Chapter 1301: forming gangs

“Kid, aren’t you on good terms with Xi Wei’s daughter?” In the guest room, Miao kun suggested to Zhao Yu, “why don’t we talk to her and get her to join us?”

“Although they are of different nationalities, they all speak Chinese!”

“This ... Is it useful?” Zhao Yu frowned.

Miao kun then said, “Xi Wei is the most famous private detective in the United States. He must be able to remember the letters on his room card.”

“It’s a pity that all communication has been cut off,” Miao kun said, shaking his head. “Otherwise, I could have asked the pretty girl to call her father!”

Speaking of the phone, Zhao Yu suddenly felt good. Because he had a signal booster with him, he wasn’t afraid of not being able to contact the outside world.

However, the situation was still unclear, so it was not the time to use it. Moreover, he had yet to come up with a reasonable explanation. How was he going to explain it to Miao kun if he used it?

“What, is Xi Wei very famous?” He could only change the topic and ask, “why haven’t I heard of it before?”

“A private detective of his level usually keeps a low profile.” Miao kun replied, “it’s very difficult for ordinary people to come into contact with it! However, in the industry, this guy was one of the top experts and was very close to the US politicians!

“It’s not an exaggeration to say that as long as he’s willing to take on cases, there’s no case he can’t solve! Especially his ability to find people, he’s world-class. Even the professional Intelligence Department can’t compare. ”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu nodded.

“Hmph, you little brat, I know what you’re thinking!” Miao kun’s face darkened. “You must be comparing Xi Wei’s daughter to my Yingying!”

“I’m telling you, don’t you have any evil thoughts. Xi Wei is poisonous, you can’t touch him!” Miao kun said seriously, “besides, even though we are all Chinese, we have different standpoints.

“So, you can use Xi Wei’s daughter, but don’t get yourself involved! As the saying goes, curiosity kills the cat, and desire kills the dog. You ...”

“Aiyo, alright, aren’t you annoying? Why does every topic turn to preaching?” Zhao Yu said impatiently, “I’m telling you, I have an old saying, ‘a Crooked Stick will have a crooked shadow’. You should be a good example for me, right?”

“You ... Um ...” Miao kun was at a loss for words.

"I don't understand ..." Zhao Yu spread out his hands and said, "how many of you are there? It's a lot worse than 13, right? Even if we can get everyone's letters together, it's still not enough. How can we break a diamond?"

"It's okay. The English letters are not as rich as our Chinese," Miao kun said. "As long as you can master more than half of them, you can start playing the guessing game. Let's try the 26 letters in turns!"

"Besides, I know an India alphabet! P a ..." He mumbled, "my P is in capital letters, while the India's a is in capital letters. It seems that the clues left by Grimm have to be in capital letters!"

"I really want to know what other people's are ..."

"Eh?" Zhao Yu's eyes lit up, and he asked, "senior touqiang France? If you're so close to her, why don't you pull her into your team?"

"No, no!" "We're on different sides," Miao kun said, waving his hand. "We may be close, but not to that extent ..."

"No way? You've already rolled on the bed, how good can you be?" Zhao Yu mumbled.

"What did you just say? Don't talk nonsense! "She and I ... Um ... Um ..." Miao kun's eyes flickered, and he retorted with little confidence, "I don't have such a weird taste, do I? Why would he fall for such a strong woman?"

Hmph ...

Zhao Yu looked down on her in his heart. "You know what your taste is like."

"Absolutely not," Miao kun said in a low voice. "Don't be fooled by Juliet's enthusiasm, she's actually a standard cold-blooded animal. We'll only be asking for trouble if we ally with her!"

"That ... That Latin man and black man have been speaking up for you," Zhao Yu asked again. "How are they?"

"No, no," Miao kun retorted without thinking. "Those two people are cunning. If we work with them, we'll be cheated!"

"What about the middle Eastern man?" Zhao Yu asked again, "you guys seem to get along so well. How's your relationship?"

"He's a glib-tongued, black-hearted businessman," Miao kun said. "You'll never get the truth from his mouth. It's more reliable to work with the Jecca Alliance than with him!"

"Tsk tsk ..." Zhao Yu shook his head and smiled bitterly.

"You don't have to think about it," Miao kun said. "The Japan and Li Bencheng are even worse. Among this group of people, only Xi Wei's daughter is more reliable. It's a pity that she doesn't know Xi Wei's alphabet!"

"I don't think there's anyone else with such a complicated relationship." Zhao Yu was depressed. "We're trapped on Miracle Island and forced to look for diamonds, but I have to face two deadly enemies with you. This is really ..." He said.

"It's useless to mock me! "I'm used to it ..." Miao kun picked up a bottle of red wine from the wine rack, then opened the lid to find a bottle opener."Just now, sai wanbach and Jake said that they'll be drinking in their room tonight ..." He said.

"I think we should take advantage of this opportunity to eavesdrop on them at night ..." Miao kun found the bottle opener and deftly removed the cork."The two of them are close. Maybe they will mention their password!"

"Come on, the people here are all smart, how did you eavesdrop?" Zhao Yu asked,"you brought your equipment?"

"No... But ..." Miao kun took a sip of red wine, then took out his mobile phone and said,"although there is no signal on the phone, it should be fine to record a voice, right?"

"Oh." Zhao Yu nodded.

"So ..." Miao kun patted Zhao Yu's shoulder and handed his phone to Zhao Yu."I'll leave this difficult task to you!" In the afternoon, people will definitely go out to look for clues, and then you can go to Jecka's room to plant a bug!"

"This ... Why me?" Zhao Yu was not convinced.

"Of course it's you. With my old arms and legs, if I get caught by them, won't I be crippled?" Miao kun said righteously.

"This is too unreasonable. Aren't you afraid that they'll cripple me?" After Zhao Yu looked at his father-in-law with contempt and disdain, he returned the phone to him and said,"alright, I advise you to stay calm!"

"The situation isn't clear yet, and everyone has ulterior motives. Think about it carefully, we should keep our cool and wait for the changes, we shouldn't act rashly! Once you're caught, it'll be even worse!"

"Mm ..." Miao kun took another sip. He suddenly felt that Zhao Yu made sense, so he sat down on the sofa patiently.

"And ..." Zhao Yu glanced at the door and said,"I have a feeling that we don't need to take the initiative to attack at all. Soon, someone will come to discuss with us!"

Unexpectedly, before Zhao Yu could finish his sentence, there was a knock on the door.

"What the ... That godly?" Miao kun straightened his neck, his face full of disbelief.

Zhao Yu snapped his fingers at him, signaling for him to leave.

Only then did Miao kun react, and he quickly hid in the bathroom ...

Chapter 1302: Alliance

The old-fashioned door squeaked. Zhao Yu opened it and saw that the person standing outside was none other than the detective, Xi menna.

“Zhao Yu ...” As soon as the door opened, Xi Mengna pushed the door open and came in. She pointed to the backpack in her hand and said, “the shower in my bathroom is broken. I wanted to change rooms, but I don’t have any!”

“I can’t wait to fix it, so I’m going to use your bathroom first. I need to take a shower ...” Then, without waiting for Zhao Yu’s permission, Xi Mengna went straight to the bathroom.

“Hey, hey, hey?” Miao kun was still in the bathroom. Zhao Yu quickly stopped him. “Wait, wait ...” He said.

“Eh? What’s wrong?” “You’re not that petty, are you?” Xi mengna asked with a straight face.

“No... It’s not that ... I ... Um ...” Zhao Yu didn’t know how to explain. He wanted to tell the truth, but he was afraid that it would harm Miao kun.

“Don’t worry, I’m just taking a shower, not taking a shower with you ...” Xi mengna said casually, “if you want to avoid suspicion, here ... This is my room key. Wait for me in my room!”

“No, I don’t mean that ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the bathroom and wanted to tell her the truth.

“What does that mean?” Xi mengna was unhappy. “This is an ancient United Kingdom Castle. Can’t you be a gentleman? Don’t tell me ... You really want to shower with me?”

“No, no...” Zhao Yu’s fingers trembled, and he finally thought of an excuse. He blushed and said, “I just pooped, and the bathroom smells too bad. You wouldn’t want to go in!”

“...” As soon as he said that, the scene froze. Xi Mengna looked embarrassed, while Zhao Yu pinched his nose, as if he could really smell the stench.

“You’re ... Really gentlemanly!” Xi mengna then helplessly threw her bag on the sofa and said, “okay, then I’ll wait for a while. Other than you and that uncle Miao, I don’t know anyone else!”

“Um ... How about ...” Zhao Yu suggested, “I take you to uncle Miao and use his bathroom?”

“Forget it. That guy is always lecherous. I don’t trust him!” Xi mengna said honestly.

‘F * ck ...’

Zhao Yu was speechless. He didn’t expect an outsider to know his father-in-law better than he did.

“By the way, I’ve heard you guys talking about something. Are you close to Female Miao?” Xi mengna asked.

“Hmm...It’s alright!” Zhao Yu didn’t know how to answer. “He was the one who brought me to Miracle Island. I didn’t expect to be in such a mess!”

“Yeah, I also want to learn something!” Xi mengna bit her lip. “But it suddenly became a combat drill! Zhao Yu, have you noticed that the atmosphere is a little off? Did something happen because of the diamond?”

“That won’t happen,” Zhao Yu consoled her. “Why don’t you talk to Molly? in fact, the diamond has nothing to do with you. Why don’t you leave as soon as possible?”

"That's impossible." Xi menna shook her head. "How could she let me leave after the diamond was announced? Can't you see that all the communication signals on the island are blocked?"

"Well, that's true ..." Zhao Yu nodded.

"But don't worry about me." Xi menna smiled. "A hundred times of learning experience can't compare to one battle drill. Although I'm not interested in diamonds, I'd like to admire the skills of all the big bosses. It'd be very rare to see diamonds in the world again!"

"Such a good attitude ..." Zhao Yu praised her on the surface, but he was secretly worried about the young girl. Logically speaking, she shouldn't have gotten involved in this.

"By the way," Zhao Yu thought of another question, "why didn't your dad come? is it because of his health?"

"Yes, his health is one thing, but his busy schedule is another." After saying that, Xi menna looked a little worried. "If I don't contact him for a long time, I don't know if he will send someone to look for me ..."

"Oh, then ..." Zhao Yu thought about it carefully, then asked, "did your father tell you the details of the detective salon ten years ago?"

"Of course he did," said Simone without thinking. "My dad said that green is a very interesting person. He always likes to play tricks and set up traps ..."

"Oh, really? "Let me test you," Zhao Yu said casually. "Which room did your father live in? you must not remember, right?"

"Hmm ..." Xi menna's eyes were wide open as she thought for a moment, then she answered, "the one on the second floor next to the stairs, the one on the South!"

"Oh, the South. 201 or 202?" Zhao Yu asked again, "there should be a room number on the room card, right? Did your dad mention it to you?"

"Room card?" Xi menna thought for a moment and shook her head. "My dad never told me. He only said that there was a chessboard in the room, and there was an incomplete game of chess on the chessboard.

"My father untied the broken chess piece, and a gold chess piece popped out from the bottom of the chessboard. That gold chess piece is still in my study room!"

"Oh ... Your dad is amazing ..." Zhao Yu didn't care about that, and he seemed to be a little perfunctory. Actually, he really wanted to ask Xi Wei directly about the letter on the room card, but he couldn't say it.

He was worried that if Xi menna did not know what Xi Wei's letter was, it would increase the chances of her identity being exposed.

After all, Zhao Yu didn't know much about Xi Mengna.

"Aiyo, you can really drink ..." At this time, Xi menna noticed the red wine on the coffee table and gave Zhao Yu a thumbs up. "You don't even need a glass, you're really something!"

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu walked to the bathroom and said, “how about this, I’ll go and smell it to see if the smell has dissipated?”

He slammed the door of the bathroom open, took a deep breath, and then covered his nose. “Damn it, the castle’s equipment is old, and the smell has been spreading out for so long. If I had known, I wouldn’t have pooped so much!”

“Huh ...” Xi menna subconsciously covered her mouth.

“How about this ...” Zhao Yu took Xi menna’s backpack with one hand and grabbed Xi menna herself with the other, saying, “I’ll take you to uncle Miao’s room to wash up!” Don’t worry, when you’re taking a bath, I’ll pull him out and not let him in the room! Let’s go ...”

Then, Zhao Yu dragged Xi Mengna out of the house without any hesitation.

However, as soon as they left the house, they saw a man in yellow overalls standing at the door of the opposite room with a toolbox in his hand.

“Oh, miss,” the man said in English as soon as he saw her. “Your shower has been fixed, but the switch was loose. You can use it now!”

“Mm ...” Xi Mengna looked at Zhao Yu and said, “that’s good. I’m going to take a shower!” Zhao Yu, I don’t have any friends here. If you have any plans, can you ask me to join you?”

“Of course, no problem!” “Of course!” Zhao Yu agreed readily. “Among these people, only the two of us, who are new here, don’t have any conflict of interest. So, of course, we can form an alliance!”

“Hehe ... Alliance!” Xi Mengna high-fived Zhao Yu happily, then went back to her room to take a shower.

However, when Zhao Yu turned around, he suddenly saw another scene.

In the shadow at the end of the corridor, the big guy, Jecca, threw his half-smoked cigarette to the ground and stubbed out the cigarette with his foot. He then reached out his right hand and held it tightly with another person.

The person standing in front of him was none other than the Korea spy, Lee Bencheng.

Zhao Yu saw them, and they also saw Zhao Yu. There was a ferocious look in Jecca’s eyes ...

‘Shit ...’

Zhao Yu’s heart skipped a beat. It seemed like he was not the only one busy forming an alliance ...

Chapter 1303: -puzzle game

At threeo’ clock in the afternoon, after a short break, everyone left their rooms one after another and began their so-called diamond-searching journey.

However, they did not search aimlessly. Instead, they gathered in the living room and began to symbolically discuss their plans.

After all, the area of Miracle Island was too large. If they didn’t have any clues and just searched blindly, it would be like looking for a needle in a haystack. No one would be stupid enough to wander around.

Moreover, just as Zhao Yu and Miao kun had expected, among these people, there must be someone who, like the two of them, had already realized the clue about the letters on the door plate.

Therefore, the atmosphere of the discussion became very subtle.

Everyone pretended to study the clues left by Grimm seriously, but in private, the undercurrent was surging, and they were carefully studying their own plans.

Indeed, the riddle that Grimm had left for everyone was indeed thought-provoking.

Everyone had their own selfish desires. They wanted to know other people's alphabets, but they didn't want to tell others their own. Whoever could understand the entire clue first would have the highest chance of finding the diamond.

"Everyone ..." Finally, Molly and her men appeared. Molly pointed to a few large cardboard boxes and said, "these are all the things my father left in the storeroom. We've already sorted out the information related to the detective salon last time. Please take a look and see if you can recall any important clues."

With that, someone carried in many paper boxes and placed them on the table.

After the items were put away, everyone looked at each other, then opened their boxes and began to check them one by one.

In the beginning, everyone was more restrained and reserved, but as the items in the box increased, everyone's purpose became stronger.

Especially that Middle Eastern man, you SUFU. He had no interest in the other items, but he kept rummaging through the box. After he finished rummaging through one, he went on to rummage through another.

He clearly wanted to see if the box had the old key plate.

Since she was being so explicit, it was obvious that the others were unhappy. The black man, Sisay, quickly went forward and pretended to rummage through something, but he secretly pressed down on her arm.

"En ..." You SUFU finally reacted and hurriedly slowed down. He panted heavily, as if he had just gone mad.

Zhao Yu stole a glance at Jasmine. Luckily, Jasmine was talking to her subordinates and didn't see anything unusual about Yusufu. Otherwise, with Jasmine's observation skills, she might have noticed something.

Hu ...

Everyone secretly heaved a sigh of relief. You SUFU was also drenched in cold sweat, feeling a little scared. In fact, under such circumstances, if the key plate was really in the box, no one would be able to take it for themselves.

Moreover ... If that was really a clue left behind by Grimm, it would definitely not be in the box.

"I'm really sorry. There's too much water in the storage room, and many things are moldy!" After Molly finished explaining to her subordinates, she said to everyone, "if you think it's necessary to go to the storage room in person, just let my subordinates lead the way!"

"There's one thing I want to reiterate. On this Island, I will do my best to ensure everyone's freedom. However, I hope everyone can understand the signal blocking and the matter of leaving the island."

"Before the diamond is found, this news must not be leaked. I think everyone should be able to understand me!"

"I understand, I understand, of course I understand ..." Yusufu smiled flatteringly. "Since there's a Commission, everyone will definitely work hard, right? Hehehe ..."

"Hmph, you flatterer!" Miao kun glanced at Yusufu contemptuously, then said to Molly in an even more flattering tone, "hehehe, my niece, don't worry. With me around, I'll definitely find the diamond!" "We'll definitely do our best, hahaha ..."

I'll ...

Everyone immediately fell over.

"Miss Jasmine ..." Juliet suddenly spoke with a serious expression. "There are two things I hope you can tell me."

"First, how did Grimm die? Was it an accident, an illness, or some other reason?"

"Second, can you make Green's will about the diamond public? maybe we can find some hidden clues from it ..."

"Right, right, that makes sense!" In the distance, Jake echoed, "we've been tricked by Grimm many times before. This time, don't play some fake death with us!"

"If he's really lying to us, I'll definitely use my fists to greet him!"

"My father ... Didn't die of an accident or an illness," Molly said without changing her expression. "It was the most common natural death. He died very peacefully!"

"It can't be?" Jieka pouted. "That old man's body is great! Why did he leave so suddenly? I ... I saw him in London half a year ago. At that time, he didn't look old at all!"

"Alright ..." Molly said, "tonight, I'll show you some of my father's final images, the doctor's diagnosis, and his will!"

"Life is unpredictable. Who can predict when one will grow old, get sick, and die?"

"Why at night? Can't I do it now?" Juliet asked doubtfully.

"Yes, I need to do some editing!" Molly said frankly, "you guys know that my father knows a lot of secrets. You're all experts, so I can't just reveal all the information."

"But, please believe me, this is definitely not a test or a prank. The will, the diamond, and the clues are all real!"

"In addition to the Commission, I believe that everyone here is responsible. Everyone should know what the consequences will be if the diamond can't be found." Molly said solemnly, "twenty-two years ago, my father made a huge mistake and caused serious consequences. Even if you didn't experience it yourself, you should know, right?"

"So, I hope that today, twenty-two years later, I will not repeat my father's mistakes. Let's work hard together to solve the diamond issue. No more innocent people will die because of this, okay?"

"Mm ..."

After everyone heard this, they all revealed complicated expressions, but most of them still nodded in agreement.

"I'm counting on you guys. If you have any difficulties, please let me know." Molly nodded sincerely. "I'll definitely do my best to help you solve them!"

"Hmm, Alright, alright!" You SUFU was the first to speak. "Since that's the case, then everyone should do their best!"

As he said that, he reached out and rummaged through the items in the box, and very casually took out a draft.

"Eh? Look, isn't this the intelligence test question that Grimm gave us?" As he spoke, he unfolded the sketch in front of everyone.

"Right, it left a deep impression. I got this question wrong!" "The real hijackers were the flight attendants, not the disabled man with a crutch!"

"That's right," sai wanbach agreed. "Aviation Regulations are strict, and the equipment of the disabled has to be checked regularly. So, the gun used by the robbers can't be a disabled person's walking stick!"

"This question caused me to lose 200000 pounds!" Tani zhaochiro recalled in frustration.

"Here ... Let's take a look at this one. This draft should be the last question, right?" As she spoke, she took out another sketch and pointed at the words on it. "The drowned magician!"

"As described in the painting, the magician drowned while performing an Escape Magic. Later, the police proved that the magician's magic props had been tampered with, and the key hidden under the magician's tongue could not be opened!

"In addition, the magician also bought an expensive accident insurance, and the beneficiary is his wife. Please answer according to this picture, who is the real murderer that killed magician?"

"This question ... I don't think anyone could last until the end ..." The Korean, Lee Bencheng, suddenly looked at the sketch and said, "in that case, why don't we guess it on the spot? perhaps, there are some hidden clues about Grimm behind this?"

Chapter 1304: The correct answer

The picture was of the magician's accident while performing magic.

Magician was performing an underwater escape Magic. He was trapped in a transparent water tank and had already drowned ...

There were many people in the painting. The magician's wife could be seen waving an axe and chopping the glass of the water tank. A dwarf was pressing a remote control; The performance Assistant jumped to the top of the water tank and tried to open the top of the water tank to save her. A few actors were so anxious that they scratched their ears and cheeks, and even used their fists to chisel the glass ...

In addition to the stage, the situation below the stage was also drawn in the picture, but the audience was also shocked, and there were children among them ...

"Hehehe ..." After carefully looking at the picture, Lee Bencheng asked the crowd, "what do you think, everyone? who do you think is the real murderer of magician?"

"Hmm ... I think ..."

Yusoff wanted to speak but was stopped by Jecka.

"Hey, do you still remember? 20 questions, a total bonus of 200000 pounds. So, this question is worth at least 10000 pounds!" "Everyone only has one chance," said Jecka. "You must be careful!"

"Go, go, go. It's been ten years. Why are you still talking about bonuses?" You SUFU frowned. "Hurry up and solve the puzzle. See if there are any hidden clues!"

"It doesn't matter," Molly said. "If you're really interested, the bonus is still valid. You can give it a try! However, I don't know what the correct answer is. "

"Never mind, I'm not interested ..." Juliet shook her head. "There are only a few people in total. I'll be right!"

"What's there to be confused about?" You SUFU raised her hands. "After seeing it last time, I must have memorized it all. It's been ten years since then, who doesn't know the correct answer?"

"You're right. Since we already know the correct answer, it's no longer interesting ..." Lee Bencheng said with confidence, "so, should we give the newcomer a chance?"

After li Bencheng said that, everyone instinctively looked at Zhao Yu and Xi menna.

"Yeah, isn't there a China detective?" "Why don't we see what this China detective is capable of?" Come, welcome, welcome ..."

"Mm ..." Miao kun looked at Zhao Yu awkwardly, then tried to translate the situation to him.

"Female Miao, what are you doing?" "Are you going to tell him the answer?" he asked, pointing at Miao kun. Do you want to embarrass the Chinese in front of so many people?"

"Zhao Yu doesn't understand English. I just wanted to translate it for him," Miao kun explained.

"There's no need for that. I can speak Chinese too!" The one who spoke was Lee Bencheng. He immediately pointed at the picture and wanted to explain the meaning clearly.

“The correct answer is suicide! The magician killed himself!”

As soon as he said that, all the people who could understand Chinese at the scene were surprised.

“Look ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the picture and said, “the actors’ costumes are patched, which shows that they are living on a tight budget.

“There are only a few people in the audience, and they don’t look high-class, which means that magic shows don’t make money.

“The magician’s wife’s face was covered in sweat, which meant that she used her full strength to chop the water tank with the axe. She couldn’t be the murderer.

“Also, the person who tried to open the water tank couldn’t open it no matter what, which means that the water tank was locked from the inside, which means that magician doesn’t want to be saved! Therefore, he had also tampered with the escape shackles himself ...

“The magician bought his own insurance, and the beneficiary is his wife. The reason he did so was because the magic show couldn’t continue. He hoped that his death would improve the lives of his wife and child ...

“Did you guys notice? Magician was about to drown, but there was no fear on his face. So, the answer is that he carefully planned his suicide and faked an accident!”

“.....”

Zhao Yu explained in Chinese, and Xi Mengna translated it to everyone almost simultaneously. Therefore, after everyone heard this, they were all stunned by Zhao Yu’s amazing observation skills.

“Um ...” Jasmine asked everyone with her eyes wide open, “everyone, did the China detective give the same answer as you?”

“This ...” For a moment, no one responded.

“Hmph, no need to ask others!” Zhao Yu laughed. “This painting is obviously hand-drawn, and the answer is already written on it. Look at the armband, then look at the clown’s boots, and here ... Here ... All of them are hidden with English letters. When put together, it’s the English word ‘water Swish Swish’!

“The damp parts of this scroll are slightly red with rust. It’s obviously different from the corrosion of ordinary paper. So ...”

Zhao Yu picked up a glass of water that he had prepared earlier and splashed it on the painting.

A few seconds later, magician’s body turned red. It was the magician himself!

“Wow ...” Miao kun clapped and whistled. He praised Zhao Yu, “awesome! That’s awesome!” Hahaha ...”

Miao kun clapped his hands, and so did Xi menna and Jasmine. However, the others were obviously embarrassed after hearing the applause, especially li Bencheng and Jecca.

“Kid, this question itself is very simple. Take a look at this question!” “Oh?” Jake suddenly copied a picture of a puzzle and said to Zhao Yu, “murder case in the downtown area. A young man was stabbed to death in the downtown area. There were a total of 107 people around him. Can you find out which one of them was the murderer?”

“This question is indeed a test of eyesight,” Tani zhaichiro recalled. “It took me half an hour to answer it, and I was almost late!”

Seeing this, Xi menna quickly translated to Zhao Yu in Chinese. However, Zhao Yu didn’t look at it carefully at all, but pointed at the victim in the picture and said,

“This question is exactly the same as the magician’s. The victim committed suicide by stabbing himself to death!”

“.....”

Hearing Zhao Yu’s quick answer, Jecka was speechless, and Gu zhaichiro was ashamed.

“Why?” “Why did he stab himself to death?” Xi menna was confused.

“Because he has depression, hehehe ...” Zhao Yu laughed and explained, “I’m just joking! In fact, the key point was here. The place where the deceased died happened to be illuminated by neon lights.

“Think about it, if an assassin wanted to kill someone on the street, why would he do it under the neon lights? “Look ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the picture and said, “the front and the back are all shadowy areas. It’s more covert to make a move there!”

“The reason why this person chose to commit suicide was probably because he bought insurance like magician. He wanted to mislead the police and make them think that it was a murder.

“Of course, there’s a more important point ...” Zhao Yu pointed at Miao kun and said seriously, “Female Miao told me the story of a detective salon, so I already knew the answer to this question! Wahahaha ...”

Zhao Yu’s smile was like a pig being slaughtered. Everyone frowned, feeling that it was particularly ear-piercing.

Chapter 1305: super divination

In fact, Zhao Yu was not right. Miao kun had not told him the details of the detective salon, so it was impossible for him to know the answers to the two questions.

However, Zhao Yu didn’t find the correct answer on his own. At the critical moment, he used an invisible browser to find similar questions on the internet, then answered them with ease.

Zhao Yu wasn’t interested in reasoning problems like this.

After all, there were cultural differences between the East and the West. Zhao Yu thought that in reality, it was impossible to make such a brain-burning deduction.

The major cases that he had solved in the past could not be solved by relying on some small tricks and cleverness. He had to put in all his energy and patience that was beyond ordinary people.

Therefore, Zhao Yu didn't think much of these clever reasoning problems.

Jieka and Li Bencheng's attempt to make things difficult for Zhao Yu was unsuccessful, and the atmosphere gradually became dull. It didn't take long for everyone to finish reading the information, but unsurprisingly, they didn't find anything.

Then, taking advantage of the break of dawn, Miao kun suggested that they pay their respects to green. Molly then led the group to the cemetery located in the northern part of the island.

As usual, most of Grimm's ancestors were buried on the island. In order to commemorate them, the Fiji Government would send people to pay tribute to them at a specific time.

Grimm's grave was located at the back of the many graves. It looked brand new and luxurious. The fresh flowers placed in front of the grave still exuded a unique fragrance ...

After that, they followed Molly to visit some of the newly built buildings on Miracle Island, including a few gardens, a tennis court, a simple golf course, and a small horse track.

The sky quickly darkened. At dinner time, Molly held a unique dinner party for everyone. The dinner was a buffet, which made it easier for the guests to talk freely.

However, everyone had a tacit understanding. Although the discussion was very intense and they seemed to be seriously studying the search for the diamond, no one mentioned the door number.

"You've really made me proud, kid!" In the corner of the restaurant, Miao kun said to Zhao Yu with a complicated expression, "when did I tell you the answer? You guessed it yourself. You're so awesome, why don't you just act cool?"

"Hmph, you still don't understand?" Zhao Yu put a crab in front of him and said, "although I'm smart and invincible, I'm humble!"

"We can't be too high-profile at this time! Otherwise ... A tall tree attracts the wind. If we show off too much, we'll get into trouble instead ..."

"Go to hell ..." Miao kun said, holding his glass. "Why do you always feel so good about yourself?" Aren't you too thick-skinned?"

"You flatter me," Zhao Yu laughed evily. "As long as I work hard for another ten years, I'll probably be able to catch up to one-third of your speed! Hehehe ..."

"You little brat ..."

Miao kun raised his cup and pretended to hit her, but at that moment, Molly suddenly led a group of people to them.

"Detective Zhao Yu, I don't care if you were warned or not, but I'm a man of my word!" Molly spoke in English, then personally placed an envelope in front of Zhao Yu. "The reward of ten thousand pounds is now yours!"

"Oh?" Zhao Yu didn't really care about the ten thousand pounds, but was surprised.

“I’ve already seen your ‘sharpness’,” Molly said in extremely non-standard Mandarin. “I’m very impressed with your ability, ‘xinsa’! I hope that you can ‘help Python’ more with the diamond!”

“Hehe, definitely!” Zhao Yu cupped his fists.

“If you can help me find the diamond,” Molly said again, “in addition to the Commission, there will be more benefits, such as diplomatic immunity that other people dream of, honorary citizen, and so on ...”

“Hey, I’m still alive!” Miao kun rolled his eyes at her unhappily. “If you want to poach him, at least don’t do it in front of me, okay?”

“Hmph, Female Miao,” Molly laughed coldly and said in English, “you’re always so naughty and cunning! No wonder ... You became my father’s good friend!”

“I can tell. What you want to say is ‘birds of a feather flock together’, hahaha ...”

Just as Jasmine and Miao kun were talking, Zhao Yu secretly glanced around and found that the others were all looking at them nervously.

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu couldn’t help but worry.

It was obvious that everyone was worried that Zhao Yu and Miao Ying would tell others about the door code. Once Molly found out, she would definitely use some means to force them to tell her their respective door codes.

Molly had something on almost all of them. When the time came, it would probably be very difficult for them to clench their teeth.

Fortunately, Jasmine didn’t seem to know about it. After a short conversation with Miao kun, she brought some people to the front of the stage and showed them some video materials about green, as well as his will.

Molly said that about half a year ago, Grimm’s condition was getting worse and worse. He seemed to have felt that his time was up, so he gave up on the treatment in the local hospital in England and insisted on returning to Miracle Island.

Not long after he returned to the island, he passed away. According to the doctor’s report, green had died of heart failure. He had died of old age without any illness.

On the night of Grimm’s death, his team of lawyers read out Grimm’s will in public, and everyone learned about the diamond.

Jasmine’s Frank introduction also confirmed Miao kun’s guess.

She said that due to Grimm’s special identity, he knew a lot of inside information. Therefore, in his last days, he was under the strict protection of the United Kingdom military. The news was strictly blocked and outsiders did not know.

Although Molly’s words were vague, all the detectives present understood that Molly’s actions were completely incited by the United Kingdom military intelligence.

They did not hesitate to impersonate Grimm and invite these detectives to the gathering. There was only one purpose, and that was to use the strength of the crowd to find the diamond that had been missing for 22 years!

Just like that, with Molly's introduction, everyone gradually believed the fact that Grimm had already passed away. They no longer thought that all of this was just Grimm's test.

After dinner, the crowd dispersed. Some wanted to wander outside the castle in search of inspiration; Some of them wanted to stay in the restaurant to continue drinking and chatting; Zhao Yu, on the other hand, felt bored due to the language barrier, so he went back to his room to rest.

The most annoying thing was that Miao kun didn't go back to Zhao Yu's room with him. Instead, he told Zhao Yu that Jake would definitely know that he would hide in Zhao Yu's room, so he would just hide in Juliet for the night!

"Don't think too much about it. I'm not into weird things," Miao kun explained. "I'm just trying to test Juliet and see if I can get her house number!"

Then, without waiting for Zhao Yu's disdainful expression, Miao kun disappeared without a trace.

Tsk ...

Zhao Yu could only despise her in his heart.

In fact, when he came to the second floor and passed by the door of Xi menna's room, he had the idea of picking up girls.

However, Zhao Yu was not as open-minded as his father-in-law. When he thought of Miao Ying, he gave up on the idea and went back to his room to sleep!

He didn't know if it was because he had been on the International flight for too long, or because the red wine in the green Mansion was too strong, but Zhao Yu used the system devices to set up an invisible alarm. After that, he lay in bed and fell asleep.

It was already the next morning when he woke up.

Oh ...

He yawned. When he saw the sun rising in the east and the sunlight shining on his face, he suddenly remembered that he hadn't paid attention to last night's adventure!

He quickly turned his mind to the system interface and opened it to take a look. As expected, yesterday's side adventure had already ended. He had obtained a 200% completion rate and two items.

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu recalled yesterday's "Li Zhen" hexagram, which didn't seem to match his own experience. Because of the sudden appearance of the diamond clue, there should at least be a "DUI" hexagram, right?

Alright, since that's the case, let's see how lucky we are today?

So, Zhao Yu opened a new hexagram, full of anticipation.

He had thought that there would be a “DUI” or “Gen” hexagram in today’s hexagram. If he considered the system’s style, it would at most be a “Qian” or “kun” hexagram, which would be considered heaven-defying!

However, the great system obviously wanted to play its tricks to the end. Once the hexagram was shown, Zhao Yu was suddenly dumbfounded, and he felt as if his heart was about to jump out of his throat!

In the center of the system interface, there were two big characters written, “Heaven Earth kun!!!!”

Chapter 1306: Emergency

I’ll cut!

Zhao Yu suddenly got up from the bed. The soft and elastic mattress was so strong that when he fell heavily on it, it bounced him off and he fell sideways on the carpet.

Once upon a time, Zhao Yu had imagined more than once what it would be like when he opened the “universe” one day.

However, he could never have imagined that the most awesome hexagram would actually be opened on wondrous trace Island.

It was just a detective salon, how ... How could they get such a super hexagram?

What was this ...

Unexpectedly, before Zhao Yu had time to think about it carefully, there was a commotion outside the room.

First, there was a knock on the door, then there was a shout in English ...

English ...

Oh, Zhao Yu then remembered that the universal translation device he had used yesterday had failed. Zhao Yu didn’t even think about it, he immediately opened the device bar and used a new one.

“What are you doing? What’s going on so early in the morning?” Juliet’s voice came from outside. “Hey, what are you doing? Hey ...”

Thump ...

As there was another violent disturbance outside, Zhao Yu’s door was knocked on at the same time.

The depressing thing was that there was no mirror on the door, so Zhao Yu couldn’t see what was happening outside.

Thump thump thump ...

The door was being smashed so hard that it trembled, making one’s heart jump.

“All of you come out, all of you come out!” A man’s hoarse voice suddenly sounded from outside the door. “There’s an emergency on the island. I hope everyone can cooperate!”

Ah?

Zhao Yu was puzzled. Emergency?

What emergency?

At that moment, Zhao Yu felt that his mind was in a mess. To be on the safe side, he took out an invisible bullet proof suit and was ready to use it at any time.

If the people outside tried to harm him, at least he would not be shot in the head!

Zhao Yu opened the door slightly, and someone immediately came forward to speak,

“Distinguished guest, please put on your clothes and come out immediately. There’s an emergency on the island ...”

Even though there was a commotion outside, the man was still polite. Zhao Yu then opened the door and saw the situation outside.

This ...

He saw a group of familiar foreigners standing outside the door. They were all Molly’s subordinates. However, they were no longer wearing the servants’ and butlers’ clothes. Instead, they were all wearing camouflage uniforms, all of them looking like soldiers!

At this moment, they were knocking on the doors one by one, calling all the other guests out.

“What ... What happened?” “What’s the emergency? can you be more specific?” asked the half-naked Latin man, sai wanbach.

“You’ll know in a moment. I hope everyone can cooperate!” The one who spoke was the man with the rough voice. He was still wearing a chef’s uniform yesterday, but now he had transformed into a burly, tough-looking Special Agent.

Zhao Yu saw that the man’s right hand was tightly pressed on the holster at his waist, and the black pistol could be clearly seen. He stared at everyone seriously, as if he was facing a great enemy.

Al!

Zhao Yu suddenly had a headache. Needless to say, something big must have happened on the island. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have suddenly gotten a powerful “Qian Kun” hexagram.

There was no doubt that the previous Kun Qian hexagram had already made it difficult for Zhao Yu to resist, so the power of the Qian Qian hexagram was even more so!

Alright ...

Zhao Yu saw that the situation was not clear yet, so he gave up resisting. He went back to his room to change his clothes, then cooperated and returned to the corridor.

“Hello? What ... What’s going on?”

As soon as Zhao Yu went out, he saw a beautiful woman with a surprised look on her face at the entrance of the corridor. It was the detective, Xi menna.

Xi menna was wearing a tight-fitting sportswear with a headband on her head. Her cheeks were red and she was sweating. She had obviously just returned from her morning run.

Seeing Xi menna appear, the agent with the rough voice repeated what he had just said.

“What ... What’s the emergency?” Xi menna was also very confused. Then, she said, “then ... Can I go back to my room and take a shower first?”

“You can ‘t!” The agent with the rough voice said rudely, “the situation is urgent. No one is allowed to leave without permission. Please come with us!”

Just as the man finished speaking, an agent who was counting the number of people suddenly reported to the agent with the rough voice, “First lieutenant, one person is missing! That Chinese man is gone!”

“Who is it?” “Female?” the man with the rough voice, who was called first lieutenant, asked.

“Yes,” the agent in the distance said. “There’s no one in his room!”

“Um ... I ...” Just then, Juliet pointed at her room, trying to explain something.

However, the hoarse-voiced walkie-talkie suddenly rang, and someone reported to him, “First lieutenant, we found Female Miao on the first floor. He was just about to jump out of the window to escape! We have it under control!”

“Very good,” the first lieutenant with a rough voice ordered into the walkie-talkie, “then take him directly to the crime scene!”

What?

Zhao Yu’s heart skipped a beat. At first, when he saw the situation in front of him, he thought that the secret number had been exposed, and that Jasmine was trying to force them to tell him the password!

However, the first lieutenant in front of him had suddenly mentioned the ‘crime scene’. What ... What was going on?

Could it be that ... Someone had died?

“Everyone,” the first lieutenant raised his head and said to the crowd, “please come with us! You’ll know what happened soon!”

After that, the first lieutenant led the way while the other special agents stood beside the group as if they were watching a prisoner. They urged the group to go downstairs.

“Um ... Can I explain?” Juliet spread her hands and said helplessly, “Female Miao didn’t mean to run away. He just thought someone was trying to get back at him! He thought you guys were Jecka ...”

“Tsk ...” Behind him, Jake snorted coldly. “A vile person with a guilty conscience!”

Zhao Yu secretly glanced at the crowd and found that everyone's expression was very complicated, as if they all had something on their minds.

"Zhao Yu ..." At this time, the helpless Xi menna quickly walked to Zhao Yu's side, pulled his arm, and asked, "what ... What is going on? Are they in trouble?"

"Don't worry, don't worry ..." Zhao Yu comforted her. "Let's see how it goes. With me here, nothing will happen ..."

Just like that, under the lead of many secret agents, Zhao Yu and the others walked out of the castle and came to a garden behind the castle.

When they arrived, Zhao Yu immediately saw Miao kun, who was disheveled.

However, Miao kun was not in a sorry state as Zhao Yu had imagined. Instead, he shouted at the agents who were holding him,

"Impossible! This was impossible! How did this happen?" In his excitement, he grabbed the other party's collar and said, "hurry up and investigate. There must be a spy in your organization. Someone is trying to silence you!"

"Mr. Miao," the first lieutenant immediately went up and explained, "our people will definitely be fine. These people were personally selected by Miss Jasmine, not Sir Green's people!"

"What's wrong? What's wrong?" You SUFU couldn't stand it anymore and rushed forward. However, before she could speak, she saw a shocking scene and couldn't make a sound.

When the others saw that the situation was not right, they hurriedly came closer to take a look. Finally, they saw a person lying in a pool of blood beside the fountain pool in the small garden. The person was covered in blood and had been dead for a long time.

"It can't be?" Xi menna was terrified. "Isn't ... Isn't this Miss Jasmine? She ... How did she die?"

Chapter 1307: I know the answer!

"Sir," after seeing the body, the experienced Juliet said to the first lieutenant with a rough voice, "tell your men to be careful and not destroy the scene!"

"Is there any use?" Behind him, you SUFU said, "what's the point of protecting the scene? Female Miao is right, there must be an internal problem!"

"How many more times do I have to say it?" The first lieutenant glared at you SUFU. "My men have been through many rounds of checks. There will definitely be no problem!"

"You ... Aren't you that chef?" Jecka pointed at the first lieutenant and asked, "you're all disguisers. It's hard to guarantee that you'll be disguised again!"

"Miss Jasmine is dead. I'm now the highest commander here, Qiang te!" The first lieutenant pointed at himself and said, "I've already contacted the headquarters. The support team will be here soon. When the time comes, a higher-ranking officer will take over the command!"

"Then what are you still doing?" Miao kun pointed at the agents at the scene and said, "hurry up and check yourself. Don't let others infiltrate you without you knowing!"

"I'll say it again," first lieutenant Qiang te was a little angry. "My people, I will deal with them!" However, Miss Jasmine was killed, and everyone on this Island can't escape responsibility!"

"What do you mean by that? Are you suspecting us for killing Miss Jasmine?" "Why don't you use your pig brains and think about it?" she said angrily. "The entire Island is full of surveillance cameras and your eyes. Do you think we would dare to come out and kill people in the middle of the night?"

"There's no need to say anything. It must be your own people!"

"You SUFU," at this moment, li Bencheng suddenly heard something and asked you SUFU, "how did you know that Miss Jasmine was killed in the middle of the night?"

"You!" You SUFU didn't expect li Bencheng to target her, and her face turned red. She shouted, "how do you think I know? Miss Jasmine was fine last night, but she died here this early in the morning. Wasn't she killed at night?"

"Miss Jasmine has something on each of you," first lieutenant Qiang te said. "Only you have the motive to kill!"

"Nonsense!" "You think we're idiots?" sai wanbarker retorted. "If we kill Miss Molly, we'll be able to get rid of the evidence? Do you think we don't know what kind of people you British are?"

"That's right," Yu SUFU said. "Our leverage is just some small business problems. In our own country, it's easy to solve with some money. At least there's no need to kill for this, right?"

"Mm ..."

Upon hearing this, a wave of unconfident voices echoed in the venue. It was obvious that some people's weaknesses were different from you SUFU ...

"Hehe, hehehe ..." You SUFU wasn't stupid and immediately saw the problem. She laughed gloatingly and said, "great, great. Hurry up and check. Whoever has something that can be used to kill people will be the murderer."

"YES, do you still remember what happened during lunch?" Miao kun suddenly pointed at Jecca and said, "Miss Jasmine pointed out to Jecca that he was the one who had the least say in this!"

"After looking at the things on the phone, Jecca's face turned pale. Everyone saw it, right?"

"Humph, obviously ..." Miao kun said proudly. "There's more evidence against Jecca, so he should be the most suspicious!"

"You piece of sh * t," jieka cursed angrily. "Did you look better than me at that time? I think you're the biggest suspect. Otherwise, why would you run?"

"Enough!" "No!" First lieutenant Qiang te shouted. "We will investigate the extent of the evidence! You're the best detectives in the world today. Whether it's for Sir green or to prove your innocence, you'd better do your best to find the murderer!"

"You're right," Juliet said, looking at the body. "The murderer is probably among us! No one would want to be with a murderer, right?"

After Juliet said that, the atmosphere suddenly changed. Everyone glanced at each other, and their eyes revealed a strange look.

"I say ..." Tani zhaichiro thought about it seriously and said, "since there are so many cameras installed on the island, as long as we can see who left their house last night, we can lock onto the suspect, right?"

"Well ... This ..." Qiang te frowned and replied, "the cameras are not as dense as you think. The most cameras on the island are all installed on the outer coast of Miracle Island and inside the castle.

"But there are still many blind spots outside the castle, such as the back of the castle and this small park area. If someone left the room through the window and climbed down from the second floor, the surveillance cameras would not be able to capture them at all!"

"D * MN," you SUFU said gloomily. "This is troublesome. Now that you've put it this way, it means that none of us can be eliminated!"

"Who said so?" Miao kun finally came to his senses and pointed at Zhao Yu. "There's nothing wrong with our China detective, right?" He's new here, and no matter if it's Grimm or Molly, there's no conflict to speak of, so we should be able to rule them out!"

"..." No one responded.

"How about this?" Miao kun came to Zhao Yu's side, patted Zhao Yu's shoulder, and said to Lieutenant Qiang te, "I'll give you an idea, Lieutenant!"

"Although we are all experts in solving cases, we are all suspicious. So, in order to avoid suspicion, you might as well find a third party to solve the problem!" Miao kun complimented, "Zhao Yu is known as China's super detective. I'm afraid he's the most suitable person to solve this case!"

"Suitable, my ass!" "Everyone knows that you have a special relationship with him. If you're the murderer, wouldn't he favor you first?" You wish!"

"Yeah, Female Miao!" Lee Bencheng said coldly, "there's a Chinese saying that goes, 'Eight Immortals cross the sea, each showing their own abilities'. I think we should solve the case with our own abilities!"

"At most, we can all gather together and monitor each other during the investigation process."

"Wahaha ..." Just as li Bencheng finished his sentence, there was a burst of wild laughter at the scene. Zhao Yu took a few steps forward and came to the dead man, then said to everyone, "no need to go through so much trouble! Now, I can give everyone an answer. I already know who the real murderer, Gong Jie, is!"

"Ah?"

As Zhao Yu was speaking Chinese, only a few people who could understand Chinese were shocked.

After all, these people were all famous detective experts. Who would have thought that someone would find the murderer right after the deceased was found?

"F * ck, what did I say? What did I say?" Miao kun quickly translated Zhao Yu's words into English, then said arrogantly, "China detective is awesome, right? Murderer, murderer, let's see where you can run to now!"

"Come on," Miao kun said to Zhao Yu, his face full of admiration. "Detective Zhao, hurry up and reveal the answer to us!"

"Mm ..." Zhao Yu approached the body and shook his head as he said, "this scene ... Is too fake!"

"....."

Everyone was confused. Miao kun quickly copied Zhao Yu and translated the message in English.

"Actually ..." Zhao Yu pointed at Jasmine's body and said, "the murderer of Miss Jasmine was Chenchen herself!"

Chapter 1308: Suspicion and jealousy

"What?" Hearing Zhao Yu's shocking conclusion, everyone looked at each other in confusion.

"Hey, are you addicted to doing reasoning questions?" "Why are there so many suicide cases in the world?" you SUFU fired at Zhao Yu.

"What are you blabbering about?" Miao kun pointed at you SUFU's nose and scolded, "if our detective Zhao Yu says it's a suicide, it's a suicide! You know nothing!"

"Why did you commit suicide for no reason?" You SUFU was not convinced. She pointed at Zhao Yu and asked, "can you give me a reason?"

"Wahaha ..." Zhao Yu laughed again, then said, "because we're new, after Xi menna and I came to the island, we were asked to be separated from you old people!"

"The two of us accepted three extremely difficult tests together: The labyrinth, the crocodile pool, and the city gate. In the end, with my extraordinary wisdom and courage, I finally solved the mystery of the three riddles and obtained this gold coin!"

Then, Zhao Yu took out the gold coins and showed them to the crowd. He asked, "I believe that you are all familiar with this gold coin game?"

"Yes," after listening to the translation, the black man, Sisay, replied, "this is Green's favorite game. The last time, the champion was Xi Wei. He received a total of 13 gold coins. He was very good!"

"Yes," said Xi menna proudly. "My dad told me that the second place only got seven gold coins!"

"Don't say that," Miao kun interrupted. "It's true that elder Xi got the most gold coins, but I was the one who reminded him of many key issues! He's a prideful person, so I'm sure he didn't tell you, right?"

"China's detective," Yusufu cut straight to the point and asked Zhao Yu, "what do you mean by that has anything to do with Molly's suicide?"

“Hehe ...” Zhao Yu smiled. “Everyone, think about it. If green was already dead, why would Xi menna and I still have to go through the levels?”

“This ...” Everyone was slightly surprised, and Yusoff quickly asked, “why ... You mean ... Grimm is still alive?”

“That’s right!” Zhao Yu said with confidence, “so far, everything we’ve encountered was planned by Ge Lin! The purpose was to give everyone a surprise and a big test!

“On one hand, I’ve left you a diamond case; On the other hand, he had also asked Miss Jasmine to pretend to be killed and arranged a criminal investigation for everyone!

“Hehehe ... How could you hide this from my eyes? I say, Miss Jasmine, stop pretending!” Zhao Yu smiled at the dead body and said, “I’ve seen through your prank with green! Hurry up and get up!”

“.....”

Seeing Zhao Yu talking to the dead body, everyone’s expression became extremely embarrassed.

“Still pretending?” Zhao Yu squatted down and got close to the victim’s face. “I’ve already guessed the answer to your reasoning. You wanted us to be suspicious of each other, but in fact, the final answer was that he died of suicide so that we wouldn’t be able to guess, right?”

“And, there’s another reason why you did this,” Zhao Yu continued to speak in front of everyone’s shocked eyes, “you knew the password a long time ago, so you wanted to use your death to find out our passwords, right?”

When Zhao Yu mentioned the sensitive password, everyone trembled and their faces turned green.

“If you died suddenly,” Zhao Yu continued, “your men would have imprisoned all of us and interrogated us one by one, so that they could have a legitimate reason to ask for the password, so ...”

“Um ... Wait a minute ...” Just as Zhao Yu was engrossed in his story, Juliet touched Molly’s wrist and said, “there’s no pulse, the temperature has dropped significantly, and the corpse has spread to her limbs, which means that she’s been dead for at least three hours!

“I say, great detective Zhao, do you really think Molly is joking with us?”

“Ah? “This ... This ...” Zhao Yu frowned slightly, suddenly feeling awkward.

At this moment, Juliet rolled Molly’s eyelids again and said, “Dilated pupils, signs of facial spasms, dry, cracked, and pale skin. These are clearly classic symptoms of excessive blood loss ...”

“Mm ... This ...” Zhao Yu’s face started to sweat.

“Hey, don’t move!” First lieutenant Qiang te shouted at Juliet.

However, Juliet didn’t care. She turned over Molly’s body and said, “The wound is on Miss Jasmine’s back. Judging from the shape, she should have been stabbed by a sharp blade and killed in one strike!

“Great detective Zhao ...” She raised her head and asked Zhao Yu, “can you explain how to commit suicide so that you can stab yourself in the back?”

“Mm ... This ...” Zhao Yu wiped his sweat and laughed shamelessly. “Hahaha, to tell you the truth, I actually knew that Miss Jasmine was really killed.

“The reason why I said that just now was to scare the murderer out of his wits. This trick is called hitting three poles without a date, hehehe ...”

“What the ...” Miao kun covered his face and squatted down in shame.

“Mr. Zhao Yu,” first lieutenant Qiang te said to Zhao Yu, “letting newcomers go through the trials is a rule left behind by Sir green. Miss Jasmine didn’t want to break the rules, so she asked you and Miss Xi to take the test!

“I was involved in the entire process of Sir Green’s death and burial. It can’t be fake!”

“Oh ... Hehe ... Hehe ...” Zhao Yu laughed awkwardly, then covered his face and squatted down, just like his father-in-law ...

“Juliet ...” At this moment, Tani zhaichiro stepped forward and asked, “did you see the weapon?”

“No...” Juliet carefully observed Molly’s wound and said, “I didn’t see the weapon, but ... From the position and angle of the wound, the murderer was a very professional killer!”

“The weapon should be a dagger at least a foot long, which pierced through the lung from the back of the deceased. It was a clean cut, and the deceased could not make a sound!”

“So you’re a professional killer?” Miao kun suddenly stood up and pointed at Lee Bencheng, “then there’s no doubt that the murderer must be this Korea Big Shot!”

“Hey, what did you just say?” Li Bencheng glared at Miao kun. “Why should it be me?”

“Everyone knows that you’re a Korea assassin!” Miao kun shouted, “you can kill someone with a strand of hair.” Other than you, who else would have such high killing skills?”

“PAH!” Lee Bencheng flew into a rage out of humiliation. “Aren’t you the same? You’re a businessman on the surface, but you’re actually a secret agent. Don’t tell me you don’t know how to kill!”

“I won’t, I won’t ... Anger you to death!” Miao kun said shamelessly.

“You ...” Lee Bencheng’s nose was crooked from anger. He stretched out his fist, ready to hit.

“Forget it, forget it!” However, Jecka suddenly stopped him and advised, “you’ll get used to it! There’s no need to get angry with this kind of lowlife ...”

“Well ...” At this time, Tani zhaichiro also squatted in front of the body and observed it. “From the clothing of the deceased, there are no traces of the body being moved!” He said.

“That is to say ...” First lieutenant Qiang te said. “This is the crime scene? That’s strange ... Miss Jasmine, why did you come here?”

“Sir,” at this time, someone ran over and reported to first lieutenant Qiang te, “we have checked the surveillance cameras at the front and back doors of the castle, but we didn’t see Miss Jasmine walking out of the castle!”

“So ...” Qiang te frowned, unable to understand. “Miss Jasmine is deliberately avoiding the surveillance cameras? Why? She ... Is she here to meet someone?”

“It’s quite a coincidence,” Juliet said. “This little garden just so happens to be a blind spot for surveillance, so the murderer should know the distribution of surveillance cameras on the island very well!”

“Hahaha ...” Jack laughed as he pointed at Miao kun. “I’ve finally caught you, Miao kun!” Among us, no one knows Miracle Island better than you!

“Miss Jasmine is deliberately avoiding the surveillance cameras. She must be meeting an old acquaintance!” He continued, “you’re so close to green. The person Miss Jasmine is meeting is very likely to be you!

“Also, you weren’t in your room last night, and you wanted to run away early in the morning.” Jecka laughed viciously. “Now, why don’t you tell me the truth? tell me, why did you kill Miss Jasmine?”

Chapter 1309: Provocation

“Kill your sister!” Miao kun gave him the middle finger. “To tell you the truth, I have a witness who can prove that I was with Miss Juliet last night!” Isn’t that right, my dear?”

Hearing Miao kun’s question, everyone looked at Juliet.

However, Juliet did not pay any attention to Miao kun’s question. She was busy examining the body.

“According to our preliminary judgment,” she finally said to everyone after looking at her for a while, “Miss Jasmine died at about four o’ clock in the morning last night ... From the outside, there are no obvious external injuries or signs of a fight!”

“First lieutenant Qiang te,” Gu zhaichiro asked, “has Miss Jasmine learned any combat skills? Do you have any Kung Fu?”

“I don’t think so,” Lieutenant Qiang te replied. “Miss Jasmine works in the office and never participates in field work!”

“Then let me ask you,” Sisay asked, “are all the people you’ve brought here your own people, not a single outsider?”

“Yes, you’ve seen it!” Qiang te opened his thick palms. “Even I am playing the role of a chef!”

“I don’t care about anything else, but your cooking skills are really good!” You SUFU gave him a thumbs up.

“When did it start?” Sisay asked again.

“Since Sir green returned to the island,” Qiang te answered truthfully. “In order to ensure the personal safety of Sir green, our team has been responsible for it until now!”

“Then ... Can I ask a sensitive question?” Sisay’s eyes glowed with shrewdness as he asked, “if we want to solve the case, we have to understand the problem with your organization. Is Miss Jasmine in the same Department as you? Do you have any conflicts with her?”

“This is not a sensitive topic, so I don’t mind telling you!” Qiang te answered truthfully, “we are all from the military intelligence Department. Miss Jasmine is the leader, and we are subordinates. Our relationship has always been very harmonious, and there has been no coercion or conflict!”

“Oh, it’s exactly because of this ...” Cecil pondered. “That’s why you think it’s very strange for Miss Jasmine to come here to meet someone without telling you?”

“Right!” Qiang te admitted, “but I have to admit that Miss Jasmine is the leader. Some of her actions don’t need our consent!”

“You guys know that we have different rights. I don’t have as much right to know as Miss Jasmine!”

“Um ... Okay, thank you!” Sisay replied politely, “I have no more questions!”

“First lieutenant Qiang te,” Gu zhaichiro continued, “I would like to ask, which room did Miss Jasmine rest in last night?”

“She is the daughter of Lord Green,” Lieutenant Jant replied. “There is a room for her in the castle, on the east side of the third floor.”

“Oh ...” Tani zhaichiro pointed to the deceased and said, “she was not wearing the formal suit she wore at dinner last night, but a more casual set of clothes.

“Have you ever seen her wearing this?”

Hearing this question, first lieutenant Qiang te turned to look at his men. One of them immediately stepped out and replied, “First lieutenant, I’ve seen it before. Miss Jasmine wore this set of clothes when she was resting in her room.”

“There’s also one time. I saw it in the study ...” Another person replied.

“He’s actually wearing these clothes to meet someone in the garden ...” Tani zhaichiro guessed. “This means that he’s not guarded. This person should be someone very close to Miss Jasmine!”

Hearing this, Jake instinctively turned to look at Miao kun.

However, Miao kun took the initiative and shouted at Jake, “I’m very familiar with green, but I’ve never met his daughter. This is also the first time I’ve met Miss Jasmine! If you don’t believe me, go check! Motherf * cker ...”

I’ll cut!

Zhao Yu was shocked. He didn’t understand English, so how did he translate that?

“You ... You ...”

Once again, Miao kun had taken the lead and scolded him. Jake was so depressed that he couldn’t speak.

“What if there are people outside the island?” Unable to stand the loneliness, you SUFU stepped forward and asked, “Miss Jasmine’s husband, or ... An old flame?”

“Impossible!” First lieutenant Qiang te said, “Miracle Island is equipped with the most advanced alarm system. Anyone who tries to land on the island will trigger the alarm.

“Not to mention people, even if drones were to land on the island, they wouldn’t be able to escape the alarm system!

“Moreover, if someone comes from the outside, they should at least get in touch with Miss Jasmine,” Qiang te said. “In order to ensure that the diamond incident is not leaked, we not only turned off the signal enhancement device on the island, but also turned on the high-power signal jammer. There will be no signal on the entire Island!”

Ah?

Hearing this, Zhao Yu had a bad feeling. He quickly turned on his system device and tried to use the signal booster.

Unfortunately, his guess was right. Due to the signal blocking state, if he wanted to force a call to the outside world, he would need to spend 5000 points.

Although Zhao Yu’s points were more than five thousand points, how could he accept such an expensive price? Therefore, unless it was the last resort, he would not think about the signal booster again!

“Where’s the network cable?” “If there’s an internet connection, it won’t work no matter how hard you try to block it!”

“No,” Qiang te replied. “There is no internet connection to the outside world on the island!”

“If that’s the case ...” Sai wanbach asked, “you said you’ve contacted the headquarters. How did you contact them?” Did you guys turn off the signal jammer?”

“Of course not. We sent people to contact them by helicopter.” Qiang TE’s answer without thinking instantly left Sai Wan BA ka speechless.

“First lieutenant, first lieutenant ...” Suddenly, first lieutenant Qiang TE’s walkie-talkie rang, and someone reported to him, “we just found from the surveillance video that Miss Jasmine came out of her room at three o’ clock in the morning last night and went to the study on the second floor!”

“Then, we checked all the videos that followed and found that Miss Jasmine never came out again!”

The volume of the walkie-talkie was very loud, so everyone at the scene could hear the content clearly.

“Oh?” Qiang te frowned again. “So ... Miss Jasmine came here from the study?” There’s a window in the study, did he climb down through the window?”

“She even climbed through the window. It seems like Miss Jasmine has her own secrets!” You SUFU guessed.

“First lieutenant,” Juliet finally stood up and said, “the body needs to be further examined! Although the wound is obvious, we can’t blindly determine the cause of death!”

“Good! “I’ll send someone to deal with it,” Lieutenant Jant said politely.”But I’ll need Ms. Juliet’s help with the autopsy! Everyone knows that you’re a forensic doctor, and there’s no better candidate than you!”

“No problem,” Juliet said.”Leave the body to me!”

“Al!” Miao kun sighed, then looked at Miss Jasmine’s body and said,”it’s really creepy! What kind of murderer would dare to kill the owner of wondrous trace Island under such circumstances?

“Doesn’t he know that there are so many detective experts on the island?” Miao kun then looked at the crowd and said,”everyone, this is a blatant provocation!

“If this can’t solve the case, I think we should stop looking for diamonds,” he said, gesturing in the air.”How about I give everyone some ropes? one for each of us, and we can all hang ourselves on wondrous Island!”

Chapter 1310: The motive of the murderer

Outside the study on the second floor of the gring Castle.

All the detectives were present, except for Juliet, who was helping with the body.

“I said no, right?” Miao kun glanced at the crowd and said,”there are so many of us. If we all go in, we will definitely destroy the evidence.

“You are all experts, so you should know that a small detail can be the key to solving a case!”

“That’s right,” Lieutenant Qiang te nodded and said,”my people have verified it. If Miss Jasmine wants to go to the small garden, she can go out from her own room or the first floor. She doesn’t have to go through the study room!”

“That is to say,” Tani zhaoichiro echoed,”although this might not be the crime scene, it is likely to contain important information.”

“So ...” Miao kun put his arm around Zhao Yu’s shoulder and said to Lieutenant Qiang te,”listen to me and let my detective Zhao do it!” There’s no case that he can’t solve!”

“You can really brag!” Jecka was the first to stand up and object.”He just said that Miss Jasmine committed suicide! It’s almost becoming a classic joke!”

Everyone laughed when they heard what jieka said.

“But ...” Lieutenant Qiang te said with an awkward expression,”Mr. Miao is right. There are so many of us. If we go in together, it will inevitably cause damage to the scene!”

“I say, what kind of question is this?” The shrewd you SUFU said,”everyone has their own specialty. There’s no need to divide the work, but at least we can cooperate!

“How about this? we’ll take turns to go in and take a look. Then, we’ll gather our thoughts. Won’t that maximize our advantage?”

“Hmm ... That makes sense!” First lieutenant Qiang te looked at Zhao Yu and said, “in that case, let the least suspicious detective go in first! The rest of you, wait outside the door for a moment ...”

“Yes!” Miao kun shouted proudly, then said to Zhao Yu, “Zhao Yu, investigate it carefully! Don’t let me down again!”

At this time, someone brought over gloves and shoe covers for Zhao Yu to put on. Then, an agent police officer took him into the study.

The study was Grimm ‘s. It was not small, and the bookshelves on all four sides were almost filled with all kinds of books. Of course, in addition to the books, there were also many expensive decorations, full of the aura of United Kingdom nobility.

Crack, crack ...

The police officers were in charge of taking photos, and only after they had taken photos of an area were they allowed Zhao Yu to come forward and check.

“Are the lights always off?” Zhao Yu turned around and asked in Chinese.

After Miao kun’s translation, he quickly got the answer that the lights were indeed off when the police came to check.

Zhao Yu looked carefully at all the decorations and found that everything was in order, without any signs of disorder.

In the center of the study was a huge and heavy European desk. Some stationery was neatly placed on the desk, as if no one had touched it.

“The window is open, right?” At this moment, Xi menna, who was at the door, reminded Zhao Yu, “did Miss Jasmine crawl out from there?”

Zhao Yu had already seen the window. In this luxurious study, there were two windows. One of them was on the left, and it was open.

Zhao Yu went to the window to check, but he didn’t find anything unusual.

“Although it was on the second floor ...” Zhao Yu frowned and said, “it was at least four meters high. It’s impossible to jump down directly, right?”

“Yes,” Qiang te, who was at the door, said. “We have checked from the outside. There are no Footprints Under the Window. Miss Jasmine most likely stepped on the protrusions on the outer wall and went down from another place!”

“Is that so?”

Zhao Yu bent over and stuck his head out of the window. Sure enough, he saw a bump under the window. If one were to step on it, it would be enough for one person to stand on it. They could indeed walk along the bump for a long distance.

Previously, Miao kun had used the same method to get to Zhao Yu’s room.

However, this sudden development only deepened Zhao Yu's doubts.

There seemed to be some parts that didn't make sense, right?

He pondered in his heart. Miss Jasmine had gone out to meet a mysterious person, but she didn't know that this person wanted to kill him. It didn't seem reasonable.

If this mysterious person was one of the many guests, then ... Why did Miss Jasmine choose to meet in the small garden outside?

It seemed that if he followed this bump, he would be able to get to the guest's room, right?

"Hey!" At this time, Jecka's voice broke Zhao Yu's train of thought. "Are you done? If you can't see anything, then quickly change the person! Don't waste time ..."

"Go to hell!" Miao kun cursed, "what are you rushing me for? Which detective doesn't seriously think about it before investigating a case?"

"Stop quarreling ..." Gu zhaochiro impatiently reprimanded them. "If you have the time to quarrel, you should think about the case. This case might not be as simple as we thought!"

"Even if you don't care about the dead, you should at least care about yourself, right?"

That's right!

Gu zhaochiro's words reminded Zhao Yu that, ever since the case started, Zhao Yu had been feeling that something was wrong.

Even if there was a murder, he didn't expect that the person who died would be Miss Jasmine!

Although it wasn't strictly guarded, at least Miss Jasmine was in a relatively safe position. There were so many secret agents protecting her, and there were many surveillance cameras inside and outside the castle.

Under such circumstances, it was impossible to kill Miss Jasmine without anyone knowing.

It was also for this reason that Zhao Yu had thought that it was Green's prank, and that Miss Jasmine's death was just an act.

However, reality was cruel. Now that it had been proven that Miss Jasmine had indeed been murdered, Zhao Yu couldn't help but think more.

First of all, the most important point was the motive of the murderer. Why would the murderer take such a big risk to kill Miss Jasmine?

Although Molly had something on these people, everyone knew that she didn't represent an individual, but the entire United Kingdom intelligence organization.

Thus, killing Molly alone wouldn't solve the problem at all!

Besides, Zhao Yu didn't believe that the murderer killed just to provoke the detectives!

This reason was too absurd, only a madman would do that ...

So ... What was the murderer's motive for killing?

His motive was unclear, and coupled with Jasmine's abnormal behavior, as well as the unprecedented "Qian Kun" hexagram that he had gotten, Zhao Yu had a deep, ominous feeling.

The "Qian Kun" hexagram represented a major event, and it was very likely related to Molly's death!

"Everyone," at this moment, first lieutenant Qiang te suddenly held up a tablet and said to everyone, "this is the video of Miss Jasmine entering the study last night. Take a look!"

After that, he handed the computer to everyone and let them watch the video.

"Eh? It's so strange!" With just a glance, Gu zhaichiro saw the problem."Looking at Miss Jasmine's expression and manner...She doesn't seem to be sneaking around?"

"That's right," the black man, Sisay, said."Miss Jasmine looks tired, but her eyes aren't sleepy. She probably didn't sleep the whole night!"

"She was holding a document in her hand," said Tani zhaichiro."She went to the study in the middle of the night with a document in her hand, and her expression was calm and composed ... Could it be ..."

"Documents? Where are the documents?" Miao kun's eyes lit up, and he said to Zhao Yu, "Zhao Yu, hurry up and see if the documents are still there."
