

Crazy 701

Chapter 701: Reasonable Guesses

“Actually, you’re right.” As they were walking towards the city along the outer wall of the bee farm, Zhao Yu told Su Jinmei, “After we got to the Landing, there was only one thing that we did, which was to look for Miao Ying! Plus, we only used one method to look for her!”

“Yes. We checked the surveillance videos of all the shops. Hmm...” Su Jinmei suddenly realized something and stared at Zhao Yu. “Do you mean that the videos that we asked the shop owners for had something on them that shouldn’t have been recorded, and that is what caused this situation now?”

“Mmm... At first, I really thought so!” Zhao Yu nodded. “Maybe, one of the surveillance videos recorded the crime scene of a criminal gang. Regardless if it was a murder or drug exchange, we must have offended them by accident, and now they are taking their revenge!”

“Yeah, I thought about that earlier,” Su Jinmei said emotionally. “I figured that the videos must have recorded something related to the Thai girl’s case, so they killed the Thai girl and left her in our room to frame us!”

She then said with her eyes wide, “Oh my God! No wonder you kept bringing our tablets everywhere! If it was really like what you have guessed, doesn’t it mean that we have been holding on to the evidence that can prove our innocence? Master, hurry up! Are the tablets really waterproof? Can they be turned on?”

“Don’t worry. The tablets are fine, but I’m not done yet!” Zhao Yu creased his eyebrows and said, “Although our guesses seem to be reasonable, it doesn’t quite make sense to go into further detail at the moment! Mmm... It’s just like what I said before...”

Zhao Yu then spread his hands out and seemed helpless.

“What you said earlier?” Su Jinmei was confused at first, but then she suddenly recalled, “Oh, you said that if we were to really discover the criminal gang’s secret, they could have come at us directly instead of trying to frame us!”

She then asked, “Master, what if the criminal gang is as crazy as you? Meaning, they did all of this just to watch a show... To see how messy a situation we would be in?”

“What do you mean by ‘crazy like me?’” Zhao Yu shook his head and asked. “Think about it! The Landing is merely a small island. Does the criminal gang have to make such a scene? Are they that silly? They attracted the attentions of all of the police in New Zealand, so aren’t they afraid that everything would be publicized even faster now?”

“Mmm... This is true.” Su Jinmei creased her eyebrows. “Wow...Framing... Killing... Shooting police and killing Han Dewang, too! This is too crazy. Such a case would definitely make it to the front cover of every New Zealand publication!”

“Yeah!” Zhao Yu nodded and said. “If I were these criminals, I would at least try to steal the surveillance videos. There’s no need to make such a scene, right?”

“True!” Su Jinmei finally understood. She then sighed and said, “This is quite illogical!”

“Look, we need to go through the whole situation again!” Zhao Yu then explained patiently, “If Han Dewang wasn’t the cause, nor was it a criminal gang, then there is only one possibility left!”

“What is it?” Su Jinmei was curious.

Zhao Yu first bit his lips, then said solemnly, “Miao Ying!”

“Huh? What?” Hearing Miao Ying’s name, Su Jinmei was astonished.

She blinked her eyes and asked, “Master, are you joking? You think it’s her doing? What is going on? Are you two playing a game or something?”

“Of course not!” Zhao Yu quickly explained, “We wouldn’t play games with human lives! Disciple, think about it carefully. See if I’m right. Let me ask you, don’t you think that what we went through is a little unexplainable?”

“Obviously!” Su Jinmei nodded heavily and said. “I wish this was a dream! Why don’t you let me bite you and see if it hurts?”

“Well, because it was so unexplainable, I thought it must be related to Miao Ying!” Zhao Yu said. “We came here to look for Miao Ying. Otherwise, why would we get involved with such a high-level incident?”

“Hold on. You’re losing me,” Su Jinmei said. “Say it once more. Why would we come across a high-level incident just because we brought up the subject of master’s wife?”

“Jinmei, let me be honest with you...” Zhao Yu sighed. “Until now, I have no idea why Miao Ying left me! All this while, I have thought of many possibilities. I even imagined that she left to go save the world.”

He shook his head, then added, “However, among all of the possibilities that I thought of, there was one that had the highest possibility. Miao Ying and her family might be fighting a strong enemy! The enemy could be anyone. It could even be an amazing criminal gang, an assassin, or even an entire nation.”

“Oh my God. An entire nation?” Su Jinmei was shocked by his words.

“I’m just guessing, but the existence of a powerful enemy might be real. Do you understand?” Zhao Yu continued to explain when he saw Su Jinmei nod. “Think about it carefully! Do you remember how nervous Miao Ying looked in the surveillance video from the cafe?”

“I remember. She even brought a gun with her,” Su Jinmei said.

“Miao Ying must be getting ready for something dangerous!” Zhao Yu said confidently. “As such, the people that she had to deal with must be very skillful and professional!”

“Oh my God. I think I understand now!” Su Jinmei shivered in horror and said, “From the surveillance videos, we can see that master’s wife went towards the port. So, she might have succeeded! Maybe she killed someone or stole something from someone! Then, she must have taken the ferry and left.”

“Yeah! Yeah!” Zhao Yu nodded in satisfaction and said, “Miao Ying must have succeeded.”

“Yes! But, then we went to look for her and asked the shops for their surveillance videos!” Su Jinmei said. “So, the bad guys found out that we are looking for master’s wife!”

“So, they didn’t kill us, but framed us by using brutal methods!” Zhao Yu clenched his teeth and said, “Their aim was to see if they could force Miao Ying out by using the two of us!”

“Ah! My God!” Su Jinmei was dumbfounded. “How could this be?”

“So, do you think my guesses make sense now?” Zhao Yu asked. “The Landing is like the island of the dead! It seems that there are many shocking secrets on this island!”

Chapter 702: Flying Murderer

“I know my baby well!” Zhao Yu smiled bitterly and said. “If it was nothing extremely serious, she would definitely not leave me! So, the trouble that she was in was definitely a big deal! The opponent that she was fighting against was definitely beyond our imagination!”

“We’re doomed. We are just looking for a person, and we are in big trouble!” Su Jinmei said in distress. “Master, have you ever thought that an enemy that even master’s wife couldn’t fight against might be much too powerful for the both of us to handle?”

“It’s not that I’m looking down on you, but even if we organized our thoughts and found the true murderer, what could we do about it? Don’t forget, we are escapees!” Su Jinmei said hopelessly.

She then added, “You said it yourself, those people are professionals. So, they would definitely have destroyed the evidence! Look, the hotel surveillance was definitely tweaked, so we will never be able to clear our names! What should we do?”

“Shh!” Zhao Yu quickly signaled her to be quiet as he said impatiently, “Disciple, you have belittled your master. The battle has just started, so don’t go praising the spirit of the enemy and belittling our own!”

“Battle?” Su Jinmei nearly fell down after hearing that word. “Oh please! We are escapees now! Moreover, we don’t even know where the enemy is, yet you dare speak of a battle!”

She sighed. “Plus, have you seen how Han Dewang died? We don’t even know where the bullet came from! For a battle, we at least have to be able to see our opponents!”

When Su Jinmei mentioned the bullet, it reminded Zhao Yu of those two creepy bullets. In that moment, he realized that he had not clarified about the bullets!

The first bullet was shot through the hotel balcony, but there were no buildings around the balcony! The bullet that shot Han Dewang was even more creepy and unbelievable...

Tsk tsk.

Zhao Yu thought of something else when he was reminded about the bullets. At first, he thought the first bullet was shot from one floor above them from inside the hotel.

He thought that, while they were on the third floor, the criminal might have hung upside down on the fourth floor balcony to shoot the bullet from there. Then, it didn’t seem like such an impossible shot!

But, what about Han Dewang?

How did they kill him?

The two of them were already very far away from the hotel, and the police cars were very far behind them. Theoretically, no one could keep up with them! So, he had to wonder...

Where did the murderer who shot the bullets hide?

"Master, what's going on? You don't look quite right. What did you think of just now?" Su Jinmei saw that Zhao Yu was behaving awkwardly.

"Wait... Don't talk!" Zhao Yu stopped her and started thinking carefully. Although he couldn't understand about the bullets, he knew how he should investigate the matter.

He first tapped on the device called the Memory Replay Device in his head. He then replayed the scene from when Han Dewang was shot.

As the acquired video could be replayed countless times and could be slowed down or paused, Zhao Yu was able to see everything very clearly. In the end, when he was rewatching the scene where Han Dewang was killed, he was shocked. He couldn't help but lift his head.

However, he had merely lifted his head up ten degrees, when he suddenly recalled something and lowered his head again. At the same time, he looked over at Su Jinmei.

"Master, what did you just think of? Quick, tell me!" Su Jinmei realized that Zhao Yu was acting weirder, so she urged him to speak up.

Zhao Yu steadied himself and pretended to be calm as he pulled Su Jinmei towards the bee farm.

"Hey? Master, why are we going back?" Su Jinmei was confused. "Aren't we going to the city? Why are we walking back to the forest?"

"I'm tired. Let's rest!" Then, Zhao Yu pulled her back into the forest before Su Jinmei could complain any further.

As the Landing belonged to the pacific temperate climate, the plants on the island were generally tall and lush. As the two of them entered the forest, they were greeted by damp and stuffy air. The surroundings were dark, and they couldn't see anything.

However, Zhao Yu continued to walk further with Su Jinmei for a few minutes in the dark until they reached the depth of the forest, where they stopped before a tall tree. Zhao Yu pushed Su Jinmei behind the tree and told her softly, "Jinmei, wait for me here. Don't move! I need to take care of something. Wait for me here, understand?"

"Master, don't be so mysterious, okay? I am really scared! What are you going to do?" Su Jinmei asked anxiously.

"Shh!" Zhao Yu waved at her to be quiet, then said, "If I tell you to wait, then you shall just wait! Stop your nonsense!"

Then, Zhao Yu turned and disappeared in the blink of an eye. Zhao Yu walked along the route that they had taken earlier.

As he walked, he spent another two hundred accumulated points on the system. He used the points to strengthen the Invisible Detector that he was going to use.

After strengthening it, the range that the Invisible Detector could cover had doubled from the previous twenty meters to forty meters. In the end, after the expansion of the range, Zhao Yu finally found the thing that he was looking for!

Humph!

Oh, I see!

Then, Zhao Yu finally understood what had happened and where the two creepy bullets came from! When Zhao Yu was rewatching the video of when Han Dewang was shot, he realized something extremely weird...

Before Han Dewang died, he had extended his hand and wanted to open the door on the passenger side of the car. Just then, the gunshot was heard! Then, Han Dewang's fresh blood splashed all over the car window!

As Zhao Yu was burning with impatience and was frightened, he didn't see clearly how Han Dewang lost his life. That very moment, he finally saw it clearly and was amazed. This was because Han Dewang had gotten shot in his back, but the bullet went through his chest and caused the blood to splatter on the car window!

However, Zhao Yu knew the power of the bullet. If it killed Han Dewang instantly like that, the bullet would have definitely hit the car window. Not only would it have shattered the car window, but it would also have possibly hit Zhao Yu too!

However, the car window was obviously intact, and there wasn't even a trace of a bullet!

How could this be?

Oh...

Very soon, Zhao Yu understood what had happened by rewatching the video of when Han Dewang was shot yet again. It turns out that the bullet was shot from high in the sky!

It shot through his chest at a forty-five-degree angle. Although the blood splashed on the car window, the bullet hit the car door. Hence, the window was still intact.

Oh my God!

Even though the Memory Replay Device wasn't very clear, Zhao Yu remembered clearly that, around the billboard where Han Dewang was shot, there weren't any tall buildings. There weren't even any two-story buildings!

Under such circumstances, it would be impossible for someone to shoot Han Dewang from that kind of angle. Unless... The killer can fly!

Chapter 703: Excitement of Bloodthirstiness

Although the speculation seemed ridiculous, Zhao Yu thought that there was only one explanation that would be reasonable. Then, he also understood why the killer was still able to catch up with them after shooting the first bullet.

The moment he thought of this possibility, he was surprised to realize that...

If there is a killer that can fly, wouldn't that mean the killer is still around, keeping watch?

Taking consideration of that, Zhao Yu couldn't help but lift his head to look around. However, just as he lifted his head slightly, he suddenly thought that he couldn't just look for the killer so easily, as he might be able to fly! Also, the killer had a gun, and once he realized that anything was strange, he would shoot Zhao Yu and Su Jinmei at any time!

Then, Zhao Yu pretended to be calm as he pulled Su Jinmei into the forest. He thought that entering the dense forest would allow them to evade the killer temporarily.

On the way to the forest, Zhao Yu's thinking gear was spinning quickly. He then had a new idea...

Firstly, as the mysterious killer had been after him but never shot him, this meant that his previous guesses were right! They had wanted to corner him to see if he was related to Miao Ying, and also to find out his background.

Thinking about this possibility, Zhao Yu even regretted calling Ma Runkui. If the information they discussed was found out by the mysterious killer, it might cause some negative effects once they discovered that Zhao Yu was from the Central Criminal Division.

Secondly, Zhao Yu naturally knew that it was impossible for a human killer to be flying around in the sky. Hence, he determined that the killer was most likely not a human, but a flying device, such as a drone!

However, Zhao Yu didn't know much about high-tech weapons. He only always heard Zeng Ke bring up the subject of high-tech weapons when he was in the special investigation group.

Zeng Ke once brought up the fact that the American military had invented a mini drone. Its size was small, like a dragonfly, so people wouldn't notice it.

Besides its investigating and eavesdropping capabilities, the scariest thing about the mini drone was that it carried explosive chemicals within it. Once it got close to someone's body and ignited itself, it could kill someone!

It sounded unbelievable, but Zhao Yu had been assured such a thing existed in reality. However, Zhao Yu knew that the drone that killed Han Dewang shouldn't be that kind of drone, but another kind of gun-firing drone, which was even more terrifying!

Ever since they had fled, Zhao Yu had his Invisible Detector activated. So, if a drone was to really get close to them, he should be able to tell. But, as there was no response from the detector, he could not quite understand what this meant...

Yeah!

Zhao Yu then realized that, if it wasn't caught on the detector, it meant that the drone was further away from him. In other words, it was out of the twenty meter detection range.

Then, even after Zhao Yu and Su Jinmei entered the forest, he still didn't stop investigating. He used an Invisible Browser to check everything out. Specifically, he keyed in several words, like drone, assassination, and penetrating bullets into the browser.

And... Lo and behold... Who would have guessed that there was really such a drone that could fire a gunshot in the world?

The Invisible Browser functioned well. It could search for things that a normal website wouldn't be able to show. According to the search results, there was a gun-firing drone that had been recently invented by a weapon manufacturing company in the United States of America!

They had used a light bullet that had a high penetrating power to overcome the flaw between the counterforce of gun firing and the impetus of the drone. Hence, the invention of the gun-firing drone that starts with the letter K!

All of its details were written clearly on the browser. Not only was there a detailed introduction, but there was even a simple blueprint.

According to the introduction, due to the instability of the drone, it wasn't going to be massively produced. In fact, it had yet to even be manufactured! There were only a few in existence!

It was said that, besides assassinations, the drone was even capable of facial recognition, automatic tracking, distanced control and other amazing functions like self-explosion!

Motherf*cker...

Looking at the search results on the browser, Zhao Yu understood something else as his heart continued to beat. Someone who possessed and used such a deadly assassination weapon that was invented by the American military and was still in the stages of research wouldn't be any ordinary person! Hence, this case was not only about the drone's capabilities, but was also obviously clearly linked with its having a strong backer!

After realizing this, Zhao Yu felt relieved. If everything was really related to Miao Ying, it at least meant that Miao Ying was working for the nation and was not the enemy of the people or a traitor!

Oh...

No wonder Miao Ying insisted on leaving me! It seems that her opponent was really powerful! She must have been worried that she would bring me trouble, so she left me behind.

But...

After he discovered the strong capabilities of the opponent, not only did Zhao Yu not retreat, but he a faint excitement and bloodthirstiness filled his heart!

Humph.

He smirked coldly and thought...

Alright. If this is so, let's meet these powerful opponents!

Miao Ying, take a good look at me. You didn't want to bring me along, right? With my capabilities, I'll show you that I am amazing, too!

If I can take care of all of these b*stards in the Landing, remember to come and look for me, then let me join you in the battle!

Zhao Yu got even more excited as he thought such a possibility. He already even had a few plans in his head. That's why he had told Su Jinmei to hide behind the tree as he went to meet the mysterious killer!

As he had expected, as Zhao Yu stood in the forest and increased the detecting range of the Invisible Detector by throwing in his accumulated points, the detector quickly responded. He never thought that he would really catch a flying surveillance device in the air at a thirty meters distance!

As the forest thrived with densely lush shrubbery, the thing must have been able to fly low enough to follow Zhao Yu. Moreover, wherever Zhao Yu walked, it must have been able to follow Zhao Yu from afar and maintain over a thirty meter distance so that Zhao Yu couldn't notice it!

Thirty meters!

Uh oh...

Zhao Yu suddenly realized that his plan A might not be feasible! He had originally planned to use the Power Jamming Device to turn off the power source of the drone so that it would drop and break. However, the range for the Power Jamming Device was limited to twenty meters too. Hence, the drone was out of reach!

Tsk tsk.

As there was a facial recognition function on the drone, as well as an automatic tracking function, it had already locked onto its target, which was Zhao Yu! So, wherever Zhao Yu moved, it would adjust itself to him. Under such a circumstance, Zhao Yu naturally found it difficult to decrease their distance below twenty meters.

However, Zhao Yu had already decided to fight against this strong opponent, so he wouldn't allow this minor obstacle to stop him! He merely used another system device to take care of the problem.

Chapter 704: Vital Message

After Zhao Yu strengthened the Energy Booster and the Invisible Detector, he had spent four hundred accumulated points in total. Now, he barely had any accumulated points left. They definitely weren't enough to increase the range of the Power Jamming Device.

So, if he wanted to take the drone down, he had to look for other methods. Luckily, when Zhao Yu looked through his device bar, he found a suitable tool very quickly.

He knew that if the drone had already targeted him, it would definitely use another high-tech device to locate him. So, regardless of his method, it would be turned into a signal for the drone automatically. Hence, Zhao Yu immediately took out a Signal Jammer that had not been used for a very long time.

In the past, he had used the Signal Jammer to pull a prank on Miao Ying. Due to the uniqueness of the Signal Jammer, he rarely used it. After saving it over time, the number of uses that his Signal Jammer had accumulated was almost ten. So, he naturally didn't feel any heartache over activating it just this once to give it a try.

The Signal Jammer's range was a hundred meters. Not only could it cut off the drone's ability to locate him, he could also even cut off the signal between the drone and the manipulator!

Just as Zhao Yu had expected, the moment he used the Signal Jammer, he could see via his detector screen that the drone had paused temporarily in the air.

Great!

Zhao Yu had been waiting for his chance, so he ran and dashed towards the direction where the drone was at. He got closer by ten meters in the blink of an eye. Then Zhao Yu did not hesitate, but used the Power Jamming Device straightaway.

Even though he was in a dark, boundless forest, Zhao Yu could see via his detector screen that the surveillance device that was flying in the air earlier had been turned off! Moreover, the thing had already landed on the ground!

Invisible Torchlight!

At this crucial moment, Zhao Yu tried his best. He activated the Invisible Torchlight and could suddenly see the road clearly!

Luckily, the system devices wouldn't affect one another, so the Invisible Torchlight wasn't affected by the Power Jamming Device. Zhao Yu quickly ran over and found the strange thing on the ground.

Surprisingly, it looked no different than any ordinary drone. There was a moveable camera that was hanging below the body of the drone, which had four propellers. Again, it didn't really look that special at all.

However, when he looked more closely at it, he could see that there was something like a gun muzzle that was installed below the camera. The bullet with a high-penetrating power must have been shot from it!

Who would have expected that the small device could take away one's life so easily? Han Dewang must have been killed by this little thing!

At first, Zhao Yu found a stone and wanted to smash the drone into pieces so that he could vent his anger. However, he recalled that the introduction on the browser had said that the military drone normally carried an explosive chemical and had a self-destruction function. Hence, he wasn't quite sure of what would trigger the explosion, so he didn't dare to act recklessly.

In the end, when he squatted to take a closer look at it, the detector in his head had another response. This indicated that there really was some kind of explosive chemical within the body of the drone!

Motherf*cker! It really is a trap!

As Zhao Yu knew that the powers of the drone and the Power Jamming Device both had time constraints, he had to figure a way to break the drone quickly. Zhao Yu didn't dare to act thoughtlessly, so he opened the description on the browser again and looked at the blueprint. He was shocked to see that the blueprint and the drone that was before him looked exactly the same!

To his surprise, the introduction clearly stated that there was a memory card on the drone that one could use to ensure that the information wouldn't go missing. In other words, not only would the drone transmit its captured image to the controller, but it would also save a copy of it in the memory card.

In short, if Zhao Yu could get the memory card from the drone, he could prove his and Su Jinmei's innocence! This was because the drone had most likely captured all of the murder scene before!

After realizing this, Zhao Yu quickly looked for the memory card slot, which was right on top of the body of the drone. As such, he could easily get the memory card out once he opened the cover.

However, Zhao Yu was a careful person, and he knew that the drone was normally used for missions that couldn't be exposed. Hence, if he wondered...

If I touch the memory card slot, will I ignite an explosion?

He wasn't sure of the power of the explosion, but even if it wouldn't hurt him, it would surely destroy the memory card inside! Although the Power Jamming Device had cut off its power source, explosion triggers vary. So, Zhao Yu didn't dare take the risk!

Of course, no matter how difficult the problem was, it wouldn't stop Zhao Yu. He thought for a moment, then developed a plan. He then opened his device bar and used the Invisible Bomb Disposal.

The function of the Invisible Bomb Disposal was not only to dispose of the bomb, but it could also detect the exact location and information of the bomb.

After Zhao Yu disposed of the drone's bomb, the Invisible Bomb Disposal sent a detailed report about the bomb to Zhao Yu. As Zhao Yu read the report, he got a shock.

He never expected that the drone's lost contact and crash earlier had already activated its self-destruct function! However, since its self-destruct function relied on an independent battery as its power source, and the Power Jamming Device had concealed all forms of its power source, it wasn't ignited!

Wow!

That was lucky!

Zhao Yu then realized that, if it wasn't for the Power Jamming Device, the drone would have exploded long ago. Then, all of the evidence would have been destroyed!

As Zhao Yu looked at the Invisible Bomb Disposal again, he finally understood that once the power was blocked off, the drone would immediately explode!

What am I waiting for? Zhao Yu quickly opened the memory card slot and took out the memory card.

However, Zhao Yu hesitated a bit after taking out the memory card. If he didn't dispose of the bomb, the drone would explode later. If he did dispose of the bomb, then...

Would there be any way to find the controller behind the drone, such as using the Hacker's Command to insert a command in the drone and control it with my tablet? Or maybe install a GPS tracker on the drone, so that it could lead me to the behind-the-scenes backer?

Hey?

I know!

At the moment, Zhao Yu remembered something. There was an Invisible Analyzer in my device bar!

Why don't I use it to analyze the drone?

The information that the Invisible Analyzer provided was naturally more detailed than the information on the browser. As such, he hoped that he could find some sort of secret through this information.

He quickly used the Invisible Analyzer on the drone, while the system provided him with detailed information on the drone. Besides the functions that had been mentioned on the browser, like facial recognition, auto target locator, auto dodging obstacles and so on, it also provided the exact date that the drone was created, as well as details that mentioned that it could be controlled within a ten kilometer radius and could fly for twenty hours.

While Zhao Yu read the report, he was suddenly attracted to one of its descriptions. Although the drone was impressive, it could only shoot one bullet at a time! It would then require a bullet to be reloaded manually for the next shot.

Tsk tsk.

It can only shoot one bullet at a time!

In other words...

After it shot one bullet at the police in the hotel, there was someone that reloaded bullet for the drone! Then, it could only shoot Han Dewang again later on...

As Zhao Yu quickly looked at the information on the Invisible Analyzer, he got a shock! It showed that the bullet cartridge in the drone had been reloaded! In other words, after it had shot the bullet that had killed Han Dewang, someone had placed a third bullet in the cartridge!

Zhao Yu quickly lifted his head to look towards the entrance of the forest. Just as he lifted his head, the Emergency Alarm went off!

Huh?

Danger!

Zhao Yu responded very quickly. The moment the Emergency Alarm went off, he immediately got down on the grass. In the end, just as he landed on the ground, there was a bullet that swooshed past him, which came directly from the place where he had just stood!

Chapter 705: I'll Quit After You Die

Right after the bullet missed him, Zhao Yu remembered something. He had managed to take a pistol from one of the three police officers that he had knocked down at the hotel park.

Unfortunately, after the multiple crashes with the police cars, he had lost the gun amid the chaos. At the time, as Zhao Yu didn't really want to fight against the New Zealand police force with a gun anyway, he didn't bother to look for it.

However, the situation was obviously different now. Currently, his opponent was much stronger than the New Zealand police force. Moreover, he really never thought that his opponent would appear so quickly!

Earlier, when Zhao Yu had realized that someone had reloaded the bullet for the drone, he already knew that his opponent who controlled the drone would most likely be nearby. Now, since the drone had malfunctioned, he would naturally come to the scene to check it out!

Poof.

Poof.

The opponent was clearly using a muffled gun. His marksmanship was impressive, too. Zhao Yu had just landed, when another bullet was shot at him. Luckily, he had rolled after he landed on the ground. Otherwise, he would have definitely been hit by the bullet!

"D*mn it!" Zhao Yu cursed as he jumped to hide behind a tree.

As Zhao Yu had already used his Bulletproof Vest, and he didn't even have an Invisibility Cloak or any other weapon, he was really at a disadvantage. However, it wasn't as bad as Zhao Yu thought.

This was because, when the person who was shooting at Zhao Yu finally appeared near the drone, the person suddenly made a weird noise, then just stood there without moving an inch! As Zhao Yu was curious, he stole a glance at the shooter and the drone.

After surveying the scene more closely, Zhao Yu understood what had happened. They were in a forest amid total darkness. The reason why the killer could aim at Zhao Yu in the dark was that he was wearing infrared night vision glasses! He could accurately see exactly where Zhao Yu was via thermal imaging technology!

However, the infrared night vision glasses obviously required power in order to function, but the power source around the drone had been blocked by Zhao Yu's Power Jamming Device. Hence, the shooter's night vision glasses obviously wouldn't work!

It was different for Zhao Yu. Although he didn't have the Invisible Night Vision, he at least had the Invisible Torchlight. So, he could at least see nearby things clearly.

Zhao Yu saw that the person who suddenly appeared was a foreign man. He was dressed in a maroon shirt and was well-built and brawny. Although he looked huge, his movements were unusually swift.

After he noticed that his night vision glasses weren't working, he took them off and took out a torchlight, which he shined towards where Zhao Yu was hiding. However, since the night vision glasses weren't working, neither was his torchlight!

The foreign man tried to switch it on a couple of times, but the torchlight just wouldn't light up. Hence, he had no choice but to put it back on his waist again.

"Ugh!" The brawny man humphed strangely, as he obviously couldn't understand what had happened to his devices.

Plus, he couldn't see anything, so he was obviously at loss for what to do next. He didn't even know where to aim his gun!

Sigh!

Zhao Yu, who was hiding behind the tree, was upset. If he had a gun, he could take him down directly! After all, this was clearly the person who controlled the drone. He was also the one who killed Han Dewang!

Motherf*cker!

The moment Zhao Yu remembered that he had most likely been framed by that man, he felt a surge of anger rise up in him. He then felt an intense urge to bash his head in!

Then, Zhao Yu took out his phone and prepared to launch a ferocious attack. He intended to throw his phone to the side to attract the foreign man's attention, while he attacked him from another direction.

However, although Zhao Yu planned it well, he unfortunately underestimated the person's capabilities. Just as Zhao Yu prepared to throw his phone, he accidentally stepped on a broken branch, which made a cracking sound!

The foreign man immediately shot his gun in Zhao Yu's direction!

Poof.

The bullet hit the tree bark by the side of Zhao Yu's ears, scattering splinters all around. This gave Zhao Yu a shock and his heart was beating really fast.

Motherf*cker! Who the hell is this dude?

He can't even see anything, but that was so close!

This...

At that moment, Zhao Yu finally realized that the foreign man who shot him was not like the other opponent who he had dealt with before. After all, a person who can control a gun-firing drone that was developed by the American military could not be an ordinary person!

After the foreign man shot the bullet, he walked towards Zhao Yu. As he walked, he lit up a lighter and threw it next to Zhao Yu's leg.

Suddenly, Zhao Yu's face was exposed by the light. The foreign man smirked coolly and sped to the tree where Zhao Yu was at.

However, something strange happened at that moment. The foreign man ran over and shot two bullets, but he realized that there was no one behind the tree!

Pa-la.

Then, something hard fell at the foreign man's right side. The foreign man shot another two bullets towards that direction in a reactionary manner. After shooting the bullets, he realized that it was just a phone that had fallen from above!

Sha sha sha. Sha sha sha.

Then, something that shocked the foreign man even more happened. The branch above him started rustling. He looked up, and although he aimed at it, he didn't shoot. Under the dim lighting from the lighter, he could see that the tree was about ten meters tall.

How could someone who hid under the tree earlier already be up in the tree in the blink of an eye?

"Hi! Go ahead and shoot, you ahole. Your daddy is here!" Just as the foreign man was perplexed about what to do next, there was suddenly a scream from above him.

The foreign man was startled, so he quickly shot another three bullets in that direction. His eyebrows were tightly knit together, as he found this all to be extremely creepy.

Rustle.

Then, something even more unbelievable happened. Just as he shot at the tree above him, he heard noises coming from another tree in the distance. The distance between the two trees was at least ten meters, so a person wouldn't be able to jump between them easily.

"Come on, bow down before me!" It was the same voice, but from that other tree!

The foreign man was thoroughly dumbfounded. He couldn't understand what was going on.

"Hehehe." From the top of the other tree, there came a fit of malicious laughter. "Humph, do you want to play with me? You are still too inexperienced! Watch how I'll take care of you today!"

Maybe he was worried that the foreign man couldn't understand him, so the figure in the tree added, "F*ck your mother! F*ck your mamma mia!"

Then, the foreign man finally understood, and he roared in anger as he dashed out from the bushes. He then shot at the tree where the voice had just come from.

However, after he had only run a few steps, he suddenly stepped on something. He looked down and saw that it was the gun-firing drone!

At that moment, there was suddenly a light that lit up at his waist. The foreign man noticed that his torchlight that he had turned on earlier had suddenly lit up.

Huh?

Why would there be a light?

Boom!

Before the foreign man could even figure out what was going on, the drone by his foot suddenly exploded!

Chapter 706: Play Brutal

The drone suddenly exploded, and the foreign man fell on the ground.

Humph humph humph.

That very moment, Zhao Yu lifted the corner of his lips and smirked. It turned out that a bright idea had hit him during his emergency. He planned it, but he never really thought that it would work out!

He knew that the foreign man was most likely a professional spy, and he also knew that the man had a gun and had great marksmanship. So, if Zhao Yu fought against the man head-on, he would obviously be at a disadvantage.

Hence, he decided to make an unexpected winning move. He figured that he might as well use his device to toy with the man. After all, Zhao Yu had been manipulated by this person for so long, he finally wanted to seize his opportunity to turn the tables!

Hence, at the crucial moment, Zhao Yu didn't hesitate to use a special device called the Invisible Aircraft to fly above the tall tree. That's how he had managed to fool the foreign man.

Plus, he had long ago planned to use the drone's self-destructive function to put an end to his powerful opponent. So, he intentionally flew above the tree, where the drone was located, and taunted his opponent to provoke him.

Unexpectedly, the b*stard was fooled! When he got close to the drone, Zhao Yu immediately cut off the Power Jamming Device. Then, the drone immediately exploded!

Wahaha.

As Zhao Yu saw that the foreign man was on the ground, he felt much better. He then thought to himself...

You see? This is what you get for stepping on a God-king's toes!

Then, Zhao Yu controlled his aircraft and flew to the ground. He wanted to interrogate the foreign man to get some answers!

However, something that shocked Zhao Yu happened. After the drone exploded, the foreign man merely lied on the ground for a few seconds before he suddenly stood up!

What the heck?

Zhao Yu was stunned, as he never would have thought that the explosion would not kill the man. In fact, it didn't even appear to have harmed him at all!

This b*stard!

Although the foreign man wasn't killed by the explosion, he was in a total state of shock! Even though he was a seasoned veteran and had been through professional training, he had never come across anything like this!

Then, after he got up, he immediately started running away! As he ran, Zhao Yu saw that he was limping. It appeared that the explosion from the drone earlier had indeed injured him.

Want to escape?

It won't be that easy!

Zhao Yu then shouted, "Son... You can't escape!"

As Zhao Yu shouted, he purposely spoke in a thrilling voice, like a ghost. The foreign man was frightened, so he shot bullets behind him as he ran away. However, he soon ran out of bullets.

Regardless, the foreign man continued to run with great difficulty. He then took out another new cartridge from his pocket as he ran. As the torchlight on his waist was still lit, Zhao Yu could see his actions clearly.

No way!

Zhao Yu knew that once the guy reloaded his bullet cartridge, he wouldn't be able to do anything to the foreign man! So, Zhao Yu immediately flew at his top speed, careening down like a bomb at the foreign man.

Huh?

The foreign man had just taken out the original cartridge and was prepared to put in the new one, but he saw that there was something that was flying towards him in a hurry. He quivered in fear and dropped the cartridge.

In an instant, Zhao Yu hit him ferociously and knocked him to the ground. As the foreign man fell down, he dropped his gun.

At the same time, the torchlight on his waist broke. Once again, they were in total darkness.

Zhao Yu, of course, understood the idea of "strike while the iron is hot," and before the foreign man could react, he ran forward and kicked the back of his head!

Zhao Yu's actions were extremely cruel and despotic. His kick was aimed to kill the man.

The foreign man's head landed on the ground heavily after the kick. If he had been an ordinary person, even if Zhao Yu's kick didn't kill him, it would be enough to cause extreme nausea.

However, the foreign man was obviously not an ordinary person. So, after his head landed on the ground, he did an unbelievable scorpion tail pendulum and nearly managed to kick Zhao Yu!

Zhao Yu turned around and kicked at his head again. However, the foreign man supported himself with one hand on the ground and turned towards another angle so that Zhao Yu's kick flew below his underarm. The foreign man then moved to grab Zhao Yu's ankle, but Zhao Yu managed to kick him away.

Zhao Yu then landed myriad kicks, one after another, on that foreign man. However, the foreign man was unusual.

Although he was on the defensive, he didn't panic. After he stabilized himself, he suddenly attacked with his scorpion tail pendulum move once again. This time, he aimed at Zhao Yu's chest.

Looking at how the other person was kicking so ferociously, Zhao Yu had no choice but to dodge him. Then, the foreign man suddenly flipped around and lit up something, which he then threw into the air.

That thing gave out sparks like fireworks, which suddenly lit up the entire surroundings. Zhao Yu then saw that it was a burning lighting stick!

Thanks to the lighting stick, the foreign man could finally see again. At that very moment, he seemed to come back to reality from his earlier astonishment. He then stood up straight before Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu punched his face directly. As the foreign man's body was tall and brawny, Zhao Yu's punch landed at a strange angle. Theoretically, that punch could have broken his chin.

However, after that punch, the spy merely leaned his head to one side, as though he had experienced no pain at all. He then grabbed ahold of Zhao Yu's collar.

Zhao Yu immediately kicked a few times, connecting with the man's abdomen. However, the man did not respond to his kicks at all.

God d*mn motherf*cker! Zhao Yu was frightened. Does this guy have protection, such as a golden shield or iron pants?

Under such intense pressure, Zhao Yu could only spit in the foreign man's face!

Pfft!

The foreign man never expected Zhao Yu would pull such a disgusting stunt. He went mad and flung Zhao Yu away. As he wiped the phlegm from his face, he took out a dagger that gleamed with a death aura.

"Waaaaa." The foreign man roared as he ran towards Zhao Yu.

There was a pile of stones where Zhao Yu had landed, and he was currently groaning in pain. As he saw the foreign man charging at him with a dagger, he knew that this wouldn't be an easy fight.

Zhao Yu picked up a huge rock and flew up in the air with his Invisible Aircraft. Then, he threw the rock at the foreign man, like he was dropping a bomb.

The foreign man was caught off guard. Thanks to the lighting stick, he could clearly see that Zhao Yu flew off just like that, without any equipment! The ridiculousness was beyond his comprehension!

In a state of deep astonishment, he hesitated for a millisecond. He then quickly blocked the rock with his arm.

Pala.

As the heavy rock landed on his arm. The man staggered back, nearly dropping the dagger.

At this crucial moment, Zhao Yu slammed at his wrist, causing him to drop the dagger. Later on, the two of them fought closely, and it was a fairly ferocious fight.

Although Zhao Yu punched heavily and fought vigorously, the foreign spy didn't retreat. Although Zhao Yu had fooled him, his combat power couldn't be underestimated. He looked for a chance to counterattack, and very soon, he caused Zhao Yu to be in big trouble.

Over time, when the foreign man had gradually recovered, Zhao Yu felt that the fight was becoming too strenuous. The person's capability couldn't be compared to Zhao Yu's previous opponents.

He didn't fight in a calculated pattern, but with extreme speed and power. Every single punch and kick would hit one of Zhao Yu's weakest spots.

Moreover, the person was like metal all over. Even though Zhao Yu was wild and violent, he still worried that he was at a disadvantage.

After a few rounds, the foreign man finally found a chance to grab Zhao Yu's arm! Zhao Yu quickly backhandedly punched him on his face.

The foreign man then held Zhao Yu's hand behind his back as he pressed on Zhao Yu shoulders so that he couldn't turn around. He was holding Zhao Yu so tightly, he almost broke Zhao Yu's arms! Zhao Yu struggled, but he couldn't wriggle out of his grip.

Motherf*cker!

Just then, Zhao Yu cursed as he thought... Alright, son. You're asking for it. You want to play? I'll play brutal!

Chapter 707: The Most Terrifying Counterattack

The foreign man pressed Zhao Yu's arm, intending to break Zhao Yu's arm with his strength. However, at the crucial moment, Zhao Yu lowered his head, tapped on the Invisible Disguise Machine, and used the most terrifying mask!

The mask was a combination of Frankenstein and Black and White Impermanence. Now, not only was this face covered in patches, but all of its features were also bleeding.

The worst part was that his tongue had suddenly become a foot in length! It was extremely shocking and terrifying!

Zhao Yu turned around and got really close to the foreign man's face. He even licked him with his long tongue!

At first, the foreign man was thinking of breaking Zhao Yu's arm, but Zhao Yu had just turned into a scary ghost in the blink of an eye!

“Ah!” No matter how capable the foreign man was, he couldn’t endure such a scare. He suddenly fell on the ground.

“Wahahahaha.” Zhao Yu pretended to be ghost for the first time and made an eerie sound.

However, he wasn’t very experienced at that yet, so he figured that he might as well pull a trick on the man by doing a funny vampire jump. He then skipped towards the foreign man eerily.

“Ah!” Under the illumination of the lightning stick, which was growing dim, Zhao Yu really did look like an evil ghost from hell.

As he was scared stiff, the foreign man was in no mood to fight anymore. He quickly ran towards the forest, limping all the way.

That was easy peasy! Zhao Yu thought to himself.

That moment, Zhao Yu wanted to use the Invisible Aircraft to fly low again. He believed that if he could fly and hug the foreign man at his waist, the man would definitely faint!

However, just as Zhao Yu prepared to take off, there were two accidents. The first accident was that the Invisible Aircraft reached its time limit, which rendered it incapable of being used anymore. So, if he wanted to fly, he had to use another one.

The second accident cost a human life. After the foreign man ran into the forest, there were suddenly several gunshots!

Bang.

Bang bang.

Hearing the gunshots, the foreign man retreated, while covering his chest. He didn’t dare to look up at Zhao Yu, but ran towards another direction in the forest instead.

At first, Zhao Yu wanted to chase after him, but he was frightened by the gunshots. He wondered if the foreign man had other allies.

But, if he had allies, why would they shoot at the foreign man?

Regardless, Zhao Yu had no weapon, so, just to be safe, he quickly hid behind a tree and slowly poked his head out to check his surroundings. At that moment, Zhao Yu saw someone run out from the forest. It was Su Jinmei!

The worst part was that Su Jinmei was holding a gun. Moreover, that gun was aiming in the direction where the foreign man had just disappeared!

Eh?

Zhao Yu was confused. He didn’t understand the situation at all.

He quickly turned around and pointed at Su Jinmei. “Hey, Jinmei, where did you get the gun? What the heck happened?”

As he yelled to her, Zhao Yu had totally forgotten what he looked like! As he revealed himself, Su Jinmei was frightened, so she shot at Zhao Yu!

Bang!

Luckily, Su Jinmei's shooting skills weren't great, so she missed.

"Ah! A ghost!" After firing off a shot, Su Jinmei turned around and ran.

However, the forest was shrouded in total darkness, and she forgot that there was a tree directly behind her. As she wasn't paying attention to where she was running, she hit the tree. As she collided with the tree, she lost consciousness and fell to the ground.

What the heck?

Zhao Yu scratched his head in disbelief. Then, he remembered his ghastly appearance, so he quickly turned off the Invisible Disguise Machine and changed his face back to its original state. He then ran to Su Jinmei.

That very moment, Su Jinmei was still slightly unconscious and couldn't move. As soon as Zhao Yu saw that she was alright, he began to worry that the foreign man was fleeing. Hence, he took her gun and chased after him.

Zhao Yu noticed that there was a blood trail that the man had left behind. Hence, it was obvious that Su Jinmei had managed to hit the man with a few shots. This made Zhao Yu certain that the man couldn't have gotten too far.

As Zhao Yu followed the trail of blood, he noticed that the blood was getting more and more dense. He then looked up and saw the foreign man among the bushes.

The foreign man was lying on the ground, soaked in his blood. Zhao Yu then realized that he had been shot in his chest and right below his neck. He had already stopped breathing.

D*mn it!

What happened?

Although this man had framed him and killed Han Dewang, there would obviously be hell to pay if Su Jinmei killed him. Besides, Zhao Yu wanted to force the truth out of him, so if he dies, they would possibly lose out on gathering several important pieces of intel from him. Plus, if the memory card in the drone couldn't prove their innocence, this guy's confession would be the only way that they could clear their names!

Tsk tsk.

What should I do?

Zhao Yu had never expected that things would turn out like this. Helplessly, he flipped the foreign man over and searched his body to see if there was anything useful on it.

The foreign man didn't wear much clothing, but he had brought a lot of things with him. He had a communication device in his ear, but luckily, Zhao Yu had already turned on the Signal Jamming Device, so if the foreign man had other allies, they wouldn't be able to communicate. In other words, his allies shouldn't have found out what had happened to him.

Then, Zhao Yu found an old flip phone, a pair of car keys, and a setup that looked like a GameBoy. Zhao Yu felt that the setup might be what controlled the drone.

Looking through the things, Zhao Yu was thinking. He tried to follow any clues to figure out a way to find this man's allies.

Just as Zhao Yu was searching the body, Su Jinmei shouted with a tearful voice from the forest, "Zhao Yu, Master. Zhao Yu, where are you? Woo woo woo. Woo woo woo."

Hearing her whiny voice, Zhao Yu sighed. Although Su Jinmei was a burden, she was only an inexperienced girl, after all. So, he could not really blame her. All things considered, she was tough enough to not have a mental breakdown after what had just happened, so that had to get her some brownie points.

Hearing Su Jinmei's call, Zhao Yu quickly walked towards her and asked, "What did I say earlier? Why won't you listen?"

Zhao Yu naturally reprimanded her the moment they met in order to reiterate his authority as her master. However, Su Jinmei, who was terrified, just leapt into Zhao Yu's embrace and started to wail, "Woo woo woo woo woo woo..."

Looking at Su Jinmei crying, Zhao Yu then asked, "Tell me, why did you come here? And... Your gun... Where did you get it?"

"Woo woo woo..." Su Jinmei shivered in fear as she complained to Zhao Yu, "Master, I'm so scared. Did you know that I... Saw... A ghost? It was a real ghost! And, the ghost was wearing something like you have on right now!"

Chapter 708: Urgent Investigation

"Don't worry." As he led Su Jinmei out from the forest, Zhao Yu kept comforting her, "You must have been seeing things. Where could the ghost have come from? Don't scare yourself anymore!"

While they spoke, the two of them left the forest. Zhao Yu could still roughly remember the direction that the foreign man had come from, and that very moment, they were walking towards that direction.

He thought that b*stard definitely wouldn't have walked here. After all, since he could trail behind Zhao Yu so quickly, he definitely had some suitable transportation. The car keys that Zhao Yu had found on the man was the best evidence of this.

After they left the forest, Zhao Yu tried to press on the unlock button on the car's remote. He was hoping to find the corresponding car. As he expected, he merely had to press the button a few times, when he saw that there was a car's headlights flashing next to the bee farm.

"Come this way. Hurry up!" Zhao Yu pulled Su Jinmei towards the car.

Su Jinmei was still shivering in fear. She hugged Zhao Yu's arm tightly, trying to hide in his embrace.

As the two of them got closer to the car, Zhao Yu realized that the foreign man drove a two-seater electric car!

"He's so big! How could he fit in this small car?" Zhao Yu shook his head in wonder as he opened the car door. He then searched through the car, but he couldn't find anything useful.

The electric car was energy-saving and good for the environment. Plus, its appearance was quite feminine. Zhao Yu saw many of the cars on the island. It seemed that the people on the Landing had one in each household.

"Ah? This..." Then, Su Jinmei realized another mistake that she had made. "Is this the person's car? Master, where is he? What happened to him? Did... I... Shoot him? Really?"

"Don't worry!" Zhao Yu quickly pushed Su Jinmei to the passenger seat in the car as he attempted to comfort her. "Don't think too much. I'm telling you, that person was the one that framed us by using a drone!"

Su Jinmei was on the brink of a breakdown. That instant, she looked numb and her eyes glazed over.

Once Zhao Yu drove onto the highway, she asked him in a quivering voice, "Master, where are you going?"

"I don't know," Zhao Yu answered frankly. "But, I knew we couldn't stay back there. We have to go to another place and continue to analyze the incident. Also, you haven't told me where you got your gun? Moreover, why didn't you listen to me and wait for me under the tree?"

"I... I wanted to give you the gun!" Su Jinmei explained. "When you were driving the police car earlier, I picked up the gun from the car and carried it with me. But, I totally forgot to give it to you then. It wasn't until you left that I remembered that I should have given the gun to you!"

She lowered her eyes, clearly a bit ashamed at her negligence. "So, not long after that, I went to look for you. Then, I heard you cursing and scolding in English. So, I followed your voice. Then, I saw you fighting with the foreign man. That foreign man... He was the one that I shot."

Her eyes grew wide. "Then, I saw that he had grabbed you, and I wanted to help you, but I tripped and fell. When I got up, the foreign man ran towards me. I thought that he wanted to kill me, so I fired a shot at him. I was really terrified. Did... Did he die?"

Zhao Yu had yet to nod to confirm her fears, when Su Jinmei shivered as her face grew pale. She then said, "Oh... Well...It was then that I saw that ghost! He looked very scary. I think I fired a shot at him, too. Mmm... Master, you were right there. Why didn't you see it? It was so scary."

Zhao Yu was speechless. He didn't know what to say. He never thought that the Invisible Disguise Machine would be so lively as to terrify her so thoroughly!

In order change the subject, Zhao Yu quickly took out the memory card and told Su Jinmei to watch it on the tablet. As Su Jinmei turned on the tablet, Zhao Yu briefly told her about the drone.

When Su Jinmei heard that there was evidence to prove her innocence, she seemed to gain confidence. She quickly inserted the memory card and opened the video. After she opened the video, she found that there really was a surveillance video! After watching just the first scene, Zhao Yu and Su Jinmei were already beaming with joy.

Zhao Yu quickly parked the car in a secretive place, while they watched the video closely. Although the camera on the drone didn't capture who carried the Thai girl to their hotel room, it clearly showed what happened after Zhao Yu and Su Jinmei returned to the hotel room.

First, the two of them were joking around. Then, Su Jinmei discovered the dead body in the bathroom.

Then, the police arrived. Next, the drone fired a shot and caused a dispute.

Later on in the video, they could see that the foreign man had reloaded a bullet in the drone, as well as how Han Dewang had been shot. The video also showed Zhao Yu violently hitting the police cars. Everything was recorded on that drone camera!

This vital evidence would be very helpful to Zhao Yu and Su Jinmei. It could show that they were framed!

"Master, what are we waiting for?" Su Jinmei quickly hugged the tablet and said, "Let's head to the police station and pass them this evidence."

"Hold on," Zhao Yu replied with his eyebrows tightly knit together. "Jinmei, this evidence is not comprehensive, as the person that died earlier might have allies!"

"You still care if he has allies?" Su Jinmei insisted, "Master, this time, I can't listen to you! We have to first prove our innocence. Then, the police can take care of the rest of the incident. I can't do this anymore!"

"Don't be silly, disciple!" Zhao Yu was even more persistent than Su Jinmei. He shook his head and said, "Haven't you realized? This is not as simple as you first imagined!"

"Why? We have evidence. Is that not enough?" Su Jinmei was confused.

Then, Zhao Yu said something bitterly, which left Su Jinmei dumbfounded...

Zhao Yu said, "What if they have more than one of these gun-firing drones?"

Su Jinmei finally understood what Zhao Yu was worried about. If the allies had more gun-firing drones, once Zhao Yu and Su Jinmei revealed themselves in public, they might be killed at any time!

"Our current evidence could only certify that we didn't kill Han Dewang, but it doesn't show the ins and outs of the actual incident," Zhao Yu said. "Once we are killed, the behind-the-scenes b*stards will be get away with it all! The police won't be able to find anything!"

He then added, "Jinmei, I understand what they are doing! I suspect that some of their people must be among the police in the Landing. If we were to bring the evidence to the police station, we would fall into their trap!"

"Huh? Then... What should we do?" Su Jinmei was filled with hopelessness again.

“They were hiding in the dark, while we were an exposed and easy target. That’s absolutely taboo conduct for a soldier,” Zhao Yu said coldly. “So, we need to flip the situation around! We must first find the b*stards that framed us, then give them a vital hit!”

“Huh?!” Su Jinmei was shocked, so she quickly asked, “Master, you make it sound so easy. The foreign man is already dead. How can we find his allies? The drone video started only after we entered the hotel. There aren’t any more clues, right?”

Zhao Yu pouted as he asked, “Jinmei, don’t you realize that, from the very beginning, we seem to have forgotten someone?”

“Mm? Someone? Who?” Su Jinmei was confused.

“The Thai girl that died in our room!” Zhao Yu said solemnly. “I feel that the woman’s death wasn’t by chance. Maybe, if we could find out why she was killed, we could learn the truth behind the entire case!”

Chapter 709: Reasoning

“What happened to the Thai girl?” Su Jinmei shook her head and said, “I feel that maybe she was with the bad guys. They must have had an internal dispute, so they killed her to shut her up. Then, they used her as a tool to frame us!”

“No!” Zhao Yu flatly denied her hypothesis. “I have come across similar criminal gangs before. Their identities can’t be exposed. Hence, even if they had an internal dispute, they would only take care of the dead body in silence after they killed her. They wouldn’t dare make a scene!”

“Then, what role does the Thai girl play in all of this?” Su Jinmei was getting more curious.

“I don’t know!” Zhao Yu replied frankly. “But, the Thai girl obviously is related to them somehow. Once we find out more about her background, we should be able to find the man’s allies!”

Su Jinmei then said anxiously, “Master, you said it yourself that the drone was a high-tech weapon from the American military. Don’t you think that we are fighting against the American spies? If you fight against them in public, wouldn’t we get into big trouble?”

“I’m not sure if I’d get into trouble or not,” Zhao Yu said determinedly. “But, every injustice has its perpetrator, and every debt has its debtor. No matter who offended me, he must repay me. After all, we must live by our principles!”

“You... Aren’t you being a bit too ambitious? You don’t even care if they are American spies?” Su Jinmei shook her head helplessly as she picked up the foreign man’s phone and drone remote to investigate it more closely. However, those things were all encrypted, so she couldn’t unlock them.

“Look, the surveillance video on the drone was recorded when we entered the hotel! Then... How about before that?” Zhao Yu asked, “Why didn’t the drone capture any footage of the Thai girl being taken to our hotel room?”

“Would it be that the person flying the drone was doing something bad?” Zhao Yu surmised. “In other words, the person who put the Thai girl in our room and killed her was the same person who controlled the drone?”

“But, to move a living person to our room, he couldn’t possibly leave any trace behind, right? He couldn’t escape all of the surveillance cameras!” Su Jinmei shook her head.

“I don’t know. Maybe the spies have their own sneaky methods,” Zhao Yu said. “Maybe they even have someone to coordinate with in the hotel!”

“Master, if that is so, why are we worried?” Su Jinmei asked. “If you got it right, the murderer was the foreigner, so doesn’t that mean that he had no allies? There’s only one gun-firing drone, too! So, we’d better go turn ourselves in now!”

Zhao Yu shook his head and said, “That’s not right. If they were to go through all the trouble of framing us, it means that they really wanted to use us to find Miao Ying. So, it was obvious that Miao Ying did something very serious!”

His eyes were wide as he continued, “She either killed their big figure in the group or she stole something from them. I feel that he definitely has allies. We have to find the truth in order to secure our safety.”

“Find the truth, then.” Su Jinmei pouted. “But, I am a murderer now. Do you think it’s going to be easy?”

“Shh!” Zhao Yu held his fingers up to his mouth to hush her, then said, “I think, I have a way! If we approach it like we usually investigate a case, if we could find a crucial point, we might be able to solve this! So, let’s calm down and talk it through!”

“Crucial point? Reasoning?” Su Jinmei asked, “How?”

Zhao Yu quickly asked her, “Do you remember when we were tracing Miao Ying’s movements? Miao Ying behaved so nervously. Wouldn’t that maybe mean that she has yet to take action?”

“Mmm... Master, slow down! You are going too fast! I can’t follow.” Su Jinmei shook her head, clearly overwhelmed.

“After leaving the coffee shop, she headed West along the shopping street. On the way, she disappeared near the forest for about twenty minutes,” Zhao Yu said. “Then, she returned and walked towards the port. She most likely already left the Landing!”

“Yeah, that twenty minutes...” Su Jinmei wondered aloud. This period of time is what confused her the most.

“I’ve checked thoroughly on that. I realized that when Miao Ying was going to the port, she didn’t seem nervous anymore. Maybe that means that she already completed her mission?” Zhao Yu surmised. “She left the Landing because she had completed her mission!”

She then said, "In other words, the problem lies within the twenty minutes where she disappeared? Then..."

"We once asked for surveillance videos around there," Zhao Yu quickly added. "There are six shops. Among them, two were empty, two had just started operating and hadn't yet installed any surveillance cameras, and one said that their surveillance camera had malfunctioned. In the end, we only managed to get the video from the shop that was closest to the forest!"

"Yes!" Su Jinmei said. "We've only seen that surveillance video, and your wife didn't appear in the video! In other words, she didn't enter the forest!"

"Yes!" Zhao Yu nodded. "And... As there are six shops in total, the problem lies within those six shops!"

"That shop that provided us with surveillance video and the empty shop opposite it could be eliminated!" Su Jinmei said. "Then, we are only left with four. My God, would the allies be in one of the four shops, and it was because we asked for surveillance videos from them that we got ourselves into this mess?"

"No, there's only three left!" Zhao Yu said. "We can remove another empty shop, too!"

"Three shops left. The other two didn't install any surveillance cameras, and there's one that said theirs malfunctioned," Su Jinmei recalled. "Master, do you remember the situation then? Among the three shops, which one was suspicious in any way?"

"My God!" Suddenly, Zhao Yu said excitedly, "I know which one it is! It's the one in the middle. From the crossroads, the second shop on the right! The one that said their surveillance camera had malfunctioned!"

Su Jinmei recalled, "But, that shop seemed so normal. The one sells honey, right? The owner of the shop was an old woman. When we entered, there was an attendant who was mopping the floor. I didn't see anything strange."

Zhao Yu said, "But, I remember clearly that there was an electric car that was parked in front of that shop!"

"Really? I don't remember that. Do you think it was the electric car that we are in now?" Su Jinmei was clearly surprised.

"I've checked the two shops that had no surveillance cameras closely. They really didn't install any. They didn't lie!" Zhao Yu said. "So, there is only the shop that sells honey left! It was located right in the middle of the blind zone. If Miao Ying walked into it, we wouldn't be able to see her in the surveillance video!"

In order to verify his speculation, Zhao Yu wanted to use a Memory Replay Device to rewatch the situation back then in order to see if the electric car was the same one that they were in now.

Just then, Su Jinmei screamed in excitement, "Master! I think I found a way to prove this!"

Then, Su Jinmei unlocked her tablet and opened an all-English app. Although Zhao Yu couldn't understand it, it looked like an app that had a commercial district map. Su Jinmei tapped her screen a few times and quickly found the shop on the map.

“Master,” Su Jinmei explained as she used the app, “Han Dewang introduced me this app. There’s complete travel information on the Landing, and it has a detailed introduction for all of the shops. Look, the shop that we are investigating is called “Honeyhoney,” and here’s the information about the shop and its staff!”

As Su Jinmei tapped the screen once again, a few photos of the staff members popped up on the screen. When they saw the photos, Zhao Yu was stunned and his heart was beating incredibly fast.

Chapter 710: No Love Triangle

“You are absolutely right,” Zhao Yu said affirmatively. “When we asked for their surveillance video, those people weren’t the same people who are in these photos. The store manager and the attendants were all different that day!”

“The description states that not only does the shop sell local honey products, but it also makes honey cakes and other honey-based foods. It also shows that there are a total of three employees, including the store manager!” Su Jinmei said.

She then added, “Although the store manager is a woman, she definitely isn’t the one we saw there the other day. I know for sure, as I am the one who spoke to her! My God! She acted so naturally and calm when she spoke to me. Do you really think this store is the problem?”

“The possibility is high.” Zhao Yu nodded. “Don’t forget, those people are all professionals!”

“Really?” Su Jinmei frowned. “But, what’s so fishy about a honey shop? Why would master’s wife go there? Would it be because the original boss is a bad guy, so she killed him?”

Zhao Yu had yet to reply, when his phone suddenly rang. It was Section Chief Ma Runkui.

“Oh, Zhao Yu, you had me worried sick!” Ma Runkui spoke anxiously. “Are you alright? What is the situation now?”

Zhao Yu then remembered that he had never turned off the Signal Jamming Device, so it had been impossible for Section Chief Ma to reach him all this time. Now that they had finally connected, Zhao Yu quickly explained the situation to him, telling him all of the details about the foreign man and the drone. Because Zhao Yu had the Invisible Detector in his head, he was certain that the call wasn’t being monitored.

As Section Chief Ma heard the details, he was shocked. But, he also felt relieved and said, “That’s great! We have more bargaining chips, now that there’s evidence! I’ve spoken to the higher-ups. We have sent out two groups of people... A group of officials to negotiate with the local government and to apply for protection, and another group that is a private arrangement. They’ll protect your personal safety. I will send you the coordinates and the secret codewords, and you can just meet them there!”

He then added, “Oh right, the officials are still on the way, but the coordination team is almost in position. They are already in The Landing! So, go meet them soon, and you’ll just have to listen to them afterwards!”

Ma Runkui sent the coordinates and secret codewords to Zhao Yu’s phone right after he hung up.

“Oh, the rain finally stopped and the sky is clearing up. This night scared the sh*t out of me!” Su Jinmei said with relief. “Let’s go ahead and go to the rendezvous point! Someone can protect us now!”

Although Su Jinmei shouted loudly at him as she spoke, Zhao Yu did not react.

She then asked, “Master, what are you thinking? Hurry up! The coordination team is on the seashore to the west of the island! That’s not far from here! We must meet up with them before the police do!”

“Alright.” Zhao Yu paused for a moment, then started the car and headed towards the city. “Jinmei, make a copy of the information on the drone’s memory card. Actually, make a few copies, just in case!”

“Okay!” Su Jinmei did as he instructed.

But, when she finished, she realized that Zhao Yu was driving in the wrong direction. They were headed towards the shopping street! Also, he was clearly going to the west of the Commercial Street.

“No!” she immediately shouted at Zhao Yu. “Master, are you crazy? What are you thinking? Are you actually thinking of going back to the suspicious shop?”

“Yes! Those men are well-informed and well-trained. Once they heard any rustling of change, they would surely flee!” Zhao Yu said firmly. “So, we must get to them now!”

“D*mn it! You are mad!” Su Jinmei grabbed Zhao Yu’s arm and shouted, “Master, you know those people in the shop are all professional spies! They have drones, guns, and bombs! Aren’t you seeking death going after them? Listen to me, let the others deal with them, okay?”

“Don’t worry, I will not bring you down with me. You may leave when we get there. I will go on my own!” Zhao Yu said angrily as he sped up.

“You!” Su Jinmei got anxious and shouted hysterically, “Zhao Yu, I never wanted to say this, but I know that you are risking your life just to get news of Miao Ying! Jeez! How important is this woman to you? Is she worth your life?”

“Yes!” Zhao Yu simply replied. He then stepped on the pedal and sped up yet again. They were already nearing the intersection of the shopping street.

“No! I won’t let you go!” Su Jinmei clutched Zhao Yu’s arm and yelled insanely, “Stop! Stop right now! You are out of your mind! Have you ever thought that there are many people who care deeply about you besides Miao Ying... Like me? I’m begging you, don’t go! Please don’t go. Zhao Yu, I’m worried that something might happen to you.”

Su Jinmei started crying as she tried to persuade Zhao Yu to not act rashly.

Screeeeech.

Since Su Jinmei was crying, Zhao Yu had no choice but to slam on the brakes. But, by this time, they were already very close to the intersection of the shopping street.

“Listen to me, Jinmei!” Zhao Yu urged, “Don’t worry! I’m just going to find out the truth, so I can understand what’s going on. I’m not seeking death! Don’t be so negative!”

“No, I won’t let you go.” Su Jinmei hugged Zhao Yu, then suddenly kissed him on the lips.

“Master, I like you.” Su Jinmei hugged Zhao Yu again and couldn’t stop kissing him. “I really like you. I don’t want anything to happen to you. I want you to know that, other than Miao Ying, you still have me.”

Feeling her warm body in his arms, Zhao Yu couldn’t help but feel awkward. Although he had noticed before that his disciple might be interested in him, he did not expect for her affection to be projected at him so suddenly and intensely!

“No!” Zhao Yu shouted.

His rational side won out at the moment. He was always clear and unambiguous about his feelings towards her.

So, he pushed Su Jinmei away once again and solemnly said, “Jinmei, listen to me! Regardless of whether I was your master or not, I could never be with you. I don’t want you to misunderstand anything!”

He then added, “To be honest with you, I’m even disgusted when I see the story of a love triangle on TV! You know I only have my wife in my heart! It will forever and only be Miao Ying!”

After listening to Zhao Yu’s determined reply, Su Jinmei finally stopped her attempts to woo him.

Zhao Yu then said, “Also, I’m not just going back to the honey store for Miao Ying! I told you that I won’t let anyone get away after provoking me! So, I have to get revenge for us! I have to show these people how powerful I am!”

At this point, Zhao Yu took the gun and got out of the car. He then told Su Jinmei, “Take the car and wait for me at the rendezvous point. I will meet you there shortly. This won’t take long! Don’t worry...”

After that, he walked towards the shopping street without turning back...

“Master!” Sitting in the electric car, Su Jinmei watched Zhao Yu disappear. She then slumped down in her seat and started to cry once again.
