

Crazy 91

Chapter 91: Fateful Encounters Only Exist Between Enemies

In Zhao Yu and Miao Ying's fierce battle, the biggest victim was, without a doubt, the criminal! Every time the two raised their fists, they reflexively kicked him. After a few rounds, the man was yelling incoherently on the ground, wailing out as he curled into a ball.

Miao Ying had not come alone, once her companions arrived, they were all shocked by the strange scene. No one could figure out why they were doing this. The suspect clearly had no desire to resist, but why was Miao Ying competing with this stranger to hit the suspect? It did not take long for the investigators to realize something! Miao Ying and Zhao Yu were not trying to beat up the suspect, they were competing with each other!

Fateful encounters only exist between enemies. Miao Ying and Zhao Yu stared each other down until they riled each other up, and their movements got larger and larger. Finally, Miao Ying raised her bare long leg and kicked at Zhao Yu, while Zhao Yu raised his fist and aimed at Miao Ying.

Boom! Pow! Zhao Yu's fist landed on Miao Ying's shoulder, and Miao Ying's thunder kick met Zhao Yu's torso at the same time. Miao Ying took a few steps back in pain, while Zhao Yu was blown onto the ground from the momentum.

Miao Ying roared and was ready to go again, but the observing investigators noticed the situation turning sour, and stepped forward to stop her.

Zhao Yu quickly stood up and was ready himself, but seeing the others block Miao Ying, he decided to calm himself. He patted the dust off of himself, and smiled, "Miss Miao Ying, how nice of you, huh? I helped you guys catch the criminal, and you pay me back by attacking me? Are you completely shameless?"

"You..." Miao Ying was enraged, but realized the situation. She calmed herself, then feigned apology, "Ah, it was Mister Zhao Yu! Sorry, I didn't recognize you! I thought you were with the criminal!"

The other investigators did not know Zhao Yu at all, but hearing Miao Ying's words, they realized that Zhao Yu was also a police officer.

"Hmph!" Zhao Yu huffed coldly, "I've finally experienced how it feels to be bitten by your own dog!"

"Ah!" Miao Ying did not even pause, "And I've finally experienced how it feels to have a dog take my prey!" Miao Ying's reaction was so fast that Zhao Yu was surprised. Unexpectedly, not only could Miao Ying fight with her fist, but also with her mouth!

"Alright, little miss!" Zhao Yu looked on with cold disdain, "Take your prey elsewhere! I still have something else to do..." Zhao Yu simply snapped his fingers, then turned to leave.

"Mister Zhao Yu," Miao Ying spoke neutrally as she signaled for her colleagues to handcuff the suspect, "this area is under the jurisdiction of our Ruyang District, if you need my help, just say the word, okay?"

“Then I will show my appreciation early!” Zhao Yu did not even turn around. He raised his middle finger high up, “If you really need my help, then don’t appear in my sight ever again!”

Seeing Zhao Yu act so arrogantly, Miao Ying’s colleagues were all annoyed. Some even wanted to chase Zhao Yu and ask for an explanation, but they were pulled back by Miao Ying.

Miao Ying watched as Zhao Yu’s back gradually faded into the distance. Only when he disappeared completely did she finally cradle her shoulder in pain.

Zhao Yu feigned leisure as he turned around a corner, but once he left the main street, he finally clutched at his chest; the pain was like a burning fire! “Stupid Miao Renfeng!” Zhao Yu spat the other’s name. She was so heavy-handed! One day if he found out some dirt on Miao Ying, he would show no mercy!

Zhao Yu remembered his actual business, and quickly pulled out his phone. Much to his annoyance, Zang Jie was already far, far away!

“F*ck! Shit! Jesus Christ!” Zhao Yu was crazy with anger. He cursed Miao Ying to death in his heart. Because of Miao Ying, he had missed his grand “Water within thunder” adventure last time, and now, if he had not unfortunately ran into her, he would have already caught Zang Jie! Such a good “Gen-Kan” hexagram, was ruined again by Miao Renfeng!

Seeing Zang Jie’s location become more and more distant, Zhao Yu could not help but feel helpless. It was already too late now. If he wanted to get rid of his love rival, it looked like he would have to wait for another chance!

But after he calmed down a bit, Zhao Yu suddenly pulled out a wallet from his bag. The wallet had fallen out of the culprit’s bag during the scuffle. When Zhao Yu was kicked by Miao Ying, his hand landed on the wallet. Due to his old habits, how could he refuse a freebie like this? So he simply put it in his own bag! “Today my adventure was ruined by you guys. If I don’t pick up some sort of consolation prize, it would be so sad” he thought.

The wallet was packed. When he opened it there was a wad of red one-hundred yuan bills. From a rough estimate, there had to be five or six-thousand yuan. Zhao Yu pulled it out and put it in his own wallet, then roughly sifted through the wallet. There were a few bank cards in there, a few photos, some miscellaneous stock ticket, and even a few tickets for bathing.

Zhao Yu looked carefully, the stocks were already expired, and had no value. But the wallet itself was pretty good. Not only was it real leather, but it even looked like a brand-name. Switching it with his current wallet seemed like a good idea.

Zhao Yu found a trash can, and started disposing of all the other things in the wallet. He threw out all of the stocks, tickets, and bank cards, then he started pulling out the photos.

There was one photo in the photo slot, and it was of the suspect. The suspect in the photo looked very young, and appeared to be on some sort of vacation. There were even some palm trees behind him, and he was smiling brightly! But it was quite aged, Zhao Yu tried a few times to take it out, but it was as if it was glued down. Zhao Yu was quite stubborn. The harder it was to take the photo out, the more he wanted to. His strength increased with every try!

In the end, with a ripping noise, the photo slot was ripped apart by Zhao Yu, and the photo floated out. Unexpectedly there was another photo behind the first! Two photos floated out simultaneously. Zhao Yu could only bend down and pick them up. He had intended to throw them both away, but out of curiosity he snuck a peek at the new photo.

Unexpectedly, the photo wasn't of the suspect himself, but of a woman! Suddenly, Zhao Yu became more interested. He never would have guessed that behind the suspect's photo would be a woman's! Needless to say, the woman was either a second lover, or a dream lover.

Zhao Yu took a careful look at the photo, and noticed that the woman was not that pretty. She even looked a bit slow...

"Wait...huh?" Zhao Yu's eyes suddenly widened. How come the woman on the photo looked so familiar? It was as if he had seen her! It was as if Zhao Yu had been struck by lightning. He kept shaking, and his heart pumped wildly. "H-holy sh*t! Th-this woman, isn't she...Lin Meifeng?!"

Chapter 92: Personal Relationship

"Are you sure!?" he asked himself. Zhao Yu looked carefully again. Although the woman in the photo was very young, it was Lin Meifeng! Zhao Yu had been in contact with Lin Meifeng recently, and he could not be wrong! At that instance, Zhao Yu felt that it was unbelievable!

"This...is too much of a coincidence!?! A photo of Lin Meifeng actually appeared in a wallet I picked up so casually? Who exactly was the man Miao Ying caught? How is he related to Lin Meifeng? Could this photo be linked to the Slaughter Case?" Zhao Yu thought.

"Oh, right! The Gen-Kan hexagram!" Zhao Yu suddenly remembered the Miracle System. Could this photo be the main subject of the adventure that he was going to encounter today? Did the photo represented the case development? If that was the case, then the suspect that Miao Ying had caught was a crucial person to his own case!

Zhao Yu felt that the case was at stake and started digging in the garbage bin. He picked up the bank cards and vouchers that he had just thrown in the trash, and not a single bit of paper was spared. All of these items could be important evidence!

As he suddenly found a clue to the Slaughter Case, Zhao Yu could not be bothered with Zang Jie or his love rival anymore. He quickly brought the important wallet back to his car, and called Zhang Jingfeng so he could check out the suspect.

Initially, Zhang Jingfeng did not understand Zhao Yu, and even joked with him, saying that he was a womanizer with love rivals everywhere; however, after Zhao Yu told him about Lin Meifeng's photo, Zhang Jingfeng was stunned! When Zhang Jingfeng and Liang Huan were in the Cold Case Department, they had mainly worked on the Uptown Slaughter Case. Hearing that Zhao Yu had found an important clue, he was even more excited than Zhao Yu, and got him quickly send him the information.

Zhao Yu had searched the entire wallet, and other than a photo, there was no other information about the suspect's identification. There was no identification card, driver's license, membership cards etc. Since the person's name was unknown, there was no way to check who he was. Because of his experience, Zhang Jingfeng told Zhao Yu that this clue was crucial, and asked him to meet him at the police station first. Since the suspect had already been brought back to Ruyang Branch, he would not be able to escape!

Zhao Yu felt that it made sense and quickly drove back to the police station. On the way, he called Li Beini and asked her to join in. Many hands make light work. Having one more person would definitely be useful for his investigation.

When he got back to the station, it was almost time to clock out, and most of Team A's agents were out chasing the suspect of the Water Reservoir Floating Corpse Case. Only Li Beini was left in the office. Zhang Jingfeng quickly made his way from the Missing Persons Department, and the three immediately crowded around Zhao Yu's desk to analyze the case. Zhao Yu showed them the wallet and told them what had happened in detail.

Zhang Jingfeng was in disbelief after listening, "Bro, your luck is really out of this world! You could pick up a clue just by picking up a wallet? Liang Huan and I investigated our asses off for months and we didn't find even find a strand of hair!"

Li Beini's face was full of doubt, "Senior, why did you go to the wholesale market in Sanlitun out of the blue? To buy clothes? You're living quite well..." Zhang Jingfeng had wanted to tell the truth, but Zhao Yu kept winking at him and he stopped himself.

Li Beini did not probe further and was worried instead, "Although Lin Meifeng's photo appeared, that doesn't prove that this matter is linked to the Slaughter Case. What if that man was only Lin Meifeng's secret admirer?"

"Impossible!" Zhang Jingfeng rebuked her claim immediately, "Lin Meifeng is so ugly! If it were me, I would never be secretly in love with her!"

"So, we'd better verify the man's identity first so we can investigate further!" Zhao Yu pointed at the suspect's photo.

"That's simple!" Zhang Jingfeng smiled, "There's a bank card here, I'll check on the account's information. It shouldn't be too difficult!"

"Great!" Zhao Yu nodded and said, "The man was caught by Miao Renfeng...oh, I mean Miao Ying of Ruyang Branch! I know her, she's also in the Key Case Investigation team, so I guess that that man did not commit a small crime, and will be in Ruyang Branch for some time!"

"If that's the case, we can also obtain fingerprints from the wallet, and we should be able to obtain more information!" Li Beini said as she pointed at the wallet, "Who knows, we may be able to find more clues!"

"That's right!" Zhao Yu quickly nodded, "I know Hu Bin from the Forensics Department quite well, I'll give him a call right now!" In order to verify the man's identity in the shortest possible time, Zhang Jingfeng immediately went to check on the bank card. As for Zhao Yu, he quickly got Hu Bin over to obtain fingerprints. With the help of friends, Zhao Yu felt that he was no longer alone, and he had more confidence than before.

“Senior,” Li Beini was curious, “you said you know Miao Ying, so why don’t you call and ask her directly? Wouldn’t that save us the trouble?”

“Erm...well...” Zhao Yu was embarrassed, “I don’t know her very well, and we had a slight disagreement during the training!”

“Oh...” The young lady was smart, “I know, this woman must have had something to do with you being beaten up like a fool, right? But then again, her boyfriend was really something to be able to beat you up, really amazing!”

“Alright, alright!” Zhao Yu said sourly, “Let’s get down to business! Beini, now that the suspect is being detained in Ruyang Branch, do you think I can go over to investigate our case?”

“Well,” Li Beini thought about it, “it’s not too difficult, but it’s not easy either!”

“Why?”

“Senior!” Li Beini said, “It’s actually pretty common for two branches to cooperate in investigation, but things are different when it comes to you!”

“Why?”

“Because of Liu Changhu!” Li Beini said, “The normal course of action is for you to first send a report on the matter to Liu Changhu before he contact the leaders of Ruyang Branch, and send them an application to let you assist in their investigation! After that, you only need to take the relevant documents with you to Ruyang Branch for investigation! But...”

“Oh...” Zhao Yu understood. Liu Changhu could not wait to get Zhao Yu out of the Key Case Investigation Team. So why would he help him send the report? Especially when it was linked to the Slaughter Case. Liu Changhu would definitely try to stop it from happening!

“But,” Li Beini gave it a thought and said, “it’s not impossible if you wanna skip Liu Changhu! Since it’s just a matter of making things convenient for us, it’s not necessary that you have to go through the official channel. If you have any personal relationship with someone from Ruyang Branch, I guess it would be okay to interrogate a suspect!”

Hearing this, Zhao Yu suddenly thought of Miao Ying and what she had said at the warehouse, “Comrade Zhao Yu, if you need my help, feel free to ask for it?” But these words also reminded him of his long middle finger and the burning pain in his armpit and chest!

Chapter 93: My Own Team

“None!” Zhao Yu shook his head, “I don’t have any connections at the Rongyang branch!”

“Me neither!” Li Beini contemplated, “I don’t even have a classmate there! How about we ask Team Leader Peng Xin? Maybe she could help?”

“Let’s not!” Zhao Yu shook his head again, “The Floating Corpse Case still hasn’t been solved, and she’s already going crazy! Let’s not add more to her plate!”

“Oh...then how about Mao?” Li Beini asked again, “Team Leader Mao has a lot of connections, how about giving him a call?”

“Oh? I actually know someone! Lan Bo could work too!” Zhao Yu said, “His stepdad is a member of city council. If he’s willing to help, then this should be easy, right?”

“But that guy is from Team B!” Li Beini was a bit worried, “Aren’t you worried that Team Leader Qu Ping would...”

“Ha! This time isn’t The Lost Hand Case!” Zhao Yu thought as he spoke, “I’m just investigating a regular old case this time, it’s not like I’m doing anything behind anyone’s back. What could she do even if she knew?”

As the two were discussing, Zhang Jingfeng had already returned. He excitedly shouted as he busted through the door, “I got it, I got it!”

Zhao Yu checked his watch, it had not even been five minutes and Zhang Jingfeng had already found the information. This man was true to his fame!

“The person you’re looking for is called Liu Pengfei, from Muguantun of the SL County.” Zhang Jingfeng did not even wait till he was seated, already reading from his phone, “He’s forty-one-years old, and has a business in wholesale clothing. There’s a total of something like one-million yuan in his accounts, and he also has three houses and two cars under his name!”

“This guy...is so rich!” Zhao Yu scratched his head and continued out of habit, “Zhang? Can you get the password to those cards?”

Hearing this, Zhang Jingfeng and Li Beini’s forehead instantly furrowed. “Senior...what are you planning?” Li Beini asked, a little unsure.

“Haha...it was a joke!” Zhao Yu realized his mistake and quickly backtracked, “I thought the atmosphere was too awkward, so I made a joke...hehe...continue, continue...”

“But, this guy’s record is spotty. He already went to jail a few times!” Zhang Jingfeng paused, then continued, “Brawling, quarreling, organized gambling, no major offenses, but endless little ones! I looked at the newest report, and this guy seriously injured someone, and has been endlessly investigated by the Rongyang Branch office!”

“Then...what’s this guy and Lin Meifeng’s...relationship?” Zhao Yu asked in a hurry.

“As of right now, it doesn’t seem like they have any, but...” Zhang Jingfeng suddenly changed tune mysteriously, “But him and Yu Zhigen were from the same hometown, they were both from Muguantun of the SL County!”

“Oh...I knew that!” Zhao Yu finally remembered that Yu Zhigen was indeed from Muguantun.

“Wow! That’s amazing!” Li Beini’s eyes lit up, “Pictures, and the same hometown! You could say that one piece of evidence was a coincidence, but both of these things can’t be a coincidence, right?”

“But,” Zhang Jingfeng continued, “there isn’t much on Liu Pengfei. To establish his, Yu Zhigen’s, and Li Meifeng’s true connection, we’ll still need to investigate further!”

“Bro!” Zhang Jingfeng was very excited, “From today on, I’ll follow you to the grave! Even though I’m part of the Missing Person’s Department, I’ll listen to your commands! My God, this is a ten-year-old case! If we can crack this, we’re going to be famous!”

“Fine, you’re so loyal!” Zhao Yu grinned, then patted Zhang Jingfeng on the shoulder and asked, “Oh right, you told me the reward is sixty-thousand yuan, are you for real?”

“Ha, look at you!” Zhang Jingfeng slapped Zhao Yu’s shoulder, “Sixty-thousand yuan is only the reward from the City Council! Later, our branch office will also have a reward! Bro, don’t worry, you’re the only member of the Cold Case Department, no one would try to take your reward! I just want to support you, so you can quickly go up the ranks, hehe...”

“Tch!” Li Beini spoke with some disdain, “What is this! Not even close! We haven’t even seen the criminal, and you guys are already splitting the reward! Geez, senior...” She turned playfully to Zhao Yu, “I don’t want reward money either, or even a promotion, if you really crack this case, just remember to give me some credit. Then I can guarantee my graduation from being an intern! So this time you have my full support!”

“Okay! No problem!” Zhao Yu patted his chest to show he his dedication. He felt his entire body get lighter.

“Alright!” Zhang Jingfeng promised, “Any information needed, just leave it to me! Give me three days, and I promise I’ll have all of Liu Pengfei’s information right in front of you. I’m going to lay him bare!”

“Ok! Good! Mmhm.” Even though he felt a bit lightheaded, Zhao Yu still did not forget the important topics and asked Zhang Jingfeng, “Right, Zhang, do you have any connections to Rongyang branch office? I want to interrogate Liu Pengfei personally!”

Hah!” Unexpectedly, Zhang Jingfeng started laughing, “Not a problem! Go look for Liang Huan! Liang Huan’s wife is in the Rongyang Branch office! Uh, I think she’s in the Drugs Department, and I think she is the vice-department leader!”

“Really?” Zhao Yu was first excited, then a little intimidated. Although Liang Huan’s wife was the vice-department leader, he had still been transferred! Zhao Yu had no support at all! if he ended up getting transferred, he would end up much worse than Liang Huan! No matter what, he had to solve this case!

“I’ll go and give him a call right now!” Zhang Jingfeng pulled out his phone, “Don’t you worry, the Slaughter Case is a sore spot for me and Liang, he’ll definitely help you!”

Zhang Jingfeng called Liang Huan right then and there. When Liang Huan heard they had found some evidence for the Slaughter Case, he was incredibly excited and immediately said no problem. With the okay from his wife, they could interrogate the suspect tomorrow!

As soon as he hung up, Hu Bin also finished his work. He returned the wallet to Zhao Yu, and said there was a total of four sets of working fingerprints. The samples had already been taken, and now they only had to compare it to the database. Li Beini immediately signed up to do the comparisons!

Seeing his friends using all their effort, Zhao Yu could not help but feel very appreciative. Ever since he had crossed over, even though everything had gone well, he could not help but feel a bit lonely; however, today was different. Even though he was the only member of the Cold Case Department, with these friends, it was like he had his own team! From now on, he was no longer alone!

Chapter 94: Here Comes What I Fear

Rejoicing, Zhao Yu took Liang Huan over and decided to treat everyone to drinks! It was almost eight at night, and the teammates happily agreed as they were all hungry; however, everyone's mind was on the case, and they did not drink much that night. After filling their stomachs and chatting a little about the case, they all went back on their own.

The moment Zhao Yu reached home, he was informed that his adventure had ended. His completion rate was eighty percent, and he had received another invisible listening device! He had just used the previous listening device, so he had received this one just at the right time.

Thinking back on the events of the day, Zhao Yu carefully sorted and recorded them. Gen-Kan hexagram! The day had ended just like this. Although he had made some predictions beforehand, the way the adventure had unfolded, the results were totally beyond his expectations. He had thought that with the appearance of "Kan," which represented woman, he would meet Yao Jia, but he had bumped into the demoness Miao Ying! Also he had thought that he would make a breakthrough on the case by following Lin Meifeng, but it turned out that he had found the clue in a stranger's wallet!

"Oh my, Miracle System! I really have no idea how you play this game! Will the clue that I miraculously found this time really help me solve the Slaughter Case?" Although he had had some drinks, Zhao Yu's mind was very awake. After he finished recording, he started thinking about the case again.

Ever since the Lost Hand Case, Zhao Yu had developed a great interest in solving crimes. Although the Slaughter Case was not as high-profile as the Lost Hand Case, it was a cold case that had not been solved for ten years! No one had been able to find the murderer after all these years. It was no doubt a challenge trying to solve it!

"What if I really solve it! Prize and glory is still secondary, what's most important is deflating that bastard Liu Changhu's arrogance! I'll make him understand that I am truly an expert detective! But..." Zhao Yu could not help but worry, not knowing if the clue he found was useful to the Slaughter Case. If it was just a coincidence, then all his aspirations would just be wishful thinking, right?

With this thought, Zhao Yu took out the information on the Slaughter Case again. He also opened up Liu Pengfei's wallet on the table, looking at it carefully, thinking seriously. "How exactly is Liu Pengfei related to Yu Zhigen and Lin Meifeng? And if I go to Ruyang Branch tomorrow, will I really get to interrogate Liu Pengfei? What questions should I ask him? If that guy refuses to cooperate, what else can I do? Can I use force?"

While thinking, Zhao Yu picked up the photo again. Although Lin Meifeng looked very young in the photo, she looked pale and sorrowful, and even had an obvious bruise on her right cheek. She wore her hair in a simple bun and was wearing an ordinary white sweater. The background suggested that she was at a market.

Yu Zhigen had frequently beaten Lin Meifeng. Was the bruise on her face caused by Yu Zhigen? Zhao Yu looked carefully at the photo and realized that Lin Meifeng was not looking at the camera, but at a vegetable stall somewhere. She was probably just doing some grocery shopping.

“Then...who was this photo taken by? Liu Pengfei? Why did he secretly take a photo of Lin Meifeng? Is this linked to Yu Zhigen’s death?” Zhao Yu kept thinking about the case and went to bed very late. As it was already past midnight, he did another calculation.

The result was exciting, it was another Gen-Kan hexagram! However, the explanation was totally different this time: “Mountains and Water. Mountains triumph over Water, the peak comes when the boat is low, enters when there are no holes, detritus will surround!”

Like the previous times, Zhao Yu knew that this adventure would be linked to work and women, but he was still unable to decipher the meaning of the hexagram explanation. He had even searched the explanation on the internet, but the results were fruitless like before.

Zhao Yu did not sleep well that night. He tossed and turned, and was about to fall asleep when his alarm clock rang. He quickly got up and washed up before heading out. As he was going to Ruyang Branch today, he had specially put on his police uniform, changing his entire disposition. He looked like a brave detective who was impartial and selfless!

After a quick breakfast at a roadside stall, he took the car from the police station and went straight to Ruyang Branch with the documents. On the way there, he received Li Beini’s comparison report which showed that out of the four fingerprints on the wallet, three had results. Other than Liu Pengfei, the other two were also frequent visitors of the police station. They were likely to be Liu Pengfei’s buddies; however, these two men had only gotten to know Liu Pengfei in recent years, so they probably would not be linked to the Slaughter Case, which happened ten years ago. Zhao Yu agreed, so he told Li Beini to put that clue aside for now.

Ruyang District and Rongyang District were at opposite ends of the city. Zhao Yu drove for an hour before he arrived. Due to limited space, Ruyang Branch was almost half the size of Rongyang District. As it was office hours when Zhao Yu arrived, there were many people at the entrance of the police station, and it seemed a little crowded.

The night before, Liang Huan had communicated with his wife and told Zhao Yu to give her a call when he arrived. “Sis-in-law, I’m Zhao Yu, has Bro Liang told you? I’ve already reached your unit!” Zhao Yu explicitly expressed stated his purpose.

“Oh, it’s you, Zhao!” The phone was a little noisy, “Yes, Liang Huan has told me about you, and I’ve already made arrangements! You can go straight to the Key Case Investigation Team and look for Captain Miao Ying, I’ve already informed her!”

When he heard the two words “Miao Ying,” Zhao Yu only felt a tremor in his head. “Oh my goodness! Here comes what I fear, why does it have to be her!? This demoness is really something, she’s already a captain at such a young age?” he thought.

“Sis, oh no, sis-in-law!” Zhao Yu stuttered, “Is there anyone else I can go to besides Miao Ying?”

“What?” Liang Huan’s wife did not understand him and said, “Don’t worry, I’ve already talked with her! She’s the captain and the criminal is in her hands! Oh, you just need to tell her that you’re from Rongyang Branch! Zhao, my kid’s sick and on the drip now, I gotta hang up. Just look for me again if you need anything!” She hung up before Zhao Yu could reply.

“Ho...ly...” Thinking about meeting with that evil and scary demoness again, Zhao Yu could not even curse properly!

Chapter 95: Anyone but You is Fine

There is a famous line on the streets: “Things that will come can’t be avoided.”

When Zhao Yu finally appeared at the Rongyang Branch Key Case Investigation Unit Office, team leader Miao Ying was very surprised and incredibly shocked.

“Wow! Mister Zhao Yu, I’m truly impressed!” Miao Ying’s large jewel-like eyes were wide as she raised a thumb to praise him, “Your bravery is truly beyond my expectations! Amazing! What...did you come to our branch office to stir up trouble?” Miao Ying was clad in a shiny casual jacket, her shiny black hair was neat and beautiful. She was 5’5” in height, and her curvy shape made her seem even more beautiful and energetic.

Even though Zhao Yu knew her devilish personality well, he still felt more refreshed seeing such a beauty standing proudly in front of him.

He stared for a few seconds, before grinning and speaking coldly, “What are you saying, Miao Ying? What do you mean by ‘stirring up trouble,’ saying it like I’m some sort of perverted delinquent! Mrs. Han Lu should’ve already called you, right? This time I’m here to attend to some urgent matters!”

“You want to interrogate Liu Pengfei?” Miao Ying read Zhao Yu’s identity report and other related documents, and spoke very coldly, “Yeah, Department Leader Han did tell me that, but I never would’ve dreamed that the person would be you?!” Miao Ying purposefully emphasized the “you,” which made Zhao Yu instinctively become alert.

“Since it’s like this, see...” Zhao Yu could only clean up his documents and lick at his lips, “Please spare me some kindness! Besides, in the case I’m working on, Liu Pengfei is a major suspect. If we make any progress, it would also help your investigation, right?”

“No!” Miao Ying answered briskly, and she spoke with little reserve, “Mister Zhao Yu, please pick someone else to do the interrogation! As long as it’s not you...anyone will work!” Miao Ying’s words were clearly a personal attack. Even the other investigators watching all stood behind Miao Ying, as if supporting her.

“Tsk, tsk...” Zhao Yu grinned as he smacked his lips, “Miss Miao Ying, then this is your problem! This is a case regarding someone’s life, if it is delayed, will you be able to take responsibility?”

“Hmph!” Miao Ying scoffed, “We’re all in the same field, no need to intimidate me! If you want to interrogate my prisoner, fine, bring the proper investigation paperwork. I promise I won’t stop you then!”

“Look at you talk! This is an emergency!” Zhao Yu started negotiating, “If we wait for documents, we will have missed prime time for investigation! How about this, first you let me interrogate the criminal, and I’ll give you the documents later? Besides, I am at least doing this in Mrs. Han Lu’s name, so you should be a little lenient, right?”

“I can explain to Department Leader Han!” Miao Ying spoke loudly, “Without official documents, even if it’s the branch leader’s order, I still can’t do it! So, Mister Zhao Yu, please go back!” Miao Ying’s words caused the watching investigators to laugh.

“Oi, you?” Zhao Yu was instantly enraged, and cursed Miao Ying in his heart. But to achieve his goal, he subdued his anger and continued his smooth talking, “Team Leader Miao! How about this, you can set the rules, and I can work around it. Tell me, what do I have to do so that you’ll let me interrogate the criminal?”

“Nothing, I won’t do it no matter what!” Miao Ying laughed coldly, “As long as you’re Zhao Yu, there’s no negotiation!”

“I...you...fucker...” Zhao Yu could not take it anymore and yelled out in anger, “Miao Renfeng, don’t go too far! Always leave a way out for yourself. Qinshan isn’t that big, you never know when you’ll need my help! What you’re doing is against the code of honor!”

“Don’t talk like we’re in the street to me. I’m the squad leader of the mobile squad, I will always do things by the book, by the rules!” Miao Yang spoke with finality.

Zhao Yu shook his head. He never expected Miao Ying to be so stubborn. It looked like she had already decided not to help him out whatsoever, but Zhao Yu was also stubborn. How could he give up halfway? But he was on someone else’s territory. To use force to get his way would be suicide! Negotiation already failed, then...Zhao Yu thought for a bit, then sighed.

He thought, “Alright! Since you aren’t going to be polite, then don’t mind me being underhanded! Looks like I must use my trump card!” Zhao Yu suddenly laughed out loud, surprising all the investigators.

“Muhahaha...” Zhao Yu pointed at Miao Ying with his pinkie, “Miao Renfeng, I thought you were some ace among women, or an honorable hero! Turns out you’re just a coward!”

“Hmph? What do you mean?” Hearing this, Miao Ying immediately started rolling up her sleeves. Her team members started cracking their knuckles, ready to attack.

“Ahahaha...” Zhao Yu looked like he was picking his nose, his pinkie waved quickly as he laughed shamelessly, “Did you forget what you said at the police academy? Fight on sight! Bah! If you dare, come...”

“Huh?!” Miao Ying’s eyebrows immediately flicked up, she looked like she was about to explode, “Kiddo, do you not want to live anymore? Are you...taunting me?”

“Hmph! So what if I am? I doubt you have any guts, hehe!” Zhao Yu nodded and put up a look of immense disrespect and laughed, “You must be scared of me! Did you get beaten into submission by me? If you dare, come fight!”

“You!” Miao Ying’s hand was already on the back of a chair. She originally wanted to throw the chair right at Zhao Yu, but within a moment it was like she realized something, and suddenly let go.

“Oh...riling me up I see!” Miao Ying laughed coldly, “How underhanded, kid! Wanting me to fight in the police office to put dirt on me, tsk tsk...well too bad!”

“Miao Rengfeng, I, Zhao Yu, fear nothing. Why would I be afraid of a weak girl like you?” Zhao Yu continued to clamor, “Come, come, today, we can fight ‘till we’re happy, do you dare?”

“Zhao Yu, don’t even bother!” Miao Ying had already seen through Zhao Yu’s plan and laughed, “You’re just a wild dog, I’m not going to follow your craze!”

“Ahahaha, what did I say? Are you scared of me or are you on your period?” Zhao Yu continued to laugh crazily, “But no worries, if you are too afraid to fight me then we can also fight with words. Words or fist, I ain’t afraid of you!”

“Kid, you dare...” Finally, the other investigators could no longer take it. Each of them wanted to go up and fight, ready to take Zhao Yu down a notch.

Miao Ying saw the situation turn sour and immediately stopped them, “Don’t move, if you guys act you’ll fall right in his trap, this is a police station!” She turned to Zhao Yu, “Zhao Yu, don’t be stupid!” Miao Ying repressed her anger with difficulty, “No matter what, I won’t let you interrogate the criminal! You can’t do anything about it!”

“Ahahaha...” Zhao Yu laughed out loud once again, “Can’t you tell? Who the hell cares about the criminal? Miao Rengfeng, you were right, I’m here to stir up some trouble! Hmph, too scared to fight with your fists, too scared to fight with words, if you ask me, you’re just a cowardly turtle. You and your Rongyang Key Case Investigation Unit are all trash!!”

Chapter 96: How to Compete?

“Ah!” an agent stomped his feet and shouted, “I can’t take this anymore, I wanna kill him!”

“Captain!” Another agent pleaded with Miao Ying in agitation, “This fella is too arrogant, we have to teach him a lesson!”

“Yes!” Yet another agent added in, “Let’s bash him up together and then sue him for slander, what do you think? I really can’t take it anymore!” The agents were all gnawing their teeth and stomping furiously.

Miao Ying was clenched her fists and could not wait to beat Zhao Yu up, but she was a captain, and felt suspicious after seeing Zhao Yu’s arrogant behavior. Zhao Yu could have come prepared with either a surveillance camera or a listening device. If she beat him up, it might cause trouble for herself. But Zhao Yu had called her a coward, and her investigation team garbage, how could she take this lying down?

In the end, Miao Ying pounded her fist on the office desk. The items on it jumped up more than a foot before falling. With this, the agents who were previously agitated suddenly quieted down, and did not even dare to breathe too loudly. Everyone knew that the consequences were grave when Miao Renfeng got angry!

“Zhao Yu! Don’t go too far!” Miao Ying said fiercely, “I’ll show you how you’re gonna die today! Tell me, how do you wanna compete? Fighting or civilized?”

“Wahaha...” Seeing that his trick was working, Zhao Yu let out a laugh, “This is how a heroine should behave! Fighting is simple; we just have to find somewhere spacious to have a duel until there’s a winner. Win and you are king; lose and you are the outcast! Life and death, rich or poor, it’s all destiny!”

“How about the civil way?” Miao Ying asked again.

“The civil way is a little complicated. There are many ways, such as betting, imitating, and meat-eating!” Zhao Yu started to impart his knowledge of the underground world again, “I think I don’t have to explain betting! Imitating means I do an action and you follow, if you can do the same then you win!”

“What nonsensical stuff is this!” Miao Ying frowned, “If you take off your pants and pee, I have to do the same? Alright, then I do an action and you follow?”

“Duh!” Zhao Yu yelled, “You’re a professional, if you do a 720 degrees back flip, wouldn’t I have to die also?”

“Then how should we compete?”

“We can also compete by using our chests to smash rocks, lie on a nail bed, drill a hole through our palms,” Zhao Yu saw Miao Ying cross her arms with a disgusted look on her face, “or meat-eating! Like goldfish in the fishtank, toads in the pond, and mice in the holes! We eat them alive. Whoever eats them will win!” Hearing Zhao Yu’s words, the agents felt slight nausea and looked disgusted.

“You...can you say something human?” Miao Ying glared with fury, “You’re simply insane, how about I call the mental hospital?”

“It’s okay, I had six psychiatrists, and seven have been driven crazy by me, save everyone the trouble!” Zhao Yu gave a sick laugh, “Captain Miao, since you dared not take the civil way, let’s have a good fight to our heart’s content! If you want, we can sign a liability agreement? If I get beaten to death by you, you won’t be held liable, how about that?”

“You!?” Miao Ying was trembling with anger. She really wanted to have another fight with Zhao Yu to teach this arrogant fella a good lesson; however, as the captain of the Key Case Investigation team, she would get herself into trouble once she got into a fight with Zhao Yu, even if she won. If the higher-ups found out about it in the future, it would not do her any good!

“How? No guts?” Like a rogue, Zhao Yu pulled out a chair and sat on it, and even crossed his legs, “If you dare not to, then just admit that you’re a coward!”

“Huh! Don’t be too arrogant!” Miao Ying said fiercely, “We’ll change the venue another day, and I’ll definitely teach you a good lesson! But today is International Dog Day, and I don’t want to be accused of animal abuse! Keke...” Miao Ying finally returned to insults, and the agents quickly followed with sneering.

“Coward means coward, you don’t dare to compete in this and don’t dare to compete in that, what kind of-”

“Isn’t there still betting?” Miao Ying cut Zhao Yu off as her eyes blazed.

“Betting?” Zhao Yu pretended to look hesitant and laugh nervously, “Okay...what do you wanna bet on? Oh, but there are also rules in betting!”

Miao Ying observed Zhao Yu’s slight change in behavior and felt more confident, “What rules?”

“The probability of the bet has to be one to one, and it can only be conducted when both parties are able to confirm it!” Zhao Yu explained, “For example, if you ask me to guess the color of your bra, then the probability of me getting it right is definitely very low! So you can only ask me to guess if your bra is red, or if you are wearing a bra and such. In short, I must have a fifty percent chance of getting it right! That’s called fair and just!” Following Zhao Yu’s words, all of the male agents present unconsciously gazed at Miao Ying’s chest. Miao Ying blushed at once and tightened up her jacket.

“Big or small, using dice, picking out poker cards, as long as the probability is one to one, we can bet on anything! But one must always honor the bet, and both parties must agree on the bet!” Zhao Yu said again, “Other than this, there’s another rule—there must be a distinction between host and guest!”

“Host and guest?”

“Since I’m at your place, I’m the guest, so I have to be the one proposing the bet. We will proceed if all of you agree, if not, we will not continue!”

Miao Ying gave it a thought. Since both parties had to agree to the bet, why not just hear what he wanted to bet on? “Alright, you have the say! What do you wanna bet on? What happens if you lose, and what happens if you win?”

“Mmm,” Zhao Yu pretended to ponder, “how about we bet on mobile phone signal!”

“What?” Zhao Yu’s suggestion surprised everyone as they were unable to keep up with Zhao Yu’s thinking.

“It’s like this!” Zhao Yu took out his phone and said, “I know qigong. When I exert my energy, the signal in your entire police station will be blocked by me! My strength is quite weak, and I can only maintain about five minutes plus!”

“What!?” Zhao Yu’s words shocked everyone again. “Has this person’s brain been kicked or something?” An agent said softly in the back, “I think he is delusional on top of being psychotic!”

Miao Ying also did not believe Zhao Yu, but she thought deeper than the rest. She was wondering if Zhao Yu had come prepared. Was his domineering and arrogant act a trick? But it was totally impossible to block the phone signal in the station!

“Captain Miao Ying!” Zhao Yu continued with his crazy act, “You just have to bet on whether or not I can block out the signal. If I win, you have to let me interrogate Liu Pengfei!”

“Huh!” Miao Ying snorted, “What if you lose?” Zhao Yu made an open-palm gesture, meaning she could suggest.

“Huh!” Miao Ying snorted again, “If you lose, you shall kneel in front of our office, admit your mistakes, and call me grandma!”

Chapter 97: Helpful Gods

As it turned out, Zhao Yu did it on purpose. He took the risk of getting beaten up by being so arrogant in order to anger Miao Ying and the group so they would end up doing what he wanted. He knew from the start that even if he battled Miao Ying to the death today, it would only worsen the situation. He would never achieve his goal of interrogating the criminal that way. Thus, the only thing he could do was to use an extreme method. Maybe then he would have a chance.

He had planned out the bet early on, and lured Miao Ying into his trap. Unexpectedly, Miao Ying took the bait! Of course, if he did not have the items from the Miracle System, Zhao Yu would not have been this confident. He knew the effects of the items by the heart. After thinking for a bit, he finally came up with a solution in a hurry and created this bet.

He had the Invisible Signal Jammer. The introduction said the jammer’s effective range was about 100 meters, so using it to block the entire Police Station was more than enough. The item left no traces and was undetectable. Even if Miao Ying used her imagination, there would be no way she would figure out how he did it!

“Okay! Promise!” Zhao Yu was already waiting for Miao Ying’s agreement, and spoke immediately, “Then you guys better sit tight and watch carefully, I’m going to start now!”

Miao Ying watched Zhao Yu act strangely, and was worried that he came prepared. She immediately called for one of her underlings and told him to get the special detector to see if Zhao Yu was up to something.

“Team Leader Miao Ying, we’ve already made a promise!” Zhao Yu continued to speak calmly, “Don’t be a sore loser! The one that backs out is a gutless pig!”

“Alright!” Even though the situation was strange, Miao Ying figured that she would win no matter what. She spoke confidently, “That’s my line! When you call me your grandmother later, it’s not the same as yelling at me ‘your mom’!”

“Muahaha...okay!” Putting on a convincing show, Zhao Yu immediately started fluttering his eyelashes and flailing his arms, “Heaven and Earth heed to me, gods open your eyes for me, jam all their signals, hallelujah...”

“This guy has totally lost it.” The investigators all shook their heads, “Is this guy some sort of professional scammer? Hahaha...” Yet, just as they laughed, they suddenly realized their phones really lost signal!

At this time, Miao Ying also noticed, and immediately pulled out her phone to try and make a call, but none of the phones had signal. Miao Ying could not help but be stunned, and looked toward Zhao Yu in astonishment.

“Oh, it really worked? Thanks, dear gods above. Please work a bit harder, block the signal for a bit longer!” Zhao Yu had already started the invisible signal jammer. As he monitored the status of the signal jammer in his mind, he muttered to the crowd, “Countdown starts now. Just five minutes then...I’m done!” Zhao Yu continued to speak nonsense, but Miao Ying was already sweating buckets.

Miao Ying took every number she could find and called them all, but even the emergency phone numbers did not work! The other investigators were all stunned, and their agitation ran wild. Some of them even went to other departments and other buildings, but the entire building’s phone signal was blocked! And not just the phone signal, but even the wireless signal as well!

Considering that they were in a police station, their cellphones had a special signal connection. Their signal was not only strong, but very broad. Regular jammers would not have any effect, but after Zhao Yu’s chanting, the signal had been mysteriously jammed. How could it be?

The investigator hurriedly used the signal detector, but after using the detector, they were even more stunned. “Team Leader! There’s no signal interference or scrambling. There’s no trace of any sort of intrusion!” The investigator with the detector looked at Zhao Yu stunned, “This is...completely insane!”

“How could it be?” Miao Ying had never seen something so strange. Even though she was not a professional in this field, she knew that this had never happened before!

Zhao Yu’s taunting words riled up Miao Yin. Her eyes were filled with danger. she took a stride forward and pushed Zhao Yu!

Zhao Yu did not expect the sudden assault, and fell back into the rolling chair, and spun out of control a few times!

Apparently, Miao Ying really thought that Zhao Yu’s words had really blocked the signal! When she saw Zhao Yu stop chanting, she immediately opened her phone to check, but the signal was still blocked. There was no change at all!

“Oi?” When Zhao Yu stopped spinning, he looked up from the rolling chair, “Are you playing underhanded tricks now? Good thing I have some loyal gods to help me. Even if you kill me, there’s still no use!”

“Ah!” Miao Ying was truly enraged. With another step and the raise of her leg, she kicked at Zhao Yu’s face.

This time, Zhao Yu was prepared and slid smoothly off of the chair. Miao Ying’s leg kicked straight at the back of the rolling chair, and the heavy chair flew back like a bullet and slammed straight into the wall. All of the rewards and diplomas on the wall started fluttering from the heavy hit. Some of the glass panels fell to the floor and shattered!

When the investigators saw their boss move, they all moved and crowded around Zhao Yu! Some people could not wait to give Zhao Yu a beating. Some of the sneakier investigators even blocked the cameras and locked the door to the office! It seemed that they wanted to beat Zhao Yu to his death!

But just as the battle was about to start, something surprising happened. Faced with the dangerous situation, Zhao Yu seemed strangely calm. He laughed as he raised his hands, and walked confidently to the center of the office. "Everyone!" He showed a face of bravery, and even gestured towards his own face, "Come! If you dare, just beat me to death! If I return a hit, call me a coward!"

Chapter 98: Unconventional Interrogation

Zhao Yu held his hands flat, tilted his head, and laughed deviously. Although he looked annoying, the agents felt uncomfortable! If Zhao Yu acted obnoxiously, they would beat him up without any hesitation! But Zhao Yu had put up a defeatist attitude, which made everyone confused and hesitant! The feeling in the room was similar to the climax of a basketball game where the opponent's defenders suddenly moved to the side! The lack of self-confidence made it difficult to shoot the ball into the net! There was a name for this in the streets: retreat in order to advance, fight fire with fire!

Zhao Yu was aware that he was facing many agents who were full of vigor, and also Miao Ying who had extraordinary fighting abilities. If he got into a fight with them, there would be no chance of him winning. Knowing this, he decided to surrender and let them hit him whichever way they liked. He would simply not strike back! That way the person beating him up would feel bored, and feel like their punches had no effect.

That was how the agents felt. One punched Zhao Yu's back, and Zhao Yu staggered back a few steps but did not make a sound! Soon, another agent kicked Zhao Yu which he did not react to either, but maintained his evil smile. Finally, when the third person held up a chair to bring down on Zhao Yu's head, Miao Ying quickly shouted and stopped them.

Miao Ying was a team captain, after all. If others found out that she let her whole team to beat up an officer from another branch, there would be no way she could explain herself. Moreover, she was alerted that Zhao Yu was not fighting back. She had a feeling that Zhao Yu had come prepared. If he had brought some form of surveillance camera or listening device, the situation would very much be to their disadvantage! Stop falling into Zhao Yu's trap!

"So everyone, do you still wanna hit me?" Zhao Yu asked calmly then pointed to his watch, "Captain Miao, five minutes have passed, you h lost the bet!!"

Miao Ying looked at the time on her phone. Not only had it been five minutes, but the signal had been blocked for almost ten minutes. The system's introduction stated that the invisible signal blocker could last up to an hour, and could be stopped anytime after being activated.

Zhao Yu saw that the time was almost right, and quickly made a few gestures before shouting, "On!" while pressing the stop button in his brain to deactivate the blocker.

Some might have said it was a coincidence that Zhao Yu miraculously blocked the signal in the police station, but after he shouted “on,” all of the agents’ phones regained service, and they had no choice but to admit that Zhao Yu had something to do with the signal being blocked!

Miao Ying knitted her brows but could not figure out how he had done it! Zhao Yu’s behavior was beyond her imagination; however, she had agreed to the bet in front of so many people, so she had to admit that she lost! Miao Ying unwillingly waved her hand at her subordinates, “The few of you, make arrangements for him, and bring Liu Pengfei into the interrogation room!”

Hearing this, Zhao Yu held his fists together in front of Miao Ying and said seriously, “Thank you, Captain Miao! You are a woman of your word, you have my respect!” Zhao Yu’s compliments sounded very sincere, and he no longer had his usual unpredictable, crazy expression.

“Oh...” Miao Ying finally figured out something, “Don’t tell me...him being so weird back then was just an act? This fella had it all planned? I...got tricked? This...” Miao Ying stared straight at Zhao Yu and thought to herself, “Looks like I underestimated this fella. I actually got fooled by his arrogant and annoying behavior! I’ll have to be extra careful if I see him again!”

With this thought, Miao Ying said coldly to Zhao Yu, “But let me warn you first, I can let you interrogate the man, but you cannot do anything improper! We will be supervising the interrogation throughout!”

“Of course!” Zhao Yu laughed, “I know the rules! But if I get any important clues out of Liu Pengfei, you’ll also get credit, Captain Miao. Who knows, you may wanna treat me if that happens!”

“Huh! Don’t even think about it!” Miao Ying shifted her gaze away from Zhao Yu in disgust. The agents did not dare to defy their captain’s order. Although they still scowled at Zhao Yu, they brought Liu Pengfei to the interrogation room ten minutes later. Worried that Zhao Yu had ulterior motives, Miao Ying had three tall and sturdy male agents enter the interrogation room with Zhao Yu. Although they stayed under the premise of assisting Zhao Yu, the real reason was to supervise him.

Since Zhao Yu had nothing to hide, he did not object to that. It was already a miracle that he could interrogate Liu Pengfei!n Zhao Yu had initially prepared some questions to ask Liu Pengfei; however, after he won the bet using the invisible signal blocker, he suddenly remembered that he had another tool.

“Right! I still have five invisible lie detectors! Although they only last ten minutes, they can accurately detect if a person is lying, and it’s one-hundred percent accurate. What’s more, it’s totally invisible and much more powerful than a real lie detector! Isn’t it the perfect tool to use to interrogate Liu Pengfei?” With this thought, Zhao Yu could not help but feel excited. If the lie detector really worked, he might find out some important clues!

Unexpectedly, when Liu Pengfei was brought into the interrogation room, he appeared more agitated than Zhao Yu. He knew the face of the man who had beat him up like a madman at the wholesale market was the man in front of him! Once he saw Zhao Yu, Liu Pengfei felt burning pain in his back. Zhao Yu and Miao Ying had almost skinned him alive the day before! Now that Zhao Yu was going to interrogate him, it was sure to be bad!

Liu Pengfei was handcuffed on the interrogation chair under a single glaring light. Zhao Yu sat firmly opposite of him in the interrogation chair. Under normal circumstances, as she was Zhao Yu’s colleague, Miao Ying should have given Zhao Yu Liu Pengfei's file; however, Miao Ying hated Zhao Yu to the core. Why would she possibly have prepared documents for him?

Nonetheless, Zhao Yu had the lie detector, so it did not matter that he did not have the files. After sitting down, Zhao Yu said to Liu Pengfei, "Bro, when I ask you questions, you just have to answer 'yes' or 'no,' understand?" Zhao Yu talked to Liu Pengfei the way a teacher talks to a student, "Remember, you have to answer fast! If you answer well, I may be able to get you out of here! If you don't answer well, you know the consequences!"

Hearing Zhao Yu's words, Liu Pengfei shivered and swallowed hard before nodding his head reluctantly. The agents and Miao Ying who were monitoring them outside the interrogation room could not help but frown. Who interrogated criminals this way? What exactly was Zhao Yu doing?

Chapter 99: The Magical Lie Detector

Zhao Yu had read through the lie detector's instructions carefully beforehand. As it turned out, even though the Lie Detector was one-hundred percent accurate, it could only judge very clear questions and answers, which was why he asked Liu Pengfei to only answer either "yes" or "no".

When Zhao Yu flipped on the switch for the invisible lie detector, a simple image appeared in his mind: a red light, a green light, and at the top right, a ten-minute countdown. The entire picture was as simple as a child's drawing. Watching the time slowly drip away, Zhao Yu hurried up and started to ask his questions.

Because it was his first time, and Zhao Yu had no experience, he asked the simplest question, "Are you a male?"

"Yes!" Even though he was confused, Liu Pengfei still cooperated and answered.

The green light in Zhao Yu's head lit up. "Oh..." It seemed like green light represented the truth. "Are you a female?" To check the lie detector's validity, Zhao Yu asked another easy question.

"No!" The green light lit up again.

"Then..." Zhao Yu wanted to test the effectiveness of lies with the detector, and said to Liu Pengfei, "Bro, I'll ask you something, this time you say yes, okay?" Zhao Yu's words made everyone watching very confused.

"Are you transgender?" Zhao Yu asked and immediately gestured at Liu Pengfei. "Say yes, hurry!"

"Um..." Liu Pengfei was sweating buckets and could only tremble a small nod, "Yes!"

The red light not only lit up, but it also made a loud buzzing sound! Zhao Yu sighed to himself in awe. Looks like the lie detector was very truthful!

"Alright, testing complete. Let us officially start!" Zhao Yu gestured again at Liu Pengfei. "You don't have to say the truth, just answer yes or no, and quickly, okay?"

"Huh? What?" Liu Pengfei was a little confused.

Miao Ying and the other officers all looked curiously. Who would tell the criminal not to say the truth? They did not understand what Zhao Yu was thinking.

“Hurry up!” Zhao Yu watched the time decrease quickly and asked, “Is your name Liu Pengfei?”

“Yes!” Green light.

“Are you from Muguantun of the SL County?”

“Yes!” Green light.

“Do you like to eat rice cakes?”

“No!” Green light.

“Are your parents divorced?”

“No!” Green Light.

“Have you had hemorrhoid surgery before...Has anyone ever said you have erectile dysfunction...” Zhao Yu asked more than ten irrelevant and awkward questions back to back.

Even though Liu Pengfei could not understand the point to these questions, he answered honestly. He did not realize it, but under Zhao Yu’s guidance, he started to answer questions faster and faster!

Unexpectedly, as Zhao Yu asked his questions, he changed the topic, and he asked quickly, “Do you know Yu Zhigen?”

When he heard the name “Yu Zhigen,” Liu Pengfei noticeably paused and did not answer immediately.

Zhao Yu had long been waiting for this reaction. Even without the lie detector, he already knew. It looked like Liu Pengfei indeed knew Yu Zhigen!

“Yes!” After a three second pause, Liu Pengfei finally answered, but he also realized his mistake and appeared very nervous. Green light. “Me and him were from the same village, we used to play together,” Liu Pengfei tried to explain, but as he explained he realized he was exposing himself more.

“I told you, you just have to answer yes or no. No need to say anything else!” Zhao Yu reminded him, but Liu Pengfei was even more nervous, and was sweating profusely.

At that moment, Miao Ying, who was observing from the other room, felt shocked. Even though she did not know who Yu Zhigen was, she already instinctively felt there was something important going on. Not only that, but watching Zhao Yu’s strange interrogation method was also equally interesting. Zhao Yu...what kind of person was he?

Liu Pengfei paused again, then answered, “ No!” The Lie Detector buzzed, the red light lit.

There was already photo evidence, so Zhao Yu already knew the answer to the question. He knew that Liu Pengfei definitely knew Lin Meifeng.

“Ten years ago, did you go uptown?” Zhao Yu continued digging.

Hearing the word “uptown,” Liu Pengfei immediately realized something and stared at Zhao Yu, his eyes wide, filled with immense fear and shock.

“What are you looking at? Answer!”

Under Zhao Yu’s roar, Liu Pengfei immediately shook his head, “No!” Bzzt...Red light.

Even though he had only asked a few simple questions, Zhao Yu felt like he had been struck by lightning. “My god...could it be...the truth to the slaughter case is right here?!” he thought in disbelief.

Zhao Yu pondered momentarily, then chased the main topic, “The Uptown Slaughter Case from ten years ago, do you know about it?”

“Uh...yes!” Liu Pengfei nodded and wanted to add, “I’ve only heard of it.”

But before he could speak, Zhao Yu already yelled out, “Tell me! Did you kill Yu Zhigen?”

“No, no, no way?!” Liu Pengfei’s face turned pale, and he blurted out “no” three times. Bzzt...Red light!

“Wow! Holy sh*t...” Zhao Yu thought. His eyes widened, and he felt a bit faint. Even though he had suspected Liu Pengfei, he had only hoped to find evidence for the slaughter case. To think that Liu Pengfei was the culprit of the slaughter case! The culprit that disappeared ten years ago...was right in front of him! The surprise came too suddenly, and Zhao Yu was utterly unprepared. He was quiet for quite a while before realizing the lie detector’s time was running out.

Repressing his own shock, he continued asking, “Liu Pengfei, the day you killed Yu Zhigen, was it pouring rain?”

“No!” Liu Pengfei was very nervous as he answered, “Officer, what are you saying? Why are you asking all these strange questions?” Yet, the red light on the lie detector was still lit.

“Quit the useless chatter!” Zhao Yu continued, “Tell me, did you have an affair with Lin Meifeng?”

“What!” Liu Pengfei was very agitated, and kept rubbing the chair with his back as if no longer wanting to cooperate.

Zhao Yu was equally agitated, seeing the time flow away. He suddenly jumped up, rushed toward Liu Pengfei, and grabbed his collar angrily.

Three police officers were stunned. Fearing Zhao Yu would do something drastic, they rushed forward to stop him. But just as they moved, the door to the interrogation room suddenly opened, and Miao Ying walked in as she told the three police officers to stop. “You guys get out first!” Miao Ying waved her hand, and the three quickly left the room.

Zhao Yu watched as Miao Ying entered, originally thinking she was here to stir up trouble. Unexpectedly, Miao Ying walked in front of Liu Pengfei and stood there.

When he saw these two demons standing in front of him, Liu Pengfei weakly swallowed, shaking like a leaf in the wind.

“Don’t worry, Zhao Yu!” Miao Ying’s knuckles cracked. “All the surveillance cameras have already been turned off!” Miao Ying’s short sentence caused Liu Pengfei to shiver.

“Officer, please, I’ll cooperate! I’ll cooperate!”

Zhao Yu watched Miao Ying, a little shocked, trying to figure out what she was thinking. “Why is she cooperating with me? Is she trying to get me to hit the culprit, to frame me? Hmph! Do you think I’m stupid?” he thought.

Zhao Yu let go of Liu Pengfei’s collar and asked, “Hurry! Did you and Lin Meifeng have an affair?”

“No!” Liu Pengfei answered, then added, “Officer, I really have no idea what you’re talking about.” The Lie Detector first lit up green, then turned red.

Zhao Yu realized that Liu Pengfei and Lin Meifeng did not have an affair, but when he said he did not know anything, he was lying! The culprit of the slaughter case was him!!

Chapter 100: Join in Your Doings

Having found the real culprit with the help of the lie detector, Zhao Yu was shocked yet relieved. Since Liu Pengfei and Lin Meifeng had not had an affair, Lin Meifeng probably had nothing to do with Yu Zhigen’s death! Before, Zhao Yu had struggled with this case because of that idea! Although his instinct told him that Lin Meifeng might be linked to the Slaughter Case, he did not want Lin Meifeng to be the murderer! This pitiful woman had been through so much trauma, and had finally found happiness. How could he cruelly destroy her life?

To be one-hundred percent sure, Zhao Yu asked Liu Pengfei one more question, “Were you hired or pressured by Lin Meifeng to kill Yu Zhigen?”

“No! I...” Liu Pengfei had wanted to say something but Zhao Yu quickly covered his mouth, afraid that the lie detector would be inaccurate if Liu Pengfei’s answer was too lengthy. The green light lit up and Zhao Yu felt a sense of relief. It seemed that Lin Meifeng had nothing to do with Yu Zhigen’s death after all!

“But...” all of a sudden, a sense of doubt snuck into Zhao Yu’s mind. He still felt that something was off. If Lin Meifeng had nothing to do with Liu Pengfei killing Yu Zhigen, then why did Liu Pengfei have a picture of Lin Meifeng in his wallet? Could it be that Li Beini’s guess was correct? Did Liu Pengfei really secretly admire Lin Meifeng?

Zhao Yu wanted to ask more, but five minutes passed and the lie detector stopped working. The tool column in his mind showed that the number of lie detectors had reduced by one; there were only four left! These five lie detectors had been obtained when Zhao Yu solved the Lost Hand Case. His adventure completion rate had surpassed ninety percent! Zhao Yu had not thought much of the tool then, but now it seemed that the lie detector was really powerful! With this tool, even a stubborn criminal who refused to confess would not be able to hide the truth!

Liu Pengfei was sweating profusely and was totally drained. His chest moved up and down as though he was under enormous mental stress.

Miao Ying was very smart. Although she did not have a lie detector, she had already figured out something just from watching the interrogation! “Oh...no wonder Zhao Yu was so persistent in interrogating Liu Pengfei! Liu Pengfei is linked to another case! And it's a major murder case!" With this thought, Miao Ying's dislike towards Zhao Yu suddenly softened a bit. She quickly got her subordinates to inquire about the Uptown Slaughter Case, and at the same time had someone to check on Zhao Yu's background!

What surprised Miao Ying was that Zhao Yu had initially interrogated Liu Pengfei very actively, but he had suddenly become very quiet and started looking at the files, completely oblivious of Liu Pengfei's and Miao Ying's existence.

Zhao Yu's silence made Liu Pengfei even more scared. Liu Pengfei scratched his head and craned his neck as he broke out in cold sweat. He looked nervous and stiff, fidgeting non-stop on the interrogation chair as though he were on a bed of needles. He wanted to explain to Zhao Yu that he had nothing to do with Yu Zhigen's death, but the words were stuck in his throat. He was afraid that his explanation would cause more problems; however, the silence had gone on for a few minutes and Zhao Yu still had not uttered a single word, drawing on the paper.

Miao Ying glanced over a few times out of curiosity, but Zhao Yu purposely covered the paper with his hands and refused to let her see. Actually...Zhao Yu had drawn many small tortoises on the paper! The reason why Zhao Yu stopped talking was not because of any psychological tactic, but because the invisible lie detector had stopped and he did not know how to continue the interrogation!

Although Zhao Yu had confirmed that Liu Pengfei was the murderer, he did not have any evidence! No fingerprints, footprints, bloodstains, DNA etc. Without any evidence, he would not be able to get Liu Pengfei to plead guilty!

The current circumstances were also to Zhao Yu's disadvantage. Miao Ying was watching right beside him, so he could not do anything to Liu Pengfei! But it had not been easy to get the chance to interrogate Liu Pengfei, so he was unwilling to give up.

What should he do? Besides using force, was there any other way to make Liu Pengfei plead guilty? There was no real evidence. Even if he interrogated him for another three days, he would still not admit his guilt! There really was no evidence!

Feeling helpless, Zhao Yu could only start drawing tortoises on the files and think about his next move. A knocking sound came from outside the interrogation room, and an agent walked in and passed Miao Ying some files. Miao Ying had wanted to leave the interrogation room, but she was worried that Zhao Yu might do something extreme, so she just took the files and started looking through them in a corner far away from Zhao Yu.

As the metal door closed, the air in the interrogation room became thicker. Zhao Yu continued drawing tortoises on his file while Miao Ying looked seriously at her files. The two demons totally ignored Liu Pengfei who was in the interrogation chair, which made Liu Pengfei feel even worse. He was restless and extremely terrified. Liu Pengfei knew about the calm before the storm! A dog that bites does not bark loudly! Would misfortune would befall him later?

Fifteen minutes later, Miao Ying finished reading the files. "Oh..." she finally knew all about Zhao Yu. "Interesting, this fella solved two major cases in a row, even caught the culprit himself, and got a city-level reward. He got transferred to the Cold Case Department. It seems like this fella is stubborn and has a bad temper, but based off of the scene he caused earlier, it seems like he's really persistent! If it had been another person, he would have never put himself in such a dangerous situation just to investigate a case! This fella..." Miao Ying's contempt for Zhao Yu had softened yet again.

After reading through the information on the Uptown Slaughter Case, her eyes lit up as if she had realized something important. At the same time, Zhao Yu seemed to have thought of something as well and stopped his drawing. He pouted his lips at Miao Ying, signalling for her to go outside with him so they could talk. Miao Ying nodded and the two walked out of the interrogation room. Zhao Yu said to Miao Ying, "Captain Miao, can we discuss something? Can I...ask something?"

"Keke..." Miao Ying smiled with slyness in her eyes, as if she had guessed what Zhao Yu was thinking. "Why? Are you asking me to cooperate with you, and join in on your investigation?"

"Ah?" Zhao Yu was shocked! "This is bad! This demoness is so smart! That's it! After thinking for so long, she guessed what I came up with! This is the end!" he thought.

Unexpectedly, just as Zhao Yu was feeling despondent, Miao Ying smiled again and pouted her sexy lips as she said, "But...I agree!!!"
