

Crazy 1401

Chapter 1401: puzzle?

Miao Ying rushed back to the door of the autopsy room at the hailand police station. She panted and said to Zhao Yu, "the password to the phone has been unlocked. There's a software similar to a wireless communication device installed in it, so the suspect can control the phone remotely from another phone."

"So, when Liang Weiyi was talking to you, he didn't have to be at the basketball court!"

"I see ... It's indeed the work of a Special Agent!" Zhao Yu asked, "then ... Can the technical staff locate the other mobile phone?"

"I've located it, but it didn't succeed!" "The other phone," Miao Ying said. "It's very likely that Liang will power destroyed it!"

"Aiyo, you scared me to death, you scared me to death!" At this time, Zeng ke came out of the autopsy room, took Zhang Peipei's hand, and said, "I thought the murderer would run to the autopsy room to grab the skull!" That guy kills without blinking. If he really comes in, you'll be in danger!"

"Yeah ..." Gao Facai said, covering his heart. "It really scared me. It's good that Peipei is fine, it's good!"

"What are you guys talking about?" "This Is the Police station!" Zhang Peipei said as if nothing had happened.

"It's exactly because it's the police station that we might have fallen into his trap!" Zhao Yu said with certainty, "no wonder Liang Weiyi called me for such a long time!"

"It turns out that he was waiting for us to locate his mobile phone so that he could lure the snake out of its hole!" Zhao Yu said, "paralyze our nerves first, then make a surprise attack! Who would've thought that he would dare to come to the police station and steal the skull?"

"Oh ... I see," Zeng ke said. "What he said on the phone about leaving clues at the scene of the stone house was actually to draw our attention away from the autopsy room so that we could study the photos of the scene! How sinister ..."

"But ..." Cui Lizhu said, puzzled. "Boss, aren't you guys a little nervous? He didn't come, did he?"

"The skull is still there, and Dr. Zhang is fine. That means the kid didn't come in at all!"

"Nonsense!" Zhao Yu said, "I'm not a good detective for nothing. Don't I know how important skulls are?"

"Look ..." Zhao Yu pointed to the dozen armed guards on both sides. "I've transferred the Special Forces here this morning. Wherever the skull goes, they'll follow!"

"Oh ..." Seeing that Zhao Yu was prepared, everyone was relieved.

"Officer Zhao, officer Zhao ..." Just as Zhao Yu finished speaking, Captain Li Yanxia quickly ran over and reported, "the security Department just captured a suspicious scene from the surveillance video."

“Ten minutes ago, a police officer in uniform appeared outside the small parking lot, but he quickly disappeared! “Look ...” He showed Zhao Yu a picture taken from the video.”This person ... Looks like the suspect, Liang perseverance!”

“Heavens! He’s really here!” One sentence, and everyone was stunned.

Zeng ke could not help but hold Zhang Peipei’s hand even tighter, and Zhang Peipei changed from her previous nonchalant attitude to one of nervousness ...

“He’s wearing an earpiece!” Zhao Yu pointed at the photo and said,”ten minutes ago, he was still on the phone with me! It should be him, he’s talking to me on a remote phone with an ear-mic ...”

“Then ... Then why didn’t he come in? “Or ...” Miao Ying subconsciously grabbed the handle of the gun and looked around nervously.”Has he already come in?”

“I ... I’ll enforce martial law and check everyone!” Captain li hurriedly picked up his phone and pretended to make a call.

“Wait a minute,” Zhao Yu stopped him and shouted,”don’t panic, stay calm!” Let me ask you, what’s the meaning of “outside the small parking lot”?”

“The small parking lot is the special entrance for police cars in our police station,” Captain li explained.”The staff all use the main entrance!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu thought about it carefully.”It seems like Liang Weiyi was planning to sneak into the police station from there, then go and get the skull!

“But ... He might have heard something from the phone, so he gave up in the end!

“Otherwise, when Miao Ying and the others left the police station, he would have already sneaked in and made a move. He wouldn’t have said so much to me!”

“Then ...” Ran Tao was confused,”what did he hear?”

“Do you still need to say that?” Cui Lizhu patted Zhao Yu’s shoulder.”He must have heard from our conversation that boss was a powerful person. He must have guessed that boss was already on guard, so he retreated!”

“Indeed!” Zhao Yu said regretfully,”if I had known, I wouldn’t have said so much! If we just lure him into the trap, he might have already been caught!”

“No matter what ...” Miao Ying said.”We can’t let Liang Weiyi threaten us like a ghost. Captain li, this is not a small matter. We have to put the entire city under martial law and search everywhere!”

“This ... I have already applied to the higher-ups ...” Captain Li said, embarrassed.”I think ... You should contact our leader!”

“What, is it because of the tourist city? No way, even a police officer was killed! That’s an extremely vicious criminal!” Miao Ying shook her head in disbelief.”He could kill again at any time!”

“Didn’t you hear what he said to team leader Zhao on the phone? If he didn’t get the skull, he would kill one person every hour! Do you think your municipal or provincial units can bear the consequences?”

"This ... I ..." Li Yan Xia was speechless.

"Team leader Miao!" Zhao Yu said in a hurry, "don't make things difficult for Captain li. He doesn't have the right to make the decision! Listen to me, you'd better quickly apply to the criminal Division for an emergency plan. It won't take too much time!"

"Yes, yes, yes ..." Li Yanxia nodded in relief.

"Captain li!" Zhao Yu continued, "we will be in charge of coordinating the higher-ups. However, it's still necessary to keep the city on high alert. From what I can tell, Liang Weiyi won't leave Harland until he gets the skull.

"So, it's necessary for us to restrict his freedom. We can't let him threaten our police station like he did today! If we let him succeed, we'll all become a joke!"

"Yes, I understand, I understand very well!" Captain li nodded and said, "I'll go through the police station first to ensure our safety!"

After that, Captain li immediately led his men downstairs.

Then, Zhao Yu contacted the person in charge of the special police team and asked them to confirm the identity of each special police member, then continue to guard the autopsy room.

After all the arrangements were made, the Special Investigation Group members returned to the office to continue investigating the case. Just in case, Zhao Yu asked Ran Tao to stay with Gao Facai and Zhang Peipei.

"I can't believe that he turned the world upside down by himself!" "I really want to catch him now and see who he is," cui Lizhu said. Oh no, who is this demon?"

"So ..." Zeng ke pointed to the big screen and said, "the clues left in the stone house are just a cover?" Is he just trying to draw us away?"

"That's not necessarily true ..." Zhao Yu frowned and analyzed, "Liang Weiyi knew that we couldn't give him the skull, but he still wanted to guide us to the body of the stone house. I'm afraid it's not that simple!"

"That's right," Miao Ying said. "Didn't Liang Weiyi tell you over the phone that the game had just begun?"

"Then come, my dear ones!" Zhao Yu pointed to the picture of the crime scene and said, "use your brains and see what kind of puzzle this Liang perseverance has left for us!"

Chapter 1402: -Iron Bridge

A few hours later, it was already late at night. In the Special Investigation Group office of the Harland police station, the Special Investigation Group members were still working hard.

"I don't understand ..." Cui Lizhu covered her big eyes with her fingers and looked at the photo of the stone house case on the big screen. "There's no graffiti on the wall, and there are only messy stones on the ground. What mystery can there be?"

“Yes ...” Zeng ke said. “There are no obvious characteristics, so it’s hard to guess! I think it’s better to go back to the scene and take a look!”

“I’ve already asked the person in charge of Tang fishing village to re-enter the scene and take a clear video for us!” Miao Ying said, “but we’ll have to wait a little longer.”

“Sister Miao, I think it’s better to go to the scene in person than to take a video,” Zeng ke said. “In case the clues left by Liang perseverance are microscopic, it won’t work even if we take a video!”

“Al!” Cui Lizhu put down her fingers and said dejectedly, “I think we shouldn’t waste all our energy here, okay? It was not certain if there was such a mystery! If Liang Weiyi is deliberately bullshitting with team leader, then we’ll be wasting our energy!”

“No!” Zhao Yu said with certainty, “there must be some clues! Do you still remember what Liang Weiyi told me? He said that he wanted to see if we would return the skull to him at the end of the game.”

“Oh ...” Cui Lizhu seemed to have realized something. “That is to say, you are worried ...”

“Right! “I’m worried that ...” Zhao Yu said with a serious expression. “This is a well-planned conspiracy, and the results of the conspiracy are very serious, enough to threaten us. That’s why he said those words!”

Hearing Zhao Yu’s words, his team members couldn’t help but look worried.

“What are the serious consequences?” Cui Lizhu frowned. “Terrorist attack? Or ... Was it like what Liang Weiyi had said, that he would kill a lot of people? Are you threatening us with murder?”

“Using murder as a threat?” Zeng ke stuck out his tongue and said, “this reminds me of the hasty murder case in Jinping!”

“So ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the picture on the big screen and said, “it’s crucial to solve this mystery. Only then can we guess what Liang Yiliang’s next plan is!”

“But ... Where is the puzzle?” Cui Lizhu’s eyes were wide open as she asked, “boss, have you thought of something?”

“No,” Zhao Yu answered honestly. “I was just thinking about the cross that was cut on the thigh of the corpse! I wonder if the clues left behind by Liang Weiyi are related to this cross!”

“Cross ... Blood cross ...” Cui Lizhu shook her head. “We can’t do that. There are too few clues!”

“Then ...” Miao Ying showed him the picture of the body and asked, “have you seen the other knife wounds on the body? Could it be ... That the murderer’s clue was left on the body with a knife? Should we get the forensic doctor to take a closer look?”

“No need!” Zhao Yu shook his head and said, “I’ve already studied them. The wounds are of different lengths and locations. There are no obvious indications and they were very random. They should have nothing to do with clues ...”

“Hu ...” Zhao Yu took a deep breath and said, “I feel that if Liang Weiyi really left some clues, it wouldn’t be too complicated. It should be very obvious ...”

“Did we ... Miss something?”

“I really want to know,” Cui Lizhu said, pouting. “What game does this Liang perseverance want to play with us? The entire city is under martial law now, and we’ve set up a net to search for him. He’s just one person, so what earth-shattering things can he do?”

“No!” Miao Ying said solemnly, “Liang Weiyi dared to kill a police officer, so he must have expected that we would put him on the wanted list. But he was still fearless, which means he must have had no accomplices!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded, agreeing with Miao Ying’s judgment.

“Don’t! “One person is hard enough to deal with. If there are more accomplices ... Tsk tsk ...” Cui Lizhu pouted and said to Zhao Yu, “boss ... How about this ... I’ll go to the gangs in Hailan and see if I can get any information?”

“No!” “No!” Zhao Yu said. “The target is a dangerous person. I don’t want something like Jiang Ke’s Prison Break to happen again!”

“All of you, listen up. From now on, no one is allowed to act on their own. All field missions are under my command. I must ensure everyone’s safety!”

“Yes!” Everyone responded.

“By the way, Cui ...” Miao Ying suddenly remembered something and asked Cui Lizhu, “didn’t you go to the Tianfu garden to get some information during the day?” How was it? Did you get anything?”

“Don’t mention it ...” Cui Lizhu shook her head and said. “All I heard were rumors of ghosts, saying how evil and fierce the Yu family’s old mansion was. It was all very evil.

“But, when we talked about Yu Zhengran’s family, we couldn’t get much information,” Cui Lizhu said, blinking her big eyes. “The general situation is that after Yu Zhengran’s family sold the bungalow, they disappeared not long after they lived there. There was almost no communication between the neighbors, so we could only get very little information!”

“Oh, right! The only useful information I got was from an old guard of the Sky Mansion garden!”

“He said that other than the master of Yu Zhengran’s family, the rest of the family didn’t look like Chinese. “Especially ...” She recalled, “especially Yu Zhengran’s granddaughter. He said his granddaughter was very beautiful! She was as beautiful as a fairy ...

“And then ... Nothing else!” Cui Lizhu shook her head. “No one mentioned the tsunami!”

“Then ... How’s Yu Zhengran’s relative doing?” Zhao Yu asked again.

“The DNA has been extracted,” Zeng Ke replied. “But the data is not out yet, so we can’t compare it for the time being.”

Before Zeng Ke could finish his sentence, he suddenly saw Zhang Peipei, the forensic doctor, entering the office under the escort of Ran Tao.

“Team leader Zhao,” Zhang Peipei said to Zhao Yu excitedly, holding a plate. “We found this in the victim’s throat. Please take a look!”

“Ah!?”

Upon hearing this, everyone was shocked and gathered around.

On the plate was a piece of crumpled oilpaper. The oilpaper had been unfolded, and on it was a simple drawing drawn with a ballpoint pen!

“What is this? A bridge?” Cui Lizhu was the first to complain. “The drawing is so rough!”

“Yes, it’s a bridge!” Zeng ke said, “looking at the structure, it should be a suspension bridge or something ...”

“I see ...” Zhao Yu suddenly realized. “Liang Weiyi lied. His clues were in the body, but in order to support us, he asked us to check the scene!”

“This ... Is the real clue to the Tao Wu!!”

“Team leader Zhao, leader ...” Suddenly, the office door opened again, and Captain Li Yanxia rushed in to report, “we’ve checked the police station thoroughly, and there’s absolutely no problem! Hmm ... This is ...”

When he saw the simple drawing on the oil paper, he couldn’t help but be stunned. He asked curiously, “This thing ... Where did you get it? Isn’t this the Iron Bridge of the old mountain?”

“What?” “What Iron Bridge?” Zhao Yu asked.

“Laoshan Iron Bridge,” Captain Li replied, confused. “You can see it as soon as you leave Hailan city. It’s in Laoshan County. The bridge is so rusty that it’s about to collapse. It’s basically abandoned ...”

Chapter 1403: expert explains

At dawn, the Laoshan County Police station finally sent back some news.

The local police, according to the instructions of the Special Investigation Group, found another body in the hole of the Iron Bridge in Laoshan!

According to the news, Laoshan’s Iron Bridge was a must-pass to enter the mountain in the past, but it was gradually abandoned due to road changes and other reasons. The Iron Bridge had also rusted and corroded, facing collapse.

There were few people near the Iron Bridge, and the bodies were hidden in the bridge holes, so the bodies had rotted for many days without anyone finding them.

According to the police’s preliminary report, the body was very similar to the body in the stone house. The deceased was also a man in his forties with many cuts and stab wounds on his body. There were also no fingerprints on the deceased’s fingers.

Surprisingly, after receiving the news, Zhao Yu made an unusual decision.

Logically speaking, if there was one, then there would be three. If Liang Weiyi was really playing a killing game with them, then he would definitely leave another clue at the corpse on the Iron Bridge.

So, as the Special Investigation Team leader, Zhao Yu should go to the scene to investigate it personally.

However, Zhao Yu didn't do that. He left all the crime scene investigation tasks to Miao Ying. He asked Miao Ying to take Zhang Peipei's forensic team, Ran Tao, and others to the scene to collect evidence, while he stayed at the hailand police station.

When Miao Ying and the others set off, the second unusual thing happened.

Zeng ke and cui Lizhu, who stayed at the police station, suddenly realized that Zhao Yu was not writing a few whiteboards of case analysis in one go like he usually did, nor was he frowning in front of the whiteboard, deep in thought. Instead, he had suddenly disappeared!

At first, the two thought that Zhao Yu had gone to the toilet, but after waiting for more than twenty minutes, Zhao Yu still hadn't returned.

"He ..." Cui Lizhu couldn't stand it anymore, so she asked Zeng ke, "where did he go?" Did he go to the autopsy room? It's a little weird ..."

"I don't know!" Zeng ke shook his head. "The team leader has always been unpredictable. Could it be that ... He had already thought of a way to solve the case?"

"But ..." Zeng ke looked at his computer and said, "I still have a lot of things to do!" I'd better do what I'm supposed to do first, don't let the team leader get mad at me!"

"Zeng ke ..." Cui Lizhu jumped in front of Zeng ke's computer and asked, "are you in charge of finding out the identity of the bodies in the stone house?" Now that there's an Iron Bridge, you'll be busy!"

"It's more than that!" Zeng ke shook his head. "It's my business to find out the identity of white bones!" I really don't get it. Since the torso has found its owner, why can't we find the upper and lower limbs?"

"The owner of the torso was a model, right?" "So, the upper and lower limbs should be the same?" cui Lizhu asked.

"At least ..." Zeng ke said. "Peipei said that the length ratio of the upper and lower limbs was close to perfect. So, I guess the deceased must have had a very good body, right?"

"Peipei, Peipei ... That's so mushy ..." Cui Lizhu's eyes widened as she gossiped. "What do you think, Zeng? you two already have a thing going on, right?" Forensic doctor Zhang's figure is quite good, isn't it?"

"What are you saying! You have nothing to do?" Zeng ke blushed and reproached, "we're talking about the deceased. Why did you mention Peipei ... Um ... Why did you mention forensic doctor Zhang?"

"I'm just curious ..." Cui Lizhu stuck out her tongue. "How does it feel to be caressed by a forensic doctor?"

"Hey, cui, are you asking for a scolding?" "What do you mean by that?" Zeng ke asked. "Why don't I tie you up and let the forensic doctors touch you?"

“Hahaha ...” Cui Lizhu laughed evilly. “I was just joking with you!” I’m just trying out an old joke from the TV series to see how you react!

Cui Lizhu patted Zeng ke’s shoulder and said, “alright, I’ve done all my work. I’ll be your assistant!” Tell me, what are we going to do now?”

“Hmph! “That’s more like it ...” Zeng ke calmed down and began to assign tasks to cui Lizhu. Then, the two of them got busy again ...

At the same time, Zhao Yu had not gone far, as he had indeed gone to the bathroom. However, he didn’t go to the washroom to relieve himself, but to make a phone call.

In order not to let anyone interrupt his call, he even locked the bathroom from the inside.

“Hello, father-in-law, hehehe, it’s me ...” Zhao Yu lowered his voice and asked mysteriously, “can you hear me?”

“Nonsense!” A thunderous voice immediately sounded from the phone. “I only have one daughter. Which ghost would call me father-in-law?”

“Hehehe ...” Zhao Yu smiled apologetically and said, “I’m sorry for calling you so late!”

“Bullsh * t,” Miao kun cursed. “Is it this late or this early?” It’s 5:30 in the morning. You gave me a fright, you know?”

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry ...” Zhao Yu said. “I called you so early because I have something to ask you!”

“F * ck, has the sun risen from the West?” Miao kun was surprised. “Since when have you become so humble? is there anything in this world that you don’t know?”

“Don’t say that, I’m not ashamed to ask! “No, no, no...” Zhao Yu was used to blurting out these words, but he quickly corrected her, “I said I’ve always been modest and cautious! Father-in-law, don’t talk nonsense. I’ve encountered a difficult case and I need your help urgently!

“Also, during the investigation, I found a lot of unusual things. I would like to ask you, an expert, to explain ...”

Zhao Yu then told Miao kun the general story of the white bone case.

Although Zhao Yu had informed Miao kun of the case, there were some inappropriate procedures. However, Miao kun was a family member that he could trust.

Secondly, Zhao Yu felt that there were many aspects of the White bones case that were beyond the scope of normal cases. In order to solve the case better, he felt that it was necessary to consult Miao kun, an expert from the Secret Service.

Hence, Zhao Yu not only explained the case to Miao kun, but also sent him the photos of the suspect and the victims.

“Oh ...” After reading the information, Miao kun thought for a while. After more than twenty seconds, he said to Zhao Yu seriously, “from what you said, the group of people you met looked like chaoqi?”

“What ? ”Zhao Yu was stunned and asked,“what’s chaoqi? Gaming software or playing cards?”

Miao kun explained,“chaoqi is a translation of its name. We just like to call it by that name. Its original meaning comes from Malay, which is based on the dialect of liaonai. It means poisonous fangs or snake fangs!”

“Du ya? Snake fangs?” Zhao Yu was confused.

“You still don’t understand?” “The group of people you met, be it the killer or the two bodies, they were not agents, but rather assassins from the Kongtong gang!” Miao kun said.

“Ah? A killer?” Zhao Yu was surprised,“a professional killer?”

“Almost!” Miao kun said,“in addition to killing people, they also do some kidnapping and blackmailing. They were really wild back then!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu nodded.“So, they’re all assassins!”

“But ...” Miao kun changed the topic and said with uncertainty,“the problem is ... Chat seven is a very ancient organization. It was established by the Secret Service about ten years ago!”

“How is it possible ... To suddenly appear again?”

Chapter 1404: The King of Assassins

“I don’t know much about the specific situation. I have to do some research!” Miao kun said solemnly,“I only remember that this ‘chat seven’ organization is related to an ancient and mysterious religion. They are very mysterious, have scary tattoos on their bodies, and are very ruthless!”

“Oh ... Poto religion, is it poto religion?” Zhao Yu’s eyes lit up, and he asked,“a branch of ancient Hinduism? In the Indonesia region?”

“I think so ...” Miao kun said with uncertainty.“The official language of Indonesia is Malay, which is based on the local dialect. Tsk tsk ... This is interesting!”

“We’re monitoring both the inside and outside of the country. This organization has disappeared for many years, so it should be extinct by now. If they show up, there will definitely be information!” “Well, I’ll ask someone later,” Miao kun said.“I only heard that back then, chaoqi was completely annihilated. Was their headquarters ... In Sri Lanka or something?”

“Then ...” Zhao Yu asked again,“what about Yu zhengran? I suspect that the disappearance of Yu zhengran’s family is also related to this organization. Can you help me find his information?”

“I can only give it a try,” Miao kun said.“Since it was more than ten years ago, and Yu zhengran was a rich overseas Chinese who returned to China, it is likely that he is related to shaoqi. In your case, there is obviously a tendency for revenge!”

“Okay, I’ll wait for your news ...” Zhao Yu was about to hang up the phone.

“Wait a moment!” Miao kun quickly stopped Zhao Yu and said,“about the mysterious murderer you mentioned, although I haven’t seen it with my own eyes, I’ve heard of it!”

“The weapon he used was most likely a retractable needle with a Barb at the tip. Once the needle pierced the target and was pulled out, the barb would form a blood drain, quickly killing the target.

“In addition, the needle can be used to open handcuffs ... That thing can change color, and if it turns black, it can even be hidden in the hair!”

“Oh ...” Suddenly, Zhao Yu recalled the situation when he arrested Liang Weiwen. After seeing the police, Liang Weiwen had indeed placed both his hands on the back of Zhao Yu’s head!

It seemed that he didn’t intend to surrender at that time, but hid the mysterious weapon in his hair. How could the police officer who searched him find it in his hair?

“Even so, using such a fine needle to kill someone requires professional training. It’s not easy to master!” Miao kun said solemnly, “the person you encountered is probably not An Ordinary Killer!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu raised his eyebrows and couldn’t help but say, “the King of Assassins?”

“Hmph, you must have watched too many movies!” Miao kun said, “but ... It’s quite an image! However, an assassin of this level would usually keep a low profile and would not kill for no reason to attract attention!

“So, you must be careful. Since he dares to act in such a high-profile manner, it is very likely that he is plotting something! “How about this ...” Miao kun said worriedly. “Hurry up and send a report to your Criminal Division, and let secret services investigate!”

“This case has already exceeded the scope of a normal criminal case!”

Zhao Yu didn’t say anything, obviously having some concerns.

“Little Zhao, human lives are at stake. The enemy is right in front of us. If the other party is not alone, the consequences will be too serious for you and I to imagine!” Miao kun knew what Zhao Yu was thinking and immediately advised him, “you should know very well that this is not a matter of self-esteem or face.

“Otherwise, you wouldn’t have called me today, right?”

Miao kun’s words had hit the nail on the head. It was originally a case of the criminal Division, so if the secret services were to suddenly intervene, it would inevitably be embarrassing.

However, Miao kun was right. The situation was urgent, and the case was indeed beyond the scope of an ordinary criminal case. Zhao Yu could no longer care about his face.

“I understand ...” Zhao Yu nodded and said. “Alright, I’ll go and report it now!”

“Alright!” Miao kun said with satisfaction, “I’ll make the arrangements immediately. I’ll send you the details first, and then send someone to help you!”

“Eh? “Let’s say this first,” Zhao Yu stated his conditions, “ do you still remember the Feng ping incident? You’d better send someone who knows the rules. Don’t let it be like last time, or you know how bad my temper is ...”

“Alright, don’t worry! I know what I’m doing, just wait for the news!” “I promise you,” Miao kun said. “You have to promise me that this criminal is no small matter. Don’t let my daughter go out to the field!”

“I know, I know!” Zhao Yu’s forehead was suddenly covered in sweat, because Miao Ying was already on a field trip ...

Half an hour later, Zhao Yu returned to the office.

Although Miao Ying was out in the field, she was going out with a large group of people, so her safety was naturally guaranteed.

“Boss, are you okay?” Cui Lizhu and Zeng ke were busy comparing the bodies. When they saw Zhao Yu return, she asked with concern, “do you have diarrhea?”

“Coming, coming ...” Cui Lizhu came to Zhao Yu and reported, “I just talked to sister Miao on the phone. They have already seen the body.”

“According to forensic Zhang’s preliminary judgment, the deceased has been dead for about ten days. Like the body in the stone house, her body was cut and stabbed in many places. The cause of death is suspected to be excessive blood loss ...”

“That’s not what I’m asking. Did you get any clues?” Zhao Yu frowned. “Did you check the throat of the corpse?”

“Oh ... No...” Cui Lizhu shook her head. “Sister Miao didn’t say anything!”

“Alright, I’ll ask him myself!” Zhao Yu picked up his phone.

“Team leader,” Zeng ke said, holding his computer. “I just received a notice that the Harland police have found a suspicious missing person. Please take a look!”

As he spoke, Zeng ke played the photos on the computer on the big screen and introduced them, “Meng Kangfei is also a model, and she’s quite famous in the country.

“His family reported that Meng Kangfei went missing three months ago. According to her ticket, her last stop was Hailan!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu looked at the big screen and saw that Meng Kangfei was a very beautiful woman.

“Meng Kangfei is 1.80 meters tall,” Zeng ke said. “She is very similar to the target we are looking for. The police have asked his family to do a DNA test, and the data should be here soon!”

“A!” Cui Lizhu shook her head and sighed. “Another model. Who do you think the model offended?”

Buzz ... Buzz ...

Just as Cui Lizhu finished speaking, Zhao Yu’s mobile phone vibrated. Someone was calling him.

When Zhao Yu's phone rang, Cui Lizhu and Zeng Ke suddenly became very nervous, because this phone call was very likely from the murderer Liang Weiyi.

However, after Zhao Yu picked up, the two of them were relieved. It turned out that this time, it was Miao Ying.

"Zhao Yu," Miao Ying said, clearly excited. "There was nothing in the throat of the deceased, but we found a line of numbers carved with a knife under the body!"

"I think this is a new clue that the murderer left for us ..."

Chapter 1405: The owner of the skull

It was ten in the morning. The sun was shining brightly, and the air was stuffy.

Zhao Yu leaned back in his seat and closed his eyes for a while.

As he used to investigate cases overnight, Zhao Yu was almost used to staying up all night. However, a person's energy was limited, after all. Using the limited time, Zhao Yu still had to rest and conserve his energy.

However, Zhao Yu didn't sleep for long before he was woken up by his phone's vibration. This time, it was Miao Ying who called.

"Team leader Zhao, I found it!" Miao Ying reported, "the string of numbers that the murderer left on the Iron Bridge was indeed a coordinate!"

"We entered the old mountain according to the coordinates and found a cave."

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu frowned. "So ... In the cave ..." He asked.

"That's right," Miao Ying said in a low voice. "The third body appeared! The characteristics of the deceased were almost the same as the previous two, but the body was fresher."

"Forensic doctor Zhang determined that the third victim was only dead for four or five days!"

"You don't have any fingerprints?" Zhao Yu asked again.

"Yes," Miao Ying replied. "The fingerprints are the same as the first two people! But ... Because it was only a short time ago, the appearance of the body is still very clear. I have asked someone to take photos and send them to Zeng Ke later so that he can compare them with the database!"

"Three corpses already!" Zhao Yu frowned and said, "I don't know. Are there any more?"

"I've checked the scene carefully, and I haven't found any new clues yet," Miao Ying said. "The forensic doctor has also checked the mouth and throat of the deceased, but there are no new clues."

"It should end here, right?" Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then said, "if it's four or five days, that's very close to the day that the white bone case was discovered!"

"Yes, I was just about to remind you!" Miao Ying said, "pay attention to Liang Weiyi's phone. I have a feeling that he might contact you again!"

“En!” Zhao Yu gritted his teeth and said, “I won’t be so lucky this time! I’ve already asked the Harland police to prepare for a grid assault. Once the target is found, the police will immediately rush to him. There’s no way he can escape so easily!”

“Okay, then ... Is there still no effect on the investigation?” Miao Ying asked again.

“Yes,” Zhao Yu replied. “I guess it’s useless to cast a net to investigate! Liang Weiyi is different from ordinary criminals, so he must have a secret hideout!”

“In that case,” Miao Ying suggested, “should we report this to the higher-ups? This case has already exceeded a normal criminal case!”

“Don’t worry, I’ve already reported it ...” Then, Zhao Yu told Miao Ying about the conversation he had with his father-in-law.

After Miao Ying heard this, she also had no objections and felt that Zhao Yu’s decision was very correct.

As the saying goes, one knows the tiniest details, but one knows the tiniest details. In such a critical period, the murderer must be caught as soon as possible, not just for the sake of face.

“Okay,” Miao Ying said over the phone, “we’re done with the scene, and we’ll go back home!” We can talk about the other things when we meet!”

After hanging up Miao Ying’s phone, Zhao Yu was no longer sleepy. He immediately walked to the white board and began to add information about the third body.

While he was adding in the information, he was also thinking about the entire case.

As usual, in order to make the case clearer, Zhao Yu analyzed the entire case from the beginning in chronological order.

Of all the deceased, that skull should be the earliest.

According to forensic Gao’s judgment, the owner of the skull must have died at least a year ago!

Secondly, there were the other three victims who were used by the murderer to piece together the bones.

According to the information at hand, the three victims were all women with perfect figures, and the time of death was three months ago.

Not only did the murderer kill them cruelly, but he also used an evil method to quickly remove their bones and obtained their remains.

After that, the murderer pieced the bones together and created this shocking white bone case!

Although the motive of the murderer was still unknown, it could be roughly guessed that the murderer wanted to find a suitable body for the skull to release the dead from purgatory, or use some religious secret technique such as reincarnation.

Then ... Here came the problem ...

Zhao Yu pondered. Since the bones had already been pieced together, why didn't the murderer dispose of the bones, but instead left them in the Yu family's old house?

Did he really think that he could bring the dead back to life just because he had put the bones together?

Or perhaps ...

Then, Zhao Yu turned his attention to the other three bodies.

According to the timeline, the body in the stone house was the earliest to die, probably more than a month ago. Next was tie Qiao's corpse, which had been dead for about ten days. The last was the corpse in the cave, which had only been dead for four or five days.

Then ...

Could there be any other connection between the white bone case and these three corpses, other than the possibility that Liang Weiwen had killed them all?

If Miao kun was right, and the three victims were all related to an extinct killer organization, then why did Liang Weiyi kill them?

Logically speaking, Liang Weiyi was also a member of the assassin organization. So ... Was he killing his own people?

Why did he do that?

The disappearance of Yu zhengran's family, the White bones case, Liang Weiwen, the three corpses, the killer organization, and the mysterious poto religion. What was the hidden connection between these clues?

"Team leader," Wu Xiumin's voice suddenly interrupted Zhao Yu's thoughts. She was holding a stack of documents as she reported to Zhao Yu, "this is the information about Liang Weili's dental clinic. Although it's located in a remote area, business is good, and the reputation is good.

"The police asked more than ten patients, and all of them said that they had a good impression of Liang perseverance. Although he wasn't good at talking, he was very patient and had good skills!"

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu thought for a moment, then asked, "how long has his clinic been open?"

"About a year," Wu Xiumin said. "The clinic's procedures were complete, and the license met the standards, so no one from the industry, commerce, and taxation Bureau has ever investigated him!"

"Leader, leader ... Important news, important news!" Suddenly, Zeng ke ran in from the door, handed another document to Zhao Yu, and said, "leader! The DNA comparison of the skull was out. In the basic sequence, it was exactly the same as Yu zhengran's relatives!

"Quickly take a look, we can now basically conclude that the owner of the skull is related to Yu zhengran by blood! "Phew ... Phew ..." Zeng ke panted and said, "do you remember that Yu zhengran has a granddaughter?"

"According to forensics Gao's analysis, the owner of the skull was a woman in her thirties. Do you think ..." Zeng ke said excitedly, "the owner of the skull is Yu zhengran's granddaughter?"

Ah ...

Hearing this news, Zhao Yu could not help but have goosebumps all over his body.

Du, du, du ...

Just then, someone suddenly knocked on the office door.

“Please, please come in!”

Wu Xiumin quickly opened the door and saw a police officer in uniform.

Zhao Yu recognized him. He was Captain Li Yanxia’s subordinate.

“Leader ... Leader ...” The police officer said, holding an Express Mail. “This is the parcel that the security guard just received. Take a look ... The recipient is ‘police’, and the sender is ‘Liang Yiwen’!!!”

Chapter 1406: The murder puzzle

“We went through a simple security check,” the police officer said, holding the Courier Mail. “At least there were no explosives or electronic components, but we can’t be sure if there was poison or virus powder.”

“Leader, why don’t I inform the explosion team or the bio-experimental Department? Hello ... Leader, leader ...”

Before the police officer could finish his sentence, Zhao Yu tore open the email directly!

“Woohoo ...” The crowd was shocked and took a few steps back.

“It’s just an email. Look at how scared you are!” Zhao Yu grumbled, “don’t forget that the skull is in our hands. At a time like this, there’s no need for Liang Weiwei to play dirty tricks on us!”

As he spoke, he tore open the mail and took out a piece of paper. On the paper, there was a crooked Chinese character written with a colored pen:

“Police, by the time you receive this letter, you should have seen the three riddles I left for you. The next part of the game is the most fun. I’ll give you three days to guess the answer.

“If you can guess it, I’ll go to the police station and turn myself in! If you can’t guess it, then you better be prepared to bear the consequences!”

At the end of the letter, there was a signature of ‘Liang Weiwei’.

“This guy is too cunning!” Zeng ke said incredulously, “he knew that calling wouldn’t work, so he used Express delivery!”

“Indeed,” Wu Xiumin said. “No matter how fast the express delivery was, it still took time. Obviously, he had already made preparations in advance!” “We’ve only just found the third body and his letter has already arrived!”

“Anyway,” Zhao Yu said to the police officer who delivered the letter, “check the video of the courier sending the email again. If possible, trace the source of the email!”

“Yes!” The police officer immediately took the order and left.

“Although there’s not much hope ...” Zhao Yu handed the email to Wu Xiumin, then said, “let the technical team check this letter to see if there are any fingerprints or leather scraps.”

Wu Xiumin took the email and said, “I’ll contact them now!”

“This is getting more and more interesting ...” Zhao Yu looked back at the three white boards that were filled with his own writing and said meaningfully, “the stone house, the Iron Bridge, and the three bodies in the cave are the real puzzles that Liang Yiwen left us!” Has the game just officially started?”

“Team leader,” Zeng ke asked, frowning. “With only three bodies, what do you think Liang Weiyi wants us to give him?”

“Could it be that ... There are still clues that we haven’t found on these corpses?”

“Right!” Zhao Yu nodded. “But the rest of the clues should all be hidden clues!”

“Hidden clues?” Zeng ke repeated.

“For the first body, we only found the stone house because of Liang Weiwen’s direct hint.” Zhao Yu analyzed, “for the second body, we only found the Iron Bridge because Liang Weiyi put a note in the throat of the first body!

“For the third one, we only found the cave because of the coordinates under the Iron Bridge!

“Don’t you think that these three clues are all too simple?”

“Simple?” Zeng ke thought for a moment, then muttered, “is it simple?”

“The three clues are simple because he wants us to find the three bodies.

“And now, he said that these three bodies are the real mystery, and he wants us to solve this mystery. So ...” Zhao Yu said. “What he means is that he wants us to confirm the identity of these three bodies!

“Only by knowing who is dead will we know what his real riddle is!”

“Oh ...” Zeng ke understood. “So, the most important thing now is to find out the identity of the three bodies, right?” “Alright, I’ll use the video comparison software ...”

“It doesn’t matter,” Zhao Yu said, staring at the whiteboard. “As for the identity of the deceased, I have already made arrangements. You don’t have to worry about it for the time being.”

“Ah? What?” Zeng ke was stunned. “I’ve always been in charge of this. Why haven’t I heard about it?” “Who are you looking for?”

“You’ll know soon enough!” Zhao Yu waved his hand and said, “but, regarding the other cases, we can’t relax. If we want to solve the mystery behind Liang perseverance’s murder, we have to figure out the entire case!

“Skull ...” Zhao Yu pointed at the photo of the skull and said, “if the owner of this skull is really Yu zhengran’s granddaughter! Then we have to know ... What happened to her!”

.....

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Miao Ying and the others came back from field work and returned to the office.

After being busy for half a day, everyone looked a little tired.

No one had had a good rest since the White bones case, especially the forensic team led by Gao Facai and Zhang Peipei.

Whether it was to collect samples at the scene, or to do post-examination of the corpse and test samples, they were almost indispensable. In addition, there were many corpses and even white bones, so their task was very heavy.

Therefore, in order to better complete the task, Zhao Yu had to apply for more experienced forensic doctors from the Qiongzhou Provincial Office to help, which reduced the pressure on Gao Facai and Zhang Peipei.

At this moment, the forensic pathologists were still processing the three bodies in order to get more clues from them ...

Before this, Zhao Yu had already told Miao Ying over the phone about Liang perseverance's express delivery email.

After Miao Ying found out about it, she also felt that the situation was serious. So, after she came back, she ignored her fatigue and continued to discuss the case with Zhao Yu.

"Do you still remember?" Miao Ying pointed to the white board and said, "we only found footprints at the scene of the white bone case, but no fingerprints!"

"So ..." She guessed, "Liang Weiyi's fingers should be the same as the three bodies, all of his fingerprints were wiped off!"

"Mm! This point can be confirmed!" Zhao Yu nodded and said, "whether it's the villa where Liang Wenli lived or the dental clinic he opened, there were no valid fingerprints found."

"If that's the case ..." Miao Ying analyzed. "It means that Liang Weiyi and the three bodies belong to the same family?" If Liang Weiwen was the one who killed them, wouldn't that be equivalent to killing each other?"

"I suspect so too," Zhao Yu said. "Maybe ... They had some internal conflict?"

"Your dad said that this killer organization has been extinct for more than ten years," Zhao Yu said. "It has been quiet for so many years. Why did they suddenly appear?"

"Hmm ..." Miao Ying nodded, "if ... We can find out why they're back, maybe ... Maybe ..."

Before Miao Ying could finish her sentence, she suddenly saw a familiar figure appear at the office door.

"Eh? Isn't this ..." Miao Ying hesitated as she hadn't seen him for a long time.

“Hahaha, team leader Zhao, team leader Miao, how are you?” a young man who was not very tall but had a strong physique came in. As soon as he entered, he greeted Zhao Yu and Miao Ying with a big smile. “Hahaha, we finally meet again!”

“Oh ...” When Zhao Yu saw the man, the corners of his mouth curled up slightly. He sighed in his heart. No wonder his father-in-law, Miao kun, said that he knew what he was doing. It turned out that he had sent an old acquaintance!

“Xiao hang?” Miao Ying also remembered the man’s name and quickly replied, “why is it you?”

Chapter 1407: The identity of the deceased

It turned out that the person Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were familiar with was Xiao hang, who had been involved in the gold case together in Feng ping.

“This is my investigation document. Secret services sent me here!” Xiao hang handed the document to Zhao Yu and said politely, “I’m very honored to be able to work with you again, team leader Zhao!”

As the captain of the Secret Service, Xiao hang could be considered an unruly person. However, in front of Zhao Yu, he did not dare to act rashly.

Zhao Yu’s brave performance in Feng ping had impressed him, and he was in awe of Zhao Yu.

“Oh, it’s great that you’re here!” Having experienced the life and death situation of the gold case, Zhao Yu and Xiao hang had long forgotten about the past. He said politely, “I was worried that father-in-law would send me some kind of grandmother-like person!”

“Don’t worry, don’t worry.” Xiao hang knew Zhao Yu’s character very well, so he immediately explained, “we’re here to assist and cooperate with team leader Zhao’s work. We’ll listen to you and listen to all the commands!” Hehe ...”

“We’re all family, no need to be so polite!” “We have the same goal. I hope we can bring the criminals to justice as soon as possible!” Zhao Yu said, shaking hands with Xiao hang.

“That’s right, company leader Xiao, did you Arrive at lightning speed?”

“What lightning speed! “Don’t make fun of me,” Xiao hang explained. “I’m in Guangzhou doing something! He took out his mobile phone and told Zhao Yu, “I did some preparations on the way here, so I wasted some time! You see ...”

As he spoke, Xiao hang opened the picture on his phone and said, “This is the detailed information of the second body you provided. We have captured a large number of video shots of this person from the capital of Qiongzhou province, Yalong Harbor, and other places!

“This person should be a ship runner. My men are heading to Yalong Harbor to confirm it. I’m afraid they will send back accurate news soon!”

“Wow, that’s fast ...” Zhao Yu was shocked and asked, “what method did you use to catch it?”

“Well ... This ...” Xiao hang’s expression was awkward, and he didn’t answer.

However, Zhao Yu could still guess that secret services must have had a set of advanced video capture equipment, so they could compare the information so quickly.

However, this kind of advanced equipment should be classified and could not be disclosed to the public.

“Well,” Zhao Yu only cared about the result, so he didn’t ask further. He then asked, “since the second body has been found, what about the first and third bodies?”

“Oh ... I understand!” Zeng ke suddenly said, “it turns out that this is what leader Zhao meant when he said that everything had been arranged!” The Secret Service has actually been mobilized ...”

“Ahem ...” Xiao hang coughed awkwardly and quickly explained to Zhao Yu, “the first body’s decay was too severe, so it was very difficult to capture the video.

“I’ve already brought the technical staff here. We plan to do a personal portrait restoration of the body first, then we’ll capture the video ... As for the third body, we’re working on it, and we should have news soon!”

“That’s great! Once we can confirm the identities of the three victims, we can move on to the next step!” Zhao Yu asked Xiao hang excitedly, “brother, is there any other good news besides the identity of the deceased?”

“There’s also Yu zhengran!” Xiao hang snapped his fingers at the door of the office, and a tall agent immediately came in from outside. The agent handed a stack of documents to Xiao hang.

“We found a detection document from more than ten years ago,” Xiao hang said as he opened the document. “At that time, a certain Security Department had already noticed Yu zhengran and was worried that he was engaging in espionage under the guise of a returning overseas Chinese ...

“But ... The records didn’t follow up, which means he shouldn’t be a spy.

“However, after we verified it with the overseas department, we found that Yu zhengran’s name might be fake. His registration information in Qiongzhou back then was all wrong. He might not even be an overseas Chinese in Malaysia ...”

“Oh?” Zhao Yu thought for a moment, then said, “it seems that this Yu zhengran is not simple!”

“Don’t worry,” Xiao hang whispered to Zhao Yu. “We’ve informed all the overseas stations to start looking for real information about Yu zhengran. Although it’s been a long time, the chances of finding him are still quite high.”

“Okay ...” Zhao Yu nodded, feeling that he had suddenly seen hope.

“And ...” Xiao hang continued, “I’ll send the information about ‘chaoqi’ to your email immediately. Take a good look.” However, due to the high level of security, the criminal Division can not save it!”

“Oh ... I understand, I understand ...” Zhao Yu had been exposed to many confidential matters, so he naturally knew the rules.

“Although it’s a little presumptuous of me to say this,” Xiao hang hesitated for a moment, then tentatively said, “I personally think that the most important thing in this case is to arrest the criminal as soon as possible!”

“Team leader Zhao, although our Secret Service can’t solve cases as well as you, when it comes to catching people, we still have some means! “So ...” Xiao hang smiled confidently. “Just wait for our good news. As long as the suspect is still hiding in Harland, we’ll definitely find him!”

Although Xiao hang’s words were polite, it could not hide his innate pride.

However, since they had been through thick and thin together, Zhao Yu didn’t find it too harsh. Furthermore, he really hoped that he could capture this dangerous person as soon as possible.

Of course, out of caution, Zhao Yu reminded her, “

“It’s not difficult to catch him, but Liang Weiwen’s performance makes me worried. We have to be on guard, he really has a plot that we can’t handle!”

Using this topic, Zhao Yu told Xiao hang everything about Liang Weiyi’s use of the three corpses to solve the puzzle, as well as the latest information about the case.

“Oh ...” Xiao hang said, empathizing with her. “I understand now. The best killer in the world makes himself invisible, so no one knows of his existence!”

“And this Liang Weiyi’s actions are completely contrary to what I expected, so I really ... Have to be careful! “Well,” Xiao hang said, “then I’ll have to ask you, great detective Zhao, to solve his mystery as soon as possible and see what he’s up to!

“As for us, we will actively search for relevant information and fully cooperate!”

“Okay, then ...” Zhao Yu gestured to his office, asking Xiao hang if he could move his staff and equipment there so that everyone could work together.

Xiao hang shook his head. “No need. We have our own ways of doing things. I’ll send you my phone number now. Let’s keep in touch!” He said.

“Alright then!” Zhao Yu shook hands with Xiao hang, who then turned around to leave.

However, when he reached the door, he suddenly thought of something and hurriedly said, “Oh, I almost forgot. There’s something I didn’t tell you!

“About the poto religion ...” Xiao hang pointed to the picture on the whiteboard and said, “we’ve already sent people to Indonesia to consult local experts!”

“If necessary, we’ll search all the places that believe in poto religion. We’ll definitely find the most detailed information within three days!”

After saying that, Xiao hang stepped out of the office and disappeared.

“Wow ...” Zeng ke shook his head and sighed. “The Secret Service is really powerful!” It feels like such a tedious investigation is a piece of cake for them!”

After hearing what Zeng ke said, Miao Ying couldn't help but exchange a look with Zhao Yu, because Miao Ying knew that in the near future, Zhao Yu would also be transferred to secret services and become a member of the Secret Service.

Chapter 1408: The secret genetic code

A day later.

With the help of secret services, Zhao Yu obtained more accurate and detailed information.

First of all, other than the highly decomposed body in the stone house, the identities of the other two bodies had been confirmed.

The dead man on the Iron Bridge was indeed a boatman from sub-Dragon port, but he was not an ordinary boatman. He was the boss of a fishing company that owned more than a hundred fishing boats. The locals called him the helmsman!

The man's name was Huang Baili. According to the intelligence, he was a low-key person who never showed his face in public. He also operated the fishing company behind the scenes.

As she had yet to get married and have children, no one had reported her disappearance to the police station after she went missing.

Although Huang Baili's identity was still under investigation, Xiao hang had already guessed that Huang Baili's fishing company was involved in some illegal business, such as smuggling or smuggling ...

Next, the identity of the third corpse, the male corpse in the cave, was also found.

According to the video comparison, the man's name was Xing feiyuan, and he lived in several coastal cities in the West of Qiongzhou province.

Unlike Huang Baili, this person was much more high-profile. He drove a luxury car worth more than a million Yuan, lived in a bungalow, and had many mistresses. He had five children.

On the surface, he was in the tobacco and liquor business, but in reality, he didn't even have a proper store or warehouse. He spent most of his time spending money, drinking, and picking up girls, living a life of drunkenness. He didn't know where his money came from.

After his disappearance, his lovers had already called the police.

As for the more specific situation, Xiao hang had already sent his team members to investigate.

In addition, the first body's appearance had been restored, but because the restored appearance was prone to errors in video comparison, so far, no match had been found.

However, Xiao hang thought that the three victims might have been in contact with each other, so he began to investigate the identity of the other two victims.

After that, the investigators sent overseas by the Secret Service also had some information back.

Regarding Yu zhengran's information, a Southeast Asian country had provided a reliable piece of information.

Yu zhengran's information was highly similar to that of a super-rich merchant in the country.

More than a decade ago, this rich merchant participated in a coup in the country. Due to the failed coup, he was forced to hide his name and escape back to the country.

Zhao Yu believed that, if this information was accurate, then the story of Yu zhengran's family dying from a tsunami in the Indian Ocean would be complete nonsense.

They had escaped from a disaster and could not possibly take the risk to travel again.

Moreover, since he was using a fake identity, it would be very troublesome to leave the country. So, their family's disappearance must have happened in China. And there was a high chance that he had disappeared in Qiongzhou.

In the end, there was also news about poto religion. The Indonesia a religious experts confirmed that the only remaining poto religion in the world were in some small island villages in country A. Because those villages were primitive and far from civilization, this ancient religion was preserved and not extinct.

However, due to the remote location of these islands, it would take some time to send people over to investigate.

"Team leader Zhao," Zhang Peipei came to the office at 10 pm and reported to Zhao Yu the progress of their forensic team,"first, we have confirmed through DNA that the lower limb bones in the white bone case indeed belong to the model Meng Kangfei."

"Meng Kangfei came to Hailan three months ago," Wu Xiumin immediately added."After the police investigated, they found out that Meng Kangfei was invited by the boss of a consortium, and she had been living in the boss 'villa."

"We've confirmed that Meng Kangfei and the financial group's boss are indeed lovers." Wu Xiumin said,"we have arrested the boss. According to him, not long after Meng Kangfei came to Hailan, the two of them had an argument, and then Meng Kangfei disappeared!"

"He only thought that Meng Kangfei had left Qiongzhou province; he had not imagined that she had disappeared ..."

"Hmph!" Cui Lizhu said indignantly,"it's disgusting to mention this kind of person. Even if they quarreled, they should at least make sure that they are safe!"

"If we had called the police earlier, maybe we could have saved her! "This kind of person must be taught a lesson and let him have a taste of his own medicine," she said to Wu Xiumin.

"In that case ..." Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then asked,"in the White bones case, only the identity of the upper limbs has not been confirmed?"

"Yes," Wu Xiumin replied."We couldn't find a match in the missing persons database, so we had to find another way."

“But ...” Zhang Peipei quickly said, “Mr. Gao found a problem in the DNA sequence of the upper limb bone. He suspects that the owner of the upper limb bone may not be Chinese!”

“Oh?” Zhao Yu was surprised. “You’re not from China?”

“Yes,” Zhang Peipei replied. “Not only is he not, but there is a big difference. He is not even of mixed blood.” According to Mr. Gao, based on the DNA sequence alone, it was highly likely that he was from Europa.

“But he still has to consult a genetic expert ...”

“In that case ...” Wu Xiumin quickly said, “we should focus on investigating the missing foreigners in Jingzhou!”

“Well ...” Zhao Yu thought of something and asked Zhang Peipei, “can I think so? The DNA of the upper limbs, the skulls, and the three male corpses we found are all different?”

“Right!” Zhang Peipei replied, “the DNA sequence of the skulls and the three male corpses are similar. They have obvious characteristics of Southeast Asian Malaysia.”

“However, this characteristic is still different from that of a purebred from Southeast Asia, so teacher Gao suspects that they are all mixed-blood ...”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu thought for a moment, then said to himself, “so ... The female victims in the white bone case, besides the owner of the skull, the other three women may have nothing to do with the grievances of these Southeast Asian mixed-bloods?”

“Was it because of her good figure that Liang Weiyi specially picked her out? It’s purely ... A sacrifice?”

“Boss ...” Cui Lizhu asked in surprise. “Do you think I got it right again?”

“If the owner of the skull was Yu zhengran’s granddaughter, then ... Liang Weiyi didn’t hesitate to kill her and take her bone, just to release her soul from purgatory, so that she could become a beautiful woman with a perfect figure in the next life?”

“If cui’s speculation is correct,” Wu Xiumin guessed, “then Liang Weiyi and Yu zhengran should also be related?”

“Yu zhengran has a son, and he seems ... To be around Liang Weiwen’s age ... Right?” Wu Xiumin’s eyes widened as she asked, “could it be ... That this is the plot? The killer organization killed Yu zhengran’s family, but Yu zhengran’s son escaped. And now, he’s back for revenge?”

“If that’s the case ...” Cui Lizhu pondered. “Then Yu zhengran’s family might be related to the killer organization!” She said. “Otherwise, how could Liang Weiyi’s skills be so good?”

“It doesn’t matter ...” Zhang Peipei suddenly said with confidence, “let genes speak!” “We found hair and skin samples from the dental clinic that were suspected to be Liang Wenli’s. Once the test results are out, we’ll know the answer immediately!”

Chapter 1409: Is this really a melodramatic plot?

A year and a half ago, in pallu, Central City of surawizy Island, Indonesia.

A long-haired middle-aged man was shopping in a local supermarket with a beautiful young woman who was pregnant.

They had already bought a lot of things and were now waiting in line at the checkout counter.

“K,” the woman said in fluent Chinese, “I want to buy a few more ice creams. I’ve been feeling very hot recently.” “In my hometown, we call it a vigorous heart. I guess ...” She smiled and pointed to the bulge in her abdomen, “it should be a boy, right?”

“Okay,” the middle-aged man named K smiled charmingly, “you wait here, I’ll go buy it!”

With that, the man turned around and walked towards the cold drink area.

The cold drink area was quite far from the counter. In order to buy ice cream as soon as possible, the man jogged all the way to the freezer that contained cold drinks.

“Sir, would you like to buy ice cream?” The waiter in front of the freezer asked enthusiastically in Indonesian, “we have a few new flavors here! Which one do you want?”

“Um ...” The man pointed at the dazzling array of ice cream in the refrigerator. He was a little dazzled by the selection, so he had no choice but to say to the waiter, “just give me a few of the most expensive ones!”

“Wow, you’re so generous ...” The waiter opened the freezer and introduced it to the man. “These are our ... Oh ... Oh ... Sigh ... What’s ... What’s going on ...”

However, just as the waitress was introducing her to the man, she suddenly felt dizzy. A second later, she suddenly realized that she was not the one who was dizzy, but the entire supermarket building ...

“Ah ...” A scream came from the distance. “Earthquake ... It’s an earthquake!”

The man K also felt the shaking of the building, but he saw that the whole building was tilting, and in an instant, a lot of goods fell to the ground ...

Ka ... Ka ...

Immediately after, a terrifying tearing sound came from the ground, causing the people to cry out in alarm. They all swarmed towards the exit.

“No... No no no...”

K suddenly thought of his pregnant wife. He immediately put down the bag in his hand and ran to the cashier like a madman.

At this moment, the building shook more and more violently. The hanging lights flickered and many ceilings fell from the roof, causing the supermarket to fall into chaos in the blink of an eye.

“Xia!” The man K shouted the woman’s name as he ran. However, due to the distance, he could not see the woman at all, nor could he hear her response.

As they ran, the building began to collapse, and the supermarket shelves fell to the ground. The panicked crowd rushed to the exit, and many people crashed into each other, causing them to fall.

“Xia!” At this moment, K was already close to the cashier area and could even see the woman. The woman stood helplessly near the cash register, waiting for him anxiously.

Boom ... Boom ...

All of a sudden, the ground caved in and formed a deep pit, blocking K’s path. However, K didn’t hesitate at all. He directly leaped into the air and jumped over the deep pit.

However, the area of the deep pit was really too large, K couldn’t jump over completely, he only used both hands to grab the edge of the deep pit when he was about to fall.

“Ah ...” He shouted loudly and struggled to crawl to the ground.

But halfway up, he found that the building was already tilted badly. The people standing near the checkout counter suddenly lost their balance and all slid into the deep pit.

“No...” K screamed loudly. He didn’t care about his own safety or the falling debris on the shelves. His eyes were fixed on the woman he loved.

At this time, the woman named Xia inevitably slid down from the high place and slid towards K’s position.

“Don’t be afraid ... I’ll catch you!” K grabbed the floor with one hand and reached out his other hand, trying to catch Xia who was sliding towards him.

In the end, just as he reached out, the beam of the building’s roof suddenly broke and fell on Xia’s body!

Boom ... Boom ...

In the huge explosion, K’s wailing was already swallowed by the surging smoke ...

.....

Turning back time, there was only one day left until the three-day deadline set by the murderer Liang Weiyi.

If Zhao Yu and the others still couldn’t solve the murder puzzle he left behind, no one knew what Liang Weiyi would do next.

The only thing people could be sure of was that what Liang Weiwen was going to do was definitely not a good thing!

“So, we can now prove that ...” Zhao Yu stood in front of the whiteboard and asked Zhang Peipei, “Liang perseverance and Yu zhengran are not blood-related?”

“Right!” Zhang Peipei said, “Mr. Gao has invited all the geneticists here. According to Liang perseverance’s DNA, he does not have any sequence characteristics of Southeast Asian people. He should be a Chinese man!”

“In other words ...” Zhao Yu pondered, “the granddaughter of Liang Weiyi and Yu zhengran is not father and daughter, but ...”

“A couple, they must be a couple!” “Didn’t I tell you before?” cui Lizhu insisted. Liang Weiyi killed people to take their bones because he wanted to summon the soul of his most beloved person!”

“Team leader ...” Zeng ke guessed, “do you think Liang Weiyi is a bodyguard or something of the Yu family? Yu zhengran’s family was killed, and he saved Yu zhengran’s granddaughter;

“After that, they developed feelings for each other and became a couple.

“After that, the killers found them and killed Yu zhengran’s granddaughter.

“In the end, Liang Weiyi was so angry that he came back for revenge?”

“Wow, you’re so dramatic,” cui Lizhu pouted. “This plot is so old-fashioned!”

“Regardless of whether the plot is cliché or not ... At least one thing is certain!” Zhao Yu said, “since Liang Weiyi brought the skull back to the Yu family’s old house to summon the soul, the owner of the skull should at least be someone from the Yu family!”

“But ...” Miao Ying pondered. “If Zeng ke is right, how do you explain the relationship between Liang Weiyi and the three male corpses? They should belong to the same killer organization. ”

“Is it an internal strife?” Cui Lizhu shook her head.

“I think ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the whiteboard and said, “since Liang Weiyi used these three male bodies as a puzzle, the answer might be related to them!”

“As long as we can understand their relationship, we might be able to find out what Liang Weiwen is up to!”

Du, du, du ...

Just as Zhao Yu finished speaking, there was a knock on the office door.

Cui Lizhu was standing very close to the door, so she opened it in a hurry. But when she saw the person who had just entered, she immediately gritted her teeth, showing that she didn’t welcome him.

It was Captain Xiao hang, who had caught cui Lizhu in the past.

“Team leader Zhao,” Xiao hang greeted cui Lizhu with his eyes, then quickly reported to Zhao Yu, “we followed your suggestion and secretly investigated the residence of the two male victims, and ...”

“Look ...” He took out a stack of photos for Zhao Yu to see and introduced them excitedly, “we found items related to poto religion in their homes. This means that the two of them also believe in poto religion!”

Chapter 1410: Only the answer is left

“Are you sure ... Your investigation didn’t alert the relatives and friends of these people?” Looking at the familiar ghost faces, talismans, masks, and other religious items in the photos, Zhao Yu asked Xiao hang worriedly.

These things were indeed the same as the religious objects found at the scene of the white bone case and in Liang Wenli’s Villa.

“Don’t worry,” Xiao hang said. “All the investigations were done in secret. The family and friends of the deceased have no idea what happened!”

“That’s good ...” Zhao Yu thought for a moment, then said, “we still don’t know what the murder puzzle that Liang Weiwen left behind is. Before the answer is confirmed, we can’t release any information about the three deceased for the time being. ”

“I understand,” Xiao hang said. He then reported to Zhao Yu, “regarding the first victim, because the image was restored by the computer, we have compared it with the videos of several people who are suspected to be the target. We are currently eliminating them one by one ...

“However, from the information I’ve gathered,” Xiao hang said, handing over another document, “this person named Cai Xingwen is the most suspicious!”

“Oh?” Zhao Yu looked at the information. “An antique shop owner?”

“Yes, although we didn’t find any missing persons report,” Xiao hang said, “we found that his antique shop has not been open for nearly a month!”

“This person is the same as Huang Baili. Although he is rich, he is very low-key. Although he is married and has children, he divorced and his wife and children all went to the mainland.

“We also found a video of him taking off his shirt from a barbershop’s surveillance camera.” Xiao hang pointed to the picture on the document. “Look at the tattoo on his body. It’s very similar to the male body found in the stone house.”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded. “I have a question now. Did these three people have any contact with each other?”

“The first thing we checked was the call records,” Xiao hang said, shaking his head. “The call records showed that they were not in contact with each other, but the identities of these three people were all forged. We can’t rule out the possibility that they had other secret ways of contacting each other.”

“Then ... What if we meet directly?” Zhao Yu asked again, “you can focus on the videos that were taken within a month, especially after the first victim disappeared. I think that the other two people may have some connection!”

“I’ve seen it, but I haven’t found it yet!” Xiao hang said, “Cai Xingwen is in Hailan, Huang Baili is in Yalong Harbor, and Xing feiyuan is in the West of Qiongzhou. If the three of them meet often, it shouldn’t be difficult for us to find the relevant videos!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded, then said seriously, “no matter what, Liang Weiwen must have had his reasons for killing these three people! If we want to solve this puzzle, we have to know the relationship between them, so ...”

“I understand,” Xiao hang said, nodding. “I know what to do!”

“Then ...” Zhao Yu asked again, “what about Liang Weiyi himself?”

“Tsk tsk ...” Hearing Zhao Yu’s question, Xiao hang shook his head helplessly. “This person is really more powerful than we thought. After we found a shot of him near the basketball court, we couldn’t deduce any further!”

“He might be hiding in a car or using some kind of disguise. We’ve been searching for him for two days, but we didn’t find any trace of him!”

“Then ... What about the email?” Zhao Yu asked again.

“It was a normal express delivery,” Xiao hang replied. “The courier said that Liang perseverance stopped him in a small community and went through the normal delivery procedures.

“The courier said that when he saw that the recipient only had the word ‘police’ written on it, he naturally felt that it was strange. He even asked Liang perseverance on the spot. However, Liang Weiyi replied that he was about to report important news to the police, so this express delivery was very important!

“That’s why the deliveryman was the first to help him send the package to the police station!”

“Tsk tsk ...” Cui Lizhu interrupted and sighed. “This guy is actually a drama queen. He’s really good at acting!”

“Team leader, I found it!” At this time, Wu Xiumin suddenly came in and said to Zhao Yu, “we have found the owner of the upper limbs of the White bones case. It was a foreigner!”

Then, Wu Xiumin also handed her information to Zhao Yu.

“Takiji ć?” Tajikistan. Zhao Yu looked at the information and frowned. “It’s so far away?”

“Yes,” Wu Xiumin said. “The girl’s name is bannazaire. She is 27 years old this year and is a travel writer in Afghanistan.”

“Her family claimed that they had lost contact with bannazaire for more than three months!

“As a travel writer, she would update her articles on social media every day, but for the past three months, there has been no movement on her homepage.

“We contacted his family and got the DNA information. After verification, it matches his upper limb!”

“Poor girl! Al!” Cui Lizhu felt sad.

“Benazury is 1.75 meters tall and has a devilish body,” Wu Xiumin continued. “He looks very similar to the other two victims in the white bone case!”

“Detestable! He killed three young girls so cruelly just to summon the soul of his beloved!” Cui Lizhu cursed, “cruel, selfish, despicable! He deserves to die!”

“So ... The owners of the three sets of bones have been found,” Zhao Yu said. “On the surface, they should all be innocent, chosen as sacrifices by Liang Weiyi.

“But ...” He said to Wu Xiumin, “sis Wu, about these three girls, you should investigate their background in detail!” We have to be 100% sure that they have nothing to do with the murder puzzle that Liang Weiwen left behind!”

“Understood!” Wu Xiumin received the order and immediately went to her desk to work.

“But ...” Miao Ying said. “We only have a part of the three girls ‘bodies. If we want to find all of them, I’m afraid that we have to catch Liang Weiyi!”

“Yeah ...” Zhao Yu let out a long breath and said almost unconsciously, “this reminds me of one of the five major unsolved cases, the Baishan reservoir case!”

“Didn’t you say that the dismembered body case was solved by a person with special powers?”

“They said that we can find the body by touching the items that the deceased used before they died?” Zhao Yu shook his head. “If there were really such people, then it would save us a lot of trouble ...”

“Don’t joke around,” cui Lizhu said, sticking her tongue out. “If there really was such a person, even the criminal Police would be unemployed!”

“Hmm ...” Xiao hang suddenly opened his mouth to say something, but he swallowed the words back.

“Alright, since the identities of all the victims have been confirmed, that means we have made great progress!” Zhao Yu encouraged them, “next, I’ll have to ask everyone to continue working hard and dig out the hidden truth behind the case as soon as possible!

“There’s still one day until Liang perseverance’s appointment. Hopefully, we can solve his murder puzzle within one day!” Zhao Yu said, patting the whiteboard with his hand.
