

Crazy 501

Chapter 501: Despicable Deal

Even without reporting her official name, Zhao Yu could tell that the girl outside his door was the female police officer from the Ruyang Branch. At the beginning, Zhao Yu thought the girl's surname was Jin, as all the police detectives referred to her as Jinmei. But he hadn't guessed that her surname was Su and her full name was Su Jinmei.

Zhao Yu reckoned that the female police officer probably had just joined the team not too long ago, and that she was most likely a clerk like Li Beini. However, the girl was well-rounded and cute, with a pair of big eyes. Overall, she looked quite pleasant.

He wondered why did she had come to look for him. He was understandably confused.

This girl chooses to come to meet me at the Express Hotel. Is there any special meaning behind this?

But, Zhao Yu suddenly understood exactly why she was there, once he opened the door! He understood so quickly, because there was another person behind Su Jinmei. It was the current captain of the Ruyang Branch, Xiao Zhang!

Up until that very moment, Zhao Yu hadn't known what Xiao Zhang's name was. He only knew that, when Miao Ying was a captain, she had looked very highly upon him. She even suggested that he be promoted to captain before she left the position.

"Police Officer Zhao, greetings!" Xiao Zhang greeted Zhao Yu politely.

Before Zhao Yu responded, had entered Zhao Yu's room with Jinmei, closing the door behind them. Su Jinmei was still looking down at the floor, following closely behind Xiao Zhang.

"Captain Zhang, what do you mean by this?" Although Zhao Yu sort of guessed why they were there, due to politeness, he had to play dumb.

"Police Officer Zhao, I left all of my work this morning in order to come here," Xiao Zhang looked at Jinmei and said. "I think... You should understand what I mean, right? Jinmei told me about the things that you told her yesterday!"

"So what?" Zhao Yu opened the curtain. The sunlight poured in from outside. "I was only expressing my opinions. With no evidence, there is still nothing I can actually prove yet! Plus, I am only a witness, and this case is not even under my control!"

"Mm..." Xiao Zhang seemed to be well-prepared for this exact response. He looked at Su Jinmei, then sighed. "Police Officer Zhao, after the all-night-long interrogation, Ai Lili insisted that she was innocent, swearing that she didn't know anything!"

"Now, our situation is very awkward. Although the two million was really transferred from the company under Ai Lili's name, it still can't be used as direct evidence in order to verify that Ai Lili contracted a killer! In other words, we can't be certain that Ai Lili was the real mastermind behind the scheme, yet we also can't rule it out, either. So, when the time comes, we can only release her!"

“Last night, we talked to a large amount of witnesses. It was certain that Chen Bingguang really wanted to amend his will before he went into his coma. It was also certain that he got into several arguments with Ai Lili on numerous occasions. Besides that, the relationship between Ai Lili and the two sisters was very bad. Apparently, they were sharply opposed to each other, with neither ever being prepared to give an inch.”

He continued to detail the situation to Zhao Yu. “Especially after Chen Bingguang went into his coma, she even fought against the pair of sisters, causing a lively scene in the hospital! Hence, from a subjective point of view, Ai Lili is highly suspicious. If the sisters were to die in an accident, the great wealth of the Chen family would fall into Ai Lili’s hands!”

As Xiao Zhang spoke, he carefully observed Zhao Yu. He saw that he had caught Zhao Yu’s attention, so he continued. “In our terms, it is called a Wealthy Family Murder Case! It looks like something a blue collar person couldn’t understand, but it was very common among the people of high society! However...”

Then, Xiao Zhang looked at Jinmei for the third time and said, “When I heard Police Officer Zhao’s analysis, I was awakened! If Ai Lili were to be the mastermind behind the scene, she was obviously doing so at great risk! Even if Chen Bingguang really passed away, according to the law, she could receive fifty percent of the inheritance, which would already be several billion! People at that stage, what difference does several billion and dozens of billion make?”

Xiao Zhang shook his head, “She could have received several billion steadily, so what would be the point of risking it to contract a killer?”

“Didn’t you say that the rich man wanted to change his will before he went into the coma?” Zhao Yu said. “If he were to have amended his will, would it have affected Ai Lili’s benefits? Hence, causing her to feel forced to contract a killer?”

“No way,” Xiao Zhang replied. “We talked to a lawyer about that specifically. No matter how Chen Bingguang altered his will, as his wife, she would enjoy legal protection. This means that she would definitely receive half of his wealth, no matter what. The only difference was in regards to company stock. Although the number wasn’t small, missing out on it wouldn’t be much of a damage to Ai Lili!”

“Unless, of course, Chen Bingguang was willing to donate all his wealth to the community. Then, it would affect Ai Lili’s benefits. But, Chen Bingguang was healthy at that time, so he would never write up such a will. Furthermore, he had to consider providing for his pair of daughters too, right?”

“Captain Zhang, I am not sure why are you telling me all this.” Suddenly, Zhao Yu said with his poker face, “Did you forget what I told you already? The case is not under my control!”

“Listen to what I have to say,” Xiao Zhang quickly said. “We considered this case, according to your trail of thought. If Ai Lili were to be put behind bars, who would be the next beneficiary? In the end, we found that that there was really only one person! The person was Chen Bingguang’s cousin, Cheng Bingxian!”

He continued, after a short pause to let the new info sink in. “Not only was the person Chen Bingguang’s closest relative, he was also the stockholder of the company! If Cheng Bingguang passed away and Ai Lili was imprisoned, he was the next-of-kin! Plus, not only would he inherit the wealth, if he could also inherit Chen Bingguang's stock, he would become the leader of the entire Bai Shi Li Group!"

Xiao Zhang spoke excitedly, but Zhao Yu remained very calm. "Alright, are you done now? Is there anything else?"

"Mm..." Xiao Zhang blushed and said, "Police Office Zhao, I'll be frank with you! I am here to ask for your help! I hope you can give me some pointers!"

Humph!

Zhao Yu smiled with satisfaction. That was exactly what he was waiting for. Actually, he could tell that Xiao Zhang was there to ask for his help right away. However, if he were to have said so himself, it would have been a little embarrassing.

"I heard from Jinmei..." Xiao Zhang said carefully, "That you have a way to find out who was the mastermind behind the scenes. I was wondering... How?"

"Shh, you can't talk nonsense," Zhao Yu shook his head and said. "I am a bullshitter. Did you forget that?"

"Mm..." Xiao Zhang was red with embarrassment now. "Police Officer Zhao, from Sis Miao's view, I should call you brother-in-law! So, Brother-in-law, I was young and aggressive back then. If I have done anything inappropriate since, please do forgive me!"

Xiao Zhang was naturally referring to the incident when Zhao Yu stole his pen recorder in Yulangdian. Of course, from the very beginning, it was just Zhao Yu's way of fooling around. Even if there were to be an apology offered, it should be from Zhao Yu to him!

"Wahaha... It's okay, it's okay, my wife's younger brother! Haha..." Zhao Yu laughed mockingly, as Su Jinmei shrunk in a corner, not daring to look up.

"Mm... One more thing, brother-in-law!" Xiao Zhang suddenly diverted the conversation. "My situation right now is very difficult! You can see that Wang Shengyao and his troop are waiting to make fun of us! If Ai Lili were to be released without charges being filed, and we couldn't find the real murderer, I will not be able to continue on as captain! If we the Ruyang Branch were to embarrass ourselves in such a way, it wouldn't be nice to Sis Miao! So, Brother-in-law, please tell me, what ideas do you have in mind?"

"Wahaha..." Zhao Yu laughed hysterically and said, "My younger brother with the gift of gab! To solve this case, you really are giving it your all!"

"Alright, because of your Sis Miao, I will help you with this! But, my idea is a little immoral! I already returned to the proper path from the wicked side. So, I will only tell you about the idea. Whether you carry it out or not will depend entirely on you!"

"Oh, right! One more thing. Before I help you, you have to help me with something! I need to talk to Ai Lili alone, without being interrupted!" Zhao Yu's eyes beamed with excitement. "If you can't help me with this, there's nothing else for us to talk about!"

"Alright! Okay! No problem! No problem!" Xiao Zhang nodded immediately. "It's a deal! It's a deal!"

Chapter 502: Deadly Truth

“Police Officer Zhao, please follow me!” At the Ruyang Branch, Su Jinmei beckoned to Zhao Yu and said softly, “They are in a dispatch meeting now. All the higher ups and police detectives are required to attend! Captain Zhang has already greeted them, so this is the best timing!”

Then, Su Jinmei came before the interrogation room door and knocked. The door suddenly opened from inside.

Su Jinmei exchanged a few sentences with the police detectives on duty, directly after which, they came out to stand outside the door. Zhao Yu had apparently obtained his chance to interrogate Ai Lili, just as he had wanted.

A few months ago, Zhao Yu had interrogated Liu Pengfei in this exact interrogation room. He had found out about the truth of the slaughter case back then. Now, he wondered if he would find out anything today by interrogating Ai Lili.

Under the dim light, Ai Lili, who was wearing an expensive dress, was sprawling across the table, seeming to be in listless spirits. Her hair was in a mess, too.

After a night of interrogation, she was obviously weary. Although Ai Lili didn’t move an inch on the table, Zhao Yu knew that she wasn’t asleep.

“Police office, what else do you want to ask? Like I said, I am not the murderer, and I did not contract any killer! I didn’t...” As expected, Ai Lili spoke, while still lying on the table. “My husband is still in the hospital, and he still needs me to take care of him! How long are you going to hold me captive?”

“Not for long! Once you answer all my questions, you can leave!” Zhao Yu answered her straightforwardly. “But, you have to tell me the truth!”

Ai Lili lifted her head to take a look at Zhao Yu for the first time. Through her messy hair, Zhao Yu saw a beautiful face. Ai Lili was only twenty- seven years old. Although she wasn’t decked out with jewels, she was elegant and poised, carrying a stately aura.

“What do you want me to say, in order for you to believe me? I really didn’t lie!” Ai Lili spread her hands and asked. “We’re talking about murder, after all! Why would I do that? Yes, I am not on good terms with the girls, but we are still a family, after all! Why would I kill them?”

Then, Ai Lili suddenly started to cry.

“I think, we’d better make use of this time!” Zhao Yu knew that the dispatch meeting would only take about ten minutes, so he had to get down to business quickly.

So, he lowered his voice and said, “Ai Lili, I am asking you about something else today. If you could answer me honestly, I have a way for you to get out of this desperate situation!”

“Mm?” Ai Lili didn’t understand.

“Ten years again, when you were at Water Conservancy College, did you know anyone named Feng Kuo?” Zhao Yu asked her, even telling her Feng Kuo’s residency address.

“Feng Kuo? Ten years ago? Villa? Police officer, what are you trying to say?” Ai Lili was confused, then she shook her head. “I don’t know this person! Why would you suddenly bring up a question about ten years ago?”

“Mm...” Zhao Yu creased his eyebrows and added, “Feng Kuo was a movie actor. He was filming in Qinshan back then. He even brought you to the filming studio. You apparently had a casual sexual relationship...”

“Hey!” Ai Lili exclaimed in surprise. “Are you some kind of paparazzi? Why are you asking about this? Whoever I slept with ten years ago, is it considered an affair?”

“Can’t you be honest?” Zhao Yu raised his voice. “If I were a news reporter, could I be in here? I don’t have any voice recording device, and there is no camera, so it couldn’t even be exposed to the public! To be honest with you, I am investigating another case, and you are one of the important witnesses! So, I am asking you to answer me!”

“How do I know you do not have any bad intentions?” Ai Lili was on high alert now. “Are you trying to deceive me?”

“Dang it!” Zhao Yu held his fist and said, “Ai Lili, I have very limited time right now! I’m telling you, the police are already in the process of filing charges. If there was anyone that could help you, it would be me! So, it’s up to you!”

“I... This...” Ai Lili creased her eyebrows and said, “You are so random. Why should I believe that you could save me?”

“Simply by the fact that I am the person that caught the murderer of Miley and Mochi! The murderer fell to his death, but before he died, he told me something!” Zhao Yu unlocked his phone and showed Ai Lili Le Chao’s photo.

He then shouted, “So, I am your only chance to get away from this charge! If you opt to refuse, just pretend that I never said anything, and I will leave right now. You can wait to be sentenced with the death penalty!”

“Alright... Alright...” Ai Lili thought for a while and said, “It was ten years ago anyway. I’ll just tell you! Yes, I knew that guy, but I totally forgot what his name was! I had a few nights of fun with him back then, but he didn’t pick up the phone, when I called him later on! I only remember that he was quite good looking, and in terms of his bed skills, he was worse than his brother, by a lot!”

“Dang!” Hearing that, Zhao Yu was shocked. He quickly asked, “What did you say? His brother? Is it... Xiao Zhen?”

“Yeah! It’s Xiao Zhen! I wouldn’t get his name wrong! We were seeing each other for about a year.” Ai Lili recalled. “Back then, I was only a kid. I had just gotten to my first year at school. So, I was probably seventeen at most.”

“You and Xiao Zhen were seeing each other for a year?!” Suddenly, Zhao Yu had goosebumps all over.

“Yeah!” Ai Lili continued to take the road down memory lane. “Our school was only a wall away from his villa. There was a garden in his villa, and we would hang around there sometimes. Then, we got to know Xiao Zhen. He liked to carve things and always carried a pile of wood with him wherever he went! I found him quite interesting, then got to know him gradually!”

“Oh my! So, you and Xiao Zhen...” Zhao Yu was still just trying to process his surprise.

“Mm... His house was always empty, and I am a girl from the lower class. Hence, I was very curious about a big villa,” Ai Lili nodded and said. “Every time we would do it in his house! Although he was a quiet person, he was extremely crazy when it came to that!”

“Wow, then how about you and Feng Kuo?”

Suddenly, Zhao Yu seemed to find the answer that he had been looking for. If the murderer that killed Liu Jiao was really Xiao Zhen, then Ai Lili would most likely have been his motive!

“His brother?” Ai Lili tried to recall. “Yeah, there was a day when Xiao Zhen brought me to his brother’s room for playtime. After that, I saw his brother’s photo. All I said was ‘your brother is good looking!’. But then, Xiao Zhen got panicked and went crazy! He even shouted at me. I had never seen him like that before. It really shocked me!”

She continued explaining the situation. “But, after that, I felt aggrieved and wanted to take revenge. So, I went to find his brother on my own.” Ai Lili spoke with deep feeling. “After all, his brother was good looking, and he even starred in movies. I just chatted with him for a while, and then... We... Sigh...”

“Oh my god!” Zhao Yu shook his head and said, “Ai Lili, don’t you think that what you did was very immoral?”

“Yes! I admit that I was at fault!” Ai Lili said. “Actually, after a few times, I regretted it deeply. I felt extremely sorry for Xiao Zhen. So, I dared not look for Xiao Zhen anymore! Yeah, police officer, so, I still really don’t understand why you asking these things?”

“Why?” Zhao Yu had no choice but to tell her. “One day, after you rolled around the bed with Feng Kuo, Feng Kuo’s girlfriend was killed in her apartment! Then, Feng Kuo was put behind bars for ten years because of it!”

“Wow! Put behind bars? But, how does that relate to me? He never told me that he had a girlfriend.” Ai Lili shook her head as she spoke. Then, she suddenly realized something and asked, “Aiya! Police Officer, you aren’t trying to say that, Xiao Zhen was the murderer, are you?”

“Dang, you are smart!” Zhao Yu replied impatiently, “So, what do you have to say?”

“Oh my god!” Suddenly, Ai Lili slumped down and mumbled to herself, “If so... That day... That person... Was it really Xiao Zhen?”

“Huh?” Zhao Yu was surprised. “What? That day, that person, what do you mean?”

“That was the last time I went on a date with his brother.” Ai Lili recalled. “That day, his brother brought me to the filming studio to watch him filming. After that, we returned to his villa for playtime again. That time, his brother said that Xiao Zhen had gone to the factory and wouldn’t be back anytime soon. But, as we were having fun, I saw a shadow flash outside the door. Then, his brother pressed me under him, so he didn't see it, but I did! Now that I recall... That person... Was most likely Xiao Zhen!"

Chapter 503: Wicked Idea

When Zhao Yu came out from the interrogation room, he saw that the dispatch meeting had yet to be dismissed. Having some time on his hands, he went to the Key Case Investigation Unit for coffee, while he reorganized his thoughts.

It seemed that the entire Apartment Murderer Case had now been clarified. Feng Kuo's brother, Xiao Zhen, was the biggest suspect. In terms of motives, process, and blood stains, they were all tallied. Now, it was the final step. If he could flip Xiao Zhen's alibi, he could then apply for an arrest warrant!

But, regarding testimony, Zhao Yu couldn't go around another person, Xiao Guofeng! Because of his testimony, Xiao Zhen had escaped the suspicions of the police authority. From what he saw then, Xiao Guofeng most likely had committed perjury! Although they had gone to Lingyun to send goods, Xiao Zhen might not have actually gone with them.

It could be said that Xiao Guofeng should know such a thing about his own son! If he were to get the truth from him, then everything might end! But, Xiao Zhen was his son after all, and it also involved his reputation and Feng Lin's feelings. Hence, Zhao Yu could conclude that Xiao Guofeng would definitely not say anything, even if he were to beat Xiao Guofeng to death!

But, it's alright. Corroborating Xiao Guofeng's testimony back then, was another person. That person was a staff member from his wood manufacturing factory. If Xiao Guofeng had bribed him, he naturally would follow any of Xiao Guofeng's instructions.

While Zhao Yu was still pondering, Xiao Zhang and the police detectives from the Ruyang Key Case Investigation Unit came in, their meeting having finally ended. Before they were even through the door, he could hear their complaints.

"This Wang Shengyao is ridiculous! He relied on his position as the leader of the municipal criminal investigation in order to speak like that. He's such a bully!"

"Exactly," the other person replied. "The crime case took place less than twenty four hours ago. So, isn't this a little early for him to say such things? Isn't it basically him calling us useless?!"

"Making such irresponsible and sarcastic remarks, especially while we are putting in all our efforts... I mean, they were only standing around and watching by the side. I don't understand why the higher ups sent these bastards over! And, when he spoke, his nose was pointed upwards to the sky, too. I just want to beat them up when I see them!"

"Alright, alright. Stop that!" Captain Xiao Zhang stopped them. "If we could solve the case, it would be the best counterattack! It is useless just to speak angrily!"

Zhao Yu finally understood that Xiao Zhang was also called Zhang Zichun. Even though he was called Xiao Zhang, he was the same age as him, only a few months younger.

“Hey? Police Officer Zhao? You’re out?” When Xiao Zhang saw Zhao Yu, his eyes glistened with joy. He pointed to outside the door and said, “Come on, come over here, so we can discuss something!”

Then, Jinmei quickly got up from the working desk and led the way. She brought Xiao Zhang and Zhao Yu to an empty office.

“How is it, Zhao... Mm... Brother-in-law?” Xiao Zhang was quick-minded, and he changed his tone very quickly.

“Mm... About mine? It’s about done!” Zhao Yu took another sip of his coffee and nodded.

“Then... That’s great... Look... About ours...” Xiao Zhang was afraid that Zhao Yu would go back on his word, so he spoke with extreme care.

“Don’t worry. I, Zhao Yu, am not one that would go back on his word,” Zhao Yu said solemnly. “I am going to tell you how now, but... I need to remind you about something. I am going to give you a wicked idea. Just don’t sell me out on it!”

“Don’t worry, don’t worry!” Xiao Zhang nodded in agreement.

“Sigh!” Zhao Yu sighed and said, “I just went through the information. The situation of the murderer, Le Chao’s family... Tsk tsk... His eldest son is in university, and the second son has been diagnosed with a rare disease, Retinoblastoma. It is a kind of eye cancer. It could be life threatening, should it becomes more serious!”

“Mm...” Hearing what Zhao Yu said, Xiao Zhang’s heart thumped. He could see something bad was coming.

“I’ve asked my colleague about it. Apparently, with this disease, he will have to change his lenses at a specialized hospital every year. The yearly expense would be at least ten thousand!”

He continued to explain. “Le Chao’s wife is a laid-off worker, who earns a living at the tailor shop. Le Chao was dismissed from the police team and was diagnosed with a terminal illness. So, this family... Sigh...”

“Because of their hardships, they caught the attention of the bad guys!” Having connected the dots, Jinmei suddenly cut in and said, “So, the mastermind behind this is the worst person ever! We have to catch him! No matter if it was Ai Lili or anyone else, we can’t just let them go free!”

“Zhao... Brother-in-law...” Xiao Zhang said, dripping with sweat, “You... You wouldn’t be thinking about making a scene by using Le Chao’s son, right? This...”

“Maybe.” Zhao Yu raised his eyebrows. “But, it might even be worse than that!”

“Don’t! How can we do anything illegal? We are policemen!” Xiao Zhang’s courage failed him.

“Captain Zhang, let’s at least listen to what Police Officer Zhao has to say!” Then, Su Jinmei who was always timid, suddenly became the calmer one, starting to comfort Xiao Zhang.

“Phew!” Zhao Yu let out a long sigh, then said, “Actually, it’s like this! There are multiple kinds of contract killing. Le Chao is not related to anyone in the case, and this kind of contract killing is called off-hands good. In other words, the hired killer had no entanglement with the person killed.”

“Mm... About this, although I have not experienced it personally, I have heard about it. Regarding the hiring of off-hands goods, it’s an art. However, Le Chao’s situation is a little different, so the rules can’t be fully applied to it! Hence, there’s a loophole that we can take advantage of!”

Xiao Zhang and Jinmei exchanging glances, and their faces were obviously stunned. Zhao Yu then said, “Alright, I will make this easier to understand! We will take the viewpoint of Le Chao. Look, Le Chao was diagnosed with a terminal illness, causing his family to be in a predicament. So, someone found him and offered him a big amount of money to kill someone!”

“In order to save his sick child, and to let his family live comfortably, Le Chao accepted the offer and decided to kill the two sisters, according to the other party’s request.”

“But, there is a problem here. How did the person pay the fee?”

“Fee? The killing fees?” Jinmei asked.

“Correct. On a normal basis, there should be a deposit. Then, after the mission has been completed, the remaining fees would be transferred!” Zhao Yu explained. “I’m guessing that their agreement was as such. Le Chao killed the person, and after he killed them, he wanted to be arrested. Then, he would reveal that Ai Lili was the mastermind personally! It would be perfectly executed then! The other party would then definitely pay the full fees, as Le Chao was still alive, so he would be able to change his testimony, if the person didn’t pay the full amount!”

“Oh... But, Le Chao is already dead.” Jinmei creased her eyebrows.

“Exactly! So, because Le Chao died, I have such a wicked idea!” Zhao Yu said. “I chased after Le Chao, and no matter if he was crossing the road or jumping off the cliff, I am guessing that Le Chao might have been prepared to die!”

“Don’t forget that Le Chao was a policeman before. If he were to do such dangerous things, he knew that he might not survive them. Then... How could he not leave any room for maneuvering?”

“I... Don’t understand! If he is dead, why would he leave any room for maneuvering?” Jinmei was getting more confused.

“No way! If he were to die,” Xiao Zhang explained, “What if the other party breached the contract, deciding not to pay the full amount?”

“Bingo!” Zhao Yu nodded and said, “So, Le Chao would definitely leave some important evidence. If, after he died, the other party was not willing to pay the rest of the money, he would then reveal the secret to the public!”

“But... Le Chao is dead, so how is he going to reveal this to the public?” Jinmei was still confused. But, after she asked this, she suddenly thought of a point. “His wife?! Le Chao left the evidence in his last words to his wife! But... Isn’t it too late? If the other party were to make the payment, the evidence would be destroyed, no?”

“Not necessarily. After finding out that the Falling Off Building Case was a contract killing, the police had already seized control of Le Chao’s wife. Otherwise, how could they find out about the two million in her account?” Xiao Zhang said. “I think, Le Chao’s death was an accident, since it was very sudden. The other party probably wasn’t ready for that! Maybe, they were waiting until Ai Lili was charged, then they would be willing to pay the full amount, right?”

Oh... True that! I heard that Le Chao’s wife has already been sent to Qinshan for investigation,” Sui Jinmei’s eyes were wide open when she spoke. “But... Why would Le Chao’s wife split the truth? She didn’t commit any crime. If she could hold back, she would be able to get a huge amount of money! If she couldn’t, wouldn’t Le Chao be dead for nothing?”

“This is exactly why I said it was a wicked idea!” Zhao Yu shook his head and said, “As it is such an inhuman method, I’ll leave it to you!”

Chapter 504: Do You Accept the Disciple?

It was two fifteen in the afternoon. Le Chao’s wife Xin Xiaoru was transferred from the Ruyang Branch for interrogation by the Yunzhou Police Force. Being very different from a regular criminal, Xin Xiaoru didn’t have any obvious characteristics of a common crook. So, she was only brought to a normal meeting room for some questions, instead of being taken to a professional interrogation room.

At the beginning, it went as was expected by the police. No matter what the police asked, Xin Xiaoru had no idea about it, and she insisted that she always knew everything that Le Chao did. Besides that, she was just crying her heart out, talking about how tough her life was.

Seeing such a situation, Xiao Zhang had no choice but to resort to the wicked idea that Zhao Yu provided him. Xiao Zhang didn’t bring anything but two sets of medical records into the meeting room. After he entered, he put the medical records before Xin Xiaoru’s eyes for her to read.

Xin Xiaoru didn’t understand at the beginning, but as she read, she suddenly realized something. Her body started shivering, and her face displayed a mixture of emotions, like surprise, hatred, sadness...

Then, Xiao Zhang started to recite the lines that Zhao Yu had written down for him. Firstly, he told Xin Xiaoru, “Your husband, Le Chao, was originally healthy. He was not ill at all!”

“That supposed advanced stage of lymph cancer that the doctor was talking about was merely fabricated because there was someone that perpetrated a fraud and made amendments on his medical records. And, the person that amended the medical records was the wicked mastermind behind the scenes, the same person that hired your husband to kill the two sisters!”

“Take a good look for yourself!” Xiao Zhang pointed at the second medical record, then said, “One was Le Chao’s original medical record, and the other one was the police’s autopsy report. There were no cancer cells at all in his body!”

“No... No... It’s impossible!” Hearing such bad news hit her like a thunderbolt, causing Xin Xiaoru to collapse. She stared in disbelief, refusing to accept what she now saw before her eyes.

“So, now you understand?” Xiao Zhang took advantage of the situation and said, “As these people faked the medical records, just to make Le Chao accept the offer to commit murder, you’d better reconsider. Le Chao, who was supposed to be the only witness, died, so why would they still pay you the money as promised? Le Chao... was cheated! He was cheated... So badly! He even bet his life on it. It was really... Not worth it!”

Then, Xin Xiaoru stopped shedding tears, but Xiao Zhang didn’t notice. He just continued to speak. “It’s such a pity! The house is still there, but the loved one is gone. There is no evidence now! Le Chao was a retired policeman, and the blot on his past will last forever...”

“Aiyo! Can he pull this off or not?” At that very moment, Zhao Yu was listening to the live recording from the other room, itching to go into the room himself.

He complained, “Xiao Zhang speaks too much! Why didn’t he follow the lines that I wrote for him? One who talks too much is prone to error. Once Xin Xiaoru realizes the rouse, his efforts would all be in vain! Now, he should just turn around and leave!”

As Zhao Yu spoke, Su Jinmei and the bunch of police detectives from the Ruyang Branch were listening with all ears, focusing all their attentions at this questioning. They were all nervous and worried that Xiao Zhang would expose any flaw in their ploy.

Xiao Zhang couldn’t hear Zhao Yu’s guidance on the other side of the wall, but he was still advising Xin Xiaoru patiently. However, although Xiao Zhang’s acting was a little exaggerating, Xin Xiaoru’s mental defense collapsed all the same, exactly as planned. At that very moment, her sorrow was gradually replaced by anger.

“Police officer, I have a way. I can drag the person who framed my husband out!!!” Then, Xin Xiaoru’s eyes were burning with rage and hatred.

“Oh?!” Xiao Zhang was suddenly dumbfounded. He never thought that Zhao Yu’s strategy would succeed. Xin Xiaoru was really an insider!

Xiao Zhang then asked, “Sis, you... What did you say? What ways do you have?”

“Police officer, quickly make a trip back to Yunzhou!” Xin Xiaoru said. “On the third partition box in the basement of my house, there was something that my husband left behind for me! It is a pen-drive. There is a video that my husband recorded for me on it! The video could prove that my husband was framed!”

Hearing that, those police detectives from Ruyang were shocked, and they looked at each other, dumbfounded. That was amazing! They had never expected that Le Chao really did leave evidence behind!

“Oh?! Video?!” Xiao Zhang asked in shock. “Sis, what is going on?”

“At the beginning, I really didn’t know anything!” Xin Xiaoru said. “If I were to have known anything, I would definitely have stopped Le Chao! Even though he was diagnosed with a terminal illness, I would not have allowed him to do anything inhuman. I really didn’t know...”

“This is what happened. Yesterday, at about six in the afternoon, I suddenly received a parcel,” Xin Xiaoru explained. “After I opened the parcel, I realized that the parcel was actually a letter that Le Chao had written to me. In the letter, he told me everything. It was only then that I found out what he had done!”

“In the letter, he instructed me about numerous matters. He said that, once he got the things done, the other party would transfer another 5 million into my hands within half a month. However, if anything were to happen to him, or if the other party was not willing to pay, he told me to send the pen-drive to the police station!”

“What’s inside?” Xiao Zhang asked in a hurry. “Have you seen it?”

“I... I haven’t seen it yet...” Xin Xiaoru replied. “I found it in the basement, but I didn’t dare touch it. On the letter, he said that it was a video that he had recorded ahead of time!”

“I didn’t expect the police to be at my house so quickly. I hadn’t even managed to take care of it. But, the two million in my account, I really have no idea what it was for!”

“Alright, alright! We will investigate!” Xiao Zhang quickly took care of the medical records. As he was nervous, his hand quivered, causing the medical records to fall on the floor.

“Police officer, please!” Xin Xiaoru was burning with grief and indignation. “Although I am poor, I don’t care much about money! My husband was fine, but he was framed by these people. I will not let this end like this! Please, on behalf of all orphans and widows, arrest the mastermind behind this!”

“Oh! Okay, yes, we will... Definitely!” Due to extreme guilt, Xiao Zhang was drenched in sweat.

At the same time, in the other room, Su Jinmei was complimenting Zhao Yu, her face full of admiration. “Police Officer Zhao, you deserve the title of Qinshan Sherlock Holmes. This method of using fake medical records to solve the case, although it was a little inhuman, it worked! I think it should be taught in the textbooks.”

“I’m flattered... Hehehe...” Zhao Yu nodded proudly and said, “Little sis, as for the rest of the matter, you should know how to deal with it. I have to rush back to deal with my own business! Maybe... If I can deal with mine in time, we might be able to close the two cases together!”

“Oh... Okay!” Su Jinmei quickly bowed before Zhao Yu and said politely, “Police Officer Zhao, when we have any updates on our side, we will inform you right away!”

“Exactly!” Then, the other police detectives also looked at Zhao Yu in a brand new light, as they were super grateful for the great detective’s help.

There were several people that immediately said enthusiastically, “We don’t inform our higher ups, but we will inform Police Officer Zhao first! This time, we finally get to hold our heads high before that bunch of people from the municipal police station!”

“Exactly! Embarrass that Wang Shengyao, and let him continue to pretend to be an idle man!” Zhao Yu added this comment, which won applause from the group of police detectives.

In order to express her sincerity, Su Jinmei walked Zhao Yu to the door personally.

“Aiya, sis, it’s needless to be so polite! Go ahead with your tasks!” Zhao Yu waved at Su Jinmei, then turned around suddenly, ready to make a move.

“Hey? Police Officer Zhao...” Su Jinmei suddenly bloomed like a peach blossom and asked, “You...”

“Is there anything else that I can help you with?” Zhao Yu asked this, but there was another voice in his head...

Why? Have you fallen for me, and now want to get a room with me?!

“Mm...” Su Jinmei bowed politely and said, “Police Officer Zhao, in the future, if there’s an opportunity, can you please give me some more pointers? Mm... I... Can perhaps be your disciple?”

Chapter 505: Bugged Down With Bad Luck

Kong Weisen was an old worker in Xiao Guofeng’s wood factory. He was normally in charge of the loading, unloading and logistics.

Ten years ago, the person’s name and Xiao Guofeng appeared on the testimony. The two of them proved unanimously that Xiao Guofeng’s son, Xiao Zhen, was sending goods to Lingyun with them. They only returned to Qinshan at about eleven that night.

Because of the testimony, Xiao Zhen wasn’t listed on the list of suspects by the police authority. Then, regarding Liu Jiao’s case, all of the evidence was pointing towards Xiao Zhen, and the testimony was getting really unreliable!

It was already ten in the evening, when Kong Weisen finally finished his work at the wood factory. After clocking out, he was preparing to leave.

He drove a medium-sized truck that was specially used for cargo. Due to the busy schedule in the factory, he almost had to drive this truck everyday.

However, just when he opened his car door, preparing to get into his seat, he suddenly realized that there was another person in the passenger seat! The person was wearing a duckbill cap and a huge pair of shades. He couldn’t clearly see what the person looked like, but he could tell that it was a well-built man.

“Who are you? What do you want?” Kong Weisen was shocked. However, just after he spoke, the other person leapt towards him, landing a heavy punch and knocking him out!

A few minutes later, Kong Weisen gradually regained conscious, only to realize that he was tied onto one of the pillars in the old garage! The man in the cap was standing before him coolly.

“You... Let me go... Let me go... I...” Kong Weisen pleaded with him, shivering. “I told Bro Jun that the money that I owe you...Just give me a few days of grace, just a few days! We talked about this, so why did you make a move on me? Bro, quick, make a call!”

“Humph!” The man before him suddenly grunted and squatted down. He shouted at Kong Weisen, “You think too much. I am not here to collect a debt. On the contrary, I am here to give you some benefit...”

The person that grunted was none other than Zhao Yu!

Zhao Yu took out a few stacks of neatly arranged cash from his wallet, then threw the stacks of cash before Kong Weisen, saying, “Kong, I came today to ask you for the truth. As long as you are willing to tell me the truth, this money is all yours!”

“Huh?” Kong Weisen was surprised. He quickly said, “Are you trying to con me? That seems too good to be true.”

“You don’t believe this? Alright then...” Zhao Yu started to put the money back into his wallet, while saying at the same time, “I shall leave then! After I leave, Bro Jun’s troop will come in! I heard that they are going to look for your wife in the clinic... Bye...”

“Don’t...” Kong Weisen was scared stiff, so he quickly pleaded, “Ask me anything, and I will tell you! As long as you give me the money!”

“Alright, then let me ask you!” Zhao Yu lowered his voice and asked, “Ten years ago, when your boss Xiao Guofeng’s eldest son, Feng Kuo, was arrested by the police, you, Xiao Guofeng, and Xiao Zhen testified that the three of you went to Lingyun to sell goods! Is that true?”

“Huh? What?” Kong Weisen suddenly felt that the situation wasn’t quite right.

“That’s not an answer, so does that mean that you are not accepting my offer?” Zhao Yu shook his head.

“No...” Kong Weisen looked at the money on the ground, then said, “Bro, how does this relate to my gambling debt? What are you trying to do to me?”

Zhao Yu shook his head lightly. His eyes, which were hidden behind the shades, were shimmering with an ice cold stare.

From Kong Weisen’s behavior, Zhao Yu could already tell that there was definitely something wrong with his testimony back then! Otherwise, he wouldn’t be so full of misgivings and hesitant to answer. If he spoke the truth back then, he would’ve been nodding his head now!

Zhao Yu wasn’t about to waste time with this person. He squatted on the floor, moving to put the money back into his wallet.

“Don’t... Everything can be discussed!” Kong Weisen saw that Zhao Yu was picking up the money, so he suddenly panicked. “I didn’t lie. I really did go to sell goods in Lingyun with the father and son.”

Listening to Kong Weisen, who was speaking with no moral integrity, Zhao Yu couldn’t hold back any longer. He threw a stack of cash in his face, then landed a heavy kick on his stomach!

Then, Zhao Yu raised his hand and slapped him. Kong Weisen was suddenly bleeding from his nose and mouth, his face contorted in pain!

“Ah! Don’t... Don’t hit me! Ah...” Kong Weisen was groaning now.

Zhao Yu didn't resort to hitting often, but once he did, he couldn't stop himself. He started slapping him, with no signs of stopping.

"Woo..." One of Kong Weisen's tooth fell out. He saw that Zhao Yu looked like he was going to beat him to death, so he was suddenly frightened. He quickly pleaded, "I'll tell you! Please, stop hitting me! Stop! Woo..."

Hearing that Kong Weisen was speaking with a tearful voice, Zhao Yu paused.

"Yes, I lied! I was given ten thousand to give a false testimony!" Kong Weisen cried. "I was told that Xiao Zhen went to look for a prostitute that night, and that, if the police found out, it would be embarrassing. So, he asked me to say that we all went to Lingyun together, so no one would find out! This didn't seem to be anything too big, so why wouldn't I agree?"

"Humph, nothing too big?!" Zhao Yu slapped him again. "Because of your testimony, Feng Kuo was nearly executed! Is that big enough for you?!"

"Huh? What? Feng Kuo... Xiao's eldest son? What do you mean?"

"Humph! What do I mean?!" Zhao Yu took off his cap and shades, then took out his ID and handcuffs, while shouting, "I'm taking you to the police station, where you will clarify this!"

"Huh? You..." Kong Weisen was scared stiff now. "You... Are you a policeman? My... My money... Sigh..."

Just to cover his bases, Zhao Yu had already recorded what Kong Weisen had said, using a voice recorder pen. So, he wasn't worried that Kong Weisen would deny his claims, once he got to the police station.

Right after Zhao Yu put Kong Weisen in the car, he felt that it was about time! With this latest evidence that he had found, he had finally reached the standards of having enough to bring Xiao Zhen to trial!

Hence, Zhao Yu called his colleagues to urge Liang Huan to retrieve the past evidence from the Moyang Branch. He also ordered Zhang Jingfeng, Da Fei, and the rest to arrest Xiao Guofeng and Xiao Zhen!

After he started the engine of the car, Zhao Yu shook his head and sighed with emotion. In a single night, Xiao Guofeng's family of four, plus the nursemaid and her husband, had all been brought to the police station!

This family had committed so many evil deeds in their previous life, all of which were now causing them to be bogged down with such bad luck!

Chapter 506: Who Dares to Stop Me?

Just when Zhao Yu brought the witness, Kong Weisen, into the Rongyang Branch, the Key Case Investigation Unit was a mess!

Besides Li Beini and Liang Huan, who were on the ways to the Moyang Branch to retrieve the evidence, everyone else wasn't mentally prepared, as they didn't yet understand the play that their Team Lead Zhao was staging.

The kidnap case was closed, so why did he arrest more people?

That moment, Zhao Yu received an update that Zhang Jingfeng and Da Fei had already arrested Xiao Guofeng and Xiao Zhen from Feng Kuo's home. They were now on the way to the Rongyang Branch.

In order to be fully prepared to interrogate Xiao Zhen, not only did Zhao Yu tell the police detectives to search Xiao family's information, he also told his men to do something urgent, secretly.

However, just when Zhao Yu was busy preparing, Mao Wei and Bureau Chief Luan suddenly appeared in the Team A office.

"Zhao Yu! What do you mean?" Bureau Chief Luan hadn't even entered the room, and she was already asking impatiently, "What is going on? You already got all of the limelight in the Ruyang Branch today, winning glory for us! Why can't you rest for a bit? Tell me, why are you sending out orders for an arrest? Those two persons, how are they related to us?"

"Bureau Chief Luan!" Zhao Yu stood straight and answered, "I found out that Xiao Zhen was the murderer of the Apartment Murder Case back then! Feng Kuo was wrongly imprisoned! Plus, I already have sufficient evidence to..."

"Zhao Yu! If this is so, you shouldn't be so ruthless!" Without waiting for Zhao Yu to finish, Bureau Chief Luan cut him off short. "You know very clearly that the case has been closed! And also, it wasn't even under the jurisdiction of the Rongyang Branch. What you are doing now, it is not only bypassing your higher ups, it's also humiliating your colleagues in the Ruyang Branch. Do you know that? Did you take the outcome of your actions into consideration?"

"Yeah, bro!" Mao Wei said. "Honor is hard to come by, but once you are careless, it could be destroyed overnight! Listen to me, hurry up and call Zhang! Release them! You still have enough time!"

"No way!" Zhao Yu said decisively. "I have to arrest them today, as the suspect must be interrogated today! Xiao Zhen is a careful man. If I miss out on the chance today, it'd be difficult for us to get him to admit his wrongdoing in the future!"

"Tsk tsk..." Bureau Chief Luan was quivering in anger now. "Zhao Yu, don't you understand what I mean? That case is ten years old! It has been closed! Your giving orders for an arrest is illegal! Even if you wanted to get involved, you would have to apply a step-by-step process! You are going to get into big trouble if you don't! Listen to me, stop what you're doing this instance!"

Just then, Xiao Bai suddenly ran in, panting and shouting, "Team Lead Zhao! We already arrested them, so do we send them to the interrogation room directly?"

Xiao Bai, suddenly realizing that Bureau Chief Luan was there, froze in shock, still awaiting orders.

"Alright, send them to the interrogation room!" Zhao Yu waved and said.

"No way! Let them go!" Bureau Chief Luan objected loudly. "Zhao Yu, stop making trouble, okay?! You can't deal with this, don't you know? The one who was in charge of the Apartment Murder Case was Bureau Chief Hong. What you are doing now, throws not only you, but the entire Rongyang Branch into an unfavorable situation!"

"Bro, listen to Bureau Chief Luan!" Mao Wei urged him. "Don't be so stubborn. Let's think about another way, okay? Why follow a sudden impulse?"

"I don't understand!" Zhao Yu immediately raised his eyebrows, glaring as he roared, "Feng Kuo was wrongly imprisoned, and the murderer is right before my eyes, so why is it so difficult for me to be allowed to interrogate a suspect? Isn't it our duty to find out the truth? Or, Oh, to protect the reputation and feelings of the bureau chief, we have to leave Feng Kuo in the prison? Do all of you higher ups share the same thoughts? Xiao Bai, send the suspects into the interrogation room!"

As Zhao Yu shouted, everyone was shocked!

"Team Lead..." This?!" Xiao Bai was at a loss. He looked at Bureau Chief Luan, then Zhao Yu, not daring to move an inch.

"Dangit!" Zhao Yu took up a teacup and shattered it. He then spat out, "Did you hear me or not? Bring the suspect to the interrogation room!"

Xiao Bai was shivering in terror now. He saw that Bureau Chief Luan didn't respond, so he just left with his head hung low.

"Crazy, you're crazy!" Bureau Chief Luan was angry now. "Zhao Yu, everyone here sees what happened today. If there were to be any problem in the future, you would have to take full responsibility!"

"Alright!" Zhao Yu replied in disdain. "When have I not taken responsibility? You higher ups only know how to make use of the outcomes, taking credit for the good ones, but casting aside any of the troubling ones! What you are doing is worse than a boss of charlatans! At least that boss would try to protect his underlings!"

His words were rough, but their rationale was solid. After Zhao Yu shouted this, Bureau Chief Luan was embarrassed, at a loss of words.

Zhao Yu walked past her, heading towards the interrogation room. When Zhao Yu arrived at the interrogation room, there was a bunch of people that had just come up the stairs. Zhao Yu had seen this similar scene God knows how many times.

He saw that it was none other than the municipal criminal investigation team! And, Wang Shengyao was the one leading it.

"Zhao Yu... Zhao Yu! Stop!" Once he saw Zhao Yu, Wang Shengyao quickly shouted.

Zhao Yu suddenly understood that these people had come regarding the Apartment Murder Case. They were there to stop him from reversing the verdict for Feng Kuo!

Zhao Yu stared at Mao Wei and shouted, "Mao Wei, you framed me! How dare you tell that Wang fellow?!"

"Zhao! What are you talking about?" Mao Wei was pissed. "Don't you understand? I am trying to protect you! If any more powerful higher ups find out about this, you'll be doomed! Think about it. I only did this because I treat you as my bro! What you are doing now is going to offend the higher ups, maybe even the entire Qinshan police force! Do you still think that I am framing you? So what if you can solve the case? By then, who could protect you?"

Zhao Yu sent Mao Wei a death stare, then turned around and was readying to enter the interrogation room. However, Wang Shengyao and his team had already come before him to block his way.

“Zhao Yu, you are crazy thinking about solving such old cases! You have been causing trouble at the Ruyang Branch the entire day. Are you not done yet?” Wang Shengyao shouted with an imposing manner. “Besides just causing trouble, what else do you know?”

“Wang, what do you want to do? Do you want to fight me?!” Zhao Yu said in disdain, “I, Zhao Yu, want to interrogate a suspect. How dare you block my way!”

Then, he knocked away one of the blockers rudely, continuing on his way.

“Stop him, quick!” Wang Shengyao ordered his underling to stop Zhao Yu, as he shouted at Zhao Yu, “Zhao Yu, you didn’t receive any permission to reinvestigate the case. This does not go along with the procedure! The few people that you arrested are innocent citizens. What you are doing now is committing a crime. So, not only you alone, but also the entire the Rongyang Branch will be in serious trouble!”

Unphased, Zhao Yu continued to move forward, disregarding the bunch of police detectives before him.

“Quick, stop him!” Wang Shengyao roared in anger, “At all costs, do not let him enter that interrogation room!!”

Chapter 507: Unusually Crowded

Actually, the real reason why Wang Shengyao wanted to stop Zhao Yu from reversing Feng Kuo’s verdict was merely so that he could ingratiate himself with the Bureau Chief Hong Jianrong.

The case had been handled by Bureau Chief Hong personally back then. So, if Zhao Yu were to reverse the verdict, it would indicate that Bureau Chief Hong had neglected his duties, which would affect his future greatly. Hence, Wang Shengyao wanted to settle things on behalf of the bureau chief by stopping Zhao Yu.

“Hurry up! Release the people from the interrogation room!”

Wang Shengyao was clever. He knew that, under such circumstances, they couldn’t act recklessly, but could only force Zhao Yu to launch an attack. Then, they’d have a reason to fight back.

However, although Zhao Yu was puffed up with arrogance, he still didn’t make a move! So, he ordered his underlings to release the suspect from the interrogation room. If the suspect left, Zhao Yu naturally couldn’t reinvestigate the case!

“Go ahead! I’ll see who has the guts to release the suspect!” Zhao Yu was furious. He immediately blocked the entrance of the interrogation room.

As Zhao Yu moved to block the door, Li Beini, Zhang Jingfeng, Zhang Yaohui, Xiao Bai and the rest moved to stand behind Zhao Yu.

“All of you are crazy! Zhang, Yaohui! What are you doing?” Mao Wei roared, “Step aside, all off you are only doing harm to Zhao Yu!”

"I don't care about what the rest may be doing!" Zhang Yaohui put his hands on his waist, speaking with his head held high, "This is the Rongyang Branch, and if there's no official order, no one can behave wildly here! We are investigating, so no one has any reason to stop us."

"Exactly!" Zhang Jingfeng shouted arrogantly, telling Li Beini, "Hurry up and step aside. Just in case the blood spurts all over you, when we come to blows!"

"I'm not going anywhere!" Li Beini shouted stubbornly. "How can this be happening? We only wanted to solve a case, to do justice for a victim! Why are you making it so difficult?"

"Justice?" Wang Shengyao roared. "You are reinvestigating on your own, so how is that just? And, you are asking for official orders?! I am your higher up. As such, I represent order and am now giving out an order..."

"Ah, Hero, please stay in my sweet dream..."

Just when Wang Shengyao was speaking, Zhao Yu's phone's ringtone suddenly sounded. The loud ringtone was heard across the entire stairway, making Wang Shengyao feel quite awkward.

Zhao Yu took out his phone. Although it was an unfamiliar number, he still pressed the answer button.

"Sifu, sifu!" Suddenly, on the other side of the phone, Su Jinmei was exclaiming excitedly, "Found it! You got it right! Ai Lili was really wrongly accused! The Yunzhou police found a video on the USB! The video was recorded by Le Chao himself, in order to save his life! Try to guess... Who was the mastermind behind this?"

"Mm..."

As he was listening to Su Jinmei's happy voice, he looked towards Wang Shengyao and his troops, who looked ferocious. This whole situation made Zhao Yu feel awkward.

"Save your bullshit! Go in and release the suspect! Hurry up!" Wang Shengyao couldn't care less about Zhao Yu's answering his phone, but shouted, while he immediately led his police detectives ahead.

"What the heck?! They're serious! Block them!" Zhang Jingfeng, Zhang Yaohui, and the rest quickly formed a human barricade, blocking the door tightly.

"Da da da da!" On the phone, Su Jinmei suddenly told Zhao Yu playfully, "It was Chen Bingguang's brother, Chen Bingxian! He clearly said it in the video! And, Le Chao also recorded a video of himself, explaining the cause and effect of the entire story..."

At that moment, a police detective quickly dashed before Zhao Yu, knocking into him!

"Hey? That doesn't sound quite right. Sifu... Sifu?" On the phone, Su Jinmei heard something, then quickly asked, "Sifu, what's going on on your side? Why is it so noisy? Are you okay?"

That person, who had knocked into Zhao Yu, now held onto Zhao Yu's neck, attempting to drag him aside. Zhao Yu twisted his body to swing him out. Then, he held his phone and replied, "It's okay. I'm just fighting a war! Let's chat later?"

“Don’t hang up. Tell me, what’s going on?” Su Jinmei spoke in a hurried voice. “Maybe I’ll be able to help!”

Zhao Yu creased his eyebrows and thought to himself.

Disciple, you can’t help me with this!

Then, another two police detectives dashed forward to grab Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu couldn’t fight them, so he had no choice but to knock the person away, using his shoulder. Then, he lifted his leg to knock the other one away.

“Disciple, it’s a long story!” Zhao Yu sighed. “I think... I’ll hang up first!”

“Don’t, Sifu, tell me, is it the case that you are investigating? Tell me! I’ll solve it for you!”

Su Jinmei was persistent, and Zhao Yu was embarrassed to hang up the phone. So, he could only fight against the police detectives from the municipal police station, while he attempted to tell Su Jinmei the situation. He said that he had originally wanted to investigate the case, but had run into some trouble.

“Oh... If it’s about the police station, that’d be easy! I thought you ran into an enemy or something! You gave me a shock!” Su Jinmei spoke as though a weight had been lifted off of her shoulders.

Zhao Yu found this ridiculous, debunking the misconception immediately. “I’d rather run into an enemy! Then, I could at least fight them with all my heart!”

“Alright, Sifu. Let me take care of this! Just you wait.” Su Jinmei hung up the phone.

“Wait? Wait for what?!” Zhao Hu shook his head in distress. The newly accepted disciple always spoke so confusingly. She was merely an admin trainee, who hadn’t even been confirmed. He had to wonder how she thought could she possibly help with his situation.

Zhao Yu suddenly thought about Miao Ying...

If my dear Miao Ying were here, she could guarantee that Wang Shengyao and his troop would scurry off, like frightened rats, with just one phone call!

Unfortunately, she had to go hunting in some place without cell service. I can’t even get ahold of her for the entire day!

At that very moment, Wang Shengyao’s entire troop dashed forward, knocking Zhang Jingfeng and the rest down. Zhao Yu quickly swung his arms to knock a few of the assailants down. The other party, seeing the ferocious look in Zhao Yu’s eyes, dared not create a head-on collision. In an instant, all of them were dodging one another crazily.

“Go! Go! We have so many people with us. I don’t believe that we can even enter the interrogation room!” Wang Shengyao was scrambling about with arrogance and anger.

“Stop! Stop! What is going on?”

Just when both parties were knocking each other like bulls, there was another loud and bright voice that came from the stairway. Everyone turned around to look. They saw that the municipal vice bureau chief Liao Jingxian and the criminal investigation captain Feng Xiao had arrived.

“Zhao Yu! Wang! Hurry up and stop this nonsense!” Liao Jingxian quickly came before them, roaring, “If news of this were to spread, the Qinshan police team would be embarrassed! What are all of you doing? Ah... Ah...”

Just when Liao Jingxian bellowed and came before Zhao Yu, he suddenly jerked twice, then fell on the ground abruptly. After he fell, he then covered his chest with his hands and groaned in pain, “I’m...Having....A heart attack...”

The police detectives were all frightened. Mao Wei quickly got to the front of the crowd and roared, “What are you all just standing there for? Call the ambulance! Hurry up!”

As Mao Wei shouted, the police detectives were preparing to make a call. However, Zhao Yu pushed Mao Wei aside, shouting abruptly, “Hold on, hold on...”

Then, Zhao Yu pouted and squatted before Liao Jingxian. He creased his eyebrows and said, “Liao, hey, don’t you think that you’re going a little overboard? You are a higher up, so isn’t this a little inappropriate? You can’t pull off a slip and fall scam.”

“Dang!” After being outed by Zhao Yu, Liao Jingxian suddenly sat straight up, shocking everyone.

“Zhao Yu!” Liao Jingxian pointed at Zhao Yu and scolded, “You jerk! Can’t you tell that I’m trying to find you an escape route? How dare you reveal my tricks?!”

Then, Liao Jingxian swept off the dust on his body, as though there was no one else there. However, every police detective, all of whom were still standing by the side, were dumbstruck. Every one of them just gawked, their mouths wide open!

Chapter 508: Huge Pressure

“Aiya, Liao!” Captain Feng Xiao creased his eyebrows and complained, “What are you doing? Is there a need for that? That is so embarrassing!”

Then, he beckoned the police officers from the municipal station to move aside, while he walked towards Zhao Yu, speaking with indignation, “Zhao Yu, I hope you understand. It’s not that you can’t reverse the verdict of the case, but rather that you must hand in your evidence first, then let the higher ups check it!”

He continued. “Right now, you are attempting to make an arrest, without following the proper procedure! As such, even if the higher ups approve, it wouldn’t be the Rongyang’s Branch right to get involved, since the case took place under the jurisdiction of the Moyang Branch. So, even if it was reinvestigated, it would have to be them doing it!”

“Captain, I didn’t say that I wanted to reverse the verdict for someone else.” Zhao Yu suddenly changed his story, saying, “After all, wasn’t I in charge of the kidnapping case earlier? Although we caught the suspect and saved the hostage, the case technically hasn’t ended yet. Now that I have found a new clue, I have the right to continue to try the case! Hence, that shouldn’t be a problem, right?”

“You! How could you be so unreasonable?!” Feng Xiao was stunned. “The kidnapping case is the kidnapping case, and the Apartment Murder Case is the Apartment Murder Case! How can you try to mix the two cases together?”

“I didn’t mix them.” Zhao Yu debated. “I suspect that Feng Lin’s whole family is involved in the little girl’s kidnapping. So, I have to clarify the truth! Also, the case report has yet to be completed, so I still have the right to investigate the case, correct?”

“You... You...” Feng Kuo, never having thought that Zhao Yu would exploit the loophole of the connection between the two cases, was suddenly at loss for words.

“Zhao Yu, why are you being so stubborn?” Liao Jingxian sent an eye signal to Zhao Yu. “Don’t forget that your application to be an investigator is still in progress. You have a mission that is more important than this!”

“Liao, just shut up!” Zhao Yu spoke with his head held high, “If this case can’t be solved, then how could I solve the other big cases?”

“Zhao Yu, stop being so stubborn!” Feng Kuo pointed at Zhao Yu and said, “Don’t you think that you can just do anything you wish, simply because you solved the Mianling case and found the Golden Buddha treasure! As a police officer, you still have to obey commands, and solving a case requires following appropriate procedures! So, regarding today’s case, you can’t touch it!”

As Feng Xiao said this, the police officers from the municipal police station were puffed up again, immediately preparing to launch another offensive.

“Alright! Come on!” Zhao Yu looked as though he wasn’t bothered, then said, “Come over, if you have the guts! As long as I am still standing, I will investigate the case, until the very end!”

“You!” Feng Xiao was raging with anger now. He raised his hands, preparing to beckon his underlings to launch another attack.

Liao Jingxian naturally didn’t want to see the situation worsen, so he quickly mediated between them. Unfortunately, both parties were firm with their standpoints and unwilling to compromise. Thus, it seemed like a second wave of collision was inevitable.

However, unexpectedly, there was another huge turning point at the scene...

“Stop! All of you, stop!” Another loud voice rang out, as there was another bunch of people that approached from the stairway.

Everyone turned around and looked. They couldn’t help but let out exclamations and think...

Alright! This is getting really crowded!

The voice belonged to the highest leader of the Qinshan police, Bureau Chief Hong Jianrong! Also in the group, was Bureau Chief Luan Xiaoxiao, as well as many higher ups from the municipal police station. Looking from afar, the group appeared to be a huge troop, almost like a mighty army!

Looking at the large amount of people, Zhao Yu was upset.

That's not right. I didn't get a "Kun" hexagram today. Why would there be such a great scene happening?

When Bureau Chief Hong arrived at the scene personally, Wang Shengyao suddenly sat straight up. From what he saw, he thought his hard work had finally paid off, and that now, Bureau Chief Hong would look at him in a different light. Plus, it was inevitable that Bureau Chief Hong would have to punish Zhao Yu severely for his actions!

However, Bureau Chief Hong came before him, uttering just one sentence, which sent Wang Shengyao nearly falling on the ground!

Bureau Chief Hong told Feng Xiao, "Captain Feng, quickly tell your men to leave. This is completely unreasonable!"

"Huh? What?" Feng Xiao was stunned, not understanding what Bureau Chief Hong meant.

Wang Shengyao intended to speak, but when he saw Bureau Chief Hong's solemn look, he had no choice but to keep his mouth shut.

"Xiao Feng!" Bureau Chief Hong walked towards Zhao Yu slowly, then told Feng Kuo, who was behind him, "I am also from the criminal investigation unit, so I can understand this more than you. Being a criminal investigator ain't easy! Such cases determine one's fate, after all! If a trial is handled wrongly, it could ruin many lives, and there would be endless trouble in store for all!"

Then, Bureau Chief Hong turned towards Zhao Yu and said, "Police Officer Zhao! You did it right! You did well! We criminal police only want to find out the truth, regardless of how ugly that truth is!"

"Bureau Chief Hong..." Feng Xiao had never expected that Bureau Chief Hong would say such selfless things. He wanted to persuade Bureau Chief Hong otherwise, but he couldn't.

Wang Shengyao looked extremely listless!

"Actually..." Bureau Chief Hong looked at Zhao Yu, then said, "Regarding the case, I had my doubts, too! But, unfortunately, there seemed to be conclusive proof and clear evidence. Also, besides Feng Kuo, there was no other suspect! Police Officer Zhao, where did I do wrong? Please enlighten me!"

Then, Bureau Chief Hong pointed towards the interrogation room, making a pleading gesture by folding his hands together. Then, the scene was quiet.

Zhao Yu had originally thought that Wang Shengyao had caused such a mess, because he was instigated by Bureau Chief Hong. But, from what he saw now, Wang Shengyao was only trying to suck up to Bureau Chief Hong.

He had never expected a bureau chief to be so broad-minded! Seeing this, Zhao Yu felt great respect for Bureau Chief Hong.

"Go! Leave!"

Feng Xiao quickly disbanded the troop of police officers from the municipal station. But, he stayed back with Wang Shengyao. They wanted to see how would Zhao Yu would reverse the verdict for Feng Kuo.

Zhao Yu felt the pressure upon him increase tremendously! If Xiao Zhen plead guilty, he might be alright. But, if he didn't, his situation would be precarious indeed!

Although Bureau Chief Hong had already agreed to reverse the verdict for Feng Kuo, if the truth couldn't be revealed, he wouldn't have a second chance! Plus, many had been wanting to make fun of Zhao Yu, waiting for him to fail.

If he failed to reverse the verdict, he would become an object of public criticism, doomed forever! Furthermore, due to the shortness of time, he didn't have full confidence in his ability to make Xiao Zhen plead guilty!

Zhao Yu knew that Xiao Zhen was a careful person, who was also very smart. If he did not have any conclusive proof, how could he easily convince him to plead guilty?

Chapter 509: Turned Out To Be So?

Like the saying goes, "the arrow is fitted to the string, and there is no turning back." As of that moment, Zhao Yu could only go along with the interrogation standard of Miao Ying, which was, basically, fake it till you make it!

Currently, Bureau Chief Hong was leading the group of important officials into the monitor room next door, waiting excitedly to see how Zhao Yu would resolve the murder case that had been closed ten years ago.

After Zhao Yu entered the interrogation room, Lan Bo passed a stack of documents into Zhao Yu's hands, informed him of something at the same time, which led Zhao Yu to nod with satisfaction. Lan Bo then left the interrogation room.

After that, only Zhao Yu and Xiao Zhen were left in the interrogation room. Although it was noisy outside, due to perfect soundproofing that had been installed in the interrogation room, the suspect Xiao Zhen had zero idea of what had happened outside earlier.

Xiao Zhen knew Zhao Yu already, so he had a strong impression of him. Suddenly, when he saw that the very one that was coming in to interrogate him was the mad detective himself, his facial expression grew instantly stiff.

"Cough cough..."

Zhao Yu started the conversation with a cough, then put the stack of documents on the table, preparing to start the interrogation. Just when everyone was looking forward to Zhao Yu's interrogation, Zhao Yu's phone suddenly rang. This was pretty much the worst timing! Zhao Yu recognized the number as Su Jinmei's, again.

"Ah. Hero, please chase after my sweet dream with me..."

Originally, Zhao Yu wanted to simply not answer, but the ringtone was too ear-piercing, causing him to answer it in the end.

"Sifu? How are things? Are you all done?" Su Jinmei couldn't wait to ask.

“Mm... You could consider it done, I guess!” Zhao Yu blushed with shame. He didn’t know how the higher ups, who were monitoring the interrogation, would feel about this call.

“Hehehe... I told you! I can help you with that!” Su Jinmei said again. “Then... Do you have time to listen to me now? Captain Zhang already arrested Chen Bingxian, and he confessed everything about him contracting a killer! Ai Lili, she...”

Zhao Yu creased his eyebrows, then said, “Disciple, I am interrogating a suspect now! I’ll call you later, okay?”

Su Jinmei pondered a moment, then said, “That’s a pity. Sifu, the next time you are interrogating a criminal, please let me know, okay? I need to learn from you...”

“Alright, next time!... Ummm.....There’s no more signal in the interrogation room... I can’t really hear you. Bye...”

Beep...

Zhao Yu finally hung up the phone. He had never expected that his disciple, who looked so timid, would turn out to be so talkative!

Thinking about the bunch of higher ups, who were looking closely at him from the other side of the window, Zhao Yu couldn’t help but lift his head to take a look. He reckoned that the higher ups were all sweating, just as he was!

“Alright, alright!” Zhao Yu coughed, then finally took a seat before Xiao Zhen. He then said, “Excuse me for the call earlier! Let us begin! Xiao Zhen, do you know why you have been arrested today?”

“Po... Police officer...” Xiao Zhen looked at Zhao Yu nervously, but he didn’t shake or nod his head.

“Good, very good!” Zhao Yu waved his hand casually, then said, “Xiao Zhen, you have most likely watched quite a bit of legal TV shows, so you would know that a person who committed a crime would need to pay a price eventually. It would just be a matter of time until they are caught, you understand?! I wonder if you are mentally prepared for this?”

As Zhao Yu spoke, Xiao Zhen’s body shivered uncontrollably. He looked down quietly, not daring to look Zhao Yu in his eyes, and definitely not replying to Zhao Yu’s question.

“I prefer to get straight to the point,” Zhao Yu said. “Let me tell you the entire story of how you killed Liu Jiao, then framed Feng Kuo for the crime! Then, you can evaluate whether or not it is identical to what you actually did back then.”

Hearing this, Xiao Zhen displayed an intense level of anxiety that was hard to cover. There was already a cold sweat that was dripping along his sideburns.

“Ten years ago, you were in a relationship with a Water Conservancy College student named Ai Lili, who you would often bring to your home to roll around in your bedsheets,” Zhao Yu said lightly. “I’m guessing, as a boy that was in your first bloom of love, you were utterly charmed by her! In fact, I think that you really did truly like her!”

He continued. "However, because you really liked and cared for her, you couldn't stand her complimenting your brother, saying that he looked good in his photo! In the end, due to your injured pride, you threw a tantrum and fought with Ai Lili!"

"After a while, you felt that you had done wrong. You wanted to apologize to Ai Lili to patch things up with her. But, when you went to do so, you came upon a scene that was enough to break you down! You saw the girl that you liked, lying beneath your brother, Feng Kuo..."

As he listened, Xiao Zhen was rubbing his body nervously, looking extremely upset. The higher ups in the monitoring room were also in shock! No one would have guessed that there was such hidden resentment between the brothers back then.

"In that moment, you were reduced to despair. Your heart was then filled with hatred, which was derived from love, and anger, which was derived from that hatred. You hated Feng Kuo for taking away the one thing that you loved the most!" Zhao Yu continued to speak sharply, "So, you started planning your revenge on your brother, who was better looking than you! He took away your woman, so you wanted to take away his! You were determined to make Feng Kuo pay for his evil deed!"

Zhao Yu then took out the first piece of evidence. It was Feng Kuo's testimony. Feng Kuo certified that he had once brought Xiao Zhen to the film studio, and that Xiao Zhen had known about him and Liu Jiao.

"It's just too bad that your plan wasn't perfect!" Zhao Yu shook his head and said. "However, you certainly did think it through. You prepared two daggers that looked exactly the same, but you only nailed the handle, without putting glue on it..."

"Then, you tricked Feng Kuo into leaving his fingerprint on the hilt! Once you were all done with these preparations, you could then finally carry out your revenge plan!"

"That day, you found out Feng Kuo's schedule, then managed to kill Liu Jiao during the time frame when Feng Kuo had just finished filming, so that no one could prove where he was!"

"You went to Liu Jiao's apartment, and because you said that you were Feng Kuo's brother, she let her guard down and opened the door for you! However, you directly killed Liu Jiao with another dagger!"

"The killing was very fast, as Liu Jiao almost had no time at all to resist! But, there was another thing that you didn't think about!" Zhao Yu took out the photo with the blood stain of the ice radical, then showed him. "You failed to see that, while Liu Jiao wasn't out of breath yet, she wrote the ice radical with her finger, in blood!"

He continued. "All this time, the police thought that the ice radical represented 'Feng' from Feng Kuo. No one guessed that it actually meant 'brother!'"

"Huh?!" Xiao Zhen lifted his head, looking at Zhao Yu in disbelief.

"This is one of many mistakes. If Feng Kuo's surname wasn't Feng, or if Liu Jiao could have persisted and completed what she had intended to write, the one sitting in Qinnan Prison would be you!"

"No... No..." Xiao Zhen muttered, but his voice wasn't confident at all.

"No what?" Zhao Yu challenged. "After you killed her, you brought the weapon, with the blood still on it, and returned it to Feng Kuo's bedroom. Then, you removed the blade that had the blood stain on it, then changed it with the dagger with Feng Kuo's fingerprint. Thus, there was a perfect weapon, left right before the investigators' eyes!"

"Huh!?" At that very moment, when Bureau Chief Hong, who was still in the monitoring room, heard Zhao Yu's speculation, he shivered in terror, as though he had been struck by lightning. He then murmured, "I mean... I couldn't understand it back then, why the murderer would bring the weapon home. As it turns out... It is like this?! They are a family of carpenters!"

Chapter 510: End of the Crime Case

"Just when your brother was arrested, you suddenly realized that the weapon might expose you," Zhao Yu continued. "So, you looked to your dad for an alibi!"

"About this, I have no idea what exactly you said to your dad. But, I know the final outcome of your discussion. Your father used ten thousand dollars to buy off the driver, Kong Weisen, convincing him to give a false testimony. Because he claimed that all of you were in Lingyun, and only returned to Qinshan after the crime, you were removed from the suspect list."

Then, Zhao Yu played the edited voice recording of Kong Weisen. Upon hearing the voice recording, Xiao Zhen's mental defences collapsed, sending his body into shivers of terror.

"Xiao Zhen, in order to take revenge on your brother, you killed the innocent Liu Jiao. You then caused Feng Kuo to stay behind bars for ten years. Moreover, your mother, Feng Lin, had a cerebral hemorrhage, and your father remains to this day in a constant state of anxiety. I'd like to ask you, during these past ten years, have you really felt at okay with yourself?" Then, Zhao Yu finally threw the last document before Xiao Zhen, saying, "Take a look yourself! This is the evidence! What else do you have to say?"

There was a photo at the front page of the document. It was the photo of the weapon.

"Although ten years have passed, the evidence doesn't vanish easily!" Zhao Yu said this loud and clear. "The expert has already certified that there was an obvious trace of dismantlement, and also that, in the gap of the nail on the dagger, they found skin cells that didn't belong to Feng Kuo!"

He continued. "Ten years ago, Touch DNA was not popular yet, so you managed to make a narrow escape. But, don't think that you can escape any further! Take a good look at it!" Zhao Yu flipped the document to its last page, then said solemnly, "The result of the examination clearly reveals that the skin cells match yours, completely!"

"Ah!" Xiao Zhen was shocked, suddenly feeling a buzz in his head. He was so distraught, he nearly fainted.

Zhao Yu saw that he had arrived at the most crucial moment, so he stopped talking. Then, he just sat on the chair and waited.

Actually, Zhao Yu was quite nervous himself. He knew that, if Xiao Zhen could still clench his teeth and hold on, whatever effort that he had put in earlier, might still be in vain!

However, what Zhao Yu was really worried about did not happen. This could be because Xiao Zhen was mentally prepared, or because the suspect's mental defenses were broken down by Zhao Yu.

Regardless, in the next six or seven minutes, Xiao Zhen finally stopped shivering. He lifted his head slowly, then said, "Actually... Actually... After my brother was put behind bars, I already regretted everything!"

Then, Xiao Zhen gazed upon the ceiling. After keeping quiet for another dozen seconds, he continued, "I thought that, after I sent my brother to prison, Ai Lili would come back me! But, when I looked for her in school, I saw her getting in an old man's luxurious car, and..."

Then, Xiao Zhen's tears began to flow freely from his eyes...

"Police officer! It's all my fault. All of this, for a girl that wasn't even worth liking. For this, I ruined my whole family... It's all my fault! Woo..."

Finally, Xiao Zhen couldn't hold back any longer. He cried his heart out, releasing the emotions that he had suppressed for ten years. He wailed bitterly, crying out in anguish.

Looking at Xiao Zhen, drenched in tears, Zhao Yu finally let out a breath of relief, then slouched against his chair, as though a heavy weight had been lifted from his shoulders. That very moment, behind the window in the monitoring room, the troop of higher ups could only remain silent. It was unusually quiet at the scene.

Bureau Chief Hong was in deep thought. Then, he finally nodded and said, "It's my mistake! If I could have been like Zhao Yu was back then, I would have pondered more about everything, and would have been more careful. Then, maybe this case of injustice wouldn't have happened! It's hard to absolve myself from blame!"

"Bureau Chief Hong, there's no blame on one person!" Feng Xiao advised. "The case seems easy, but in actual fact, it was very complicated! The blood stain, the weapon, the testimony, combining all these factors, regardless of who was the killer, anyone would have treated Feng Kuo as the main suspect!"

"Feng, these are all just excuses!" Bureau Chief Hong said. "Regardless of when it is made, a momentary oversight is still unforgivable! Mine was a vital mistake! Regarding this, I would report this truthfully, and hand it in to my higher ups. By then, I would definitely resign and receive my punishment! In the future, I hope that no one would make the same mistake!"

"Bureau Chief Hong..." Feng Xiao lowered his head quietly.

Since Zhao Yu was a team lead, after Xiao Zhen pleaded guilty, the follow-up interrogation tasks could be taken over by the lower level, normal police detectives. After passing off this task, Zhao Yu came to the corridor outside of the interrogation room. At the same time, Bureau Chief Hong exited the monitoring room with the troop.

Bureau Chief Hong sped up to catch up to Zhao Yu, then shook his hand. He spoke emotionally, "Police Officer Zhao Yu, I have been involved in criminal investigation my entire professional life, but this is the first time that I have come across such an interesting settlement of a case. It is absolutely wonderful, and such an eye-opener! I concede defeat, from the bottom of my heart!"

“You flatter me!” Zhao Yu smiled faintly. “And, since you have brought it up, I’d like to tell you that I am only looking for the truth, not intending directing blame against anyone. So, I hope Bureau Chief Hong could discipline your underlining so that they wouldn’t pick at me, especially that mister vice captain!”

“Zhao Yu, you...” Wang Shengyao suddenly blushed with anger. He never thought that Zhao Yu would complain about him so boldly.

“Hehe... Quibbling over every detail and seeking revenge for petty grievances!” Bureau Chief Hong was still holding Zhao Yu’s hand as he spoke. “Now, I understand why you could solve so many pending and significant cases! The courageous ones have no fear, only unshakeable faith! I wish the Qinshan Police league had more talents like you, Police Officer Zhao!”

“You flatter me again. But, honestly speaking, if I were to be a vice captain, I could definitely do a better job than Wang!” Zhao Yu joked playfully again, making Wang Shengyao burn with rage.

“Alright, Police Officer Zhao. Thank you for the lively lessons today!” Bureau Chief Hong said. “Regarding this case, I will contact the related departments and immediately proceed with the reinvestigation, on order to reverse the verdict for Feng Kuo! I will also take a good look at myself, refusing to overlook my own wrongdoings! You are right, when you say that our duty is to reveal the truth and serve justice! From today onwards, I hope that all police officers could look at you as their role model!”

Then, Bureau Chief Hong turned around, ready to make a move. However, simultaneously, there was another person that ran over from afar. That person was Liang Huan, who had gone to get evidence from the Moyang Branch.

Liang Huan hadn’t seen the troop of higher ups, but had seen Zhao Yu only. So, when he ran over, he reported to Zhao Yu impatiently, “Zhao, Zhao! I took the weapon! Haha, look at the effort that I have put in... Mm... Mm?!”

As he was talking, Liang Huan had already opened the box that he had brought with him, where they had stored the dagger. But, he suddenly saw that there were many higher ups there. Realizing that something was odd, he quickly covered the box.

“Evidence? Weapon? Dagger...” Wang Shengyao wasn’t stupid. He put two and two together, suddenly becoming extremely upset. He pointed at the interrogation room and said, “You just brought it here? Oh... You... How dare you forge evidence... Just now, it was all fake! You... All of you have some guts...”

“Hahaha...” When he heard this, Bureau Chief Hong laughed hysterically, shaking his head as he complimented, “Superb, extremely superb! Hahaha...”

Then, Bureau Chief Hong led his troop and left, laughing all the way out.

“Hey? Evidence forgery? How do we deal with this?” Wang Shengyao just wouldn’t give up, but Captain Feng Xiao patted his shoulder lightly, pulling him away.

“Wow!” After those people left, Zhao Yu finally let out a relieved breath. He then spat out, “Liang, I nearly died because of you!”

“Team lead...” Zhao Yu had yet to reproach him, when Xiao Bai suddenly pushed open the interrogation room door...

Oh?

Zhao Yu creased his eyebrows lightly, as he wondered..

Why is Xiao Zhen looking for me?
