Chapter 1451: The suspect

Buzz ... Buzz ...

A military helicopter was flying at high speed over the wilderness.

Zhao Yu had been in a helicopter a few times before, but none of them had been as scary as today.

The helicopter was too old. The paint on its body had fallen off, and it made a clattering sound as it flew, as if it would fall apart at any time. It felt like a tractor.

Plus, the plane was very bumpy. It even made Zhao Yu, who had never had any problems before, feel dizzy for the first time.

"Yelmaz! "Yes," at this time, Anna, who was sitting next to Zhao Yu, spoke loudly to Zhao Yu and Lu Kaixuan,"the information has been confirmed. Our people have arrested a suspicious person in yelmaz city, and we suspect that he is from the banner organization!"

"What?" Zhao Yu suppressed his dizziness and asked loudly,"what is a banner organization?"

"Terrorists!" Anna explained,"it's a terrorist organization active in Central Asia. They were the ones who did the tashiian explosion two years ago! They're our old rivals!"

"Right!" Lu Kaixuan said,"the information I received shows that the banner organization might be plotting some secret operation in yelmaz!"

"There might be more than one suspect!"

"Yelmaz ... Oh ..." Zhao Yu recalled."Isn't that the nearest big city to the exploration team's base? The one at the border with vachery?"

"Right!" Anna quickly said,"yelmaz is a key town at the border of our country. Because it is at the border of vaklia, it has always been a sensitive place!"

"The flag organization's base is also in vachery!"

"If I'm not wrong, the disappearance of the exploration team this time is likely to be related to them!"

"That's right," Lu Kaixuan said."The exploration team's base is less than 80 kilometers away from yelmaz. It's very likely that it's the work of the banner organization!"

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu thought for a moment, then asked,"what about the suspect we caught? What did he say? Did you mention the exploration team? Can you confirm that he's a terrorist?"

"No," Lu Kaixuan replied."That guy is very stubborn. He hasn't said anything yet!"

"But his id is fake," Anna said, looking at her phone."The fake ID states that he's a Kazakhstan businessman!"

"But he speaks with a vacherian accent and is carrying prohibited weapons. There's obviously something wrong."

“As for the specific situation, we are still verifying it with the intelligence Department. Let the local police interrogate him first!”

“We need to send more people!” Lu Kaixuan reminded him, “to be able to kidnap 12 people, it means that their scale is not small. It’s best to put the city under martial law. Also, we have to start the investigation from the place where the suspect was caught and find his accomplices as soon as possible!”

“You don’t know yelmaz,” Anna said with a smile. “The city is under martial law every day and every hour.”

“Don’t worry, after they caught the suspect, they’re doing their best to investigate!”

After explaining the situation, because the plane was jolting violently, both Anna and Lu Kaixuan felt a little uncomfortable, so they closed their eyes to rest.

Although Zhao Yu was also uncomfortable, his mind never stopped working. He was still wondering if the disappearance of the exploration team had anything to do with the new suspect and their terrorist organization.

An overseas terrorist organization had risked entering the hinterlands of tarstan and then kidnapped a China exploration team. Why did this sound a little unreliable?

If it was really done by this group of terrorists, what was their purpose?

Are you using hostages to threaten the tartein government, or are you plotting against us?

However, Zhao Yu felt that no matter what the reason was, if it was really done by terrorists, it would definitely not be as simple as it looked on the surface.

.....

Although the plane was broken, it was not slow. It only took half an hour for the plane to land in the Western city of tarstan, yelmaz.

According to Anna, yelmaz was known as the Pearl of the plateau. Other than being rich in natural resources, it was also an ancient city with a long history. Many historical relics were preserved in the city.

However, compared to its rich resources and long history, yelmaz was more famous for its terrorists!

According to incomplete statistics, the number of terrorist attacks suffered by the city had already entered the top ten in the world. There were two or three terrorist attacks almost every month.

Even though the tartein government had strengthened the security measures, due to the complicated clan system and its border with vakria, the root cause had not been cured for a long time.

It was precisely because of various historical reasons that it was not a new thing to capture dozens of terrorists here in one go, let alone one.

The military aircraft was almost completely sealed off, and Zhao Yu had a rare airsickness, so it was not until the plane landed that he got to see yelmaz’s face with his own eyes.

As far as the eye could see, there were almost no high-rise buildings higher than four stories in the entire city. The city had no planning, and the construction was very casual. It made Zhao Yu feel as if he had traveled back in time to his childhood.

It seemed that the small Qinshan County he had lived in when he was young was also better built than this place.

The plane landed at the designated airport, some distance away from the yelmaz police station. The local police had sent vehicles to pick them up early in the morning, all of which were old-fashioned Jeeps.

Soon, the convoy set off, and five or six police cars drove in the direction of the police station.

The sun was shining brightly, and the temperature was rising.

Zhao Yu, who was wearing heavy clothes, suddenly felt hot and stuffy, so he had to lower the car's hand-rolled window.

Outside the window was a foreign Street View. The narrow streets were crowded with all kinds of pedestrians. Some drove cars, some drove three-wheeled bikes, and some even rode yaks ...

In addition to all kinds of old shops on the street, there were many children playing on the street. Some were playing with mud, some were playing football, and some were even chasing and playing, completely ignoring the cars on the street ...

"I've verified his identity." At this time, the commander, Anna, suddenly put down her phone and said to Lu Kaixuan and Zhao Yu, "I didn't expect that we would catch such a big fish!" The suspect who was arrested is called ekunde Saif, he is the Secretary of the current leader of the banner organization, Noah!"

"Waa!" Zhao Yu pouted. "Times are really changing. Even terrorists have secretaries?"

"He's an important person!" Anna said excitedly, "just wait and see. Since he appeared in yelmaz, it means that the disappearance of the exploration team must be related to the flag organization!"

"Anna," Lu Kaixuan said cautiously, "since we've confirmed her identity, you better contact the military and ask them to send more police!"

"I know how the banner organization works. We can't be careless!"

"Don't worry!" Anna said confidently, "I've already transferred the nearest border defense Army over! Besides, the police force left behind is enough!"

"Well, that's good ..."

As they spoke, Lu Kaixuan and Zhao Yu looked at each other. Although Lu Kaixuan was calm and experienced, Zhao Yu could still tell that he was deliberately hiding his nervousness.

Zhao Yu understood that Lu Kaixuan wasn't worried about the terrorists, but rather the safety of the exploration team members. He was afraid that if he didn't handle it well, it would affect their lives ...

Chapter 1452: kun trigram comes true

Di di ... Di di ...

The sound of car horns came from the streets of yelmaz, making the already noisy market even noisier.

The sirens were all coming from the police cars that were in charge of picking up Zhao Yu and the others.

For some reason, the streets were getting more and more congested, making it difficult for the carriage to pass through, and the speed was slowing down again and again.

“¥#@#%¥...” Seeing the traffic jam, the driver in charge of picking up Zhao Yu and the others said a few words in the local language, embarrassed.

“Today is the assembly day,” Anna translated. “There are more people! The pace of life here is slow, so ...”

“How can we do that?” Lu Kaixuan looked at the crowd outside the window and urged anxiously, “you’re the police. Can’t you think of something? The situation is urgent, we can’t waste time here!”

“I understand! I understand!” Anna hurriedly took out her walkie-talkie and contacted her colleague in front of her.

Soon, police officers began to get out of their cars and went to the front to clear the way for the police cars. Only then did the convoy speed up slightly.

“It’s okay. The market is only this far. It’ll be easy to walk there!” After she put down the walkie-talkie, Anna explained to Lu Kaixuan in embarrassment, “this is the nearest road!”

Whoosh ...

Just as Anna finished speaking, they heard the sound of a cow’s Moo coming from outside the car. The car was forced to stop moving again.

He looked out of the car and saw a herd of cows in front of him. They blocked the road completely.

“Damn it!” This time, Anna couldn’t keep her face straight. She picked up the walkie-talkie again and urged the police officers in front to drive the Bulls away as soon as possible.

“Tsk, tsk ...” Lu Kaixuan frowned and shook his head. He was obviously very dissatisfied with their efficiency.

“Huh?”

However, at that moment, Zhao Yu suddenly felt something was wrong.

Ever since he got this mutated hexagram with the word “kun”, he had long used an enhanced version of the invisible detector to keep an eye on the movement around him, just in case.

To his surprise, when the Bulls suddenly appeared, the detector suddenly issued a warning!

The red light on the display screen was flashing unusually fast, which alerted Zhao Yu.

He quickly turned on the detection screen in his mind. He couldn't help but take a deep breath. He did not expect that the detector would pick up two explosive devices, which were the XI Xi bombs!

"Ah!?"

Zhao Yu was shocked and quickly followed the location indicated by the detector. He was shocked to find that the bomb was among the Bulls.

Oh ...

No!

The next second, Zhao Yu realized that, after the bomb had moved, it had stopped in front of the car in front of the convoy.

There were a total of five police cars in the convoy responsible for picking them up. Zhao Yu, Anna, and Lu Kaixuan sat in the middle, with two police cars guarding them.

At that moment, the bomb suddenly stopped in the car in front. This was ...

Zhao Yu immediately stuck his head out of the car and looked at the target.

"Ah!"

He was even more shocked when he saw that there was a rectangular object stuck to one side of the door of the car in the front.

Because of the Bulls nearby, no one noticed the strange situation on the door.

It was obvious that the rectangular object was the bomb!

This ... Someone was going to attack them!

It's broken!

It all happened so suddenly that Zhao Yu could never imagine that someone would dare to tamper with the police fleet. This was the market. If the bomb exploded, the consequences would be ...

Zhao Yu didn't dare to think too much. He was about to open the car door and rush out to use the invisible bomb disposal to stop the bomb from exploding.

However, just as his hand touched the door, the detector in his brain detected a new situation.

On the roof outside the car, the detector found a Mengchong submachine gun that was quietly approaching the police car!

This ...

Where did the submachine gun come from? there was no doubt that someone was trying to launch a sneak attack ...

Zhao Yu was shocked and quickly pulled out his gun to aim, but he was still too late.

The car in the front suddenly let out a loud roar, and the two bombs stuck to the door exploded at the same time!

The explosion was so powerful that it not only blew up the car, but also the nearby Bulls. In the blink of an eye, the area was shrouded in a cloud of black smoke!

The impact of the explosion also shattered the windows of the other cars, and a large number of people fell to the ground. The market was in chaos ...

At the same time as the explosion, the assassin hiding on the roof made his move. He suddenly appeared on the roof and fired at the convoy!

Zhao Yu was ready to fight back, but the explosion was so powerful that he almost lost his grip on the gun.

At that moment, he suddenly saw someone shooting at him. He had no time to counterattack, so he turned around and pressed Anna under his body.

“Knock, knock, knock ...”

When the bullets came, they instantly penetrated the car and shot into the car, leaving bullet holes everywhere.

Luckily, Zhao Yu reacted fast enough and opened the invisible bullet proof suit in time. Otherwise, he would have wasted another precious emergency evacuation ball.

Although the bullets hit his back, he was unharmed.

However, although Zhao Yu had managed to protect Anna, the driver, who was sitting in the driver’s seat, was hit by the bullet and was wailing in pain!

What was worse was that Lu Kaixuan, who was in the front passenger seat, also groaned. It was obvious that he had been shot as well ...

Da da ...

Tap tap tap tap ...

At this time, the police officers in the two police cars behind reacted. They rushed out of the car and fired at the killer on the roof.

However, the terrible thing was that they were only focused on the front and did not notice that two terrorists with submachine guns had appeared behind them.

Following the two terrorists ‘random firing, the police officers didn’t have any time to react and were all shot dead on the spot ...

Oh ...

Lu Kaixuan’s moans came from inside the car. Zhao Yu looked up and saw that he had been shot in the thigh, and blood was flowing out.

Zhao Yu quickly applied an invisible hemostatic agent on the man’s wound to stop the bleeding.

Then, Zhao Yu generously gave the last two invisible bullet proof suits to Lu Kaixuan and Anna!

“Get ... Get out!” Lu Kaixuan gritted his teeth and said to Zhao Yu and su lingyue, “we’re surrounded. If we stay in the car, we’ll only be waiting for death! We must rush out!”

As he spoke, Lu Kaixuan took out his gun, opened the door from the passenger seat, and rushed out.

At this time, the killer on the roof had finished reloading. He poked his head out again and was ready to fire at the convoy a second time.

There were still many injured police officers in the car. If they fired again, they would all be dead.

“Motherf * cker!”

In that instant, Zhao Yu was completely enraged!

He had been attacked by others before, but none of them had suffered as many casualties as this time.

No matter who these terrorists were, or what their motives were, their actions were truly inhumane and inhumane!

This was a market, and there were so many innocent people and innocent cattle. No matter how cruel a person was, they couldn’t choose such a place to attack!

Damn it!

Looking at the killer on the roof, who was about to shoot, Zhao Yu gritted his teeth, opened the car door, and rushed out.

Chapter 1453: brick Zhao

Bang Bang Bang ...

Zhao Yu fired two shots at the shooter. Although he didn’t hit the shooter on the roof, he obviously disrupted his rhythm, forcing the shooter to retreat to a safe area.

However, just as Zhao Yu rushed out of the police car, the two terrorists who attacked him from behind found him and immediately shot at him.

The two of them were holding classic AK47s, and they fired a few shots at Zhao Yu.

Although Zhao Yu was wearing an invisible bullet proof suit, the bullet still damaged it. The system immediately popped up a damage report. If Zhao Yu continued to be hit, the bullet proof suit would lose its effect.

However, Zhao Yu’s eyes were already red, so he didn’t care about the alarm. With a thought, an invisible hand shield appeared in his left hand, and he raised it to block the bullets coming from the left.

Taking advantage of this time, he took two or three steps to the bottom of the low house, stepped on a pile of broken bricks with one foot, and jumped up as he activated the invisible spring launcher, easily jumping onto the roof.

Bang Bang Bang ...

As soon as Zhao Yu reached the roof, he immediately shot at the killer.

The killer would never have dreamed that Zhao Yu would be able to jump up in one step. He was shocked, and his shot was a little too slow. In the end, Zhao Yu shot him in the shoulder.

The killer yelped, but he did not give up resisting. Instead, he knelt on one knee and shot back!

The AK-47 was very powerful, and the bullets were fired at Zhao Yu at close range.

Zhao Yu didn't Dodge, but used his left hand to block his chest, using the hand shield to block the bullets, while his right hand fired two more shots.

At such a close distance, no matter how bad Zhao Yu's marksmanship was, it was impossible for him to miss. One shot hit the killer's chest, while the other hit his lower abdomen!

Oh ...

The assassin screamed and knelt on the ground, spitting out blood. His eyes were filled with disbelief.

However, no matter how incredulous he was, Zhao Yu immediately fired two more shots, killing him on the roof.

Hu hu hu ...

At this time, the thick smoke from the explosion surged in, and the air was filled with a pungent burning smell.

The police car that had been blown up was still on fire. The driver in the car and the police officers who were in charge of clearing the way should have no chance of survival!

Screams and wails could be heard everywhere in the market. It was a tragic scene ...

At this time, Zhao Yu didn't have time to pay attention to anything else. He quickly snatched the killer's AK47, pulled the bolt, and fired at the two terrorists!

However, after a round of shooting, Zhao Yu realized that the two men had already hidden behind the police car. He had missed.

Moreover, one of them, using the car as cover, retaliated with a few shots at Zhao Yu.

Damn it!

Zhao Yu was no longer a rookie. He knew very well that he had to take care of these terrorists as soon as possible before he ran out of his props.

The scene had already fallen into chaos, and he no longer had to worry about his secret being discovered. He immediately used 1000 adventure points to upgrade his invisible bullet proof suit, which not only increased its defensive power but also extended its usage time.

He had no choice. There were only three invisible bullet proof suits left in his device bar, and he had used all of them. Once the time was up, he would have no more suitable bullet proof devices.

After the strengthening was completed, he grabbed his AK-47 and jumped out of the low house, directly charging towards the hiding place of the two terrorists.

The two terrorists saw Zhao Yu jump down from the roof and immediately shot back. The bullets started to ring out again.

“Zhao Yu, be careful! Be careful!”

At that moment, Lu Kaixuan’s cry of surprise came from behind the fence on the other side of the car. He raised his gun and fired at the two terrorists while shouting at Zhao Yu, “I’ll Cover You!”

Just as Lu Kaixuan finished shouting, he suddenly heard something strange behind him. He quickly turned around to take a look.

Who would have thought that there would be hidden terrorists among the chaotic crowd! At that moment, a man in a long robe suddenly raised a machete and slashed it at Lu Kaixuan.

“Ah!”

Lu Kaixuan was shocked and quickly used his arm to block it. The knife was only a few centimeters away from his face!

Bang ...

Lu Kaixuan used to be a Special Agent. After he blocked the knife, he turned his wrist and shot a bullet at the criminal, killing him.

However, there was more than one criminal who rushed over. As the man with the knife slashed at him, another criminal rushed over from the other side. He immediately pounced and pushed Lu Kaixuan to the ground.

Then, another criminal rushed out and kicked Lu Kaixuan’s gun away.

Tap tap tap tap ...

At such a critical moment, Zhao Yu opened fire. The AK47 let out a clear sound of fire, and a hail of bullets shot out, immediately killing the few terrorists who had attacked Lu Kaixuan!

Originally, Zhao Yu wasn’t very familiar with the use of a rifle, so he wasn’t very accurate. However, he knew that Lu Kaixuan’s invisible bullet proof suit had not lost its effect yet, which was why he had driven so recklessly!

However, Zhao Yu’s sudden change of direction gave the two terrorists an opportunity. When they saw that Zhao Yu was being held back, they rushed out from behind their cars and started shooting at Zhao Yu.

Tap tap tap tap ...

Tap tap tap tap ...

The bullets whizzed through the air with immense power, blasting the nearby cars and walls into pieces ...

However, they had thought that Zhao Yu would definitely die under their shooting! However, they never expected that after Zhao Yu was shot, not only did he not fall, but he also turned the muzzle and fired at them!

Tap tap tap tap ...

Tap tap tap tap ...

This time, the sound of gunfire was even more violent.

The two sides were ten meters apart, and such a shot was rare, but the result was even more shocking: Both sides had used up all their bullets, but no one fell in the end.

The terrorists didn't hit Zhao Yu, and Zhao Yu didn't hit them either.

Crack ...

Crack ...

The rifle jammed and the bullets ran out. The atmosphere was a little awkward.

However, the terrorists had come prepared. The two of them immediately unloaded the magazine and began to reload.

However, Zhao Yu had snatched the gun, so how was he going to reload it?

Damn it!

With a burst of anger, Zhao Yu simply reversed the rifle, held the barrel in his hand, and used the AK as a stick, then smashed it at the two men.

Waa!

Zhao Yu's shout shocked the two terrorists. One of them dropped the clip on the ground.

The man saw that things were not looking good, so he immediately shouted and rushed towards Zhao Yu, trying to buy time for his companion.

At that moment, the other man had already reloaded his gun and was about to pull the bolt to shoot at Zhao Yu.

"F * ck your grandmother's leg!" Zhao Yu was an expert in fighting. He saw that he couldn't stop the man from reloading in time, so he threw his AK over and hit the man right in the face!

Pa!

The heavy rifle slammed into the man's face, and he fell on his back. He almost fainted, and the rifle that had just been reloaded fell to the ground ...

Waya!

After the AK flew out, Zhao Yu was hugged by the terrorists, who came at him, and he fell to the ground.

Ah ...

The terrorist raised his fist and smashed it towards Zhao Yu's face, while Zhao Yu raised his left arm to block it. With a loud thud, the terrorist suddenly let out a heart-wrenching scream. He then looked at his own broken fingers!

Zhao Yu's hand shield had not disappeared yet, so the punch was no different from hitting concrete.

Maybe it was because he was used to fighting, Zhao Yu raised his hand to fight back, but as he moved his hand, he happened to grab a brick.

Go to hell!

Zhao Yu didn't even think and threw the brick at the terrorist's face.

"Ah!"

The terrorist covered his face and screamed. Zhao Yu turned around and pressed him to the ground, then waved the brick again!

Zhao Yu was an expert at using bricks, so when he hit the terrorist in the face, the terrorist didn't even make a sound. He immediately fainted and lost the ability to fight back.

At this time, the terrorist who had been shot by the rifle suddenly came to his senses. He reached out to grab the loaded AK on the ground, wanting to shoot Zhao Yu.

However, Zhao yulun swung his arm, and the brick in his hand flew out, once again hitting the man's face.

Thump ...

With a muffled sound, the terrorist fell to the ground and was unconscious ...

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu looked at the brick in surprise. This tartein looked like he was useless, but the brick was really strong ...

Chapter 1454: what's the purpose?

Just as Zhao Yu was smacking the two terrorists with bricks, Lu Kaixuan's side was in danger again.

Even though Zhao Yu had helped him shoot down a few of the robbers who had suddenly attacked him, there were still survivors among the robbers. Moreover, from the direction of the explosion, there were a few more robbers with machetes rushing over!

When they saw that their companion had been killed, they all rushed at Lu Kaixuan, wanting to kill him.

However, even though Lu Kaixuan had been shot in the thigh and he was old, he had still received professional training.

When the two criminals in the front slashed at him, he not only dodged sideways, but also took advantage of the situation to grab one of the criminals' hands and thrust the machete in his hand at the other person.

Then, he elbowed and knelt, knocking the two men to the ground.

Waa!

The robbers behind him screamed and swarmed up. In the blink of an eye, they surrounded Lu Kaixuan and pointed their knives at him.

Lu Kaixuan was surrounded, but he didn't panic and started fighting with the gangsters. Even though it was inevitable to get stabbed in the chaos, Lu Kaixuan's might did not diminish. He charged left and right in the crowd and knocked down a few more criminals.

As they fought, Lu Kaixuan suddenly felt a kick on his injured thigh. He cried out in pain and fell to one knee, staggering.

However, at the same time, he picked up a bull's leg from the ground and turned around to block the machete.

Then, he rolled on the ground, grabbed someone's ankle with his left hand, and threw him to the ground.

After that, he jumped on one leg and dodged another person's attack. Then, he swung his bull leg down and smashed the back of the person's head!

Thump!

The man's head hit the ground, and he could no longer move ...

Ah!

Another criminal tried to sneak attack Lu Kaixuan from behind, but Lu Kaixuan was prepared. He held the broken bull leg tightly and turned around to stab the criminal's neck like he was stabbing a dagger!

The bull's leg had been blown apart by the explosion. After the joints of the bones were broken, it had become abnormally sharp. With this stab, the ox bone stabbed into the criminal's neck!

Lu Kaixuan pulled the man's neck out fiercely, and the man's neck spurted out blood like a spring!

The criminal's eyes were filled with fear, but he could not say anything. Soon, he fell into a pool of blood ...

However, Lu Kaixuan had an opening when he pulled out the bull's leg, and another criminal saw the opportunity and cut his back with a knife!

Ah ...

Lu Kaixuan screamed in pain and fell to the ground again.

At that moment, the bandits, who were already in a frenzy, saw that they had succeeded and all swarmed forward, wanting to cut Lu Kaixuan into pieces. However, they didn't expect someone to suddenly appear behind Lu Kaixuan!

The man held an AK-47 in his hand and looked like a fiend. As soon as he appeared, he swept the rifle across the crowd like a club.

As a result, one of the criminals couldn't Dodge in time and was hit by the rifle, rolling away.

This person was Zhao Yu. After he had taken pictures of the two terrorists, he saw that Lu Kaixuan was surrounded, so he quickly came back to help.

Thump!

Zhao Yu raised his leg and kicked another one.

Further down, he rushed into the crowd like a fierce tiger and swung his AK47 vigorously. In the blink of an eye, he had knocked down a few more people.

As a result, there were not many criminals left standing. There were only three left.

Buzz ... Buzz ...

At this moment, a police siren sounded outside. It was obvious that the reinforcements had arrived.

The three of them were frightened and no longer had the heart to continue fighting. They simply turned around and fled.

"Run your grandmother's legs!" Zhao Yu shouted, turned his KA47 around, pulled the bolt, and fired at the three men!

After a series of shots, the three of them were engulfed in flames in the blink of an eye. They were all shot and fell to the ground, wriggling non-stop. It was unknown whether they were Dead or Alive ...

Just as Zhao Yu pulled the trigger, one of the criminals he had knocked down earlier picked up Lu Kaixuan's lost pistol.

The man was overjoyed and quickly aimed his gun at Zhao Yu.

Bang ...

The gun did sound, but the person who fell to the ground was not Zhao Yu, but the criminal who had tried to shoot him! A bloody hole burst out of his head, and his corpse fell to the ground on the spot!

The next second, Zhao Yu saw that Anna from tartein was holding a pistol, and she came up to him with a frightened look.

It turned out that she was the one who had fired the shot.

"¥#@%¥#..." Anna clenched her pistol tightly and shouted at the robbers in the local language. It was probably something like "don't move".

"Oh ..." At this time, one of the criminals at Zhao Yu's feet snorted and wanted to stand up. Zhao Yu turned his AK47 around again and hit the criminal's head with the gun handle, knocking him out.

Seeing this, the other criminals didn't dare to move!

"Lu! How are you feeling?" It was only then that Anna saw the injured Lu Kaixuan. After the intense battle just now, Lu Kaixuan was covered in blood, and it was a tragic sight.

"I'm fine, I'm fine!" Lu Kaixuan gritted his teeth and said, "officer Anna, this is a planned attack! Can you tell? They want all of our lives!"

"I ... I saw it ..." At that moment, Anna was dumbfounded. Although she was an officer, she had never experienced a real terrorist attack. In a panic, she pointed at the car she had just been in and said in a daze, "I don't know ... How could this be!?"

As Anna helplessly sighed, the crowd finally saw the tragic situation.

The smoke caused by the bomb was still rolling, and the cars that had been blown up were still burning. There were countless bodies at the scene, and it was hard to tell which were humans and which were cows ...

Looking back at the convoy, every police car was filled with bullet holes, the glass was all broken, the tires were deflated, and some of the windows were even sprayed with blood ...

At this moment, the military finally arrived at the scene. After showing their IDs at the same time as Anna, they were finally able to identify themselves.

However, before she could explain the situation to them or give them any orders, the phone she carried with her rang.

Anna quickly took it out and looked at it. Her face turned pale.

"This is terrible!" Anna showed a picture on her phone screen to Lu Kaixuan and Zhao Yu, then said excitedly, "we got the wrong information!"

"The leader of the banner organization, Noah, passed away last month. This ekandsyafu ..." Anna pointed to the suspect's photo and said, "he's no longer a Secretary. He's now the boss of the banner organization, Wufu!"

"Ah?" Lu Kaixuan was shocked. "You caught their leader, so ..." He pointed at the tragic scene. "They're taking revenge!?" Oh ..."

Because he was too excited, Lu Kaixuan pulled on his wound, and he immediately grimaced in pain.

"No! "No..." However, Zhao Yu suddenly realized something. He also looked at the tragic scene and shook his head. "At this time, boss was still at the police station!" Since they had an AK and a bomb, why didn't they go to the police station to get her? Instead, they came to attack us?"

"F * ck!" Zhao Yu suddenly slapped his thigh and said loudly, "attacking us was just their plan to lure us away! The police station is in danger!"

Just as Zhao Yu's words came true, Anna's phone rang.

"What?" After answering the phone, Anna was so shocked that she almost collapsed. "Detective Zhao was right, the police station was really attacked!" She said in despair.

Chapter 1455: Emergency rescue

“These people are the security force in charge of the police station’s security!” Anna finally understood the terrorist’s goal. She pointed to the soldiers who had come to help and said, “they attacked us to distract the security force, then attack the police station and save Saif!”

“It’s not that simple. Officer Zhao and I were attacked as soon as we arrived at yelmaz,” Lu Kaixuan said, covering his wound. “Looking at the situation just now, they should be trying to take our lives!”

“So ... The disappearance of the exploration team must have a lot to do with these terrorists! “Officer Anna,” Lu Kaixuan shouted excitedly, “we can’t let them get away!”

“I ... I understand!” Anna was still in a state of great panic. When she heard Lu Kaixuan’s reminder, she quickly ordered the soldiers in front of her to return to the police station to rescue them.

When the soldiers learned that something had happened at the police station, they panicked and immediately sent half of the police force back to the police station to provide support.

“It’s too late. This is a F * cking war!” Zhao Yu looked at his invisible bullet proof suit, which was about to lose its effect, and asked Anna, “hurry up and tell me how far is it from the police station? How do I go?”

“It’s ... It’s not far. If I drive normally, I can get there in 10 minutes! “We’ll be there after a few turns, but ...” Anna said worriedly, “I’m afraid we won’t make it in ten minutes. The police station has already been breached!”

“They have to come even if they can’t make it ... Even if they manage to save boss, they have to be able to escape!” Zhao Yu looked around and suddenly saw a three-wheeled motorcycle parked next to a small stall in the market.

There was!

Without another word, he jumped onto the three-wheeled motorcycle and pointed at his phone as he said to Anna, “Hurry up and send the location of the police station to my phone! You stay here to clean up the scene, leave the terrorists to me!”

“Zhao Yu, you’re crazy! Come back quickly!” Seeing this, Lu Kaixuan was anxious. He raised his arm and tried to stop her. “The terrorists came prepared. It’s not just one or two! What’s the use of you going alone? Wouldn’t that be equivalent to suicide? Cough, cough, cough ...”

In his anxiety, Lu Kaixuan coughed loudly ...

“That’s right ... I’ll inform the border troops and have them intercept the terrorists!” Anna said anxiously, “don’t go, please don’t go ...”

“Take good care of our chief Lu!” However, Zhao Yu pointed at Lu Kaixuan and said resolutely, “this matter concerns the lives of twelve members of the exploration team. I can’t just sit by and do nothing!”

Then, Zhao Yu took the three-wheeled motorcycle, stepped on the gas, and drove along a burnt passage, heading out of the market.

“This ...” Anna was flustered and confused.

Creak ...

Zhao Yu had only driven two meters when he suddenly stopped. He then grabbed a young soldier and pulled him to the back seat of the three-wheeled motorcycle.

“Anna, translate for him,” Zhao Yu pointed at the soldier and shouted, “ask him to show me the way! I don’t need you to send me the location, I want a Living Guide!”

“Ah? “Oh ...” Anna paused for a second before she quickly shouted at the soldier. The dumbfounded soldier finally nodded in understanding and stopped struggling.

Zhao Yu saw that there was a guide, so he stepped on the gas again and drove forward.

However, less than two meters later, Anna suddenly shouted, “Stop!”

Creak ...

Zhao Yu didn’t understand, so he stopped the car again.

“Weapons, weapons!” Anna shouted at the remaining soldiers, and they quickly placed their weapons on the three-wheeled motorcycle. They even had two grenades!

“Hmm ... That’s true!” Zhao Yu looked at the weapon and complimented it. He then stepped on the gas again and drove forward, disappearing into the thick smoke in the blink of an eye.

“Waa!” “Ah!” Ah na looked at Zhao Yu’s back and complimented, “I thought only the United States had Rambo! It’s so cool!”

“Nonsense, this is simply nonsense! Could they catch up to the terrorists on a tricycle? “Cough, cough, cough ...” Lu Kaixuan struggled to sit up and shouted at Anna, “hurry up and send more people! I’m warning you, if anything happens to Zhao Yu, I’m not done with tartain!”

“Oh ... Oh, oh, oh ...” Anna quickly took out her phone and started to call for more police support!

Just as Anna deployed the police force, Lu Kaixuan didn’t stay idle. He wiped the blood from his mouth and called the agents he had arranged in yelmaz to immediately add Zhao Yu to the team.

After all the arrangements were made, Lu Kaixuan suddenly thought of something. He quickly said to Anna, “Officer Anna, there’s one more thing that you must do immediately!

“We were attacked as soon as we got off the plane. This is enough to prove that someone leaked the information to you.

“That’s why you have to find out right now,” Lu Kaixuan said through gritted teeth. “Who knows where we are ... And, and, quickly find a few people alive and interrogate them. We must find out what their purpose is as soon as possible, pfft ...”

Lu Kaixuan was so anxious that he spat out a mouthful of blood and fainted on the spot.

“L-Lu!” Anna’s face was pale with fear. She frantically shouted at her subordinates, “ambulance, call the ambulance, quick ...”

.....

At the same time, Zhao Yu was driving the three-wheeled motorcycle, speeding on the way to the police station.

After passing through the market, the road had indeed become wide. Zhao Yu also saw the police cars that had rushed to the police station for backup.

However, he knew very well that the terrorists had come prepared. When the police cars rushed back to the police station, it would definitely be too late!

So, he didn't hesitate to use the invisible accelerator on the three-wheeled motorcycle, and in the blink of an eye, it felt like he was driving an F1!

Zhao Yu didn't know if he was just giving him directions, but he immediately used an invisible translator to understand what he was saying.

“What the hell? Since when can our tricycle drive so fast ... Woohooohoo...What brand is this? I'll buy one in the future, so I don't have to buy a car ...”

It turned out that it was all nonsense. Zhao Yu sped up again, and was about to catch up with the police car.

But then, the soldier finally got to the point. He patted Zhao Yu's arm and said, “Sir, I know a shortcut ... Turn right from the Billboard and you can reach the back door of the police station in advance! Oh oh oh ...”

Unexpectedly, just as the soldier finished speaking, Zhao Yu turned the three-wheeled motorcycle into the alley. Due to the uneven ground, the three-wheeled motorcycle was shaking non-stop as if it would fall apart at any moment.

However, Zhao Yu didn't slow down at all, but went straight into the small alley.

The alley was a poor residential area, and on both sides were simple and dilapidated wooden houses. There were even some people living in tents. It was really too poor.

However, no matter how poor it was, it was still a residential area, so there were many pedestrians and children chasing each other on the side of the road. Zhao Yu had to slow down the car.

Further ahead, after the soldier directed him to make a few turns, Zhao Yu began to regret choosing this shortcut, because there were cattle and sheep on both sides of the road. These cattle and sheep were very unorganized. No matter how Zhao Yu honked, they were not moved.

Luckily, the three-wheeled motorcycle was small, so Zhao Yu could squeeze his way through the middle. After two to three minutes of running through the cattle and sheep, he finally saw a building with a police sign.

“Right, right! It's there!” The soldier at the back picked up a rifle and said nervously, “Sir, be careful. The people with the flag might not have left yet!”

“F * ck,” Zhao Yu cursed. The soldier’s words really hurt their morale. I didn’t rush here with all my might to clean up the mess of the terrorists!

Then, Zhao Yu sped up and drove straight to the entrance of the yelmaz police station.

However, just as Zhao Yu was about to arrive, the invisible detector in his brain suddenly sent out a Red Alert!

“Ah!?”

Zhao Yu was shocked, and he quickly stepped on the brakes to slow down.

However, before he could clearly see what the alarm was, he suddenly heard a series of intense gunshots coming from the police station’s compound.

Then, in less than a second, Zhao Yu was shocked to see that a shining rocket had hit the security room. With a deafening explosion, the entire room was blown to pieces, and in the blink of an eye, it was engulfed in a sea of fire!

As Zhao Yu was very close to the three-wheeled motorcycle, the flying gravel hit Zhao Yu’s motorcycle. Zhao Yu quickly stepped on the brake, and the three-wheeled motorcycle fell into the vegetable field next to him.

Chapter 1456: Reverse (1)

After the security room was blown up, a few cars drove out of it with a burst of intense gunfire.

The cars were all pickup trucks with a hood. On the back of the hood stood terrorists holding all kinds of weapons. As they sat in the cars, they opened fire at the courtyard. The sound of the fire was deafening, and it was very violent.

Zhao Yu understood that since the terrorist’s car had already rushed out from the inside, it meant that they had achieved their goal, which was to save their boss.

Next, they had to drive the car to a safe place to avoid the yelmaz police’s pursuit and blockade.

No!

We can’t let them escape. Once they do, it’ll be even harder to find the whereabouts of the exploration team!

Damn it, I’ll risk it!

This was not the first time Zhao Yu had done something like this. He grabbed two grenades and put them in his pocket, then took a rifle and ran towards the terrorist’s convoy.

However, Zhao Yu never fought a battle he was not confident in. Before he rushed out, he spent another 1000 points to extend the invisible bullet proof suit’s duration by another 20 minutes.

It was because he had the invisible bullet proof suit and other devices that Zhao Yu dared to risk his life!

“No... Don’t ...” Seeing Zhao Yu rush towards the enemy, the soldier shouted, but his body was still curled up into a ball, as if he wanted to hide in the crack ...

At that moment, the terrorists had already driven three cars out of the courtyard, leaving only one behind.

In the end, the terrorists in the pickup truck were responsible for bringing up the rear. Logically speaking, they should have been able to escape successfully. However, the eyes of the terrorists in the vehicle were all bloodshot. They were still firing wildly into the compound, shattering all the glass windows of the building and even riddled the police cars that were parked in the parking lot with holes ...

However, just as they were shooting crazily, Zhao Yu suddenly rushed out of the vegetable field!

Tut, tut, tut ...

After a round of shooting, Zhao Yu’s bullets hit the cockpit.

Their cars did not have any bulletproof glass, so the bullets hit the driver and the co-driver, causing blood to spray out and killing them on the spot!

Ga.....Zhi

The driver had stepped on the brakes before he died, and the terrorists in the back of the truck were not wearing any seat belts. Under such a violent braking, they were all thrown into the air like dumplings, their flesh flying everywhere ...

“Ah ...”

Zhao Yu shouted and rushed over. His fingers pulled the trigger violently, shooting at the many terrorists!

Tut, tut, tut ...

Tut, tut, tut ...

The bullets from the rifles shot out crazily. Although Zhao Yu’s shooting skills were bad, he was too close to the terrorists. As the bullets rained down, blood burst out from the bodies of several terrorists. They were shot down on the spot!

However, as the targets were scattered, when Zhao Yu finished shooting, there were two terrorists who had not fallen out of the car. They regained their senses and started to shoot back at Zhao Yu!

“Damn it, go to hell!” Zhao Yu roared, ignoring the other party’s counterattack. He rushed to the back of the pickup truck and shot at the two men, turning them into a hornet’s nest.

Boom boom boom ...

Two dead bodies were lying in the car ...

Ka ka ka ...

He didn't expect Zhao Yu's rifle to run out of bullets so quickly.

At this point, Zhao Yu's anger was completely ignited. He threw away his rifle and cut down a struggling terrorist, then reached out to open the car door. He pulled the driver, who had been shot, out of the car, then sat in the driver seat.

Zhao Yu could clearly see that if the terrorists had already saved their boss, they would definitely not leave their boss in the last car.

So, if he wanted to catch up with saiafu, he would have to catch up to the car in front.

At that very moment, the pickup truck in front of him was the only means of transportation that Zhao Yu could use. Of course, he couldn't miss it.

As the driver didn't turn off the gas before he died, the pickup was still on the move. Zhao Yu changed gears, and the car slowly drove forward.

However, just as Zhao Yu was about to speed up, a terrorist suddenly jumped in from outside the driver's window. The terrorist inserted the barrel of his AK47 into the driver's seat and fired at Zhao Yu.

"Ah!?"

Zhao Yu's reaction wasn't slow. He used the shield in his left hand to block the attack, while his right hand grabbed the gun barrel and tilted it to one side.

Tut, tut, tut ...

The AK-47 burst into flames, and all the bullets hit the body of the passenger seat.

Ah ...

As the barrel of the gun was overheating, Zhao Yu's right hand was burning, and he screamed in pain.

Ah ...

Zhao Yu was so angry that he stepped on the gas and drove the pickup out. There was a telephone pole by the side of the road.

He pushed the door open, and the terrorist with the AK slammed into the telephone pole. He vomited blood and fell to the ground ...

Zhao Yu took the opportunity to grab the AK and put the gun in his car.

"Ah ..."

When he looked at his right hand again, it was already blistered with heat.

Invisible burn medicine!

This was a new device that Zhao Yu had obtained before. Now that he had used it, he felt the burning pain in his palm decrease a lot.

Next, he tore a piece of cloth from his clothes and simply wrapped it around his hand, which could be considered as bandaging. As he didn't have time to buckle it, he simply used an invisible tape to firmly wrap the cloth.

After he was done, he changed gears, stepped on the gas pedal, and chased after the other three cars in front of him ...

At that time, the three cars had already driven far away. Zhao Yu stepped on the gas pedal to the maximum and chased closely behind.

Wuuu ...

The car sped on the rugged road, moving up and down under the violent bumps. Soon, they had closed the distance.

However, as they were driving, a small bridge appeared on the road. The small bridge was made of wood. The three terrorists' cars hummed as they drove over the loose bridge.

However, after the last car drove past, someone actually threw a grenade!

Boom ... Boom ...

With the explosion of the grenade, a crack appeared on the already loose and old wooden bridge. As wood chips flew everywhere, the entire bridge finally collapsed and collapsed into the river in the blink of an eye!

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu chased after them like an arrow that had left the bow. When he saw that the wooden bridge had collapsed, he had no choice but to step on the brakes, turn the car around, and park the car under the bridge.

"Oh oh ..." Seeing that Zhao Yu was blocked, the terrorist in the opposite car let out a smug cry. He looked at Zhao Yu coldly and gradually disappeared from Zhao Yu's sight.

Damn it!

Zhao Yu slapped the steering wheel in anger. He wanted to strengthen an invisible aircraft so that he could fly over the river with the car.

However, he knew that he would need at least 8000 points to succeed. He didn't even have 8000 points now!

However, it was not Zhao Yu's style to give up. He immediately released an invisible drone. As the drone rose into the air, the display in his head quickly showed a video taken from the sky.

From the aerial video, it could be seen that after the terrorist's car crossed the river, it plunged into a dirt road to the left and drove directly towards the mountain in the South.

Zhao Yu had seen the map and knew that the mountains in the South were connected to Vakra. Once the terrorists entered Vakra's territory, neither tartein nor China would be able to catch them.

Chapter 1457: Reverse (2)

No!

We can't let them escape!

Zhao Yu understood that even if it wasn't for the disappearance of the exploration team, he still had to catch this group of cruel and merciless terrorists who disregarded human lives!

In fact, when Zhao Yu had made up his mind, he was already preparing the ultimate combination of the aircraft and the invisibility cloak. Although the number of these two devices was about to be used up, he could not be stingy with any more devices during this critical period.

The river in front of him was about 10 meters wide, and the bridge had collapsed. He could not think of any other way except to fly over.

However, just as he was about to use the device to fly invisibly, he unexpectedly saw from the video sent by the drone that there was another small bridge a few hundred meters south of the river!

Since the enemy was also heading south, if they crossed the river from there, they could continue to pursue the enemy without delay!

That's great!

Zhao Yu's eyes lit up, as he saw hope again. He quickly stepped on the gas and went straight to the other bridge.

However, when he came to the bridge, he was disappointed to see that although the cement bridge was wide enough for a car to cross, there was a row of cement stone piers on the bridge. He didn't know if it was because of the insufficient carrying capacity or some other reason.

The distance between the stone blocks was only wide enough for a bicycle or a tricycle to pass through, but a car could not.

Of course, disappointment did not mean despair.

This situation was not difficult for Zhao Yu. He snorted and immediately drove the car forward a few meters, then put the gear in reverse. He stepped on the gas and used the back of the pickup truck to hit the stone block in the middle!

Thump!

Under the violent impact, the back of the car was dented, but the cement pillar was also tilted and cracked.

Then, Zhao Yu drove the car away, stepped on the gas pedal for the second time, and hit the other side of the truck!

This time, the concrete pillar could no longer withstand the impact and fell apart.

Buzz ... Buzz ...

The pickup truck roared as it drove across the bridge. As soon as it crossed the bridge, Zhao Yu turned the steering wheel to make a sharp turn. Under such a high speed, the wheels were smoking!

Buzz ... Buzz ...

Then, Zhao Yu stepped on the gas, and the car went straight in the direction of the terrorist.

As the invisible drone had been following them, Zhao Yu knew the exact location of the terrorists. He quickly chased after them, while he wanted to open his mobile phone to send a message to Anna and the others, asking them to set up a roadblock!

However, after searching inside and out, he was annoyed to find that he could not find his phone!

This ...

Zhao Yu fumbled around again, but still couldn't find it. Only then did he remember that his phone had most likely fallen when the three-wheeled motorcycle had overturned ...

Damn it!

Unlucky!

Zhao Yu looked at the dead body in the passenger seat. Seeing that the person was dressed shabbily, it was unlikely that he had a mobile phone with him.

Besides, he had been beaten into a sieve. Even if he had brought his phone with him, it would have been broken.

It seemed like ...

Zhao Yu looked at the drone's surveillance screen in his head and thought to himself, "it seems that I have to chase them alone!"

Alright!

Zhao Yu gritted his teeth and made up his mind. Damn it, I'll fight it out!

Thinking of this, he no longer hesitated. Another invisible accelerator was activated, and he went straight to the terrorist's convoy ...

After crossing the river, the terrorists had already arrived at the outskirts of yelmaz. There were fewer buildings and pedestrians, and the road was more bumpy.

Zhao Yu realized that, after the terrorists made a few more turns, they were following a train road and entering the valley.

The valley was called Neya, and in the local language, Neya meant desolate death or bones. It was said that the valley was barren and lacked resources. There were animal corpses everywhere, making it a terrifying, barren land.

And this Death Valley was the natural border between tarstein and vakria.

From the looks of it, the terrorists should be trying to return to valkries through the Neya Valley. Although the valley was on the border of the country, due to the limited economic conditions of the two countries, it was impossible to seal off the entire territory.

Zhao Yu guessed that since the terrorists had decided to cross the border from there, it was very likely that there would be someone waiting for them in vachery.

Therefore, he had to catch up with them before they were received. Otherwise, even if he caught up with them, he would only be courting death!

Hence, Zhao Yu increased the pickup truck's speed again, so much so that it looked like it was flying close to the ground.

* Whoosh ... *

The car sped past, kicking up a cloud of dust. The pedestrians on the side couldn't even see the car itself, and they thought that it was some monster that flew past ...

At the intersection leading to the river valley, there was a border sentry post of yelmaz.

Besides preventing people from entering the valley, the Sentry post was also responsible for protecting the railway. This was because there was a train line in tartein that passed through the Nelia Valley.

If the terrorists wanted to enter the valley, they would have to pass through this outpost.

However, the outpost lacked personnel and its equipment was outdated. When the terrorists arrived, they almost ignored their existence. They only fired a symbolic round of bullets, and the soldiers at the outpost were all scared away!

Bang! Bang!

The pickup truck at the front broke through the roadblock and led the terrorist's convoy into the valley ...

Wuuu ...

At the same time, Zhao Yu had already caught up to the outpost and was quickly approaching the terrorist's convoy.

There was only one side road in the valley that was built along the railway. The terrorists followed the side road and quickly found Zhao Yu. They immediately raised the AK47s in their hands and fired at Zhao Yu's car without hesitation!

Tap tap tap tap ...

The bullets were fired in the valley, creating countless echoes, making the battle even more intense!

Hualalalala ...

The windshield of the car that Zhao Yu was in was already riddled with holes. After the other party's Explosive Shot, it shattered. The bullets shot into the cockpit, making many small holes in the seat.

If it wasn't for the fact that Zhao Yu was wearing a strengthened invisible bullet proof suit, he would most likely not have survived the bullets.

Although Zhao Yu was not afraid of bullets, the explosion of the bullet still made him feel uncomfortable.

Damn it!

"F * ck!" Zhao Yu cursed. He held the steering wheel tightly with his left hand and raised his AK47 with his right hand, then fired at the other party!

However, due to the distance, Zhao Yu had almost used up all his bullets, but no one was hurt. The other party's bullets kept flying at him, so much so that Zhao Yu could barely open his eyes.

At first, Zhao Yu wanted to use the accelerator to get closer to the car in front of him and hit them, or use a grenade to greet them.

Unfortunately, the enemy's firepower was too strong. If he got close to the enemy's car easily, not only would his invisible bullet proof suit not be able to withstand it, but the pickup truck's engine would also be destroyed!

The enemy still had three cars. If he lost his means of transportation, it would not be worth it.

'No...'

Helplessly, Zhao Yu could only slow down the car and put some distance between him and the enemy, which reduced the power of the bullets.

What to do?

Zhao Yu was, of course, anxious. Seeing that the invisible bullet proof suit's duration was about to end, he was reluctant to spend another 1000 points to extend it.

Then ...

How could they break through the enemy's dense firepower?

Hmm ...

Zhao Yu stared at the enemies who were still aiming at him with their AK-47s, then looked at the car behind him. Suddenly, an idea flashed through his mind ...

Chapter 1458: Reversing (2)

In the terrorist's car, the few terrorists who had just shot at Zhao Yu saw that Zhao Yu's car had slowed down, and their faces all showed a smug smile.

In their eyes, Zhao Yu couldn't have survived the fierce shooting. Now that the car was slowing down, the person must be dead!

However, after only a few seconds, they were surprised to see that the pickup truck, which was riddled with holes, once again made a motor roar. The car suddenly turned from the road and aimed the deflated trunk at them.

Then, the pickup truck started to reverse and its speed became faster and faster. It was actually charging towards them again!

Wulu ...

The terrorists in the car were greatly surprised. They dismantled the magazines and replaced the bullets.

At that moment, an incredible scene happened in the pickup truck again. A man with an AK47 suddenly appeared from the back of the car. It was Zhao Yu!

It turned out that Zhao Yu's idea was to turn the car around, then use his invisible accelerator to chase them, while climbing into the hood to fight with the other party.

Zhao Yu had used the same trick when he had captured jiang ke in Yaoming. It was just that the car was now facing backward.

Wuuu ...

With the help of the accelerator, the pickup truck caught up with the terrorists.

At that time, the terrorists had finished reloading. Although they felt that the scene in front of them was a little strange, they still fired at Zhao Yu immediately.

At the same time, Zhao Yu, who was well prepared, fired at them!

Tap tap tap tap ...

Tut, tut, tut ...

Although they were both AK-47s, the sound they made was slightly different. In an instant, bullets flew everywhere, and a strange yet extremely intense close-range car gun battle took place on the mountain road ...

As the bullets came, Zhao Yu used a hand shield with his left hand, while his right hand clenched the AK47 tightly, and he swept it at the enemy.

Ding ding ding ...

The bullets hit the car on both sides, but although Zhao Yu was shot, he was not seriously injured. But the terrorists obviously couldn't take it. One of them was hit in the shoulder by Zhao Yu and fell to the ground, wailing. The other one was shot in the head and died!

"Ah ..."

The terrorists all looked as if they had seen a ghost. They didn't understand why that person couldn't be killed.

At that moment, when they saw that their companion had been shot, they were so scared that they all climbed onto the side of the car. They could only carry their rifles on the side of the car and use the side of the car as cover to continue shooting at Zhao Yu.

Bang Bang Bang ...

Tut, tut, tut ...

As Zhao Yu was standing at a higher position, his hand shield couldn't block all the bullets. A few more bullets hit him, causing the invisible bullet proof suit to sound an alarm that it was about to break.

To make matters worse, the AK in Zhao Yu's hand had already run out of bullets.

Damn it!

Fortunately, Zhao Yu had expected this to happen. He immediately threw the AK and took out a grenade. After quickly pulling the fuse, he threw it directly at the other side's car!

Gulp ...

The grenade landed in the other side's car. After a series of rumbling sounds, it landed right in front of the terrorist's face.

"Ah ..."

The man exclaimed and almost subconsciously grabbed the grenade, quickly throwing it out of the car.

Wuuu ...

Just as the two cars sped past, the grenade exploded, leaving a cloud of black smoke on the road. The shockwave made Zhao Yu's pickup truck jump a few times, and he almost fell.

No way?

Zhao Yu was dumbfounded. He didn't expect his grenade to be thrown out by someone else. Fortunately, it had fallen to the ground. If it had been thrown back, it would have been so embarrassing!

Seeing that the grenade didn't hit them, the terrorists' morale rose again. They focused their fire on Zhao Yu, causing sparks to fly on Zhao Yu's side and chaos.

Zhao Yu had no choice but to lean against the car, trying to avoid it.

But, just as Zhao Yu was dodging, he suddenly saw something. It turned out that there were two dead people in the back of the car!

These two people were the ones he had shot in the car earlier, and they were both holding AKS!

Hmm ...

Looking at this scene, Zhao Yu suddenly thought of a certain classic movie scene. In that instant, a sudden and inexplicable sense of pride welled up in him, causing him to lose his mind.

'Holy sh * t ...

He gritted his teeth, squinted his eyes, and immediately climbed onto the dead man's body. He picked up the two AKS with both hands.

At the same time, as the other party's terrorists were fighting too fiercely, a few of them had run out of bullets, and their offensive had weakened a little.

The man with the shoulder injury had an idea. He suddenly remembered that they also had grenades on them! In that case, why not give Zhao Yu a taste of his own medicine?

Hmph Hmph Hmph ...

He had learned from Zhao Yu's experience, so after pulling the pin, he didn't throw the grenade immediately. Instead, he counted the seconds and planned to throw it just as the grenade was about to explode.

However, Man proposes, God disposes. Zhao Yu, who was opposite them, suddenly stood up again and fired at them with his left and right hands!

Tut, tut, tut ...

Tap tap tap tap ...

Amidst the bullets, Zhao Yu shouted excitedly,"

"Ah ..."

Following Zhao Yu's roar, bullets were fired at him like an avalanche. The entire car was covered in a terrifying rain of bullets.

Du, du, du ...

More than a dozen bullets hit the side of the car and went inside through the hole that was opened earlier, hitting the eye of a terrorist ...

Bang ...

With another explosion, the bullet hit the tire, and the car burst. The car shook violently and almost lost control ...

The bullets whistled through the air and hit the pickup's window. The driver in front was also unfortunately hit ...

The most miserable one was the guy who was counting the seconds with the grenade. He never expected that when he was almost done counting, he suddenly couldn't throw the grenade!

He couldn't even lift his head under such intense firepower.

However, the grenade waited for no one! Seeing that the grenade was about to explode, he had no other choice but to brace himself and raise his arm, ready to jump in.

In the end, Zhao Yu fired a row of bullets at him, almost breaking his arm.

The grenade fell into the car. This time, the terrorist could no longer turn the situation around. His eyes were filled with despair ...

Boom ... Boom ...

The grenade exploded, and the pickup truck was blown up and fell into the ditch beside. Then, the car exploded again and was engulfed in a sea of fire ...

Yay!

Seeing that he had finally taken care of his opponent, Zhao Yu raised his guns and cheered excitedly!

However, his cheers only lasted for two seconds. When he looked straight ahead again, the smile on his face instantly froze.

The remaining two pickup trucks suddenly switched positions on the road. The larger pickup that was originally in the front slowed down to the position of the second car and met Zhao Yu face to face.

In the next second, one of the terrorists in the back of the car pulled off an oil cloth, revealing a heavy machine gun underneath!

Chapter 1459: fantasy

F * ck!

When he saw the heavy machine gun, Zhao Yu's eyes were wide open. He never expected the terrorists to be carrying such fierce weapons.

Wasn't this operation a little too F * cking awesome?

It seemed that in order to save their boss, they were all going all out!

Perhaps the police force wasn't as powerful as they thought, so they didn't use this heavy weapon?

Or ... Had he already used it in the police station?

Or perhaps ...

Or your grandmother!

"F * ck!" Zhao Yu cursed at himself at the critical moment, waking up from the shock.

This was a heavy machine gun!

He would never forget the nightmare of being shot by a machine gun on wondrous trace Island. Even if he had ten invisible bullet proof vests, he would definitely not be able to withstand the violent machine gun fire.

Last time, if it wasn't for the emergency evacuation ball, he would have been shot into pieces by the machine gun!

At this time, the two terrorists had already set up their heavy machine guns and were aiming at Zhao Yu. They were about to shoot!

'F * ck ...'

Zhao Yu's eyes widened, and without thinking, he immediately ran back like crazy.

The terrorist holding the heavy machine gun laughed sinisterly and pulled the trigger at Zhao Yu!

In an instant, the fire burst out and the deafening sound of the bullets was deafening. The powerful bullets were fired at Zhao Yu like an avalanche. In the blink of an eye, the entire pickup truck was covered in a violent rain of bullets.

“Oh oh oh ...”

Zhao Yu shouted and ran back, but he was in the back of the pickup, so he could only run up to the roof!

But ... So what if he ran to the roof?

In such a critical moment, Zhao Yu didn't think about anything. He just wanted to jump out of the car quickly to avoid being shot.

However, at this critical moment, there was a clear horn next to him. Zhao Yu suddenly saw a train passing by him on the tracks!

“Huh?”

In that split second, Zhao Yu suddenly saw a glimmer of hope.

He quickly used an invisible spring launcher, and just as the heavy machine gun was about to engulf him, he stepped on the top of the pickup truck and rushed toward the train next to him ...

Just as Zhao Yu jumped, the bullets hit the pickup, leaving a thousand holes in it.

The roaring bullets were so powerful that they almost penetrated the entire car. After one round of shooting, the pickup truck exploded and the entire car was instantly set on fire!

Boom ... Boom ...

After the burning car slid on the ground for a few meters, a few tires burst at the same time, and the car finally plunged into a dry ditch beside it ...

After the car was blown up, a cloud of thick smoke rose from the road. The terrorists, whose vision was blocked by the smoke, stopped shooting.

Hmph Hmph Hmph Hmph Hmph ...

Seeing the pickup truck fall into the ditch, the terrorists in the back of the truck laughed in satisfaction.

Wuuu ...

At this moment, the train blew its horn and drove past them.

Although the speed of the train wasn't particularly fast, it was still faster than a car on a bumpy road because it was moving on the rail.

Just as the terrorists were laughing at each other and letting down their guard ... No one had expected that a figure would suddenly descend from the top of the train!

The figure was Zhao Yu. It turned out that he had really jumped onto the roof of the train during the explosion.

However, even though Zhao Yu's idea was good, jumping off the train wasn't that easy.

Although he had used the invisible spring launcher to jump to the top of the train, he had jumped too hard and lost his balance after landing. He rolled to the other side of the train and almost fell!

Fortunately, there was a row of luggage racks on the side of the train. He grabbed onto them with his right hand and did not fall off the train.

However, the train was moving very fast. Zhao Yu tried to climb up a few times, but he couldn't. In the end, he had to rely on an invisible suction cup to barely climb up to the roof of the car.

However, even though he had used the train to avoid the heavy machine gun's bullets, he still managed to Dodge it. However, he did not have a single weapon on him now. How could he counterattack?

Zhao Yu was really going crazy. He saw that the terrorist's car was right next to the train, and he jumped off the train without any hesitation!

Ah ...

The terrorists could never have imagined that Zhao Yu was still alive! Not only did he not die, but he also suddenly jumped off the train. This was simply a fantasy ...

However, no matter how ridiculous it was, Zhao Yu still jumped down.

As soon as Zhao Yufu landed on the car, he immediately threw a punch at the machine gunner.

Immediately after, he pushed the heavy machine gun's butt with all his might. The heavy machine gun immediately spun rapidly, and the long barrel instantly hit the face of another terrorist!

Hey, hey, hey ...

The slap was so sudden that the man didn't have time to react. He leaned back and fell off the car.

The car was speeding, and the man fell head first. There was no chance of him being alive ...

Ah ...

Zhao Yu's sudden appearance caused chaos in the car, but there were still some terrorists who reacted. They shouted and pounced on Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu's back was leaning against the cockpit, and he was the first to kick the man's chin.

Ah ...

The man screamed and fell face up. The moment he fell, he also knocked down another terrorist.

Ah ...

The man who had been punched to the ground by Zhao Yu earlier suddenly turned around and started fighting with Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu punched and kicked the man until he couldn't fight back. But at that moment, the glass of the cockpit was suddenly opened. The driver was holding a pistol and shot Zhao Yu's calf!

Waa!

Zhao Yu was shocked and quickly jumped away, then saw the person who had launched the sneak attack.

Oh my God!

Luckily, Zhao Yu's invisible bullet proof suit was still working. Otherwise, he would have been killed by Tiantian!

Ah ...

Seeing his comrade shoot at Zhao Yu, the terrorist's morale was greatly boosted, and he rushed towards Zhao Yu again.

Zhao Yu pressed down on his head and kicked his calf with his left foot, then stuffed him face down through the window leading to the cockpit.

This way, it blocked the driver who wanted to attack with the pistol.

"F * ck your grandmother!"

After shoving the person in, Zhao Yu raised his leg and kicked half of the person's body into the cockpit!

However, life was unpredictable. With Zhao Yu's kick, the person who was stuffed into the driver's seat hit the driver. The driver lost his balance and hit the steering wheel again!

In the end, the car creaked and plunged into the train beside it!

Ah ...

The driver was so scared that he almost went crazy. He quickly turned the steering wheel back, causing the car to draw a big "S" on the road, and the rear wheels were all upturned!

"Oh oh oh ..."

Due to the violent shaking of the car, Zhao Yu lost his balance and was thrown in front of the side of the car. He looked like he was about to fall off the car.

As Zhao Yu waved his arms, he managed to grab the heavy machine gun.

Ga.....Zhi

In order to stabilize the car, the driver turned the steering wheel again, causing Zhao Yu, who was holding onto the gun barrel, to fall out of the car.

'F * ck ...'

Zhao Yu quickly swam upwards, shaking his body and trying to turn back into the truck.

But at that moment, a terrorist rushed to the heavy machine gun's stock and placed his hand on the trigger, while sneering at Zhao Yu.

Chapter 1460: falling again

No, no, no...

Seeing the man's cold smile, Zhao Yu knew what he was going to do.

Although Zhao Yu had both his hands on the barrel of the heavy machine gun and was not aiming at the muzzle, once the other party pulled the trigger and fired, the heavy machine gun barrel would inevitably produce an unimaginable high temperature, which would definitely burn him!

However, if he let go, he would definitely fall out of the car. As the car and the train were relatively close, once he landed, it was very likely that he would be rolled under the train and die without question!

Don't ...

Seeing that the enemy was about to shoot, Zhao Yu had no choice but to use an invisible fire suit.

As a result, the enemy had already pulled the trigger just as the fire-resistant suit was successfully used.

Tut, tut, tut ...

The heavy machine gun instantly roared madly, and the tongues of fire suddenly appeared. A row of bullets hit the train.

The powerful force not only caused the gun barrel to heat up, but it also caused a strong vibration. Zhao Yu's body was shaking, and his teeth were almost broken!

What was worse was that the sound of the heavy machine gun was too loud. The bullets brushed past Zhao Yu's body as they shot out. It was deafening, causing his ears to ring.

As for the heavy machine gun, many of the bullet shells that popped out hit his body. He was in a dangerous situation ...

Tut, tut, tut ...

Under the violent fire, Zhao Yu held onto the gun barrel tightly, not letting go. This undoubtedly made the terrorists in the car feel incredulous again.

After a round of bullets, someone got up from the car and started to fiddle with his AK, wanting to shoot Zhao Yu at close range. Some of them even picked up a machete from somewhere and wanted to give Zhao Yu a few more cuts.

Tsk tsk ...

At that moment, Zhao Yu was still hugging the gun barrel tightly. Although the fire suit didn't burn him, he was in a very bad situation. The violent shaking just now had caused his internal organs to be in turmoil.

He could not hear anything as the violent gunshots continued ...

Seeing that he was in danger, Zhao Yu didn't dare to be stingy with his devices. He immediately clicked on the device bar, ready to use the ultimate combination of the aircraft and invisibility cloak to kill them all!

However, just as Zhao Yu was about to use his ultimate skill, there was another accident.

Maybe it was because they didn't communicate properly before, but when the driver saw that the heavy machine gun didn't shake Zhao Yu off, he turned the steering wheel to the right and slammed the car into the train!

His intention was obvious. He wanted to knock Zhao Yu into the train and crush him to pieces.

Logically speaking, his subconscious behavior was still in line with a certain logic. However, he had forgotten one important thing. Zhao Yu was hugging the gun barrel, which was longer than Zhao Yu.

So, the first one to crash wasn't Zhao Yu, but the heavy machine gun!

Clang ...

Sure enough, as he got closer to the train, the barrel hit the high-speed train, and the heavy machine gun immediately rotated violently, bringing Zhao Yu back to the car.

Thump!

Zhao Yu quickly jumped into the car and used the classic bull's charge to knock away an enemy who was holding a knife.

Due to the suddenness of the incident, the man didn't even have time to scream before he fell off the side of the car!

"Wahaha ..."

Zhao Yu suddenly returned to the car, as if he had been reborn from the fire. He immediately let out a classic laugh, then started fighting with the remaining terrorists in the car.

Left hook, there was an uppercut ... One of the criminals exchanged a few blows with Zhao Yu before he was punched in the face by Zhao Yu and fell to the ground on the spot.

"Ah!"

A criminal with a dagger rushed over and tried to stab Zhao Yu in the chest. Zhao Yu dodged and grabbed the man's wrist.

Then, he knocked the man's arm against the car, causing the dagger to fall off. Zhao Yu then kicked the man in the stomach, sending him flying.

The force of the kick was so strong that after the man was sent flying, his back hit the heavy machine gun. With a thud, the gun barrel was knocked away, and he fell to the ground.

The gun barrel spun at high speed again under the impact, almost hitting another terrorist.

The man reacted quickly. After lowering his head to avoid the barrel, he held the AK rifle in his hand and was ready to shoot at Zhao Yu.

However, Zhao Yu had already noticed him, so he immediately kicked the heavy machine gun back.

Wuuu ...

The barrel of the gun turned back in the blink of an eye, and the terrorist quickly dodged. However, taking advantage of this time, Zhao Yu had already rushed in front of him. He grabbed the gun barrel of the AK on both sides and tried to strangle the terrorist with his right hand.

The man struggled hard, but Zhao Yu didn't succeed, and the two of them started to get entangled.

However, the man's index finger was still on the trigger. In the middle of the fight, the AK actually spun around and fired a row of bullets.

Tut, tut, tut ...

The bullets flew everywhere. Not only did they hit the cockpit, but they also hit the enemy that Zhao Yu had knocked down earlier.

Ah ...

The man screamed and rolled on the ground in pain ...

Waya!

At this time, the last enemy picked up the dagger and tried to stab Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu didn't panic. He raised his left hand to block the attack with his AK, then kicked the man away. Immediately after, he raised his hands and grabbed the throat of the enemy holding the AK. Then, he ruthlessly knocked the enemy's head against the hard side of the car!

Thump!

That person didn't even make a sound before he fainted ...

Hmph!

Zhao Yu laughed coldly, grabbed the rifle, and fired a string of bullets, killing the terrorist with the dagger!

Hu ... Hu ...

After the beating, Zhao Yu gasped for breath and coughed violently. Who knew that when he coughed, he actually spat out a tooth with blood.

No way ...

He didn't even remember when his teeth had been knocked out.

Wuuu ...

At the same time, the train whizzed past and finally overtook the car, driving far away.

Only then did Zhao Yu realize that his ears were buzzing, and he couldn't hear anything.

However, Zhao Yu didn't dare to delay. He immediately pulled the bolt and held the AK tightly.

Although the enemies on the truck had been eliminated, there was still the driver in the front of the truck!

Zhao Yu knew that the driver had a gun in his hand, and his invisible bullet proof suit had lost its effect, so he couldn't let his guard down.

However, just as Zhao Yu was thinking about how to deal with the driver, he suddenly realized that the car he was in was slowing down. After a while, the car leaned to the right and stopped beside the tracks.

Zhao Yu looked down at the driver's seat and was shocked to see that the AK had shot the driver in the head. The driver was lying on the steering wheel, dead!

.....

A minute later, in the last terrorist car that was speeding along the railway, the leader named ekundsay had an unusually nervous expression.

He kept looking at the rear-view mirror, unable to understand why his two fully-equipped cars couldn't even kill a single enemy.

But now, even the heavy machine guns were sent out, but they couldn't contact him. It was like a stone sinking into the sea.

"Oh oh oh ..."

In the end, just as he was feeling uneasy, he heard a burst of exclamations from his subordinates in the car.

He hurriedly turned his head to look, and his eyes almost popped out.

They saw that the pickup truck with the heavy machine gun had returned. However, the vehicle was a little strange. It was actually driving backward!

He took a closer look and saw that the person standing by the heavy machine gun was not his subordinate, but a young man with black hair and yellow skin!

No...

No, no, no...

In that instant, he seemed to have understood what he was about to face, and was scared out of his wits

...

Ah ...

Tut, tut, tut ...

The next second, the roar of heavy machine guns came from the road. The sound was violent and violent. With the Echo of the valley, it was even more terrifying and terrifying ...
