Chapter 1961: Frightened underwater (9)

Cough cough ...

Cough cough ...

Zhao Yu opened his eyes amidst the chaos and found that he had arrived at the bow of the submarine.

“The explosion didn’t ignite any flames, but it sprayed out a lot of metal fragments and a small amount of dust, which made Zhao Yu cough continuously.”

Oh ...

“Zhao Yu felt like his body was falling apart, and his head was buzzing. He was feeling dizzy ...”

“He rested for a while, then finally remembered that at the moment of the explosion, his father-in-law, Miao kun, had held him in his arms and shielded him.”

“Under normal circumstances, even if Miao kun had blocked the explosion, Zhao Yu would not have been able to survive.”

“However, Zhao Yu had several top grade emergency evacuation balls with him. At the critical moment, the evacuation balls had been activated in time, allowing Zhao Yu to survive.”

“It was also because the emergency evacuation ball was round that under the impact of the explosion, he was washed to the bow of the submarine.”

“However, even with the protection of the emergency evacuation ball, Zhao Yu was still severely injured. At this moment, he felt the world spinning around him, and his thoughts were sluggish.”

Cough cough ...

“Zhao Yu looked at the chaotic pressurized cabin and coughed for a long time. He then suddenly remembered something important. Where’s my father-in-law, Miao kun?”

No... Please don’t ...

“Thinking that Miao kun had already been killed in the explosion, Zhao Yu’s heart was filled with excitement. He quickly stood up by supporting himself on the submarine.”

“At this moment, the submarine was slightly tilted by the explosion. The lights on the ceiling were also flickering, and the wires and ceiling were hanging everywhere ...”

“Oh, ah ...”

“Zhao Yu wanted to shout, but found that his throat was full of blood, so he couldn’t make a sound.”

Spit ...

He could only cough a few times to spit out the blood.

“After he vomited, he walked along the bow of the submarine and went in the direction of the cabin door. However, he was surprised to find that his feet were already soaked in water! ”

“” Ah!?” ”

“Zhao Yu was shocked and quickly looked at the place where the explosion had just happened. He saw that there were several huge cracks on the cabin wall, and on the side near the floor, seawater had already gushed in through the cracks. ”

Damn it!

“Zhao Yu quickly looked at the cabin door, but it was still open! ”

“This was bad. If the hatch couldn’t be closed, once the seawater broke through the cabin wall, everyone in the base would be killed! ”

But ... But ...

“Zhao Yu recalled the previous situation and realized that if he wanted to close the door, he would have to grab the laptop from the tall man’s hands! ”

But ... The tall one had already entered the submarine ...

A submarine?

Zhao Yu looked up and suddenly saw that the cover on the top of the submarine was open. The tall man was sticking his body out of the door to look around.

“Looking at his pained and sad expression, he should be feeling sorry for his companion. However, as he watched, Zhao Yu suddenly appeared in his line of sight. ”

“When he saw Zhao Yu, he was stunned for a second. Then, he was so shocked that he almost dropped his jaw! ”

“” Ah!?” ”

The tall man looked at Zhao Yu as if he had seen a ghost. He couldn’t understand how Zhao Yu had managed to survive such a violent explosion.

“Moreover, not only did he survive, but he could also walk two steps ... And climb up the submarine! ”

“” Ah!?” ”

Crawl?

“The next second, the tall man realized that Zhao Yu had already climbed onto the submarine and was quickly climbing towards him! ”

He had really seen a living ghost!

“The tall criminal never expected that Zhao Yu would be able to climb towards him. He quickly hugged the laptop in his arms and jumped into the diving cabin, then reached out to pull the hatch cover, trying to close it. ”

“Once the hatch cover was closed, Zhao Yu would not be able to do anything!”

“Zhao Yu had just climbed halfway up the ladder when he saw that the tall man was about to close the hatch. He quickly used the invisible spring launcher and jumped up high into the air, flying right above the hatch.”

Bang ...

“Zhao Yu’s eyes and hands were quick, and he threw a punch at the tall man’s head!”

Aiyo!

The tall man fell into the capsule in pain. Zhao Yu quickly leaned half of his body in and started fighting with him.

Thump!

Pa!

“Although Zhao Yu’s head was facing down, he was good at chaotic battles, so he immediately punched the guy’s head, then took the opportunity to give him a big slap!”

“As Zhao Yu’s energy doubling effect had not ended yet, the tall man was stunned. He loosened his grip, giving Zhao Yu an opportunity to snatch the laptop from him.”

“”Ah!”” ”

“The tall man was shocked, and quickly tried to grab it back, pulling Zhao Yu with all his might.”

“Zhao Yu didn’t dare to continue fighting. After all, the outer wall of the cabin was already broken. Since he had already gotten the tablet computer, the most important thing now was to quickly go outside and close the waterproof cabin door!”

“Zhao Yu spat on the tall man’s face. The tall criminal had never seen such a fighting style before. He immediately screamed in disgust and let go of Zhao Yu, allowing Zhao Yu to escape!”

Hmph Hmph!

Zhao Yu hugged the laptop tightly and quickly jumped off the submarine. He wanted to go to the cabin door and close it.

“However, just as he jumped into the water, he was surprised to see that there was another person lying in the water not far from him!”

Ah?

Miao kun?

“That’s right, this man was his father-in-law, Miao kun!”

“Seeing that Miao kun was still in good condition, Zhao Yu remembered something. He remembered that, when he was on a mission with Miao kun, he had used an emergency evacuation ball on him.”

“During the explosion just now, maybe the emergency evacuation ball on his body had also bounced off in time, which meant ... ”

Zhao Yu didn't have time to think. He ran to Miao kun and carried him up ...

“At this time, the sea water had already reached the height of his calves. The deep sea water was bone-piercingly cold, but Zhao Yu had no time to care. He quickly dragged Miao kun in front of the cabin door and looked at him carefully. ”

Thank the heavens!

“He didn't expect that Miao kun was still alive, and that he was breathing heavily. ”

It seemed that the violent explosion just now had only caused him to faint ...

“Seeing that his father-in-law was still alive, Zhao Yu's confidence was boosted. He quickly turned on the laptop that he had just snatched and was about to enter the hacker's command to close the cabin door! ”

“However, when he took a closer look at the computer, he couldn't help but take a deep breath. ”

“The tablet in his hand was a white, ordinary-looking tablet. ”

“He clearly remembered that the tall man had used a black, heavy, and straight computer to open the cabin door! ”

Damn it!

Zhao Yu fiddled with the computer and used a hacker's command on it. He then realized that the computer did not have the function to open the cabin door. It was just an ordinary computer.

This meant that ...

Zhao Yu quickly raised his head and looked at the submarine.

“The tall criminal was standing on the tall submarine, holding a black laptop and showing it off to Zhao Yu! ”

Damn it!

Zhao Yu was very depressed. He didn't expect that he would take the wrong one. This guy had two laptops.

Hmph!

“The tall man snorted coldly. He clenched the black laptop with both hands and smashed it against the door of the submarine, breaking the laptop into two! ”

F * ck!

“Zhao Yu was about to curse, but the tall man quickly lowered his head and got into the submarine, then closed the cover of the Kasaya! ”

Chapter 1962: Frightened underwater (10)

Terrible!

“Seeing the tall criminal arrogantly smash the real controller, Zhao Yu’s depression could be imagined.”

“This meant that he could no longer close the door of the pressurized cabin. The hole in the wall was getting bigger and bigger, and the sea water was flowing faster and faster.”

“Zhao Yu knew that with such a high seawater pressure, once the cabin wall burst, the entire underwater base would be submerged in cold seawater in an instant!”

What to do?

Zhao Yu had no other choice but to drag the unconscious Miao kun out of the pressurized cabin and out into the corridor.

“Then, he returned to the decompression chamber and tried to pull the metal protective door with his bare hands!”

“However, the metal door had been locked down by the system. Even with Zhao Yu’s energy booster, the metal door still wouldn’t budge!”

Ya ...

“However, Zhao Yu had no other choice but to try his best to pull the metal door.”

“He tried to imagine that as long as he could make the metal door move, he would immediately spend a huge amount of points to strengthen the energy booster ...”

“Just as Zhao Yu continued to use force, a familiar voice suddenly came from the corridor outside.”

““Ah? How did this happen?”” The person who exclaimed was the employee he had previously held hostage. When he saw the water everywhere in the decompression chamber, the employee was scared pale and asked loudly, “there’s ... There’s really a bomb? It really exploded?””

““Ah?”” When Zhao Yu saw the employee, he quickly grabbed his hand and asked, “quick! Water is coming in, we have to close the door quickly!””

““No,”” the employee shook his head and said, “the system has been locked, and the authority has been reset. I can’t change it at all!””

““What the f * ck ...””

Zhao Yu turned around and looked at the submarine angrily. He suddenly saw that the submarine’s mechanical arm was moving again!

I’ll cut!

Zhao Yu was immediately alert and exclaimed in his heart. The explosion just now did not damage the submarine at all. It seemed that the enemy had made precise calculations and calculated that the explosion would not damage the submarine.

“He had thought that the tall man was controlling the arm to attack him again, but what made him even more desperate was that the mechanical arm was not coming at him, but directly smashing the already cracked and fragile cabin wall!”

F * ck!

“““Ah!”” Zhao Yu exclaimed, but he was unable to compete with the mechanical arm. He could only watch the mechanical arm crash into the wall. ”

“““Ah?”” The employee was shocked. ““H-how did the submarine move?!”” Who was it? Who’s inside?”” ”

“““You ...”” Zhao Yu shouted at the employee helplessly, ““you’d better find a place to hide!”” It’s already too late!”” ”

“At that moment, as the mechanical arm hit the cabin wall, the entire pressurized cabin once again made a loud noise. Under the impact, several cracks suddenly appeared on the fragile cabin wall. In an instant, water sprayed into more than ten places. The situation was extremely critical ... ”

* Buzz Buzz ... *

“At this moment, the submarine’s mechanical arm retracted and spun a few times in the air. It was clear that it was preparing for a second collision! ”

“““F * ck, he’s really stupid!”” The employee shouted at the submarine, ““do you think we’re dying too slowly? He’s really crazy ...”” ”

“After shouting, the employee suddenly realized something. His expression changed and he asked Zhao Yu, ““You’re not saying that the submarine ... Is being controlled by the terrorists, are you?”” ”

* Buzz Buzz ... *

“The huge mechanical arm rotated rapidly in the air, and the angle of impact had been adjusted. From the looks of it, as long as it hit again, the cabin wall would be completely broken, and the seawater would pour in like pressure! ”

“Zhao Yu knew that the employee had nowhere to hide, so he could only sigh helplessly. ”

“““Mm, alright!”” At such a critical moment, the employee suddenly made a determined expression and jumped into the water of the pressurized cabin. He then pushed Zhao Yu out and said, ““detective Zhao Yu, leave this to me! Quickly leave!”” ”

“““Ah?”” This push made Zhao Yu confused, and he asked, ““what are you doing?”” ”

“““Didn’t I tell you?”” The employee pointed at the red handle on the top left side of the door. ““The manual brake is inside the decompression cabin. You can only control the door from the inside!”” ”

“““F * ck!”” Zhao Yu’s eyes widened, and he shouted,“““you can’t be saying that as long as I pull this handle, the door will close, right?”” ”

“““Yup!”” The employee pushed Zhao Yu again.“““Let’s go! It would be too late if he didn’t leave now! If you want to close the door, you have to let the person who closed the door stay inside ...”” ”

“While the employee was speaking, the mechanical arm on the other side had already accelerated and slammed into the cabin wall! ”

“““I’ll go to hell!”” ”

“Zhao Yu grabbed the employee’s collar and threw him into the corridor outside. Then, he quickly walked over and pulled the red handle! ”

“However, as soon as he pulled down the handle, a stream of air shot out from the end of the hatch, and the heavy metal door closed with a bang! ”

“““No... No no no...”” ”

“The employee hit the door glass hard, but Zhao Yu could not hear anything else. ”

“However, even so, Zhao Yu did not forget to point at Miao kun, who was standing outside, and said to the staff,“““Remember, take good care of this person. If you don ‘t, I’ll kill you ...”” He said. ”

“At the same time, the mechanical arm slammed into the wall again. ”

“This time, the fragile cabin wall couldn’t withstand it any longer and instantly burst open, causing seawater to gush in ... ”

“At such a deep bottom of the sea, there was no light at all. Seeing the dark sea water pouring in like a landslide, no matter who it was, they would feel great fear, even Zhao Yu was no exception. ”

Hu ... Hu ...

Zhao Yu quickly grabbed onto a metal shelf and took a deep breath. He then clicked on the common device bar and activated the invisible breathing device.

Whoosh ...

“The seawater gushed over and hit Zhao Yu’s body. Even though he was holding on to the metal frame with all his might, he still lost his grip! ”

“Then, he was swept up by the sea water, as if he had entered a washing machine that was running, and he began to roll violently ... ”

“One hundred and twenty meters deep in the sea, the feeling was different from ordinary diving. When the water hit his body, Zhao Yu felt as if his whole body was going to be flattened. ”

“In the face of danger, he quickly clicked on the device bar in his mind to find other devices. ”

“However, among his props, there was no such prop as a deep-sea submarine. It seemed that other than the breathing device, there were no other suitable props. ”

Eh?

“Just as he was spinning rapidly in the vortex, Zhao Yu suddenly saw a device. He didn’t think and quickly used it on himself. ”

“This was none other than the other top-tier device he had obtained a long time ago, the “invisible” spacesuit! ”

Damn it!

“I don’t believe this. Since a spacesuit can be used in space, it shouldn’t be too bad in the deep sea, right? ”

“Sure enough, after Zhao Yu used this top-tier device, he immediately felt that his body had returned to normal. He could even breathe freely without the need for a breathing device. ”

“At this time, the seawater had completely filled the pressurized cabin. As the current gradually weakened, Zhao Yu finally stopped spinning and floated in the dark deep sea. ”

Chapter 1963: Don’t let me see you

“““No, no, no, no, no...”” Seeing that the low-pressure cabin was filled with seawater in an instant, the employee outside the door knocked on the glass anxiously and shouted painfully, ““you’re a detective. You still have to catch the criminal! You can’t die, why are you doing this ... Wuwu ...”” ”

“As he shouted, he even started to cry ... ”

“Of course, Zhao Yu could not hear what he said. However, Zhao Yu could see through the glass of the cabin door that the employee was crying. ”

Hmm...It seems like ...

“Zhao Yu pondered in his heart. If he didn’t act cool, he was afraid that when he returned to the surface of the sea alive, it would be hard to explain. ”

“So, he looked around and quickly picked up an oxygen tank hanging on the wall. Then, he held the mouth of the oxygen tank in front of his face ... ”

“What he meant was that he wanted to pave the way for his future survival. However, just as he picked up the oxygen tank, he suddenly saw the lights on the submarine light up. ”

“Immediately after, the propeller at the tail of the submarine also began to turn ... ”

I’ll cut!

“Zhao Yu looked at the back of the pressurized cabin. There was originally a door on the wall, which was used to enter and exit the submarine. ”

“At this moment, not to mention the gate, even the entire wall of the cabin had been washed away by the seawater!”

Wuuu ...

“The submarine rumbled, and the wheels at the bottom of the submarine started to turn as well. It began to move toward the deep sea outside the pressure-reducing cabin ...”

F * ck!

Zhao Yu looked at the submarine that was about to leave and quickly thought of countermeasures.

“Now that the short one was dead, the tall one was his only clue. If the tall one escaped, he would have no clue where to find Ding Lan!”

But ...

This guy was sitting in the submarine. What should he do to catch him?

“The cover of the submarine was sealed, and he could not open it from the outside. So ... What else could he do?”

How about ...

“Just as Zhao Yu thought of an idea, the submarine left the pressure reduction cabin and drove into the deep sea.”

“Zhao Yu no longer hesitated. He threw away the oxygen tank in his hand and swam forward, then reached out to grab the ladder on the submarine.”

“It turned out that although his method was a little different, it was the only way he could think of now. That was ... To hide outside the submarine and follow it.”

“Since the tall criminal had already planned to escape on the submarine, he would definitely go to meet the mysterious enemy after he escaped. So, as long as she followed him, there was a high chance that she would be able to find Ding Lan!”

“However, just as Zhao Yu was leaning on the submarine and preparing to follow the submarine, an accident suddenly occurred.”

The bottom of the sea was not just outside the pressurized cabin. It was still five to six meters above the sea.

“The normal operation would be to open the outer hatch to the bottom of the sea, turning it into a downhill passage. Then, the submarine would follow this passage and drive directly to the bottom of the sea.”

“However, the cabin door was forced open by explosives and had long been washed away by the sea. After all, the tall criminal had no experience. After the submarine moved out, it actually fell directly to the bottom of the sea!”

“Even though the seawater had a huge buoyancy force, the submarine had not adjusted its snorkeling function. Coupled with the heavy hull, it still spun and fell to the bottom of the sea ... ”

Ah ...

“Zhao Yu felt the world spin around him, then a huge impact hit him. He let go of his hand and was thrown out of the submarine! ”

Oh ...

“Zhao Yu couldn’t control his body, so he continued to spin in the water. In the blink of an eye, he was thrown more than ten meters away. ”

Crack ...

Wuuu ...

“Unexpectedly, the submarine was unimaginably strong. After it fell to the bottom of the sea, its function was not damaged. After a series of buoyancy operations, the submarine gradually rose from the bottom of the sea and floated in the water. ”

“Then, two mechanical arms supported the submarine from the bottom of the sea and straightened it. ”

“Then, the propeller started again and was about to drive away ... ”

‘F * ck ...’

“Zhao Yu was shocked, and he quickly swam towards the submarine. ”

“At this time, the submarine changed its direction again, aiming the head of the submarine in the opposite direction of the undersea base. As long as the propeller accelerated again, the submarine would definitely be able to lift the water and leave. ”

Ah ...

“Zhao Yu was going crazy. He had tried to use the invisible propeller to speed up, but he didn’t have any means of transportation, so the device was useless. ”

He had no choice but to rely on his own strength and swim towards the submarine ...

“However, just as he was about to reach the submarine, the propeller was already spinning at a high speed, and the submarine was moving forward. If this continued, not only would Zhao Yu not be able to catch up with the submarine, but he was also very likely to be hit by the propeller! ”

“““ Ah!?” ” ”

“At this critical moment, Zhao Yu knew that he couldn’t fight back, so he changed his mind and used the invisible tape in his common device bar. ”

“Then, he took out his phone and used the invisible tape on it. ”

“Then, he opened his right arm and threw the phone at the submarine! ”

“The amazing thing about the invisible tape was that it was super sticky and could be used even in the water. Therefore, after the phone hit the submarine, it was stuck to the body of the submarine ...”

“Just as Zhao Yu threw out his phone, the submarine moved forward and a huge propeller came towards Zhao Yu, scaring him so much that he quickly stepped back.”

“In the end, the propeller swept past his face, and the water pressure from the propeller sent Zhao Yu flying.”

Wuwuwuwu ...

“Zhao Yu didn’t dare to open his mouth in the water, so he could only scream. He spun like a top for more than twenty seconds, then finally stopped on the concrete wall of the underwater base.”

.....

“Just as Zhao Yu was playing with his life at the bottom of the sea, the oil platform was already in a mess.”

“Xiao hang, Li Zhenzhu, Park Hyun-min, and the police officer all brought their men to the platform.”

“They stood in front of the spherical building that led to the underwater base, all of them were like ants on a hot pan, extremely anxious.”

“”Reporting, Sir ...” At this time, a police officer came to report.””Through the telephone, we have confirmed that there was an explosion at the bottom of the sea. The location of the explosion should be in the decompression chamber on the west side of the base!”” ”

“”Ah?”” Li Zhenzhu clenched her fists nervously and asked,””so ... Is the base okay?”” ”

“”It, it should be fine ...”” The police officer reported.””The door to the pressurized cabin is closed, and the base is not flooded.”” ”

“”Tsk tsk ...”” Park Xianhe couldn’t help but ask the police officer,””when will the elevator be fixed?”” There should be more than one decompression chamber in the base, right? Why didn’t you send a submarine down to rescue them?”” ”

“”It’s ... It’s being arranged ...”” The police officer replied.””But the submarine has a limited number of people ... The elevator is being repaired, and it should be soon ...”” ”

Di di ... Di di ...

“At this time, Park Xianhe received a text message. After reading it, he immediately brought it to Pearl li and complained,”””What’s down there? Wasn’t that a little too ridiculous?” ”

“”The National affairs Department actually asked us to ask blue-tile terrace ... Damn, is there a nuclear test going on down there?”” ”

“”Phew ...”” Seeing this message, Li Zhen Zhu let out a deep breath, then walked in front of Xiao hang and said,””officer Xiao, are you satisfied now?”” Look at what you’ve done!”” ”

“““Me?” Xiao hang quickly explained, “““what can I do? “““Zhao Yu is crazy! I was also kidnapped by him!” “““I’m the victim, okay?” ”

“““Look, as soon as he let me go, I immediately called you!” “““ ”

“““Hmph, stop acting!” Li Zhen Zhu said angrily, “““don’t think that just because you pushed all the blame onto that madman, you have nothing to do with it!” ”

“““Just you wait to be sued, Zhao Yu!” Li Zhenzhu turned around and clenched her fists. “““You’d better not let me see you, or you’ll regret it!” “““ ”

“As a result, just as Li Zhenzhu’s voice fell, she heard a police officer guarding the seaside shout excitedly, ““““Eh? There’s someone there, quick ... Quick, look!” “““ ”

“As soon as he said that, all the police officers gathered around him. One of them with sharp eyes shouted, “““ ”

“““Eh? Isn’t that the China detective, Zhao Yu?” “““ ”

Chapter 1964: things should not be delayed

“““Zhao Yu! It’s really you?” Seeing Zhao Yu climb up to the oil platform from the sea, all the police officers present were so surprised that they couldn’t close their mouths, especially Li Zhenzhu, who had just made a bold statement. She took two steps forward and looked incredulously at Zhao Yu, who was drenched, and asked, “““you ... Don’t tell me you swam up from the bottom of the sea!” “““ ”

“““Cough cough ... Cough cough ...” “““ ”

“Zhao Yu coughed a few times and sat cross-legged on the deck. Although it was a hot summer, he had just swam up from the deep sea, and it was so cold that his teeth were chattering. He was in a very sorry state. ”

“He glanced at Li Zhenzhu and ignored her existence. He turned around and asked Xiao hang, ““““Xiao hang, hurry! Locate my phone! Let’s see where it is. “““ ”

“““Ah? What?” Xiao hang quickly gave Zhao Yu a look. “““Your phone ... Mm ... Your phone, didn’t you flush it down the toilet in the hospital?” “““ ”

“““If you want a new phone, I’ll apply for one for you!” “““ ”

“““Don’t mess around!” Zhao Yu knew that Xiao hang was looking for an excuse to smooth things over, but the situation was urgent and he was not in the mood to play along. He quickly said, “““I stuck my phone to the submarine! The enemy is now using the submarine to escape. We must find him as soon as possible!” “““ ”

“““Ah? U...Submarine?” Xiao hang didn’t know what to do. He was stunned for a while before he quickly took out his phone to check ... ”

“Zhao Yu!” Li Zhenzhu was furious. She immediately took out a pair of handcuffs, wanting to put them on Zhao Yu’s hands and say something like, “you’re under arrest.”

“However, just as she took out the handcuffs, Zhao Yu suddenly turned around and pointed at Li Zhenzhu’s nose, shouting, “Hey, Miss Li, what are you doing? Didn’t you hear what I just said?”

“I saw that the submarine was going west, but there’s no guarantee that it would turn halfway! Aren’t you going to contact your Coast Guard and prepare more people to chase after them?”

“You ... Um ...” This question stunned Li Zhen Zhu. She held the handcuffs in a daze, feeling very awkward. After thinking for two seconds, she timidly asked, “what?” What do you mean by ‘can’t be guaranteed’? What does half a Dao mean?”

I’ll ...

“Zhao Yu quickly adjusted the simultaneous translator and explained everything in Korean. Li Zhenzhu’s eyes widened in surprise. “You ... You can actually speak Korean? You ... You’re lying to me?”

“No!” Xiao hang pointed at his phone and said, “although the phone is waterproof, you can’t get a signal underwater. You have to come to the surface!”

“Then ...” Zhao Yu asked, “so, we can only wait for the submarine to come to the surface before we can locate it?” Is there no other way?”

“Right!” Xiao hang turned to look at Lee Zhen Zhu and Park Xianhe. “Police officers, hurry up and report to your boss! This time, we don’t need more people, we need more planes!”

“An airplane?” Li Zhenzhu blinked, then pointed at Zhao Yu and said, “I ... Why should I believe him? What if he’s making it up?”

“Aiyo,” Zhao Yu quickly pointed to the water and said, “why don’t you ask the people down there? The staff member saw the enemy escape on the submarine with his own eyes!”

“Wait! What small employee? What submarine? “I’m a little confused ...” Li Zhenzhu made a pause gesture again, then pointed at Zhao Yu and said, “Zhao Yu, so you really swam up from below?”

“Do you know ... How deep this place is? Are you trying to insult our intelligence?”

“Yeah?” Xiao hang pinched his forehead. “I don’t think you can do this just because you can swim, can you?” Zhao Yu, you ...”

“After the explosion, I put on an underwater diving suit,” Zhao Yu said. “I risked my life to save the base down there. If I hadn’t closed the door of the pressurized cabin, the base would have been flooded!”

“And ...” Zhao Yu turned to face Xiao hang. “Miao kun! Miao kun is down there too!”

“What?” “Miao kun?” Xiao hang was even more surprised. Officer Miao ... How could it be? Is ... Is he alright?”

“Report!” At this time, a police officer ran over from afar and reported to everyone, “the elevator has returned to normal. The people below can come up immediately!”

“““Oh, that’s great ...”” Park Xianhe stood up and gestured to the police officers,““prepare for the rescue immediately ...”” ”

“““Hey,”” Zhao Yu grabbed Li Zhenzhu’s arm,““what are you waiting for?”” The enemy had a plan. Since the robbers escaped in the submarine, there must be someone nearby to help them! ”

“““We have to capture them before they arrive ... Otherwise, we’ll never be able to save Ding Lan!”” ”

“““Zhao Yu,”” Li Zhenzhu held Zhao Yu’s arm and said fiercely,““do you want to kidnap me again? ”

“““If you want me to send someone, then you have to tell me first, what is going on under the water? Is the enemy’s goal to blow it up?”” ”

“““Not only did they blow it up,”” Zhao Yu said, taking out the laptop in his pocket.““They probably wanted to steal our technology as well!”” ”

“““Skill? Ours?”” Li Zhenzhu obviously didn’t understand. ”

“““Damn, aren’t you from the National affairs Department? Don’t tell me you don’t know? ““There’s a research base down there, and the scientists from both countries are working on an amazing technology ...”” Zhao Yu tried to be as concise as possible.““The enemy not only wants to take the technology away, but also wants to kill all the researchers so that we can’t develop it again ...”” ”

“““Ah?”” Park Xianhe was shocked.““So vicious?”” ”

“““Yeah, he’s that vicious!”” Zhao Yu said,““so, what are you guys still doing? Aren’t you going to chase after him? F * ck them up!”” ”

“““The word ‘ya’ doesn’t seem to be a good word, right?”” Li Zhenzhu mumbled softly. ”

“““F * ck, you’re still so hung up on these words at a time like this? Besides, I’m not scolding you. ““Hurry up, sis!”” Zhao Yu roared.““The submarine is so fast, we don’t even know where it’s gone to!”” ”

“““Well ...”” At this time, Park Xianhe had already understood the whole story and quickly asked the fat supervisor of the oil platform,““let me ask you, your submarines should have positioning, right? Can you find it?”” ”

“““Yes, there should be, right?”” The fat majordomo wiped his sweat and replied,““I ... I have to ask the engineer!”” ”

“““No way,”” Zhao Yu said, shaking his head.““Since they dared to Rob the submarine, they must have been well prepared. I think my mobile phone is more reliable!”” ”

“Hearing this, Xiao hang quickly looked at his phone again, but there was still no signal on the screen. ”

“““Sheriff Lee,”” Park Xianhe said to Lee Zhen Zhu,““there’s an old Chinese saying that it’s better to believe it than not. I think we should quickly apply for support!”” ”

“““This might be our only chance to catch the criminal ...”” ”

““AI!” Pearl Lee glanced at Park Xianhe. Although she was still reluctant, she took out her mobile phone and said,“if we can’t determine the direction of the enemy’s escape, it’s useless to just call the coastal rescue team!”

““It seems like ... We can only seek help from the military ...””

Chapter 1965: pursuing responsibility

45 minutes later.

“A speedboat, carrying Zhao Yu, Xiao hang, and Li Zhenzhu, came to the sea northeast of the oil platform.”

“From a distance, they could see a white submarine lying there lifelessly. There were a few other speedboats on the side, and the people on the speedboats were Korean soldiers who had arrived here in advance.”

“In addition, there was also a helicopter hovering above the submarine, ready to be deployed at any time ...”

“Soon, the speedboat that Zhao Yu and the others were in came close. At a glance, Zhao Yu could recognize that the submarine floating on the water was the one that the tall man had driven out of the base!”

““How is that possible?”” Xiao hang pointed at the submarine and mumbled,“this is the vast sea. We came just in time. How could we not see anyone?””

“Hearing Xiao hang’s grumbling, no one at the scene responded. There was only one soldier who arrived early. He pulled their speedboat to the front of the submarine and tied the rope to the ladder of the submarine.”

“Then, Zhao Yu and Li Zhenzhu stepped onto the submarine and climbed towards the door at the top of the submarine.”

“During the process of climbing, Zhao Yu could already smell the smell of gunpowder and burning. When he climbed to the cover of the cabin and looked down, he saw that the inner cabin of the submarine had been blown up. Obviously, an explosion had just taken place!”

What was even more terrifying was that they could see a body that had been blown to pieces in the submarine cabin. One of the broken human legs was particularly eye-catching.

““Report,”” at this time, a soldier standing next to her reported to Li Zhen Zhu.”“We found a blown up body down there. The deceased should be a man, and the cabin was seriously damaged ...””

““Tsk tsk ...”” Li Zhenzhu looked at Zhao Yu and asked,“how is it, detective Zhao? Was it that criminal? Can you still recognize me?””

““It should be!””

“Zhao Yu noticed that there was a white work uniform on the remains of the corpse, which was the same as the clothes that the tall man had worn. ”

It was obvious that the blown up body was the tall criminal ‘s.

“““It seems ...”” Li Zhenzhu looked at the vast sea and sighed.”“This person was not the leader of the enemy. He was killed!”” ”

“““Sir,”” the soldier reported.”“When we arrived, there was still smoke coming out from inside. Some places were hot, which means the explosion happened not long ago.”” ”

“““Well ...”” Li Zhenzhu nodded and said,”“that is to say, the mysterious enemy just appeared here!”” ”

“““I don’t understand. Why ... They don’t even let their own people off? Don’t tell me ... They’ve already discovered that we’re following them?”” ”

“““I think ...”” Zhao Yu turned his head and said to Li Zhenzhu solemnly,”“you have to check the laptop I just handed to you. On it, it is likely to be the research data they want to steal!”” ”

“““Oh ...”” Li Zhenzhu was quick to react and immediately understood what Zhao Yu meant.”“You mean, because he didn’t complete the task, he was killed!”” Then ...”” ”

“Li Zhen Zhu didn’t finish her sentence, but her face revealed a worried look. ”

“Of course, Zhao Yu knew what she was going to say! Since the enemy’s leader liked to vent his anger on others and had killed the tall ruffian, then Ding Lan, the hostage, must be in grave danger! ”

“““That’s impossible!”” “““Since there’s still smoke, did the soldiers who arrived at the scene really not see anything?”” Xiao hang asked. ”

“““How is this possible?”” Xiao hang gestured to Li Zhenzhu.”“You have to search this area quickly. The enemy must not have gone far!”” ”

“““We’re already doing that!”” Li Zhen Zhu said in not-so-fluent Chinese,”“we even informed the Navy. Even if the enemy was riding another submarine, it’s impossible to not find it!”” ”

“““The International waters are in the East,”” Xiao hang said, pointing into the distance.”“If I were them, I would definitely flee to the International waters. I think we should send more people there!”” We can definitely catch up with them if we send fighter planes over!”” ”

“““Hey, what are you thinking about?”” Li Zhen Zhu frowned.”“Do you think I’m the commander of the Air Force? I’ve told you, we’re already doing our best to search!”” ”

“““Sir ...”” ”

“At this time, a soldier next to her handed her a sticky thing. ”

Zhao Yu took a look and saw that it was the mobile phone that he had stuck to the submarine earlier. He quickly reached out and took it.

“Li Zhenzhu wanted to say something to Zhao Yu, but her phone suddenly rang. She had no choice but to step aside and answer the call. ”

The invisible tape on the phone was very sticky. Zhao Yu quickly used the system device to remove the tape ...

“Then, he turned around and looked at the sea around him, but there was nothing in the boundless sea.”

“”I remember ...” A few seconds later, Zhao Yu remembered something and said to Xiao hang, “”Miao kun told me that after he was kidnapped, he often felt shaking and suspected that he was on a big ship!”” ”

“”Yup!”” Xiao hang pointed at Li Zhenzhu. “”They’ve already searched all the ships on the sea. If she’s really on a ship, they should be able to find her soon, right?”” ”

“”It’s also possible ...”” Zhao Yu said. “”That it’s a submarine!”” ”

“”It doesn’t matter if it’s a submarine,”” Xiao hang comforted her. “”Didn’t the woman just say that they’ve already mobilized the Navy? The submarine should be able to discover it, right?”” ”

“”But ...”” Xiao hang pondered for a moment before saying, “”if there’s really a submarine, then isn’t the enemy too powerful?”” Could it be an official organization of some big country?”” ”

“”Zhao Yu,”” Xiao hang quickly asked, “”didn’t you fight with them before? How do you feel? Does he look like someone from the government?”” ”

“”I don’t know ...”” Zhao Yu shook his head. “”I feel like they’re all far worse than li Bencheng! But they’re pretty accurate marksmen ...”” ”

“”There’s a gun? You ...”” Xiao hang was speechless. “” You’ve solved all this? Are you trying to praise yourself? I remember that your marksmanship isn’t that great, right?”” ”

“”I think,”” Zhao Yu recalled, “”those two people were more like mercenaries. If they were government officials ...”” Zhao Yu pointed to the corpses at his feet. “”How could they kill them just like that?”” he asked. ”

“”That makes sense,”” Xiao hang said, pondering. “”It’s just that they didn’t complete the task, so they can’t be considered to have killed her.”” ”

“”Do you still remember the two people you killed in the technology Building?”” Xiao hang said, “”my people have already checked. There are no records!”” ”

“”By the way,”” Zhao Yu suddenly remembered something and hurriedly asked Xiao hang, “”do you remember such a person?”” European accent, white man with a scar on his face, no middle finger on his left hand, and a weird tone?”” ”

“”Oh?”” Xiao hang was taken aback and quickly replied, “”have you forgotten that I’m mainly in charge of domestic missions? I’ll ask Li Jing later ...”” ”

“Just as Xiao hang said this, Li Zhenzhu finished her call and turned to Zhao Yu. “”Everyone in the underwater base has been rescued. It has been confirmed that Zhao Yu’s words are true. ”

“”The terrorists used Yu mengtian’s identity to sneak into her office and open the safe ... ”

“““You’re right,”” Li Zhenzhu said, pointing at Zhao Yu.”“The things on the tablet are the core research materials of the underwater base. They are priceless!”” ”

“““What about Miao kun?”” he asked. ““Is he okay?”” Zhao Yu asked. ”

“““He’s still in a coma, but his life isn’t in danger,”” Li Zhen Zhu replied.”“He’s been sent to the hospital!”” ”

“Xiao hang put his hands together and said,”“thank God ...”” ”

“““Zhao Yu ...”” Li Zhenzhu said with a serious face.”“Don’t think that we will thank you just because you saved the underwater base! ”

“““Once this is over, we’ll hold you responsible for your reckless behavior, Wanwan ...”” ”

Chapter 1966: The enemy that disappeared

“““How is that possible?”” The sea breeze blew, making the submarine, which had just exploded and was isolated on the sea, look even more bleak. Li Zhen Zhu stood at the bow of the boat and said to her mobile phone with a look of disbelief,”“when we find the signal, immediately send the closest team to there! ”

“““The interval is no more than 10 minutes,”” Li Zhenzhu said.”“The enemy not only has to escape, but they also have to kill the criminals on the submarine and create an explosion. ”

“““That’s the open sea, they can’t have escaped far! You guys ... Did you guys miss something?”” ”

“Li Zhen Zhu wanted to complain, but she and the military were not in the same system, and she did not have the ability to restrict the other party’s full power. ”

“““What about the submarine?”” ““Is our underwater reconnaissance technology so outdated?”” Li Zhenzhu asked. He didn’t find anything? Damn it ...”” ”

“Before Li Zhenzhu could finish her sentence, she found that the other party had already hung up her phone. She was so angry that she angrily cursed Korea Street. ”

“““Sir,”” at this time, one of Pearl Li’s men reported to her,”“we have found a passenger ship, a cargo ship, and two fishing boats in the controllable area. Now, the coast police have boarded the ship and searched, please wait a moment!”” ”

“““Maybe ... The enemy is hiding there ...”” ”

“““How did this happen?”” Although Xiao hang didn’t understand much Korean, he could still tell something from Li Zhenzhu’s expression. He immediately said to Zhao Yu,”“Zhao Yu, it seems that this group of people is really unreliable. Think about it again and see if there’s any other way.”” ”

“Zhao Yu didn’t say anything, but opened the satellite map on his phone, still thinking about what had happened earlier, trying to find clues and possible solutions. ”

“As time went by, Zhao Yu became more and more anxious. If the clues were really cut off here, then there was no hope of saving Ding Lan! ”

“At this time, Xiao hang saw Zhao Yu’s mobile phone and asked, ”“could it be that the other party went ashore?”“ From the map, this place is quite close to the coastline!”“ ”

“”Impossible!”“ Li Zhenzhu walked over and said, ”“there is a security system on the coast. We have already set up the surveillance at the first moment. If there was really a helicopter or a speedboat, we would have discovered it long ago!”“ ”

“”Tsk, tsk ... Isn’t that strange?”“ Xiao hang spread his hands and said, ”“we didn’t find anyone flying in the sky or swimming in the water. Where could they have gone?”“ Don’t tell me he can teleport?”“ ”

“”Sir ...”“ As soon as Xiao hang finished speaking, a soldier suddenly climbed out of the submarine and reported to Li Zhen Zhu, ”“we’ve checked, the submarine is seriously damaged and basically scrapped ...”“ ”

“”The body inside belongs to one person. It’s a man, and he’s a foreigner who’s very tall ...”“ ”

“”Can ...”“ Zhao Yu asked, ”“can you tell how the person died?”“ ”

“”Ah?”“ The soldier was stunned by the question and asked, ”“could it be ... He wasn’t killed by the explosion?”“ ”

“”Zhao Yu,”“ Li Zhenzhu asked, ”“what do you mean? Is the cause of death important?”“ ”

“”I just think it’s strange,”“ Zhao Yu said. ”“Not only did you kill him, but you also blew him up?”“ ”

“”That’s easy,”“ Xiao hang replied. ”“Destroy the bodies so that we won’t be able to find out their identities from the corpses!”“ ”

“”Then why didn’t you blow up the submarine?”“ Zhao Yu pondered for a moment, then said, ”“or ... If the criminal didn’t complete his task, and wanted to kill someone to vent his anger, why didn’t he take the person away first? why did he have to kill her?”“ ”

“”Mm ...”“ Li Zhenzhu thought about Zhao Yu’s words carefully, then asked the soldiers, ”“can you tell what caused the explosion?”“ ”

“”It ... It should be a grenade, right?”“ The soldier said, ”“we have to find a professional to identify it!”“ ”

“”That’s true! Looking at the scene of the explosion, it does look like it was caused by a grenade!”“ Xiao hang frowned and mumbled to himself, ”“he actually ... Brought a grenade. The other party ... Must have a strong background!”“ ”

“.....”

“As Xiao hang muttered to himself, the atmosphere on the submarine suddenly changed. ”

“Zhao Yu, Xiao hang, and Li Zhenzhu all looked at each other, as if they had thought of the same thing at the same time. ”

“In the next second, Xiao hang and Li Zhenzhu put their right hands behind their backs at the same time. Zhao Yu also took a step back unconsciously and glanced at the soldiers beside him. ”

“”Hello, my colleague,”” Li Zhen Zhu suppressed the impulse in her heart and asked the soldier who had just come out of the submarine,””I want to ask, are you the first team to arrive at the scene?”” The one who spoke to me before ...”” ”

“”Oh, yeah!”” The soldier dusted himself off and answered without hesitation,””it’s me. I’m the one who talked to you!”” ”

“”So ... Did you come by boat or by plane?”” Li Zhenzhu asked again, her right hand already secretly holding her pistol through her back. ”

“”Well ... We came by speedboat,”” the soldier replied.””After receiving the mission, we were searching the east side. After receiving the message, we were the first to arrive at the scene!”” ”

“”Then ...”” Li Zhenzhu asked again,””do you guys have grenades on you?”” ”

“”What? A frag grenade?”” The soldier looked down at his equipment, and when he raised his head again, he was surprised to see that Li Zhen Zhu’s pistol was already aimed at him! ”

“”Ah?”” The soldier was frightened. He widened his eyes and asked,””Sir, you are ...”” ”

Ah?

The other soldiers around the submarine were stunned.

Whoosh ...

“Xiao hang quickly took out his pistol and pointed it at another soldier who was about to pull out his gun. He said in half-baked Korean, “”Don’t move, don’t move!”” ”

This ...

“Although they didn’t know what was going on, Li Zhen Zhu’s men quickly took out their pistols and aimed at the other soldiers scattered around the submarine. ”

“”Ah!”” ”

“As a result, the atmosphere around the submarine became extremely tense. ”

“”MA ... Sir ...”” The leading soldier didn’t dare to act rashly. He slowly raised his hand and asked Li Zhenzhu,””Sir, what do you mean by this?”” ”

“”What do you mean?”” Li Zhenzhu said,””immediately report the serial number of your troops and each of your soldier numbers!”” ”

“”Ah?”” The soldier was shocked and subconsciously reached out to grab something. ”

“”Don’t move!”” Li Zhenzhu shouted and ordered,””if any of you dare to move, I’ll shoot! I’m not joking with you ...”” ”

““““Sir, I just want to give you my id. We are from the 5th special operation team of the coastal defense Department.”” The soldier raised his hands and said,““we have received a mission from the higher-ups to assist the National Defense Department in carrying out a sea search operation. My name is Li Xiucheng, and my serial number is ...”” ”

“The soldier spoke his number fluently, and Li Zhen Zhu nodded to one of her men. His men immediately took out their mobile phones and began to verify the information. ”

““““Oh ...”” The soldier named Li Xiucheng said,““Sir, is there a misunderstanding?”” You ... You think we’re enemies?”” ”

““““We have blocked the entire sea area, but we have not found anything suspicious,”” Li Zhenzhu said.””I can only suspect that the enemy may be disguised as our coastal defense Personnel!”” ”

““““Yes,”” Xiao hang said.””I’ve seen the scene. The dark green shrapnel looked like a military grenade. Only the Army has it!”” ”

““““The most important thing is,”” Zhao Yu said,““that you were the first to arrive at the scene, but you didn’t see anything suspicious in such a clear and open sea. This in itself is the biggest suspicion!”” ”

““““Oh ... Oh oh ...”” Unexpectedly, after Zhao Yu said this, a soldier on the speedboat next to him suddenly pointed to the helicopter in the air and said,““when we arrived, the helicopter was already there. It was a little earlier than us, right?”” ”

““““Yes, yes, yes ...”” The soldier named Li Xiucheng quickly said,““that’s true. I was wrong. I thought you were asking about who got on the submarine first. Actually ... This plane ...”” ”

“As a result, just as Li Xiucheng pointed at the helicopter in the air, the helicopter actually rumbled and flew towards them! ”

“What was more terrifying was that it was a military helicopter. As soon as the helicopter started, two machine guns were set up at the nose of the helicopter and aimed at the people of the Kongtong Sect! ”

Chapter 1967: Listen to Daddy

““““Ah!?”” ”

“No one would have thought that the real problem wasn’t the soldiers who first boarded the submarine, but the helicopter that had been hovering at a low altitude. ”

“As the helicopter had obvious military characteristics, the soldiers, Zhao Yu, and the others all assumed that the helicopter was just waiting for instructions from their superiors. ”

“However, he did not expect that the plane would actually ... ”

“Perhaps it was because they saw the soldier Li Xiucheng raise his hand to signal to the helicopter, the people on the helicopter realized that they had been exposed. ”

“Therefore, not only did the plane quickly fly toward the crowd, but it also aimed two machine guns at them!”

Not good!

“Zhao Yu was standing between Li Zhenzhu and Xiao hang. Seeing that the situation was not good, he quickly turned around, raised his arms, and jumped into the water with the two of them.”

“The moment they jumped into the water, the machine guns on the plane fired without stopping!”

Boom boom boom ...

“Although they were not heavy machine guns, their firepower was still extremely terrifying!”

“Tongues of fire spewed out, and bullets were fired at the crowd like an avalanche, instantly exploding in the crowd ...”

“As the bullets were too fierce, many soldiers who were shot didn’t even have time to scream before their bodies burst out with blood and they fell into the water.”

“Fortunately, Zhao Yu and the other two were standing on the submarine. After they jumped into the water, the submarine became their shield.”

“Du, du, du ...”

“A row of bullets hit the submarine, making a metallic sound!”

“Then, the bullet broke through the water surface, passed by the three of them, and went straight to the bottom of the water ...”

“Of the three of them, Xiao hang was the most experienced. As soon as he saw the bullet enter the water from behind, he knew that the helicopter had flown over their heads.”

“Hence, he quickly jumped out of the water and raised his pistol. Before the water could fall, he fired at the helicopter!”

“However, the plane swooped down very quickly. By the time Xiao hang fired again, it had already flown 40 meters away. Xiao hang’s bullets were of no threat to it at all.”

“Besides, that was a real military helicopter. Even if he was hit by a bullet, it would definitely not be a big deal.”

Hualalalala ...

“A second later, Zhao Yu and Li Zhenzhu both jumped out of the water. When they looked at the helicopter again, it had already flown a hundred meters away.”

Buzz ... Buzz ...

The buzzing sound of the helicopter’s propeller gradually weakened as it flew further and further northeast. It didn’t look like it was going to attack again.

Ah ...

Ah ... Ah ...

“With a burst of screams in their ears, the three people saw that through the machine gun just now, several soldiers and even Li Zhen Zhu’s agents were unfortunately shot by bullets. The sea was a tragic sight.”

“On the submarine, a row of smoking bullet holes had been shot. The speedboat they had been on was also badly damaged, and some places were even on fire ...”

Ah ...

Li Zhen Zhu looked at the devastated sea and seemed to be at a loss. She was stunned for half a second before she remembered that she had to report to the headquarters.

“However, when she raised her hand, she only saw the gun in her hand and did not find her phone.”

It seemed that the phone might have fallen into the sea in the hurry just now ...

“””Mobile phone, mobile phone ...”” Li Zhenzhu turned her head and saw Zhao Yu. She hurriedly stepped on the water and reached out her hand anxiously to ask for it. “”Hurry ... Give me your mobile phone!”” ”

“””Oh ...”” ”

“At that very moment, Zhao Yu was also a little confused. After all, it had happened so suddenly that he was caught off guard.”

“He had jumped into the water out of instinct, but now he regretted it. He regretted that he didn’t fly over with an aircraft.”

Or should I use invisible tape to stick the phone to the plane?

Or ... An invisible cloak ... A spring launcher ...

“Now, he could only watch as the plane escaped ...”

“””Cell phone, where’s the cell phone?”” Li Zhenzhu saw that Zhao Yu was in a daze, so she quickly shouted.”

Oh ...

Zhao Yu then came back to his senses and quickly reached into his pocket to take out his phone.

“This mobile phone was the one that Zhao Yu had attached to the submarine. As it was a special mobile phone made by the Secret Service, it was not only very strong, but also absolutely waterproof. He should be able to make calls now!”

“However, just as Zhao Yu took out his phone and was about to open the password lock, his phone rang first.”

“””Ah!?”” ”

“Zhao Yu was shocked and complained in his heart, who was so blind? Why did he have to call at this time?”

“However, on second thought, it was a good thing. If Li Jing called, she could report the situation to her and ask her to quickly find a way to catch up with the helicopter!”

“In the end, when he saw the caller ID, his heart skipped a beat.”

“This was because the number on the screen was not Li Jing’s or anyone else’s. It was his godsister, Ding Lan!”

I’ll cut!

“Zhao Yu looked at the phone number, then looked at the plane in the distance. His heart could not help but beat faster.”

Whoosh ...

“He didn’t dare to think too much about it and immediately pressed the answer button. An angry voice came from the phone,”

““Detective Zhao, you’re really tough!””

““Ah?””

““What?!”” Zhao Yu was shocked. He never expected the mysterious enemy to talk to him in such a way. He had been carrying Ding Lan’s phone with him all this time!”

““Hello ...”” Li Zhenzhu was already anxious. Seeing Zhao Yu pick up the phone, she swam over and reached out to grab it.”

““Don’t, don’t, don’t ...”” Xiao hang quickly stood in the middle and handed his phone to Li Zhenzhu.”“I have one here too. Here you go ...””

“Seeing this, Li Zhenzhu immediately grabbed Xiao hang’s phone and swam to the submarine. Her left hand was on the railing of the submarine, and her right hand pressed a button to make a call ...”

““Hehehe ...”” The filtered voice sounded cold and numb, and the laughter was even colder.”“We have to follow the rules of the game. If you still care about your agent girl, then you can’t let anyone know about our conversation ...””

““You ...”” Zhao Yu looked at Xiao hang, who was staring at him, and quickly gave him a look. He then swam to the other side of the boat and said,”“tell me, how else do you want to play?””

““Are you scared to see how powerful your Grandpa Zhao is?””

““What?”” As both of them were speaking in Chinese, the other party’s voice software might have had some delay. After a few seconds, the other party’s cold laughter could be heard on the phone.”“Hehehe ... You’re really feeling good about yourself!””

““What do you mean by”” feel good “”? I clearly won! Naturally, it feels good?”

““I’m happy, I’m smug, I hehehe ...””

“Zhao Yu laughed foolishly for no reason, which immediately disrupted the other party’s train of thought.”

“...” The other party obviously didn’t understand why Zhao Yu could still smile so arrogantly at this time.”

“How is it? are you angry?”

“He’s actually throwing a grenade!”

“Hahaha ... After seeing me ruin your plans twice, are you so angry that you’re about to explode? Are you regretting playing games with me now?” Zhao Yu suppressed the excitement in his heart and pretended to sneer.”

“I’m telling you, in my eyes, you’re not even a bird. You’re just a little noob who only knows how to use underhanded means to blackmail people, a low-level little scum. If you’re so F * cking capable, then fight me with real knives and guns!”

“Don’t act like a little kid. Get a hostage, a bomb, or even a scapegoat. These are all underhanded methods that even a turtle and a bastard look down on ...”

“You’re already an adult, do you still need your father Zhao Yu to teach you how to behave?”

“Oh, I’m sorry, I’m sorry. I’ve been too kind to you. You can’t even be considered a human ...”

“You ...” Zhao Yu’s scolding obviously made the other party go crazy.”

“The more I think about it, the more I feel that you imbeciles don’t deserve to play games with me ...” Zhao Yu said mischievously. “How about this, I’ll set the next rules. I’ll get the information on the underwater base for you and trade it for Ding Lan!”

“Zhao Yu, you ...”

“Don’t be so noisy!” Zhao Yu scolded her angrily, “listen to your father! I’m telling you, I need three days. Three days later, I’ll bring the information you want and Exchange with you. I guarantee that I won’t cheat you!”

“Don’t you already have my number? Call me when you’re done!”

“You ... You ...” The other party was obviously confused by Zhao Yu. He wanted to curse, but he didn’t know how to open his mouth.”

“Don’t talk nonsense. Listen to your dad.” Zhao Yu said ruthlessly, “I’m not as useless as you. I know that you’ve been torturing me just to take revenge on me.”

“He caused me to lose my reputation and die a tragic death ...”

“Okay, I’ll fulfill your wish. Your father isn’t as timid as you. I’ll bring the information with me, and after the exchange of Ding Lan, you can do whatever you want to him!”

“I’ll do what I say, and I’ll never go back on my words ...”

“You ...”

““““Alright, go and think about it yourself! “““Your dad is tired,”” Zhao Yu said contemptuously,””this is your only chance. If I don’t get a call from you in three days, I’ll go back to China and continue being a detective. I won’t play with you idiots anymore. Do whatever you want!”” ”

“Then, without waiting for the other party to respond, Zhao Yu hung up the phone. ”

Chapter 1968: Quarrelling and sinking

Whoosh ... Whoosh ...

Zhao Yu waved his arms and broke through the water. He swam with all his might and finally swam to a soldier floating on the sea.

“The soldier was Li Xiucheng. When the helicopter fired, not only was he shot, but his head also hit the submarine and he fainted in the water. ”

“Then, he drifted with the current and was already dozens of meters away from the submarine. Fortunately, someone saw him, so Zhao Yu could swim to him in time. ”

“At this moment, Li Xiucheng was unconscious and floating in the water. It was unknown if he was Dead or Alive. ”

“After Zhao Yu caught him, he quickly checked his body and used the invisible hemostatic agent to help him close the wound on his abdomen. ”

“Fortunately, although he was unconscious, he did not choke on water. His life should not be in danger ... ”

““““I’m coming ...”” ”

“At this time, Xiao hang had also swum over. The two of them then dragged Li Xiucheng back to the submarine. ”

“The submarine was already in a state of devastation. In the attack just now, at least six people had been swept by the machine gun bullets. The others had already dragged the injured to the broken speedboat and treated them. ”

“Among them, one of Li Zhen Zhu’s men was seriously injured and was on the verge of death ... ”

““““Hurry up! “““Save them, save them ...””” Li Zhenzhu stood on the submarine that was full of bullet holes and directed everyone to help. When she looked up and saw Zhao Yu, she immediately shouted at him,””Zhao Yu! Tell me, the call you just received, was it from them?”” ”

“Li Zhenzhu pointed in the direction where the helicopter disappeared. The “““they”” she was referring to was naturally the enemies. ”

““““Don’t lie to me,”” Li Zhenzhu said.””I heard what you just said. Tell me, did they make new conditions and give you new clues?”” ”

“““No...”” Zhao Yu and Xiao hang carried Li Xiucheng onto the submarine. Zhao Yu waved at Li Zhenzhu and gave a simple answer. He then squatted down next to the other injured people and began to use his invisible hemostatic agent to help them stop the bleeding. ”

“““You still dare to quibble?”” ““Zhao Yu!”” Li Zhenzhu was completely furious. She jumped onto the speedboat that Zhao Yu was on and asked angrily, ““Zhao Yu, look! It’s because you refused to cooperate with us that we ended up in this state. Are you still going to be stubborn?”” ”

“““Tell me, did they call you just now?”” Then, Li Zhenzhu reached out and took Zhao Yu’s phone from his pocket. ”

“““I’ve said it before, no!”” Zhao Yu wanted to take it back, but Li Zhenzhu pushed him away. ”

““However, the phone had a lock screen, so Li Zhen Zhu didn’t unlock it. She pointed to the screen and said, “““Untie it and let me see the caller ID ...”” ”

“““Youngest, youngest ...”” At that moment, the police detectives exclaimed. The most seriously injured police detective from before had no vital signs. ”

“““Ah?”” Li Zhenzhu was shocked. She hurriedly ran to the injured man and knelt in front of him. She anxiously shouted, ““youngest, youngest, cheer up, youngest ...”” ”

““Seeing how excited Li Zhenzhu was, the other agents couldn’t stand it anymore. They quickly pulled her away and explained, “““The bullet went through his body. He’s beyond saving ...”” ”

““At that time, Zhao Yu had already used the hemostatic agent and the pacemaker on the man, but the system notified Zhao Yu that these devices were ineffective. ”

He was already dead ...

“““Youngest, youngest ...”” Li Zhen Zhu’s tears instantly burst out of her eyes. Although she didn’t shout until her voice was hoarse, she still shouted with her true feelings. ”

““After crying for a long time, Li Zhenzhu wiped her tears and came to Zhao Yu’s phone again. She said to Zhao Yu in a commanding tone, “““Zhao Yu, turn on your phone right now. Let me see who you were talking to just now!”” ”

“““Li ...”” Zhao Yu spread out his hands and advised, ““calm down!”” ”

““In the end, Zhao Yu’s words had the opposite effect. Li Zhenzhu didn’t say anything, but opened her palm and slapped Zhao Yu’s face, wanting to give him a big slap! ”

““However, Zhao Yu was not to be trifled with. Just as Li Zhenzhu’s palm was about to slap his face, he grabbed her wrist in time. ”

“““Hey, what are you doing?”” Zhao Yu’s eyes were wide open. Although he understood Li Zhenzhu’s feelings, he couldn’t agree with her behavior. ”

“““Ah!”” Li Zhenzhu struggled with all her might, her tears dancing in the air like broken beads. She roared hysterically, ““it’s you, Zhenzhen, who killed him!!”” Do you know? He was going to be a father soon! You’re the one who killed him, ah ...”” ”

“Hey!” Suddenly, Xiao hang came up from the side, reached out, and opened their hands. Then he said to Li Zhenzhu, “Sheriff li, calm down! How could Zhao Yu be blamed for this?”

“Think about it!” “The enemy had already made all their plans,” Xiao hang said angrily. “If Zhao Yu hadn’t stopped them in time, more people would have died!”

“Wrong!” “If you had cooperated with us earlier, we would have stopped them in time,” Li Zhenzhu shouted. “This wouldn’t have happened. The youngest wouldn’t have died ...”

“Wrong!” Zhao Yu was also a little angry. He immediately raised his voice and retorted, “if I told you, the consequences would only be more serious than this!”

“You still can’t tell?” Zhao Yu shouted, “they didn’t come to me for revenge. They just wanted to use these terrorist attacks to end me and ruin my reputation!”

“Without me, all of their plans will be carried out in secret. At that time, your losses will be much greater than now!”

“Hmph, stop finding excuses for yourself!” Li Zhen Zhu’s eyes widened. “The enemy has already fired at us. If the helicopter didn’t leave, but circled back and continued shooting, then all of us would have died!”

“The reason why they didn’t do that was because they wanted to keep you alive so that you could continue to listen to them and be used by them!” Li Zhenzhu shouted, “isn’t it too much of a coincidence that your phone is ringing? Tell me, did they use your Little Junior Sister to threaten you again?”

“Hey!” Zhao Yu pointed at Li Zhenzhu’s nose and scolded, “I’ve been tolerating you for a long time! I’m telling you, I have my own plan, and I will use my own methods to catch those people!”

“Hmph, what do you mean by your method!” Li Zhenzhu scorned, “your Little Junior Sister is human, but aren’t my subordinates human?” For the sake of your Little Junior Sister, you can ignore the law and become a terrorist, huh!”

“You ...” Zhao Yu was furious. “What kind of twisted logic is that? I’m telling you, I’m going to save the people and catch the bad guys. If you’re smart, don’t get in my way ...”

Whoosh ...

“Hearing Zhao Yu’s words, Li Zhenzhu suddenly took out her handcuffs and said,”

“Get this straight, you’re in my way now. If you still don’t tell me what you called me, you’ll see how I’ll treat you ...”

“Then, Li Zhenzhu took the handcuffs and was about to cuff Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu was also very arrogant, and his mouth was full of anger and curses.”

“Seeing this, Xiao hang quickly stood between the two to stop the fight. However, before Xiao hang could stop the two, he suddenly heard a squeak from the submarine next to them.”

“He turned his head and saw that for some reason, the bow of the submarine had been raised high.”

""Oh oh oh ..."" "

"At this time, not only Xiao hang, but everyone else was also shocked and dodged. "

"The next second, the huge bow of the submarine slammed into the sea, creating countless waves. Then, the entire submarine sank to the bottom of the sea ... "

Chapter 1969: unreasonable purpose

"Eight o'clock that night, the Guang Zhou police station, in a command room. "

""You're teasing me again, right?"" Xiao hang stood in front of the large screen in the command room and said to Park Xianhe, the person in charge of the Korean forces, ""a military helicopter attacked us at sea, but you still haven't found out anything? "

""Don't tell me that the plane disappeared into thin air! "

""There are machine guns on the plane! Who knew if there were any more missiles? Aren't you guys worried?"" "

""I'm sorry,"" Park Xianhe said with a red face, ""we have checked all the planes of the same type. So far, we have not found any missing or unused ones. We suspect that the plane is an imitation of the enemy ..."" "

""What the hell?"" Xiao hang looked disappointed and complained again. ""Even if it's an imitation, don't you have a sea defense system?"" Even if it's a military aircraft, didn't they find anything?"" "

""Our system will acknowledge military aircraft,"" Park Hyun-ho pointed to the big screen. ""We have now confirmed that the fake military aircraft should have entered the mainland from the nearby Maai Island. However, once it entered the mainland, it will be difficult to find its specific direction ..."" "

"Xiao hang grinned. ""That means they could be hiding anywhere in the mainland?"" Isn't this a little ..."" "

""There's no choice,"" Park Hyun-ho pointed to the big screen and said, ""our national conditions are different, and our deployment has a lot of constraints. You see, further west of Maai Island is their base ..."" "

""Oh ..."" Xiao hang finally understood that the national situation that Park Xianhe was talking about was different. It was because there were military bases in a big country. "

""Then ..."" Xiao hang asked, ""do you think that the plane is under their protection and is now hidden in their military base?"" "

""Please don't talk nonsense,"" Park Xianhe quickly pulled Xiao hang aside and whispered. ""It doesn't make sense in theory."" "

“““After all, the disguised aircraft is our military model. If it really flew into the US military base, it would be too obvious!”” ”

“““Oh ...”” Xiao hang pondered for a moment, then nodded and said,““if we really have a connection with them, then we can’t fly into the US military base ...”” ”

“““We’re also communicating with them,”” Park Xianhe explained.““They have agreed to help us investigate!”” ”

“““AI!”” Xiao hang sighed.““They have the ability to build a military aircraft. No wonder my boss was caught by them!”” Who are these people?”” ”

The boss that Xiao hang was referring to was Miao kun.

“““It’s indeed strange,”” Park Xianhe whispered.““It feels like we’re back in the Cold War era, but technology is so advanced now, and information is so fast. If it’s a government Act, who would dare to play with fire?”” ”

“““Indeed, stealing other people’s research results and even killing them to keep their mouths shut,”” Xiao hang said.““Only a jealous madman would do such a thing. I don’t think it’s a government Act either ...”” ”

“““But, if it’s for personal gain ... Tsk tsk ...”” Xiao hang said, then subconsciously looked behind him, but he didn’t see Zhao Yu. He felt uneasy. ”

“An hour ago, Zhao Yu had been taken to another room by Li Zhenzhu to make a detailed statement. ”

“Xiao hang knew that the two of them were like fire and water. He was worried that Zhao Yu would be at a disadvantage, so he immediately tried to stop him. But Zhao Yu indicated to him that he had no problem and was willing to be questioned, and followed Li Zhenzhu obediently. ”

“However, Zhao Yu had not returned yet. Xiao hang was extremely worried. ”

“Everything else could be explained, but after all, Zhao Yu had kidnapped Li Zhenzhu at the technology Building, and they had also robbed the hospital’s helicopter. ”

“If hanfang really pursued the matter, Zhao Yu would not be able to escape. ”

“For this reason, Xiao hang had contacted Li Jing early on and asked her to use her high-level connections to exonerate Zhao Yu. He wondered what the situation was now. ”

“““Officer Xiao,”” Park Xianhe pretended not to notice Xiao hang’s anxiety and continued,““we have already launched an international investigation to see which companies are most interested in these two technologies. ”

“““But, with all due respect,”” Park Xianhe continued,““if it’s just for the company’s interests, I don’t think ... It’s possible. ”

“““Because no matter which company it is, if it has such great strength, why would it worry about not being able to complete the research project? why would it take such extreme measures?”” ”

“““Right!”” Xiao hang agreed.““I also think that this matter is full of contradictions!”” ”

“““Also,”” Park Xianhe said to Xiao hang as he used the remote control to control the big screen and pulled up an analysis chart.””According to the current situation, everything the enemy did before had a certain purpose! ”

“““For example, they mimicked the lost hand case and attacked your Chinese representative,”” Park Xianhe pointed to the photo and said,””in fact, they just wanted to use the representative’s hand to sneak into the technology Building and cause destruction! ”

“““Then, they mimicked the devil case and pushed Ms. Yu mengtian down from a tall building.”” Park Hyun-ho changed the photo.””In fact, they wanted to get Ms. Yu’s identity information and the password to the safe. Then, they carried out a terrorist attack at the underwater base ... ”

“““But ...”” Park Xianhe shook his head and said,””the two copycat cases don’t seem to make sense, right? One was a headless female corpse, and the other was an Island murder! ”

“““I don’t understand ...”” Park Xianhe opened the photos of the two cases and said to Xiao hang,””why are they imitating these two cases?”” ”

“““It’s been confirmed,”” Xiao hang said.””The owner of this headless female corpse is Xi Wei’s daughter. This person is the actual leader of Xi Wei’s criminal group after Xi Wei’s death! ”

“““But after londee’s suppression, he was already an arrow at the end of its flight ... ”

“““Yes, it’s a little strange ...”” Xiao hang frowned.””What was the enemy’s purpose in killing her?”” Don’t tell me...That this woman has some secret project in Korea?”” ”

“““Officer Xiao,”” Park Xianhe said frankly,””we know almost nothing about this woman’s situation. I hope you can provide us with more information about this woman so that we can carry out our investigation in the country!”” ”

“““Oh, of course!”” Xiao hang quickly nodded.””I’ve already reported it to my superiors. Don’t worry, the information will be sent over soon!”” ”

“““Well, that’s good, that’s good ...”” After Park Xianhe expressed his gratitude, he pointed to another photo and said,””however, it’s even harder to speculate about the island murder case that the enemy imitated!”” ”

“““Regarding this case, what is the enemy’s purpose?”” ”

“““What’s so hard to guess?”” at this moment, Li Zhenzhu suddenly walked in and said to everyone,””they killed so many people just to let the Middle-Eastern woman send a message to our detective Zhao Yu!”” ”

“““Oh?”” Xiao hang and Park Xianhe turned around. They only saw Li Zhenzhu, but Zhao Yu was nowhere to be seen. ”

“At this time, Li Zhenzhu walked up to Xiao hang and extended her right hand.””““Officer Xiao, Zhao Yu has confessed. The Middle-Eastern woman named Lola gave him a mini USB drive when no one was paying attention, which had the blackmail information of the enemy recorded on it! ”

“““Now ...”” Li Zhen Zhu bent her fingers,””please give me the USB!”” ”

""This ..."" Xiao hang's heart palpitated.""Wait a minute, where's Zhao Yu?"" "

Chapter 1970: female prisoner

"Although they were from different countries, the dark interrogation room was almost the same. "

"At that moment, Zhao Yu was sitting at one end of the interrogation room, his hands supporting his head, looking extremely tired. "

"The side effects of the energy booster had not ended yet, but Zhao Yu had no intention of resting. His mind was still trying to recall what had happened earlier. "

"The reason why the submarine suddenly sank was because the helicopter's bullets had hit the submarine's snorkeling device. Fortunately, the submarine's sinking did not drag Zhao Yu and the others to the bottom of the sea, so they were not affected. "

"Soon after, the coastal guards who rushed over saved them and sent the injured to the hospital for treatment. "

"In order to handle the follow-up investigation, the local police didn't return to Seoul but chose the nearest kangzhou police station. "

"The reason why Zhao Yu agreed to Li Zhenzhu's inquiry was that he felt the need to explain his experience to them clearly, so as to avoid more misunderstandings in the future. "

"Of course, although Li Zhenzhu was very emotional, Zhao Yu was a special investigator sent by China, after all. So, during the interrogation process, the policewoman did not deliberately make things difficult for Zhao Yu. "

"On the contrary, when Zhao Yu took the initiative to tell her the story, she calmed down a lot. "

"It seemed that she had figured out the nature of the problem. If it wasn't for Zhao Yu, the situation would have been worse. "

"Putting aside these trivial thoughts, Zhao Yu recalled the scene of him talking to the mysterious enemy on the phone. "

"To be honest, even though Zhao Yu was angry at the other party with his sharp and wild words, Zhao Yu was not confident at all. He was still deeply worried about Ding Lan's safety. "

"If the conditions he proposed didn't hit the other party's weak spot, it would probably backfire and completely enrage the enemy. In that case, Ding Lan would undoubtedly be doomed. "

The enemy would most likely take revenge on Zhao Yu by hurting Ding Lan!

"However, in such a situation, it was Zhao Yu's only choice. "

"This was because, normally speaking, Zhao Yu had foiled two of the enemy's plots in a row, which had completely angered the other party. "

“Therefore, an angry enemy would definitely make a move on Ding Lan! ”

“Hence, Zhao Yu decided to take the risk and attack the other party with poison. Not only did he not follow the other party, but he also scolded the other party so badly that he was at a loss for what to do!

“The reason why Zhao Yu was so arrogant, in addition to his anger, was also a psychological strategy. ”

“If he kept giving in to his enemy, his enemy would be satisfied and would probably push his luck even further. That would be disadvantageous to Ding Lan. ”

“However, when Zhao Yu belittled the other party, not only would the other party be angry, but he might also lose his mind and give himself away. ”

“Zhao Yu depreciated his enemy, so the more his enemy couldn’t take it lying down, the more he wanted to continue fighting with Zhao Yu. ”

“In that case, he might be able to temporarily shift the enemy’s attention away from Ding Lan, and vent all their anger on Zhao Yu. ”

“Hence, Zhao Yu’s anger was just a psychological battle. ”

“Of course, psychological warfare also required capital. ”

Just talking about it would not solve the problem.

“In addition to having a sharp tongue, he also needed to have chips in his hands that could earn points. ”

“Hence, Zhao Yu thought of an idea in an emergency and proposed a tempting condition. ”

Zhao Yu knew that the enemy had spent so much effort and took such a big risk to sneak into the underwater base to launch a terrorist attack. Their most important purpose was to get the core information on the synthetic rare earth.

“Therefore, the laptop that contained the core information must be very important to them! ”

“It was also because of this that the tall criminal had died so miserably. The tall man had lost his laptop, which undoubtedly made his boss very angry. ”

“Hence, Zhao Yu threw out the huge bait of the laptop to make a deal with the other party. ”

“Zhao Yu felt that his bait was quite attractive, and the mysterious enemy would definitely consider it seriously. ”

“If they took the bait, then Ding Lan’s life would be saved temporarily. ”

He could also take advantage of this deal to further understand his opponent and find an opportunity to defeat him ...

“Of course, if he was wrong, then everything would be empty talk, and Ding Lan would lose his life. ”

“Now, he had to see if this mysterious enemy would call him three days later. ”

“As long as they contacted him, it meant that he would be in control. Therefore, the phone call in three days would be very important. ”

“Of course, Zhao Yu couldn’t stay idle during these three days. On the one hand, he had to find a way to find out where the enemy might be hiding. ”

“On one hand, he had to predict the enemy’s next step. ”

And the most important thing was that he had to find a way to get his hands on the tablet that contained the core information!

“Without this bargaining chip, he would not be able to make a deal with the other party. ”

“Of course, Zhao Yu knew how important the core information was. In addition to closing the deal, he also had to find a way to ensure that the information would not fall into the hands of the enemy. ”

“As Zhao Yu was thinking about his plan, the door opened, and two prison guards entered the interrogation room with a female prisoner. ”

“As soon as he saw the female prisoner, Zhao Yu immediately stood up. ”

“”Zhao Yu ...” After the female prisoner saw Zhao Yu, she was extremely excited. She immediately rushed over and buried her head in Zhao Yu’s arms, then said in English, “thank God you’re still alive ...” ”

“This person was none other than the beautiful Middle-Eastern agent, Momo Lola Mei! ”

“”I’m sorry ...” Amiola said remorsefully. “I was forced to do so. They threatened me with the chief’s life. I had no choice ...” ”

“”Laura!”” Zhao Yu reached out to comfort the Middle-Eastern beauty, then motioned for her to sit in front of him and said, “don’t get so worked up. Tell me slowly, what happened between you and the chief?”” Who were those dead people on the island?”” ”

“”Those people are the chieftain’s men,”” amiola said excitedly. “We were attacked!”” They killed those people and hung me on the rope ...”” ”

“”The chief’s subordinates?”” he asked. “Who attacked you?”” Zhao Yu asked. ”

“”A few days ago,”” mellaura recalled, “the chief was invited to Jeju Island to attend a banquet. At the same time, sevanbach, Jecca, Juliet, and Female Miao were also invited. They were all the people who had participated in the detective salon ...”” ”

“”Invitation?”” Zhao Yu asked again, “who invited you?”” ”

“”It’s that Korean, li ... Li ...”” Amiola couldn’t remember. ”

“”Li Bencheng?”” Zhao Yu’s eyes widened. ”

“”Right!”” “I don’t know what he said to the chieftain,”” Amelia said. “The chieftain took it very seriously and went to meet him before he recovered. I didn’t know that it was a trap! ”

“”We were attacked as soon as we arrived at the designated location for the banquet ...”” ”
