

"Ahem!" Miao kun pouted helplessly. "It's not the first time, anyway. He'll get used to it."

"He's so generous ..." Zhao Yu said, wiping his sweat. "He'll go to Miracle Island sooner or later. By then, um ..."

"Haha, don't worry, my son-in-law," Miao kun said with a smile. "No matter how awesome Jake is, he's still afraid of green." In fact, at least 60% of the business was introduced to him by Grimm.

"So, for the sake of Green's face, he didn't dare to do anything to me.

"Besides ..." Miao kun narrowed his eyes and smirked. "Don't I still have you, son-in-law?" Although he was from the Special Forces, trained in secret agent killing skills, and once single-handedly destroyed the lair of an arms dealer, but I think ... He shouldn't be your opponent, right?"

Zhao Yu's face was ashen.

Chapter 1286: do as the Romans do

After the helicopter dropped Zhao Yu and the others off, it quickly flew back. He guessed that he was going to pick up Jake, who had been kicked off the plane by Miao kun.

At this time, everyone was standing on the high ground of the deserted island, and they could already see a huge island in front of them on the right.

Due to the short distance, they could already see man-made trees and some ancient-looking buildings on the island.

"That's right!" Miao kun saw through Zhao Yu's thoughts and immediately explained, "that's the island of strange traces! It was shaped like an irregular heart, so the locals also had the name heart Island.

"Don't look at it that way. It doesn't look very big from here, but the island of strange traces is at least two square kilometers! So, with such a large island, even if Grimm really wanted to sell it, I would have to think twice before doing so!"

"Oh?" Zhao Yu raised his eyebrows. "So, you must be very good at buying islands? Then can you tell me how many more islands you bought?"

“Go away ...” Miao kun frowned. “You’re only after my money. I’m telling you, if you do anything to miomiao, I won’t give you a single cent!”

“What!” Zhao Yu pretended to be innocent. “I’m just wondering which island I should go to for a vacation with Miaomiao when we have time in the future!”

“Don’t even think about it. Even if you do, you can’t say it ...”

While the two of them were talking and joking, they could already see two speedboats speeding over from the opposite Island.

However, due to the distance between the two islands, it would take at least 10 minutes for the speedboat to arrive.

“What the hell is this? “Green, that old geezer ...” At this time, Zhao Yu heard the France tuoqiang Mutter, “if you knew we were coming, why didn’t you let the speedboat wait for us here? Is he trying to do something strange again?”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu observed the surrounding environment and asked Miao kun, “father-in-law, after all this talk, how many people are there in the detective salon?”

“I’m not sure about the exact number ...” Miao kun thought for a moment, then said, “I estimate that the people invited by Ge Lin should be old friends from the last party. Last time, there should be at least 13 people!”

“But ... It’s enough!”

“Oh, just like that Lee Korea? He’s already inside?” Zhao Yu asked.

“It’s Li Bencheng,” Miao kun corrected him again, then said with emotion, “those who went in are still fine, but some of them are already dead!” After all, it’s been ten years since the last gathering. Things have remained the same, but people have changed!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu thought for a while, then asked, “then, what did you do at the last gathering? Is there any fun ‘activity’?”

“Hmph, look at that lecherous look of yours. Why do I feel so uneasy?” “You must remember that you are my son-in-law,” Miao kun muttered. “If you mess around outside, you will ruin my reputation!”

“What ...” Although Miao kun’s words hit the nail on the head, Zhao Yu would never admit it. He suddenly put on a straight face and said, “I just wanted to ask you, what kind of activities do detective salons have?” So that I can be mentally prepared! Why are you always thinking in a crooked way?”

“Well ...” Miao kun thought for a moment, then said, “actually ... It’s nothing special!” They just gathered together and talked about their own situations and strange cases they had encountered!

“Of course, in order to increase the atmosphere, Grimm did organize some activities. However, they are not the dirty activities you think, but related to detective reasoning!

“For example ... The kind of reasoning questions that pass the test are more interesting.” Miao kun recalled, “each of you will have to answer 20 questions with the exact same answer. Whoever clears the questions will be rewarded with 200000 pounds! However, as long as he made one mistake, he would be finished!

"In addition, there were some little reasoning games and so on. They were all tricks of the Scotland Yard ...

"In fact, everyone is well aware of this. The purpose of Grimm's detective salon was not because he was a fanatic, but because he was really interested in the strange cases all over the world.

"His real goal is nothing more than to get information from people like us and obtain something beneficial to him through the gathering.

"Did you know?" Miao kun said seriously, "for some high-ranking people, their favorite thing is news! Sometimes, the value of a piece of information was hard to estimate!

"Of course, it's the same for us guests of honor! They were all here to obtain more information! Do you understand?"

"Oh ... I understand." Zhao Yu nodded, then raised a new question. "Since it's good for everyone, why not hold it once a year?"

"You're asking me, but who should I ask?" Miao kun whispered in Zhao Yu's ear, "however, the people who attended the banquet all had powerful backgrounds. None of them were easy to deal with.

"Maybe it's because everyone's too busy and we don't have time to gather?"

"Hmm ... But it does sound interesting!" Zhao Yu turned around and looked at the speedboat that was speeding towards them. He was eager to give it a try.

Juliet pulled Miao kun aside, and the two began to talk in French again.

Although his voice was very soft, Zhao Yu could still hear that Juliet was also worried that Jake would harm Miao kun, and was helping Miao kun with his plans.

Hmph ...

Zhao Yu looked at Miao kun with disdain, because he could see that Juliet had been talking to him with an ambiguous look in her eyes and an intimate action, as if they had had intimate contact before.

This old man was full of benevolence, righteousness, and morality to him. He was worried about this and disapproved of that, but he was outside womanly and had a good time. What a hypocrite ...

At the same time, the skinny Japan writer was squatting by the beach, jotting something down in a small notebook.

Zhao Yu guessed that this guy was probably looking for creative inspiration.

Soon, the speedboat arrived.

There were two speedboats that came to pick them up. The drivers of the speedboats spoke standard English, just like the previous administrator. They apologized for their late arrival and invited them to board the speedboat.

However, something happened that surprised Zhao Yu. When they boarded the speedboat, the driver suddenly asked Zhao Yu to take another speedboat, not allowing him to sit with Miao kun and the others.

Why?

Zhao Yu didn't understand, and Miao kun was also suspicious.

The driver explained that this was the boss's request. All the newcomers participating in the detective salon had to be separated from the old people and take different routes.

"NO, NO, no..." Miao kun immediately objected, pointing at Zhao Yu and saying, "he doesn't understand English. If I don't follow him, he won't be able to communicate with anyone!"

"NO, NO, no..." However, the pilot's attitude was firm. He said that they were all following their boss' orders and could not change it. Moreover, he repeatedly emphasized that it was safe, and that he would ensure that Zhao Yu would not be in any danger.

Miao kun argued with them again. On one hand, he asked to talk to Ge Lin, while on the other hand, he threatened the other party that if Zhao Yu did not follow him, he would quit.

However, the other party was unmoved and refused to agree.

"Alright, alright!" Seeing that things had come to a standstill, Zhao Yu finally stepped forward and said to Miao kun, "it's okay, it's okay! Since the other party had requested this, he could only follow the local customs!"

"Don't worry, father-in-law. I'm the best detective China, I'll be fine!" "I'll make that green regret separating us!" Zhao Yu said, grinning. Hehehe ..."

"..." This time, it was Miao kun's turn to be speechless, because he had a bad feeling from Zhao Yu's smirk.

Chapter 1287: Miss detective

Buzz ... Buzz ...

The speedboat's motor buzzed as it carried Zhao Yu and sped towards the south side of Miracle Island.

Miao kun, Juliet, and Gu zhaochiro, on the other hand, went to the north side of the island.

After a while, Zhao Yu couldn't see his father-in-law anymore, and only he and the driver were left on the speedboat. The driver had a serious look on his face as he drove the speedboat seriously.

Zhao Yu, on the other hand, carefully observed the terrain of Miracle Island. He saw that the outer side of Miracle Island was surrounded by cliffs and reefs, with thousands of blades hanging from them. It was a spectacular sight.

Because of his father-in-law's reminder, Zhao Yu was worried that Ge Lin might have left some clues on the rocks and the cliff, so he looked at it very carefully.

However, even when the speedboat arrived at its destination, he did not see anything out of the ordinary.

The speedboat brought Zhao Yu to a shallow beach, and the driver signaled for him to get off the boat. What was even more infuriating was that, as soon as Zhao Yu got off the boat, the driver left without a word.

Damn it!

Zhao Yu was so angry that he cursed at the driver's ancestors.

However, the speedboat sped away and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Hmm ...

After a moment, Zhao Yu calmed down and observed his surroundings. He saw that the shallow beach he was on only had one step that led to the inner part of the island. The rest of the place was full of cliffs and cliffs. There was no way to go.

Well ... This is interesting, hehe ...

Seeing this, Zhao Yu was no longer angry. He had a faint feeling that since green wanted to separate him from Miao kun and the others, he must have wanted to test Zhao Yu's ability.

Therefore, as long as he followed these steps, he should encounter some tests or obstacles.

Zhao Yu loved challenges, and he had a lot of system devices to protect him, so he was excited again.

Although there were unknown dangers on this trip, it was still a rare opportunity. Therefore, as a China detective, he had to put on a good show ...

Then, Zhao Yu perked up and walked up the stairs.

He didn't expect that when he reached the end of the steps, a small garden would appear. The garden was filled with beautiful trees and red flowers.

It was actually a garden ...

After Zhao Yu walked into the garden, he was very careful, afraid that he would miss or miss something. In the end, not long after he left, he finally found the problem.

In the depths of the garden, there were rows of neatly trimmed pine trees. The pine trees were like walls, forming narrow passages that led in all directions.

F * ck!

Zhao Yu finally understood what was going on. He didn't expect that there would be a maze in the garden!

The pine tree was about three meters tall, and it was so dense that no light could pass through it. It was impossible to see what was behind the tree. Moreover, looking at the maze that extended in all directions, it should not be an ordinary maze.

There's actually such an operation?

Green was just as Miao kun had said. He was really good at playing.

Zhao Yu looked left and right. He felt that he wasn't that good at walking in the maze, so he chose a random path and walked into it.

Of course, Zhao Yu was also very bold. At least he had the invisible aircraft with him. If he really couldn't get out, he could at least fly out.

Just as he had expected, this was no ordinary maze. Not long after Zhao Yu entered, he lost his sense of direction. After walking around for more than ten minutes, he had returned to the starting point.

He didn't find the exit. Instead, he returned to the entrance.

Wow, that's amazing ...

Zhao Yu thought to himself, "this maze is really extraordinary. Logically speaking, my memory and sense of direction are not inferior to others, but I didn't expect to lose my way. This is amazing!"

However, Zhao Yu was a persistent person. After the failure, it aroused his desire to win, which led him into the maze again.

This time, he was extremely careful. With every step he took, he patiently remembered the direction and position.

Hard work paid off. This time, he finally went much further than the last time and came to a place he had never been to before.

However, this time, there was a new accident.

Zhao Yu finally came to a relatively spacious area, but he suddenly realized that there was a person standing there. It was a curly-bearded woman with a very good figure!

Eh?

What was going on? Zhao Yu had always thought that he was the only one who had entered the maze, but he had never expected that there would be someone else, and a woman at that.

From the back, the woman's figure was really great, like a top model at a Fashion Week.

The person was wearing a white T-shirt, blue jeans, and a pair of travel shoes. It looked like the most ordinary match, but when she wore it, it looked so different and particularly beautiful.

When Zhao Yu found the woman, her back was facing him, and she was scribbling something on her hands. She seemed to be calculating something.

However, she was also very alert. As soon as Zhao Yu arrived, she noticed him.

"Oh?" After seeing Zhao Yu, the woman was obviously surprised. She muttered to herself in English, "I'm not the only one!"

The woman turned around, and Zhao Yu was even more surprised. This woman was not only quite young, but also very beautiful. Her face was angular, but she was also charming and elegant.

“Hi!” Seeing that the woman had noticed him, Zhao Yu quickly greeted her and said, “I didn’t expect to have a companion, hehe ...”

Then, Zhao Yu realized that he was speaking in Chinese.

“So it’s a Chinese man!” However, the woman got up, smiled, and said in Chinese, “you look so young. You must have a big background, right? It’s a pity that I don’t know much about the situation in China ...”

“You ... Um ...” Zhao Yu was a little confused. This woman’s smile was devastatingly beautiful. “You speak Mandarin, and you look ...”

“Oh, a mixed-blood!” The woman introduced her graciously, “Xi Mengna, father is Chinese too. Mommy is United States.”

“Oh, hello, hello!” Zhao Yu quickly came forward and introduced himself, “Zhao Yu, China’s number one detective. I solved all five major unsolved cases, so everyone gave me the nickname of unsolved case master.

“Nice to meet you, Ms. Simmons, no, Ms. Simone!”

Then, Zhao Yu gently cupped his fists.

“Pfft ...” Xi menna couldn’t help but laugh. “You call yourself the best detective? you’re really thick-skinned!”

“You flatter me, you flatter me!” Zhao Yu said shamelessly, “since you’re all amazing people, then Miss Xi must be amazing too! I haven’t asked, you are ...”

“I’m not as self-confident as you!” “My father is a private detective. He asked me to represent him in the salon Convention because of his health!”

“Oh ... So you’re the daughter of a private detective. Nice to meet you!” Zhao Yu cupped his fists again.

“But I’ve already inherited my father’s legacy,” said Xi menna with a smile. “You can just call me miss detective!”

Chapter 1288: Maze formation

“Oh, miss detective, Hello!” Zhao Yu extended his right hand politely, wanting to shake hands with the young and beautiful woman.

Unexpectedly, although Xi Mengna also reached out her hand, she did not shake Zhao Yu’s hand. Instead, she put her hands on Zhao Yu’s shoulders and said in a commanding tone,

“Come on, let me use your shoulders. You support me. We’re tall enough. I need to see the structure of the entire maze ...”

As she spoke, Xi Mengna pressed Zhao Yu down and started to lift her long legs, wanting to step on Zhao Yu’s shoulders.

“Well ...” Zhao Yu was naturally not very happy, and said, “isn’t it just a maze? Is it worth the trouble?”

“This isn’t an ordinary maze,” Xi menna said as she held Zhao Yu down. “I’ve been trapped here for an hour! I clearly remembered all the passages, but I just couldn’t get out!”

“Hurry up,” she urged impatiently. “It’ll be too embarrassing if we continue to waste time like this!” As a newcomer to the detective salon, you don’t want to be laughed at by those big shots, do you?”

Then, she rudely pressed down on Zhao Yu’s head, separated her legs, and rode on Zhao Yu’s neck!

“Come, get up slowly ...” The detective ordered. “Later, I need to stand up and step on your shoulders. If I can see the layout of the entire maze, I might be able to find the way out!”

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu didn’t feel very good. Hearing Xi Mengna’s tone, it was as if she was ordering around animals, and he was very unhappy.

However, when he heard that she could find the way out of the maze, he could only grab her legs and slowly stand up.

However, Xi menna’s body was soft and comfortable to the touch.

“Yes, yes, yes ... Come here ...” Xi menna ordered as if she was driving a carriage. “You have to support me. I’m going to stand up!” Be careful ...”

As she spoke, she pressed her hands on Zhao Yu’s head and slowly stepped on Zhao Yu’s shoulder, then slowly stood up ...

Shua shua ...

With a rustling sound, Xi menna quickly stood on Zhao Yu’s shoulder, her face beyond the towering trees of the maze.

“Hey, how’s it going, miss detective?” Zhao Yu grabbed Xi Mengna’s legs and asked curiously, “do you see the exit?”

“Wait a minute ... Don’t shake, don’t shake, okay ...” She complained for a while, and finally looked into the distance, then said worriedly, “Oh, this is not good!”

“This labyrinth is bigger than I thought. I can see the direction clearly, but I still can’t see the exit. The trees are too high ...

“The entire labyrinth seems to be round ... Hmm ...”

“Wow, you’re so slim,” Zhao Yu said with some effort. “Why is your body so heavy?”

“What? I’m only 100 pounds, okay?” Xi menna complained as she watched, “just say you don’t have any strength!”

Actually, with Zhao Yu’s strength alone, lifting the slim beauty was not a problem at all. He was just angry at Xi Mengna for ordering him around, so he just grumbled.

“Okay, we’re done here,” said Xi menna, “go to the right!”

No way?

Zhao Yu felt even more awkward. She only needed to turn her head to see the situation on the right side, but she had to move on her own?

This woman ...

Alright, you asked for this!

Zhao Yu was not a kind person. He had wanted to solve the maze in peace, but he did not expect Xi Mengna to be so rude.

So, on the surface, he cooperated with the beauty and turned to the right, but his body was shaking more and more.

“Hey, hey, hey ...” Feeling the violent shaking, Xi menna quickly shouted, “don’t shake, don’t shake ... I’m going to fall!”

However, Zhao Yu couldn’t stand still. He shook even harder, and soon, Xi Mengna fell off his shoulder.

“Ah!” Xi menna was scared out of her wits. If she had fallen to the ground, it would have been a terrible fall.

Zhao Yu pretended to be anxious, as he stretched out his arms and held the beautiful woman in his arms. In the process of holding her, he deliberately sneaked into her sensitive area.

“Ah ... Get ... Get down ...” Xi menna’s face turned pale with fear. She shouted, “put me down!”

Seeing the beauty’s shock, Zhao Yu bent down in satisfaction and put Xi Mengna on the ground.

Xi Mengna’s figure was amazing. She was soft and boneless, and she exuded a mesmerizing womanly fragrance. Under this touch, he immediately felt like he was floating and it was very effective.

“You’re too full of yourself!” After all, Xi menna was a detective, so she saw through Zhao Yu’s little trick. She scolded him loudly, “I really don’t understand how green got you here? ¥#@#%¥ .....”

It was followed by a bunch of words in English, all of which were basically scolding Zhao Yu.

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry!” After all, Zhao Yu had benefited from this, so he was too embarrassed to reveal his ugly face at this moment. He quickly explained against his will, “I’ve been lacking in exercise recently, lacking in exercise! Don’t be angry, don’t be angry! How was it? Did you see the situation clearly?”

“No, I didn’t! Who asked you to not cooperate?” Although Xi Mengna was angry, she could do nothing about the thick-skinned Zhao Yu.

“Didn’t you just say that the maze is circular? You even found the right direction?” Zhao Yu quickly changed the topic.

“Hmph ... Now you’re thinking of the labyrinth!” Selena said angrily, “my dad said that green is a very strange person! If we can’t get out of this labyrinth today, then we’ll have to prepare to spend the night in it!”

“Spending the night ...” Zhao Yu thought to himself. Spending the night with a beautiful woman in the maze wasn’t a bad thing, was it?

“I’ll tell you!” Xi menna furrowed her brows and said, “this is probably a gossip maze from China! It’s not something that can be easily cracked!”

“Oh?” Zhao Yu knew nothing about labyrinths, but when he heard that it was an eight-trigram array from China, he suddenly got excited and asked, “so advanced? This array ... Is it easy to break?”

“Yeah ...” Xi menna asked in return, “aren’t you a super detective from China? I should be the one asking you that, right?”

“I’m usually busy solving cases. Why would I do something as boring as a maze?” Zhao Yu shrugged. “This doesn’t fit my profession at all!”

“What do you mean by boring stuff?” Xi menna pouted. “As a detective, I need to master all kinds of knowledge!

“Furthermore, this is not a simple maze. This is an ancient China maze formation!” The detective said seriously, “Uncle Green is really good. He actually built such a high-level trap on the island. I’ve never heard my father mention it!”

“A maze formation?” Zhao Yu frowned. “I’ve never heard of it!”

“You?” “You’re taking advantage of me?” Xi menna understood Zhao Yu’s underlying meaning and looked at him with contempt. Isn’t that too wicked? If you’re really capable, then we’ll talk after we get out of this maze formation!”

Hmph Hmph Hmph ...

Zhao Yu laughed coldly and thought to himself, “it’s finally time to show off.” I have so many awesome props on me, do you think I can’t break this small maze?

Chapter 1289: I’ll also make a fool of myself

Another hour later, Zhao Yu and Xi menna were still wandering around in the maze array.

“Ah, I’m so thirsty ...” Xi menna said gloomily. “How can this be?” He had originally planned to come here to learn, but he did not expect to be put into the maze as soon as he came up! This detestable Grimm, how could he treat a guest like this?”

“Well ...” Zhao Yu was not in a hurry, but asked curiously, “miss detective, you and your dad are both private detectives. I’m curious, what cases do private detectives work on?”

“Logically speaking, you guys shouldn’t be able to participate in criminal cases, right?”

“What’s wrong? Even you look down on me?” Xi menna said with a straight face, “don’t think that private detectives are all in small businesses like tracking, catching adulterers, and collecting debts.

“Let me tell you, there are many levels of private detectives! Our employers are all big shots in both politics and business. The cases we work on are all big cases that ordinary people can’t even imagine.

“As for the criminal case you’re talking about ...” Simone raised her hands and said calmly, “the laws in the United States are different from those China. Although we are private detectives, if it involves some cases that the government can’t handle, they will still hire us as consultants.

“My father is so famous because he helped the government solve many murders!”

Oh ...

Zhao Yu could tell that the detective was indeed a powerful person. Her father was probably a famous figure in the United States detective world.

“Um ... Is your dad ... Seriously ill?” Zhao Yu wanted to sound her out, so he asked again, “why? why did you have to come to the banquet on Miracle Island alone?”

“What’s wrong?” Xi menna raised her eyebrows and said vigilantly, “I say, great detective Zhao, you’re not trying to test my words, are you? I advise you not to waste your breath. You will know what you should know, but you will never know what you should not know!

“I’m young, but you’re not old either. Since you can come here alone, why can’t I?”

“You have a sharp tongue, I like it, hehe ...” Zhao Yu complimented her with a smirk.

“Well, in order to eliminate your prejudice against me, I’ll show you my embarrassment ...” Xi menna stopped and said to Zhao Yu, “Zhao Yu, according to my observation, you are right-handed, uneducated, hot-tempered, arrogant, and greedy ...”

“Also, you should have just arrived in Fiji this morning and had some butter biscuits on the plane ...”

“Also ... You often stay up late, like to fight, don’t smoke, don’t read, and don’t like to gamble ...”

“You look perverted, but you’re actually quite devoted to love ...”

“What do you think?” Xi menna spread her hands. “Am I ... Right?”

What the ...

Zhao Yu was secretly surprised. He didn’t expect miss detective to be so accurate.

“I won’t go any further,” said Xi menna proudly. “All in all, your personality, temperament, and quality do not meet the standards of an excellent detective!

“So, I’m really suspicious that you made up the story about the China detective and the unsolved case ...”

“This ...” Zhao Yu was stunned by Xi Mengna’s Rapid Reasoning. For a moment, he forgot how to refute her.

Xi menna finally had the upper hand. She smirked smugly and continued walking forward.

“Eh? What’s wrong again?” At this moment, the two of them were blocked by a Bush. Xi menna could not help but frown. “This road should be open! Why did it suddenly get blocked? This maze formation is so strange ...”

“Wahaha ...” Hearing this, Zhao Yu suddenly laughed and said to Xi menena, “miss detective, I admit that your analysis of me is correct, but if you doubt my ability, then that’s not right!

“Come on, in order to eliminate your prejudice against me, I’ll show you now. Hehe ...” Then, Zhao Yu came to the bushes that blocked the way and said, “this maze array is not strange at all. Can’t you see it?

“Actually, this maze is alive. It’s a moving maze!”

“Ah? A moving maze?” Xi menena was very surprised.

“The trees aren’t all fixed. Some places can move. When we go through a place, the trees will move and change their position, making it impossible for us to figure out their pattern!” Zhao Yu explained.

“Oh ...” Realization dawned on Xi menena. “I see. No wonder I couldn’t find the right person!”

“Look ...” Zhao Yu squatted down and pointed to the roots of the trees, “there are no roots under the trees, so this wall is obviously fake!”

Then, Zhao Yu tried to pull the leaves off the tree, but he didn’t manage to. He looked closer and realized that they were all made of plastic.

“Too cunning!” Xi menena rubbed her hands together. “This means that the route I memorized earlier has been messed up. We’ll have to start all over again!”

“No need,” Zhao Yu said, testing the fake wall with his hand. “We can just go through it directly. It doesn’t play any tricks!”

“But ...” Xi menena frowned. “If we force ourselves to wear it, wouldn’t that be too embarrassing?”

“Hmph, of course I won’t!” Zhao Yu smiled, then reached into the bushes and groped around. He quickly found something green.

Xi Mengna recognized at a glance that the thing Zhao Yu had pulled out was a hidden camera. The camera had been disguised as a tree branch, so it was impossible to tell.

“You see ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the camera and said, “every moving Bush is equipped with surveillance equipment. This way, the operator can accurately grasp our whereabouts. If we were to block our path in time, how would we have the chance to get out?”

“Wow, it’s actually like this ... It’s really too sinister!” Xi menena found it unbelievable. “If it’s all man-made, then we won’t be able to get out even if we walk for a year?”

As she spoke, the way Xi Mengna looked at Zhao Yu had a 180-degree change. However, she didn’t know that Zhao Yu had a super powerful invisible detector on him, which had already seen all the electronic devices in the room.

Then, Zhao Yu put the camera under his feet and stepped on it.

“Eh?” Xi menena was worried. “This ... Isn’t very appropriate, is it?”

“Hmph, what’s inappropriate about that?” Zhao Yu snorted coldly. “Since the host doesn’t follow the rules of hospitality, why should we be polite to him? He deserved it!

“Alright,” Zhao Yu said to Xi Mengna as he pushed the fake bushes aside, “it’s almost time for lunch. Let’s not waste any more time!”

“Mm ... Okay ...” Xi menna nodded vigorously and immediately went through the gap in the tree without hesitation.

Once they found a way to crack it, the maze was no longer mysterious. After a while, the two arrived at a place they had never been to before.

Zhao Yu was really bad. Along the way, he had almost destroyed all the cameras that the detector could detect.

Those who controlled the labyrinth would probably be so angry that their noses were crooked.

“Right, right!” Finally, Xi menna said excitedly, “if I remember correctly, we should be able to reach the exit after passing through this wall!”

After saying that, she quickly passed through a fake thicket, but just as she passed through, she quickly let out a cry of surprise.

Eh?

Zhao Yu didn’t know what was going on, so he quickly followed behind. When he passed through, he was shocked to see that there was a huge pool in front of him.

The pool was filled with terrifying crocodiles!

Chapter 1290: Crocodile pool

“Impossible, there’s a crocodile pool?” When Xi menna saw the crocodile, she immediately frowned. “Didn’t you say that there’s no danger? Why is there a crocodile?”

“F * ck ...” Zhao Yu cursed in his heart, feeling a little annoyed.

He had originally wanted to join the party and experience the fun of being rich. However, he did not expect that besides the perverted maze, crocodiles would also appear.

There were crocodiles everywhere in the pool. Some were lying in the water, motionless, while others were crawling slowly in the water, revealing their terrifyingly huge jaws. It was very scary.

“This is ...”

After observing the terrain, Xi Mengna and Zhao Yu quickly noticed that there were many tower-like frames on top of the crocodile pool, and the frames were connected to many small bridges.

However, the small bridges were not interconnected, and there was no way to cross them.

“Oh ... I understand!”

Xi menna reacted quickly. She took a step forward and came to the first tower on the shore. There was something that looked like a turntable on the tower.

"I've seen this before. It's called ancient Egypt turntable chess," Simone introduced. "It's a small game based on ancient Egyptian astronomy. It's not very complicated to play ..."

Xi menna looked at the chessboard seriously. In less than ten seconds, she started to move the chess pieces on the board and took two steps.

As a result, the tower in front of them immediately rotated, turning a small bridge to the ground under their feet.

"What ... What do you think?" "Let's go!" Xi menna raised her eyebrows proudly and snapped her fingers at Zhao Yu. With me here, we will be able to pass through the crocodile pool!"

After she finished speaking, she stepped onto the small bridge first.

However, after Zhao Yu saw this, he did not follow her onto the bridge, but made a "you first" gesture, which meant that he did not want to go on the bridge with her.

"Hmph!" Xi menena squinted at Zhao Yu. "Don't say I didn't warn you, the bridge might be taken back. There's a famous Chinese saying, 'once you've passed this village, there won't be another shop like this' ..."

"No, I'm afraid of crocodiles!" Zhao Yu waved his hand and said, "you go first!"

"Okay." Xi menna looked at Zhao Yu with disdain. "Then I'll go have lunch first. You can stay here hungry and thirsty!"

With that, without hesitation, Xi menna walked along the small bridge and headed to another tower.

When she reached the second tower, she quickly found another chessboard. However, the second chessboard was obviously different from the first one.

"This is ..." Xi menna recalled. "This is some kind of chess from ancient Greece. It seems to be related to the colors of the rainbow ..."

As she spoke, she took out her phone to search for information, but there was no signal at all.

"Tsk tsk ..." The detective pouted helplessly. After seriously recalling for a moment, she had no choice but to try it herself.

Fortunately, this kind of ancient Greek chess was not difficult. She found the method after fiddling with it a few times. Soon, she opened the third tower and turned another small bridge to her feet.

Following that, she did not stop as she walked along the bridge to the third tower. However, when she saw the chessboard on the third tower, her expression changed.

"Oh no..." She mumbled in a low voice, "isn't this China's Huarong Dao?" That's troublesome. I've played with it before when I was young, but I've forgotten all about it ..."

As she spoke, she tried to move a few chess pieces and shook her head with a bitter smile. "There shouldn't be a problem in solving it, but ... It will take a long time! Oh, right ..."

It was only then that she remembered Zhao Yu. As Zhao Yu was from China, he might have a better understanding of the Huarong Daoist than he did.

Thinking of this, she quickly turned around and waved, wanting to ask Zhao Yu to come over and help.

However, just as she turned around, she was shocked by what she saw. Zhao Yu had rolled up his pants and swaggered into the suanni crocodile pool!

“Hey!” “Zhao Yu, what are you doing?” Xi menna screamed in fear. “Do you want to die?” Hurry ... Hurry up and come out ...”

However, Zhao Yu didn't care at all, and continued to walk stubbornly into the crocodile pool.

“No, no, no...” Xi menna grabbed the bridge's handle and shouted, “this lunatic, lunatic ... If you do this, it's too late even if you force the administrator out.” Eh?”

Unexpectedly, just as Xi Mengna finished her exclamation, Zhao Yu bent down and reached into the water, then grabbed a crocodile!

This time, Xi menna was completely dumbfounded.

The crocodile that Zhao Yu had dragged out of the water only had the upper half of its body. The lower half of the crocodile was an empty wooden shelf.

“Ah?” Xi menna was shocked and mumbled, “they ... They're all fake! This ...”

The next second, Zhao Yu threw the fake crocodile into the pool, then reached out to grab a crocodile that was crawling. Then, Zhao Yu threw the crocodile into the pool. The crocodile broke into pieces, and many electronic components fell out.

“This ... This is fake too ...” Xi menna's mouth was wide open. She could not believe it.

“Hmph!” Zhao Yu laughed coldly and wiped his hands. He then walked along the pool to the bridge where Xi menna was. “Miss detective, Do you understand now? the crocodile pool was not a test of intelligence at all, but of our courage!

“Come ...” Zhao Yu extended his hand to Xi menna. “Come down!” Just like a maze, Grimm's goal is to let us find a shortcut!”

“Mm ...” Xi menna looked at Zhao Yu carefully and asked worriedly, “is the water deep?”

The water in the pond was only up to Zhao Yu's knees, and it was already obvious. So, Xi Mengna was not asking if the water was deep, but whether the water was dirty.

Zhao Yu immediately understood and patted his shoulder, saying, “Come, this time, you can ride on my neck!”

“Mm ...” As Zhao Yu had thrown her once, Xi Mengna was obviously a little hesitant. She was worried that Zhao Yu would use the same trick again and take advantage of her.

“Don't worry!” Zhao Yu laughed. “I'm an upright person!”

“Mm ...”

Xi Mengna pondered for a while, but chose to believe Zhao Yu. She immediately flipped over the railing and sat on Zhao Yu's neck again.

This time, Zhao Yu was completely willing to do so. Of course, he would not make things difficult for the detective again.

Then, Zhao Yu waded through the water and walked straight to the other side of the crocodile pool.

"I don't understand ..." Xi menna asked in confusion. "How do you know that these crocodiles are all fake?" It's so realistic that I can't tell at all ..."

"Hehe ..." Zhao Yu laughed lightly. "Haven't you heard of crocodile tears? I found that the eyes of these crocodiles were all dry.

"Also, the crocodile skin floating on the water is too dry. Crocodiles don't let their bodies dry to maintain their body temperature.

"Of course, those crocodiles that are moving also have a fixed route of movement. It can't help but be suspicious!"

"Oh ..." This time, Xi menna was completely convinced. She admitted, "it seems that my analysis of you was wrong. You're indeed not as good as I thought!"

"You flatter me, you flatter me!" Zhao Yu was proud of himself. "I'm just humble, wise, and like to keep a low profile. Hehe ..."

Gulp ...

Xi menena was stunned by Zhao Yu's attitude and swallowed unconsciously.
