Chapter 1621: Hospital (part one)

Wuuu ...

The Land Rover sped on the dark and empty road. The cold wind was blowing and it was particularly cold.

""Nikola paplodar ..."" In the car, Jecca was enthusiastically introducing a person to Zhao Yu. ""This person is now the Deputy Director of the traffic management Department. I met him at many banquets, but we never had a deep friendship."" "

""So ..."" Zhao Yu said, ""this person was the executioner back then?"" "

""Yes, "" said Jecca. ""During the war, the execution squad was not part of the court. They were under the jurisdiction of the Army and were mainly responsible for dealing with deserters. "

""You're right! No matter who was responsible for the wallet, the little boy still died in Nikola's hands! "

""So, the possibility that the murderer is looking for him to settle the score is very high!"" "

""But ..."" Eureka added from the passenger seat, ""Nikola has cancer, and he's dying! "

""Late-stage lung cancer. I don't think he has many days left ..."" Eureka shook her head and said, ""I feel like the murderer doesn't have to kill him anymore."" "

""That's hard to say!"" ""I feel that the murderer wanted to kill him first, but he let him go because he had cancer!"" "

""Now that the other three people have been taken care of, the murderer might not be able to vent his anger and turn his attention to this person!"" "

""If I were the murderer ..."" Zhao Yu analyzed, ""I would have made the general my last target! Because the general's death will definitely cause a huge uproar. The entire city will search for him, and it will be difficult for him to escape ..."" "

""But ..."" Jecca offered a different opinion. ""It makes sense to put the cancer patients last, right?"" "

""Think about it, if Nikola was killed from the start, the police would definitely suspect that it was a vendetta! "

""Otherwise, who would go through so much trouble to kill a patient in the final stage of cancer?"" "

""No matter what, we're almost there!"" Eureka pointed straight ahead, and everyone could already see the huge cross sign on the hospital building. "

This meant that they had arrived at the hospital where Nicholas was.

""Eh?"" Suddenly, Zhao Yu seemed to have noticed something and asked, ""this road looks familiar. Didn't we come here a few days ago?"" "

““Right!”” Jieka explained, ““this road is called Jiefang Road. The National Hospital is located on the west side of Jiefang Road, and the liberation Square is on the east side!”” ”

““Oh?”” Zhao Yu turned his head and saw the monument in the square, as well as the church outside the square. ”

Tsk tsk ...

“Zhao Yu’s mind moved, as if he had captured some information, and a new idea came to his mind. ”

““The National Hospital is already the best hospital in all of cozovia, but ...”” Said Jecca helplessly, ““the medical facilities here are still limited. Many rich people who are seriously ill will still choose to go to Belgrade or Bucharest for medical treatment!”” ”

““Nicolay is in the Department of Oncology on the sixth floor,”” Eureka said as she looked at the information. ““I wonder how he’s doing now. Can you still provide us with more information?”” ”

““Hmph, it’s also possible that ...”” Jieka said half-jokingly, ““he has already been caught by the murderer! Hurry up!”” ”

“The driver stopped the car at the entrance of the hospital, and everyone quickly got out of the car and hurried to the target. ”

“As he was walking in a hurry, Zhao Yu looked at his watch. It was already four in the morning. The entire hospital was very quiet, and he could not see anyone. ”

There were only seven hours left before he left cozovia today. He wondered if there would be a conclusion to the wallet murder case within these seven hours.

“After looking at his watch, Zhao Yu didn’t rush to the hospital, but carefully observed the surrounding environment of the hospital. ”

He had a feeling that the appearance of the hospital had an important connection with the idea he had just come up with ...

“The hospital lobby was empty, so Zhao Yu and his team took the elevator to the sixth floor of the hospital. ”

“Since Eureka had checked the information beforehand, they did not go to the nurse station to contact the medical staff. Instead, they went straight to Nicolay’s ward. ”

“After all, Nicolay was a division Chief, so the hospital arranged a single room for him. ”

“However, Jecca obviously didn’t take this director seriously. As soon as he arrived at the door, he opened the door and walked in with his men. ”

“However, to everyone’s surprise, there was no one in the ward. There was only a haggard man lying on the bed, barely breathing. ”

“Nicholas was only 42 years old, but he had been tortured by the disease and had become an old man. He had no hair, his face was sallow, and he was so thin that he was only skin and bones. ”

Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

The heart monitor made a rhythmic sound. The old man had an oxygen tube inserted into his nose and was sleeping soundly. He did not respond to the arrival of Jecca and the others.

“““Yes, that’s right!”“ ““This is Nikola!”“ Said Jecca after a careful examination. ”

“As he spoke, Jecca observed the environment in the ward and said,“““It seems that we have thought too much. The murderer didn’t kill him!”“ ”

“““Just because he didn’t make a move doesn’t mean that he didn’t have any thoughts about it!”“ Zhao Yu said,““I just saw that there were surveillance cameras outside the ward. You’d better check it and see if you can find anyone suspicious from inside.”“ ”

“““Right!”“ Jecca nodded.““The murderer might have been watching Nikola ...”“ ”

“He then waved his hand at his men, and Eureka turned around and left. ”

“Just as Eureka reached the door, the door suddenly opened, and a man wearing a mask walked in! ”

“.....”

“.....”

“When their eyes met, the entire Ward was filled with tension, and no one spoke. ”

“Although the man wearing a mask was wearing a hospital uniform, he looked flustered and sneaky. ”

One couldn’t help but think negatively ...

“One second, two seconds, three seconds ... ”

“At the fourth second, the man in the mask turned around and opened the door, trying to escape. ”

“However, the sharp-eyed and agile Eureka grabbed him. The two of them tore at the wall at the door and happened to touch the switch on the wall. ”

Ka!

“The lights were turned on, and the entire Ward was bright and clear. ”

Everyone saw that the man was actually holding a syringe filled with liquid!

“““Ah!?”“ ”

“It was four o’ clock in the morning, and a guy wearing a mask and holding a syringe sneakily broke into Nicholas ‘Ward in the middle of the night. There was something wrong with him no matter how he looked at it. ”

“““Oh ...”“ Seeing that he had been exposed, the man immediately threw away the syringe and began to struggle desperately, trying to escape. ”

“Jieka had come with a group of men, so before jieka and Zhao Yu could do anything, the rest of the men swarmed forward and pressed the man to the ground in the blink of an eye, unable to move! ”

Ulrika removed the man's mask and revealed that he was a middle-aged man in his forties. There was a tattoo on his neck ...

Chapter 1622: Hospital (part two)

""Oh ... Oh ..."" "

"The man looked frightened and struggled with all his might, but several strong men pressed him down to the ground and he couldn't move at all. "

"At this time, both Jecca and Zhao Yu came up to him. Jecca pointed at the man's nose and asked,"" "

""Speak! Who the hell are you?"" "

""I ..."" The man replied in horror,""I'm a nurse!"" You ... Who are you?"" "

""A nurse?"" ""Hahaha, who are you trying to fool?"" Which nurse would take a syringe and sneak into the ward in the middle of the night? "

""Stop pretending. We knew you were coming. You can't run away!"" "

""What ... What are you guys talking about?"" The person who claimed to be a nurse argued,""I went to get him some painkillers! At this time every night, he has to be injected with painkillers, otherwise ... No one will be able to sleep for the rest of the night!"" "

""Painkiller?"" Jecca picked up the syringe on the ground and frowned slightly. "

"The next second, he took out an id and placed it in front of the nurse, shouting,""You're still pretending? We're the police, and we've already gotten hold of all the crimes you've committed!"" "

""This ..."" The caretaker looked incredulous and asked,""police?"" I ... What did I do? What have you guys grasped?"" "

""You're a nurse, why are you wearing a mask?"" Eureka picked up her mask and asked. "

""I ... I just smoked, so I have to wear a mask. If the head nurse smells the smoke, I'll be dead!"" The nurse explained. "

""What's your name?"" Asked Jecca. "

""Jankohler!"" The caretaker replied without thinking,""officer, you guys ... Are you mistaken? The ones who committed the crime were the patient's children, right? They already owe me two months of wages!"" "

"" ..."" Hearing this, everyone looked at each other. "

"If this person was really a nurse, then what they were doing now would be very awkward. "

""Hey!"" Suddenly, a doctor in a white coat appeared outside the ward. He must have heard the commotion and rushed over to check on the situation. He immediately asked the crowd,""what are you doing? This was a hospital! It was a Ward! What do you guys do?"" "

““““Eh? K-doctor Casey, it’s me, it’s me!”” Seeing the doctor, the caretaker looked as if she had seen her Savior and quickly shouted, ““““yankohler, it’s yankohler!”” ”

Tsk tsk ...

“At this time, when the crowd saw the caretaker greeting the doctor, they realized that they might have grabbed the wrong person. They had no choice but to let go a little and let the caretaker stand up from the ground. ”

““““Jankohler ...”” The doctor looked at him carefully and asked curiously, ““““it’s you!”” What ... What happened? What are these people doing?”” ”

““““Police!”” ““““You tell me, this person ...”” He pointed at the nurse.””Do you know him?”” What does it do?”” ”

““““I know her!”” The doctor nodded and replied, ““““she’s our hospital’s caretaker? What’s wrong?”” ”

““““Thank the heavens! Fortunately, you came!”” The caretaker named jankohler clapped his hands and prayed, then unceremoniously shook off the restraints. ”

“When Jecca’s men saw that the doctor had provided proof, they had no reason to hold on and had to let go. ”

““““What ... What is going on?”” The doctor still looked at Jecca and the others with a puzzled expression.””Are you really the police? Why don’t I see it?”” ”

““““I don’t think so either!”” The nurse quickly ran behind the doctor and egged him on, ““““Dr. Casey, I’ll go get the security!”” ”

“With that, the head guard ran away without looking back. ”

““““Hey!”” ”

“Eureka shouted, but the doctor blocked the door. He reached out to Jake and asked, ““““Come, show me your IDs. I’d like to see if you’re the police!”” ”

““““You! How dare you! Do you know who we are?”” ““““We’re investigating an important case!”” Eureka snapped. Otherwise, why would I come here in the middle of the night?”” ”

““““Wait!”” ““““Stop!”” Jecca shouted, then he took out his id again and handed it to the doctor. ”

“This time, the doctor looked at the document carefully. He didn’t know what was written on it, but after a few glances, the doctor’s face changed. He quickly stood at attention and bowed very politely to Jecca. ”

“After Jecca took back his id, he asked, ““““We’re really here to investigate a case. There’s something we want to ask Nikola!”” ”

““““Oh, Nikola!”” The doctor looked at the ward and asked curiously, ““““then ... Why did you fight with the caretaker?”” ”

““““Oh, it’s like this. It seems like it’s just a small misunderstanding ...”” ”

“As they were talking, because the door of the ward was too crowded, everyone walked out of the ward one after another and came to the corridor to talk.”

“Zhao Yu was one of them. As soon as he arrived at the corridor, he began to observe the environment. His eyes fell on a camera in the corridor.”

Eh?

“Who knew that with just a glance, he would suddenly discover an unexpected situation.”

That’s not right?

“Ever since he had come to kosovia, for the sake of safety, Zhao Yu had always turned on his invisible detector. This way, if someone were to follow or monitor him, he would be more alert.”

“Just now, before entering Nikola’s ward, he had made sure that the camera in the corridor was on, so he had prompted Jecca to send someone to get the surveillance footage.”

“However, it had only been a few minutes. Why was the camera turned off?”

Zhao Yu quickly confirmed that he was right! The detector clearly showed that the camera had been turned off!

What was going on?

Was it broken?

How could there be such a coincidence?

It was still fine just a moment ago ...

“Zhao Yu looked left and right, and when he saw something at the door of the ward, he was confused again.”

He saw a wheelchair parked outside the ward!

Eh?

This wasn’t right!

Wasn’t he afraid of losing the wheelchair in the middle of the night?

“Then, Zhao Yu immediately interrupted the conversation between the doctor and Jecca and asked the doctor, ““““Let me ask you, did you push this wheelchair here?”” ”

““““A wheelchair?”” The doctor took a look and shook his head.””“No? I saw it on my way here! I was going to ask who pushed it over!”” ”

““““Eh?”” Jecca was also puzzled.””“Yes? Where did the wheelchair come from? It wasn’t there when we went in just now! This ...”” ”

““““This is terrible!”” Zhao Yu asked the doctor in a hurry, “““that nurse just now, are you sure she’s Nicolas’s nurse?”” ”

“““Um ... This ... Tsk tsk ...”” The doctor said,““I’m not sure!”” But I know him, he’s a nurse at our hospital!”” ”

“““What’s wrong, Dr. Casey? Why are there so many people?”” At this moment, a female nurse with sleepy eyes walked out of the nurse station. ”

“““Eh? ““Xingna,”” Dr. Casey hurriedly asked,““has Mr. Nikola hired a nurse? Is it yankohler from our hospital who’s taking care of him?”” ”

“““Nikola? Jankoller?”” The nurse rubbed her eyes and tried to understand the doctor’s words.““Mr. Nikola did hire a nurse, but I don’t know if it’s yankohler,”” she replied. ”

“““Tsk, tsk ... Yankohler, the one who usually drives the ambulance? The one who drives an ambulance to earn money, and the one who works as a nurse to earn money?”” Dr. Casey reminded. ”

“““An ambulance?”” The nurse was puzzled and said,““that can’t be right? I remember that Mr. Nikola’s nurse is a woman?”” ”

“““What the f * ck!”” Hearing this, Zhao Yu almost jumped up in the air. He immediately shouted at Jecka,““we were tricked by him! That guy is the murderer. Leave one of them to look after the patient, and the rest of you, follow me!”” ”

Chapter 1623: Hospital (part two)

“Zhao Yu ran towards the stairs like a mad man. According to Dr. Casey, the suspicious caretaker had run in that direction. ”

“As he ran, he answered Jecca’s call. ”

“““Zhao Yu, you’re right,”” jieka said to Zhao Yu in a hurry.““The nurse found the female nurse in the bathroom, but she was unconscious! There must be something wrong with that kid just now. We must catch him!”” ”

“““I’ve already ordered people to seal off the entire building and contacted the patrol team to start a thorough investigation of the hospital’s vicinity. Where are you now?”” ”

“As jieka was talking, Zhao Yu had already run to the elevator door. He saw that one of the elevators happened to be occupied, and had already descended to the second floor. ”

“Zhao Yu wasn’t sure if the person in the elevator was the nurse. However, he still used a power jamming device without hesitation. ”

“In the end, the elevator made a ““gudong”” sound and all the lights went off. It was stuck on the second floor. ”

“Zhao Yu quickly ran into the stairwell in the dark and sprinted along the stairs to the elevator on the second floor. At the same time, he removed the power Shield. ”

“With a ding, the elevator door opened, and a young nurse with fear in her eyes appeared in the elevator. ”

“It was obvious that she had been frightened by the power outage in the elevator. As soon as she saw the elevator door open, she ran out as if she was escaping.”

Damn it!

“Zhao Yu was disappointed, so he asked her in Sylvie, “did you see a male nurse just now?” ”

“However, the nurse shook her head in confusion and claimed that she had not seen anything.”

Hu ...

“Zhao Yu was panting. He wanted to report the situation to Jecca, but when he turned on his phone, it was turned off because of the power Shield.”

“He hurriedly turned on the computer and restarted it. Then, he rushed into the stairwell again and ran towards the lobby on the first floor, which was the main entrance of the hospital.”

““Di di di ...” ”

“As soon as he turned on his phone, he received a call from Jecca.”

““Zhao Yu, why is your phone turned off at this time?” “Where are you?” asked Jecca.”

““I was chasing after the elevator. I want to go to the gate now!”” Zhao Yu explained the situation.”

““There’s no need to go to the main gate!”” “My men have already asked at the main entrance. The security guard didn’t see anyone go out from there. The kid either found another way out or is still in the hospital!”” Said Jieka quickly.”

““Oh?”” Hearing this, Zhao Yu stepped back and suddenly thought of a possibility. He quickly said to Jecca, “do you remember what the doctor said just now? Not only is he a nurse, but he also drives an ambulance!”” ”

““Oh ... Oh, oh ...”” Jake reacted and said in a hurry, “I’ll send someone to seal off the parking lot and check every ambulance!”” ”

““Okay.”” At this time, Zhao Yu suddenly saw the hospital evacuation plan hanging on the wall and immediately said to Jieka, “the hospital also has a large underground parking lot. I’ll go down and take a look!”” ”

““Okay, be careful. I’ll send someone to pick you up immediately,”” said Jecca. “Don’t hang up the phone. Let’s keep in touch!”” ”

““Alright!”” ”

“Zhao Yu replied, then went back to the stairwell and ran towards the underground parking lot.”

“In order to capture the suspect’s whereabouts, he also used a life detector and an invisible X-ray device.”

“At first, he wanted to use the invisible tracking device that could find the suspect based on the smell, but then he thought that it wouldn’t work because he didn’t have the suspect’s original smell.”

“Clang, clang, clang, clang ...”

“Zhao Yu ran as fast as he could, and he soon arrived at the underground parking lot.”

“In the middle of the night, there weren’t many people in the hospital, let alone the underground parking lot.”

“The place was dimly lit and very spacious. Zhao Yu ran in a random direction, trying to find traces of the suspect in the parking lot.”

He had just run two steps when he suddenly heard a rumbling sound coming from above.

Clatter ...

“As the rumbling sound got closer, the roof of the parking lot, which was more than ten meters high, shook. It was not until the rumbling sound disappeared that it returned to silence.”

Oh ...

“Thinking back to the hospital evacuation map that he had just seen, Zhao Yu finally understood that the underground parking lot was built under the road.”

The rumbling sound just now was caused by a car driving on the road.

Oh ...

“““If that’s the case ...”” Zhao Yu looked around alertly, thinking that the hospital and the square were connected underground.”

“At that moment, Zhao Yu finally understood what the thought that he had captured earlier was.”

“Since the hospital was very close to the square, the murderer of the wallet murder case most likely used the hospital to carry out the crime!”

“The suspect could use the hospital’s ambulance at any time. If it was really the suspicious nurse just now, then it was very likely that he used the ambulance to transport the victim!”

“He used the ambulance as a cover to bring the victim back to the hospital first. Then, he used a certain connection to move the victim to the square and commit the crime.”

Then ... Where would the place that was connected to the square be?

“Looking at the huge parking lot in front of him, Zhao Yu knew clearly that if there was such a place, it would definitely be in the deepest part of the parking lot, as it was the closest to Liberation Square!”

But what Zhao Yu couldn’t be sure of was whether the suspect would be there now.

“Well, it didn’t matter!”

“Zhao Yu thought that since the other places had already been monitored by Jake’s men, it would be better to go and look. Even if they couldn’t catch the murderer, they might be able to find other clues.”

“Therefore, he no longer hesitated. He quickened his pace and ran towards the deepest part of the parking lot ...”

“Due to the large area of the National Hospital, many vehicles did not need to be parked in the underground parking lot, so the parking lot was empty. There were not many vehicles in sight.”

“Moreover, most of the vehicles parked here were old and run-down zombie cars, as if no one had been here for a long time.”

Clang ...

“Just as Zhao Yu was searching, he suddenly heard the sound of a door slamming from the deepest part of the parking lot.”

Eh?

“Zhao Yu sped up and finally ran to the innermost corner. He saw that the corner of the wall was filled with rubbish, and the air was filled with a moldy smell.”

“As the light was dim, Zhao Yu turned on the flashlight on his phone. He scanned the inner wall and immediately saw a small door on the left wall.”

“The small door was an iron door that had been badly embroidered. Zhao Yu pulled with his hand, and the small door creaked open.”

The smell behind the door was even worse. It was as if he had entered a toilet that had not been cleaned for a long time.

“Zhao Yu didn’t know what this place was for, but he knew that it was the closest area to the liberation light.”

“Thus, he entered the small house without hesitation and groped deeper.”

“The house wasn’t big. After walking for a short while, he found an old staircase.”

He looked up the stairs and felt that the sound of the door closing seemed to have come from above.

“Thus, he went up the stairs and realized that the space here was much larger than he had imagined. There were two floors above the stairs, and on both sides of the stairs were corridors that stretched as far as the eye could see. There were even small rooms in the corridors ...”

“There was a lot of graffiti on the wall, and among the graffiti, Zhao Yu also saw many particularly old-fashioned words and slogans, as well as some unrecognizable portraits.”

“Looking at the ground, there was a mess of junk everywhere. Broken tables and chairs were almost everywhere.”

Oh ...

“At this point, Zhao Yu finally understood a little. It turned out that the place that was connected to the underground parking lot of the hospital was most likely the air-raid shelter that had existed during the war!”

Chapter 1624: mad pursuit

“It turned out that not all the air-raid shelters were flooded. Because this place was connected to the hospital, no one had found this place before. ”

“Thinking about this, Zhao Yu felt that his deduction was correct. In this air-raid shelter, there should be an exit that was connected to the square! ”

“Thus, he quickened his pace and climbed up the stairs to the top floor. In the end, when the stairs extended to the end, he was blocked by a wall. ”

Zhao Yu shone his flashlight at the door and saw that there was another old metal door on the wall!

“Through the small metal door, he could hear the sound of a car driving past, which meant that there was a road outside. ”

“Yes, this is the place! ”

“Zhao Yu quickly pulled the door, but found that it was locked and could not be opened. ”

“However, how could a small lock stop Zhao Yu? He used the universal lock opener, and the hidden lock opened with a sound. The old iron door made a heavy squeak. ”

“The moment he opened the small door, Zhao Yu felt a cold wind blowing in his face, and the temperature suddenly dropped. ”

“Looking out, a narrow road appeared in front of them. As it was late at night, there were no vehicles on the road. ”

“Looking further into the distance, there were two majestic buildings on the opposite side of the road. It was the Cathedral located on the west side of Liberation Square, and past the Cathedral was Liberation Square. ”

As expected!

Zhao Yu carefully observed the environment outside and found that there was a narrow alley between the two churches.

“If the suspect used this route to carry the victim to the square, it would be easy to avoid the surveillance cameras and some shops. ”

Eh?

Wait ...

“Just as Zhao Yu was about to walk out of the air-raid shelter, he suddenly found something white next to the metal door. ”

“As this thing was relatively new, it was in stark contrast to the other old junk in the cave. ”

Zhao Yu took a look and saw that it was a white shirt.

Oh ...

“Zhao Yu recognized it at a glance. It was the uniform of the nurse in the hospital, exactly the same as the one worn by the suspect who had pretended to be a nurse! ”

“Needless to say, this was most likely left behind by the suspect. ”

The sound of the iron door that she had heard just now should have come from him. He must have escaped from here!

“Good, smart enough! ”

“Zhao Yu thought that the suspect knew that the police would lock down the hospital building after the incident, so he didn’t take the risk of driving the ambulance, but chose to sneak away from here. ”

Hmph Hmph ...

It’s a pity that you met your great detective Zhao. Let’s see where you can escape to this time.

“Zhao Yu didn’t rush to give chase, but took out the invisible tracking device that he had prepared earlier and used it on himself. ”

“After using it, he could be like a tracking dog. He could confirm the smell on the clothes and then follow the suspect. ”

“The device was magical. Zhao Yu sniffed the smell on his clothes, and the system screen showed a tracking display. ”

“Zhao Yu had used this device before, and based on the concentration of the smell, the suspect should not have run far. ”

“After walking out of the door, Zhao Yu not only caught the suspect’s smell, but also saw his movement clearly. ”

“Unexpectedly, after the criminal escaped from the air-raid shelter, he actually ran along the alley between the two churches and ran towards liberation Square. ”

“This guy was really bold. He clearly knew that the square was the most dangerous place, but he still ran there? ”

“Alright, I’ll see where you can run to! ”

“Thinking of this, Zhao Yu strode across the road, wanting to follow the suspect’s trail. ”

“In the end, an awkward accident happened! ”

“Zhao Yu had just crossed the road when an electric police car came out of nowhere and stopped at the entrance of the alley, blocking Zhao Yu’s way. ”

“““Don’t move!”” The police officer in the car immediately jumped out, waved the baton in his hand, and shouted at Zhao Yu,““don’t move! Don’t move!”” ”

What the f * ck?

“Zhao Yu was depressed. He was at a critical moment in tracking down a criminal, but he was treated as a suspect by the local police. Who could he find to reason with?”

“As they spoke, three police officers jumped out of the police car and surrounded Zhao Yu. ”

“Just as Zhao Yu was about to call Jecca, a police officer rushed over and grabbed his arm. ”

“““Don’t move! Put your hands down!”” The police were shouting loudly as they pinned Zhao Yu’s hands behind his back and pressed him against the front hood of the car. ”

“““Hey, hey, hey ... We’re on the same side! I want to, I want to make a phone call! Can you make a call?”” Zhao Yu reached out to grab his phone, but the police behind him held him down, not allowing him to move. ”

“““Motherf * cker! Are you guys stupid?”” Zhao Yu asked in the local language,““take a good look. I’m not a local. Asian, Asian ... Could I be a criminal?”” ”

“““What?”” The three police officers were stunned. One of them muttered,““what bear? Black bear or black bear? Is he laughing at us?”” ”

“Zhao Yu was depressed again, but he didn’t have time to explain, as he suddenly found an unusual situation on the system screen. ”

“For some reason, the suspect’s scent suddenly became much stronger than before! ”

Eh?

“Zhao Yu quickly followed the smell and looked forward, only to see that the smell was coming from the alley in front of him. ”

“In the end, just as he took a look, he suddenly saw that there was someone hiding in the depths of the alley! ”

“Although the alley was dark, Zhao Yu could still tell from the smell and the person’s silhouette that this person should be the suspect from the gong Gong! ”

He ... Why did he come back?

“Zhao Yu was still wondering, but the suspect in the alley saw that Zhao Yu had found him, so he quickly turned around and ran away. ”

F * ck!

“This time, Zhao Yu was really anxious. Was there a better opportunity than this? ”

How could he let her go?

“In his panic, Zhao Yu went crazy. Taking advantage of the fact that the police officer who was holding him down was distracted, he pulled his arm back and turned around from the hood. ”

Eh?

“The police were shocked, and they quickly waved their batons at Zhao Yu. ”

Zhao Yu made up his mind and immediately grabbed a police officer to block the baton for him. He then kicked the other police officer to the ground!

“Then, he held the head of the policeman in his arms and hit the hood of the car with a bang. The man passed out immediately.”

“”Ah!?”” ”

“The police officer holding the baton was dumbfounded. He quickly picked up the walkie-talkie and called for backup. Zhao Yu gave him a heavy punch, giving him a concussion and blue eyes.”

“After knocking down the three police officers, Zhao Yu wanted to go after the suspect.”

“However, after running two steps, he found that the electric car used by the police was not bad. It was mini and could pass through the alley.”

“So, he calmly opened the door and got into the car. Then, he stepped on the electric door and drove the electric police car into the alley.”

“However, Zhao Yu’s calculation was a little wrong. The alley was actually a horn-shaped alley, and the deeper he went, the narrower it became.”

“Zhao Yu was also crazy, so he simply stepped on the electric door to the bottom, and the car suddenly flew over like a cannonball!”

“With a loud bang, the rear view mirror of the car fell off, and all four windows were shattered!”

“The exterior of the car also squeezed through the alley, and when the car drove out of the alley, it was a lot more sunken than before ...”

Chapter 1625: Accidental and inevitable

“Perhaps it was because he had experienced too many similar incidents in the past, Zhao Yu always thought that this time would be the same as chasing the murderer alone. He thought that he would have to have an intense chase and bloody battle with the suspect before he could finally catch him. Then, he would be in the limelight, be high-profile, and be admired by thousands of people ...”

“However, the reality was completely different from what he had imagined. When he drove the electric police car to an open area in the square and was about to catch up with the suspect ...”

Dozens of police officers and soldiers rushed out from the flowers nearby. These people swarmed up and almost lifted Zhao Yu’s electric car into the air.

“Not long after, Zhao Yu and the suspect were pressed down on the ground by the crowd. They could no longer move, and the situation was extremely awkward.”

“At that moment, Zhao Yu finally understood why the suspect had come back from the square when he had already escaped.”

Jecca opened it and his eyes suddenly lit up.

“There were surgical tools such as scalpels, scissors, gloves, and needles in the waist bag. He rummaged further in and found a black wallet. ”

Jieka and Zhao Yu could tell at a glance that this wallet was exactly the same as the one from the wallet murder case.

“From this, they were even more certain that the suspect in front of them was the Wufu murderer of the wallet murder case! ”

“At this time, Eureka and the others had returned from the fight. Under the arrangement of Jecca, they took the suspect yankohler into their own car and went straight to Jecca’s mansion. ”

“As the general was also one of the deceased, the higher-ups asked Jecca to deal with the case in secret. Once he found any information, he would report it directly to the top leader of corsovia. ”

“Therefore, Jecca couldn’t openly bring the suspect back to the police station for interrogation, so he could only take him back to his own home temporarily. ”

“”Hahaha ...”” On the way back, Jecca laughed and praised Zhao yu,””China’s top detective is indeed worthy of his reputation!”” “”Look ...”” He pointed to his watch.””It’s almost dawn, and there are still five hours before you board the plane. You actually did it!”” This was a miracle! Hahaha ...”” ”

“”Wahaha ... It’s just a small matter,”” Zhao Yu said ‘modestly’.””In China, I’m known as the master of unsolved cases. The reason why your case is so difficult to solve is that you don’t have the patience to look for the past!”” ”

“”I’ve really learned a lot!”” Jecca said with satisfaction,””fortunately, I found the right person! Otherwise, the case would become an unsolved case ... ”

“”But ... Come to think of it, we’re really lucky today!”” “”I don’t understand. It has been more than four months since the general was killed, but why did the suspect only think of taking revenge on Nikola today?”” ”

“”Four months? Can’t I do it another day? If we miss this day, we won’t be able to find him again!”” ”

“”Wrong!”” Zhao Yu said,””that’s how solving a case works. There are coincidences and inevitability. I believe that even if we don’t meet him today, he won’t be able to escape from the law!”” ”

“”Oh?”” Jieka was curious.””How do you know?”” ”

“”Hehe ...”” Zhao Yu smiled and said with confidence,””the suspect had a syringe in the ward, a wheelchair at the door, a wallet and other tools ...”” ”

“”We have reason to conclude that he is going to attack Nicholas tonight, right? ”

“”However, he didn’t know that we had found the root of the problem and had arranged for a large number of police officers to find bomb shelters in Liberation Square. ”

“”So, even if we weren’t in the hospital when he attacked Nikola tonight, we might have been caught by the police in the square!”” ”

““““Oh ... That’s true ... But ...”“ Jake said respectfully,“““in any case, without your brilliant investigation, we wouldn’t have been able to find out this much! ”

““““So ... At the end of the day, it’s all because of you that we can get what we have today! I’m so grateful! Hahaha ...”“ ”

““““You just said that you don’t understand why the murderer didn’t kill Nikola in the four months after the general’s death, right?”“ Zhao Yu said,“““I kind of understand now.”“ ”

““““Oh? Is that so?”“ Asked Jecca. ”

““““I guess, because Nicholas was terminally ill and did not have much time left, the murderer was hesitating whether or not he should take his heart and Exchange it for a wallet to pay tribute to the little boy. ”

““““Now, after he killed the other three people, he might not be satisfied, so he set his eyes on Nikola!”“ Zhao Yu said,“““looking at Nicolay’s situation, it seems that he can’t hold on much longer! ”

““““So, after some internal struggle, the murderer finally decided to kill him with his own hands?”“ ”

““““Hehehe ...”“ Jecca smiled and nodded.“““No matter what, we’ve caught him! No matter how many questions there are, we’ll soon have all the answers!”“ ”

Chapter 1626: engraved in one’s heart

“When the group escorted the suspect to Jake’s mansion, the sky was already starting to turn white. It was getting closer to the time when Zhao Yu would leave cossovia. ”

Jieka seemed to understand Zhao Yu’s thoughts. He knew that Zhao Yu wanted to find out the whole story of the wallet murder case before he left.

“Hence, he sped up the interrogation and brought the suspect to the underground wine cellar in his house. ”

“As the evidence was conclusive and the crime was clear, the suspect yankohler already knew that he was done for, so he no longer resisted and remained silent. He confessed his crime to Jecca and Zhao Yu on the spot. ”

“However, after jankohler spoke, his previous dejection was replaced by anger and agitation. He was extremely excited. ”

““““Hmph! I’ve saved the dying and helped the wounded on the front lines, and served the country, but in the end, what did I get in return? My son is only six years old, six years old! ”

““““Even if he is guilty, he shouldn’t be beaten to death, right? ”

““““What country is this? What system? Shooting a 6-year-old child in public, is there any humanity left in him? ”

““““So what if it’s a time of war? Even if he was the enemy’s child, he shouldn’t be so cruel! ”

“““Let me tell you, all the people I killed deserve to die! They killed my child, they all deserve to die! I think I’ve killed too few ...”” ”

Son?

“Hearing that, Zhao Yu suddenly understood. ”

It turned out that the wallet murder case was really the Father’s revenge for his son!

“““ ...”” Jecka had interrogated countless vicious criminals, but in front of this father who had lost his child, he was obviously a little timid. He clenched his fists for a long time before saying to him,“““don’t get too excited!”” First, tell me, what’s your name?”” ”

“““Lamantaff!”” The man said his name and then continued excitedly,“““I used to be a surgeon. During the war, I was recruited by the military as a military doctor to save the soldiers on the front line. ”

“““Do you know how many people I’ve saved? “““I love our people and our country with all my heart, but I never dreamed ...”” Ramantaff roared,“““the ones who killed my children were the soldiers of the country I love. Our own soldiers, the soldiers I saved with great efforts! ”

“““Ah!”” ”

“After roaring at the sky, he continued to bemoan the state of the universe and pity the fate of mankind as he shouted,“““If ... My child was killed by the enemy! I was killed by a bomb. Even if I starved to death because I didn’t have food, or even got into a car accident, I accepted my fate because my child was unlucky! ”

“““However, he was executed in public by our general and soldiers in such a cruel way! ”

“““How can I still be in awe of this country? how can I still be loyal to this decadent system that can’t distinguish between black and white? ”

“““Ah!?”” ”

“A furious roar resounded through the clouds, shaking everyone to the point that no one could speak. ”

“““Listen up, think about it ...”” Lamantaff’s eyes were red as he roared,“““if the one who was killed was your own child, what would you do? ”

“““Will you be disappointed in this country? Will you be filled with anger, huh?”” ”

“In an instant, the entire wine cellar fell silent. No one could answer his question. ”

“““Hmph ...”” Lamantaff said coldly,“““Did you know? After I killed him, I also felt regret! ”

“““However, I don’t regret killing them. I just realized that even if I killed them, I couldn’t calm the anger in my heart! ”

“““Did you guys think that when I saw that Nicholas had cancer, I hesitated whether I should kill him or not? ”

“““Let me tell you,”” he said fiercely,””the reason why I killed him last was that I wanted him to have a good taste of the pain brought by the disease. After he had tasted the pain, I would take out his heart and offer it to my child!!!”” ”

“Oh, oh ... ”

“Hearing this, Zhao Yu couldn’t help but sigh. It seemed that he had underestimated the murderer’s resentment. ”

“““I have a question.”” Jecca didn’t act arrogantly towards the murderer who was filled with resentment. Instead, he changed the topic at the right time and asked,””I can understand that the general had captured your child and that Nicholas had pulled the gun! ”

“““But ... What does it have to do with linkolov? The painter? Why did you kill him?”” ”

“““Hmph!”” Lamantaff said coldly,””my Weidi is very obedient and sensible. I once warned him not to touch the things of the dead, so he will not touch them at all. ”

“““Linkolov stole the wallet! ““He saw a soldier coming to check, so he gave the wallet to my Weidi. So, the damned person should have been him!”” ”

“““Ah!”” ”

Everyone was shocked. No one had thought that the painter’s death would be due to this reason.

“““Does that mean that Wade is your son’s name?”” “““You weren’t there at the time,”” said Jecca.””How can you be sure that linkolov gave your son the wallet?”” ”

“““Yeah,”” Eureka said,””even if linkolov saw the soldiers after he stole the wallet, he could have just thrown it away. Why do you have to give it to your child?”” ”

“““I don’t know ...”” Lamantaff said disdainfully.””I only heard it from other children later! They all saw it. It was linkolov who personally stuffed the wallet into Wade’s hands!”” ”

“““Oh?”” “““You’re right.”” Jake frowned.””So, before you killed linkolov, you didn’t ask him?”” What if you killed the wrong person?”” ”

“““Why should I ask him?”” Lamantaff said fiercely,””as long as he is related to my son’s death, he must be buried with my son! ”

“““Not only him, those who were watching the fun, those who did not help my son plead for mercy, those indifferent bystanders, all have to take responsibility for my son’s death! ”

“““I finally know why I can’t vent my anger even after killing these few enemies! ”

“““Because other than killing them, I should also kill this rotten country that can’t be saved!”” Lamantaff gritted his teeth and said,””let me tell you, if you don’t catch me today, I will take more intense revenge! Ah ...”” ”

“Ramantaff twisted his body like crazy, trying to break free. ”

Jecka’s men quickly surrounded him and held him down.

“”Tsk, tsk, tsk ...” Jecca pouted and shook his head. He felt very upset. ”

“Clearly, he had also fallen into a difficult-to-distinguish contradiction in values ... ”

“”Since your hatred is so great,”” Zhao Yu took the opportunity to ask his doubts,””then what were you doing earlier? Why did you wait until more than 20 years after this incident before you thought of revenge?”” ”

“”I ... Um ...”” Lamantaff hesitated and said,””I wanted to take revenge, but there was an accident. I ... I ...”” ”

“Looking at lamantaff’s hesitation, Zhao Yu suddenly had an idea. ”

“”I did want to take revenge, but a bomb fell.”” Lamantaff tilted his head and pointed to his forehead with his eyes.””I was blown up! ”

“”When I woke up again, I was already in podgoricha, a captive!”” ”

“”I spent the first few years in the prisoner of war camp. ”

“”I was finally released, but the southern Alliance collapsed and I was trapped in Montenegro ... ”

“”At that time, I was only thinking of returning to corsovia to avenge my child, so I took the risk to cross the border. In the end, I was captured again ... ”

“”After that, I was locked up in Montenegro prison for a few years. After I was released, I went back to my old job and worked as a doctor in vilpanzar for a few years ... ”

“”Because of the stain, I tried many times but failed to get the documents. There is no way to return to corsovia through the normal procedures. ”

“”After the first lesson, I didn’t dare to take the risk of crossing the border again. I had to think of a way slowly. It wasn’t until two years ago that I finally got the documents and went to Taipei. ”

“”Let me tell you,”” lamantaff narrowed his eyes and said,””once upon a time, I also thought that my hatred would weaken with the passing of time! ”

“”However, it’s the exact opposite. The closer I am to my hometown, the more unforgettable the hatred is!”” ”

Chapter 1627: The last suspicious point (part one)

Jecca came to lamantaff and pressed his head. He looked at him carefully and saw a scar on his forehead.

“From this, it could be seen that it was true that he had been hit by a bomb in his head. ”

“Seeing this, Jecca’s face showed a gratified expression and he let out a long sigh of relief. ”

“Zhao Yu knew that, although lamantaff’s incident was a pity, this was the result that Jecca was more willing to see. ”

“This was because, for a long time, they had suspected that the wallet murder case had political assassination factors. They were worried that investigating this case would involve too many political interests, which would cause turmoil in the country and be detrimental to the stability and development of the country. ”

It was also because of this that the leader of Corsovia had asked Jecca to investigate in secret and report it to him personally.

“However, now that the truth had been revealed, there was no need to investigate in secret. ”

“As the case was a serial murder, it was purely the murderer’s personal revenge and did not involve too many political factors. ”

““Heart ...”” Jecca let go of Lamantaff’s head and asked, ““where did you put the heart you took?”” ”

““I threw it into the sewer!”” Lamantaff replied without hesitation. ”

““You!”” Jecca clenched his fists. He was about to explode, but he suppressed his temper and said, ““then tell me how you committed the crime. Why did you kill people in this way?”” ”

““Hmph, you can catch me. Don’t you understand why I killed people like this?”” Lamantaff sneered. ““They won’t even let go of a child. Their hearts are all black. What’s the use of keeping them?” ”

““My son died because of a wallet, so of course I have to return the wallet to them!”” ”

““The wallet that was stuffed into the victim’s heart, did you make it yourself?”” Asked Jecca. ”

““Right!”” Lamantaff replied coldly, ““I’ve seen that kind of wallet before. It was made from memory!”” ”

““Hmph, you have a good memory!”” ““Let me ask you, where’s the child’s mother?”” ”

““The child died of an illness when he was two years old!”” Lamantaff replied, ““if my wife was still here, she wouldn’t have let Wade get close to the dead, and that wouldn’t have happened!”” ”

““Then ...”” Jecca asked again, ““when the child was shot, was there no one to take care of him?”” ”

““Right!”” ““My relatives are all dead,”” lamantaff said sadly. ““Only my son and I are left!”” ”

““As for me, I have to treat the wounded and serve the country. I can’t take care of the children! If I had known that such a thing would happen, I would have rather taken my child to the front line ...”” ”

“Next, lamantaff confessed his crime from beginning to end. ”

“Just as Zhao Yu had expected, lamantaff had returned to Corsovia with only one purpose, which was to find his enemy and take revenge for his son. ”

“For this reason, he found a job as an ambulance driver at the National Hospital. Then, he began to inquire about information and collect information about his enemies. ”

“Because he was good at disguising himself, every time he followed his enemy, he would carefully disguise himself, so Jecca and the others did not see any problems in the previous surveillance video. ”

“In order to make his revenge plan flawless, lamantaff carefully prepared for more than a year before finally carrying out the plan, killing the painter, the captain of the military police, and the general in turn.”

“At the time of the crime, he had used the hospital’s ambulance as his means of transportation. He first knocked out the victim and loaded him into the ambulance, then drove the car directly to the innermost part of the hospital’s underground parking lot.”

“After that, he carried the victim out of the bomb shelter through the small door, crossed the road, passed through the alleys between churches, and entered Liberation Square.”

“As he had inspected the Square’s environment in advance, he had successfully avoided the cameras and arrived at the designated location to kill the victim.”

“Back then, when Jake and the others were investigating the case, they had paid attention to the ambulance that he used. However, through the video, they found out that the ambulance was not driving to Liberation Square, but really to the hospital.”

“Hence, they thought that the ambulance was on a mission and did not investigate further.”

He had to admit that the idea of using an ambulance was indeed brilliant.

“The case happened in the middle of the night, and it was the least suspicious for an ambulance to be on the road in the middle of the night. People would naturally think that the ambulance was trying to save a patient.”

“As for the other suspicious point, Jecca and Zhao Yu also got the answer from lamantaff.”

“It was a coincidence. After lamantaff killed the general, he knew that the police and military would be mobilized to investigate the whole city. So, he had been hiding in the hospital and continued to drive his ambulance.”

“To his surprise, Nicolay, who was suffering from cancer, was also admitted to the National Hospital.”

“So, he applied to the hospital to be a part-time nurse, and using his identity as a nurse as a cover, he slowly approached Nicholas and inquired about his situation.”

“Of course, in order to not leave any traces, he could not directly become Nicholas’s caretaker. Besides, Nicholas had his own caretaker.”

“As lamantaff himself said, from the beginning, he had no intention of letting Nicholas go. The reason why he did not attack him first was that he wanted to let Nicholas taste pain and then kill him!”

“Therefore, four months after the general’s death, he felt that the police had calmed down a lot, so he decided to repeat the same thing and take Nicholas ‘heart.’”

“However, he never expected that Zhao Yu and the others had already found out about Nicholas and caught him red-handed.”

“Just like that, with the confession of the criminal, the truth of the wallet murder case was finally revealed, and Zhao Yu finally gave Jecca a perfect explanation before he left cossovia.”

.....

“At Ten o’ clock in the morning, in order to express his gratitude, Jecca insisted on personally driving Zhao Yu to the airport. ”

“The Land Rover was driven steadily and slowly by Jecca, and there were only him and Zhao Yu in the car. ”

“”To be honest, this case really makes people unhappy,”” Jecca said to Zhao Yu sadly.””I used to be a hot-blooded person with a special sense of home and country, and I worked hard every day for the country’s ideals. ”

“”I’ve also experienced the days of war ... Perhaps, in times of war, the emergency decree is not wrong. However, something like a child being shot shouldn’t have happened ...”” ”

“Listening to Jecca’s pitiable words, Zhao Yu didn’t know how to comfort him. Although Lamantaff was wrong to kill, the reason for him to vent his anger and kill people was thought-provoking. ”

It seemed that war was indeed the catalyst for all evil and the source of all pain.

“Zhao Yu couldn’t help but secretly rejoice that his country was peaceful and stable. Otherwise, there would probably be more cases like this! ”

“”Lamantaff said,”” said Jecca,””that if he hadn’t been caught by us today, he would have considered joining the resistance. In the future, he would have become a major threat to us! ”

“”So, I really don’t know what words I can use to thank you! ”

“”As for you, don’t reject me. I’ve already transferred 1 million euros to your account. Take it as %... To make up for the regret that I didn’t let the dancers entertain you well!”” ”

“”You!”” Zhao Yu’s face tensed up, and he scolded him righteously,””old ka, how could you do this? Am I, Zhao Yu, a greedy person? Aren’t you making it clear that you don’t treat me as a friend? Are you looking down on me? Speak! Isn’t that right?”” ”

“”Well ...”” Jake was in a difficult position. ”

“After a few minutes, Zhao Yu finally took out his phone and asked seriously,””Hey, which account did the money go to? Why haven’t I received a message notification? Don’t transfer the wrong money again. Are you sure it’s in euros? The euro seems to be more valuable than RMB ...”” ”

“” ...”” Jecca felt like he was about to be burnt ... ”

Chapter 1628: The last suspicious point (part two)

“”Detective Zhao, Did you know? ””There are a lot of fun places in Morocco,”” Jecca said to Zhao Yu as he drove into the airport.””If you need, I can introduce you to a few. You can pick me up there and I can give you a discount ...”” ”

“Zhao Yu grinned. ””Boss, I’m going to save my father-in-law!”” Not to have fun!”” ”

""Hahaha ..."" Jake shook his head. ""I'm just joking!"" I mean, I have people in Morocco. If you encounter any difficulties, feel free to look for me. "

""Also, old Miao and I are very close after all. No matter what, I can't just stand by and do nothing!"" ""I'll get my men to investigate carefully. I'll inform you as soon as I find any useful information!"" Said Jake solemnly. "

""Alright, I'll thank you on behalf of my father-in-law!"" Zhao Yu nodded in thanks. "

""Well ..."" Jecca opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but because the car had already reached the security check, he had to stop and accept the inspection. "

"Of course, Jecca had a pass specially approved by the Prime Minister, so the inspection was just routine. "

"After the inspection, Jecca drove straight into the airport and drove all the way to the plane that Zhao Yu was going to take. "

""Here, this is the first-class ticket. I have also arranged a sumptuous lunch for you."" Jieka handed the ticket and some related documents to Zhao Yu. ""The plane will take off in 30 minutes. You can wait up there now."" "

"Zhao Yu took the ticket and thanked her, then took his luggage and got out of the car. "

"This was the first time he had boarded a plane directly from the airport, and it felt a little fresh. After getting off the car, he looked up and saw that the huge airport was filled with all kinds of planes, and each one was extremely huge ... "

""Come on!"" Jecca came up to Zhao Yu and gave him a small hug, just like he had done before. "

"Although the action of hugging was the same, the hug now was obviously more sincere than when he had welcomed him. "

"Through Zhao Yu's perfect performance, Jecca had been deeply impressed by Zhao Yu and regarded him as a reliable friend. "

""Okay,"" Zhao Yu looked at Jecca up and down, then pointed to the plane's aisle, ""in that case, I'll get on the plane first. I look forward to coming to your place to watch the dancers in the future!"" "

""Hehe ..."" Jieka smiled. After seeing that Zhao Yu had turned around, he couldn't help but ask, ""detective Zhao, you did it on purpose, right?"" "

""What?"" Zhao Yu was surprised. He turned around and asked, ""what do you mean? What do you mean on purpose?"" "

""Haha ..."" Jecca let out a heavy breath, then looked at Zhao Yu with a complicated expression. ""When we were interrogating lamantaff, I noticed that your expression was a little off! Hahaha ..."" "

"Hearing this, Zhao Yu's heart tightened. He immediately stopped smiling and asked, ""Oh, really? What's wrong?"" "

""Hehe, I guess ..."" Jecca laughed and said, ""you must have found that flaw at that time, right?"" "

""Oh?"" Zhao Yu raised his eyebrows. ""A flaw?"" "

""Right!"" ""That man is not called ramantaff, nor is he called yankohler,"" Jecca said. ""The crime he told us is half true and half false! "

""I think you already knew which ones were fake, right? But ... You deliberately didn't say it ..."" "

""Tsk tsk ..."" Zhao Yu showed an impatient expression, bit his lip, and said, ""old ka, there are some things that you don't have to reveal, right?"" "

""Hahaha ..."" Jake clapped his hands and said, ""you're a genius detective indeed. I knew you'd already seen through the whole case."" "

""In fact, in this case, we still have one last doubt that we haven't found the answer to! Right?"" "

""Right!"" Zhao Yu saw that Jake had already revealed it, so there was no need to hide it anymore. He immediately said, ""after spending so many years in prison, you should have been out of touch with society long ago! "

""Even if he got out of prison and returned to corsovia, and made a lot of preparations for this, it would be impossible to do it so flawlessly! So ..."" "

""So ..."" Jieka continued, ""he should have an unknown partner in crime!!"" "

Zhao Yu remained silent and did not comment.

""It's true that lamantaff killed someone, but he lied about his identity,"" Jecca continued. ""This means that he wants to protect his partner from us. "

""But, it's a pity ..."" Jecca said helplessly. ""We used facial recognition and some other technical means to find out his real information, confirm his identity, and find out his past. "

""He's indeed a war Doctor. His real name is diwartz. His experience of being in exile abroad is pretty much the same as what he said ... "

""So, according to this information, I now know who his accomplices are! "

""But ... Detective Zhao, I'm really curious now. Are you really that amazing?"" Jecca walked closer to Zhao Yu and asked without blinking, ""did you already know who your accomplice was? "

""So, that's why you've been keeping silent?"" "

""I don't know ..."" Zhao Yu shook his head and said, ""but I can guess that this accomplice is his Qianqian's wife, right?"" "

""Beautiful, beautiful!"" ""That's amazing!"" Jake clapped for Zhao Yu, full of admiration. No wonder Female always looked so proud when she mentioned you! "

""I'm really convinced!"" ""Can you tell me how you guessed it?"" "

""We can 't!"" Zhao Yu said simply, ""it's a unique skill, passed down to men, not women!"" "

"" ... "" Jeckmond's face was smoking. "

""I'm just joking,"" Zhao Yu said, pointing to his finger.""Last night, when we saw the murderer in the ward, did you notice that the murderer was wearing a ring on his ring finger? "

""But when the police caught him, the ring was gone! "

""Later on, when you interrogated the murderer and asked him if his child had a mother, his answer was a little too fast. It was obviously different from the previous rhythm. "

""So, from that time on, I had already suspected that his wife might still be alive, and that she was most likely his accomplice! "

""Think about it, if I'm the murderer and you're my brother or relative, and I come back to kill the general for revenge, will you help me? "

""So, the murderer's accomplice must be someone who shared the same stand and hatred as him!"" Zhao Yu said,""I guess, for things like knowing the general's whereabouts, it should have been done by this accomplice, right?"" "

"At this point, Jecka was dumbfounded. After a long time, he clapped again and said,"""That's amazing. Is there any case in this world that you can't solve? "

""No wonder that 'wife' Juliet keeps pestering you! If you can help her solve all those unsolved cases in the world, then she can also achieve success and become famous!"" "

""But ..."" Zhao Yu said with a solemn expression,""as for the wallet murder case, it was a sin in itself! Old ka, I think you should know why I don't want to reveal it, right?"" "

""I understand, I understand! AI!"" Jecka sighed heavily and said,""we've found out that the murderer's wife is a doctor at the National Hospital, and she's also a high-level leader who holds real power. That's why the murderer was able to get into the hospital so smoothly ..."" "

Chapter 1629: Seeing the dancer again

""Speaking of which, it's really legendary,"" said Jecka sadly.""The incident with the diwartz couple can be made into a Hollywood blockbuster! "

""You know what? Back then, the two of them were actually field doctors! "

""They were supposed to take turns to look after the child, but after the big bombing, due to the sudden increase in casualties and a shortage of manpower, the two of them had to go to the front line together and left the child alone in the air-raid shelter. "

""And at this time, something like that happened. How could they not be angry? So ... "

""AI!"" Jecka sighed.""Later, the murderer did become a prisoner of war because of the bomb explosion, but the explosion was so powerful that everyone thought he was dead, including his wife. "

“““After that, due to a lack of information and other reasons, he didn’t get in touch with his wife until he returned to corsovia through his own efforts. Only then did they reunite and recognize each other again ...”

“““His wife never remarried. I think that even though she has become a high-ranking official in the hospital, she must still be brooding over her son’s death.”

“““So, when she reunited with her former husband, their common hatred was catalyzed and sublimated. That’s why they conspired to commit the wallet murder!”“ ”

“““I don’t care about other things. After all, this is your case, so I can’t interfere too much,”“ Zhao Yu said calmly.”“But, isn’t the word ‘conspiracy’ a little too serious?”

“““Although his wife was an accomplice, she was also a mother who had lost her child. Now, she has also lost her husband.”

“““There’s an old China saying that goes,”“be benevolent and believe in the world.”“ Since the real murderer of the wallet murder case has already been arrested, why do you have to add more souls to the debt you owe from the last century?”“ ”

“After saying these words, the way Jecca looked at Zhao Yu had changed from admiration to respect, as if Zhao Yu had become a God.”

“““Yes,”“ Jake nodded humbly as if he was speaking to a superior.”“I will ask my superior for this.”“ ”

“““The wallet murder case is indeed a sin to our country. Once it is announced to the public, it will definitely cause a great uproar. I don’t think the higher-ups want to investigate it further, right?”

“““But, just in case, we still have to monitor her to prevent her from doing anything out of line!”“ ”

“““Mm, that’s good!”“ Zhao Yu looked at his watch.”“In that case, I’ll get on the plane first!”“ ”

“““Good, good, have a safe journey! Have a safe journey!”“ ”

“Jecca saluted Zhao Yu with respect, and Zhao Yu got on the plane.”

.....

“Ten minutes later, the engine of the plane roared, and the plane that Zhao Yu was in took off smoothly.”

“Zhao Yu’s seat was by the window. He lowered his head and looked at the gradually decreasing crowd, streets, and cities.”

To be benevolent and believe in the world!

“Hehe, when he thought of this famous saying, he only felt like laughing, because this saying was not an ancient saying at all, but something he had just made up on the spot.”

“Although he didn’t understand what it meant, he felt that it was quite suitable for the environment just now. At least it raised his level to a new height!”

It could be said that Zhao Yu had gained quite a lot from this trip to corsovia.

“Not only did he fulfill his promise to Jecca and help him solve the unsolved case, but he also took the opportunity to take revenge on that black-hearted adult website. ”

“At the same time, he had also completed the task given to him by the Secret Service. He had found out that there was no connection between Jake and Miao kun’s disappearance. ”

“Of course, more importantly, Zhao Yu had also gained a bigger reward, which was the one million that Jecca had given him as a thank you! ”

“That was euro. If it was converted into RMB, it was really expensive. ”

“Even though Zhao Yu was already a billionaire, he still felt very excited. ”

“He felt that if he could open a hexagram now, a Gen DUI hexagram should be a must, right? ”

“Gen represented that he had solved an unsolved case, and DUI represented that he had collected a sum of ill-gotten wealth, oh no, a high reward! ”

“However, when he mentioned the system, Zhao Yu still felt a little regretful, because if he had been able to get a hexagram in advance, he would have been able to get a lot of devices for solving the case. ”

What a pity. He took a serious look at the hexagram area. There were still two weeks before it was unfrozen.

Zhao Yu was looking forward to the day he could get another hexagram.

“The plane passed through the clouds and flew high into the sky. The city could no longer be seen from the window, and only the mountains could be vaguely seen. ”

“Zhao Yu looked at his mobile phone, and his thoughts followed the departure of corsovia, back to his next step of the plan. ”

“According to Li Jing’s information, so far, secret services had not made any progress in Miao kun’s disappearance. ”

“As the five-day agreement was over, Li Jing couldn’t refuse Zhao Yu’s request to go to Morocco to assist in the investigation. ”

“Zhao Yu knew that the Secret Service had tried so hard to find Miao kun’s whereabouts, but they still couldn’t find him. This showed how serious the matter was. ”

Morocco ...

Zhao Yu’s impression of this mysterious country was only limited to Casabianca and the Sahara Desert.

He didn’t know what mission Miao kun had come all the way to Morocco for. And why did he go missing?

“However, he knew that the person who could kidnap Miao kun so quietly must have a powerful background. Therefore, his trip to moroca this time was bound to be filled with danger, and he had to be on high alert. ”

“Regarding Miao kun’s disappearance, Zhao Yu was not only worried about his father-in-law’s safety, but also his girlfriend, Miao Ying.”

“For the past few days, he had been talking to Miao Ying on the phone every day, talking about the follow-up investigation of the video murder case, as well as some of his daily life.”

“Zhao Yu had a feeling that Miao Ying seemed to have realized something, so every time the conversation was about to end, she would mention Miao kun.”

“They asked why Miao kun hadn’t contacted his family for such a long time, and why he still needed Zhao Yu’s help to find out more.”

“Actually, Zhao Yu didn’t want to hide it from Miao Ying, but even if secret services agreed, Zhao Yu wouldn’t dare to tell Miao Ying the truth.”

“If Miao Ying knew about Miao kun’s disappearance, she would definitely request to come over for an investigation. Zhao Yu, of course, didn’t want her to be in danger.”

“Therefore, he had to be on his guard this time to find Miao kun!”

“After making up his mind, Zhao Yu opened his laptop and started to plan his investigation after he arrived Morocco, as usual.”

“However, after listing out a few lines of action plans, he realized that he knew too little about the case.”

“Up until now, Li Jing had not told him a single word about Miao kun’s disappearance, let alone first-hand information.”

“He could vaguely feel that there must be more sensitive things behind Miao kun’s disappearance. Therefore, he could only go to Morocco his own and meet with the person in charge of secret services. After understanding these secrets, he could then formulate further plans.”

That’s good ...

“After enjoying a sumptuous lunch on the plane, Zhao Yu simply lay down in the luxurious seat and had a good sleep.”

“In addition to hearing his own snoring, he also had a strange dream. He dreamed that he had found Miao kun. In order to thank him, Miao kun had specially taken him to see a dancer’s performance ...”

Chapter 1630: female driver

“The place where Miao kun had an accident was the famous Casabianca, the largest city in Morocco, which was filled with mystery!”

“However, Casabianca wasn’t the capital of moroca despite being the largest city.”

“There was also an airport there, but the flights from Kosovan could not reach there directly. They could only fly to the capital of Morocco, Labrat, and then take a bus there.”

“As soon as Zhao Yu got off the plane from Labrat, he felt a wave of heat. Although he had changed into fresh clothes in advance, he still felt uncomfortable. ”

“After going through the standard procedures, Zhao Yu followed the crowd out of the airport. ”

“According to Li Jing’s instructions, there should be a Special Agent waiting for him there. However, Zhao Yu looked at the exit for a long time, but he didn’t see anyone. ”

Tsk tsk ...

Zhao Yu walked out of the airport and wanted to take a taxi to Casabianca.

“Rataback was only eighty-eight kilometers away from Casabianca. Before he left, Jecca had given Zhao Yu a stack of US dollars as a backup, so the money he had on him was more than enough. ”

“However, just as he waved at a taxi, a black Chevrolet stopped in front of him. ”

“As the car window rolled down, a clear, sweet, and crisp female voice came from the driver’s seat.”” ”

“””Zhao Yu, get in the car!”” ”

Tsk tsk ...

“Zhao Yu first looked around, then carefully sized up the female driver. ”

“In the end, his eyes lit up and his heart throbbed uncontrollably. ”

“The female driver was dressed in black Casual clothes, with a Western-looking electronic watch on her fair arm and a pair of fashionable sunglasses on her angular face. ”

“She was a typical Oriental woman, with her black hair tied into a simple ponytail, and her whole body exuded a sharp and capable aura. Zhao Yu only took one look at her, and felt a sense of deja vu. ”

“Refreshing, agile, and valiant! ”

“Time seemed to have gone back to the past, back to the moment when Zhao Yu had first met Miao Ying. ”

“Similar, they were really too similar! Zhao Yu exclaimed in his heart. Although she did not have a mushroom head, the aura that the woman was giving off was very similar to Miao Ying ‘s. ”

“””Hey! Have you seen enough?”” The woman lowered her head slightly, and her bright eyes looked at Zhao Yu through the gap of her sunglasses. She ordered,””put the luggage in the trunk and get in the car!”” ”

“At this time, several local rental cars had swarmed up from behind the cars. As the rental cars were eager to pick up the passengers, they all honked their horns. ”

“””Oh ...”” Zhao Yu woke up from his daze and quickly put his luggage in the trunk. He then opened the door and sat in the front passenger seat. ”

The female driver stepped on the gas and drove out of the airport.

“After getting into the car, Zhao Yu was curious, wondering what had happened to him. ”

“Ever since he had wooed his goddess Miao Ying, no matter how beautiful a woman he met, he had always been calm and composed. Why was his heart beating so fast when he saw this female driver?”

“Actually, this woman wasn’t that pretty.”

“At least a little worse than Miao Ying, right?”

What was going on?

“Feeling hot and dry, Zhao Yu quickly opened the bottle of mineral water that he had brought with him and took a small sip.”

““I’ve heard a lot about you, detective Zhao. I finally meet you today!”” The female driver drove fast. There were many cars on the road, but she had no intention of slowing down.”“Let me introduce myself. My name is Ding Lan. You can also call me Kelly. Officer Li Jing sent me to pick you up.””

““Ding Lan,”” Zhao Yu complimented,”“that’s a nice name!””

Wuuu ...

“Since they were already on the main road, the female driver drove the Chevrolet even faster, and it even felt like she was driving a car.”

““Oh oh oh ...”” Even Zhao Yu, who was known for his arrogance, felt a little scared. He quickly asked,”“do the traffic police in Morocco not punish speeding?””

““Let’s investigate then. The license plate is fake!”” Ding Lan said indifferently,”“Zhao Yu, you’re a godly detective. Your heroic deeds have long spread throughout the entire Secret Service.”

““It’s a great honor to be working with you today!””

““Um ... You ... You’re too kind!”” Zhao Yu realized that no matter what the woman said, she was emotionless. He could not tell if she was emotional. She probably had received professional training.”

““Mm ...”” Zhao Yu thought for a while, then finally got to the point.”“May I ask if you’re in charge of this case?””

““No,”” Ding Lan replied.”“I’m just your contact and assistant. The situation with Miao kun’s disappearance case is more complicated. Although you’re here to help, officer Li Jing doesn’t want you to meet with the agents in charge of the case.””

““Oh ... I understand!”” Zhao Yu nodded and said,”“it seems that my father-in-law was not just kidnapped!””

“Zhao Yu’s meaning was clear. Since Li Jing didn’t allow him to meet with the Special Agent in Charge of the case, it meant that they were still worried about the nature of Miao kun’s disappearance and suspected that he might have defected.”

“Due to Zhao Yu’s close relationship with Miao kun, they were naturally worried that Zhao Yu might leak confidential information.”

“““Detective, your reaction is so fast. I thought you would be dissatisfied with the leader’s decision!”“
“““I heard that you’re a famous detective. I’m worried that you’ll get mad at me!”“ Ding Lan said, her expression unchanged. ”

“Zhao Yu was speechless for a few seconds, then said,““why do you sound like I’m a Mad Dog?”“ Are you afraid of being bitten by me?”“ ”

“““Pfft.”“ Finally, Ding Lan couldn’t help but chuckle.”“Don’t misunderstand, I’m not trying to provoke you!”“ ”

“““Don’t worry. Even though I won’t meet them, I’ll do my best to cooperate with you. Whether it’s to investigate the case, gather information, apply for resources, or dispatch manpower, just let me know, I’ll help you solve it!”“ ”

“““Mm ...”“ Zhao Yu nodded in agreement, but he was deep in thought. ”

“As his mouth was dry, he opened the bottle again. ”

“At that moment, the car was about to reach the highway toll station. Ding Lan finally slowed down a bit, and Zhao Yu took the opportunity to take a big gulp of the mineral water. ”

“““Also, there’s a reason why the higher-ups sent me here!”“ Ding Lan turned to Zhao Yu and said,““first of all, I’ve always been a Special Agent in North Africa, so I’m familiar with the environment and have connections! ”

“““Secondly, we have a close relationship ...”“ Ding Lan pointed at Zhao Yu and said,““according to family ethics, I should call you ‘brother-in-law’!”“ ”

“Hearing this, Zhao Yu quickly put down the bottle, but he couldn’t swallow the water in his mouth because of his curiosity. Obviously, Zhao Yu didn’t understand what Ding Lan meant. ”

“““It seems that you really don’t know!”“ Ding Lan smiled and said,““actually, Miao kun is my father. I’m his daughter!”“ ”

Pfft ...

“Hearing this shocking sentence, Zhao Yu could no longer hold it in and spat out a mouthful of water onto the car window. ”
