Chapter 1591: bone search

Two days later, in an open space in the forest somewhere in the great Moon Bay Area of Beicang city, Xijiang province.

“Meow Meow ...” Zhao Yu, who had just rushed over from Jingzhou, saw Miao Ying and couldn’t wait to ask, “have you been in contact with your dad these few days?” How come I can’t find him?”

“Eh? I didn’t?” “What’s the matter?” Miao Ying was surprised. She didn’t know why Zhao Yu would mention his father when they just met.

“Mm ...”

Zhao Yu was speechless.

It turned out. Jecca called him again yesterday, asking how the case was going. When would he be able to fulfill his promise and help Jecca solve the unsolved case abroad?

Zhao Yu, of course, made up an excuse that his case was not closed yet.

As Juliet France had warned him not to get involved in Jecca’s case, Zhao Yu was a little indecisive and wanted to discuss it with his father-in-law, Miao kun.

However, for some reason, he had not been able to contact Miao kun. No one picked up the phone, and even when he asked the Secret Service, they only gave vague answers.

“What’s wrong?” Miao Ying thought of something and asked, “the case here hasn’t been settled yet, and you want to go back to secret services and take the risk?”

“No, no,” Zhao Yu shook his head. “I just have something to discuss with your father! Moreover, you haven’t been able to contact him for so many days. Aren’t you thinking about him?”

“Ahem!” Miao Ying pouted indifferently. “My dad is used to being mysterious. I guess he might have gone on some secret mission again. Just like the detective salon you attended last time?”

“I hope so! “But ...” Zhao Yu said, “it’s best to ask your mother and see what the situation is. He promised to give me a bottle of good wine last time, but he hasn’t fulfilled his promise yet!”

“You’re really something!” Miao Ying looked at Zhao Yu with contempt and agreed, “alright, when I’m done, I’ll call my mom!

“But ... Aiyoi!” At the mention of work, Miao Ying suddenly clapped her hands and shouted, “Oh no, oh no, I almost forgot about cui!”

Then, Miao Ying ran quickly to a police car and opened the trunk.

“Hello, Sister Miao, are you trying to suffocate me?” “You’re underestimating my ability. Why did you take so long to open the door?” cui Lizhu complained from the trunk.

Zhao Yu went over to take a look and saw Cui Lizhu lying in the trunk of the police car, an untied rope around her body.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry!" Miao Ying said apologetically, "Zhao Yu is here. I was too busy talking to him and forgot about you!"

"Eh? Boss is here?" Cui Lizhu sat up in the trunk excitedly, then gestured to the rope in her hand and said, "look, this rope can be easily broken!"

"Mm ... This is ..." Zhao Yu looked at Cui Lizhu, then at Miao Ying, then asked, "who can tell me what game you two are playing?"

"I'm not playing!" Miao Ying replied, "Lil' Cui and I are doing a rope experiment. We'll use Yun Duo'er's binding methods to tie Cui Lizhu up and see if she can break free."

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu understood, but immediately shook his head. "MeowMeow, you've chosen the wrong person!" He pointed at Cui Lizhu and said, "did you forget that Cui knows how to shrink her bones? No matter how strong the rope is, it won't be easy to tie her up!"

"No, no, no..." Cui Lizhu quickly clarified. "If it was the kind of bondage that the murderer used in the video murder case, I wouldn't be able to break free from my collarbone no matter what!"

"Right!" Miao Ying nodded. "We've already verified that the method Wei Qiqi was tied up with was not secure, and there was still a possibility of breaking free. However, the binding method was flawless, and the victim was unable to break free!"

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu nodded and started to wonder what this discovery meant.

"And," Cui Lizhu said, "we tried another method before, and it turns out that the movies were all lies!"

"A movie?" Zhao Yu was confused again.

"It's the same method Yun Duo'er used to tie people up in the movie 'sinful love'!" Miao Ying explained, "that kind of binding method looks strong, but it's actually flashy without substance. Even an ordinary person can easily break free, let alone Cui!"

"Oh ..." Zhao Yu finally understood. "Are you guys suspecting that when Yun Duo'er kidnapped Wei Qiqi, she used a binding method that she learned from the movies?"

"Right!" Cui Lizhu said, "we suspect that when Yun Duo'er kidnapped Wei Qiqi, her technique was not yet mature. She thought that she would be safe by tying her up like in the movies, but she didn't expect Wei Qiqi to break free from the ropes, so the two of them got into a fight ..."

"It was because of this that Yun Duo'er improved her technique of tying people up when she killed them later!"

"It can also be said that ..." Zhao Yu nodded and said, "when Yun Duo'er kidnapped and killed Wei Qiqi, she wasn't well prepared!"

"I think so too," Miao Ying agreed. "Wei Qiqi should be the first person Yun Duo'er killed. As long as we find Wei Qiqi's body, we'll be able to make an important discovery!"

“When we were interrogating her, the place that Yun Duo’ er was worried about could also be here!”

“I understand!” Zhao Yu nodded. “Otherwise, I wouldn’t be in Beicang now!”

“How is it?” He asked Miao Ying, “any progress in the search?”

“No...” Hearing the question, Miao Ying said with a little regret, “we have issued a reward to the local public media. Over the past few days, although we have received a lot of feedback, we have not been able to determine the location of the video or information about the water tower!”

“Yes, Beicang is too big,” Cui Lizhu added. “If we include the nearby provinces and cities, we have to search at least 100 square kilometers. The terrain here is complex, and it’s really difficult to determine the location of the video with just a vague water tower!”

“Hmm ...” Zhao Yu frowned.

“Team leader,” Miao Ying said. “We have contacted the relevant departments and found an electronic pulse radar that specializes in finding corpses. We have already started the search!”

“Oh? There’s such a divine weapon?” Zhao Yu asked, “what’s the principle behind this?”

“This is an instrument invented by the British to find the remains of cold cases,” Miao Ying explained. “After a corpse rots, some electrolytes in the blood and bone marrow will be broken down, which will attach to the bones or soil. The electronic pulse radar relies on capturing these electrolytes to find the bones!”

“Oh ...” Zhao Yu frowned. “But, what if we come across animal bones?”

“Well ... There’s no way to distinguish it at the moment. We can only dig it up and identify it!” Miao Ying replied.

“Since that’s the case, it’s still like finding a needle in a haystack!” Zhao Yu sighed, and his heart was shrouded in a layer of mist. He muttered, “this can’t do! We have to narrow down the scope to a certain area before we can put these instruments to use!”

“But ...” Cui Lizhu said, embarrassed. “We’ve tried all the ways, but if we can’t find the water tower, we can’t narrow down the search area!”

Chapter 1592: fishing for side sects

“We have consulted a lot of search experts,” Miao Ying continued to explain to Zhao Yu. “They proposed the world’s most advanced segmented detection method, which first uses satellite and remote sensing technology to find an area suitable for burial.

“After that, we’ll use the electronic pulse radar or other methods to identify the soil layer to conduct a ground search.” Miao Ying explained, “according to the experts, combined with the climate characteristics of Xijiang province, if the body was buried in soft soil, the soil layer would definitely sink after a certain period of time!

“Therefore, when we conduct a ground search, we will focus on the low-lying terrains or places with obvious characteristics.”

“Then ...” Zhao Yu asked, “what about the police dogs? Isn’t there a type of police dog that can search for corpses?”

“I can’t!” “No!” Miao Ying denied. “It’s been too long, and the corpse-hunting dogs are no longer useful!”

“Then ...” Zhao Yu said again, “didn’t you say that there was a special chemical reagent on the bones? Can you let the police dog smell it? And then search for it based on the smell?”

“We’ve already thought of this method,” Miao Ying said. “We’ve already contacted the relevant departments, and they’re trying to get the police dogs to search for the special smell.”

“But,” Miao Ying said worriedly, “the person in charge of the police dogs told us that police dogs have an innate sense of rejection for smells that they are particularly sensitive to.”

“So, I’m afraid that the chances of the police dogs being useful are not high ...”

Oh ...

Zhao Yu nodded, then suddenly remembered that he had a device called the invisible tracker.

This device was similar to a dog’s nose, which could identify the target by smell, and it was even more sensitive than a dog’s nose!

Then ... If I use this device, can I find the body by the smell of the chemical?

“In order to cooperate with our work, the Xijiang provincial Department also did their best! They’ve sent out almost all the available police force to help us search for Wei Qiqi’s body!” Miao Ying pointed at the police officers who were searching for him and said, “I really hope we can find him soon!”

“Boss, this is the information I got when I first came to Bei Cang to look for a corpse!” Cui Lizhu handed a stack of documents to Zhao Yu and said, “we have to consider one thing. Although Wei Qiqi disappeared in Beicang, Yun Duo’er might not have buried her there!”

“You know, Yun Duo’er has a car. Within a day after the kidnapping, she could run hundreds of kilometers,” Cui Lizhu said worriedly. “So, looking for the body is much more difficult than any of our previous cases. There are too many uncertainties!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded silently. He naturally understood this more than anyone else.

When they were investigating the headless female corpses case and the devil case, although it was a long time ago, at least the bodies were found first, so all the investigations could be carried out around the bodies.

However, the situation was the exact opposite. They only had 11 videos of the murder, but they did not know where the murderer had hidden the body.

It was like looking for a needle in a haystack!

"I've already informed Wu Xiumin," Miao Ying said. "Although Yun Duo'er won't say anything, we can try to get Li Feifan to recall Yun Duo'er's exact whereabouts when Wei Qiqi disappeared."

"I think," Miao Ying speculated, "if killing Wei Qiqi was a spontaneous decision, or if it was the first time she had killed someone, then Yun Duo'er wouldn't have moved her so far away!"

"I hope so! "But ..." Cui Lizhu finally reported a piece of good news to Zhao Yu. "When I first came here, I confirmed with the Civil Affairs Department that, during the construction of the city, no matter if they excavated ownerless human remains, they would record it!

"From 2010 onwards, no matter where the human remains were excavated, as long as they were unclaimed, they would be arranged to be buried together in Beicang city's Dongling Mountain Cemetery.

"We've sent people to check and compare a long time ago, but we haven't found any information that matches Wei Qiqi's.

"However, this program is only suitable for complete human remains. If they are scattered, they will not be preserved ..."

"Mm ..." After hearing this news, Zhao Yu's heart calmed down a little. After all, Wei Qiqi's skeleton was complete. If it had really been dug up, it would have been verified by the missing person database.

Therefore, there was a high possibility that Wei Qiqi's bones had not been dug out yet.

"However, the bones are dead, but the people are alive!" Zhao Yu continued, "regarding Wei Qiqi's murder, we can't follow conventional reasoning. Although they were both victims of the video murder case, the process of her death and the reason for it might be different from the other victims!

"So," Zhao Yu said to Miao Ying, "we still have to start investigating again from those who were familiar with Wei Qiqi when she was alive. Let's see if we can find any new clues from these people."

"Understood!" Miao Ying nodded in agreement. "I'll do it!"

While Miao Ying was making the call to arrange the investigation, Zhao Yu went through the information that Cui Lizhu had given him.

In order to find Wei Qiqi's body, the local police of West River had indeed put in a lot of effort, almost to the best of their abilities. Zhao Yu was especially impressed by their positive working attitude.

However, Cui Lizhu had also done her best.

Originally, Cui Lizhu was supposed to stay in the capital to prepare for Yun Duo'er's interrogation, but after she was done, she went back to Beicang with Miao Ying to continue looking for Wei Qiqi's body.

"Boss," Cui Lizhu said as she passed an electronic map to Zhao Yu. "Take a look at this map. The areas marked by red dotted lines are the areas we are currently searching.

"The areas marked with green dotted lines are areas that have already been searched.

"Take a look, do we need to make some changes?"

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded and started to look at the map.

Cui Lizhu sighed softly and said, “the experts said that it would take a whole year to search all the areas marked on the map!”

“Moreover, if there’s any mistake, I’m afraid we’ll never find it! Cui Lizhu clenched her fists and said, “we know that Yun Duo’ er is the murderer, and she knows where the body is buried. So, why can’t we make her say anything?”

“Who is the law protecting?”

“Cui,” Zhao Yu said, “don’t worry! An eye for an eye ... Oh no, the Justice of the heavens is long and loose! It wasn’t that he didn’t want to take revenge, it was just that the time hadn’t come yet!

“Don’t worry, bad people have to pay the price for doing bad things! And I was born to make them pay the price!”

“Al! I really miss the time when you were pretending to be a ghost in the case of the hanging coffins, but now you’ve become a good man, and I’m really not used to it!” Cui Lizhu bit her lip, and her big eyes suddenly sparkled as she said, “how about ... In order to solve the case and to uphold justice, we brothers, take on the side job again?”

Chapter 1593: water tower

That night, Zhao Yu suddenly woke up from his dream. He felt a chill on his back, and his forehead was covered in cold sweat.

“Phew ... Phew ...” Zhao Yu panted heavily. He looked up, but all he could see was darkness.

After a long time, he finally remembered where he was. He was sitting in a Mini Police electric car.

At this moment, the electric car went deep into the forest. The surroundings were dark and dense trees. It was so dark that one couldn’t see their fingers in front of them. It looked a little eerie.

Damn it!

Zhao Yu pinched his forehead and complained in his heart that he had fallen asleep.

Pa ...

The lights on the top of the electric scooter suddenly lit up, and a woman’s voice came from the driver’s seat in front.”

“Boss, you’re finally awake!”

The woman in the driver’s seat was Cui Lizhu. Just now, she had fallen asleep because of her sleepiness. When she heard the noise, she quickly turned around and asked Zhao Yu with sleepy eyes,”

“Look at your pale face. What’s wrong? did you have a nightmare?”

“Mm ... Mm mm ...” Zhao Yu swallowed his saliva and gasped for breath. “I just dreamed of that person ... The one with special powers, the one who could find the body by touching the deceased’s belongings!”

“We asked him to come over and help us find the victims’ bones, but that guy offered ten million, saying that one million for each bone, and that he would give us a discount, saying that we would be paid for every ten bones!

“Motherf * cker, he’s actually making a deal!”

“I’ll go!” Cui Lizhu narrowed her eyes. “Your dream is so unique! However, the number is wrong. Have you forgotten that we already have Miao Xiaowen’s body? Even if that guy can find more, he should be able to find ten more, right?”

“Cough! It’s just a dream!”

Zhao Yu wiped off his cold sweat. He felt a little cold, so he wrapped his coat tightly around himself and looked out of the electric car.

Although the Beicang region was located in the South and had a mild climate, it was still a little cold in the middle of the night in the wilderness.

Especially when Zhao Yu felt that the cold did not come from the outside world, but from his own heart.

“But then again,” Cui Lizhu said seriously, “if there really is such a great deity, why don’t we try to invite him?”

“If he could find Wei Qiqi’s bones just by touching her belongings, wouldn’t that save us a lot of effort?”

“It seems like ... Even if we really give him a million, it’s still quite worth it, right?”

“Alright, let’s not talk about this anymore!” Zhao Yu waved his hand and said, “the last time the tartein exploration team went missing, Division Chief Jiao asked someone to look for that guy, but I heard that he had already gone missing. His whereabouts are unknown!”

“Damn, that’s so ironic!” Cui Lizhu pouted and said, “the missing person master disappeared on his own? that’s funny!”

“Boss,” Cui Lizhu turned around and asked seriously, “how was the idea I gave you this morning? Should we look for some of the people in the South who often fight to the death and ask them to help us find Wei Qiqi’s remains?”

“Al! I already said no!” Zhao Yu grinned. “The police found a group of grave robbers to cooperate in the search for the body. If word got out, wouldn’t people laugh their heads off? Where should I put my face as an unsolved case cleaner?”

“Besides, grave robbing is a crime. Who would dare to work with us?”

“Ahem!” Cui Lizhu said, “are you stupid? Who said they had to find the current grave robber? We can go to the prison and look for those arrested and sentenced grave robbers!”

“Tell them that as long as they can help us find the body, their sentence will be reduced. They will definitely be more than happy to do so!”

“Go to hell!” Zhao Yu shook his head. “Do you know how troublesome it is to do this kind of bail procedure? Grave robbers were also divided into different ranks. How could the prison easily release those who had committed serious crimes?”

“Besides,” Zhao Yu said! “I’ve dealt with grave robbers many times in the past. They used their skills to search for ancient tombs, which is different from looking for human bones!”

“This side gate of ours is not feasible at all!”

“Alright then,” cui Lizhu pouted and complained, “if my idea doesn’t work, then tell me, what are you trying to do now?”

“You want me to drive an electric car around in the middle of the night and find Wei Qiqi’s body?”

“Um ... This ...”

It turned out that there was a reason why Zhao Yu and cui Lizhu had come out in the middle of the night in an electric car.

The reason was that Zhao Yu had already activated his invisible tracking device and was looking for the chemical substance called hydrazine enamine!

He first used the tracker to lock onto the smell of the chemical, then asked cui Lizhu to drive the electric car and start a carpet search according to the established route.

This way, as long as he passed by the place where the bones were buried, the tracker would send out an alarm and he would find Wei Qiqi’s bones.

Although it was still very troublesome, it was much faster than using the electronic pulse radar!

In order to maximize the tracking device’s effect, Zhao Yu spent 2000 points to extend the device’s usage time and strengthen the tracking range.

If everything went well, he would be able to search a large area and speed up the search.

However, although the plan was good, it was not easy to implement. Even if they used the smaller and more flexible police electric vehicles, there were still many complicated terrains or places with dense trees that they couldn’t enter.

Therefore, sometimes, in order not to fall behind in any corner, he had to walk.

When it was four o’ clock in the middle of the night, he and cui Lizhu were so exhausted that they both fell asleep in the electric car.

At that moment, cui asked the same question again, so Zhao Yu had to use his previous excuse to avoid her question.

“Didn’t I tell you? I’m here to get the feeling!”

“Yun Duo’ er always kills in the middle of the night. I want to experience her state of mind at that time and capture which places she likes to choose ...”

“Tsk!” Cui Lizhu shook her head helplessly. “I’m really possessed! It’s the middle of the night, and we’re alone in the wilderness. If it weren’t for my sister Miao’s magnanimity, we wouldn’t have been able to clear things up sooner or later ...”

“Hehehe ...” Zhao Yu couldn’t help but laugh at the mention of this. “What, do you want to molest me at night? I’m telling you, my self-control is very weak, hehehe ...”

Zhao Yu had just revealed a sinister smile, when his phone suddenly rang. He was so shocked that he shivered.

He looked down and saw that Miao Ying had sent him a message.

“Why? did sister Miao send it? “Hahaha ...” Cui Lizhu laughed so hard that she bent over. Is this retribution?”

Zhao Yu didn’t care about Cui Lizhu’s sarcasm, but quickly checked his phone.

He saw that Miao Ying had sent him a screenshot of a Weibo post, and on the screenshot, there was a comment from an enthusiastic crowd:

“Officer, I recognize the grass in the picture. It’s the kind with white oval flowers ...

“That flower is called the winter silver flower in our local area. When I was young, I often saw it near my house. That kind of flower is a little similar to dandelions. It can be blown open with a single blow. When we were young, we were bored and often blew it with our friends!

“Also, as far as I know, the eastern silver flower likes the shade, and usually only grows in especially humid places, such as by a River or a Lake ...”

Wintersilver grass?

Zhao Yu didn’t quite understand why Miao Ying would send him this screenshot in the middle of the night.

Di di ...

Soon, Miao Ying’s voice message came on the phone.

“Zhao Yu, take a good look!” Miao Ying said, “if this plant only grows near the water, then the building that appeared behind us can’t be a water tower!”

Chapter 1594: What exactly is it?

“Isn’t it the water tower?” Zhao Yu opened the picture on his phone and re-opened the screenshot of the water tower from the video of Wei Qiqi’s murder. He then looked at it carefully.

“That’s true ...” Cui Lizhu came over and said, “I heard from my dad that the purpose of building a water tower in the past was because tap water was not yet universal, and the residents needed to solve the water shortage problem, so they had to build a water tower.”

“It’s used to extract underground water and store water ...”

“So,” Zhao Yu nodded, “water towers are generally built in places where there are human settlements, in places with a dense population distribution and difficult to get water!”

“But the area around the crescent Bay is filled with water,” Cui Lizhu said. “There is no need to build a water tower at all! People only needed to go into the river to easily get water. Moreover, this place was not a densely populated place!”

“Yun Duo’er wouldn’t have chosen a densely populated place to attack, so we must have made a mistake ...”

“The building in the video is too blurry. It flashed past in the video, and it was far away in the dark of the night ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the picture on his mobile phone and said, “if it’s not a water tower, then ... What else could it be?”

“Do you still need to ask?” Cui Lizhu said without hesitation, “if it’s not a water tower, then it can only be a Lighthouse! Although Xijiang province isn’t near the sea, it’s the place with the most rivers and lakes in our country. The shipping industry is well-developed, and the thing in the video is very likely a Lighthouse to guide the ships!”

“That means ...” Zhao Yu said, “there’s a river where Yun Duo’er killed Wei Qiqi? Or ... By the lake?”

“To be honest,” Cui Lizhu frowned and said, “if we can’t recognize which Lighthouse this is, then our actual search area has not been reduced by much!”

“Take Bei Cang for example. There are hundreds of lakes of different sizes. How do we find them?”

“There should be ... A chance, right?” Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then said, “regardless of whether it’s a River or a Lake, the lighthouse must be built very close to the dock! We just need to search the waterway Pier, and we’ll be able to find it, right?”

“That’s true ...” Cui Lizhu nodded. “The number of lighthouses should be much less than the water tower, right? We’ll check them one by one, do you think we won’t find anything?”

“Right!”

Zhao Yu looked at the invisible tracking device in his brain. It had already expired.

After all, the number of this device was limited. If he could narrow the search area and then use the tracker to find it, he might be able to get twice the result with half the effort.

Hence, Zhao Yu immediately told Cui Lizhu to return home and continue the search the next day.

However, something depressing happened. The battery of the electric car had run out. The two of them had to contact the local police. When they returned to the Xijiang Provincial Office from the wilderness, it was almost dawn.

The next morning, Zhao Yu and Cui Lizhu had a cup of hot tea, and felt a little warmer.

Last night, the two of them were tired and cold, and they had suffered a lot.

“Something’s not right!” At this time, Miao Ying, who had also not slept all night, suddenly came in front of the two of them and handed a document to Zhao Yu. She said, “last night, we investigated all the information on the lighthouses in Beicang city, but ...

“Look ...” Miao Ying pointed to the report on the last page of the information and said, “whether it’s the height or the shape, there is a big difference from the building in the video!”

“Oh?”

Zhao Yu looked at the report carefully. Indeed, the lighthouses in Xijiang province were generally more than 10 meters tall, much higher than the buildings in the video.

Moreover, lighthouses were mostly cylindrical in shape, which was obviously different from the buildings in the video.

“The local experts told us,” Miao Ying said, “although Xijiang province is densely covered with water, the boatmen have passed down the lighthouses for generations, so there are not many places where lighthouses are used.

“It’s only used in several open sea routes near Panyang Lake, so ...” Miao Ying said solemnly, “the possibility of it being a Lighthouse is very small!

“Judging from its appearance, the probability of it being a water tower is still very high!”

“In that case ...” Zhao Yu frowned and guessed, “could there be such a situation? That thing was actually a water tower. The water tower was originally built in a human settlement.

“However, due to the geographical environment, the human settlement disappeared, and the water tower was abandoned?”

“Look ...” Zhao Yu pointed to the picture and said, “although I can only see a silhouette, it seems that the thing is very old. Maybe the water tower was built before the liberation?”

“Hmm ...” Miao Ying thought for a moment, then said, “in that case, we’ll have to find some historical experts to investigate in detail!” Take a look around Beicang and see if there are any abandoned human settlements or large factories ...”

“Eh? Wait a minute!” Suddenly, Cui Lizhu stood up, grabbed Zhao Yu’s phone, and pointed at the photo. “This ... This ... Could it be ...”

“Eh? Which one? What?” Zhao Yu squinted his eyes.

“Didn’t you just say that she looked like a pre-liberation woman?” Cui Lizhu said, “do you guys think that this thing is a cannon?”

“What!?” Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were shocked at the same time. Zhao Yu blurted out, “a cannon?”

“Yes, Xijiang province is an old revolutionary area ...” Cui Lizhu said. “It’s not strange to have a turret, right? Do you guys know? When I was in Nanjiang, my dad was being hunted down and he even brought me to live in a turret!”

“This ...” Zhao Yu looked at Miao Ying and was a little surprised.

“I think that the possibility is very high!” Cui Lizhu said, “take a closer look at the shape of this thing. Doesn’t it look like a large grenade? Aren’t all the cannons like this?”

“It’s really ...” Zhao Yu said. “Because it looked so similar to a water tower, at first glance, we all thought it was a water tower! However, in reality ...”

“Oh ... If it’s a guardhouse ...” Miao Ying said. “That’ll be easy to find! Both the government and the public have their own specialized research organizations. I’ll contact them now ...”

Then, Miao Ying left the office in a hurry.

“Wow ...” Cui Lizhu said excitedly. “Boss, if I’m right, does that mean I’ve made another great contribution?”

“Isn’t it too early to be happy? The eight words haven’t even taken shape yet!” Zhao Yu sighed. “To find the turret, we have to find Wei Qiqi’s body. If we can find Wei Qiqi’s body and Yun Duo’ er’s evidence, our future will still be bleak!”

“Mm ...” Cui Lizhu clasped her hands together and prayed, “Wei Qiqi, you have to work hard!” We promise you that we will do our best to find you, but we also hope that you can bring us a surprise! Let’s bring the murderer who killed you to justice and avenge you ...”

Looking at Cui Lizhu’s sincere face, Zhao Yu wanted to say something more, but he suddenly received a new message on his phone.

This time, the message was from Ran Tao in the capital.

Ran Tao told Zhao Yu that he had followed Zhao Yu’s instructions and went to Tsinghua University’s high school with Wu Xiumin to ask Li Xinghong, the son of the Li Feifan couple.

Zhao Yu felt that, although Li Xinghong was still a fifteen-year-old middle school student, they could not ignore this crucial person.

So, he asked Ran Tao and Wu Xiumin to go to Li Xinghong’s school for a detailed inquiry.

However, the result of this inquiry was not ideal.

Li Xinghong had been attending a boarding school since he was in the fourth grade of elementary school. His holidays were often occupied by many training classes. He would only go home on New Year’s or special days, so he did not spend much time with Li Feifan and his wife.

The child had already confirmed that his parents’ relationship had broken down, and both parties were just maintaining the family through the process, letting outsiders think that they were living in harmony.

As for the rest of the situation, the child had no idea.

Li xinghong expressed that he had never seen his mother use any video recorder, nor did he notice anything special about Yun Duo' er.

Therefore, li xinghong did not provide any important clues for the case ...

Zhao Yu had just finished reading the message that Ran Tao sent him, when Miao Ying called.

"Hey, team leader," Miao Ying said excitedly, "come to the technical room now!" The building in the video might really be a turret. Maybe ... We already know where Wei Qiqi is buried ..."

Chapter 1595: waiting

At noon that day, in the wilderness of Luling city, Xijiang province.

Luling city was adjacent to Beicang city, less than 50 kilometers apart. It was named so because the Luling River, a tributary of the GaN River, the largest river in Xijiang province, flowed through this place.

Zhao Yu and his team arrived here, led by the local experts. If the clues they found were right, then the location where Yun Duo' er killed Wei Qiqi and the video was taken was in this area.

"The turret collapsed in 2010!" As the group entered the search area, Miao Ying explained to Zhao Yu, "the guardhouse was indeed built during the Anti-Japanese War. We found a local modern history expert, and according to the information they provided, we can almost be sure that the building in the murder video is this kind of guardhouse!

"Among them, a collector has provided us with the location of all the turrets and their specific information. According to our analysis, the one closest to the video is right here!"

Following Miao Ying's introduction, Zhao Yu, who was standing at a high point, could see a large river flowing in the distance. On the east bank of the river, there were dense bushes, and on the edge of the bushes, there was a vast forest area.

As soon as he arrived, Zhao Yu felt the blood in his body flow faster, because the plants in the forest before his eyes were very similar to the scene in the video of Wei Qiqi's murder.

Not long after the group entered the forest, Zhao Yu saw a plant called the winter silver flower among the low bushes. This plant had white oval-shaped flowers, and its appearance was indeed very similar to dandelions.

Seeing this, Zhao Yu couldn't help but feel even more excited. His heart was filled with hope. It seemed that they were getting closer and closer to the answer that they had been dreaming of!

After a quarter of an hour, the group passed through the forest and came to a higher place near the river. They finally saw the ruins of the turret.

Only the base of the collapsed turret was left. There were gravel and rubble everywhere. Against the damp and cold air by the river, it looked particularly bleak.

"In the video of Wei Qiqi's murder, you can see some stars on the upper left side of the turret ..." Miao Ying continued. "Through the identification of the astronomers, they recognized that a few stars belonged to the Western Pisces constellation. That is to say, the location where Wei Qiqi was killed should be on the east side of the turret!

“Look ...” Miao Ying showed Zhao Yu a set of data on her mobile phone. “This is the approximate distance calculated by the experts based on the video.

“Based on this distance, we have narrowed the search area to less than 10000 square meters. Someone has already checked it just now, and the vegetation covering that area matches the height of the scene in the video!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu nodded and said, “that is to say, we can start now?”

“Right!” Miao Ying said, “all the departments are ready. Zhang Peipei’s forensic team has also arrived at the scene. Once they find any suspicious bones, they will deal with them and compare them immediately!”

“Very good,” Zhao Yu said, waving his hand. “Then what are you waiting for? Make your move!”

With Zhao Yu’s order, the police and scientific researchers, who were already prepared, got into action. They carried out a detailed search in the designated area.

“I don’t know if this is considered lucky ...” Miao Ying said to Zhao Yu after the construction started. “I just asked the hydrology and environmental experts, and they said that the river in the distance is called the Taiping River. Because of its remote location, there hasn’t been much change in the past 20 years. It’s almost the same as before!”

Hu ... Hu ...

The cold, wet wind by the river blew across Zhao Yu’s cheeks. Zhao Yu pouted, looked at the scenery in front of him, and said, “There’s no one here. This place ... Is really a good place to kill!” His eyes were filled with sorrow as he sighed. “No wonder Yun Duo’ er could be so calm even when she was killing people in the wild!

“Not to mention that Wei Qiqi’s mouth was sealed, even if she really screamed, no one would be able to hear her, right?”

“Amitabha, Amitabha!” Upon hearing this, cui Lizhu clenched her hands and prayed again. “I hope those girls will help us find Wei Qiqi!” She said.

“As long as we can find Wei Qiqi, we can help you clear your name ...”

Zhao Yu observed the local environment carefully and said, “This place isn’t close to the road, and the ground near the forest is a little soft. It doesn’t seem easy for a car to drive in!

“If ...” He pondered and said, “Wei Qiqi was carried into the forest by Yun Duo’ er, then ... She couldn’t have gone too far!

“Let’s go!” Then, Zhao Yu walked towards the search area and said, “let’s go over and see if we can help.”

The reason why Zhao Yu was so eager to try, of course, had another purpose. His so-called help was not to give advice, but because he had more powerful skills that he had not used.

As soon as he entered the search area, he immediately turned on a new invisible tracker, ready to use the tracker to sniff out the smell of the chemical and then find the bones.

However, just as he put the tracker on, he suddenly heard a bright and urgent whistle from somewhere in the search area!

If someone blew the whistle, it meant that something had been found there. The people nearby immediately surrounded the place where the whistle was blown ...

I'll cut!

Zhao Yu still wanted to show off and show off! However, he didn't expect that the limelight would be stolen so quickly ...

Zhao Yu, Miao Ying, and Cui Lizhu quickly ran over. When they arrived, they saw a technician with an electronic device in his hand, measuring something in a Reed field.

However, there were reeds as tall as a person there, blocking most of the People's vision. When Zhao Yu got closer, he realized that there was an oval-shaped dent at the roots of the reeds.

There were also reeds growing in the collapsed area, but they were obviously not as thick as those in other places. Moreover, the shape and size of the collapsed area also looked like a pit used to bury corpses!

Could it be ...

Zhao Yu suddenly remembered that the experts had said that, because the soil in West River was soft, the surface of the body would have a special depression after being buried for many years.

Could it be ...

At this moment, the device in the technician's hand flashed. The technician was excited and hurriedly waved to the police officers.

The next second, the rumbling sound of an engine was heard from behind the crowd. An excavator that had been prepared long ago rumbled over!

But ...

Zhao Yu followed the crowd and retreated to the side, but he was still mumbling in his heart.

Although the technician's electronic pulse device found something unusual, Zhao Yu's invisible tracking device didn't have any reaction.

Hence, Zhao Yu couldn't help but wonder if he would make any mistakes. Or did he find the wrong body?

As time passed, not only Zhao Yu and the others, but also the other search personnel at the scene were all gathered there, waiting nervously.

“Stop!”

When the excavator had dug to a certain depth, the personnel at the edge of the pit immediately shouted to stop the excavator.

Next, three or four workers entered the pit with hoes and shovels and began to carefully excavate.

As the location was low-lying, during the excavation process, a lot of muddy water gushed out from the ground. In order to prevent any possible damage to the bones, the workers could only use the water pump to draw water while digging carefully.

“Tsk tsk ...”

At this time, Zhao Yu heard Zhang Peipei smacking her lips, who was next to him. He saw that Zhang Peipei’s expression was serious and she looked extremely worried.

Zhao Yu knew that the water leakage in the pit was serious, and it would definitely destroy the evidence on the bones, which would be very bad for the evidence collection work in the future.

If the evidence had really been destroyed, then even if they found Wei Qiqi’s body, it would probably not be of much use ...

“Oh oh oh ... Stop! Stop! Quickly stop!” Just as Zhao Yu was lost in thought, he heard a worker’s shout from the pit, “look! There’s something here!”

Chapter 1596: nail gaps with high hopes

“Wow ... It can’t be ... It’s really that strange, right?” Cui Lizhu raised her hands and stretched out her palms, which were missing two little fingers. She felt the rain falling and asked, “why did it suddenly start raining?”

Unknowingly, the sky was filled with dark clouds, and raindrops fell from the sky, falling into the cold and desolate wilderness.

Soon, the ground became moist, and the reed leaves became exceptionally bright because of the rain ...

“This ...” Cui Lizhu raised her head and felt the temperature of the raindrops. “Is God crying for them?”

“It’s clearly a sunny day, so why is it suddenly raining?”

“Don’t talk nonsense ...” Miao Ying pulled Cui Lizhu lightly and said with a serious expression, “the weather forecast predicted that there would be rain!”

As Miao Ying spoke, the raindrops became denser, and dark clouds gathered in the sky, making the light dimmer and dimmer.

At that moment, Zhao Yu was standing motionlessly next to the excavation site, his eyes fixed on the forensic experts “every move in the pit.

Through the gaps between those people’s movements, Zhao Yu could see a black corpse in the mud, gradually revealing its towering figure ...

The advanced electronic pulse radar was indeed powerful. In the sunken pit, they found a long-buried human skeleton.

The depth of 1.5 meters was exactly the same as the depth of Miao Xiaowen's bones ...

He wondered if this skeleton was the one that Zhao Yu and the others had been searching for, the darling Wei Qiqi.

Whoosh ...

The rain was getting heavier, and someone had already handed Zhao Yu an umbrella, but Zhao Yu stood still, letting the rain wash his cold face.

Finally, after more than twenty minutes of excavating the bones, Zhang Peipei, who was in the pit, finally raised her right hand and made an "OK" sign at Zhao Yu and the others.

Hu ...

All of a sudden, Zhao Yu finally let out a heavy breath.

Zhang Peipei's gesture showed that there were obvious knife marks on the body that had just been found. These marks were very similar to the position where Wei Qiqi had been stabbed in the murder video.

In other words, based on his initial observation, there was a high possibility that the owner of the skeleton was the first victim of the video murder case, Wei Qiqi!

"That's great!" Cui Lizhu said that it was great, but she didn't show any joy on her face. "Wei Qiqi, we finally found you!

"We've already found a glimpse of the eight characters that the boss said. Next, we'll have to see if that glimpse is still there! It's all up to you now, Wei Qiqi ..."

As Cui Lizhu was speaking, the staff had found a large tent to cover the site where the bones were found, so as to avoid the rain from affecting the bones during the excavation.

.....

Six hours later, outside the autopsy room of the Xijiang Provincial Police Department, Zhao Yu and Miao Ying were anxiously waiting for the autopsy results.

"Da da da da ..." Cui Lizhu suddenly ran over from the corridor, holding two disposable cups excitedly as she said, "boss, sister Miao, here, the indigowoad root that has just been made. Drink it while it's hot!"

"Both of you were drenched in the rain just now. It's fine to get wet (lose your body), but don't get sick (gonothere)!"

Facing Cui Lizhu's double-crossing words, Miao Ying forced a smile, thanked her, and took the paper cup from her.

However, Zhao Yu's eyes were still closed, as if he was thinking about something.

“Boss,” Cui Lizhu forced the paper cup into Zhao Yu’s hand and said in a commanding tone, “hurry up and drink it! You can’t catch a cold, I heard that a cold and fever are bad for your ears!”

Zhao Yu took the cup and looked at the naughty and stubborn Cui Lizhu. He then asked Miao Ying, “If suspicious samples are extracted, how long will it take to be detected?”

“It’s hard to say,” Miao Ying explained. “It depends on the quality of the sample! If it was a very clear sample, it would usually take two to three hours to get the complete DNA information.

“But ... Extracting samples like Wei Qiqi’s would be very complicated!” Miao Ying replied seriously, “it’s really hard to say!”

“The bones were soaked in the mud for nearly twenty years ... Tsk tsk ...” Zhao Yu finally asked the question he was most concerned about. “Even if Yun Duo’er left her information on Wei Qiqi, I’m afraid it can’t be detected, right?”

“Indeed,” Miao Ying said, looking worried. “This is the reason why Yun Duo’er chose not to explain!

“I just checked the condition of the skeleton ... It’s not looking good ...”

“Ah? That would be bad!” Cui Lizhu said, “if we can’t find anything, we won’t be able to convict that murderer!

“It’s too difficult! It was really too difficult!

“If we can’t even find anything from Wei Qiqi’s bones, then even if we find the other corpses, I’m afraid it’ll be of no use!”

“In this case,” Miao Ying said, “forensic doctors can only take suspicious samples from fingernails or hair ...

“You saw it just now. The bones have rotted very badly. There shouldn’t be anything left in the hair. Our only hope now is between Wei Qiqi’s nails!”

“Mm,” Zhao Yu took a sip of indigowoad root and said, “I looked at it carefully just now. It seems like Wei Qiqi’s nails are still relatively intact, right?”

“Yes!” Miao Ying nodded. “But there’s a condition. Wei Qiqi has to use a lot of strength to scratch the cloud! If it was just normal contact, then after such a long time, it would definitely lose its effect!”

Miao Ying had just finished speaking when the door of the autopsy room suddenly opened. One of the forensic assistants said to Zhao Yu and Miao Ying, “Team leaders, forensic Zhang needs you to come in and take a look!”

Oh ...

Hearing this, Zhao Yu almost spilled the indigowoad root. He quickly rushed into the autopsy room.

“Team leader Zhao,” Zhang Peipei, who was carefully examining the body, said without looking up, “the injured part of the bone matches the place where Wei Qiqi was stabbed in the video!”

“So, we don’t need to do a DNA comparison. We can also announce that this skeleton is Wei Qiqi’s!”

“Mm ...” Zhao Yu looked at the skeleton that had turned black and nodded.

“And,” Zhang Peipei said again, “there was no trace of hydrazine enamine or any other similar chemical substances on the skeleton!”

“I think, either the murderer didn’t spray the body with the chemical substance, or the murderer didn’t spray the body with the chemical substance. Either that, or the chemicals had been diluted to the point that they could not be detected due to long-term soaking!

Zhang Peipei raised her head and said, “but one thing is for sure. Since the body was buried, it had not been touched!”

“Oh ... Then ...” Zhao Yu couldn’t help but point to the skeleton and ask, “did you find anything under your fingernails?”

After Zhao Yu asked, Zhang Peipei paused for a few seconds, then shook her head and said, “The preliminary test didn’t find any valuable extract. There’s soil under the fingernails. We need to do a further sample analysis!”

After hearing the news, Zhao Yu’s disappointment was obvious.

It seemed that this time, it was likely to be an empty joy. Even though they had found Wei Qiqi’s corpse, they were still unable to obtain any information related to Yun Duo’ er!

This was undoubtedly a huge blow to the investigation of Zhao Yu and the others.

“But ...” Just as Zhao Yu was feeling disappointed, Zhang Peipei suddenly said something interesting. She pointed to the skull and said, “we just found something important here ...”

Chapter 1597: A long wait

Late at night, in the capital’s police interrogation room.

Yun Duo’ er, who was sitting in the interrogation chair, still maintained her usual cold attitude.

Even though Wu Xiumin had been interrogating the woman for several days, the woman remained calm and collected, not revealing any flaws, which gave the interrogators a headache.

This woman was calm, smart, cunning, and quite persistent.

Obviously, Yun Duo’ er was very clear about her situation, and she was prepared to fight the police to the death.

“Zhang Yun (Yun Duo’ er real name)! I don’t understand, how did you manage to be so calm?” Wu Xiumin asked coldly, “don’t you have nightmares every night when you sleep?”

“The girls you killed with your own hands never appeared in your nightmare?”

“Don’t you see them when you close your eyes?”

"You took their lives during their Prime. You buried them deep in the ground and turned them into cold, hideous skeletons ...

"All of this is because of you. Are you really that calm and don't feel any guilt?

"Don't you think that you've already become a monster?

"I really don't understand what you're still so insistent on. What was there to insist on?

"Don't tell me you naively think that the court won't find you guilty if you don't speak?

"Can't you see that we have enough evidence and a complete chain of evidence? whether you open your mouth or not, you're still going to die!"

"Humph ..." Yun Duo'er looked at Wu Xiumin with disdain, then said coldly, "officer, I have never killed anyone. Please don't force the charges on me ..."

"Zhang Yun!" Wu Xiumin turned on the switch on the monitor and played a part of the murder video. "Take a good look at your masterpiece!

"Not only did you kidnap, kill, and bury the bodies, but you also tortured the victims and recorded them!

"You may not be able to see yourself clearly, but I can see it clearly. You are a loser who is lonely and suffering from psychological oppression!

"You originally had good living conditions, but you were still able to commit such a heinous crime. This shows that you lack love and care, and you desire to be noticed!

"You're like a clown!

"If I'm not wrong, you were wearing a mask when you killed him, right?" Wu Xiumin said sharply, "what are you trying to hide? Your appearance?"

"No! "What you want to hide is your ugly and twisted heart and your inferiority complex. You think that by wearing a mask and doing evil, you will feel more comfortable ...

"Zhang Yun, you're a complete failure. You had the guts to kill so many young girls, but now that you've been caught, you don't even have the courage to admit it!

"You'll always be a weak, pathetic worm that people look down on ..."

"..." Hearing Wu Xiumin's blunt questioning and insults, Yun Duo'er twisted her body uncomfortably, and she looked at Wu Xiumin with a chilling gaze.

The reason why Wu Xiumin chose this kind of psychological attack was precisely because of Yun Duo'er's status as a big star.

She believed that the reason why Yun Duo'er had become a murderous demon was definitely related to her identity as a big star.

Perhaps, after marrying the famous director Li Feifan, she could no longer show her face and enjoy the attention of thousands of people, so she had some suppressed emotions.

Wu Xiumin was keenly aware of this, so she deliberately used the words 'inferiority', 'failure', 'clown', and 'pitiful' to pressure Yun Duo'er.

As expected, her interrogation had a certain effect. Yun Duo'er showed an uneasy expression for the first time. Her forehead was covered in sweat, and her body was twisted unnaturally ...

"Police officer ..." Yun Duo'er looked at Wu Xiumin with a venomous look in her eyes, then gritted her teeth and said, "I'm warning you, your interrogation is a strong personal attack, which is against the law!

"If you continue like this, I'm going to seek legal assistance ..."

"Humph," Wu Xiumin was unmoved, "do you know the law? When you were killing those girls, did you think about the law?"

"Do you think that the sins you've committed will only accompany you to your grave? And not be known to the world? Please wake up!" "If you continue to be so obsessed, you won't even have the chance to repent ..." Wu Xiumin said loudly.

Buzz Buzz ... Buzz Buzz ...

Suddenly, Wu Xiumin's cell phone vibrated.

She quickly looked down and saw that the caller ID was Zhao Yu, the leader of the Special Investigation Group.

It was very late at night. If Zhao Yu didn't have an emergency, he wouldn't call her at this time!

So, Wu Xiumin picked up her cell phone, walked straight to the corner of the interrogation room, and answered the phone.

"Hey...Hey...Hey...Hey ..."

Throughout the entire call, Wu Xiumin didn't show any emotional fluctuations. She listened carefully to Zhao Yu's instructions and nodded repeatedly.

The phone call lasted for nearly five minutes. Wu Xiumin then nodded and said, "Alright, I understand. I understand what to do!"

After that, she finally hung up the phone.

All of a sudden, the interrogation room fell into a brief silence, and the air seemed to be stifling.

Yun Duo'er could feel the suffocation, so she closed her eyes and began to adjust her breathing, trying to calm her agitated emotions so that she would not be affected by this female interrogator.

"Sigh ..." Wu Xiumin returned to her seat and slowly sat down. After a heavy sigh, she said to Yun Duo'er, "our team leader is known as the master of unsolved cases. Since he took office, all the unsolved cases that he solved were solved without exception!"

"Yun Duo'er," Wu Xiumin asked seriously, "I'm curious. Have you ever compared the video murder case you committed with the headless female corpses case and the devil case, which shocked China?"

Upon hearing this, Yun Duo'er's eyes remained closed and she didn't pay any attention to him.

“Hmph!” Wu Xiumin shook her head gently and sneered. “You should feel a little satisfied, right? Do you think that you’ve killed more people than them and yet you haven’t been caught by the police?”

“I can tell you responsibly now that your chance has come!” Wu Xiumin said calmly, “you’ll soon be more famous than them!”

“Hehehe ...” Wu Xiumin laughed evilly. “Did you know? Our team leader always said, ‘it’s not that the time isn’t right!’”

“In the past, I’ve never seriously experienced it ...”

“But this time ... I finally understand!” After saying this, Wu Xiumin synchronized her mobile phone with the TV in the interrogation room, then played a video she had just received on the TV. At the same time, she said, “Yun Duo’ er, raise your head and watch it!”

“West River, Luling, Taiping River ... How are they? Do you look familiar?”

When Wu Xiumin suddenly mentioned these three names, Yun Duo’ er suddenly opened her eyes.

When she saw clearly that the video of Wei Qiqi’s remains was indeed on the television screen, a hint of uneasiness flashed across her eyes.

“You might not understand how we found Wei Qiqi’s corpse so quickly.” Wu Xiumin said expressionlessly, “I can tell you the answer. In the video you took of Wei Qiqi’s murder, there was an easily recognizable turret!”

“We were able to find Wei Qiqi by following this turret!”

“...” Yun Duo’ er’s face suddenly turned pale, and she swallowed her saliva with difficulty.

“It’s been 19 years!” Wu Xiumin shook her head indifferently. “I think that Wei Qiqi has been waiting under the soil for 19 years for this moment, right?”

“...” Yun Duo’ er’s face trembled, and her body twisted unnaturally again.

“What’s wrong? Do you still want to continue?” Wu Xiumin asked, “are you trying to say that even if we find your body, we can’t convict you?”

“It’s been 19 years. You can’t find any evidence?”

“...Phew ... Phew ...” Because of her extreme nervousness, Yun Duo’ er began to gasp for breath.

“Yun Duoer!!!” Wu Xiumin suddenly shouted and slammed the table hard. “We have your weak point!”

“Wei Qiqi is a brave girl!” Wu Xiumin pressed the remote control and switched the video to an autopsy scene. She then said sternly, “we found residue of hemoglobin and hemoglobin in Wei Qiqi’s teeth!”

“Through extraction and comparison, it has been confirmed that the residue is a complete match with your DNA!”

“So, when Wei Qiqi was kidnapped by you, she actually bit you!!!”

“Ah ...” Finally, Yun Duo’ er’s last psychological defense collapsed, and she collapsed on the interrogation chair ...

Chapter 1598: I’ll pay you back sooner or later!

In the dimly-lit interrogation room, Yun Duo’ er, who was wearing reading glasses, was lying on a table and writing something.

“Here ... There’s a small white Bridge made of stone. Cars can cross it ...” She explained to Wu Xiumin, who was next to her, while she was drawing. “I remember driving north for five or six minutes from the bridge, then we made a move in the forest on the right ...”

“I really ... Can’t remember that girl’s name. I think there’s a” Sha “in her name. Also, she’s a tour guide. She’s the female lead in the promotional film we shot for Jin hai city ...

“After I killed her, I buried her in the forest. There was a pine tree with a slanted trunk ...

“.....

“Wu aoshan was buried deep in the mountains to the West of Hailan city. There’s a not-so-big Mazu Temple there, and about 200 meters West of the Mazu Temple, there’s a depression ...”

“.....

“Mu Zixuan is an amateur photographer. I buried her in the woods behind Anxiang City women and children’s health Hospital. There are no obvious markers there, so I don’t know if I can still find her exact location ...

“.....”

“However, I’m afraid you won’t be able to find Cao lejiao’s corpse ...” When the cold and disdainful aura disappeared, Yun Duo’ er looked old. It was as if she had become an old woman overnight. Her eyes were dejected, and the corners of her mouth trembled as she said, “I buried her in a wasteland in the provincial capital of Yuezhou, but that wasteland has now become the financial center of Yuezhou ...”

Just as Yun Duo’ er was explaining the location of the burial, Zhao Yu, Miao Ying, and cui Lizhu were sitting on a high-speed train from the West River to the capital, Jingzhou.

As Yun Duo’ er’s confession was very important, the capital’s police Department made an exception and sent the interrogation video to Zhao Yu’s mobile phone in real time, so that he could know the progress of the case as soon as possible.

“Wow ...” After seeing Yun Duo’ er’s confession, cui Lizhu pouted and said, “in that case, should we contact the police in Guangzhou immediately?”

“No matter what, we have to find Cao lejiao ...” He said.

“Shh ...” Miao Ying looked around. Even though they were in the first class, they were not in a private room, and there were still many passengers around. She whispered to cui Lizhu, “be quiet!”

"Mm ..." Cui Lizhu pursed her lips and asked Zhao Yu, "boss, I don't understand. When Yun Duo' er found out that we found her DNA in Wei Qiqi's teeth, why did she completely break down?"

"I was worried that she would continue to quibble! For example ..." Cui Lizhu lowered her voice and said, "she could lie and say that she had a conflict with Wei Qiqi before, and Wei Qiqi bit her!"

"But Wei Qiqi's kidnapping and death had nothing to do with him?"

"If that's the case, won't we still be unable to do anything to her?"

"That's a good question," Zhao Yu said expressionlessly. "I was also wondering about it!"

"Stop it ..." Cui Lizhu narrowed her eyes. "Your eyes have already betrayed you!"

"Cui," Miao Ying looked around again. When she saw that no one was paying attention to them, she said in a low voice, "Wei Qiqi's teeth found Yun Duo' er's DNA, which means that the two of them have a direct connection. This will link up our entire evidence chain!"

"If it is used as evidence in the court of law in the future, even if Yun Duo' er quibbles and refuses to admit it, it will be useless! Through the complete chain of evidence, the court would eventually pronounce Yun Duo' er guilty.

"Yun Duo' er must have understood this, so she gave up on resisting!"

"That's right!" Zhao Yu echoed, "we've made the right move! I've long realized that we can't set up traps and falsify Yun Duo' er's interrogation like we did in the past.

"We can only completely destroy this smart and cunning woman if we find solid evidence.

"Xiao Cui, think about it the other way around," Zhao Yu said, pointing to Yun Duo' er on the phone screen. "When we told Yun Duo' er what we found on Wei Qiqi, Yun Duo' er was very clear about it.

"She knew where Wei Qiqi was buried, and she also knew that Wei Qiqi had bitten her back then. So, she also knew that we couldn't have lied to her!"

"I think that's what she's been worried about.

"However, due to the long passage of time, she still had some hope. First, they think that we can't find Wei Qiqi's corpse. Secondly, they thought that even if they found the body, they might not be able to find any evidence.

"But ..." Zhao Yu laughed. "These two Lucky Chances were denied by us, so she lost the meaning of continuing.

"Perhaps ..." He raised his head and sighed. "For Yun Duo' er, this is a gamble! Perhaps she was already prepared for this. As long as we don't find out that Wei Qiqi bit her, she will continue to resist.

"If not, you might as well confess and confess ..."

"So, if we fake it, she'll immediately notice, which will ruin our plan!"

"Oh ..." Cui Lizhu said. "It turns out that there are psychological tactics in this! I'm really in awe of you, boss! To judge the situation and use different methods on different criminals, it was too awesome!"

“You’re a natural-born hooligan ... No, a natural detective!”

“What are you saying!” Zhao Yu said seriously, “a ‘natural-born detective’ is enough to send me away? Isn’t your flattery a little too lousy? He didn’t even say anything about shaking the universe or reversing the universe, right? Continue, continue ...”

Cui Lizhu narrowed her eyes in disdain.

“But ...” Miao Ying suddenly said, “we’re lucky! I heard from the forensic experts that it was a miracle that Yun Duo’ er’s information was able to be saved from Wei Qiqi’s teeth in that terrible environment. The probability of that happening is too low!”

“Yes!” Cui Lizhu echoed, “the bones have been soaked in water for a long time, so the evidence was not destroyed. We are so lucky!”

“I think it’s precisely because the probability of this happening is too small that Yun Duo’ er is so fearless, right?”

“Zhang Peipei talked to me about it,” Zhao Yu said. “Wei Qiqi is indeed a brave girl. The bite that she took on Yun Duo’ er was not simple. That bite must have left a deep impression on Yun Duo’ er!”

“The blood residue didn’t just seep into the gaps between her teeth, it also seeped into the wormholes in Wei Qiqi’s teeth! Although the skeleton had been in the water for a long time, due to the pressure, the muddy water did not affect Yun Duo’ er’s blood residue ...”

“I think this is what I always say. It’s not that I don’t want to take revenge, it’s just that the time hasn’t come yet, right?” Zhao Yu sighed. “Those who have committed a crime will have to pay for it sooner or later! It’s only a matter of time ...”

“Yes, the Justice of heaven is long and loose!” Cui Lizhu said, “that’s what the great detective Zhao always says!”

“Shh ...” Because Cui Lizhu’s voice was too loud, Miao Ying reminded her again.

At this time, in the video on Zhao Yu’s mobile phone, Yun Duo’ er had already finished her confession regarding the location of the burial, and was starting to confess all the crimes she had committed.

Zhao Yu and the other two didn’t speak anymore, but focused on the mobile phone screen.

Chapter 1599: original sin (1)

“I’m not a mistress, and I’m not the third party,” Yun Duo’ er, who was sitting on the interrogation chair, said with a dejected expression. “Li Feifan broke up with his girlfriend first, and I just happened to appear when he just broke up with his girlfriend.”

“I admire his talent, and he likes my personality. We achieved our goals in one stroke, and we didn’t have too many distracting thoughts ...”

“Li Feifan once said that he liked me because he liked my cheerfulness, my beauty, and my generosity. These two superficial adjectives were the eternal obsession in his mind, and they became the reason why I killed people later ...

“In the beginning, I felt that everything was perfect, but after marriage, I realized that the more I strove for perfection, the more tragic it would be when perfection was broken ...

“Li Feifan didn’t want me to make any more movies and deprived me of my right to continue being a star. I began to suspect that he had fallen in love with another woman. At the same time, I’m especially afraid to hear people say that I’m a mistress ...

“Just like that, not long after we got married, my cheerfulness completely disappeared. I didn’t say that. Li Feifan said it himself.

“His words deeply hurt me! It made me even more isolated, further and further away from lang huobo ...

“Gradually, my heart felt like it was being pressed by a stone with infinite weight. No matter where I went, no matter how I adjusted, that stone would always make it hard for me to breathe ...

“At that time, li Feifan saw through my problem. He even symbolically looked for a psychiatrist to explain to me, but...I could feel that he didn’t care about me at all. His eyes were still shining as he searched for me, his so-called cheerful, beautiful, and generous ...

“I can’t take it anymore ... I even thought of committing suicide and dying ...” Yun Duo’ er clenched her fists in agitation, and the corners of her eyes twitched non-stop. She said nervously, “but when I killed Wei Qiqi, I suddenly felt an inexplicable pleasure. That feeling was as if I had killed myself with my own hands! I don’t have to endure that kind of pain anymore ...”

“Zhang Yun!” Wu Xiumin saw that Yun Duo’ er was on the verge of losing control, so she immediately interrupted her thoughts and asked, “now, tell us how you killed Wei Qiqi ...”

“Wei Qiqi ... Wei Qiqi ...” Yun Duo’ er tried her best to recall and said, “Wei Qiqi was a singer. Once, li Feifan and I attended a celebration and saw her performance ...

“Although she was a singer, she was very excited on stage. Li Feifan watched her very seriously. In his eyes, I saw the same look he had when he looked at me in the past!

“I’m scared. I’m scared that he’ll think of Wei Qiqi as the me from before. I’m scared that he won’t be able to tell ... Won’t be able to tell who his wife is ...

“W-what’s wrong with me?” Suddenly, Yun Duo’ er looked at her hands and said uncertainly, “why can’t I remember?”

“That day, something else seemed to have happened ... Or maybe ... One day after that ... I ... Um ...” Yun Duo’ er pinched her forehead in pain and said with difficulty, “I ... I heard Wei Qiqi talking bad about me from the bathroom or the changing room ...

“Right! It should be the changing room!” Yun Duo’ er panted heavily as she said, “as a guest at that Gala, I was also on stage. I should have heard Wei Qiqi talking about me behind my back from the changing room. She said that I was a third party who took over the position and that I was thick-skinned ...

“There were even people who persuaded her to approach Li Feifan. She might have a chance to rise up the ranks and become a big star in the future ...

“And then ... And then I was so angry! I’ve decided that I can’t let her plot succeed. I have to protect everything with my hands ...

“Just like ... Just like the female assassin I played in the past, I want to take the initiative to attack. I want to use my own actions to save everything I cherish ... I want ... I want ...” At this point, Yun Duo’er’s eyes suddenly revealed a fierce light, and she said fiercely, “I want to kill her!!!”

“Oh my God ...” Cui Lizhu gasped when she saw the live broadcast in the video. “Is this the reason she killed him?” This is too ... Too hard to accept ...”

“Team leader,” Miao Ying suggested, “I think Yun Duo’er is about to lose control of her emotions. We still need her to identify the burial site. Should we stop Wu Xiuming’s interrogation now?”

“Mm ...”

Just as Zhao Yu was hesitating, Yun Duo’er, who was in the interrogation room, had already entered a state of selflessness. She began to describe the facts of her murder.

“In order not to expose myself, I patiently observed her for many days, investigated her lifestyle, and decided on the time to make my move ...

“Then, I prepared a lot of things, such as anesthetics, ropes, knives, cars, and the final murder site ...”

“If I remember correctly, I was very clear on what I was going to do! “That’s why I seemed particularly abnormal during those few days. In order to convince myself, I even asked Li Feifan ...

“I asked him if the girl who sang at the party was cheerful and lively. Is it your favorite type?” Yun Duo’er shook her head and said, “but Li Feifan only said one thing to me. He advised me to see a psychiatrist again!

“His words completely hurt me. I can tell that he definitely wants to say that he likes it! When he looked at Wei Qiqi, the light in his eyes was different from when he looked at other people ...

“So, his attitude prompted me to make up my mind, and I finally made my move!

“I knocked Wei Qiqi out in the bathroom of the bar where she worked, then carried her into my car ...

“Back then, my car was still an old model of the KIA, and there weren’t that many surveillance cameras back then ...

“I originally thought that I had everything planned out, but because it was my first time, I didn’t have any experience, and an accident happened ...

“I followed the instructions to knock Wei Qiqi out, but in reality, she had already woken up the moment the car went crazy!

“Also, I used the method I used to film the movie and tied her up with a rope, but that kind of knot was flashy but useless. Wei Qiqi actually managed to break free!

"I drove the car into the forest near the Taiping River. Just as I opened the trunk, Wei Qiqi jumped out and pounced on me!

"After that, we had a violent tussle, and she took the opportunity to bite me ... She bit ... Um ..." Yun Duo'er searched for a moment and pointed to a spot on her shoulder. "She bit me here ..."

"At that time, I was also frightened! If Wei Qiqi had run away, I would have been finished. Although I was wearing a mask at that time, that kind of mask at a dance party wouldn't have been able to block anything. I guess that Wei Qiqi already knew who I was the moment we fought!

"I definitely, definitely couldn't let her run away, so I hit her hard. First, I knocked her to the ground, then I picked up a stone and hit her in the head, knocking her out ...

"After that, I tied the rope again. Phew ... Phew ..." Yun Duo'er said, panting heavily. "In my original plan, I didn't plan to use the camera!

"But I don't know why, but when I saw Wei Qiqi tied up and placed on the ground, it suddenly aroused some kind of desire in me, so ... I took out the camera and recorded the entire process of me killing her ..."

Chapter 1600: original sin (2)

"I found the turret in the video when I watched the video replay later ..." After Yun Duo'er confessed how she killed Wei Qiqi, she continued, "actually, when I was scouting the area, I also saw the turret.

"But, at that time, I didn't want to record any murder videos!

"Besides, I thought that since the sky was so dark and the turret was so far away, we wouldn't be able to record it in the video!"

"So, because of this turret, I knew that you weren't lying and that you really found Wei Qiqi's body ...

"I originally ..." Yun Duo'er swallowed her saliva and said slowly, "I was thinking, after such a long time, even if you found the body, what could you do?"

"But ... My hope was still destroyed!"

Hearing this, Wu Xiumin explained to her how Yun Duo'er's DNA had been able to be preserved in Wei Qiqi's teeth.

"Oh ..."

After Yun Duo'er understood, her body drooped down weakly. Although she looked dispirited and her eyes were blank, she was obviously much more relieved than before.

After a while, she continued, "Actually, after I lost the videotape, I had the thought of moving Wei Qiqi's corpse, but ...

"I'm afraid ..." Yun Duo'er said numbly. "I dare to kill people in the dark, but I don't dare to dig up corpses in the dark! I don't know what the person I killed will become!"

“Also, I’m afraid I’ll fall into someone’s trap ... Or that moving the corpse will reveal more flaws ...

“All in all, I was on the verge of collapse every day at that time! I only thought that my fate would end at that time. I even made all the preparations, but I don’t know why, fate just had to play a joke on me!”

“Hmm ...” Wu Xiumin nodded slightly, then asked, “so ... Wei Qiqi was your first victim?” Before her, is there anyone else?”

Yun Duo’ er shook her head numbly.

Wu Xiumin continued to ask, “what about after Wei Qiqi?” Who’s next?”

“It was the girl who sold milk ...” Yun Duo’ er said without stopping. “It was 2000. At that time, I followed li Feifan’s crew to Yunshan in Yuezhou to shoot an advertisement!

“That girl who sold milk participated in the audition for the commercial. Although she did not get selected in the end ...” Yun Duo’ er’s eyes suddenly turned cold. “During the show, that girl interacted with my husband, and my husband actually praised her in front of everyone as a ‘cheerful and lively’ girl ...

“This is too much! Li Feifan knew that this compliment was very sensitive to him, but he still said it!

“Furthermore, right in front of me, his eyes were filled with excitement. That kind of ... Excitement that should only be shown to me!

“So ...” Yun Duo’ er said fiercely, “I have to stop this kind of gaze from spreading. I can’t let that girl who sells milk break into my life and take away everything I have ...

“I want her to be like Wei Qiqi!!!” As she said that, Yun Duo’ er clenched her fists and fell into a violent and resentful memory. “You were right. After killing Wei Qiqi, not only did I not feel a trace of pity or regret, but I also felt an indescribable pleasure!

“I feel like I’ve been released from the slaughter. It’s like ... Like I’ve been Reborn!

“It’s as if ... I’m not killing a person, but the resentment in my heart! “I keep feeling that if I kill them, I’ll be able to find that long-lost optimistic mood and become a lively and cheerful woman again ...

“So, later on, I found it harder and harder to control myself! Yun Duo’ er’s body trembled as she said, “the female tour guide in Jinhai city, the high school female employee in yunwu city’s advertising company, the yoga teacher in Guangzhou, and the actress who knew how to sing and always threw flirtatious glances at li Feifan ...

“As long as li Feifan thinks they’re cheerful and lively, I’ll kill them all ...

“I was so obsessed with this that I even forgot my original intention in the end!

“I’ve also become more experienced, and my skills have become more skilled ...

“I’ve learned how to use a new anesthetic. I’ll give them an anesthetic shot to ensure that they won’t wake up in advance.

“I’ve also learned a new way of binding. It’s foolproof and no one can break free.

"I heard that if the body was buried too shallow, it would be dug up by animals, or it could be smelled by the corpse-hunting dogs. They even added a chemical that animals hate the most when they buried the body ..."

"Then ..." Wu Xiumin thought for a while, then asked, "among the many videotapes, why are there no videos from 2003 to 2004?"

"What?" Yun Duo'er was slightly taken aback. Then, she asked agilely, "shouldn't you have known long ago? I was giving birth in 2003?"

"Our xinghong is born ..."

"So ..." Wu Xiumin asked curiously, "the birth of your son only made you stop temporarily, but in the end, it still couldn't control your desire?"

"At the end of 2004, you made a move again?"

"Right!" Yun Duo'er simply said, "what can I do? Li Feifan has returned from United States. I saw the excitement in his eyes again, but it wasn't for me!"

"But ... Your child is not even two years old!" Wu Xiumin was in disbelief. "You don't take care of the child?"

"The child is not mine alone!" Yun Duo'er said nonchalantly, "there's a nanny, a nanny, and his grandparents and aunts ..."

"Li Feifan has returned from the United States. He's more famous than before, so of course I have to be more proactive."

"So what if you have a child? You can't stop someone from destroying my family and taking my place, right?"

"So, I followed Li Feifan to Nanjiang to participate in a filming. I saw him looking so excited again for a girl who was acting in a play, so...I went back to my old career and took care of her ..."

"After that, the road show artist from Guizhou Province, the dancer from Hailan city, the female photographer from Anxiang city, and the female reporter, Cao lejiao!"

"Cao lejiao was the most shameless of them all. She came to Li Feifan's door and took off her clothes to show him her figure. She asked Li Feifan if he could turn her from a reporter to an actress."

"The most infuriating thing is that Li Feifan still thinks she's a lively and cheerful woman even though she's been so flattering. How could I let her live ..."

.....

"Oh my God ..." Cui Lizhu, who was on the high-speed train, couldn't help but exclaim. "It really makes my hair stand on end!"

"Who would have thought that such a brutal video murder case could have been caused by a look from a famous director?" Cui Lizhu sighed. "This is almost like the legendary death stare!"

"I really want to dig li Feifan's eyes out ... But ... This woman ..." She pointed at Yun Duo'er in the video. "She's too perverted, isn't she? What kind of logic was this? It doesn't make any sense!"

"If all of them fit the logic, then there wouldn't be a video murder case!" Zhao Yu sighed.

"This at least explains ..." Miao Ying said with a complicated expression. "Why did Yun Duo'er not touch any of the actresses li Feifan had an affair with?"

"It turns out that she only thinks that the girls who li Feifan thinks are lively and cheerful are her biggest threat!"

"That's the real motive for her murder, and the original culprit of this case ..."
