

Crazy 1551

Chapter 1551: There must be a problem

One late night, due to the new progress in the case, Zhao Yu didn't choose to rest like he usually did, but stayed in the office to analyze the case.

"No, I'm sure ..." Zeng ke said, holding a stack of information. "Team leader, none of their movements are exactly the same as the video murder case!"

"Except for Kang Ziqing, no one else has been on the payslip for eight years in a row, so ..." Zeng ke helplessly came to a conclusion. "Based on the current information, Kang Ziqing is the most suspicious!"

"Tsk tsk ..." Zhao Yu was also very surprised by the results of the inquiry.

He had thought that he would be able to find a new suspect through the investigation of the paychecks, but now it seemed that he was very disappointed.

Kang Ziqing's company had a high turnover rate. After searching through the entire salary bill, only Kang Ziqing's name had the highest appearance rate!

Moreover, due to the different needs of each film crew, the participating members were transferred from different places. Kang Ziqing's companions were constantly changing, and they basically didn't work with each other often.

As Zeng ke had said, throughout the entire payslip, Kang Ziqing was the only person who was close to the video murder case!

So, no matter how one looked at it, Kang Ziqing was still the biggest suspect!

Could it be that Cui Lizhu was right?

The case itself wasn't complicated, was he just overthinking it? Kang Ziqing was the only murderer? Did he kill all those girls? The murder video was also shot by him?

But ... Why?

Why ... Were there still so many suspicious points?

For example, in 2003 and 2004, he was still working normally, but why did the video murder case stop for two years?

Also, from the payslip, Kang Ziqing couldn't afford such an expensive camera. Where did he get it from? And how did he learn how to take pictures?

In addition, although the trajectory of his actions was very close to the video murder case, it was not a hundred percent consistent.

For example, the eighth victim, Gong Yili, was from Nanyang City, Guizhou Province. However, looking at Kang Ziqing's paychecks, he had never been to Guizhou.

During the period of time when Gong Yili was killed, he was helping out with a film crew in Nanjiang province, which was hundreds of kilometers away.

Although there was still a possibility of him committing the crime, why would he travel hundreds of kilometers to kill a girl he didn't know at all?

Why would the evidence about Kang Ziqing have such a strange phenomenon? He couldn't be completely eliminated, but he couldn't be 100% sure either?

Was he the murderer?

The more Zhao Yu thought about it, the more anxious he became. The anger in his heart suddenly burst out, and he felt a roar in his ears again ...

Damn it!

This time, Zhao Yu wasn't as anxious as before. He quickly sat down on the chair and forced himself to calm down.

"Team leader, are you alright?" Zeng ke had experienced this before. Seeing that Zhao Yu was in a bad state, he didn't rush to help him, but poured him a glass of hot water.

"I'm fine, I'm fine ..." Zhao Yu closed his eyes to calm himself down. He then felt that his ears had recovered a little, so he took the hot water and drank a few mouthfuls.

"It's too late today," Zeng ke said. "Why don't you leave this place to us?"

"No, there are still some things that I haven't figured out ..." Zhao Yu wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. "Don't worry, I know what I'm doing!"

Then, he returned to the whiteboard and continued to analyze the case.

"Al!" Zeng ke shook his head helplessly, then stood next to Zhao Yu and said, "the reason why this case is different from the ones we've dealt with before is that the biggest suspect, Kang Ziqing, has passed away!"

"If he was still alive, maybe we wouldn't have had such a hard time!"

"But then again ..." Zeng ke said, a little disappointed. "If Kang Ziqing is the real murderer, he is already dead. Even if we judge him and convict him, what can we do?"

"I've discussed this with Peipei before," Zeng ke said, looking at the whiteboard with melancholy in his eyes. "What would happen if this case was not brought up?"

"Peipei saw with her own eyes that Miao Xiaowen's family came to claim the bones ... Sigh ..." He sighed and said inexplicably, "do you think they would feel even worse when they learned that the murderer who killed their daughter had passed away?"

"I'm missing, but I still have something to think about. But now ..."

"Zeng ke, don't think too much about it," Zhao Yu said, looking at the whiteboard. "Our duty is to find out the truth. No matter how sad the truth is, we can't waver!"

“You can’t ignore the truth just because you’re afraid of exposing the scar!” Zhao Yu said resolutely, “the reason why I am so insistent is that I am afraid that there might be other circumstances in this case, and that the real murderer is someone else. So ... We must not close the case so easily without concrete evidence!”

“Kang Ziqing is dead, but if he’s the real murderer, we can’t let him go. However, if he’s not the real murderer, we can’t wrong a dead person!”

“Mm ... I understand,” Zeng ke nodded silently, then said, “I just thought about it. Didn’t Li Mo say that Kang Ziqing had the habit of petty theft?”

“Do you think the camera was stolen from a film crew? As long as we can find the record of the lost camera, will we be able to find some clues?”

“Yeah, why didn’t I think of that?” Zhao Yu suddenly perked up. “I’ll send a message to Cui Lizhu and ask her to focus on this matter!”

“But ...” Zhao Yu suddenly thought, “what if Kang Ziqing didn’t steal it? Don’t forget, his job was to transport props, equipment, and actors!”

“Could the camera be ready-made and placed in his car? It’s just for use. If you return it after you’ve used it, then you won’t have lost any records!”

“That’s true,” Zeng ke nodded, “but where’s the videotape?” Not only was the videotape expensive, but there was no place to buy it. It was all purely imported!

“I think the production team should be very strict with the control of the videotape, right?”

“Yes, we can indeed consider this ...”

Zhao Yu and Zeng ke discussed all the way until late at night, then they went back to their rooms to rest.

The good thing about Feng ping police station was that the lounge and the office were in the same corridor. The equipment and environment of the lounge were also quite good, almost the same as that of an express hotel.

Zhao Yu only felt tired after he had washed up.

This kind of fatigue was mental, and it made Zhao Yu, who was already in a bad state, even worse.

For the past few days, he had to rely on invisible sleeping pills to fall asleep. Although the system devices had no side effects, he still felt that he had become dependent on sleeping pills. If he did not use them, he would definitely not be able to sleep.

Fortunately, through his previous adventures, he had obtained a considerable amount of sleeping pills, dozens of them, so he did not need to restrain himself for the time being.

So, after getting into bed, Zhao Yu took out a sleeping pill and took it.

Just as she finished taking her medicine, she received a WeChat message. He opened it and saw that it was a message from Cui Lizhu.

“Boss, are you asleep? If you’re asleep, I’ll tell you tomorrow!”

This girl ...

Zhao Yu knew that cui Lizhu’s investigation task was of utmost importance, so he didn’t dare to neglect it. He immediately replied to her message, saying that he was about to go to bed, and asked her if there was any new information.

* Buzz Buzz ... *

As soon as the message was sent out, cui Lizhu called.”

“Boss, I want to talk to you,” cui Lizhu said, getting straight to the point.”I’ve already sent someone to check, and there are no other suspects in the film company.”

“I want to ask, do you still insist that Kang Ziqing is innocent?”

“This ...” Zhao Yu asked,”you came here so late at night just to ask me this question?”

“Of course not,” cui Lizhu said with a rare serious tone.”After the video call, I sent someone to contact Five of the employees who used to work with Kang Ziqing. After asking them over the phone, I got an important piece of information.

“They all said that when Kang Ziqing was working, he spent most of his money on drinking, smoking, and playing cards. However, he never had a partner, nor did he find a prostitute ...”

“Boss, Kang Ziqing was at the age where he was like a tiger. Don’t you think that’s a little unusual?”

“Even if he doesn’t have schizophrenia, there must be something wrong with his mind!” Cui Lizhu said.

Chapter 1552: -an old friend

The next morning, after Zhao Yu woke up, he didn’t have time to wash up, so he quickly called cui Lizhu. He couldn’t remember what he had talked about with cui Lizhu last night.

The last thing he remembered was that cui Lizhu had said that Kang Ziqing had never been with a woman, and then he didn’t know anything else ...

From this point of view, the effects of these sleeping pills were indeed very potent.

“Hello, Xiao Cui, Xiao Cui,” after the call was connected, he hurriedly asked cui Lizhu,”did anything happen between us last night?” Cough, no, no, where were we yesterday? I actually fell asleep!”

“You were asleep, but you scared me!” Cui Lizhu’s lazy voice came from the phone, which showed that she had been woken up by Zhao Yu’s call.”I asked Zeng ke to enter your room again to make sure that you were fine, then I was relieved.”

“Boss, listen to me, you should rest!” “Ever since you came back from valkries, you’ve been acting weird,” cui Lizhu said.

“It’s fine, it’s fine. Let’s continue. Let’s continue what we didn’t finish yesterday!” “Are you saying that Kang Ziqing is not interested in women?” Zhao Yu urged.

“Almost!” Cui Lizhu tried her best to wake up and said, “the girls who were killed in the video murder case were not raped by the murderer, which is enough to prove that the murderer killed them because he had some kind of psychological deformity.

“Do you think that Kang Ziqing’s son isn’t even his biological son? could it be that he’s not good in that area? Just like ... Like my dad Tao Xiang?”

“Um ... But ...” Zhao Yu recalled, “Kang Ziqing’s mother-in-law already admitted that the one with the problem was Li Shuping?”

“That’s not for sure,” Cui Lizhu said. “Kang Ziqing and his wife are both gone, so there’s no way to verify this! What if Li Shuping didn’t want her mother to know that Kang Ziqing was the one with the problem?”

“Sister Wu has always emphasized the importance of a murderer’s psychological profile. I think, if we analyze it carefully, Kang Ziqing actually has all the psychological characteristics of a perverted killer!”

“You little brat, Oh ... No, you little girl!” Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then sighed. “He can even use professional terms now. He’s really a master!”

“Don’t flatter me, I’m just trying to close the case quickly and get a bonus. My big house should be called property fees again!” Cui Lizhu said, “anyway, based on my current feeling, Kang Ziqing is the murderer! It can’t be wrong!

“If you still have doubts, then wait for me to gather more detailed information, and then you can make a judgment!”

“Okay,” Zhao Yu nodded, “then send me all the information you have, as well as the phone recordings of the people involved. I want to hear them for myself!”

“OK!” After Cui Lizhu agreed readily, she didn’t forget to add, “your ears have recovered again?”

Pa!

Zhao Yu hung up the phone.

After washing up, Zhao Yu returned to the office and listened to his team members report the latest situation.

Wu Xiumin told Zhao Yu that the third victim, Que Sha, who had disappeared in 2001, had also been in contact with the film crew that Kang Ziqing was in.

Que Sha was a tour guide in Nanjiang province’s Jin Hai city. She had once participated in the shooting of Jin Hai city’s tourism promotion film. The crew responsible for the shooting was none other than the crew that Kang Ziqing was in.

However, just like Miao Xiaowen, Que Sha also disappeared more than two months after the filming was completed.

At that time, Kang Ziqing was no longer in Jin Hai city. He had returned to Bei Cang.

In other words, although Kang Ziqing had interacted with some of the victims, when the victims went missing, they were not necessarily in the same city as the victims.

Of course, this data couldn't rule out Kang Ziqing's suspicion. In terms of time, he still had a chance.

"Maybe," Zeng Ke guessed. "Kang Ziqing did this on purpose to give himself an alibi, right?"

"Boss, I still have to go to the welfare Institute today," Ran Tao said to Zhao Yu. "Besides Kang Ziqing and Ouyang Dong, there are two other DNA samples in the bag.

"I think there are only three possibilities for these two DNA samples. One was left behind by someone who was especially close to Kang Ziqing. One was left behind by the rescue personnel who helped Kang Ziqing pack his things after his car accident. The other one was the staff of the welfare Institute!

"So, I'm planning to screen through everyone in the welfare Institute who might have come into contact with this bag to see if I can match it with anyone else. If we can identify both fingerprints, then Kang Ziqing would be the only one!"

"Mm, good! Go!" Zhao Yu nodded in agreement, then walked to the window of the office, looked out the window, and said, "the weather is really good today! It's very suitable ... To go out for a walk, right?"

"Boss, don't mess around!" Ran Tao, who had already taken his down jacket, pointed out the window and said, "it's 5-11 degrees Celsius, and the sky is full of dark clouds. You can't see any sunlight at all. Eh?"

Seeing Zhao Yu reaching for his coat, Ran Tao asked, "What's up? do you want to go to the welfare Institute with me?"

"No!" Zhao Yu held the coat in his arms and sighed, then said, "I'm not going the same way as you. I'm going to meet an old friend now!"

.....

An hour later, Feng Ping City, Zhao Yun Province First Prison, inside an interrogation room.

With the sound of iron chains, a felon was brought into the interrogation room by two fully armed prison guards. They stood in front of Zhao Yu.

The criminal had a shaved head and fair skin. Although he had the air of a scholar, there was an uneasy glint in his eyes.

After seeing Zhao Yu, the criminal was a little surprised, but then he sat in the interrogation chair with a sense of relief.

Crack, crack ...

The prison guard locked the prisoner's handcuffs and leg shackles, then turned and left the interrogation room, leaving only Zhao Yu and the serious criminal in the room.

"How have you been, officer Zhao?" The criminal smiled and greeted Zhao Yu, then said in a self-deprecating manner, "isn't my opening statement a little too cliché?"

"Hahaha, Han Kuan, you haven't changed much either!" Zhao Yu laughed, as if he was greeting an old friend. He pointed at his head and said, "that's right. You didn't have much hair on your head to begin with, so now that you've shaved it all off, you look even more energetic!"

It turned out that the death row criminal was none other than Han Kuan, the murderer who had once committed the devil case!

"Hmph!" Han Kuan looked at Zhao Yu with an evil look in his eyes and said, "it seems that the system in reality is different from the plot in my novel! I don't understand. It's been so long. Is it that hard to wait for a death sentence?"

"That's because you've committed too many crimes," Zhao Yu said. "The police haven't even finished all the follow-up work yet! Don't worry, that day is not far away!"

"Hu ..." Han Kuan looked up and took a deep breath. Then, he said nervously, "I hope this day will come sooner!" Then, I can meet ah ru ..."

At the mention of Han Kuan's wife, Zhang Jingru, Zhao Yu wanted to tease him a little more. However, he did not come to meet Han Kuan to argue with him, so he just sat in his seat and did not respond.

"Police officer Zhao ..." Han Kuan looked at Zhao Yu with an evil look and asked, "did you collect my book?" After I became a demon, wouldn't my books be even more valuable now? How many times has it increased?"

"Hmph!" Zhao Yu smiled and sighed. "Don't you know what it means to be deprived of political power for life? Your book has already been taken off the shelves, and you're not even allowed to sell it on Jingdong's Taobao! What increase?"

Chapter 1553: -misunderstanding

"It's a rare commodity," Han Kuan said with a smile. "Only when it's taken off the shelves will there be more room for appreciation!" You should collect more!

"But ... It's a pity that if I had known that the death sentence would take so long, I would have written a memoir about the devil case. It seems that even if I wrote it, I couldn't publish it, right?"

"When you're done, you can send the manuscript to me," Zhao Yu said. "Let me make a lot of money!"

"Hehe, don't joke around." Han Kuan was still staring at Zhao Yu with an evil look in his eyes. "Officer Zhao, you didn't come to see me at this time just to catch up with me, did you?"

"Smart!" Zhao Yu sighed deeply and said frankly, "I want to tell you about a case. Just take it as ... To relieve your boredom!"

"To be honest, I've met a serial killer who's even better than you. He killed in the same era as you, and some even before that ... Are you interested in hearing it?"

"There are!" Han Kuan said frankly, "you don't have to goad me into doing that. I'm a prisoner on death row who has been sentenced to death. Although I don't want to live anymore, I'd be happy to help you, officer Zhao."

"Satisfying!" Zhao Yu gave him a thumbs up and said, "but I have to correct one mistake. I'm not here to ask for your help. I just ... Want to confirm something with you."

“Confirm ... Did I fall into a misconception and think that all serial killers are like you?” he asked.

Upon hearing this, Han Kuan sat in the interrogation chair quietly. Obviously, he was ready to listen to the story.

“Yes, this is the feeling!” Zhao Yu stared at Han Kuan and said without reservation, “you were sitting there motionless. Although you were wearing handcuffs and shackles, you still gave off the feeling that you were in control of the whole situation!”

“It’s not the same. This is called preconceived notions,” Han Kuan said coldly. “Because you already know that I’m a murderous devil, that’s why you have that feeling!”

“No,” Zhao Yu shook his head, “actually, when we first met, I already felt that you were different! You’re calm, meticulous, and able to control your emotions ...”

Han Kuan shook his head and sighed. “That’s ironic. You sound like you’re complimenting yourself.”

“Yes, just like how you speak, sharp words, but you don’t move ...”

“This is where my problem lies!” Zhao Yu said seriously, “the murder case that I’m dealing with now is very similar to the case that you committed. So, according to my habits, I thought that the murderer was someone like you, or someone with a similar personality, who was knowledgeable, cultured, and smart, but ...”

“However, the suspect doesn’t match your established characteristics?” Han Kuan asked.

“Not only does it not fit, it’s the complete opposite!” Zhao Yu said, “the suspect is uncultured, often drunk, has a bad temper, is simple-minded, and is not good at controlling his emotions!”

“Interesting!” Han Kuan’s interest was finally piqued. He immediately opened his eyes wide and asked, “then let’s talk with the evidence. The evidence represents the truth!”

“The evidence is polarized. It can not be ruled out, nor can it be 100% certain!”

“Oh? Is that so?” Han Kuan thought for a moment, then said, “then why don’t you use the same method you used to subdue me? round after round of interrogation?” You’re so powerful, how can you not handle it?”

“This is the most interesting part of the case,” Zhao Yu said. “The suspect is a person who has already passed away, and before his death, he was in a vegetative state for eleven years!”

“We even got our DNA by opening coffins and performing an autopsy!”

Zhao Yu’s words surprised him, but he didn’t tell Han Kuan that the coffin was not actually opened by the suspect.

“There’s ... There’s actually such a case?” Han Kuan sighed with surprise. “If I had discovered it earlier, I could have written it into my novel, which would sell well well!”

"If that's the case, then let's not waste any more time. We don't seem to have much time, right?" Han Kuan urged, "I really want to know what kind of case it is that has troubled your famous police officer Zhao."

Due to Han Kuan's special identity, he was already a prisoner on the verge of death. He was also under special care and could not communicate with the outside world.

Hence, Zhao Yu was not worried that he would leak the case information, so he immediately told him the general situation of the video murder case.

Of course, as for the names of some people and places that appeared in the case, he still made them vague and did not tell them their real names.

Han Kuan listened very carefully. After listening to the story, he also felt that the case was indeed incredible and elusive.

Han Kuan frowned and said, "so ... The suspect, Kang Xia, is the most suspicious one. But ... It's really not easy to commit such a detailed case without being discovered for a long time!"

"Especially when killing people in the wild, it's actually very difficult to control. The possibility of an accident is very high!"

Indeed, Zhao Yu nodded slightly. The murderous demon was indeed extraordinary. He got to the point in one sentence.

Han Kuan seemed to have fallen into a state of meditation as he analyzed the situation on his own. "If I were the murderer, I would need to follow the victim for a long time, grasp her situation, and avoid any direct contact with her ..."

"We also need to prepare transportation, murder tools, and camera tools ..."

"As I'm killing people in the wild, I still have to observe the environment in advance to ensure my safety ..."

"I also need to ... I also need to predict the weather conditions in advance. Even a small detail can cause the assassination to fail or give myself away ..."

"Just like the last time I did it ..." Han Kuan's face twitched as he spoke. "So, the criminal must be a meticulous and thoughtful master ..."

"Officer Zhao, I now understand why this case is so difficult to solve! This man ... Is indeed more powerful than me!"

"Is that so?" Zhao Yu asked half-jokingly, "it seems that you have quite a lot of props, don't you?"

"Obviously ..." Han Kuan ignored Zhao Yu's joke and said with a serious expression, "although I committed so many crimes outdoors, it was obvious that I killed in a shorter time and used a faster method. At least, I could leave after killing!"

"But, the video murder case's murderer took more than 40 minutes to kill, and after he was done, he had to bury the body. It took at least one night."

"In addition to the video recording, this person really doesn't find it troublesome!

He then added, "also, there is one thing that you don't know. Even though I have killed so many people, I was inevitably nervous every time ..." Han Kuan fell into a painful memory, and his face was a little twisted. "So, I have never thought of using a video camera to leave anything behind ..."

"So, this murderer is much more powerful than me!

"Officer Zhao," han Kuan looked at Zhao Yu through his glasses and said, "this time, you've really met a master!"

Chapter 1554: A hint from the murderous demon

Zhao Yu looked at han Kuan and asked, "I've told you about the case. Do you have any ideas?"

"Humph!" Han Kuan looked up at Zhao Yu with his usual indifference and said, "didn't you just say that you don't need my help, but just want to find the feeling through me?"

"How is it? do you feel like you've found it?"

Zhao Yu was surprised to see that han Kuan had actually defeated him.

"But, you're right ..." Before Zhao Yu could say anything, han Kuan continued, "I'm just a murderer. What can I help you with?"

"Although I've written many detective novels, it's completely different from a real police case," han Kuan said frankly. "At this time, if I say something wrong, not only can I not help you, but I may also mislead you."

"Hmph, you're pretty strict!" Zhao Yu waved his hand and said, "don't worry. You don't have to worry about anything. Tell me what you've thought of. I'm here to find inspiration. I won't believe everything ..."

"Hehe ..."

Han Kuan raised his mouth and smiled, but his smile at this time made people feel even more scared.

"Officer Zhao," han Kuan said with a smile, "human beings are complicated animals!

Han Kuan then said frankly, "the murderer does look a bit like me, but in fact ... Our starting points are completely different. We can't even be compared at all."

"I think your confusion comes from the fact that the suspect's psychological characteristics don't match the murderer in your imagination?" He shook his head gently. "But people are multifaceted. After being stimulated, it's possible ... To change!

"The Kang you're talking about, what if ... What if ..."

"What if what?" Zhao Yu listened carefully and asked seriously.

“What if he’s pretending?” Han Kuan said, “he suddenly understood something that only a master would understand. The best disguise for a serial killer is to pretend to be an alcoholic, hot-tempered, unscrupulous, and sloppy person!”

Ah ...

Hearing Han Kuan’s words, Zhao Yu couldn’t help but take a deep breath, and he felt his hair stand on end.

If Kang Ziqing was really the kind of person that Han Kuan had described, then this case could be considered a classic crime.

A serial killer, in order to eliminate the suspicion, disguised himself as someone else. This ... This ... Isn’t this a little too shocking?

Would Kang Ziqing be that kind of person?

In an instant, all sorts of details from the past flashed through Zhao Yu’s mind.

Cui Lizhu reminded him that Kang Ziqing wasn’t interested in women. He didn’t have a girlfriend, and he had never had a mistress before. He might have some psychological problems ...

Kang Ziqing’s marriage had failed, and his son was not his biological son ...

Kang Ziqing used to drink and drive, and was almost fired by the company ...

Kang Ziqing spent most of his time drinking and playing cards ...

Li Mo said that Kang Ziqing was a lunatic. After being divorced for so many years, he still wrote to his ex-wife ...

There were 11 videotapes of the murder in Kang Ziqing’s bag, and it had been confirmed that the bag belonged to Kang Ziqing.

Also, Kang Ziqing had fallen into a vegetative state, but the recording had been preserved. Other than Ouyang Dong, no one else had come to look for him ...

Could it be ...

Could it be that the person who had lied to him was none other than the Xuanji Kang Ziqing who had been cremated?

If that was the case, then this video murder case was likely to become an unsolved case, and they would never be able to find out the truth!

Oh ...

In his excitement, Zhao Yu felt dazed, and his ears began to buzz.

“Officer Zhao,” Han Kuan looked at Zhao Yu and asked, “are you okay?” You don’t look too good!”

Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

Zhao Yu took a deep breath for a long time, then gradually felt better. He immediately pressed the hearing aid on his ear and said to han Kuan,

“It seems that I made a mistake coming here today.” Zhao Yu stood up with difficulty and made a gesture as if he was about to leave. “I actually hoped that a murderous devil could help me find another murderous devil, hehe ...”

“Police officer Zhao, please wait a moment ...” When Zhao Yu got up, han Kuan suddenly looked up and said with a disappointed look in his eyes, “I want to ask ... Is this our last meeting?”

“Hmm ...” Zhao Yu frowned and looked at han Kuan. He didn’t understand what han Kuan meant by that, so he replied without thinking, “maybe, on the day of your execution, I will come!”

“Oh ...” Hearing this, han Kuan nodded regretfully, then said, “in that case, I would like to thank you!”

“Ah? I didn’t hear wrong, did I? Thanks?” Zhao Yu was even more confused.

“Yes, thank you for catching me!” Han Kuantan said frankly, “if you hadn’t caught me, I wouldn’t have known how many sins I had committed!”

“People are right. I’m a devil. I actually ... Even ah ru ...” Han Kuan’s eyes were glistening. “I was wrong. From the first time I put on the devil mask, there was no turning back ...” He said.

Sigh ...

Although han Kuan’s words didn’t sound particularly clear, Zhao Yu could hear that he was full of remorse.

“You ...” Zhao Yu wanted to say a few words to comfort her, but when he opened his mouth, he didn’t know how to comfort a murderous demon who was about to be executed. Hence, she only said perfunctorily, “you ... Take care!”

Squeak ...

The heavy iron door made a grinding sound. When the interrogation room was completely closed, Zhao Yu’s heart was in a mess. His memories suddenly returned to the devil case.

Perhaps han Kuan’s crimes were unforgivable, but shouldn’t those who had turned han Kuan into a devil also bear some responsibility?

If han Kuan had not been bullied and hated, would everything have been different?

Sigh, what the hell is this?

When Zhao Yu walked out of the prison with several prison guards, he could not help but regret his decision to visit han Kuan today.

Not only did he not get any useful ideas about the video murder case, but it also made him feel depressed. It was really ... Um ... Um ...

Just as Zhao Yu walked out of the door and headed to the parking lot, his thoughts suddenly stopped at a certain moment.

Before han Kuan left, he said to himself, "Ever since he put on the devil mask for the first time, he could no longer turn back!

"First time ... First time ... Eh?" he said. Suddenly, Zhao Yu had an idea. He thought of something and stopped in his tracks. He calmed down and tried to chase after the thought.

Yes, the first time han Kuan became a devil, it was because he had enough of being bullied by a classmate, so he used the devil mask to scare the classmate to death. That was how the devil case began.

Then ... What about the video case in front of him?

The murderer's first time was not only right in front of him, but there was also a clear video recording. If ... If he could study it carefully, would he find something?

Would this first case be an important breakthrough for the case?

Chapter 1555: not the first time?

"Wei Qiqi!" In the office, Zhao Yu looked at the white board with the victim's information and said, "the first victim of the video case, Wei Qiqi, is from bei Cang city, Xijiang province. She disappeared in 1999. She was 27 years old when she disappeared, and she was a professional singer ..."

"Now, let's change our way of thinking and focus our attention on this girl. Let's see what the connection between her and Kang Ziqing is."

"So far, no direct connection has been found ..." Wu Xiumin, who had been in charge of the matter, replied. "It's been too long, and Wei Qiqi's parents are no longer alive. From the few people who have been interviewed so far, none of them have found out if Wei Qiqi has any contact with the film company that Kang Ziqing is working for."

"Then ..." Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then said, "cui Lizhu is still in Beicang, so let her handle this matter!" We must investigate carefully and in great detail. We can't miss a single clue!"

"Alright," he said. Wu Xiumin agreed, then immediately picked up her cell phone and contacted cui Lizhu.

"Wei Qiqi is a professional singer," Zeng ke said. "It sounds like it has something to do with the film company itself, right?"

"There's one more thing," Zhao Yu said. "The film company's headquarters is in bei Cang. Wei Qiqi's family lives in bei Cang, and her work is also in bei Cang ..."

"If Wei Qiqi and Kang Ziqing had a relationship, it didn't necessarily have to be a business relationship, so ..." Zhao Yu pointed at the white board. "This is the most important point in solving the case!"

"Wei Qiqi was the first victim. If Kang Ziqing was the murderer, then we need to figure out what caused Kang Ziqing to kill her, and we need to record the murder video!"

"If we can solve this mystery, the video murder case might be revealed ..."

“Then ...” Zeng ke asked, “besides interviewing the parties involved, what else can we do?”

“Bring me all the information on Wei Qiqi. We’ll watch it from the beginning to the end, word for word. And ... Mm ...” Zhao Yu’s face tensed up, and his voice lowered by an octave. “Watch the video of Wei Qiqi’s murder again!”

“This time, I’ll have to look more carefully than before!”

Half an hour later, while the other team members were looking through the victim Wei Qiqi’s information, Zhao Yu watched the video of Wei Qiqi’s murder in great detail.

This kind of investigation put a lot of psychological pressure on Zhao Yu. Looking at the victim’s frightened and desperate face, listening to her groan that she wanted to scream but couldn’t make a sound, and her body twitching violently when she was hurt ...

Zhao Yu could empathize with the man, and he wished that he could sneak into the video and beat up the cruel and perverted killer, then tear him apart alive!

However, the video took place in the distant past, and the life of the murdered girl had long been stopped at that cruel moment ...

“Indeed.” After watching it again, Zhao Yu finally found a few suspicious points that he had not noticed before. He immediately said to Zeng ke, “the video of Wei Qiqi’s murder does have some differences from the other videos!”

“Is that so?” “What’s the Difference?” Zeng ke asked.

“The murderer’s hands were shaking!” Zhao Yu showed Zeng ke a screenshot of the video he had observed. “Look, the murderer’s hand holding the knife was obviously trembling!”

“This means that it might be the murderer’s first time killing someone, and he seemed very nervous ...

“Also,” Zhao Yu switched to the next photo, “look here, the camera is slightly upturned, for about four or five seconds, the murderer’s arm didn’t move, which means that the murderer was looking up to observe the surrounding environment!”

“He might have heard something unusual, so the camera shook! “But ...” Zhao Yu continued to flip through the photos. “When he was sure that there was no danger, he continued with her violence ...

“This situation has been repeated many times in the video, which means that the murderer is very guilty ...”

“In addition, the stab was irregular and looked a little messy. The purpose was not particularly clear, but every stab was particularly fierce. It’s obvious that the murderer had an obvious hatred ...”

“Hatred? the murderer has a grudge with the deceased?” Zeng ke shook his head. “If there was a grudge between them, why couldn’t the police, who were investigating the disappearance case, find anything?”

“But ...” Zhao Yu recalled, “the murder videos after that were different! Especially in the later stages, it could be clearly seen that the murderer was already experienced. His hands no longer trembled, and his attacks were extremely fierce!

“Furthermore, he seems to have mastered some techniques and knows how to make the dead die less quickly ...”

“Detestable! You’re becoming more and more abnormal!” “If we had caught this murderer in the first place, there wouldn’t have been so many victims later!” Zeng ke cursed angrily.

“However, the case has already been solved, and the facts have already been revealed. “And ... What I’m most worried about,” Zhao Yu said, “is that Wei Qiqi isn’t the first victim!”

“What?” “No way!” Zeng ke was shocked.

“In the video, although the murderer seemed to be in a hurry ...” Zhao Yu said. “The rope he used to tie Wei Qiqi up was the same as the other victims. The things wrapped around his mouth were almost the same. This meant that he had already started to form his own killing pattern!

“I’m worried that there might have been other victims before this, but ... It wasn’t until Wei Qiqi started that the murderer started to use the camera to record the murder!”

“Oh my God, does that mean there’s a high chance that there are more than 11 victims in the video murder case?” Zeng ke said in pain, “this murderer is really a murderer!”

“Tsk tsk ...” Zhao Yu picked up Wei Qiqi’s information and read it out worriedly, “Wei Qiqi was a cheerful and lively girl, financially sound, and had a few relationships, but because of her profession, she didn’t get to the point of marriage ...

“I don’t know if it’s because she had some interaction with the murderer, or if it’s because the murderer looked for her like he was looking for prey. You see ...”

Zhao Yu clicked on the video again and took out one of the screenshots. He then said to Zeng ke, “Take a look at this screenshot. During the killing process, Wei Qiqi’s mouth was gagged, but her eyes were open!

“So, she should be able to see the murderer’s face, but if you look at her expression ... I can’t say, other than fear, what else does Wei Qiqi’s facial expression mean?”

“Hmm ...” Zeng ke took a look and guessed, “in addition to fear, there seems to be some ‘unexpected’ feeling.” Hmm...Why don’t...Why don’t we let sis Wu take a look!”

“I’ve already seen it ...” At this time, Wu Xiumin had just finished her phone call and came to Zhao Yu. “Zeng ke, you have good eyes!”

“Wei Qiqi’s pupils contracted, her expression tensed, and her eyebrows curved downwards. It’s the expression that a person would make after feeling ‘surprised’!”

“An accident?” Zhao Yu wondered what the victim’s expression meant.

"I can only think of two possibilities. When Wei Qiqi saw the murderer's face, she recognized him. However, she was extremely surprised! They thought that this person could not be the murderer!

"Secondly, the murderer was wearing a mask, and the mask surprised the victim ..."

Chapter 1556: detective Zhao's case-solving record

"I know that." After hearing Wu Xiumin's analysis, Zeng ke immediately played the video to a certain frame and said, "look, this is the light shining on the criminal from behind. This is the shadow of the criminal on the ground. Here ... Here ..."

He pointed to the shadow on the ground and said, "The video experts found that the shadows on the ground were protruding and deformed, which means that the murderer was wearing some kind of wide hat or mask!"

"Another mask!" Zhao Yu repeated, as he couldn't help but think of Han Kuan from the devil case.

Wu Xiumin said, "it seems that it will be difficult to solve the mystery with just the video. If we want to prove that Kang Ziqing is the murderer, we need more detailed evidence!"

"It seems like ... I can only make a trip to West River personally!" Zhao Yu looked up at Wu Xiumin and said, "Wu Xiumin, go and book the plane tickets now. We'll go to Beicang together!"

"Zeng ke," he then said to Zeng ke, "you and Ran Tao will stay in Feng ping and continue to investigate all the evidence, especially the murder video. See if you can find any useful clues."

"Oh, okay!" Zeng ke agreed.

"Since Beicang might be the starting point of the video murder," Zhao Yu looked out the window and said determinedly, "then we'll go to Xuanji in Beicang to find out the truth!"

.....

At Ten o'clock in the evening, Zhao Yu was the only one left in the Special Investigation Group office.

Since the flight was scheduled for the next morning, he was still at his desk, analyzing the information of the video murder case.

Through his long career as a detective, Zhao Yu had formed his own style of handling cases. When he handled a case, he needed to update the information at all times and grasp all the case information at all times. He couldn't miss out on any details.

Due to the large number of victims in the video murder case, its complexity was no less than that of the five major pending cases. The information collected every day was in folders, and Zhao Yu had to go through all the information in each folder.

In addition, during the investigation process, Zhao Yu could not be perfunctory. The important clues were often hidden in these seemingly ordinary pieces of information, so he needed to think carefully and carefully.

However, ever since he had the experience of the devil case, Zhao Yu had gotten used to such cumbersome paperwork.

Moreover, he realized that he could only calm down and think of things that he had not noticed before when he was reading information quietly.

At this moment, his thick notebook was almost half-filled with notes. All the notes were about the suspicious points of the video murder case or the investigation ideas.

Zhao Yu arranged the messages one by one, and there were more than eighty messages, such as:

1. The problem with 2003, why did the murderer stop killing for almost two years in 2003 and 2004? was it because the murderer himself had an accident? Or was it because the murderer had an accident in the process of killing?

Or perhaps, he never stopped killing, and the recording was just missing?

2. Weapon: through video identification, the murderer used a 30-centimeter long dagger. The blade should be made of stainless steel and a wooden handle. From the appearance, it has certain characteristics of a military dagger. It is suspected to be self-made. There is no similar weapon on the market.

Through comparison, the appearance of the weapon in the 11 videos had not changed, so it was likely to be the same ...

3. Sound: the video had a sound recording function on, so it could hear the victim's moans, the sound of the wind, the sound of leaves, etc., But it did not capture the voice of the murderer himself.

The murderer didn't say a word from the beginning to the end. It was unknown whether it was because of his personality or because he was trying to frame someone ...

.....

5. From the only video recording of Kang Ziqing, when he took the item from someone else, it was his left hand that welcomed it, so they suspected that he was left-handed. And the murderer killed with a knife in his right hand ...

[Additional information: after questioning Li Mo and the other people involved, it has been confirmed that Kang Ziqing is not left-handed ...]

.....

7. Camera problem: we've overlooked one thing. The 11 murder videos recorded by the murderer all came from the same camera model. If Kang Ziqing had stolen the film crew's camera by taking advantage of his position, how could he catch the same model or the same camera every time?

It had been confirmed that the company had never lost a camera, and had not even purchased this model of camera.

So, the camera was either owned by the murderer, or the murderer stole it from someone else, and it had nothing to do with the film company.

[Additional information: according to our investigation, although this model of video camera has been sold in China, due to its high price, the sales volume is not large.]

If he investigated, would he be able to find the potential suspect?

.....

9. When Kang Ziqing got into the car accident, he knew that the road was dangerous. Why did he risk driving at midnight?

.....

11. Salary-Kang Ziqing's salary at the film company wasn't high. He usually drank and played cards, so he had no savings. Then, what was he working so hard in the film and television company for for for eight years?

Could it be that this was also a motive for Kang Ziqing's murder? Was it because the crew could often come into contact with beautiful girls?

.....

Li Mo said that Kang Ziqing had taken a photo with a famous director before. Who is the director? Is there anything to investigate?

[Additional information: through Li Mo's investigation, he recalled that the person taking the photo with Kang Ziqing was the famous director, li Feifan. A thousand years ago, li Feifan was still a third-rate director. He wasn't very famous, but ever since he acted in the film "the legend of King Chu," his reputation rose and he's now an International Director ...]

[Second piece of information: after investigation, director li Feifan has been cleared of suspicion ...]

There were still two sets of DNA information left in Kang Ziqing's bag. How do I find out their identities ...

.....

The leaflet with Zhang He's photo on it had obvious grease and wrinkles. It seemed that someone had wrapped oily items in the leaflet.

Then what was the oily substance? Can you test it out?

The deceased's personal belongings ...

.....

What did the look in the deceased's eyes mean?

.....

Hu ...

Looking at the notebook full of questions, Zhao Yu couldn't help but let out a heavy breath, his eyebrows furrowed.

Thinking back to the past, when he was stuck in the investigation of the devil case, he thought that he would never encounter a case that was more difficult to solve than that.

However, the video murder case in front of him seemed to have achieved it.

The most bizarre thing was that, unlike the lack of clues in the devil case, the video murder case seemed to be full of all kinds of clues, and even the process of the murderer's murder was recorded as evidence, but why couldn't he solve the case?

Was it because the biggest suspect in this case, Kang Ziqing, was no longer alive?

Or was there something else holding him back? Had his thinking of solving the case ... Shifted, or had he gone into the wrong direction?

Kang Ziqing ...

Kang Ziqing ...

Zhao Yu looked up at Kang Ziqing's picture on the whiteboard, thinking hard. Gradually, his thoughts stopped at a new idea!

Eh?

Was it because of this Kang Ziqing that he was having such a hard time?

Could it be that ... She cared too much about this Kang Ziqing and put all her energy on him, so ... That she neglected some other things?

Some ... Very important things?

Chapter 1557: There's really a problem?

The next morning, on a certain road in Feng ping city.

Due to the freezing weather, the snow that had fallen a few days ago had yet to melt, and both sides of the road were covered in silver.

There were few pedestrians on the street, and the cold wind blew, making it slightly bleak.

Ran Tao drove Zhao Yu and Wu Xiumin to the airport in the Feng ping police car.

"Team leader," Wu Xiumin, who was wearing a red down jacket, turned to Zhao Yu and asked, "did you go to see han Kuan yesterday?"

As soon as Wu Xiumin said that, Ran Tao was shocked. He quickly turned around and asked, "han Kuan ... Didn't he already get the death sentence?" It hasn't been executed yet?"

"How did you know?" Zhao Yu didn't sleep at all last night, and he felt a little tired.

"I've seen your location," Wu Xiumin reminded him. "In addition to being my boss, you are also half a patient of mine. I need to know your situation at all times!"

Ran Tao couldn't help but interrupt, "boss, why did you go to see han Kuan?"

"It's nothing. I'm just looking for inspiration!" Zhao Yu said casually.

"Team leader, with all due respect, if there's a similar operation again, you'd better call me!" Wu Xiumin said seriously, "han Kuan is different from ordinary criminals. His words and actions may affect you."

"Come on, sis Wu, am I that weak? "I'm just looking for inspiration to solve the case, don't think too much about it ..." Zhao Yu was obviously dissatisfied with Wu Xiumin's doubts. "My psychiatrist, I know what I'm doing!" Are you afraid that I'll be bewitched by han Kuan?"

"You misunderstood me," Wu Xiumin said solemnly. "Strictly speaking, every serial killer has different psychological characteristics. I'm afraid that not only will you not be able to find inspiration from han Kuan, but you will also fall into some kind of misunderstanding, which is not good for us to solve the case!"

"Tsk tsk ..." Wu Xiumin's official rhetoric made Zhao Yu speechless. After a long time, he said, "you're too sensitive, sis. My mental state is fine now, and I can even tell the difference between real and fake!"

"A truly drunk person would never say that he was drunk!" Wu Xiumin's words were as cold as ice, and Zhao Yu was speechless again.

Zhao Yu started to regret bringing such a colleague who was like a housekeeper to Xi Jiang.

However, just as the two of them were talking, they suddenly realized that the car was slowing down.

The two of them looked forward and saw that the middle of the road had suddenly been closed. There was also a sign that said "please take a detour." He looked up and saw that something was built in the middle of the road, and a shelf was set up.

"It's so cold, what are you cultivating?" Ran Tao mumbled to himself and immediately turned the car to the right. He turned the car into a narrow path and was ready to make a detour.

However, just as the car drove on, it was suddenly stopped by something. Unexpectedly, a tilted trash can suddenly appeared in the middle of the road, blocking the car's path.

"What the hell is going on?" Ran Tao patted the steering wheel and looked around. Seeing that there was no one around, he opened the door and got out of the car.

Wu Xiumin saw that the trash can was quite big, so she immediately opened the car door and was about to go over to help Ran Tao.

As soon as the two of them got out of the car, the invisible detector in Zhao Yu's brain suddenly detected an unknown alarm. He saw an unknown thing quickly flying over from a high altitude!

"Ah!"

Not good!

Zhao Yu reacted quickly. As soon as he realized the danger, he immediately opened the car door and rushed toward Ran Tao and Wu Xiumin.

Because the things that were flying at him were so fast, Zhao Yu used all his strength and jumped out. With Ran Tao in his left hand and Wu Xiumin in his right hand, he pushed the two of them to the ground!

Ah ...

Ah ...

It happened so suddenly that Ran Tao and Wu Xiumin fell to the ground and screamed.

Bulletproof vest ...

The moment he fell to the ground, Zhao Yu took out an invisible bullet proof suit and protected Ran Tao and the other man under him.

However, an awkward thing happened a few seconds later. Zhao Yu pressed the two of them down, while turning his head to look at the thing that was passing by quickly.

Wu...Wuwu ...

A drone with four propellers was flying in the air. Not only was it flying very low, but it also looked like it was about to crash.

“Hey! Stop it, stop it ... Stop it!”

Soon, as the drone flew over the three of them, two little boys appeared from behind them. One of the boys anxiously shouted at the other boy,” “Stop it, you don’t know how to play, you’re going to fall!” As he said that, he grabbed the remote control and finally took control of the plane. After controlling the plane, he did not forget to complain to his companion,”do you know how expensive this plane is? If you break it, your dad can’t afford it even if he sells his car!

“Look at you, you even knocked over the trash can! It’s a good thing that you didn’t get hit by the car. This plane is for you to play with, really ...”

“Hmph.” The little boy who was holding the remote control was also angry. His nose slanted and he immediately muttered angrily,”miser, you can’t even play with the plane. I’m not playing with you anymore!” I’m going to do a life and death sniping ...”

The little boy with the remote control had to control the plane to land on the ground. He then picked up the plane and ran past Zhao Yu and the others.

After seeing Zhao Yu and the other two fall to the ground, the little boy was stunned for a moment, but he quickly ran away.

Suddenly, Zhao Yu felt like there were more than ten crows cawing in his ears, and it was extremely awkward.

“Hey, Zhao Yu, what are you doing?” Wu Xiumin broke free from Zhao Yu’s arms and complained with a surprised look on her face,”and you said you were in good condition? My newly bought down jacket is ... Tsk tsk ...”

“Yes, boss ...” Ran Tao got up from the other side, then helped Zhao Yu up as he sighed. “You didn’t think that someone would attack us here, did you?”

“Could he be the real murderer of the video murder case? Hehehe ...”

Zhao Yu didn’t care about Ran Tao’s sarcasm, but quickly observed his surroundings. It turned out that there was a small park next to the road, and the two children had run out of the small park.

Other than that, nothing else was seen ...

.....

A few hours later, Zhao Yu and Wu Xiumin got on the plane. He had planned to sleep as soon as he got on the plane, but because of the embarrassing incident that had happened earlier, how could he sleep?

This detector was just an ordinary child’s toy. How could it emit a danger alarm? What the hell was going on?

AI!

After this incident, Wu Xiumin would definitely think that her war syndrome was getting worse.

However, Zhao Yu was originally quite rooted, but now it seemed that he was starting to feel a little uncertain.

Ever since he started in Yuezhou, he always had a feeling of being on guard, as if something was watching him in the dark.

The emergency alarm in Guangzhou, the figure outside a breakfast shop in Feng ping, and the drone incident just now ... Was there really something wrong with his mind?

Chapter 1558: The story of the King of Hell and the dead ghost

In the afternoon, Zhao Yu and Wu Xiumin arrived at the Xijiang Provincial Police Department in Beicang city. They met with cui Lizhu, who had been waiting for them.

Although Zhao Yu had told cui Lizhu in advance to keep a low profile, as a legend in the criminal investigation world, Zhao Yu’s arrival still caused a big sensation. Flowers, applause, autographs, and photos ... The reception was no less than that of movie stars.

This time, Zhao Yu had an eye-opener too. He did not expect the Xijiang Provincial Office building to be so well-built. The building was fully equipped with modern equipment and was full of fresh technological elements.

Zhao Yu had been to so many police stations, but he had never seen one that was so advanced. As he entered, he even had the illusion that he was in a spaceship.

“Come on, boss!” When Zhao Yu took the elevator to a certain floor, cui Lizhu was ecstatic as she pulled Zhao Yu over and said, “we’ve arrived at my office. Come and take a look!” I guarantee that this is the first time you’re seeing ...”

As they spoke, the elevator door opened, and an extremely huge office hall appeared in front of them. The hall was spotless, and the lights were bright. Busy police officers and high-tech equipment could be seen everywhere.

“Wow, it’s so big ... Is this ... Is this all?” Zhao Yu was surprised.

“How is it? is it Grand?” Cui Lizhu proudly explained, “when I first came here to host the video murder case, the leaders of the provincial department used this office hall as my office. They also selected the best elites from all over the province to form a special task force ...”

“Here ...” Cui Lizhu pointed to the busy police officers and said, “we’ve been divided into 15 groups, and each group has its own role and coordinates with each other. The information that has been sent to you these past few days was found by them, and their work efficiency is amazing!”

“Here, take a look at this, look ...” The little girl excitedly pulled Zhao Yu to a large transparent screen in the middle of the office, put her hand on the screen, and said, “this is very advanced. The information we get every day is summarized and updated here. Look ...”

As she spoke, Cui Lizhu swiped her finger across the screen, and several folders suddenly appeared on the big screen. Xiao Cui pointed to one of the folders and said,

“Look, this folder is about the victims of the video case ...” Cui Lizhu used two fingers to swipe across the folder, and the photos of the 11 victims appeared. “Everyone’s information will be directly updated here. With this, I can more directly understand the details of all the victims!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu looked at the big screen with advanced technology and felt like he was watching a science fiction movie. “This ... Is not bad ...”

“No wonder the clues that you analyzed earlier were almost able to keep up with my speed!”

“Tsk, again!”

Cui Lizhu laughed at Zhao Yu’s boasting, then continued to introduce the other functions of the device, such as the device’s synchronization with the forensic Department, forensic doctor, and other departments. Once the other departments had the latest news, they could get the details immediately, which saved time.

In addition, the device also had an intelligent analysis function, which could compare and screen the entered data. It could even be connected to the National database and check the information in other databases in the shortest time possible.

“How is it? high-tech, right?” After the introduction, Cui Lizhu said proudly, “this set of equipment was originally used for Emergency Operations. I first brought it here to solve the case and tried it out ...”

“I think ...” Cui Lizhu patted Zhao Yu’s shoulder. “If we have this set of equipment, we’ll definitely be even more powerful!”

“Hehe ...” Zhao Yu smiled and said perfunctorily, “this machine is indeed good, as it can save a lot of time ... But, although it is good, it is still a machine! It can only play a supporting role, you can’t bet everything on it!”

“Yes, yes, yes!” Cui Lizhu happily pulled Zhao Yu into the office next to the big screen and said with a smile, “in the end, the decisive role will still be our great detective Zhao, right?” Hehehe ...

“Here ... Coffee ...” Cui Lizhu pointed to the coffee machine in the distance. “It’s made from ground coffee beans. Don’t think it’s bitter!”

“Forget it, forget it!” Zhao Yu quickly waved his hand, then pointed to Wu Xiumin, who was next to him, and said, “my family’s private doctor told me not to drink coffee! He’s afraid I’ll hallucinate ...”

Wu Xiumin looked at Zhao Yu with contempt, but didn’t say anything.

“Alright, I’ll have a glass of water then!” Cui Lizhu personally poured a glass of water for Zhao Yu and Wu Xiumin. After the other staff had left, she put away her cheerful smile and said to Zhao Yu seriously, “boss, you didn’t come to West River just to inspect my work, did you?”

“Tell me, is there a new situation?”

“Not really, but ...” Zhao Yu said, holding a glass of water. “When I was in Feng ping, I met han Kuan and got a revelation from him!”

“Ah? Han Kuan? Han Kuan from the Golden City? The ... The devil case?” Cui Lizhu was surprised. “He’s not dead yet? You ... You went to him to get a revelation? Oh my God, this is indeed a godly detective’s way of thinking ...

“So ... What did han Kuan give you?”

“Han Kuan said that if we want to investigate a serial killer, we have to understand the cause of it ...”

“You want to start from the first case?” Cui Lizhu’s eyes widened. “You want to focus on Wei Qiqi’s disappearance? No wonder you got sis Wu to call me yesterday and ask me to check Wei Qiqi’s information!

“I asked the special task force to start the investigation overnight. We’ve already visited dozens of people who used to know Wei Qiqi, but ... But, although they were in the same city, we still haven’t found any connection between Wei Qiqi and Kang Ziqing ...”

“Mm ... What if ...” Zhao Yu suddenly put the cup on the table and said with a playful look in his eyes, “Wei Qiqi and Kang Ziqing have nothing to do with each other?”

“Ah?” Cui Lizhu frowned, trying to figure out what Zhao Yu meant. “What are you thinking?”

“Wahaha ...” Zhao Yu laughed out of habit, then said proudly, “cui, to be honest with you, han Kuan only gave me a hint, but it’s more than enough for me, the Super smart detective Zhao!”

“With this hint, I’ve thought of a new idea. Perhaps this new idea is the key to solving the case!”

“Hmph, I told you! You won’t let go until you see the rabbit!” Cui Lizhu patted Zhao Yu and asked, “tell me, boss, what did you think of?”

“It’s like this,” Zhao Yu said. “Last night, I suddenly remembered a very old TV drama. The TV drama was about the King of Hell and the eighteen levels of hell. I remember that there was a line in the drama that was quite good.

“At that time, the King of Hell was interrogating a dead man of unknown origin. Some of his subordinates thought that the dead man had died unjustly and should be reincarnated; However, there were also people who felt that there was insufficient evidence for the dead ghost’s unjust death, so he should be sent to hell!

“In the end, at the critical moment, the King of Hell spoke. He said that as long as there was still a doubt, the truth had to be found before the trial could be carried out, so that the good people would not be wrongly judged!

“So ...” Zhao Yu raised his head and asked Cui Lizhu and Wu Xiumin, “now, do you understand what I mean?”

Chapter 1559: The law of criminal investigation

“You’re using Hades to say that as long as we don’t have 100% evidence, we can’t believe that Kang Ziqing is the murderer!” Cui Lizhu looked at him with disdain. “If that’s not the case, then why are we investigating day and night and collecting evidence?”

“If Kang Ziqing was found guilty earlier, the case would have been closed long ago!”

“Wrong, I didn’t just mean that ...” Zhao Yu rolled his eyes, then said, “the King of Hell’s words actually contain more profound truth!

“In the criminal investigation community, the term ‘no suspicious case’ is often mentioned. Some people think that this is a chance for the murderer to escape punishment, but from the perspective of real cases, it is an admirable law of criminal investigation ...”

As he spoke, Zhao Yu had already stood up from his chair. When he saw that the eye-catching big screen was facing the office, he walked over to the screen and touched it.

He didn’t expect the machine to be so advanced that it could be operated on the other side of the screen.

“Here ... Let’s take Kang Ziqing as an example ...” Zhao Yu found Kang Ziqing’s photo on the screen and pointed directly at the photo. “Why is it that the clues we got are polarized?”

“We can’t be sure that Kang Ziqing is guilty, but we can’t eliminate him from the suspect list either. Why is that?”

“.....”

“.....”

After Zhao Yu raised his question, Cui Lizhu and Wu Xiumin looked at each other, but neither of them said anything.

“Do you understand now?” Zhao Yu pointed at Kang Ziqing’s photo and said, “we might have made a mistake because of Kang Ziqing!”

Because the photo of Kang Ziqing was in a folder that represented him, as Zhao Yu clicked on it, the folder jumped around quickly, causing the screen to flash ...

"Any clues that we investigate are based on Kang Ziqing," Zhao Yu continued to click on the folder and said, "but what if we are wrong? We've been looking for the wrong person from the very beginning!"

As he got excited, Zhao Yu swiped his finger across the folder out of habit. He thought that he was holding a ballpoint pen in his hand and that he could draw a horizontal line on the photo to indicate that he had erased it!

In the end, it didn't matter if this line was swiped down, but a lot of folders flew out on the screen. The folders were like rain, flying faster and faster, and in the end, there were even a lot of garbled codes!

"....."

Suddenly, Zhao Yu heard the clear cawing of crows again ...

However, what was even more embarrassing was that, as the garbled code was scurrying around, Zhao Yu quickly reached out to swipe it. As a result, the red light on the display suddenly flashed. Obviously, Zhao Yu had broken someone's machine.

"You ... You can't blame me for this, right?" Zhao Yu looked at his finger, his expression extremely awkward. "You have to testify for me. I only scratched it lightly. Isn't that too weak?"

"Boss, I really have to give it to you ..." Cui Lizhu was speechless, while Wu Xiumin covered her face with her hands.

At this moment, the technicians who heard the alarm rushed into the office and began to fix the fault.

"Mm ..." Zhao Yu asked with concern, "such an expensive machine, did you buy insurance?"

"Boss," Cui Lizhu pressed Zhao Yu down on the chair and said sternly, "don't worry about the machine. Just tell me what you just said. What on earth did you think of?"

"What you're saying is the same as thinking that Kang Ziqing is innocent, isn't it?"

"Mm ..." Zhao Yu slowed down his thoughts and continued, "what I mean is, from now on, we should put Kang Ziqing aside and look around to see if there are any new suspects!"

Cui Lizhu let go of Zhao Yu and shook her head gloomily. "It's all nonsense!" She said. "Sis Wu ..." Cui Lizhu raised her eyebrows at Wu Xiumin. "Is my boss's condition getting worse?" she asked. Was there any meaning in beating around the bush?

"What's that idiom again? Mysticism?"

"Xuanxu!" Wu Xiumin corrected him.

"Hmph," Zhao Yu snorted coldly and said, still feeling good about himself, "it seems that you still haven't understood what I mean and followed my train of thought!"

"Then you should finish your sentence," Xiao Cui was also a little angry. She immediately put her hands on her waist and shouted, "Wei Qiqi has been missing for 19 years. Her parents have passed away, and those who used to know her have almost forgotten her."

"You want us to let go of Kang Ziqing and find a new suspect? even if there was such a person, we wouldn't be able to investigate!"

"Okay, okay, then I'll finish." Zhao Yu quickly opened his notebook, turned to a certain page, and said to Xiao Cui and Wu Xiumin, "come on, take a look. This is Li Mo's confession!" He said.

"Li Mo said that he saw Kang Ziqing send a letter to his mother, li Shuping. In the letter, there was a photo of him and a famous director ..."

"I know," Wu Xiumin said. "Li Mo remembered that the big director was li Feifan." Team leader, what are you trying to say? I've already checked li Feifan's information, and he's not a suspect ..."

"I know, I know...But ..." Zhao Yu pointed to the record in the book and said, "besides li Feifan, could there be another person with a similar identity to li Feifan?"

"I ... Um ... I ..." Cui Lizhu looked at the clues in the book and said hesitantly, "I think I kind of understand what you mean, but I can't express it ..."

"Because our eyes were fixed on Kang Ziqing, so we were too focused on tracing his tracks to remember that there was another possibility!" Zhao Yu turned to the next page of his notebook, pointed to a suspicious point, and said, "the basis of our investigation now is mostly from the salary bills of the film company."

"So, we were trapped in a narrow misunderstanding. We all stubbornly thought that if there was another suspect, it must be related to this bill!"

"But in reality, bills don't represent everything!" Zhao Yu said, "a film company shoots movies, advertisements, and TV series. Not everyone involved is paid by the film company, right?"

"Yes ... Yes ... I think I know why you mentioned director li Feifan," cui Lizhu said. "Film companies only pay their own employees, but for some cooperation projects, such as a director like li Feifan, it's different!"

"Some of the more famous directors and actors have their own companies or Studios, so they have to sign contracts with film companies ..."

"And these people have their own service team ..."

"That is to say ..." Cui Lizhu swallowed with difficulty, then asked in surprise, "the real murderer of the video murder case might be from Qianqian and her people?"

Chapter 1560: Another key point

"How is it? Isn't this line of thought reasonable?" Zhao Yu raised his eyebrows proudly, as if he had forgotten about the embarrassing incident of breaking the expensive machine. "I think that the reason why Kang Ziqing's route couldn't match the murderer's, and why we didn't find any suspicious people in the film company, is because of this!"

"Let's assume that there is a person who isn't an employee of a film company, but often works with the company, and often works in the same crew as Kang Ziqing, but they are not exactly the same. If his trajectory matches the video murder case, then this person might be the real murderer!" Zhao Yu said.

"Oh ..." Cui Lizhu's eyes widened as she suddenly realized something. "That is to say, when Kang Ziqing's tracks coincided with one of the victims, the person we're looking for happened to be working with Kang Ziqing!"

"And when Kang Ziqing's tracks don't match a victim's, and the victim didn't work with Kang Ziqing, but interacted with the victim, that's what you call 100% evidence!"

"Right, it might not be too difficult to find this person!" Zhao Yu continued, "first of all, he has a working relationship with a film company. We can check the company's work records or contracts!"

"Secondly, this person shouldn't be an ordinary employee because he has the money to buy expensive video cameras and imported videotapes ..."

"Yes," Cui Lizhu nodded in agreement. "This person also knows how to film. I think he's more likely to be a director or a photographer!"

"This person doesn't lack money, has a stable job, and likes to pursue excitement ..." Wu Xiumin agreed with Zhao Yu's speculation, so she immediately analyzed it with her professional knowledge. "Then, this person must have some extraordinary performance, but because he is in the art industry, it is often ignored ..."

"So, the feature I did before should be effective. To be able to shoot a murder video, it means that this person has a strong desire to show off. However, he is also an extremely introverted person, not good at talking, not good at expressing his inner feelings ..."

"The director is the kind of person who is always loud and arrogant. I feel that the possibility of it being the director is not high ..." Cui Lizhu speculated. "In that case, it should be easy to investigate. I'll send someone to investigate immediately ..."

"Wait a minute," Zhao Yu said in a hurry. "Don't forget the problem of 2003! The person you want to investigate must have done something between the beginning of 2003 and the end of 2004, so he didn't commit any crimes during that time!"

"Oh ..." Cui Lizhu nodded, then quickly ran out of the office to arrange tasks.

"Team leader ..." Wu Xiumin suggested to Zhao Yu, "I've seen the bill. There are many shareholders in the film company, and these people don't take their employees' salary bills. Shouldn't we check on them?"

"Oh," Zhao Yu nodded and said, "I've already asked Cui to investigate these people, but ... Because they are shareholders, they usually enjoy themselves and rarely go to the front lines with the crew, so they are not very suspicious!"

Di di ... Di di ...

At that time, after the staff had repaired and restarted the machine, the sky-high price machine had returned to normal. Someone reminded Zhao Yu that it could be used again.

“Alright then,” Zhao Yu looked at his fingers and said to one of the technicians, “please show me a map of Beicang city!” My fingers might have been blessed before, so I don’t want to cause you any more trouble ...”

The technician was confused, then quickly opened the satellite map of bei Cang city according to Zhao Yu’s request.

Looking at the large screen with advanced technology and extremely high resolution, one would feel as if they were high up in the sky. It was especially realistic.

At this time, cui Lizhu had finished assigning the tasks and returned to the office.

“Here,” Zhao Yu pointed to the screen and said, “one beginning and one end. I came to West River this time for another important idea!

“Excuse me,” he said to the technician, “show me the map of the great Moon Bay!”

“I’ll do it!” After cui Lizhu heard this, she immediately sent the technical staff away and personally zoomed in on the map of great Moon Bay on the big screen. She pointed to a certain location and said, “this is where Kang Ziqing had an accident!”

As she spoke, Xiao Cui gently drew a line, and a red symbol appeared on the map.

“Now, this place has become a highway, and the mountains have been reinforced. There will no longer be any large-scale natural disasters!”

“That’s not the point ...” Zhao Yu waved at cui Lizhu. “Lil ‘cui, tell me what happened in Kang Ziqing’s car accident in 2006!”

“No problem!” Cui Lizhu pointed at the map and said, “great Moon Bay is located in the eastern area of Beicang city. On September 19th, 2006, at two o’ clock in the night, Kang Ziqing drove a van from a film company alone. When he passed great Moon Bay from east to west, he was hit by a rock that fell from the mountain. The car fell off the cliff, and Kang Ziqing became a vegetable because of brain damage ...”

“From east to west ...” Zhao Yu emphasized. “That is to say, Kang Ziqing’s intention was to drive back to the city, right?”

“It should be!” Cui Lizhu nodded.

“Then ...” Zhao Yu asked again, “did you find out where Kang Ziqing lived at the time of the car accident?”

“Yes,” cui Lizhu answered honestly. “He doesn’t live there.” At that time, Kang Ziqing had just come back from work, and he didn’t have time to rent an apartment yet. ”

“Yeah, this is so strange!” Zhao Yu shook his head and said, “it was raining heavily that night. Even if he didn’t receive a disaster warning, he should have known that great Moon Bay was a very dangerous place ...

“He had no home to go back to. Why did he choose to return to Beicang city at that time?”

“It seems that we have already studied this question more than 80 times, right?” Cui Lizhu shook her head and said, “our suspicions are divided into two points. First, if Kang Ziqing is the real murderer, then he must have been found and was in a hurry to escape.

“Second, if Kang Ziqing isn’t the murderer, then he must have been discovered by the murderer, and the murderer is chasing after him!

“But ...” Cui Lizhu shook her head helplessly. “Based on the current situation, these two points are obviously not reliable. If Kang Ziqing had already been exposed, why didn’t anyone expose him?

“If he was being chased by the real murderer, why didn’t he take the videotape?”

“But,” Zhao Yu spread his hands and said, “there is another important question that we have not figured out yet. That day, Kang Ziqing went to great Moon Bay ... What did he do?”

“What?” When they heard this question, Cui Lizhu and Wu Xiumin were both stunned.

“Eh?” Cui Lizhu tried hard to recall, then said excitedly, “I’ve investigated this problem before. Wait a minute, wait a minute ...”

Then, Cui Lizhu closed the map and started to search through the many folders. She quickly found a folder marked with the year 2006.

“There, it’s here!” As she spoke, she opened the information. “This is what the Beicang team found. Kang Ziqing’s accident happened on the 19th, but his work was finished on the 17th.

“The handover record can prove that on the 18th, Kang Ziqing successfully returned from Guangzhou and sent the props and equipment to the film company.

“And after that, we couldn’t find any traces of him!” Cui Lizhu looked at the information carefully and said, “the investigation team tried to look up Kang Ziqing’s call history, but because it was too old, they couldn’t find anything!”

“In other words, no one knows what he did after he handed over the mission, right? “But ...” Zhao Yu said meaningfully, “don’t you think that, since Kang Ziqing had an accident at great Moon Bay, the other key point of the case is in this area?”
