Chapter 1381: Remote control?

The award ceremony was held very smoothly. In addition to the host, the South Africa Intelligence Agency, the United Kingdom Intelligence Agency, and the China Embassy attended the ceremony.

Zhao Yu and Miao kun successfully received the medals and various rewards from the high-ranking officials of the two countries.

After the ceremony, the two of them attended a banquet that was specially prepared for them and had a wonderful night.

The next morning, they took a private plane provided by South Africa Airlines and returned home in glory.

Zhao Yu's worries were unnecessary. The two top sports cars that the United Kingdom government had rewarded them with would be returned together with their private plane, and they would not charge them any shipping fees.

"How is it? Zhao Yu, Do you understand now?" On the plane, Miao kun said to Zhao Yu, "that's the best choice for you and me!"

"Now that the whole world knows that the diamond has been returned to its original owner, no one will go against us and our country anymore!"

"En!" Zhao Yu nodded seriously. "Fortunately, we weren't dazed by the diamonds. If we brought the diamonds back to China, not only would it cause trouble for us, but our country would also be affected!"

"Therefore, only in the face of major right and wrong must we make a major sacrifice!" Miao kun began to act like a boss. "Hehehe ..." He laughed. "I brought you out to see the world. You should thank me properly!" Hehe ..."

Normally, Zhao Yu would have retorted with more than a hundred words!

But at that moment, something unexpected happened, and Zhao Yu shut his mouth obediently. That was because he realized that the miracle System in his brain had finally reacted!

When he opened it, he saw that the "heaven and earth" hexagram that had been hanging on the central interface of the system for nearly ten days had finally ended!

It was over ...

It was finally over!

Zhao Yu let out a long breath and quickly opened it to take a closer look.

The system showed that Zhao Yu had achieved a super high completion rate of 647% for this adventure, and he had received ten special devices and two top-grade devices.

Among the special devices, in addition to the all-purpose serum, the cardiac pacemaker, the invisible drone, and other devices, Zhao Yu finally got three invisible aircraft that he had been dreaming of!

Hu ...

Zhao Yu felt relieved. Although ten devices were not many, they were all special devices that he needed the most. In terms of gold, they were naturally much better than the previous reward!

Without the aircraft, Zhao Yu was afraid that it would be difficult to avoid the helicopters on the island.

After putting away the ten special devices, Zhao Yu opened the two top-grade devices.

One of them was the emergency evacuation ball.

It was because of the emergency evacuation ball that Zhao Yu had managed to avoid the machine gun fire. Otherwise, he would have been dead by now.

Now that he had obtained a risk avoidance ball, he was naturally overjoyed.

At first, he had thought that the other top-grade prop was also the emergency evacuation ball! However, when he opened it, he saw a new device called the invisible Kasaya!

F * ck!

When he saw the name, Zhao Yu was so shocked that he furrowed his eyebrows.

Looking at the introduction again, it was just as he had expected. After using this item, it could allow the user to survive in space or an environment similar to space for an hour ...

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu was not surprised by the device, but by the system's personality.

Bro system, what's the meaning of giving me this item? Don't tell me that when the earth can't operate anymore in the future, you still want me to go to space to play?

You really are something!

After checking his devices, Zhao Yu returned to the main interface and realized that he had earned more than 6000 adventure points through the big heaven and earth hexagram!

Not only did he earn back the points that he had spent on the strengthening device, but he also made his total points reach 9532 points. He was about to reach 10000 points and level up again!

As a result, his curiosity was also rising. He really wanted to know what it would be like if the miracle System was upgraded one more time.

Would there be a more powerful hexagram than the "universe" hexagram in the future?

Or could the system finally give him an offensive or killing tool like the invincible laser sword?

When that time comes, Hmph ... Let's see who can stop me, the special Agent Zhao Yu!

Hahahahaha...Hahahaha ...

Thinking of this, Zhao Yu couldn't help but laugh.

"Hey! Little brat, can you not laugh like that!" Miao kun saw Zhao Yu's silly smile and couldn't help but scold him, "when you laugh like that, I'm worried that you're up to no good!"

As he spoke, he quickly opened his suitcase and took out the blue Diamond that the South Africa had given him.

"Tsk!"

Zhao Yu glanced at his father-in-law, then ignored him and continued to check his system.

In the end, when he checked the hexagram area again, he found that the hexagram poem area had been frozen again. The system reminded him that the hexagram area would only be restored after 20 days!

No way?

That long?

Zhao Yu had thought that the system might be on cooldown after the Qian Kun hexagram, but he didn't expect it to be on cooldown for so many days!

But ...

Zhao Yu thought about it seriously. This was actually a good idea. He could use this time to replenish his energy and strengthen his physical fitness.

Zhao Yu then said to Miao kun, "Father-in-law, since the diamond issue has been completely resolved, you should quickly find someone to give me special training when we get back!"

"F * ck! Miao kun put the Blue Diamond down carefully and said to Zhao Yu seriously, "you've solved such a big case. What's the point of practicing with your ability?"

"When you go back, you can go to work without me reporting! Why are you practicing ..."

"That won't do!" Zhao Yu quickly waved his hand. "I don't have to follow the rules. I just think that if I want to perform better in the future, I have to learn more skills!"

"Oh? Are you that dedicated?" "Alright," Miao kun said. "Rest for two days after you get back, and I'll send the best instructor to train you!"

"Good! "Then ..." Zhao Yu asked again, "the oil painting murder case France, what do you think ..."

"Again!" Miao kun rolled his eyes and said, "absolutely not. The diamond case has just come to an end. You can't take any missions for the time being, especially not meet with the detectives on Miracle Island."

"They're good at everything, but they're narrow-minded and look down on people who are stronger than them!"

"Listen to me. When people forget about this, I'll find a suitable opportunity to talk to Juliet! But now is not the time ..."

“Okay then ...” Zhao Yu shook his head helplessly. “Actually, I just hope that we can catch the perverted murderer as soon as possible so that no more innocent people will be killed!”

“Well ...” Miao kun pondered for a moment, then said, “well, the foreign victims are also human!” How about this!” Miao kun suggested, “I can help you contact Juliet and ask you to help them analyze the case, but you can’t go to France and put yourself in danger.”

“Alright, deal!” Zhao Yu nodded readily. “That’s a deal! Actually, I already have some ideas about the case!”

“F * ck me ... You ... You’re too awesome, aren’t you?” Miao kun almost dropped his suitcase. “Zhao Yu! If ... If you can solve the oil painting murder case remotely, then there would be no one else in the world who could do it!”

Chapter 1382: A true lie (part one)

The next evening, in the capital of Jingzhou, 500 meters away from the criminal Division building.

“Hey, beautiful lady ... Beautiful lady ... Please wait! “Hey ... A blue Bentley suddenly drove over from the side of the road. The driver was a handsome man. He stuck his head out of the window and shouted at a beautiful woman who was walking on the side of the road,” beauty, where are you going? I can take you ... To ... To ... To ... To ...”

He pointed at his super-luxury car and said proudly, “A 6 million Yuan Bentley Continental just mentioned! I think this car matches your temperament! Come on, get in the car! Big brother will bring you to play ...”

The elegant beauty on the side of the road was a young woman with a height of 1.7 meters and a mushroom head. She had a perfect figure and a valiant bearing. She walked with a majestic aura.

That’s right, this beautiful lady was precisely Xuanji, Miao Ying!

Miao Ying had been driving her Volkswagen Phaeton every day, but she had suddenly received a call from Zhao Yu today, asking him to meet her at a restaurant.

As the restaurant was not far from the criminal Division, they walked there. He didn’t expect to encounter such a scene when he was halfway there.

Because she was in a hurry to see Zhao Yu, Miao Ying didn’t pay attention to him at first and continued to walk forward. She didn’t even look at the Bentley that was worth six million Yuan.

“Hey, no way, beauty? Don’t you know your stuff?” The handsome guy in the car continued to follow them. He patted the car door and said, “come on, I’m going to a high-class party tonight. I guarantee you’ll have a good time! Come on, get in the car, beauty! Come on ...”

“Phew ...” The unscrupulous driver’s harassment finally made Miao Ying anxious. She suddenly stopped in her tracks, her eyes still looking straight ahead, but her right hand had already clenched into a fist.

She was thinking about how long it would take for the ambulance to arrive after she punched him.

However, the guy who drove the Bentley did not know that he was in trouble. He thought that Miao Ying was struggling in her mind, so he took the stack of RMB in his hand and said,

“Come on, follow me, and all this money is yours!”

At first, Miao Ying felt that she could still control herself, but when she suddenly saw this reckless guy taking out a stack of money to insult her, she couldn't help but get angry. She could no longer suppress her anger and was about to hit him.

However, just as Miao Ying was about to make her move, she suddenly heard the roar of an engine. The sound was ear-piercing, and it was getting closer ...

The next second, a super eye-catching silver-gray sports car suddenly stopped in front of the Bentley!

I'll cut!

The Bentley's driver was shocked and quickly stepped on the brake.

Buzz ... Buzz ...

The sports car deliberately stepped on the accelerator, exhaling a plume of smoke that sprayed all over the Bentley.

“What the ... What's going on?” The Bentley driver took off his sunglasses and looked at the sports car in front of him carefully. Although he recognized the logo of the Aston Martin, he had never seen such a design.

At this time, the door of the sports car opened silently, and Zhao Yu, who was wearing a suit, stepped out. He was holding a big bouquet of roses in his arms!

“This ...”

Seeing Zhao Yu's domineering appearance, Miao Ying could not help but be stunned.

“Wahaha ...” Zhao Yu laughed loudly, then came in front of Miao Ying and offered her the flowers. “My dear, we are really fated!” We agreed to meet at the restaurant, but we met on the way!”

“Zhao Yu ... This ...” Miao Ying took the flowers in shock, then pointed to his sports car and asked, “where did you get this car?”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu replied quickly. “It's Aston Martin's latest custom-made version of the ONE77. There are only five of them in the world. In principle, they haven't left the factory yet! “But the Queen of United Kingdom left the factory early to reward me for my outstanding service ...

“Come ...” Zhao Yu pulled Miao Ying to the sports car. “See if this car suits your taste?”

“Tsk ...” At this time, the awkward Bentley driver glared at Zhao Yu and said, “the Queen of United Kingdom, and an Aston Martin? you really know how to brag!” So what if it's a sports car, how much can it be worth?”

“The factory price of this car is 70 million RMB!” Zhao Yu seemed to be able to hear the driver’s words, and he immediately said to Miao Ying, “7.3L natural inhalation, V12 engine, complete an acceleration of 0.100 km/h in 3.5 seconds, and the highest speed can reach 384 km/h ...”

“What the ...” The Bentley driver was finally dumbfounded ...

“Oh ...” Miao Ying looked at Zhao Yu expressionlessly, then at him with a highly suspicious look. “You ... What are you up to this time? You ...”

Miao Ying had too many things to ask Zhao Yu, but seeing that there were people at the scene, she had no choice but to hold the flowers and get into Zhao Yu’s sports car gracefully.

“Why ...” After Zhao Yu sat in the driver’s seat, he looked back at the Bentley driver and asked, “is that kid harassing you?”

“Phew ...” Miao Ying took a deep breath and raised her fist. “If you had come a second later, he would have been calling 120. You saved him!”

“Sigh ...” Zhao Yu put his hands on the steering wheel, shook his head, and then advised, “MeowMeow, it’s not that I want to criticize you! We’re all police officers of the criminal Division. What kind of storms haven’t we experienced? you can’t be so impulsive!

“We are upright people. We can’t be calculative with this kind of scum. Even if you hit him, you won’t be able to change anything other than bringing trouble to yourself!”

As Zhao Yu was trying to persuade him, the Bentley driver behind him was getting impatient. He honked his horn, urging Zhao Yu to drive the car away as it was blocking his way!

“Did you see that?” Miao Ying sniffed the flowers and shook her head at Zhao Yu. “Where’s your bad temper?”

“Go, go, go ... It’s useless to seduce me!” Zhao Yu started the car with a smile and drove away steadily. He then said calmly, “I’m not who I used to be! There’s no need to get angry over such a trivial matter ...”

Buzz ... Di di ...

Zhao Yu had already driven the car away, but the Bentley driver still thought that Zhao Yu was driving too slowly, so he continued to press the horn violently!

Miao Ying looked at Zhao Yu, her eyes full of interest.

“It’s okay, it’s okay ...” Zhao Yu drove the car steadily, and his mouth seemed to be chanting, “I’m an upright person. I’m not angry, not angry ...”

“Mom is here ...” The driver cursed. When he saw that there was a distance between the two cars, he sped up and drove on the side road, trying to overtake Zhao Yu.

However, just as he accelerated, Zhao Yu suddenly put the car in reverse, and the silver Aston Martin was like an arrow that left the bow, going straight for the Bentley!

“Ah?” The Bentley driver was scared silly and quickly turned the steering wheel to avoid the car. As a result, the car hit the shoulder of the Green Belt, and the whole front of the car was upturned!

Zhao Yu's sports car was very agile. Just as they were about to collide, Zhao Yu suddenly made a turn and the car dodged on the sidewalk.

Boom ... Boom ...

The Bentley that was worth six million Yuan flipped over and fell into the green Belt ...

Wu...Wuwu ...

Zhao Yu stepped on the gas, backed out of the pedestrian Lane, and then drifted the front of the car to the other side.

Then, Zhao Yu whistled, and the Aston Martin drove away, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

Chapter 1383: A true lie (part two)

In the private room of a luxurious restaurant, Zhao Yu held Miao Ying's hand and asked, "Why do you not look surprised at all? Don't tell me you already knew that I wouldn't spare the guy who harassed you?"

"Hmph, before you got in the car, you looked at the shoulder of the Green Belt three times. You must be measuring the height of the shoulder and whether you can stop the Bentley.

"After that, you looked at the height of the pedestrian crossing to measure the height of the sports car and to interfere with the Bentley's retreat!" Miao Ying said calmly, "so ... If you don't do anything, I'll be surprised, right?"

"Amazing, amazing, as expected of detective Zhao Yu's wife! Aiya ... I've missed you so much ..."

Zhao Yu laughed evilly and immediately stretched out his arms, wanting to hold the beauty in his arms and make out with her, but Miao Ying easily broke free and said seriously,

"Zhao Yu, let's get down to business! Tell me the truth, where did my dad take you? Do you think I don't understand his conduct? You're definitely not just attending an ordinary banquet, right?"

"Um ... Um ... This ..." Zhao Yu heard Miao Ying mention this sensitive issue and could not help but feel awkward.

"Good! You're really in cahoots with each other. You even hid it from me, Hmph!" Miss Miao was angry.

"Well ... The term snake and rat don't seem to be accurate, right?" Zhao Yu analyzed seriously, "one is your father, the other is your husband. Since we are in the same boat, what do you think you are?"

"Go to hell!" Miao Ying was so angry that she laughed. "I don't care. If you don't tell me the truth today, don't even think about leaving!"

"Tsk tsk ..."

Zhao Yu frowned deeply. Miao Ying was indeed a tough woman, as she still spoke in such a domineering manner.

However, since Zhao Yu had taken the initiative to date miss Miao, he was naturally fully prepared.

He knew Miao Ying's personality and her stubbornness, so he decided to use his trump card. He pretended to be in a difficult position and said,

"Al! Alright! Since that's the case, I'll tell you the truth!

"Actually, I've already told my father-in-law. Although we've signed a confidentiality agreement with them, and we may lose our heads if we reveal our secrets, we can't hide it from you, MeowMeow!

"You're the closest person to us. If you want to know the truth, we have to tell you even if we have to risk our lives, right?"

"Hmm ... Your words ..." Miao Ying pouted and thought about it carefully. "Why does it taste weird?"

"Ahem!" Zhao Yu pretended not to care, "I'll tell you everything!" Your father-in-law and I, oh no, your dad, went to a small island in Fiji to participate in a detective salon!

"Who would have thought that this detective salon was actually a shocking conspiracy! A few bad guys wanted to use this banquet to find a batch of diamonds that went missing in South Africa 22 years ago!

"That batch of diamonds is priceless, and the wealth is comparable to that of a country's ..." Zhao Yu said excitedly. "Many world-class bosses are thinking about it, and they are doing everything they can to get the diamonds ...

"Then ... The clue to the diamond suddenly appeared at the banquet, and the island immediately fell into a state of chaos, a big chaos! The scene is big, I'll go! The mercenaries were here, the rocket guns were here, and the heavy machine guns were here. Tutututuu, boom boom boom, it was terrifying!

"Oh right, there's also a helicopter, and it's even armed! Whoosh ... A missile blew up the castle and almost flattened it. I was lucky to escape, but your father was captured by the bad guys!

"Then, I didn't care about my own safety. I chased them all the way. First, I robbed a speedboat, then a yacht. Then, I started shooting at the enemy. It was a lively scene.

"In the end, with my extraordinary willpower, courage, and fighting spirit, I finally subdued the criminals with the help of MI6!

"After that, your brave husband cracked the diamond password unexpectedly and successfully found the batch of priceless diamonds!

"After that, your dad and I were noble and unquestionable, so we returned the diamonds to the South Africa people and the United Kingdom government!

"After that, to thank us, they gave us two blue diamonds and two Aston Martin!

"Oh, right, we also received some honorary citizen of South Africa and immunity, but your dad said it was useless, so he asked them to arrange a plane to send us back!

"The plane is a private plane, and even the sports car is here. There's no shipping fee ... Hehehehe ..." Zhao Yu laughed foolishly, then asked hopefully, "so, Miaomiao, Do you understand now?"

After Zhao Yu finished speaking, Miao Ying was dumbfounded. The air in the room seemed to have been frozen by a cold wind of -55 degrees Celsius. It was so cold that Miao Ying couldn't react for half a minute.

"I know I'm outstanding, but I beg you, please don't praise me anymore. I'll be proud!" Zhao Yu continued to tell his true lie, "by the way, your dad also said that my performance this time was remarkable.

"Especially when I took out half of the terrorist's Army by myself, took down an armed helicopter single-handedly, and fought against the terrorists underwater. All of these made the old man very satisfied!

"So, he wants me to join his Secret service and help them solve some international cases that involve national interests. He wants me to become an Interpol officer!" Zhao Yu said, "of course, he's afraid that I won't be able to adapt to the new job, so he'll be there temporarily ..."

"Okay, okay ..." At this time, Miao Ying finally understood what was going on. She immediately held Zhao Yu's hand and said seriously, "I understand, I understand everything!

"You're just making things up. In fact, you're just trying to tell me that my father wants to poach you from the criminal Division. Miao Ying shook her head." "Is it really necessary? I'm not against you going to the Secret Service, so why did you have to make up such a bunch of unreliable stories? A screenwriter's script?"

"Uhm ... This ..." Zhao Yu wiped his sweat, acting like a child who had made a mistake. In order to make up for his mistake, he took out the shiny blue diamond and placed it in front of Miao Ying.

"I'll go!" Miss Miao was a person who knew how precious this gem was. She immediately frowned and grinned, sighing in grief and indignation. "I asked you for a Bentley, but you didn't give me one. Instead, you bought so many good things for Zhao Yu!

"You really don't care about your capital! In order to recruit Zhao Yu, you bought him a sports car, and now you want to buy him a sapphire! Really!"

"It's not a gemstone, it's a diamond!" Zhao Yu clarified.

However, Miao Ying snatched the diamond from him and put it on her finger without hesitation. She said, "My dad bought it anyway, so I'll just wear it!

"Hey! "Wow, it's really pretty. The more I look at it, the more I like it ..." Miao Ying looked at the diamond carefully and mumbled, "such a big sapphire, it must be worth at least a million dollars, right?"

A diamond ... It was clearly a diamond, alright? a blue diamond ...

Zhao Yu's heart suddenly palpitated, but then he thought, "forget it, the diamond is for Miao Ying anyway, so just let it be!"

In any case, it was good that his wonderful lie had worked. As long as Miao Ying no longer pursued the matter of the island of wonder, he and Miao kun could be at ease.

"Mm ... That's right!" Zhao Yu suddenly thought of something and asked Miao Ying, "MeowMeow, what happened in the criminal Division during the few days I was away? Hurry up and tell me!"

"No, I didn't!" Miao Ying played with the diamond in her hand and said, "there haven't been any major cases recently. I just wanted you to come back soon. I was just lying to you!"

"..." Zhao Yu was speechless. A few seconds later, he remembered something. He immediately took out his mobile phone and said to Miao Ying, "the criminal Division doesn't have any cases, but I have an international mystery Case here. I wonder if you would be interested in taking a look?"

"Oh?" Hearing that Zhao Yu had an international case, Miao Ying immediately stopped playing with it and asked, "what case?"

"Oh, I heard about it at a detective salon!" Then, Zhao Yu pulled up the information on his mobile phone and showed it to Miao Ying. He smiled mysteriously and said, "this is the oil painting serial killer case that appeared in France!"

"How is it, miss Miao?" Zhao Yu smiled brightly. "Let's ... Discuss it tonight, shall we?"

Chapter 1384: Strange Case

The next morning, a robbery seemed to have happened in a luxury room of a luxury hotel.

The TV was slanted, the bed sheets were torn into several pieces, the remote control was stepped on, and the sofa was slanted. The room was a mess, and there were traces of Zhao Yu and Miao Ying's 300-round fight last night everywhere.

"Zhao Yu, didn't you say that you were going to study the oil painting murder case?" On the big soft bed, the smooth and muscular Miao Ying lay on Zhao Yu's strong arms and complained, "why didn't you tell me about the case after a whole night of torture?"

"Hehehe ..." Zhao Yu laughed sinisterly, then pulled miss Miao into his arms and said proudly, "a few days ago, when I was fighting the terrorists, I realized a lot of tricks. That's why I wanted to spar 'with you!"

"Oh? Terrorist?" Miao Ying narrowed her eyes and asked, "so, the terrorists have women too?"

"Mm ... Well ..." Zhao Yu didn't fall for it and quickly said, "of course not!" Don't think about it. Have you forgotten who I went with?"

"Hmph!" Miao Ying glanced at Zhao Yu and said unhappily, "because you're going with my dad, I'm even more worried!"

I'm down!

Zhao Yu looked down on his father-in-law in his heart, then quickly put on a smile and said, "Hehe ... Meowmeowmeowmeowmeow, don't worry! I'll definitely help you keep a close eye on your dad in the future. I'll definitely not let him be arrogant outside!"

"Hmph! You're so nervous to explain for him, and I don't trust you all even more!" Miao Ying sighed helplessly. "Perhaps this is the sad part of being a detective!"

“Cough! What was this? Since when did he have so many good and bad feelings? “Come on ...” Zhao Yu held Miss Miao again and said, “we don’t have to go so early today. Let’s fight another hundred rounds ...”

But, just as Zhao Yu exerted his strength, Miao Ying nimbly got out from under his armpit ...

“Al!” Miss Miao sighed resentfully and said, “you really can’t take things too seriously!”

Zhao Yu could tell that Miss Miao was not in a good mood, so he quickly asked, “No way. Is it because of me going to secret services?”

“Zhao Yu,” Miao Ying pushed Zhao Yu’s hand onto the pillow and said seriously, “I don’t want to dampen your spirits, but I don’t want to experience the shadow of my childhood again!

“My parents can’t accompany me because they’re on a special duty mission. That’s why I feel so lonely. But you just had to inherit their legacy ... What should I do in the future?”

“Don’t be silly!” Zhao Yu quickly said, “we will be together forever!”

“I don’t want to be a follower, but I know ...” Miao Ying said helplessly. “My dad didn’t let me join not because he wanted to protect his son, but because I wasn’t capable enough!

“That’s why I’m jealous when I see how much he admires you and even bought you a car and a diamond ring!”

“Aiyo, you’re wrong if you think that way!” Zhao Yu laughed, “how can you compare yourself to me? Although I, Zhao Yu, am reserved and famous, I have never been able to live without your teachings!

“You know, without you, I would never be as outstanding as I am now!”

“Are you ... Outstanding?” Even Miao Ying’s thick eyebrows and big eyes had already narrowed into a line.

“Don’t worry!” Zhao Yu patted his chest and promised, “even if I become an Interpol officer to solve major international cases, I will still be with you!

“If your dad doesn’t let you go, I’ll quit for them!” Zhao Yu spoke as if he was making an oath, “don’t forget, we’re a pair of fearsome male and female!”

“Pfft ...” Miss Miao finally couldn’t help but laugh.

Zhao Yu’s shamelessness was always charming.

“Alright!” Miao Ying put her arms around Zhao Yu’s neck and pouted. “Remember what you said!” She said.

“Don’t worry! I, Zhao Yu, never keep my word! Hahaha ...”

“Zhao Yu, you ...”

Miao Ying cursed, and the two of them rolled together. Scissor legs and throat-locking technique were used frequently. No one could tell if they were flirting, fighting for real, or not suitable for children ...

After more than ten rounds, Miao Ying finally pushed Zhao Yu to the side, then climbed out of bed and said, panting,

“Alright, alright ... I’m done, I’m done. I’m convinced, I’m convinced, okay?” Then, she opened Zhao Yu’s mobile phone and showed him the murder case in the oil painting. “Come on, let’s look at this case!” Hu ...”

“Oh ... Okay ... Okay ...” Zhao Yu panted as he took off Miao Ying’s stockings from around his neck. Then, he turned his head and feet to look at the case information with Miao Ying.

“In fact, there is a huge cultural difference between foreigners and US,” Miao Ying calmed herself down and said seriously, “if you don’t understand the local cultural characteristics, you can imagine the difficulty of solving the case!

“Also, the fact that the local police couldn’t solve the case for so many years is enough to show that the case is more complicated than we thought!

“We often say that ‘there’s a reason for everything’, but sometimes, when foreigners do things, this rule might not be applicable!” Miao Ying pointed to the strange photo of the crime scene and said, “for example, in this case, maybe the murderer’s reason for killing was not revenge or perversion.

“Maybe the murderer killed people out of interest!” Miao Ying analyzed the situation seriously. “You see, the murderer would choose a new city every time he killed someone. He never repeated his murder.

“Also, there is no relationship between the victims, which means that the murderer killed people at random!

“Plus, he was well prepared before he took action. Such a case is indeed hard to guard against and solve ...”

“But I think ...” Zhao Yu took a deep breath, then pointed to the information and said, “the France police’s thinking is not wrong.”

“The murderer must have a certain artistic Foundation to be able to arrange the dead into an oil painting. Not only in painting, but also in makeup, setting, and so on.

“The reason why the murderer killed people in this way was obviously to vent his anger!” Zhao Yu analyzed, “he might be a depressed artist who had been ostracized and suppressed. In order to prove his ability, he came up with such a strange murder case!”

“No...” Miao Ying’s opinion was different from Zhao Yu ‘s. “I don’t think so! If it was an artist who had not achieved success, he must be eager to be recognized by the public. Compared to killing people, it seemed more appropriate to randomly doodle on a wall to attract the public’s attention ...

“And ...” Miao Ying raised her head and asked curiously, “this case has nothing to do with us Chinese, after all. Even if we can come up with an idea, what can we do?” Can we go to France to solve the case?”

“Mm ... This ...” Zhao Yu was about to tell Miao Ying about the idea of remote control, but Miao Ying’s phone suddenly rang.

“Oh, the criminal Division!” Miao Ying saw the number and quickly picked up.

After picking up the call, Miao Ying's face immediately became serious.

"What's wrong?" "Is there a new case?" Zhao Yu asked as Miao Ying put down the phone.

"Right!" Miao Ying nodded and said, "there's been a Strange Case in Hailan city, Qiongzhou province. The higher-ups have asked our Special Investigation Group to go and take a look!"

"Oh? Harland? Isn't that a tourist attraction?" Zhao Yu was surprised.

"Let's go, let's hurry to the criminal Division!" Miao Ying stood up and said, "if it was a normal case, we wouldn't have been assigned to it!"

Chapter 1385: the mystery of the White bones

"To catch the thief ..."

In the middle of the night, an exclamation came from a Bay Villa area in Hailan city, Qiongzhou province!

Then, a few people with flashlights in their hands quickly passed through the central Street of the villa and chased in the Northwest direction.

And in front of these people, there was a figure that was running at high speed ...

Huchi ... Huchi ...

This person ran extremely fast, and his eyes were particularly sharp. Even in such darkness, he could still distinguish the direction. He ran around the villa area, and it did not take long for him to shake off the security guards who were chasing him.

This person was the Kongtong thief that everyone was shouting about!

That night, the thief snuck into a villa to steal, but because he didn't check the location in advance, he accidentally triggered the alarm, which attracted many security guards to chase him.

Huchi ... Huchi ...

The thief panted heavily and ran for his life. He thought he had lost the security guard, but he ran into a dead end!

"Damn it!"

He cursed in a low voice and had no choice but to turn back again, bumping into the security guards who were chasing after him.

"Over here! Catch him, don't let him escape!" The security guards were instantly excited and immediately pounced on him.

The thief was also desperate. Seeing that he was about to be surrounded by the security guards, he actually climbed up the courtyard wall of a villa and ran along the wall.

"Fight! Beat him up!"

Some of the security guards picked up bricks, and some simply threw lamps at the thief. However, the thief was quite flexible and avoided all of them.

Immediately after, he scuttled along the courtyard wall to the two-story building of the villa, and then went around the balcony to the other side.

The villa was located on the outermost side of the entire villa area. After the thief went around the other side, he could see the large wall of the entire villa area.

“Quick, go and catch him! Don’t let him escape! “Quick ...” The security guards quickly rushed over and began to pick up stones from the ground.

The thief was ready to risk everything. Without any hesitation, he jumped over the courtyard wall and jumped from the villa to the outer wall.

Hey, hey, hey ...

As the security guards had already thrown stones over, the thief lost his balance and fell directly off the courtyard wall, falling outside the wall.

Thump ...

The thief fell heavily to the ground, but fortunately, the ground was not hard, but a barren vegetable field.

Hu!

The thief got up from the ground and took a deep breath. After hearing the security guards ‘clamoring from the other side of the courtyard wall, he patted his butt and quickly left.

However, when he turned around, he suddenly realized that a small three-story bungalow had appeared in front of him. He had actually arrived in the courtyard of another villa.

Eh?

The building in front of him was very dilapidated, and it was obvious that no one lived in it. It was an old house that had been abandoned for many years. He tried to recall, but he couldn’t remember such a building. He was surprised.

However, with the pursuers around, he didn’t have much time to think. He quickly found the front door of the villa and prepared to escape.

However, just as he reached the door, police sirens sounded outside ...

“Damn, they came so quickly!” “F * ck!” The thief cursed. He could tell that the police siren was coming from outside the door. He must not open the door and go out.

What to do?

He looked around and realized that the walls of the villa were too high for him to climb. If he wanted to escape from the other side, he had to go upstairs.

If he could use the balcony of This Old House, he might be able to escape along the other side of the courtyard wall.

The thief's frightened cry instantly resounded throughout the old house. In the dark and lonely night, it sounded particularly tragic and terrifying ...

.....

Two days later, in the Harland police station.

Zhao Yu sipped his coffee as he read the case report.

"So ..." He asked the captain of the criminal Police in charge of the case, "the thief didn't escape in the end, right?"

"Mm! "The captain of the criminal Police is a middle-aged man with dark skin. His name is Li Yanxia." He's still undergoing mental treatment in the hospital. I'm afraid he's really scared out of his wits!"

"Actually," Captain Li's assistant interrupted, "not only the thief, but also the police officers who found the scene were more or less affected!"

"Great detective Zhao, please don't take offense!" Li Yanxia glanced at his assistant, then quickly explained to Zhao Yu, "this is the first time we've seen such a scary crime scene in Harland!"

"Humph ..." Zhao Yu said proudly, "I still lack exercise!" It was just a skeleton! What's the big deal?"

"Mm ... The key is ..." Li Yanxia said with an embarrassed expression, "the setting was too scary! There were so many ghostly faces, monsters, totems, and so on. It was too creepy!"

"What did I say? even if it's a horror movie, it's not like this, right?"

"Yes ..." The assistant couldn't help but say, "the White bones are not scary, but the White bones on the altar, no one has ever seen them!" It's too terrifying!"

"This should be ..." Zhao Yu looked at the photo of the crime scene and said, "some kind of religious ceremony?"

"Hmph, Hmph, you guys are still too inexperienced!" Zhao Yu started to act big. "Think about it. It was just a skeleton, not a dead body. What's the big deal?"

"Moreover, since they are white bones, it means that the deceased has been dead for a long time. Combined with the fact that the White bones were placed on a shelf similar to an altar, it is very likely that it was some kind of sacrificial ceremony!"

"Maybe this can't even be considered a murder!"

"Oh ..." Captain Li and his assistant nodded, impressed by Zhao Yu's analysis.

However, their admiration only lasted for five seconds, and Zhao Yu was ruthlessly slapped in the face.

Miao Ying suddenly came in with a report and said, "Zhao Yu, the autopsy results are out. It wasn't just a set of bones, but the bones of three people put together ..."

Chapter 1386: haunted house

“Waa! Is this a joke? “I just saw ...” In the Special Investigation Group’s temporary office at the Hailan City Police station, cui Lizhu’s surprised voice suddenly came out.

She grabbed Miao Ying’s wrist with one hand, while staring at Miao Ying’s ring with her sharp eyes.”This is a blue diamond! Sister Miao is too much. Even if your family is rich, you can’t show off like this, right?”

Oh?

Miao Ying was puzzled, and the other team members were also very surprised.

“Blue diamond? Isn’t it a sapphire?” Miao Ying touched the diamond ring and muttered, “isn’t the diamond a little too big?”

“Oh my God,” cui Lizhu said, putting on an envious expression. She pointed at the ring and said, “you can’t even tell a gem from a diamond?”

“You have to be careful when you go out. This blue diamond is worth at least ten million! It’s ... It’s even more expensive than my house!”

“It can’t be?” Miao Ying looked around in shock, but didn’t see Zhao Yu. She immediately muttered, “so it’s worth so much, dad ... Zhao Yu ... Just you wait ...”

“Cough, cough ...” Just as Miao Ying was mumbling, Zhao Yu suddenly appeared from behind her and coughed a few times, giving Miao Ying a shock.

“I say, you guys, case! Case!” Zhao Yu put on his team leader’s airs and said, “why are you talking about the ring at this time? Was 10 million really a big deal? Compared to my Aston Martin, it’s still a lot worse! Hahaha ...”

“.....”

Everyone was speechless, and they were all confused by Zhao Yu’s nonsense.

“Okay.” Zhao Yu became serious again. He avoided Miao Ying’s questioning gaze and said to the crowd, “first of all, I have good news. After Gao Facai’s recommendation, as well as my application, Zhang Peipei has officially joined our Special Investigation Group as a member. Welcome!”

Zhao Yu took the lead in clapping, but he soon realized an embarrassing fact. Zhang Peipei was not there at all.

Pa, pa, pa ...

Among the team members, only Zeng ke was clapping, which undoubtedly made Zhao Yu even more embarrassed.

“Oh ... Oh ...” Zeng ke then realized that the atmosphere was not right, so he quickly gave Zhao Yu an excuse. “Team leader, Peipei is still in the autopsy room!”

“Mm, cough cough ...” Zhao Yu could only use coughing to ease his embarrassment. After he flipped through a few pages of the autopsy report, he frowned and asked Miao Ying, “team leader Miao, so ... The White bones belonged to three people?”

“To be precise, there are no less than three people!” As soon as the case was brought up, Miao Ying immediately said seriously, “according to the preliminary examination, the forensic scientist confirmed that the upper limbs, lower limbs, and torso of the skeleton belonged to three different people!

“The body part was visually confirmed to be a young woman who had never given birth. Her age was between 23 to 26 years old!”

“Oh?” “What about the four limbs?” Zhao Yu asked.

“It’s impossible to tell the gender of the limbs, but Dr. Zhang managed to get complete DNA from the bones,” Miao Ying replied. “We’re in the process of extracting it, but we’ll have the results soon!”

“Eh?” Zhao Yu suddenly thought of something and asked, “that’s not right. Upper limbs, lower limbs, and torso, then ... Is something missing?”

“Right!” Miao Ying nodded, then pointed to Zhao Yu’s autopsy report and said, “no skull was found!”

“Hey? “This is interesting ...” Zhao Yu was surprised. “The body is complete, but the head is missing? What’s the situation?”

“Team leader ...” Ran Tao frowned and asked curiously, “do you think that someone is using human bones to hold some kind of feudal superstitious ceremony?” Is the ritual not successful because of the lack of a skull?”

Wu Xiumin clapped her hands and said, “no matter what kind of ceremony it is, if these bones were dug out from the grave, then we shouldn’t have been assigned to this case!”

“Higher-ups, do you think we’re too relaxed?”

“Yes, this reminds me of the hanging coffins case,” Cui Lizhu said. “We thought that someone had murdered seven girls! But in the end, most of them were corpses stolen from crematoriums!”

“Wait a minute,” Zhao Yu suddenly stopped the two women’s discussion and asked Miao Ying again, “since the DNA data has not been analyzed yet, how can the forensic doctor say that the skeleton was pieced together from more than three people?”

“I judged it based on my experience!” Miao Ying opened the autopsy report and pointed to one of the lines. “The human skeleton was found in the secret room. The joints of the skeleton were glued together with superglue, and some of the major joints were secured with clips from medical schools. The technique was very professional!

“However, when the forensic doctor compared the joints, it was obvious that the joints of the upper and lower limbs and the torso did not match!

“That’s why they determined that the bone banner was made up of at least three or more people! As there are many bones in the torso, and many of them are smaller in size, I’m still unable to completely identify them. ”

“But ... There are no connection points between the upper and lower limbs,” Zhao Yu asked. “How can you tell that the upper and lower limbs belong to different people?”

"After they found that the bones didn't match, the forensic doctor specifically made a comparison between the upper and lower limbs!" Miao Ying said, "everyone's bones have different characteristics, including color, density, growth structure, vein lines, and so on. So, they could be sure that the upper and lower limbs of the corpse did not belong to the same person!"

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu thought about it seriously. "Pieced together a set of white bones, without a skull, and stuck the bones together! What was he doing? The great art of resurrection?"

"Zhang Peipei said," Miao Ying continued, "that people who adhere bones are very professional. At least this person knows a lot about human bones!"

"Um ... I think ... There's another key point to this case!" Zhao Yu put down the autopsy report and said solemnly, "according to the witnesses, the scene was set up in a strange sacrificial form, and there were candles!"

"Since they lit the candles, that means ..." Zhao Yu thought for a moment, then said, "the person who placed the bones was most likely near the crime scene!"

"Aiyo, that's really ..." Captain Li Yanxia said hurriedly, "then, I'll go get the police's video recording that night and see if there are any suspicious people in it?"

"Wait, don't be in such a hurry ..." Zhao Yu stopped Captain Li and asked, "why didn't I see the owner of the house in the information?"

"Oh ... The owner of the house is a Chinese man who has been missing for many years!" Captain Li quickly replied, "his name is ... Um ... Um ... I'm sorry, I can't remember. I'll bring you the details later."

"What? Missing?" Zhao Yu frowned. "Tell me the general situation first!"

"Oh, that place is called the Sky Garden, it's the first batch of coastal villas in Hailan city!" Captain Li explained, "at that time, the people who lived there were all rich tycoons, such as big bosses of enterprises and overseas Chinese who have returned to China ..."

"But the good times didn't last long. Later on, due to environmental pollution and some aging facilities, the house gradually declined, and many uninhabited, abandoned houses appeared!"

"It's an abandoned house! People always liked to spread rumors and make up some bad stories, such as ghosts. Even the developers didn't dare to touch it, and it was abandoned to this day ..."

"And ..." Captain Li said mysteriously, "the house that was attacked happened to be the most famous resplendent Ghost House in the heavenly garden!"

Chapter 1387: The missing skull

"F * ck, it can't be?" Ran Tao was the first to express his opinion. "The case of the hanging coffins was already strange enough, and now there's another case of the White bones in the ghost Tower!"

"Alright, stop causing trouble!" Cui Lizhu said, "there are no ghosts in this world. Ghosts are all hidden in people's hearts!"

"Actually, people are the scariest, not ghosts!"

“Look ...” She pointed to the photo of the bones and said, “this is just a pile of bones. What’s there to be afraid of?”

“I’m not bragging,” Cui Lizhu said confidently. “If I were the thief, I would definitely be worse than him.” That’s really f*cking scary, it’s good that you didn’t die from fright!”

“Tsk ...”

The crowd immediately booed. Zhao Yu was speechless. Why is Cui Lizhu speaking more and more like me? Was this the rhythm of finishing his apprenticeship?

“I found it! I’ve found it!” At this time, Captain Li Yanxia looked at the information on his mobile phone and said excitedly, “the house owner’s name is Yu Zhengran. He is an overseas Chinese who has returned from Southeast Asia.”

“According to the records, Yu Zhengran’s family of five disappeared on New Year’s Day thirteen years ago. When he disappeared, Yu Zhengran was 63 years old. His lover, son, daughter-in-law, and granddaughter were with him ...”

“However, there is a lack of information on his missing person record. There is only false information that claims that his family might have died in the tsunami in the Indian Ocean! However, the missing persons record did not show that they had left the country at that time!”

“Oh my God, a tsunami!” Ran Tao recalled, “I was still in school that year!”

“The point is, none of the five people in the family came back alive?” Wu Xiumin shook her head in confusion. “Whether it was a tsunami or a disappearance in China, how could there be no detailed records of such a big event?”

“I really can’t do anything about this!” Captain Li explained, “Hailan city is the home of overseas Chinese. Back then, the management was not very strict. Many overseas Chinese who returned to China did not change their nationality or register their accounts. In addition, this Yu Zhengran has no relatives, so it is very difficult to verify!”

“To be honest, it’s a common phenomenon for overseas Chinese to go missing. After all, they have families and businesses overseas. They might just go to Southeast Asia on a whim without even saying hello!”

“In fact, for so many years, the government has planned for the land of the Tianfu garden many times, but because many of the owners’ information couldn’t be verified and contacted, they were eventually put on hold!”

“We can only wait until the time limit is up before we can legally demolish that place.”

“Waa! “This is going to be troublesome ...” Cui Lizhu pondered. “Why do I feel that the bones in the house have something to do with the disappearance of the old Chinese family of five?” That bone ... Could it be ...”

Cui Lizhu’s words made the atmosphere tense.

"This matter is very tricky!" Captain Li said, "our leader is worried that this will be a major murder case and affect our country's international reputation. So, he applied to report it to his superiors.

"I didn't expect to invite the famous detective Zhao. This is our good fortune!"

"I'll definitely be blessed!" Zhao Yu was not in the mood to listen to her flattery, so he immediately asked, "let's talk about the ghost energy first!"

"Oh ... Oh ..." Captain Li quickly continued, "ever since Yu Zhengran's family disappeared, his house naturally became deserted and no one lived there anymore.

"It's said that in the past, people often heard certain sounds or saw ghostly figures in his house. The rumors were very strange, and it soon became a famous haunted house in that area.

"I've heard that some bold people went in there before, and then they were all possessed and ended up very miserable.

"Of course, those are all legends. There's no way to verify them." Captain Li said helplessly, "if the thief didn't go in by accident, I'm afraid it would have been difficult to find ...

"I've lived for so long, but this is the first time I've seen such a crime scene! I'm really curious, who would do such a thing in a haunted house? This person's courage, how big is it?"

"Then ..." Zhao Yu pointed to the pictures of the crime scene and asked, "regarding the decorations at the scene, as well as the ghost faces, have you seen them? Is this some kind of funeral custom in Qiongzhou?"

"No, that's impossible!" Li Yanxia said with certainty, "these things are definitely not from Qiongzhou. Don't look at how I'm not born and raised in Qiongzhou. In the past few decades, I've never seen any village or village that has such things!"

"Team leader, I've looked into it ..." Zeng Ke said. "One of the ghost faces at the crime scene is similar to the Poto religion in Southeast Asia."

"Poto religion? What the hell?" Zhao Yu was confused.

"Poto is a branch of Hinduism. At the beginning of the 20th century, it was popular in Southeast Asia, but after the outbreak of World War II, few people believed in it anymore!

"But ... Although it's similar, there's not much information on it," Zeng Ke said, shaking his head. "We can't be sure that the crime scene of the white bone case must be related to Poto religion!"

"Alright then," Zhao Yu said on the spot. "You should study this mother-in-law!" Although we can't be sure whether the white bone case is a murder case or not, we must treat it as one!"

"Alright, no problem!" Zeng Ke readily agreed.

Ever since he had established a relationship with Zhang Peipei, Zeng Ke had become more motivated.

"Next ... Same old rules!" Zhao Yu said, "sis Wu, go visit the witnesses and give the thief a psychological assessment!"

“Cui, go to the crime scene and gather information about the haunted house,” Zhao Yu said to Cui Lizhu. “Whether it’s rumors or rumors, gather everything!”

“OK!” Cui Lizhu made a hand gesture.

“Ran Tao and Cui Lizhu will go together,” Zhao Yu said to Ran Tao. “But your main task is to collect the surveillance videos of the crime scene area!”

“Remember, whether it’s public or private, don’t let go of any video! The suspect is most likely in those surveillance cameras ...”

“No problem!” Ran Tao wiped his palms excitedly and was eager to try.

“Team leader Miao, come with me!” Zhao Yu waved at Miao Ying. “Let’s go to the autopsy room to see the bones first, then go to the crime scene!”

“En!” Miao Ying nodded in satisfaction. Zhao Yu’s arrangement was exactly what she wanted.

However, just as everyone was ready to take action, Captain Li Yanxia suddenly received a call.

“Ah? What?” Captain Li frowned and asked over the phone, “is he out of his mind? This was not a joke. Did he really say that? I’ll go ...”

After hanging up, Captain Li immediately reported to Zhao Yu, “Detective Zhao, something strange happened. The thief just came back to his senses and repeated his experience that night.

“However, that fellow insisted that the skeleton ... Had a head!”

Chapter 1388: unusual skeleton

“Hey! I’m not seeing things, am I?” Zhao Yu and Miao Ying had just entered the autopsy room of the Hailand police station when they saw an old acquaintance. Zhao Yu’s eyes widened as he asked, “Gao, why are you here?”

“Oh ...” Gao Facai, who was examining the bones on the central morgue, said indifferently, “Peipei has been officially transferred to your Special Investigation Group. As her master, I have to help my disciple!”

“Tsk, old people really have many manners!” Zhao Yu laughed and shook his head. “Dr. Zhang is not an outsider. Are you afraid we’ll bully her?”

“Yes, Gao Facai, don’t worry!” Miao Ying laughed and said, “Peipei is Zeng ke’s girlfriend. Even without us, Zeng ke would have taken good care of her!”

“Team leader Zhao, team leader Miao,” Zhang Peipei, who was next to them, finally spoke, “don’t listen to my master’s nonsense. I just encountered some technical problems and I was afraid that I couldn’t handle them, so I called my master over to guide me!”

“Oh? It can’t be, right?” Zhao Yu seemed to have understood something and asked, “there’s so much to say about a skeleton? Wasn’t it just pieced together by three human bones? Are there any technical problems?”

“Not only is there a problem, but it’s not easy to solve!” Even though he was wearing a mask, it was clear that he had a serious expression on his face. It was obvious that he took the skeleton very seriously.

“Did you know?” Gao Facai pointed at the bodies and said, “from my current examination, the active components in these three bones are very high! It’s very different from the skeletons we’ve come across before!”

“What? High active components, active?” Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, his eyes filled with surprise. “Could it be ... You’re saying that they all died not long ago?”

“Right!” Gao Facai nodded and said, “detective Zhao, congratulations. We’ve encountered another difficult case! There is a saying that goes, “one has two nothingness.” A normal adult’s bones are made up of one part of organic matter and two parts of inorganic matter. The perfect combination of the two makes our bones both hard and flexible.

“But ...” Gao Facai raised his head and said seriously, “the bones we encountered in criminal investigation cases were mostly rotten bones. Most of the organic substances were lost, and only the inorganic substances were left, which are hard bones!

“However, the skeleton in front of us is the complete opposite. The active molecules in the bones are very high, so high that it’s as if the deceased had just died!”

Oh my God!

Hearing this, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying couldn’t help but look at each other in surprise.

“How did this happen?” Miao Ying asked in surprise, “how could a person who just died only have a pile of bones left? could it be ... Could it be ...”

Miao Ying did not continue, because the things in her mind were too cruel to describe.

At the same time, Zhao Yu was also quickly thinking about how to quickly turn the body into bones ...

“On the surface of the skeleton, I detected components such as sorbaric acid and triethanol. These components indicate that the suspect used a cleaning solution with anti-corrosion effect to clean the skeleton! And it’s ... Very clean ...”

“I’ll cut!” Zhao Yu couldn’t help but shiver. He felt that the temperature in the autopsy room had dropped by more than ten degrees.

“Don’t think too much!” Gao Facai knew what Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were thinking, so he immediately said, “there were only some light brush marks on the bones, but no marks of a sharp weapon scraping or cutting, which means that the bones were definitely not picked out!”

“Holy sh * t ...” Zhao Yu did have such a guess, so he immediately heaved a sigh of relief and asked in surprise, “that is to say, he was not eaten by the piranhas?”

Everyone in the autopsy room was instantly speechless.

“Something like that ...” Forensic doctor Gao looked at Zhao Yu with a complicated expression and said, “if there was an animal bite, the traces would be quite obvious!”

“This is interesting.” Zhao Yu felt that the case was not simple. “The murderer ... Um ... How did the suspect do it?”

“If that’s the case ...” Miao Ying agreed, “the possibility of a murder is very high!” Gao Facai, how’s the DNA test going?”

“It should be about time!” Zhang Peipei answered in a hurry, “as soon as the results are out, I will immediately arrange for people to compare it!”

“By the way,” Gao Facai said to Zhao and Miao Ying, “Peipei and I just did a composition test on the bones, but we didn’t find any mineral elements commonly found in the soil, which means that the body was not buried in the soil!”

“Also, the calcium content is normal. Judging from the hardness and humidity of the bone armor, it has not been soaked in water or any other liquid!

“This means ...”

“This means that the suspect did not steal or pick up the body. The possibility of a murder ... Is really high!” Zhao Yu had a bad feeling about this.

“Mm ...” Gao Facai nodded in agreement and continued, “next, I will do a more detailed examination of the bone insect, hoping to find out the reason why the body turned into bones so quickly!”

“And ... Look here ...” Gao Facai pointed to a joint on the skeleton and said, “this kind of joint fixing clip is specially made and can’t be bought anywhere in the world!”

“It’s usually manufactured by the medical school, so there’s no specific model. “I’ve already taken one off ...” Gao Facai handed an evidence bag to Zhao Yu. “You can start your search with this clip.”

“The suspect’s method of using the clips and glue is very professional,” Zhang Peipei added. “His profession is likely to be a teacher in medical school, an orthopedist, or a profession with relevant experience ...”

“Understood!” Zhao Yu nodded. “I’ll send someone to investigate!”

“Um ...” At this time, Gao Facai took off his mask, pointed to the bones, and said, “one more thing, Peipei and I just found it, and we haven’t written it in the report yet!”

“Oh? What else is there?” Zhao Yu asked.

“I don’t know if it will help solve the case,” Zhang Peipei said on behalf of Gao Facai. “My master and I analyzed the bone structure of the three skeletons and found a common point!”

“The three of them are very tall, at least between 1.75 to 1.85 meters!”

“This ...” Zhao Yu and Miao Ying looked at each other, not knowing if this discovery would help solve the case.

“Especially the owner of the lower limb bone ...” Gao Facai said. “The length of this femur is a very ideal length. In orthopedic studies, it is called the golden ratio!”

“Although the results aren’t out yet, from the pattern of the femur, the possibility of it being a female is very high! “No matter if it’s a man or a woman ...” Gao Facai said. “The deceased must have been someone with long legs!”

“Yes,” Zhang Peipei quickly added. “Judging from the proportion of organic matter, the three deceased were all young people, and their height was enviable, so ... You can also find some matching conditions from the recent missing persons!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded. “I remember that Hailan city often holds modeling competitions, fashion shows, and so on. The dead can’t be those models, right?”

“By the way, I have another question to ask.” At this time, Gao Facai asked another question. “Did the police search the scene?” Why didn’t we find the skull of the corpse?”

“Mm ... This ...” At the mention of the skull, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying’s faces changed again. Miao Ying was the first to answer. “The thief who found the bones first claimed that when he first saw the scene, he was sure that there was a skull on the White bones!”

“But when the police arrived at the scene, the skull was gone!”

“Ah?” Zhang Peipei was shocked. “There’s such a thing? The ... The skull ... Is gone?”

“The thief said,” Miao Ying explained, “that after he saw the crime scene, he was so scared that he fainted for a while. He couldn’t remember how he got out of the room, nor how he was caught by the police!”

“So, we’re guessing,” Zhao Yu agreed, “that the murderer should have been at the scene at that time. He took the skull away when the thief was unconscious or unconscious!”

“Ah? It’s actually like this?” Even though Gao Facai was an experienced detective, he was still shocked by this bizarre case. He said in surprise, “the suspect took nothing but the skull when he was exposed!”

“So ... That skull ... Should be very important to him?”

Chapter 1389: Yu family’s old mansion

In Hailan city, a police car was driving on the seaside road.

At that moment, Miao Ying was looking at the latest news about the White bones case on her mobile phone, while Zhao Yu was leaning against the car window. Although his eyes were looking at the sea of coconut trees outside the window, his mind was seriously thinking about the case.

Previously, he had already used an invisible browser to search for information on poto religion.

As Zeng ke had found, the browser only showed that the religion was a branch of Hinduism, as well as some simple overview, without any detailed content.

From this, it could be seen that the people who believed in this religion were on the verge of extinction.

In the information that Zhao Yu had found, one of the poto clan totems was indeed similar to the props at the crime scene, but to confirm that there was no mistake, he still needed to compare it carefully.

Hence, Zhao Yu decided to go to the crime scene to check it out himself.

Tsk tsk ...

As he opened the item, he looked at the hexagram interface that was on cooldown with regret.

The White bones case had appeared, but his Miracle System was still in cooldown. It seemed that he could only rely on his own strength to solve this case.

However, because he couldn't get a hexagram, Zhao Yu was even more excited than usual. He also wanted to prove that he could solve the case without the help of the system!

"Detective Zhao ..." At this time, Captain Li Yanxia, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, said, "our Mayor just sent a message. He is still in a meeting in the provincial capital and can't come to meet you for the time being. I hope you can forgive him!"

"I'm fine, I'm fine ..."

Zhao Yu never liked these kinds of official activities, so before he came, he had already informed the Qiongzhou Provincial Office that he would not be accompanied by any higher ups, but only the local Criminal Police captain to cooperate in solving the case.

It seemed that the mayor of Harland had already received the notice, and that was why he didn't show up.

"But ... Our Mayor is begging you ..." Captain Li said, embarrassed. "Hailan city is a tourist city, so ... I hope you can forgive us and try not to disclose the news to the public!"

"As you know, we can't afford to mess with the media. If the headline 'bones found in haunted house case in Hailan city' suddenly appears, then the panic will quickly spread throughout the city, and even the province!"

"We rely on traveling to survive. We can't afford the consequences!"

"Hmph!" Zhao Yu said indifferently, "in my eyes, there's only the case. I can only promise that I will try my best to pay attention to the methods, but other than that, I can't promise anyone anything!"

"Yes, yes, yes ..." Captain Li quickly stroked his beard and said, "in fact, we have nothing to worry about. Since you, great detective Zhao, have come in person, we're not afraid that we can't solve the case."

"Mm ..." Zhao Yu raised his eyebrows and felt that Li Yanxia's compliment had a threatening element.

"By the way, I've already asked the local policeman about the skull!" Li Yanxia didn't dare to provoke Zhao Yu, so he quickly changed the topic and said seriously, "according to their confession, from the time they heard the thief's scream to the time they caught the thief, it was only a minute!"

"The main door of the Yu family's old residence was very old. When they heard the scream, the police officers broke in directly."

“Then, they followed the sound to the second floor. Halfway up, they saw the thief who was running away in panic.

“A few policemen swarmed forward and arrested the thief!

“But, although the thief was arrested, he was obviously in a state of mental disorder. He was shouting and wailing, and he was pointing upstairs.

“Then, the light upstairs attracted the police’s attention. Several of them went up to take a look and found the terrible crime scene!

“It’s obvious that they were all frightened when they saw that scene ...”

“If that’s the case ...” Miao Ying speculated, “the murderer must have been at the scene at the time, and he had enough time to escape with the skull!”

“I have been to the scene before,” Captain Li said. “If there was really a murderer at that time, he most likely escaped through the balcony.

“The balcony is connected to the wall of the old house. There was no one on the other side of the wall at the time, so it would be very easy to escape from there.”

“Skull, skull!” “Why did you take the skull away?” Zhao Yu muttered.

“Oh, that’s right!” Captain Li suddenly thought of something and hurriedly said, “we found a few of Yu zhengran’s relatives in Lixiang County. Although they are slightly distant, they are still very close. The DNA sequence should be able to reflect it!

“I’ve already contacted them. As long as we can get their DNA, we can verify if Bai Gu is Yu zhengran’s family!”

“Mm ...” Although Zhao Yu nodded, he felt that the possibility of this was not high. Forensic Gao had said that the active components in the bones were high, and they were all young people.

“Then ... What about Yu zhengran’s wife?” “Is there no one in your family?” Miao Ying asked.

“Yu zhengran’s wife is Indonesia, right?” Li Yanxia said, “Oh ... He could also be a Filipino. Anyway, he’s a foreigner and can’t be verified for now.

“Yu zhengran was the only one who managed to get his own citizenship back then. His family never moved back. We only managed to find an address in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. It will take some time to verify it!”

“Phew ...” Zhao Yu let out a heavy breath. He was afraid of such a situation when solving a case. If they did not even know who the victim was, how could they solve the case?

“And ...” Captain Li continued, “during the year of the tsunami in the Indian Ocean, the International Red Cross Association established a DNA database of the victims. If we can get DNA from Yu zhengran’s relatives, we can also go to the database and compare it!

“Let’s see if they really died in the tsunami!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded again, but he still felt that Yu Zhengran’s family died in the tsunami. It wasn’t very reliable. After all, they didn’t even leave a record of their departure, so it was very likely that they didn’t go missing abroad.

“Alright, we’re almost there ...”

At this time, as the car slowed down, the police car had entered a small road full of weeds. This was the sky Mansion.

Due to the long history, the main gate of the community was no longer in sight. The interior was accessible in all directions, and one could enter and exit from any small road. As for the surveillance cameras and such, it was even more nonsense.

On both sides of the path, there were many old houses. Most of these old houses were three-story buildings, and there were basically no people living in them. They looked unusually dilapidated.

The Yu family’s old mansion was located in the deepest part of this abandoned mansion area, close to another high-end villa community outside the high courtyard wall.

According to Li Yanxia, the high-end villa area outside was originally in an excellent location and had been well built. However, it was because it was next to the haunted Tianfu home that the property couldn’t be sold for a long time.

In the end, in order to save their capital, the developers had to cooperate with local travel agencies and hand over the villas to them to receive tourists.

The tourists didn’t know about the haunting and would leave after a few days, so they didn’t care much about it.

“There, this is the place!” After the car was parked, Captain Li pointed to an old mansion on the right and said, “this is the Yu family’s old mansion!”

“On the day of the accident, our technical team had already collected evidence.” After Captain Li and Zhao Yu got out of the car, they continued, “they found some footprints at the scene, but no fingerprints!”

“Team leader Zhao ...” After getting out of the car, Miao Ying immediately told Zhao Yu, “Zhang Peipei also brought her people to collect evidence. They found some suspicious skin tissue and hair, which are currently being tested ...”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu looked at the European style three-story house. Although it was old and left unattended, it still had a faint trace of its former luxury.

However, when he looked at the dark plants that covered the balcony and the black water stains on the walls, he felt an indescribable sense of oppression ...

Chapter 1390: Shoe print and fingerprint

“Woof woof woof ...”

Just as Zhao Yu was about to enter the door, a large Wolfhound suddenly appeared in front of him, giving Zhao Yu a shock.

Fortunately, the big dog was being held by a police officer. The police officer pulled the rope and immediately pulled the big dog to the side, avoiding the crowd.

“Hey, hey, hey, can’t you just watch?” Li Yanxia was not happy. “Don’t let it bite people again!”

The police officer who was holding the dog didn’t say anything. He just made an apologetic gesture to Captain li and then quickly walked away with the dog.

“It’s fine, it’s fine ...” Captain li quickly explained to Zhao Yu and Zhao Yu, “this is a police dog from the criminal Police team. They were specially sent to search the Yu family mansion.”

“You don’t say ...” Zhao Yu said to Miao Ying. “Look at this dog, it looks like Daheng! He’s about the same size and appearance. If I had known earlier, I would have brought Daheng out to play with me!”

“Come on, this is a regular police dog!” Miao Ying shook her head and said, “Daheng is already full from your mother’s feeding. If he doesn’t train now, he’ll be useless!”

“That’s true ...” Zhao Yu thought of his Daheng and couldn’t help but sigh in his heart. He had been busy for a long time and completely ignored his dog, Daheng.

Although Daheng was an expert in literature and history, he had helped him solve many cases in the past. It was indeed a little inappropriate to bury it in his hometown.

So, Zhao Yu made up his mind that when this case was over, he would go back to Qinshan and find a way to send Daheng to the police dog team, so that it could improve its quality and work for the police force!

“Um ... Who is Daheng? Is it also your police dog?” Captain li heard Zhao Yu’s words and asked curiously.

However, Zhao Yu had no intention of answering, but had already walked straight into the courtyard of the Yu family’s old mansion.

At that time, the situation in the yard was different from what Zhao Yu had imagined. He saw a team of police officers digging something in the yard, and they had already dug three or four big holes in the yard.

“Oh ...” Captain li quickly explained, “before you came, our Criminal Police team decided to see if there was anything buried in the yard ...”

Hmm ...

Zhao Yu nodded slightly, but he was a little unhappy.

This was because the ground had been dug up before he could check the situation in the courtyard. This might cause him to miss some clues.

However, there was no problem with the local Criminal police’s approach. After all, the Special Investigation Group only received the notice a day after the incident.

Before this, the case was handled by the local Criminal Police, so excavating the ground was completely in line with the procedure. Moreover, the technical team had already searched and obtained evidence before digging, so they should not have missed anything.

“It’s a pity ...” Team leader li Yanxia saw Zhao Yu looking at the courtyard in a daze, and said helplessly, “so far, we haven’t found anything! It seems that the suspect didn’t bury the body here.”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu looked around the yard and asked Captain li, “did you find any signs of people living in the house?”

Following Zhao Yu’s question, the three of them turned towards the eerie, old three-story building.

“No, I didn’t!” Captain li replied, “we’ve searched all the houses, the basements, and the cellars. They were all abandoned, but we didn’t find any signs of people living there!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then said, “that is to say, the suspect who placed the bones here did not live here at all. He just found a room here ...”

“If I want to live ... I can only live in the same room as white bones, right? “But ...” Captain Li said with a complicated expression, “you’ll know once you see the scene. In that room, there was no bed except for the table where the bones were placed.”

“If you want to live here, I’m afraid you can only sleep on the floor!”

After he finished speaking, li Yanxia was actually so scared by his own words that he shivered. Sleeping with white bones, no matter how he heard it, it was creepy.

As they spoke, the three of them entered the first-floor Hall of the old house. Because the door and windows were covered with plants, the light in the hall was very dim.

In the hall, there were a few members of the technical team who were carefully searching for something. When they saw Zhao Yu and the other two, they immediately handed them shoe covers and gloves.

After changing, Zhao Yu didn’t observe much, but followed Captain li up the stairs to the second floor.

In the meantime, Captain li repeated the situation that night to them.

Not long after, Zhao Yu finally saw the scary room. The room was facing the stairs on the second floor. No wonder the thief chose this room when he came up that night.

The door still looked like it had been broken open by a thief.

Although he felt a chill in his heart, as a well-informed detective, Zhao Yu naturally had nothing to fear. He immediately stepped in.

However, perhaps it was a psychological effect, as soon as Zhao Yu entered, he instinctively felt a cold wind sweep past his face, and the hair on his back stood up.

There were three windows in the room, but all the windows were nailed with wooden planks, making the room dark and gloomy.

“I’ll do it ...” At this moment, Captain Li walked around the altar in the room and came to the depths of the room. He reached out and opened a small door.

As the sunlight shone in, the room became clear.

Oh ...

When he saw the decorations in the room, even though Zhao Yu was mentally prepared, he was still shocked and felt goosebumps all over his body.

It was a rectangular room with a small surface area. In the middle of the room was a wooden platform. It looked like a coffin or an altar.

The altar was covered with a thick and huge plastic sheet, and according to the pictures of the scene, the pile of bones was placed on the plastic sheet.

Next to the altar, there were either scary ghostly faces, masks, or messy talismans stuck on it. It was arranged like a sacrificial place of some primitive tribe.

The ground was scattered with incense ash, burning paper, and a few other things.

There were many ropes hanging above the house. Some of them had hooks on them, while others had cow horns, goat horns, and what seemed to be animal hair ...

In addition, there were many candlesticks on the walls of the house, and there were long and thick red candles on them ...

“The technical team has taken some samples for testing,” Captain Li said. “These are the remaining ones. Here ...” He pointed to the altar in the center. “The skeleton was placed here!”

“If it wasn’t for the coroner, we wouldn’t have been able to tell that it wasn’t a person’s skeleton!”

“Captain Li,” Zhao Yu creased his eyebrows and asked, “did the technical team really not find any fingerprints here?”

“Right!” Li Yanxia replied with certainty, “we only found footprints, but we didn’t find any fingerprints. The forensic experts of the Special Investigation Group also looked for it, but they didn’t find anything.”

“Then, let’s talk about the footprints!” Although Zhao Yu had already read the information about the footprints, he still wanted to hear Captain Li’s report.

“Those are the footprints of sneakers, both feet ...” Captain Li recalled. “According to the footprints, the suspect’s height is between 1.65 meters and 1.70 meters. Looking at the style, the possibility of it being a male is very high, but we can’t rule out the possibility of it being a female.”

“There are shoe prints, but no fingerprints ...” Miao Ying was slightly stunned, and she muttered, “this is a little strange ...”

“Phew ...”

Zhao Yu took a deep breath, then started to smell the room carefully with his nose. In addition to the stale and damp smell in the room, the most obvious smell was the special smell of the burning candles.

Zhao Yu sniffed carefully, then opened the small door and walked out of the house.

Outside the house was a long balcony that ran through the entire second floor of the small bungalow.

Zhao Yu walked to the balcony and observed his surroundings. Then, he suddenly did something unexpected. He went to the end of the balcony, jumped over the railing, and climbed up the elegant courtyard wall of the Yu family mansion!
