Chapter 1491: The world's acknowledged poverty

"This isn't a cave ..." Gao ya shone the flashlight upward and shook her head. "This is a Valley. To be more precise, it's a crack!"

"Yes," the translator said. "But the locals call this place a cave. Go through it and walk 90 kilometers South, and you will reach the capital of Sacre, the state of padarda!"

"Pawdarbang?" Zhao Yu had never heard of this place before.

"It's not only the capital of the Sacre faction, it's also the largest city in the North of vacheria!" Gao Shang explained to Zhao Yu, then asked the translator, "are you all from sacreus? Who is that general?"

"Yes, I am!" The translator answered honestly, "our general is edand cherlif, the No. 2 leader of the Sacre faction!"

"The oil well, um ... What's going on with the oil pit and the exploration team?" Taking advantage of the rare opportunity, Zhao Yu continued to ask.

"About eight months ago," the translator said, "the general received a secret report that the villagers of a small village found an oil pit in the Nelia Valley that could produce oil!"

"They privately transported oil to foreign countries and got high profits.

"So, the general personally sent people to investigate, and as expected, the matter was confirmed. Then, he took control of the village! "But ..." The translator said seriously, "the current vaklia is in a state of turmoil, and war may break out at any time.

"The general doesn't want the other factions to know that we have found oil here, so he thought of independent refining. "If we want to refine oil into usable diesel, kerosene, or gasoline, this will greatly increase the strength of US, the people of zacherou!"

"However ..." The interpreter shook his head, and a hint of depression flashed in his eyes. "This kind of oil that can emit blue light is not quite the same as ordinary oil. The process of refining it is very complicated.

"We spent a lot of money to buy two pieces of refining equipment from Kazakhstan, but we didn't expect that the first test would cause an explosion!"

"We realized that with the machines and equipment, it would be impossible without technical personnel who knew how to operate them!"

"Hence ... The general started to search for technical personnel, but vakries did not have such talents. When the foreigners heard that it was vakries, they did not dare to come.

"Seeing that the oil could not be converted into profits, the general was anxious. In the end, after a collective discussion with many people, he came up with a plan to kidnap China's oil industry talents!"

“You bunch of ignorant bastards!” Hearing this, Kunpeng, who was walking at the back, couldn’t help but step forward and curse, “if you have the time to plan a kidnapping, why didn’t you ask for more information?”

“I’ve said it more than a thousand times, we’re an address exploration team. It’s a completely different job from oil refining! If it weren’t for the fact that some of us know chemistry, we might not have been able to keep the second machine!”

“The amount of petroleum is over the limit, and there are also flammable phosphorus elements in it, which are particularly easy to cause explosions!”

“Well ... This ...” The translator said with an embarrassed expression, “in our eyes, the Chinese are omnipotent and can do anything!”

“You guys! You’re all so childish!” Kun Peng was trembling with anger. “You are executioners! Without you guys, old Yang wouldn’t have had a heart attack!”

“Not only did you cruelly kill our tarstein colleague, but you also killed those innocent villagers. Your actions are simply outrageous. You should all be tried by the International Court of Justice!!!”

With the roar of kun Peng, the other exploration team members also surrounded him and wanted to beat the translator to death.

However, they were not the only ones in the valley. There were many fleeing soldiers of Sacre all around. Once they were discovered by those people, they would definitely be at a disadvantage.

Hence, PU Jiayou, Gao ya, and the others immediately pulled the exploration team members apart and tried to persuade them.

“You ...” Zhao Yu suddenly remembered the case. Out of his detective nature, he almost unconsciously asked the translator, “did you really use the hot air balloon to carry out the kidnapping? But how did you guys ... Subdue him?”

“We used the special sleeping gas of the people of zacherou. We only need to blow the sleeping gas into the room, and people will unconsciously faint!”

So that was how it was ...

No wonder there were no signs of struggle or fighting at the scene. It looked so natural!

“We calculated the wind direction and time in advance. After we knocked them out, we directly rose a hot air balloon from the exploration team’s base and took them away!”

“Then, we followed the siniya Valley’s descension wind all the way, and in less than five hours, we arrived at our destination ...

“The sun hadn’t even risen at that time! “Thus ... We believe that we have done it flawlessly and will not arouse your suspicions! But I didn’t expect ... Sigh ...”

With the interpreter sighing, Zhao Yu turned his attention back to what was in front of him and asked, "Let me ask you again. Who were the people who attacked you just now? From what I heard before, it was a banner organization?"

"I'm not too sure. Although ... According to our intelligence, only the banner organization has armored vehicles, but ..." The interpreter said with difficulty, "the power of the banner organization is further south. If they were to attack us, they should be attacking our capital, Pedar state!"

"Just now, the general and I were worried because we were afraid that the banner organization had taken down the capital, but now that we think about it, if the state of powder was attacked, there's no reason we wouldn't have received the news, right?"

"Then ..." Gao ya quickly asked, "think about it again, is there any other possibility besides the banner organization? Could it be that one of the top leaders of Sacre wants to get rid of that general?"

"Impossible. Sacrew doesn't have much territory. We don't even have armored vehicles!" The translator shook his head hard. "Besides, if the big boss wanted to get rid of the general, he could have just assassinated him. Why did he have to make such a big fuss?"

"Moreover, they're brothers by blood. Their relationship has always been harmonious!"

"Could it be ..." A thought suddenly struck elegant, "the Kashmir gang?" Because ... I think I saw a blue symbol on one of the soldiers, but ... I couldn't see it clearly. "

"Kashmir?" The translator frowned and thought for a moment, then mumbled, "their forces are the smallest in the Nelia Valley. They don't seem to be so strong, right?"

"Unless ... Unless they colluded with the banner organization and wanted to devour us together!"

"I think ... We should talk about something more practical!" At this moment, Captain PU Jiayou, who had been silent for a long time, suddenly spoke. He pointed at the translator with his left hand and the front with his right hand. "After we leave the valley, I need you to find me an international number as soon as possible! As long as we can find it, we'll let you go!"

"This ... This is difficult ..." The translator grinned and said, "our poverty is recognized by the world. The rich don't even have mobile phones, let alone making international long-distance calls!"

"Otherwise, we wouldn't have taken such a big risk for the oil pit, right?"

"As far as I know ..." The translator thought for a moment, frowned, and said, "it seems that only the capital of the people of thachery, Bodar state, has it! But do you guys dare to go?"

Chapter 1492: comparison and damage

"Mm ... I did bring my phone," Zhao Yu said as he took out his phone. "But it seems like there's no signal!"

"It's no use." PU Jiayou shook his head and said, "we also brought our phones! However, in this desolate place, there are no communication bases. So, other than satellite phones, ordinary mobile phones are useless!"

Regarding this point, Zhao Yu already understood.

As soon as he entered the Bonia Valley, he realized that his phone had become a mere decoration.

The temporary telephone card that secret services had installed for him could only be used in the larger cities of tarstein, and the signal would be lost if he were to go a little further.

Previously, he had tested it with his own signal booster. The booster could only strengthen a cell phone's signal, but it couldn't satisfy the problem of a blocked channel.

"Sigh, I finally understand what the world's definition of poverty means," Zhao Yu said, shaking his head. "This is a world without mobile phones, and communication is so backward!"

"Mm ..." PU Jiayou looked at the exploration team members in the distance, then sighed in agreement with Zhao Yu. "Otherwise, they wouldn't take such a risk for a few oil pits!"

"I used to go to the Northwest of my country to complete a mission. There was a frozen wasteland there with countless oil pits similar to this one. The number of oil pits there was thousands, even tens of thousands of times more than here!" Captain PU recalled, "I just asked the locals. Since there is oil, why don't they exploit it?"

"Can you guess what the locals said?" PU Jiayou kept him in suspense and gave him the answer himself. "They said that this amount of oil storage is too little and not worth mining at all!"

"Sigh ..." After listening to the story, the translator could not help but show envy in his eyes. He muttered to himself in a daze, "there is no harm without comparison. Sigh ..."

"Zhao Yu, actually ..." Gao ya glanced at the translator, then immediately pulled Zhao Yu aside and whispered, "actually, our situation is not as serious as you think. Even if we don't make a call, the headquarters will know our real-time location."

"So, what we need to do next is to find a safe place and wait for help! And you only need to do one thing, and that is to stay with us. Don't ever run around again!"

"Oh ..." Hearing Gao ya's words, Zhao Yu was slightly relieved.

Just now, he was really wondering if he needed to use an invisible disguise device to disguise himself as a local and go deep into Bodard state alone to find the satellite phone!

From the looks of it, their mission wasn't as complicated as they had thought. Although they were about to enter the heart of Vakra, they just needed to find a safe place to survive and wait for rescue.

However, just as Zhao Yu relaxed a little, from the valley behind him, frightening gunshots were heard!

After the gunshots, the valley instantly boiled over. The fleeing soldiers nearby were like birds startled by the mere twang of a bow, and they began to run forward as if they had lost their lives.

"Not ... Not good ..." The translator said in horror. "They ... They are chasing us again!"

"Captain, why don't we ..." At this moment, Kong Shuo looked at the narrow terrain and suggested to PU Jiayou in a low voice, "let's find a suitable place and blow up the valley?"

"No, it's useless ..." Unexpectedly, the translator's ears were particularly sharp and actually heard Kong Shuo's words. He quickly waved his hand and said, "it's useless for you to blow this place up!"

"This Valley is parallel to the passage outside the South Gate, and the distance between them is only a few hundred meters!" The translator gestured anxiously and said, "blow this place up. They will still come around from the other side to chase us!"

"This ..." PU Jiayou and Kong Shuo looked at each other, trying to come up with an idea.

"It seems like there's only one way," Zhao Yu said seriously.

Zhao Yu had always won by surprise, so when he said that, he immediately attracted the attention of the exploration team members, and everyone turned to look at him.

Bang ...

Bang ...

At this time, the gunshots were getting closer and closer.

"What are you waiting for?" "Run!" Zhao Yu suddenly shouted with all his strength, his tongue almost flying out. "Run!!!"

After saying that, he was the first to run forward, not forgetting to pull the translator along ...

I'll ...

Everyone was shocked and quickly ran after Zhao Yu.

Bang Bang Bang ...

The enemy was hot on their heels and was determined to win. After running for more than 100 meters, not only did they not lose the enemy, but the bullets fired at them became even more concentrated.

As the bullets whizzed past, several local soldiers were unfortunately shot and fell to the ground.

As a result, the others were even more frightened and panicked, running even more frantically.

"This ... Won't do!" At the crucial moment, Guanying pointed his gun at Captain PU and said, "we have so many people with us. We can't outrun them!"

"Captain, I'll bring up the rear!" He pointed at his sniper rifle. "Shoot them a few times and they won't dare to chase us so fiercely anymore!"

"Right!" Yang Feng, who was beside him, also took a sniper rifle and asked for permission.

"Alright!" PU Jiayou immediately ordered, "I'll stay with you guys. Gaoya, you take the exploration team, super detective Zhao, and the others and leave first!"

"Yes!" Gao ya quickly agreed and immediately protected the exploration team as they continued forward.

Yang Feng and Guan Ying, on the other hand, quickly found a spot that was convenient for shooting and got into position.

As expected, the enemy was in hot pursuit. As soon as they were ready, a group of people appeared in the shadows of the valley. Through the night vision equipment on the scope, the two could clearly see the enemy's attire.

From their clothes and weapons, it could be seen that these people were the enemies who had attacked the village. Since they had already attacked here, it meant that they had completely captured the village.

As it was night time, the enemies chasing him could not aim accurately. He just chased and fired, not caring where the bullets would hit!

However, while they were chasing, Yang Feng and Guan Ying, who were good at sniping, opened fire!

Bang! Bang!

Bang! Bang!

With two different gunshots, the two enemies at the front were shot to the ground!

Waa ...

The other enemies were shocked. They had thought that the enemy had been completely defeated. How could they have thought that they would be counterattacked?

Bang! Bang!

Bang! Bang!

After another two sounds, the other two enemies fell to the ground again.

The sniper rifle was powerful. After killing the enemy, the scene was covered in blood ...

"Oh oh oh ..."

This time, the enemies could no longer remain calm. Some of them quickly hid behind the rocks, while others took a few steps back.

In the end, another terrifying gunshot was heard. Blood burst out from an enemy who was about to turn back to Dodge, and his corpse fell to the ground!

Bang! Bang!

After another sound, an enemy hiding behind a rock, who thought he was not in danger, suddenly screamed.

It turned out that a bullet had shattered the stone in front of his face, and the exploded stones had pierced into his face and eyes. He was in so much pain that he lay on the ground, wailing in pain and rolling around!

Bang ...

Bang Bang Bang ...

The terrifying sniper rifle sounded a few more times, shooting the enemies who tried to hide until they cried for their parents.

Finally, under the immense pressure of death, they couldn't stand it any longer. They all turned around and ran, forced to retreat ...

"Let's go!" PU Jiayou saw everything with his night vision binoculars. After realizing that the enemy had retreated, he immediately waved at the two Secret Service team members and said, "let's hurry up and leave! They temporarily didn't dare to chase! Hurry up ..."

After receiving the order, Yang Feng and Guan Ying quickly put away their sniper rifles and ran toward the valley. PU Jiayou followed closely behind them to protect them.

Unexpectedly, when PU Jiayou turned around, he suddenly heard a strange sound coming from above his head.

Eh?

He immediately looked up alertly, but there were only cliffs at the top of the valley, so it was impossible for anyone to be there! He quickly used the Night Vision Telescope to check again, but he still did not see anything.

Hu ...

PU Jiayou furrowed his brows slightly. A bad feeling flashed across his mind. He clearly heard that there was something high up in the sky, but why couldn't he see it?

Helplessly, Captain PU didn't think too much and quickly left with his team members.

A few seconds after he left, he heard a faint buzzing sound coming from the valley. It was a small and light drone!

Chapter 1493: emergency warning

Just as PU Jiayou and his men shook off the enemy, Zhao Yu and his men had already rushed out of the valley with the many defeated soldiers, and were going down a slope.

However, before they could reach the end of the slope, they suddenly saw a burst of light coming from the front. As the light got closer and closer, they heard a terrifying gunshot!

Tap tap tap tap ...

Tut, tut, tut ...

The gunfire was particularly bright in the dark night, and it was very scary. After a round of shooting, there were screams in the open space in front of the mountain.

Zhao Yu had night vision, so he could see clearly. It turned out that two Jeeps were driving over from the left side of the mountain road, and the people in the Jeeps were shooting at the crowd with rifles.

Needless to say, these people must be the enemies who had come from another passage. This was a rhythm that was completely ruthless!

"Stop!" Seeing the enemy fire, Gao ya immediately stopped everyone and tried to Dodge to the right.

However, the two Jeeps had searchlights on them. As long as the searchlights shone on people, they would be hit by the random shots from the Jeeps.

Not long after, the Jeep cleared the path of the soldiers in the open space and turned its Searchlight towards Zhao Yu and the others.

After everyone heard this, they immediately looked for cover in a panic. However, they were on a barren hillside, and there was no cover at all.

The Jeep was extremely fast, and in the blink of an eye, it had reached the top of the hill. They were getting closer and closer to Zhao Yu and the others.

“Hurry up!” Zhao Yu suddenly shouted at Gao ya and the other Secret Service team members, “you guys cover me!”

Then, Zhao Yu immediately ran down the hill!

Seeing this, Gao ya and the rest of the team quickly fired at the Jeeps. The first Jeep clanked as it was hit by the bullets, scaring the enemies into retreating into the car. The car also tilted to the side.

However, the second car suddenly came from behind and shone its Searchlight on Zhao Yu, looking like it was about to shoot!

Terrible!

Gao Shang shouted and quickly turned around, but it was too late. As long as the enemy opened fire, Zhao Yu would be dead!

In the end, something strange happened. The searchlights on the two Jeeps went off at the same time!

Immediately after, gunshots rang out in the dark, and the sound of bullets hitting metal could be heard.

Damn it ...

Gao ya quickly grabbed her gun and ran towards the Jeep like a madman. Wu diqiu followed closely behind.

At that time, the two of them thought that Zhao Yu had died under the enemy’s shooting, but when they rushed over, they were surprised to find that Zhao Yu was not only safe, but that all the enemies in the Jeep had died!

This ... Is impossible, right?

After confirming that all the enemies were dead, Gao ya couldn’t believe her eyes. She was sure that even the top experts in the Secret Service team couldn’t have done it so nimbly and beautifully!

Of course, from Zhao Yu’s point of view, Gao ya’s surprise was not surprising, because he had only used an old power jamming device and night vision device.

As Zhao Yu was already having a good time, he didn’t even waste the invisible bullet proof suit. He easily took out two cars of enemies.

“That’s great!” As soon as Gao ya saw the car, she waved excitedly to her companions and asked them to get in.

Zhao Yu was also very excited. He immediately opened the door of one of the Jeeps and was about to drag the dead man out of the car.

However, at this moment, the system in his mind suddenly lit up a red light. The red light flashed a few times in a hurry and even sounded an alarm!

This ... This is ...

At first, Zhao Yu thought that it was an alarm from the invisible detector, but after taking a closer look, he realized that the interface and the screen of the invisible detector were completely different.

There was a large, target-like electronic disk on it, and a red dot was slowly moving in the center of the disk ...

Oh ...

Zhao Yu suddenly recalled that this thing was a special device called the emergency alarm!

The so-called emergency alarm was a device that would automatically pop out when Zhao Yu suffered an explosion, or when someone was aiming at him from a distance.

It had not appeared for a long time. The last time it appeared was during the hasty murder case in Jinzhong.

How did he ...

This big target ...

F * ck!

Zhao Yu suddenly realized that the target could very likely mean that someone was aiming at him with a sniper rifle!

That’s right. The red dot was gradually moving towards the center of the target. Once it was in place, it meant that ...

Suddenly, Zhao Yu didn’t have time to think anymore. Seeing that the red dot was about to hit the bullseye, he quickly rolled forward and jumped out of the car.

As a result, just as he jumped away, a bullet hole appeared in the door!

Pfft ...

The sound of the bullet was not loud, but its penetrating power was extremely strong. It actually pierced through the door and embedded itself in the tire ...

What the ...

There really was a sniper!

As Zhao Yu rolled on the ground, a strange question suddenly popped up in his mind. He was wondering if he would have been killed by the sniper rifle, or if he would have triggered the emergency evacuation ball to protect himself from the disaster, if there had been no emergency alarm.

F * ck!

The next second, Zhao Yu scolded himself. What the hell is this? why do you still have time to think about this?

He quickly got up from the ground, went around to the other side of the car, and opened the door of the driver's seat!

Although the situation was critical, Zhao Yu understood that the area around the hill was extremely spacious. If they abandoned the car, they would only become live targets for the sniper!

After all, the number of emergency alarms was limited. They could save him once or twice, but not too many times. Therefore, the most important thing now was to leave this troublesome place as soon as possible.

Bang ...

Just as Zhao Yu was about to get into the car, the sniper rifle rang out again. The bullet shattered one of the car windows and hit the back of the driver's seat!

Waa ...

Zhao Yu was shocked and quickly hid beside the car door.

"Zhao Yu, what's wrong?" Just then, an elegant voice came from the car next to them. "Why aren't you driving?"

At that moment, Gao ya had already dragged the dead man from the driver's seat of the other car out of the car. Just as she was about to enter the car to start the car, she suddenly saw Zhao Yu coming out of the car and asked,

"Shush ... Hey!" Zhao Yu quickly shouted, "get down! There's a sniper!"

"What?" However, just as Gao ya asked that question, a bullet suddenly shot out and hit the roof of the car beside her. The bullet passed through the roof and flew past her body ...

"Ah ..." Gao ya was shocked. Like Zhao Yu, she hid behind the car door.

"How ... How is it? Are you alright?" From Zhao Yu's angle, he couldn't see Gao ya's situation, so he quickly asked out of concern.

"I'm fine," said Gao ya, gritting her teeth. "It was shot from two o' clock, at least 300 meters away ..."

"And," Zhao Yu added, "there should only be one sniper!"

Then, something depressing happened. Just as Zhao Yu finished speaking, he suddenly saw a row of car lights light up in the direction of the sniper. Under the car lights, he could see a moving crowd.

It was obvious that the enemy's main force had arrived!

Chapter 1494: strange call

'Shit ...'

Looking at the enemy's cars arriving one after another, with more and more people, Zhao Yu had a bad feeling.

If they were to rush over and surround their own people, there would probably be no way to turn the situation around ...

What to do?

Zhao Yu thought quickly. For now, the two Jeeps beside him and Gao ya were obviously their only hope.

Only these two cars could possibly bring them out of danger.

But ...

How should he deal with the sniper hiding in the dark? As long as he and Gao ya tried to drive, they would be sniped by the sniper.

F * ck!

I don't care!

In a hurry, Zhao Yu opened the door for the second time and helped the dead driver out of the car. Then, he lowered his head and got into the car. He turned the car key and wanted to start the car.

In the end, just as he reached out, the early warning device in his head sounded again. This time, the alarm came very quickly. The light spot on the screen had even moved to the bullseye.

F * ck!

Zhao Yu cursed and quickly retreated. A bullet went into the car and hit the seat that he had been climbing on.

If he had not dodged quickly enough, this shot would have been fatal!

Hu ... Hu ...

Zhao Yu broke out in a cold sweat. He secretly looked through the broken window into the distance. Although his invisible night vision was still working, he still couldn't see the sniper's exact position.

It seemed like ... He had to add a telescope, right?

Thinking of this, Zhao Yu quickly tapped on the device bar, ready to use the binoculars to observe the sniper's exact position.

In the end, just at this critical moment, Zhao Yu's pocket suddenly vibrated.

Buzz ... Buzz ... Buzz ...

What was going on?

Zhao Yu didn't react at first, but was shocked. A second later, he realized that it was his phone that was ringing.

What! ?

For a moment, Zhao Yu was a little confused. His phone had no signal at all, so why was it suddenly ringing?

Did you set an alarm by accident?

It should be ...

Feeling the vibration of his phone getting faster and faster, Zhao Yu had no choice but to take it out. However, when he looked at the flashing screen, he raised his eyebrows in surprise.

Oh my God, what's going on? Why did his phone display that someone was calling him?

And ... The caller ID showed a long phone number with a few zeros in front ...

Was this ... Customer service?

"Captain, Captain ..." Just as Zhao Yu was surprised by the call, Gao ya had already contacted PU Jiayou and the others through the walkie-talkie.

Obviously, Gao ya had the same intention as him. She wanted to drive the two Jeeps to the exploration team as soon as possible. If he wanted to steal the car, he had to deal with the sniper.

The Secret Service team had two sniper rifles, but they were both with Yang Feng and Guan Ying. Gao ya tried to contact Captain PU and ask Yang Feng and Guan Ying to cover her ...

"This ..." Zhao Yu's eyebrows were raised to the top of his head. It seemed that the call wasn't from the Secret Service team. Then ... Who was it?

With a strong curiosity, Zhao Yu pressed the answer button and put the phone to his ear.

"Hey! My cute little darling, can you tell who I am?" Unexpectedly, after picking up the call, a passionate and even somewhat nervous woman's voice came through the phone.

Wakkkha ...

Zhao Yu almost stuck his tongue out. He never expected that the phone would really work.

"Hmm ... Who are you? Did you hit ... Um ..." He wanted to say "you hit the wrong number", but on second thought, that didn't seem right. This was vachery. If someone made the wrong call, they wouldn't be able to speak Chinese, right?

However, why was this woman's Chinese still so choppy?

"Wow, did my Chinese Level improve again?" The woman on the other end of the phone said excitedly, "you really can't tell, my China detective?"

"I'll cut!"

Upon hearing the words “China’s super detective,” China Yu finally realized who the woman was. She was the France Senior Sister touqiang, Huahua!

This ... Did they see a living ghost?

“Sis, I’m not dreaming, am I? you ... No, no, no...” Zhao Yu quickly asked, “where are you now?”

“Are you alright? Of course, I’m in the romantic Paris! Oh ... I’m sorry, I’m sorry ...” Something suddenly occurred to Juliet, and she apologized in a hurry. “I forgot about the time difference. It’s still midnight at your place, right? I’m really ... Really sorry ...”

“Wow ... Your Chinese ... Has really improved!” Zhao Yu couldn’t help but praise her. He then remembered his confusion and quickly asked, “sis, are you sure you were calling me? My phone ... How did it get through ...”

“Captain, the sniper is at two o’ clock ...” At this time, Gao ya, who was next to her, hurriedly said into her walkie-talkie, “a large group of enemies is coming at one o’ clock!” So, Zhao Yu and I need your long-range cover, so that we can drive over to help!”

“Hey, my dear, did you already know what I was going to tell you, so you’re speaking incoherently in advance?” Juliet said enthusiastically over the phone, “tada tada! You’ve guessed it again, the oil painting murder case that has been troubling the France police for many years has finally been solved!

“Wow ... How is it? excited? Aren’t you excited?”

“...” In an instant, Zhao Yu’s messy thoughts turned to black. What was this ...

“The reason I told you at the first moment,” Juliet said excitedly, “is because ... Because you’re right! The real murderer was a master!

“I really didn’t expect that such a well-known and sanctimonious guy would be the real murderer of the oil painting murder case!”

“But ... He didn’t do it alone. He did it with two of his students, and ... And there’s an abnormal relationship between him and his two students. It’s too abnormal ...”

“Wow ... Oh ... What the ...” Zhao Yu was stunned by Juliet’s sudden flash. His brain short-circuited, and he didn’t know what to say.

After a few seconds, he jolted to his feet, grabbed his phone, and yelled at Juliet, “Big sister, big sister, now is not the time to talk. Listen to me, I’m in danger now. You have to ... You have to help me quickly ...”

In the end, Zhao Yu was halfway through his sentence when the enemies who were chasing him from a distance fired their guns ...

The bullets whizzed by and hit the Jeep, making clanging sounds.

“Ah ...” Zhao Yu held his head and squatted down, then continued to shout at Juliet, “I don’t know what’s going on. How can we talk on our phones? so, help me connect to Miao kun right now. I want to talk to him!”

“Wow...Just a moment ...” Zhao Yu spoke so fast that Juliet couldn’t understand him. After consulting the translator, she said in stiff Chinese, “Zhao Yu, I heard a gunshot. Are you writing another case?”

Ding ding ding ...

A few bullets flew over, not only breaking the car window, but also shattering the rear view mirror. The broken glass splattered all over Zhao Yu.

“Please, big sister, I’m not investigating a case, I’m risking my life! “If you don’t help me, I’ll be dead ...” Zhao Yu repeated what he had just said.

“Hey, Zhao Yu!” At this moment, Gao ya finally realized that something was wrong and asked loudly, “what are you doing? Who are you talking to?”

“My ... Phone, phone ...” Zhao Yu pointed to his phone. “There’s signal!” And they were coming from France! “Well ...” After he said that excitedly, he timidly added, “do you believe me?”

Chapter 1495: Don’t curse

“Hey, are you hearing things? Pull yourself together, big brother!” Gao ya shouted, “hurry up. Captain PU and the others are in position. We’ll drive over as soon as they fire their guns. Understand?”

“Oh ... Um ... But ...” Zhao Yu quickly asked, “where’s the sniper? What about the sniper? As soon as we get in the car, we’ll be shot ...”

“What?” “There’s a sniper!?” Juliet asked loudly.

“Don’t worry about it.” Gao ya waved her hand and shouted, “Guanying has located the sniper. He’ll suppress the sniper with fire!

“Hurry up and get ready. This is our only chance!

“Remember, once the gun sounds, get in the car!”

“Oh ... Oh oh ... Okay ...” Zhao Yu nodded, then turned around and pulled the door open again, ready to rush in. However, looking at the phone in his hand, he was at a loss.

Although he didn’t know what Juliet’s call was about, or why he could pick up her call. However, he knew that Juliet might be able to help them contact Miao kun and secret services, so that they could get in touch.

But Juliet’s identity was a little special, and Zhao Yu didn’t know if she could tell him everything about the situation.

He had followed the Secret Service team in vaklia. After all, he still had to keep it a secret from the international media. If Juliet found out about it, wouldn’t it be bad?

What to do?

Should he tell Juliet the truth and ask her to contact Miao kun for help, or ... Should he just pretend that nothing had happened?

With all these reasons, Zhao Yu's mood was very complicated. This was the first time he couldn't make a decision!

"Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu ..." Juliet spoke again on the phone. She corrected Zhao Yu's choice of words very seriously. "You just mentioned 'F * cking' France. I know that the word 'F * cking' doesn't have a good meaning. It's an insult, just like how we curse at other people's mothers. I don't like it!"

I'll go!

Zhao Yu was going crazy. He quickly grabbed the inner pocket of his shirt and took out his headphones. When he put the headphones in his ears and put his phone in his pocket, he finally let go of his hands.

"I'm not cursing, I'm just saying it. I didn't mean to curse France, but ..." Zhao Yu explained. "It's a kind of exclamation, which means that your phone call from France is a little unbelievable, understand?"

"No way ..." Gao ya looked at Zhao Yu's mysterious look and thought that Zhao Yu was scared out of his wits! His expression became more and more embarrassed ...

"You mentioned a sniper rifle and a car just now. Oh ... You also asked me to contact Female Miao. It seems that something big has happened!" Juliet asked with concern, "quick, tell me about your situation and see if I can help."

Bang ... Bang ... Bang ...

The moment Juliet spoke, gunshots came from the hill. Bullets whizzed toward the enemies coming from the other side, knocking down a few!

Zhao Yu knew that this was the signal for PU Jiayou and the others to start covering for him. When the gunshot rang out, he didn't dare to talk to Juliet anymore. He and Gao ya quickly opened their doors and got into their cars, ready to start the engine in the chaos.

However, just as Zhao Yu went up and turned the key a few times, the emergency alarm in his head rang again. The image of the target being aimed appeared on the interface in his brain again.

F * ck!

Zhao Yu was depressed, so he had to go back.

In the end, a sniper bullet went through the car and hit the car seat!

Pfft!

Just as Zhao Yu exited the cockpit, there was an obvious sound of a sniper bullet coming from the car next to him.

"Oh ..." As the bullet was fired, Gao ya's cry was heard. Then, she fell out of the carriage ...

"Hey, Gao...You ..." Zhao Yu saw Gao ya roll on the ground and use her back to support herself against the car door again, and he felt relieved.

It seemed that Gao ya was injured, but it wasn't a fatal injury ...

"No... No..." Gao ya covered her bleeding ear and said, "he's not a sniper at all!"

As she said that, she quickly picked up the walkie-talkie and reported to PU Jiayou ...

At this time, under the fierce shooting of the Secret Service team members, the soldiers who were about to charge were all forced to retreat, and no one dared to move forward.

However, they had the support of the convoy behind them and powerful snipers as backup. They could not last long at all!

"Listen to me ..." Zhao Yu took this opportunity to shout at Juliet on the phone, "big sister, this is my business. It's too far away to quench your present thirst!" If you really want to help me, then help me contact Miao kun. I want to talk to him ..."

"Oh ... Alright ... Alright!" Juliet realized the seriousness of the situation and promised Zhao Yu, "I'll send someone to make a call now. When the call is transferred, you can use my phone to talk to him directly ..."

Juliet had said the rest of the sentence in French, but because Zhao Yu had a translator with him, he could still hear her clearly.

"But ..." After Juliet gave her orders, she said to Zhao Yu again, "China detective, let me guess, were you blocked by a sniper behind the car?"

"Right!" Zhao Yu didn't have time to argue with her, so he quickly nodded.

"Can the car still be driven?" Juliet asked again.

"Yes, I can!" "Maybe it can still be opened!" Zhao Yu said briefly, then added cautiously.

"Bullets can penetrate a car?"

"Right!"

"What kind of car is it?"

"A Jeep, a little bigger than a normal one, and there's a container behind it ..." Zhao Yu answered honestly, but he didn't know what Juliet meant.

"Where did you go ..." Juliet pouted and said, "hurry up and check if the handbrake is on."

"Eh? Why?" Zhao Yu was still confused. "Why are you looking at the handbrake?"

"Push the cart!" Juliet said, "may God give you strength! He was using the car as a shield and pushing it! After he pushed the right rear end of the car to a position parallel to the shooter, he could no longer shoot at the driver's position!"

"Then, you can drive the car away!"

"Waa! Smart!" Zhao Yu thought about Juliet's words carefully, and felt that they were very practical. However, when he carefully observed the terrain, he could not help but lower his head and say gloomily, "I can't, big sister! It was a F * cking uphill! And I'm the only F * cking living person here!"

"What?" To his surprise, Juliet wasn't disappointed at all. She asked excitedly, "you're the only living person, which means there are dead people?"

“Um ... Well ...” Zhao Yu wasn’t sure if Juliet was trying to trick him into telling the truth, so he didn’t dare lie.

However, Juliet was smart enough to clap her hands and shout, “At a time like this, what are you still worried about? F*cking F*ck ...”

Chapter 1496: What’s the reason?

Tut, tut, tut ...

Zhao Yu didn’t quite understand why the vachery Jeep would make a sound like a tractor.

But no matter what, he still started the car.

That’s right, under the instructions of Senior Sister touspear, he stuffed the driver who had been dragged out of the car back into the driver’s seat and used the dead body as a shield!

The sniper tried to shoot a few times, but the bullets were all blocked by the dead body. Zhao Yu didn’t have any more emergency alarm target patterns in his mind.

He didn’t expect that this trick would really work!

After starting the car, Zhao Yu accelerated and drove to the right side of Gao ya’s Jeep, blocking the car from the sniper.

“Gaoge ... Hurry!!” He shouted at Gao ya, “hurry up and drive! Hurry up!”

Bang ...

As Zhao Yu was shouting, the sniper in the distance started shooting at him like crazy again, breaking all the windows on the right. The bullets exploded in the car, and it was scary.

Very quickly, the sniper saw that he couldn’t hit Zhao Yu, so he turned his gun to aim at the Jeep’s tires, trying to burst them to limit the Jeep’s movement.

At that moment, Yang Feng and Guan Ying, who were on the hill, fired one after another. Zhao Yu didn’t know if they had hit the sniper, but his Jeep suddenly quieted down and stopped being shot.

Gao ya had already started her Jeep and the two cars drove up the hill.

“Elegant?” Juliet’s confused voice came from Zhao Yu’s headphones again. “Is it a code name, a person’s name, or ... Your compliment to someone?”

“Sis,” Zhao Yu urged her, “where’s Miao kun? Did you manage to contact him?”

“I’m contacting him, I’m contacting him ... How is it? Did you escape danger?” Juliet asked with concern.

“It’s only temporary,” Zhao Yu said, trying his best to control the car. “Your idea worked, thank you!”

“You’re welcome!” Juliet asked humbly, “honey, I can’t locate your phone. Can you tell me where you are now?” Perhaps, I can help you even more!”

Forget it ...

Zhao Yu muttered in his heart. He felt that Juliet had an ulterior motive. Therefore, he quickly changed the topic and asked,

“By the way, you just said that the oil painting murder case has been solved? Who is the murderer?”

“Jean Sezzer! Have you heard of it?” Juliet was obviously excited at the mention of the case. “He’s a representative of the France Vanguard of idealism. He’s 67 years old this year. I didn’t expect him to be a cruel and perverted murderer!”

“This is the first time I’ve encountered something like this. Art can actually be used as a reason for killing ...”

“The key is ... How did you catch it?” Although the situation was critical, Zhao Yu was still very curious.

“Wow, that’s amazing!” Juliet might have realized that Zhao Yu could understand French, so she said in French, “we already noticed him during our first investigation, but he had an obvious alibi, so we ruled him out of the suspect list ...”

“But, when we were sorting out the case, one of my assistants found a very intriguing problem ...” Juliet said, “Jean Sezzer’s alibi was too perfect!”

“Every time he was killed, he was either at an art exhibition or a dance party. Every time, it was a large-scale event that attracted a lot of attention ...”

“Oh?” Juliet’s words immediately stirred up Zhao Yu’s desire. He quickly said, “this is indeed a bit of a coincidence. Then ... Was it the two students he remotely controlled who did this?”

“No! “That’s the key,” Juliet said excitedly. “The set of the oil painting murder case was so perfect that it was definitely the work of an experienced master ...”

“If it was a student, it would be impossible.

“At first, I was also struggling with this, but I discovered a detail that made the whole case come to light ...”

“What?” “What details?” Zhao Yu asked.

“The activities that Jean Sezzer attended at the time of the crime were all dark and noisy public places, not formal places like award ceremonies or speech stages, which were brightly lit, so ...” He said.

What?

Just as Zhao Yu was listening to the most important part, there was suddenly no sound in his headphones ...

No way?

Are you playing?

He quickly looked down at his phone and found that there was no signal on his phone. His headphones were also dead ...

I'll go!

What was going on?

Zhao Yu looked left and right, wondering if it was because his position had moved, and there was only signal from the place he was at just now.

This ...

Creak ...

In the blink of an eye, the two Jeeps had already arrived in front of the special task force and exploration team. Gao ya suddenly stopped in front of everyone.

However, Zhao Yu was too slow to step on the brakes, so he hit the elegant Jeep from behind, and the bumper of both cars was dented.

"I'll go!" Gao ya's body was knocked forward and her injured ear was hit. She pulled the handbrake, then jumped out of the car and asked Zhao Yu, "Zhao Yu, what's wrong with you? Have you lost your soul?"

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry!" Zhao Yu quickly got out of the car and apologized.

The situation was urgent, and Gao ya didn't have time to argue with Zhao Yu. She quickly called her companions to get into the car.

When they saw the car, Kun Peng and the other exploration team members couldn't wait to get in. However, due to the limited number of seats, the remaining people could only stand in the back of the Jeep.

"Guanying ..." Gao ya grabbed Guanying, who was putting away his gun, and asked, "how is it? Have you taken care of the sniper?"

"I only saw two." Guan Ying pointed at the enemy in the distance and frowned. "They used an A3, and I'm sure they killed both of them, but ..."

"What's wrong? There are other snipers?" Gao ya looked at the people in the car. If there were still snipers in the distance, they would all be exposed to the muzzle.

"I don't think so, but ..." Guan Ying shook his head. "It's a little strange. The two snipers were very professional. If they weren't inexperienced, Yang Feng and I wouldn't have been able to do anything!"

"So ..."

"So, I suspect that ..." Guanying said, "they might be under the guidance of an expert!"

"Alright, I don't have time to think so much!" At this time, PU Jiayou saw that most of the people had already gotten into the car, so he immediately ordered, "di Qiu and Kong Shuo, drive. Yang Feng and Guanying, split up. Gao ya, watch the captives. Let's go!"

With Captain PU's order, everyone moved.

The so-called captives referred to the interpreter officer and the arms dealer. The Secret Service team had already handcuffed the two.

Just as Gao ya pushed the two into the car to fight, she suddenly saw that the little boy she had saved in the war was still in the group.

At this moment, he was standing next to the car in a daze. He was still in great fear and did not know what to do.

“Child, get in the car! Come with us!” Gao ya didn’t say anything and carried the child to the car.

Then, the two cars started up at the same time and sped down the mountain ...

He didn’t know if it was because the enemies were suppressed by the special task force’s sniper rifle or for some other reason, but although the enemies had a convoy, they didn’t rush over.

In the Jeep, everyone heaved a sigh of relief when they saw that the enemy was not following them.

In the crowd, only Zhao Yu was still frowning. His thoughts were still on the oil painting murder case!

He was still seriously pondering how the murderer had been caught.

Chapter 1497: taking precautions

10 am the next day, in an abandoned factory in the Western mountain area of vacheria.

After a night of travel, Zhao Yu and the others finally decided to stay at this place. At this moment, the two Jeeps that were riddled with bullet holes were completely scrapped and could no longer be driven.

PU Jiayou’s decision was for everyone to stay at this place and wait for help.

All of their Secret Service personnel were equipped with satellite positioning devices. Captain PU was sure that Li Jing would send a helicopter to pick them up in the shortest time possible.

“Captain,” Guan Ying handed PU Jiayou half a bottle of mineral water and reported, “I’ve tried all the communication devices, but they’re all useless!”

“Well, then let’s wait patiently!” PU Jiayou took the mineral water, then turned around and observed the terrain of the entire factory. He said to Guanying, “tighten the security. This place is still too open. We must know in advance if the enemy is chasing us. ”

“Understood ...” Guan Ying replied. He picked up his sniper rifle and walked to a higher place.

“Captain,” soon, gaudy came back to report, “we asked the interpreter, and he said that this place is called the iron mine, only 20 kilometers away from the capital of sacruet, Bodar state.

“There are villages to the West or not far to the East, and they’re all in the territory of the zacheroids.”

“Um ... Your ear ...” PU Jiayou saw Gao ya’s right ear was bandaged and asked, “are you okay?”

“I’m fine ...” Gao ya said lightly, “it’s only half gone. I can still hear things, but there’s no place to put ear studs!”

“Tsk, tsk ...” PU Jiayou wanted to comfort her, but he didn’t know how to.

"I'm fine," said Gao ya indifferently."At least I'm much lighter than others ..."

At this point, the two of them looked into the distance and saw Kong Shuo bandaging Wu diqiu's wounds. In the village, Wu diqiu had been shot several times. Although he had a bulletproof vest to protect him, the shrapnel still hit his lower abdomen and he needed stitches ...

Other than Wu diqiu, the others were also injured to varying degrees. Even the exploration team members who had just been rescued were not spared. They were either hit by the wooden frame of the work shed or burned by the flames after the explosion ...

Looking at the entire team, it seemed that only Zhao Yu's injuries were the lightest.

At that very moment, Zhao Yu was sitting on a rock, his head lowered as he checked his phone.

Last night, after Juliet's call signal had disappeared, he had tried to call or send a message almost all the time, but his phone had not responded since.

AI!

He sighed softly and thought,"Was it a coincidence last night? He remembered that he had used a signal booster in order to make a phone call.

However, even after the signal was enhanced, he still couldn't make a call. Hence, he suspected that there was a problem with the communication channel. Perhaps his SIM card couldn't be used in the vachery area.

But he didn't expect to receive Juliet's call at that critical moment!

If it wasn't for Juliet's idea, which helped him out of his predicament, Zhao Yu would have thought he was hallucinating.

Would that ...

Was there a France satellite or a signal tower in the area? After I enhanced the signal on my mobile phone, did we just happen to contact each other?

Wasn't this too much of a coincidence?

Tsk tsk ...

Suddenly, Zhao Yu's mood was very complicated.

Firstly, he didn't know about the phone call. How was he supposed to tell PU Jiayou and the others? Even if he did, no one would believe him.

Secondly, he was worried that Juliet might have gotten in touch with Miao kun. However, what was the point of contacting Miao kun?

In the end, didn't they still have to rely on the special task force's positioning to carry out the rescue?

As for the third point, it came from the miracle System in his brain. Looking at the system interface, Zhao Yu's feelings were complicated.

After opening the hexagram, he had encountered many heavyweight side adventures in a row, and his side adventure points were like a flood. In just 20 hours, his side adventure points had increased tenfold, and there was a trend of exponential growth.

He remembered that when he had chosen the item, he was only left with a few hundred points. However, looking at it now, it had gone straight past 10000 points, reaching an astonishing 9000 points. It was truly shocking.

With so many points, Zhao Yu once again saw the hope of leveling up. At this rate, he was afraid that he would break through the one hundred thousand points mark, and it wouldn't be long before he upgraded to the sixth level!

However, although he had a lot of points, when Zhao Yu saw the three big words in the middle of the interface, his mood instantly fell.

“Qian Kun Gen”!

Now, it seemed that the “Gen” hexagram had been completely confirmed, because he had found the whereabouts of the exploration team.

However, according to his past experience, this “heaven and earth” hexagram was far from over.

No matter how he thought about it, he felt that, although the encounter last night was fierce, it did not really cover the word ‘universe’. Perhaps, the fierce battle last night was just an appetizer before the Super event.

Otherwise, the hexagram would have ended long ago ...

Hu ...

He took a few heavy breaths, increasingly convinced that his feelings were right.

In other words, the truly dangerous major event had yet to happen! They might not be able to get help so easily and return to their country so easily ...

Since that was the case ...

Zhao Yu thought about it seriously. Should he make plans early and prepare for the worst?

But ...

All of this was just his own speculation, so how could he convince others?

Moreover, he didn't know what kind of major event was waiting for him. What could he do if he planned ahead?

“I know you. Aren't you the detective who solved the headless female corpses case?” Just as Zhao Yu was thinking about this, kun Peng suddenly appeared in front of him. “Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu, I was wondering why it sounded so familiar!

“I've always heard Guofeng mention you, saying that you're the most capable Criminal Police officer in the criminal Division ...”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded in greeting.

“Aiya, I’m really ... Really grateful!” Kun Peng held Zhao Yu’s hand tightly. “These days, we’ve been in despair!”

“The situation in tartein is different from our country. There are not many cameras and surveillance cameras. It is a wasteland, and we were kidnapped by hot air balloons. Why do we think that no one can find us?”

“Thank you, thank you ...”

As kun Peng spoke so excitedly, the other members of the exploration team also looked at Zhao Yu gratefully.

“I know, I know this name! He’s really worthy of being the legendary detective!” One of the exploration team members praised, “fortunately, the criminal Division invited you here. Otherwise ... We would be in deep trouble!”

“Not only did he solve the case, but he’s also so brave!” A female exploration team member praised, “when we were in the village, he actually dared to stand up alone and face so many bad people who killed without blinking!”

“He’s alone, and he managed to suppress all the bad guys!”

“He’s really the most manly man I’ve ever seen in my life!”

“Hehe ... Hehe ...” Zhao Yu laughed awkwardly, then said solemnly, “everyone’s right, hehe ... Don’t stop ... Continue ...”

After seeing the strange looks from the Secret Service team members, he changed his words and said, “You’re joking. Hehe. Actually, we were able to save everyone this time mainly because of ...”

Zhao Yu extended his hand to PU Jiayou, wanting to praise him.

However, PU Jiayou’s walkie-talkie rang first, and Guan Ying’s voice came from it. “Captain, Captain, something’s up, something’s up ...”

Chapter 1498: The escaped translator

Ten minutes later, there was a series of footsteps. An unknown team quietly entered the abandoned factory.

There were at least 30 people in the team, and they were all strong men. They had headscarves with local characteristics on their heads, and they carried all kinds of guns on their backs.

He did not know if they had noticed it, but after entering the factory, they immediately stopped talking to each other and became extremely cautious.

At this moment, the Secret Service team members had already laid in ambush all over the factory, ready to launch a surprise attack on this unknown enemy.

Many of the exploration team members were hiding in the corner of an abandoned factory. Although they also had weapons in their hands, they were not combatants after all. Unless it was absolutely necessary, they did not need to fight.

Gao ya and Zhao Yu were also hiding with the exploration team. In addition to dealing with the enemy, their mission was to keep an eye on the two captives in case they escaped.

The abandoned factory was windy on all sides, and there were many holes in the walls. As the enemy's footsteps approached, Gao ya peeked through the hole in the wall to observe the situation.

Suddenly, four or five people turned around the wall outside the factory and arrived at the door. Gao ya immediately placed her rifle in the hole, ready to attack at any moment.

However, at that moment, an accident suddenly happened ...

Zhao Yu's attention was focused on the enemies outside, as well as the two captives. He didn't notice that the little boy, who had been rescued by Gao ya, had quietly retreated to the entrance of the factory.

The next second, when the little boy suddenly saw the situation outside, he actually ran out!

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu was caught off guard, and it was too late to chase after him.

"$#%..." What was even more surprising was that the little boy was shouting excitedly as he ran, immediately attracting the attention of those people.

"Eh?" Just as Gao ya was aiming, she suddenly saw the little boy run out. She shivered and quickly turned around, glaring at Zhao Yu with hatred.

Zhao Yu shrugged his shoulders, showing his helplessness.

At this moment, something even more unexpected happened. After the little boy ran out, he ran directly toward the enemies.

Those people were shocked. When they saw the little boy's face, they were stunned for a moment before they hugged the little boy excitedly!

This ...

Finally, Zhao Yu and Gao ya realized something. The so-called "enemies" might not be the real "enemies" that had chased them last night!

Indeed, Zhao Yu took a closer look and saw that these people were dressed very shabbily, and they had all kinds of weapons in their hands. At first glance, they looked like amateurs.

This was not on the same level as the enemies with tanks and snipers last night.

"Captain, Captain ..." Gao ya saw that the situation had turned for the better and immediately informed the others through the walkie-talkie, "the situation has changed. Don't shoot, don't shoot ..."

At the same time, Zhao Yu turned on a new invisible translation device and immediately understood the conversation outside.

Oh ...

I see. I didn't expect that the group of people outside were all relatives of the little boy. They were all from the same family.

What was more coincidental was that one of the leaders, a tall man, was actually the little boy's uncle! At that moment, the little boy was explaining his experience to them. He mentioned that it was the Chinese who saved him ...

.....

A few minutes later, Zhao Yu took the lead and walked out to greet the group of people.

In the beginning, those people were a little nervous, but when they saw that Zhao Yu was a genuine Chinese, they quickly let down their guard and started to talk to Zhao Yu happily.

It turned out that they were all villagers of the iron mine, and their village was just behind the mountain. As they had heard the commotion last night, they had organized people to come to the factory to check on the situation ...

"Mm ..."

Although Zhao Yu could understand what they were saying, he could not speak the local language. Thus, he naturally thought of one person, the translator he had captured.

So, Zhao Yu waved at Gao ya, asking her to bring all the staff out of the factory.

However, just as everyone came out from inside, another accident happened. For some reason, the interpreter officer turned around and ran!

The kun Peng reacted quickly and grabbed him. However, the translator lowered his head and knocked down the kun Peng as if he had gone crazy!

Then, with the handcuffs on, he went into the alley next to the factory ...

"Hello?"

Gao ya had already raised her rifle, and she could knock him down with one shot. However, Gao ya knew that this guy was an important figure and couldn't be killed easily, so she didn't pull the trigger.

"Chase ... Chase him ..." The exploration team members also knew the importance of this translator. A few young men immediately followed into the alley and chased after him.

However, they did not expect that just as they entered, they would all come back.

In the next second, the burly Kong Shuo walked out of the alley with the disheveled translator in his hand ...

It turned out that Kong Shuo was lying in ambush at the other end of the alley. When he saw the translator running away, he caught him red-handed.

“Uncle!” After seeing that the translator had been caught, the little boy’s face was filled with anger. He pulled his uncle and pointed at the translator. “This is the man who killed our family! Grandpa, father, mother, and sister ... They were all killed by them!”

Hearing the little boy’s words, everyone at the scene was filled with righteous indignation and gritted their teeth in anger, especially the little boy’s uncle. He raised his gun on the spot and wanted to shoot the translator!

“Wait!” At this moment, PU Jiayou appeared just in time. After he brought Wu diqiu and Yang Feng over, he stopped the little boy’s uncle and said, “this person is still useful. He knows a lot of information about the military of thachery! After the interrogation, hmm ...”

Halfway through his sentence, PU Jiayou realized that the other party could not understand his Chinese at all.

However, Kong Shuo and Yang Feng had been active in Central Asia for a long time, so they knew a little about the local language. They immediately translated PU Jiayou’s words, and the other party stopped.

“Um ...” After the other party calmed down, Kong Shuo asked the person at PU Jiayou’s signal, “may I ask if you have a phone number?” The kind that can make international long distance calls?”

“A phone?” The little boy’s uncle repeated and then said enthusiastically, “the village should have it! Come, come back to the village with us. I’ll get you a phone!” He pointed at the little boy. “You saved Kumar. We must express our gratitude ...”

Hmm ...

PU Jiayou and his team members looked at each other. After exchanging their opinions with their eyes, they immediately agreed to the other party’s suggestion.

Although they could continue to wait for rescue, it would be more beneficial if they could get in touch with Li Jing.

Moreover, after last night’s fierce battle, everyone was exhausted and needed to find a place to recover.

Seeing that PU Jiayou had agreed, the little boy’s uncle was very happy. He immediately led the group along the hillside path and walked towards their village ...

Chapter 1499: The latest news

The village was indeed not far away. They just had to go around a mountain.

The scale of the village was much larger than Zhao Yu had imagined, and it was not as poor as he had thought. Not only were the houses in the village made of bricks and tiles, but there were also many small buildings that were two or three stories high.

He didn’t expect that the uncle of the little boy, Kumar, would be the village chief. His name was Salman Khan. Although he was young, he had absolute prestige in the village.

Salman Khan received Zhao Yu and the others very warmly. Not only did he choose the best room for them to rest in, but he also specially slaughtered chickens and sheep, preparing a sumptuous meal for them.

Of course, what Zhao Yu and the rest were most concerned about was not the food, but the phone. Only by getting in touch with the base could he be out of danger.

This was beyond Zhao Yu's expectations. He didn't expect that there would really be a fixed phone installed in this remote mountain village, and that the phone could actually make international long-distance calls!

With this phone, the Secret Service team finally got in touch with the headquarters.

However, because it was a confidential matter, the phone call could only be made by Captain PU Jiayou personally. The others could only wait patiently outside the door, unable to hear the specific content of the call.

The phone call lasted for more than ten minutes before PU Jiayou walked out of the room with a serious expression.

When they saw PU Jiayou's expression, everyone was already mentally prepared. They felt that this matter might not be as optimistic as everyone had thought.

As expected, PU Jiayou didn't rush to explain the contents of the call. Instead, he first called the Secret Service team members into a room and held a short meeting for everyone.

Of course, Zhao Yu was also a member of the Secret Service team, so he was also qualified to participate.

"Everyone, officer Li just told me two pieces of news." After the door was closed, PU Jiayou immediately got to the point with a serious expression. "These two pieces of news ... Are not good news!"

Hearing PU Jiayou's opening speech, everyone's heart tensed up. No one said a word and they all listened attentively.

"First of all," PU Jiayou explained to the crowd, "as early as last night, officer Li persuaded the tartein authorities to send two helicopters from yelmaz into the Hayla Valley to meet us!

"But ... One of the planes broke down halfway and crashed!

"The pilot was seriously injured," PU Jiayou said, "so the other helicopter could only take the injured back ..."

"Tsk tsk ..." Hearing this news, Wu diqiu smacked his lips in disappointment. "Just as I thought, there's no decent helicopter in the entire tartein!

"Al!" He said gloomily, "if the plane had power, we would have opened champagne in tartein by now!"

"Officer Li can only deploy new helicopters from tashibian, but it will take a longer time. It's possible ..." PU Jiayou shook his head and said, "that will take three to five days!"

"No way? It's been so long, you should have enough time to drive a few from our country, right?" Kong Shuo didn't understand.

"Is it a problem with the mechanism?" Gao Shang asked, "it just so happens to be in time for the tartain election, and no one is qualified to approve it. Do you need diplomatic means?"

"No," PU Jiayou shook his head and said with a serious expression, "it's because of the second piece of bad news! Officer li told me that we were not the only ones who were attacked last night!"

"The 15 cities in the Western part of vachery have all been attacked to varying degrees. This means that a new round of internal war has begun!"

"Ah?" Upon hearing this, everyone was in an uproar.

"It can't be?" Kong Shuo scratched his head. "We're too unlucky! I have to buy a lottery ticket to go home ..."

"According to our preliminary Intel," PU Jiayou continued, "the Kashmir gang was the first to start the fight! We suspect that there's a certain European power behind this, supporting the Kashmir gang!"

"That's why they dared to make the first shot!"

"Oh ..." Gao ya said. "No wonder I saw that blue symbol last night. It looks like it's from the Kashmir sect. It seems like they were the ones who attacked us last night!"

"Yes," PU Jiayou said again, "the interpreter's worry last night has come true. Now, the kaschmier faction has already taken down Bodar state, and the sakreu faction has been completely defeated!"

"Wow ..." Wu diqiu said, "that is to say, they attacked two places at the same time?"

"Pedal bang is the old nest of the people of sakreu, and the village in the Neya Valley has the second most important person of the people of sakreu, the general ..."

"So ..." Gao Shang nodded. "If we attack from both sides, the people of Sacre will be without a leader! This move is really ruthless!"

"Let's not care about the situation in vacheria first," PU Jiayou interrupted their discussion and said, "let's look at our problem first!"

"It is precisely because of the war that broke out in valkries that ... Tartain's side has not dared to make a decision.

"At this time, no one would dare to let tarstein's military aircraft enter vakrya's territory. Once exposed, it could trigger a war between the two countries, and the consequences would be very serious ..."

"Tsk, tsk ..." Wu diqiu pouted again. "This is really troublesome!"

"However, we didn't communicate with him before. Now that we've contacted officer li, he decided to change the plan and pick us up with a normal civilian plane!"

"A civilian plane? Good idea!" Wu diqiu said excitedly, "I just saw that there is a flat ground in front of the factory that can be used for aircraft take-off and landing!"

“Hmm ...” Gao ya calculated the distance silently. “If it’s an ordinary plane, I’m afraid it’ll take less than three hours.” We’re saved!”

“Officer li is actively coordinating. Once there is a lead, he will contact us immediately! “So,” PU Jiayou pointed at the room with the phone, “we’ll be taking turns on duty from now on. The headquarters might call at any time, so we have to be prepared to evacuate at any time.”

“Then ...” Yang Feng asked worriedly, “where’s Tang Long? Did you find him?”

“Yes, the location is still there, and it has moved!” PU Jiayou said, “but I can’t get in touch with him no matter what! I’m guessing that his satellite phone is malfunctioning?”

“Captain ...” Gao Shang was a smart person, so he immediately noticed PU Jiayou’s lack of confidence. Without hiding anything, he said, “it’s also possible that ... He’s been ... Captured!”

After Gao ya’s words, the room fell silent. Everyone knew what would happen to Tang Long if he was captured! In such a war-torn situation, it was bound to be a disaster.

“Al!” PU Jiayou sighed and said, “I hope that the heavens will help that kid! At the moment, the mission is more important. As long as reinforcements arrive, we will be able to see the dawn of victory!”

“Before that, we can’t let our guard down. Although the mountain village is far away, we still have to make the necessary arrangements ...”

Then, Captain PU began to assign tasks to his team members, but Zhao Yu was no longer in the mood to listen.

At that very moment, as the big hexagram on the system interface was still shocking, it made Zhao Yu feel a little suffocated. He had a feeling that this super miracle adventure would definitely not be that simple ...

Chapter 1500: An unexpected accident

At noon, under the leadership of village chief Salman, the villagers set up a banquet in the village’s open-air square and served the local delicacies, such as roast chicken, roast goose, roast whole lamb, and all kinds of delicacies.

After days of running around, everyone was really hungry. They immediately ate heartily and didn’t stand on ceremony.

“My sister married into the village in the Nelia Valley ...” During the meal, Salman told everyone about the situation in the valley town. “I heard a long time ago that something similar to oil had appeared in the village, but I really didn’t know that it was actually usable oil!”

“If I had known that oil would cause a disaster, I would have brought my sister back earlier. “Sigh ...” Salman sighed, then said, “I really didn’t expect that the village in the depths of the canyon, so remote, would still attract the attention of the bunch of dictators!”

Having said that, Salman patted the little boy Kumar's head and said gratefully to everyone, "Kumar is lucky. Fortunately, he met all the good people here. Otherwise ..."

"Village chief," a nearby villager suddenly spoke up, "we've heard that the Kashmir people have already conquered the powder state and that the Sacre faction has been disbanded. We don't have to be afraid of them anymore!" What's the use of having that translator?"

"It is! They're serving the Tiger and are preying on the people. We've had enough!" "Let's execute him in the afternoon," said another young man, who was filled with righteous indignation. "Shall we use the punishment of the people of sacreus to execute him?"

"Yes, they didn't just kill your sister's family," the previous villager said. "They slaughtered the whole village. They are not human at all! We have to execute him!"

"Hmm ..." As PU Jiayou had tried to persuade Salman before, he looked at Captain PU hesitantly. He wanted to ask for Captain PU's opinion.

"Well ... It's like this!" PU Jiayou thought for a moment and advised, "after the village was attacked, the general and many soldiers died! Now, this translator was the only witness!

"Not only can he prove the massacre, he can also prove that they kidnapped our country's exploration team members ..." Captain PU said sincerely, "so, we need to take him away.

"But, please don't worry," PU Jiayou added, "this person's crime will not be exonerated. He will be tried by the International Court of Justice and pay the price for his sins!"

"Um ... This ..." Salman's expression changed slightly after hearing this. He pointed at the little boy and said, "isn't our Kumar also a witness? Can't you let him prove it for you?"

"Well, of course not. The child was an indirect witness, and the interpreter was the planner of the kidnapping, so ..."

Before PU Jiayou could finish, Gao ya immediately stopped him and said to Salman with a smile, "Village chief, we understand your feelings. In fact, we are all the same!

"Those people not only massacred the village, but also killed our citizens ..." Gao ya pointed to the exploration team members next to her, "so, we want them dead more than you do!

"But," she said elegantly and sincerely, "these crimes were not committed by the interpreter alone. Killing him alone won't satisfy anything!"

Salman finally listened to Gao Shang's words and nodded in understanding.

"So," Gao ya continued, "we need this person to make their crimes public and let the whole world know what they have done!

"This is the true revenge!!"

"Oh ..." This time, not only was Salman convinced, but even the impatient villagers also nodded their heads.

PU Jiayou looked at Gao ya with admiration and acknowledgment. It was the same logic, but it was easier for people to understand it when Gao ya said it this way.

“That’s true,” the villager from before said. “Perhaps it’s the best choice to let the Chinese take him away! Just think about it, although the Kashmir people had taken down the powder Kingdom, it didn’t mean that the Zachery sect was finished!

“Our village is under their jurisdiction. If someone finds out that we executed the general’s translator without permission, we might get ourselves killed!”

“That’s right, the Kashmir gang is the weakest! They’re even weaker than the flag organization! Who knows, maybe the news is fake!” Another one said, “if only Bodar state had not been conquered, then ... Tsk tsk ...”

Hmph ...

Zhao Yu listened to their discussion and thought to himself, these guys change their attitudes so quickly! Just a moment ago, he had been so confident that he would kill someone, but now, everything had turned 360 degrees ...

“Village chief,” an elder of the village said to Salman, “I think you should hurry up and contact the high-ranking officials you know. First, verify the information, and second, we can make early preparations!

“We are, after all, people of Sacre. If the kaschmier faction really gains power, it will definitely be disadvantageous to us!”

“Yes, yes yes yes ...” The old man’s words resonated with the crowd.

“In the past 30 years, I’ve already experienced more than 30 Wars!” The old man shook his head and sighed, “I really don’t know when this will end!”

“Village chief, village chief, village chief ...” Just as the old man finished sighing, a villager carrying a rifle suddenly ran to the scene in a panic and said to Salman in a hurry, “No... No... Not good!” There’s an Army outside the village!”

“Ah?”

Hearing this, not only was Salman and the other villagers shocked, but Zhao Yu and the others were also shocked.

“Army? Which unit?” Salman hurriedly asked.

“I ... I can’t see clearly, but ...” The reporter said in a panic, “the troops are coming from the direction of Bodar state!”

Plop ...

Upon hearing this, someone accidentally broke a plate ...

“Chief ... Chief ...” At this moment, another villager ran out of the house with the phone. He shouted at Salman, “quick, pick up the phone! It’s ... It’s the great general!”

“What? Great general?” Salman was at a loss. “Which general?”

“It’s ... It’s it’s it’s it’s it’s ...” The man’s face was pale with fear as he stammered, “it’s the general of Iron Man!”

BOOM!

After hearing that, Salman lost his balance and fell to the ground, knocking down a few stools ...

The next second, the villagers beside him quickly helped him up and ran to the house with the phone.

Zhao Yu and the others looked in the direction of their silhouettes and saw Wu diqiu walking out of the telephone room with a dazed look on his face. He had been waiting for Li Jing’s reply, but he had received a call from the general.

“This ... Is not fun anymore!” At this moment, Gao Shang put down the Lamb leg in her hand and said to the crowd with a solemn expression, “edkand tikhan, this man is the leader of Bodar state, the Supreme ruler of the entire Salman!!!”
