

Crazy 961

Chapter 961: Tian Xudong Finally Understand

Impossible! He must be lying. Zhao Yu thought.

Zhao Yu couldn't believe that Jiang Ke didn't know the mysterious man. He was shocked. If the mysterious man had nothing to do with Jiang Ke, why would he have taken such a significant risk to help Jiang Ke escape from prison?

"Are you kidding me?" he asked with a doubtful tone, "Boss! It's not a good time for jokes. Someone helped you get out of prison. How could you not know him? How is it possible?"

"Humph!" Jiang Ke made an annoying sound while eating the roast goose. Then, he said, "To be honest with you, I originally thought Zhao Yu was setting a trap for me, but he jumped from the bridge. I saw that with my own eyes."

Jiang Ke didn't seem to be lying, but Zhao Yu was confused by what he said.

Tian Xudong said with a shaking voice, "To me, this is a trap! The police may have secretly besieged my supermarket. We should run."

Upon hearing this, Jiang Ke became angry and suddenly started hitting Tian Xudong. Jiang Ke growled, "Tian Xudong, look at yourself. Don't forget how you achieved what you have today. Why would I call you if I wasn't sure about everything? The police won't waste their time on you."

Jiang Ke's voice had a very controlling power. Tian Xudong couldn't speak smoothly. "Boss. I still don't understand. If it isn't the police, who was able to get you out? And, how on earth did you get out?"

Jiang Ke snorted and told Tian Xudong the whole story about how he 'was captured and how he escaped. Tian Xudong was amazed by Jiang Ke's dramatic experience. It seemed like a fiction story to him.

Jiang Ke shook his head and said, "I don't recognize that voice. It sounds processed, and it sounds like a female to me. That's not important. This mysterious guy is amazing. You should see how this person used Zhao Yu to get me out. I couldn't think of a better plan."

Tian Xudong said, "On moral principles, it's not right to threaten someone using children and women. This guy is not our type."

Jiang Ke stopped eating and said, "Yes, I can tell that from what Zhao Yu said to him. In the beginning, Zhao Yu showed me some photos. That was kind of surprising because I took those nude photos years ago in Mengxiang."

Tian Xudong didn't know anything about what Jiang Ke was saying.

Jiang Ke explained, "I didn't know her. She looked rich, so I thought about getting some money from her. I didn't know that she was a police officer until after I took nude photos of her. I was under several charges at that time. No way would I threaten a police officer."

Tian Xudong exclaimed, “You’ve never told me that you had slept with a cop!”

Jiang Ke said, “I didn’t. She was good looking and had a nice body, but she drank too much. She also used drugs. At first, she was extremely high, but later, she laid there like a dead person. That was frustrating.”

Tian Xudong asked in surprise, “You didn’t touch her?”

Jiang Ke said, “I only wanted money from her. That’s how I made my name. I’m not a bad guy. OK!! Give me another helping; it’s getting cold.”

Zhao Yu thought. Using nude photos to blackmail a police officer isn’t evil — what a funny world?

Tian Xudong handed Jiang Ke another helping and said, “But, how is this related to your prison break?”

Jiang Ke continued his explanation, “She died recently, according to Zhao Yu.”

Tian Xudong was more confused, “That doesn’t make sense. You were in prison at that time. Are they suspecting you?”

Jiang Ke took a bite of the goose and said, “You should ask a doctor to examine your brain functions. The person who helped me escape killed the female police officer. When we were on the bridge, Zhao Yu also brought up the Ziliu case. In my opinion, that case had nothing to do with us. They had a history. They just used us.”

Tian Xudong said, “No, boss, you played a big role in this. What’s the Ziliu case? What about Gao Lanqi?”

Jiang Ke said with contempt, “Idiot? Haven’t you heard about the Ziliu case? Five people died, and they took 800 thousand dollars. It was 12, no, 13 years ago. I was at Gao Lanqi at that time. Everyone was talking about that case.”

Tian Xudong said, “Oh. I see. Rumors say that you are the murderer.”

Jiang Ke denied this accusation firmly, “Of course not! If I had 800 thousand dollars. Why would I stay at Gao Lanqi and take nude photos of that cop.”

Tian Xudong agreed, “You’re right, but I still don’t get it. Why would that guy help you? His target is Zhao Yu.”

Jiang Ke had a deep breath and said, “You are finally understanding. I don’t understand it either. Zhao Yu Jumped from the bridge, and I escaped. Was this man making me the scapegoat? If the police don’t catch me, then no one knows about him. Even if the police suspect that someone helped me escape, they would think we were together, right?”

Tian Xudong thought about it and said, “So, you are saying that the person who helped you is the murderer in the Ziliu case?”

Jiang Ke said, “Finally! Yes! Zhao Yu also said that before. After he caught Han Kuan and became famous, he was called the master of the unsolved case. The mysterious person is afraid that Zhao Yu will find out the truth about the Ziliu case. So, the mystery person used me to help him get rid of Zhao Yu. Enemy’s enemy is a friend. That person doesn’t care about my escape at all. He only wants to kill Zhao Yu.”

Chapter 962: Unexpected Turn

Jiang Ke's theory about the mysterious man was making Zhao Yu worried and scared. Zhao Yu thought that he could find the mysterious man by following Jiang Ke and catch them all. It turned out that he was naive about the mysterious man. Jiang Ke didn't know anything about the mysterious man, and they were not together.

In the beginning, Zhao Yu thought that Jiang Ke was only telling Tian Xudong half of the story. He had to accept the fact that Jiang Ke had no idea about the identity of the mysterious man.

Zhao Yu stopped chewing the fish fillets and focused on listening to them. He was analyzing the information that he got from them. He now could confirm a few things with the information provided by them.

First were Jiang Ke and Leader Wu's relationship and Jiang Ke's purpose of taking those nude photos. If Jiang Ke was telling the truth, then he had nothing to do with Leader Wu's death. Now, I understand why he was so calm after seeing the photos. Questions remained according to Jiang Ke's explanation. If Jiang Ke had wanted to blackmail Leader Wu, why is he in the photos? Wouldn't that be leaving a piece of evidence that would put him in jeopardy? How did the mysterious man get the photos? Was it a coincidence or did Leader Wu leave the photos there on purpose? If it was Leader Wu, how did the mysterious man know that the pictures were there? The only possible explanation was the three people had a particular relationship. Jiang Ke might know this mysterious man, but he doesn't realize it.

Besides, if Jiang Ke was honest with Tu Xudong, it meant that he was not involved in the Ziliu case. Zhao Yu had the same suspicion with Jiang Ke that the mysterious man was the murderer. The mysterious man helped Jiang Ke because he wanted to stop Zhao Yu from investigating the Ziliu case.

Zhao Yu was still confused as to why the mysterious man didn't want to kill Jiang Ke. When they were on the bridge, the mysterious man asked Jiang Ke to leave before he detonated the bomb, which meant that he didn't want to hurt Jiang Ke. Did the mysterious man do this because he knew that Jiang Ke didn't know him, or because he wished to keep Jiang Ke alive. Because, if Jiang Ke were alive, he would always be the biggest target for the police

Zhao Yu thought about it over and over again. He noticed that there was a problem with his logic. The mysterious man's identity and his purpose became more complicated and confusing.

Suddenly, Tian Xudong said, "If that the case, we are lucky. Boss, we got a lot of help."

Jiang Ke said meaningfully, "You can say that for sure. I like getting a free meal. This guy must be thinking about other things. Maybe he will ask for our help."

Tian Xudong said, "No, boss. You've already given him a lot of help. Don't forget that you pushed Zhao Yu from the bridge. You've solved his biggest problem."

Jiang Ke said, "That's true. So, we make sure the police don't catch me."

From Jiang Ke and Tian Xudong's conversation, Zhao Yu understood two things. First, the mysterious man didn't worry if they caught Jiang Ke. After all, they both thought that Zhao Yu was dead. They would accuse Jiang Ke of murder upon his arrest. The second was that Jiang Ke didn't know about the car bomb.

What should I do if Jiang Ke doesn't know about the mysterious man? Jiang Ke doesn't sound like he will stay in this seafood supermarket much longer. Should I continue to follow him or ask Miao Ying to come here with the police? That makes my plan a wasted effort. Zhao Yu thought hard.

If the police catch Jiang Ke, that will put me in a difficult situation. The mysterious man can still use my family and friends to threaten me and stop me from finding the truth. They will also punish me for helping Jiang Ke escape. If the police put me in jail, what I have achieved so far is all ruined.

If I always hide in the dark, what am I? A fugitive? Then, I end up being a lonely detective that has to find the truth by himself? No!

Zhao Yu must think of a better way. If he couldn't find the mysterious man, his situation wouldn't change. Even though Jiang Ke didn't know about the mysterious man, he was the only person who could lead him to that man.

Zhao Yu thought of another way. I will catch Jiang Ke, torture him to get a confession and force him to tell the truth. The more he thought about it; it didn't appear to be the right solution. He wasn't sure that Jiang Ke would say anything. If the mysterious man knew that he caught Jiang Ke, he would take extra precautions. Those extra precautions would make it more difficult to find him. Zhao Yu was clueless.

Now, Jiang Ke and Tian Xudong shifted their conversation to other things. They discussed how they would take care of Cui Xiaolong's body, and the condition of their buddies who were still in prison.

When Tian Xudong heard that Zhao Yu had killed Laobin with only one punch, he asked with a shaking voice, "Boss, how can there be such a fierce policeman. Laobin once killed a bull with bare hands. Thank god Zhao Yu killed him. If he's still alive..."

Jiang Ke said, "No, it was a coincidence. Laobin didn't stand still, and the back of his head hit the front mirror of the car. It's not what you think. I don't care about the mysterious man. Anyway, Zhao Yu is dead. He has paid for killing Xiaolong and Laobin."

While the two spoke, Zhao Yu concluded that he shouldn't expose himself right now. Following Jiang Ke was his only opportunity to find the mysterious man. If Jiang Ke was right, the mysterious man might contact him soon to ask him for help. Zhao Yu could feel Jiang Ke's hesitation by the way he talked. It seemed that he was hiding something from Tian Xudong. Zhao Yu might as well continue following Jiang Ke. There might be something about him that would give Zhao Yu a clue.

Zhao Yu also noticed another critical thing. When he put himself in the mysterious man's place and recalled the prison break, he found that everything was under the mysterious man's control except the yellow van.

According to the mysterious man's original plan, the van was set to explode on the bridge, and Zhao Yu should have been killed in the explosion. Because Zhao Yu had disabled the bomb, he had disrupted disturbed the mysterious man's plan. After Zhao Yu jumped into the river, the mysterious man had to ask Jiang Ke to drive the van away. Later, he asked Jiang Ke to get rid of the van. Therefore, the mysterious man might have left something in the van. Zhao Yu told himself that he must find the van.

Zhao Yu wanted to tell Miao Ying about it. He opened his mailbox and found Miao Ying's reply to his last email. As he was just about to open Miao Ying's response, something unexpected happened. Suddenly, a car came crashing through the supermarket side window. The vehicle smashed several glass counters and came to a stop in the center of the store. Zhao Yu was scared and rushed towards the door of the small warehouse. The car turned out to be the yellow Skynet Maintenance van.

Chapter 963: Jiang Ke, Run!

Zhao Yu was shocked by this unexpected event. Jiang Ke and Tian Xudong were shocked as well and yelled loudly

Although the van was inside the supermarket, the crashing sound didn't stop. Broken glass covered the floor, and the supermarket was a big mess.

Zhao Yu quickly hid behind the door of the small warehouse and carefully looked outside. The yellow van was only ten meters away from him. Because the front wheels were stuck in one of the counters, the van couldn't move. Although the engine was still roaring, the wheels just made a horrible squealing sound.

Zhao Yu was shocked when he saw the van. How could it be here? Is this the van that the mysterious man arranged for Jiang Ke's escape? But wasn't it destroyed?

Tian Xudong opened the supermarket door and ran inside. He had no idea what was happening. The only thing he saw was the terrible mess in the hall.

Then, he recognized the yellow van's driver and shouted, "A Rong! What are you doing here?"

Confused, Jiang Ke, who had followed Tian Xudong, said, "This is the van I asked you to get rid of it. Why the hell did you bring it here? Are you crazy? What if the police come?"

Tian Xudong shouted A Rong's name and opened the van's door. Through the door, Zhao Yu saw that the man in the driver's seat seemed to have passed out. Suddenly, Jiang Ke realized something. He quickly moved to warn Tian Xudong to get away from the van.

A man suddenly got out of the car from the seat next to the driver. He had a weapon with him. Tian Xudong screamed and turned to run. Just as he turned, the man stuck a dagger into his chest. Tian Xudong took two steps, spit blood, and knelt to the ground. Jiang Ke shouted Tian Xudong's name and came over to help him. Suddenly, a short, bald man jumped out of the van and came toward Jiang Ke with a dagger in his hand.

All of this happened so quickly that Zhao Yu barely had time to react. When he saw that Jiang Ke was in danger, he realized that he could never let Jiang Ke die here! If Jiang Ke died, Zhao Yu would be in real danger.

Thinking about this, Zhao Yu quickly ran out of the warehouse in an attempt to save Jiang Ke. However, he was too far away from Jiang Ke to be of any help.

But, Jiang Ke was not as weak as Zhao Yu thought. He was ready before he came to help Tian Xudong.

He shook his wrist gently and shot an electromagnetic bullet right at the man with the dagger. Immediately, the electromagnetic shell exploded, and dazzling currents engulfed the short, bald man. The man's body was violently shaking as he fell slowly to the ground. Zhao Yu remembered that Jiang Ke was a stun gun user. Then, he quietly retreated behind the door.

Jiang Ke heard the sound come from the other side of the room and wanted to check it out. Before he could see what was happening, a fire broke out where the man had fallen. Jiang Ke was startled and pulled Tian Xudong back.

There were many small stoves in the supermarket for the salespeople to use for roasting fishes to attract the customers. These samples were very popular among the tourists. Therefore, there were liquid fuel tanks in the store to fuel the stoves. The van smashed one of those fuel tanks, and Jiang Ke's gun ignited the fuel! The flammable packaging materials scattered on the floor caught on fire instantly.

As the flame grew, a medium-sized van quickly drove up outside the supermarket. The van stopped at the entrance, and five young people in wired clothes got out. With knives in their hands, they rushed into the supermarket through the broken window.

Seeing what was happening, Jiang Ke immediately wanted to drag Tian Xudong out of the supermarket. Tian Xudong was seriously wounded. He couldn't walk or talk, and when he opened his mouth, blood rushed out. He pushed Jiang Ke away, which made it evident that he wanted Jiang Ke to leave. Once again, Jiang Ke tried to move Tian Xudong, but Tian Xudong couldn't move.

Jiang Ke shouted to the sky, "Cao Sifeng, none of your family will live until tomorrow." Now, he saw the five young people rushing into the supermarket ran to the entrance.

Everything that just happened baffled Zhao Yu. He had no idea why the second van would come. Who was this short, bald man, and who was Cao Sifeng? Why would they want to kill Jiang Ke?

Upon seeing Jiang Ke run away, Zhao Yu knew that he mustn't lose sight of him. Considering that he couldn't let others see him, he planned to use an Invisible Cloak.

Suddenly, Jiang Ke came back with the man in the uniform. The uniformed man was fighting with violent intruders. Now, several people came in from the other side of the supermarket. Jiang Ke had no way to escape.

Now, a large counter was on fire, and flames surrounded the yellow van. Jiang Ke had no place to hide or to escape. He grabbed a window glass piece and wanted to help the uniformed man. Zhao Yu realized that these people might be Jiang Ke's enemies. How did they know that he was here? Was the mysterious man causing this to happen?

Zhao Yu rolled up his sleeves. He couldn't just watch and do nothing. He was not going to let Jiang Ke die now even though Jiang Ke had wanted to kill him. Zhao Yu opened his system and wanted to launch an invisible attack. That way, he could save Jiang Ke's life without being found. But, when he opened the device bar, he noticed a red alarm symbol on the detector's screen. He looked in that direction and saw that flames engulfed the yellow van.

There was a bomb under the van!

Zhao Yu comforted himself, knowing that the bomb had been disabled. It wouldn't explode. As the roaring flames rose higher, so did Zhao Yu's worries. Zhao Yu had no idea what to do now. At that moment, the burning van exploded.

Chapter 964: Don't Die

Zhao Yu coughed and shook off the grilled fish fillets and sea sedges that were on him. How could a dismantled bomb be detonated with fire? Zhao Yu complained. Then, he remembered what he had learned in the police school. Under high temperature and high pressure, bombs made of raw materials such as nitroglycerin would explode.

Zhao Yu was only thinking about how to save Jiang Ke and forgot about the bomb under the van. When he realized that the bomb was still under the van, it was too late. When the bomb exploded, a powerful shock wave shattered the rest of the glass windows and blew up the metal containers outside the small warehouse. Now, Zhao Yu was underneath the rubble.

The metal containers resisted the explosion and protected Zhao Yu from the flying pieces of glass. Zhao Yu wasn't hurt very much by the explosion. An irritatingly charred smell was in the air. Quickly, Zhao Yu climbed from under the container pieces. There was no fire in the hall, but the smoke was thick and pungent. Zhao Yu grabbed a towel to cover his mouth and nose while he crawled out of the small warehouse into the hall.

The bomb exploded from under the van. A metal skeleton was all that was left. The van was burning still burning, and the smoke was billowing out. The young people who came to kill Jiang Ke were laying on the ground. Broken glass had hit some of them, and they were moaning miserably. Zhao Yu's detector showed that only a few of them were still alive. Zhao Yu coughed and had to use an Invisible Breathing Device to protect himself from the poisonous smoke.

The sight in front of him was devastating. Hardly anything remained of the supermarket hall. The ventilation ducts on the roof were blown up, and wires and cables were all over the place. Zhao Yu clenched his fists and searched for Jiang Ke. If Jiang Ke was dead, his last hope of finding the mysterious man was gone. Luckily, Zhao Yu found that his Invisible Tracking Device was still working and Jiang Ke's signal was flashing on the display screen.

He is lucky. Zhao Yu thought and remembered that Jiang Ke was near the van when it exploded. Zhao Yu wanted to see Jiang Ke first, but with the wind blowing from outside, the fire in the van suddenly began spread. Because of this, the van next to it ignited as well. Zhao Yu must put out the fire quickly. The fire was still out of control. He looked around for a fire extinguisher, but the smoke was so thick he could barely see anything.

To his surprise, the sprinkler system on the roof of the hall started working. Water began to shower from the ceiling. It instantly looked like rain was falling. When Tian Xudong built the supermarket, he had thought there could be a fire emergency. An automatic sprinkler system was installed to cover all of the building. The sensors weren't very sensitive due to the age of the system. That was why it took them so long to start working. The water began to put out the flames and reduce the intense smoke.

When the water poured on Zhao Yu's body, Zhao Yu's mind suddenly became clear. He realized that some police cars, fire trucks, and ambulances would arrive here soon. He had to find Jiang Ke and leave as quickly as possible. Zhao Yu signed. He couldn't think of any alternative.

Zhao Yu found Jiang Ke on the ground with help from the signal on the detector. Jiang Ke was unconscious now. Zhao Yu quickly carried him away from the hall through the supermarket entrance.

After leaving the hall, Zhao Yu saw the monitoring room next to the entrance. Since Jiang Ke was hiding there, Zhao Yu thought that he might have hidden something important in the room. Zhao Yu laid Jiang Ke on the ground and went into the monitoring room.

The monitoring room consisted of two small rooms. The outside room was the communication room where the security stayed, and the inside room was the functional monitoring room. Zhao Yu went straight to the interior monitoring room, but the monitoring screen was dark. The explosion might have damaged it, or someone had destroyed it on purpose.

There was a small bed in the corner of the room. The dishes that Tian Xudong brought to Jiang Ke were on the bed. There was also a laptop and a stun gun next to it. Without even thinking, Zhao Yu took the laptop and the stun gun with him. He also took a pack of sauce beef and two helpings from the food warmer. Now, Zhao Yu picked up Jiang Ke, positioned the man on his back, and left the building.

He couldn't go to the street because the police might show up at any time. So, he decided to go to the parking lot. Tian Xudong's Audi A8 was still there. He had to make a dangerous decision, but he had no other choice. He opened the door and put Jiang Ke in the car. Then, he got in on the driver's seat.

Fortunately, the key was in the ignition. All Zhao Yu wanted to do when he started the car was to go through the front entrance of the supermarket and find the main road. Just as he started the car, he heard the sirens. Zhao Yu had to go behind the supermarket to the seafood plant.

Zhao Yu fastened both of their seat belts. While doing so, he saw that Jiang Ke was wearing a bulletproof police uniform. The uniform explained why Jiang Ke's trip from Yaoming to Yanghai was so smooth. The mysterious man prepared this in advance. The outfit would keep the police from being suspicious of Jiang Ke. The uniform also saved him from being killed in the explosion.

Although he was still alive, Jiang Ke's face was severely injured. He was almost unrecognizable. Blood flowed from his nose and mouth, which suggested internal bleeding. He probably suffered head trauma as well. Zhao Yu noticed that Jiang Ke's life signal on the Life Detector was weakening.

No, Jiang Ke, don't die! I have to find the mysterious man. Zhao Yu thought anxiously.

Yes, The Invisible Hemostat. At that moment, Zhao Yu thought of his Invisible Hemostat and used it on Jiang Ke. Jiang Ke's signal on the Life Detector gradually stabilized.

Zhao Yu knew that if it was cerebral hemorrhage, he must take him to the hospital for surgery. If he didn't, Jiang Ke was still in danger. If they went to the hospital, they would be exposed. In that case, it would be even harder to find the mysterious guy now with the yellow van gone.

Zhao Yu sighed angrily. He didn't expect his plans to change abruptly as the sirens grew louder. When Zhao Yu drove the Audi A8 to the plant's back door, he noticed that there was a rear gate with an iron door. He drove the car into the iron door. The door crashed open, and Zhao Yu drove the vehicle onto the outside road. Fortunately, there was no one around. Zhao Yu took Jiang Ke out of the car and put him in his Wuling Hongguang van. Zhao Yu covered Jiang Ke with some of the costumes in the back of the van. After that, he started the van and drove to the main road.

Chapter 965: Fight to Win

After starting the van, Zhao Yu worried that too many police and cameras would be along the main road. Instead, he decided to take the alley behind the plant. The driveway linked two side streets. He made several turns in the narrow lane and finally got to the other road.

Da*n!

Although the smoking seafood supermarket was fading away in the distance, Zhao Yu angrily slapped the steering wheel. Judging from Jiang Ke's injuries, even if he didn't die, he might not recover quickly. If Jiang Ke remained in a coma, Zhao Yu's plan was for nothing. If Jiang Ke regained consciousness, he didn't know the identity of the mysterious man. Zhao Yu never expected that loosening the reins on Jiang Ke instead of tightening them would cause such chaos. Jiang Ke was useless right now, and Zhao Yu didn't have any more clues about the mysterious man.

Who the hell are you? Zhao Yu thought about the mysterious man.

Recalling the supermarket explosion, Zhao Yu couldn't help but recognize that Kun Qian was indeed powerful! He jumped into a river and witnessed an explosion within half a day after he helped Jiang Ke escape from prison. If things went on like this, what would happen next?

Zhao Yu didn't know where to go. He drove slowly along the roadside while thinking about his next step.

Calm down! Calm down!

He forced himself to concentrate. Unfortunately, things had reached a point that he had no idea what to do next. He looked back at Jiang Ke lying under a pile of costumes. He knew that the first thing to do was to take him to the hospital for treatment. Otherwise, he would probably die! If he died, there was no way that Zhao Yu could find the mysterious man or explain the prison break. The Criminal Division would dismiss him and possibly put him in jail!

Taking Jiang Ke to the hospital would put him in danger of being caught. He has no way of supporting his innocence if Jiang Ke is unconscious.

He couldn't let anyone see him if he took Jiang Ke to the hospital! After that, he could only rely on himself to investigate the identity of the mysterious man! If he lost the resources of the Criminal Division, it became more difficult to find out the identity of the mysterious man. While investigating the case, he had to be careful not to alert the police!

Zhao Yu sighed. He had not intended to turn himself into a wanted criminal. Although he had once been a fugitive in New Zealand, that situation was different from this one. At least he had some support then. What now? Besides Miao Ying, he had no one else to help him.

Solving a case alone sounded as if it would make him a hero, but he knew that it was complicated. When Zhao Yu was investigating the Devil Case, it took a lot of effort and resources to bring Han Kuan to justice. Now he had to find the mysterious man and crack the Ziliu case alone. As Zhao Yu frowned and thought deeply, he felt sorrowful.

What else can I do? Is there nothing left for me to do?

Zhao Yu looked at the map on his mobile phone. He was heading east along the main road to the East District. Haidu International Film and Television City was less than 10 kilometers away. After he passed the film and television city, there was a big city in Tongjiang Province – Chaohai! If he went to Chaohai's Hospital, it would be closer than returning to Yaoming. So, Zhao Yu decided to drive eastward.

While driving, Zhao Yu thought about Miao Ying's reply to his email and Jiang Ke's laptop. He wondered what he could do. He slowed down and pulled over to open Miao Ying's email. Miao Ying's letter stated what he expected. Miao Ying agreed with Zhao Yu's idea of faking his death, but she disagreed with his adventurous plan to release Jiang Ke. To keep the mysterious man from using Zhao Yu's family and friends to threaten him again and to keep them from worrying, Miao Ying would intercept any news about Zhao Yu jumping in the river. She firmly opposed the plan of using Jiang Ke to find the mysterious man. Miao Ying's reason was straightforward. She worried about Zhao Yu's safety. Jiang Ke was no ordinary criminal after all. He was cunning and had a powerful group behind him. It was too dangerous to stay with him.

Another reason was that Zhao Yu's plan broke the rules. His actions fell outside his power. Even if he could find the mysterious man, he would inevitably be held accountable for his actions.

Therefore, Miao Ying made a sincere suggestion that Zhao Yu immediately tell her where to find Jiang Ke and let the police arrest him. Then, they could try their best to investigate the identity of the mysterious person together.

Miao Ying also gave Zhao Yu a plan to provide him with a false identity. Then, he could continue the work of the special task force and continue to exercise his leader's rights.

After reading Miao Ying's letter, Zhao Yu sighed again. After he climbed up the bank from the cold Hongming River, he had considered what Miao Ying suggested. It would be safer to have Jiang Ke under control.

At that time, he was arrogant and thought that his powerful devices were enough to complete his task. He believed that as long as he followed Jiang Ke, he could identify the mysterious man and arrest both of them.

Zhao Yu regretted it now. He had to admit that his decision was too risky, but he had wanted to be a hero.

Why not take back to the police station as Miao Ying suggested? Zhao Yu thought that with all his achievements, and Division Chief Jiao's help, he might not lose his position as the special investigation group leader. The reason why Zhao Yu chose to take risks was more than being arrogant.

First of all, the purpose behind the mysterious man helping Jiang Ke escape from prison confused him. The mysterious man took a huge risk to help Jiang Ke escape from prison and still didn't want to hurt him. Maybe the mysterious man needed Jiang Ke's help. If Jiang Ke was caught and put back in jail, it might upset the mysterious man.

Secondly, Zhao Yu was not sure how powerful the mysterious person was. If he learned of Zhao Yu's fake death, the mysterious man might take revenge and try to hurt Zhao Yu's family and friends. Zhao Yu didn't want to see that happen.

Lastly, since the mysterious man had threatened Zhao Yu, he could use the same method to intimidate others. The mysterious man could even threaten the leader of the detention center or Zhao Yu's colleagues to achieve his goal.

Zhao Yu looked back at unconscious Jiang Ke. He was under a lot of pressure and didn't know how to make the right choice.

"A moment of frustration and despair... You can't help but sigh..."

Unexpectedly, he was frightened when he heard a song in the back of the van.

"...Soulless like a scarecrow..."

Zhao Yu realized that it was a ringtone. He reached into his trousers pocket to retrieve his cell phone, but it didn't ring.

"Good luck, bad luck, always have to start..."

Zhao Yu discovered that the song came from Jiang Ke's direction! He stopped the van abruptly, searched Jiang Ke, and found a Huawei mobile phone in Jiang Ke's jacket pocket. When he took the phone out, the song had just ended:

"30% is doomed, 70% depends on hard work. You've got to fight to win..."

Looking at the incoming call number on the screen, Zhao Yu's hands trembled. He didn't think that Jiang Ke was carrying a mobile phone, or that someone was calling him. Could it be the mysterious man?

Chapter 966: Perpetrate a Gigantic Fraud

Take it? Of course! But How?

Zhao Yu reacted quickly. He almost unconsciously clicked the Invisible Voice-changer in the device bar of his system. After activating the voice changer, he pointed the voice pickup at Jiang Ke. When the green light lit up on the display screen, he started to speak with Jiang Ke's voice. Since the phone belonged to Jiang Ke's, he needed to use Jiang Ke's voice to answer the call. Zhao Yu also used a Hacker's Command. If the caller was the mysterious man, he would immediately start tracking his location.

After Zhao Yu finished all of this, he gently pressed the answer button, then said. "Hello!" His voice was the same as Jiang Ke's.

A man's rough voice came from the phone. "Boss, Boss! Is that you speaking?"

Zhao Yu cleared his throat, then mimicked Jiang Ke's tone and said, "Yes, it's me!"

“Oh, thank God, thank God...Boss!” The man sounded relieved, then asked eagerly, “What the h*ll happened? How did the seafood supermarket catch fire? Why are there so many policemen? Have you been caught? Where are you now? Are you safe?”

Not the mysterious man. Zhao Yu was disappointed. This voice and this tone was not the mysterious man.

The man on the phone said with a worried tone, “Hey, boss, don’t be so quiet! What happened? We’re all waiting to pick you up!”

Zhao Yu guessed that the person who was calling was probably Jiang Ke’s fellow. He pinched his eyebrows and carefully recalled the two names which Jiang Ke had mentioned before.

Zhao Yu hesitated and asked, “Is Tongqi speaking?”

The man said anxiously, “This is Sanlong, boss! Can’t you hear my voice? Tongqi is finishing the job for you! You’re on time now. We’ll have to push hard!”

Others might not understand what Sanlong was talking about, but Zhao Yu understood his jargon. ‘The job’ was how Jiang Ke escaped, ‘on time’ meant that Jiang Ke was now a wanted criminal, and ‘push hard’ meant leaving secretly. It looked like that this fellow was responsible for picking up Jiang Ke and helping him escape.

Where do they want to go? Their base? Zhao Yu thought for a moment and said, “The seafood supermarket was blown up! Tian Xudong is dead!”

The man named Sanlong hurried to ask, “Boss, who did it? The police?”

“No!” Zhao Yu suddenly remembered the name that Jiang Ke had shouted and said, “It was Cao Sifeng!”

Sanlong was shocked and asked quickly, “How is it possible? Cao Sifeng is in Halongjiang. How could he possibly come here? Besides, how could he possibly know that you’ve escaped from prison? Oh! Is there a hook (undercover spy) from Tian Xu’s side?”

“How would I know?” Zhao Yu’s quickly thought as he spoke. He looked at Jiang Ke lying on the ground. He felt that this was a rare opportunity.

Sanlong hastily replied, “Right. Where are you now? Let me pick you up! Boss, you don’t know what happened while you were in prison. Everything is a complete mess. Big Bear Zhang spread a rumor that you sold us out to the police and wanted to take over our property. Then Hesheng came to collect what we owed him and threatened to report us to the police...”

Pick me up? Big Bear Zhang? Hesheng? Zhao Yu felt these names sounded so familiar. He looked at Jiang Ke’s cell phone and touched his cell phone. A bold idea popped into his mind.

He looked down at the comatose Jiang Ke and thought. It’s going to be completely fraudulent, but, if I want to be him, who should he be. What’s the best way to deal with him?

Zhao Yu was silent for a long time. Sanlong couldn’t wait and said again, “We are waiting for you to return! Where on earth are you?”

Where am I? After hearing the question, Zhao Yu looked outside and saw a big red sign that told him that he was 8.3 kilometers away from the Haidu International Film and Television City. That name sounds familiar. Oh, I see!

Suddenly, Zhao Yu's eyes lit up. He grabbed the phone tightly and said, "Sanlong, I left the supermarket, and I'm driving now. I hit my head in the explosion, and I'm feeling dizzy. I don't know where I am."

Then Zhao Yu said, "I just saw a road sign. I'm 8.3 kilometers away from the Haidu International Film and Television City. I'll be there soon, so let's meet there."

Sanlong said, "Boss, the movie city is in the east. Which road are you taking? I'm not that far from you. Wait for me, and I will be there soon."

Zhao Yu scolded him, "Did you hit your head in the explosion too? Don't you know that there are police everywhere? The police will capture me if I stay here."

Sanlong gasped and said quickly, "All right. I'll get in touch with the others right now, and we'll go to the movie city to pick you up! Since the movie city is so big, exactly where will we meet?"

"I'll contact you when I find the right place!" Zhao Yu looked at his cell phone and saw that there was an incoming call.

Sanlong said, "OK. When you find a safe place, call me right away. See you in the film and television city!"

After he hung up, Zhao Yu heard his heart pounding. He was frightened by his crazy idea.

He slapped himself hard and said to himself. Do you want to do this? It's probably the road of no return. Is it necessary?

Apprehensively, Zhao Yu restarted the car and drove rapidly toward the Haidu Film and TV City. Although he felt a little crazy, he took out his new phone and made a call.

Chapter 967: Crazy Plan

Yaoming Haidu International Film and Television City.

It took Zhao Yu only 10 minutes to drive his van to his destination. The Haidu Film and Television City was well-known throughout the country, and its size was comparable to that of a county town. It was New Year's Day, and tourism was in the off-season. There were a few tourists in the cold streets. The people that were still in the film city were generally the film and television making crews who were busy with their work.

Zhao Yu drove the van into a hidden dense forest in the north part of the film city where there were few people and no cameras. Zhao Yu drove around the forest three times until he saw a black Great Wall Harvard. He parked the van next to a flower bed. After parking the van, he got out. This dense forest was close to the sea, and he heard the surge of waves in the distance.

The door of the Harvard opened as Zhao Yu got out of the van, and a slightly skinny man got out. The man was surprised to see Zhao Yu

The man exclaimed in surprise, "Detective Zhao, this is different! Why are you wearing such fashionable attire? A pink scarf? Are you here for a role? If you need an agent, I am a good candidate."

"Shut up!" Zhao Yu opened the back door of the van, moved the pile of clothes, and revealed Jiang Ke."

The man asked curiously, "Detective Zhao, why did you call me? Who is this man? Is he the one you asked me to..."

Zhao Yu stared at the man, then pointed to Jiang Ke and ordered, "Ma Laodan, hurry up and carry him to your car!"

Noticing the stern look on Zhao Yu's face, Ma Laodan moved to help.

It turned out that this skinny man was Ma Zhen from Jin'an, but Zhao Yu preferred to call Ma Laodan. Zhao Yu thought of him at the last moment. When he came to Yaoming to investigate the Devil Case a year ago, he happened to meet Ma Laodan and Song Meili in a mutton hotpot restaurant. At the restaurant, Cui Lizhu hit Ma Laodan over the head with a wine bottle. From that experience, somehow he got inspiration from Song Meili's audition line, which was "True is false and false is true."

Zhao Yu remembered that Ma Laodan had said that he and Song Meili came to Yaoming to attend an audition in film city. It was a big-budget film called Lady Magic. Once she made it through the audition, they would stay in the film city for shooting and wouldn't return until the Spring Festival. Later, when the Devil Case was solved, Zhao Yu saw the news about the film and noticed Song Meili's name on the list of actors. Although she was not the lead actress, she was the support one. She needed to stay in the film city with the crew, so Ma Laodan, her agent and boyfriend, stayed also.

When Zhao Yu saw the sign about the Haidu Film and Television City, he suddenly remembered Ma Laodan. Ma Laodan used to be a member of a gang of thieves and knew a lot about those people. If he could help Zhao Yu deal with Jiang Ke's gang, Zhao Yu's plan would resolve the current situation. Zhao Yu called him and learned that Ma Laodan was at the Haidu Film and Television City with Song Meili. He decided on a plan.

Although Zhao Yu didn't know Ma Laodan very well, he knew that Ma Laodan was reliable even though he always looked a little unkempt! Zhao Yu decided to hand over Jiang Ke to him. Since the police and the mysterious man didn't know about the transfer, it seemed to be a good solution. Zhao Yu's enemy was in the dark. If he wanted to maximize his advantages, he must take bold and unexpected steps. Therefore, Zhao Yu asked Ma Laodan for help and set up a time to meet.

Zhao Yu and Ma Laodan put Jiang Ke in the trunk of the Harvard.

After closing the truck, Zhao Yu told Ma Laodan, "I don't think I need to repeat what I said on the phone. You must remember to execute this plan properly; if not, you and I will both be sc***ed! Do you understand?"

Ma Laodan clapped his chest and said, "You can rest assured. I know someone in Chaohai. This guy will get treated without anyone knowing who he is, but you have to tell me who he is first."

Zhao Yu grabbed Ma Laodan's neck and whispered in his ear, "His name is Jiang Ke. Now, do you realize how important this is?"

Ma Laodan was terrified and almost threw himself on the ground. He was bewildered. "What? He's as famous as Tao Xiang, and he's my idol. I thought they arrested him? How..?"

Zhao Yu told him again, "You know too much. Make sure no one can know that I'm still alive! Try your best to save Jiang Ke no matter what it takes."

Ma Laodan waved his hand. "Talking about money ruins our friendship."

Zhao Yu pointed at the Harvard and said, "You have to follow the rules! If he doesn't die, lock him up! Nobody can find him! If you do this correctly, we will be friends." Zhao Yu patted Ma Laodan on the shoulder.

Ma Laodan nodded quickly and said, "Don't worry. I'm always your best friend in a bad situation. Just give him to me. I know what to do!"

Zhao Yu nodded. "Good. I need your help now that I'm uncertain about the police. That is why I came to you for help. I hope you understand."

Ma Laodan said gravely, "I know! I'm not helping just you because you saved me once but also because of my father. I know what I'm doing, and I know that's the right thing to do."

Zhao Yu patted Ma Laodan on the shoulder with satisfaction. Although this man used to be a thief, right now, he was the only person he could trust. Time was pressing. Zhao Yu added a brief explanation before Ma Laodan drove away.

Zhao Yu did think about handing Jiang Ke over to the police, but Miao Ying hadn't arrived at Yaoming yet. He was worried that there would be unexpected problems if he made the transfer. If Jiang Ke were handed over to the police right now, it would have a significant impact on what he planned to do next!

After seeing the Harvard in the distance, he called the previous number on Jiang Ke's phone.

Using the voice changer, he said, "Sanlong, I'm in the dense forest north of the film and television city. Pick me up! I just sent the location to your phone!"

After hanging up, Zhao Yu took the pink scarf off his face and breathed softly. Next, he opened the photo of Jiang Ke that he had taken with his mobile phone. He selected the Invisible Disguise Machine from his device system. He hadn't used this device for a long time.

Chapter 968: I'm a Famous Thief

This stun gun was good! While waiting, Zhao Yu played with the stun gun he took from Jiang Ke. It was an electric stun gun that was a miniature pocket style. You could wear it on your wrist under your sleeve. It was very easy to conceal. Although the gun only fired one shock bullet at a time, it was an excellent weapon for defense. Zhao Yu put the stun gun on his wrist.

While listening to the waves in the distance, Zhao Yu started to think about his crazy plan. Now he had less than 30 Invisible Disguise Machines. Some could work for an hour, and others could work for only 10 minutes. If he used them together, he could look like Jiang Ke's for about 24 hours.

Could he find the mysterious man in 24 hours?

Although his height and build were similar to Jiang Ke's, was the facial change enough to convince Jiang Ke's people? If he failed, it was going to end badly. Zhao Yu still believed that it was worth trying. He was confident that even if Jiang Ke did not know the identity of the mysterious man; he would undoubtedly have some connection to him. Therefore, taking Jiang Ke's was a shortcut to finding the mysterious man! He also had a slight feeling that he could get more information this way. To be safe, he practiced Jiang Ke's speech and behavior again; He also fabricated some stories to prevent anyone from growing suspicious.

Zhao Yu heard the sound of hurried footsteps coming from a distance. To his surprise, Jiang Ke's consort arrived quickly. Zhao Yu quickly hid in the bushes. As soon as he was out of sight, a big bearded man appeared in front of his van. The man came to look for someone. He went straight to the van and peered through the window. After seeing nobody in it, he took out his phone and made a call.

"Good luck, bad luck, always start work first..."

Suddenly, Zhao Yu's phone rang, or rather, Jiang Ke's phone rang.

The big man was frightened by the sound. He lowered his head and looked in Zhao Yu's direction. Cautiously, he asked, "Boss, is that you?"

Zhao Yu knew that his plan was officially underway. He immediately started the Invisible Disguise Machine and transformed his face into Jiang Ke's. Then, he lowered his head and stumbled out!

Upon seeing someone emerge from the bushes, the big man took an offensive stance. "Dam, what the hell!"

Zhao Yu took off his hat and scarf and revealed Jiang Ke's face.

With surprise and anger in his voice, the big man said, "Boss? Damn those inhumane cops. Look what they did to my boss! I'll never forgive them! Boss, you've suffered too much!"

Zhao Yu almost laughed out loud. He quickly put on a nervous and painful look and said, "You are San... San..."

"Sanlong, I am Sanlong!" The big man immediately came to help Zhao Yu and asked worriedly, "Boss, don't you even recognize me?"

Zhao Yu grabbed his head and said with dull eyes, "Explosion! A bomb, a seafood supermarket! Xudong...Tian Xu...Tian Xudong...Dead! My head..."

"Oh! You've already said that. Xudong is dead! You can rest assured that Cao Sifen will pay for this! But your head..." Sanlong pointed to Zhao Yu's head and asked, "Your head was hurt? Is it serious?"

Zhao Yu, pretending to be in pain, hit his head repeatedly and said angrily, "I can't remember anything..."

Sanlong quickly grabbed Zhao Yu's arm and stopped him. "Don't. Maybe it's a concussion! Don't worry; we've got the car ready. Let's get out of here and find a doctor! You need to rest now."

Sanlong's trust in his identity reassured Zhao Yu. He said, "Let's go!"

Sanlong was going to leave with Zhao Yu, but Zhao Yu struggled to get back to the van. He took out Jiang Ke's laptop and the sauced beef.

Zhao Yu said to Sanlong, "Sanlong. I stole this van from a stranger. We can't leave it here!"

As Sanlong took Zhao Yu's things, he said, "Don't worry, I'll get someone to get rid of it! Boss, come this way!"

With Saolong's help, Zhao Yu came out on the road outside the forest. To his surprise, a truck loaded with sheep was waiting for him. Zhao Yu was truly surprised.

A man wearing glasses was in the truck cab and was waving at Zhao Yu. "This way. This way."

Zhao Yu realized that this man must be Tongqi.

When Sanlong saw Zhao Yu's doubtful look, he hastily explained, "Boss, your head is seriously hurt. Only a vehicle that transports livestock could get on the highway when the road is closed! That's what you taught us..."

Zhao Yu nodded slightly. Considering their escape method, Zhao Yu assumed that their destination was far away from their current location. If it was close, there was no need to drive on a highway!

Thinking about this, Zhao Yu asked, "Where are we going?"

Tongqi urged anxiously, "This isn't a good time to talk. Get in the truck first!"

With Sanlong's help, Zhao Yu slowly got in the truck.

Zhao Yu thought many men would come to pick up Jiang Ke because he was such a prominent gang leader. As it turned out, only two men arrived.

After getting into the truck, Sanlong explained to Tongqi about the car bomb. Tongqi drove the truck out of the film city while calling to make arrangements.

After putting down the phone, he reported to Zhao Yu, "Boss, we will handle the van you drove properly. Neither the police nor Cao Sifen can find it!"

Zhao Yu clutched his fist and shouted Cao Sifen's name angrily. Suddenly he gripped his hair painfully and wailed, "Dam*. Why can't I...Why can't I even remember Cao Sifen? Who is he? Why does he want to kill me?"

Sanlong didn't seem surprised at Zhao Yu's question. However, Tongqi's hands started shaking, and the car almost sped into a ditch.

Chapter 969: Whose Robbery Plan

Seeing Zhao Yu's blank look, Sanlong asked worriedly, "Boss, are you joking with us? Even if you forget about us, you can't forget Cao Sifen. He's your worst enemy."

Zhao Yu was worried about his disguise. He immediately covered his head and pretended to be dizzy and said, "I have to see a doctor!"

While speaking, he used an Invisible Browser to search for Sanlong and Tongqi's background, but there was nothing about them. Suddenly, Zhao Yu realized that Sanlong and Tongqi were not their real names. If he wanted to find out more about them, he had to find another way.

Sanlong comforted him, "You need to rest now. Maybe you will feel better after you get some sleep! Then, we'll try to find a doctor for you!"

Sanlong also told Tongqi about Zhao Yu's brain injury. Although Tongqi was comforting Zhao Yu, there were signs of doubt in his eyes. Zhao Yu felt extremely nervous. It seemed that Jiang Ke's men weren't stupid. He needed to make himself look more convincing!

With this in mind, Zhao Yu suddenly thumped heavily on the seat and roared excitedly, "Xiaolong and Xudong are dead. I even forget about my worst enemy. Why am I still alive?"

After roaring, he covered his head again.

Sanlong hastily comforted him, "Boss, it was only a temporary thing. You are the great robber, Jiang Ke. We will make a comeback soon!"

At the same time, Tongqi said, "You often tell us that where there is life, there is hope! We have a bunch of brothers waiting for you to come back. After your recovery, let's take revenge on your enemies one by one!"

Zhao Yu said sadly, "What the fortune-teller told me has come true! He said that I'm a drought dragon and shouldn't get wet. He advised me not to go to the wet places in the south. He is right!"

Zhao Yu repeated the same words that Jiang Ke had said. After he finished speaking, he saw Tongqi nod slightly. He knew about the fortune teller.

When Sanlong heard this, he asked in confusion, "Boss, how can you forget Cao Sifen but remember a fortune teller's words?"

"Em..." Zhao Yu quickly covered his head and made a painful look.

Tongqi said, "I'm going to get on the highway! Let the boss rest for a while. We still have a long way to go!"

While Tongqi was speaking, their truck came to the highway toll station. They were surprised to see an armed policeman at the toll station.

Sanlong quickly turned over the back seat of the truck. He said to Zhao Yu, "Boss, hide!"

Zhao Yu looked down and saw a space under the seat. Zhao Yu didn't have time to think as he went inside. When the seat returned to its previous position, he was in total darkness. In case of an emergency, he opened the device bar and was ready to use an Invisible Cloak. However, the inspection went smoothly, and in less than five minutes, the truck started again.

Sanlong moved the car seat and helped Zhao Yu out. He said happily, "We are on the highway now. Let's go home!"

Zhao Yu looked at the highway toll station through the rearview mirror. He suspected that the sheep truck was registered so it could pass through the inspection smoothly. This truck wasn't used solely to rescue Jiang Ke. It had to be their main transportation for other illegal activities. They were relieved now that the truck was on the highway.

Sanlong asked Zhao Yu to rest again, but that was the last thing Zhao Yu dared to do. If his disguise went away, he would be in a lot of trouble. Zhao Yu tried to have a conversation with the two. To get useful information from them, he told them about the conversation between Jiang Ke and Tian Xudong at the supermarket. He also told them about Jiang Ke's arrest, escape, and the supermarket explosion. The two men had the same reaction as Tian Xudong. They thought the escape was theatrical.

Sanlong exclaimed, "Who would help you escape from prison! I can't think of anyone."

With a worried look on his face, Tongqi said, "Boss, Xudong has a good point! Did you ever consider how Cao Sifen, who was far away in the Halongjiang, could find Tian Xudong's supermarket so quickly?"

Zhao Yu's eyes shone. He took this opportunity to ask, "What do you think?"

Tongqi said, "This might be a trap. They released you and secretly informed Cao Sifen of your location. In the end, they could catch all of us without much effort."

Zhao Yu knew what Tongqi said was impossible. He immediately shook his head and said, "Cops won't do that. Even if they wanted, their big leader wouldn't approve such a risky action! Besides, Tian Xudong has installed anti-eavesdropping devices in his supermarket. They aren't watching me. If they deliberately released me, wouldn't they be afraid that they could never find me again?"

Tongqi frowned and said, "There's no free meal in the world! I don't think the person who saved you can be our friend! Boss, we still have to be careful!"

Zhao Yu took the chance to ask, "Who do you think is the most likely person to help me escape from prison?"

Sanlong stared and thought carefully. Then he said, "Anyway, it's not any of our men! They have been in Yaoming for a week, and we haven't even got the plan of the detention center. We didn't even know they transferred you to the capital prison. There is no way that we could plan such a perfect escape!"

Tongqi nodded and said, "That man is a genius! Amazingly, he dares to offend Zhao Yu. I can't think of anybody else except our boss who could do such a thing."

Sanlong suddenly said worriedly, "Boss, the man you killed wasn't an ordinary policeman. He is known as the master of the unsolved case and is extremely famous. I am afraid that his death will lead to a fierce counterattack by the police! So, we're going to be very careful!"

Zhao Yu asked again, "Do you know anything about the Ziliu case from 13 years ago?"

Sanlong replied, "Well... Maybe it's because it happened at Gaolanqi. I've only heard one version of the story. They say that you did it, boss!"

Zhao Yu rolled his eyes at Sanlong and asked Tongqi the same question.

Tongqi said absently, "I think that criminal is dead. He must be dead. Otherwise, no one would know where he was for so many years!"

It seemed that the two men didn't know anything about the Ziliu case.

Suddenly, Zhao Yu thought of another question and asked, "Right! There is another important thing. You have to tell me about the stupid fellow who decided to rob the cigarette truck at Yaoming?"

The reason Zhao Yu asked this question was because Han Kuan, the devil, once told to him that Jiang Ke wasn't as smart as he looked. Those ingenious robbery plans probably did not come from Jiang Ke. There had to be a mastermind behind Jiang Ke.

However, by listening to the conversation between Jiang Ke and Tian Xudong, Zhao Yu felt that this wasn't true. If there was a mastermind behind Jiang Ke, then Jiang Ke had to think that it was the mastermind who helped him escape from prison and not a mysterious man. Zhao Yu was eager to know whether there was a mastermind behind Jiang Ke.

Sanlong shook his head and sighed, "Boss, you'd better get some rest! Didn't you design the plan to carry out the cigarette truck robbery by yourself? How can you scold yourself like that?"

Chapter 970: Becoming a Thief (I)

It was dark. After their truck got on the highway from Yaoming, they drove westward. Soon they arrived at Nanjiang Province. Zhao Yu had obtained a lot of information from Sanlong and Tongqi. Their destination was a place he had been to before. It is Jinbian City in Jinan Province! Zhao Yu had a short stay in Jinbian when he investigated his first big case, the Headless Female Corpses Case. After that, he became the special investigation group leader.

Jiang Ke's base was in the biggest city of Jinan Province. Jiang Ke's hometown, Leping, was only a few dozen kilometers away from Jinbian. The police had put Jiang Ke's name on the wanted list many years ago, but they never thought about searching for him in Jinbian.

Zhao Yu also learned that all of the previous robberies were Jiang Ke's ideas, and the others were mainly responsible for collecting information. From this point of view, Han Kuan's guess was wrong. Jiang Ke was not what Han Kuan thought. There was no mysterious boss behind him.

Sanlong and Tongqi still didn't tell Zhao Yu who Cao Sifen was. He only knew that Cao Sifen and Jiang Ke hated each other, but he didn't know why. Sanlong and Tongqi seemed to avoid talking about Cao Sifen. Zhao Yu tried many times, but neither of them wanted to stay on that topic. They were not Zhao Yu's only source of information on Cao Sifen. While resting in the truck, Zhao Yu sent Miao Ying a secret email from his mobile phone. He asked Miao Ying to help him investigate Cao Sifen.

After all, Jiang Ke was the boss. Zhao Yu either wrote emails on his mobile phone or searched for information with Jiang Ke's laptop. Sanlong and Tongqi wouldn't question his actions or try to see what he was doing.

In the email, Zhao Yu partially explained the situation at the seafood supermarket to Miao Ying. Of course, he didn't tell her about unconscious Jiang Ke or his face change. He only said that he was still following the robbery gang. Once he found their base, he would contact her immediately. Finally, he asked Miao Ying to continue investigating the mysterious man and to inform him immediately when there was any new information.

After putting down the mobile phone, Zhao Yu searched in Jiang Ke's mobile phone and laptop with a Hacker's Command to see if there was any vital information. He soon realized that the phone and the laptop were not Jiang Ke's. The mobile phone was a new one that Tian Xudong prepared for Jiang Ke. Sanlong's number was the only one in it. The laptop from the seafood supermarket only contained sales lists. Jiang Ke had just used this laptop to read some news and didn't leave any clue in it.

The night was deep.

After the truck entered Nanjiang, it began to move in the direction of Jinan. As they drove north, it gradually got colder, and white vapor appeared on the truck windows. Tongqi and Sanlong took shifts driving the truck and didn't stop once along the way. Zhao Yu was exhausted, so he lay on the back seat and fell asleep. To save a few Invisible Disguise Machines, he covered his face with the scarf he used before and covered his head with his overcoat.

Of course, Zhao Yu's action did not arouse suspicion from Tongqi and Sanlong. Since Jiang Ke was a major criminal wanted by the police, it was reasonable for him to cover his face and not want to be seen by others.

The next day, the truck arrived at Jinbian. A truck with animals in it received a green passage and the highway fee waiver. Therefore, they entered the urban area of Jinbian smoothly.

As soon as the truck reached the outer ring, it stopped in front of a black BMW. Two new drivers took over and drove the truck away. Next, Zhao Yu was escorted by Tongqi and Sanlong to the BMW. The driver was a man with a ponytail. When he saw Zhao Yu, he respectfully called him boss. Zhao Yu didn't know his name, so he just nodded in response and said nothing. The man dared not talk too much. Hastily, he drove the BMW to a golf course in Jinbian High-tech Zone.

Looking at the beautiful golf course, Zhao Yu was surprised that Jiang Ke's base was here.

Sanlong smiled happily and said, "We are home at last. There's going to be a big celebration tonight!"

The man with a ponytail smiled and said to Zhao Yu, "Boss, all is ready for you. I think you have gained a little weight recently, and you seem to be a little taller also!"

Tongqi and Sanlong turned at the same time to look at Zhao Yu carefully.

Zhao Yu's almost broke into a cold sweat. He hummed coldly and said, "So many brothers have died. What's the reason for a celebration? Let's deal with our internal affairs first."

When Zhao Yu mentioned internal affairs, the three people became serious and silent.

Zhao Yu had learned from Sanlong and Tongqi that after Jiang Ke was imprisoned, there had been serious internal disagreement. A fellow called Big Bear Zhang, who claimed to be worried about Jiang Ke's imprisonment, secretly wanted to take over Jiang Ke's position.

Because of that, Jiang Ke's people were now in a state of panic. As soon as Zhao Yu said that he wanted to deal with internal affairs, they realized how important it was. They went into the garage of the golf course where a middle-aged man in a suit was waiting for him. This man was obviously older than Jiang Ke, but after Zhao Yu got out of the car, he came forward and respectfully called him boss.

Although Zhao Yu did not know who this person was, he could tell that he was not one of Jiang Ke's men. He was one of the senior managers of the golf course. The man greeted Zhao Yu warmly and took him to a security door in the corner of the garage. Jiang Ke's base must be behind the door. Zhao Yu felt a little excited. He wondered if he could find any clue about the mysterious man at Jiang Ke's base.

Just as the middle-aged man was about to enter the password to open the door, a blue Porsche Cayenne suddenly rushed into the garage! The car screamed to a stop in front of them. A strong man in a brown leather jacket jumped out of the car.

The strong man quickly ran over to Zhao Yu and shouted excitedly, "Is it you? It's a miracle!"
