

Crazy 1341

Chapter 1341: What's your plan?

"Amir is an a, Xi Wei is a t, Lee Bencheng is a y, plus Tani zhaochiro's t ..." Yusufu said. "Don't you understand?"

"'T' must be the beginning, 'Ty', 'TTY' ..." Sai wanbach quickly mumbled a few words and suddenly realized a problem. "Yosufu, did you play again?" "Isn't it only four letters? You just said five!"

"Right! That's the problem, we've all been tricked by that Black Devil Sisay!" "Sisay's password isn't the Arabic number 1 at all, but the lower case English letter 'l'!"

"Ah? I ... I don't know. " Sisay was dumbfounded. He quickly clarified, "I'm really not lying!"

"Of course, I can't blame you for this! From the beginning to the end, we didn't know Xi Wei's t, and with Tani zhaochiro lying and not knowing that Sisay's 1 is l, we won't be able to get the answer right even if we guess a million times!" You SUFU explained.

"Alright, since you already know the answer, stop wasting time!" "Now is not the time for you to show off your intelligence!"

"No need ..." Juliet said, shaking her head with a complicated expression. "The five letters together should be Tylal!!!"

"Tylal? ..." "What's that?" Sevan Bach thought for a moment. "What does that mean?" "I don't remember this word?"

"It's not a word, it's an abbreviation!" "It's a Tidal generator set!" Yusoff said.

"I'll cut!" "Huh?" sai wanbach suddenly realized. "What is this? does this mean that Grimm has hidden the diamond in the tidal generator?" No wonder ... No wonder there was a power outage!"

"One hundred percent!" "I studied mechanical and electrical engineering at Yale University," she said. "The cross-flow fixed-paddle water turbine and the horizontal shaft are all directly related to tidal generators!"

"As for those Arabic numbers, they should be the serial number of an engine! This is because tidal generators aren't a single unit. On the scale of Miracle Island, there must be at least ten working tidal generators ..."

"That's interesting ..." Lee Bencheng said, "how did green come up with such a clue? If he really wants us to find the diamond, he can just set the password as Tidal. "

"Yup!" "That's the problem," Yu SUFU said. "He actually coded the abbreviation of the tidal power generator into a password. It feels like he is afraid that we will not be able to find it!"

"No wonder Xi Wei would think that this answer was simple and childish!"

"Not all of them, right?" Sisay pondered and said, "at least I don't understand what Tylal means! If it was Tidal, it would be easier to guess!"

“The point is, Grimm would never give such clear clues!” Juliet said, “it’s still too simple for people like us. It didn’t really match Grimm’s character!”

“I’m guessing that Xi Wei is worried that there’s a trap, so he took the Female sapling away.”

“This is bad ...” Sisay grinned. “They must be sending Female Miao to pick up the mine. Old Miao is in danger!”

“Hmph, just you wait and see!” “There must be a reason why Grimm set the password like this!” She said. So ... It shouldn’t be that easy for Xi Wei to find the diamond!

“In my opinion, we should still have some fun in this game!”

“No, Your Highness, I can’t afford to play!” “We can’t bet our lives on this, can we?” If green doesn’t follow the plan and Xi Wei finds the diamond, we’re all done for!”

“Yup!” Sisay said, “the great revolutionists taught us that opportunities must be in our own hands!”

“Hey, hey, hey ...” He turned to Zhao Yu and asked, “China’s super detective, we’ve already cracked the password. What do you have in mind to get us out?”

“My plan is very simple,” Zhao Yu said seriously. “Find two people to pretend to fight and attract their attention! Then, we’ll catch them off guard and attack them!”

“Are you crazy?” Li Bencheng’s nose was crooked from anger, and he was not in the mood to translate. He directly scolded Zhao Yu, “you did it on purpose, right? How could the same trick be used twice?”

“Besides ... Our hands are still tied!”

“It’s okay, it’s okay ...” Zhao Yu comforted her. “Your hands are tied up, but can you use your feet? “I’ve already checked it ...” Zhao Yu pointed at the coffee table. “This coffee table is made of ivory, so it can block bullets!” Later, I’ll raise this coffee table to block the bullets, and you guys can take the opportunity to rush over and kick them!”

“You!” Lee Bencheng was furious, thinking that Zhao Yu was talking nonsense. He immediately roared, “you’re seriously sick!”

“Hey!” The others were waiting for Zhao Yu’s idea, and they quickly asked Li Bencheng what Zhao Yu had said.

Lee Bencheng could only say in English, “You’re unreasonable!”

Just as Lee Bencheng was getting angry, the soldier who went to the dining room to get the candle had returned and was using a match to try to light the candle.

At that moment, in addition to this man, there were three other soldiers in charge of guarding Zhao Yu and the others. Two of them were in the direction of the main entrance, and one was in the direction of the stairs.

At this moment, a soldier at the main entrance suddenly pinched his nose and reprimanded his companion, “Hey! Who was so inconsiderate? Isn’t this fart a little too smelly?”

“Yup!” The other one pinched his nose and complained loudly, “who put it there?”

“There’s only the two of you here, and you don’t even dare to admit it?” the soldier holding the candle laughed. “Aiyo ...” He pinched his nose and shouted, “why is it so smelly!” It seems ... It seems ...”

“Li Bencheng!” At this time, Zhao Yu quickly whispered to Li Bencheng, “old Li, I don’t have time to explain! If you want to live, you have to deal with the one at the stairs! As for the others ... Leave them to me!”

“No!” Lee Bencheng saw that Zhao Yu was about to make a move and quickly stopped him, “it’s too far, it won’t work!”

However, Zhao Yu didn’t give him a chance to explain. He raised his leg and kicked Lee Bencheng’s butt, sending him flying towards the stairs and falling heavily on the ground!

“Eh?” The soldier at the stairs was shocked and quickly picked up his rifle.

At that moment, Zhao Yu had already begun his counterattack plan. He no longer cared about the situation at the stairway, so he waved his arms and picked up the large coffee table with both hands.

“Ah!”

Zhao Yu shouted as he threw the coffee table at the two soldiers in front of him. As he had released the stink bomb earlier, the two soldiers were still struggling with the smell that was difficult to suppress.

Suddenly, they saw Zhao Yu running towards them with the coffee table in his hand. The two of them quickly picked up their rifles and fired at Zhao Yu.

Tap ... Tap ...

With just two bullets, the coffee table that Zhao Yu was holding up shattered into pieces!

F * ck!

So it wasn’t ivory?

Just as Zhao Yu was surprised, the soldiers at the stairs also fired at Zhao Yu!

However, just as he fired a shot, Lee Bencheng, who had fallen there, suddenly jumped up and used an unconventional slamming action. With a bang, he knocked the soldier’s rifle away!

Tap tap tap tap ...

A string of bullets shot toward the chandelier, shattering it into pieces ...

Cough cough ...

Cough cough ...

In such a chaotic time, the effect of the odor bomb was fully displayed. The two soldiers choked and coughed violently.

However, they were well-trained soldiers, after all. Even so, they both raised their rifles and fired at Zhao Yu and the others!

Chapter 1342: The hypnosis was a success!

Of course, Zhao Yu was concerned about his father-in-law's safety. So, when he found out the hiding place of the diamond, he had already quietly begun his counterattack plan.

First, he easily used the bone shrinker to break free from the rope.

Next, he released four stink bombs in a row, and they were thrown at the places where the guards were. Since the hall was an open space, he knew that the stink bomb might not be able to knock them out, but it could at least interfere with their movements.

Secondly, he also used a new device called the invisible gas mask, which was successfully used by Lee Bencheng and the others.

Although these people could not be considered his true companions, at least they were on the same side in the face of a great enemy. As the saying goes, there's strength in numbers. Zhao Yu had to make use of these people's abilities to help him.

Since the odor bomb was invisible and the gas mask was well hidden, these people had no idea what had happened.

Finally, in order to maximize the effect, Zhao Yu used an invisible bullet proof suit and an energy booster before he finally took action.

However, Zhao Yu did not expect the coffee table to be so fragile. Two bullets had shattered one of them, leaving only two table legs in his hands. This exposed himself and his companions behind him!

Cough cough ... Cough cough cough ...

Although the two soldiers were suffocated by the odor bomb, they quickly raised their rifles and pulled the trigger!

F * ck!

Zhao Yu was wearing a bulletproof vest, so he wasn't afraid of them shooting at him. However, if they hit his companions behind him, that wouldn't be good!

In a moment of desperation, Zhao Yu threw two table legs forward, then pounced forward, taking the bullets and colliding with the two men.

At the same time, the entire Hall was in chaos. Although Lee Bencheng knocked away the rifle of the guard at the stairway, he did not subdue him, and the two of them started to fight.

The most dangerous one was the soldier who had just come out of the dining room with a candle. As soon as he saw the chaos in the hall, he quickly threw away the candle stand and ran to the dining room door to get his rifle.

However, just as he held the rifle in his hand, he immediately fainted and knelt on the ground on one knee because the odor bomb was too strong.

Whoosh!

Just then, the alert sister Juliet saw an opportunity and kicked a trash can over, hitting the man.

Thump ...

Juliet's legs were so strong that the trash can knocked the soldier off course, and he lost his rifle! Then, Juliet rushed over with her hands tied and started fighting with the soldier ...

Bang ...

Just as they started fighting, Zhao Yu's gun sounded again! Even though Zhao Yu's energy was doubled, he was still fighting one against two. Scott's men were all Special Forces soldiers. Zhao Yu took great effort to knock down one of them, and the other shot at him!

Bang ... Bang ... Bang ...

The first bullet hit Zhao Yu, while the second bullet flew towards the roof, shattering another hanging lamp.

There were only three chandeliers in the hall. Including the one that was broken by Scott's demonstration, all three of them were broken and the glass fragments were flying.

One of the lamps could not bear the weight and fell down along with the lamp holder, smashing towards cyvandcal's head. Fortunately, cyvandcal was quick-witted and rolled forward to avoid it ...

Di di di ... Di di di di ...

Just as Zhao Yu was fighting bravely, the system in his brain suddenly lit up a red light. He opened it and saw that the system was telling him that the invisible bullet proof suit had overloaded and was severely damaged, so it couldn't be used anymore!

Damn it!

Zhao Yu was very surprised. He never expected that the bullet proof suit, which had always been powerful, would suddenly fail. From this, it seemed that the enemy's rifle was quite powerful and had exceeded the tolerance range of the bulletproof vest.

Di di ...

Following the urgent alarm, the system notified Zhao Yu that if he wanted to repair the bullet proof suit, he would need to spend 2500 accumulated points.

Repair, my ass!

Even though the situation was critical, the stingy Zhao Yu felt that it was unnecessary, so he simply used a new bullet proof suit.

In the end, with such a delay, the other soldier who had been knocked down stood up again and hugged Zhao Yu from behind. The soldier with the gun was overjoyed and quickly pointed his gun at Zhao Yu again.

“Run! Quickly run!” Li Bencheng’s hands were still in the air, so he could only use his chin to point at the stairs and shout, “hurry up and go upstairs!”

With Lee Bencheng’s call, the others quickly lowered their heads and ran upstairs.

Zhao Yu quickly picked up the two rifles on the ground and prepared to retreat with the crowd. Then, Juliet suddenly rushed in front of him, raised her bound hands in front of Zhao Yu’s face, and ordered loudly,

“Hurry up! Quickly untie me!”

Zhao Yu quickly reached out to untie the rope, but he couldn’t find the end of the rope.

Tap tap tap tap ...

With a fierce spray of bullets, the soldiers who had rushed in from the door were about to reach the hall.

“Knife, knife, knife!” Juliet shouted three times, and Zhao Yu finally understood what she meant. He quickly pulled out a knife from the unconscious soldier and cut Juliet’s rope.

“Hmph Hmph Hmph!” After breaking free, Juliet picked up the rifle on the ground and gritted her teeth. “Senior sister’s performance is starting!”

Chapter 1343: Escape in an explosion (1)

Senior Sister tuoqiang of France was indeed worthy of her reputation. Just as the soldiers who had rushed into the door were approaching, she suddenly stepped out of cover and fired a shot at the enemy’s bullets!

Tap tap tap tap ...

Tap tap tap tap ...

Juliet’s aim was accurate, and the rifle fired with a clear and rhythmic sound. Soon, some of the soldiers who had broken in were shot!

Some were hit in the arms, some in the legs, and some were even swept in the soles of their feet. The screams were endless, and the momentum of the other party was suppressed in an instant.

“Let’s go!” As Juliet fired, she picked up another rifle at the entrance of the restaurant, then shouted to Zhao Yu, “let’s rush out and save Female Miao!”

Even though Juliet was speaking English, Zhao Yu could still understand.

“Alright!”

Zhao Yu couldn’t ask for more. Seeing Juliet’s godly marksmanship and the bloodthirsty look in her eyes, Zhao Yu was excited. At that moment, he felt like victory was in his grasp.

Hence, Zhao Yu quickly aimed his gun at the main entrance and fired at the enemy.

However, Zhao Yu had never fired such a high-end gun before, so he was just trying to scare them.

Tap tap tap tap ...

As soon as a few people rushed in, they were immediately knocked back by Juliet and Zhao Yu. The bullets hit the marble wall, instantly creating a cloud of dust.

“Charge!” Under Zhao Yu’s cover, Juliet rushed to the door and hit the enemy hiding behind the vase with an exquisite burst shot.

Hualalalala ...

Ah ...

The vase shattered, and the enemy screamed and fell to the ground. The two enemies beside him were so frightened that they quickly dodged into the dining room ...

Yay!

Zhao Yu saw that the situation was great, so he quickly rushed out of the stone pillar with his spear, wanting to follow Senior Sister tuo Qiang to break out of the siege.

However, as soon as he got out, he saw Juliet retreating! Not only did he retreat, but he also retreated in shock! Not only did he retreat in shock, but his face was also filled with fear and despair!

“Quickly Dodge!” In a moment of desperation, Juliet even shouted in French.

Through the gap between her shoulders, Zhao Yu was shocked to see that there was an Enemy at the Door. The enemy was kneeling on one knee, and he was carrying a bazooka on his shoulder!

“F * ck!”

Zhao Yu was so scared that his hair stood on end. He had never dreamed that the other party would have such a powerful weapon!

Ah ...

Juliet shouted and pushed Zhao Yu to the ground. At the same time, the enemy’s rocket had already been fired and was flying towards them with a sharp sound!

Thump ...

The two of them fell heavily to the ground. Initially, Juliet was on top of Zhao Yu, but considering that he had a bulletproof vest on, Zhao Yu rolled over with Juliet. Not only did they roll behind the stone pillar, but they also pinned Juliet under him.

Just as he flipped over, the rocket landed on the stone pillar. A loud explosion erupted in the hall, and the entire place exploded!

Hong long long ...

Dust rose, and the rocks collapsed. Zhao Yu pressed Juliet under him and protected his head. The next second, countless rocks fell on him, and he could barely see anything in the dust!

Fortunately, Zhao Yu and Juliet had gas masks on, so they could still breathe freely in the smoke and dust.

However, the huge shock wave still made Zhao Yu feel dizzy. For a moment, he almost lost all consciousness and didn't know anything ...

Cough cough ...

* Cough cough cough *

It wasn't until Zhao Yu heard the enemy's coughs from the direction of the restaurant that he gradually regained his consciousness.

Aiya ...

After the ringing in his ears, Zhao Yu felt a sudden burst of pain. Although the bullet proof suit had blocked some of the shrapnel, it couldn't withstand the powerful shock wave and the impact of the gravel. There was a burning pain in many parts of her body.

Di di di ... Di di di di ...

At this moment, the system in his head also sent out a Red Alert. The system reminded him that his bulletproof vest was damaged again and was now ineffective.

Oh ...

Zhao Yu gritted his teeth and tried to wake himself up. He then put on the bullet proof suit again. This time, he could not bear to use his adventure points. He immediately spent 2500 points to strengthen the bulletproof vest.

This way, his resistance to the rifle had increased a lot, and it should not be broken at the touch like before!

Oh ...

At the same time, Juliet let out a moan under him.

Zhao Yu quickly pushed away the stone fragments on his body, revealing Juliet's head. Fortunately, Zhao Yu had taken most of the impact for her, so Juliet should be fine, just a little shaken.

After she regained her senses, she immediately got up from the ground. After seeing that Zhao Yu was also fine, she quickly reached out and pulled Zhao Yu out of the ruins.

At that moment, the lighting in the hall was already bad, and with the explosion, they could barely see anything. He could only roughly determine the general direction from the enemy's coughs.

"Go ... This way ..." Juliet adjusted her rifle, then pointed to the stairs, which meant that they couldn't rush out of the front door. They could only meet up with the others first.

Zhao Yu naturally agreed, and the two of them staggered through the hall and walked towards the stairs.

As soon as they arrived at the stairs, they heard gunshots and shouts coming from upstairs. It was obvious that Lee Bencheng and the others had already started a fight with the enemies upstairs.

As he was worried that the hands of Lee Bencheng and the others were still tied up, Zhao Yu quickly ran upstairs.

However, he had just run halfway when a person rolled down from upstairs. Zhao Yu was quick to react and quickly grabbed the person. He took a closer look and saw that it was the black man, Sisay!

As Zhao Yu still had the energy booster with him, he caught Sisay in one hand.

“Ouch ... It hurts!” Sisay shouted towards the stairs, “Jecka, you bastard! Why did you push me?” I haven’t untied the rope yet!”

“I’m ... I’m sorry!” “If I didn’t push you, I’d be dead!”

Bang ... Bang ... Bang ...

As soon as he finished speaking, gunshots were heard from upstairs again. It was obviously very intense.

“Oh, so it’s the China detective. I was so scared!” “You ... You’re really lucky!” Sisay exclaimed in surprise when he saw Zhao Yu. The bomb didn’t kill you? And ... Um ...”

He looked down and saw Juliet.

“Truly damnable!” At this moment, Juliet walked up the steps with a gun in her hand. Pressing her ear, she roared indignantly, “this is ridiculous, this is ridiculous! Xi Wei really did not care about the cost, he even used the 60mm Germany bazooka! Are you afraid that we have a tank?”

Then, she let go of her ear, and Zhao Yu realized that there was dark red blood flowing out of Juliet’s ear.

Chapter 1344: Escape in an explosion (2)

At first, Zhao Yu was a little confused. He couldn’t understand why the other party was carrying such a high-level weapon like a rocket launcher.

It wasn’t until he heard Juliet’s complaint that he finally understood.

It seemed like Xi Wei was really going all out to get the diamond! He was probably worried about encountering Grimm or a trap set by the United Kingdom intelligence, so he brought so many men and heavy weapons with him. He was obviously prepared to be safe!

At this point, Zhao Yu finally understood another thing.

No wonder ... He would get a big “universe” hexagram! So the real big event was waiting for him here!

This ... Was really not good!

Before this, because of the existence of powerful devices, Zhao Yu had always had a sense of superiority. But now, it seemed that he had been too optimistic.

Xi Wei's men were obviously experienced mercenaries. With the addition of those powerful weapons, it would be easier said than done for him to turn the tide.

What's more, his father-in-law, Miao kun, was in great danger. Even though he had put on an invisible bulletproof vest and an emergency evacuation ball for him, it was difficult to guarantee his absolute safety!

Once Xi Wei found the diamond, he would definitely kill him!

'No...'

'No...'

Zhao Yu was getting more and more anxious as he heard the sound of bullets coming from upstairs. He felt that he had to find Miao kun as soon as possible.

"Ah ..."

With a scream, another person rolled down the stairs.

Zhao Yu quickly reached out to grab it, but was caught by Juliet, who had scored better. Senior Sister tuo Qiang was tall and strong. She grabbed that person like she was holding a little chick.

"Ah ... I'm going to die ... Ah ..." The man shouted in a tongue-twisting Latin. It was sai wanbach from South America.

He had been shot in the shoulder and was bleeding profusely. He was screaming in pain.

"Press, press on the wound!" Juliet was also worried about his safety. First, she let sai wanbach take care of his wound, then she pulled the bolt and rushed up the stairs to fight with Lee Bencheng and the others ...

"China detective, quick ..." At this time, Sisay, who was in Zhao Yu's arms, said hurriedly, "help me untie the rope!" He's still tied up!"

Oh ...

Zhao Yu quickly cut Sisay's rope with the military knife he had snatched.

"1st floor ... What's the situation on the 1st floor?" Sisay pointed downstairs and asked. After he finished asking, he shook his head in a daze. "I forgot again, you don't even know how to speak English!"

"Don't even think about it!" Covering his wound, sai wanbach said, "didn't you see Juliet going upstairs? It would definitely not work down there! They even used the rocket cannon. I think ... We're doomed!"

As if his words had come true, the three of them were shocked to see a grenade thrown at them from the bottom of the stairs.

F * ck!

Zhao Yu was shocked, and he quickly jumped up, then pushed Sisay and sai wanbach up the stairs.

Boom ... Boom ...

The frag grenade exploded as expected!

In an instant, the entire staircase was blown into smithereens. The wooden stairs were blown into pieces, flying everywhere.

Although Zhao Yu and the other two were shouting loudly, they were completely engulfed by the explosion. The powerful shockwave immediately knocked the three of them to the ground!

Ah ...

Ah ...

In the next second, Sisay suddenly let out a pig-like howl as a one-foot-long piece of wood pierced deeply into his back!

As for Sai Wan BA ke, he was knocked unconscious by the shockwave ...

Oh ...

Although Zhao Yu was at the back and was directly affected by the explosion, he was in a much better condition than the other two because he had strengthened his bullet proof suit.

However, the violent impact still caused his head to shake a little, and he could only see blurred images.

Crack ... Crack ... Crack ...

Just as he was in a daze, Zhao Yu suddenly heard footsteps coming from downstairs. The clicking sounds were clearly made by someone quickly stepping on the debris!

Damn it!

Although he could only see multiple images, Zhao Yu knew very well that the enemy had come to surround them! Once they charged up and formed a pincer attack, they would all be finished!

Damn it!

After being hit by two consecutive explosions, not only did Zhao Yu not lose his fighting spirit, but the murderer's anger was also triggered.

As he heard the footsteps getting closer and closer, he quickly raised his rifle and aimed downstairs.

As a result, the moment he raised his rifle, the enemy downstairs showed up.

Zhao Yu didn't think much, but pulled the trigger and fired a round of bullets!

Ah ...

There were a total of three enemies downstairs. One of them rushed directly to the top of the stairs, while the other two stayed at the edge of the stairs to support.

They had thought that after the grenade exploded, there would be no more resistance on the stairs. However, they did not expect to be shot the moment they poked their heads out. They were caught off guard!

The soldiers who were charging were quick. As soon as Zhao Yu fired, they quickly retreated and were not shot by Zhao Yu.

However, something out of the ordinary happened. Because Zhao Yu was in a daze, his hand that was holding the rifle was a little unsteady, causing the rifle to tilt outward. The bullets all hit outside the stairs.

In the end, the bullets hit the two soldiers who were preparing to provide support by the stairs. Before they could see what was going on, they were both shot and died!

“Ah!?”

The charging soldiers who had just retreated were frightened. They didn't even understand how their two companions had been shot.

However, he was a well-trained mercenary, after all. When he saw that there was still fire upstairs, he immediately took out a grenade, prepared to pull the fuse, and throw it at Zhao Yu!

However, what he didn't expect was that, with the sound of rapid footsteps, Zhao Yu, who was upstairs, was rushing down!

“Ah!?”

This person was fiddling with a grenade, but he didn't expect the other party to be so unafraid of death. He actually advanced instead of retreating!

In a moment of desperation, he quickly pulled out his gun, but it was too late!

Tap tap tap tap ...

At such a close distance, no matter how bad Zhao Yu's shooting skills were, it was impossible for him to miss! A burst of bullets hit the soldier's chest, forcing him to retreat more than ten steps before the corpse finally fell to the ground!

Hmph!

Zhao Yu snorted coldly. Just as he was about to be proud of his sudden attack, he looked down and saw that the grenade in the dead body's hand had its fuse pulled out!

F * cking grandma!

Zhao Yu was so scared that his hair stood on end, and he quickly ran back upstairs.

Boom ... Boom ...

With a loud bang, the grenade exploded again!

This was Zhao Yu's third time being attacked by an explosion, and he was already used to it. As he ran faster and there was a staircase in the way, after the explosion, he only fell on the stairs and was not seriously injured.

“Zhao Yu! Hurry up!”

Just then, he heard Juliet's call from upstairs, and he quickly ran up with his gun.

Oh my God!

When he arrived upstairs, he was stunned by the scene ...

Chapter 1345: Escape in an explosion (3)

The corridor on the second floor had turned into hell on earth, and there were many dead bodies lying on the floor.

Most of them were first lieutenant Qiang TE's soldiers and a few of them were Scott's men.

Even though Zhao Yu had invisible night vision, he could still see the blood on the ground. In some places, the bright red blood had even formed a pool.

"Sevan ... Sevan ..." Juliet patted Sevan Bach's face hard, but he was still unconscious.

Helpless, Juliet could only carry him on her shoulders.

"I think ... We should go to the control room!" "There's a communication device over there," she said anxiously. "I've studied mechanical and electrical engineering, so I might be able to contact the outside world!"

"It's not good!" Lee Bencheng, who was at the front, held a rifle and said, "didn't you see that the enemies just now were coming from the control room? There are definitely more enemies there!"

"Yup!" "So what if we can contact the outside world?" Distant water can't quench present thirst. If you want to get out of here alive, you can only rely on yourself!"

"Sisay, Sisay!" Zhao Yu saw that Sisay was still lying on the ground, so he quickly went up to ask about the situation.

"It's no use!" Juliet shook her head and said, "Sisay has left!"

"Ah?"

Zhao Yu was shocked. He then saw that Sisay was indeed not breathing, and the wooden stick that had stabbed him earlier was still deeply embedded in his back!

"Rely on ourselves ..." You SUFU frowned and complained. "It's easy to say, but now that the entire Miracle Island is under Xi Wei's command, how can we rely on ourselves?"

"In my opinion ..." He stubbornly pointed in the direction of the control room. "It's better for us to go to the control room, and then we'll hold the fort together until the reinforcements arrive!"

"Are you stupid?" Juliet turned around and cursed, "didn't you see the bazooka? How to defend? It's useless even if you have a tank!"

"Let's go, let's go!" At this time, Lee Bencheng waved to everyone, "at least the chief's idea is not bad. We can go to the control room to ask for help first, then quickly retreat and fight guerilla warfare with them to avoid a direct confrontation!"

With that, Lee Bencheng no longer cared about the opinions of others and directly walked towards the control room.

“Alright then!” Jecca had no choice but to follow.

“You guys go first ... I’ll bring up the rear!” Juliet dragged sai wanbach in one hand and held a gun in the other, gesturing at Zhao Yu and Yusoff, looking like a female Rambo.

“Al!” Seeing that Sisay was dead, Zhao Yu suddenly felt very upset, even more so than when Gu zhaichiro had been killed.

Although these people weren’t his friends, he still didn’t want to see them die!

‘Holy sh * t ...

Zhao Yu clenched his fists tightly, and the anger in his heart grew.

“Zhao Yu, let’s go!”

Juliet pushed Zhao Yu away when she saw that he was still in a daze. Zhao Yu then followed the group to the control room.

“Perhaps ...” On the way, you SUFU said to li Bencheng, “there’s another way to survive! That’s the helicopter we mentioned before!

“Do you think we can go around to the helicopter and snatch it?”

“It’s a bit risky! But it’s worth a try!” Jieka said, “Xi Wei isn’t a fool. He’ll definitely be heavily guarded! But if we’re tough enough, maybe ... Eh? Someone’s ...”

Before he could finish his sentence, he suddenly saw an enemy at the end of the corridor and hurriedly fired!

Bang ...

Tap tap tap tap ...

In an instant, the other party also fired, and the corridor was filled with gunshots again.

“Jecca, cover me!” Lee Bencheng knew that the corridor was relatively open and it was not suitable to stay for long, so he held his gun and rushed towards the enemy’s location.

Jecca quickly opened fire to cover and fired a lot of bullets.

“Damn it, let’s go all out!” You SUFU took a deep breath and followed li Bencheng.

However, just as they rushed to the middle of the corridor, one of the doors on the side of the corridor was suddenly kicked open. A burly soldier rushed out from the door and immediately collided with Lee Bencheng!

The man was very strong, and in just a moment, he knocked away Lee Bencheng’s rifle, and then he and Lee Bencheng fought ...

“You ... You, you, you ...” Yusufu wanted to shoot, but the two of them were busy fighting and she couldn’t find a good angle to shoot.

Just as you SUFU was hesitating, another soldier rushed out of the house and immediately collided with you SUFU.

You SUFU wasn’t as well-trained as li Bencheng. After being knocked down, her neck was grabbed tightly by someone, and it looked like her neck was about to be broken and she would die!

“Damn it!” At the crucial moment, Jecca suddenly ran out of bullets. He could only watch as you SUFU’s life was in danger, but he could do nothing.

Thump ...

In the end, just when everyone thought that you SUFU was going to die, Zhao Yu suddenly charged forward and punched the soldier in the face!

The soldier staggered from the hit and could only shake you SUFU off.

Cough cough ... Cough cough cough ...

You SUFU’s face was pale with fear as she coughed.

“F * ck your grandmother’s leg!” Zhao Yu threw a violent punch and kick at the enemy. As his energy booster had not lost its effect yet, the violent force immediately made the soldier cry out in pain.

However, the soldier was very experienced and had extraordinary skills. After stopping Zhao Yu’s violent attacks, he gradually regained his senses and grabbed Zhao Yu’s right foot, pulling Zhao Yu to the ground.

Way!

In an instant, the brawny man, Jecca, had already rushed over. He rushed in front of the soldier like a violent beast, and then used a Classic Wrestling move to strangle the soldier’s chest.

Then, he pulled the soldier forward with all his might and slammed him against the wall.

With a loud boom, the paint on the wall fell off.

Immediately after that, Jecca swung his fist at the man’s face, but the soldier reacted quickly and used a grappler back throw to throw Jecca to the ground.

However, just as jecca fell to the ground, Zhao Yu’s whirlwind kick arrived! He kicked the man’s chest, sending him to the ground!

Zhao Yu thought that the man would never be able to fight back again, so he wanted to give him another kick. However, he never expected that the man would not only be very resistant, but also suddenly pull out a cold dagger from his ankle and slash him.

Zhao Yu was shocked and quickly pulled his leg back.

Buzzzzzz!

The man stabbed at Jecca's thigh again. Jecca didn't dare to take it head-on, so he rolled away.

"Go to hell!"

The man spat out a mouthful of blood, then waved his dagger and tried to stab Zhao Yu.

Just as Zhao Yu was preparing to face the enemy, a ghostly figure suddenly appeared behind him. It was the Korea agent, Lee Bencheng.

Lee Bencheng grabbed the soldier's wrist and did some unknown action. In a flash, the soldier's arm was broken!

"Ah ..." The soldier screamed, and the dagger was also snatched away by Lee Bencheng.

In the next second, Lee Bencheng turned around and stabbed the soldier who was fighting with him in the chest! Immediately after, he pulled out the dagger and turned it around. He made a particularly fancy spinning movement in the air, and then fiercely stabbed it into the neck of the soldier in front of him!

As the dagger was pulled out, blood gushed out, and the soldier was no longer alive.

Immediately after, Lee Bencheng turned around and with two slashes, he cut off the neck of the soldier from before, and the corpse fell to the ground!

Waa!

Zhao Yu was dumbfounded. Lee Bencheng's dagger moves were as fast as lightning, and he almost didn't see it clearly.

Before this, Zhao Yu had never seen such a powerful expert!

This person ... Was too terrifying, right?

No wonder his father-in-law, Miao kun, was so afraid of him!

"Hurry ..." Just then, Juliet, who was in charge of covering the rear, ran over with sai wanbach on her shoulder and shouted to everyone, "the pursuers are here. We have to hurry!"

"Um ... Wait a minute ..." Who knew that Lee Bencheng seemed to have heard something and suddenly gestured for everyone to be quiet.

In the end, after everyone had quieted down, they suddenly heard the buzzing sound of a propeller.

"It's ... A helicopter!?" You SUFU looked out of the corridor, and her expression suddenly changed.

There was indeed a helicopter flying over from the corridor, but there was a terrifying heavy machine gun on the helicopter, and the muzzle was pointing at Youyou and her men!

Chapter 1346: Escape in an explosion (4)

"Hurry up and run!!!!"

When Yusoff saw the heavy machine gun pointed at her, she immediately shouted.

At the same time, he spread his legs and ran for his life. Due to the explosive speed, his little tongue could be seen wagging in his open mouth, which was very naughty!

It wasn't just the chieftain of the Middle East. Everyone else had seen the heavy machine gun on the helicopter, and all of them had run faster than Yusufu.

It was worth mentioning that even though his life was in such a serious threat, the brave Juliet didn't give up on cyvandbach on her shoulder, and continued to run forward with him on her back.

Just as everyone started to run, the heavy machine gun fired!

Tut, tut, tut ...

The heavy machine gun let out a muffled roar, and every sound was like a muffled Thunder.

What was even more terrifying was that the heavy machine gun's bullets not only had a strong penetrating power, but also a violent explosive force. The moment they hit the castle, the stone walls were penetrated!

Boom boom boom ...

The stone walls were shattered by the bullets, as if the entire Castle had fallen apart. What was even more terrifying was that the violent bullets were rapidly approaching Zhao Yu and the others!

At that time, even Zhao Yu, who was wearing an invisible bullet proof suit, would die if he touched it. There was no way he could survive!

No one had ever experienced such a dangerous scene before. All of them were so scared that their minds went blank and they only knew to run for their lives!

Ah ...

The crowd roared and even threw away their rifles. Rows of bullets exploded behind them, and the rocks that were shattered by the bullets had already hit their bodies!

Ah ...

It really was a moment of life and death!

At that moment, Zhao Yu felt that death was so close to him. Other than fear, he couldn't think of anything else!

Tut tut tut ... Tut tut ...

Perhaps God was kind. Just as the heavy machine gun's bullets were about to catch up to the group and swallow them, a burst of bullets ran out!

Ah ...

However, everyone thought that they couldn't escape their misfortune, so they all chose to throw all their eggs in one basket and pounced forward, falling heavily to the ground one after another.

“Aiyo ... I’m going to die from the fall!” Unexpectedly, after sai wanbach rolled around on the ground, he woke up from the fall. He immediately rubbed the back of his head in pain and asked loudly, “who did this? Ah ... Ah? Ah ...”

At this moment, he was shocked to see the terrifying scene in the corridor. He was so scared that he bit his tongue.

One of the walls of the corridor was filled with holes from the heavy machine gun, and the corridor was filled with debris and shrapnel ...

Buzz ... Buzz ...

Through the holes, people could still see the helicopters shouting outside the castle. Needless to say, the enemy must be installing new bullets into the heavy machine guns. It was estimated that it would not be long before they were hit by a new round of machine gun fire!

“F * ck! Dogsh * t!” Jieka cursed angrily, “Xi Wei, that lunatic! Even if you know that we’re not easy to deal with, you don’t need to resort to such an exaggerated method, right?”

“No!” “He’s not worried about us. Xi Wei prepared so many troops because he’s afraid of falling into Green’s trap!”

“Oh ...” Juliet got up from the ground in pain and spat out a mouthful of blood. “Xi Wei, that bastard! Don’t let me catch him!” Otherwise, I’ll definitely tear him into pieces!”

“Eh? Wait ... Sisay ... Where’s Sisay?” Sai Wan BA ke asked worriedly.

“Don’t worry!” You SUFU stood up unsteadily and replied, “this time, he’s really dead!”

“It can’t be?” Sai Wan BA ke couldn’t help but feel sad.

Buzzzzzz!

Buzzzzzz!

At this time, Lee Bencheng, who was at the front, suddenly kicked the door of a room a few times. It was obvious that he wanted to hide in the room for a while.

However, the door did not open even after he kicked it several times.

“I’ll do it!” “Shut up!” Jecka roared and stepped forward, ready to smash the door.

“Don’t waste your energy!” “Don’t you see how powerful the heavy machine gun is?” He couldn’t Dodge it at all! I think we should just run!”

“But where can you run to?” “No matter how fast he is, can he outrun a helicopter?” said Jake anxiously.

Buzz ... Buzz ...

At this moment, the heavy machine gun on the helicopter seemed to be ready. It was adjusting the angle of the helicopter and was about to launch a second round of attack.

This time, it was clearly difficult for them to Dodge.

“Everyone ... The control room is right ahead!” She pointed at the end of the corridor and said, “the control room is on the dark side, and there’s a room in front of us. There’s another floor above us. I don’t think a heavy machine gun can penetrate it, right?!”

“Right!” Lee Bencheng nodded. “When we get there, we can think of a way to ask for help!”

“Then what are we waiting for?” Jecca waved his arms anxiously. “Hurry up and go!”

“Something’s wrong!” Just as everyone was about to move, Zhao Yu suddenly shouted to everyone, “listen to me, this is probably a trap! They know we want to go to the control room, so they’re forcing us to go!”

“Ah?” Lee Bencheng was surprised, and quickly translated Zhao Yu’s words to everyone.

“Why?” Everyone was puzzled.

Buzz ... Buzz ...

Hearing that the helicopter was getting closer and closer, Zhao Yu waved to the crowd and said, “If you don’t want to die, then follow me! I don’t have time to explain to you! Hurry up ...”

Then, Zhao Yu picked up a rifle from a dead person on the ground, turned around, and ran back in the direction he came from!

“Isn’t ... Isn’t this just seeking death?”

“There are pursuers behind us, Zhao Yu ... Hey ...”

When the crowd saw Zhao Yu retreat quickly, they were at a loss and looked at each other.

“Right! That makes sense!” At this moment, Lee Bencheng seemed to have realized what was going on and hurriedly waved his hands at the crowd. “The Chinese man is right. We can’t go to the control room. Hurry ... Run!”

After hearing what Li Bencheng said, everyone stopped insisting and ran back with Zhao Yu.

However, they had only run about twenty meters back when they heard a muffled sound. The area where the control room was located had exploded!

Damn it!

Everyone was shocked and quickly ran away. Finally, they managed to escape to a safe area before the shock wave arrived.

Boom ... Boom ...

At this time, half of the castle in the direction of the control room was engulfed in a sea of fire. The ground trembled and the mountains shook.

“Wow, that was close!!!” Sai wanbach drew a cross in front of his chest and said with fear, “just a few seconds! Otherwise, we would all have been blown up!”

“The Chinese are right,” Lee Bencheng said. “If they were afraid that we would go to the control room for help, they would have destroyed the place with heavy machine guns!

“It’s like pocketing. They want to drive us into the control room and blow it up with us!”

“How vicious!” You SUFU shouted angrily, “Xi Wei is really a lunatic!”

“Hey, are you guys done talking?” Suddenly, Zhao Yu, who was at the front, waved at the crowd and shouted, “now is not the time to talk. Hurry up and come to me. I have a way to get out ...”

This time, everyone was in awe of Zhao Yu. Once they heard that Zhao Yu had a way to get out, they quickly followed.

However, just as they met up with Zhao Yu and rushed into one of the rooms on the second floor, the helicopter outside the castle made its move.

The people on the plane might have caught the traces of Zhao Yu and the others. After adjusting the direction of the plane, they fired a missile directly at the crowd!

Chapter 1347: Escape in an explosion (5)

Boom! Boom! Boom!

With a loud explosion, the center of the castle was blown up by the missile. The smoke and dust were stacked up like a black marshmallow that was rapidly expanding!

A violent shockwave spread out, shaking the surrounding plants. In the violent explosion, many huge rocks flew into the sky, and debris flew in the air. In a cloud of terrifying dust, this 300-year-old castle was destroyed just like that ...

Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

There was a beeping sound from the helicopter. The pilot turned off a button and then said into the walkie-talkie, “Boss, we’re looking for the target, but we haven’t found a match.

“Hmm ... What?”

“It can’t be. That’s a ‘long nail’(anti-tank missile) to the ground. It can’t be so detailed, right?”

“Oh ... Alright, alright! You’re the boss, so I’ll listen to you!” After the pilot agreed, he quickly tuned the walkie-talkie and ordered his other companions, “attention, all teams. The boss asked you to turn on the strong infrared and search the wreckage. Make sure there are no survivors!

“Yes, I know it’s a bit of a boast, but he’s the one paying the bill. Hurry up and do your work! We must evacuate within two hours!”

“Hmph!” When the pilot put down the walkie-talkie, a cold snort came from the cabin behind. A soldier holding a heavy machine gun sneered and said, “I admit that it was beyond my expectations that those people could last for ten minutes and kill so many of our people!

“But, boss, you don’t have to be so nervous, do you?”

“I didn’t just drop a bomb just now. It was a precise strike. If there are still any survivors, I won’t touch a woman for the rest of my life!”

Di di di ...

Di di di ...

Who knew that before the man could finish his sentence, the alarm on the plane’s surveillance screen suddenly sounded.

“Damn it!” The pilot looked at the source of the alarm and quickly pulled the plane’s control stick to turn the plane around. At the same time, he said to the gunner behind him, “alright, you can be a monk in your next life!”

After saying that, he hurriedly increased his speed and chased after the target.

Wuwuwu ...

Very quickly, they heard the sound of an engine from the ground. The two of them quickly looked down and were shocked to see that a motorcycle had suddenly rushed out of a small garden’s rockery!

Wuuu ...

The motorcycle looked old, but it was extremely fast. As soon as it rushed out, it went straight into the forest and headed north of wondrous trace Island.

“Damn it!” The pilot cursed again. As he controlled the plane to give chase, he contacted the other team members through the walkie-talkie and asked them to surround and intercept.

“I’ve seen a living ghost! Where did this motorcycle come from?” The machine gunner’s eyes widened in disbelief. He quickly grabbed the machine gun with both hands and shouted, “hurry up and chase them. I want to tear them apart. Ah ...”

Buzz ... Buzz ...

The pilot lowered the helicopter by a few meters and gave chase close to the forest.

There weren’t many trees in the manor, so the helicopter was extremely fast. In the blink of an eye, it had reached the edge of the forest. However, at this moment, they only heard the sound of the motorcycle but did not see it.

Wuwuwu ...

Wuwuwu ...

As the sound of the motorcycle got closer and closer, the machine gunner focused his attention on the small path at the edge of the forest. Once the motorcycle appeared, he would immediately shoot.

However, something unexpected happened. Before the motorcycle could rush out of the forest, a person sitting on the back of the motorcycle fired a shot at the helicopter!

Tap tap tap tap ...

With a series of crisp gunshots, a burst of rifle bullets accurately hit the body of the helicopter. The bullets swept across the body and then hit the machine gunner's shoulder with a pfft, causing blood to spray out ...

Ding ding ding ...

The bullets continued to fire, and a few of them hit the glass on the driver's side, causing several cracks to appear on the glass ...

Ah ...

The two of them exclaimed at the same time. The pilot had no choice but to turn around and fly to the side of the forest.

"Ah ..." The injured machine gunner flew into a rage. He endured the pain and raised the machine gun again, shouting at the driver, "quick! Show the target ..."

The pilot was an expert. He didn't force the helicopter to turn. Instead, he followed the inertia and made the helicopter spin in the air. Then, he easily aimed the heavy machine gun at the motorcycle.

"Go to hell!" The machine gunner gritted his teeth and ruthlessly pressed the trigger of his machine gun. A burst of violent bullets shot out, instantly causing dust to rise in the forest and branches to fall ...

Wuwuwu ...

However, the motorcycle appeared and disappeared unpredictably. It actually flashed right below the plane and went to the other side.

"Dammit! Turn, turn!" The machine gunner roared. When the plane finally turned around, the gunner on the motorcycle was waiting for the exhausted and had already fired!

Tap tap tap tap ...

Another round of accurate bullets came, and the tail of the helicopter suddenly emitted thick smoke. The helicopter suddenly spun on the spot as if it had lost control!

"Hey, hey, hey ... Hey, hey, hey ..." The machine gunner was spinning and quickly shouted.

The pilot quickly pressed the control stick, trying to stabilize the plane.

However, the tail of the plane had some kind of problem, and the pilot had difficulty balancing it. Helplessly, he could only step on the gas and fly the plane to the sky, then fly in the direction of the castle!

"Yay!"

At this time, the motorcycle on the ground suddenly stopped. Zhao Yu, who was driving, couldn't help but high-five Juliet, who was in the back seat!

"Awesome! This is too awesome!" Zhao Yu praised, "as expected of Senior Sister tuo Qiang!" You can even shoot down a plane, I'm impressed, I'm impressed!"

Zhao Yu was speaking in Chinese, and Juliet could only understand the word “awesome.” But the France senior was also very excited, and she kissed Zhao Yu.

It turned out that, before the missile hit the castle, Zhao Yu had already prepared for the worst.

Therefore, at the moment of life and death, he led everyone into the secret room in Grimm’s study, and barely escaped the direct attack of the missile!

However, even so, the violent explosion still hit them, causing most of them to be injured, especially you SUFU, who had been hit by a boiler in the secret chamber and could no longer move.

Helplessly, Zhao Yu had no choice but to think about the Norton 500 again. He wanted to use the motorcycle to lure the enemy away.

Fortunately, this motorcycle, which had been silent in the secret chamber for many years, not only had fuel in the fuel tank, but it could also start easily, and even the tires did not need to be pumped!

Hence, Zhao Yu took Senior Sister tuo Qiang and rushed out along the secret passage, putting on a good show of a motorcycle fighting a helicopter.

“You’re too good at driving!” After Juliet kissed Zhao Yu, she praised him, “I didn’t even see you clearly just now, and you rushed to the other side of the helicopter. You’re amazing!”

“Just so-so, hehe ...”

Zhao Yu was all smiles, but he knew that it wasn’t because he was good at driving, but rather because of the invisible accelerator.

“Let’s go!” Juliet told Zhao Yu, “the tidal generators are in the sea north of Miracle Island. If Xi Wei wants to go, he must go to the North Dock!”

“Alright!” Zhao Yu stepped on the gas, and the motorcycle sped out of the woods, heading straight for the North Pier.

However, their good luck did not last long. They had just reached the golf course when they heard a buzzing sound behind them.

The two of them looked back and could not help but feel depressed. They did not expect that the helicopter would fly back!

Chapter 1348: Escape in an explosion (6)

What was going on?

Zhao Yu and Juliet were dumbfounded when they saw the plane suddenly turn back. He saw that the plane was still the same as before, but the fault at the tail had been resolved, and it was flying more stably.

Terrible!

Zhao Yu was depressed. At that moment, they were already very far away from the forest. Without the cover of the trees, they had no way to fight with the helicopter.

As long as the enemy flew over and fired a burst of bullets, they would be completely finished.

“Hurry ... Hurry up and drive!” Juliet saw that the plane was getting closer and closer, so she shouted at Zhao Yu, asking him to drive faster.

However, at that moment, Zhao Yu was still thinking about other problems, so he did not move.

“Zhao Yu, stop dawdling! Open it!” In a moment of desperation, Juliet even shouted a half-baked Chinese.

Wait ... Juliet, can you swim?”he asked. Zhao Yu didn’t rush to start the motorcycle, but instead asked a question,”swishing?”

“I do! What’s wrong?” Juliet’s face was twisted.

“That’s good!” Zhao Yu didn’t wait for Juliet to react, and pushed her off the motorcycle.

Ah ...

Juliet didn’t expect Zhao Yu to suddenly hit her. Even though she was strong, Zhao Yu still pushed her out of the car.

The motorcycle was parked on the road next to the golf course, and Juliet fell into the river by the side of the course after being pushed off.

There was a meter of water in the ditch, and Juliet was immediately drenched ...

Juliet, hurry up and hold your breath!” Zhao Yu shouted into the water,”leave the rest to me!”

Then, Zhao Yu stepped on the accelerator, and the old Norton 500 roared and sped forward.

“Gun ... Gun Gun Gun ... Hey ...” Juliet finally understood Zhao Yu’s good intentions and knew that he was trying to draw the enemy away. She quickly pointed at her rifle and shouted a few times, but Zhao Yu had already left, so she couldn’t hear him.

Buzz ... Buzz ...

As soon as Zhao Yu left, the helicopter flew over. Juliet was so scared that she quickly dove into the water and hid in the shadow of the ditch.

The pilot was too focused on his revenge to notice Juliet in the ditch. After the helicopter passed the ground, he went straight for the motorcycle ...

Hualalalala ...

Juliet poked her head out of the water, and only let out a sigh of relief when she saw that the terrifying helicopter was gone. However, she had mixed feelings.

Because, from her point of view, this time, Zhao Yu was going to relieve himself and take a sh * t (dead) in his pants!

Tut, tut, tut ...

The old-fashioned motorcycle let out an explosive motor sound. Sometimes, one could even hear the smell of a tractor.

Zhao Yu knew that the old car could still start up, so he had won the lottery. Naturally, he didn't have high expectations.

He had thrown Juliet off the car not only to draw the enemy away, but also because he didn't want Juliet to see him with the prop.

After all, the props were all unorthodox, and once Juliet saw them, it would definitely affect her performance.

At that moment, without senior tuo Qiang behind him, Zhao Yu felt a lot more relaxed. He immediately increased the accelerator to the maximum, causing the old motorcycle to suddenly burst out with a heaven-defying speed. In the blink of an eye, it changed from a tractor to a Ferrari!

* Whoosh ... *

The motorcycle was like an arrow that had left the bow, and in the blink of an eye, it had left the helicopter in the dust!

F * ck ...

The pilot's eyes were dazzled for a moment, and he thought he was hallucinating. It was only when he confirmed the speed of the motorcycle that he was dumbfounded and almost went crazy!

Never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that a broken motorcycle could outrun a helicopter. Unconvinced, he quickly increased the horsepower and chased after Zhao Yu again ...

Zhao Yu drove his motorcycle North along a small road. However, the road quickly turned at the end of the golf course. If Zhao Yu took a turn, the plane would definitely catch up to him.

Hence, he did not hesitate and drove the motorcycle straight into the golf course's lawn and continued to head north.

Of course, because of the accelerator, Zhao Yu didn't care what kind of ground he was on. At such a high speed, even the water surface wouldn't be affected, let alone the grass.

Seeing this terrifying scene, the helicopter pilot's eyes almost fell to the ground. He thought he had seen a ghost!

Hmph!

Zhao Yu turned around and looked at the helicopter, which was far behind him, feeling very proud. So, he began to plan how he could save his father-in-law when they arrived at the dock later.

However, before the smug look on his face disappeared, Zhao Yu suddenly saw two electric cars suddenly appear on the other side of the golf course!

What ?

As the electric car had its lights on, Zhao Yu could see clearly without the night vision device. The two electric cars were all filled with soldiers, and except for the driver, everyone else was holding a rifle!

F * ck!

Zhao Yu quickly looked over and realized that he had no other weapons, except for a dagger on his waist.

What to do?

Zhao Yu used his eyes to measure the distance between himself and the electric scooter. He wondered if he could just rush over like that ...

However, just as he started to think about it, the enemies on the two electric cars fired at him at the same time!

Bang Bang Bang ...

Tap tap tap tap ...

Zhao Yu didn't know why the gunshots from the two electric cars were different, but he knew that no matter which one hit him, it would not be a joke!

The bullets came from two different directions. Zhao Yu quickly lowered his head to Dodge, but the bullets whizzed past, and a few still hit him.

Fortunately, his bulletproof vest had been strengthened, so the bullets didn't hurt him. Unfortunately, the bulletproof vest still let out an urgent alarm.

At this rate, once he became a target, the bulletproof vest would still be damaged.

Damn it!

This time, Zhao Yu didn't need to consider the feasibility of directly rushing over. The answer was obvious, he would definitely die!

He had no choice!

Helplessly, Zhao Yu turned the car around and drove towards the race track on the right.

At this time, the enemy on the electric scooter fired again. As half of Zhao Yu's body was exposed, in order to minimize the damage caused by the bullets, he was forced to use his hand shield!

Ding ding ding ...

A series of bullets hit Zhao Yu's hand shield, causing it to tremble. Zhao Yu immediately increased his speed and ran forward.

Ding ding ding ...

When the second round of bullets came, the system in his mind suddenly flashed red! It turned out that the system was reminding him that his hand shield had been severely overloaded and had cracked!

Damn it!

Zhao Yu cursed and quickly sped up, leaving the electric scooter in the dust.

However, just as he got rid of the scooter, the helicopter behind him arrived and caught up with the motorcycle in the blink of an eye.

The machine gunner on the plane couldn't hold back any longer. As soon as he saw Zhao Yu enter his shooting range, he immediately threw away the heavy bullet clip and fired at Zhao Yu!

Tut, tut, tut ...

The sound of the heavy machine gun was particularly scary, and it exploded behind Zhao Yu in an instant. The grass was splattered by the bullets, and mud and grass flew everywhere. It looked like Zhao Yu was about to be hit!

F * ck!

Zhao Yu was so scared that his face turned pale, and he quickly accelerated to the maximum speed. The old motorcycle's exhaust pipe seemed to be on fire, and it whizzed forward like a rocket that had just been launched!

However, the helicopter's driver was prepared this time. Seeing the motorcycle suddenly accelerate, he stepped on the gas without any hesitation. He took a low altitude dive and chased after Zhao Yu.

Tut, tut, tut ...

The machine gunner was also determined to win. He fired the heavy machine gun in a frenzy, and rows of bullets flew towards Zhao Yu again, about to engulf Zhao Yu ...

Chapter 1349: monster

Tut, tut, tut ...

The heavy machine gun's bullets were getting higher and higher, and it looked like they were going to engulf Zhao Yu.

At this time, Zhao Yu's accelerator was at its highest level. It couldn't go any faster, and the motorcycle seemed to be flying.

In the moment of death, the inexperienced Zhao Yu felt his brain short-circuit due to stress.

At first, he seemed to have thought of a few ideas to escape from danger, but when the overwhelming bullets were fired at him, he could not think of anything other than mechanically speeding up the motorcycle!

In the end, a terrifying scene still happened. Just as Zhao Yu drove the motorcycle into the race track, bullets instantly hit him!

As soon as the motorcycle was shot by the heavy machine gun, it exploded with a bang. The front wheels shot up into the sky, and the entire motorcycle bounced off the ground and flew into the air.

Ah ...

"Ah!" Zhao Yu shouted in despair, thinking that he was done for!

However, at the critical moment, an invisible ball suddenly popped out of his body and helped him block the row of bullets that were shooting at him.

It turned out that it was the emergency evacuation ball. When it felt that Zhao Yu's life was in danger, it automatically activated.

The ball was very elastic, and after it was hit by the bullet, it pushed Zhao Yu into the stable of the racing track!

With a loud bang, the motorcycle and Zhao Yu both crashed into each other. The motorcycle instantly fell apart, and there were even flames.

Zhao Yu, on the other hand, was like a comet that had hit earth. He broke several pillars in a row, collapsed one-third of the shed, and even created a cloud of dust.

"Hahaha ..."

Seeing that Zhao Yu had finally been hit by the bullet, the machine gunner stopped shooting and laughed wildly.

"No! Something's wrong!" Unexpectedly, the pilot's face was still serious. He immediately turned the helicopter around and pointed the heavy machine gun in the direction of the stable.

He stared at the overturned stable and ordered the machine gunner, "Hurry up, give him another shot!"

"You ... Are you crazy?" The machine gunner grinned. "Don't you know how expensive these bullets are? And ... What are you thinking? can't you see? I've already hit him. Do you think he's Iron Man?"

"I don't care about Iron Man! I told you to shoot, so shoot now!"

The pilot's rank was obviously higher. Under his command, the machine gunner had no choice but to adjust the angle of the muzzle and then shoot at the stable again!

The heavy machine gun was like a wild beast. The bullets shot into the stable one after another, and the stable was instantly blown up in all directions. Debris flew in the air and the entire stable exploded!

After a burst of bullets, the stable could no longer bear the heavy load and collapsed in an instant.

With the rumbling sound of the collapse, the scene finally returned to silence, leaving only the buzzing sound of the helicopter's propeller.

At this time, the two electric vehicles that were responsible for blocking the way had arrived at the scene. After seeing that the stable was basically destroyed, they immediately waved to the pilot.

It meant that the people in the stable were definitely dead!

"No!" To his surprise, the pilot stubbornly ordered, "boss said that these people are different from ordinary people. We have to confirm each of their bodies to complete the mission!"

"Hurry up, find the corpse before it turns cold ..."

"I remember ... There were two people on the motorcycle earlier. One of them must have run away!" The pilot looked at the detection screen and said to everyone, "I have to go back and search. Time is tight and the mission is important. Don't dawdle or the boss will scold us again!"

"Alright, alright!"

The soldiers on the electric car made a helpless gesture, then all got out of the car and went to the stables to look for Zhao Yu's body.

"I say, don't make such a big fuss, okay?" When the pilot turned the helicopter around again, the machine gunner said to the pilot, "if I still don't die, I'll F * cking F * ck myself up! I won't be a monk, I'll be a eunuch!"

Whoosh ...

Just as the machine gunner finished speaking, a cool breeze suddenly blew by his ear ...

Eh?

This person's alertness was extraordinary. As soon as the cold wind came, he immediately felt that something was wrong and hurriedly looked in the direction of the cold wind.

He opened his eyes wide and saw something flying toward him from the side of the helicopter.

That thing was very strange. It seemed transparent and invisible, but also like a ghost.

"Ah ... What's that?"

In his shock, he quickly grabbed the machine gun with both hands and tried to shoot at the monster. However, the strange shadow came very quickly. In the blink of an eye, it flew into the cabin and hit the fixed horizontal bar of the heavy machine gun with a thud.

Thump!

Grumble ...

In an instant, strange sounds rang out in the cabin, followed by a sharp cry of pain,"

"Holy sh * t, I'm dead!"

The machine gunner happened to be Chinese, so even though Phantom was using Chinese to curse, he still heard it clearly.

"Ah? I've seen a living ghost!" The machine gunner was shocked. Although he could see a blurry shadow in front of him, he couldn't tell what the shadow was.

"What's wrong?" The pilot did not know what was going on and asked in confusion, "why did your voice change? Did you cut it off so quickly?"

"Something's wrong!" The machine gunner quickly reached for the pistol at his waist, ready to shoot.

However, the strange Shadow's speed was strange. It suddenly rushed forward and punched the machine gunner's nose!

“Ah!” The machine gunner shouted in pain and waved his hand to fight back, but he was kicked in the crotch again. He was in so much pain that he let out a eunuch’s howl.”Ah ...”

“Ah?”

At this moment, the pilot looked back and saw the existence of the strange shadow in horror. He quickly pulled out his pistol and wanted to shoot at the strange shadow.

But just as he aimed properly, he suddenly saw that the strange shadow became clearer and clearer. It quickly turned into a naked man. It was detective Zhao Yu!

Why was Zhao Yu naked? the reason was simple. He had been wearing pajamas, and after the earth-shattering ordeal, his pajamas were all gone!

“Ah!?”

Although the machine gunner didn’t recognize Zhao Yu, seeing a living person suddenly appear in front of him, how could he remain calm? he quickly reached for his gun, trembling.

“Hmph!” Zhao Yu snorted coldly and said fiercely,”there’s a way to heaven, but you don’t want to take it. There’s no Door to Hell, but you want to break in! Why did you have to provoke me, your Grandpa Zhao, instead of so many people? Hmph Hmph Hmph, then don’t blame me for starting a killing spree today and being ruthless! Wahahaha ...”

“Ah ...” Although the pilot did not understand Chinese, he was still stunned by Zhao Yu’s wild laughter. He was stunned for a moment and did not shoot.

“Go to hell!” However, the machine gunner could understand Chinese, so he was furious. He immediately pulled out his gun and fired at Zhao Yu.

However, something even more terrifying happened. He clearly saw that the bullet had hit Zhao Yu, but Zhao Yu was unscathed. He didn’t feel anything, and his eyes almost fell to the ground.

“F * ck your grandmother!” Zhao Yu cursed, then immediately kicked the machine gunner in the chest.

Zhao Yu’s leg strength was not bad to begin with, and with the addition of the energy booster, he managed to kick the machine gunner out of the cabin.

However, something depressing happened. Zhao Yu had underestimated the machine gunner’s ability. Although the machine gunner was kicked off the plane, at the critical moment, he grabbed Zhao Yu’s ankle and pulled Zhao Yu down with him!

Ah ...

In the air, two people exclaimed in unison ...

Chapter 1350: berserk soldiers descending from the heavens

“.....”

Suddenly, only the pilot was left in the plane. He still had his arm raised high and pointed his gun at the place where Zhao Yu had just appeared.

At that moment, there was nothing but air. If the machine gunner hadn't already fallen off the plane, he wouldn't even have believed his eyes and thought that everything was just an illusion.

Anyone would be dumbfounded and frightened by what had just happened ...

Di di ... Di di ...

At this moment, the plane had already turned around and rose to a higher altitude. Hearing the sound from the control panel, the pilot was about to turn around to fly the plane.

However, before he could move, he was shocked to see another terrifying scene. Zhao Yu, who was naked just now, had flown back into the cabin and was standing in the same position as before.

"Ah!" The driver was scared out of his mind, and he quickly shot at Zhao Yu.

Bang Bang Bang ...

Bang Bang Bang ...

Gunshots suddenly rang out in the cabin. The driver was ruthless, as every shot was aimed at Zhao Yu's head, face, and eyes.

However, the terrifying things were still going on. Zhao Yu, who was in front of him, was still oblivious to it.

Just as the driver was desperately shooting, Zhao Yu pulled over the heavy machine gun and aimed it at the Xuanji stables below!

At that moment, a group of soldiers got off the electric car and were looking for Zhao Yu's body in the stable. If Zhao Yu fired at them now, none of them would survive!

"Ah?" The pilot understood Zhao Yu's intention, so he quickly put down his pistol, turned around, and pulled the control stick.

* Whoosh ... *

The helicopter immediately spun in the air, and Zhao Yu was shaken by the violent spin, losing his balance. In order to prevent himself from being thrown out of the plane again, he quickly grabbed the machine gun's handle.

Di di di ... Di di di di ...

A red alarm suddenly rang on the plane's control panel. The pilot was afraid that the plane would crash, so he had to hold the control stick and stabilize the plane.

Taking advantage of this, Zhao Yu finally placed his finger on the machine gun trigger.

"Wahaha ... Go to hell, you sons of a turtle!" Zhao Yu shouted, but after he pulled the trigger, the heavy machine gun didn't react at all. It didn't shoot out any roaring flames or deafening roars as he had expected.

This ...

Zhao Yu turned his head and realized that the machine gunner had just finished a clip of bullets, and now needed to change the magazine!

He had never played with such a high-level weapon before, so he naturally didn't know how to change the magazine.

However, the pilot did not know about the magazine! When he saw that Zhao Yu was about to shoot again, he quickly pulled the control stick again and turned the helicopter.

In the end, as the plane was already spinning at a high speed, the loss of control of the plane intensified. Like a top, it began to fall to the ground!

Ah ...

The pilot was shocked and tried his best to control the plane. However, it was difficult for him to control the plane again due to the violent shaking and bumps.

At this time, the dishonest Zhao Yu ran to the front to join in the fun!

He had originally come to cause destruction, and now that the plane was about to crash, he was looking forward to it! Thus, he leaped to the pilot's position and started to tear at the pilot.

Shua shua ...

He waved his Iron Fist and hit the pilot's head. Even though the pilot was wearing a helmet, he still felt dizzy from the impact.

However, the driver was not to be trifled with. In a moment of desperation, he pulled out his dagger and stabbed Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu was wearing a bullet proof suit, so he wasn't afraid of bullets, but he was afraid of being stabbed. Seeing the knife coming at him, he could only try to grab the other party's wrist to prevent him from succeeding.

Just like that, the two of them went back and forth, tearing at each other in the small cockpit.

At that moment, the plane was spinning even more rapidly, and Zhao Yu felt dizzy. Everything he saw seemed to be blurred out, becoming extremely fragmented!

And in these fragmented scenes, he suddenly saw something that made him happy. He saw a red button on one of the plane's control sticks, and the button was wrapped in a transparent cover!

Eh?

Zhao Yu had seen this kind of red button in movies before. It should be the switch for an aircraft to launch a missile!

There was!

Suddenly seeing this thing, Zhao Yu was suddenly full of energy. He tried his best to look out of the plane, and when he saw that the angle was right, he directly hit the button!

"Ah!"

The pilot was shocked to see Zhao Yu reaching for the missile launch switch. He was so scared that his face turned pale and he screamed.

According to conventional procedures, if the missile launch sequence had not been initiated, it would be useless to just press the switch.

Unfortunately, in order to chase after Zhao Yu, who was on the motorcycle, the driver had already prepared a missile program. He had originally planned to use a missile to attack Zhao Yu if he couldn't take him down with the machine gun, but he didn't use it in the end.

In other words, the missile was now in launch mode. As long as Zhao Yu pressed the switch ...

No... No, no, no...

The pilot trembled in fear and quickly rushed over to stop him.

However, Zhao Yu's movements were ferocious, and he couldn't stop him at all.

Pa!

Zhao Yu's palm broke the cover and hit the launch button hard.

Crack ...

* Whoosh ... *

As the switch was pressed, a missile instantly shot out from the plane and went straight to the stable ...

Looking at the stable, the soldiers who were in charge of searching for the bodies were quite unlucky. They were originally searching for the bodies, but suddenly saw the helicopter spinning like crazy, so they all looked up curiously at the helicopter.

However, they had yet to see clearly what had happened to the plane. However, they suddenly saw a missile being fired at them from the plane!

'F * ck ...'

All of a sudden, it was useless no matter how much they cursed. At such a close distance, the missile exploded directly from the stable in less than a second!

Boom ... Boom ...

The explosion of the missile was so powerful that not only did it turn the stable into dust, but the flames and shock waves also spread to the helicopter. The helicopter, which was already out of control, was even more affected and directly fell to the ground!

Ah ...

The strong shock wave swept over, immediately pushing Zhao Yu out of the cabin, and he fell into the air. Immediately after, a scorching flame enveloped him again ...

At this time, Zhao Yu couldn't care about anything else. He quickly opened the invisible parachute that he had prepared earlier, then covered his head with his hands.

In just a few seconds, the flames and shock waves retracted, and Zhao Yu landed on the ground with the help of the invisible parachute. With the inertia, he rolled a few times on the ground before he finally landed successfully.

As soon as he landed, he saw the huge helicopter crash to the right in front of him. As the helicopter's head was facing down, the moment the propeller hit the ground, it immediately burst into pieces and shot in all directions!

Immediately after, the plane crashed with a loud bang and black smoke. It had completely crashed ...
