

Crazy 531

Chapter 531: New Devices

In a Taekwondo Studio.

A white shadow flashed! Zhao Yu was knocked back several feet by Lei Bin's whirlwind kick.

"Zhao Yu, if I don't send you to the ICU today, my name is not Lei!" Lei Bin clenched his teeth and roared. "Last time, you used your dirty tricks! How dare you come here again today?"

As Lei Bin spoke, Zhao Yu had already gotten up from the ground and was charging at him again. Learning from the previous tragic lesson, Lei Bin dared not delay this time, quickly assuming a posture to greet his enemy's attack.

Zhao Yu dashed over like a raging bull. Lei Bin saw that Zhao Yu's front was wide open, so he immediately snorted in disdain. He then raised his long legs and gave Zhao Yu a slam on his head.

He had been training for a dozen years and had already achieved the level of breaking bricks and stones! He thought that, with that slam, he could knock Zhao Yu out completely!

Bang!

Along with the loud thud, Lei Bin slammed his hand down heavily on Zhao Yu's head! Theoretically, with such a strong force, Zhao Yu should have been slammed onto the ground and knocked out!

However, Lei Bin was surprised to see that, not only was Zhao Yu not on the ground, but he had merely shaken faintly, due to being caught off balance for a moment. Zhao Yu bellowed and continued to dash forward ferociously!

Lei Bin didn't manage to respond in time, as he was frozen in such a frightened state. Then, he was suddenly knocked by Zhao Yu. Luckily, Zhao Yu was quick to act and seized the chance to grab Lei Bin's right leg, flipping him into the air. Then, Zhao Yu gripped the ground, and exerted his full arm strength to start spinning Lei Bin like a top.

"Ah..." Lei Bin was yelping in fear, when his bunch of disciples quickly came to the rescue. Zhao Yu let go of his grip, then threw Lei Bin towards the group of people. After another loud thud, Lei Bin was like a bowling ball, landing heavily on his disciples, then scattering them all around!

Zhao Yu didn't give them any breathing space but dashed into the crowd like a mad man immediately. As he made his way, he hit anyone that he came across!

Due to Miao Ying's sudden departure, Zhao Yu flared up with violence and grief! He had nowhere to vent his emotions. But, after he barged in, he was like a tiger that had run into a flock of sheep! He kicked and punched haphazardly, causing chaos. Great wailing was heard among the crowd.

However, their Taekwondo disciples did have actual fighting experience, after all. So, at the same time that Zhao Yu was beating them up, they also found quite a number of opportunities to launch counterattacks.

However, Zhao Yu was like a man made of metal. Oblivious of their punches and kicks, Zhao Yu didn't respond at all!

The disciples were terrified, having many thoughts that were running through their minds.

Could this be the legendary devil muscle man?!

In a few minutes, the Taekwondo disciples lost their power of resistance. As such, they were beaten black and blue, rolling around as they wailed in pain.

But, looking at Zhao Yu and his bloodshot eyes, he appeared as though he had just gotten to the climax of his energy and experience. He grabbed Lei Bin by his Taekwondo uniform, landing ferocious punches on his face.

After five or six punches, Lei Bei's whole face was once again lacerated and contorted in pain. He was absolutely covered in blood!

Looking at Zhao Yu, seeing that he didn't have any intention to hold back his fists, Lei Bin then knelt on the ground and shouted, spitting the blood in his mouth all over. "Hero, it's my fault! Spare my life... I... I will never do that again..."

Pak...

Zhao Yu gave him a tight slap on his lips, then Lei Bin fell to the ground.

Zhao Yu spat and stepped on Lei Bin's back. He said viciously, "I wanted to talk nicely to you, but you had to go and try to show off. Didn't you want to act all high and mighty? Where did your spirit go?"

"It's my fault, my bad..." Lei Bin lied prostrate on the ground, quivering as he spoke. "It's my fault, hero! I really don't know where Miao Ying is. Although we trained at the same place, I've never once seen her parents. She has always been alone! I only saw someone, who drove a Cadillac, pick her up... But, I really don't know who they are!"

Zhao Yu wiped away the blood stain from the corner of his lips and roared, "Why didn't you say this earlier? Tell me, who would know Miao Ying's family situation?"

"My master might, but... My master has already passed away!" Lei Bin spoke in a tearful voice.

"Alright, in a few days, I'll come and fight with all of you again. Then, we'll see what we can learn from each other," Zhao Yu bellowed viscously. "By then, if you still say you don't know, I will destroy your entire place!"

Zhao Yu staggered as he left the Taekwondo studio. After Zhao Yu left, one of the disciples said worrisomely, "Master, why don't we close down the studio for a bit..."

Returning to the Landrover, Zhao Yu first wiped off the blood stains on his face, then rinsed his mouth with mineral water. Although Lei Bin and his disciples were brutally crushed by Zhao Yu, the injuries that Zhao Yu himself suffered were by no means mild!

In fact, if it wasn't for the Energy Booster, it would have been impossible for him to have really defeated Lei Bin. That very moment, after the Energy Booster had worn off, all of his limbs ached, and many of his joints had even been dislocated. Moreover, his wounds were sending spasms of pain throughout his entire body.

Zhao Yu touched his head and cursed, while he thought to himself.

It seems like Lei Bin's connection was no good! I still couldn't get any info about Miao Ying's family!

He then pondered about what Lei Bin had said.

It seems like, when Miao Ying was very young, she was already keenly aware of how protective about privacy her family was. Going to school and going to training, she was always protected and closely guarded by her family.

No wonder Miao Ying didn't have many friends!

After getting into a relationship with Miao Ying, Zhao Yu could sometimes feel that Miao Ying would unintentionally show an unknown wistful sadness on her face, as though her childhood had been extremely lonely and she was remembering it.

Thus, it could be seen that Miao Ying's family situation was definitely extraordinary. She had an amazing mother and a mysterious father, both of whom were rich and powerful. This made him wonder who exactly her family was.

As Lei Bin won't work, what other clues can I go after?

Zhao Yu took out his notebook, thinking of a strategy. He prepared to try his luck at the European restaurant. Back then, Miao Ying once treated all of her colleagues to a luxurious dinner in the restaurant, which was filled with foreign waiters.

This choice was not only about the expensive price tag, but also about prestige and status, as it was extremely difficult to book a table there. It normally required making a reservation two to three months in advance to secure a table!

But, Miao Ying had merely made one phone call, and the restaurant prepared the best table on the rooftop for them! So, Zhao Yu wanted to check with the manager of the restaurant in hopes that he would know something about Miao Ying's situation.

However, before starting the car, Zhao Yu thought about the Energy Booster that he had consumed. Suddenly, a new idea popped into his head. He slapped his head and blamed himself silently.

I am so silly! I have so many magical devices in my head! Why didn't I think of using these devices to look for Miao Ying sooner?

Then, he quickly tapped open the device bar and looked through the devices in it. Since the previous Qian Kan hexagram had ended, not only had he achieved a high completion rate of one hundred and eighty-three percent, but he had also gotten five new devices!

Due to Miao Ying's disappearance, he had yet to check in greater detail. That very moment after he looked, he realized that the five devices were new and had never appeared before! Among the five, there were three normal devices, one level one device, and one special device!

The three normal devices were the Invisible Microscope, which could carry out the function of a microscope, the Invisible Odor Bomb, which would release smelly gas, and the Invisible Spring Launcher, which would allow someone to jump very high up and very far away.

Added to those, the level one device was also quite interesting. It was called the Teeth Regenerator. After activation, it could grow another new tooth in the location of an absent tooth! With the device, Zhao Yu never would need to worry about being punched and losing his teeth!

The last special device was called the Emergency Alarm. According to the introduction, once the user was approaching any life-threatening danger, the alarm would be automatically triggered as a warning.

It was considered a special device because the method of using it was similar to the Invisible Heart Pacemaker. In other words, it would be automatically activated when it was needed. For instance, should Zhao Yu ever run into danger, like someone making an attempt on his life, the alarm would alert him immediately!

Chapter 532: Pandora's Magic Box

Although the newly obtained system devices were great, none of them could help Zhao Yu look for Miao Ying. Looking across the device bar, Zhao Yu thought that there were only two devices that might be useful. One was the Invisible Tracker, and the other one was the Hacker's Command.

The Invisible Tracker was similar to a dog's nose. After putting it to use, Zhao Yu might be able to follow Miao Ying's scent. He would then be able to follow the route that she had taken.

However, Zhao Yu had already used the device, back when he was chasing after Le Chao in the Falling Off Building Case. As for the Hacker's Command, Zhao Yu assumed that the device could search for Miao Ying's information online. However, after he looked into the introduction carefully, he realized that the device could only function on a formulated memory, which was not suitable for the internet.

Plus, even if the Hacker's Command was efficient for online purposes, Zhao Yu dared not use it recklessly. After all, if Miao Ying's family was in danger, the hacker invasion could expose their secret, forcing them into an even more dangerous situation. Hence, it seemed like the system device wouldn't help much.

However, Zhao Yu still wasn't disheartened. Although the device wasn't functional, his system was still there for his use! As long as the magical miracle system was there, he still had his chance to find Miao Ying.

Then, Zhao Yu suddenly realized that he had been so busy looking for Miao Ying, he totally forgotten to get another new hexagram! Hence, he quickly redirected his focus to obtain a new hexagram from the system interface. In the end, the system gave him another Zhen Li hexagram.

Generally speaking, every time Zhao Yu solved a case, a Zhen hexagram, which represented position, would be given. However, the hexagram that he wanted to see the most was the Kan hexagram, which represented romance and a woman! Only with the Kan hexagram would allow him the possibility of finding Miao Ying.

In great disappointment, Zhao Yu placed all of his hopes on the side quest. However, when Zhao Yu had resolved it, he realized that the time of the side quest was nine in the morning, which had past long ago!

Zhao Yu slammed his fists on the steering wheel.

I never expected that the side quest wouldn't care what time I got the hexagram! It was obviously prearranged long ago. As such, I would never be able to make it on time, since I got the hexagram late!

He determined that, from tomorrow onwards, since he wanted to find Miao Ying through the system, he had to get a hexagram very early each day, then complete the side quest accordingly. Although the system couldn't always be counted on to be super consistent, Zhao Yu was determined to not give up.

Moving forward, he was still looking for clues regarding Miao Ying. Firstly, he gave Section Chief Su Yang, who worked in the provincial office, a call, requesting his help. Then, he made a trip to the restaurant that they had visited overseas.

But, the restaurant manager explained that they normally dealt online with the a card being used as payment and identification versus actually dealing with the card owner. As Miao Ying possessed the VIP card of their restaurant, she hadn't needed to prebook to get a table in person.

Zhao Yu still didn't give up hope. He had them check on the information from the card registration. However, the information had been erased completely.

Zhao Yu then went to the martial art studio and beauty salon that he had been to with Miao Ying to see if there was any news. However, it was all in vain.

Miao Ying seemed to have vanished into thin air. Not only was she physically lost, even the traces that she left in the world had been erased completely!

The phrase "give up" had never appeared in Zhao Yu's life dictionary before, and he wasn't about to start using it now! In the end, he even found Hu Bin, who let him collect Miao Ying's fingerprint and hair samples from his Phaeton. He then was able to identity them from the DNA database.

That night, he even told Blondie and his gang to look at all of the train stations and airports, while Zhao Yu went to the surveillance control room to check the video of all of the passengers from that day.

Zhao Yu had a feeling that Miao Ying would have changed her identity, then taken a flight to escape. So, he wanted to go through every single passenger at least once, just to see if Miao Ying was hidden among the group.

He did this until well after midnight. Yet, after he finished watching all of the surveillance videos, there was still no trace of Miao Ying. In the end, Zhao Yu, who was mentally and physically strained, slept in his Landrover.

Yet, after not even enjoying a full hour's sleep, he awoke with a start. He quickly checked the system in his head to find that the miracle adventure had ended. So, he immediately opened another hexagram.

Then, the hexagram finally appeared with a Kan! It was a Zhen Kan hexagram!

Looking at the Kan hexagram, Zhao Yu felt a tinge of hope again. He was looking forward to this new day.

As the side quest indicated eight at night, Zhao Yu prepared to go back to sleep. But, as he missed Miao Ying deeply, he couldn't fall asleep. So, he opened the voice recording that Miao Ying had left for him and played it again...

"I knew being lovesick was bitter..."

Listening to Miao Ying's sad singing voice, Zhao Yu's heartstring were tugged again. He recalled his past with Miao Ying and felt a surge of emotions, all of which were rather depressing.

...

Eight fifteen in the morning, in the office of Qinshan Police Training Center.

"Jin, look, look..." Liao Jingxian moved his face before Jin Zhengbang, pointing at his right eye and asking, "Did you see that? What did I tell you..."

"No... Do you have sand in your eyes?" Captain Jin sipped a mouthful of the tea that he had just brewed.

"What the heck?!" Liao Jingxian roared in exasperation. "Are you blind?! Didn't you see that my eyelid was twitching? My right eye! Zhao Yu... He must be up to something..."

"Alright, okay!" Captain Jin put down his teacup, then said, "I understand that Zhao Yu's matter is very thorny. But, if it is a matter that the deputy bureau chief can't solve, what is the point for me to look for him?"

"Sigh!" Liao Jingxian sat on the sofa and slammed the armrest anxiously. "You tell me, what the heck is this? Miao Ying is a living person. How could she just disappear? Forget about Bureau Chief Hong, I even asked the people from the municipal party about it! No one knew anything! So, I can only call my brother-in-law and ask for any news from the central station! Sigh... What is going on?!"

"Why don't you ask Bureau Chief Liang from the Ruyang station?" Captain Jin suggested. "I heard the way that he spoke, which made it sound like he knew something."

"That is none of your business!" Liao Jingxian stared at Jin Zhenbang, then said, "I am worried about Zhao Yu now! You must figure out a way! Jin, we both understand how important Zhao Yu is to us! If there were to be any mishap, your dream would be destroyed!"

"But... I really have no way..." Captain Jin drank another mouthful of tea.

"Miao Ying's disappearance would definitely provoke him!" Liao Jingxian was obviously worried. "In his body, it is like there is a hidden Pandora's magic box. Once it explodes, the outcome would be beyond imagination! Why aren't you anxious about this at all?"

"How dare you call yourself a deputy bureau chief?" Captain Jin spat. "Liao, being lovesick must only be healed with love medicine. If he can't even control the demon in his heart, how could he become a top detective? So, just go with the flow! Maybe it isn't all as bad as we have imagined..."

Chapter 533: Fail to Show Restraint

Eleven in the morning, in the office of the Bureau Chief of the Ruyang Branch.

“Police Officer Zhao, hold this address.” The Ruyang Branch Bureau Chief Liang extended both of his hands politely, passing Zhao Yu a piece of paper. He told him, “When Miao Ying first came to report to our unit, she was specially recommended by a senior higher up, who is also my teacher. Here’s his address. You can try to ask him any questions that you may have. I think he might know more about Miao Ying’s family situation.”

“Alright, thanks!” Zhao Yu kept the note and thanked the chief with his hand cupped on his other fist.

“Don’t worry, as actually... I should be the one saying thank you!” Bureau Chief Liang declared. “I heard from Zhang about that the rich man’s daughters’ Falling Off Building Case. If it wasn’t for your assistance, we definitely wouldn’t have been able to solve the case so quickly!”

The chief continued, “And don’t worry! In the case conclusion report, we will report accordingly regarding your involvement! Also, I will definitely bring this up with the municipal station, so that it will provide you with a satisfying outcome!”

“You don’t need to do that!” Zhao Yu replied. “It’s a small matter. Don’t mention it at all, really! The Ruyang Branch is in Miao Ying’s hometown. So, it’s perfectly reasonable that I would provide assistance!”

The moment he brought up Miao Ying, Bureau Chief Liang couldn’t help but sigh. “Miao Ying is a great comrade. She was honest and brave, as well as being well-versed in both police protocol and martial arts. She rendered great services for our branch during her time with us!”

The chief continued in his remembrances. “However, for some reason, she didn’t seem to have many sincere friends. Sometimes, I could feel that the child was really having a tough time! So, Police Office Zhao, I hope that you can find her soon! If there’s any help that you need from us, feel free to let us know!”

“Alright, thanks!” Zhao Yu cupped his hand over his other fist again, thanking him. He then bid farewell and left the office.

His front leg had just exited the door, when he saw Zhang and Su Jinmei, who were waiting to greet him.

“How did it go? Any new clues?” Zhang asked anxiously. “Bureau Chief Liang should at least know something, right?”

Zhao Yu shook his head helplessly, then described the current situation for the two of them again.

“Sifu,” Su Jinmei analyzed, “Captain Miao has been living in Qinshan for so long. Would she really be able to be erased, without even a single trace? Why, don’t we go and investigate the surveillance videos nearby to try to find out where she actually is?”

You’re right. Actually, I was just considering that, too!” Zhao Yu said. “With so many surveillance cameras around, it’d be impossible for her to delete all of their footage, right?”

“Yeah, is there anything like a car monitor in her car?” Zhang asked. “If we check that, at least we could pinpoint her whereabouts for the past few days, right?”

“I’ve tried that. The memory card in the car monitor was already erased!” Zhao Yu shook his head.

As they spoke, the three of them arrived at the stairs. As they continued chatting, they walked down the staircase. As they came to the second floor, there was suddenly a crowd waiting.

Zhao Yu was quite familiar with the Ruyang Branch, so he immediately recognized that most of the people in the crowd were police detectives from the Ruyang Key Case Investigation Unit. At that moment, all of the police detectives were surrounding a man, who was shirtless. Some people were cursing, obviously aggrieved.

“How is this happening?” The man raised his hands, which were handcuffed, in the air aggressively, as he roared at the police detectives in disdain. “You’re lucky that I didn’t sue you for arresting and falsely accusing me! What else do you want from me? Hurry up and unlock these handcuffs!”

Listening to his bellow, Zhao Yu stole a glance at the man. He saw that the man had a tattoo on his chest, as well as a few gold teeth. As he spoke, he had an intensely ferocious look!

Zhang saw this surveillance, so he quickly introduced information about the man to Zhao Yu, as he shook his head. “This person is the eldest son of Qiu from Dadonghai. We suspect that he has drugged and raped many young girls, one of whom even attempted to commit suicide with the drugs, nearly losing her life!”

Su Jinmei then added more information. “At first, a file on the case was placed for investigation, and it almost solved even! But, somehow, the witnesses suddenly changed their testimonies. Even the girl that tried to commit suicide withdrew her charges against him!”

“Needless to say,” Zhang sighed, “They were either bribed or threatened!”

“Hurry up!” They heard the voice of the eldest son of Qiu, who was still clamoring about arrogantly. “What? Do you want to wait for my lawyer? His name is Feng Caoyang, and you’ll be terrified of him! Quick, hurry up...”

Feng Caoyang?!

Zhao Yu pouted and scoffed, upon hearing the name. He recalled that Feng Caoyang was the same guy that had spoken in defence of Hao Gang back then. The guy was arrogant and supercilious.

After the eldest son of Qiu finally stopped shouting, Zhang nodded helplessly to one of the police detectives, who unlocked his handcuffs.

“Yes... That’s right... Hehehe...” The eldest son of Qiu rubbed his now freed wrists, then spat with anger, “You lousy policemen, where’s your bravado now? Where did it go? Hehehe...”

Zhao Yu and the other two continued to move forward. Just when they had walked past the eldest son of Qiu, he looked at Su Jinmei and smiled perversely, saying, “Hey, this girl is pretty good looking! Are you interested in me? I’ve got tons of money...”

“Ugh...” Since Su Jinmei was only a Police trainee, she had yet to come across such disgusting people. As such, she immediately covered her eyes and quivered in fear.

“Hey, that’s enough!” Zhang scolded. “Hurry up and leave, as we have unlocked your handcuffs! Don’t think that we don’t know exactly how you escaped the legal punishment! I’m telling you, it’s just matter of time before you are in our hands again!”

“Humph, who are you trying to scare?” The eldest son of Qiu gritted his gold teeth. “Do you have any evidence? If you do, why did you have to let me go? Humph...”

He sent another stare at Su Jinmei, then scoffed, “Girl, don’t go thinking you’re cool, just because you have your uniform on. I slept with a bunch of female police detectives before! As soon as they see how much money I have, they couldn’t wait to take get with me...”

The eldest son of Qiu had yet to finish his sentence, when a palm slapped right onto his face.

Pak...

Upon impact, the eldest son of Qiu spun around, then landed on the wall!

“Huh... ahhh?”

The eldest son of Qiu was dumbfounded. He supported himself by holding onto the wall, before trying to again stand up straight. However, before he could stand, there was a hand, like an eagle claw, that grabbed onto his hair brutally, then dragged him out onto the ground.

“Hey? Eh eh? Someone’s hitting me. This is... Ow ow ow ow...” The eldest son of Qiu’s face was contorted with pain, but he had no strength to wage a counter attack. The person who had grabbed ahold of the eldest son of Qiu was naturally the fearless Zhao Yu!

Zhao Yu didn’t like the eldest son of Qiu, who was arrogant and supercilious. Also, the eldest son of Qiu had just humiliated a female police detective! That particular point had really been the one that pushed Zhao Yu past his limit of patience.

At that moment, Zhao Yu dragged the eldest son of Qiu by his hair to the male toilet near the stairs...

“Captain Zhang! What should we do?” The police detectives saw this and were terrified. “This is surely illegal! Should we stop it?”

“Quit your interfering!” Zhang scoffed. “Hurry up and head to the surveillance room. Destroy the surveillance records of this scene just now! In the future, whenever anyone asks about it, just tell them that the video equipment malfunctioned!”

As Zhang had just finished giving his command, they could hear the tragic wail of the eldest son of Qiu from the toilet...

Chapter 534: Never Loose

The eldest son of Qiu was beaten beyond recognition by Zhao Yu in the toilet. As such, he was wailing in pain. Zhao Yu didn’t even speak to him the entire time, but only kept beating him!

At the beginning, that spoilt son had still been cursing. Yet, as the time passed by, he gradually realized that the demon-like figure not only wanted to beat him up, but obviously wanted to take his life!

Hence, he changed, now begging Zhao Yu for mercy. He even knelt down on the ground, whimpering. But, Zhao Yu couldn't be bothered to listen. When he was tired of hitting him, he pressed his head into the toilet bowl!

Oh...

Faintly, Zhao Yu had an illusion of time flowing backwards. When he was pressing the eldest son of Qiu's head into the toilet, watching him struggling in the toilet bowl, he felt as though he had returned to his past, where he was unworthily mixing with the less than savory people around him!

Memories swirled, including the flashing of blade rays and brutal fights. He had learned many lessons back then, causing him to now remember keenly that the moment you showed one bit of kindness, your enemy would possibly return with another bite!

"Ah..."

Recalling this bloody past, Zhao Yu felt the rage boiling in him and couldn't stop himself. He lifted his head and roared. He then grabbed the eldest son of Qiu's head with his left hand, while he landed a heavy punch on the water tank of toilet with his right fist!

Bang!

Along with a loud thud, the water tank shattered into pieces, sending porcelain debris all over the place! As the eldest son of Qiu happened to lift up his head from the water at that moment, he saw Zhao Yu's wild and violent action.

Huh?!

Cough cough cough cough...

The eldest son of Qiu coughed out the toilet water, as he was scared stiff by Zhao Yu's brutality. Suddenly, with a thud, he knelt down on his knees and told Zhao Yu, "Flunitrazepam... Flunitrazepam..."

As he spoke, the arrogant son cried. He was crying his heart out, as he said, "I tell you, I'll be honest... I used Flunitrazepam! There were six girls in total. I did it! Please... Stop hitting me... Woo... I'll tell you all of their names... Woo..."

Listening to what he said, Zhang and the rest, who had just barged in, were surprised. They had thought that Zhao Yu was only bashing up the guy in order to vent everyone's anger, but instead, they now saw that he had forced the guy to blab all of his wrongdoings!

Flunitrazepam was a known powerful hypnotic drug. It seemed like the police really didn't get it wrong by accusing him! Those girls were really his victims!

"Quick quick quick..." Zhang quickly beckoned his underlings, who immediately went into action. Some recorded the eldest son of Qiu's confession, while some treated his wounds. The rest cleaned up the scene.

Su Jinmei saw that Zhao Yu's arms were bleeding, so she quickly dragged Zhao Yu away quietly. After the confession, the eldest son of Qiu gradually awoke from his fright. He opened his eyes, looking around for Zhao Yu in a panic, but did not see him among the crowd.

"You... You..." Once he had finally regained consciousness, he shouted in surprise, "How dare you allow me to get beat up? What you did was against the law..."

"Hey, please don't speak mindlessly, okay?" Zhang scoffed, "Open your eyes and look around. The one who hit you wasn't us! So, it's really none of our business!"

"Eh?" The eldest son of Qiu suddenly sat straight up and opened his now swollen eyes. "Then... Who was it?"

"How would I know?" Zhang played dumb. He then said, "I thought he was your friend!"

At that moment, Zhang sent an eye signal, causing someone to come with handcuffs to lock the eldest son of Qiu's up again.

...

"Woo woo..."

In the emergency room, looking at the doctor, who was giving Zhao Yu stitches, the timid Su Jinmei started crying.

"Hey," Zhao Yu shouted, "I'm not dead yet. What are you crying for?"

"I... I didn't stop you. Now you have to get stitches... Woo woo..." Although Su Jinmei had stopped wailing, her tears were still falling.

"It's okay. The person getting stitches ain't you." Zhao Yu gave his disciple a funny look, then couldn't help but laugh.

"Sifu, good-heartedness often meets with recompense. I know you will definitely find who you are looking for! Definitely!" Su Jinmei said with determination.

As it turns out, Su Jinmei could tell from the very beginning that the reason why Zhao Yu was so brutal wasn't merely because of his anger at the eldest son of Qiu alone, but was also a result of the depression in his heart.

"Alright, alright, I hope so, too! I'm okay..." Zhao Yu kept his smile, then said, "I just don't like looking at the dude, so I felt like bashing him up! Disciple, there are two kinds of people in this world: one talks and the other does! I belong to the latter group! The things that I don't like, I solve them with my fist!"

"But..." Su Jinmei was worried and said, "I heard that the eldest son of Qiu isn't someone to mess with. Not only does he have wealth and power, but the lawyer that acts in defense of him is famous! Sifu, although he pleaded guilty, the confession, which was given under such a situation of duress, would be difficult to escape the suspicions of the courts! I'm afraid it would be harmful for you!"

"Alright, don't worry!" Zhao Yu saw that his wounds were taken care of, so he quickly waved Su Jinmei away. He then said, "I have work to do! Got to go!"

As Su Jinmei walked Zhao Yu to the Ruyang Branch's door, she summarized for Zhao Yu the current situation with the Falling Off Building Case. As of that moment, she knew that, although Ai Lili had admitted that she had paid Le Chao ten million and hired him as a killer, the mastermind of the crime was Le Chao himself. Hence, the punishment for Ai Lili would be lighter than they had first predicted.

They might have to wait quite a while to hear the final outcome of such a complicated case, as it involved two young lives. As such, everyone involved in the conspiracy had to undergo their own trial.

After exiting the Ruyang Branch, Zhao Yu followed the address that Bureau Chief Liang had given him. He soon found the senior higher up, who might possibly know the background of Miao Ying's family. Unfortunately, the senior higher up was very old and had recently been diagnosed with dementia, so he couldn't remember much!

Thus, Zhao Yu had run around for the entire afternoon, but he had very little reward to show for his efforts! Every day that passed, Zhao Yu felt that the chances of finding Miao Ying in Qinshan were becoming smaller and smaller. Even so, he arrived at the location of the side quest in time, looking forward to encountering something there.

It was a Kan hexagram day, after all!

What if I could find clues related to Miao Ying via this side quest?

However, when Zhao Yu arrived at the location, he seemed to foresee something that made him suddenly disappointed. As it turned out, the side quest directed Zhao Yu to a place that he was already very familiar with. It was Qinshan Central Hospital, in the department of Orthopedics.

Firstly, he knew that Yao Jia was the chief nurse there. Secondly, after he had fought the SWAT soldiers, he had stayed in this very same hospital for half a month.

It was already eight at night, but the ward was still bustling. The nurses were either pushing carts or carrying medicine platters, while walking to and from the wards.

"Hey? Police Officer Zhao, it's you again!"

Just when Zhao Yu was looking for the exact location of the side quest, he heard a familiar yet heartwarming voice. He lifted his head and looked to see that the one standing right before him was really the slim and graceful chief nurse, Yao Jia! She was wearing her nurse uniform, but it couldn't hide her beautiful figure.

It can't be, right?

Zhao Yu complained in his heart to the system, "Are you really this ridiculous? Miao Ying left, so you... You wanted to give me Yao Jia? What are you planning to do? I'm telling you, although I am inhuman, when I am loose, but then again, I am never loose!"

Chapter 535: Call Me Zhao Tianba

"Long time no see! How have you been?" Yao Jia, who was slim and graceful, came before Zhao Yu leisurely. Directly after asking this, she then saw the bandage on his right arm.

“What happened?” the chief nurse asked. “Is it serious? Come, let me bring you to a doctor.”

“No... It’s okay!” Suddenly, Zhao Yu felt nervous, at loss for how to answer her.

“A few days ago, I called you a few times, but you didn’t answer. Have been very busy?” As she spoke, Yao Jia looked at Zhao Yu with deep affection, which made Zhao Yu panic.

“I already got my stitches, so I’ve taken care of it. Really, it’s no big deal... Hehe...” Zhao Yu smiled bitterly, as he gave her an irrelevant answer. The entire conversation grew even more awkward.

Coincidentally, a nurse suddenly shouted at Yao Jia, “Chief nurse, hurry up and take a look at this patient. His wound is swollen again!”

“Okay...” Yao Jia nodded at Zhao Yu lovingly, then said, “Police Officer Zhao, wait for a minute, please. I will come back very quickly...”

Looking at Yao Jia leaving temporarily, Zhao Yu finally relaxed.

Why am I so nervous upon seeing Yao Jia?

While I am looking for Miao Ying wholeheartedly, of all things, the system or fate decides to send Yao Jia before me! What does it all mean? Although Yao Jia used to be the woman I loved, it was a totally different space and time. This is going to be so awkward...

“Stand aside, stand aside...” Then, a medical staffer in a surgical uniform was shouting, as he was moving a hospital trolley with a patient on it. They suddenly flew past Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu quickly moved to the side, then entered another corridor. It was so packed, even the corridor was filled with sickbeds!

Zhao Yu sighed. At that moment, he finally remembered the whole purpose of his trip. So, he quickly opened the map on his cellphone to find the exact location of where the miracle adventure would take place.

However, just when he unlocked his phone, Zhao Yu saw that there was a nurse nearby, who was putting a needle in a woman for an infusion. The woman had bright red hair and was dressed in a flirtatious yet strange way. Next to the woman, there was a middle-aged man, who was wearing a big gold chain and squatting next to her. The man was wearing a black T-shirt and holding a leather pouch. His face was flushed and his eyes were dim, making him look like he had too much to drink!

Either the nurse was very nervous, or for some other unknown reasons, but she didn’t manage to put the needle in, even after two tries!

“Aiyo, you’re hurting me!” The redhead scolded the nurse, “Can you do it? If you can’t, get me another nurse! You’re hurting me. I am here for treatment, not to be used as a human pincushion!”

“Hehehe...” Hearing that, the man wearing the gold chain chuckled.

This only made the nurse become more nervous, so she didn’t succeed on the third try either. The redhead bellowed and jumped in pain.

“Ouch! What kind of standards do you have here? Are you treating me as a test specimen? Get away!”

The nurse's face grew pale. She quickly grabbed the needles and wanted to leave. However, unexpectedly, the man wearing the gold chain, who was squatting by the side, suddenly sent a death glare at her as he got up. He then raised his leg and kicked the nurse's thigh.

"Aiya!" The nurse suddenly fell onto the ground, the medicine platter also dropping on the ground. As it did so, it made a ringing sound.

Hearing the noise, other nurses ran over to check out what was going on. When Yao Jia saw the scene, she shouted nervously, "How could you do that to her? She's pregnant!"

"You! How can you hit people?" The other nurse quickly held her fallen colleague, then turned to roar at the man and woman, "I am going to call the police!"

"Humph! Go ahead! Call the police!" The man smiled coldly. "You can't even put a needle in! You were going to break my girlfriend, and I would have had to sue you! Hehehe..."

Looking at the man, who was obviously drunk, the nurse who had just spoken was suddenly frightened. She quickly pulled the fallen nurse further away from the man and woman.

"Humph!" The redhead said arrogantly, "Call the police! This is such a joke! You don't even know who you are dealing with! We were only here to get some treatment, and you arranged for us to be treated in a stairway! Plus, you can't even put the needle in properly! Your hospital is a disgrace!"

Zhao Yu then saw that there were two fat men that had just run in from outside the ward. He could tell that the two men were hooligans with just one glance. They had tattoos all over their arms and looked suspicious.

Then, they barged in and one of the men asked the couple, "Bro, sister, what happened?"

"Humph," The redhead said in disdain, "Someone broke my hand and wanted to call the police to arrest us!"

"Humph!" The gold chained man scoffed, "And I kicked a nurse, so what? Believe me or not, I could this whole hospital, too?!"

"You... How could you behave like that?" Yao Jia was raging with anger, and quickly interjected in the conversation, shouting at the people, "It's our mistake for not being able to put the needle in properly, so we can admit our mistakes! But, you are at fault for your crazy reactions! You can't just hit people as you wish. Just you wait, we will call the police now. We are not done with this matter yet!"

Then, one of the fat men walked before Yao Jia perversely and roared coldly, "I'm telling you, forget about the fact that our bro kicked your nurse. Even if he pushed all of you down the staircase out there, what could you do about it? Do you know who we are, mm?"

Then, the fat man rolled up his sleeve, revealing a wolf head tattoo on his arm. Although normal people wouldn't understand this symbol, those present could guess that the symbol definitely meant that this bunch of people belonged to some special organization!

"I... I don't care who you are!" Yao Jia bellowed angrily. "That nurse is pregnant! If she has any mishap, you will have to take legal responsibility!"

“Humph!” The fat man took two steps forward. “Legal responsibility, eh? Alright, I shall take more responsibility than that, right now!”

Then, he raised his arms like a fan, then slapped it towards Yao Jia’s face! However, Zhao Yu, who was standing behind Yao Jia, raised his uninjured left arm, holding onto the fat man’s wrist.

“Hey!” Just as he caught onto the person’s wrist, Zhao Yu let out a long sigh, as though he was bemoaning the hard times and misery of these people. He then scolded, “What is it with people today? Why are there so many idiotic bums that keep popping up?”

Suddenly, Zhao Yu’s mind was perfectly clear. The fight before him was exactly the side quest that he needed to deal with today!

Why would this be the arrangement the system picked?

Oh...

Zhao Yu suddenly understood.

It must be that my bro system knew that I didn’t feel quite right in the head, so it decided to arrange an opportunity for me to vent my anger!

So...I definitely can’t waste it!

“Hey!” As the fat man’s wrist was grabbed by Zhao Yu, he saw that Zhao Yu was one size smaller than him. Seeing this, he thought to seize Zhao Yu by pushing him down via sheer force. He tried, only to realize that his arm felt like it was being clamped by pliers. Thus, he couldn’t move an inch!

“Bloody heck!” Then, the other man saw this and cursed immediately. He then locked his shoulders in place and dashed over at Zhao Yu, charging towards him like a train.

Zhao Yu smiled coldly, then flipped the fat man’s shoulder with his left hand, causing the fat man’s body to be slanted. Then, the two hooligan men collided and fell on the ground.

“Huh? You... Who are you?” The man with the gold chain was surprised, then quickly asked.

Zhao Yu knew that if he revealed his identity as a police detective, the battle would end there. But, he had just started, so how could he just let it end like that?

Hence, Zhao Yu spread his arms, then said, “I am from Shunfeng Street, and my name is Zhao Tianba!”

“Zhao Tianba?” The man with the gold chain shook his head. “Never heard of you.”

“You’ll learn about me really quick, then!” Zhao Yu smiled in disdain, then said, “I’ll give you ten minutes. Call your backup! Once they get here, let’s all have some fun...”

Chapter 536: Unleashed Beast

That evening, when the hospital security guards and the local policemen rushed to the scene, they were shocked at the magnificent sight that met them!

There, they saw more than 10 gangsterish men, kneeling at the corridor near the wards. They were all badly beaten up. Some of them even had dislocated shoulders and broken fingers, including the redheaded woman. Everyone was beaten blue and black, their faces covered in blood.

However, no matter how serious their injury was, each one of them knelt along the corridor obediently. No one dared to move an inch.

That moment, Zhao Yu grabbed the man by his gold chain, then slapped him repeatedly. He then made him kneel before the nurse, who had been beaten earlier, demanding that the man apologize to her.

The local policemen saw this and wanted to stop Zhao Yu. However, Zhao Yu turned around and gave them a death stare, then shouted ferociously, Get lost! Whoever comes any closer, don't blame me for my next actions!"

At that very moment, Zhao Yu's clothes were all torn, and he was covered in cuts and bruises. He was also bleeding around his brows. The local policemen dared not make another move.

"Didn't you hear me?" Zhao Yu stomped on the man's ear and spat, "Apologize!"

"Ouch..."

The man with gold chain quivered, as he knelt before the nurse. He said with a tearful voice, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry!"

"Jerk!" Zhao Yu quickly landed another kick, knocked the man's head on the wall.

"Do you know what is louder?" Then, he dragged the man by his ears and said, "One more time!"

"Oh..." The man's face was covered in blood. After he heard Zhao Yu's accusation, he had no choice but to kneel on the ground, raise his voice, and apologize again!

At that very moment, the nurse who had been beaten earlier was frightened, pale, and shivering. She had no idea what to say.

"Police Officer... Mm..." Yao Jia's eyebrows were tightly knit, as she tried to convince Zhao Yu, "They have already apologized. Why not just let it be..."

Zhao Yu scoffed and pointed at the wolf head tattoo on the man, then said, "I don't care where you hang around, nor do I care how great your forces are, you cannot go around bullying everyone!"

He continued. "So, let's make a deal! In three days, I will come over to your territory for a fight. I, Zhao Tianba, will carry out this promise, so you better prepare yourself!"

"Cough cough..." The man with the gold chain coughed up a mouthful of blood, but didn't dare look at Zhao Yu.

"Alright, you can all get lost now!" Zhao Yu beckoned them towards the door with a wave of his hand, then reminded, "You all need to know the rules..."

When Zhao Yu was done speaking, the bunch of people under the leadership of the man with the gold chain then stood up. Their heads were hung low in shame, as they staggered out of the hospital.

“I’m okay... I’m fine...” Zhao Yu wiped the blood from his cheeks, then said calmly to Yao Jia, “I will pay the hospital for any damages.”

“No no no... I, I will figure this out...” Yao Jia said. “After all, you came to help us. How could we make you pay?”

Yao Jia supported Zhao Yu with both her hands, then said, “Let’s take care of your wound first!”

Just as they were readying to leave, the local policemen immediately came forward to question Zhao Yu. Luckily, Mao Wei had rushed over with the colleagues from the Rongyang Branch after hearing the news. After Mao Wei explained the situation to the local policemen, it was finally settled.

However, it was a fight that had happened out in public, so news of it spread to Bureau Chief Luan and the other higher ups in the municipal station very quickly. Hence, on the very next day, Bureau Chief Luan called Zhao Yu to her office.

Although she was his superior, Bureau Chief Luan was always very fearful of Zhao Yu. Although she was the one criticizing and penalizing him, Bureau Chief Luan was careful to convey her words in a very nice way.

She said that they would figure out Miao Ying’s matter, so that Zhao Yu could calm down. She then advised him that, if he were to come across any injustices, he had to go through the proper measures, instead of reacting on impulse.

Zhao Yu was very polite towards Bureau Chief Luan. He was listening very carefully, constantly nodded his head in agreement.

Bureau Chief Luan saw that Zhao Yu was behaving well, so she didn’t pursue the matter any further. She thought that the matter was pretty much settled then.

Unfortunately, the hospital incident was merely a start for Zhao Yu. In another two days’ time, Zhao Yu came to blows, when he was going after a suspect. The situation got completely out of control.

At that time, the police suspected that the suspect was involved in a criminal assault case and wanted to arrest him for interrogation. However, Zhao Yu started a fight at the scene, then followed some of the culprits into a nearby alley.

The result of the battle was a bloodbath. Along with the suspect, all of the other henchmen had to be placed in the ICU after the fight. Zhao Yu didn’t have a scratch on him, though!

On the third day, Zhao Yu did not stay idle, but brought along Blondie and his troops to where he was scheduled to fight with the man with the gold chain. The man with the gold chain was no match for Zhao Yu, so he was defeated very soon. Their den was also flipped over without much effort.

However, Zhao Yu still wasn’t satisfied. So, he brought his people and barged into the hospital to beat up the followers of the man with the gold chain. The fourth day, Zhao Yu went to look for Lei Bin at the Taekwondo studio. Lei Bin dared not show up, but told his disciple to pass Zhao Yu a photo of Miao Ying. It was of her, receiving an award, when she was young.

Looking at Miao Ying's photo, Zhao Yu didn't feel quite right. So, he looked for an excuse to cause chaos at the Taekwondo studio again. These actions eventually led to the Taekwondo studio's having to close down on the second day, having been given a notice to vacate the place...

Then, for a few days continuously, Zhao Yu continued to behave just like an unleashed beast. He acted according to his personal will, regardless of the others' opinions. Just like his motto in his previous life, whatever could be solved with his fist, he would not consider any other way of resolution.

Of course, Zhao Yu actions resulted in many complaints against him, which showered down like snowflakes onto Bureau Chief Luan's desk. She felt cornered into to a dead end situation.

In the end, she had no choice but to place Zhao Yu on forced holiday, so that he might have time to think about his wrongdoings. However, Zhao Yu still couldn't be bothered, but only continued to cause more and more trouble with his violence.

His colleagues were worried that Zhao Yu would have trouble cleaning up his mess in the future. Representatives from both the Rongyang and Ruyang branches came to advise him on the matter.

But, Zhao Yu wouldn't listen to anyone. When any of his friends came to visit, he would drag them away to drink. After a while, no one came to talk to him anymore...

Then, after a few more days, Zhao Yu suddenly received a court summons. He took a closer look, then realized that someone was suing him! The one suing him was the lawyer of the son of Qiu, Feng Caoyang!

Feng Caoyang was cunning! Although Zhang and the rest of the Ruyang Branch had covered for Zhao Yu all that they could, Feng Caoyang had still managed to find Zhao Yu.

He was bringing Zhao Yu to court, claiming that Zhao Yu had committed an illegal assault against him and extorted a confession from his client via torture. At the same time, he would be seeking an acquittal for his client, in hopes of proving that he was merely an innocent victim!

Receiving this news, Zhao Yu's colleagues and friends were terrified. They came to suggest ideas to Zhao Yu, one after another. However, Zhao Yu still couldn't be bothered with any of their advice.

"The great Feng Caoyang!" He laughed malignantly, then told his colleagues and friends, "Even if he hadn't found me, I would have wanted to look for him, too! Don't worry, I'll take care of this very quickly!"

Chapter 537: Hello There, The Great Lawyer

In the basement parking garage of one of the high-class housing areas.

"Don't worry! If I can't even deal with this little policeman, how can I be a lawyer?" Feng Caoyang was talking on the phone, while unlocking his Infiniti with a remote control.

“Old Qiu, just you wait. That man named Zhao will definitely be finished. Besides taking revenge for our little master, I’ll get to vent my resentment, too! Because of what happened with Hao Gang the last time, he blocked me from making money. This time, I will make him pay!”

As he spoke, Feng Caoyang put his leather pouch aside to fasten his safety belt. “To be frank with you, I have gathered much evidence regarding his wrongdoings. Although he solved many big cases, this dude took a lot of wicked measures to do so. He trapped someone into a confession, faked evidence, used barbaric enforcements, and that’s not all! He is notorious! Don’t you worry, I will make sure that he gets in serious trouble.”

Then, he finally started his car engine, as he continued bragging with confidence, “Alright, just you watch. Once Zhao Yu is taken care of, your son’s case will definitely be considered as a confession that was extorted via torture. Forget about only Zhao Yu, as the entire Ruyang Branch would then be in big trouble!”

Feng Caoyang casually chatted for a while longer, then finally hung up the phone. He then shifted the car in gear and stepped on the gas pedal, ready to drive out.

Just then, there was a black car that dashed over. The car sped towards him, then hit Feng Caoyang’s car with a loud thud.

The loud collision knocked the Infiniti was a good distance away. Feng Caoyang was terrified and screamed his lungs out.

When Feng Caoyang finally regained his composure, he saw that his car engine was engulfed in smoke. He was burning with anger. He quickly unfastened his seat belt and got out of the car. He saw that the car that had hit him was just a normal Jetta.

Feng Caoyang ran towards the driver’s seat of the other car. He pointed at the driver and spat the words, “This is a parking garage, so why are you driving so fast? I should sue you for attempted murder!”

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry!” The driver of Jetta apologized, as he unfastened his seat belt and got out of the car. Feng Caoyang saw that the driver had blonde hair and looked very scrawny.

“I’m sorry! I mistook my gas pedal for the brake!”

Feng Caoyang was about to throw a tantrum, when he suddenly saw another huge Landrover charging towards him. The door swung open and Zhao Yu, who was naked above the waist, got out of the car slowly.

“Well, if it isn’t the great lawyer Feng?” Zhao Yu smiled. “Such a tragic car accident didn’t kill you? You must’ve fastened your seatbelt. So good that you have such a strong awareness for safety. Not bad, not bad...”

“Mm?” The moment Zhao Yu appeared, Feng Caoyang suddenly realized something. He quickly took a few steps back, then asked in a panic, “Zhao Yu! What... What is going on? Are you... Are you trying to kill me?”

“Pfft. You can fart anyway you like, but please don’t say anything you wish!” Zhao Yu joked. “I wasn’t the one that hit you, so this is a false accusation!”

“Humph!” Feng Caoyang pondered this carefully, then said with his chest out, “I don’t think you’d dare! Zhao Yu, go ahead and laugh. I will see how long you can keep that smile on your face. You are already guilty of countless crimes. Prepare yourself for jail! And, you hit my car today. Do you know how much my car costs? You... You have to...”

Then, there was a bunch of noise, as many cars were honking. As they had been arguing, there were another four to five cars that had entered the parking garage. The cars all stopped around Feng Caoyang, and there were about twenty people that got out.

All of these people were dressed strangely. They either had tattoos or were dressed like punks, and some even had metal club in their hands! They came before Blondie at the Jetta, then bowed before him and called him “Boss!” Blondie waved his hands at his people, then moved to stand by Zhao Yu respectfully.

Suddenly, Feng Caoyang was terrified by his imposing manner. He stood trembling, then quickly asked, “What... What are you trying to do? I am a lawyer. If you were to do anything, I will no hesitate to put all of you in jail!”

“Hehe...” Zhao Yu laughed in disdain, then took two steps forward. He told Feng Caoyang, “The Great Lawyer, your car has been hit, and my bro will definitely pay for it! However, I have something to discuss with you. How about you don’t sue me? It wouldn’t be nice if there were to be a broken family!”

“Humph, you boast so shamelessly!” Feng Caoyang gritted through his teeth. “Zhao Yu, do you know? Using just that one sentence you said earlier, I could take you to court! Who do you think you are? You want me to drop the charges? Dream on!”

Beep beep... Beep beep beep...

Just then, Feng Caoyang’s phone rang. It was his daughter, calling from her secondary school. “Daddy, daddy, I was terrified. There was a dead rat in my bag...”

“Huh?” Feng Caoyang stared at Zhao Yu.

Then, his phone rang again quickly. It was his wife this time, “Caoyang, hurry up and come home. There are paint all over our windows at home! What is going on...”

“You...” Feng Caoyang hung up the phone as his face grew pale. He roared at Zhao Yu in anger, “Zhao, you treacherous man. How dare you take such despicable measures. I... I will definitely...”

“What does any of that have to do with me?” Zhao Yu played dumb. “I only remember that there was another car with the license plate of 6743A, a white Volvo, right?” Then, he pointed at Blondie. “Don’t only hit the same one next time!”

“Yes!” Blondie quickly bowed and nodded.

“You...” Feng Caoyang was trembling with anger. Zhao Yu had been talking about his wife’s car earlier. He was obviously trying to blackmail him!

“Hehehe...” Zhao Yu took another two steps forward, then said creepily, “Great Lawyer, my bro has insurance. The insurance company will take care of this! Why not let him pay you back with a new car! But... If a car accident in the future were to cost any human lives, my bro couldn’t afford it...”

“You... Zhao Yu... This is getting too crazy!” Feng Caoyang clenched his teeth.

“I’m too crazy?” Zhao Yu suddenly roared, his eyes wide, “Tell me then, wasn’t the son of Qiu, who drugged six young girls and ruined them, more crazy?”

“You have no evidence of such things, so you can’t charge him!” Feng Caoyang refuted.

“He has already admitted to it!” Zhao Yu fought back.

“That’s because you extorted his confession by torturing him. That has no legal standing as such!” Feng Caoyang didn’t back off.

Zhao Yu said coolly, “Great Lawyer, let me ask you. If he were to drug and rape your daughter, would you still reply with such confidence?”

“You... I...” Feng Caoyang was suddenly left speechless. He stuttered and replied, “As a lawyer, we have to speak only to evidence! The same goes for you. The moment the son of Qiu gets out of prison is when you will go behind bars! You’d better be prepared!”

“Yeah?” Zhao Yu leaned his head sideways and spoke with a weird look in his eyes, “It seems that you really want to fight! However, before you make a decision, I suggest taht you take a look at your phone!”

Feng Caoyang suddenly recalled the few documents that he had received earlier on his phone. He quickly took a look at the documents and was terrified. His face grew pale!

As it turned out, these documents were encrypted documents from his computer. They included his private financial accounts, important evidence regarding the case, and many other things that shouldn’t be exposed!

“You... How did you... Ah...” Feng Caoyang suddenly felt a tightness in his chest.

“Oh, I almost forgot. I have another stack of information that I have gotten from the computer at your house. Your wife has very peculiar tastes. I dare not show you everything! Hehe...” Zhao Yu shook his head and laughed. He then told Blondie, “Hurry up, give the insurance company a call! You hit someone’s car, so you have to pay for it. We are all men of honor, after all!”

“Yes, bro!” Blondie Zhou Yang quickly picked up his phone and pretended to make a call.

“For... For... Forget it!” Feng Caoyang was trembling. “I... I will repair it myself!”

“Hehe...” Zhao Yu beckoned to Blondie and said, “Great Lawyer, that’s right! There are many injustices in the world. As a law enforcer, you should protect their benefits and ensure that they receive just treatment.”

“Our seniors taught us that every human deed can never escape God’s eyes. You have to do everything with a clear conscience. If you could stop on the edge of the precipice and not go any further, it’s not too late for you yet. But, if you were to continue with your games, I, Zhao Yu, would keep you company till the end... Wahaha...”

Then, Zhao Yu saluted Feng Caoyang playfully. He then turned around and left with his troops in their cars...

Chapter 538: It Was a Qian Hexagram Again

Just as Zhao Yu had expected, Feng Caoyang immediately withdrew his charges against Zhao Yu, leaving the defense team of the son of Qiu on their own.

To solve the issue of Feng Caoyang once and for all, Zhao Yu had used three of his precious devices. He first used an Invisible Camera to observe Feng Caoyang, then he used the Skeleton Key to unlock his office. Finally, he used another Hacker's Command to get all of that secret information!

However, although Zhao Yu was able to obtain the confidential information, it belonged to Feng Caoyang's clients, and was therefore protected under the privacy of lawyer and client privilege. If such things were to be exposed, Feng Caoyang would have his lawyer qualifications revoked!

So, after careful consideration, Zhao Yu decided to use the information to blackmail him into dropping the charges and leaving the defense team of the son of Qiu. After Feng Caoyang withdrawn himself from the team, it was difficult for the son of Qiu to achieve anything. On the other hand, the police detectives from the Ruyang Key Case Investigation Unit obtained several pieces of new evidence through hard work and cooperation from the victims.

Hence, with the newfound existence of witnesses and key evidence, the son of Qiu had no choice but to plead guilty of the crime that he had committed. However, although the matter with Feng Caoyang and the son of Qiu had ended, Zhao Yu's forced holiday was still ongoing.

Everyday, Zhao Yu would get a new hexagram and complete the side quest. However, he returned disappointed every time. As time passed, his enthusiasm just wasn't there anymore. Every time after he completed the quest, the reward barely meant anything to him.

Along with the slim hopes of finding Miao Ying, his bad habits from his previous life were also beginning to affect him again! He got right back into heavy drinking, fighting, and stirring up trouble. The time seemed to rotate backwards, as Zhao Yu returned to being a ruffian!

Zhang Jingfeng, Li Beini, Liang Huan, Liang Bo and his other close friends saw Zhao Yu's deteriorating behavior, which made them anxious. But, no matter how they advised Zhao Yu, he wouldn't listen.

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed, but Zhao Yu was still pissing away his days. However, just when Zhao Yu got himself a hexagram one day, he was suddenly awakened from his muddled state! He had gotten a Qian Dui hexagram!

Zhao Yu quickly got out of bed and kicked away the beer cans that were scattered around the floor. He came before the working desk to figure out the side quest's time and location. The miracle location was four miles away, and the time was in fifteen minutes!

It can't be, right?

So soon?!

Zhao Yu cursed under his breath and ran to the living room to put on some clothes. But, he had yet to do so properly, when someone knocked on the door! This startled Zhao Yu, who quickly pulled the door open.

He saw a man and a woman standing at the door. He knew the woman as Huahua, and she was wearing a white long dress. He didn't know the man, but he seemed to be a delivery man, according to his clothing and the fact that he was holding a parcel!

"Bro Yu, you are at home!" Huahua saw Zhao Yu and immediately told him the purpose of her visit, "I have recently saved twenty thousand dollars, and wanted to return this to you!"

Huahua took some money out of her purse.

"Hey miss, I am here to send a parcel! So let me finish my job first!" The delivery man quickly passed Zhao Yu the parcel, then asked, "Is this Mister Zhao Yu? Your parcel..."

"Huh?!"

When Zhao Yu saw the parcel, he shouted. He quickly dragged Huahua behind him and roared, "Don't move! Po... Police!"

Then, Zhao Yu even made a gesture of withdrawing his gun.

"What?" The delivery man was shocked. He quickly asked, "Mister? What is going on?"

"Huh..." Huahua didn't know what was going on either, so she quickly screamed, threw up her hands, and hid behind Zhao Yu. But, as she had been holding the cash in her hands, the money flew everywhere!

"This..." The delivery man held the parcel and was dumbstruck.

As he had gotten a Qian hexagram that day and never bought anything online, Zhao Yu naturally suspected that there was something wrong with the parcel! Zhao Yu instinctually used an Invisible Detector to confirm this suspicion.

If there were any dangerous items in the parcel, like a bomb, the detector would issue a warning alert. However, it remained silent, signaling that there wasn't any danger on the scene.

Zhao Yu wiped away the cold sweat on his forehead, seeing that it was merely a false alarm.

"Are you okay?" The delivery man quickly left the parcel and fled, completely shocked by Zhao Yu's strange behavior.

"Huahua, it's fine! It is just a regular parcel!" Zhao Yu quickly picked up the parcel and told Huahua, "Look at yourself, why are you returning the money out of nowhere?"

When Huahua saw her money, which was now scattered, she quickly picked it up and said, "I was worried that you needed the money."

"Listen to me, you don't need to return me the money!" Zhao Yu quickly told her that the police had already returned the money to him. He also assured her that Fat Sausage and his gang were involved in a major case, so no one would come after her anymore in the future.

Huahua started crying after she heard this good news. She couldn't believe it at first, thinking that he only told her such things out of kindness. She was completely moved.

As he was helping Huahua pick up the money, he looked at the time. He quickly told Huahua, "Huahua, I have something urgent that I need to attend to. When you are done here, please lock the door behind you. I must leave now!"

Then, Zhao Yu grabbed his keys and the parcel, then dashed downstairs.

"Hey?" Huahua called after him, "Bro Yu, you are really such a kind man. If you ever need anything, you can still call me anytime!"

Even though Huahua had shouted loudly, Zhao Yu couldn't hear her, as he was already long gone! Miao Ying's Volkswagen Phaeton and Landrover were both parked downstairs. Previously, Zhao Yu had investigated the cars' information and found out some shocking news. The two cars were registered under his name! Obviously, Miao Ying had done this purposely for some reason.

Zhao Yu was tall and brawny, so it made more sense for him to drive the Landrover. He quickly unlocked the door and prepared to rush to the location of the side quest.

However, just as he unlocked the door, there were three old folks that popped up next to his car, blocking him. The three persons were Liao Jingxian, Jin Zhenbang, and Zhou Andong.

"Hey, Zhao Yu, where are you going?" Liao Jingxian shouted with a dull face, "Hurry up, we have something to talk to you about..."

"Oh... Mm..." Zhao Yu looked at his watch. If he delayed any longer, he wouldn't be able to reach the location in time.

"Hey? Aren't you on holiday? Where are you rushing to? Did you do something immoral? Are you planning to run away?" Liao Jingxian teased him.

Zhao Yu suddenly became furious. After he opened the car door, he pushed Liao Jingxian in directly.

"Hey... Are you crazy, what are you doing..."

Liao Jingxian got a shock, and Jin Zhenbang and Zhou Andong quickly came forward to stop Zhao Yu. But Zhao Yu did the same to them, shoving all three of them into the car.

"I really have something urgent to do!" Zhao Yu roared, "How about this... Why don't the three of you follow me? I assure you that this will be a real adventure!"

Then, Zhao Yu closed the door and got into the driver's seat to drive...

Of course, although Zhao Yu said that it was going to be an adventure, he had no idea what they were going to encounter. He thought to himself, I got a Qian hexagram today, so the side quest shouldn't be anything ordinary!

Chapter 539: Special Investigator

“Zhao Yu, are you crazy?” Liao Jingxian roared, as he slammed into the back of the front seat. “What is going to be an adventure? The three of us came here to talk to you nicely, but you treated us like this...”

“It’s alright. Let’s witness this adventure, then!” Captain Jin Zhenbang took out a cigarette and was going to light it up.

“Hey! Stop it!” Zhao Yu roared in anger. “Anyone who dared smoke in my car has entered ICU after doing so!”

“Yeah, Jin!” Bureau Chief Zhou Andong supported, “Be civilized, alright? Don’t make me take in second-hand smoke!”

“Zhao Yu, where exactly are you taking us?” Liao Jingxian creased his eyebrows and said, “What is so urgent? Can you tell us?”

“You’ll know when we get there. Here...” Zhao Yu threw them the parcel and said rudely, “Open the parcel for me! I haven’t seen it yet!”

“Parcel?” Liao Jingxian and Jin Zhenbang shared a look. When they saw the information on the parcel, they were suddenly thrilled. Liao Jingxian quickly opened the parcel and found an official letter.

“That’s right, it’s the notice! That was pretty fast!” Liao Jingxian was delighted. He opened the letter, as he spoke to Zhao Yu, “Zhao, we looked for you today to talk about this! Your application to be a special investigator has been approved, and this is the notice! They called the municipal station a few days ago. I knew that you didn’t go to work, so I sent it to your house address!”

“What? Special investigator?” Zhao Yu then recalled that, before Miao Ying had gone missing, he had applied to be a special investigator. Once approved, he would enter the Central Investigation Unit to investigate the national level one criminal cases, like the kind recorded in the yellow covered notebook.

“Yeah!” Liao Jingxian quickly opened the document and explained to Zhao Yu, “But the nature of the special investigator team is more complicated than you might think. It is specially approved by the Central Criminal Division and brings with it many privileges. And, it involves not only pending cases, but also many other major cases. However, as the team members for the force were chosen elites from all across the nation, the number of people is too large... So...”

“So what?” Zhao Yu knew that was coming.

“So, the notice that you received today ain’t an admission notice, but a selected notice!” Liao Jingxian raised the document and announced, “In other words, you are only awarded the qualification of being selected for now. Whether or not if you will become a special investigator will depend on if you pass their examination! I reckon it should be like choosing one out of a hundred!”

“Then, hurry up and call your brother-in-law, “Zhao Yu joked, somewhat seriously. “Tell him to let me enter from the back door!”

Liao Jingxian felt awkward. “That won’t work. It is the central investigation team, so this is no joking matter!”

“As a special investigator, is the salary high? How are the benefits?” Zhao Yu asked.

“The salary is still standard, as it is issued by the Rongyang Branch, but your title would be much more impressive!” Liao Jingxian told him honestly. “As for the benefits, we shall see! Plus, the competition is strong. With just one mistake, you might be rejected!”

“Oh... I shall reconsider this, then!” Zhao Yu shook his head.

“You twerp!” Jin Zhenbang suddenly couldn’t hold back. “You shall reconsider?! Do you know that in the entire Qinshan area, only one person has ever been selected? Do you know how great of an honor this is? You didn’t even work hard for it, and you still want to reconsider...”

“One person? Who was it?” Zhao Yu asked, before quickly realizing he knew the answer. “Oh, Potter Jin is praising his pot!”

“Hey, how can you speak like that?” Liao Jingxian shouted. “Zhao Yu, Jin is considered your sifu. Jin was the only person that entered the special investigation team in Qinshan, and he once was greatly admired. Do you know that? And, did you forget about the yellow covered notebook?”

“Oh, you want the notebook? I’ll return it to you later!” Zhao Yu said in disdain.

“You!” Jin Zhenbang was suddenly burning with rage and roared, “Zhao Yu, take a look at yourself. Look at the nonsense that you have done recently! What’s the difference between you and the hooligans on the street? So, your girlfriend left you! Why can’t you just get back on your feet?”

Vroom...

Hearing that, Zhao Yu slammed his foot on the gas pedal and sent the car flying forward. The three old folks were fumbling around in their seats at the back.

“Hey, Zhao Yu, calm down!” Zhou Andong’s face grew pale. “I am also here to tell you that I have used all my connections to look for her for you. From what I know, Miao Ying’s family is way more complicated than you at first imagined! But first... Slow down... Slow down...”

Hearing Zhou Andong bring up Miao Ying’s name, Zhao Yu slowed down.

“Although I didn’t manage to get all of the facts regarding the actual situation, seeing as how Miao Ying’s family vanished into thin air, they seem to be protected by the government! You shouldn’t be surprised that all traces of them were wiped out completely for their own protection!

He continued. “So, I personally think that Miao Ying left you because she had no choice, not because you had any problems together,” Zhou Andong advised sincerely. “Zhao, this is definitely a great opportunity for you! If you were to become a special investigator, you might be able to obtain higher investigation rights. Then, you still might have hope of finding Miao Ying!”

Bureau Chief Zhou finally got to his point. After Zhao Yu heard that, his eyes were beaming with renewed hope.

Then, they arrived at the destination. He lifted his head and saw the Victory Plaza of Qinshan city. According to the coordinates of the side quest, the miracle adventure would take place at the entrance of the plaza.

Zhao Yu looked at his watch and saw that he didn't have much time left. He quickly left the car by the side of the road and dashed towards the location.

As Zhao Yu ran away, the three old folks exchanged looks. Liao Jingxian quickly teased the other two, "See? I told you not to bring up Miao Ying in front of him! Look, he completely broke down!"

"Bull!" Jin Zhenbang punched Liao. "Hurry up and get out of the car! This might really be something major!"

"Yeah, exactly!" Bureau Chief Zhou quickly opened the door, followed by the three old folks.

After Zhao Yu got to the plaza entrance, panting for air, he quickly saw that there was a bunch of people gathered there.

What's going on?

Why is it so crowded?!

Zhao Yu, recalling that the system gave him a Qian hexagram, he felt his adrenaline rush. If it were to be a bomb or terror attack, it would be disastrous!

Zhao Yu decided to use another Invisible Detector. Then, he started walking through the crowd to see if there was any real danger.

Just when he walked into the crowd, he suddenly saw a bunch of young guys and girls wearing volunteer uniforms. They were handing out brochure at the stairs. One of the girls that was giving out brochures was none other than the little disciple of his, Su Jinmei!

Eh? Such a coincidence! Why is Su Jinmei here?

Zhao Yu stopped and scratched his head. He couldn't guess what the side quest was at all.

"Hey? Sifu? Why are you here?" Su Jinmei looked up and saw Zhao Yu. She quickly ran towards Zhao Yu, the brochures still in her hands...

Chapter 540: A True Saying

In the bright and pleasant sunlight, Su Jinmei smiled a dazzling smile and looked radiant. Suddenly, Zhao Yu was dumbfounded by her.

The girl's smile seemed to have a magic power, breaking through the gloomy clouds had been suppressing Zhao Yu for a very long time.

Su Jinmei ran over and grabbed Zhao Yu's arms, "Hurry up, let me introduce you to my classmates! They have been wanting to meet you!"

"This... Hold on!" Zhao Yu quickly raised his arms and asked, "Jinmei, what is going on? What are all of you doing here?"

As he was asking, Zhao Yu looked around. He was using the detector in his head, but it didn't give out any warning signs.

Su Jinmei joked, "Sifu, you are a great detective, so how can you not know already? Are you trying to make fun of me again?"

"Mm... What I wanted to say is, I just happened to be passing by. Do you believe it?" Zhao Yu creased his eyebrows.

Su Jinmei finally noticed that Zhao Yu was not joking. She then lifted up the brochure in her hands and said, "We are collecting charity funds to help Xin Xiaoru! Look, we have already gathered over forty thousand dollars!"

"Mm?" Zhao Yu scratched his head, "Xin Xiaoru, that name sounds familiar. Oh..." He suddenly remembered. "Isn't Xin Xiaoru Le Chao's wife? Why..."

"Yeah!" Su Jinmei blinked her big bright eyes and said, "Le Chao's wife. You forgot? Le Chao's second son has eye cancer. Now that Le Chao isn't here anymore, Xin Xiaoru's life has naturally become even tougher! So, my classmates in police school and I appealed to everyone to help her!"

"This..." Zhao Yu couldn't fully understand, so he asked straightaway, "But... Isn't Le Chao the murderer?"

"Eh? Sifu, you disappoint me!" Su Jinmei pouted. "The one who is guilty is Le Chao, not his children."

"But..." Zhao Yu still couldn't understand, so he asked again, "But, they live in Yunzhou, not Qinshan..."

"Hey, sifu, you can't be like this!" Su Jinmei pouted and said, "As your disciple, I can't believe that I have to teach you a lesson! Although Le Chao is a murderer, and although their house is in Yunzhou, his wife and his children are still very pitiful and need our help."

Regarding Le Chao's wife and children being pitiful, Zhao Yu had really never thought about it.

"It could even be said that, because Le Chao was the murderer, we should be even more attentive towards his wife and children now!" Su Jinmei said with awe-inspiring righteousness. "Sifu, think about this... As we are the police authority, besides upholding the law and sweeping away the wicked, shouldn't we take up more responsibility for helping our society and community?"

"Le Chao's crimes and death were already tragedies! If we were to treat his family coldly, it would possibly lead to an even greater tragedy!" Su Jinmei said. "Sifu, evil never ends, but great love knows no boundaries!"

Listening to Su Jinmei's true saying, Zhao Yu seemed to be awakened by a forceful knock to his heart. He was suddenly stirred up with a surge of emotions.

Evil never ends, great love knows no boundaries!

In the past, he had only heard about the idiom of great love knowing no boundaries. But now, he had a new interpretation of it. Just now, it felt like hearing the words had anointed his head with the purest cream, suddenly enlightening him.

Suddenly, crime scenes from the past flashed before Zhao Yu's eyes, one after another. From Li Dan of the Hand Chopped Case to Lin Meifeng from the Slaughter Case, and beyond. This made Zhao Yu finally realize something...

Why wasn't I happy, even after I had solved the cases and arrested those suspects?!

It was because, even after the cases ended, he couldn't stop thinking about them...

In fact, after solving every case, he would think about one same question in his heart...

Wouldn't it be great if such a horrible crime never happened?

He would also wonder what could have been done to prevent the crimes. For instance, if someone had paid more attention to Li Dan, there wouldn't have been the Hand Chopped Case. If someone had given good counsel to Fang Yi, there wouldn't have been a Bank Robbery Case. If Qiu Xinyang, who lost his mother, could have faced reality and walked out of his depression, there wouldn't have been a Hidden Corpse Case...

"Sifu!" Su Jinmei interrupted his thoughts. "Your ringtone always sings the word hero, but have you ever thought about the true meaning of the word? Sifu, you are courageous and have no fear. You fight against corruption and evildoers. You deserve the title hero!"

Su Jinmei then showed him the brochure. "But, I think that what I am doing here today is an act of a heroism, too. So, I could call myself a hero as well!"

Then, the sun shone brightly on Su Jinmei. Although she was short, today she seemed tall and mighty!

Suddenly, Zhao Yu awakened inside. He patted the top of Su Jinmei's head. "You're right! I understand now. If I want to become an outstanding criminal police detective, I must not stop at simply revealing the truth!"

"Yes!" Su Jinmei held Zhao Yu's arms happily. "If we put in the effort and give care and attention, maybe we could prevent more crimes from ever happening!"

Su Jinmei waved the brochure at him again. "Don't you want to put in some effort right now?"

"Alright, I will donate fifty thousand!" Zhao Yu took out his phone, to donate the money.

What Su Jinmei said had enlightened Zhao Yu entirely. He then understood that the Qian hexagram that day didn't seem to deal with any terrifying major event, but instead represented the spiritual baptism that he was going to receive!

He suddenly understood that a spiritual baptism was more important than going through an ordeal of fighting! Suddenly, he was reminded of what Miao Ying had once told him...

Be Sherlock Holmes!

Alright!

Then... I'll be Sherlock Holmes!

"Come on, sifu," Su Jinmei covered Zhao Yu's ears and whispered, "now it's my time to show off!"

Then, she held Zhao Yu's arm happily, as the pair walked towards her friends.

"Everyone, this is my sifu, the famous detective, Zhao Yu..." Su Jinmei beamed with joy. "That's right! Do you know who solved the Mianling Case? Do you know who found the Golden Buddha..."

Wow...

There was suddenly a collective exclamation of awe among the crowd...

...

Looking at Zhao Yu, joking around with the volunteers and blending in with them, Liao Jingxian and the other two old folks nodded in approval. The three of them heard clearly what Su Jinmei had told Zhao Yu.

“Sigh!” Bureau Chief Zhou Andong sighed. “See that? The three of us tried so hard to talk to him, but we couldn’t win. And a few sentences is all it took that little girl!”

“Hehe!” Liao Jingxian smiled happily. “Zhao Yu finally won against the devil in his heart, right?”

“Sigh!” Jin Zhenbang let out a heavy sigh. “Behind every criminal case, there is a liter of tears! Today, the girl taught me a lesson, too! Sometimes, we think that closing a case means just writing a report. But today, we realized that we have been so lacking!”

“Evil never ends, but great love knows no boundaries!” Zhou Andong said. “I have to remember this! I could use this for propaganda...”

“Pfft, you are in charge of economic investigations now, okay?” Liao Jingxian rolled his eyes at Zhou Andong. “This phrase now belongs to me. If we were to have another police officers meeting, it would definitely make a deep impression...”

“Two insane officers!” Jin Zhenbang said in disdain. “What are the two of you fighting for? I am in the police training center, so I should be the one to use it!”

Just as the three old men were fighting over the saying, Zhao Yu ran over from the crowd. When he reached them, he immediately kept his smile, then declared with a mask of solemnity, “Bureau Chief Liao, Bureau Chief Zhou, Captain Jin... I will go!”

That moment, the haze that had for so long covered Zhao Yu’s face was swept off. His eyes were beaming with a glimpse of hope now. “Don’t you worry! Even if they were only going to pick one in a million, I would get that spot! This special investigator position, I will definitely get it!”
