

Crazy 951

Chapter 951: My Phone

Wang Can was surprised. He rushed over and asked, "Mentor, what happened?"

Zhao Yu grabbed Wang Can's collar and asked, "Have you heard of the Mengxiang Cooperative case? Do you know about the wanted criminal Yang Zebiao?"

At first, Wang Can shook his head, but then he nodded and said, "I remember hearing about the case now!"

Zhao Yu shouted, "It's too late to tell you any of the details! A colleague of mine was killed because of this case! This case is directly related to Jiang Ke. Jiang Ke just confessed. He knows where Yang Zebiao is located. We must leave immediately and take Jiang Ke with us. Do you understand?"

"I... This... Um..." Wang Can was confused.

Zhao Yu shouted again, "Why are you waiting? Where are your leaders? Tell them, I have to take Jiang Ke away right now, or it will be too late. Understand?"

"Oh..." Wang Can nodded, turned and ran.

Zhao Yu urged again, "Remember to drive the car over here, and let them open the detention center entrance! Hurry!"

Wang Can nodded and hurried to do so.

In addition to the two armed policemen who guarded the door, the prison guard was still there. He had no idea what was going on.

Zhao Yu pointed to the interrogation room and shouted, "Unlock the shackles on Jiang Ke now, but don't unlock the handcuffs."

"Oh... Yes." The guard dared not disobey. He quickly took out the key and unlocked the shackles that were restraining Jiang Ke.

Seeing the prison guard unlocking the prisoner's shackles, the two armed policemen became somewhat confused.

"Don't just stand there..." Zhao Yu didn't want them to have time to think. He pointed at them and shouted, "Call your squadron as soon as possible. I'm going to take this repeat offender with me now. You must take full responsibility for the security work!"

The armed police officers quickly used their walkie-talkies to speak to their squadron. When Zhao Yu returned to the interrogation room, he saw that the prison guard was unlocking Jiang Ke's leg shackles.

Jiang Ke looked extremely nervous and cold sweat appeared on his forehead.

Zhao Yu knew that it was impossible to get out of the detention center easily; He had to take extreme measures to fake a serious operation. He called Director Chief Jiao of the Criminal Division.

“Director Chief Jiao, something big has happened.” Zhao Yu repeated what he had said to Wang Can. He said that he must take Jiang Ke with him in case the situation changed.

If it had not been Zhao Yu, Director Chief Jiao would ask him all the details. This case was different for Zhao Yu, the famous detective of the Criminal Division. After all, Zhao Yu had surprised her many times in the past!

Therefore, after she heard what Zhao Yu planned, she didn’t hesitate to immediately approve Zhao Yu’s actions and promised to inform the Yaoming Police Station immediately. Of course, Division Chief Jiao didn’t forget to remind Zhao Yu that he must take extra security precautions.

Knowing that Zhao Yu had obtained the approval of the Criminal Division, the prison guard had no doubts about Zhao Yu and opened Jiang Ke’s leg cuffs.

The prison guard saw Jiang Ke was still holding his Samsung S9. Just as he wanted to ask Zhao Yu if his mobile phone was still needed, Zhao Yu called his bodyguards. The prison guard dared not disturb him at that time.

Zhao Yu notified his bodyguards that he was ready to leave. Then he took Jiang Ke out. The prison guard was thinking about his Samsung S9, and the two armed policemen were worried about the possibility of Jiang Ke’s escape. Therefore, they followed Zhao Yu.

As soon as they arrived in the hall where all of the leaders had gathered after they received the news.

Zhao Yu found that the leaders of the detention center were the most annoying. One of them stopped Zhao Yu and said, “Detective Zhao, you must calm down! Jiang Ke is a serious offender and must not leave. We are responsible for keeping him here!”

Another detention center leader pleaded, “Wait a minute. Could you follow our normal procedures, please? I promise that I will get the approval for you as quickly as possible!”

Upon hearing this, Zhao Yu grabbed the man’s collar and roared fiercely, “Do you know about the Ziliu case? Do you know who Yang Zebiao is?”

“I know... I know...” The leader nodded with sweat covering his forehead.

Zhao Yu asked, saliva splashing on the man’s face, “If I fail to catch Yang Zebiao because of you, would you make it up to me or would you take responsibility?”

The leader shook his head, and Zhao Yu released him.

By this time, Wang Can had driven a police car to the gate of the building. The armed police officers and prison guards who heard the commotion inside the building had come to block the gate.

Zhao Yu took Jiang Ke to the police car. Two armed police officers tried to stop Zhao Yu, but Zhao Yu hit them. Yu. Zhao Yu shouted, “Get away from me!”

The leaders of the detention center rushed to stop him again. “Jiang Ke is not a normal prisoner. We can’t afford to take responsibility for letting him go!”

Unexpectedly, a local deputy bureau chief's phone rang. After receiving the call, the deputy bureau chief immediately straightened up, responded with "yes", and quickly hung up.

The deputy bureau chief shouted at the crowd, "All right, all right... Don't stand in the way! The Criminal Division has given me instructions that this is a special task! Everyone, let Detective Zhao proceed"

At this time, a leader dressed in camouflage uniform quickly nodded to Zhao Yu and said, "Detective Zhao, you can rest assured that my people will protect you!"

Zhao Yu had no more time to talk. He immediately pulled Jiang Ke out of the building and jammed him into the police car. After Jiang Ke got in the car, the two armed policemen who had been following him wanted to get in the car also.

Zhao Yu said angrily, "Hey, who let you get in the car? I have my bodyguards. Go to the car in the back!"

As he spoke, he waved to his bodyguards, and they ran over.

Zhao Yu looked away and saw that the vertical lifting door at the detention center entrance was opening. Zhao Yu moved around the car and took the driver's seat.

He ordered, "Wang Can, time is running out. I'll drive! You can sit in the back."

Wang Can didn't think much about it. He agreed and got out of the car. Suddenly, he remembered something and asked, "Mentor, didn't you hurt your leg? Can you drive?"

To everyone's surprise, Zhao Yu stepped on the accelerator and drove away when Wang Can got out of the car.

One of the bodyguards had just stepped into the car, and Zhao Yu's sudden move made him yell! The bodyguard had been trained to protect important people. Immediately, he stretched out his arms, grabbed the door tightly, and was about to get in the car.

Zhao Yu shouted angrily, without even turning his head. "Jiang Ke, do you want to leave?"

Jiang Ke understood Zhao Yu's meaning. He kicked the bodyguard out of the car. Zhao Yu stepped on the accelerator and headed straight to the entrance of the detention center.

The lifting door wasn't fully opened yet, but Zhao Yu did not slow down. He sped through the door and barely touched the moving door.

Jiang Ke screamed in surprise and lay down on the seat.

With a squeaky, metal-on-metal sound, the thick roof of the car was squeezed down half an inch, and the car windows were smashed.

Zhao Yu drove the police car straight to the highway.

All the people in the detention center stared at the car as it disappeared.

A leader scratched his head and said, "Guys, I have a bad feeling about this!"

The prison guard murmured with a sad look, "He took my phone."

Chapter 952: The Deceitful Mysterious Man

The floor of the police car was covered with broken glass. Jiang Ke looked at Zhao Yu in surprise and said, "I'm very excited right now. Being a leader is so cool. Why was it so easy for you to get me out of there?"

Zhao Yu shouted at the phone's camera in Jiang Ke's hand, "He's safe now. You have to keep your promise!"

After listening to the mysterious man's instruction, Jiang Ke said, "I'm not completely safe yet! Turn left at the traffic light ahead! I'll tell you where to go. When we get to the destination, your niece will be safe."

"We are running out of time!" Zhao Yu said as he followed Jiang Ke's instructions.

It was clear that Jiang Ke was repeating the mysterious man's instructions when he said, "The morning self-study class ends at 7:40, so there's still time! It seems that you care about your niece."

Zhao Yu hammered the steering wheel angrily. The mysterious man spoke to Jiang Ku again.

Jiang Ke demanded, "Give me your cell phone now! Your phone has a tracking function. The police will be able to find us!"

Zhao Yu angrily threw his phone to Jiang Ke and said desperately, "So does yours. They can track your phone as well."

Zhao Yu knew that was wrong. Since the mysterious man had modified the Samsung S9, the police wouldn't be able to locate them.

Jiang Ke threw Zhao Yu's mobile phone out of the window and said proudly, "Just do as I say, and you won't have anything to worry about"

Zhao Yu shook his head and sighed, "Actually, my phone is not important. Since the car windows are broken, we will stand out,"

Zhao Yu's didn't finish when he suddenly heard a siren approaching from behind. A dark green Volkswagen Tiguan headed straight toward them.

Zhao Yu shrugged and said, "What did I say?"

Jiang Ke was shocked and nervously ordered, "Speed up and get rid of them!"

Zhao Yu turned and said to Jiang Ke. "No problem, but I need to see my niece first. I need to know if she is safe."

Jiang Ke followed the mysterious man's instruction and showed Zhao Yu the screen of the phone.

Jiang Xiaoqing was working attentively.

Zhao Yu already had another plan in mind, but he decided to continue the prison break plan and see what the mysterious man wanted.

He stepped on the accelerator as he tried to get rid of the police car behind them. However, the Tiguan wasn't giving up and was following them closely.

Jiang Ke grabbed the phone tightly and seemed restless. He knew that he was exposed, and the police were going to catch him soon. If they couldn't get rid of the car following them, his chance of escape would be small.

Zhao Yu wasn't worried. As he passed a narrow intersection, he saw a garbage truck approaching from the right. He immediately used an 'Invisible Accelerator' to accelerate the garbage truck. When his car had just passed the intersection, the garbage truck blocked the intersection and stopped the police car.

The Tiguan stopped suddenly. Although it didn't hit the garbage truck, it crashed into a fire hydrant.

Jiang Ke looked back and saw that the police car had disappeared. He didn't understand what was going on. He looked at Zhao Yu strangely.

Again, following the mysterious man's instruction, he said, "Do you see that red building? Go over there!"

Zhao Yu saw the red building. It was a hotel still under renovation. Although the walls had been painted, the scaffolding was still there.

"Turn into the alley and go to the east side of the building. Be quick about it!" Following Jiang Ke's instructions, Zhao Yu drove into the alley.

Jiang Ke pointed ahead and said, "Yes, that's it! The underground parking entrance is there."

Zhao Yu immediately did as he was told. A plastic sign, which said "No Entry," stood at the entrance of the parking garage. Zhao Yu drove straight into the entrance, knocking the sign down and crushing it.

Zhao Yu drove along the driveway to the underground parking lot. The parking lot was a mess. It was piled high with rags and was wet and smelly.

While he directed Zhao Yu, Jiang Ke chanted, "Left, left... Skynet Maintenance, Skynet Maintenance... Eh? Yes, yes! That yellow van!"

Zhao Yu understood the mysterious man's intentions. He had already sent someone to make arrangements.

This man is a huge threat to me! Zhao Yu thought.

Suddenly, Zhao Yu thought about the cigarette robbery. That case was planned well in advance, somewhat similar to his current situation. From his point of view, Zhao Yu had good reason to believe that the mysterious person was the real mastermind!

Jiang Ke shouted, "Stop now!"

Zhao Yu stopped the police car by the yellow van. On the side of the van were the words "Skynet Maintenance."

Zhao Yu was surprised that the mysterious man had arranged for a van to be here. That was extremely clever! If he and Jiang Ke left in the van, the police might wouldn't be suspicious, so the escape plan would be successful.

"Come on, Detective Zhao!" Jiang Ke said as he opened the door and signaled for Zhao Yu to get out. Zhao Yu was surprised to see that Jiang Ku had already unlocked his handcuffs.

Zhao Yu clenched his teeth. He wondered what would happen next.

Suddenly, the monitoring screen in his brain showed a red alarm. He saw that the alarm was coming from the yellow van. Searching the van, he discovered a remote-control bomb attached underneath!

No wonder he had a Kun Qian hexagram today.

The detector told Zhao Yu the bomb type. If the phone number connected to the bomb was dialed, the bomb would explode!

This mysterious man was extremely treacherous! First, he controlled Zhao Yu using his niece, and, now, he was threatening him with a bomb. Zhao Yu thought about how the mysterious man would use the bomb.

Does he want to kill me, or does he want to kill both of us? If he wants to kill both of us, he will set off the bomb after we get in the van. If he only wants me dead, he will set it off when Jiang Ke gets out of the van.

Zhao Yu preferred to believe that the bomb was meant only for him. Even though he had helped Jiang Ke escape from prison, he wasn't willing to die because of his actions.

Jiang Ke urged impatiently, "Hey, come on! The key is under the car seat. You can drive! There is an exit at the back of the parking lot. We'll leave from there. Hello? Are you listening to me?"

To show that he had everything under control right, Jiang Ke waved the mobile phone. Zhao Yu ran over to Jiang Ke. As Jiang Ke ran to the van, he fell. Zhao Yu rushed over to him and threw an 'Invisible Bomb Disposal' under the van. Now, the bomb was secretly disabled.

Chapter 953: Embarrassment

"Yes, I see the clothes!" Jiang Ke spoke into his Bluetooth headset. He ordered Zhao Yu, "Hurry up! Get out of here first. Then, you can change clothes!"

Zhao Yu didn't pay any attention to the clothes in Jiang Ke's hands. The only thing he cared about was the bomb under the car.

He and Jiang Ke were already in the van. If the mysterious man wanted to kill them, now was the time.

The bomb had been disabled by Zhao Yu. Now he was worried that the mysterious man would hurt Jiang Xiaoqing once he discovered that the bomb had been removed.

Zhao Yu saw that Jiang Ke was listening carefully to the mysterious man's instructions. It seemed that the mysterious man did not mean to detonate the bomb right now.

The mysterious man didn't seem to want Jiang Ke dead. Zhao Yu wondered if they were friends, or if they had any interest in each other?

Seeing that Zhao Yu hadn't started the van, Jiang Ke pointed to his phone and said with a threatening voice, "Didn't I give you the key? Start it now, and I promise that your niece will be safe soon!"

Zhao Yu gave Jiang Ke an angry look as he started the van.

Jiang Ke quickly handed Zhao Yu a yellow overcoat and said, "Just wear it over your clothes!"

As Zhao Yu drove, he put on the overcoat. In the rearview mirror, he saw that there were loads of cables, wires, and other tools in the van. It was almost like an actual Skynet Maintenance van!

Fuck*ng smart! The escape plan is extremely well planned. I want to meet this mysterious person. He said that he is an old friend of mine, but I don't recognize his voice. Does that mean we know each other but haven't met in person? Who is he? Is he lying or telling the truth about knowing me? Zhao Yu thought.

While he was thinking, Zhao Yu drove the car to the exit. Once outside the parking garage, he drove along a quiet passageway to the other end of the hotel. The passageway was narrow, but Zhao Yu easily drove the van out onto the driveway. Jiang Ke urgently asked Zhao Yu to slow down. Then he opened all of the windows. Zhao Yu thought it would be smart if no one saw them as they escaped. However, he quickly understood why Jiang Ke opened the windows.

The weather in Yaoming was good. It would look strange if the windows of the van were closed when the windows of other vehicles were open. Zhao Yu was impressed that they thought about such details.

Two police cars came towards them from the opposite direction! The cars passed them, and the policemen in the cars didn't even look at the yellow van or Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu turned and saw that the cars were heading straight for the red building.

Jiang Ke shouted nervously, "Go straight ahead! Turn right after three traffic lights and head for the Hongming River Bridge!"

Zhao Yu asked, "Are you sure you want to go through those intersections? There may be traffic jams with police there."

Jiang Ko said, "Zhao Yu, just keep your eyes on the road!"

Zhao Yu shook his head and sighed, "Good, I'll just follow your orders. If there's a traffic jam, don't blame me!"

After that, Zhao Yu sped up slightly. When he passed the first intersection, there was no traffic control and no sign of a traffic jam. Zhao Yu realized that it was the spring holiday and not many people on the street. Their escape plan transpired so suddenly that, even if the police were called, they wouldn't be able to arrive on time. The mysterious man had chosen to carry out his plan during the holiday on purpose. He had planned every detail and every step. He was very smart.

Zhao Yu passed safely through the next two intersections. He turned right at the last intersection and drove toward the Hongming River Bridge as he had been instructed.

Hongming River was a wide, long river flowing through Tongjiang Province. It entered the sea north of Yaoming City.

The mysterious man told Zhao Yu to drive onto the bridge and head north.

The magnificent cable-suspended bridge was 2.5 kilometers long and had six lanes of traffic in both directions.

When Zhao Yu arrived at the center part of the bridge, Jiang Ke suddenly said, “Okay, Detective Zhao! Stop right here!”

Zhao Yu was confused. He didn’t know why anyone would want to stop the van in the center of the bridge. Following Jiang Ke’s orders, Zhao Yu stepped on the brake and parked the car.

Jiang Ke took off the Samsung S9 and Bluetooth headset, handed them to Zhao Yu, and said, “Detective Zhao, thank you for your help! I have always been able to tell the difference between love and hate, so I will not bother you about Cui Xiaolong’s death anymore! I hope you and I can learn from this experience. From now on, we are strangers to each other!”

Zhao Yu shouted, “Fuc*! You are safe now. What about our deal?”

Jiang Ke said, “Our deal is complete. You have the phone, look for yourself.”

Zhao Yu took the phone suspiciously as Jiang Ke quickly got out of the car. Zhao Yu looked at the phone carefully. There was still a cross mark on Jiang Xiaoqing.

Zhao Yu put on the Bluetooth headset and scolded angrily, “Hey, I’ve already let him go. How about keeping your word?”

Zhao Yu asked a few times, but there was no response.

Zhao Yu almost laughed. He realized that the mysterious man’s original plan was to detonate the bomb once Jiang Ke was safely out of the van.

The man must be very confused. How would he have known that his perfect plan would be disrupted?

Jiang Ke also knew about the bomb. When he got out of the van, he remained a safe distance away and waited for the bomb to explode.

Zhao Yu silently laughed at the mysterious man.

After shaking his head playfully, Zhao Yu calmly took out his gun. Although he had unloaded it, he had kept the bullets in his pocket. He loaded the bullets one by one in front of the S9’s camera so that the mysterious person could see him. After loading the gun, he started the van and drove slowly toward Jiang Ke.

Jiang Ke was surprised when the van didn’t explode and waited for a while to see what might happen. To his surprise, instead of seeing the van explode, he saw Zhao Yu chasing him with a gun. He was so frightened that he turned around and ran.

Chapter 954: You Shoot, I Shoot

No matter how fast Jiang Ke ran, he couldn't out-run the van.

Zhao Yu stepped on the accelerator and caught up with Jiang Ke. Jiang Ke, wearing the yellow overcoat, was panting and looking very confused.

"Hey! I forget to tell you that I'm a good shot." Zhao Yu pointed the S9 camera at Jiang Ke and to let the mysterious man see that he had the gun aimed at Jiang Ke. "First, I'll shoot his right leg!"

Zhao Yu didn't hesitate to pull the trigger. Bang! The bullet hit the bridge railing. Jiang Ke was so frightened that he held his head in both hands and stopped running.

Zhao Yu asked, pretending to be surprised, "I missed your leg? Ok, this time I'll aim at your head. I hope I don't miss."

With that, Zhao Yu aimed the gun again.

The mysterious man could no longer stand Zhao Yu's threat and spoke, "Zhao Yu, what on earth are you doing? Now it's clear, you don't abide by our rules. If you want to save your niece's life, you must allow Jiang Ke to leave safely!"

Zhao Yu had been waiting for the mysterious man to answer. When he heard the voice, he immediately used a Hacker's Command to track the mysterious man's location.

Zhao Yu wanted more time. He pointed to the screen of his mobile phone and said, "As long as you release my niece first, I promise to release him."

The mystery man said, "Well, we'll leave the school now!"

Zhao Yu disagreed, "That won't work! After Jiang Ke leaves, you could go back to that school! I don't believe you will keep your promise!"

When the mysterious man replied, Zhao Yu got the result from the Hacker's Command. Unfortunately, the man was calling via several virtual networks, whose servers were not in Chinese territory. Now Zhao Yu understood why Wang Can couldn't track down the man's location. Zhao Yu was surprised that his device had failed as well. Zhao Yu didn't give up and used another Hacker's Command. He made up his mind to find the mysterious man's location.

"Then, what do you want?" The mysterious man no longer sounded as calm as before and was becoming impatient. The longer Zhao Yu could keep the mysterious man talking would give his device more time to work.

Zhao Yu had an idea and said, "I have a plan that should be satisfactory! You must shoot at the classroom window without hurting anyone. After that, the students will leave the classroom, and my niece will be safe! Once my niece is safe, I'll let him go!"

Then Zhao Yu said, "You still control everything. If I break my promise, you will still be able to kill my niece!"

The mysterious man said angrily, "We are all professionals. We won't go into a school to kill a student!"

As the man spoke, the Hacker's Command sent a message. To find the man's location, Zhao Yu needed to spend 2000 points. Zhao Yu almost swore at the system. Since the system had been upgraded, he only had around 200 points.

"What should I do?" Zhao Yu asked both the mysterious man and the system.

The mysterious man burst out laughing, "Zhao Yu, you just reminded me! I still control everything. What should you do? Look carefully at the screen. I have sent you something."

Zhao Yu took a quick look at the screen. He saw that the video had changed to a photo!

Zhao Yu clenched his fist angrily. He understood why the mysterious man had sent the photo. It wasn't over yet. After Yao Jia's photo disappeared, there were photos of Li Beni, Su Jinmei, Peng Xin, Liang Huan, Lan Bo, and Xiao Liu. Eventually, photos of Zhou Yang, Yang Hong, and Huahua appeared. Zhao Yu grabbed the phone tightly and cursed at the mysterious man.

The mysterious man said calmly, "Jiang Xiaoqing is just the start! If you don't let Jiang Ke leave safely, all of your friends will have accidents."

"Who are you? Who the hell are you?" Zhao Yu shouted hysterically and beat the steering wheel.

When Jiang Ke saw that Zhao Yu had put his gun away, he quickly turned around and started running! When Zhao Yu saw that Jiang Ke had started running again, he stepped on the accelerator.

The van engine shouted. It was as angry as Zhao Yu. It ran onto the sidewalk and suddenly stopped right in front of Jiang Ke! Jiang Ke couldn't stop in time and hit the van. Zhao Yu jumped out of the van quickly and kicked Jiang Ke in the chest. Although Jiang Ke was a famous robber, he wasn't a very good fighter. Zhao Yu grabbed Jiang Ke's collar and slammed two punches into his face which caused his nose to bleed and his face to swell. Then, he raised his gun and pointed it at Jiang Ke's face!!

The mysterious person shouted, "Zhao Yu, stop it! Do you want your friends to die? OK, you'll be able to see your niece shot in the head."

"You..." Zhao Yu was very angry and starting to tremble all over.

Zhao Yu held the phone so that he could see as he watched Jiang Xiaoqing on the screen. He pointed the gun between Jiang Ke's eyebrows and shouted to the mysterious man, "You shoot, I shoot!"

The mysterious man laughed and said, "You have balls. I think you're officially launching a war against us, huh? Jiang Ke's life isn't worth a penny in my eyes! You shoot! After that, you can go back to Qinshan to see your niece's body. I will count to three. Let's do it together!"

The mysterious man seemed to be in a bloodthirsty mania when he shouted, "One... Two..."

Chapter 955: I Don't Like a Small Fish

When the mysterious man shouted "two," Zhao Yu raised his gunhand and shouted, "OK! You win!"

When Zhao Yu raised his gun, nothing happened to Jiang Xiaoqing in the video. She was still writing something.

Jiang Ke was surprised when Zhao Yu raised his hand. Zhao Yu retreated to the bridge railing. He appeared to be exhausted! Zhao Yu nodded, put the gun into his holster, and turned around grabbing the railing. He looked down at the torrential water of the Hongming River flowing under the bridge.

Zhao Yu held his headset and shouted at the mysterious man, "Actually, you want me dead? If I'm dead, it's all over, isn't it?"

The mysterious man didn't make a sound.

Zhao Yu waved at Jiang Ke and ordered, "Come here, hold the phone so can see...." As he spoke, Zhao Yu grabbed the bridge railing and roared, "I have never been a coward to my family, my friends, my..."

The mysterious man said triumphantly, "Are you going to jump? OK, jump to save your niece's life, and we won't hurt anyone else!"

Zhao Yu gritted his teeth and said, "Although I don't know who you are, I know you are a coward! You are an insidious villain who uses his despicable and indecent plan to threaten me. You'll lose respect from your colleagues, and that never ends well."

The mysterious man smiled and said, "You are a special investigation group leader. How can you talk to me about morality? I'll admit that I'm a despicable villain, but how can you call me a coward?"

Zhao Yu shook his head and laughed. "If you're not a coward, then who is?"

Thirteen years ago, you masterminded the bloody Ziliu case. You thought you could get away with it after all these years. You didn't expect that I would investigate the case! You were scared when I solved the Headless Female Corpses Case and the Devil Case! Now, you're afraid that I'll find out the truth. So, you've planned to kill me! As long as I'm dead, you can feel safe. You don't have to worry about anything else, do you? Doesn't that make you a coward?"

I might be right about the mysterious man, he thought. Upon hearing what Zhao Yu said, the mysterious man's tone changed. "You're wrong! I'm not a coward! Go to hell! If you don't jump down now, I'll kill your whole family! Then, you can stick around to bury them!"

Zhao Yu roared, "I'm not as much coward as you are. I'm just one person! Take my life if you like, but, dying for friends and family, is worth it! However, don't think you'll get away with it. After I die, someone else to find the truth and bring you to justice. I'll wait for you in hell!"

Zhao Yu climbed on the railing with a righteous glare and was ready to jump. When he saw the rushing river below and felt the cold wind, he suddenly felt dizzy. He stepped back from the railing. He said fearfully, "Wait a minute. First, I'll see. Let's discuss something else..."

Jiang Ke had been waiting impatiently, When he saw Zhao Yu step down from the railing, he rushed over and pushed Zhao Yu over the railing.

"Ah..." Zhao Yu shouted, his voice fading as he fell.

Jiang Ke saw Zhao Yu falling and rushed to the railing with the phone. He showed the mysterious man that Zhao Yu had fallen from the bridge.

The bridge was more than 60 meters above the river. If ordinary people fell from that height, they would die! No one had a chance of survival falling into the turbulent waves. However, Zhao Yu was not an ordinary person. He knew that after Jiang Ke pushed him over the railing, he would stream it live to the mysterious man.

Instead of using an Invisible Parachute, he used the more advanced Invisible Aircraft. The invisible aircraft would protect him when he fell into the water. That way, everyone would think he was dead.

In the air, Zhao Yu began using the Invisible Breathing Device. When he fell into the river, he didn't need to worry about breathing. The Invisible Breathing Device was like putting an oxygen cylinder in his mouth.

The bad thing about being in the water was that the water was freezing, and the current was racing. The second Zhao Yu hit the water; he was swept downstream several meters. It would be challenging for him to swim to the shore.

Even though Zhao Yu had devices to protect himself, the sudden fall into the turbulent water was frightening! Fortunately, he could also use the aircraft in the water. It could be used as an invisible propeller to help him swim to shore by controlling the direction. Finally, as the Invisible Aircraft was about to lose power, Zhao Yu was able to reach the beach.

When he was out of the water, he quickly and carefully checked his Miracle System. He was relieved to see that the Invisible Tracking Device was working smoothly, and a tracking screen appeared.

Fortunately, when Jiang Ke got out of the van, Zhao Yu was able to put an Invisible Tracking Device on him. At this moment, Jiang Ke was driving the van with the bomb away from the bridge. It looked as though he was driving very fast! If Zhao Yu hadn't discovered the bomb under the van, he would be very miserable today.

Zhao Yu shivered and looked back at the Hongming River Bridge. Unfortunately, he had been washed away by the river currents for several kilometers. The bridge was now just a small dot in his distance. Zhao Yu couldn't see anyone on the shore. He entered the nearby woods where he took off all his clothes and laid them out to dry. Yaoming's climate was mild, so Zhao Yu felt warmer without his clothes. Zhao Yu dried off his overcoat, and a small fish fell out of the sleeve.

Zhao Yu grabbed the small fish and weighed it in his hand. He smiled and said, "Little fish, why are you here? I don't want to eat you!"

With that, Zhao Yu threw it away. The fish fell directly in the river.

"Hum..." Zhao Yu clapped his hands and said, "I don't want a small fish. I want a big fish that will eat the bad guys!"

Chapter 956: A Fashionable Chase

Too Fast!

In the woods by the river, Zhao Yu watched the tracker's screen as he put on his wet clothes. He saw that Jiang Ke was moving super fast. Jiang Ke had traveled ten kilometers in ten minutes. After leaving the bridge, he had headed west, going farther away from Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu rushed out of the woods. His tracker could work for only 24 hours before he would lose Jiang Ke. Jiang Ke would probably meet the mysterious man during his escape. Therefore, Zhao Yu must catch up with him as soon as possible.

There was a small town on the hill outside the woods. Zhao Yu looked around and found that it was the closest place for him to get his necessities. Right now, he needed three things: a car, a mobile phone, and some dry clothes.

He couldn't contact the police or reveal his identity to anyone if he still wanted to pretend that he was dead. He didn't know how powerful the mysterious man was. Once the police knew that Zhao Yu was still alive, the mysterious man might also get the news. If that happened, his plan would be completely ruined. Even if he could catch Jiang Ke, he still might not be able to catch the mysterious man.

Besides, he had taken Jiang Ke out of the detention center, Now, Zhao Yu was not a policeman or a special investigation group leader. He was a wanted criminal just like Jiang Ke! While he was following Jiang Ke and the mysterious man, he had to hide from the police as well.

Zhao Yu climbed the hill quickly and entered to the riverside town. It was still early in the morning, but he could see a few people through the mist. To avoid the police finding him, Zhao Yu used a Counter-surveillance Device after he entered the town. This way, the nearby cameras couldn't record his movements

Zhao Yu looked at cars parked along the alley. Although he saw several cars, they didn't be what he needed. He had an Invisible Detector in his brain that detected these vehicles were either equipped with alarm devices or positioning devices. They were not easy to handle.

Finally, after walking around the town for a long time, he found a suitable car. It was a silver-white Wuling Hongguang van. There were a lot of cardboard boxes in the van containing bright-colored clothes

Not bad! Zhao Yu thought.

Zhao Yu walked around the van. Judging from the tire tracks and the dust on the van body, the van had not been driven in a long time. The absence of New Year's decorations in the van indicated that the owner might have gone to his hometown for the New Year's holiday and wouldn't be back very soon.

In addition, driving this van wouldn't attract much attention. Besides, there were so many clothes in the van that he didn't need to look for them anywhere else.

Now that he had chosen a van, Zhao Yu acted quickly. To save time, he used two universal unlockers. He used one to open the van door, and the other to start the van. When the dashboard lights came on, Zhao Yu saw that the fuel tank was full. Zhao Yu didn't even change his clothes before driving the van to the main road.

Although he had used a Counter-surveillance Device, it wouldn't work on the van without reinforcement. Zhao Yu hoped that the police would think that this was an ordinary car theft and wouldn't associate it with his disappearance. He also hoped that the owner wouldn't discover the van had been stolen for a long time. Stealing this van was only a temporary solution. He would have to change again before too long.

After leaving town, Zhao Yu searched through the boxes looking for suitable clothes to wear. However, the clothes in the boxes were all colorful costumes. Most of them were special costumes for performers at clubs or in bathing centers. Many of them were even for strippers. Zhao Yu had not expected to steal a van full of costumes. The wet clothes were beginning to feel very uncomfortable! He pulled the van off the road and, after searching through the boxes, he finally found a pair of pink and green trousers and a plaid shirt with a Mickey Mouse tie. He was a little embarrassed when he saw himself in the van's mirror!

Never would I believe that I would turn into such a fashion icon! Anyway, it's better to wear this costume than to wear nothing at all.

Zhao Yu started his van again and drove in the direction of Jiang Ke's escape. Jiang Ke was cunning. The tracker showed that he drove around and around through the outskirts of Yaoming City. Eventually, he headed east. This trajectory looked really confusing. Zhao Yu suspected that he had probably changed vehicles.

Since the mysterious man had planned to blow up the Skynet Maintenance van and Zhao Yu, he must have prepared another means of transportation for Jiang Ke.

Zhao Yu sneered. No matter how clever you think you are, you'll never detect my tracker or get away from me! Let me find your lair. Who on earth is the mysterious man? Maybe there will be something special in it for me.

Zhao Yu increased his speed. Although he wanted to catch up with Jiang Ke, he still needed a cell phone. If he found their stronghold, he must inform the Crime Division.

He also had two other important things to deal with, and they required a mobile phone also. The first one was to check on Jiang Xiaoqing's safety. The other was to contact Miao Ying.

Zhao Yu knew that Miao Ying must have known that he had helped Jiang Ke escape from prison. Although Miao Ying believed in him, she would be very anxious and worried about his safety. Even if he had to lie to the police, he must keep Miao Ying informed. When Miao Ying cooperated with him, he could make the best of his efforts.

Zhao Yu was still thinking about how to get a new phone when he arrived in a county of Yaoming. Although it was the seventh day of the New Year, many mobile phone shops along the main road were open. Getting a phone wasn't a big thing for Zhao Yu because he had his wallet. After parking his van, he found a mobile phone shop. At first, the clerk was shocked to see Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu's plaid shirt and trousers were both too small for him. He couldn't fasten all the shirt buttons so his belly was showing. With the Mickey Mouse tie hanging around his neck, he really looked pathetic. The pink and green trousers fitted like cropped pants on him and exposed his ankles. Water was seeping out of his shoes.

Zhao Yu's fashionable look saved him a lot of trouble though. When he told the clerk that he wanted to buy a mobile phone that could receive calls without real-name registration and access the internet, the clerk didn't say anything. He immediately prepared the mobile phone and the phone card for him.

This kind of card, which required no real-name registration, was illegal, and the clerk only sold it to regular customers. On seeing how Zhao Yu was dressed, the clerk was afraid not to sell him the illegal card. He didn't even ask for a higher price.

Zhao Yu only spent 800 yuan to get a new phone and a card! After the clerk got the phone ready, he also gave Zhao Yu a free headset. Back in the van, Zhao Yu made the first phone call. The first thing he wanted was to know if Jiang Xiaoqing was safe.

He couldn't call Jiang Xiaoqing or Jiang Dafeng. He couldn't even call his old colleagues in Qinshan. The mysterious man was powerful. If the phone was tapped, Zhao Yu would be exposed. He couldn't take the risk.

With this in mind, Zhao Yu searched for the number of Qinshan No. 1 Middle School on the Internet. Then he called the school's management office.

Zhao Yu made his purpose clear from the beginning, "Hello, hello! I am a student's parent. Excuse me, are there any students in school today?"

After hearing the answer, Zhao Yu couldn't help but smile, then he sighed. "Oh... So, you don't start school until the eighth day of New Year? There are no students in school today."

Zhao Yu smiled, but he secretly cursed the mysterious man.

Chapter 957 – Interlocking Stratagems

It's the eighth day!

Zhao Yu was finally satisfied to know that the students in Jiang Xiaoqing's school started on the eighth day of the New Year. Today was only the seventh day so Jiang Xiaoqing wouldn't be at school! The mysterious man showed him a video that he recorded at another time. Zhao Yu also asked about the broken character on the wall. The staff member told him that part of the character "Ren" had fallen during an exam session a year ago. Now, Zhao Yu knew that the signage hadn't been shot down. The mysterious man had just played a trick.

Fucki*g hell!

Zhao Yu couldn't help but smile. This mysterious man was very bold and smart. He just used a pre-recorded video and got Jiang Ke out of the heavily guarded detention center. That was awesome!

The mysterious man knew that Jiang Xiaoqing would be Zhao Yu's weakness. As long as Zhao Yu saw the video and knew that his niece's life was in danger, he would believe anything.

Zhao Yu was thinking about the first time he had seen the video. He had noticed that there was something wrong, but he didn't have time to analyze the video then. If he had examined it at that time, he would have seen the problem.

When he was on the Hongmingjiang Bridge, Zhao Yu asked the mysterious man to shoot the classroom window and scare the students away. Now, he had severe doubts that the video was real. After everything that happened on the bridge, the video of Jiang Xiaoqing never changed. Although the mysterious man was threatening him with Jiang Xiaoqing's life, he might not even be in Qinshan.

Zhao Yu still wasn't sure. Even if they recorded the video in advance, the bad guy could again be spying on Jiang Xiaoqing and hurt her at any time. Zhao Yu still didn't want to take that risk!

Zhao Yu knew that his most significant advantage was undoubtedly his powerful devices. If he wanted to solve this crisis, he had to let his devices play a vital role.

Zhao Yu thought about how Han Kuan intentionally put himself in danger. Maybe he could deliberately let Jiang Ke escape. Besides, he had a super tracking device, and he wasn't afraid that Jiang Ke could completely disappear. Zhao Yu decided to let Jiang Ke escape.

When the mysterious man sent him pictures of his family and friends, he was shocked. He realized that removing the mysterious man's car bomb would not solve the problem. The mysterious man had discovered his weakness. His enemy was hiding in the dark. Even if Zhao Yu saved Jiang Xiaoqing, what about the rest of his friends and family? The mysterious man could always threaten Zhao Yu with a friend or family member!

As the mysterious man said, Zhao Yu's friends and families would be completely safe if he were dead. He couldn't prevent this threat. Zhao Yu wouldn't be able to protect all of his relatives and friends. In that case, he had to fake his death. He satisfied the mysterious man.

Zhao Yu didn't want to make his death look easy. He had worried that the mysterious man would see through his plan. He deliberately pretended to be scared. Then Jiang Ke was prompted to push him over the railing. Now, the mysterious man and Jiang Ke would be certain that Zhao Yu was dead. Zhao Yu's friends and family would be safe, and the mysterious man would let down his guard.

When Zhao Yu swam to the shore, the roles on both sides had changed. Now, Zhao Yu was hiding in the dark.

Zhao Yu's plan was apparent. He assumed that after Jiang Ke escaped from prison, he would inevitably meet with the mysterious man. As long as he followed Jiang Ke using his tracker device, he would be able to find the insidious and cunning mysterious man. Then, he would catch both of them!

Haha, see who laughs last!

Zhao Yu stepped on the accelerator and drove in Jiang Ke's direction. On the way to find Jiang Ke, Zhao Yu needed to call Miao Ying and let her know his current situation. That should keep her from worrying. He also needed her help before he caught the mysterious man.

How was he going to contact Miao Ying? He couldn't make a direct call. He didn't believe that the mysterious man would forget to monitor a special investigator's phone. It was better to use a more secure method. He wrote an encrypted email describing the prison break and everything that had happened afterward. Then, he sent it to an anonymous mailbox.

Miao Ying gave him this mailbox when she met him in New Zealand. Because of Miao Ying's situation, they could only contact each other through this mailbox. Miao Ying said that the mailbox used a unique channel that hackers couldn't track or crack. It was safe.

They agreed that, in the event of an emergency, this mailbox was their preferred line of communication. Zhao Yu was sure that Miao Ying would remember this mailbox when she learned that he had disappeared. Only the two of them knew the password for the mailbox.

In the email, besides telling Miao Ying the present situation, Zhao Yu also her several things that were also important. Firstly, they were the only ones that knew he was still alive. She couldn't tell anyone, not even Zhao Yu's family. Also, she should pretend to be anxious and worried. She should also tell them that she had to fly to Yaoming so that she could investigate Zhao Yu's disappearance in person.

Secondly, he asked Miao Ying to inform the Criminal Division and the Yaoming police station the information of the prison break and Zhao Yu's disappearance should remain a secret.

Thirdly, Zhao Yu specifically advised Miao Ying not to take any protective measures for Jiang Xiaoqing, Yao Jia, or any other family and friends. Once the mysterious man was aware of any police protection for these people, he might suspect that Zhao Yu was still alive!

Fourthly, Zhao Yu asked Miao Ying to tell Wu Xiumin, Ran Tao, and others to continue investigating the murder of Leader Wu and the Ziliu case. Linking the mysterious man these cases doesn't necessarily mean that he's the murderer. The investigation of these cases should continue.

Finally, Zhao Yu asked Miao Ying to investigate the prison guard who had the S9 phone. Because the S9 phone was modified, she might be able to find some clues from him. The parking lot of the red building and the van disguised as a Skynet maintenance van were also necessary. He believed that even if the mysterious man was cautious, there might be some clues in the building or the van.

As Zhao Yu was writing the email to Miao Ying, he thought about the prison break. For some reason, he always felt that there was something important hidden in the details.

First of all, Jiang Ke seemed very surprised when he learned that the mysterious man was threatening Zhao Yu to help him escape from prison. He wasn't happy or excited. He appeared to be a little scared. Maybe they weren't close friends. Are there any secrets in their relationship?

Jiang Ke inadvertently mentioned Leader Wu's name, which confirmed that he knew Leader Wu and must know about the nude photos.

When Jiang Ke first saw the photos, he wasn't as surprised as Zhao Yu had thought he would be. Did it mean that their relationship had nothing to do with the cases?

There was something else that Zhao Yu thought to be strange. It was the mysterious man's voice. The man's words were not clear, and he spoke with a slow rhythm. Some software modified the voice.

Moreover, the mysterious man's indescribable way of speaking made him feel a little uncomfortable. He once uttered exclamations with a feminine tone.

This mysterious man might be a woman?

Chapter 958: Talents

Looking at the tracking signal in his brain, Zhao Yu couldn't help but shout, "Dam*! He took another turn."

Jiang Ke was smart enough to make a big detour through the outskirts of Yaoming. He had headed northwest, but now he headed southeast. Of course, the mysterious man probably told him to do that. So Zhao Yu was eager to catch up with Jiang Ke and see if he had met the mysterious man.

There was a simple way to catch Jiang Ke. He could go back and cross the downtown area. Then, he would be ahead of Jiang Ke. It was too risky to do that. After Jiang Ke escaped from prison, the Yaoming police were keeping a close eye on the city. Following Jiang Ke's route was the safest choice. To avoid attracting police attention, Zhao Yu couldn't drive too fast.

Knowing that Jiang Ke was traveling eastward, Zhao Yu suddenly understood something else. The bomb on the Skynet maintenance van had multiple purposes! First of all, the mysterious man wanted to kill Zhao Yu with that bomb to prevent any future problems. Secondly, if the car exploded on the Hongmingjiang Bridge, the police would block the bridge for safety reasons, and that would make Jiang Ke's escape much more manageable. Lastly, after the car explosion, the police might think that Jiang Ke was heading northwest, but he would be going in the opposite direction.

This plan was perfect and carefully thought-out. Zhao Yu was more convinced that the mysterious man was not only a careful thinker but an obsessive who firmly believed that every detail must be perfect. The more he thought about the mysterious man, the more curious Zhao Yu became. He wanted to know who the mysterious man was.

Knowing how the police worked, he knew that he had to stay away from the main roads and highways. The police watched these roads closely, carefully, but Jiang Ke wasn't thinking like that. He was speeding along the main roads. It appeared that the mysterious man had arranged some disguise for Jiang Ke so that he could escape.

Jiang Ke could go to the main road, but Zhao Yu couldn't take that risk. He had to avoid police detection by driving on rural paths. He would waste time by staying on the country roads, and the distance between Jiang Ke and Zhao Yu would increase.

However, after several hours, things suddenly changed. Zhao Yu found that Jiang Ke stopped and was no longer moving.

Not another trap?

According to Zhao Yu's experience, now was the best time for escaped convicts to make their getaway. The farther they ran, the better. Jiang Ke was still inside the city of Yaoming. Why was he doing that?

Zhao Yu was worried that Jiang Ke might be changing his mode of transportation to an airplane or a high-speed railway. If Zhao Yu didn't catch him, it would be quite embarrassing for him.

Zhao Yu grew worried after checking his phone's map. Jiang Ke stopped in a place called Yanghai County. Yanghai was the easternmost part of Yaoming. It was near the East China Sea, and there were many ports accessible to ocean-going ships. It would be terrible if Jiang Ke left on one of those ships.

Anxiously, Zhao Yu sped up. Although he used narrow alleys, he arrived soon after Jiang Ke. It was just past noon when he arrived in Yanghai.

Because it was far from the center of Yaoming, and there was no traffic control, Zhao Yu drove straight into town and started looking for Jiang Ke. The tracker showed that Jiang Ke was near the beach and had stopped moving for a while.

Is he waiting for someone there? Zhao Yu didn't want to waste any time, so he drove straight to Jiang Ke's location. The tracker showed that Jiang Ke was at a large seafood supermarket. The supermarket was a four-story building, and behind that building was a super-big seafood manufacturing plant!

Is Jiang Ke hiding here? Zhao Yu looked at the large storefront of the supermarket and grew a little suspicious. A massive supermarket like this would require a large flow of capital. Since Jiang Ke was hiding here, he must have a special relationship with the owner.

Could the big boss be the mysterious man? Oh! Yes! I have a powerful search engine. Who owns the supermarket? Zhao Yu searched all of the related information about this supermarket in his search engine. The data showed that the seafood market specialized in tourism sales.

A few kilometers east of Yanghai was the famous Haidu International Film and Television City. The Haidu International Film and Television City was a hub for making films and television shoed. It was also a very famous tourist attraction. With the boom of tourism, the owner opened this large seafood market. Because of its large scale, prices for self-produced and self-sold products were low, and tour guides received high commissions. The supermarket had become the leading enterprise in the county.

According to the information, the owner of the supermarket was a 35-year old native of Yaoming named Tian Xudong. The search results were mainly about the supermarket, but the information on the owner was very brief. Zhao Yu had to use a new search engine to find more details on Tian Xudong.

The new search results shocked Zhao Yu. It stated that Tian Xudong, formerly known as Tian Xu, was an oil worker who had graduated from Yaoming Oil Technical School!

Zhao Yu couldn't help but exclaimed, "Shi*!"

Now I have another person from Yaoming Oil Technical School. He is also the same age as Jiang Ke. Were they classmates or even roommates?

What a fuck*ing dormitory! It will probably be one of the most famous dormitories in this country.

Zhao Yu was beginning to understand. Tian Xu played a similar role to that of Cui Xiaolong. Before Jiang Ke robbed the cigarette truck, Cui Xiaolong was just the owner of the car repair shop. It was the same situation with Tian Xu. People only knew Tian Xu as the owner of the supermarket. Cui Xiaolong and Tian Xu had a close relationship with Jiang Ke. Of these roommates, the police only targeted Jiang Ke and Han Kuan. Jiang Ke might have asked Cui Xiaolong and Tian Xu to launder some money. Without Jiang Ke's support, the two men would probably still be ordinary oil workers! Tian Xu was only Jiang Ke's helper and not the mysterious man.

Zhao Yu carefully read Tian Xu's information. He was born and raised in Yaoming and had minimal experience. He had no ties to the Ziliu case. His style was quite different from that of the mysterious man who pursued perfection in everything.

Zhao Yu sat in the van and looked at the expansive supermarket billboard. He was thinking about his next step. He didn't know how to find the mysterious person.

Chapter 959: Secret Pursuit

Zhao Yu had wanted to use an Invisible Camera and an Invisible Eavesdropper when he was planning Jiang Ke's escape. That way, he could have known Jiang Ke's every move and heard every word in real-time. Unfortunately, his new reward didn't include those two devices or the Invisible Lie Detector and Invisible Tracking Device. He couldn't even find those devices in the catalog.

Zhao Yu had to use the devices he had already received. After they were used up, he would have a hard time getting them again. Zhao Yu wondered whether the system had a BUG, or was it deliberately making it harder to solve a case. Zhao Yu only knew that Jiang Ke here right now, but, if he wanted to know what Jiang Ke was doing, he had to get inside the supermarket.

So, how could he sneak in without being seen?

Zhao Yu observed the surrounding area outside the seafood supermarket. It was the New Year Festival. The supermarket and the plant were both closed, and no one was nearby. Except for Jiang Ke, Zhao Yu didn't know if anyone else was inside. They also had weapons with monitoring and defending devices.

After sitting in the van thinking, Zhao Yu decided that it was impossible to enter the building from the front. Then he drove the van to the back of the plant. The walls around the plant yard weren't very high. Zhao Yu thought he could climb over the wall to get inside.

He thought it might be a good idea to take off his strikingly fashionable outfit first, but he was afraid he would miss the opportunity to discover more clues about the mystery man. He decided to go in in his fancy clothes after all.

Fortunately, the plant was in a remote area, and it was during the New Year. No one was around, so he made his move. Zhao Yu parked the van in a concealed area and began to prepare his next step carefully.

First, he found a yellow hat and a pink scarf in one of the boxes in the van. He put the hat on and covered his face with the scarf. This way, even if someone saw him, they wouldn't see his face. Then, he turned his phone to silent mode just in case it made a sound at a critical moment. Finally, he used a Life Detector to see if anyone was inside and find their location. Finally, he was ready. He put the gun in his holster, climbed up a unity pole, climbed over the wall, and entered the plant.

The Invisible Detector detected monitoring devices and the scope, but it couldn't detect anything more than 20 meters away. Zhao Yu was concerned that there were cameras beyond 20 meters, so he used a Counter-surveillance Device.

Zhao Yu had accumulated over ten Counter-surveillance Devices. He had more of these than any other device. With this device, he no longer needed to worry about being captured by surveillance cameras.

As he approached the supermarket, he discovered another problem. There was a large parking lot between the supermarket building and the plant. If Zhao Yu wanted to enter the supermarket building, he had to walk through the parking lot. Reflective glass decorated the supermarket building, and he didn't know if someone upstairs was watching the parking lot. His bright clothes were very noticeable.

Zhao Yu didn't want to take any risks. All of his efforts would be in vain if he if they caught him, Although he didn't have many of the expensive Invisible Cloaks, discovering the identity of the mysterious man would make it worthwhile! So, he used one. One disadvantage of the great Invisible Cloak was that it didn't work well in daylight. It didn't make him completely invisible because it used air refraction to create an illusion. If the light was intense, or Zhao Yu moved too fast, the cloak would not work.

Despite wearing the Invisible Cloak, Zhao Yu didn't dare run fast but slowly moved to the side of the building. When he got to the supermarket, he found that there was no sign of life in the building, not even a kitten or a dog! He regretted wasting an Invisible Cloak. As his Invisible Cloak was still working, he quickly opened the side burglar-proof door with a universal unlocker and entered the supermarket building. As it turned out, the burglar-proof door was an emergency exit that came into a hallway.

When he entered, a strong seafood smell came right at him. The vast supermarket was full of various kinds of delectable seafood. Zhao Yu didn't come here to shop. He went down several aisles in Jiang Ke's direction. From the height shown on the tracker, Jiang Ke should be on the first floor, but he was on the opposite side of the supermarket.

Before long, Zhao Yu's Life Detector responded. After comparing it with the tracker, Zhao Yu confirmed that it was Jiang Ke. Zhao Yu was surprised to find that Jiang Ke was the only person detected by the Life Detector. There was nobody else in the whole building.

Zhao Yu was confused. Even though it's the New Year, there should be security guards. Why is no one here? What is Jiang Ke doing here?

Out of curiosity, Zhao Yu went to the entrance of the supermarket. He now had more than 30 universal unlockers, so it was easy for him to open the door. Because he was so close to Jiang Ke, he was afraid that Jiang Ke would see him if he opened the door suddenly.

When Zhao Yu hesitated, he heard the sound of a car engine coming from the parking lot.

Is someone coming? Zhao Yu thought.

Zhao Yu rushed to the window. At the same time, he found Jiang Ke's signal also moved quickly to the window! Zhao Yu realized that he and Jiang Ke were on opposite sides of the wall. There was a small room at the entrance of the supermarket, and Jiang Ke was hiding there.

The car outside stopped at the main entrance of the supermarket. Through the window, Zhao Yu could see that it was a black Audi A8. As the car doors opened, two men came out. One was a middle-aged man in a suit and wearing glasses. The other was a man with cropped hair in a security uniform. Because Zhao Yu had seen the photo, he recognized that the man wearing glasses was the owner of the supermarket, Tian Xudong.

Chapter 960: You Ask Me?

Not him!

After seeing Tian Xudong, Zhao Yu confirmed that Tian Xudong was not the mysterious man! Because, when he got out of the Audi A8, Tian Xudong looked worried and anxious. If he were the mysterious man who thought that he could control everything, it wouldn't act like that.

The man in the security uniform opened the trunk and lifted out a heat- preservation box. Then, they opened the supermarket door and entered the corridor.

Through the Life Detector in his brain, Zhao Yu saw that the two were walking towards the small room where Jiang Ke was hiding. Zhao Yu could see several figures moving and heard metal doors open outside the entrance of the supermarket.

What an excellent opportunity!

Zhao Yu knew that when Tian Xudong and Jiang Ke met, he could get some vital information. He had to find out what they are saying.

Although Zhao Yu didn't have an Invisible Eavesdropper, he had another kind of eavesdropping device called a Pickup Eavesdropper. Its primary function was to listen through walls. Zhao Yu put it on the wall in front of him. Now, the sound in the small room became clear.

Someone said, "Boss, there is Huai Town roast goose, Liu Ji sauce beef, Yangjia pancakes, and four seasons sheet jelly. All of them are your favorites!"

Undoubtedly, the one who was speaking must be Tian Xudong.

Now, Jiang Ke spoke, "I got fat because of jail food! Wow, this smells so good!"

During the conversation, Jiang Ke seemed to move into another room. Suddenly, his voice dropped, and Zhao Yu couldn't hear him. Zhao Yu quickly adjusted his position and found the nearest place to Jiang Ke. After searching for a while, he suddenly found that the best location for eavesdropping was behind a counter. Behind the counter were mall warehouses containing boxes of seafood that were piled up in a small space. Fortunately, there was an area behind the counter with no cameras, so it was an ideal place for eavesdropping. He moved the boxes out of the way. When he leaned to the wall, the sounds from the next room became clear again.

Tian Xudong asked, "Boss, do you think this place is safe? I am afraid the police will find out that you're here!"

Jiang Ke said, "Don't worry, it won't be that quick. Many of my classmates are in Yaoming. If they want to investigate all of my classmates, they can't get a search warrant. They will ask you about me."

Tian Xudong said worriedly, "The big plant behind is better than this small monitoring room! What if the police come to ask for surveillance tapes?"

Oh? Monitoring Room?

Zhao Yu suddenly realized that Jiang Ke had been in the monitoring room. No wonder he was so close to the main entrance. This guy was quite smart. If he was in the monitoring room, he could see the whole place at any time. Fortunately, Zhao Yu had used a Counter-surveillance Device. Otherwise, someone would see him.

Jiang Ke suddenly changed his tone and asked Tian Xudong solemnly, "Are you scared?"

The next second, Zhao Yu saw a signal leaving the next room quickly. It must be the cropped hair guy who was asked to leave.

As soon as the guy left, Tian Xudong asked in a low voice, "Boss, why shouldn't I be scared? The police caught you, and Xiaolong is dead! Do you know what I've been through lately?"

Jiang Ke said coldly, and the sound of chewing food came from his mouth. "Why?. Are you afraid that I'll betray you?"

Tian Xudong said in a trembling voice, "Of course not! How did you get caught in Yaoming?"

Jiang Ke sighed and said, "This is interesting. The fortune-teller told me that I am a drought dragon and should not get wet. He also advised me not to go to the wet Southern regions. Now that I think of it, it's true!"

Jiang Ke sighed and said, "Rest assured, I have notified Tongqi and Sanlong. They will come! People always say 'Southern thief, Tao Xiang, and Northern thief, Jiang Ke.' They're right. I promise that I'll never set foot in the South again!"

Tian Xudong said in a trembling voice, "Boss, there's something else you need to know! Maybe you've heard about it? Han Kuan was the murderer in the Devil Case, and he killed Laogua, too. I slapped him in school. I'm scared!

Jiang Ke said calmly, "That guy is evil. When he was in school, I knew that he would do something terrible in the future! I didn't expect him to commit such a terrible crime! Okay, don't worry about him. It's just a coincidence. Han Kuan has nothing to do with us. He can do whatever he likes!"

Tian Xudong began to hesitate, "Boss, um..."

Jiang Ke said, "What? This roast goose is delicious!"

When he heard Jiang Ke say that, Zhao Yu also felt hungry. It's already past noon. He hadn't eaten since he arrived in Yaoming. Zhao Yu took a look at the seafood around him and immediately opened a box of grilled fish fillets. You have roast goose, and I have grilled fish fillets.

Tian Xudong asked nervously, "Boss, how did you get out? I don't understand! They said it was hard to get in touch with you, but you... Tell me, who helped you escape?"

Zhao Yu realized that this was critical! Hearing Tian Xudong's question, Zhao Yu quickly stopped chewing and leaned his head against the wall.

Jiang Ke suddenly asked, "By the way, did you do what I asked you to do? Did you get rid of that van?"

Tian Xudong answered, "Don't worry. A Rong took care of that. He found the van and drove it into the river!"

Jiang Ke emphasized, "Destroying the van is critical! Otherwise, we'll all be in big trouble!"

A Rong has always been good at handling these kinds of things.

Zhao Yu realized what Jiang Ke meant. He was sending someone to destroy the Skynet Maintenance van. Since he cared so much about the van, Zhao Yu was sure that there must be critical clues in the van. Zhao Yu quickly sent Miao Ying another email asking her to find the van!

Jiang Ke gasped and said with a slight embarrassment, "I haven't thought everything through yet!"

When Zhao Yu heard this, he stopped writing the email.

Tian Xudong asked doubtfully, "Why? What do you mean?"

With a bitter voice, Jiang Ke said, "Who can tell me who helped me escape from prison!"
