

Crazy 1391

Chapter 1391: A suspect who can fly?

“Detective Zhao, you are ... Be careful, be careful ...” Captain Li was shocked when he saw Zhao Yu climb over the west wall.

“Zhao Yu, what are you doing?”

Miao Ying quickly ran to the balcony, only to find that Zhao Yu had already walked along the high courtyard wall in a tightrope-like posture as he walked out.

Zhao Yu’s sudden action also attracted the attention of the other police officers, and they all turned their eyes to him.

However, Zhao Yu didn’t care about the others’ gazes. He walked a few steps along the courtyard wall, then took out his mobile phone and searched for the shoe prints that the technical team had found at the scene of the crime.

After that, he secretly activated a device called the footprint identifier. Zhao Yu had gotten this device a long time ago, and he had accumulated 15 of them.

As the name suggested, the function of the device was to identify and compare footprints, which was very useful for Zhao Yu’s case-solving work.

However, due to the different cases, Zhao Yu had never used it before. This was his first time.

Zhao Yu thought that he could give it a try.

There was no other exit to the Yu family’s old mansion. That night, the suspect who took the skull must have escaped the scene through this courtyard wall.

So, as long as he could find a matching shoe print, he could at least determine the direction of the suspect’s escape.

So, he opened the shoe print on his phone and scanned the shoe print into the system device. Then, the footprint identifier immediately displayed a variety of data and functions.

Among them, the data given by the indiscernible device was basically the same as the police’s judgment based on the footprints. The suspect should be a man less than 1.7 meters tall.

Then, Zhao Yu turned on the scanning function of his invisible detector and began to scan the places he had passed. Once the device found a matching footprint, it would immediately sound an alarm.

However, as it had been two days since the case, Zhao Yu was worried about whether the invisible detector would still work.

The walls were made of cement, and the local climate of Harland was humid, so there was little dust. The device could not find any footprints on the wall.

Zhao Yu could only place his hope outside the wall. Thus, he carefully bent down and began to use the footprint identifier to scan the ground outside the courtyard wall.

There was an empty space outside the courtyard wall. The empty space was originally paved with bricks, but because of years of disrepair, many places were exposed to wet and soft soil.

If someone were to pass by, they would definitely leave behind footprints.

Zhao Yu was overjoyed. He lay on the wall and faced the wall, carefully scanning the places where the suspect might have left footprints.

Seeing Zhao Yu's strange performance, the police officers were all dumbfounded. No one understood what the detective was doing.

However, Zhao Yu was originally very confident. If he was the suspect, he would have definitely chosen to escape here that night.

He only needed to jump down the three-meter-high courtyard wall, then find a random path, and he could escape.

However, when Zhao Yu climbed the Western Wall from the beginning to the end, although the footprint identifier caught some footprints on the ground outside, after identification and comparison, they were all ruled out. The suspect's footprints were not among them!

No way?

Zhao Yu couldn't help but frown and think, Could it be ... That the suspect had changed his shoes?

"Mm ... Detective Zhao!" Captain Li Yanxia leaned on the balcony and shouted at Zhao Yu, "we've already searched outside, but we didn't find any suspicious clues!"

Oh?

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu slowly turned around and looked around the entire Yu family mansion again.

The entire Yu family's old mansion was divided into two parts, the courtyard and the Western-style building. The main entrance of the compound was located on the east side of the wall, which was also where the police had chased them that night, so it was impossible for the suspect to escape from the East.

To the North of the house was where the bungalow was located. The bungalow had no back door and was a standalone villa that was not connected to other buildings. So, if the suspect wanted to escape, he would have to step onto the west wall.

But ...

Why weren't there any footprints of the suspect outside the west wall?

Could it be ...

The next second, Zhao Yu finally turned his gaze to the south side of the old mansion!

The southern wall of the old house was adjacent to another villa community. Between the walls of the two communities was a ditch less than two meters long.

On the night of the crime, the thief who found the bones had failed to steal from the villa community. In order to avoid being chased by the security guards, he had jumped into the Yu family's old house in desperation.

Then ...

Zhao Yu thought hard. Could the suspect have escaped from the South?

But ...

He then looked at the length of the courtyard wall and felt that something was not right! If the suspect escaped from the South, wouldn't that be a waste of time?

And ...

As he pondered, he walked along the Western Wall toward the South and arrived at the southern wall.

Standing there and looking out, there was indeed a ditch in front of them. The ditch was overgrown with weeds and it even emitted a foul smell of decay.

This ...

A scene of a person jumping into a smelly ditch flashed through Zhao Yu's mind. That person was holding a white skull in his hands ...

Although the possibility of this was very small, Zhao Yu still lay on the southern wall and used the footprint identifier to explore the area near the ditch.

However, the ground was overgrown with weeds, and the slopes on both sides of the ditch were very narrow, so no one could stand on them. After checking, there was still no matching shoe print.

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu was leaning against the wall and smacking his lips when a swarm of mosquitoes suddenly flew past. A few of them even hit his lips, and he almost couldn't eat them.

Spit spit spit spit ...

He spat a few times gloomily, then quickly turned around and sat on the wall.

Sigh ...

This is getting interesting. There wasn't even a footprint. Did the suspect fly away?

Or ...

He turned back to look at the smelly ditch and muttered in his heart, you F * cking sneaked out from the smelly ditch?

"Ah ... Hero ... Please chase after my beautiful dream ..."

At this critical moment, Zhao Yu's mobile phone suddenly rang. It was Zhang Peipei.

“Hello?” However, after picking up the phone, Zeng ke’s voice came from the other side. “Team leader, you’re right again! We’ve found the corpse’s body part and found the identity of the deceased!”

“Ah? Am I right?” Zhao Yu was puzzled. “What did I say right?”

“The victim was a model!” “Her name is resuna,” Zeng ke said excitedly. “Three months ago, she participated in a talent show in Hailan city with her modeling company.

“After the event, she didn’t go back to the company. She said she was going to spend a few days in Hailan, but I haven’t heard from her since!

“Before the comparison, her family had just uploaded the DNA data to the missing people database!”

“Oh! As expected!” It seemed that what he had been worried about the most had happened. There was a 99% chance that the white bone case was a murder!

“Zeng ke ...” Zhao Yu quickly ordered, “send me the detailed information of the deceased!” And ... And the police’s missing person investigation records, give them all to me!”

“Yes!” Zeng ke quickly agreed.

“Oh, that’s right!” Zhao Yu added excitedly, “look into that model company as well. If one of them is a model, then the other two might be ... Mm ...”

As Zhao Yu was too excited, his body tilted and he almost fell off the wall!

Losing his balance, he quickly used his hands to support himself.

In the end, due to the strength of his palm, he actually crushed the cement on the top of the wall, and a small piece of cement fell into the courtyard.

“What the ...” After Zhao Yu steadied his body, he looked down almost subconsciously.

Who would have thought that he would suddenly discover something?

Eh?

What was that?

“Team leader, team leader, are you okay? What’s wrong with you?”

Over the phone, Zeng ke was still asking with concern, but Zhao Yu’s eyes were completely attracted to the thing in the yard.

On the ground very close to the wall, there were two unremarkable small pits!

Chapter 1392: The key evidence

“Zhao Yu ... Mm ... Team leader Zhao ...” Seeing Zhao Yu’s strange behavior, Miao Ying couldn’t help but run over and ask him, “what the hell are you doing?”

“Don’t move ...” Zhao Yu once again leaned against the three-meter high wall, pointing at the two small holes on the ground. “Look ... What is that?”

“What?”

Miao Ying carefully went to the corner. As it was a remote location, the police in charge of the search had not yet found it.

“This is ...” Miao Ying squatted down and looked carefully at the place where Zhao Yu was pointing. There were indeed two small, unremarkable holes, and the holes were irregularly rectangular.

“You ...” Miao Ying first looked at the hole, then raised her head to look at Zhao Yu and asked, “What is this?”

Zhao Yu didn’t answer Miao Ying’s question. Instead, he turned his body sideways, almost pressing his face against the wall, and began to look for something seriously.

[My God ...]

When Zhao Yu found many scratch marks on the wall, his heart started to beat faster, as if he had realized something.

He saw that the scratches were old and new, and they should have been left behind by metal objects.

“I understand, I understand!” Zhao Yu suddenly raised his head and looked at the high-end community across the ditch, then fixed his eyes on the villa opposite the Yu family’s old house!

At the time of the crime, the thief had jumped over the wall of the villa, so could it be that the problem was here?

“Hey, what do you understand?” Miao Ying was curious, but just as she asked, her phone rang.

The call was from Zeng ke. Seeing that Zhao Yu hadn’t replied for a long time, Zeng ke was worried that Zhao Yu was in danger, so he called Miao Ying to ask about the situation. He also told her that he had found the victim.

“Okay, don’t worry, team leader is fine!” Miao Ying hung up the phone and asked Zhao Yu again, “Zhao Yu, tell me, what happened?”

“Ladder!” Zhao Yu’s eyes were fixed on the villa opposite, and he suddenly felt an unprecedented tension in his heart. He said without turning his head, “the suspect ... is likely to have escaped by using the ladder!”

“Ah?” Miao Ying was surprised. “Why? did you see a ladder outside? Why a ladder?”

“No! “I didn’t see it ...” Zhao Yu muttered to himself, his expression unusually serious.”But it’s because I didn’t see it that it’s even scarier! There’s a ditch outside, there’s no way to put a ladder in here. If there’s really a ladder, then ...”

“Oh? “Although Miao Ying didn’t fully understand, she felt that the problem that Zhao Yu had found should be very important.

“Miao...Team leader Miao ...” Zhao Yu finally raised his arm and pointed to the villa across the street.”Hurry up and send someone to check what’s going on in that house!” He said solemnly.

“Ah?” As the wall was too high, Miao Ying could only take a few steps back to see the villa. She asked in surprise, “you mean ... There’s something wrong with that house? Hey...Zhao Yu...Stop right there, hey...Hey ...”

Unexpectedly, before Miao Ying could finish her sentence, she suddenly saw Zhao Yu stand up on the courtyard wall and make an eager gesture.

It was obvious that he wanted to jump over the wall!

“Don’t! Don’t jump!” “Wait for us, Hey!” Miao Ying shouted.

However, miss Miao was still a little too slow. She saw Zhao Yu jump into the air, then jump over the villa’s courtyard wall ...

“Damn it!” Miao Ying cursed angrily, then quickly raised her hand to call Captain Li Yanxia, who was in the distance, and then quickly ran out of the gate to drive the car.

In fact, the distance between the two walls was less than two meters. It would not be difficult to jump over it.

However, the difficulty was that, due to the different geographical location, the courtyard wall of the high-end community was higher, almost half a meter higher than the Yu family’s old house.

Therefore, it was easy to jump from the top to the bottom, but it was a different story to jump back.

However, Zhao Yu was an expert in picking locks, so this problem wasn’t difficult for him. After he jumped over, he used his arms to grab onto the eaves of the house. Then, he used his strength to climb and easily flipped over the opposite courtyard wall.

This villa was only two stories tall. Although the foundation was high, it was much shorter than the Yu family’s mansion.

However, the villa was luxuriously decorated, and there was even a small swimming pool in the courtyard. However, there was no water in the swimming pool, so it was dry.

Zhao Yu looked into the villa, but saw that the doors and windows were closed, and the glass reflected light, so he couldn’t see what was going on inside. It didn’t feel like there was anyone in the villa.

He looked into the yard again and saw that it was also surprisingly clean. Other than some fallen leaves that had been blown in by the wind, there was almost no junk to be seen.

Although the villa was quiet, Zhao Yu could still smell something unusual.

He didn’t rush to jump down the wall. Instead, he sat on the top of the wall and turned on his invisible detector. Through the detector’s scan, he quickly found that this courtyard wall was a surveillance blind spot, and there was no listening device covering this area.

So, if the suspect really left from here, he naturally didn’t have to worry about being caught by the surveillance cameras.

Moreover, if he really used a ladder, he would definitely enter the courtyard in front of him.

Then, Zhao Yu jumped over the wall and entered the villa's courtyard. At the same time, he pulled out his gun!

In order to be absolutely safe, Zhao Yu even activated a life detector. If anyone was approaching, he would know immediately.

The villa's courtyard was not big, and there was a garage in the corner.

There was no car in the garage, but to verify something, Zhao Yu walked into the garage first. At the end of the garage, there was a small storage room for tool parts, and the door was locked.

Zhao Yu peeked through the glass door and saw what he was looking for.

In the grocery room, there was a Kasaya ladder!

That's right, Zhao Yu only took one look and he could almost conclude it in his heart. Because this ladder was not a human-shaped ladder, it was about three meters long, which was exactly the same height as the courtyard wall of the Yu family's old mansion!

Zhao Yu pushed the door open with all his might.

After he entered the storeroom, he couldn't wait to squat down and check the two ends of the ladder.

In the end, another discovery further confirmed his guess. Both ends of the metal ladder had obvious signs of friction.

This kind of trace was obviously caused by a ladder being placed on the two walls of the courtyard, and then someone climbed over it.

There was no mistake, there was no mistake!

Zhao Yu's breathing became more rapid. Since the ladder was locked in the villa's storage room, it meant that the villa's user was most likely the suspect in the white bone case!

What was the meaning of this?

Why did the suspect live opposite the Yu family's old mansion? why did he piece together the bones in the Yu family's old mansion? who ... Was this person?

Eh?

Just as Zhao Yu was deep in thought, he suddenly saw a bag next to the ladder, and there were some feather-like things in the bag.

This was ...

Zhao Yu opened the bag and saw that the feather-like thing was actually an accessory on a mask! When he looked at the mask again, he couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air.

The mask was exactly the same as the wry face totem at the scene of the bones!

Bang ...

Just as Zhao Yu was in shock, a loud bang came from outside. He saw a police car knock down the villa's door, and the driver was Miao Ying!

Chapter 1393: Why did you capture me?

Di di ...

A police car sounded its siren twice, and the car that Miao Ying was driving was pulled out of the yard.

"Sir, the search is complete. There's no one in the villa ..." A local police officer reported to Zhao Yu and Miao Ying.

"Immediately notify the technical team to come over and search the villa carefully!" After Miao Ying gave her orders, she asked the others, "where's the information I wanted? Haven't you found anything yet?"

"I found it, I found it!" Captain Li Yanxia hurriedly ran over and said, "the villa has been contracted to Yuhua travel agency by the developer. The travel agency uses this place to receive tourists. We're currently in contact with them!"

"A travel agency?" Miao Ying was a little surprised. "If he's a tourist, he shouldn't have stayed for long, right? Did you check the surveillance?"

"I'm getting it. My men are already in the district's surveillance room!"

Even now, Li Yanxia still hadn't recovered from the shock. He had never expected that Zhao Yu would be able to find his way all the way to this place, just because he was here to investigate the scene.

Obviously, the appearance of the ladder and the ghost mask indicated that the suspect of the white bone case was hiding in this villa. If they could catch this person, the truth of the case would be revealed!

"They're not tourists!" At this time, Zhao Yu walked out of the main entrance of the villa and said to Miao Ying and Captain Li, "from the daily necessities in the house, someone should be living here for a long time, not a tourist."

"Oh ... Oh ..." Captain Li hurriedly urged his men, "hurry up, go and confirm it!"

"Yes!" His subordinate immediately went to the side to make a call.

"The house is too clean, not a speck of dust!" Zhao Yu looked at Miao Ying and said worriedly, "it feels weird. Why does it remind me of Li Dan from the lost hand case?"

"The suspect is either a clean freak, or like Li Dan, he has some unspeakable secret, right?"

"Then ... Shouldn't we start searching right now?" Miao Ying suggested, "the skull ..."

"No!" Zhao Yu shook his head. "I have a feeling that this case isn't that simple. Let Zhang Peipei send someone over. Try not to miss any clues!"

“Yes, I’ve already informed them!” Miao Ying nodded, then asked in confusion, “team leader, how did you determine that the suspect was related to this house? Just based on the traces left behind by the ladder? How do you know that the suspect didn’t escape from the West?”

Zhao Yu naturally couldn’t talk about the footprint identifier, so he digressed from the topic. He closed his eyes and pretended to be pretentious as he said, “There are no photos in the house, and there are no personal items that can prove the identity of the suspect, which means that the identity of the suspect may not be exposed!

“So, we have to be prepared for a long-term war,” Zhao Yu said, opening his eyes. “Have you gotten the surveillance cameras in the neighborhood?”

“Yes, yes ...” Li Yanxia replied. “Detective Zhao, I just asked the security guard that night. He said that the thief who found the bones jumped along the outer wall of this villa and into the Yu family’s old house!

“The security guard remembered very clearly that the villa was dark at that time, and there was no one inside!” Li Yanxia said hurriedly, “they were so busy chasing the thief. If there were people in the villa, they would definitely have come out to check!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded. “The reason why there’s no one is that the person is in the Yu family’s old mansion ...”

“Report!” At this time, a Criminal Police officer ran over and reported, “we have confirmed through the travel agency that the villa was rented to a dentist named Liang perseverance!

“Look ...” He reached out and handed over a piece of paper. “This is the address provided by the travel agency. This man runs a private clinic!”

“Liang Weiwen?” Zhao Yu and Miao Ying looked at each other, feeling that the name was very unfamiliar.

“Let’s go!” Zhao Yu took the note and walked out of the door with Miao Ying.

“Aiyo, we can’t do that ...” Li Yanxia felt that this was a serious matter and was worried that Zhao Yu and Miao Ying would be in danger. He quickly waved to his subordinates and asked them to split up into a team to follow Zhao Yu and Miao Ying.

* Squeak ... *

This time, Zhao Yu personally drove the police car to the target.

According to the map, Liang Wenli’s dental clinic was 10 kilometers away from the neighborhood, so they should be able to get there soon.

However, Zhao Yu didn’t think that it was likely that they would be able to catch the suspect.

“As expected ...” In the car, Miao Ying looked at her phone and reported to Zhao Yu, “Liang perseverance’s name is fake, there’s no such person!

“But, his dental clinic does exist, and there are formal procedures ...”

“Officers, we found the suspect’s image on the surveillance!” Li Yanxia, who was in the back seat, handed his phone over and said, “this was captured by the surveillance camera closest to the villa. Look ...”

Miao Ying took the phone and showed it to Zhao Yu.

In the early morning, a white accord drove out of the villa. Due to the lighting, the person’s face could not be seen clearly in the video. He could only see that it was a man wearing glasses and a suit.

“This person, what is his background? He doesn’t look like a foreigner, does he?” Li Yanxia frowned and said, “those mysterious things don’t look like they’re from China!”

“Could there be ... An accomplice?” he asked.

“Captain li ...” Zhao Yu didn’t answer his question, but ordered as he drove, “ask your men to find a clear photo of the suspect and prepare the arrest warrant as soon as possible!”

“Oh, Alright, alright!” After Captain li agreed, he asked nervously, “why? are you worried that ... This person has already run away?”

“I saw that on the suspect’s bed, there were traces of clothes being packed,” Zhao Yu said worriedly. “I’m worried that we’re too late!”

“Oh ... I understand!” Captain li quickly picked up his phone. “I’ll do it now ...”

“Team leader Miao,” Zhao Yu asked Miao Ying, “did forensic Zhang only confirm the victims’ torsos? Where are his four limbs?”

“No...” Miao Ying replied. “Zeng ke asked the modeling company, and there was only one missing person!”

“Strange, who could the other two be?” As Zhao Yu pondered, he sped up and drove towards his destination.

With Zhao Yu’s excellent driving skills, it only took him ten minutes to reach his destination.

The dental clinic was located in a small city in the High-tech Zone of Hailan city. It was relatively open and not a bustling area.

Zhao Yu couldn’t wait to drive the car straight into the house and knock it all the way to the door, then stop the car with a creak. He immediately took out his pistol and rushed in with Miao Ying.

“So fast, so fast ...” Li Yanxia couldn’t keep up with the pace of these two people at all. He was a few seconds late before he led his men to rush into the dental clinic.

In the end, when they rushed in, they saw that Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were already holding a man in a white coat and glasses with a gun.

“Speak!” “What’s his name?” Miao Ying asked loudly.

Surprisingly, the man in the white coat did not seem to panic. He put his hands behind his head and replied calmly, “Liang Weiwen! Who are you guys?”

“Police!” Zhao Yu roared, “You’re Under Arrest! Do you know why I caught you?”

“Oh ... I see ...” The man said slowly, then pointed to a backpack on the coffee table and said, “I know, I know! It’s probably ... For this?”

Eh?

Li Yanxia was very close to the backpack. He didn’t think much and reached out to open the bag.

As a result, a white skull of a skeleton appeared!

Chapter 1394: What’s wrong?

“Ah!” Captain Li was so shocked that he almost threw away the backpack with the skull.

“Don’t move!” Seeing such a horrifying scene, the other police officers also took out their guns and nervously aimed at the dentist named Liang perseverance.

However, Liang Weiyi maintained an indescribable calmness throughout. His calmness was completely out of place with the tense atmosphere in the clinic. It was as if all the things that were happening in front of him had nothing to do with him.

“Liang Weiwen!” Zhao Yu shouted, “tell me, what’s going on? Whose skull did this belong to? Did you kill him? Speak!”

“...” However, Liang Weiyi didn’t answer the question. He only placed his hands behind his head with a blank expression, as if he was meditating.

“You ...” Zhao Yu glared at him. If it was in the past, he would have kicked this guy in the morning, but now he was a public servant, so he could only follow the law. He signaled to Li Yanxia and the others with his eyes.

“Go, handcuff him!” Captain Li understood what Zhao Yu meant, and quickly ordered the police officers to come forward and tie Liang Weiyi’s hands behind his back, then put them in handcuffs.

After that, someone came forward to search his body.

Liang Weiyi didn’t put up any resistance. He looked at Zhao Yu and the other police officers calmly, as if he had already prepared himself for this.

“Mm ...” Just after Liang Weiyi was handcuffed, Zhao Yu said to one of the police officers in charge of the body search, “take off his shoes and let me see!”

“Ah?” The police officer was slightly stunned, but he still followed Zhao Yu’s instructions. But, just as he bent down, Zhao Yu stopped him.

“Forget it, no need!” Zhao Yu looked at Liang Weiyi’s shoes and said, “this is a pair of leather shoes!”

Then, Zhao Yu looked around the clinic, but he didn’t see any other shoes.

It turned out that, although the suspect had been basically confirmed, Zhao Yu still wanted to find Liang perseverance’s shoes and compare them with his own footprint identifier, just in case. He wanted to see if they were the same as the footprints found at the scene of the white bone case.

Before this, Zhao Yu had searched Liang Weiyi's Villa, but he couldn't find it, so he thought that he had worn it on his feet.

However, he didn't expect Liang Weiyi to be wearing a pair of leather shoes instead of sneakers.

Zhao Yu didn't know why, but he felt that this time, victory seemed to have come too quickly. He was worried that he had missed something, or that he had caught the wrong person ...

So, Zhao Yu carefully sized up this person named Liang perseverance from head to toe.

The man was less than 1.65 meters tall and looked to be in his forties. He was thin and had a crew cut. Although he was wearing glasses, it couldn't hide his thick and black eyebrows, which made him look murderous.

Zhao Yu had seen many criminals before, but he had never seen someone like Liang Weiyi. This person was like a zombie without a heartbeat. Standing face to face, one could not feel any emotional fluctuations from him at all.

"Liang Yiwen, you're under arrest for murder!" Miao Ying said to the man solemnly, "if you confess your crimes now, it will be helpful for your future trial!"

"Now, tell us ..." Miao Ying pointed to the backpack in the distance. "Who is that person?" Why did you kill him?"

"..." Liang Weiyi raised his head and looked at Miao Ying. His eyes suddenly lit up, and he said in a strange voice, "there's a woman with such a good figure in the police force?" If I had known ... Hehe ..."

Liang Weiyi's words made everyone's hair stand on end.

"Oh?" Zhao Yu suddenly smelled something and quickly asked, "so, you killed those models because they had a good figure?"

Hearing Zhao Yu's words, the policemen were all shocked, and a chill ran down their spines.

"Hmph ..." Liang Weiyi's lips curled up, revealing a creepy smile. He said calmly, "stop wasting your energy, officer!"

"I just underestimated you guys. I didn't expect you guys to find me so quickly ..." Liang Weiyi said evilly, "the shoes you wanted are in my car!"

After that, he pointed at the table with his chin and saw a car key with a Toyota logo on the table.

Oh?

The other party's behavior surprised Zhao Yu.

"Alright!" Zhao Yu grabbed the keys with one hand, then nodded to Li Yanxia and the others, saying, "let's take him back to the police station first! When the time comes, we'll use the evidence to speak. Let's see if you'll still be stubborn. "

“You guys ... Take the suspect into the car!” Li Yanxia immediately gave orders to his subordinates, “you guys, search the clinic thoroughly and then guard here. No matter who comes in, interrogate them carefully and verify their identities!”

“Yes!”

After receiving the order, the criminal Police immediately began to move. Since all the people had been assigned, Li Yanxia had to personally pick up the backpack with the skull and send it to the police car ...

At this time, Zhao Yu had already come to the parking lot at the entrance with his car keys. As he had seen it on the surveillance camera before, he quickly found the White Toyota accord.

The reason why Zhao Yu checked the car personally was that he was worried that there was something fishy about it.

Therefore, before he got close to the car, he first scanned the car with his invisible detector. After confirming that there was no danger, he opened the trunk with the key.

Seeing Zhao Yu come forward to check, Miao Ying quickly followed.

There was a black suitcase in the trunk, and next to the suitcase was a pair of white sneakers wrapped in a plastic bag.

Zhao Yu opened the plastic bag and took out the shoes, then compared them with the footprint identifier. The tracker immediately lit up a red light, indicating that the comparison was successful!

The footprints matched, which meant that the footprints at the scene were left by this pair of shoes.

“This ... The footprints are very similar ...” Miao Ying did not have any props, so she could only judge with her eyes. “The suspect’s height also matches the information we have. Zhao Yu, we didn’t arrest the wrong person, right?”

“But why do I still feel that something is not right?”

“Me too!” Zhao Yu admitted as he tried to open the suitcase. “The man was deliberately enunciating his words when he spoke. He probably couldn’t speak Mandarin well ...”

“Right!” Miao Ying nodded. “I also suspect that ... He might be of mixed blood or Chinese descent ...”

“Mm ... Tsk tsk ...” Zhao Yu suddenly realized that the suitcase was locked with a password. In order to find out the situation as soon as possible, he did not hesitate to open the device bar in his mind and use the universal lock-breaker.

At the same time, he said to Miao Ying, “I think there’s something strange about this man. I suspect that he has accomplices, or is related to some evil cult!”

“Right!” Miao Ying agreed and said, “so, we need to look up his communication information as soon as possible and see who this Liang perseverance has been in contact with!”

As Miao Ying finished speaking, Zhao Yu had already opened the suitcase. In the suitcase, there were clothes that had been ironed, and they were folded neatly.

Of course, Zhao Yu wasn't interested in the clothes. He immediately pulled the clothes to the side to see what else was underneath.

When the clothes were pulled open, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were both stunned.

In the lower level of the suitcase, there were many familiar yet amazing things.

First of all, there were a few rolls of money tied with a rubber band. There were RMB, US dollars, euros, and so on ...

Next to the money was a stack of documents. They were all passports! When he opened the passport, the photo on it was actually the same person. It was Liang perseverance ...

Zhao Yu and Miao Ying looked at each other and suddenly had a bad feeling. Zhao Yu quickly scrolled down and found a tool bag!

There were sharp daggers, graters, and some strange tools in the kit. All of them were extremely sharp and glinted coldly, giving off a gloomy chill ...

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu was shocked, and he shouted angrily, "This grandson ... What on earth does he do!?"

Bang ...

Bang ...

Just as Zhao Yu finished his sentence, gunshots were heard from the entrance of the clinic!

Chapter 1395: arrogant Desperado

What?

The sound of gunfire suddenly rang out. In this quiet environment, it was particularly abrupt.

Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were shocked and quickly looked towards the direction of the gunshot. They saw that the two police cars in front of the clinic were in a mess. Someone was shouting, and someone was leaning against the car door and shooting into the distance!

Bang ...

Bang ...

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu didn't have time to think. He immediately put down the White suitcase and ran quickly to the accident scene.

As he ran, he finally saw clearly what the police were shooting at.

The suspect, Liang perseverance, who was wearing a white coat, had somehow broken free from the police's custody and had already run to the intersection in the distance!

"Ah ... Oh ... Ah ..."

At the same time, Zhao Yu heard a police officer's scream. He looked down and saw a police officer covered in blood crawling out of the police car that was in charge of escorting the suspect.

"Little Zhang ..."

When Captain Li Yanxia, who was shooting at the suspect, saw this, he immediately exclaimed and rushed over to check, only to see that Xiao Zhang had fainted from excessive blood loss ...

"I'll do it, I'll do it ..." Zhao Yu immediately rushed forward and used an invisible hemostatic agent on the police officer.

However, the system's warning beeped. The system notified Zhao Yu that the target had died, and that the device was ineffective.

"Little Zhang ... Little Zhang ..." Li Yanxia hugged the police officer tightly and shouted, but the comrade called little Zhang had already closed his eyes ...

Damn it!

Zhao Yu then saw that Xiao Zhang's neck had been pierced several times by a sharp weapon. Because the arteries were pierced, blood was gushing out like a spring.

"Ah ..." Li Yanxia raised his head and looked into the car. He was so scared that he shuddered again. He saw that the other two police officers in the car were also stabbed like Xiao Zhang. They were covered in blood and were motionless ...

"This ... This, this, this ..." Li Yanxia had been a Criminal Police officer for so many years, but this was the first time he had suffered such a serious blow. He immediately trembled and didn't know what to do.

Zhao Yu didn't expect things to take such a turn for the worse, so he quickly used the invisible hemostatic agent on the two police officers.

In the end, the officer in the driver's seat was slightly less injured, and the hemostatic agent immediately took effect.

However, the other police officer in the back seat was not so lucky. Like Xiao Zhang, he had no vital signs ...

"Dammit! Damn it!" Zhao Yu smacked the car door hard, his anger rising. He raised his head and looked into the distance. He saw that Liang Weiyi, after running to the end of the street, actually jumped up and nimbly jumped onto a cargo van.

It was as if he knew Qinggong. He pulled the trunk of the van with one hand, and his toes touched the bumper. His movements even seemed a little light ...

'Holy sh * t ...

Zhao Yu clenched his fists and immediately ran to the other police car to open the door, wanting to give chase.

However, a police officer quickly stepped forward and reminded, "Sir, we can't! The tire has been punctured!"

“Ah?”

Zhao Yu was so anxious that he immediately took out his gun and ran forward like a madman.

He had just run a few steps when a white car suddenly stopped in front of him. He looked up and saw that it was Liang Weiyi's Toyota accord, and the driver was Miao Ying!

As Miao Ying was holding the car keys, she drove Liang Weiyi's car over and waved at Zhao Yu,

“Zhao Yu, get in the car!”

“Oh!”

Zhao Yu was overjoyed. He immediately ran in front of the car and rushed into it. After getting into the car, Miao Ying immediately stepped on the gas and chased after Liang Weiyi's van ...

“How did this happen?!” Miao Ying was driving as she shouted in disbelief, “who the hell is he? How did he break free from the handcuffs? How did he launch the attack? We've already searched his body!”

“Special Agent!” Zhao Yu replied quickly, “so many passports, so much money, so many killing tools. He's definitely a Special Agent! Damn it, he killed two of our colleagues, we can't let him get away!”

“Ah?” Miao Ying was shocked, and immediately drove at the fastest speed.

At that time, Zhao Yu had even prepared his own aircraft and invisibility cloak from his device bar. If the car couldn't catch up with the suspect, he would take extreme measures.

No matter what, he couldn't let this dangerous guy escape!

However, when Miao Ying drove past the intersection to chase after the cargo van, the two of them suddenly realized that there was no one in the cargo van!

Damn it!

“F * ck!” Miao Ying cursed and immediately stepped on the gas to catch up. When she got there, there was no one in the van.

“Stop the car! Stop the car!” Miao Ying drove past the cargo van, then suddenly turned the front of the van and forced it to a stop.

“Hey, what are you guys doing? Don't you want to live? We almost hit it!” The truck driver broke out in a cold sweat and couldn't help but complain. But when he saw Miao Ying and Zhao Yu's guns, he was so scared that he didn't dare to say anything.

Zhao Yu quickly got out of the car and opened the door of the van. The van was full of drinks, so it was almost impossible to hide anyone.

Then, he checked the roof, the bottom, and the cockpit again, but there was still no sign of the suspect.

“Phew ... Phew ...”

Zhao Yu was panting heavily. He never expected that in the blink of an eye, Liang Weiyi had disappeared. He tried hard to recall the situation just now, trying to find the direction in which the suspect might have escaped.

"It should be ..." Miao Ying thought quickly and said, "the place that we just turned the corner?"

"Did you jump from there?"

"But there are no green belts on both sides of the road. The view is wide. It's impossible that we can't see it in one or two seconds, right?"

"There was no big car passing by just now, so he couldn't have changed to another car so quickly. This B * stard ..." Suddenly, Zhao Yu remembered something. He slapped his thigh and said to Miao Ying, "Oh, we forgot!" There's a bridge hole at the corner!"

"A bridge?" Miao Ying suddenly understood what Zhao Yu meant and said, "above the bridge hole is a bridge. You mean ... He climbed up? Is it possible to climb up a bridge from a high-speed car?"

"Whether it's possible or not ..." Zhao Yu shook his head regretfully. "We have no way of catching up to him! "Let's go ..." Zhao Yu waved his hand. "There's a surveillance camera at the bridge. We'll see!"

Hearing Zhao Yu's words, Miao Ying had no choice but to return to the accord and drive the car back.

At this time, Captain Li had also rushed over in a taxi. Seeing that Zhao Yu and the other man had not caught the criminal, he immediately applied to the higher-ups to start a wanted order in the city.

"My ... My colleagues said," on the way back to the dental clinic, Li Yanxia said excitedly to Zhao Yu and Zhao Yu, "they didn't know how the suspect unlocked the handcuffs. However, someone saw that he had a black, sharp object in his hand. That should be his weapon!"

"Maybe ... It's some kind of steel needle?" Miao Ying was confused. "It could be hidden in his belt, or...Or...Sigh ..."

When she saw her three colleagues lying in a pool of blood, Miao Ying was speechless.

The ambulance arrived very quickly. When Zhao Yu and the other two returned to the clinic, the ambulance was already treating the only surviving police officer.

Zhao Yu told Captain Li about the bridge and asked him to get the video to check the suspect's escape route.

However, at that moment, a Criminal Police officer suddenly ran over with an evidence bag.

"Captain, leader ..." He raised the evidence bag in front of everyone and said, "the phone is ringing! It rang! This is the suspect 's!"

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu immediately opened the evidence bag and took out the phone inside. This phone belonged to the suspect, Liang Yiyi.

Then, Zhao Yu glanced at Miao Ying. After the two of them exchanged glances, Zhao Yu pressed the speaker button and answered the phone.

“Hey!” In the end, the voice that suddenly rang on the phone made everyone’s heart tighten again. Because the person on the phone was none other than Liang perseverance himself!

Chapter 1396: The fugitive’s request

Zhao Yu had solved many cases, but he had never seen such a crazy criminal. The suspect Liang Weiyi had just escaped, and he still dared to call him. It was really illogical.

Zhao Yu even thought that he had heard wrong. The man’s voice on the phone was just similar to Liang Yiyi ‘s.

However, when the other party spoke the specific content, Zhao Yu and the others could no longer have any doubts.

“Police, listen up ...” Liang Weiyi emphasized his words over the phone, “give me back my skull!” Otherwise ... You’ll regret it!”

“I’ll F * ck you ...”

Zhao Yu wanted to curse a few hundred times, but at the critical moment, reason prevailed. He had a feeling that there must be a reason why Liang Weiyi had called him so quickly and asked for the skull in such a hurry.

Thus, he suppressed his anger and pretended to be stupid, “Which skull? Whose is it?”

As Zhao Yu was speaking, Captain li Yanxia was extremely anxious. As he did not bring any tracking equipment, he was still unable to track the source of the mobile phone signal.

However, Zhao Yu knew that there was a professional signal tracker in his device. He had already used one and was locating the other party.

“You don’t have to pretend to be confused,” Liang Weiyi said fiercely, “you should know which skull it is!”

“Okay, I know.” The tracking device needed time to locate him, so Zhao Yu started to stall for time. “The skull is with me, come and get it!”

“Hmph,” Liang Weiyi snorted coldly and said gloomily, “cut the crap, how about we make a bet?” Write down an address, No. 267, tangyu village ...”

“What? What bird village? What number is it?” Zhao Yu played dumb.

“It’s your problem if you can’t hear me,” Liang Weiyi continued, “I’m going there to kill someone. If you can save him before I do, I’ll turn myself in!”

“But if you can’t save him, then you have to return the skull to me!!!”

Ah?

The police officers couldn’t help but frown upon hearing Liang perseverance’s words. No one had ever encountered such a strange thing before. A fugitive actually had the guts to make a bet with the police, and it was such a weird bet?

“What? What’s that?” In order to stall for time, Zhao Yu played dumb. “Can you say that again? The signal isn’t that good?”

Ka!

However, the other party hung up the phone without hesitation. As the time was too short, they couldn’t even locate Zhao Yu’s signal tracker.

“Motherf * cker!”

Zhao Yu quickly picked up his phone and looked at it. He saw that there was still a caller ID in the call record, and it was an ordinary phone number.

He immediately called back, but the phone was already busy.

“How did this happen?” Captain li Yanxia frowned and said, “Tang fishing village is in yanghai County! At least 40 kilometers ... What did that mean? Why did he kill people in Tang fishing village? Who should I kill?”

Just now, Miao Ying was worried that there was no recording on the phone, so she had already recorded the call with her own phone. At this moment, she replayed Liang Weiyi’s words again.

“No. 267 in tangyu village ... I’m going there to kill someone ...”

“Listen ...” Miao Ying said. “When Liang Weiyi was talking, I heard a bell ringing!”

“Strike the bell? “Wow ...” Captain li pointed to the North in surprise and said, “the church! There’s a Catholic Cathedral there, so the bell must have come from there! It’s at most 300 to 400 meters away. It’s ... It’s too close!”

After that, Captain li quickly gathered his men and wanted them to go to the church to check.

However, Zhao Yu raised his hand to stop him.

“It’s no use. He can’t stay there!”

“That’s true ...” Captain Li said anxiously. “He made a bet with us that he was going to kill someone, so he must have already set off!” 40 kilometers is not a short distance, we can definitely get there before him!

“Moreover, we can use traffic control and set up checkpoints to search ... I don’t believe he can fly over!”

“Wait!” Zhao Yu raised his hand and said, “don’t worry, let me think about it. We can’t just believe him just because he said he wanted to go somewhere to kill people, right?”

“Hmm ...” Everyone fell silent after hearing this.

“This ... This ...” Zhao Yu’s mind was racing as he pointed at the air and said, “this could be a trick to lure the Tiger away from the mountain! The criminal was so cunning. Perhaps his focus ... Was only on the skull! Skull ...” He quickly asked, “where’s the skull?”

“Here!” Captain li turned around and took the backpack from another police officer. He handed it to Zhao Yu and said, “fortunately, I was holding onto it when the accident happened!”

Zhao Yu was still worried, so he immediately opened his backpack. Only when he saw that the skull was safe and sound did he let out a sigh of relief.

"Yes, I had the same feeling," Miao Ying said. "When the criminal mentioned the skull, his tone was slightly different. He must have cared a lot about it! Therefore, his target was the skull!"

Buzz ... Buzz ...

As soon as Miao Ying finished speaking, several police cars arrived at the scene. They were all reinforcements sent by the police station.

After more than ten police officers got out of the car, they immediately rushed to report to Zhao Yu. Li Yanxia, of course, knew them, and immediately introduced them to Zhao Yu.

"How about this!" Zhao Yu ordered, "if it's really a trick to lure the Tiger out of the mountain, then he will either come back to snatch the food from the Tiger's mouth, or find a way to make a move on our way to Tang fishing village!"

"So, we'll do the opposite!" "Captain li," Zhao Yu said, "just send me a team of people. We'll go to Tang fishing village to check out the situation."

"Team leader Miao," he said to Miao Ying, "I'll leave the skull to you. Don't rush to send it back to the police station. You guys set up an ambush here in case the guy comes back!"

"Mm ..." Although Miao Ying wanted to go with Zhao Yu, she thought of the urgency of the case and nodded in agreement.

"Captain li," Zhao Yu said to li Yanxia, "we're officials, he's a Bandit, we don't have to race with him! Get the nearest police force to the village and have them rush over!"

"Also, check the address given by the fugitive and see who lives there. If it's necessary, you can contact them in advance just in case!"

"Yes! I'll get it done immediately!" Captain li received the order and left.

Zhao Yu closed his backpack and handed it to Miao Ying. At the same time, he said, "Act according to the situation, it's better to be careful!"

"Mm, don't worry!" "Okay!" Miao Ying agreed, then told Zhao Yu, "you be careful too. This criminal is not an ordinary person. If you encounter him, don't use force!"

"Understood!" After Zhao Yu agreed, the people and cars that Captain li had sent over arrived. Zhao Yu gestured to her to relax, then got into his car and left the clinic.

"Sir," after getting in the car, the police officers were on guard. The driver introduced Zhao Yu nervously, "we are 37.5 kilometers away from Tang fishing village. If we take the swirling highway, we can definitely arrive within half an hour!" We've already informed the highway ..."

"Turn right!" Zhao Yu ignored the driver's report, but told him to turn in the opposite direction.

"Sir ... This ... The right turn is wrong!" The driver broke out in a cold sweat.

"I said, 'right turn'!" "Do you understand?" Zhao Yu asked, emphasizing his words.

The driver didn't dare to disobey, so he immediately turned the car to the right. When they reached the overpass, Zhao Yu raised his arm and said, "Alright, stop the car!"

Ah?

The police officers in the car were all dumbfounded. They had no idea what Zhao Yu meant.

Creak ...

The driver had to stop the car. Zhao Yu opened the car door and walked straight to the overbridge!

Chapter 1397: The speed of killing

The clinic was located in the High-tech Zone of Hailan city, which wasn't a bustling area. When Zhao Yu walked onto the bridge, there wasn't a single person on it.

The traffic under the bridge was not as dense as he had imagined. The cars were moving back and forth, as if they had slowed down the pace of the entire city.

After following Zhao Yu onto the bridge, the police officers were naturally anxious and at a loss. They didn't understand why Zhao Yu wanted to come here.

Then, something happened that made them even more confused. Zhao Yu was looking at something on the bridge. He suddenly squatted down and sniffed the railing like a Hound.

This ...

The police officers stared at each other. They wanted to ask, but they were afraid of angering the detective.

Of course, what the police didn't know was that, when Zhao Yu was at the clinic, he had already secretly used an invisible tracking device to track down the smell of the suspect, Liang perseverance.

The function of the invisible tracker was similar to a dog's nose. It could track the suspect by smell.

In the past, when Zhao Yu was solving the Chen sisters 'falling off building case in Qinshan, he had used this device, and it had played a crucial role.

Now, Zhao Yu thought that he could use this device to try and see if there were any new discoveries.

As for the murder bet in Tang fishing village, he did not care much about it. Because he thought that even if the murderer really wanted to kill someone, it was impossible for him to be so brazen as to challenge the police and make a bet.

So, Zhao Yu concluded that the murder bet was just a cover, and that Liang Weiyi must have something up his sleeve.

Moreover, the local police were very close to the scene, so they would definitely be able to arrive at the scene in advance.

When the water is too clear, there will be no fish, and when a person is too anxious, they will lose their wisdom.

This was what Zhao Yu had concluded after his detective experience, so he decided to do the opposite. He wanted to see what kind of tricks Liang Weiyi had up his sleeve.

In the end, when Zhao Yu came to the middle of the bridge and sniffed the railing, the tracking device's indicator light really lit up!

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu couldn't help but be surprised. It seemed that Liang Weiyi had really escaped through the bridge.

Oh ...

He recalled the height of the cargo van, which was just enough for a person to climb up to the overpass.

Moreover, the speed of the cargo van was not very fast at that time. If he had done it himself, he should have been able to succeed.

However, although the suspect's scent was found, the tracker told Zhao Yu that the suspect's scent was very weak, and would completely disappear soon.

It seemed that Liang Weiyi's time on the bridge was very short ...

Zhao Yu looked around and saw that one side of the bridge was connected to the park, while the other side led to a place with more buildings.

At that moment, Zhao Yu didn't need the tracker to know that Liang Weiwen must have chosen the direction where the buildings were more concentrated, because it was easier to escape in a crowded place.

Hence, Zhao Yu didn't think much about it and immediately sped up his pace, following the suspect's smell.

Eh?

The police officers couldn't keep up with Zhao Yu's pace at all. After Zhao Yu had left them far behind, they quickly ran after him.

"Di di di ..."

Just as Zhao Yu walked down the bridge and came to the opposite sidewalk, his mobile phone suddenly rang.

"Team leader Zhao, I've already shared the suspect's phone number with you. If he calls again, you can just use your phone to answer it. I'll give you a hint.

"Also, we've found out that Tang fishing village has been demolished and no one is living there anymore!" Zhao Yu said.

“What?” Although Zhao Yu was already mentally prepared, he was still a little surprised. He asked, “then ... What about number 2 and 7? What’s the situation?”

“No. 267, I’ve checked!” Miao Ying said, “it’s a Zhang family, a fisherman. We’ve located the owner’s mobile phone, and he’s in the relocation house in yanghai County!”

“Oh ... Then ...”

“Captain li has already informed the local police!” Miao Ying understood what Zhao Yu meant and immediately said, “there’s a police station near the placement room. You can arrive at the scene in two minutes!”

“Alright!” Zhao Yu said, “then send someone to investigate this family’s background!”

Although Zhao Yu said that, his mind wasn’t on the phone. He still felt that the murder bet was just Liang Weiyi trying to drag the police’s experience into it. The most important thing was still the tracking in front of them!

“Okay,” Miao Ying said. “Don’t be too anxious, the local police have already set off!”

“Mm, don’t worry, don’t worry ... There’s no hurry ...” Zhao Yu turned around and looked at the accompanying police officers, but saw that they all looked embarrassed ...

After hanging up the phone, Zhao Yu continued to follow the trail. Because the smell signal was not stable, Zhao Yu had to lower his height like a police dog to smell clearly.

Zhao Yu sniffed as he walked, and the few police officers behind him scratched their ears and cheeks, making the scene very awkward.

“This is so strange ...” When Zhao Yu walked into a Commercial Street, he suddenly heard a man’s dejected voice coming from one of the shops. “I left my phone here, how can it be gone?”

“You can continue looking!” The woman in the shop advised, “that broken phone of yours can’t even fit WeChat. No one will pick it up even if you throw it on the street!”

“I did, why is it gone?” The man ran to the door and started to search the counter outside.

“Boss,” Zhao Yu immediately came forward and asked, “does your phone number start from 136? The ending number is a ... Mm ... A 6?”

“Yes ... Yes! “How did you ...” The boss looked up and was shocked to see so many police officers. He was shocked and said in amazement, “police comrades ... You guys came so quickly! I just found out that I lost my phone, and you guys found out before I did ...”

“Sir ...” Seeing this, a police officer finally couldn’t help but ask Zhao Yu, “do you mean that the suspect has been here?”

“Then ...” Another one volunteered, “I’ll go check the surveillance cameras?”

In the end, Zhao Yu only shook his head slightly, then continued to follow the smell.

“Then ... Where’s my phone?” Soon, only the back of the boss was left at the end of the street ...

Then, Zhao Yu took a group of police officers and walked through the business district. After a short walk, the view in front of them suddenly widened, and they came to a small square with a fountain rockery.

Everyone looked up and saw a magnificent cathedral of heaven's Lord in front of them. There was even a big bell built on the top of the Cathedral!

Hu ...

Zhao Yu took a deep breath, then held his breath and carefully searched for the suspect's scent.

In the end, something that disappointed Zhao Yu happened. Just as he reached the bus stop, the smell suddenly disappeared!

Damn it!

Zhao Yu was depressed. The device's manual clearly stated that the invisible tracking device would not work when the target was far away in a vehicle.

However, there was more than one bad thing. He was just thinking about how to adjust the surveillance camera to track the suspect's escape route. But Miao Ying's phone rang again.

"Team leader Zhao, um ..." Miao Ying's voice was low, and Zhao Yu instinctively felt that something was wrong. "After the yanghai County Police station received the order, they immediately informed the nearby patrol officers.

"Now, the police have found Tang fishing village No. 267, where ... Um ..." Miao Ying said with difficulty, "they really found the body of a Pi Xiu there!"

Chapter 1398: The identity of the deceased

The Tang fishing village, yanghai County, Hailan city.

At 10 pm, the scorching sun hung high in the sky. The fishing village, which had been half-demolished, emitted a strong fishy smell.

If he opened a hexagram ... It should at least be a kun hexagram, right?

As Zhao Yu was walking in the fishing village, this thought flashed through his mind. Since he went to the Yu family's old mansion to survey the scene this morning, he had experienced so many shocking changes like a trotting horse lamp!

The case of white bones had become more and more intense, completely beyond his expectations.

Although Zhao Yu was not convinced, he still felt a little awkward because he couldn't get any instructions from the hexagram. He even thought that if he could get a new hexagram, he might be able to prevent Liang Weiwei from running away and save the lives of the two innocent police officers ...

But ... It was too late to say anything now.

"Sir, you're here ..." Seeing Zhao Yu and his team arrive, the person in charge of the local police station immediately came forward to introduce the situation. "Number 267 is a stone house. It has been demolished once before, so it was not easy to demolish, so it was temporarily put aside. I plan to use a machine to demolish it later ...” He said.

“The people from the demolition office said that it’s fishing season now. The fishermen have gone out to sea to fish, and they can’t find suitable workers to start work. So, Tang fishing village has not been moved for more than a month, and it’s in a state of no one watching over it ...”

Zhao Yu listened to the introduction as he followed the person in charge. He soon saw a lonely stone house in the ruins. The house was surrounded by a cordon.

“The deceased is a male!” The person-in-charge continued, “according to your instructions, we only cordoned off the scene and didn’t let the forensic doctors intervene ...”

“Mm ... Very good!” Zhao Yu waved to Zhang Peipei and the others behind him. “My forensic team has arrived. Let’s go and take a look at the scene first!”

“Mm ...” The person-in-charge quickly handed Zhao Yu a medical mask. “Leader, the person has been dead for a long time, so you should put some on!”

“Al! “Such a stinky smell ...” He pointed to the surroundings. “If it wasn’t for the smell of salted fish in the village, I’m afraid the body would have been found long ago!”

“What?” Zhao Yu took the mask and was a little surprised. “She’s been dead for a long time? Didn’t he just get killed?”

“Definitely not ...” The person in charge said with certainty. “A person who just died can’t have rotted so badly!”

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu frowned, deep in thought. If the person had been dead for a long time, it would mean that they had fallen into Liang Weiyi’s trap again. This wasn’t a murder bet at all, but rather, he was simply leading the police to the crime scene.

What was going on?

Who was the person who died in the stone house?

Did Liang Weiwen kill him, or did he have other intentions?

With deep doubts, Zhao Yu followed the person in charge into the stone house.

The body was located in the innermost room of the stone house. Because the window was sealed with wooden boards, the small house was damp and dark, gloomy and terrifying.

After entering the crime scene, Zhao Yu quickly understood that what the person in charge had said was true. He saw that the body that was tied to the chair was indeed highly decomposed. The scene was a ghastly sight.

Other than the dead bodies, there was not much debris in the house, and there were many broken stones and debris scattered on the ground.

The room was so smelly that it was almost suffocating. Even Zhao Yu, who had seen many things, felt his stomach churning and extremely uncomfortable.

“Team leader, let me do it!”

After Zhao Yu finished looking at the scene, Zhang Peipei, the forensic doctor, appeared with her assistant. They were used to seeing such corpses, even more than Zhao Yu.

“The deceased is a male ...” Zhang Peipei began to examine the external physical signs and asked the assistant to record the results. “Between the ages of 35 to 45 years old ...”

“There were many obvious cuts on the victim’s body, and there was a cross on her thigh ...”

“The deceased’s cheekbone is sunken, and at least four of his ribs are broken. The bones of his left hand are shattered, which may have been caused by a heavy blow ...”

“Oh ...” After hearing Zhang Peipei’s report, the person-in-charge muttered in a low voice, “this man ... Was tortured to death!”

“No!” Unexpectedly, Zhao Yu replied with certainty, “he must have been lynched! If they were really tortured to death, it would be much worse. For example, chopping off their hands, feet, nose, tongue, eyes ... That would be torture!”

“Oh ... This ...” The person in charge was frightened. “Is there a difference?”

“Of course there’s a difference!” Zhao Yu pointed at his eyes. “Everyone has a sound mind. If you force a confession out of someone, it’s not appropriate to cripple them!”

“Take my eyes as an example. If someone wanted me to say something and dug out my eyes, I would probably have a death wish because of my sound consciousness, so it would be even more impossible for me to confess honestly!”

“I’ll think, since I’ve lost my eyes, I’ll just die!”

“Therefore, no one extorts a confession by force with the purpose of crippling a person. They only want the victim to suffer a little! “Look ...” Zhao Yu pointed at the corpse inside. “A bloody cross was made on the thigh. It looks scary, but it’s not fatal!”

“Oh ... That is to say ...” The person-in-charge pondered for a moment, then said, “the murderer wanted to know something from the deceased?” It’s so strange!”

“There are even stranger Things! Team leader Zhao said, “at this time, Zhang Peipei said from inside the house, “look, there are no fingerprints on the deceased’s fingers!”

“Oh?”

Zhao Yu was surprised and immediately came closer to take a look. Under the light of the flashlight, there were indeed no fingerprints on the deceased’s fingers, they were all flat.

“These were all removed a long time ago, so they were not done by the murderer,” Zhang Peipei said. “I saw this situation in the forensics records. The fingerprints should have been washed off with some kind of corrosive acid, which was a primitive, simple, and crude method!”

“When DNA technology was popularized, these people suffered in vain! We only need a strand of hair, even a little bit of skin, to confirm their identity!”

“So ...” Zhao Yu asked, “this person should be a fugitive?” You erased your fingerprints because you had a criminal record in the police station?”

“That’s not necessarily the case. I can only say that it’s a very high possibility!” Zhang Peipei said, “maybe he erased his fingerprints to do something illegal and didn’t want to leave any evidence?”

“No way ...” Hearing this, Zhao Yu couldn’t help but think of the word “Special Agent” again.

Could it be ... That this was another secret agent?

Liang perseverance was a secret agent, and so was the victim?

What was he trying to do?

Since there was really a dead person in the stone house, it meant that Liang Weiyi wasn’t just trying to scare the police, nor was he trying to distract them.

Did a dead person ... Represent something? Could it be ... A clue that represented the white bone case?

“Team leader Zhao,” Zhang Peipei continued to examine the body and introduced to Zhao Yu, “this person has a large number of tattoos on his body ...

“In addition to the tattoos, there are scars ... These scars ...” She carefully examined them and said, “there are knife wounds, burns, and ... I think they are scars left behind by bullets?”

Chapter 1399: evil deboned

In the Special Investigation Group’s temporary office at the Hailan police station.

It was late at night, and the moon was bright. Through the office’s floor-to-ceiling window, one could see the excellent moonlight.

“Yes, you can think of it this way ...” Gao Facai sat on his computer chair and said seriously, “this is the only reasonable explanation I can come up with based on the current situation of white bones!”

“In fact, this method of removing the bones was not the original creation of the criminal ...” Gao Facai massaged his temples tiredly. “Our forensic science mentors used this method before. The purpose was to let students have a clearer understanding of the changes in the different stages of the skeleton, especially in the early stages of the human body’s death ...”

“Wow ... That’s crazy!” Ran Tao looked embarrassed and said, “fortunately, it’s not dinner time. It’s so disgusting!”

“So ...” Miao Ying asked, “what Gao Facai means is that, after the murderer killed the person, he deliberately provided an environment with the most suitable temperature and humidity for the maggots to breed, and then used the maggots to quickly deboned?”

“Yes, the reproduction of maggots is equivalent to fission. If the environment is suitable,” Gao Facai said calmly. “It will only take about a month to get a complete skeleton!”

"F * ck ... This ..."

The scene was dead silent. No one made a sound.

"I carefully checked the villa that the suspect used to live in," Gao Facai said. "It was the villa opposite the Yu family's old house!"

"There is a bathtub in the bathroom on the second floor. I detected corpse oil in the bathtub, so I suspect that ..." Gao Facai glanced at the crowd and said calmly, "that's where the suspect used to remove his bones!"

"However, the criminal may have used something like plastic to cover up the scene, so there wasn't much corpse oil left at the scene, and it couldn't be used for regular testing!"

"Heavens! This is too terrifying!" Cui Lizhu asked, "then what are we waiting for? Hurry up and dig three feet deep into the villa, maybe the remaining bones of the deceased are buried there!"

"We've already done that, Lizhu!" Miao Ying said helplessly, "but the murderer was so careful that he might not have left the rest of the bones in the villa."

"Why?" Ran Tao shook his head. "Killing an innocent person, taking her bones, and then combining them with someone else's ... Why?" he asked.

"Gao," Zhao Yu asked Gao Facai, "where's the skull? Have you tested it? What's the situation?"

"Right!" Miao Ying said, "Liang Weiyi is very concerned about the skull. The owner of the skull must have a close relationship with him!"

"We've extracted the DNA, and we've already sent it for comparison!" "Yes," Gao Facai replied. "But, from the hardening of the skull, it seems to have been there for longer than other bones."

"And ..." He said steadily, "the skull also belonged to a woman! We've compared the skulls' DNA with the other three skeletons. The sequences are completely different!"

"Tsk tsk ..." Zhao Yu smacked his lips. "That is to say, in the white bone case, there were at least four victims?"

"Including the one we found in the fishing village, that's five dead!" Cui Lizhu said, "we're here for real. There's a big case as soon as we arrived!"

"Since the skull is older and very important to the suspect, and it's a woman ..." Miao Ying suddenly thought of something. "Could it be that Liang Weiyi was using someone else's skeleton to help the owner of the skull release the soul?"

"That makes sense. The deliberate handling of the bones and the many totems and talismans at the scene must be related to feudal superstitions!" Cui Lizhu guessed, "I think that the skull should be the murderer's lover. The murderer couldn't find the torso of his lover, so he killed other women and used their bones as a sacrifice for his lover!"

"Didn't you say that one of them was a model?"

“Aren’t you being a little too freakish?” Ran Tao retorted, “since you’re looking for a body for your lover, why don’t you just kill one? Why did you kill three?”

“Then ...” Cui Lizhu insisted on her own opinion. “Could it be that the religion of the murderer had such a requirement?” For example, he had to have three of them before he could ascend to heaven? By the way, what ... What sect is that?”

After Cui Lizhu said that, everyone couldn’t help but look at Zeng Ke, because he had always been responsible for the Poto religion.

“No...” Zeng Ke picked up his laptop and said helplessly, “the information I can find is too little. The religion is almost extinct on earth. I can only find that it is still believed in some small islands in Indonesia.”

“Team leader, do you think it’s necessary for us to send someone to Indonesia?”

“We’ll see ... If there’s no progress in the case, we’ll have to send someone! Zhao Yu asked Zeng Ke, “what about the identities of the other two skeletons?” You haven’t received confirmation yet?”

“Yes,” Zeng Ke said, shaking his head. “In the missing person database, there was no match!”

“Then ...” Zhao Yu turned to Miao Ying and asked, “what about the dead in the stone house? Is there no confirmation?”

Seeing Miao Ying nod, Zhao Yu suddenly felt disappointed. Ever since he became a detective, he rarely felt as helpless as he was today.

Not only had they seen the criminal, but they had also caught him, yet he had run away ...

Before this, Zhao Yu had already ordered his men to check all the surveillance cameras near the church. Although they managed to capture quite a few shots of Liang Weiyi, they all disappeared without a trace.

From this, it could be seen that Liang Yiwen was very familiar with the surveillance facilities in that area.

“Don’t worry,” Miao Ying said, seeing that Zhao Yu was a little anxious. “Qiongzhou is an island, after all. If we can’t find a DNA match, we’ll compare it with the video from the entire province. We’ll definitely be able to identify the body in the stone house!” She said.

“Yup!” Captain Li Yanxia said, “after all, we have the suspect’s image now. He’s wanted by the entire province, so he won’t be able to hide for long!”

In fact, the reason why Zhao Yu was anxious was not because he was really worried about the case, but because there were police casualties that day.

Although Liang Weiyi’s escape and murder had happened so suddenly, without any warning, Zhao Yu still blamed himself. He thought that if he had been more careful, he might have been able to avoid the two police officers “misfortune.”

Buzz ... Buzz ...

Suddenly, Zhao Yu’s phone vibrated.

When he opened it, he saw that there was no caller ID on the screen. It was an unknown number.

What the ...

Seeing that it was unknown number, Zhao Yu suddenly became nervous, because Zhao Yu's phone was connected to Liang perseverance's phone number. It was very likely that Liang perseverance was calling.

When the others saw this, they also became silent as if they were facing a great enemy.

Miao Ying quickly gestured for Zhao Yu to answer, which meant that she had already prepared a GPS device. As long as Liang Weirong called, they would be able to locate the other party's position the fastest.

So, Zhao Yu put his phone on the table, carefully pressed the answer button, and turned on the hands-free function.

"Hey, Zhao, what do you mean?" "I've already found you the best instructor," Miao kun said. "Why did you go to Qiongzhou again?"

"Why didn't you tell me?" "It's just a small case. Why would you go there?" Miao kun asked. You're a great detective!

"Hurry up and come back. Just leave the case to my daughter ..."

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu was shocked. He quickly picked up his phone, turned off the speaker, and shouted, "Boss, oh no, dad, Oh ... Father-in-law, don't mess around!"

"This isn't a small case. It's fine if we can do it a few days later, but my case can't wait. Listen to me ..."

Toot ...

Toot ...

Just as Zhao Yu was trying to play dumb, his phone toot again. This time, the phone clearly showed a calling number, but the number was unfamiliar.

"Father-in-law, I'll contact you later. I have business to attend to now, so I'm hanging up!" Zhao Yu did not wait for Miao kun's response. He immediately hung up the phone and answered the call.

"Oh ... That's interesting ..." After picking up, a cold and deep voice suddenly came from the phone. "I'm clearly calling myself, so why would I occupy the line?"

"Ah!?"

Zhao Yu suddenly recognized the deep voice as the murderer's willpower!

Chapter 1400: real target

"What do you think, police?" Liang Weiyi said coldly over the phone, "you've lost! Give me back my skull!"

“You still have the cheek to say that?” Zhao Yu was furious. “You killed the man more than a month ago, and you still want to bet with us? how can we be faster than you?”

Then, Zhao Yu deliberately paused to see the other party’s reaction. If the other party retorted, perhaps the murderer was someone else; However, if the other party didn’t refute it, it was enough to prove that Liang Weiwen was the one who killed him.

In the end, after Zhao Yu stopped, the other party did not make a sound, nor did he refute or admit to it.

“Hmph, you’re clearly cheating and not following the rules. You should be eliminated!” Zhao Yu continued to shout, “so, come to the police station now and turn yourself in!”

As Zhao Yu was speaking, Miao Ying had already made an OK gesture with her phone, which meant that she had located the other party.

Then, she immediately called Captain Li Yanxia out of the office and began to deploy the police force to attack.

“Hmph ...” Liang Weiyi snorted coldly, and continued to speak in that cold and scary tone, “don’t be so anxious, police officer, our game has just begun!

“Since we didn’t decide a winner in the first round, let’s have another round!”

“Eh? “You ...” Zhao Yu was surprised and asked, “what do you mean? Another round?”

“What I mean is simple,” Liang Weiyi said, “you guys should check the house where the body was found!

“I know that there’s a very smart person in your police force. Otherwise, you wouldn’t have found my clinic before I carried out my plan!

“So, I’m very happy to play this game with you! Let’s see if you’re willing to return the skull to me in the end! Hmph, Hmph, Hmph ...”

“Wahaha ...” Before Liang Weiyi could sneer, Zhao Yu laughed wildly. “Liang Weiyi, what are you thinking?

“Are you threatening us?

“Who Do You Think You Are? I’m telling you, if you don’t turn yourself in to the police before dawn tomorrow, your little liver skull might be turned into ashes by the drill bit because of an error in sampling!”

“You dare!” Hearing Zhao Yu’s threat, Liang Weiyi panicked. He lost his calm and cold demeanor and started to roar, “I’m warning you, if you dare touch the skull, I’ll kill one person every hour! Every hour! I mean what I say, I ... Um ... Um ...”

All of a sudden, Liang Weiyi seemed to have realized something, and he immediately stopped his gaffe. In a tone of admiration, he said, “Oh ... I see, the smart person in the police force is you! You’re testing me!”

"If you're so concerned about the skull," Zhao Yu said in a deep voice, "it means that the skull is someone very important to you! You just said that we found your clinic before you could carry out your plan and ruined it!

"This means that it was an accident that we obtained the skull. At that time, the skull was already in your backpack, so you might have wanted to leave with it!

"How about it? if you want the skull back, you should at least show your sincerity, right?"

"Oh?" Liang Weiyi was slightly surprised. He asked curiously, "what sincerity?"

"Mm ..." Zhao Yu said without thinking, "didn't you want to play decryption with us? Alright, I'll keep you company.

"But, you should at least tell me about the White bones!"

The other party did not speak, as if he was trying to figure out what Zhao Yu meant.

"You killed three innocent models and pieced them together with your beloved skull!" Zhao Yu continued, "could it be ... That this is also your decryption game?"

"Do you think that by piecing together the bones, you can resurrect the person you love? Tell me!" Zhao Yu suddenly shouted, "do you really believe in your potato religion that much? Are you the Grand Elder or the Grand priest?"

After Zhao Yu finished speaking, the other side fell silent for a few seconds, then Liang Weiyi's cold voice came through,

"Hmph ... You guys ... You're really something ..." Liang Weiyi's voice was so deep that it sounded like it came from the grave. "I'm guessing that you're not an ordinary police officer, right?"

"I'm looking forward to our next confrontation!"

"I'm looking forward to it too, but ... Hey...Hello ..." Zhao Yu said pretentiously, but he didn't expect the other party to suddenly hang up.

"Motherf * cker!"

Zhao Yu cursed angrily. The reason why he had said so much just now was to delay the call, so that Miao Ying and the others could arrive at the scene as soon as possible to capture Liang perseverance.

However, he didn't expect Liang Weiyi to hang up so early.

"Decryption game ..." Cui Lizhu said in surprise. "He asked us to check the house where the body was found. That stone house?" she asked. "Did he leave any clues in there?"

"Yeah ..." Zeng ke quickly operated the computer and showed the picture of the scene in the stone house to the big screen.

"The body in the stone house ..." Zhao Yu picked up a pen and drew a horizontal line on the information that was already filled with writing, connecting Liang perseverance and the body together. "Liang perseverance must have killed him!"

“The case of white bones must also be related to the potato religion!” Zhao Yu said with certainty, “so, we have to send someone to Indonesia to understand the teachings of this mysterious religion, which might be of great help to solve the White bones case!”

“And ...” Zhao Yu used a pen to point at a name on the whiteboard, then said, “I have a feeling that the origin of the whole case is Qianqian!”

“Oh ... Yu zhengran?” Cui Lizhu asked, “you mean, the whole case is related to the disappearance of Yu zhengran’s family 13 years ago?” This could be a great revenge?”

“In that case ...” Wu Xiumin said. “We can start with Yu zhengran, and see if the body in the stone house is related to his family ...”

“Or maybe ...” Suddenly, Zhao Yu seemed to have thought of something, but before he could say it, his phone suddenly rang.

This time, the call was from Miao Ying.

“Zhao Yu, something’s wrong!” Miao Ying said quickly, “we found the location of the signal source. It’s an ordinary mobile phone. It was found in a flower bed on a basketball court one kilometer away.”

“One kilometer ... That close?!” Zhao Yu was surprised.

“My phone is locked, but when I picked it up just now, it felt like the call had just ended. But the basketball court is locked, and there’s no one around. I keep feeling ...”

“Shit!” Suddenly, Zhao Yu jumped up, took out his pistol, and shouted at Ran Tao, “Ran Tao! Quick ... Quick, quick, quick ... Autopsy room ... Skull! His target is the skull, the skull!”

Then, without waiting for Ran Tao’s response, Zhao Yu rushed out of the office and went straight to the autopsy room.
