Chapter 1021: Shameless (1)

“Where is Leng Xiaoyu? Get him out here!” Yin Rumei immediately shouted when she saw Mo Yan and the other two.

“May I know why Vice President Yin wants to see my ancestor?” Leng Ruoxue asked with a faint smile.

“Hmph! How dare he treat Ruhua like this! He’s really worse than a beast! Hurry up and call him out. I want to settle scores with him!” Yin Rumei roared angrily, her beautiful eyes filled with anger. Today, when she saw her disciple’s distracted appearance, she asked with concern. She didn’t expect that she would actually ask such a thing. After she found out, she immediately ran to his door to denounce him.

“Vice President Yin, what did my ancestor do to make you so angry?” Leng Ruoxue asked calmly, her beautiful face filled with confusion. However, she seemed to be clear in her heart that these two master and disciple were really shameless! One had harmed her ancestor, and the other had come to her door to condemn her. Did this white face and red face really take them for fools?

“Don’t play dumb with me. How can you not know what Leng Xiaoyu did?” Yin Rumei said with a look of disbelief. She was even angrier.

“What are you saying? He’s the Old Ancestor of our Leng family. Do you have to report everything he does to us juniors? Or do you have to inform your disciple before you do anything?” Leng Ruoxue asked with a faint smile.

“Hmph! Don’t argue with me. I’m not talking to you about this. Get Leng Xiaoyu out here!” Yin Rumei shouted at the top of her lungs, her face and neck red with anger.

Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but find it funny when she saw Yin Rumei’s angry appearance. There were really all kinds of people! They should be the ones who were angry, but this woman in front of them was actually even angrier than them. What kind of logic was this! Could it be that the debtors these days were really big bosses?

“Xiao Yu isn’t here. It’s the same if you have something to say to me,” Mo Yan, who had been watching the commotion for a while, said.

“Alright! Mo Yan, you can’t protect your disciple. He has done such a thing. He has to give my disciple an explanation. Otherwise, I won’t let him off,” Yin Rumei threatened coldly.

“What did he do?” Mo Yan was also confused. Hmph! He wanted to see what this master and disciple pair were up to!

“He bullied my disciple and stole her innocence, so he has to be responsible for my disciple!” Yin Rumei shouted angrily.

“Do you have evidence?” Leng Ruoxue chuckled. She didn’t know which stinky man Ruhua was with yesterday, but this master and disciple actually blamed it on their cheap ancestor. How ridiculous!

“That’s right! Do you have any evidence?” Mo Yan sneered. If Xiao Yu had really done that kind of thing, she wouldn’t be unconscious now. This Yin Rumei wanted to force someone to marry her lousy disciple, but she didn’t find a good excuse. She really didn’t know what was good for her!

“Is there even a need for evidence? Ruhua has already been... Could it be that Ruhua would spout nonsense about such a thing? Ruhua still has the evidence left behind when they were together last night!” Yin Rumei said a little embarrassedly.

“Ruhua said that?” Leng Ruoxue raised her eyebrows slightly. In fact, she had always had a question in her heart. After hearing Yin Rumei’s words, she seemed to have some clues. All along, she had thought that Yin Rumei was Ruhua’s accomplice. However, now that she heard Yin Rumei’s words, she seemed to be unaware of this matter and only came to look for her after hearing Ruhua’s words. Thinking of this, she secretly contacted Qing Jue to confirm.

However, even if Yin Rumei didn’t know, she was still a brainless fool. She was actually fooled by her disciple and was even used as a weapon by her disciple, so Leng Ruoxue didn’t pity her at all!

“Yes, I also saw the evidence on Ruhua with my own eyes. Leng Xiaoyu actually poisoned her with aphrodisiac in order to get Ruhua. He’s really too shameless. I really misjudged him! To think that I even wanted to marry Ruhua to him!” Yin Rumei said very regretfully. After hearing Ruhua’s cry, she was very angry because she really didn’t expect Leng Xiaoyu to be such a person!

However, after what had happened, Ruhua had no choice but to marry him. After all, in the God Realm, unless a woman had a very high status and could do whatever she wanted, innocence was still very important to a woman like Ruhua.

“Yin Rumei! What nonsense are you talking about? How could my disciple take a fancy to Ruhua and even drug her with aphrodisiac? Could it be that you and your disciple have delusions? I can tell you now that even if your disciple stripped naked in front of Xiaoyu, Xiaoyu wouldn’t want her.” Mo Yan suppressed his anger and said. He hated this pair of shameless master and disciple to death in his heart.

“That’s right. My Cheapsake Old Ancestor can have any woman he wants. Why would he need to drug a woman? It’s already good enough that your disciple didn’t drug my Cheapsake Old Ancestor, yet you still want my Old Ancestor to drug her! Let me tell you! Such a thing won’t happen in the next life!” Leng Ruoxue mocked very coldly. She was really speechless at Ruhua. Even if she wanted to frame her Cheapsake Old Ancestor, she had to think of a better reason, right? However, Yin Rumei actually believed a lie like Ruhua. Ruhua must have some tricks up her sleeve. At least her master was fooled by her.

“You... What are you talking about? Is my disciple Ruhua not worthy of Leng Xiaoyu?” Yin Rumei was so angry that her entire body was trembling as she screamed.

“Of course not, Yin Rumei! I know very well what your disciple did. Now, I can tell you very clearly that it’s impossible for my old ancestor to poison her. It wasn’t my old ancestor who was with her last night, but someone else. As for who that person is, you’ll be interested,” Leng Ruoxue said mysteriously.

In fact, when she went to look for Ruhua previously, she had already read Ruhua’s mind. However, she could only know what Ruhua was thinking at that time. Therefore, she was not very sure if Yin Rumei was also involved. Moreover, Qing Jue had already confirmed that Yin Rumei's actions were not fake. However, no matter if Yin Rumei knew or not, Yin Rumei could not escape this debt!

"What do you mean?" Yin Rumei said warily. She was able to become the vice president of the Artificer Association Headquarters, so she naturally couldn't be an idiot. Therefore, Leng Ruoxue's implied words instantly gave her a bad feeling.

Chapter 1022: Shameless (2)

"Go back and ask your good disciple! At the same time, tell her not to pour such dirty water on my ancestor, or else she will bear the consequences," Leng Ruoxue said with a faint smile.

"Tell her that I won't let her off for what she did to Xiaoyu!" Mo Yan added.

With that, Leng Ruoxue and the other two didn't even look at Yin Rumei before turning to leave the front hall.

Yin Rumei was so angry that she almost vomited blood when she saw the three of them leave just like that. Damn it, what kind of people were these? She was clearly here to denounce them and wanted Leng Xiaoyu to be responsible for Ruhua. In the end, not only did she not achieve her goal, she even got humiliated. Thinking of this, her anger surged to the top of her head.

After realizing that it was boring, she left Leng Ruoxue and the others' residence angrily.

After leaving, she did not return to her room. Instead, she went straight to find Ruhua.

When she arrived at Ruhua's room, she saw Ruhua lying weakly on the bed. Her heart couldn't help but ache again. After all, she had raised her disciple single-handedly. She naturally wouldn't doubt her disciple just because of a few words from others. After seeing Ruhua like this, she swallowed all the questions she wanted to ask.

"Master!" When Ruhua saw Yin Rumei, she struggled to get up, but Yin Rumei pressed her onto the bed.

"Don't move. Lie down quickly," Yin Rumei ordered.

"Master, I'm sorry! I've disappointed you," Ruhua said with tears in her beautiful eyes. She had not performed well in today's competition, so when Master reprimanded her, she could only...

"Why are you saying this now? You have to rest well. There are still two more matches! There's still time," Yin Rumei comforted. Even though she was a little angry that Ruhua was disappointing, now was not the time to blame Ruhua.

"Master, I'll perform well in the next two matches," Ruhua promised.

"Master, what did he say?" Ruhua asked after a pause.

"Who?" Yin Rumei was stunned.

"Senior Brother Xiaoyu," Ruhua said shyly, her beautiful face rippling with spring.

"After what he did to you, you're still thinking about him?" Yin Rumei asked with a stern expression.

"Master, you know that I like him," Ruhua said shyly. She even dreamed of Leng Xiaoyu.

“Then if he doesn’t poison you, will you be willing to...” Yin Rumei probed, but her face was filled with curiosity.

“Master, I like Senior Brother Xiaoyu. As long as he tells me that he wants me, I’ll be very happy,” Ruhua said in a low voice, her head lowered.

“In that case, why did he still poison you?” Yin Rumei asked again.

“He probably doesn’t know!” Ru Hua thought for a while and defended Leng Xiaoyu.

“Oh!” Yin Rumei replied indifferently and stopped talking.

“Master, did Senior Brother Xiaoyu agree or not?” Ruhua asked anxiously when Yin Rumei didn’t speak for a long time.

“Yes agreed,” Yin Rumei said indifferently, but she kept paying attention to Ruhua’s expression from the corner of her eye.

“Really!” Ruhua was pleasantly surprised and much more energetic.

Ruhua did not doubt Yin Rumei’s words. As for why Leng Xiaoyu agreed, she did not think too much about it because she thought that her master had played a role.

“Yes, but...” Yin Rumei glanced at Ruhua and hesitated.

“But what?” Ruhua hurriedly said nervously. She believed that Leng Xiaoyu would not tell the truth. After all, such things were very embarrassing for men.

“He doesn’t admit that he was the man last night!” Yin Rumei said angrily.

“Master, men won’t admit to such things,” Ruhua said a little guiltily.

“I don’t care about other men, but if he wants to marry my disciple, he has no choice but to admit it. I’ve already told him clearly that even though the two of you have an intimate relationship, if he refuses to admit that he did what he did yesterday, then don’t even think about marrying my disciple!” Yin Rumei said proudly.

“Master! How can you do this! Don’t you know how much I want to marry him?” When Ruhua heard that her master was actually interfering, she couldn’t help but fly into a rage out of humiliation.

“Ruhua, what kind of attitude is this? Is this how you speak to your master?” Yin Rumei couldn’t help but question angrily when she heard Ruhua’s tone.

“Master! I’m sorry! I was a little anxious. Master, please forgive me!” Ruhua hurriedly lowered her head and admitted her mistake. She knew that her master had always been amenable to coaxing but not coercion, so every move she used was effective.

“Ruhua! You really disappoint me. You actually dare to blame me for a man. Hmph! You’d better tell me honestly who the man last night was. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being heartless,” Yin Rumei threatened. Even though she only casually asked a few questions, she could tell that Ruhua was clearly hiding something from her and even lied to her! Hmph! She might have doted on this disciple very much but Ruhua’s current actions were something she could not tolerate.

“Master! I don’t understand what you’re talking about! The person last night was Senior Brother Xiaoyu!” Ruhua said timidly. In any case, she insisted that the man last night was Leng Xiaoyu. She believed that Leng Xiaoyu wouldn’t be able to clear his name without any evidence.

“Is it really Leng Xiaoyu? If it was Leng Xiaoyu, would he need to poison you with aphrodisiac? I’m afraid as long as he has that thought, you will automatically give yourself to him!” Looking at Ruhua’s current appearance, she actually felt that Leng Ruoxue’s words made sense. Leng Xiaoyu really didn’t need to do that kind of thing.

“He doesn’t know, and he hasn’t asked me.” Ruhua’s eyes darted around as she came up with a plan.

“Is that so?” Yin Rumei asked doubtfully. After knowing that Ruhua had lied to her, she could no longer believe Ruhua’s words like before.

“Master, you watched me grow up. When have I ever lied to you?!” Ruhua’s beautiful eyes were filled with tears as she said aggrievedly.

Yin Rumei didn’t say anything and only looked at Ruhua quietly for a few minutes. Then, she sighed softly and turned to leave Ruhua’s room...

Chapter 1023: Shameless (3)

“Master!” Ruhua couldn’t help but feel a little afraid when she saw Yin Rumei leave without saying anything. She wanted to get out of bed to chase after Yin Rumei, but her legs went limp and she fell to the ground...

After Leng Ruoxue and the other two returned to Fu Ran’s room, everyone immediately surrounded them. However, no one said anything and just stared at them intently.

Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but be speechless at their curious looks. Did they have to be so cute? Thinking of this, she couldn’t help but want to tease them. She didn’t say anything and just looked at them.

“Miss, why is that old woman here?” After looking at each other for a while, Feng Da couldn’t help but ask.

“They’re here to criticize.” Leng Ruoxue found these words a little ridiculous. They were quite good at blaming others.

“Ah! This is wrong!” Feng Da was a little speechless. How did this woman have the cheek to come and accuse him? It was really unbelievable.

“No, she was deceived,” Leng Ruoxue said lightly, then described the situation in the front hall to Feng Da and the others.

“Uh! She trusts her disciple too much! She really believes whatever Ruhua says!” Everyone couldn’t help but sigh after hearing Leng Ruoxue’s explanation.

“Ignore Yin Rumei for now. As for that Ruhua, dying is letting her off easy.” Leng Ruoxue emitted a terrifying cold aura from head to toe and said in an incomparably cold tone.

“Yes, yes. We can’t let Ruhua die too easily.” Everyone nodded in agreement.

“Little girl, I’ll leave for a while,” Mo Yan said.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded.

After Mo Yan left, Leng Ruoxue brought the freak back to her room. After the two of them entered the bracelet, they went straight to the alchemy room in the Purple Bamboo Hut.

There were many pill refinement insights and some very precious pill formulas left behind by many masters in the pill refinement room. However, Leng Ruoxue couldn’t refine many pills now, so she didn’t touch them. However, this time, she needed to look through all of them. The project could be said to be quite huge.

“Freak, let’s split the work!” Leng Ruoxue looked at the freak and said.

“Yes.” The freak nodded, then started searching the east bookshelf.

“Elder Sister, I’ll help too.” Qing Jue’s voice suddenly appeared in Leng Ruoxue and the freak’s ears. Immediately after, a small figure appeared in front of them.

“Qing Jue, then find the middle part!” Leng Ruoxue thought for a moment and said.

“Alright.” Qing Jue nodded and ran to the middle to start searching.

The three of them searched for nearly an afternoon. At night, they didn’t find any records of aphrodisiac in those insights. However, Leng Ruoxue felt relieved when she thought about it. After all, how could someone like her master, who had the aura of a king, be interested in aphrodisiac!

“Sister, we’ll think of a way. Don’t worry!” Qing Jue quickly comforted her when he felt Leng Ruoxue’s low mood.

“Yes.” Leng Ruoxue nodded.

“Sister, I heard from Little Fire that aphrodisiac poison has fire-type attributes. We might be able to temporarily suppress it with ice and water-attribute herbs,” Qing Jue said after thinking for a while. Even though he didn’t know if Little Fire’s idea would work, he could only try it first.

“Medicinal herbs? Do you need to refine them into medicinal pills?” Leng Ruoxue quickly asked. Previously, she had asked Zheng En to give some medicinal pills to her Cheapsake Old Ancestor, but she had never thought of using medicinal herbs directly.

“No, but they have to be at least a thousand years old. Moreover, the older it is, the better the effect,” Qing Jue explained.

“Oh! Qing Jue, give me a thousand-year-old snow lotus to try!” Leng Ruoxue thought for a moment and said.

“Alright,” Qing Jue replied. Then, he disappeared into the void.

A moment later, when Qing Jue appeared again, a jade box appeared in his hand and he handed it to Leng Ruoxue.

Leng Ruoxue took the jade box and left the bracelet with the freak.

After arriving at Fu Ran's room, Leng Ruoxue handed the jade box to Zheng En and instructed him to get the Cheapsake Old Ancestor to consume the snow lotus inside. Then, her beautiful eyes searched around, but she didn't find any traces of Mo Yan and Old Man Zao.

"Grandpa, where did Old Man Zao go?" Leng Ruoxue couldn't help but ask curiously.

"He was called away by someone sent from Mo Yan," Leng Qingtian explained.

"Oh!" Leng Ruoxue nodded.

At this moment, Old Man Zao was eloquently explaining the principle of his hidden weapon to the higher-ups of the Artificer Association in the meeting room!

However, after he tried his best to explain the dragon-shaped ring, he realized that the judges were looking at him as if he was a monster. This made him feel a little upset!

Damn it, what did these people mean! They were the ones who asked him to speak. After he spoke, they looked at him like this. It was really infuriating. Thinking of this, he complained about Mo Yan in his heart.

It was all Mo Yan's fault for sending someone to invite him. Otherwise, he wouldn't have come!

"Old Man Zao, how did you think of refining such a hidden weapon?" President Lu asked on behalf of the judges. When he heard Old Man Zao say that this ring was a hidden weapon, he was a little skeptical. However, after he tested it himself, he couldn't help but sigh at Old Man Zao's ingenuity.

By refining a hidden weapon into the shape of a ring, everyone would only treat it as a storage ring. Who would have thought that it was actually a trump card! This was really impossible to guard against!

Brilliant! Truly brilliant! Thinking of this, President Lu couldn't help but beam with joy. Even though their blacksmiths were proficient in refining weapons, many of them didn't have very high cultivation levels. If everyone could have such a hidden weapon, it would really be like adding wings to a tiger! The strength of their artificers would also greatly increase. However, he didn't know if this old man was willing to hand over the refinement method. After all, this was something that he had thought of himself, so he couldn't force it!

"I didn't think much of it. I just did it casually," Old Man Zao said with a smirk. He wasn't stupid. There was no way he was going to be honest with a stranger.

"Uh!" President Lu was speechless. This was the same as not saying anything! However, this was not the first time he had seen this old man so cunning. He slowly got used to it seeing it so often.

Chapter 1024: Shameless (4)

"Old Man Zao, how did you refine this hidden weapon?" Even though President Lu was too embarrassed to ask, someone did ask shamelessly.

“I’m sorry, I can’t tell you!” Old Man Zao said coldly. He was already giving Mo Yan face by being willing to tell them the principle of this ring. Now, he actually asked him about the refinement method. How ridiculous! That was his way of earning money in the future! How could he tell them!

“Old Man Zao, you’re also an artificer. Shouldn’t you contribute to the Artificer Association? If our overall strength as an artificer increases, wouldn’t it be beneficial to you too?!” That person continued.

“Of course I’ll be happy if it can increase the overall strength of the artificer. However, what does this have to do with me? Moreover, you want me to contribute to the Artificer Association. Then, I want to ask, what right do you have to request this from me? I’m not a member of your Artificer Association. Also, what’s in it for me?” Old Man Zao said with a mocking expression. Alas! These people were really too hypocritical. They were clearly thinking of using his hidden weapons, but they actually said it so righteously. Hmph! He was not a savior, so how could he interfere in so many matters!

“How can you not be from the Artificer Association as a certified artificer?” The man was so angry that he pounded his chest and stomped his feet, panting heavily.

“Are certified Artificers considered members of the Artificer Association? There are so many artificers in the Divine Continent and even the entire God Realm. Can your Artificer Association afford to raise them?” Old Man Zao asked with a smile and a face full of curiosity.

Did this person think he was a fool? After all, he had been a leader for a while. How could he not know the tricks in the guild? Moreover, being certified and becoming a member of the Artificer Association were two completely different things!

The Artificer Association would usually invite some artificers to join the guild. However, the requirements for artificers who joined the guild were extremely high. Most ordinary artificers had to rely on themselves, and the guild did not care at all. Moreover, the fees for the certification of the artificers were not low, so this person’s words were really not convincing.

“This... this...” The man was so angry that he was speechless. His eyes searched around before finally landing on Mo Yan, who had been silent.

“Your Excellency Mo Yan, say something!” That person said anxiously.

“What do you want me to say?” Mo Yan asked with a faint smile. This fellow had said everything that he should and shouldn’t say, yet he still expected him to say something?

Hmph! He had originally meant well by inviting Old Man Zao to explain the hidden weapon to them at the request of the judges. He did not expect that some people would actually have thoughts that they should not have. If this were to spread, what would their Artificer Association become? Bandits who specialized in robbing artifact masters? They were not that despicable! Moreover, after what they had done, who knew what that protective little girl would think of him! Thinking of this, his anger burned even more!

“We artificers really need such a hidden weapon,” the man quickly said.

“Oh! Then you can refine it yourself! You’re all artificers, so it shouldn’t be difficult to refine a hidden weapon!” Mo Yan said with a wicked smile.

“But... not every artificer knows how to refine hidden weapons,” the man said. In fact, he wanted to say that not all artificers could refine such good hidden weapons, but then he felt that it was inappropriate, so he changed his words.

“It’s okay. You can refine it yourself if you know how to refine it. If you don’t, you can spend money to hire Old Man Zao to help refine it. I believe that as long as the price is right, he won’t refuse,” Mo Yan suggested.

“Yes, yes. As long as the price is satisfactory, hidden weapons are not a problem.” Old Man Zao hurriedly nodded in agreement.

“Uh!” For a moment, no one dared to speak.

“Old man, there’s nothing for you to do here. You can go back first! There’s still a competition tomorrow. Remember to rest early tonight,” Mo Yan said lightly to Old Man Zao.

“Alright, I’ll take my leave,” Old Man Zao said politely. Then he turned and left the conference room.

“Your Excellency Mo Yan, why didn’t you order him to hand over the refinement method? As long as you ask, he won’t dare to refuse.” After Old Man Zao left, that person actually had the courage to question Mo Yan.

“The Artificer Association is not a bandit den. By the way, let me tell you that from today onwards, you will be removed from the Artificer Association, effectively immediately,” Mo Yan said casually.

“Your Excellency Mo Yan, you can’t do this. I’m Vice President Yin’s subordinate!” When that person heard Mo Yan’s words, he immediately panicked and shouted in the meeting room.

“Even if you’re the president’s man, I’m still going to remove you today, lest you embarrass the Artificer Association. And you guys, put away all the thoughts you shouldn’t have and focus on the right place. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being ruthless,” Mo Yan warned coldly. After saying that, he stood up and left the meeting room.

Chapter 1025: Black Star Grass (1)

“Your Excellency Mo Yan, you can’t do this!” When that person saw this, he hurriedly chased out of the meeting room and shouted behind Mo Yan. However, he was ignored by Mo Yan.

Mo Yan and Old Man Zao returned to Leng Ruoxue and the others’ residence.

As soon as he walked into Fu Ran’s room, Mo Yan said apologetically, “I’m sorry! Little girl, I didn’t expect them to have designs on hidden weapons.”

“It’s okay, you can’t be blamed for this,” Leng Ruoxue said very understandingly. As soon as Old Man Zao returned, he described what had happened in the Artificer Association’s meeting room to them. Everyone was very angry about this, but they were still very satisfied with Mo Yan’s performance.

Hearing Leng Ruoxue's words, Mo Yan actually heaved a sigh of relief. Even though this made him feel quite incredulous, he didn't think too much about it. Then, he walked to Leng Xiaoyu's bed and sat down.

"There's still a competition tomorrow. All of you should rest early! Leave this to me." Mo Yan looked at Leng Xiaoyu, who was still unconscious on the bed, and said to the others.

"Alright then!" Leng Ruoxue didn't reject Mo Yan's good intentions and left with Feng Da and the others. However, she still arranged for the Night Clan to guard in the dark to prevent any accidents.

The next day.

Leng Ruoxue and the others came to Fu Ran's room early to visit Leng Xiaoyu.

"Girl, don't worry and go to the arena! I'm here!" Mo Yan smiled lightly when he saw Leng Ruoxue and the others.

"You should rest too! I'll let Zheng En guard here," Leng Ruoxue said with concern. Even though Mo Yan looked good, it was difficult to hide his fatigue. After all, even gods needed to rest.

"That's good too." Mo Yan nodded. Then, he reminded Old Man Zao, "Old Man Zao, even though you got first place in the first three rounds, the competition for the next two rounds will probably be even more intense. Therefore, you must not let your guard down, especially Lu Sheng, who is in second place. His score is not much less than yours."

"Don't worry, I won't underestimate my opponent," Old Man Zao promised with a smile. He wanted to win the championship, so he wouldn't let go of any competition.

"Yes." Mo Yan nodded in satisfaction. It didn't matter if he was selfish or protective. After all, this old man was on his disciple's side! Therefore, he naturally hoped that this inconspicuous old man could win the championship of this competition.

With that, Mo Yan left Fu Ran's room. Leng Ruoxue and the others accompanied Leng Xiaoyu in the room for a while before going to the arena.

When they arrived at the arena, Old Man Zao went straight to the center of the arena to prepare, while Leng Ruoxue and the others came to their seats.

Not long after, Leng Ruoxue and the others saw Ruhua walk into the arena a little haggard.

Before the competition officially began, Leng Ruoxue observed Yin Rumei, who was sitting at the judges' table, and found that even though Yin Rumei's expression was normal, she had a straight face. Even when she saw her disciple, she didn't have a good expression.

When Ruhua saw Yin Rumei, she seemed to want to say something, but Yin Rumei deliberately turned her head away, not giving her any chance to speak, causing Ruhua to be unable to speak.

Leng Ruoxue couldn't help but laugh in her heart when she saw this situation. Hehe! It seemed that this mother-daughter pair had internal strife! Very good, this was the result she wanted, but this wasn't enough.

"Miss, Ruhua doesn't look too good," Lǎo Tao whispered.

"Yes, that's all the aftereffects of the aphrodisiac." Leng Ruoxue's eyes were cold as she gloated. The aphrodisiac was a strong medicine and was very harmful to the body, especially under excessive indulgence. Ruhua belonged to the category of excessive indulgence.

"Then will the Old Ancestor be?" Lǎo Tao was a little worried.

"With me around, I won't let anything happen to him," Leng Ruoxue said with certainty.

At this moment, as the host finished speaking, the fourth round of the artificer competition officially began.

In the fourth round of the competition, the equipment required to be refined was a defensive type. No matter what shape it was, it had to be mainly defensive. The criteria for judging would be in addition to the level of the equipment, the defensive ability of the equipment, the proficiency of the refinement technique, and the aesthetics.

After the third round of the competition ended, there were only 400 artificers who were still qualified to continue participating in the competition. Almost all of these 400 blacksmiths were at the Revered Artificer Refinement Master. In other words, they could all refine sacred artifacts. Therefore, it was extremely difficult to judge. At the same time, this also showed that the Artificers had to be more meticulous and serious when refining equipment.

After the artificers in the arena warmed up the furnace, they threw the materials that they had prepared into the furnace and started refining in an orderly manner.

However, both the judges and the audience were attracted by the Old Man Zao.

This was because the other artificers had already started refining. However, the Old Man Zao was doing this and that calmly without any intention of refining. This couldn't help but make the judges and the audience anxious.

The audience.

"What's wrong with this old man? He almost didn't finish refining in the previous round, and now he's doing this again?" Someone whispered. After the competition began, they were not allowed to make a loud noise. Otherwise, if they affected the artificers' competition, they would be the unlucky ones.

"I don't know. Just keep watching. Anyway, there's a time limit for the competition," someone said.

At the judges' table, there were also people who were worried.

"President Lu, what is this old man trying to do?" A judge stole a glance at Yin Rumei. Seeing that she didn't notice him, he dared to ask softly.

“I don’t know. We’re not the ones competing. Why are you in a hurry?” President Lu rolled his eyes at that person. Actually, he was also anxious in his heart. However, it was useless for them to be anxious! They couldn’t possibly help the lousy old man refine weapons!

“President Lu, if this old man loses the competition, will Your Excellency Mo Yan settle the score with us?” This was what that person was most worried about. In fact, after the first three matches, even if they were blind, they could see something.

“Shut your mouth. How dare you discuss about His Excellency Mo Yan? Do you want to die?” President Lu reprimanded softly. His Excellency Mo Yan was the only Weapon God in the God Realm. He was not someone who could be casually discussed.

Chapter 1026: Black Star Grass (2)

In the God Realm, a Revered Artificer Refinement Master could only be considered a child among blacksmiths. Above a Revered Artificer Refinement Master were a Grandmaster Refiner, a King Refiner, and a Weapon God. Becoming a Weapon God was definitely the highest achievement for a blacksmith. Currently, there were only two people in the God Realm who were Weapon Gods.

There was definitely a huge threshold from a Revered Artificer Refinement Master. If he could praise it, his future would definitely be limitless. Otherwise, he would probably only be a Revered Master Weapon Refinement Master for the rest of his life.

The most important condition for becoming a Weapon Refinement Sacred Master was that one could refine divine artifacts. Even if the divine artifact one refined was only an elementary divine artifact, one could still receive the courtesy of any faction. This was also the dream of most blacksmiths. As for the Weapon God, blacksmiths could only look up to him.

Hearing President Lu’s reprimand, the man tactfully shut up, but his gaze was still fixed on the disheveled old man.

At this moment, Old Man Zao in the arena had already poured out all the materials in one of his rings. When the judges and audience saw Old Man Zao’s actions, their jaws dropped. However, what surprised them even more was the materials that the Old Man Zao had placed on the ground. Each of those materials was enough to make any artificer go crazy.

Because it was a competition between artifact masters, 80% of the audience were artifact masters. When they saw the materials that the disheveled old man had, their eyes lit up. They wished they could take those precious materials for themselves. However, they could only think about it. They did not have the guts to really snatch the materials from Old Man Zao.

A considerable number of artificers who were refining weapons became jealous of the disheveled old man after seeing his actions and the materials on the ground. Which big family did this old man come from? How could he have so many supreme-grade materials? It was really infuriating to compare!

Some of the artificers’ mental endurance was too poor. When they saw the precious materials that Old Man Zao casually threw on the ground, their minds were unstable and they almost damaged the equipment that they were refining.

When Old Man Zao saw this, he even reminded them with a smile, "Focus! Don't be affected by anything. Otherwise, your equipment will be useless."

After saying that, he angrily fiddled with the materials in front of them. Then, he sorted the materials into categories and finally kept them in his ring.

As for the materials that the disheveled old man was preparing to refine defensive equipment, he had taken them out from another storage ring. Naturally, the quality was not as good as the ones he had revealed earlier.

Then, Old Man Zao slowly refined the equipment.

Leng Ruoxue, who was also sitting in the audience, was really angry and amused when she saw Old Man Zao's actions. Old Man Zao was clearly doing it on purpose. However, wasn't he afraid of attracting the covetous eyes of others? She couldn't help but be a little speechless. Alas! Now, the blacksmiths on the field probably weren't thinking about refining weapons.

As time passed, Old Man Zao's on the field completed their refinement one after another. However, the disheveled old man was still adding materials to the furnace. His actions made many people's foreheads drip with cold sweat.

What did this mean? There was no need to use so many materials to refine a defensive equipment!

After observing for a while, they saw that the disheveled old man had placed at least dozens of materials in the furnace. In addition to what the disheveled old man had placed in the furnace previously, there were probably at least a hundred kinds of materials, right? Therefore, for a moment, no one could figure out what this disheveled old man was trying to do!

Actually, Old Man Zao had done this to confuse them. Therefore, he had placed a pile of materials that were basically useless and would not affect the quality of the equipment. The result of this was that everyone was confused by him. However, this was what he wanted. Hehe! He had secretly learned his refinement technique from the girl. How could he let others learn it!

The materials that Old Man Zao threw into the furnace this time were abnormally stubborn and wouldn't melt easily. Therefore, the wait was long and anxious. However, the ones who felt this way were others. Old Man Zao himself didn't feel that way.

Instead, he closed his eyes and dozed off.

"Miss, Old Man Zao is playing tricks again," Cui Zhu said helplessly to Leng Ruoxue in the audience.

"Haha! This is called a tactic. It's used to confuse the opponent." Leng Ruoxue chuckled.

"Oh!" Cui Zhu nodded. She couldn't help but think to herself. The people around the young lady were all cunning. It was really too easy to plot against others.

Just as Leng Ruoxue said, Old Man Zao opened his eyes at the right time. At the same time, the materials in the furnace happened to melt. Immediately after, he began to purify, shape, and temper. The entire set of movements was as smooth as flowing water, causing everyone's eyes to be dazzled.

When there was still a minute before the entire competition, Old Man Zao finally completed the refinement of his equipment. When the judges saw this, even though they were furious, they all heaved a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, it was completed again without any danger! However, if Old Man Zao was like this every time, they would not be able to stand it.

When Old Man Zao walked to the judges' table and handed his equipment to President Lu, President Lu grabbed him.

"I say! Old Man Zao! Can you refine the equipment earlier next time? Look, the others have completed it!" President Lu said with a smile. However, he only said half of the sentence. Alas! He couldn't say that this old man gave them a lot of pressure! If this old man knew that they were on tenterhooks because of him, he would definitely say, "You asked for it!"

"Why? I completed it in the prescribed time. It's not like I exceeded the time limit. Besides, the materials I used are not easy to refine. There's no way to complete it in advance!" Old Man Zao said with a troubled expression.

"Uh!" President Lu was depressed. He thought to himself, "If you didn't know how to do this and that previously, would time be so tight?"

"What I mean is that you can refine it when the competition begins!" President Lu said very implicitly, implying that he should not mess with anything else.

"I am!" Old Man Zao pretended to be stupid and said, "President Lu, take your time to rate. I'm leaving!"

Chapter 1027: Black Star Grass (3)

With that, Old Man Zao left the arena without looking back to meet up with Leng Ruoxue and the others.

After everyone returned to their residence, they went straight to Fu Ran's room.

After entering the room, Leng Ruoxue found an extremely handsome stranger in the room, and Liu Feng, who had disappeared for more than a day, appeared.

"Little Fox, you're back. Where's the old man?" Liu Feng asked impatiently when he saw Leng Ruoxue.

"Sir Liu Feng, I'm here," the disheveled old man replied directly when he heard Liu Feng asking him.

"Go! Follow me!" Liu Feng's eyes lit up as he dragged Old Man Zao out of the room. Leng Ruoxue didn't stop him when she saw this. After all, with Liu Feng's status, he wouldn't sell the disheveled old man!

"Girl, he's Liu Yu, the vice president of the Alchemist Association and Liu Feng's elder brother," Mo Yan introduced him to Leng Ruoxue.

"Liu Yu, he's the little girl I told you about," Mo Yan said again.

"I've heard a lot about you, Little Fox." Liu Yu chuckled.

“Uh!” Leng Ruoxue was a little depressed when she heard this form of address. She even complained about Liu Feng in her heart. It was fine if she called that damned Liu Feng a little fox, but now he actually called her brother. However, Leng Ruoxue didn’t expect that one of the brothers, Liu Feng and Liu Yu, was actually specialized in refining weapons and the other was good at refining pills. Moreover, they were both in high positions. This was really unbelievable.

The Liu Yu in front of him had the appearance of an immortal. There was a faint and distant smile on his incomparably handsome face. However, his bright starry eyes flickered with a trace of interest. It was obvious that he was very interested in someone. Needless to say, this person was Leng Ruoxue!

Leng Ruoxue looked at Liu Yu in confusion. She was very sure that the two of them had never seen each other before, so she really couldn’t figure out why this man was looking at her as if he was looking at prey!

Oh! Stop looking, the freak will be jealous! Leng Ruoxue couldn’t help but grumble in her heart.

“Have you seen enough?” As Leng Ruoxue expected, the freak immediately said unhappily when he saw the handsome man staring at his Xue’er.

“Haha! Is this little fellow jealous?” Liu Yu knew very well that he had heard Liu Feng mention these little fellows before, so he was very interested in them. Therefore, he couldn’t help but take a few more glances. Who knew that he would actually make this little fellow unhappy! How interesting.

‘Little one!’

When the freak heard these three words, his face immediately darkened. F*ck! This person actually called him a little fellow. He didn’t know who the little fellow was!

If it wasn’t for the fact that this man only looked at Xue’er with curiosity and interest, he would have beaten him up until even his parents wouldn’t recognize him!

“I’m not jealous, and I’m certainly not a little guy,” the freak said through gritted teeth.

“Hehe! In my eyes, you’re all little fellows,” Liu Yu said with a faint smile.

“Are you here to treat your cheapsake old ancestor?” Leng Ruoxue changed the topic. Otherwise, she was really afraid that the freak would fight with this guy.

“Little Fox is very smart. I’ve already seen Leng Xiaoyu’s situation. He’s controlled it very well and the poison hasn’t continued to spread. However, we have to refine the antidote as soon as possible. Otherwise, he can only remain unconscious,” Liu Yu said seriously.

“You have a way?” Leng Ruoxue quickly asked. She didn’t know much about the aphrodisiac, and her master didn’t leave too many records about it, so she knew that she could only place her hopes on the alchemists of the God Realm, and Liu Yu’s status among alchemists was definitely not low. Otherwise, Mo Yan and Liu Feng wouldn’t have invited him.

“There is a way, but I don’t have the herbs,” Liu Yu said with some difficulty. Even a clever housewife couldn’t cook without rice! Even if he could cure the aphrodisiac in Leng Xiaoyu’s body, it was useless without the herbs!

“What herbs do you need?” Leng Ruoxue asked. She had a lot of herbs in her hands, but she didn’t know what Liu Yu wanted to use.

“Because his aphrodisiac poison is already deep, not only do we have to double the medicinal herbs needed to refine the antidote, we even have to add a very precious medicinal herb. That kind of medicinal herb can’t be bought with money, and it has long disappeared from the God Realm,” Liu Yu sighed softly and said helplessly.

“What’s the name of that medicinal herb?” Leng Ruoxue’s heart couldn’t help but sink when she heard Liu Yu’s words, but she still asked very calmly.

“Black Star Grass is a black grass with star-shaped leaves. That grass is extremely poisonous, but it’s exceptionally precious. It’s difficult to find even with money,” Liu Yu said.

“After adding the Black Star Grass, any strange poison, no matter how serious the injury, can be healed,” Liu Yu explained.

“Oh!” Leng Ruoxue responded, then secretly contacted Qing Jue and asked about the Black Star Grass. However, the knowledgeable Qing Jue had never heard of this grass. Uh! It was mainly because Qing Jue was not interested in poisonous grass, so he did not pay much attention to it.

“Where does the Black Star Grass usually grow?” Leng Ruoxue couldn’t get the answer she wanted from Qing Jue, so she could only continue to ask Liu Yu.

“The Black Star Grass is a poisonous herb, so it naturally likes dark and damp places. However, the place where the Black Star Grass lives must be filled with poisonous gas. It’s very difficult to find the Black Star Grass. Moreover, the Black Star Grass has been extinct in the God Realm for many years,” Liu Yu said honestly.

“Is there a suitable place for the Black Star Grass to grow in the Divine Continent?” Leng Ruoxue asked again. She had not been in the Divine Continent for long, so she was not very familiar with this place. She had to check the map in many places, so she might as well ask the person in front of her directly.

“There are two. One is the Dark Grand Canyon, and the other is in the Abyssal Swamp. Both places are very dangerous. Even I don’t dare to step into them easily,” Liu Yu said helplessly. In the entire God Realm, these two places were the most suitable places for the growth of the Black Star Grass. And these two places happened to be on the God’s Continent. Therefore, in the past, these two places would be filled with adventurers. However, since a poisonous fog riot in the Dark Grand Canyon hundreds of years ago, many people had gone there to explore.

“Oh!” Leng Ruoxue nodded, indicating that she understood. However, even if she wanted to go there to find the Black Star Grass, she had to wait until the old man’s competition tomorrow ended. After all, she didn’t want anything to happen to the old man again.

Chapter 1028: Black Star Grass (4)

“Girl, no one can go there,” Mo Yan, who could tell what Leng Ruoxue was thinking, said lightly.

“Yes, it’s so dangerous there. How would we dare to go!” Leng Ruoxue quickly said obediently. However, she had already made up her mind. She would set off immediately the day after Old Man Zao’s competition ended.

“Yes! It’s very dangerous there.” Mo Yan nodded.

“You guys haven’t eaten yet, right? Go eat something!” Mo Yan said after some thought.

“Okay, then we’ll go eat something first.” Leng Ruoxue was very cooperative and then left the room with everyone.

“You plan to go alone?” Liu Yu asked after Leng Ruoxue and the others left.

“Yes, I’m a Divine Emperor after all. It shouldn’t be a problem for me to protect myself,” Mo Yan said confidently. However, he couldn’t leave immediately. After all, tomorrow was the last match of the blacksmith competition, so he had to stay behind to oversee it.

“Even if you’re a Divine Emperor, you can’t be careless. That place... just having strength isn’t enough,” Liu Yu reminded. He had been to both places in the past, so he naturally knew the dangers there. Just strength alone couldn’t guarantee that he could escape unscathed.

“Don’t I still have you? Can you watch me take the risk?!” Mo Yan chuckled.

“You! Looks like you’ve long had designs on me.” Liu Yu shook his head and looked at his good friend helplessly.

“Hehe! That’s a must. However, you just have to prepare enough pills for me,” Mo Yan said.

“Don’t you need me to go with you? I’m quite familiar with that place.” Liu Yu looked at Mo Yan and asked in confusion.

“There’s no need. You have more important things to do,” Mo Yan said. He was worried about leaving Liu Feng alone here. That guy might look smart, but in fact, only people who really knew Liu Feng would know how muddle-headed he was. If the cunning and scheming Liu Yu stayed here, he wouldn’t have to worry about Xiao Yu’s condition and could focus more on finding the Black Star Grass.

“Yes, don’t worry. I’ll take good care of your precious disciple. However, I have to remind you that the Black Star Grass has long disappeared from the God Realm, so...” Liu Yu stopped mid-sentence. Sigh! He didn’t know how to comfort his old friend. In fact, he didn’t want Mo Yan to have too much hope, lest he was even more disappointed. However, he couldn’t say it in the end.

“I know what you want to say. I’ll do my best.” Mo Yan patted Liu Yu’s shoulder.

“Do what? Do you need my help?” At this moment, Liu Feng happened to hear the latter half of the sentence and walked in. He couldn’t help but ask curiously.

“After the last match ends tomorrow, I plan to go to the Dark Grand Canyon and the Abyssal Swamp. I’ll leave this place to you. Take care of Xiao Yu for me and watch over those little fellows,” Mo Yan said calmly to Liu Feng.

“What? Don’t you know how dangerous those two places are?” Liu Feng widened his eyes and couldn’t help but growl. Even though there were only the three of them in the room and an unconscious Leng Xiaoyu, he still didn’t dare to speak too loudly lest the walls had ears.

“That’s where the Black Star Grass grows, and the Black Star Grass can save my disciple, so as a master, I have to go,” Mo Yan said firmly. Last time, Xiao Yu was placed under house arrest by Yuan Biao and he couldn’t help at all. This time, no matter what, he wouldn’t miss the opportunity to save his disciple.

“Then I’ll go with you,” Liu Feng said without thinking.

“No, I’ll go alone. You two brothers stay here and help me take care of Xiao Yu. I don’t trust Yin Rumei and I’m afraid she’ll tamper with it.” Mo Yan was very honest, and the unlucky Yin Rumei was used by him.

“Alright then! You have to be careful. Brother, you have to prepare more pills for Mo Yan. I don’t want to never be able to him again.” Liu Feng reminded again.

“Well, I won’t let him have the chance to die there unless he kills himself,” Liu Yu promised.

“Liu Feng, I’m afraid that the little girl will also go to those two places, so you have to keep an eye on them,” Mo Yan said again.

“Yes, I will be more vigilant,” Liu Feng promised very seriously.

At the same time, Leng Ruoxue and the others gathered in the bracelet to discuss heading to the Dark Grand Canyon and the Abyssal Swamp...

Chapter 1029: The Dark Grand Canyon (1)

In the bracelet.

After Feng Da and the others heard Leng Ruoxue’s words, they all expressed that they wanted to go with her. However, they were rejected by Leng Ruoxue because she knew that Mo Yan probably wouldn’t let her leave easily. Once she brought Feng Da and the others to the Dark Grand Canyon and the Abyssal Swamp, she would probably be discovered before she walked out of Flame City.

“Feng Da, all of you stay here to protect the ancestor. Me, the freak, brother, and grandfather can go together,” Leng Ruoxue said after some thought. At the same time, she decided to leave a portion of the Night Clan behind. With them protecting everyone here, she would be much more at ease even if she left temporarily.

“Little Xue’er, I want to go too,” Leng Qianye immediately protested when he saw that he wasn’t among the people Leng Ruoxue was talking about.

“You can’t go. You have to stay here and cover for us,” Leng Ruoxue said. If the Leng family disappeared, Liu Feng and the others would probably sense something. She didn’t want to be discovered by Mo Yan before leaving Flame City.

“Alright then! However, you have to be careful,” Leng Qianye reminded. He knew very well how dangerous those two places were, so he really didn’t want anything to happen to Little Xue’er and the others in order to save Grandpa. That way, even if Grandpa woke up, he wouldn’t be happy.

“Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded. She had so many beasts and the Night Clan. It was really not easy for someone to hurt her on the Divine Continent!

“An You, arrange for some people to stay here to protect them. The others will follow me to the Dark Grand Canyon and the Abyssal Swamp!” Leng Ruoxue said to An You. Even though not all the Night Clansmen had come out of seclusion, the people who had come out were enough.

“Miss, don’t worry, I’ve already arranged it,” An You said. Ever since he knew Leng Ruoxue’s thoughts, he had made preparations in advance without Leng Ruoxue’s arrangements because he knew that Miss wouldn’t easily change her mind.

“We’ll set off tomorrow night,” Leng Ruoxue said lightly.

“Okay.” An You nodded.

“Stay in Flame City obediently. If Yin Rumei wants to find your sisters-in-law, hold it in until I return. When I find the Black Star Grass to save my Cheapsake Old Ancestor, we’ll settle our new and old scores together,” Leng Ruoxue reminded.

“Miss, don’t worry. We will guard the Old Ancestor without leaving the house. We won’t let anyone have the chance to take advantage of us,” Feng Da hurriedly promised. Although he really wanted to accompany Miss to find the Black Star Grass, he knew Leng Ruoxue’s temper very well. Once Miss had decided on something, she wouldn’t change her mind easily. Therefore, he could only accept this fact. After all, they had an important mission in Flame City!

“Yes, alright, the matter has been discussed. I’ll send you out first!” Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile. Then, she sent Feng Da and the others out of the bracelet, in case it would be suspicious if she didn’t see them for a long time.

After sending Feng Da and the others out, Leng Ruoxue turned her gaze to An You and asked, “An You, you should know these two places, right?”

“Yes, I know. I’ve been to both places before. It’s indeed dangerous inside, but with us around, there’s no need to worry, Miss,” An You promised. He had almost recovered to his peak, so protecting Miss and the others in those two places was not a problem. Moreover, Miss still had such a magical space, so he was even more confident.

“Then tell me about those two places!” Leng Ruoxue said curiously.

“Miss, the dark spiritual energy in the Dark Grand Canyon is very dense. It can be said that that place is very suitable for the Night Clan to cultivate. Therefore, our Night Clan used to treat that place as a training ground.”

“However, something happened to the Night Clan later on, and we were all imprisoned and exiled. Therefore, I can’t say for sure what it has become now, but there are many natural treasures there, but...” An You paused and didn’t continue.

“Are they all poisonous?” Leng Ruoxue asked. Since the Black Star Grass was poisonous and that place was suitable for growing Black Star Grass, those who could survive there must be poisonous.

“Not necessarily. Even if it’s not poisonous, it’s not something ordinary cultivators can consume. However, many alchemists like it very much. However, alchemists are weak and don’t dare to take risks easily. Therefore, there are many adventurers in those two places. They specially search for valuable herbs in the Dark Grand Canyon and the Abyssal Swamp. Then, they sell them to alchemists at a high price to earn high profits,” An You explained.

“Oh!” Leng Ruoxue nodded in understanding.

“But Miss, this is all in the past. I’m not sure what it’s like there now,” An You added.

“It’s okay, we’ll know tomorrow. By the way, which one should we go to first?” Leng Ruoxue asked.

“Let’s go to the Dark Grand Canyon first! The Abyssal Swamp is a little far from Flame City,” An You said after thinking for a while.

Okay.” Leng Ruoxue nodded in agreement.

It was already night time after Tong You finished understanding the situation in the Dark Canyon and Abyss Swamp. Leng Ruoxue and the freak hurriedly left the bracelet and went to Fu Ran’s room.

Ever since Cheapsake Old Ancestor’s accident, he had been staying in Fu Ran’s room. However, in order not to arouse suspicion, Fu Ran did not stay in another room.

However, when Leng Ruoxue and the freak passed by the garden, they found Old Man Zao talking to an unfamiliar young man.

Well! Actually, it couldn’t be considered unfamiliar. After all, Leng Ruoxue still knew that man, because that person was none other than the runner up in the artificer competition behind Old Man Zao, Lu Sheng.

Leng Ruoxue and the freak looked at each other and walked into the garden.

“Old man, you have a guest?” Leng Ruoxue knew what the consultant was saying and saw the discomfort on the old man’s face.

“That’s right! Girl, this is Lu Sheng, the representative of the Ascender Alliance.” Old Man Zao winked and introduced, the displeasure in his eyes flashing.

“Oh! I’ve heard a lot about you. May I know why Young Master Lu is here?” Leng Ruoxue pretended to be curious.

Chapter 1030: The Dark Grand Canyon (2)

“Young Master Lu wants to buy a supreme-grade Void Stone from me.” Old Man Zao rolled his eyes and said speechlessly. They were actually competing with each other, understood? Buying something from their opponent and wanting to use it to defeat their opponent. If he really sold the supreme-grade Void Stone to Lu Sheng, wouldn't he be a fool? Or did he really look that stupid!

"Oh! I see! However, Young Master Lu, it's not good for the contestants to interact in private during the competition! Those who don't know might think that you want to operate in secret!" Leng Ruoxue kindly reminded and secretly observed Lu Sheng.

Even though this Lu Sheng wasn't particularly handsome, he could be considered a handsome man. It was just that the scheming in this handsome man's eyes was too deep, making her very unhappy. Moreover, this person was Old Man Zao's greatest competitor. Moreover, because of him, her ancestor was imprisoned by Yuan Biao. Therefore, Leng Ruoxue felt that she had no reason to have a good impression of this Lu Sheng.

"Miss, you're being too kind. I just want to buy a supreme-grade Void Stone. I don't have any other intentions," Lu Sheng said very politely. The surprise in his eyes flashed quickly.

"Old Man Zao, do you still have any extra supreme-grade Void Stones? If you do, sell one to Young Master Lu!" Leng Ruoxue asked with a light smile.

"Girl, I only have a total of two supreme-grade Void Stones in my hand. I used one of them that day, and the other is for tomorrow. I really don't have any extra," Old Man Zao said in a very difficult manner.

"Oh! Young Master Lu, the old man doesn't have any supreme-grade Void Stone left. I'm really sorry to have made you come for nothing," Leng Ruoxue said lightly with a smile in her eyes.

"It's okay." Lu Sheng suppressed his displeasure and pretended to be magnanimous. In fact, he did not believe that this old man did not have any supreme-grade Void Stone in his hands. In his opinion, this old man was clearly afraid that he would surpass him tomorrow, so he was unwilling to sell him the supreme-grade Void Stone. Thinking of this, he could not help but hate the old man.

"Young Master Lu, it's getting late. There's still a competition tomorrow. You guys should rest early!" Leng Ruoxue said with a light smile.

"Miss, you're right. I'll take my leave," Lu Sheng said reluctantly. Since she had already ordered him to leave, there was no point in him staying any longer.

With that, Lu Sheng left under the gazes of Leng Ruoxue and the other two.

"Hehe! Girl, luckily you came at the right time. Otherwise, I really wouldn't know what to do!" Old Man Zao heaved a sigh of relief and smiled.

"What's there to not know? Just tell him that there's none. He won't dare to snatch it openly here!" Leng Ruoxue said disapprovingly.

Old Man Zao wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and said speechlessly, "If he really wants to snatch it from me, I won't be afraid! You know that I'm most afraid of others wasting my time with me. If he continues to pester me for a while, I might sell it to him if I get impatient."

“Haha! You still have to exercise! However, it’s indeed late now. There’s still a competition tomorrow. Rest early!” Leng Ruoxue reminded.

“Yes, girl. I’ll go back to my room now. Aren’t you going to sleep?” Old Man Zao asked.

“I’ll go see Cheapsake Old Ancestor,” Leng Ruoxue said. With that, she went to Fu Ran’s room with the freak. After seeing the cheap ancestor, they returned to the bracelet together.

The next day.

Leng Ruoxue and the others went straight to the arena after seeing Leng Xiaoyu.

As today was the last match, the Artificers and representatives of the various families who came to watch the battle could be said to have set a record. The entire arena was filled with people and was already filled with people.

“Miss, there are so many people today.” Lü Tao felt a headache coming on as she looked at the huge arena.

“Today is the last match. It’s normal to have more people. Moreover, the results of the top two can be said to be almost the same. Therefore, it’s still unknown who will win the championship!” Leng Ruoxue explained with a light smile.

In yesterday’s competition, Old Man Zao had gotten first place again. However, even if Old Man Zao had gotten first place in the first four rounds, his results with the second place, Lu Sheng, had never been pulled apart. And in this last match, if Lu Sheng performed well, it was not impossible for him to surpass him. Therefore, there was still a lot of suspense in this last match! Therefore, it naturally attracted more people.

In the last competition, there were only 150 artificers left. These 150 artificers could be considered elites, especially the artificers who were currently ranked in the top 30 and did not belong to the various large factions. They were even the focus of the various large factions. However, before the final outcome of the competition was out, the various factions would not take action.

On the arena, as the host’s excited voice fell, the last match officially began. At the same time, this also meant that this year’s blacksmith competition was about to end.

The last match was crucial, so Mo Yan and Liu Feng, who had been absent from the previous two matches, also appeared together. Their appearance couldn’t help but bring the excitement of the audience to a new height.

The fifth round of the artificer competition was a competition of spatial equipment. The requirement for spatial equipment this time was that the size of the space was the key to determining the outcome.

The size of the space was determined by the level of the Void Stone. Therefore, Old Man Zao who had the supreme-grade Void Stone was already higher than the others at the starting point. Even though this attracted the jealousy of many artificers, jealousy was jealousy. They could not bring out a supreme-grade Void Stone to participate in the competition.

Storage-type spatial equipment was the only spatial equipment that blacksmiths could refine at the moment. As for those with residence or higher uses, even if they wanted to refine them, they did not have the ability. Therefore, regardless of whether the blacksmiths in the competition refined rings or bracelets, they were all of this type.

At this moment, on the arena, the other artificers were already seizing the time to refine their equipment. Only Old Man Zao was leisurely busying himself. When President Lu and the others saw this scene, they were so angry that their noses almost went crooked!

Boohoo... This Old Man Zao was really incorrigible! President Lu couldn't help but think to himself. At the same time, he cast his resentful gaze on the old man.
