

Crazy 1431

Chapter 1431: 33 feet tall

Clang! Clang!

With the sound of metal rubbing against each other, the manhole cover was forcefully opened, and a beam of dazzling sunlight immediately shone into the sewer.

“Reporting to the captain, he’s here!” The person on top only took a few glances and immediately reported in surprise, “he should have fainted!”

“Let’s go down and take a look!”

Following someone’s order, several agile and fully armed police officers jumped into the sewer one after another to confirm Liang Weiyi’s identity.

“Captain, that’s right!” One of the police officers raised his head and reported to the captain, “the target has been confirmed. It’s Liang Yiwen!”

“F * ck!” The person who was called the team leader was none other than the special Agent Xiao hang. His arm was bandaged, but he had a look of admiration on his face. He sighed softly, “Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu, you’re amazing! To think that you could think of such a sinister method, it actually worked ...”

Then, he turned on his phone and called Zhao Yu.

“Hello? “Hello, hello ...” As soon as the call connected, Zhao Yu’s nervous and urgent voice came from the other side, asking, “how is it, Xiao hang? did you catch anyone?”

“Don’t worry,” Xiao hang said with a smile. “He has received your gift.”

“Aiyo ...” Zhao Yu let out a long sigh of relief and said, “I was scared to death. I never thought that son of a B * tch would dare to pretend to be a riot police officer!”

“He was wearing a helmet, so I thought my anesthetic wouldn’t hit him! You scared me to death, really ...”

“He’s fine,” Xiao hang said as he looked down the well. “He probably took off his helmet before opening the box. He’s completely unconscious now.”

“Thank God,” Zhao Yu said, sighing. “Xiao hang, don’t forget what happened at the dental clinic. That kid could even hide a weapon in his hair!”

“Listen to me, strip him naked and don’t let him wear a single piece of clothing. Shave his hair and make him into a monk. Let’s see where else he can hide his weapon!”

“That’s enough,” Xiao hang said, embarrassed. “You don’t have to worry about this. You can trust us, the Secret Service, to handle this.” It’s not the first time I’ve dealt with a criminal of this level!”

“Mm ... That’s good, that’s good ...” Zhao Yu said, relieved. “Then I’ll have to trouble you, leader Xiao. When the celebration party comes, I’ll treat you to a good meal!”

“Haha, that’s a good idea!” Xiao hang laughed.”I’ll be waiting. At least it can’t be worse than the 888-Yuan set meal!”

“Wahaha, you still remember this old joke!” Zhao Yu laughed heartily.”Let’s not talk about 888, we can even afford 8888!”

The two laughed at the same time, and Zhao Yu hung up the phone with relief.

At that moment, Zhao Yu was still on the ramp of the overpass where they had exchanged the hostages. He was holding a human skin mask in his hand and sitting on the door of the command vehicle. He was reporting the good news to Miao Ying, cui Lizhu, and the others.

“It’s done, Liang Weiyi has been caught by Xiao hang!” With a smug look on his face, he said arrogantly,”to deal with this kind of person, we have to take an unusual path. Since he has no intention of making a deal with us, we don’t have to be polite with him!”

“Boss is too amazing!” Cui Lizhu clapped her hands and said,”no matter how powerful the King of Assassins is, he can’t resist your schemes!”

“I really can’t imagine how such a low-level martial arts technique became so noble in boss’s hands.”

As she spoke, cui Lizhu bent down and took out a square box from under the car. After opening it, the skull was still in the box, safe and sound.

“I don’t understand ...” Zhao Yu stuck out his tongue and said to cui Lizhu,”are you complimenting me or dissing me?”

“Praise, of course I’m praising!” Cui Lizhu gave him a thumbs up.”If Liang Weiyi is a demon, then our boss is a demon. He’ll surrender to him!”

Cui Lizhu’s words made everyone laugh.

“Team leader Zhao, team leader Miao ...” At this time, team leader li Yanxia ran over and reported,”the bomb disposal team has successfully removed the bomb on the hostages!

“Our bureau chief wanted to thank them in person, but the two leaders of the provincial Bureau were frightened and in poor condition, so he had to accompany them to the hospital first. The Bureau chief asked me to convey his gratitude to them, and I’ll make it up to them later!”

“You don’t have to be so polite.” Zhao Yu didn’t like the formalities, so he didn’t have to waste his breath on them. He immediately waved at Captain li and asked,”how was the explosion just now?”

“I’m still alright!” Captain li replied in a hurry,”the explosion was not very powerful, and there were heavily armed riot police around them. Only a few people were slightly injured!”

“Mm, that’s good! That’s good!” Zhao Yu nodded.

“But ...” Although the criminal had been caught by the police, li Yanxia was still confused about what had just happened. He pointed to the mask in Zhao Yu’s hand and said doubtfully,”so ... The killer, la Kong, was you in disguise?!”

“This mask ... It’s so real, like magic! I can’t tell at all! It seems like ... Even Mr. MA was fooled, right?”

Zhao Yu looked at the mask in his hand and laughed. "That's right, in order to save people, we can only take a risk and catch them off guard!"

"You guys definitely didn't expect this!" At this time, Zeng ke suddenly got out of another police car, holding a microphone as he said to the crowd, "just now, team leader was pretending to be the killer, la Kong, so I was the one talking to Liang perseverance on the phone!"

"How was it? did I imitate the team leader?" Zeng ke said with joy, "are you just missing that 'Holy sh * t'?"

"Oh? It's you?" Ran Tao was confused. "Have you learned ventriloquism?"

"Secret services is amazing," Zeng ke said, pointing to the electronic device in his hand. "This is a voice changer. When I use it, the words I say are exactly the same as the team leader 's!"

"Oh, really? It's so advanced?" Ran Tao's eyes lit up, and he said awkwardly, "then hurry up and say something for us to hear!"

"Alright!" Zeng ke turned on the instrument and was about to speak.

Zhao Yu quickly stopped Zeng ke and said, "this thing is very expensive. I have to return it to Xiao hang. Don't break it!"

Then, Zhao Yu quickly stuffed the electronic device and the human-skinned mask into a pocket.

"Zhao Yu, you guys are really something!" Miao Ying, who had been giving instructions at the scene, also did not know the truth. At this time, Miao Ying glared at Zhao Yu and asked angrily, "why didn't you inform me in advance when you made such a spy show?"

"Now, hurry up and tell me what happened just now."

Zhao Yu, Zeng ke, and cui Lizhu looked at each other, their eyes filled with complicated emotions.

As for what exactly happened, it might have to be traced back to the Harland police station more than an hour ago to be clear.

When he found out that Liang Weiyi had kidnapped the hostages, Zhao Yu naturally thought that Liang Weiyi would definitely ask them to use the criminal's skull to exchange for the hostages.

So, he was not in a hurry to follow Miao Ying to the scene, but went to the autopsy room to see the skull.

In fact, Zhao Yu had already made up his mind to use the skull to give Liang Weiyi a strong dose of medicine!

Chapter 1432: The perfect explanation

Zhao Yu knew very well that as the King of Assassins, Liang perseverance never fought a battle he wasn't confident in. Since he decided to exchange the hostages, he must have made a detailed plan, so he definitely wouldn't be caught by the police so easily.

In order to avoid the worst case scenario, Zhao Yu went to Gao Facai and asked him to design two identical boxes for the skulls.

One of the boxes contained a skull. The other one was filled with a strong anesthetic. Once triggered, the anesthetic would spray out and cause a person to faint!

Forensic Gao was a top expert, and the anesthesia he produced was world-class. Even if it didn't hit the face, it would still have a certain anesthetic effect.

In addition, just in case, the two boxes were also equipped with tracking devices.

But, no matter what, the hidden weapons in the box were just Zhao Yu's backup plan.

When Liang Weiyi had video-called him through his phone, he had already been on high alert, so he had been paying extra attention to his surroundings.

At first, he really didn't see any flaws, and thought that Liang perseverance was indeed in the same car as the hostage.

However, when he suddenly aimed the camera at the skull, he realized that Liang Weiyi's reaction was a little off.

Judging from the sound, Liang Weiyi's emotions fluctuated the moment he saw the skull, but the video was very calm. The two didn't seem to match.

Hence, from that moment on, Zhao Yu had already suspected that Liang Weiyi might have been playing a trick on him! He might not have been in the van himself, so he wanted to give the police a surprise attack.

Hence, Zhao Yu decided to beat them at their own game and came up with his own plan.

He knew that if Liang Weiyi really wasn't in the car, he would have to use a remote control to set off the bomb. In that case, his signal jamming device would come in handy.

As long as he used the signal jammer to cut off Liang Wenli's remote control signal, he could prevent the bomb from exploding.

However, Zhao Yu was also worried that the person in the car might be Liang perseverance's accomplice, and could use other methods to start the bomb. Then, it would not be worth it.

Therefore, he came up with another plan and used the invisible disguise machine to change his appearance to that of la Kong. He wanted to use the hostage exchange to check out the situation in the van.

Moreover, Zhao Yu's device bar also had a bomb disposal device. As long as he was in close contact with the bomb, he could disable it as quickly as possible.

Therefore, this method of disguising as a hostage was a wonderful surprise plan no matter how one looked at it.

However, Zhao Yu had two concerns. One was that it was easy for him to use the disguise device to change his appearance, but how could he explain to his team members that he had made it look so real?

Secondly, if he were to pretend to be a hostage, who would be able to take over his position and negotiate with Liang Weiwei?

Liang Weiwei was very smart. Once he realized that the person he was negotiating with was not Zhao Yu himself, he would be on high alert, and the plan would be difficult to carry out.

After thinking about it, Zhao Yu could only put everything under the name of secret services.

He told Zeng ke, Cui Lizhu, and the others that the human-skinned mask and other amazing props were secret weapons of the Secret Service, which cleared their doubts.

The Secret Service was a mysterious organization, so it was natural that people would be convinced to put these awesome tools under their name.

Moreover, due to the special mechanism of the Secret Service, it was impossible for Zeng ke and the others to verify it in person with Xiao Hang, which would perfectly solve his concerns.

As for the second point, Zhao Yu had no choice but to ask Zeng ke to wear a so-called voice changing device, so that he could make his own voice and negotiate with Liang Weiwei.

Of course, the voice changing device was fake. The real thing was Zhao Yu's super device, the invisible voice changing device!

After the decision was made, the operation began.

Only Zeng ke, Cui Lizhu, and Wu Xiumin knew about Zhao Yu's plan. It wasn't that Zhao Yu didn't want to tell Miao Ying and Ran Tao, but he didn't have time to explain it to them.

Just like that, Zhao Yu disguised himself as La Kong and was brought to the front of the van with Abikula.

Even though Zhao Yu was taller and stronger than La Kong, no one could tell that there was something wrong with him due to the tense atmosphere.

Even Abikula, who was the most familiar with La Kong, believed it, so Zhao Yu was sure that he could also fool Liang Weiwei.

The plan was indeed going according to Zhao Yu's plan. After Cui Lizhu showed the skull to the car, she quietly changed the box.

Cui Lizhu was the skillful daughter of the King of Thieves, so it was easy for her to turn into a box. She used a smokescreen to hide the real box under the car, but the fake box with the mechanism was placed on the car hood.

At that time, Zhao Yu had also realized that if Liang Weiwei was not in the van, he was most likely hiding near the scene.

However, Zhao Yu had no way to check them one by one. His top priority was to remove the bomb in the car to ensure the safety of the hostages.

Unexpectedly, when the two sides proposed to exchange a hostage, Liang Weiwei chose to use La Kong. Hence, Zhao Yu walked towards the MPV.

In order to make his act more realistic, he even hesitated for a while. Under Cui Lizhu's persuasion, he finally came to the front of the van.

Zhao Yu's goal was to save the hostage, so when he was about to open the car door, he immediately used the signal jamming device to get out.

In order to ensure that nothing went wrong, he spent more than 1000 adventure points to strengthen the signal jammer. It could block almost any electric waves.

When the car door opened, he could immediately tell that the person in the driver's seat wasn't Liang Weiwen himself! Instead, it was a young man with a phone in his hand and a bomb tied to his waist. His face was full of fear!

At that moment, Zhao Yu finally realized that Liang Weiwen had no intention of exchanging the hostages. Perhaps, the moment he opened the car door, the bomb would have exploded!

At this critical moment, Zhao Yu didn't have time to think. He quickly used two detachers to disable the bombs on the driver and one of the hostages.

At that time, Zhao Yu thought that his plan had succeeded, and that all that was left was to find Liang Weiwen, then everything would be over.

However, he had still underestimated Liang Weiwen's strength. He never thought that in such a situation, Liang Weiwen would still take the risk and attack!

What Zhao Yu couldn't understand the most was that he had the invisible detector on in his head. If there were dangerous explosives anywhere else at the scene, he should have noticed them long ago.

However, he could never have imagined that there would be another car that exploded at the scene!

What was even more unexpected was that, for some reason, the scene suddenly started to smoke, and in the blink of an eye, nothing could be seen.

To be honest, when the chaos broke out, Zhao Yu was really shocked. He quickly pulled out his pistol, then took out the invisible breathing device and night vision device. He then rushed back to the place where the box of skulls was placed.

However, the box had already disappeared by then!

There were so many police officers at the scene, but no one saw clearly how the box had disappeared.

Chapter 1433: an expert's weakness

When he saw that the box was gone, Zhao Yu finally understood Liang Weiwen's plan.

This guy was indeed insidious. He suggested that La Kong exchange one hostage first, but in fact, he wanted to kill both of them with the bomb as soon as La Kong got on the car!

Then, he used another car to create chaos and threw smoke bombs to interfere with the police's vision. Then, he would rush over to kill Abikula and take the skull!

If Zhao Yu hadn't used the signal jamming device in advance, he would have fallen into Liang perseverance's trap today.

However, even so, Zhao Yu was still shocked.

Firstly, he was worried that abikula had already been assassinated by Liang Weiyi, or that his colleagues had been attacked.

Secondly, even though he was sure that Liang Weiwen had stolen the box with the hidden mechanism, according to the witnesses' reports, Liang Weiwen might have disguised himself as an explosion-proof police officer wearing a helmet. This gave him a big shock.

The helmet could block the effects of the tranquilizer, but he was afraid that it wouldn't work at all. If Liang Weiwen managed to escape, it would be bad!

For a dangerous person like Liang Weiyi, if he wasn't caught, who knew what kind of commotion he would cause.

Fortunately, the two things that Zhao Yu was worried about didn't happen.

When the smoke bomb exploded, Miao Ying had already dragged abikula to safety. The smart cui Lizhu saw that the situation was not good, so she also hid under the car.

After about ten minutes, Xiao hang had good news. Liang Weiyi had fainted and had been caught.

Zhao Yu finally heaved a sigh of relief.

At that moment, under Miao Ying's urging, he finally told the whole story to everyone. Of course, as usual, he had to make some appropriate changes. Furthermore, he had to give all the awesome props to secret services ...

"Liang Weiwen, the King of Assassins, this guy is really powerful!" When cui Lizhu found out about the situation, she couldn't help but ask, "who would have thought that he would use the sewer to escape? Rowing a kayaking boat in the sewers, this idea should be able to win an award, right?"

"That's right," Zeng ke said. "He deliberately parked the van on the overpass. It's so empty here, and we don't believe that he could escape in front of us."

"Team leader Zhao," li Yanxia said, "we just checked the video recording of the scene, and Liang perseverance was indeed disguised as an explosive police officer. Also, I don't know what he put in the car's fuel tank, but the car exploded!"

"I think it should be some kind of ignition or detonation device, right?" Zeng ke guessed.

"No matter what," cui Lizhu said, clapping her hands. "Justice has once again triumphed over evil. We've made another great contribution!"

"Zhao Yu, why does it always end up like this?" However, everyone was very excited, except miss Miao, who had a serious expression on her face. "Good luck will eventually run out. What you're doing is no different from a gambler. You knew that there was a bomb in the car, yet you still went!"

“Don’t worry, I have absolute confidence!” Zhao Yu knew that Miao Ying was worried about his safety, so he immediately explained, “secret services is in full control of the situation. Their device can ensure that Liang will not detonate the bomb remotely!”

“But ... But what if Liang Weiyi is in the car?” Miao Ying shook her head.

“I have a taser gun in my sleeve,” Zhao Yu said, raising his hand. “If Liang Weiyi was really in the car, I could knock him out with a Taser bullet!” I’ve asked an expert, and the current from the Taser gun can short-circuit the bomb detonator. So, we’ll win no matter what!”

“Al!” Miao Ying sighed helplessly. “You’re really hopeless!”

“Don’t worry ...” Zhao Yu gently put his arm around miss Miao’s shoulder and comforted her, “I know what I’m doing!

“Alright, I’m done!” Zhao Yu looked up at the crowd and said, “no matter what, we’ve already caught Liang Weiyi. Next, let’s hear what story this King of Assassins has!”

“No way? “You already said that he’s the King of Assassins,” cui Lizhu said, shaking her head. “He’s so cunning and arrogant. I’m afraid it’ll be difficult for us to get him to talk!”

“Then, you don’t understand,” Zhao Yu said confidently. “Experts also have weaknesses, and the weaknesses of experts are more fatal! Otherwise, Liang Weiyi wouldn’t have fallen to my hands today ...”

.....

Five hours later, in the special interrogation room of the Harland police station.

“Alright, I’ll talk ... I’ll talk!” “What do you want to know? just ask!” Liang Weiyi, who was sitting in the interrogation chair, said unwillingly, while staring at Zhao Yu with a venomous look.

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded with satisfaction. He then put away the exaggerated hammer in his hand, pointed to the skull on the table, and said, “in that case, you can start with the origin of this skull!”

“Hmph, you’re so powerful, do I need to tell you?” Liang Weiyi glared at Zhao Yu. “Over the phone, your reasoning was all correct. How is it? are you satisfied now?”

“Is that so?” Zhao Yu pursed his lips proudly, took out the hammer again, and waved it next to the skull. “But I’m happy to hear you say it again!”

“Good, good!”

Although Liang Weiyi had compromised, his voice was still cold. In fact, he knew in his heart that even if it was just a dead person’s skull, as a police officer, Zhao Yu couldn’t have really smashed the skull.

The reason he chose to compromise was that the overall situation had already been set, and there was no point in him persisting. Moreover, he didn’t want to see his lover’s skull being humiliated again.

“ 13 years ago, I received a mission and came to Harland. I was going to kidnap sumiyakun’s family with lakong,” Liang Weiyi said. “In addition to the huge treasure he brought back from overseas, we also received a must-kill order to get rid of his family and prevent future trouble!

“Sumiyakun is not a simple person. He also has a group of Masters around him, so our mission is not simple. Otherwise, the higher-ups would not have sent me here.

“In order to strike, we needed to gather a large amount of information. We carefully gathered information for more than a month before we found an opportunity to make a move.

“Of course, we successfully completed the task in the end. We killed his bodyguard and his family, and also got sumiyakun’s treasure, but ...” Liang Shiyi looked at the skull. “In the end, I still broke the killer’s Code of Conduct, and the knife didn’t hit Xia’s vital part.

“After the mission was completed, I went back to the cave to save her!!”

“Oh? Why?” “Why would you rather break the rules than save her?” Zhao Yu asked, puzzled.

Chapter 1434: A sin

“It can’t be just because she’s pretty, right?!” Zhao Yu asked.

Liang Weiyi raised his head and looked at Zhao Yu, then said expressionlessly, “Actually, the reason is very simple. I just think that a girl like Xia Yingluo shouldn’t die!”

Oh?

Zhao Yu thought that the reason was simple enough.

“Back then, in order to gather information on sumiyakun’s family, I followed Xia many times!” Liang Weiyi looked at the skull, and a trace of disappointment finally appeared on his face, “I realized that she was an innocent and kind girl.

“At the age of 18, she couldn’t go to school because she didn’t have an identity. However, she often went to the orphanage, gave the children things, helped them solve their problems, played with them, and even lived with them ...”

Liang Weiyi’s face was cold and numb. Although he didn’t move, Zhao Yu could still feel the waves in his heart.

“I’m thinking, if I could have received such care when I was young, maybe there wouldn’t be Killer K in this world.

“It was in this imaginary trance that I made that decision!” Liang Weiyi looked at his hands and said in a slightly agitated manner, “I’m not conflicted, I’m not hesitating, and I’ve never thought about the price I’ll have to pay for breaking The Assassin’s Code of Conduct.

“After saving Xia, I didn’t report back to snaketooth. Instead, I snuck back to Indonesia found a small island, and lived a life of seclusion with Xia.”

“In that case ...” Zhao Yu frowned and asked, “does Xia not know your identity? Otherwise, how could she be with the enemy who killed her family?”

“Yes,” Liang Weiyi’s face became twisted and dark, “when we killed her, we were all wearing masks, so she didn’t know who I was!

“I lied to her and said that I was her father’s friend and that I saved her from the mountains!

“I also said that there was a group of assassins after her, so I convinced her to escape to Indonesia with me ...

“I know. Later on, Xia should have suspected my identity. However, none of that matters anymore!” A hint of relief flashed across Liang Weiwen’s eyes. “Our long-term seclusion brought us together. We made an oath under potu god’s statue and became husband and wife!

“Life on the island was poor, but we were very happy ...

“I also found out that the snake fang organization was destroyed by Interpol not long after I left!” Liang Weiyi said indifferently, “without any worries, everything is perfect ...”

“Hmph Hmph ...” After his habitual cold Hmph, Liang Weiyi’s tone turned grave, “however, all of this was destroyed by the sudden disaster!

“Two years ago, our child was about to be born. In order to prepare the items, we went to pallu to buy them.

“But I didn’t expect that there would be a great earthquake on suravisi Island. The supermarket building collapsed, and Xia was smashed under the floor ...” At this point, Liang Weiyi clenched his fists in excitement and said in pain, “when I found her, half of her body was gone ...”

Hearing this, the interrogation room fell into a dead silence. Everyone held their breath.

Before this, everyone had assumed that Xia’s death was caused by someone, and that was why Liang Weiyi was so angry.

However, he did not expect that Xia’s skull was the only thing left of her. It was actually because of a natural disaster!

“I was also seriously injured in that earthquake. After lying in the hospital in suraweiss for three months, I brought Xia’s remains back to the island we lived on.

“The moment I lost Xia, my heart died too!” Liang Weiyi’s expression was numb, but his eyes were filled with ferocity. “Xia only has a skull left. The only thing I can do now is to fulfill Xia’s last wish!

“When she was alive, she was satisfied with her appearance, but not her figure. Thus, I was prepared to find a perfect set of bone armor for her to gather her soul!

“Xia Sheng’s greatest wish was to find her enemies and avenge her dead family! And I ...” Liang Weiyi said, “just happened to know who her enemy was! Also, I’ve received news that la Kong and the rest were not wiped out by the Interpol. They are all Living a Good Life in Harland!

“I know that the source of their wealth is sumiyakun’s huge fortune.

“So, I took Xia’s skull back to Harland, and that’s what happened ...” Liang Weiyi took a deep breath and said, “the Yu family’s old mansion was Xia’s home, so it was the perfect place to summon his soul!

“Originally, my plan was going very smoothly. I would gather the bones to summon the souls and find those killers to take revenge. After 49 days, I would be able to fulfill Xia’s last wish and bury her!

“But I didn’t expect a thief to barge into the scene of my spirit summoning and disrupt all my plans! At that time, I was at the scene. I wanted to kill the thief, but the police siren sounded outside.

“I had no choice but to take the skull with me ...” Liang Weiyi glared at Zhao Yu, “what happened after that, you guessed it all right!

“Although I caught Cai Xingwen and the other two, I didn’t get any news of la Kong and abikula. That’s why I played a guessing game with you and asked you to help me find the answer ...

“Al! “It’s a pity ...” Liang Weiwen sighed and said sadly, “it seems that times are changing, and I’m still being eliminated by the times!

“I didn’t expect the signal of a remote bomb to be blocked! If I had known earlier, I would have installed a trigger on the door ...”

“Hmph, wake up!” Finally, Zhao Yu spoke. He said forcefully, “it’s not the era that eliminated you, nor me, but your twisted and unbalanced heart! You’ve already gone berserk, K!

“Good and evil will always be rewarded. Have you never repented for the mistakes you’ve made in the past? Have you ever thought that all of this is your retribution?

“Let me ask you,” Zhao Yu shouted righteously, “you keep saying that you want to avenge Xia, but you are also one of the murderers who killed his entire family. Have you ever thought about how you are going to end your own life?”

“Well ...” Liang Weiyi stammered, “I’ve thought about it before. With Xia gone, there’s no point in me living! After she’s buried, I’ll go down to accompany her ...”

“Accompany? What do you have? How?” Zhao Yu shouted, “if Xia is dead, you can release him from purgatory, but if you are dead, who can release you from purgatory?”

“I ...” Liang Weiyi was at a loss for words.

“Hmph! Even if you meet in the netherworld, do you think Xia will forgive you?” Zhao Yu asked loudly, “I don’t understand. You said that Xia was kind, but you’ve lived on the island for so long and even had a child. Why didn’t you learn anything good from her?

“If Xia was really pure and kind, would she be happy when she found out that you had brutally killed three innocent girls in order to gather her bones and summon her souls? When she finds out that you killed an innocent police officer to avenge her, will she agree to your actions?

“Stop dreaming! Even if you really die, how can you face her?”

“I...I ...” Zhao Yu’s words were like an epiphany, and Liang Weiyi was suddenly speechless, his face full of regret ...

Chapter 1435: couples

11 p.m., Special Investigation Group office, Harland police station.

“Boss,” Ran Tao gave Zhao Yu a thumbs up and praised him, “I really admire you. Even a high-level killer like Liang perseverance found his conscience after hearing your words!”

“If all the criminals in the world were called over and you gave them a lesson, wouldn’t world peace be restored?”

“Look at what you’re saying, it’s too exaggerated!” Zhao Yu looked embarrassed and said, “continue, continue!”

Everyone was sweating ...

“Well ... He confessed everything!” Ran Tao stopped flattering him and quickly handed a document to Zhao Yu. “The body in the cave was indeed moved away by Liang Weiyi,” he said.

“He already told us the location where the Yu family’s bones were buried, and it was also in the old mountain ...” Ran Tao pointed to the location on the document and said, “Captain li Yanxia has already sent people over, but considering that Liang Yiwen was in grave danger, he didn’t dare to take him to identify the scene personally.

“The reason why Liang Weiyi transferred the bones was to fulfill Xia’s wish. After Xia’s soul was successfully summoned, he would bury her remains with her family!

“When he moved the bodies, he also put the three girls” bodies in the cave for convenience’s sake, nothing else!”

“Oh ... I understand!” Zhao Yu nodded. “The traces of incense at the entrance of the cave were also left behind by Liang Weiwen, right?”

“Yes,” Ran Tao replied. “When we were collecting the bones, Liang Weiyi performed a poto sect ritual to gather the souls of the dead ...”

“And, boss ...” Ran Tao had just finished speaking when cui Lizhu came over with another piece of information. “Liang Weiyi even took the initiative to tell us where he was hiding. No one would have thought that he would build a Fallout Shelter in an abandoned basement of a school.”

“There’s no need to worry about food and drink inside. There’s everything you need, even internet!” She handed the information to Zhao Yu and said, “no wonder we couldn’t catch this guy when we were searching the entire city!

“And ...” Cui Lizhu pointed at the information and said, “there are some information about Liang perseverance’s channels of obtaining information. Many of them are illegal, so we can’t let them off!”

At this time, Zeng ke and Zhang Peipei entered the office together. Zhang Peipei was the first to report, “team leader, the bones of the three girls have been pieced together. We have informed the family members of the deceased to come to Harland to identify the bodies!”

“And,” Zeng ke said, “most of Liang Weiyi’s weapons were self-made, so there was no source of supply. The weapon he threw into the car’s fuel tank was a modified lighter!

“And ...” Zeng ke continued, “Liang Weiyi’s murder weapon has also been found. The needle can be retracted, and it can pop out barbs. It has been handed over to the evidence room ...”

“Also, the local police have found the relevant information about the car and the bones that they sank at the bottom of the Blue River.” Zhang Peipei handed over another file box. “It’s all here. Please take a look!”

“Okay,” Zhao Yu said, looking at his team members. “Everyone has worked hard these days! All of you should go back and rest! It’s impossible to close such a big case in a day. There’s still a lot of work to be done, so let’s take it slowly ...”

“En!” Zeng ke nodded and immediately took Zhang Peipei’s hand and left the office.

Looking at the two of them sticking to each other like glue, cui Lizhu shrugged her shoulders in a daze and followed them out.

“Team leaders,” Wu Xiumin said to Zhao Yu and Miao Ying, “you two have worked the hardest these past few days. I’ll be on duty today!”

“This ...” Zhao Yu was a little hesitant. Although the white bone case could be put to an end, someone from the Special Investigation Group had to stay behind and be on duty.

“Sis Wu, we’re all the same. You’re not much better off than us,” Miao Ying declined. “Let’s do it together!”

“It doesn’t matter,” Wu Xiumin said. “At least my work tomorrow is easy, but you will have to attend an official social event!” Once the White bones case is solved, you’ll definitely become busy people.

“So, listen to me. You guys should go and rest!”

“Yes, yes yes!” Ran Tao quickly nodded. “You guys should rest! How about this, I’ll accompany sis Wu tonight!” He turned to Wu Xiumin and said, “the two team leaders are a couple, and Zeng is in a relationship with Dr. Zhang. I think we should be a couple too!” Let’s have a good talk tonight ...”

“Go to hell, in your dreams!” Wu Xiumin didn’t buy it, and she pushed Ran Tao away, causing everyone to laugh.

“Alright! Then I’ll have to trouble you!”

Zhao Yu thought for a moment and agreed with Wu Xiumin. After today, he and Miao Ying would have to meet with the officials, so he immediately put down the documents and left the police station with Miao Ying.

.....

Outside the police station, the bright moon hung high in the sky and the Galaxy was vast.

Zhao Yu and Miao Ying strolled along the path leading to the hotel. On both sides of the path were coconut trees that were pleasing to the eye. The tropical and humid wind blew in the air, making them feel very comfortable.

“Why ... Are you walking so slowly? Aren’t you sleepy?” Zhao Yu held Miao Ying’s hand and felt that it was different from the past.

"I don't want to go so fast!" Miao Ying felt the warmth of Zhao Yu's palm and felt a little sad. "I'm just afraid that there won't be many chances for us to solve cases together in the future!"

"Don't say that!" Zhao Yu knew the source of Miao Ying's melancholy. At the end of the day, she was still sad because she was about to be transferred to secret services.

"Didn't I tell you?" Zhao Yu comforted her, saying, "secret services isn't going to carry out a Special Agent mission. They're still investigating cases, just doing what they're always doing!"

"It's just that he moved from the domestic stage to the world stage, from a China detective to an International Detective!"

Looking at Zhao Yu's arrogant face, Miao Ying was expressionless.

"Don't worry!" Zhao Yu put his hand on the Beauty's shoulder. "I'll ask your dad to transfer you over to work with me. We'll still be a couple!"

"Hmph, you don't understand my dad!" Miao Ying shook her head. "He looks like he has no principles, but he's actually very stubborn! He won't agree to it so easily ..."

"Ahem!" Zhao Yu held Miss Miao in his arms and vowed, "if he doesn't agree, then just let him go!"

"With my skills, I will quickly settle the high ranking officials in the Secret Service and personally get you to come to my side!"

"Oh? These words ... Are really crazy!" Miao Ying pouted, but the sadness on her face had obviously lightened up.

"I'm not arrogant, I'm speaking with my own ability!" Zhao Yu kissed Miao Ying's forehead and said, "think about it. When have I, Zhao Yu, ever gone back on my word? If I say that I can transfer you over, then I definitely can! Otherwise, I wouldn't be willing to serve them!"

"Oh, really? "Who was the one who promised me that he would never risk his life again?" Miao Ying rolled her eyes.

"This ..." Zhao Yu grinned, "these are two different things! Besides, I'm only on loan to the Secret Service to get used to it. The criminal Division won't let go of it!"

"Once there's a case, we can still fight side by side!"

"Alright, I'll believe you this time!" Miao Ying snuggled into Zhao Yu's arms and said excitedly, "I also want to see if the unsolved cases abroad are easy to solve ..."

"By the way, I always keep my word," Zhao Yu said. "I said we'll fight for 300 rounds, so we'll fight for 300 rounds. It's always more, right?"

"You ..." Miss Miao's face turned red.

"Come on, let's fight again tonight ..." Then, Zhao Yu picked up the beauty and ran along the coconut tree Street under the moonlight.

Chapter 1436: request

The next day, at 10 am, outside the courtyard of a seaside villa in the western suburbs of Hailan city.

“Yes,” Zhao Yu said to Miao Ying over the phone as he sat in the driver’s seat of a police car. “Don’t worry about the leaders, just take care of them. You know me, I really don’t want to deal with them!”

“I, great detective Zhao, am such a famous person, I have to put on airs! Mayor, Governor, and so on, let them line up first!”

“Alright, I really have to take my hat off to you!” Miao Ying said helplessly, “maybe I’m also quite sick. Why do I like your arrogant and shameless look? Al!”

With a sigh, miss Miao hung up the phone.

Putting his phone in his pocket, Zhao Yu didn’t rush to get out of the car, but picked up a glass of coke and took a few sips. In his heart, he was still reminiscing about the 300 rounds of battle last night. He felt that it was not enough, and the memories were endless ...

After savoring the aftertaste for more than ten minutes, the coke was all finished. He glanced at the system in his mind and saw that the hexagram area was gray. He couldn’t help but feel a little pity.

If he could get a hexagram by solving the white bone case, he should be able to get enough points to upgrade the system in addition to getting a lot of props.

It was a pity that the system was still in the freezing stage, and there was still more than a week before it could be unfrozen. On the points column, because he had used more than 1000 points, he was a lot further away from the system upgrade.

Zhao Yu prayed in his heart that the next case would be solved after the system was unfrozen!

At this thought, he finally opened the car door and arrived at the entrance of the villa.

At this moment, there were several police cars parked outside the door, and many police officers were going in and out of the door, very busy.

The owner of this villa was the leader of the snake fangs, abikula, who was also the owner of the club, Mr. MA.

The reason why Zhao Yu had chosen to come here today was not because he had wanted to, but because he had been called over by the special Agent Xiao hang. Xiao hang had said on the phone that he had something to talk to him about in person.

Zhao Yu understood that if the captain of secret services wanted to talk to him about something, it would definitely not be a small matter. That was why she had postponed a meeting with the local leaders and came to this place.

“Good day, detective Zhao!”

“Oh, great detective Zhao, you’re here?”

“Detective Zhao, can I take a picture with you?”

“.....”

Now that the White bones case had been solved, Zhao Yu had become a famous person among the police of hailand. All the police officers who saw him greeted him respectfully, and some even took the initiative to take photos with him.

However, as soon as the police officer who wanted to take a picture took out his mobile phone, he saw a person walking quickly in the courtyard. He had to put his mobile phone back in his pocket and go to work.

“Old Zhao, you’re so arrogant!” It was Xiao hang, who had bandages on his shoulders. He walked out of the door and said to Zhao Yu, “you arrived a long time ago, but you sat there for so long before you got out of the car. Were you waiting for me to welcome you?”

“I’m having breakfast!” Zhao Yu came up to Xiao hang and patted his good arm. “But don’t try to get close to me,” he said bluntly. “I’m the famous and loved great detective Zhao. Is it appropriate for you to call me Zhao?”

“Besides, even though I’ve made great contributions and have a high rank, I’m not that old. If you keep calling me old Zhao, I’m going to flip out!”

Xiao hang blushed with embarrassment.

“Wahaha ...” Zhao Yu patted his arm again and laughed, “I’m just joking!” I can’t tell! Wahahaha ...”

Zhao Yu’s wild laughter crushed Xiao hang’s aura. For the proud Special Agent Captain, he had never been as afraid of anyone as he was of Zhao Yu.

“Alright, detective Zhao, let’s talk inside! “I really can’t get away Today,” Xiao hang said, pointing to his injured arm. “I didn’t even have time to change my medicine at the hospital!”

“Otherwise, I would have gone to find you personally. How could I trouble you, great detective Zhao, to come here personally?”

“It doesn’t matter, it doesn’t matter!” Zhao Yu quickly waved his hand and pointed at the villa in front of him. “I was just about to ask you if abikula will be auctioned according to the law after the case is closed.

“This villa is great,” Zhao Yu whispered in Xiao hang’s ear. “When you auction it later, you can sell it to me at a lower price!”

“...” Xiao hang’s face was as dark as charcoal, and he said with an embarrassed expression, “stop joking. I’m not in charge of the auction!” I think we should talk about serious business!”

Xiao hang led Zhao Yu into the villa and into the luxuriously decorated living room.

At this moment, the hall was a busy scene. The police officers were carefully searching and looking for something.

Among them, Zhao Yu saw a few familiar faces. They were all Xiao hang’s Secret agents. As he had given them a good beating in Feng ping, after seeing Zhao Yu, they all avoided eye contact with him, as they still had lingering fear.

"Come, this way!" Xiao hang led Zhao Yu to a corner of the living room and whispered to him, "detective Zhao, I'm sure you understand why officer Miao sent me here for the White bones case, right?"

"Of course I understand," Zhao Yu said naturally. "He's afraid that if it was someone I don't know, I would bully them!"

Xiao hang coughed a few times and said, "in that case, I'll be direct." I know that half of your current status is already in the Secret Service!

"So ..." He pointed to the living room of the villa and said, "we need you to help us here!"

"This place?" Zhao Yu took a look and saw that the police officers were all looking for something carefully.

"For us," Xiao hang said bluntly, "the biggest gain from the white bone case was the capture of abikula!"

"After all, he was the leader of snaketooth, so he should know a lot of important information for us," Xiao hang said seriously. "This information ... Is not just about the criminal level!"

"Oh ... I understand!" Zhao Yu's eyes lit up as he said, "the purpose of you calling me here is to tell me that, besides the White bones case, I have made another great contribution to secret services, right?"

"Then what are we waiting for? Hurry up and apply to the higher-ups to give me this villa!"

"Cough, cough, cough ..." Xiao hang almost choked on his own breath. He quickly grabbed Zhao Yu's arm and said, "detective Zhao, stop playing around. I called you here because I really have something important to discuss with you!"

"I know," Zhao Yu said with a smile. "You've already put it that way, so how could I not understand? You just want me to help you research this abikula, right?"

"Catch the toad and make it urinate. Try to dig out all the secrets on his body as much as possible?"

"Well ... Almost, almost!" Xiao hang quickly wiped his sweat and explained, "abikula confessed to the murder and admitted his identity, but he didn't say a word about the snake fang organization. He said nothing!"

"Moreover, from what he said, he seems to have nothing to fear!"

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu nodded and said, "I understand. He must be like la Kong, trying to negotiate with us. He must want to be a tainted witness."

"It's not just that!" Xiao hang said seriously, "this abikula was able to escape from the Great Purge unscathed. He must have some life-saving skills."

"According to la Kong's confession, he suspected that abikula had a lot to do with the destruction of snaketooth!"

"So, we have reason to suspect that he must have something in his hands that will earn him special points!"

“Abikula is more cunning than lakong,” Xiao hang said worriedly. “I think he wants to exchange his information for freedom!”

“No way!” Zhao Yu finally understood why Xiao hang was so anxious. “This B * stard has killed countless people and committed countless crimes. If we make a deal with him, how can we face the innocent victims?”

“So ...” Xiao hang pointed at the hall again.

“So ...” Zhao Yu continued, “we have to use our limited resources to find the information he is hiding!”

Chapter 1437: I've understood something

“According to la Kong’s confession,” Xiao hang said as they walked to the wine cellar of the villa. “He suspects that abikula couldn’t have destroyed the information of all the assassins. This cunning old fox must have hidden the information in case he needed it to threaten them!”

“But ...” Zhao Yu looked at the dimly lit wine cellar and pondered, “because this person is cunning, he couldn’t have hidden such an important thing in his own house!” Even if ... There’s a secret vault, it shouldn’t be, right?”

“The vault is in the wine cellar ...”

Xiao hang took Zhao Yu to the innermost part of the wine cellar. To his surprise, one of the huge wine barrels was actually a secret door that was connected to a secret room. It was abikula’s vault.

“We’ve found many precious art pieces and cultural relics here. Abikula has really collected a lot of good things over the years!”

As they spoke, the two of them bent over and walked into the vault. They saw that the vault was about four to five meters away, and a group of professional police officers were sorting and pasting labels on the relics.

“I also know that it’s unlikely that he would hide the information at home,” Xiao hang said. “But I think that abikula has been keeping silent all this time and has not negotiated any conditions with us!”

“Is he also worried that we will find something?”

“No,” Zhao Yu shook his head. “This guy is patient enough. He should be waiting for us to be powerless before he comes to us. That way, he will have more power!”

“In my opinion ...” Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then said, “we can start from two aspects!”

“First, la Kong and Liang Weiyi have lost all hope. We can start from these two and get more information about abikula and snaketooth!”

“Second, we can think about it. If la Kong wanted to keep a death-exemption Golden Plate, where would he hide it? It shouldn’t be ... It shouldn’t have gone to a Switzerland bank, right?”

“Think about it. If there’s any danger, he must be able to get it as soon as possible. So ...” Zhao Yu’s eyes were shining as he said to Xiao hang, “we need to trace abikula’s movements. And this trace is not recent, nor is it recent, but all the traces since he came to Harland!”

“You mean,” Xiao hang said, “he left it in Harland?” We need to track him down and find this place?”

“Right!” Zhao Yu nodded. “This may not be difficult to find. First, abikula didn’t go there often, but he would go there regularly, and each time, he wouldn’t go for long!

“Second, this place looks the safest and most reliable!

“Thirdly ... Hmm ...” Zhao Yu said thoughtfully.

“What’s the third?” Xiao hang asked anxiously.

“I haven’t thought about it yet,” Zhao Yu replied honestly, then patted Xiao hang on the shoulder. “But the first two should be enough to keep you busy for a while!”

“Mm, okay!” Xiao hang said, “I’ll apply to the higher-ups for more manpower. This matter is of great significance to us, and we can’t give it up so easily!”

“Tsk tsk ...” Zhao Yu squatted down and picked up a white jade Arhat. He played with it and said, “I don’t quite understand. You’ve already caught him. Don’t you think that secret services has some special means to make him confess?”

“Hehe ... Detective Zhao has good taste,” an expert next to him said to Zhao Yu with a smile. “This is a white jade Arhat from the Ming Dynasty. It’s worth a lot!”

“How can we do that?” Xiao hang immediately said seriously, “although the Secret Service has a lot of authority, we still have to abide by the law and regulations when dealing with criminals!”

“I’m not asking you to beat him up!” Zhao Yu then opened another scroll and said, “last time in Feng ping, I snatched the truth potion from a foreign agent. Didn’t it work?” Why don’t you give abikula some to try?”

“Waa! This one’s amazing too!” The expert moved closer to him and introduced, “do you know? This is Qi Baishi’s original manuscript. Even though it’s not a finished product, it’s still worth a fortune!”

“The potion was used for scientific experiments,” Xiao hang said helplessly. “Just like pitidebin, it’s an active and volatile substance. There’s no way to replicate it!

“Of course, we have something similar,” Xiao hang said in a low voice, whispering into Zhao Yu’s ear. “But for people like abikula, it might not work!”

“Think about it. How did Killer K torture Cai Xingwen and the others? but in the end, didn’t he still not get the information he wanted?”

“Eh? What was this? “What the ...” Zhao Yu picked up another picture book and glanced at it. His eyes suddenly widened, and he asked in disbelief, “how could there be such a thing?” Isn’t this a little too high level?”

It turned out that Zhao Yu found that the album was full of oil paintings of sex scenes, all of which were extremely erotic scenes that were not suitable for children.

What surprised Zhao Yu even more was that the inelegant drawings were very realistic. If he didn't look carefully, they looked almost like photos. It was really an eye-opener!

"The great detective Zhao's eyes are really sharp. You actually found such a rare treasure that's hard to find! I'm impressed, I'm impressed!" The expert came over again. "This picture book should be the most valuable thing in this vault!"

"Treasure? Most valuable? "This ..." Zhao Yu flipped through a few pages, but the scene in the picture book was so amazing that even someone as thick-skinned as him blushed slightly.

"Valuable, valuable, it's too valuable!" The expert pointed at the album and said, "these are the authentic works of several famous artists from the last century!"

"Did you know?" Seeing that Zhao Yu was interested, the expert immediately started to show off his knowledge. "More than seventy years ago, there were no Japanese movies or fashion magazines. Some rich tycoons would spend a lot of money to hire some skilled artists to draw these kinds of erotic pictures for them in order to stimulate their physiological senses.

"At that time, the painters were not famous, and they were living in poverty. In order to support their families, some people were willing to sell their souls and draw a lot of dirty things!"

"Later on, some of the artists became famous, and the erotic paintings that they drew also became more and more precious!"

"Every single piece of this picture book in your hands is authentic!" The expert introduced excitedly, "and all of them are works of famous artists. Their value is simply immeasurable!"

"Of course ... Because this kind of thing is, after all, immoral, so it can't be auctioned in public. But it's because it's very rare in the market that it's even more so for those big shots who advocate extravagance! Hehehehe ..."

Listening to the expert's introduction, Zhao Yu became more and more engrossed, more and more detailed ...

"Mm ... Well ..." Xiao hang smirked and whispered to Zhao Yu, "if you're interested, I can make an exception and allow you to take a photo!"

At first, Xiao hang had just wanted to make a joke, but he didn't expect that after he finished speaking, not only did Zhao Yu not respond, but he was even more engrossed in the painting, almost sticking his face to it.

"This ..." The expert and Xiao hang looked at each other, feeling a little embarrassed.

However, the awkwardness only lasted for less than a second before they heard Zhao Yu say, "Oh ... I think ... I think I've figured something out!"

"Ah?" "What do you understand?" Xiao hang's eyes suddenly brightened and he asked hopefully.

"I think there's something wrong with this picture. Maybe the information about abikula is hidden here! "So," Zhao Yu put the picture book under his arm and said righteously, "I have to take it back and study it! Use a magnifying glass to look at it carefully ..."

I'll ...

Xiao hang and the expert fell down together ...

Chapter 1438: What kind of mission?

15 days later, in a Wellington Hotel in New Zealand.

"Teacher Miao, I'm telling you the truth. This Zhao Yu that you found is really not suitable to be a secret agent!" "No matter if it's physical fitness, reaction time, or cultural level, they are the worst among this batch of students!" A woman's voice, which sounded like a silver bell, reported to Miao kun seriously.

"We've given him more than a dozen tests, but only one passed!"

"Which one?" Miao kun took a sip of red wine and asked with interest.

"Cheating poker card!" The female instructor reported.

"Hehe ..." Miao kun laughed. His laugh was a little creepy.

"Teacher Miao," the woman said sternly. "Just like what you taught us back then, we choose special staff, and the basic quality is ordinary.

"But the Zhao Yu You found is a famous detective, and a madman known for his insolence! This doesn't match our selection criteria at all.

"I strongly suggest you disqualify him!"

"Hey ... Hehehe ... Department Director Xiao Ying!" Miao kun savored the taste of the red wine and said, "I might not have made it clear to you before, but actually, when I asked for Zhao Yu to be transferred here, I didn't really want him to become a special Agent!

"Instead, he's going to make full use of his detective skills to help us investigate and solve those international difficult cases." Miao kun put down his glass and raised his cigar. "You know, there are too many international cases. There are already too many unsolved cases on the desk of the Department.

"It's not that these cases can't be solved, but they can't be solved due to special reasons. This has seriously affected the image of our Secret Service, and we've suffered a lot!

"That's why I transferred Zhao Yu over to try out a new method.

"In addition to Zhao Yu's ability to solve cases, what I like about him is his fearless and manic personality! Miao ku said with hope in his eyes, "it's time to let him out and let him harm ... Oh no, let him protect the interests of our country!

"We have to let those who tried to sabotage us know that we Chinese are not to be trifled with!"

“But ...” Director Xiao said worriedly, “international disputes are not small matters. For a person like Zhao Yu ... If he doesn’t do a good job, I’m afraid it will cause big trouble!”

“Hehehe ... You don’t have to worry about that!” Miao kun took a puff of his cigar and said confidently, “I believe in Zhao Yu’s strength. This guy is not as arrogant as people think. Sometimes, even I can’t resist his cunning!”

“Don’t worry! Director Xiao, our purpose is not in conflict with the criminal Division. Isn’t it to find out the truth and protect the interests of the country?”

“So, listen to me,” Miao kun put down his cigar and said calmly, “let him pass!” He’s not a professional agent, so these tests are meaningless to him. ”

“Alright, since you’ve said so!” “What else can I say?” director Xiao said helplessly.

“Oh, that’s right!” Miao kun chuckled and said, “what do you think? We can’t let Zhao Yu be idle. Do you have any suitable cases on hand? Why don’t we pick a simpler one and let him gain some experience?”

“Let’s first get familiar with the style of our Secret Service!”

“Well, there’s a ready-made case,” director Xiao said. “But, you know the rules. After all, he’s new here, so he can’t do it alone. He can only be an assistant and learn from them!”

“Of course, hehehe ...” Miao kun laughed, but he was worried that Zhao Yu would be willing to work for someone else and not cause another big blunder like Feng ping.

“Alright, I’ll make the arrangements for him!” Director Xiao said.

“Oh, by the way,” Miao kun quickly asked, “I want to know what case you’re talking about?”

.....

At the same time, in a private room in the capital’s Liu He shun hot pot restaurant, Zhao Yu was using a deck of playing cards to demonstrate his new skills to his team members.

“Wow, boss is amazing!” Ran Tao watched as Zhao Yu changed a card into another pattern, then clapped and praised him, “it’s only been a few days, and you’ve become the God of Gamblers!”

Cui Lizhu, who was holding a lollipop in her mouth, snorted and said without looking up, “God of Gamblers? he’s just a cheater!” The practice of installing mechanisms in the sleeves had become out of fashion decades ago!

“With your level, if you really go to the casino, Won’t You Be beaten to death?”

“Ai!” Zhao Yu took out the spring mechanism and playing cards from his sleeve, glanced at cui Lizhu, and sighed. “You’re indeed the daughter of the King of Thieves! You actually saw through such a difficult move!”

“If I could join the Secret Service with a poker card,” cui Lizhu said proudly as she crushed the lollipop in her mouth. “I could be a division Chief, right?”

“I’m coming!”

At this time, as the door opened, Miao Ying walked in.

As the weather outside had turned cold, the private room was suddenly filled with a damp and cold air.

Today, miss Miao was wearing a fashionable windbreaker and a beautiful scarf around her neck, making her look mature and steady. She was simply beautiful.

"Here, this is red wine from Bordeaux." Miao Ying opened her bag and took out a few bottles of red wine. "Someone gave it to my dad. Try it!" She said.

"The red wine that sister Miao brought must be of the highest quality. We're in luck today!" Zeng ke praised as he took the bottle with Zhang Peipei.

"Hmph, getting angry at the mention of red wine." Zhao Yu put down the poker card, raised his eyebrows, and said to Miao Ying, "your father promised to give me a bottle of 1979 saverin"

"It's the white sand!" Miao Ying handed the bottle opener to Ran Tao and laughed. "That's between you and him. You can ask him for it!"

"Thick white sand? Is it very valuable?" Cui Lizhu was more sensitive to luxury goods, but she had never heard of this red wine before.

"It's from 1979. There are less than 100 bottles left in the world. Do you think it's expensive?" Zhao Yu said regretfully, "to be exact, there should be less than ninety-nine bottles left, because I blew off a bottle last time like a hot pot!"

"Wow ..." Everyone was dumbfounded. Their eyes were filled with envy, jealousy, and hatred.

"How did it go, team leader Miao?" "Has hai Lan's case been closed?" Wu Xiumin asked Miao Ying.

"Yes." Miao Ying sat next to Zhao Yu and told Wu Xiumin, "Captain Xiao hang just called. He said that through a video, secret services found out that abikula would visit a temple regularly to burn incense, so they conducted a comprehensive search there."

"In the end, we found abikula's hidden item in a bone ash box in the temple. There is not only top-secret information about the snake fang organization, but also a lot of important information related to the interests of many countries!"

"Oh ... How is it?" Zhao Yu was smug. "Is my method reliable?" I'm telling you, this was my idea!"

"The rest of the matter has nothing to do with our Special Investigation Group!" Miao Ying continued, "abikula has lost his life-saving token, so he's just waiting for la Kong and Killer K to go on trial!"

"Hmph, you deserve this!" Cui Lizhu said proudly, "as long as you've done something bad, don't even think about escaping punishment!"

"Oh, that's right!" Miao Ying suddenly remembered something and said to Zhao Yu, "on the phone today, Captain Xiao hang mentioned something about a picture book and asked you to return it to him!"

"What album? why don't I know about it?"

Plop ...

Zhao Yu's hand trembled, and the spoon in his hand broke ...

Chapter 1439: oil painting

"It's fine, it's fine ..." Zhao Yu kicked the broken spoon to the side and said to the crowd, "it's fine, hehe ... Come, the hot pot is here. Everyone must be hungry, right?"

As they spoke, the waiter indeed brought out the charcoal pot for the hot-boiled mutton.

"MeowMeow, come closer, don't rub against me ..." Zhao Yu stood between Miao Ying and the stove. "Otherwise, I'll have to buy you new clothes again!"

The hotpot landed on the ground and the waiter left.

"Zhao Yu, there seems to be a problem ..." Miao Ying squinted her eyes and stared at Zhao Yu. "Didn't you hear what I just asked? Company leader Xiao asked you what your picture book was?"

"Eh? A picture book?" Zhao Yu was stunned for a moment, then pretended to understand and said, "Oh ... That picture book! It's nothing, just a piece of evidence. I used it to analyze the case, so I'll return it to him later!"

"Evidence? What evidence?" Miss Miao was ready to get to the bottom of it.

"Come, come, come, I'm hungry. Put the meat in and start cooking! "Hahaha ..." Zhao Yu didn't care about that, but picked up his chopsticks and put the meat into the pot.

"Al! "Okay, okay, okay ..." Ran Tao opened the bottle of red wine and began to pour wine for everyone. At the same time, he said, "I'm really hungry. Why is the weather so cold all of a sudden?"

"Zhao Yu," miss Miao pressed down on Zhao Yu's chopsticks and asked seriously, "you can't do this. How can you take away the evidence without permission?"

"You've been a police officer for a long time. I don't understand what you're thinking. Is the evidence important?"

"No..." Zhao Yu explained, "I just thought of something from the evidence and got some inspiration, so I brought it back to analyze it. I'll be returning it tomorrow!"

"Come!" Zhao Yu raised his glass of red wine. "It's rare for everyone to be gathered together today. Let me drink first!"

As he spoke, he raised his head and finished the large glass of red wine.

Everyone knew Zhao Yu's temper, so they immediately raised their glasses to celebrate, then started eating.

"No." However, miss Miao couldn't get past this today. She immediately pulled Zhao Yu's collar and said, "inspired by the evidence ... But, the white bone case has been solved, and the information on abikula has been found. What inspiration did you get?"

“Cough cough ...” Hearing this, Zhao Yu almost spat out the wine in his mouth. He coughed a few times, then explained with a smile, “not this case, it’s another case!”

“Oh?” Miao Ying was puzzled. “What case? Did you receive another quest in Harland?”

“No!” Zhao Yu knew that he would die an ugly death if he continued to hide it, so he told Miao Ying half of the truth. “This is what happened ...”

“Xiao hang and I went to abikula’s house to look for clues, and we accidentally found a picture book that abikula had kept.

“The paintings are all oil paintings by famous artists, so logically speaking, there’s nothing special about them! “But ...” Zhao Yu changed the topic and said, “as a sharp detective, I realized something important from this ordinary oil painting, which reminded me of the oil painting murder case in France!”

“Ah? The oil painting murder case?” Miao Ying was surprised.

“What oil painting murder case?” Ran Tao asked, “I don’t understand. What does this have to do with France? Why did you make it an international affair?”

“You ...” Miao Ying let go of Zhao Yu’s collar and asked, “what did you figure out?”

“I ... I realized ... Um ... Cough cough ...” Zhao Yu cleared his throat, then stammered, “I ... Look at the oil painting ... Of course, I’m an amateur, but I think the oil painting is very well painted!”

“It’s drawn so well, it’s called realistic! As expected of a famous artist’s painting, it’s too pleasing to the eye!” Zhao Yu was speaking the truth. As I read on, I suddenly had an idea. I said, ‘eh?’ Why do these oil paintings suddenly remind me of the France oil painting murder case?”

“Oh, it’s this case. I think I’ve seen it on Facebook and Twitter!” Zeng ke found information about the oil painting murder case on his mobile phone, then immediately picked it up and showed it to his team members. Only then did they understand the ins and outs of the case.

However, they didn’t know what the case had to do with Zhao Yu.

“Why ...” Miao Ying was particularly interested in the case, so she immediately guessed excitedly, “is there any clue related to the oil painting murder case in the picture book?” Tell me, what did you find? No wonder Secret Service allowed you to bring the picture back!”

“No, I don’t have any clues!” Zhao Yu grinned and said, “but, I thought of a problem that might be helpful in solving the case!”

“Oh? Hurry up and tell me!” Miao Ying urged.

“I’ve read the file. The France police have made many speculations about this case. Zhao Yu said, “the one that they agreed with the most was that the criminal was likely to be one or a few depressed artists or painters!

“They were dissatisfied with reality and felt that they couldn’t realize their own value, so they committed the oil painting murder case to vent their emotions!

"In addition, there are also speculations about students, perverts, and so on, but ..." Zhao Yu spread out his hands. "I went through all the files, but I couldn't find the one that I guessed!"

"I'm thinking, could it be that the key to the oil painting murder case lies in my speculation?"

"What speculation do you have?" Miao Ying urged, "at this time, don't keep us in suspense, okay?"

"I've seen abikula's collection of paintings, and they were all drawn by Masters and famous artists. "So, I suddenly thought ..." Zhao Yu pondered and said, "could the murderer of the oil painting murder case be a famous and highly respected artist or painter?"

"This ... Is a famous artist?" Miao Ying's eyes were wide open, and she felt that it was a little unreliable. "Could it be ..."

"Yeah, because he's a famous artist," Zhao Yu said. "So, the police didn't suspect him! He's already famous, why would he kill people?"

"Yeah," Ran Tao said, waving his hand. "That's also our question."

"The answer is very simple, he's sick! "I've seen a lot of movies," Zhao Yu said. "Famous artists have reached the peak of their art, and then they go crazy. They want to use more alternative means to satisfy themselves!"

"That's why he committed such a crime!"

"Wow, your deduction ..." Cui Lizhu pouted and shook her head in disagreement.

"I'm not talking nonsense." Zhao Yu opened his mobile phone and found the relevant information. "Look at it yourself. Every time the murderer kills someone, the selection fee is not something that ordinary people can afford!" Whether it was the setting, the makeup of the dead, or even the canvas used, all of them were expensive!

"If it's a depressed artist, can he afford it?"

"Look at these crime scenes," Zhao Yu said, pointing to the photos. "The makeup, props, and setting, no matter how you look at it, there's nothing to pick on. They were all done by a master!"

"Oh ..." Miao Ying carefully analyzed the situation, then asked Zhao Yu, "then ... Have you contacted the France?"

"Ah ... Hero ... Please chase my beautiful dream with me ..."

Just then, Zhao Yu's phone suddenly rang.

"Oh, it's from the Secret Service!" Zhao Yu recognized the caller ID, so he quickly got up and went to a corner to answer the call.

After the call, he returned to the dining table and said to everyone, "Alright, the White bones case has been closed. You guys can rest now, but I can't!"

"What's wrong?" Miao Ying asked. "Is there a mission for secret services?"

“Right!” Zhao Yu nodded. “Here comes the work! Today, I, the great detective Zhao, am going to start my first show as a Secret Service agent!”

“Hey!” He pointed at the crowd and said, “what are you guys waiting for? hurry up and give me a toast. Wish me a good business, oh no, wish me success!”

“Yes, yes, yes ...” Ran Tao quickly stood up and shouted, “come on, let’s wish boss a victory!”

Then, everyone raised their glasses and were forced to give Zhao Yu their blessings.

Chapter 1440: no need!

In the capital’s Fuyuan District, on the road near the swallow mountain range, an unremarkable black SUV was driving at high speed.

“What? Vacheria?” Zhao Yu, who was sitting in the back seat of the car, said to a man with a crew cut sitting in the front passenger seat, “I think I’ve heard of it somewhere. I think I heard it from the news. It’s not far from our country, right?”

“Just like Kashmir, vakreya is an undefeatable country, not a country.” “However, the situation in vakreya is even more complicated than Kashmir. Not only are there neighboring countries involved, but there are also internal disputes.”

The man with the crew cut was the commander sent by the Secret Service to handle the case. His name was Si Rui, and he was of the same rank as Xiao Hang.

Zhao Yu, on the other hand, did not have any title or command power, so he was basically like an intern.

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu rolled his eyes, then asked, “then what are we going to do?”

“The former leader of Vachery, Xie Ah, has always been under our protection. He has been living here for 6 years! “But ...” Si Rui looked back at Zhao Yu, “we just received a report that he was kidnapped this morning, and his life and death are unknown!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu finally understood what his mission was.

“According to the latest information,” Si Rui continued, “the situation in vakreya has been unstable recently, and there have been new changes. The faction that Xie Ah represented had risen again, and there were voices from the people that wanted to bring Xie Ah back to take charge of the situation!”

“So, at this point, the consequences of Xie Ah being kidnapped are very serious!” Si Rui handed a document to Zhao Yu. “Now, there’s a high possibility that the opposing faction in Vachery sent people to kidnap Xie Ah. Because they don’t want Xie Ah to return to China!”

“Is that so?” Zhao Yu looked at the information and raised his own doubts, “if it was done by an opposing faction, why not just kill the person directly? wouldn’t that be a good way to avoid future trouble?”

“How can we do that?” Si Rui shook his head. “We’ve seen this kind of thing many times. If Xie Ah was assassinated, it would definitely arouse the anger of the people. This would be even more disadvantageous to the opposing factions!”

“Oh ... In that case,” Zhao Yu said, “it’s hard to say. It could be done by Xie ah’s own faction. Perhaps someone in their faction didn’t want Xie AH to go back, afraid that Xie ah would take their position! Or perhaps they want to use Xie ah’s disappearance to slander the enemy faction ...”

“Of course, it could also be done by other factions or even other countries!” Si Rui finished speaking seriously. Suddenly, he smelled something. He frowned and muttered, “did you drink?”

“I’m having a gathering with my friends, and I didn’t know that I would have a mission today!” There was nothing wrong with Zhao Yu’s explanation. He hadn’t received any official transfer notice from the Secret Service agency, so he naturally didn’t need to follow their rules.

“Alright then!” Si Rui didn’t argue with Zhao Yu and said, “no matter who the kidnappers are, our mission is to find out the truth and bring Xie ah back!

“After all, Xie ah is under the protection of our country. If something happens to him here, it will not be good for us. “And ...” Si Rui raised the corners of his mouth and said, “we can’t let the kidnappers act wildly in our territory!”

“En!” Zhao Yu put the documents aside and said to si Rui, “in that case, let’s not go to Xie ah’s residence. Let’s go to the scene of his kidnapping first!”

“Oh?” Si Rui was a little surprised. “Xie ah’s wife and child are at his residence. We’re going to listen to their statements. Besides, the kidnappers might call at any time. Are you sure we should go to the scene first?”

“Of course I’m sure. Aren’t we going to catch the kidnappers?” Zhao Yu said, “only by seeing the scene can we understand the situation of the kidnappers.”

“Besides, didn’t the information say that Xie ah was kidnapped on the road not far from his house?”

“Okay,” si Rui looked at Zhao Yu seriously, “you’re the expert in this area, so I’ll listen to you!”

After he finished speaking, si Rui asked the driver to change his route and head straight to the crime scene.

.....

On the way to the crime scene, si Rui told Zhao Yu some more about the case.

Zhao Yu felt that although Captain si Rui looked serious and did not smile, he must have already inquired about his information, so he was very careful with his words. He did not try to flatter Zhao Yu, nor did he overreact in order to offend Zhao Yu.

But it was precisely because of this that Zhao Yu felt even more distant. Just from this encounter, Zhao Yu knew that he would never be able to be friends with this Captain si Rui.

Most of the area in Fuyuan District was mountainous, and Xie ah lived in a villa community halfway up the mountain.

The place where he had an accident was on a mountain path behind the villa.

There were watermelon fields on both sides of the path. Since the watermelon harvesting season had passed, there were few people in the watermelon fields, so it was a little empty.

“After we received the report,” si Rui said when they were about to arrive at the scene of the crime, “it was the local police who arrived at the scene. When they found out that the missing person’s identity was special, they contacted us!

“But don’t worry, they’ve been protecting the scene the whole time, so it won’t be damaged! “There ...” He pointed ahead. “We’re here!”

After the car was parked, si Rui and Zhao Yu got out of the car and went to the scene.

Just as si Rui had said, the place had been cordoned off by the local police. When the two of them arrived, a police officer immediately came to greet them and discussed the case with them.

According to the information provided by the police, Xie ah drove alone from home this morning to the publishing house to meet an editor to discuss his story.

However, not only did the editor not wait for her, but he couldn’t get through to her on the phone either. So, he contacted Xie ah’s wife.

Xie ah’s wife anxiously followed the route and found Xie ah’s car.

The car door was open, and some items were scattered on the car. The person was also missing! So, Xie ah’s wife quickly called the police.

After arriving at the scene, Zhao Yu listened to the local police’s report while he entered the scene and carefully checked the inside and outside of the car.

Xie ah’s car was a white Haffer from the Great Wall, and the car was parked diagonally at the side of a T-junction.

The door of the driver’s seat was open, the seat belt was hanging under the seat, the sun visor was down, and a cup of water had fallen under the driver’s seat, tea spilling everywhere ...

He looked outside the car. Although the ground was asphalt, he could still see the black brake marks of the Great Wall haverns. From this, it could be deduced that there must have been a vehicle that suddenly appeared in front of it and forced it to stop.

“We checked the surveillance footage,” a local police officer reported. “During that time, only a Black New Santana sedan appeared on the surveillance footage leading to the main road!

“Due to the high speed of the car, we suspect that the kidnapper was most likely in that car to carry out the kidnapping.

“We’re doing a video deduction now!”

“No need.” Just as the police officer finished speaking, Captain si Rui touched the headset in his ear and said to the crowd, “the suspect’s vehicle has been found. It’s in an abandoned distribution yard on the mountain!”

“Wow, so fast?” The police officer was surprised.

“Mm ...” Si Rui listened to the report in his earpiece and said, “there was no one in the car, but we found Xie ah’s phone, wallet, and his briefcase!

“Let’s go!” He waved at Zhao Yu and said, “let’s go and take a look now!”

“No need!” Zhao Yu suddenly shook his head and said helplessly, “I think we’d better meet Xie ah’s wife first!

“They’re underestimating me, the famous detective Zhao who shocks the universe, right? This isn’t a kidnapping case at all!”
