

Crazy 981

Chapter 981: We Need an Explanation

As Zhao Yu had expected, after entering the door, he could not enter the meeting room directly. Instead, he came to a small hall. A fierce, strong-looking guy was waiting there. He searched Zhao Yu with the scanner he had in his hand.

Big Bear Zhang had explained the rules to Zhao Yu in advance, so Zhao Yu took off his mobile phone and stun gun in front of this guy and put them in a small metal box. The man scanned Zhao Yu again. After confirming that Zhao Yu had nothing dangerous on him, he put the metal box on the cupboard beside him and extended his hand to show that Zhao Yu could enter.

In the reception room, the light was dim and there was a solemn atmosphere. The room was much smaller than Zhao Yu had imagined. There was a huge billiard table in the center that took up a lot of space, along with five luxury sofas. Five guys of all different ages and clothing styles sat on the sofas.

One wore a cowboy hat and white pants, looking quite fashionable. Another wore a brand-name suit, and one wore fur and was smoking a cigar with a cannon shape. The man puffed away at his cigar, filling the room with a foul stench.

Zhao Yu glanced at the five people. Since each of them sat on a sofa, there was no place left for him to sit. Judging from their proud manner, they were the investors. Although they had different styles, they all put on an air of extreme arrogance.

Behind each of them were their bodyguards. Zhao Yu used the detector in his brain and found that the bodyguards had no guns on them. It seemed that they were also on guard against each other.

After seeing Zhao Yu's arrival, the nearest cigar smoker snorted disdainfully, with no intention of welcoming him. The man had black skin but wore white fur.

The farthest middle-aged man, wearing a white suit while posing with orchid fingers said to Zhao Yu with an annoyed look, "You dare

Zhao Yu frowned and realized what he was talking about. He quickly took off his mask and put it on the billiard table. As soon as Zhao Yu took off his mask, the five people took a close look at him. After confirming that he was Jiang Ke, they relaxed a little.

An old man sitting on the middle sofa said, "You're late, Jiang Ke! It's very rare for you to be late!" The man was dressed in a Tang suit and sat up straight, with awe-inspiring dignity in his manner and speech.

Zhao Yu nodded slightly. Since the old man was sitting in the middle and speaking like that, he must be the leader.

Zhao Yu did not reply but looked at the five people carefully. He only recognized the cigar-smoking short man and the man in the white suit with orchid fingers as they were written about in Jiang Ke's secret folders.

The former was Wang Xi, the owner of many coal mining enterprises; the latter was Niu Lulu, the shareholder of Baicheng Group. Although he looked a bit feminine, he was really a man.

Jiang Ke's folders said that both of them were successful businessmen on the surface, but they did many bad deeds in secret. Jiang Ke had helped them solve some of their problems concerning business competition and conflicts of interest.

Aside from those two people, the others were not in Jiang Ke's folders. Is it because these three people are so mysterious that even Jiang Ke does not know about them? Zhao Yu wondered. Is it possible that the mysterious man who helped Jiang Ke escape from prison is among the three?

Niu Lulu wiggled his hips and shouted, "Mr. Five is asking you a question, why are you late? Do you really think of yourself as the king of thieves?" Hearing this, Zhao Yu suddenly looked up and laughed, then sat on the legs of the man in the white suit.

Niu Lulu tried to push Zhao Yu away in a feminine manner but failed. He shouted, "Ouch...You are crushing me!" The bodyguard behind him wanted to help him but did not dare do anything.

"Dear Lulu! I haven't seen you for such a long time. Don't you miss me?" Zhao Yu said as he touched Niu Lulu's nose. He then turned his eyes to the old man in the middle and asked, "Mr. Five! Why am I late? Don't you know the reason?"

Niu Lulu couldn't breathe with Zhao Yu on his legs. He pushed Zhao Yu hard to get rid of him, saying, "Ouch...Go away..."

At this time, a middle-aged man in a checkered suit sitting in the left corner shouted angrily, "Jiang Ke! Are you out of your mind? Do you know what time it is now? And you still want to play with us?"

Zhao Yu opened his hands and walked forward, wearing a happy smile, and said, "I'm not playing. I've just escaped from prison. You don't welcome me, but instead, claim that I'm a cheater."

An old man with a crutch sitting on the right side shouted, "Jiang Ke, watch your language. You should know your place in front of Mr. Five."

Wang Xi, the cigar smoker sat cross-legged and asked contemptuously, "Jiang Ke, why have you turned into a different person after eating jail food for a few days?"

The man in the white suit laughed, then said to Zhao Yu in a strange manner, "I don't believe you turned into a woman because of eating jail food." The others roared with laughter.

Hearing this, Zhao Yu got angry. But now the situation was unclear. So, he forced himself to calm down. Then, he reached out and grabbed Wang Xi's cigar, pressed the tip hard on the billiard table, and said, "Your mother died of lung cancer. Don't smoke this!"

Wang Xi jumped up in anger and pointed at Zhao Yu's nose and shouted, "Are you out of your mind?" Wang Xi dared not to say anything and sat down.

The old man pointed at Zhao Yu and asked, "Do you remember what you promised us before you left? What about the result? You totally screwed it up. How can you explain this?"

The man with the crutch said, "You should know how much your failure has cost us. We haven't felt safe for a single day during the New Year!"

Zhao Yu couldn't understand what they were talking about. These people shouldn't care much about money considering their strong business backgrounds. But why did they look so worried about the loss?

Zhao Yu asked, "I don't understand why I have to explain to you? I have been risking my life!"

Mr. Five finally got angry. He stood up and shouted, "Jiang Ke, I don't know how you can stay so optimistic! Are you really crazy? If it's just a small mistake, we don't care. We can make up for it. But you were caught by the police, then you escaped from prison. This affects us a lot."

Zhao Yu frowned again. From the old man's words, he began to understand something. The cigarette robbery was not as simple as he thought. There seemed to be a bigger conspiracy behind the robbery!

Zhao Yu was quick-witted. He asked, "Then, how did you deal with it?"

The man with a crutch said, "Luckily, we regained most of the cigarettes. So, the insurance company won't suffer that much!"

It seemed that the ultimate goal of the cigarette robbery was not about the cigarettes, but the insurance company, which would have involved great interest from some people. If so, Jiang Ke's previous robberies should also have something to do with commercial purposes. Jiang Ke's robbing group was like the criminal organization Zhao Yu had dealt when he was in New Zealand. No wonder he worked with so many businessmen.

Zhao Yu thought quickly and said, "Well. Good. Yes, I screwed it up this time! Don't you want an explanation? Ok! I'll give you my explanation! But before that, you guys must clear up one thing for me!"

Zhao Yu stared, his eyes wide, and asked fiercely, "Do you have something to tell me about my escape from prison?"

Chapter 982: The Ultimate Trickster

The man who held the crutch hit it fiercely on the floor. "What's wrong with you? Are you crazy? Jiang Ke! Watch your language. Don't forget your position," he said.

Suddenly, Wang Xi, the cigar smoker, thought of something and asked, "What do you mean, Jiang Ke? We didn't do anything. Didn't your people plan your escape?"

Zhao Yu watched everyone's reaction carefully. Except for Mr. Five, who was wearing the Tang suit, the others all looked very surprised. Finally, Mr. Five showed ferocity in his eyes and scolded, "Jiang Ke! You must make yourself clear today! If it wasn't for our long-time cooperation, we wouldn't have agreed to meet you today! If you still want to see the sun tomorrow, tell us what's happened as soon as possible. What the hell is going on?"

Hearing what Mr. Five said, Zhao Yu could confirm that the mysterious man was not among the five people. If these people helped Jiang Ke escape from prison, then there was no need for them to hide it now.

Zhao Yu glanced at the five people again and thought to himself, Unless...

Unless the mysterious man did not want to reveal his identity now, or had other reasons to help Jiang Ke. However, looking at these five people, Zhao Yu couldn't find a single clue as their reactions seemed reasonable.

Good! Zhao Yu made up his mind. Since the show had begun, he'd like to give it a perfect ending.

Zhao Yu hit the billiard table, then glared at the others excitedly. He shouted, "You ungrateful little slob! You're still playing with me, aren't you? Who do you take me for? A fool?"

The man in the checked suit pointed at Zhao Yu and scolded, "Are you out of your mind, Jiang Ke?"

Zhao Yu pointed back at him and retorted, "Hum! Did you want to save me from prison? Or do you just want to sell me to Cao Sifen? My people were killed by Cao Sifen! How about an explanation for that?"

The five people frowned. The old man with the crutch in his hand said in shock, "Jiang Ke, you are confusing me. How did Cao Sifen got involved in this?"

Zhao Yu shouted hysterically, "Hum! I'm a tough guy. You didn't expect that I would still be able to come see you here alive."

Mr. Five seemed to have understood, then he said calmly, "Calm down. Think about it. Why would we help you escape from prison, and why would we kill you? You think... Do you think we care about you that much?"

Wang Xi stood up, pointed to Zhao Yu then said, "Mr. Five, don't waste time on him. This guy is crazy! He's been brainwashed by the police. He's lying to us."

The man who was posing with orchid fingers said, "Yes. I said we shouldn't meet him today. He's a robber and has been in jail! Maybe he's become a turncoat. Let's get out of here. Don't waste time on him!"

Zhao Yu laughed again, "See. You admit it. Don't deny it. You fear that I will tell the police about what you did, so you took risks to help me escape from prison, then tried to shut me up forever."

The man with the crutch stood up with its support and said, "Don't speak nonsense. You don't have anything on us. We don't care. You're a thief, and you've got no evidence. Anything you tell the police would be a false accusation!"

Zhao Yu was secretly shocked. No wonder Jiang Ke did not suspect these investors. It seemed that they were purely business partners and not from the same interest group. And, although Jiang Ke was in a business relationship with them, he had no concrete evidence of their crimes.

Take the cigarette robbery as an example. These investors wanted to use this robbery to suppress insurance companies and gain special benefits, but they didn't make a written agreement. Even Jiang Ke's testimony wouldn't prove anything! That was to say, even if Zhao Yu could have police arrest the investors today, there was no evidence that they had committed any crimes. These businessmen were more likely to escape the sanctions of the law than the real criminals.

I'm not going to let them get away with it this easily. Zhao Yu secretly clenched his fists and thought to himself that as the leader of the special investigation group and the embodiment of justice, he must do something to put these criminals to justice.

So, what should I do? Zhao Yu didn't know much about their strength, but he was confident with his tricks. Zhao Yu hadn't used his tricks for a long time. He wondered how he could give these guys a hard time.

Zhao Yu laughed out loud again. He said to Mr. Five in the Tang suit in the middle, "Mr. Five. Why don't you think about it? We just do business together, but why would I doubt you? You don't think I'm actually crazy, do you?"

Mr. Five frowned slightly and thought.

The man with the crutch urged, "Jiang Ke. Don't hide it. What do you want to say?"

Zhao Yu laughed, then pointed to the five people and said, "What I want to say is that we've got a mole." After he finished, the others were shocked. The people who had just stood up suddenly sat down again.

The man in the checked suit asked, "What do you mean?"

Zhao Yu imitated Jiang Ke's tone and said, "My days in prison did pay me back. I couldn't understand it at first. The interrogator didn't ask me about my cigarette robbery, but repeatedly asked me about my previous cases, and mentioned your names..."

The others were astonished. Wang Xi wriggled and said, "Nonsense... How...? How is it possible...?"

Pretending to look doubtful, Zhao Yu said, "I didn't tell the police about that. So, how could they know? I was frightened! For example, they mentioned Chengling."

Zhao Yu pointed to Niu Lulu and said, "They asked me about Baicheng Group. And they asked me if Niu Lulu had killed people before." Upon hearing this, Niu Lulu almost fell to the ground.

Of course, Zhao Yu made all of this up. Jiang Ke's documents said that Niu Lulu was a shareholder of Baicheng Group, and the robbery in Chengling was obviously related to this construction company, so Zhao Yu used this to bluff.

Zhao Yu said to the short cigar smoker, "Wang Xi. They also asked me about the mine disaster in Linfu and mentioned a yellow Ferrari!" Wang Xi was so frightened that he almost fell off the sofa. Linfu mine disaster and the Ferrari both came from Jiang Ke's documents.

Zhao Yu said to Mr. Five, "I was completely sacred in the interrogation. But my biggest concern now is not the mole, but your loss of trust in me! I didn't say anything! Otherwise, why would I ask to meet you today?"

The man holding the crutch asked, "Jiang Ke, what you just said is true?"

Zhao Yu clapped his chest and said, "100 percent yes. You should know me. This is exactly why I suspect that you helped me escape so you could kill me."

Hearing this, the five investors looked at each other, and their eyes inevitably showed suspicion. The man in the checked suit had brains. He whispered a few words to Mr. Five, who then nodded slightly. Mr. Five finished, the man in the checked suit waved, then several fierce-looking bodyguards came out from behind the sofas.

Mr. Five nodded and said, "You can't leave for the time being. We'll have to find out more about this!"

As Zhao Yu saw that they wanted to come to blows, he hastily shouted, "Wait! Don't waste your time. Do you know why I was late just now?"

Hearing this, the bodyguards stopped, and the investors looked very confused.

Zhao Yu grinned and said, "I'm late because I'm investigating something! In fact, the mole is sitting in front of us right now!"

This time, the investors were utterly shocked. All of them were astonished by Zhao Yu's words.

Niu Lulu wriggled around and urged Zhao Yu to continue, "Who is the guy! I must tear him up!"

Zhao Yu paused, then pointed to someone on the sofa and said, "He's right in front of us."

Chapter 983: Like a Mad Dog

The old man carrying the crutch sat next to Mr. Five, who wore a Tang suit. He had never expected that Zhao Yu would point at him! "Jiang Ke, you are making baseless accusations," he shouted. Zhao Yu clenched his fists, roaring, "It seems you want to argue with me. You should know me; I never say anything without sufficient evidence."

The old man with the crutch looked pale and trembled with anger. He waved at his men and said, "What are you still waiting for? Get him." Zhao Yu laughed so wildly that the bodyguards did not dare to move. "See? You want me dead, don't you? Do it. Can you?" he said. Mr. Five then shouted angrily, "Jiang Ke. We need evidence. We know Mr. Bao well. Don't sow seeds of discord here!"

"Yes! Jiang Ke, if you don't have any evidence, I'll kill you!" Mr. Bao added. "Before I came, I saw you talking to a person. I followed that person in secret! Guess what? I've seen that man in the detention center," Zhao Yu scolded wildly. Mr. Bao went mad. "You are framing an innocent person. I didn't meet anyone earlier," he said loudly.

"Still not giving up?" Zhao Yu asked, staring. "I wouldn't wrong someone innocent. You are not simple! Now I have evidence that you not only have contacts with senior police officers, but also with Cao Sifen! And..." Zhao Yu turned to the others and said, "You don't know this, but Mr. Bao is bankrupt now. He owes a bunch of debts but he is still pretending he is rich when he is here."

Mr. Bao was so angry that he raised his crutch towards Zhao Yu and said, "Jiang Ke, you're mad. What's this all about? Pure rumor! Ah..." Niu Lulu, the man with orchid fingers, suddenly interrupted. "Mr. Bao, did you start gambling again? I had heard that you went to Macau a year ago. Did you lose a lot?" he asked.

Mr. Bao scolded him furiously. "F*ck yourself, you sissy. Don't think I am unaware of what you've done in secret! You sponsored Wang Yaofeng and stole my Honglitan project. I haven't dealt with you for that yet!" When Niu Lulu heard this, he immediately started to argue with Mr. Bao. "Shame on you," Niu Lulu said. "Honglitan is mine. You have no right to claim it as your own."

Wang Xi came forward suddenly and stopped him. "Lulu, stop that! We are discussing serious business here," he said. Suddenly, Zhao Yu shouted to Wang Xi something no one expected. "You idiot. Do you know how things leaked out about your coal mine? You should keep an eye on your people." When Wang Xi heard this, he looked at the bodyguard behind him in surprise. He then looked suspiciously towards Mr. Bao.

Mr. Bao was mad. He raised his heavy crutch and went straight towards Zhao Yu, shouting, "Jiang Ke! Go to hell!" Old Mr. Bao was no match for Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu dodged quickly, then grabbed him by the neck. Next, he pressed him down into the billiard table! Mr. Bao's men rushed to help their boss.

Zhao Yu waited for the critical moment, then shouted, "Everybody, the time to witness the miracle is coming! Aren't you asking for evidence? Watch out!" With that, Zhao Yu reached out and grabbed Mr. Bao's ear. He took a white earphone from Mr. Bao's ear and said to the others, "See this? The old man even put the bug in his ear! He is flagrantly disregarding us." When they saw the earphone in Zhao Yu's hand, everyone was astonished.

"That's my hearing aid, it's just a hearing aid!" Mr. Bao cried.

Zhao Yu put the earphone on the billiard table and crushed it with his elbow. He then pointed to the pile of broken parts and said, "Look! Look at these pieces. This is clearly a bug. Only a bug would have such complicated parts." The investors were confused. They didn't know if Zhao Yu was right.

"Mine is imported from Germany!" Mr. Bao said as he slammed his hands on the billiards table. "You rubbish, come over here," he shouted to his men. At that moment Mr. Five said, "Wait." Mr. Bao's men knew enough about Mr. Five that they did not dare to move.

When Mr. Bao saw that Mr. Five stopped his men, he was shocked and immediately tried to explain. "Mr. Five, you must not believe that a**hole's nonsense. We've all been friends for so many years!" he said. Mr. Five waved his hand as he replied, "Bao! I believe you! It's just... It's just that this is a matter of great importance." He waved at his men and said, "Hurry up, find someone who knows what this is!"

Of course, the story about it being a bug was fabricated by Zhao Yu. As soon as someone who knew what it was checked, Zhao Yu's trick would be exposed. Therefore, Zhao Yu deliberately let go of Mr. Bao. Mr. Bao didn't realize he had been released and still continued to struggle wildly. The pieces of his bug were thrown to the ground!

Zhao Yu pointed at him in an extraordinarily exaggerated manner and shouted, "You... You dare destroy the evidence?" The atmosphere in the meeting room suddenly intensified. Everyone's face showed dismay, and their eyes showed a deep suspicion of Mr. Bao. At that moment, Mr. Bao waved his hands at the others and said, "You... You must not be fooled by him! He is trying to take revenge on me because of the robbery in Beixin. I decreased his share of profit." He turned to Zhao Yu and said,

“Although you work hard on the front line, you know the rules of our business. Whoever has the most resources is the boss. Without the information we have provided to you, you would just be a petty thief!”

Zhao Yu ignored everything Mr. Bao had just said and immediately scolded him. “Don’t try to change the subject! What I’m talking about now is how you are the mole! You betrayed me and colluded with Cao Sifen to blow me up using a bomb! And you want to sell all of us out!”

“I didn’t... Not me!” Lao Bao tried to clarify. Suddenly, the man in the checked suit remembered something. “Mr. Five, isn’t there an anti-eavesdropping device? If there is a bug, how was it not detected?” he inquired. The others agreed that this made sense. Wang Xi asked, “Did he misunderstand any of this?”

“Is someone trying to cause us internal conflict?” Niu Lulu asked. Mr. Bao was about to cry. He beat the ground with his fists and said, “Yes, the one trying to cause conflict is Jiang Ke.”

Suddenly, everyone looked at Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu shrugged his shoulders and looked around at the others helplessly. At this point, he had to continue.

Chapter 984: Trap

While everyone was looking at him, Zhao Yu picked up a pool cue and hit Wang Xi in the head with it. Zhao Yu did it so swiftly that Wang Xi did not have any time to react. After getting hit, Wang Xi covered his head with his hands. He jumped up and screamed. Zhao Yu put his hand around Mr. Bao’s neck and pulled him back, putting the sharp, broken end of the cue against his neck.

Wang Xi touched his head to check, but it wasn’t bleeding. He did not feel a lot of pain either. It turned out that Zhao Yu had hit him with the thin end of the pool cue. If he had used the thick back end with the same amount of strength, Wang Xi might have been knocked unconscious or even killed.

When the investors saw that Zhao Yu had a hold of Mr. Bao, they paled from shock. “Jiang Ke! You... Are you crazy? What are you doing?” they shouted. “Hum!” Zhao Yu pretended to look hopeless. “A bunch of ruthless and unjust slobs! I see through all of you. I have always fought hard, but in the end, I couldn’t even get a seat for myself. Good! I will die with you today!” he roared.

Zhao Yu almost stabbed the pool cue into Mr. Bao’s neck. Mr. Bao was so frightened that he clapped his hand on Zhao Yu’s arm and begged, “Jiang Ke, don’t be stupid. We know it has not been easy for you, but you’ve also made a lot.”

“Didn’t you tell me just now that the person who has all of the resources is the boss, eh? Didn’t you say that I was just a petty thief? Well, today I’m going to bury you with me!” Zhao Yu shouted maniacally. Zhao Yu pressed the cue a little harder into Mr. Bao’s neck, causing it to begin bleeding.

When Mr. Five saw the blood, he couldn’t bear it. He stood up quickly and attempted to dissuade Zhao Yu. “Listen to me. If we didn’t care about you, why would we arrange this meeting today?” he asked. Zhao Yu glared at him. “You are all hypocritical people! My people and I completed the most dangerous tasks and what did we get for that? You got most of the rewards,” he roared. “That’s ok. Then I get caught by the police, and you ask me for an explanation? So, who should I talk to about my dead people?"

"Jiang Ke! What are you saying? I have always paid you fairly. I gave you more than you deserved for the Feng Mountain robbery since you helped me kill Sankaizi," Niu Lulu said. "In all fairness, you've also received a lot from the coal mine," Wang Xi added.

Mr. Bao felt the pain in his neck and begged, "Jiang Ke, don't you want money? I can give you money. We can solve the problem. Calm down." Zhao Yu stared at everyone and said, "You are not being honest with me. You made a lot of money in the Fenglongjiang robbery! And I know what you are hiding from me." The man in the checked suit frowned. "Jiang Ke, don't you remember that we got our shares from the Fenglongjiang robbery from you and Mr. Five? We haven't suspected you yet. Why are you suspicious of us?" he asked.

"Well..." Zhao Yu quickly shifted the topic, asking, "What about Yaoming? Do you think it was only my mistake? If it were not for the accident, I wouldn't have been arrested by the police. The prison food was awful. I am now..." Zhao Yu suddenly started crying, saying, "I-I'm hopeless! Whoop..."

Mr. Five sighed heavily. Zhao Yu had confused him. In fact, at this point, Zhao Yu was even confused by himself. He was trying to get more information from them! But what he said was all basically from Jiang Ke's documents. He didn't know the details at all. He could only rely on his luck. Nevertheless, he had learned more from his talk with them. Zhao Yu had gotten an Invisible Recorder long ago. He had thought it was useless, but today it played a big role. He had recorded everything the five people had said.

Seeing Zhao Yu crying, Mr. Five saw an opportunity. He gestured for Zhao Yu to calm down. "Jiang Ke! Listen to me... Don't get emotional. Think about it. If we wanted to kill you, would we have promised to meet this time?" he asked. "Actually... We decided to meet with you to find a way for you to escape! Before you got here earlier, we were still talking about it. We were discussing how we would pay for the loss of your people. And, we will try our best to handle the cigarette robbery. We'll try to find another chance to get it done!" he said. The man in the checked suit nodded, saying, "We were talking about finding a safe place for you overseas. The only reason we were so angry just now was because you were late!"

Zhao Yu lowered his head silently and pretended to be convinced by what they said. When Mr. Bao saw this, he immediately pleaded with him. "Jiang Ke, please let go of me!" he said. "Can't you see? We're not really blaming you. Everyone knows how much you have done for us over the years! How can we possibly let you be the only one who suffers loss?" The others nodded together, and Zhao Yu loosened his grip on the pool cue a little.

"You are smart. Listen to me. First, go overseas to hide for a while. I promise that you will come back and work with us again in less than a year. Rest assured, the name the King of thieves will always be yours!" Mr. Five said.

At last, Zhao Yu let go of Mr. Bao, and Mr. Bao quickly rushed back. Zhao Yu pretended to be serious. "Then... Mr. Five, now you tell me... How are you going to find me a way out of here?" he asked.

After Zhao Yu asked, the room had become extremely quiet. No one answered. Zhao Yu frowned and seemed to feel a little awkward. He saw Mr. Five sit back on the sofa and a coldness showed in his eyes.

Mr. Bao regained his crutch, panted, and climbed back to his seat. Although his face was pale, his eyes were full of hatred! At that moment, all of the bodyguards stood in front of the investors and didn't give Zhao Yu a chance to approach them.

Zhao Yu raised his eyebrows and asked, "What do you mean?" After that, Mr. Five still did not speak, snapping his finger. Then, the front door of the meeting room opened. Sanlong, Tongqi, Big Bear Zhang, and A Chao were all brought in. Their faces were covered in blood. They had been beaten badly.

Chapter 985: Where is the Door?

When Sanlong saw Zhao Yu, he rushed to him for help. A large man suddenly came and punched him fiercely. Sanlong bled and wailed in pain. Zhao Yu was facing Sanlong when a dangerous object unexpectedly appeared on his detection screen. It showed as a red mark in his brain. When he looked around, he saw that someone had handed a black pistol to Mr. Five.

After seeing the pistol, the other investors' expressions regained their previous arrogance. They looked at Jiang Ke indifferently, as if they were expecting to see him cower and tremble in front of them. Mr. Five calmly attached a muffler to the pistol, saying to Zhao Yu, "Jiang Ke! Kneel down! Originally, we felt compassion and wanted to save you! But what you just did greatly disappoints me!"

"You!" Zhao Yu gave him a look of annoyance and remorse. "I should have known that you were all mercenary villains!" he roared excitedly. Mr. Five raised his eyebrows. "Jiang Ke. You asked for it! Look at what you just did. Where is the cool-headed King of thieves? You've become a fool!" he scolded. "Don't you understand yet? You're nothing to us! Without you, we would easily find another replacement! Originally, we felt pity for you. But now you have made us lose all patience..." Mr. Five spat contemptuously.

Mr. Five raised his arm, pointed the gun at Zhao Yu, and shouted, "Jiang Ke, I'm not merciless! I'll give you one last chance! Tell me about your whole experience in Yaoming, including how you got into prison, how you escaped from prison, and how you met Cao Sifen." Mr. Five's face became gloomy. "We don't want to kill you. We won't unless you give us no other choice. So, if you tell us honestly, maybe we can have a peaceful talk. But, if you don't, you will see the consequences very clearly," he continued. He then pointed at Sanlong and others. He would kill them one by one if Jiang Ke refused to do as required.

Zhao Yu pondered over this. What just happened made him sure that the mysterious man who helped Jiang Ke escape from prison was not among the investors. These people and Jiang Ke took advantage of each other, but the investors wouldn't ever help Jiang Ke escape from prison. So, there was no need to waste time on them. As for the mysterious man, Zhao Yu had to think of other ways to find him.

Zhao Yu never fought a battle that he was not sure of winning. After making the decision, he had a new plan. He quickly raised his hands, saying to Mr. Five, "Mr. Five! I'll do anything you want! But I have a request. You must promise me!"

“What’s that?” Mr. Five asked curiously. Zhao Yu pointed to the door. “My request is... Um... Please have someone lock the door!” he said. The investors didn’t expect this. “Why do you want the door locked?” the man in the checked suit asked. Zhao Yu laughed, saying, “Of course we need to lock the door! I’m afraid that when I beat you all up later, some of you will slip away through the door!” Instantly, the whole room was quiet.

“I’m sorry, I made a mistake. You should be crawling out of the room like dogs! Watch my mouth...” Zhao Yu added quickly. He pointed to his mouth, exaggerating the movement, and said, “Like dogs...” Big Bear Zhang fell from his knees to the ground before any of the others spoke. He had passed out. He was not knocked unconscious but had passed out from fear.

Mr. Bao hit his crutch on the floor. “Now I get it. Jiang Ke is crazy!” he said. The man in the checked suit waved to Mr. Five with a reluctant look and said, “In that case... Mr. Five, we should end this quickly.” Mr. Five hesitated. He was much more cautious than the others. Hearing what Zhao Yu had said, he whispered to a bodyguard next to him. It seemed that he was worried that Jiang Ke had something prepared as a last resort. After he finished, he pointed the gun at Zhao Yu again and shouted, “Jiang Ke, I know you are smart, but this time, you fail to find out the real situation. I will count to three. If you don’t tell us what we want to know, you’ll have no chance! One...”

Shockingly after Mr. Five said “one”, the light in the room had gone out. Because the thick curtains were closed, the room had suddenly fallen into total darkness. There was total disorder in the room. While the investors and bodyguards were still in a panic, terrifying things happened. They suddenly smelled an irritating odor! The smell went straight to their brains, and they immediately choked. Next, the gun was fired!

The pistol fired without any sign, and each fire was accompanied by a wail. Then, the scene became more chaotic. Panic-stricken people ran around and bumped into each other. There was a loud commotion of people falling and crying out loud in the meeting room.

“Why I can’t use my phone.”

“Ouch...My head!”

“Help! I seem to have been shot...”

“Hey? What is this smell? Is this toxic?”

In the chaos, someone finally remembered something important. “Where is the door?” a loud voice asked. His voice became weaker as the smell became stronger, and eventually tapered out. After about ten seconds, a clever bodyguard finally reached the window and opened the curtains!

Although it had gotten dark outside, the neon lights of the nightclub’s sign shone in the night sky and illuminated the room a little! When the bodyguard finally saw the situation, he was shocked. In the room, only one person was standing alone. The gas caused the others to all pass out on the floor. The only person standing was Jiang Ke!

Something terrible happened then. He saw that Jiang Ke was holding Mr. Five’s pistol and had it pointed at him. The man was so frightened that his legs wouldn’t stay still. He knelt on the ground. Zhao Yu suddenly had come up to him and had thrown a punch at him. Then the bodyguard had fallen to the ground.

Chapter 986: Escalation

Using the Invisible Signal Jammer and Invisible Night Vision, plus the Invisible Odor Bomb and Invisible Breathing Device was Zhao Yu's favorite combination. After the lights went out, he ran over, grabbed the pistol from Mr. Five, and kicked him down. Although Mr. Five spoke ruthlessly, he had not intended to shoot Zhao Yu. He just wanted him to explain everything. So, when the lights went out, he was more confused than anyone else and Zhao Yu grabbed the pistol from him smoothly.

To make the tension mount, Zhao Yu had not spared any bullets. He fired immediately and attacked the strong bodyguards first. Zhao Yu had shot them in the legs. To his surprise, although the pistol was fitted with a muffler, the muffler had not been attached properly. The pistol made a loud noise and exploded with terrible sparks.

Darkness was the best weapon. When people couldn't see anything, they lost their fighting ability. Also, when the pistol was fired, they became a mess. They knocked each other down and had been desperate to find the door to escape. Zhao Yu's Invisible Odor Bomb also played a vital role. The room was not big. To enhance the effect of the gas, Zhao Yu used three bombs in a row! Although invisible, the power of the bomb had been huge. In less than a minute, the investors and their bodyguards had lost consciousness due to the gas.

When Zhao Yu saw someone pulling the curtains, he wanted to shoot them. However, Mr. Five's pistol contained only four bullets, and they had all been used. Therefore, he had to do it himself. By this time, the curtain-pulling bodyguard was shaking all over because of the bombs' gas. Even if Zhao Yu had not come to stop him, he would not have been able to stand for long.

Seeing that all the enemies were stunned by the bombs, Zhao Yu turned off the Invisible Signal Jammer and restored the lighting. He now needed to check that the important investors hadn't escaped. Zhao Yu searched for his targets from the group of passed out people and made sure that all of them were there. Zhao Yu clapped his hands and nodded satisfactorily. One bomb would take them a long time to recover. With the effect of three, they wouldn't wake up quickly. Zhao Yu could put an end to his adventure now.

With that in mind, he turned and walked towards the door of the meeting room to retrieve his cell phone and the stun gun. Unexpectedly, just as he came to the door, a man suddenly stood up from the ground and violently grabbed his legs. Zhao Yu was shocked and was ready to fight.

"It's me, Boss" the man said. When Zhao Yu looked down, he relaxed his stance. Big Bear Zhang was the one holding his legs! He had fainted before Zhao Yu used the bombs, so the bomb gas hadn't affected him much. Now he had woken up.

Zhao Yu looked at him and raised his fists. He needed to knock him out again. However, Tongqi and the ponytail man unexpectedly made a sound, as if they had also woken up. Only then did Zhao Yu realize that the bombs' effectiveness near the door had been much worse than he expected.

Big Bear Zhang held Zhao Yu's legs. "Boss, you're unbelievable. I thought you were crazy just now!" he said, praising him. The ponytail man had not even gotten up from the ground when he said to Zhao Yu with a shiver, "Boss, no wonder they say you always use your brain to play." Zhao Yu shook his head and thought. How much energy would it waste if I had to knock them out again?

Outside the door there was the sudden sound of rapid footsteps and shouting. "Quick... Quick... Mr. Five had an accident... Quick..." they shouted. Big Bear Zhang was shocked and looked at Zhao Yu, imploring him to do something. The ponytail man was so frightened that he simply laid on the ground and faked death. Tongqi wanted to say something, but could not utter a word. At that moment, Zhao Yu's heroism impulse broke out again. He clapped his chest. "Your boss is here. Rest assured, you will be completely safe!" he said to them.

After that, Zhao Yu jokingly pointed his buttocks at them, and used another Invisible Odor Bomb. They started to cough violently, then they all passed out. To make sure no one was spared this time, he used one more bomb. Then, he quickly ran into the small hall and retrieved his mobile phone and stun gun. As for the mask, he was no longer interested in wearing it! Now, his plan was completed. He did not need to hide his face anymore.

When Zhao Yu saw the mobile phones and valuable golden watches in the metal box next to him, he thought there was no reason for him to not take them. He justified stealing them by telling himself he might find some important secrets hidden in them. After Zhao Yu took the items, Mr. Five's men arrived at the door!

Zhao Yu did not act frightened. He pointed to the meeting room and shouted at them, "Quick! Quick! Go in! Hurry up..." They were totally unaware of the situation. As soon as they heard what Zhao Yu said, they rushed into the meeting room. Zhao Yu wore the electric stun gun on his wrist as he calmly stepped out. When all the men rushed into the meeting room, he raised his hand and shut the door!

When the people inside saw the door closed, they realized they had made a mistake. They rushed back to push the door open. Unexpectedly, the door's lock was on the inside. Zhao Yu had no key and could not lock the door. He tried to hold the door closed with his body. How could he do this alone against so many people inside?

At that time, the distant elevator door opened, and several people dressed in security uniforms came out. They seemed to be the investors' men. When he saw them coming, he didn't panic, but instead waved his hand, shouting, "Come on! Hold it closed for me, I can't hold it!" The security guards had no idea what Zhao Yu was doing. "Quick! Come on!" Zhao Yu scolded again as was about to give up.

People tended towards blind obedience. Although these people didn't know what was happening, they rushed to the front of the door and helped Zhao Yu push it closed! At that moment, the bomb in the room was emitting the odorous gas. The people inside banged on the door. However, their voices were getting quieter. Zhao Yu quietly left while security helped him push the door closed. He picked up his cell phone and faked calling someone, then approached the elevator.

The elevator was just about to open when the men pushing the door closed had realized that there was no sound inside. They opened the door and saw that their bosses were in the room. The security finally realized that Zhao Yu, the man who asked them for help, had been the real bad guy. The elevator door opened, and Zhao Yu was ready to leave.

After the elevator door opened, more than a dozen people holding pool cues emerged. These people were obviously also the investors' men. Zhao Yu pretended to be talking on his phone. "Lin, my five-billion-yuan project can be started. Ask the accountant to prepare some red envelopes..." he said. He stepped into the elevator as he spoke.

Finally, the security who had helped to hold the door shouted, "It's him! Don't let him run!"

Chapter 987: Get Out of the Nightclub (I)

The security guards who had not yet gotten out of the elevator were knocked down by Zhao Yu. Those who had been fooled by Zhao Yu screamed, "Catch him! Don't let him run away!" Zhao Yu couldn't get in the elevator. He turned and ran. This eighth-floor secret area was not large compared to the rest of the night club. Zhao Yu easily arrived at the stairwell closest to him.

Because of the importance of the area, the door of the stairwell was locked. Zhao Yu wrenched the door open and rushed into the stairwell. He found several mops in the stairwell and put them against the door to keep it closed. The people who chased after Zhao Yu banged on the door but couldn't push it open.

Zhao Yu went downstairs and made a call. The person he was calling seemed to be waiting for the call and immediately answered it. "Li. I'm done here," Zhao Yu shouted. He found that his voice was still Jiang Ke's. Luckily, his voice when filled with excitement did not sound very different from that of Jiang Ke, and Li didn't notice the difference. Zhao Yu shut down the voice changer and resumed his regular voice.

"There's a meeting room on the eighth floor. Send people up quickly. They are unconscious now! After you come up, whether they are unconscious or not, catch them all! I'll tell you later which ones are the most important. There are a lot of them. Get as many people as you can up here," Zhao Yu said hastily.

"Copy that." It turned out that the person who answered Zhao Yu's call was Li Luoyun. He had been promoted to vice-captain of the provincial criminal police in Jinping City because of the closure of the Hasty Murder Case. So, when Zhao Yu discovered that Jiang Ke's den was located in Jin'an Province, he contacted Captain Li to help.

Zhao Yu had done this for four reasons. The first reason was that Li Luoyun could deploy the police to accomplish the task. The second reason was that they were not well-known friends so it wouldn't attract the mysterious man's attention. The third and most important reason was Zhao Yu's absolute trust in Li Luoyun. Because of the Hasty Murder Case, they had been through extremely dangerous situations together. Li Luoyun was so grateful to Zhao Yu that he would do his best to help Zhao Yu and keep the secret that he was still alive.

Of course, besides that, there was one more important thing. Li Luoyun worked in Jinping, which prevented the possibility of someone turning Zhao Yu in to Jiang Ke's men. Jiang Ke and his investors must have had a relationship with Jinbian police since they had settled in Jinbian. Therefore, Li Luoyun was undoubtedly Zhao Yu's best candidate. So, when Zhao Yu had just arrived at Jiang Ke's den, he had contacted Li Luoyun and worked out today's plan.

Li Luoyun had deployed the police to watch the nightclub and wait for Zhao Yu's signal for action. He also had men go to the golf course based on the information provided by Zhao Yu. At that moment, as long as Li Luoyun gave the order, the two teams would go into action to arrest Jiang Ke's men and investors. Li Luoyun promised Zhao Yu that he would complete the task successfully, then he gave the order for his men to start.

Hearing that, Zhao Yu quickly hung up the call. However, knowing that the police were about to rush into the building, he did not leave. Instead, he pressed another number to make a second call. It turned out that, in addition to Li Luoyun, Zhao Yu had another plan.

Unexpectedly, the door was knocked open. The vicious attackers shouted and rushed down! Zhao Yu ran downstairs while making the call. Downstairs, Zhao Yu unexpectedly ran into a group of security guards. They had dyed hair and tattoos, and they looked fierce at first sight.

When the people upstairs saw them, they quickly pointed to Zhao Yu and shouted, "It's him, catch him!" Zhao Yu cursed them and came to another exit in a hurry. Unfortunately, the door was locked. The call then went through and the person on the other end of the phone shouted anxiously, "Boss... Boss... I've been waiting for you for ages! Hello... Hello...?"

This call was very important to Zhao Yu, it was the last step to end his plan successfully. Zhao Yu wanted to respond before he used a Master Key to open the door.

Suddenly, a man came from downstairs and knocked Zhao Yu down to the ground. Zhao Yu's phone fell down the stairs. As his phone fell down the steps, it had slid right under the feet of an attacker. Zhao Yu was anxious. If this call failed, it would ruin his whole plan.

Zhao Yu pushed the man that had knocked him down aside, then jumped down the stairs and plunged into another group of attackers! The situation became a mess. Zhao Yu kicked and hit and even bit with his mouth. Finally, Zhao Yu found his mobile phone after a bit of fighting.

At this time, a gangster gave Zhao Yu a hard push. After Zhao Yu fell, he landed with his face pressed against his mobile phone. The person waiting for his response on the call shouted, "Boss, what the h*ll is going on? Is there something wrong? I'm scared!"

"I'm all right. Everything is going according to my plan! Let's do it. Remember to keep away," Zhao Yu shouted at the phone. Zhao Yu hadn't completely finished speaking before a guy beside him trampled on his phone. Although Zhao Yu had finished the call, he was still angry as the phone had cost him 800 yuan.

As Zhao Yu prepared to take action, the guy got ready to trample on Zhao Yu's face. Zhao Yu quickly dodged the kick, then kicked the man in his chin. The guy was standing at the side of the stairs. Zhao Yu's kick made him fall down them with a cry of pain.

"Catch him and beat him to death!" someone shouted.

At that time, the other security guard came around, and the guy who was kicked by Zhao Yu climbed up from the ground. They all rushed towards Zhao Yu like a raging tide. Zhao Yu was submerged in them immediately.

Chapter 988: Get Out of the Nightclub (II)

Zhao Yu did not think there would be this many hitmen lurking in the nightclub. He thought about it more and realized that Jiang Ke's five investors were all very powerful people. They must have brought a lot of security with them for the day's meeting. The men downstairs were obviously different from those upstairs. This was because they worked for different investors. Despite that, their purpose was the same, and that was to seize Zhao Yu!

In an instant, they occupied the narrow stairwell. Zhao Yu knew that the police would soon come upstairs. He should leave the nightclub as soon as possible. At the moment, his Invisible Breathing Device still was in effect, and he could use another Invisible Odor Bomb to easily escape from here. He could also use an Energy Booster for safety's sake.

However, Zhao Yu was eager to beat them up. When he saw the tattoos on the arrogant hitmen, he had grown excited to stretch his arms. So instead of running away, he fought back. He hit several people in the face, kicked them hard, then jumped up by using someone's body as support and leaped to the men downstairs!

Zhao Yu lifted someone up and used his body as a weapon to hit others. The men downstairs were not that good at fighting and found Zhao Yu's attacks too fierce for them to withstand. The men upstairs were much stronger and rushed to the front. Zhao Yu knocked down two men, then more came forward immediately and backed Zhao Yu into the corner of the stairwell.

As Zhao Yu touched the fire extinguisher sitting in the corner, he immediately grabbed it and threw it at one person's face. That man spat up blood and fainted on the spot. Zhao Yu gave a loud cry, then hit several other people with the fire extinguisher. The sound of the metal hitting people sounded particularly scary, causing the others behind them to recoil in horror.

The fire extinguisher was heavy. After Zhao Yu hit several other people, he naturally got slower with it. The men behind him took advantage of this, rushing up and overthrowing him once again. Then, one by one, they rushed forward and jumped on him, wanting to mash Zhao Yu into a meat pie.

Zhao Yu pressed the trigger on the fire extinguisher and white powder burst out. The entire stairwell was filled with it. The attackers in security uniforms couldn't see anything and it caused them to cough violently.

Zhao Yu took this opportunity to finally get away from them. Because he had the breathing device, he was not affected by the powder that much. He seized the chance to hit the last few people who were trying to grab him, then pushed them down the stairs.

At that time, Zhao Yu suddenly heard a rush of footsteps downstairs. He took a look down the railings and saw another bunch of people quickly coming up the stairs. These men were obviously different from the previous bunch. They looked well-trained. They must have been the plainclothes police officers.

Zhao Yu's face was still Jiang Ke's, he couldn't be seen by the police now. He opened the door of the stairwell with his Master Key and exited. He attempted to lock the door after getting out so that no one would be able to escape, and the police could capture everyone at once.

To his surprise, however, just after exiting out of the stairwell, he saw another group of men in security uniforms coming right towards him. One of the men who recognized Jiang Ke shouted “it’s him” and led everyone else towards Zhao Yu in a rush.

Zhao Yu shook his head helplessly. The longer he stayed in the nightclub, the more dangerous the situation was for him. The people who rushed towards him carried sticks. Zhao Yu was completely outnumbered. He knew better than to confront them directly like a fool. Instead, he ran.

He was now on the fifth floor. The fifth and sixth floor was the nightclub’s bathhouses. In addition to the luxury baths, there was also a huge arts center, as well as various massage and beauty salons.

Outside the stairwell, Zhao Yu had only one escape route, which was through the bathhouse’s hall. He rushed into the hall without thinking. To his left was the men’s bathhouse, and on the right was the women’s. Zhao Yu went straight into the women’s bathhouse without thinking. Obviously, it was easier for him to get rid of those pursuing him by going in there. The hitmen were males and wouldn’t all come into the female bathhouse.

Plus, Zhao Yu was wearing Jiang Ke’s face now. He didn’t care about doing anything that would bring shame to him normally. It was a bonus that he could both get rid of the men pursuing him and enjoy an eyeful of beauty at the same time.

The nightclub was owned by the investors. It was also a good thing that Zhao Yu could take this as an opportunity to ruin their business. So, Zhao Yu didn’t hesitate and immediately rushed into the women’s bathhouse. The security guards at the entrance didn’t have a chance to respond before Zhao Yu had already gone inside.

Next, there was the sound of women screaming. However, Zhao Yu didn’t know that those who were chasing him at that moment were all hired by Wang Xi. Wang Xi was not the owner of the bathhouses. Because of this, the people following Zhao Yu also ran into the women’s bathhouse without hesitation.

Chapter 989: Get Out of the Nightclub (III)

Zhao Yu grabbed a hitman’s collar and threw him into a dressing mirror in the women’s bathhouse. The dressing mirror shattered loudly, and the attacker bled all down his face. Screams continued to be heard from the women’s bathhouse, and Zhao Yu started to run. That did not keep him from forgetting to enjoy the view.

Then, two hitmen stepped in Zhao Yu’s way. Zhao Yu leaped forward and kicked one of them into the bathtub utilizing the martial arts skills Miao Ying had taught him. The female guests, still shouting out, tried hiding themselves in the water. The other strong hitman rushed in to grab Zhao Yu by his waist. Zhao Yu found this man too strong to get rid of. While the strong man grabbed Zhao Yu, several other men came after him and attacked Zhao Yu with nunchakus. He was in a lot of pain.

Zhao Yu kicked down the two people directly in front of him, then grabbed a piece of soap from a nearby shower rack and smashed it into the face of the strong man holding him! The strong man couldn’t see with the soap in his eyes. They both fell into one of the hot springs together.

The hot spring water felt rather comfortable to Zhao Yu. He hated that he didn't have time to enjoy a bath. Since his Invisible Breathing Device still was in effect, he swam underwater, past the female guests in the pool, and to the other side. However, the hitmen still found him in the crystal-clear water. As soon as he came out of the pool, he was seized by four big men and carried out like a pig to slaughter.

The men roared and threw Zhao Yu into the air. Luckily, Zhao Yu fell onto a soft table where guests applied exfoliators and washed their bodies. The hitmen were disappointed to see him land comfortably and immediately approached to beat Zhao Yu. They aimed their nunchakus at him. Zhao Yu rolled under the table to avoid being hit.

There was a big pot of oil under the table, it was either a bath oil or a moisturizer for the ladies. Zhao Yu didn't spend time thinking about it before he picked the pot up and spilled the oil on the ground. The oil made the floor slippery and smooth, which caused a couple of the hitmen to stumble and immediately fall to the ground.

Then, Zhao Yu used his strength to lift the heavy table to hit the men with it. They screamed miserably. The hitmen had suffered a crushing blow. Zhao Yu was busy laughing at them and didn't pay proper attention. After taking a few steps, he also slipped and fell, and the table fell from his hands and directly onto several of the hitmen!

"He's amazing!" he heard someone say. As Zhao Yu got up from the ground, the women were cheering. They thought Zhao Yu was a hero who had come to destroy the villains. Little did they know that Zhao Yu had been the real reason behind the total chaos.

"Thank you, thank you!" they shouted. Hearing the grateful cheers, Zhao Yu even took a bow.

"Don't move!" someone shouted from the entrance of the women's bathhouse. Zhao Yu saw that several plainclothes policemen with pistols had arrived! Seeing the police had come, Zhao Yu was no longer in the mood to show off in front of all of the beautiful women. He turned and ran away as soon as he saw them!

The women's bathhouse was a huge fan-shaped area. Zhao Yu ran in a circle, then came back to the dressing room near the entrance. The women in the dressing room had already run away due to the previous fighting. Zhao Yu had wanted to run through the dressing room, but as he got closer, he saw that the police were blocking the main entrance.

When Zhao Yu saw that leaving through that entrance was impossible, he quickly turned back. However, the policemen were already aware of him as they had heard Zhao Yu's rapid footsteps. Feeling anxious, Zhao Yu saw women's clothes in the dressing room and decided to use a new Invisible Disguise Machine. He changed his face into that of a woman's! Then, he turned around and put on a loose dress. The dress was so big that it covered his current clothes.

The policemen behind him approached as he put the dress on. Zhao Yu knew that his hair definitely did not look like a woman's, so he put a shower cap on. "Hi, miss. Did you see a man in here?" the policemen asked Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu purposely faced them to make sure they were convinced that he was a woman. Then, he made a worried face and pointed to the door. The policemen thanked him with a salute, then rushed towards the door.

A different group of armed policemen then came to the door. Zhao Yu gave up on the idea of going out that way and turned back to the bathing area. The police arrested the hitmen and asked them to squat on the ground. Zhao Yu didn't want to be seen by them so he hid in the sauna room on the other side. Zhao Yu was shocked by what he saw in there.

More than a dozen women were hiding here! They must have been scared by the fighting. Now they were looking out through the glass and talking about something with great interest. When they saw Zhao Yu with a woman's face, they didn't bother paying any attention to him. Zhao Yu resisted the urge to join them and quietly entered the inside room of the sauna.

He had been to this kind of bathhouse before and knew that there was an emergency vent in the sauna room. Currently, the inside room was empty, so he quietly opened the vent and finally escaped. Although Zhao Yu could have hidden in the vent, he was not in the mood to play hide-and-seek. He had caught the investors but still had more important things to do, and he needed to do them right away!

He crawled quickly for more than ten minutes before finally finding a safe exit and coming to a room that seemed like a laundry room. He decided that if he stayed dressed as a woman, he would be able to avoid suspicion. However, to escape safely, he restored Jiang Ke's face and took off the long dress as he entered the monitoring area.

The police had the nightclub surrounded, but hadn't come to where Zhao Yu was. Zhao Yu went through an emergency corridor and came to the dining area on the first floor of the building. Before coming to the nightclub, he had seen the floor plan of the building and knew that there was a special food delivery passage behind the kitchen. He planned to go out from there.

With his plan in mind, Zhao Yu deliberately exposed himself to the cameras and ran quickly through the restaurant to the delivery passage. However, when Zhao Yu got to the kitchen door, two security guards stopped him. Zhao Yu wanted to solve the problem with his fists, but several people suddenly ran across the other side of the restaurant. Zhao Yu looked closely and noticed that these people were the men who he had been fighting with before! It seemed that they were also being chased by the police. They looked quite panicked.

The passage was too narrow for so many enemies. The atmosphere was tense as they confronted each other at the kitchen door. Zhao Yu breathed heavily. They all were tired after their fierce fight. None of them wanted to initiate another fight. In the tense moment, the two security guards at the door recognized the men who had just arrived and formed an alliance with them.

One of the security guards took out an electric baton and, playing with it, said, "Come on, have a taste of what my baby can do."

Zhao Yu's eyes brightened. Without this fellow's reminder, he would have forgotten what he wore on his wrist.

"Thank you!" Zhao Yu thanked him as he lifted his wrist and fired.

Chapter 990: Hello, Mr. Jiang.

Maybe it was because the security guards and hitmen were standing together that they were all affected. Zhao Yu didn't know why anyone, other than the security guard who carried the baton, shook violently and fell over. However, the other people did not fall into a coma but instead only lost the ability to move for a short time.

Because Zhao Yu was still wet from falling into the hot spring before, he also was affected slightly. He felt his hair raise, and his body got soft and numb. Fortunately, the electric bullet's power was not that strong, so after shaking for a little bit, Zhao Yu rushed into the kitchen.

The dining area was currently slow and there weren't many staff in the kitchen. Nobody stopped him and he found the delivery passage immediately. He then ran out of the building from there. The dining area was on one side of the building and the delivery passage was concealed. Zhao Yu thought that the police would not have it blocked off for the time being.

He was right. When he walked through the passage and crossed the small garden, he did not see any police. At the moment, the police were busy dealing with the people in the nightclub. Zhao Yu's detector showed that there were cameras in the kitchen and the small garden. He now had Jiang Ke's face, so the police would soon come to catch him. Zhao Yu had done this on purpose as this was all part of his plan.

After what happened in the meeting with the investors, he had confirmed one thing. They really did not know who the mysterious man was. So, it was meaningless for him to continue to pretend to be Jiang Ke. The most important thing now was to arrest Jiang Ke's remaining accomplices and get out. Therefore, he had called Ma Laodan and asked him to send Jiang Ke over.

At that time, Ma Laodan had already had someone check Jiang Ke's injury. Although Jiang Ke would not wake up any time soon due to his head injury, there were no life-threatening problems. He needed to go to a large hospital for in-patient observation. Ma Laodan was a shrewd man. When he took the doctor to see Jiang Ke, he wrapped a bandage around Jiang Ke's face. Even the doctor could not know who the unconscious man was.

Ma Laodan didn't expect to receive Zhao Yu's urgent notice. He was worried that Jiang Ke would not be able to handle such a trip. However, Zhao Yu was not worried about Jiang Ke's condition. He asked Ma Laodan to send Jiang Ke to Jinbian.

Zhao Yu had taken a detour from Nanjiang Province when he came, so it took him more than 20 hours to get from Yaoming to Jinbian. If Ma Laodan went directly from Yaoming to Jinbian, that would save him a lot of time. After all, it was more than 1000 kilometers. Ma Laodan was notified at 2:00 pm, which meant that he would barely arrive on time.

Zhao Yu's original plan was to steal a car when he came out of the nightclub, then go all the way south to meet Ma Laodan halfway. However, what he did not expect was that Ma Laodan had driven his Great Wall Harvard to Jin'an Province at 8:00 pm, so he could easily make it to the designated location before 9:00 pm. It was for this reason that Zhao Yu had deliberately delayed the meeting with the investors.

At this moment, Ma Laodan was waiting for Zhao Yu in a park with no cameras. Following Zhao Yu's instruction, he put Jiang Ke on a bench. When Zhao Yu arrived, he could change back to his original appearance and leave with Ma Laodan. The police who came to the park later would find Jiang Ke on the bench and arrest him.

Although Jiang Ke was unconscious, the police would know from the footage that he was the person who had caused the trouble in the nightclub. By doing this, Zhao Yu would be able to get away without a hitch.

Zhao Yu had planned his next steps. After Jiang Ke's arrest, he would contact Li Luoyun and secretly guide his work. Li Luoyun could provide medical care to Jiang Ke. As well as getting him treatment, he could use Jiang Ke to cause the mysterious person to appear!

As for what Jiang Ke would say to the police when he woke up, Zhao Yu could not care less! No matter what he said, neither the camera footage nor the investors would give him a chance to deny it. The police would believe that he had done everything! At worst, the police might think that Jiang Ke suffered from head injuries causing him to lose his memory.

Basically, Zhao Yu would not be suspected whatsoever. The only thing Zhao Yu cared about now was finding out the identity of the mysterious person as soon as possible. Otherwise, he had to continue to fake his death forever.

After crossing a highway, Zhao Yu had come to the park gate. Knowing that he was being watched by the camera at the gate, he deliberately held his head in his hands and staggered so that the police would be aware of his location and think that his head had been badly injured.

When he entered the park and came to the unmonitored area, he took out his cell phone to call Ma Laodan to see if he was in place. Although his mobile phone was trampled on by the investors' hitmen, he had taken many other mobile phones from the meeting room. But, because he had been kicked into the bathhouse's pool, he didn't know whether the mobile phones would still work.

While checking the mobile phones, Zhao Yu suddenly realized that he could not let Ma Laodan see him now, as he still had Jiang Ke's face. He wanted to turn off the disguise device and change back to his original appearance. Suddenly, a blue car rushed over from the ramp!

The car rushed out of the lane to the park and blocked Zhao Yu's way. Then the door opened. A middle-aged man with a goatee, holding a pistol, appeared in front of Zhao Yu. The goatee man pointed the pistol at Zhao Yu. "Hello, Mr. Jiang! I've heard a lot about you. I finally get to meet you today!" he said to Zhao Yu with a grin.

Zhao Yu didn't expect this at all! He quickly used an Invisible Bullet Proof Suit. However, the man waved at Zhao Yu, saying, "Come on, get in the car!" Zhao Yu looked the man over carefully and was sure that he had never seen him before. Who is he? Zhao Yu wondered.

Zhao Yu was safe with his suit, so there was nothing for him to be afraid of. Zhao Yu noticed that the man did not call him boss, which meant that he was not one of Jiang Ke's men. Zhao Yu's heartrate quickened. Could this man be the mysterious person that he had been looking for? He and Jiang Ke both had doubts about the reasons that the mysterious man helping Jiang Ke escape from prison.

The man pointed in the direction of the nightclub building and asked, "Mr. Jiang, what reason is there to hesitate? The police will come soon. Do you think you can escape?" With that, he cocked the gun and pointed it at Zhao Yu again. He was obviously threatening Zhao Yu.

Zhao Yu quickly developed a new plan. Good, I'll go with you and find out who you are.
