

Crazy 351

Chapter 351: One More Thing

Dong!

Dong!

Dong!

Zhao Yu could hear someone knocking on the door. He realized that the back up team had arrived! He wanted to get up to open the door, but he couldn't move an inch.

Although he wasn't passed out and was technically conscious, Zhao Yu felt worn out; all his bones felt weak, and his entire body was not under the control of his brain. Even keeping his eyes open required a lot of effort.

Oh...

He groaned in pain, then he finally saw something. It was Chen Hao, whose shoulders had both been broken by Zhao Yu. His back was against the staircase, and he was falling into deep coma.

There was still a knocking noise that could be heard from above the staircase, and there was dust all over the place. Suddenly the knocking noise stopped, and he could hear someone shouting excitedly, "It's open! Hurry up!"

Then, there were more than ten fully armed police detectives that rushed down from above. When they saw the situation in the warehouse, they were dumbstruck!

"My goodness... This... What is going on?"

"There's someone, look!"

"Zhao... Zhao Yu!!"

Zhao Yu heard Miao Ying's voice and knew he could finally relax and close his eyes to rest.

"Zhao Yu! Hey, Zhao Yu! You ... How are you feeling?" Miao Ying was the first to reach Zhao Yu. She carried him in her arms.

"Zhao Yu... Zhao Yu... Wake up! Wake up!" Miao Ying sounded worried. Her voice was trembling.

Zhao Yu hadn't been planning to pretend to be passed out, but once he was in Miao Ying's embrace, he could not find the strength to even open his eyes.

Miao Ying looked over Zhao Yu's body to see whether he had any vital wounds. At the same time, she approached Zhao Yu's nose to see if he was breathing.

Zhao Yu's breathing was weak, so Miao Ying had to put her ear against his chest to listen to his heartbeat. During the fight earlier, Zhao Yu had taken his shirt off. When Miao Ying put her face against his chest, Zhao Yu felt happy as he smelled Miao Ying's distinctive fragrance he was so familiar with.

He suddenly thought to himself, If I were to hold my breath, would Ms. Miao give me CPR?

“Zhao Yu... What happened to Team Leader Zhao? Is he alive?” Lan Bo came over and asked anxiously.

“Quick! Call an ambulance! Call a few!” Miao Ying gave an order immediately.

“Okay! Okay! Mm, I’ve called!” Lan Bo was at loss for what to do.

“Oh god, what is the situation?” Zhang Jingfeng clenched his gun when he looked at the situation before his eyes. His minds was a mess.

“Lao Zhang! I think...” Xiao Liu said beside him, “These people wearing camouflage suits were most likely Zhao Qing’s comrades! Zhao Yu must have been here to solve Team Leader Qu Ping’s case, but not to ruin the place! Look at all these power cables; How professional. They even have guns!”

“Zhang Yaohui, Xiao Liu, hurry up and handcuff them all, regardless of if they’re dead or alive!” Miao Ying ordered, then turned around to look at Zhao Yu.

“Zhao Yu, don’t scare me. Wake up,; open your eyes, okay?” Miao Ying was worried. She touched Zhao Yu’s cheek, but his face was covered with blood.

“Zhao Yu, Zhao Yu, hold on; you must hold on!” Miao Ying saw Zhao Yu was not responding, so she was panicking. She quickly moved her lips closer to Zhao Yu’s cheeks, wanting to give him CPR.

Zhao Yu couldn’t see, but he could smell Miao Ying. He was already expecting the CPR. He was thrilled!

Who could have guessed that at the crucial moment, Chen Hao would say, “Oh! Aiya, don’t touch me! I admit, I’ll confess to everything, mm...”

Chen Hao finally realized that it was no one but policemen here and changed his confession. “Aiya, Com... Comrades, I... I’m one of you! Municipal special task force, specifically to investigate these criminals! Quick! Arrest them all! Police Officer Zhao and I investigated and found that these are all Zhao Qing’s comrades!”

Huh?!

Zhao Yu panicked when he heard that. Using newfound strength, he suddenly sat straight up from Miao Ying’s embrace and pointed at Chen Hao.

“F*ck you motherf*cker! Say that one more time!”

Zhao Yu held onto Chen Hao’s ankle as he continued cursing.

“Ah!” Chen Hao had already seen what Zhao Yu could do, so he was frightened. He swung both of his broken arms as he screamed, “I’m bad! I’m wrong! I am the double agent; I was bought over by Yu Fusheng! I am the double agent, don’t, don’t let him touch me, okay? Woo...”

Chen Hao wailed and whined as he broke down...

Hoo...Hoo... Zhao Yu panted and shouted at the detectives next to him, “Hurry up, handcuff him! He is the double agent in the police team!”

Then, Zhao Yu quickly turned around to tell Miao Ying, "Team Leader Miao, Liao Jingxian is innocent! Team Leader Qu Ping was killed by Zhao Qing! But it was Yu Fusheng's plan to hire these SWAT members! And... And..."

Zhao Yu suddenly felt out of breath. He fell to his knees. Miao Ying was quick to respond; she immediately held Zhao Yu in her embrace.

"Zhao Yu, don't get too excited. We need to go to the hospital first, then you can tell us slowly..." Miao Ying held Zhao Yu tightly as she comforted him. However, seeing that Zhao Yu was fine, she relaxed too.

"One more thing..." Zhao Yu raised one of his fingers and asked, "Team Leader Miao, can you still perform CPR on me? I can't breathe..."

Although Zhao Yu was speaking mischievously, Miao Ying smiled sincerely...

After going through a lot of trouble, a normal person would have a lot of stubborn ideas. God knows how long it had been before Zhao Yu finally woke up, but he was still thinking about the unfinished business between him and Miao Ying.

That moment, Zhao Yu felt a graceful body next to him, so he brought her into his embrace and said,

"Team Leader Miao, come on, where is my CPR? Give it to me!"

"Hey, hey, hey... What are you trying to do? Are you okay?"

Zhao Yu quickly opened his eyes and saw that it was a nurse he was hugging. The nurse had a syringe needle for infusion in her hands.

"Oh... Amitabha..." Zhao Yu quickly released his hands.

"Hey, are you ok?" The nurse pouted as she complained, "I'm here to take out the needle. I think you got the wrong person."

"No... I'm sorry!" Zhao Yu realized then that he was in a private ward. But the nurse was not unfamiliar; it seemed as though he had seen her somewhere before.

"What is it? What happened?" Hearing noises in the ward, a lady dressed in a pink nurse's uniform ran in. When she saw Zhao Yu was awake, she immediately ask gently, "Police Officer Zhao, you're awake?"

Zhao Yu looked up and saw that the nurse was no other than Yao Jia!

Chapter 352: How to Explain?

"Officer Zhao, how do you feel?" Yao Jia, who sat in front of Zhao Yu, smiled and spoke in a soft voice.

"Don't worry! It's just a minor suture, the back injury didn't hurt your internal organs!"

Oh..

After he tried hard to recall it, suddenly, Zhao Yu remembered that he was in a coma, right after he was carried on a stretcher from the warehouse. By now, he had been treated at the hospital. But...Zhao Yu took a glance at door, and it seemed like he was looking for something...

“Chief nurse,” the junior nurse took this opportunity to complain, “Although there are many fractures all over his body, he still had the strength to flirt with me, and asked me to give him an artificial respiration just now!”

“Cough cough...” with his befuddled brain, Zhao Yu failed to talk, but managed plenty of coughing as he opened his mouth.

“Alright, there’s no reason for you to stay here, so hurry, get back to work!” Yao Jia relentlessly dislodged the junior nurse and spoke to Zhao Yu, “You’ll be fine, officer Zhao, although there were fractures of your rib, clavicle, scapula and cheekbone, but, there’s no dislocation. You just need to recover from your injuries and not move!”

Her words seemed to be true. Originally, Zhao Yu felt nothing, but now, at that moment, he was experiencing extreme pain all over his body, especially in his chest.

“Don’t worry! It’s all right!” Yao Jia smiled, and even reached for Zhao Yu’s palm, consoling him. “Since you have been assigned to our department, I will take good care of you.”

Unexpectedly, before Yao Jia could finish her words, there was a lady’s voice heard. She was talking on a phone, then appeared at the doorway of the ward.

“I know, Bureau Chief Luan, my men can do it! I must stay at the hospital now, yeah, I know...” she said.

Captain Miao Ying was the one who she was talking to on the phone at that moment. She was in her police uniform, walking from outside with a lot of things, yet she kept talking on the phone.

However, she was stunned when she saw Yao Jia holding Zhao Yu’s hand.

Purr...

Whether it was a planned occasion or a coincidence, one of the plastic bags was leaking, causing several big and round red apples to roll out of it all over the floor.

“Oops...I...I’ll get it...I’ll will get it for you!” Yao Jia hastily loosened Zhao Yu’s hand and bent over to pick up the apples.

Meanwhile, Miao Ying immediately returned to talking at the phone: “Bureau Chief Luan, Zhao Yu has awoken. He’s fine, don’t worry! About the case, you must listen to me, there was a big flaw in the City Council, they’re culpable as well, so don’t let the special team interfere anymore, or else, let us solve it! Okay...Okay...”

At the end of this dialogue, Miao Ying hung up the phone, walked towards Zhao Yu, and stood straight in front him. Miao Ying appeared taller in Zhao Yu’s sight, and his heart was extremely panicked at that moment.

The two of them looked at each other, then Miao Ying smiled and greeted Zhao Yu, "You damn bastard! I know there must be some dirty tricks there, as I've been seeing you run to that place so often! You just don't tell me, don't tell me, don't tell me..."

She used toilet paper to smash Zhao Yu's thigh every time she said: 'Don't tell me'.

"Hey hey hey, he's a patient, how could you do that?" Yao Jia was dissatisfied with her, especially after she saw Miao Ying keep beating Zhao Yu. So she hurriedly gave a verbal warning to her. Unexpectedly, Miao Ying was more angry after she heard it, placing her hands on her waist and exclaiming at once:

"Nurse, now I'm representing the police, and I need to get the confession from this officer! Hence, please cooperate!" Miao Ying pointed to the door while she was speaking with Yao Jia, then gestured her to leave with an impolite posture: 'Please'.

"You..." Although Yao Jia was mad, she was not proficient enough to refute. Hence, she just put the apple on the table and enjoined, "Please pay more attention! Officer Zhao was just awoken, so he can't be too tired yet!"

Yao Jia left the ward reluctantly, after she saw Zhao Yu had nodded slightly to her. Once Yao Jia had left, Miao Ying, who was insanely jealous at that moment, hastily exclaimed, "Yo, your hand is really tight, are you comfortable with it? Officer Zhao...Officer Zhao, such a kind person, wasn't it due to you, having sex with her before?"

"Cough...cough cough..." Zhao Yu was panicked and could not help coughing at that moment. However, due to the injuries on his ribs and collarbone, he felt extreme pain, as if his heart was being drilled every time he coughed.

"Hey? Are you okay?" Miao Ying was very anxious and immediately lowered her profile, and spoke with a pleasant voice, while pulling Zhao Yu's shoulder, "Do you need some water?"

Zhao Yu nodded slightly, as he was really thirsty. Miao Ying hurriedly went to the water dispenser to pour a glass of water for Zhao Yu, then helped him to drink the water.

After drinking, Zhao Yu felt much more comfortable in his throat, although it did clear up the phlegm. At last, he was able to speak. However, he was shocked when he looked at the time, it was already ten o'clock!

"Alas!" Zhao Yu grabbed Miao Ying's arm and said anxiously, "Tycoon, the dog! My dog's still at home! It probably hasn't eaten anything all day!"

"What the f*ck!" Miao Ying nonchalantly shot a glance at Zhao Yu. "You've already become this, yet you are concerned about a dog! Alright, I've send Ma Wei to your house, and your landlord has agreed to look after the dog! Don't worry! Come..."

As she was speaking, Miao Ying took out a vacuum flask and said, "You haven't eaten anything yet!" Let's drink this bowl of porridge first. I bought it from the canteen!"

"Captain Miao, how...what about the other people? Why didn't I see anyone?" Zhao Yu had no appetite at all. He put the vacuum flask back on the table.

“What do you say?” Miao Ying rolled her eyes upon hearing his words, “There are four special policemen and one regular policeman, all were beaten by you half to death. They all are having surgery now! One of them almost died during the rescue operation!”

“Although they are having surgery, we’ll keep an eye on them! They all are felons! Even the three officers for one felon was also not sufficient! As of now, I have requested support from others, as there’s not enough people for a Key Case Investigation Unit.

“Yeah...you must pay extra attention to them! They are not ordinary human beings, as they are proficient in fighting!” Zhao Yu nodded slightly. “But, they deserved it! Team Leader Qu Ping was killed by them, so they all deserved to die! Oh...and yes...there’s a guy called Chen Hao, he’s a spy!”

“I know, I know!” Miao Ying exclaimed. “More than this, we found a lot of evidence, including the materials to plant on the former Bureau Chief Zhou Andong, which were at their computer. We discovered these while we were collecting evidence at the scene. Moreover, they are premeditated crimes, murder, and the target was a special policeman called Luo Xiaohu.

“Luo Xiaohu?” Zhao Yu recalled for a moment, but, he did not know this guy.

“Luo Xiaohu was the special policeman who killed Yu Shuai that year,” Miao Ying replied. “Police shot him as a counterattack. While seeing Yu Shuai resist the police arrest, Yu Shuai was killed by Luo Xiaohu!”

“Oh...I see...” Zhao Yu was lingering in his mind. Yu Shuai was the son of Daddy Yu, the head of the crime group. Daddy Yu was making such big moves in order to seek revenge for him!

“Police knew that they might retaliate, and so they were hiding Luo Xiaohu’s identify, and no one knew it!” Miao Ying remarked. “In this way, they got Chen Hao! We found two million in stolen money from Chen Hao’s cousin’s account, and the money should have been traded to him by Daddy Yu!”

“Oh...” Zhao Yu frowned and exclaimed, “It was because they couldn’t find Luo Xiaohu, and thus, they’ve attacked Team Leader Qu, and Bureau Chief Zhou Andong...”

“Should be!” Yet they claimed son should pay for the father’s debt! Team Leader Qu is innocent!” Miao Ying indignantly exclaimed, “These people have no mercy, no humanity!” Luckily Bureau Chief Liao had hidden Zhou Andong into a safe house, otherwise, I’m afraid his life would not be guaranteed!”

“Hence, I’ve applied with the lead, to investigate Yu Fusheng! Team Leader Qu Ping was killed from the Key Case Investigation Unit, so we should retaliate for her!”

“Yeah!” Zhao Yu could not help feeling sad, as he recalled the face and smile of Team Leader Qu Ping.

“Alright!” Miao Ying had retracted the indignant expression, and instead, she changed to a more solemn and dignified face, facing Zhao Yu and exclaimed, “About the revenge, we’ll discuss it later! But, about your business, you should explain it now! Just tell me, Zhao Yu, what had happened in the hidden chamber behind the cake shop!?”

Chapter 353: Flirtatious Banter

"I still don't understand. Let me ask you..." Zhao Yu had yet to figure out an excuse, but the entire incident could still be roughly retold. "I was doing some shopping! Then I passed by the cake shop as I was wandering around. I thought to myself, I'll see whether Lao Liao found any new clues and if they need our help."

"But when I got to the cake shop, I didn't manage to find their commanding vehicle. So I thought they left! But when I turned behind the cake shop, guess what... Chen Hao had his gun pointed at me!"

Zhao Yu pointed at his back and said, "I am not a man to be trifled with. I gave him a hard slap and took the gun off his hands! But there was a SWAT soldier that popped out of nowhere and knocked me out with some type of electric gun. Then they dragged me into the warehouse. Who knew their lair was right behind the cake shop. They are so cunning!"

"Then?" Miao Yi was very interested in what had happened.

"Then, then..." Zhao Yu continued, "When I woke up, the b*stards that bore a grudge against me thought that it would not be satisfying enough to just kill me right away, so they insisted on fighting one-on-one with me! Don't you know about my skills? I set them straight. Wahahahahaha..."

Zhao Yu's hysterical laugh showed no confidence.

"Wu Shuang, Crimson Eight Service Squad, professional killer..." Miao Ying didn't blink as she looked at Zhao Yu, "Luo Yucheng, a.k.a. Tarzan, an ex-mercenary, can shatter rocks with his bare hands; Cui Yan, hacker, professionally trained to kill; Ren Xiangyu, SWAT soldier, and a national shooting champion!

"Zhao Yu, if you were not lying down on this hospital bed, I would really want to strangle you and remove your tongue! Among the five of them, I can only believe reluctantly that you fought with Chen Hao. Any of the others could have easily killed you!"

"Tsk tsk... If you don't believe, let the truth speak for itself!" Zhao Yu showed off shamelessly and said, "Actually, I was quite confused too. You tell me, how could I have won? That's so incredible! Either they belittled me or I am too amazing."

"How about the guns?" Miao Ying placed her fist before Zhao Yu's face and asked viscusly, "All the guns had no bullets left. They were all empty! They even had an electric gun! In such a narrow space, five of them tried to shoot you, yet you sustained no injuries. From what I see, you could've died a hundred times over!"

"That... That is ridiculous!" Zhao Yu obviously couldn't tell the truth, so he continued to act unreasonably. "You have to blame that on their shooting skills! Also, how did the wound on my back come about? I was nearly stabbed to death by that woman! I was at death's door; I had nine chances to die and only one chance to live! That was so risky!"

"You..." Miao Ying shook her head in anger, "Zhao Yu, can't you tell me the truth at this point?"

"Team Leader Miao, what I said was the truth. Can you not belittle me?" Zhao Yu spread his hands and said, "I am already in this state, why would I lie to you? Am I crazy?" Zhao Yu couldn't help coughing again when he got too excited.

"You... You b*stard..." Miao Ying swore, but she still passed Zhao Yu the cup of water.

Zhao Yu took a sip and said solemnly, “Regardless, I lived, and arrested all the criminals. Isn’t that a good thing? Isn’t everyone happy?”

“But the truth must be told! And it is really a miracle that you came back alive! That’s really too risky! Please, when you run into any trouble in the future, remember to inform me, okay?! You already know they are merciless, so find a way to escape! Why do you want to fight with them?” Miao Ying pouted.

“I know! I know! You’re going to catch up with my mother!” When he thought about his mother, Zhao Yu’s eyes suddenly popped wide open and grabbed for Miao Ying’s hands, “Hey, Captain Miao, you didn’t tell my mother anything right? If she finds out, I will be in big trouble!”

“No, no! Do I look that silly?” Miao Ying explained, “When Ma Wei went to your house, your mom wasn’t home!”

“You scared me to death!” Zhao Yu was in cold sweat. “My mother is back in her hometown! She saw that I had found her a great daughter-in-law and was happy enough!”

“Oh...” Recalling when they had made dumplings a while back, Miao Ying’s face flushed red.

“Oh right, it’s my turn to ask! I am still waiting for you to give you me CPR!” Zhao Yu smiled cheekily. “I didn’t get it in the warehouse, so can you give it to me now?”

“Hey, don’t be so bold!” Miao Ying opened the container of porridge and brought over a spoon, “Come on, have some porridge! Get some food in your stomach so you can have some energy to nurse your wound!”

“Actually, if you gave me CPR, I would have more strength!” Zhao Yu smiled maliciously as he raised his hands to take the thermos. In actuality, if he could assault the nurse, he could easily eat by himself. But Zhao Yu was not an honest man; he pretended to look miserable when he raised his arms!

“What is it? Are you hurt?” Miao Ying stared at him in disdain, but she scooped a spoonful of porridge and brought it to Zhao Yu’s mouth.

Just as Zhao Yu extended his neck to eat it, Miao Ying suddenly retracted the spoon, causing Zhao Yu to miss it.

“Mm...” Miao Ying raised the spoon before her mouth and blew softly. “The porridge is too hot. Don’t burn yourself; blow on it a bit first...” Although she had said it herself, Miao Ying couldn’t help but laugh.

“It’s not hot, I don’t mind...” Then, Zhao Yu got up from the bed and raised his face before Miao Ying, trying to grab the spoon with his mouth.

Miao Ying purposely retracted the spoon further so that Zhao Yu couldn’t reach it. But Zhao Yu wasn’t aiming for the spoon; he turned around and kissed Miao Ying’s cheeks.

“You!” Miao Ying said angrily, “I’ve been fooled by you again! You are impossible to guard against... Alright, let’s see how I would take care of you!”

Then, Miao Ying raised her hands and seized hold of Zhao Yu’s chin. She forced the spoon into his mouth.

Zhao Yu couldn't struggle, and he drank the the porridge. With just one mouthful, he felt an unbearable pain in his cheeks, and he quivered.

“Aiya!” Miao Ying then recalled that Zhao Yu's nose bridge and cheekbones were severely injured, so it was better not to touch it. She immediately stopped and asked, “I'm sorry, I think I hurt you, right? Who told you to be so indecent!”

Tsk, tsk... Zhao Yu was clenching his teeth in pain.

“Alright, alright!” Miao Ying held the thermos flask again, “I owe you from my previous life. I'll feed you, okay?”

Zhao Yu felt better. Miao Ying began feeding Zhao Yu the porridge until she was almost done, when she remembered something.

That's not right. It's just porridge, not rice! I could've just poured the porridge into the bowl and forced him to drink it. What's the point of feeding him spoon by spoon.

While Miao Ying was annoyed, Zhao Yu wasn't enjoying it entirely either. He was worried about something else.

When they bring up things like the invisibility cloak and bullet proof suit, how should I explain myself? When he arrested Hou Meng back then, he used the invisibility cloak too; but that was during the night, and Hou Meng was alone. Even he thought he hadn't seen things correctly, so the police naturally didn't believe it.

But this would be five testimonies stating the same thing. When the five of them say so, how should I explain?

Chapter 354: No Way

Perhaps they were having some thoughts in their minds, because they had stopped flirting and snuggling with each other and began to discuss the case again, after Miao Ying had finished feeding Zhao Yu porridge.

Through the introduction of Miao Ying, Zhao Yu knew that the camera that he found at the open space behind the cake shop was not simply used for camera shooting, but indeed, it was the most advanced alarm system in the country!

Those cameras were able to capture any abnormal situation clearly and accurately, especially when someone passed through, as it would automatically issue an alarm. Once there was any sign of trouble outside, people who were staying in the warehouse could discover it in time.

For example, when Zhao Yu was struck by an electric shock gun and was carried into the warehouse by those criminals, the people inside could have known concisely if there were anyone standing at the window on the nearby floor, or if someone suddenly saw them, or so on. It was truly intelligent technology.

Plainly, equipped with such an advanced alarm system, the police failed to guess that the criminals would set their den at that kind of place!

Zhao Yu estimated that, previously, he had stumbled on a camera at the open space, but seeing the camera seemed to be closed up, it appeared that the place had been abandoned by the criminals before!

That time was exactly the period when the police discovered that there was something wrong with the cake shop and started to monitor it. In other words, the criminals were worried their den would be discovered by police, due to Zhao Qing's death. Therefore, they had abandoned it for a while. However, owing to the joining of the traitor-Chen Hao, they soon knew that the police were paying attention to the cake shop itself, instead of knowing there was a hidden place behind it.

Therefore, the criminals came back and hid themselves, right under the eyes of the police, every day, and continued their criminal activities! If it had not been destroyed by Zhao Yu, Luo Xiaohu or Zhou Andong, and those who had the connections with Yu Shuai's death, they could certainly have been poisoned by them!

"Oh..." Miao Ying seemed to see through something, when two of them were chatting. Immediately, she pointed to Zhao Yu's forehead and exclaimed, "I get it, is it because there is an internal fighting among them, thus giving you a chance to take advantage of it?"

Surprisingly, Miao Ying was still picking on the matter of Zhao Yu's narrow escape from death.

"That's not true! Ah, why don't you believe it?" Zhao Yu explained gloomily, "They came to me for battle, and then, I grabbed his gun when I was fighting with the first guy, again, and I continued fighting with them! At the end, they all squatted. It's as simple as that!"

"No, No, No..." All of the sudden, Miao Ying spoke in English, "No matter how well is your ability, you can't beat so many people at once. Well! It's alright if you don't talk much now, the criminals will wake up soon, and I'll understand all upon their confessions!"

"If...you dare to cheat me...hey hey...Just wait for me. I promise you, I'll make the hospital become your home!"

"Don't...Don't like this..."

Zhao Yu intended to explain more, but Miao Ying's mobile phone rang suddenly at that moment. It must be a call from the police station. Miao Ying had been talking a long time before she could put down the phone.

"Zhao Yu," Miao Ying put down the phone, looking at him with a dignified expression, and exclaiming, "Although the criminals were caught, Yu Fusheng is still missing, so we must be prepare for everything! One is to guard for those criminals, another one is to protect your safety! I've sent my request to the Bureau, and tonight they will send someone here!"

“Also, we had discussed with the hospital, after the operation, those criminals will stay together here. Let’s put the half wards in a state of siege!”

“Certainly, be prepared for all possibilities!” Zhao Yu said. “Even Yu Fusheng had run away, so it is hard to guarantee those special policemen still have other associates!”

“That’s right! So...” Miao Ying said, “We cannot drag too long, once the criminals are awake, we need to start the trial that same night, without giving them any chance to gasp!”

Zhao Yu began to droop upon hearing her words. The sooner the trial, the sooner he would be exposed. At that time, once the invisibility cloak and bullet proof suit were ferreted out, it would be hard to shore up his defenses. Moreover, Miao Ying would not easily forgive him!

Tut-tut...

What should I do?

In fact, Zhao Yu had thought before, about being honest to Miao Ying, about telling the truth, disclosing the system’s props. But, even if Miao Ying believed it, would others believe it as well? At that time, he would only get two results, one was to be treated as a neurotic; the other was to be treated as a monster, no longer able to live like a normal person!

Therefore, he would not talk about the system, even if he be killed!

As Zhao Yu was worrying about it, the door was opened. Liao Jingxian and Luan Xiaoxiao were entering together from the outside. Behind them were a lot of heavily armed policemen!

All were special policemen, armed with guns and standing in front of the ward.

“Bureau Chief Liao, Bureau Chief Luan!” Miao Ying immediately stood up and greeting the two leaders.

“Zhao Yu, how are you?” Liao Jingxian took a big step toward Zhao Yu and greeted him.

“Been blessed by you, I’m still alive!”

Zhao Yu made a joke, and Liao Jingxian just smiled at it. However, Luan Xiaoxiao did not know their relationship, so immediately he chose blame. “Zhao Yu, how could you talk like this?”

“It’s okay, it’s okay, it’s my dereliction of duty. I’m really ashamed of my negligence!” Liao Jingxian checked himself and exclaimed, “Zhao Yu, luckily you found Chen Hao was the traitor, otherwise, the trouble would be endless! This time, Zhao Yu did a good job! I, on behalf of the City Council, shall give you a commendation!”

“No issue for the commendation, please, but I would prefer more bonus. It was really dangerous, and I almost died because of this!” Zhao Yu boasted himself without shame, and this caused Bureau Chief Luan to shoot a glance at him.

“Well, take care of yourself!” Liao Jingxian pointed to the door and said, “I’ve transferred the special policemen here to ensure your safety! Hmm... Captain Miao...”

Afterwards, Liao Jingxian frowned at Miao Ying and sheepishly said, "I know, for this case, we're culpable! But, I hope that, for the sake of Bureau Chief Luan, you can return back the authority of the investigation to us!"

"We...apparently it was our negligent. We've been focused on the peripheral information in Qu Ping's case, and we want to catch the culprit, Yu Fusheng, in one fell swoop, but we've neglected the people around us! With this lesson, we will certainly purge the discipline and have self-examination. So...hmm..."

Liao Jingxian took a glance at Luan Xiaoxiao, as Bureau Chief Luan hurriedly nodded to Miao Ying and said, "It's true, Captain Miao, the Rongyang's branch office is hogging the limelight now, a lot of big cases have occurred in succession, so we are really busy now! Listen to me, we just have to let the Bureau Chief Liao and his team handle this case!"

"As they always say, there must be a reason why Yu Fusheng is so rampant!" Liao Jingxian pressed on, "It definitely will involve a lot of scandals during the investigation! So, it would be safer for the Special team to handle it! Well, Captain Miao, I'm not putting pressure on you with my official title, however, that's exactly what the leaders' mean! Look..."

While Liao Jingxian was speaking, Luan Xiaoxiao kept winked broadly at Miao Ying. Her meaning was very obvious. The guy was the leader of the city, who came with the order, and we could not stop him at all! The reason they were asking your opinion was plainly out of respect. Hence, the face was already big enough, hurriedly agree with it!

Meanwhile, Zhao Yu's eyes brightened up all of the sudden. He was pondering about if Liao Jingxian and his team took over the trial with the criminals, would it mean the issue of the invisibility cloak and the bullet proof suit would be lighter? Would it then be more easy to deceive?

However, surprisingly, Miao Ying shook her head with unusual empathy, then uttered two words, "No way!"

Chapter 355: The Special Device That Saves Live

"Captain Miao, this..."

Luan Xiaoxiao's face grew unusually troubled. As the leader of the municipal bureau, Liao Jingxian was also taken aback, and asked in embarrassment, "Why?"

"Why?" Miao Ying stood straight and saluted. She then said loud and clear, "Bureau chiefs, for Qu Ping's case, my detective nearly lost his live! Have you ever thought about why?"

Miao Ying was of course referring to Zhao Yu.

"Why?" Liao Jingxian frowned.

"That's because all of you want to take everything like dictators!" Miao Ying said impolitely. "Everyone makes mistakes in their work, so don't blame yourself; but I would hope your mistakes wouldn't cause our teammates to be in danger."

“Bureau Chief Liao, do we have to pass everything to you? Then, what? Wait for the unpredictable incident that an enemy schemed to harm us again? Wait for another accident because of your mistake, and give another detective a few words and hand them the police flag as respect?”

“We have our own parents too; no one is willing to be foolish with their life! We want to take over the case to ensure our own safety! Captain Miao, we verified the update that Yu Fusheng has escaped to overseas. I can guarantee that all of you are safe!” Liao Jingxian quickly explained.

“That won’t do!” Miao Ying did not back down. She said, “This case must be investigated by our unit until the very end! You said it very tactfully—you are afraid that there will be bad news and that we can’t deal with it! I couldn’t care less what kind of bad news it is! Let me ask you—is the bad news more important than the truth? As our leader, do you not know what should be prioritized?”

“But...” Liao Jingxian was at a loss for words.

“Captain Miao,” Bureau Chief Liao quickly advised, “You can’t blame this on the leaders. Who would have guessed that there would be a double agent?”

“That’s what I meant!” Miao Ying said with her bright eyes wide open. “If there was one, there might be a second one, or a third! Who can guarantee there won’t be someone who comes to get revenge?”

“Yes, yes!” Zhao Yu cut in. Although he had his own plans, when he heard Captain Miao speaking with enthusiasm, he was touched. He continued, “When I was held captive by the criminals, they said that Captain Miao and I had forced Zhao Qing to die, and that we had been blacklisted! We’d better play safe!”

“Plus, Team Leader Qu Ping got into trouble when she was with the Rongyang Branch; Bureau Chief Zhou Andong was also dragged down by the Rongyang Branch. We have the obligations to arrest the bad guys and put them behind bars!”

“Zhao Yu, you...” Liao Jingxian glared at him.

“Why not?” Miao Ying had seemed to calm down. She said, “We wouldn’t make it difficult for you, Bureau Chief Liao! The Rongyang Branch would be the main station in charge while the municipal bureau assists us in the investigation. That would do, right?”

“That’s a good idea!” Zhao Yu quickly followed suit. “Then there wouldn’t be anymore double agents!”

“How could you say to have the municipal bureau assist in the investigation. That’s too much!” Bureau Chief Liao clapped his hands together angrily.

“Then let’s switch it around; you can be the main station in charge and we will assist you in the investigation. That will do, right? Bureau Chief Liao, if we don’t even have the right to know about the updates, we will never feel safe!” Miao Ying pointed at Zhao Yu and said, “If an excellent police detective like Zhao Yu, someone who has solved so many big cases, were to be framed by the criminals, wouldn’t it be a pity?”

“Exactly! Exactly!” Zhao Yu said smugly to Liao.

“Alright! Okay, okay, okay! Do it your way!” Liao Jingxian said helplessly, “But let me tell you now—once you find out any secrets about these people, you have to keep it to yourselves! If not, we will all be playing with fire! Do you understand?”

Seeing both parties coming to a mutual agreement, Bureau Chief Luan Xiaoxiao sighed a breath of relief. A few of them discussed the follow up processes, then the two bureau chiefs left the ward.

Alright! Zhao Yu relaxed. That’s great. Investigating the case together will make things much more transparent! If they had brought up the invisibility cloak and bullet proof suit...

“Captain Miao, what did you do that for?” Zhao Yu shook his head and said, “Why not just let them take over and let our colleagues rest?”

“First of all,” Miao Ying said with a look in her eyes, “I don’t like the way the leaders give commands from above. Why couldn’t they just tell us to give up our rights with just one order? I do not concede!

“Secondly, I suspect that if they were trying to hide things and be so secretive, it means that they were secretly afraid of something! If we have no idea about what happened, it would be dangerous for us!

“As for the third reason...” Miao Ying touched Zhao Yu’s face that was full of bruises with her snow white fingers. “Baby, I am thinking of your safety! Among those criminals, many of them were from Crimson Eight. I heard that many people in Crimson Eight are on very friendly terms, so they are very loyal to their friends! Now that you took out their lair, aren’t you afraid that they will try to get revenge? You said it yourself—we have to take action and lead the battle! If we were to find out about their allies... Humph! I will not let them off the hook!”

Wow!

Zhao Yu was dumbfounded. He had never expected Miao Ying to think so far ahead, and it was entirely for him. He couldn’t help but felt touched.

“Aiya!” Zhao Yu complimented, “Captain Miao, what my mom said was correct. It would be impossible for me to find such a nice wife, even if I carried a lantern to look for one!”

“Who is your wife? Go and look for your nurse!” Miao Ying smiled as she pushed Zhao Yu away. She then took the thermos to the bathroom to wash it.

Hehehehe...

Seeing Miao Ying care so much about himself, Zhao Yu felt delighted. It seemed that he was not very far away from the day he would bring home a beauty.

Sigh!

Zhao Yu lied down on the bed and pondered how he should get his girl later. But just as he lied down, he couldn’t help but think about the invisibility cloak and bullet proof suit!

Tsk tsk... What should I do?

He reckoned that those criminals would be done with their operations soon. Once they woke up in their ward, they would undergo interrogation immediately. By then he would be doomed...

Under such circumstances, he subconsciously dedicated his attention to the system in his mind. He wanted to check his device bar to see whether he could find anything that could come in handy when in trouble.

After the fight in the warehouse, Zhao Yu's device had been like running tap water—almost half of it was gone! The invisibility cloak, bullet proof suit, night vision device, and so on were all depleted. The device bar was full of zeros!

Hey?

When Zhao Yu was looking through his device bar when he suddenly realized that the bottom row had a few new tools!

Huh? That's not right? I haven't heard the system ending notification. Why would there be new tools? Oh...

Suddenly he remembered that when he had gone into the operation room to get his stitches that he had been unconscious. The doctor was worried that he would suddenly wake up, so he had given him anesthesia.

Is that it? Is that when the system announced the completion of today's adventure? It can't be, right? That means I don't know what my completion rate was again!

I beat a lot of wicked criminals today, so the completion rate shouldn't be that low, right? Then... then, what good stuff did I get?

Feeling extremely curious, Zhao Yu quickly tapped on the first device. The system began introducing it.

"Memory replay device; grade one device. After activation, you can retrieve a ten minute memory of your subject. This device is a one-time use..."

Memory replay device?

Oh... Zhao suddenly understood. That device was supposed to be used to retrieve memories. If he were to forget something important, he could retrieve the memory of it!

There was also a x5 badge behind the device. In other words, he had gotten five of the device!

This item is good, but right now it doesn't seem to be of any use! Hey, what's this?

Who would have guessed that there was another device below, which was also new, and also had the x5 badge as well.

Wow, it can't be! What's going on today? Did the system awards upgrade from retail to wholesale?

Zhao Yu quickly opened the last awarded device. When he heard the system's introduction, he was full of emotions, and felt extremely delighted.

“Memory Clip Device; special device. After activation, it can edit ten minutes of your subject’s memory. After editing, it will require one hundred days and above to recover. The exact recovery time differs from person to person. This device have no time duration, and is a one-time device...”

Chapter 356: Take Off the Pants Without Giving Any Notice

Tailor-made!

Absolutely “Tailor-made”!

At that moment, Zhao Yu’s brain was filled with these words. He was so excited that he gave the system an air kiss. For the system to have awarded him with such a prop, it obviously was deliberately helping him.

Sometimes, Zhao Yu felt that, although the system spoke relentlessly often, it always appears to be very wonderful and human at the most critical moments. Just like he had during the battle with Lei Bin, the system was worried that he would be killed and forced to reward him with an Energy Booster. Nevertheless, he did not use it, due to his strong self-esteem.

For this time, the system suddenly gave out a lot of vital and tailor-made special props. Moreover, these five items all came at once. Hence, it was obviously showing favoritism towards him!

As he looked at the items, he knew that having this Memory Clip Device already had solved Zhao Yu’s urgent need. Although the edited memory might be recovered after 100 days, no one would care about about the confession of the criminals by then. By that time, they all might be condemned!

However...after Zhao Yu’s mind lingered on these thoughts, he noticed that there were some different meanings among the props. Previously, he had just received auxiliary and medical props. He had never been rewarded with such an aggressive prop ever.

Zhao Yu wanted to know what his Adventure Completion Rate for today would be! Would this mean that the system would issue a reward, based upon certain level of accomplishment?

For example, thought reading? Piercing through a wall? Or, perhaps more aggressive weapons in the future? Invisible electric stick, Invisible gun, and Invisible bomb?

Oh my god...

If all of these things really happened, was he still really becoming an extraordinary man?

At that moment, Miao Ying had finished brushing the vacuum flask and returned to Zhao Yu’s ward.

“So? Do you still feel hungry? Would you like something to eat? Miao Ying spoke kindly to him.

Zhao Yu had something on his mind at that moment. He intended to put it into action as soon as possible. Hence, he lifted the quilt and got out of bed!

However, he never expected that the doctors had stripped off all of his clothes! He was covered by the quilt before, so he had not noticed it until now. Naturally, he was panicked after he lifted the quilt!

Fortunately, Miao Ying was bending down to put the vacuum flask under the bed at that moment. She was tall, so when she was bending down, her head reached exactly right in front of Zhao Yu. Inevitably, she saw everything clearly when Zhao Yu lifted the quilt! It almost seemed like Zhao Yu did this on purpose!

Immediately, Miao Ying's face was flushing red and she scolded, "Zhao Yu! Do you want to die!?"

"I...Sh*t!!!" Immediately, Zhao Yu put back the quilt and felt depressed! He had gotten himself in trouble, although he had not meant to. "Miao...Miao Miao Miao...please let me explain! I had no idea! They must have removed my pants during the operation..."

Zhao Yu quickly grabbed Miao Ying's arm to explain, but Miao Ying threw away his arm in disgust. She stared at Zhao Yu with murderous eyes and scolded the classic words, "Hooligan!"

After she finished scolding him, she left the ward in a huff, without turning her head back even once...

Ah!

Zhao Yu looked at the quilt again. His heart was full of resentment. Damn doctors! How dare they take off my pants without telling me!? I should kill them!

But, before this could happen, Zhao Yu had already planned to send Miao Ying back, so that he could sneak into the criminal's ward to clean up the mess! Although Miao Ying had left in such a negative way, he had still achieved his purpose.

Therefore, he hurriedly looked for his pants to prepare to leave. However, although he had found a patient gown, he failed to put it on. Zhao Yu was experiencing extreme pain due to the bone fracture, so he was prostrated with grief.

Finally, the door opened at that moment. It was Lan Bo, entering from outside.

"Hey, you!?" Lan Bo was surprised to see that Zhao Yu had gotten down from the bed and was trying to get dressed.

"Quick, help me to put on the gown!"

Upon Zhao Yu's gesture and indication, Lan Bo quickly walked over and helped him get dressed.

"Bro Yu, what are you doing? You just finished the operation, but..." Lan Bo was nervous and looked towards the door. He then said, "What happened to you and Captain Miao just now? She looked mad and asked me to come and look after you!"

Oh...

In this way, Zhao Yu realized that, although Miao Ying despised his foul behavior, she was still worried about him and had assigned Lan Bo to come over.

"Lan Bo, quick, tell me, how were the criminals just now?" Zhao Yu asked eagerly.

"Wow! Bro Yu, you've just been through so much, and yet your thoughts are still about the criminals!" Lan Bo complimented him. "Out of those five people, four of them were shot and are having operations now! Only one of them has been sent back, still in a coma. By the way, please tell me the story! How did you handle those bad guys all at once? I heard those guys are murderous and vicious characters! You are just like James Bond!”

“Stop talking nonsense,” Zhao Yu grabbed his arm and said. “Which ward holds the one in the coma?”

“Next...next door...Bro Yu, what are you going to do?” Lan Bo uttered, while clutching Zhao Yu’s arm.

“Stop moving, just tell me if are going to do anything!”

“I must see him on my own!” Zhao Yu walked eagerly towards the door, then said casually, “I’m the one who has the fight with them, I must confirm facts on my own, so that no one could swap with him again!”

“Swap? Impossible!” Unavoidably, Lan Bo helped him to walk out from the ward, while speaking these words at the same time. “We rushed in together at that time, yet, he is such a huge human being, so how could he have been swapped?”

Zhao Yu was anxious. He had read the prop’s manual just now. Apparently, this kind of memory editing prop could not be used under arbitrary circumstances. Moreover, the target must be in a deep sleep. Hence, this prop would not work once the target awoke!

Among the five criminals, the only special policeman who not been shot was the one who was proficient in computers. This guy was called Cui Yan. But, although he had not been shot, his ears had still been torn into two halves by Zhao Yu. Also, had experienced a traumatic head injury, leaving him in his present coma.

The guy’s ward was right next to Zhao Yu’s. The door was guarded by two groups: a group of armed special policeman and a group of Rongyang’s Key Case Investigation Unit’s colleagues.

Surprisingly, they did not restrain Zhao Yu, so he could easily come to Cut Yan’s bed. Apparently, this guy was worse off than even Zhao Yu. He had lost his good looks and was wrapped in bandages all over his body.

In order to ensure that everything was absolutely safe, Liang Huan was staying in the ward at that moment! Liang Huan immediately gave his seat to Zhao Yu, once he saw the big hero coming over!

Next, Zhao Yu told them all to be quiet, as he wanted to think of something quietly. Then, facing Cui Yan, he started using one of the Memory Clip Devices that had been given to him.

Surprisingly, this Memory Clip Device was apparently a super prop. Once it was activated, a hint popped out, indicating which target and period he would like to extract.

Fortunately, Zhao Yu remembered the exact period he needed. After he had input the proper data, a picture of the warehouse fight from Cui Yan’s brain was immediately displayed on the display screen in Zhao Yu’s brain.

Next, Zhao Yu started extracting all the pictures related to anything that was bulletproof and stealth, until the captured scenes had appeared about 10 minutes later. That was where the prop’s part ended...

Although the warehouse war looked so intense, in fact, it actually had only lasted about 10 minutes. Zhao Yu deleted this memory completely from Cui Yan’s mind! In this way, he was not worried about Cui Yan’s confession anymore!

Cool!

This Memory Clip Device was really quite powerful, leading Zhao Yu to praise it secretly in his heart. If this device could be applied to the future interrogation of criminals, then it would become the most powerful weapon ever!

After Cui Yan been settled, Zhao Yu felt his confidence was increasing. Meanwhile, the other criminals had finished their operations and returned from the operation room. They all had been pushed back into individual wards, to remain in custody.

Zhao Yu, who was now already used to the prop, immediately imitated his previous methods. Those same memories were then deleted from the remaining four special policeman as well.

However, an accident had occurred, just as Zhao Yu was almost finished with his task. Unexpectedly, Chen Hao awoke!

Chapter 357: Rise to Fame with One Battle

Chen Hao had already regained consciousness from his coma. Zhang Yaohui and Ma Wei were looking after him, and were seated next to his bed. Ma Wei was holding a notebook, and looked like he was preparing to record Chen Hao's confession!

Among all the criminals, Chen Hao was the only one without handcuffs because both of his arms had been snapped by Zhao Yu. The doctor had had put in a lot of effort to put them back into place, so he wasn't required to wear handcuffs.

Although Chen Hao's mental state was shaky, his eyes were wide open. Obviously he had gotten better to the point where his confession could finally be recorded.

Shit! Zhao Yu groaned to himself. The memory clip device could only be used on a subject that was in a heavy stupor. In Chen Hao's current state, he couldn't use it at all!

Zhao Yu looked around the ward and he was glad he didn't see Miao Ying around!

Great! If Miao Ying was here, this would be hard. I've already gone this far; might as well go all the way.

Zhao Yu took huge strides and stopped next to Chen Hao's bed.

Chen Hao's thinking was still muddled, and he did not see Zhao Yu at first. Then, he suddenly saw the person standing before himself was the devil that had snapped both of his arms. He quivered in terror. He wanted to escape under his blanket, but he couldn't.

"Team Leader Zhao, why did you come here for?" Zhang Yaohui and Ma Wei stood up at the same time and greeted him.

Zhao Yu saw that Ma Wei was the one who was closest to Chen Hao, so he quickly pointed at the window behind Ma Wei and said, "Lao Ma, close the window, I can't catch a cold!"

"Oh..." Although he was puzzled, Ma Wei went to close the window obediently.

Then, just as Ma Wei went to close the window, Zhao Yu used all his strength to dash forward and land a heavy punch on Chen Hao's face, which caused him to suddenly faint!

"Aiya!" Zhang Yaohui's face grew pale. He quickly stopped Zhao Yu. Ma Wei did not care about closing the window, but quickly turned back to stop Zhao Yu.

To put on a full show, Zhao Yu yelled crazily, "Chen Hao, I... You wicked betrayer, it nearly cost me my life. I will not let this slip. I need to wreck you... Waya..."

After struggling for awhile, Zhao Yu sat on the seat in front of Chen Hao to catch his breath.

"Aiya! This... What should we do?!" Looking at the now passed out Chen Hao, Zhang Yaohui spoke anxiously and told Lan Bo to look for the doctor.

Ma Wei pressed on Zhao Yu's arms, as he was worried that Zhao Yu would suddenly become ruthless again. But, although Zhao Yu looked calm, his imposing anger scared Ma Wei with terror. He was still panting.

Zhao Yu couldn't care less about the other matter. He quickly tapped on the memory clip device to remove the memory from Chen Hao's mind.

There was something tricky about it though. After he retrieved Chen Hao's memory, Zhao Yu realized that the bastard hadn't actually seen how he had been bullet proof and invisible. Especially after he was shot in his butt, he had only thought to hide; he had not cared about anything else.

However, the last part of the memory, when he had shot at Zhao Yu when he was invisible the second time, was out of the ten minute range, so the memory clip device couldn't remove it! In other words, Chen Hao would still remember that he had hit Zhao Yu with the bullet and Zhao Yu had suddenly turned invisible.

Although this piece of the memory would remain, Zhao Yu would not be in any trouble. It would only be Chen Hao testifying that it happened, which wouldn't be convincing at all!

It had been so chaotic back then that even if he were to bring it up, Zhao Yu could completely distract everyone by saying it was just Chen Hao seeing things. Just like it had been with Hou Meng, the police would pay more attention to the progress of how a criminal had committed a crime than how he had been arrested!

Huala...

The door opened and Miao Ying dashed in crazily with doctors, nurses, and even Bureau Chief Luan behind her...

"Zhao Yu, Why... Why..." This time, Miao Ying was puzzled. "You are already hurt; why can't you just lie down and rest? You... What are you trying to do?"

"Captain Miao, don't be angry. Bro Yu was just worried that the criminals had been replaced with substitutes by the bad guys..." Lan Bo didn't know what had happened, but he still defended Zhao Yu. Miao Ying shot him a glare, and he immediately shut his mouth.

Zhao Yu was relieved as he finally settled the trouble regarding the bullet proof suit and invisibility cloak. Hehehe... Interrogate. Interrogate them properly. Whatever you ask will not affect me anymore!

Zhao Yu yawned and walked back to his ward with his head hung low. He had left all his colleagues dumbfounded in the room.

Bureau Chief Luan had a kind heart. She quickly comforted Miao Ying, saying, "Captain Miao, it's alright. Zhao Yu bears grudges! The criminal didn't die, so it's okay. All of you..." She quickly told the police detectives under her control, "All of you saw nothing. Got it?"

"Yes!" All the police detectives quickly nodded in agreement.

Zhang Yaohui quickly stood before the doctor and the nurses and explained, "Doctor, nurses, the criminal tried to escape, so we got him under control! This is a secret. Please remember, you cannot tell any outsiders about the situation!"

The doctor and the nurses nodded, not daring to voice any objections.

The storm had finally settled, but the police detectives' job had just started. Very quickly, the criminals that had carried out the operation woke up one after another. The police detectives were put into groups to begin interrogations and continue through the night.

Wu Shuang and the others had gone through special training, so they knew how to handle authoritative interrogations. However, the police had destroyed their lair, and there was conclusive proof, so they couldn't argue; secondly, Zhao Yu's extreme counterattack had shocked them, so their psychological line of defense was on the brink of collapse!

Although Zhao Yu had only removed part of their memory, that only made them feel that Zhao Yu was even scarier. They now couldn't understand how a normal policeman had taken down all four of them, who were SWAT soldiers that were fully armed.

Frightened, they confessed to every crime that they had committed upfront.

Besides the Qu Ping murder case, they had been involved in many revenge cases, including fabricating a charge against Bureau Chief Zhou Andong and so on.

Just like Bureau Chief Liao Jingxian had been worried about, behind every seemingly simple revenge case, the situation was actually complicated. The person with the nickname "Daddy Yu" had dared to fight the police because he had the ability to.

Besides SWAT soldiers like Wu Shuang, there were people from personnels in government-owned businesses that were involved. These people provided assistance to Daddy Yu, which allowed his plan of revenge to go smoothly.

Although Wu Shuang and the others didn't know much, according to their confession, they had provided a huge help to the police. Liao Jingxian got the name list, then went to the police station to ask for advice from the other leaders on how to manage the situation!

According to Wu Shuang and the others' confession, the cake shop had been their contact point with Daddy Yu. When Zhao Qing got into trouble, the cake shop closed down.

That day, Zhao Qing had been at the cake shop to retrieve secret information. Daddy Yu had hired people to insert the information into a cake. After Zhao Qing took the cake, he had planned to turn into the alley to get back to their warehouse, but he hadn't expected to run into Zhao Yu.

Helplessly, Zhao Yu took the piece of information from the cake and threw the two items in two different directions. Liao Jingxian's underlinings had only managed to find the cake, but not the information.

Zhao Qing was the head of the criminals. Once he died, Wu Shuang and the others thought the game was as good as lost, and gave up their stronghold at the warehouse.

But Daddy Yu was not discouraged. He bought over Chen Hao and rebuilt their connection again to continue with his plan of revenge. That is what led to the consequences!

Of course, Miao Ying and the other police detectives were all very curious about how Zhao Yu had beaten five opponents at such a disadvantage. They wanted to know what had actually happened in the warehouse!

After the criminals fretted themselves describing the entire incident, the police detectives were completely dumbfounded! Even Miao Ying left her mouth hanging in shock!

As Zhao Yu removed their memories about the bullet proof suit and invisibility cloak, Zhao Yu made it so he had been quick to respond, shot his gun accurately, possessed unusual strength, and was an all-conquering god of battle!

Just like the saying went, one could rise to fame with just one battle!

Chapter 358: I Like Eggs

Zhao Yu was asleep when the detectives took him as being a god of war.

He had not slept well for a long time, but now, he slept with a loud snoring and kept falling into dreamland.

The only small imperfection was that he had a particularly strange dream, in which he dreamed that Miao Ying was seriously injured and needed a blood transfusion from Zhao Yu. But after a blood test, he found that she and Zhao Yu were siblings!

Because of this dream, Zhao Yu almost awoke in fright, even having goosebumps after he woke up in the morning! After the dream lingering in his mind, Zhao Yu suddenly thought of its key point. Ultimately, he had such a strange dream because of his Miracle System.

His life would be fulfilled with a lot of unreasonable coincidences, as long as there was the presence of this Miracle System! Thereupon, after waking up today, Zhao Yu did not practice the hexagram as usual, he even endured not practicing it upon sneezing and coughing, either.

He felt that he was already becoming this now, so how could he withstand the tossing from the Miracle System? Could he still live if he got the 'Kun' hexagram again?

Finally, all the cases had been solved, so it would be better if he took advantage of this rare recovery period, and took a break from it!

"Ahhhhh..."

Zhao Yu yawned, but dared not stretch his body. His ribs were braced and the collarbone was strapped for fixation. Therefore, he could not do any larger movements at all. Zhao Yu was wondering, how did he knock down Chen Hao with one punch last night?

The door opened, and Lan Bo came in with a lunch box. When he saw Zhao Yu was awake, he hurried in, and with a big smile on his face, said, "Yo, Bro Yu, you're awake! Look, I bought you an omelette, egg, and also porridge, plus a pack of pickles! Are you hungry? Hey, hey, hey..."

Lan Bo was smiling in an extraordinary sycophantic way, and this had caused Zhao Yu to unconsciously raise his eyebrows.

"Lan Bo, I got a question for you, the culprit...has the trial been completed?" Although he had used the Memory Clip device, now looking at Lan Bo, Zhao Yu's heart was filled with uncertainty. Then, he asked, "Are you all to be cleared, now that they were caught?"

"The trial is over, it is finished...Yeah, we all are cleared now! Wow, Bro Yu, no wonder you didn't mention it before! You are so awesome..."

Thereupon, Lan Bo told him all about yesterday's trial. After Zhao Yu had listened, he was now completely relieved. These props were really amazing. None of the criminals had mentioned the bulletproof and stealth, even Chen Hao had never mentioned a single word of it.

It seemed like this time, he could go through it perfectly! Not only that, for the sake of the Memory Clip device, all the detectives had already been stunned by Zhao Yu's capability, and so he had become famous!

"Come on, big hero!" Lan Bo lifted the egg and praised him. "Eat an egg to replenish your vitality!"

Indeed, Zhao Yu was really hungry at that moment. Hence, he picked up the egg to eat it. Unexpectedly, the door opened again, and he saw Yao Jia, who was wearing a long dress and had suddenly come in from outside, carrying a lot of things in her hand.

"Officer Zhao, I bought you some breakfast!" Yao Jia came in with a lighted face and walked towards Zhao Yu. Then, she began to take something out of her bag. "Here, you had lost a lot of blood from your wound yesterday, so I stayed up all night to make this red jujube wolfberry porridge for you. I've added the rock candy, fungus, and so on. Drink more, it can enrich the blood!"

"Oh... Besides, this is Tiramisu, which I made myself! And nut bread, with walnuts and almonds in it, so it's very nutritious..."

Seeing Yao Jia had brought so many upscale things to Zhao Yu, Lan Bo was stunned, and immediately pulled back the omelette to his side in order to give way for the others.

Yao Jia was deliberately wearing makeup today, and she looked great and charming. She was really a top beauty!

“Hmm...”

Lan Bo’s eyebrows twisted into hemp, and he seemed like wanted to say something to Zhao Yu, but failed to voice it.

“Officer Zhao,” after she put the things away, she kindly pointed to Zhao Yu’s chest and said, “How do you feel about the braces on your ribs? If you’re short of breath, I can help you to adjust it! And...”

While talking, she put an inflatable balloon on the edge of Zhao Yu’s pillow and explained, “You can blow this balloon more, when you have nothing to do, since it’s good for your ribs’ recovery!”

“And I know you love to drink, but you must remember, alcohol is not good for your wound, so you must not drink it...”

While listening to Yao Jia’s professional exhortations, Zhao Yu could not speak, but kept nodding his head. He vaguely felt that Yao Jia’s feelings for him went beyond the limits of ordinary friendship!

But, at the same time, Zhao Yu also knew that Yao Jia had just broken up with her boyfriend. Currently, she just regarded him as a kind of dependence or sustenance, and she was not intending to cross over any boundary.

Sometimes the thing just seemed like this: the more vague of a feeling, the more difficult it was to deal with. Although Zhao Yu was so experienced in love affairs, he was unable to understand them all completely!

However, despite the relationship between him and Yao Jia, Zhao Yu was very clear in his heart, and even though Yao Jia looked exactly like his previous incarnation lover, in his heart, there would always be Miao Ying, no one else!

Zhao Yu was just like this. Although he was so uninhibited, he was not a double-minded person either. Previously, he used to mess around, just because he hadn’t met Miao Ying yet. In this way, after some exhortations, Yao Jia left the ward and changed her clothes for work.

Seeing the beauty was leaving, Lan Bo clutched his chest and sighed, “It’s really freaking me out! I’m so afraid that Captain Miao will come in suddenly and see you behaving affectionately toward the chief nurse! Officer Zhao, you’re so amazing, there are so many beauties around you, even Captain Miao, such a cold hearted person, also... well...”

“Alas!” Zhao Yu sighed woefully and said, “I’m so handsome, and I can’t help it, either!”

At that moment, Zhao Yu’s face was bruised and swollen, he had been shaved and left with a bald head, which was now covered with gauze too. In fact, he could not even be considered handsome anymore!

“I’d better tell you the truth,” Lan Bo said embarrassedly. “Actually, those breakfasts that I bought for you were bought by Captain Miao, and I just sent them to you! She got a meeting at the police station, and really can’t make it! So overlook her ruthless face, as indeed, she really cares about you.”

“Oh... really?” Zhao Yu recalled the scene when he lifted the quilt yesterday, and it became memorable all of the sudden...

“Red jujube porridge, Tiramisu, Nut bread... this nurse is really very handy,” said Lan Bo with envy.

“Having such a good and caring breakfast, Bro Yu really has a good luck to be able to try them all!”

“No, you’re wrong!” Zhao Yu said, as he pushed away Yao Jia’s thing to Lan Bo, grabbing the egg and saying, “I’m from a poor family, so I used to eat egg, and don’t like the misu! Here...” he pointed to those things and said, “Lan Bo, help me eat them! Don’t waste the food! Come on... give me the pickles...”

Chapter 359: A Happy Celebration Dinner

Zhao Yu recuperated in the hospital and enjoyed tranquility, which was hard to come by.

Almost everyday, his colleagues and the higher ups would take turns visiting him, sending him meals, and buying him fruits. Yao Jia, who took a liking to Zhao Yu, was also taking good care of him, from caring to his wounds to daily tasks; she would give her all. As a result, Zhao Yu’s wound recovered extremely quickly.

Although Miao Ying was busy with work, she would take time to visit Zhao Yu everyday. Sometimes she would talk to him about the police team and discuss the case investigation; other times, she would talk to him about trivialities at home, cars, houses, and combat. Of course, there were also times when she would fight with Zhao Yu when they disagreed!

Because the hospital was holding the criminal in custody, no outsiders were allowed to visit. So, Zhao Yu could only contact people using his cellphone regarding personal matters.

He kept thinking about the updated news from his mother. He was worried that she knew he was injured. But once he called her, he relaxed; she was still at his uncles’ house looking for the handwritten ancient book!

His two uncles were a bit messy, so they hadn’t been able to tell where the ancient book was until then. His mother had been searching all over the house this entire time!

His mother told him that she would immediately send Zhao Yu the book once she found it. Zhao Yu of course did not dare to let her visit, so he told her to send photos of the book once she found it instead.

Secondly, he called Jiang Xiaoqing, as Daheng was still with her!

Zhao Yu lied, saying that he was on a business trip, and told Jiang Xiaoqing to continue to take care of him. Because Jiang Xiaoqing was done with her midterm examination and she really liked Daheng, she agreed without hesitation.

The third call was to Blondie Zhou Yang. Zhou Yang told Zhao Yu that according to the current situation, everything in the gym was operating steadily. Regardless of the coaches or the customers, everyone felt stable, and things were back on track.

But some of the equipment in the gym needed to be upgraded. Zang Ba had gotten in touch with a combat club and wanted to let them join Depth in Breath Gym, so they wanted to get Zhao Yu's permission.

Zhao Yu told Zhou Yang, "You are the boss now. Outside of special circumstances, you can just tinker with the gym. Do it with courage. The money lost will not be considered yours!"

Blondie heard that and felt touched. He said that he would not complain about anything, even his life to Zhao Yu, and that he would put all his effort into running the club until his last days.

After settling his personal matters, Zhao Yu felt at ease. But resting in the ward everyday was quite boring, so he often walked on the side where they held the criminals captive to chat and ask for the latest updates.

He heard that the case had dragged in many people, so the higher ups in the Qinshan police scene had put a lot of attention on it. Rumor had it that the final arrest warrant was even sent to the provincial office.

Ever since they had carried out the arrest operation, Bureau Chief Liao had specifically made a code name. He called it some sort of round-off operation. In one operation they had almost arrested all the people who were related to Yu Fusheng in an attempt to utterly cut off the foundation that Yu Fusheng had laid.

The only disappointing thing was that the operation had yet to arrest the chief culprit, Yu Fusheng. According to reliable sources, he had escaped overseas.

But the police had gotten in touch with the Diplomat Department. Even though he had fled overseas, they would insist on the arrest of Yu Fusheng for trial!

The truth of Qu Ping's case was finally revealed. The police detectives in the Rongyang Key Case Investigation Unit decided to hold a memorial ceremony for Team Leader Qu Ping, and use the case report as a comfort to her soul in paradise.

On the day of the memorial ceremony, Zhao Yu had yet to be discharged, but he still participated in the ceremony, even with his injuries. In front of Qu Ping's grave, Zhao Yu laid a bouquet of flowers before her tomb. He bowed in respect as he murmured, "Team Leader Qu, I, Zhao Yu, did not go back on my promise. I arrested all the criminals that framed you! I hope you can rest in peace in heaven!"

"Salute!"

Following the emcee's order, all the police detectives saluted Team Leader Qu Ping uniformly.

Looking at Qu Ping's picture on her tomb, Zhao Yu thought about the rainy spring night. Qu Ping had been talking to him solemnly in the office.

"Zhao Yu, I judge based off matter, not people!"

"Zhao Yu, I am against you as a person, but I am not against your ability!"

"Don't be afraid! Don't fear anything, even if it is difficult. If we investigate with all our heart, there must be a return..."

Team Leader Qu, don't worry. Zhao Yu said in his heart, I will remember your teaching. No matter how difficult the cases are in the future, I will investigate with all my heart. I will complete your long-cherished dream, and carry on until the end...

The day Zhao Yu got out of the hospital, Bureau Chief Luan hosted a welcome dinner on behalf of the Rongyang Branch at a high class hotel as a way to celebrate. Although Zhao Yu did not have any hexagram that day, he did run into a coincidence that was not small by any means.

Just as everyone was on their way to the hotel, Zhao Yu got a call from the grand leader, Su Yang. Su Yang told him that he was back in Qinshan, and invited him to go for shabu-shabu.

Zhao Yu simply told him the situation and invited him to join the celebration dinner instead. At first, Su Yang was not willing to. But after Zhao Yu pestered him, he had no choice but to come along.

It even coincided with the hosted dinner by Bureau Chief Hong, the head of the municipal bureau. Bureau Chief Liao Jingxian was there too. In the end, Zhao Yu and the others ran into them coincidentally. The two private rooms were very close to each other.

When they first ran into the head of municipal bureau, the Rongyang Branch was supposed to go over to toast with drinks. But, all of a sudden, Bureau Chief Hong recognized Su Yang! Things then became interesting.

The celebration dinner had only been going on for a bit, but then Bureau Chief Hong brought a bunch of higher ups from the municipal bureau over to toast with them. It completely messed up the entire flow.

Looking at the provincial higher up Su Yang joking with Zhao Yu and calling him his brother, Bureau Chief Hong looked at Zhao Yu in a different light for the first time.

In the past, he had only heard about Zhao Yu solving a lot of big cases, and that he had fought against four SWAT soldiers alone courageously. He never expected Zhao Yu's human relationship to be this unexpected!

But, with the Rongyang Branch's recent achievements, the higher ups had to give compliments. In addition, the higher ups had promised to apply for more capital for their branch next year in order to improve their condition for official duty, which would provide them with better insurance to solve cases!

All in all, the celebration dinner was extremely joyful. The higher ups were happy, his colleagues were happy, everyone was happy.

Zhao Yu was a bit sad that he had not gotten any hexagrams. If he had asked for a hexagram, maybe he could have gotten a good reward.

On the day Zhao Yu joined the celebration dinner, he received three pieces of news. Although none of it was directly related to him, it was all good to hear.

The first piece of news was that the murderer that had killed Jin Yuanyuan had been arrested by the police detective from the Key Case Investigation Unit in Ruyang.

There was no objection with the process of committed crimes. It was because the building maintenance worker had had quite a bit to drink, and was unhappy with his marriage. As a result, a wicked idea popped into his mind when he saw Jin Yuanyuan.

But, whether it was because of the autopsy report or the criminal's confession, it turned out that Jin Yuanyuan had not been killed by the criminal directly; it was because of the sexual violation that had led to her fatal heart attack!

Regardless of the reason for Jin Yuanyuan's death, the criminal would have to pay the price, and he received a sentence that he deserved.

The next bit of good news was that Hou Meng had gotten out of the prison. As Wu Shuang and the others were arrested, it was proven that Hou Meng had been framed and could leave prison!

Rumors swirled that after Hou Meng had gotten out of prison he had realized his fault. He swore that he would be a better man and not take any illegal paths!

The third piece of news was related to Qu Ping's murder case. It was about Bureau Chief Zhou Andong that had been framed earlier—he had been compensated! The higher ups decided to recover his position and make him the bureau chief of the Rongyang Branch.

But due to Bureau Chief Luan's outstanding performance as well, the higher ups had decided to send Zhou Andong to the municipal bureau to take charge of economic investigation! It meant that he had gone up by one rank, and now had real power. As the saying went, "one who survives a great disaster is destined to good fortune forever after."

Currently, Liu Changhu was the captain of economic investigation at the municipal bureau, while Zhou Andong was the vice bureau chief. This pair of Rongyang colleagues were now colleagues once again in the municipal bureau.

Of course, the human resource management was not related to Zhao Yu. If there was any relation, there was only one—when Zhao Yu had been discharged, Mao Wei had recovered too, meaning that the two team leaders of the Key Case Investigation Unit of the Rongyang Branch was back in action!

The Key Case Investigation Unit led by Miao Ying, a well balanced team with high morale, was back. What new cases were ahead of them?

Chapter 360: A Seductive Vest Line

" Before I knew you, I was homeless. After knowing you, I was ill."

"I thought you were just a brief episode, and never thought of you as an immortal legend..."

Zhao Yu's police career was continued in the song...

With the regret of the last celebration banquet, Zhao Yu began the practice of hexagram every day. However, somehow the system also needed to warm up or something, although he had began exploring the hexagram, yet he failed to encounter any powerful adventure. Sometimes, he did not receive any prop at the end of a day, either.

Apparently, regardless of how big the case, important the case or odd the case was, all were not happening every day. Basically, the Key Case Investigation Unit had had nothing to do except work on several trivial cases for the past month.

However, Captain Miao seemed to prepare for a lot of things in advance. She had organized many training activities and practical exercises in succession.

All the detectives were using this rare time to replenish their knowledge of investigation and to learn some advanced methods of investigation as well. Moreover, they also practised on their way to track criminals, and en route to the deployment while arresting criminals, and so on...

Furthermore, in accordance with the Corpses In The Bank Case, Miao Ying asked all the detectives to write a criminal record collectively. In the memoir, they were using the criminal, Qiu Xinyang, as a personal example to indicate the importance of crisis counseling after a disaster, in hopes that the relevant part could be paid more attention to.

If someone could discover that Qiu Xinyang's psychology had deviated after the tunnel disaster, and persuaded him at once, perhaps Qiu Xinyang would not have the death knot of his mother having been starving to death, and it would not have lead to a series of other deaths as well!

Just like Da Fei stated, the arrest of the criminal did not represent the completion of the case. The police should analyze the cause through the case, alert the world, and avoid the same mistakes in the future.

The days were passed with fulfillment and were organized. Apart from their regular duty and responsibilities, the relationship between Zhao Yu and Miao Ying was getting closer as well.

In order to be close to his lady, Zhao Yu almost acted like a rascal, forcing Miao Ying to become his master and asking her to teach him the skills of shooting and martial arts.

But Miao Ying just said, "You, Zhao Yu, are able to work out with so many special policemen, what's the point of you taking me as your master?"

However, Zhao Yu just smirked and said, "To forge iron, one must be strong; although, I know I am strong enough, but, as a young man with great ambition, I must keep a heart with a desire to advance, and thus, I need to take you as my master!"

Miao Ying mocked, planning to raise another difficulty, and said, "It's easy to become my pupil, but before this, you need to kowtow. It won't justifiable if you don't kowtow!"

Zhao Yu laughed and replied immediately, "It's easy to kowtow, but there's an old saying: you need to slept with the master, if you want to learn well..."

Pa...

Zhao Yu flew out flatly, and experienced the feeling of flying again.

But then, although it was just a joke for fun, Miao Ying had accepted him as a pupil. Consequently, Zhao Yu had begun his pupil's life accordingly...

“How many men and women gather and part, there’s a chance of one out of ten million to meet you.”

“Whatever the distance between us, I just want to be with you...”

Within the song, several gunshot sounds were embedded. Miao Ying fired six shots at the shooting range, each shot having hit the crucial point.

Bang...Bang...

But, when Zhao Yu finished the shutter bullet, the target remained clean! Surprisingly, a lamp over the shooting range was broken! Next, a cracking sound was bursting out, as Miao Ying opened her hands and beat Zhao Yu, who seemed like a leaping toad...

“Every single word is hard, hard...where would the passed sweet mirth have been...”

In the sound of singing, Zhao Yu was pulling and introducing two trainers to Miao Ying at the newly added boxing hall of Deep Breathing Club. The two trainers were attracted by Miao Ying’s beauty. They stared at her lecherously, rushing to the stage and wanting to teach her the boxing’s skill personally.

Watching as Miao Ying and the two trainers were getting on stage, Zhao Yu was reluctant to see the blood, and so he turned around and covered his eyes at the same time.

The next moment, the two trainers flew off the stage successively, and vomited the sour water in their stomachs! The trainers and members were petrified once they witnessed the battle...

“If you knew it would be hard at the beginning...would you just go back to your way, back to your bridge...”

Within the sound of the song, Miao Ying was hand in hand, teaching Zhao Yu the correct posture of boxing. Zhao Yu was also learning it earnestly.

However, Miao Ying was wearing a boxing training short, and her upper body was wearing professional tights at that moment. The attire was not merely showing the firm muscles and the snowy white shoulders, but also a nearly perfect vest line was revealed on her lower abdomen.

Upon watching it, Zhao Yu was gulping down his saliva, his mind jumping around restlessly. During the course of fighting, he always wanted to flirt with Miao Ying, but then, he was badly beaten by her, until he had lost his sense of direction.

Finally, under the pretext of drinking water, Zhao Yu was holding his head and hiding in the distance. Miao Ying saw Zhao Yu was fleeing, and she eventually faced the sandbag and continued to practice herself. A sound of banging was heard every once in awhile, as Miao Ying kicked the sandbag with her extraordinary long legs. Miao Ying had sweated a lot after the practice, yet she used a hair band to bundle up her mushroom haircut. In this way, she seemed valiant and extraordinarily chic!

Miao Ying was perspiring profusely now, as she shot her fists like lightning, lifting her legs like thunderbolts. All members were shocked and speechless upon watching her.

Meanwhile, Zhao Yu stood on the other side of the sandbag, while drinking his water. He was pondering how to take advantage of her later.

Unexpectedly, when the water was finished, Zhao Yu noticed that there was a lady wearing a bikini and throwing a flirtatious glance towards him from the yoga studio next door! This lady had admired Zhao Yu from the moment she first saw him beaten up by Boss Zhang previously. As of now, their eyes were met, and fascinatedly, she winked at him from across the hall!

However, Zhao Yu was not tempted by it. Still, seeing the lady was splitting, he was wondering if her bikini would reveal more upon her splitting. Hence, he used a cup to conceal himself, while he was tiptoeing and stretching his neck toward the lady to get a better look.

Miao Ying was beating the sandbag at that moment. Suddenly, she saw Zhao Yu was acting furtively, and so turned around and shot a glance at him. Finally, she gave a whirlwind kick to the sandbag, once she noticed Zhao Yu's nasty thoughts.

The sandbag hit at Zhao Yu's back, a powerful knockout! At last, only seeing Zhao Yu had drawn a wonderful parabola through the sky, and his whole face was attached to the glass outside the yoga studio. The women who were practicing yoga were startled...

"Plainly we knew love sickness was pain, yet worried about you. After much thought, I would rather take the pain."

"Plainly we knew love sickness was pain..."

The music gradually diminished, and the scene suddenly shifted to the depths of Qinshan's vast mountains, an extremely remote area. Although it was far away from the center population, at this moment, many vehicles were yet around, including a lot of heavy construction equipment.

Among the cars, there was a commercial car marked with Qinshan TV station, and a host beside it, who was reporting in front a camera:

"Hello, everyone, we're now reporting to you at the excavation site of the Tomb of Wo Niu Ling." The host was a lady with long flowy hair, "Behind me is the excavated site of the ancient tomb, the staff of Cultural Relic Bureau have been digging here for five days, and as of now, the entire tomb path has been dug up, and the tomb gate is being demolished."

"According to the expert estimation, the tomb gate could be opened immediately. Soon, this ancient tomb of the Ming Dynasty will be exposed under the sun, which is very exciting!"

"I have asked the experts just now, although it's not clear who is the owner of the tomb yet, but based on the tomb's size and structure, it should be a relatively high standard of tomb. As we all know, the ancient name of Qinshan is called Luya, and Luya Mansion played a very important role in ancient times. Experts suspect that the owner of the tomb, either the king or duke, must belong to the nobility!"

"But unfortunately, the staff found a burrow hole from the northwest corner of the tomb, so experts are now worried that the tomb may have been stolen..."

Ten minutes later, the host's voice rang out again, "Ladies and gentlemen, the gate is open now, but due to some safety issues, only professionals are allowed to approach it, so we're not permitted. You can only follow our camera and have a look at it from a distance..."

Another ten minutes passed, the host continued her reporting again: “Ladies and gentlemen, unfortunately, experts have confirmed that the tomb has been destroyed by the tomb robber, but, based on the epitaphs on the scene, people found its owner, um... Well... What’s the matter?”

When the host was broadcasting, she found that many staff inside the tomb were running out of it. They kept running and shouting at the same time. It seemed like something unexpected had happened in the tomb...
