Chapter 141: Brother Tianba from Shunfeng Street

Up from the fruit stall were only three households. One was Jiang Dafeng's family on the second floor, one was Zhao Yu's house on the third floor, and the other one was Yang Hong and the other beauties' house opposite them!

The tall man had mentioned the word "chick," so these few men were obviously targeting Yang Hong's house. Connecting this to the night before when Huahua got beat up, and also the conversation between her and Yang Hong, Zhao Yu could already figure out what was happening. It was obvious that these people were here to cause trouble for them.

"Ah..." Jiang Xiaoqing had also seen the situation just now and stuck out her tongue at Zhao Yu. "Who are these people? They look very fierce! Are they looking for you?"

Zhao Yu lowered his head and pondered if he should go mediate the situation. By right, he should not meddle in such things. Who knew, it might cause trouble for himself. But, Yang Hong was his friend after all and lived opposite of him. Most importantly, he was a policeman. Whether for official or personal reasons, it seemed like he should not turn a blind eye to it.

With that thought, he nodded at Jiang Xiaoqing. "Young girl, help me look after the dog, I'm going up to take a look!"

"Oh!" Jiang Xiaoqing touched the dog on his head and asked worriedly, "Why not...you bring the dog with you? In case..."

"Kekeke..." Zhao Yu laughed at Jiang Xiaoqing's adorable worried look. "Don't worry, your godfather's not so weak as to need the dog's help yet!" With this, Zhao Yu quickly went into the corridor.

Jiang Xiaoqing paused for a while before shooting back softly, "When did you become my godfather? This fella..."

"Woof woof..." Hearing the dog bark, the young girl stroked the dog's head again and said affectionately, "Come, I have delicious food here..."

At the other end, Zhao Yu followed the men silently upstairs. The men had already reached the third floor and were knocking hard at Yang Hong's door. As he was still unsure of the situation, Zhao Yu stood in the corridor on the second floor and listened attentively.

Bang! Bang! Bang! They banged on the door fiercely and someone even kicked it violently. "B*tch, stop hiding!" The fair-skinned fat man shouted ferociously, "I have your key here. If you still don't open the door, I'm gonna open it myself! Heh heh heh..."

The small window at Yang Hong's house opened and Yang Hong's anger could be heard from inside. "Hong Zhitao! You're too much of a bully! You beat a person up and snatched her things, now you still wanna make trouble for us? Are you human?"

“Ho ho...hmm...” The fair-skinned fat man said ferociously, “you still dare to talk so righteously? Where’s Huahua? Tell her to come and talk to me. This b*tch doesn’t know the rules. She came to do business in my territory without even giving me a greeting! If this gets out, how am I gonna face the world?”

“No, that’s not true!” Huahua’s timid and defensive voice came from inside, “I already greeted your men when I first arrived at Chahai Street. I followed the rules, but you...you guys went back on your word...”

“Damn...” the fair-skinned fat man punched the anti-theft door. “Young girl, you’re lying through your teeth. Who did you greet? You came to my territory, but did not greet me. What’s the use of talking to those little punks?”

“Hong Zhitao!” Yang Hong shouted, “Don’t push it. A group of men bullying a little girl, what is this? Huahua is only a kid, if there’s really anything that she did wrong, she can just apologize! Why do you have to beat her up? You’re giving her no other way out! I’m warning you, this matter shall be put to rest! I’m gonna call the police if you still don’t leave!”

“Ho ho...” the fair-skinned fat man smiled grimly. “Who do you you are? This matter should be put to rest just by you saying? I #%@&#$!@^$#&$%@#%$@* ...wanna call the police? Go ahead! I’ll wait here and see if you dare to call! After calling, the consequences will be for the two of you...”

Zhao Yu listened for a while downstairs. To an experienced gangster like him, he already understood the whole situation. His identity was now of a policeman’s. If he went up and showed his police badge, the other party would behave themselves and retreat, and he would be able to help Yang Hong out of her predicament; however, that would not solve the root of the problem! The man was obviously out to get Huahua and would not just give up like that! If he frightened them away this time, it would only put Yang Hong and Huahua in more danger.

Then...what was the best way to solve this? If this had happened to Zhao Yu in his past life, this issue could be easily solved! He would have gathered all of his subordinates and fight these men to the end! However, the Zhao Yu now was different from Zhao Yu of the past. Bashing them up as a policeman was definitely not the best choice. These local tyrants were different from scammers. Most of them had a strong backing. If you fought them once, it would only invite their more brutal counterattacks! Offending people who did not act openly would only put oneself in more danger. Therefore, a more appropriate solution was needed to deal with people like this.

Zhao Yu racked his brain and quickly came up with an idea. To deal with such tyrants, there was only one way, which was to beat him to his last breath so that he would not have the chance to live again! After making the decision, he retreated to the first floor and found a quiet corner before giving Yang Hong a call. Yang Hong quickly answered the call and Zhao Yu spoke before she got a chance, “Don’t say anything, listen to me! Later...you just need to do two things. Listen up: first, don’t say that I’m a police officer! Second, don’t say that I live opposite of you! Got it?”

“You...what...” Yang Hong was confused.

“Don’t say that I’m a police officer, and don’t say that I live opposite of you!” Zhao Yu added, “Listen up, if you want me to help you, you’ve gotta listen to me, understood?”

“Oh...yes...got it...but...” Zhao Yu hung up before Yang Hong could finish. After reaching the second floor, he turned on his phone’s recording function and continued to the third floor.

“You...what else do you want? You have already taken my things!” Huahua was almost in tears.

“What do I want? Heh heh heh...” The fair-skinned fat man laughed insidiously. “Of course I want an explanation from you. You better open the door quick!” With this, the fat man punched fiercely at the door again and signaled for the tall man to take out the key.

“Hey...hey hey...” Zhao Yu at the bottom of the stairs and shouted, “Brothers, what’s all this commotion about in the middle of the day?”

“Huh!?” The three men stopped immediately and turned their heads to look at Zhao Yu.

“Damn!” The tall man stood in front of Zhao Yu and shouted with disdain, “Who are you? This is none of your business! Scram!”

“Kekeke...” Zhao Yu did not get angry but was all smiles instead. He held his fists together and said to the three men, “Big brothers, I am Brother Tianba from Shunfeng Street, it’s a pleasure meeting all of you!”

“Pleasure my foot!” The bald man roared arrogantly, “Who do you think you are? Didn’t you hear? This is none of your business! Get lost!”

“Eh? That’s not true!” Zhao Yu said cheekily. “You guys are blocking my sisters’ door and shouting, how is that none of my business?”

“Oh?” The fair-skinned fat man appeared to have understood something and glanced at Zhao Yu. “Bro, what do you mean? Don’t tell...you’ve been hired by that mad woman to talk to me? Brother Tianba from Shunfeng Street? I haven’t heard of you before!”

“Are you sure?” Zhao Yu pretended to be shocked/ “You haven’t heard of my resounding name? All of Shunfeng Street is under my protection! May I know who you are?”

The fat man laughed after hearing this. The tall man quickly continued, “My brother is Master Hong from Chahai Street. All the restaurants and teahouses in Chahai Street are managed by our Master Hong! What’s a small Shunfeng Street? There are only vegetable sellers and fishmongers here. Who do you think you are?” The three men looked at one another other scornfully and laughed.

“Oh!” Zhao Yu pretended to be shocked and held his fists together again. “So it’s Master Hong. Please pardon my disrespect! Mmm...this...” He pointed at the anti-theft door and asked doubtfully, “What happened? May I ask who has offended you?” Seeing Zhao Yu treating himself with so much respect, the fat man was very pleased and said, “You gotta ask those two women inside!” With this, the fair-skinned white man repeated the incident of how Huahua was ignorant about the rules.

“Oh! I had thought it was something major!” Zhao Yu laughed out loud and quickly knocked on the door as he shouted, “Alright, it’s fine now, Huahua and Honghong, open the door quick! It’s okay now, I’m here!”

“You...” Yang Hong’s face was full of anxiety and looked very nervous; however, with Zhao Yu’s eye signal, she still turned the doorknob and opened the door. “Well...Master Hong!” Zhao Yu pointed at Yang Hong and Huahua, “These two women are under my care! They are still new and ignorant. Please listen to me, if there’s anything just let me know. Please tell me how do you think this matter should be settled?”

“How to settle?” The fat man looked lustfully at Huahua and laughed, “Do I have to say it out loud?”

“Oh...” Zhao Yu laughed out loud and pointed at the ladies bag held by the tall man. “Ah! It’s my fault, all my fault! You’ve brought the bag back, and came here personally. Of course it wouldn’t be for money? Ah! If you want the person, you could have just said so earlier.” With this, Zhao Yi raised his hand at Yang Hong and Huahua. “How about this, I’ll let the two of them wait on you, will that do?”

“What!?” Yang Hong and Huahua were shocked.

“Huh!” The fat man nodded in contentment. “At least you’re sensible! Let them wait on me this afternoon and I’ll write off this issue!”

“That’s really wonderful!” Zhao Yu praised and waved his hand at the two women again. “What are the two of you still standing there for? Invite Master Hong in, quickly!?”

Chapter 142: Give Me the Full Service

“No! Definitely not!” Huahua used her hands to protect her body as she angrily roared at Zhao Yu. “How could you do that? You...are you working with them?!” Even though Yang Hong had gotten Zhao Yu’s secret phone call and knew that he was here to help, she could not help but feel uneasy as she watched him cooperate with the gangsters.

“Hehe...girl, you’re quite stubborn!” Zhao Yu glared at Yang Hong, then held up his chin. “You two should be smarter! Go, go to the bathroom and wash up nicely so you can serve our customers later. Got it?!” As he spoke, Zhao Yu tried to gesture with his face for her to listen. Yang Hong was very confused, but pulled Huahua into the bathroom anyway.

“Here, here...” Zhao Yu immediately made way for the group and grinned at the pale fat man. “Sir Hong, I’ve heard about you for quite some time. Your name has truly spread far and wide! Just...I didn’t think that such a powerful man like yourself would set his eye on Huahua! If I had known earlier, I would’ve sent her to you long ago, hehehe...”

Hearing Zhao Yu’s words, the man felt quite happy. He started smiling proudly and strutted into the room.

“Hehehe...” Zhao Yu still had a grin plastered on his face. “Right, Sir Hong, are you really the Hong who commands all of Xuhai Jie?”

“Obviously!” The tall, skinny man raised his head proudly. “How could that be fake?”

“You can’t say that!” Zhao Yu smiled. “I’m just a lowly citizen. I’ve only heard of Sir Hong’s name, but I’ve never seen him in person! If you guys came using your name for free food, then I wouldn’t allow it! Besides, if it really was Sir Hong, wouldn’t he already have some ladies to play with? Why would he come all this way for Huahua on Shunfeng Street?”

“You!” the tall, skinny man exclaimed.

“Also,” Zhao Yu did not let the other interrupt him and continued, “just to play with a girl. Not only did you threaten her, but you also set a trap for her! That is much too degrading! It doesn’t seem like something a big man such as yourself would do, don’t you think?”

“Huh?” The three realized something was wrong with what Zhao Yu was saying. The tall, skinny man pointed a finger at Zhao Yu and exclaimed, “What are you trying to say? Are you looking for a beating?”

“Kid!” The fat man cracked the walnut in his hand loudly. “Listen here, I am indeed Hong Zhitao of Chahai Street, in the flesh! You were right, I do indeed have my own women, but I got my eye on little Huahua, and I want to play with her a bit. What do you want to do about it?”

Hearing the fat man speak harshly, the bald man beside him immediately started glaring. He put his hands on his waist as if he was ready to fight!

“No! No way!” Zhao Yu still shook his head. “I won’t lie to you. I know everybody well. I remember that Chahai Street’s biggest bar, Hailong bar, isn’t under your jurisdiction! I also heard that the ‘medicine’ quality there is the best, but even sir Hong couldn’t get it!”

“Bullsh*t!” The tall, skinny man cursed. “How is Hailong Bar not under our sir Hong’s command? The people who run the place all listen to Sir Hong! Also, in places commanded by Sir Hong, how could there be any low quality goods?!”

“No!” Zhao Yu stubbornly shook his head. “I ate with a man named Da Jiaolong before. He said that the Wenxing Entertainment girls had no relationship to Sir Hong!”

“Blah!” The tall, skinny man clenched his teeth, annoyed. “That person doesn’t exist! The boss of Wenxing is called Zhao Yuan. He calls Sir Hong ‘uncle’! All of their businesses belongs to Sir Hong!”

“Huh?!” Zhao Yu feigned shock and kept asking, “Then the Huanhai Nightclub and Yuegang restaurant definitely doesn’t have anything to do with Sir Hong, right? Those two have no drugs or pretty ladies!”

“Jesus!” The tall, skinny man shook his head. “Where did you hear that from? Just yesterday, Sir Hong helped them get a new supply! The girls are there as well! Where did you hear all of this—”

“San!” As if realizing something, the fat man immediately told the skinny man to shut up, then turned angrily to Zhao Yu. “Kiddo, are you done yet? What do you want?”

“Oh, almost, almost!” Zhao Yu shrugged. “There’s just one thing I don’t understand!”

“What is it?” The tall, skinny man furrowed his brow and asked.

“Mm...” Zhao Yu finally stopped smiling and asked seriously, “Sir Hong is truly impressive, but...if I were to disable him, then would my reputation as the God-king of Shunfeng Street rise?”

“Huh?” The three men paused. The bald man with the big build realized something was wrong and immediately raised his large fist in front of Zhao Yu, threatening him. “Kiddo! What are you trying to say?”

“Wahahaha...” Seeing the man’s fist, Zhao Yu started laughing maniacally, even bending down to grab his knees.

Two minutes later, after some rustling and swinging noises had died down, Yang Hong and Huahua finally tiptoed out of the bathroom. Once they came out, they were completely stunned by what they saw! The fat man and his two companions were stacked on top of each other like a tower! All three of them were bruised and battered, barely recognizable! Then they saw Zhao Yu holding Hong Zhitao's walnuts. As if he were praying, he laid on the couch meditating with his eyes closed.

"Ow..."

"Oof..." The three of them moaned nonstop, looking as pitiful as possible.

"This..." Yang Hong was completely stunned. She originally expected that Zhao Yu would negotiate his way out of this problem, but to think that he had used violence! She knew that even though Hong Zhitao was an awful person, he had a great deal of influence. Zhao Yu hitting him would only make matters worse!

"Here!" Zhao Yu bent down and threw the woman's bag on the table at Huahua. "This is yours, right?"

"Mm!" Huahua grabbed the bag, but her eyes continued to rest on Zhao Yu. Her expression loosed as if she had seen a ghost.

"Huahua," Zhao Yu kicked the pale fat man, "Your face was injured by him, right?"

"Mm..." Huahua nodded.

"Then...do you want revenge?" Zhao Yu laughed as he asked. "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth! If you don't do it now, there will be no other chances!"

"Oh..." Huahua hesitated, but immediately shook her head. "No, no..."

"Zhao..." Yang Hong originally wanted to call out "Officer Zhao," but remembering Zhao Yu's warning, she only asked, "This person...you can't touch him! What...what are we going to do now?!"

"Hehehe..." Zhao Yu cackled and kicked the pale fat man again, yelling, "Hey, you guys still aren't going to run? Did you guys enjoy getting beat up?"

Hong Zhitao took a few steps forward, and barely managed to support himself by holding on to a clothes rack. He angrily yelled at Zhao Yu, "Kid...ow...if you dare, then wait for me..."

"Okay!" Zhao Yu slapped his fist. "Sir Hong, I'll wait! You hurry up and call more people, the faster the better, the more the better! I'll wait, I'll really wait!"

"Fine! Just you wait, you wait...ow..." He clutched his chest and staggered towards the hallway. It took ten more seconds before the bald man and the skinny, tall man also crawled out the door, following Hong Zhitao.

Seeing the three leave, Yang Hong was almost crazy with anger! She immediately yelled at Zhao Yu, "Offier Zhao, what are you trying to do? Did you know that Hong guy is one of the strongest men in Qinshan? You're a police officer, so you're fine! But what about us? We're going to die by your hand! Did you know that..."

“Shut up!” Zhao Yu suddenly stood up, making Yang Hong and Huahua tremble in shock. “You two really couldn’t tell?” Zhao Yu spoke coldly. “Did you guys really think I invited Hong Zhitao in here just to play with Huahua?”

“What...what do you mean?” The two women were both stunned and afraid.

“What do I mean?” Zhao Yu smirked and grinned. “Evil of the street! Using a professional term, we...oh no, it’s they...they call you guys ‘free money machine,’ do you get it?”

“In other words, you guys have a difference in interest. The reason why Hong Zhitao kept trying to get with Huahua was to push you guys into a corner. Once you guys were out of options, then he would take advantage of the situation and take you guys away, and use you guys to make money for him! This is called...mm...never mind! Too professional, no need to tell you guys!”

“Huh?!” Yang Hong and Huahua were both stunned. Huahua finally realized the situation and spoke, “They...they’re truly the worst, huh?!”

“The worst?!” Zhao Yu laughed. “This is called the worst?! To me...oh...no! I was saying, this is just child’s play! There are still many things that you guys have never even heard of!”

“Yang Hong!” Huahua’s tears started rolling down her face. “Let’s...how about...let’s run and hide for a bit?”

“Hey! Aren’t you two forgetting about me, Zhao Yu?” Zhao Yu laughed sneakily. “Let me tell you, I’ve already taken care of Hong Zhitao! When I say I’ve taken care of something, I mean that it’s completely taken care of, got it? They won’t come looking for trouble from you guys anymore!”

“But...” The two were even more confused.

“Hehe...alright! Let’s talk actual business now!” Zhao Yu’s smile faded and he spoke seriously, “I, Zhao Yu, never do things for free! Since I helped you guys with something so big, then you guys must be sincere. We cannot break the laws of the streets!”

“You...what are you going to do?!” Yang Hong’s voice quivered as she asked.

“Hmph! What do you think I want?” Zhao Yu huffed coldly and pointed to the bathroom. “Go back and wash up again. Later, give me the full service! Otherwise...don’t blame Zhao Yu for betraying you two!”

Chapter 143: Strike Out

Beep beep...Zhao Yu had just reached home when he got Jiang Xiaoqing’s WeChat message: “Officer Zhao, I saw the three men crawl out the door just now! Were they beaten up by you? Are you okay? Should I call for an ambulance or the police? Reply ASAP...”

Zhao Yu laughed and quickly went to the balcony with the phone in his hand. He waved to the worried Jiang Xiaoqing. “Xiaoqing, I’m okay! Play with the dog for a while, I have something important to settle!”

Jiang Xiaoqing had wanted to probe further, but Zhao Yu had already gone back into the house. He found a number in his phone and dialed it immediately. He was calling Supervisor Lu Zhaohong from the Anti-Pornography and Illegal Activities Unit of Rongyang Branch.

“Hello, is this Supervisor Lu? Do you know who I am? I’m Zhao Yu...” Although Zhao Yu and Supervisor Zhao were merely acquaintances, they were in the same branch.

Supervisor Lu quickly recognized Zhao Yu’s voice and laughed as he replied, “Hey? Bro Zhao? This is really unexpected...What’s up?”

“Bro, keke...” Zhao Yu also laughed. “As it’s an urgent matter, I shall not beat around the bush. I’m calling you because of something really, really important!”

“Oh?” As Zhao Yu had solved a few major cases, he had already made a name for himself in all of Rongyang Branch. Since he said that he had something important to discuss, Lu Zhaohong naturally did not dare to ignore it and gave him his full attention.

“Keke...” Zhao Yu laughed. “Bro, I guess you must have heard that a big leader from the province police station will be stationed at our unit?”

“Oh?” Lu Zhaohong frowned and quickly nodded. “Yes, that’s right! The head bureau chief has already introduced him to all of the colleagues in our branch! What’s wrong?”

“It’s like this! This leader...we know each other personally. I’m not sure if you’ve heard about that?” Zhao Yu asked mysteriously.

“Yes, yes, yes!” Lu Zhaohong said. “Of course I’ve heard. That leader is not friendly with anyone else but you, Bro Zhao! You have a really wide network!”

“Please don’t say that!” Zhao Yu said idly. “It’s like that. He gave me quite a lot of information when we were having a meal together! And the information mainly concerns you, so I thought to tell you immediately. Don’t tell anyone else about this!”

“Ah!?” Lu Zhaohong was stunned. “Yes, yes, yes, don’t worry bro!”

“Actually...it’s quite simple.” Zhao Yu quickly got to the main topic seeing that the other party had fallen for his trick. “The main reason why he come to our branch is because the illegal gambling activity at some of the red-light districts are getting out of hand, and this area has already gotten their attention! With your years of experience, I guess I need not say more? They are not investigating on the illegal activities, but on the conduct of us police officers!”

“Ah!?” Lu Zhaohong was dumbstruck and he stammered, “B-bro! We’ve been working hard on this area recently. I guess there shouldn’t be any problem?”

“Kekeke...I guess you’re unaware!” Zhao Yu sighed and pretended to be hesitant before telling Lu Zhaohong cautiously, “Bro, I shall be honest with you, the province police station has already given me a mission, and I’ve gotten news that illegal activities such as prostitution, gambling, drug dealing, mob fights, and etc. at Chahai Street have been really serious recently! I’ll send you the evidence in a bit if you don’t believe me! It took me great effort to get this piece of information!”

“Ah!?” Chahai Street was under the jurisdiction of Rongyang Branch. If there were any illegal activities going on there, Lu Zhaohong and his Anti-pornography and Illegal Activities Unit would be the first to bear the brunt. Lu Zhaohong was extremely terrified by Zhao Yu’s news and quickly asked, “Bro, bro! I believe you, why wouldn’t I believe you! Ah...this is such a big news! Thank you for telling me. If you hadn’t, I would be in deep trouble!”

“Don’t mention it! We’re from the same branch and we should stand as one!” Zhao Yu continued, “You are the first one I thought of when I got this news! Let me put it this way, the higher-ups are now mainly investigating on a local tyrant called Hong Zhitao. This man calls himself Master Hong, and he has already done countless illegal activities, and is under special investigation by the provincial police office! I’ve just received news that he will be doing some major illegal activities in the next hour...Bro! If you can get rid of them at this critical juncture, kekeke...”

“Oh...” Lu Zhaohong already had goosebumps all over. He quickly thanked Zhao Yu, “Bro, I’m really grateful that you’re giving me help at a time like this!”

“Bro, I’m not trying to give myself credit here,” Zhao Yu continued with his acting, “but even the bureau chief has yet to figure out what the provincial police want exactly! If you are able to settle this nicely now, wouldn’t the rest be easy in the future? If you do well next time, don’t forget about me!”

“Ah, sure, of course! I’ll definitely remember your kindness!” Lu Zhaohong said with gratitude. “You’ll be like my real brother from now on! I’ll definitely do a good job! I’ll go gather some officers now!”

“Yes, you have to be fast!” Zhao Yu advised. “Also, you’ve gotta make them strike out when dealing with these organized crime syndicates. Not only do you have to defeat them, but you have to get rid of them completely! Especially that Hong Zhitao. He’s committed so many crimes and the provincial police has already gotten much evidence against him. If you do less than them, it may not look too good...”

“I understand! Don’t worry! I’ll definitely check thoroughly!” Lu Zhaohong said. “Bro, if hear more good stuff in future, don’t forget about me! I’ll need your advice!”

“Don’t worry!” Zhao Yu laughed. “I’ll send you the recording that I got in a little bit. But for now, you better take action fast!”

“Alright! I’ll talk to you again, bro!” Lu Zhaohong patted his chest. “No words can express my gratitude, bro. Wait until after the matter is settled and see how I perform!”

After hanging up, Zhao Yu laughed, feeling satisfied. He started to edit the recording, deleting the beginning and end, and sent Lu Zhaohong only the important parts. With this recording as evidence, Lu Zhaohong would definitely put in great effort!

“Heh heh heh...” Zhao Yu could not help but laugh and say to himself, “I’ve done such a good deed today, getting rid of a menace to society. Is the completion rate going to be perfect this time? I wonder what good stuff I’ll receive this time?”

However, it could also be understood that the power of the government was still the greatest! With just a phone call, the years of hard work of Hong Zhitao and his men was going to be destroyed overnight!

Mmm...Something struck Zhao Yu from the bottom of his heart, making him feel that an evil gangster would never come to a good end no matter how well he did. As a result, he had a new view on life and understanding for his identity as a police officer. He realized that...it was not necessary to fight and kill to settle something, and it could still be settled nicely! Alright, the tyrant issue had been settled, so...what was next? Once he thought about Yang Hong and Huahua staying opposite of him, Zhao Yu felt hot all over...

Chapter 144: Who's at the Door?

"Ow...Oof...oohh..." From the lobby came Zhao Yu's banshee-like wailing. The inside of the room was wrapped in a sweet scent, with soft lighting. Yang Hong and Huahua were wearing red and white long dresses respectively. One was standing and massaging Zhao Yu's shoulders, the other was squatting down and squeezing his feet.

Zhao Yu was wearing a thick pajamas, dangling some grapes he had just bought in his mouth, and squeezing the walnuts he taken from Hong Zhitao. Even though the environment was a little shabby, Zhao Yu felt quite comfortable, with little worry for what had just happened.

Half an hour ago, the entire police force had headed out. With lightning speed, they swept through all of Chahai Street and captured a huge number of criminals, and confiscated a large amount of illegal substances, completely destroying the illegal activities happening secretly on Chahai Street.

Coincidentally, just as the police had poured in, Hong Zhitao had gathered about twenty people holding all sorts of weapons about to go after Zhao Yu for revenge! The police had assumed that they were trying to resist violently and had been caught in the process! That fight...hoo...the twenty underlings were beaten completely into submission, wailing and begging, then all thrown into jail!

To show the effectiveness of his actions, Lu Zhaohong sent Zhao Yu a few photos of the scene. In one photo, that arrogant and proud Sir Hong had already lost all his energy. His head hung down as he squatted on the ground, clearly cuffed by the police!

When the information came in, Yang Hong and Huahua had no clue. The two had even had packed up everything in despair, and were ready to say goodbye to Zhao Yu, then go back to their old homes to avoid the storm! Only when Zhao Yu showed them the photos did the two finally understand Zhao Yu's original idea! After all that, Officer Zhao apparently had a plan, and had intended to solve the problem at its root!

Little Huahua was completely dumbfounded. She truly had not expected Officer Zhao to be so resourceful. Even someone as powerful as Hong Zhitao had been so easily taken care of! Such competence, such strength! How was this the same person as the idiot police officer who had been telling her stupid jokes that day on the balcony? This was clearly her savior!

Suddenly, Huahua's view of Zhao Yu changed completely. She looked up to Zhao Yu greatly! Her gaze, looking up to Zhao Yu, was mixed with thirty percent gratefulness and seventy percent respect.

Yang Hong also changed her perspective on Zhao Yu. She paused for the longest time before giving her thanks.

Yet, Zhao Yu immediately waved his hands, saying there was no need for thanks! From now on, if they wanted his protection, they could give him something more materialized! "Here, I've already showered.

Just waiting for your full service now!” he had said. Come here...let’s see if your skills are truly professional or not?” Thus, under Zhao Yu’s shameless request, the two put down their luggage and started giving him a back and foot massage.

“How is it? Mister Yu?” Huahua squeezed Zhao Yu’s feet and spoke seductively, “I used to study under a professional, so my foot massage skills are quite good!”

“Oww...lighter...lighter...” Zhao Yu was so comfortable he was grinning. The grape in his mouth nearly fell out! When Huahua saw, she smiled, but her hand squeezed harder.

“Miss Hong!” Zhao Yu dragged on Yang Hong’s long skirt, grinning. “I say...hm...this is full service? Feet and back massage is just foreplay, right? We...hmp...when do we get to the next level? Should we...oof...understand each other more deeply?”

“Hehe...” Yang Hong lightly swayed her hips and smiled at Huahua softly. “Huahua, since Officer Zhao helped you so much, then you really should help Zhao Yu release some steam!” Huahua’s face turned slightly red, and she feigned shyness as she nodded.

“Huh?” Zhao Yu turned his head in a hurry. “What, just one? What about you, Miss Hong? You can’t scam your customers! No slacking allowed!”

“Oh?” Yang Hong crossed her arms and raised her eyebrow. “What? You have quite the appetite huh? I’m telling you, you helping out Huahua has nothing to do with me! Also, you didn’t spend any money, what customer...”

Yet, Yang Hong did not even finish speaking before Zhao Yu’s doorbell suddenly rang. The sound of a dog barking came from outside.

“Crap!” Zhao Yu suddenly remembered that his dog was still with Jiang Xiaoqing! It must be Jiang Xiaoqing returning the dog.

Huahua was the closest to the door. She had wanted to turn to open the door, but Zhao Yu blocked her and whispered, “No, no! This is probably the landlord’s daughter, she’s a kid, let’s not. Please move over a bit, sorry...”

Zhao Yu did not want Jiang Xiaoqing to see him messing around with the two beauties, and immediately pulled Yang Hong and Huahua onto the sofa and tried to cover their bare thighs with their long skirt, then finally strode towards the door.

Creak...As the door opened, the dog Daheng and Jiang Xiaoqing appeared in front of him, but Zhao Yu never would have imagined that beside Jiang Xiaoqing also stood another person—a beautiful female police officer!

The female officer stood tall at 5’6”, and had a mushroom hairstyle that covered her ears. It was Miao Ying!!!

Holy...Zhao Yu nearly blinded himself by blinking too hard and fast. He never thought that Miao Ying would be at his door?! This...What kind of situation is this...

“Woof woof...” Daheng knew he was home, and barked twice before lowering his head and passing through Zhao Yu’s legs.

“Ah...Officer Zhao! Daheng’s home now, here...” Jiang Xiaoqing pointed at Miao Ying and spoke, “This police lady said she was looking for you. You guys can chat...mm...” Yet, when Jiao Xiaoqing spoke, she took a glance into the room and immediately saw Yang Hong and Huahua sitting on the sofa!

Yang Hong was sitting on the sofa’s armrest, dangling a cigarette from her mouth. Huahua was sitting on the sofa, and gesturing at the dog Daheng who she was already familiar with.

Jiang Xiaoqing first gaped, then bit the inside of her mouth as she glared at Zhao Yu, shaking her head as if she knew better. “You’re quite busy, huh, ‘godfather’?!”

Hearing Jiagn Xiaoqing call him “godfather,” Zhao Yu did not know whether to laugh or cry. He immediately made a face at her and waved her away. Now only Miao Ying remained! Miao Ying had a powerful presence. Within a moment, a chill came through the door and the entire atmosphere changed.

“Mm...that...Miao Ren...Team Leader Miao!” Zhao Yu rubbed his eyes. “I’m not seeing things, right? Weren’t you just out of town catching a murderer? Yest...yesterday you were still...”

“We came back overnight in a hurry!” It was apparent Miao Ying did not want to make small talk with Zhao Yu. Standing at the door, she got right to the point. “Mister Zhao Yu, I’ve already submitted an application to your higher-ups to invite you to Ruyang Branch and participate in the judgement for Jian Wenli’s murder. I’m here to pick you up!”

“Oh...it’s like that...I...” Zhao Yu turned and looked into his living room, thinking to himself, “Miao Ying really picked a good time. I was about to show these girls what I was made of! To cockblock me like this will give me some kind of issues!”

Seeing Zhao Yu’s hesitation, Miao Ying could not help but poke her head in, and suddenly saw the two beauties sitting on the sofa! Huahua was currently looking down and playing with the dog, while Yang Hong politely nodded at Miao Ying, then went back to blowing smoke rings to herself.

Miao Ying fake a cough and looked at Zhao Yu with an indescribably complicated expression. “Seems like Officer Zhao is a little busy. I’ll leave you to it!”

“No?” Zhao Yu furrowed his brow and changed the topic, “Why was this so sudden? Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

“Before we got on the plane, we already informed your higher ups!” Miao Ying spoke seriously. “Bureau Chief Luan of the main investigation team, and Captain Liu of the Mobile team, we’ve informed them all!”

“Hm?” Zhao Yu was first confused, but as if right on cue, his phone suddenly rang. He looked down and saw it was from Peng Xin. Peng Xin’s call matched Miao Ying’s story. Not only that, but Peng Xin also warned Zhao Yu, saying that the higher-ups saw this as a case of extreme importance. Rongyang’s only representative, Zhao Yu, had to cooperate well and be a good representative! Not only would there be regular rewards and praise, but later on he would also get a part of the prize money! If the case was handled well, then the prize money might even be comparable to the prize for Yu Zhigen’s case!

Comparable?! Zhao Yu did some mental calculations. Yu Zhigen’s case’s prize money was something like sixty-thousand yuan. If it was possible, could he also make sixty-thousand yuan from Jian Wenli’s case?!

Holy sh*t...Zhao Yu could not help but look at the two beauties on the sofa. He thought to himself, "It seems like...tonight I can still come back and have some fun, right?" The money wouldn't wait for him, right?

Thinking this much, Zhao Yu immediately put away the walnuts and snapped at Miao Ying, "Okay, Team Leader Miao! Please wait a moment. I'll put on some new clothes, then go downstairs with you!"

Chapter 145: Attend Alone

"Captain Miao?" Zhao Yu was in Miao Ying's police car. He felt awkward and asked, "Why do you keep looking at the side mirror?"

Miao Ying was wearing a pair of huge shades, looking very suave. She took a glance at Zhao Yu before shaking her head. "Big detective, can't you guess? I really have no idea what you guys at Rongyang Branch are thinking. Why isn't there anyone following you?"

"Following me?" Zhao Yu frowned deeply. "For what?"

"I asked one of my officers to contact your leader before I boarded the plane," Miao Ying did not answer his question, "but you received the call only when I went to pick you up at your house. This kind of efficiency...tsk tsk..."

"Nonsense!" Zhao Yu said to himself. "First, it was Luan Xiaoxiao, then it was Liu Changhu! The reason why I had received the notice so late was not because of problems with efficiency, but character!"

Especially Liu Changhu. When he found out that Zhao Yu had solved another cold case with Ruyang Branch, of course he was unhappy! He had probably wanted to cause trouble but could not find a good enough reason, so he had to let Peng Xin call Zhao Yu eventually. However, Zhao Yu was still frowning because he could sense that Miao Ying's words seemed to have some hidden message.

"Hey, Miao Renfeng," Zhao Yu asked her directly, "What are you trying to say?"

"Comrade Zhao Yu," Miao Yu said with a blank expression, "if I were your superior, I would definitely send someone to follow you! How could it be a coincidence that you found the ransom money in the Mianling Kidnapping Case?"

"Huh?" Zhao Yu pondered for a while before he understood what Miao Ying really meant. He quickly replied indifferently, "Why? You think that I was the kidnapper? Am I that old?"

"The young lady even called you her godfather!" Miao Ying might have laughed, but one could not tell due to her huge sunglasses.

"That girl was making fun of me on purpose! Tsk tsk..." Zhao Yu exclaimed. "Captain Miao, you're really well-informed. Why...are you envious, or are you trying to get inside information from me?"

"Mianling Kidnapping Case! Qinshan's number one cold case!" Miao Ying said dismissively. "All Qinshan police officers were going wild last night. How could I have not heard about it? I'm just very curious. Why have all of these bizarre and coincidental things happened to you?"

“Isn’t the answer simple?” Zhao Yu took the chance to show off. “Didn’t I tell you before, I am acquainted with many gods that are like my brothers! Once I shout for help, they all come and help me!”

“Is your shamelessness automatic?” Miao Ying rebuked and then continued, “But I was really fooled by your annoying looks! Young man, you’re really something! I can’t figure out how you think. How was Jian Wenli’s case connected to duplicating keys?”

“That’s simple!” Zhao Yu knew that he had to report the process of solving Jian Wenli’s case sooner or later, so there was no need for him to hide it. He told Miao Ying about how he had felt that the murderer was not an experienced thief, and how he had gotten inspiration from the key and the lock. He also said that although it appeared to be a coincidence that Mi Aijun and Lin Meifeng chose the same day to kill someone, he realized there had to be something more to it after thinking carefully.

However, there are causes and effects in this world. If Lin Meifeng went into Jian Wenli’s house before Mi Aijun, everything would have been different! Hearing Zhao Yu sound so logical, Miao Ying could not help but keep nodding. It seemed that Zhao Ying must have a certain level of capability to be able to solve these big cases in such a short time! It was definitely not something that could be easily explained!

“Then,” Miao Ying took the chance to ask, “can you tell me how you blocked everybody’s cell service in the station that one time?”

Damn! Zhao Yu pouted. He had not expected this woman to be still cling on to their betting incident. “I did not lie to you about that!” Zhao Yu naturally would not tell the truth. He replied seriously, “I really have supernatural powers! I exercised my powers that time and used up my half a year’s worth of power!”

“...” Miao Ying was speechless, despite how eloquent she normally was. If only she was not driving...she really wanted to beat the shameless Zhao Yu up!

Both of them stopped talking, and the car was silent. Zhao Yu should have been very sleepy by that point since he had not slept the night before, and because he had also dealt with Master Hong and his posse during the day; however, Zhao Yu’s eyes were wide open and he did not feel drowsy at all. He kept glancing at Miao Ying out of the corner of his eye and felt that Miao Ying was very good-looking! Miao Ying had a very refreshing disposition. She was young and had a heroic spirit. Miao Ying was beautiful and suave at the same time! Her black and shiny mushroom-like hairstyle was clean and simple, and the contours of her face were sharp and clear. Zhao Yu had the impulse to kiss her after looking at her for awhile.

Although Yao Jia was also a great beauty, she was beautiful and graceful like a princessy rich girl, which always made Zhao Yu feel a little distant. Looking at the suave Miao Ying, Zhao Yu was a little dazed. He felt that Miao Ying’s temperament was more like the Yao Jia he had been madly in love with in his previous life! As he watched her, Zhao Yu’s hormones started acting up, and he began to fantasize. His mind was filled with Miao Ying’s figure, Miao Ying’s looks, Miao Ying’s temper...

“Hey!” Miao Ying noticed Zhao Yu’s frivolous eyes and quickly shouted, “What are you thinking about?”

Zhao Yu was startled and gulped before stuttering, “Mmm...!...I’m thinking about...what will happen to Lin Meifeng!”

“Oh...” Zhao Yu’s words successfully shifted Miao Ying’s attention elsewhere. After thinking, she said, “Although the real murder has been found, it is still a fact that Lin Meifeng had intended to kill someone! The seriousness depends on how this matter is being handled. She could get a heavy sentence if it’s serious, or she could be given a warning if she’s lucky!”

“Oh...” Zhao Yu pretended to be listening carefully, but his eyes were still gazing uncontrollably at Miao Ying. He was struggling inside, pondering if he should use one of his invisible devices on her!?

“We’ve already contacted Lin Meifeng’s husband, and he said that he would hire the best lawyer to defend Lin Meifeng.” Miao Ying continued, “I think...there should be a good ending!”

“That’s good, that’s good...” Zhao Yu nodded absentmindedly.

After the car reached Ruyang Branch, Zhao Yu cooperated with Miao Ying and her team, and did some interrogation and follow-ups on Jian Wenli’s case. After the report was completed and the standard procedures had been followed, it was already eight at night. Seeing that the case was closed, Zhao Yu had wanted to head home to continue his discussion with Yang Hong and Huahua, however, Miao Ying suddenly led her team of Key Case investigation agents and surrounded Zhao Yu. Looking at the expressions and postures of the agents, they did not appear to have good intentions.

“Comrade Zhao Yu!” Miao Ying smiled and held out her hand, “Thank you for your cooperation, it’s been tough for you! We’re going to Haiguantun to celebrate tonight. Why don’t you come along?”

Huh? Seeing Miao Ying smiling, Zhao Yu felt that something was not right. He was aware that although it had been a joint investigation, Miao Ying and her team had held some animosity toward him. Why would they invite him to have dinner with them? Weren’t they afraid that he would make them lose their appetite?

“Captain Miao,” Zhao Yu slowly stretched out his hand and shook with Miao Ying’s, “I remember you saying that you would never treat me to a meal. Why have you suddenly changed your mind?”

“Keke...” Miao Ying smiled. “I never go back on my word, but this time it’s our Key Case Investigation Unit gathering. It’s official, so it’s not me treating you! So...are you coming?”

“Oh...” Zhao Yu looked at the agents and saw that they were all looking at him and waiting for his reply.

Hmm...Zhao Yu could tell that the agents were all up to no good! He thought, “Don’t tell me all of you think that I don’t have the guts to go? Huh! If so, then you’re all wrong! I’m not a scaredy-cat! Even if you set up a banquet as a trap for me, I would still dare to attend alone! Alright, since you are not afraid that I will ruin your appetites, why should I be worried? Besides, I can spend more time with the suave Miao Ying. It’s good to see my eye-candy!”

With this thought, Zhao Yu held his fists together and said, “Sure, I’ll accept the invitation! I’m also hungry!” After Zhao Yu said this, many agents groaned and looked depressed. Only one female agent wearing glasses smiled and shouted, “Ah! I’ve won! I’ve won!”

Chapter 146: Even Praise Can Be Offensive

As it turned out, it had been a bet made by the investigators in the Ruyang Key Case Investigation Unit. They were betting on whether or not Zhao Yu would dare to accept Miao Ying's invitation and go eat with them.

In the end, other than the female investigator with glasses who bet that Zhao Yu would agree, everyone else all thought that since Zhao Yu feared Miao Ying, he would never accept the invitation. But the truth stunned them. Zhao Yu had not acted as they had expected, and had agreed readily instead. Miao Ying also lost the bet, but she had already spoken, so she could only bring Zhao Yu along to Haiguantun Fish Stew Restaurant.

This bet seemed to have been a made in the spur of the moment, but it had specifically been planned by Miao Ying. Since Zhao Yu had officially cooperated with them, and had been essential in closing the Jian Wenli case, whether informally or formally, they had to show some sort of appreciation! Otherwise, if other people heard about their treatment, Ruyang Branch would seem very rude. On the other hand, Zhao Yu really was very annoying! He came to the Ruyang Key Case Investigation Unit once and had made a huge commotion, which made them lose face. To invite him out for food was a little bit frustrating to say the least! Besides, Miao Ying had already said that she would never invite him out for food in a million years!

This was why Miao Ying had made the bet. She had wanted to back Zhao Yu into a corner and make him reject her invitation. This way, she would have done her duty as a hostess for Ruyang Branch, and if Zhao Yu declined, then everybody else would think that he was rude. But Miao Ying had underestimated Zhao Yu's shamelessness. She had not expected him to agree so easily. Too bad! She had brought this disaster upon herself, so she could only accept it! It was really was like the old saying: it's easy to invite trouble, but hard to send it away!

The investigators all feared Zhao Yu's strange temper, so Miao Ying had to let Zhao Yu ride in her own car. Because it already after work, Miao Ying took off her police uniform and changed into to a casual blue cardigan and a nice pair of jeans. She wore white sneakers.

Although her clothing seemed simple, Zhao Yu who knew a bit about fashion could tell that all of her clothing were international brands that were incredibly expensive! Ah?! He could never have imagined this. Who would have known that Miao Renfeng was so fashionable? How had he not seen it before? The sky was pitch black, but Zhao Yu suddenly felt as if there was a bright light shining in front of him; he could not help but stare! The devil like Miao Renfeng was simply too pretty!

But this was just the beginning. When Zhao Yu followed Miao Ying to her car, he was even more stunned. Miao Ying's car was a light blue Volkswagon Phaeton! Zhao Yu had previously engaged in some illegal trading, so he was quite knowledgeable about cars. Before he even entered the car, he could tell that this car was the newest Phaeton on the market. It was at least two-million yuan!

My god! Zhao Yu was a little dumbfounded. He never would have imagined that Miao Ying would drive this sort of car! He was a bit of suspicious. What was Miao Renfeng's background? How could such a young police team leader drive such a valuable car? This woman...was not normal!

The car started and headed straight for the restaurant. In the car, Zhao Yu had originally wanted to find a topic to find out about Miao Ying's life. Why was she so rich? How old was she? Did she have a boyfriend and such? But it seemed that Miao Ying was only interested in one topic: the massive Mianling Kidnapping case that had re-appeared due to the new evidence!

Miao Ying said that the prestige of this case was a hundreds of times greater than their murder exchange case! If the investigation was restarted, it would surely cause a huge wave of commotion.

“Officer Zhao, have you thought about the corpses inside the tunnel. Who were they?” Miao Ying asked.

Zhao Yu shook his head and spoke honestly, “Sis, this case wasn’t mine! Twenty-six years ago, I wasn’t even in my mom’s womb yet!”

Miao Ying seemed to have noticed that Zhao Yu was just running his mouth and simply continued without a care. “The bones are currently being examined by your branch office. It’s already been more than ten hours. Even if the work isn’t done, shouldn’t there be some information by now? How come there isn’t anything from your side?” Miao Ying’s words suddenly got straight to the point.

Zhao Yu thought carefully. It was true. Even if the five corpses had not been finished being investigated, they should have finished doing one or two. How come there was not any information yet?

Since they had come back from the tunnel, only Team Leader Qu Ping had sent people to investigate the tunnel in question, to see who was responsible for the tunnel where the corpses had been, and what time the tunnel had collapsed, etc. Other than that, the police had made no progress. It almost felt like the information was on lock down!

“Tens of TV stations, hundreds of reporters all flocking to Rongyang Branch, the scene was unbelievable!” Miao Ying spoke mysteriously. “Even late at night, the news couldn’t be avoided! Yet, there wasn’t anything from the police. They’re still keeping it a secret, why?”

“What are you trying to say?” Zhao Yu asked.

“Watch!” Miao Ying’s gaze suddenly seemed distant. “Your forensics department definitely found something amazing! Right now, even the higher-ups don’t know what to do!”

What?! Something amazing? What? Zhao Yu felt goosebumps from Miao Ying’s words. He thought that bones were just bones! What amazing things could they find?

“No matter what, this huge case is a double-edge sword!” Miao Ying sighed meaningfully. “If we deal with this well, then Rongyang Branch got lucky. If not, then it’s like you guys picked up a huge bomb!!”

There was no need to be reminded from Miao Ying. Zhao Yu knew the importance of this mission, but since he was so unsure of the situation, without instruction from the higher-ups, there was no need for him to be so needlessly agitated! Thus, it was better to just enjoy the restaurant than for him to spend his time thinking about the case.

Unexpected, the restaurant was in the farm courtyard of a house in Haiguantun! But as expected of good food, by the time Zhao Yu followed Miao Ying to the destination, the outside of the courtyard was already packed with cars, with people everywhere. Outside of the courtyard was even a barbecue stand. If people did not enjoy the fish stew, they could come out and have some barbecue. The area was filled with smoke and noise, almost like a busy street. Zhao Yu knew that since Ruyang Key Case Investigation Unit had come all the way out here for food, the fish stew must be one of a kind.

Miao Ying lead the group of investigators into the private room. Once the different varieties of fish stew were served, the smell was heavenly and truly mouthwatering. The investigators were all quite hungry. They cheered as a formality, but immediately dug into the food. The fish was quite delicious. Zhao Yu ate happily.

Because many were people driving, there were not many people drinking at the table. Most people just drank soda. Due to the lack of people drinking, added with Zhao Yu, the atmosphere felt even more serious. It may have been to lift the mood, but once everyone had finished eating, Miao Ying suddenly raised her soda to Zhao Yu, saying that she appreciated his contribution to the Jian Wenli case. She also praised him for his intelligence, flexibility, and said that he had the makings of a good detective, with endless potential.

Zhao Yu was a little surprised that Miao Renfeng was being so polite with him. To show his own sincerity, Zhao Yu also started praising Miao Ying, saying that she was so accomplished in her youth, so dedicated to her work, and was also one of the brightest stars in Qinshan!

Miao Ying had not expected Zhao Yu to be so good at speaking and immediately returned his compliment. She said that not only did Zhao Yu possess the qualities that had just been mentioned, but he was also incredibly brave and skilled at capturing criminals, and truly excelled in both intelligence and prowess!

Zhao Yu was equally as competitive as Miao Ying. He immediately praised Miao Ying's powerful martial art skills. He claimed that she was truly the ace of the police team, and the ace of all aces! To show off his ability to banter, Zhao Yu immediately praised Miao Ying's beauty, and her incredible form. Miao Ying would not back down and immediately praised Zhao Yu's fitness, beautiful form, and incredible fashion sense...

The two's fiery competition had everyone else stunned. No one could interrupt, or even speak at all. They were already completely stunned, thinking to themselves, "Aren't Miao Ying and Zhao Yu enemies? Why are they praising each other?"

"Officer Zhao is loved by all, adored by nature!" Miao Ying got to the height of her excitement. She even slapped the table and told the investigators, "Did you guys know? Today, when I went to pick up officer Zhao, I saw his two girlfriends! They were both top tier beauties! Also, he truly is blessed with luck. He even has a little girl calling him his godfather! Hahaha..."

Mm...This...The investigators were again speechless. Zhao Yu was a bit surprised and pondered to himself, "Was she praising me? Or giving me a backhanded compliment?"

"That's too much!" Zhao Yu did not want to lose and immediately started praising Miao Ying again, "Team Leader Miao is not only beautiful, but also fashionable, and even rich! She has an entire set of brand name clothing, and her car is a Volkswagen Phaeton. It's truly enviable!" Zhao Yu had purposely made his complement a little edgy, meaning to also make Miao Ying wonder, "Was he praising me or praising me?"

Now the investigators were even more confused. A few sharper individuals had already noticed some issues.

Miao Ying first paused, but reacted lightning fast. She immediately stood up and spoke, “Even I can’t match up with officer Zhao! Officer Zhao caught so many criminals in a row. The prize money must be stunning! Oh, also, I heard that Officer Zhao is incredibly honest and has a huge sense of justice. He even attacked his own superior! Zhao Yu, didn’t you throw a cup at your captain? Truly the symbol of boldness and bravery!”

Miao Ying spoke with a bright smile on her face and looked as if she were praising Zhao Yu, but she was really hinting at Zhao Yu’s shortcomings! The investigators were somewhat confused, but still could not help but start laughing.

Zhao Yu would not stand to be insulted like that. He immediately had an idea. He stood up as he spoke, “No, no...Team Leader Miao Ying is giving me too high a compliment! Speaking of boldness and bravery, I’m not even in the same league as Team Leader Miao! I don’t think anyone here knew about this, but me and Team Leader Miao had a misunderstanding before and ended up fighting at the police academy. Ah, I was beat to a pulp by Team Leader Miao! Really! I spent all my energy and still couldn’t hurt her. I only ended up ripping Team Leader Miao’s pants off and bit her in the butt!!!”

Chapter 147: It’s Gotten Out of Hand This Time

Oh...” After Zhao Yu completed his sentence, all of the agents present could not help but exclaim, and their faces even turned white!

“Oh...I’m sorry, please don’t be mistaken!” Zhao Yu realized that he had been careless with his words and quickly apologized. “I waited for Captain Miao to pull up her pants back before biting her! I bit her over her clothes! Please don’t be mistaken!”

“Oh...” everybody exclaimed again, and the agents’ faces turned from white to green! After their reaction, there was dead silence! Miao Ying’s lips had already turned green with anger, and her whole body was shaking...

Thinking back on the big fight at the police academy, the two things that Miao Ying hated for others to mention the most were her pants falling down and her being bitten. But not only had Zhao Yu said it all out loud, but he had done so in front of her whole team. How could she still remain calm?

At that moment, she wished that she could turn the table upside down and bash Zhao Yu! But...this was a celebration dinner, and Zhao Yu was the representative of the partner branch, so it would be inappropriate to beat him up. After thinking carefully, Miao Ying suppressed her burning rage and slowly sat down.

However, Zhao Yu looked as if he did not care and continued tasting the delicious fish. He had said all of those words on purpose! “Huh! This is called reciprocity! Don’t think only you can praise me, I can also praise you!”

Seeing Zhao Yu’s brazen and annoying look, Miao Ying gave him a fierce glare before saying angrily to the agents, “Alright, we’re done eating. Let’s go sing at Luyin Karaoke! You guys go and get a big room first, I’ll settle the bill here!”

The agents felt that something was not quite right. Zhang quickly lowered his head and asked, "Captain..."

"Get going quick!" Miao Ying waved her hand. "Officer Zhao and I will be there shortly!" Knowing Miao Ying's temper, no one else dared to say anything, and they all went to get their cars.

After everyone left, there was only Miao Ying and Zhao Yu left in the room. Zhao Yu was no fool, and he had noticed that Miao Ying was extremely angry and exasperated. But something was wrong with him, and he still said brazenly, "Alright, Captain Miao, I've had my fill! I've never been to Luyin Karaoke though! Is it far!?"

Bish...A terrifying sound came from Miao Ying's fist as she walked with heavy steps toward Zhao Yu and said with emphasis, "Zhao Yu! Scram as far as you can! Don't let me see you again! Scram!!"

"Eh?" Although Zhao Yu was already mentally prepared, his anger was also ignited after seeing Miao Ying's angry and heartless expression. He replied righteously, "Captain Miao, you are wrong to say this! You're the one who started the topic, but you got angry because you didn't want to continue. What kind of logic is that?"

But before Zhao Yu could finish, Miao Ying did not wish to waste her breath and had already left. After Zhao Yu left the room, he saw that Miao Ying had already gone to the cashier to get the bill. As there were many people waiting in line, it seemed like Miao Ying had to wait for a while before it was her turn!

"Huh, you tell me to scram, but you were the one who scrambled first?" Zhao Yu mumbled to himself. If he went forward and continued to argue with her, it would really be inappropriate. With this, Zhao Yu took his coat and left the restaurant.

Tsk tsk...He looked left and right, and realized that the place very far from the city and there were no cabs around. It would be difficult to go back without a ride!

Damn...Zhao Yu got angrier the more he thought about it. "What's the meaning of this!? Oh, you're chasing me away just by saying you don't wanna see me?" Actually, besides feeling angry, Zhao Yu also felt a little disappointed. He did not want to really call it quits with Miao Ying. There was something about Miao Ying that had already deeply attracted him, but he had not realized it until now!

Since there were no cabs around, he had to use a ride-sharing app! "If not..." Zhao Yu saw Miao Ying's Volkswagen Phaeton and thought to himself, "Why don't I hide behind the car and sneak in when Miao Ying opens the door!?" Just when Zhao Yu's thoughts were running wild, he suddenly saw a small table beside the car. There were two people eating and drinking. Although they were men, they both had long hair. One was fat and the other was thin. Both of them had tattoos on their arms, and they looked like young punks in the area.

At that moment, the two were already high and trifling in a drunken state. After seeing them, Zhao Yu suddenly came up with a bad idea. He looked at Miao Ying's car and then the two men, and his mouth curled into a sinister sneer. He took out one-hundred RMB from his wallet and walked over to the two men. "Hey, you two are enjoying your drinks! Keke..." Zhao Yu pretended to be drunk and slammed the money on the table. "There, do you see that?" He pointed at Miao Ying's Phaeton. "Whoever goes over there and pisses on that car will get this money!"

“What!” The fat long-haired man glanced at Zhao Yu before roaring, “Are you crazy? Huh!”

Bang! Zhao Yu took out his wallet and put down another hundred! This time around, the two men looked at each other and their expression changed. “Hey! You...” The thin man had just opened his mouth when Zhao Yu slapped down another bill.

“...” the two men had already seen the money and felt tempted. Being an expert in this, Zhao Yu suddenly took the money back after seeing that the two had fallen for his trick. “Then forget it! Pretend I didn’t say anything. I’m off!” With this, he turned to leave, but the thin man immediately held him back while the fat man took big steps toward the Phaeton!

Huh! Zhao Yu gave a satisfied nod and put the money back on the table. At that moment, the fat man who had reached the Phaeton looked around before starting to take his pants off to pee! Zhao Yu had wanted to wait for the man to finish peeing, but he saw that Miao Ying had already paid and was walking over!

Zhao Yu’s heart skipped a beat and he quickly left the three hundred RMB before leaving. He fastened his steps and started to leave the lot, but less than ten meters out, he suddenly heard Miao Ying shout from behind him, “Hey! What are you...ah! Bastard!!!”

“Bastard! Bastard!” Miao Ying was really angry, slapping and shouting at the same time, and her voice even changed. “Bastard! You better lick my car clean today before you can even think of getting away!”

Phew... Zhao Yu heaved a sigh of relief and said to himself, “Luckily Miao Ying did not see me. If she knew that I was the one behind it, I’d be doomed!” Zhao Yu had wanted to turn back to look, but was afraid of being seen by Miao Ying, He quickly lowered his head and continued to walk out.

After just a few steps, the thin man’s roar came from behind again. “Eh? Why are you, a woman, hitting us? We can talk things over, but why do you have to hit us? Eh...eh? What do you want? Eh eh eh...”

Bam... Boom...The thin man also let out a series of cries! He must have been beaten up badly by Miao Ying! “Somebody help! Someone’s hitting us! Help...ah...” After being beaten, one of the men shouted at the top of his lungs, and a few people who were eating grilled skewers across the street quickly rushed over.

A few seconds later, there were more sounds of fighting where Miao Ying was. Zhao Yu frowned and could not help but turn back to look. Under the dim light, there was a mass of bobbing heads, and Miao Ying had already been surrounded by many people.

Tsk tsk... Zhao Yu’s intention had been to play a trick on Miao Ying, but he had not expected to cause such a scene! If this went on, it would be difficult to handle! Just as Zhao Yu was pondering what to do, the shutter doors beside him suddenly opened, and five or six gangster-looking men ran out! These men had been playing mahjong inside just now, and there was still a stack of money on the mahjong table! Among them, a scar face man asked, “Why? What happened?”

Another said, “I heard Tallie shouting for help just now. Was he being hit by someone? Quick, go and take a look!” Zhao Yu peered inside the house and saw that other than the mahjong table, there were also many big boxes. The big boxes all had Korean words on them, and some even had pictures of mobile phones. It could also be clearly seen that inside the open boxes were many mobile phone cables and electronic products related to earphones, etc.

Because of his knowledge from his past life, Zhao Yu could immediately tell that there was definitely something wrong with the house. They were either smuggling or dealing with pirated goods. Why else would there be so many strong, young men guarding it? Seeing Zhao Yu peering inside, the scar face man shouted fiercely at him, "Hey! What are you looking at?" Right after this, he quickly ordered the man behind him to close the door, and the shutter doors went down.

"Boss, I think they really got into a fight!" someone pointed at where Miao Ying was and shouted.

"Let's go and take a look!" Once the scar face man commanded, everyone charged over!

"Oh my, holy sh*t...this is bad!" Zhao Yu's heart skipped a beat. "It's really gotten out of hand this time!!!"

Chapter 148: Couldn't Help Himself

Seeing so many people rushing toward Miao Ying, Zhao Yu felt an even urgent sense of danger! He knew, this time, he had really gone too far! He immediately turned and walked back toward the parking lot, wanting to see how Miao Yin was doing.

Before he had even gotten close to the parking lot, he already heard someone yelling in the crowd, "Jesus, this woman's a tough nut to crack! Bro, don't let her run! Let's go!"

"Quick, people with weapons!" Another one roared, "Kill her!"

"Sh*t!" Zhao Yu cursed under his breath and immediately sped up. As he made his way closer, the sounds of battle grew fiercer. More people had already surrounded Miao Ying. Under the dim light, Zhao Yu could only see flashes of heads and fists, unable to see how Miao Ying was doing.

Actually, since Miao Ying was a police officer, as long as she yelled her identity, she could probably control the situation a bit. But Zhao Yu could only hear the sound of someone moaning after a beating, completely unable to hear Miao Ying's voice!

Boom! A delinquent flew out from the crowd and fell right at Zhao Yu's feet. The man laid on his back facing the sky and started spitting blood, but he did not stop cursing. Zhao Yu noticed no one was watching, so he kicked the man's face. He immediately fainted.

Tsk, tsk...Zhao Yu stood on high ground and craned his neck. He finally found Miao Ying. Miao Ying was truly fearless, smacking down anyone she saw! But there was strength in numbers. No matter how skilled Miao Ying was, there was no way she could fight off so many people unscathed! Under attack from so many people, her moves were already weakened, her body was bruised. It seemed like she had already taken many attacks!

Holy sh*t! Zhao Yu was shocked and immediately dashed into the crowd. Right at this moment, a delinquent lifted up an iron chair and aimed it at Miao Ying's head. Miao Ying had her back faced to him, so if this chair hit her head, the result would be disastrous.

Zhao Yu roared and slammed against the person with his shoulder, sending him flying! Due to the excessive strength, the person flew back and also took a few others with him! Zhao Yu's reflexes were lightning fast. He immediately picked up a chair and threw it at the person on the ground! With a loud sound, a wail of pain rose up from within the crowd.

Feeling the enemies behind her decrease in number, Miao Ying grabbed right at the hair of someone in front of her and pulled them towards her. With a quick knee strike, the person immediately flew upwards and slammed down harshly on the top of a car. Immediately after, Miao Ying followed up with a spinning kick, and another two people fell on the ground.

Zhao Yu was also rather busy himself. After taking care of that one person, he took large strides toward where the barbecue grill was. He grabbed the boiling hot grill with the coal in it, then threw it right into the crowd!

The red-hot coal spilled over people's heads, and a wave of wailing suddenly rang out. But Zhao Yu had grabbed the wrong spot, and with a yelp, his hand was also burned from the grill. Owowow...Zhao Yu bit his tongue from the burn and immediately threw the grill away.

The delinquents finally reacted to the fact that Zhao Yu was an enemy. Suddenly, many people rushed toward him. Zhao Yu simply held up a table and threw it right at them!

Boom!

Pow!

Ow!

Slump...Within the blink of an eye, the people who had rushed at Zhao Yu were knocked down. Due to his strength, the table was not only bent out of shape, but it simply fell apart! But the people who had been burnt by the coal began to stand up, and rushed towards Miao Ying and Zhao Yu once again.

Zhao Yu did not have a weapon anymore, so he simply roared and rushed forward with his fists. Boom, pow! He knocked out two people with his punches.

But there were simply too many enemies! Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were quickly surrounded. With the chaos of the situation, Zhao Yu's elbow and back were both hit. Miao Ying punched someone's nose, but was immediately pushed forward by another person. Coincidentally, she landed right in front of Zhao Yu.

Maybe Miao Ying was still riding on her adrenaline, but when she landed on Zhao Yu, she threw a punch without even looking, and hit Zhao Yu right in the face!

"Ow!" Zhao Yu clutched his face and crouched down down in pain. Immediately, multiple delinquents ran over to him!

Ah?! Miao Ying realized she had hit the wrong person. Seeing the delinquents surrounding Zhao Yu, she wanted to help but was immediately blocked by another two people.

But Zhao Yu did not need any help. He suddenly appeared through the punches and kicks, blowing a person away with the back of his head, then he snatched someone by the collar and held them sideways! It was almost like a cosmic explosion! “F*ck all of you f*ckers...” Zhao Yu roared and started using the person as a weapon, immediately taking down many people!

But the scar face man was very sneaky. He found his chance and immediately rushed forward, locking Zhao Yu’s neck with his elbow from behind.

Zhao Yu pulled his body, trying to work his way out of the lock, but the scar face man had much experience and used his knee to pin down Zhao Yu’s leg, preventing him from working himself free.

At this time, many delinquents who finally recovered rushed toward Zhao Yu and started throwing punches and kicks. Unable to break free, Zhao Yu could only carry the scar face man as he turned in place, trying to keep people away with brute strength.

As he turned, Zhao Yu was suddenly in front of Miao Ying. Miao Ying was just breaking someone’s elbow when she raised her head and saw that Zhao Yu was restrained. She immediately yelled, “Let me take care of it!”

Zhao Yu was confused! “The guy is behind me, how are you going to take care of it?” he thought. Yet, just as Miao Ying finished speaking, she raised her leg high and kicked heavily at Zhao Yu’s chest!

The kick was thunderous and had a great impact. Zhao Yu immediately fell backwards, and the scar face man holding him followed. The two rolled back and slammed into many other people. A huge wave of people fell like dominos!

“Holy sh*t!” Zhao Yu was immediately angered. One reason was because he was angry was because Miao Ying should not have hit him, another was because these annoying delinquents had ruined his plan. Within moments, he was like an angered bull, starting his own explosive counterattack.

The scar face man was closest to him and became the most unfortunate victim of Zhao Yu’s attack. Zhao Yu turned and held him down by the neck, then immediately slammed his fist into the guy’s face! With that punch, blood immediately spurted out!

Zhao Yu had no sign of stopping. Punch by punch, each stronger than the last, slammed forward. Even though other people hit Zhao Yu, he ignored them all and kept on pummeling the scar-face. Suddenly, he turned and grabbed another delinquent by the neck and rushed forward with the other in his clutch. With a resounding “boom,” he slammed the delinquent’s head into a car window! Crack...the car window broke into pieces. The person had been straight up slammed into the car by Zhao Yu!

Zhao Yu turned, his murderous intent becoming more obvious as he glared at the crowd, making everybody shiver. But just as they paused, Miao Ying had already snuck her way over devilishly, and with a high kick, many people immediately started flying away.

Zhao Yu yelled fiercely and slammed a delinquent with his shoulder, then raised him up high before slamming him into the ground. The person immediately started foaming from the mouth, fainting almost immediately! After taking that person down, there were not many people left standing!

One of the delinquents tried to run, but Miao Ying immediately rushed forward with a spinning kick right into their face. Bam! With a crisp sound, the person immediately blacked out and collapsed on the ground like a melted popsicle.

Once Zhao Yu rose up, he immediately caught another delinquent and started slapping them repeatedly. At the same time, Miao Ying grabbed the final delinquent and pressed them in front of herself. She slammed her knee repeatedly into their chest.

Slap, slap, slap...

Boom, boom, boom...

After the fierce assault, the two had simultaneously released their anger and roared as they landed the final attack. The two delinquents wailed as they fell to the floor at once!

But Zhao Yu was still angry. Remembering that Miao Ying had punched him and then kicked him, he could not help but feel it was unfair. He raised his hand and grabbed Miao Ying's elbow, pulling her in front of himself. Immediately, Zhao Yu did something so insane that even he could not understand it. He pressed Miao Ying's back harshly, then...kissed her right on the lips!!!

Chapter 149: Turn Over a New Leaf

Zhao Yu's kiss came very suddenly. It was both unexpected and shocking!! Miao Ying had initially felt a little guilty about hitting Zhao Yu by accident, therefore, she did not resist when Zhao Yu had suddenly grabbed her arm. However, never in her wildest dreams would she expect that Zhao Yu would choose this method of "revenge" at a time like this! At that instant, she was caught by surprise and was forcefully kissed by Zhao Yu!

Their lips pressed together and their eyes met. One second, two seconds...It was only until the third second that Miao Ying reacted and pushed Zhao Yu before lifting her long leg and kicking him!

"Ah! Zhao Yu! You bastard! Madman!!!" Accompanying Miao Ying's mad roar, Zhao Yu knocked against the car door. The powerful force not only smashed the glass, but also made a dent on the door! Zhao Yu was stunned for a while before he managed to pick himself up. He pressed on his chest and started coughing! "Hork hork hork..."

Unexpectedly, the fat man slowly got up from the ground and saw Zhao Yu face to face. "Ah! It's you..." The fat man had wanted to point out the real culprit as he pointed his trembling finger at Zhao Yu.

"It's your holy sh*t..." Zhao Yu immediately lifted his leg and gave him another kick!

"Grrr..." Miao Ying breathed heavily, wiping her lips as she stared at Zhao Yu with murderous eyes. Zhao Yu might have felt that he was in the wrong. He quickly looked elsewhere and was also panting heavily. However, he was reminiscing inside, and his mind was filled with the surprise kiss!

At that moment, the agents from Ruyang Branch had rushed over and were all dumbstruck by the scene in front of them. They had expected Miao Ying to have a big fight with Zhao Yu after the dinner ended, and that Zhao Yu would definitely end up in a sorry state! But the scene in front of them had them puzzled. Not only was Zhao Yu not in a sorry state, but there was also many people who had been beaten up all over the place! These ten odd people were all on lying the ground and groaning in pain. Some of them were even unconscious, and there were also some who had their face covered in blood and their arms broken!

“Captain...this...what happened?” The agents quickly asked. Miao Ying stared at Zhao Yu again before saying to her subordinates, “Inform the local police station, arrest all of them! They assaulted police officers, and also defecate indiscriminately!”

“Huh? What?” The agents were puzzled. “Defecate...”

“No! Hork hork...” Zhao Yu quickly pointed to somewhere far and added, “The house over there is a criminal den! These people are all smugglers. It could be because Captain Miao accidentally discovered their activities that they attacked us!”

“Oh?” The agents felt that this sounded slightly more logical. Zhao Yu’s words made Miao Ying look untrustworthy. If it had really been like what Zhao Yu said, it would be more reasonable for everyone to have gotten beaten up. If not, Miao Ying and Zhao Yu’s actions would have seemed a little uncalled for.

Seeing the agents contacting the local police, Zhao Yu added, “Oh, yes! These people were ruthless and almost killed us! They can’t be simply charged with assaulting police officers! Right, Captain Miao?” Miao Ying gritted her teeth and gave him another glare. The agents realized the seriousness of the matter. Not only did they contact the local police, but also reported the incident to the police department.

In less than five minutes, a group of policemen reached the scene. After opening the door to the small house, they saw that there were indeed pirated goods and illegal products inside! These gangsters were immediately captured and brought to the local police station. According to the local police, these people were not only involved in smuggling, but a few of them were even the suspects in several fraud cases, so they could all be thoroughly interrogated this time! This area was under the jurisdiction of Ruyang Branch, so these people would definitely not have a good ending!

Zhao Yu did not follow them to the local police station, but sneaked off silently after the whole thing ended. He should have gone with them to record his statement since he was one of the important parties involved; however, he felt that Miao Ying would be able to handle all of these trivial matters herself and there was no use for him to be around! Also, he was worried that if the two men mentioned the fact that he was the one who had instigated them to pee on the Phaeton, he would be doomed! Thus, it was better to get out fast!

Luckily, no one from Ruyang Branch called him after he had sneaked away. It seemed that those people also did not do anything to do with him. It was already past midnight when Zhao Yu returned home! After going into the house, he felt both exhausted and wounded. The wound was not anywhere on his physical body, but came from within. He went straight to the bathroom for a shower without even turning on the lights!

The water ran from the tap and steam filled the bathroom. Zhao Yu looked at himself in the mirror and felt a sense of loss. In the mirror, he looked fair and delicate. The two green dragons that had been on his arms were gone, and so were the scars and his shaven head. He no longer had a murderous look like he had in the past! Zhao Yu could not help but look doubtful as he inspected himself in the mirror. “Is this the real me? Which is the real me?” Zhao Yu felt mixed emotions. He clenched his fists tightly and wanted to throw something to vent his anger, but there was no place for him to do so!

Actually, the person that he was angry with was none other than himself! At that very moment, he was clearly aware that his anger and rage were from the image he could not get out of from his mind—Miao Ying! He was also aware that he had really messed up this time!

Since he left his past life, this was the first time that Zhao Yu felt guilty and remorseful. He was fully aware that what he had done to Miao Ying was wrong! To satisfy his own evil thoughts, he had played a prank which had almost gotten out of hand! If Miao Ying had become seriously injured because of this, the consequences would have been beyond imagination!

The comfortable and refreshing hot water splashed onto Zhao Yu's body, but it seemed to be cleaning his mind. "I was wrong!" he said to himself. "I must not do such foolish things again! I've time-traveled, I'm reborn, I'm now a police officer! I'm no longer the gangster who fought all day and did things without considering the consequences! I have a new life, a new career, shouldn't I treasure it all? Do I want to be on the execution chair and be injected with poison again? Ha..." Zhao Yu looked at himself in the mirror again and laughed! He was laughing at himself. Why did he take so long to understand something so simple?

Thinking back on the things that he had done since time-traveling, so what if he had solved a few cases and got awarded? His interpersonal relationships were in a mess and his colleagues both hated and feared him. If not for the miracle system in his brain, he would have probably gone back to his old ways!

"Zhao Yu! You can't go on like this anymore! I am reborn! Heaven has given me a chance to turn over a new leaf. How can I still do things without knowing where to draw the line like in the past? Since this is a rebirth, I should turn over a new leaf! Treasure my destiny and my life!" At that moment, Zhao Yu seemed to have gone through a soul-cleansing session and had an epiphany! He seemed to have found his directions in life, his goals in life, and the meaning of life!

"Yes! From now on, I'm gonna turn over a new leaf! Be a good person!" After showering, Zhao Yu quickly took out his phone to make a call before putting on his clothes. He felt that since he had decided to live life to the fullest, wasn't that something worth celebrating?" The call was to Yang Hong. However, after the call had been made, ringing sound came from his bedroom. He opened the door and saw Yang Hong and Huahua sleeping soundly on his bed! The dog was lying at the edge of the bed. After seeing Zhao Yu, it quickly jumped forward and circled around Zhao Yu.

Oh...Zhao Yu understood that these two people must have been afraid that Hong Zhitao would come back and look for trouble after being released, and stayed over at his place! Heh heh heh...Looking at the fair thighs on his bed, Zhao Yu gave a gentle kick and got Daheng out of the room. After that, he rubbed his palms and jumped onto the bed!!!

Chapter 150: Let's Gather Some Good Karma!

It was truly the height of excitement, a climax of emotions! Because of Zhao Yu's commotion, Jiang Dafeng prodded the ceiling three times from below, his cursing audible through the floor!

In that one night, Zhao Yu had taken care of all his pent-up frustration. It was only when the three were completely worn out that peace returned to the house. But the bed that was only one-hundred fifty centimeters wide was simply too small. Halfway through the night, Zhao Yu was pushed off of the bed by Yang Hong and Huahua, and ended up crawling back into his own smaller bedroom to sleep. Even though he was exhausted, Zhao Yu still tossed and turned in bed, unable to sleep! Everything had happened so fast that day, he couldn't even keep up. He had even fought twice in one day! Zhao Yu originally did not want to recall his complicated day, but for some reason he could not shake away the beautiful form of Miao Ying!

Miao Ying's every movement and smile, his thunderous anger, his angry yelling, he could not forget any of it. Especially that last shocking kiss that left him completely breathless and distracted! Even while he was enjoying his time with the two beauties, Miao Ying's form kept popping into his mind. In a moment of distraction, he even mistook the woman under him for Miao Ying! Zhao Yu could not help but sigh. Even when he was near Yao Jia, he had never felt like this!

"What happened to me? Could it be...did I really fall for that Miao Renfeng? Is this what being possessed by love feels like? But if I was so possessed by her, why do I keep going against her?" All these thoughts starting running through his head.

Just as Zhao Yu was distracted, the system finally started its ending message. To his great disappointment, his adventure completion rate was only eighty-one percent, and he only obtained one invisible tracking device. Why was that?

Zhao Yu could not understand. Logically speaking, he had helped Yang Hong and Huahua fix such a huge issue that day, and he had also brought justice down on the societal menace Hong Zhitao, helping to maintain both social stability and peace. Wasn't this a great thing? Why was the completion rate so low? Shouldn't it be at least ninety percent?

Once Zhao Yu thought about it, he decided not to worry about it. Even though he had done something great that day, he had also done something terrible! Firstly, he had hired someone to pee on Miao Ying's car, and then caused a huge fight. This act was truly immoral and deserving of criticism! Even if he had helped Yang Hong and Huahua, he should not have asked for the two women to satisfy his desires in return. That was not very moral! Tsk, tsk...

It seemed like he would have to restrain himself from now on. Because he intended to be a better person, he could not do such impulsive things anymore. From now on, he needed to collect more good karma instead!

Originally Zhao Yu had wanted to open another hexagram, but he suddenly remembered that he still had not analyzed his previous hexagram! The last one he opened, the "Kan-Li" Hexagram, seemed to lean heavily on the water side and weakly on the fire side.

The "Kan" was obvious. That morning he had awkwardly met up with Bureau Chief Luan, then had the adventure with Yang Hong and Huahua, then had a shocking kiss with Miao Ying! In one day, he already had many encounters with women!

But then what about the "Li" hexagram? Thinking back to his encounters today, what did this "Li" word mean? Since he had not had any family encounters that day, Zhao Yu immediately eliminated "Li" from being related to family.

Because "Li" and family were unrelated, obviously "Xun" represented family! Gan, Kun, Zhen, Xun, Gen, Dui, Kan, Li...Out of the eight hexagrams, "Gan" had yet to appear; "Kun" had appeared once, but its meaning was undecided; “Zhen” meant status; “Xun” represented family; “Gen” represented job; “Dui” represented wealth; and “Kan” represented women.

As of right now, only the “Li” hexagram representing fire did not have an explanation, but using the other hexagram explanations to take a guess, Zhao Yu thought that “Li” most likely represented friendship! Because they all represented the kind of encounters a person could experience, and the first few had already been covered, friendship was the only missing one!

Then...“Li” actually represented friendship? Thinking back to his adventure, where did friendship show up? Could it be the Director Lu Zhaohong who was working on fighting illegal substances? “Maybe after today’s cooperation, him and I will end up as friends? Mm...” Zhao Yu thought.

“Today I went to the Ruyang Branch Office and closed the Jian Wenli murder case, and also got quite a bit of prize money. Logically speaking, this should also be in ‘Zhen’ and ‘Dui,’ right? Also, even though it was an accident, he also somehow caught an illegal trafficking group. This could also go along with ‘Gen,’ right? Then why didn’t I get these hexagrams?”

Also, what did “Kun” represent? Was it some sort of combination hexagram, or was there a special meaning? Where could he find the explanations for the hexagram explanations that were impossible to understand?

Zhao Yu’s thoughts crowded his mind more and more and became messier and messier. After awhile he could not even stop! It seemed that in terms of his miracle system, he still had to work hard to understand it.

To put his mind elsewhere, he quickly started smoking to open another hexagram. It was already late at night, and his violent coughing noises were easily heard everywhere, resulting in another fit of cursing from Jiang Dafeng downstairs.

“Dui-Zhen hexagram,” the system said. “Dui for Marsh and Zhen for thunder. The marsh clouds over the thunder, and noises cannot be heard. Demons cloud the ears of people, and people can only judge by their heart.”

“Dui-Zhen hexagram? Money?! Increase in status?!” Zhao Yu was quite happy. His hexagram was great, but the hexagram explanation has said, “noises cannot be heard.” Was it saying that once the thunder reached the marsh, it could no longer make noise? What did it mean? It had also mentioned “Demon” and “Heart.” What did that mean?

Actually, ever since having the miracle system, Zhao Yu never stopped investigating these hexagram explanations. He not only looked them up online, but also bought many books about Bagua. He even asked a fortune teller, but no matter what he did, he still could not understand it.

Where did these hexagram explanations come from? How could one understand them? Faced with the difficult hexagram explanations, Zhao Yu had a vague feeling about them. He felt like these hexagram explanations definitely had something to do with the adventures that would happen! If he could understand them, then maybe he could know the details of the adventures before they happened and he could complete them more easily!

But how would he understand them? These words were all spoken by the system. Even if he had a written copy, he would be unfamiliar with some of the words. How could he look them up?

Speaking of looking things up, Zhao Yu could not help but remember the Mianling Kidnapping Case that had resurfaced. He did not know if Wang Fei or the others had found something. Why had they still not released any information? Could it be that Miao Ying was right and that they had found something unbelievable? Zhao Yu thought about it over and over until he finally fell asleep.

His sleep had been rather limited over the past few days. He had even shown some signs of exhaustion. Now that he could finally sleep, he could not sleep well. He had a feeling that something big was going to happen. He also dreamed numerous times of the beautiful Miao Ying, and Miao Ying pushing him into bed...

The next morning Zhao Yu was still sleeping deeply when his phone buzzed. He opened an eye and turned to his phone. There was a message from Rongyang Branch asking for the entire Key Case Investigation Unit to gather at ten a.m. for a meeting on the Mianling Kidnapping Case.

He was still groggy, but Zhao Yu had noticed a change in the wording. The case was originally called the "Massive Mianling Kidnapping Disappearance Case" but was now called "Massive Mianling Kidnapping Murder Case!!!"
